طبعة موسعة

Oxford Wordpower

قاموس اكسفورد

لدارسي اللغة الانجليزية

انجليزي - انجليزي - عربي

Short forms and symbols

abbrevabbreviationadjadjectiveadvadverb

Brit British English conj conjunction det determiner
e.g. for example
etc. and so on i.e. in other words interj interjection

pl. plural

pppast participleprepprepositionprespresent tensepres partpresent participle

pronpronounptpast tensesbsomebodysing.singularsthsomething

US American English
3rd pers sing third person singular

- marks a short note about language or culture
- sends you to a related entry
- [C] countable, used about a noun which has a plural form and can be counted
- [U] uncountable, used about a noun which has no plural form and cannot be counted
- [I] intransitive, used about a verb which has no object
- [T] transitive, used about a verb which has an object

PHEV phrasal verb

idiom idiom

™ trade mark

shows a word from the Oxford 3000 $^{\text{TM}}$

Oxford Wordpower

قاموس اكسفورد

لرارسي اللغة اللانكليزية

انكليزي ـ انكليزي ـ عربي

طبعة موسعة

Contents

Short forms and symbols inside front cover

Preface v

The information in the dictionary vi

Dictionary quiz x

English-Arabic dictionary A–Z 1–887

Topic pages between pages 436 and 437

- A1 Flowers
- A2 Birds
- A3 Reptiles and Fish
- A4 Animals
- A6 Fruit
- A7 Vegetables
- A8 Homes
- A9 Furniture
- A10 Transport
- A11 Shops
- A12 Media
- A13 Musical Instruments
- A14 In class
- A15 School subjects
- A16 Weather and Seasons

Appendices

- 1 Words that go together 890
- 2 Modal verbs 892
- 3 Phrasal verbs 894
- 4 Prefixes and Suffixes 896
- 5 Word formation 898
- 6 Punctuation 900
- 7 Computers 902
- 8 Arabic words in English 904
- 9 Letter Writing 905
- 10 The Arab World 908
- 11 Expressions using numbers 910
- 12 Irregular verbs 913
- 13 Pronunciation 916

نقدم للقاريء الكريم الطبعة الجديدة من معجم اكسفورد الحديث، وهو كسابقه قد أعد خصيصاً ليفي بحاجات دارسي اللغة الانكليزية ممن بلغوا مرحلة متوسطة أو متقدمة.

مزايا هذا المعجم

هذا معجم انكليزي _ انكليزي _ عربي أي أن كل مادة فيه قد شرحت أو لا ً بالا نكليزي ـ انكليزي _ عربي أي أن كل مادة فيه قد شرحت أو لا ً بالانكليزية شرحاً بسيطاً واضحاً، ثم أعطي ما يقابلها باللغة العربية زيادة في ايضاحها. فهو، إذن، يجمع مزايا المعجم وحيد اللغة ومزايا المعجم ثنائي اللغة. وقد أضفنا إلى هذه الطبعة منات الكلمات الجديدة التي تعكس التقدم اللغوي السريع المواكب للتغيرات الحضارية والتكنولوجية في عصرنا.

وثما يفخر به هذا المعجم، الذي اشرفت على اعداده الدكتورة نجاح الشمعة، هو الأمثلة الكثيرة المأخوذة من اللغة اليومية الحية، والتي تساعد الطالب في استخدام العبارات استخداماً صحيحاً، وتوضح له المواقف والظروف المرافقة لاستخدامها. ويضم النص ٢١،٠٠٠ مثال وما ينوف عن ٢٠٥٠ تعليق وملاحظة. وقد حرصنا كل الحرص أن نعطي ترجمة عربية خاصة بكل من الكلمة الرئيسية ومعانيها المجازية والاصطلاحات المتعلقة بها.

وفي المعجم أيضاً العديد من الشروح التي تتناول قواعد اللغة وتصريف الأفعال، والكلمات المتلازمة، والشواذ في اللغة، والأفعال الاصطلاحية، وأصول التنقيط، وكتابة الرسائل، ولفظ الكلمات وصفحات تتعلق بجغرافية العالم العربي. وقد أضفنا قائمة ببعض الكلمات الانكليزية المأخوذة عن العربية. أما الصفحات الملونة، فتحوي كل منها مجموعة من الصور تمثل موضوعاً واحداً، وهي تهدف إلى أن تضع في متناول الطالب وبشكل منهجي بسيط، معظم المفردات التي يحتاجها لمعالحة بعض نواحي حياتنا اليومية.

أكسفورد ٢٠٠٦

The information in the dictionary

Spellings

alternative spelling shown in brackets

The small numbers show that two or more main words have the same spelling.

? realize (also realise) /'ri:əlaɪz/ verb [T] 1 to know and understand That sth is true or that sth has happened: I'm sorry I mentioned the subject, I moor¹ /mwə(r); Brit also mo:(r)/ (also moorland /-lənd/) noun [C,U] a wild open area of high land that is covered with grass and other low plants أَرْضَ بَراحٍ، أَرْضَ مِعْطَاةً بِالأَعْشَابِ والخَلْتِيجِ

moor² /mvo(r); Brit also mo:(r)/ verb [I.T] to fasten a boat to the land or to an object in the water, with a rope or chain

→ mooring noun [C] a place where a boat is moored

American spelling

harbour (US harbor) /'ha:bə(r)/ noun [C] a place

Words and phrases related to the main word idioms are listed together in a section marked 1004.

The arrow → shows that the idiom is explained at the word following the arrow.

Phrasal verbs are listed together in a section marked PHRY Look at Appendix 3 for more information about phrasal verbs.

derivatives of the main word (words with the same spelling but a different part of speech; or the main word plus an ending such as -ly, -ness, etc) ahead of your time so modern that people do not understand you طليمي، سابق لأوانه go ahead (used to give sb permission to do sth): "Can I take this chair?" ("Sure, go ahead."

streets ahead → STREET

وقلات bring sth about to cause sth to happen; to bring about changes in people's lives عندت bring sb/sth back to return sb/sth: You can borrow the DVD if you bring it back tomorrow morning.

bring sth back 1 to cause sth that existed before to be introduced again: Nobody wants to bring back the days of child labour.

Characteristic /ˌkærəktəˈrɪstɪk/ noun [C] a quality that is typical of sb/sth and that makes him/her/it different from other people or things:

The chief characteristic of reptiles is that they are cold blooded.

> characteristic adj: Thatched cottages are characteristic of this part of England. The opposite is uncharacteristic.

characteristically /-kli/ adv: 'No' he said, in his characteristically direct manner. على الوجه المعهود

Meaning

The meaning of words and phrases is given in simple English followed by an Arabic translation or translations. If there are several meanings, each one has a number.

The example sentences help you understand the meaning of the word and show how it is used.

a word which has the same meaning a word with the same meaning used in American English a figurative use of the word (the word is not used in its basic meaning, but in an imaginative way)

Grammar

the part of speech (whether the word is a noun, verb, adjective, etc) countable and uncountable nouns

[U] marks an uncountable noun.
[C] marks a countable noun.
Look at countable and uncountable in the dictionary.

a singular noun

a plural noun

scoop /sku:p/ noun [C] 1 a tool like a spoon used for picking up ice cream, flour, grain, etc.

2 the amount that one scoop contains: apple pie served with a scoop of ice cream

3 an exciting piece of news that is reported by one newspaper, TV or radio station before it is reported anywhere else

Parrive /o'raɪv/ verb | II | 1 to reach the place to which you were travelling: We arrived home at about midnight. • What time does the train arrive in Newcastle? • They arrived at the station ten minutes late. • Has my letter arrived yet?

comedian /kəˈmiːdiən/ (also comic) noun [C] a person whose job is to entertain people and make them laugh, e.g. by telling jokes

كوميدي ، ممثل هَزُّلِي

maize /meɪz/ (US corn) noun [U] a tall plant that produces yellow grains in a large mass (a cob)

• Look at sweet corn.

gnaw /no:/ verb [I,T] gnaw (at) sth to bite a bone, etc. many times: The dog lay on the carpet gnawing its bone. ♦ (figurative) Fear of the future gnawed away at her all the time.

Recoin /koɪn/ noun [C] a piece of money made of metal: a pound coin ► coin verb [T] to invent a new word or phrase:

Who was it who coined the phrase 'a week is a long time in politics'?

Recoffee /'kpfi; US 'kpfi/ noun 1 [U] the roasted seeds of a tropical tree, made into powder and used for making a drink: Coffee is the country's biggest export.

2 [U] a drink made by adding hot water to this: Would you prefer tea or coffee? • a cup of coffee forefront /ˈfɔːfrʌnt/ noun [sing.] the leading position; the position at the front: Our department is right at the forefront of scientific research.

3 [C] a cup of this drink: Two coffees please. فنجان قهوة

roadworks /ˈrəʊdwɜːks/ noun [piural] work that involves repairing or building roads: The sign said 'Slow down. Roadworks ahead.' (ورشة عمل) إصلاح الطرق a noun that can be used with either a singular or a plural verb

Crew /kru:/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] 1 all the people who work on a ship, plane, etc: The captain and his crew hope you had a pleasant flight

irregular plural

Leeth /tu:0/ noun [C] (pl. teeth /ti:0/) 1 one of the hard white parts in your mouth that you use for biting: to have a tooth out o The old man took out his false teeth. o wisdom teeth

transitive and intransitive verbs

Lexercise / 'cksəsarz/ verb 1 [I] to do some form of physical movement in order to stay fit and healthy: It is important to exercise regularly.

[I] shows that a verb is intransitive (is never followed by an object).

يمارس الرياضة البدنيّة، يتمرّن ال eth (o.g. a powor, right, oto)

[T] shows that a verb is transitive (is followed by an object).

2 [T] to make use of sth (e.g. a power, right, etc.): You should exercise your right to vote.

irregular forms of verbs

, , , ,

When the last letter of a verb is doubled before you add -ed or -ing, this is shown.

R draw² /drɔː/ verb (pt drew /druː/; pp drawn /drɔː/) 1 [I,T] to make a picture or diagram of sth with a pencil, pen, etc: Shall 1 draw you a map of how to get there?

The comparative and superlative forms of adjectives are shown if they are not regular.

cram /kræm/ verb (cramming; crammed) 1 [T] to push people or things into a small space:

a note giving grammatical information

Rfunny /ˈfʌni/ adj (funnier; funniest) 1 that makes you smile or laugh: a funny story o He's an extremely funny person (= he can make people laugh). o I didn't think it was very funny when somebody tipped a cup of coffee over me.

Radvice /əd'vais/ noun [U] an opinion that you give sb about what he/she should do or how he/she should behave: She took her doctor's advice and gave up smoking. • You should get some legal advice (= ask a lawyer to tell you what to do). • Let me give you some advice ...

Advice is an uncountable noun, so we cannot say 'an advice' or 'some advices'. We can say: a piece of advice and : a lot of advice.

Using words

how a word is used in a sentence (sb = somebody; sth = something) agree /ə'gri:/ verb 1 [I,T] agree (with sb/sth); agree (that...) to have the same opinion as sb/ sth: 'I think we should talk to the manager about this.' 'Yes, I agree.' ○ I agree with Paul. ○ Do you agree that we should travel by train? ○ I'm afraid

the particular preposition that is used after a word

increase² / mkrits/ noun [C,U] increase (in sth) a rise in the number, amount or level of sth: a steady increase in the number of people taking

The adjective is used only after a verb like be, seem, etc. not before a noun.

Rasleep /o'stip/ adj (not before a noun) not awake: sleeping: The baby is asleep to be sound/fast asleep to fall asleep to Look at the note at sleep.

The adjective is used only before a noun, not after a verb like be, seem, etc.

Style labels show when words are used only in particular situations:

formal (= used in formal written English) informal (= used in informal conversation, not written in an essay, for example)

slang (= very informal) lifelong /ˈlaɪflɒŋ; US -lɔːŋ/ adj (only before a noun) for all of your life: a lifelong friend طول العمر ، (دائم) مدى الحياة

couch² /kaotʃ/ verb [T] (usually passive) (formal) to express a thought, idea, etc. (in the way mentioned): His reply was couched in very polite terms.

'couch potato noun [C] (informal) a person who spends a lot of time sitting and watching television

Choosing the right word and building vocabulary

a key shows that a word belongs to the Oxford 3000 — the most important words for students to know

Rexplain /tk'splem/ verb [1.T] 1 to make sth clear or easy to understand: A dictionary explains the meaning of words. She explained how I should fill in the form. I don't understand this. Can you explain?

a note explaining the difference between words that might be confused

You can see something without paying attention to it: I saw a girl riding past on a horse. If you look at something you pay attention to it with your eyes: Look carefully. Can you see anything strange?

notes giving related vocabulary

Rflower /ˈflaoə(r)/ noun [C] 1 the beautiful coloured part of a plant or tree from which seeds or fruit grow ♠ A flower consists of several petals.

It grows from a bud on the end of a stem.

2 a plant that is grown for its flowers, a flower and its stem: She grows a lot of flowers but no vegetables. \circ a lovely bunch of flowers

نبات مُزهر: زهرة

We pick flowers and arrange them in a vase. Flowers that are given or carried on a special occasion are called a bouquet.

members of a word family

wide /waid/ adj 1 measuring a large amount from one side or edge to the other: The road was not wide enough for two cars to pass. ○ a wide river ⊕ The noun is width. The opposite is narrow. ⊃ Look at the note at broad.

Pronunciation

the pronunciation of each word

emoticon /rməotikon/ noun [C] (computing) a short set of keyboard symbols that represents the expression on sb's face, used in email, etc. to show the feelings of the person sending the message. For example :-) represents a smiling face (when you look at it sideways).

where the stress falls in a word or phrase end-'user noun [C] a person who actually uses a product rather than one who makes or sells it, especially a person who uses a product connected with computers: Programs are tailored to meet the

Dictionary Quiz

Use the dictionary to find the answers to this quiz and you will see how much information is given in the dictionary and how it can help you.

b	Which of these can you eat? a a baguette b a couch potato Where could you find an inbox? What does SUV stand for?	Meaning The dictionary explains what words mean in simple English, as well as giving an Arabic translation. Example sentences show you how to use the word correctly. Abbreviations are listed in alphabetical order in the main part of the dictionary.
	What is the link between hang up and put sb/sth through? Where do you book in – at a library or a hotel?	Phrasal verbs Verbs that have a different meaning when they combine with a preposition or adverb like out, on, or down are given in a separate section marked THE after the main meanings of the verb. Look also at Appendix 3.
	If you lose your temper, should you go to the lost property office? If you give somebody a ring, do you have to go to the jeweller's?	Idioms Expressions with special meanings are given in a separate section marked IDM IDM after the main meanings of the word.
b c	What is another word for inconsiderate? What is the opposite of accurate? Name four ways that eggs can be cooked. Choose the right word for this sentence: I am very interested/interesting in art.	Vocabulary There are notes (shown by the ⊕ symbol or in a grey box) that give useful extra vocabulary associated with a word and explain the difference between words that people often confuse. A note that begins ⊃ shows you where there is more information on related words.
b	Is the word hub a noun or a verb? Is the word information countable or uncountable? What is the past tense of teach? Correct the mistake in this sentence: Most the boxes are empty.	Grammar The dictionary tells you whether a word is a noun, verb, adjective, etc., and whether nouns are countable or uncountable. It also gives irregular forms, e.g. irregular past tenses of verbs, and notes on difficult points of grammar and usage.
b	How do you spell the plural of allergy? How do you spell the -ing form of the verb cancel? How do you spell the superlative form of happy?	Spelling You can use the dictionary to check how a word is spelt. It also tells you about small spelling changes in the other forms of a word, (e.g. irregular plurals).

7a	Which letter is silent in the word lamb?	Pronunciation
b	Where is the stress in the word thermometer?	The dictionary gives the pronunciation of words, and at the bottom of each page there is a key that shows you how to read the phonetic spelling. Look also at the marks (, ') that show you where the main stress of the word is.
	Which word in this sentence would you NOT use in a formal essay? He was gobsmacked at the news. Which word in this sentence is too formal for a normal conversation? I rose early this morning.	Style The dictionary tells you if a word is formal or informal, and often suggests another word that you can use in most situations.
	What noun is related to adjective obstinate ? Which two adjectives can be formed from the verb detach ?	Words formed from other words Derivatives (happily and happiness are derivatives of happy) are given in a group after the main meanings of the word. This section begins with the symbol ▶.
	What is the American English word for drawing pin ? How do Americans spell the word favourable ?	American English The dictionary tells you about words that are different in British and American English, and also gives American spelling.
	Write down the names of three types of ship. Name three parts of a plant.	Topic pages The colour pages in the middle of the dictionary show you words related to 15 different topics. The More to explore boxes tell you where to find more vocabulary on these topics in the dictionary.
b	What is the past participle of tear ? Is a pint more or less than half a litre? What is the meaning of the prefix quad- ?	Appendices The appendices include — a list of irregular verbs — a list of expressions using numbers, including weights and measures — a list of prefixes and suffixes used to make other words.

Now turn the page upside down and check your answers.

			ojiiog	inaccurate	a.
		ther mom eter	qz	thoughtless	and the second
Jnoj	15C	q	εŽ	csilt
enom	qzı	pappiest	၁ 9	dojud to wake a byone
uioi	ez L	ceuceiling	qg.	No, it means you're	3P
pnq/pn/p/jest/seeq/srsik		silergies	6 3	sugry.
oil tanker, terry, hydrotoil		Most of the boxes	pg	No, it means you're	39
Tavorable		146net		at a hotel	qz
rynungisck	BUL	nuconurapie	2000 000 000 000	the telephone	23
detached, detachable	96	unou	29	sborts utility vehicle	οĻ
opanusch	8 6	interested	ръ	ou s combrier	qı
əsol	QΩ	poscued or scrampled.		9	19
доргшяскед	68	Eggs can be boiled, fried,	0	swers .	uΨ

A a

- A, a /eɪ/ noun [C] (pl. As; A's; a's /eɪz/) 1 the first letter of the English alphabet: 'Andy' begins with (an) 'A'. الحرف الأول من الأبجدية الإنكليزية
 - 2 the highest grade given for an exam or piece of work: I got an 'A' for my essay.

أعلى درجة (في امتحان مثلاً) ً

- - 1 one: A cup of coffee, please. an apple and a pear (أداة تنكير تسبق حروف العلة)
 - 2 (used when you are talking about sth in general, not one particular example of it): A lion is a dangerous animal. (أداة تنكير تستعمل للتعميم)
 - 3 (used with sh's name to show that the speaker does not know the person): There's a Ms Mills to see you. (أَذَاةُ تَنكِر تَلَلُ عَلَى عَدَم مُعْرِقَةُ شَخْصَ مَا)
 - 4 (used for showing that sb/sth is a member of a group, class or profession): She's a Muslim. \circ Their car's a <math>Mini. \circ He's a doctor. \circ She's an MP.
 - 5 (used with some expressions of quantity): a lot of money \circ a few cars

(تستعمل مع بعض التعابير الدالة على الكمية)

- 6 (used with prices, rates, measurements) each: They cost 50p a pound. \circ twice a week \circ He was travelling at about 80 miles an hour.
- A2 (level) /ei 'tu: levl/ noun [C,U] a British exam usually taken in Year 13 of school or college (= the final year) when students are aged 18. Students must first have studied a subject at AS level before they can take an A2 exam. Together AS and A2 level exams form the A-level qualification, which is needed for entrance to universities: He's doing an A2 in history. O Students will normally take three A2 subjects.

AA/er'er/abbrev (Brit) Automobile Association; an organization for motorists. If you are a member of the AA and your car breaks down, you can phone them and they will send someone to help

aback /əˈbæk/ adv

IDM take sb aback to surprise or shock sb

يدهش، يُذهل

رأبطة السيارات

- Rabandon /əˈbændən/ verb [T] 1 to leave sb/sth that you are responsible for, usually permanently: an abandoned car يتوك ، يتخلى عن
 - 2 to stop doing sth without finishing it or without achieving what you wanted to do: The search for the missing sailors was abandoned after two days.
 - ▶ abandonment noun [U]

- abashed /əˈbæʃt/ adj ashamed and embarrassed because of having done sth bad خجل
- abattoir /'æbətwa:(r); US ,æbə'twa:r/ noun [C] (Brit) = SLAUGHTERHOUSE
- abbess /ˈæbes/ noun [C] a woman who is the head of a religious community for women (nuns) رئیسة دَیْر الراهبات
- abbey /ˈæbi/ noun [C] a building where monks or nuns live or used to live
- abbot /'æbət/ noun [C] a man who is the head of a religious community for men (monks)

رئيس دَيْر الرهباُن

- abbreviate /əˈbriːvieɪt/ verb [T] 1 to make a word or phrase shorter by leaving out some letters
- 2 to make a story or a piece of writing or speech shorter: the abbreviated version of the story
- ▶ abbreviation /a,bri:vi'en∫n/ noun [C] (abbr abbr; abbrev) a short form of a word or phrase: In this dictionary 'sth' is the abbreviation for 'something'.
- ABC /,ei bi: 'si:/ noun [sing.] 1 the alphabet; the letters of English from A to Z

الأبجدية ؛ الأبجدية الإنكليزية

- 2 the simple facts about sth: the ABC of Gardening (المبادئ الأساسية (لشيء ما
- abdicate /ˈæbdɪkeɪt/ verb 1 [I] to give up being King or Queen: The Queen abdicated and her son became King.
- 2 [T] to give sth up, especially power or a position: to abdicate responsibility (= to refuse to be responsible for sth)
- يتخلّى عن، يرفض (تحمّل مسؤولية ما) abdication /,æbdi'ker∫n/ noun [C,Ú]
- abdomen /ˈæbdəmən/ noun [C] a part of the body below the chest, in which the stomach is contained
 - ▶ abdominal /æb'dominl/ adj
- abduct /æb'dʌkt/ verb [T] to take hold of sb and take him/her away illegally: He has been abducted by a terrorist group.
- ▶ abduction /æb'dʌk∫n/ noun [C,U]

abet /ə'bet/ verb [T] (abetting; abetted)

□M aid and abet → AID

- abhor /əb'hɔ:(r)/ verb [T] (abhorring; abhorred) to hate sth very much: All civilized people abhor the use of torture.
- Department to be abhorrence path abhorrence abhorrent /əb'horənt; US -'ho:r-/ adj

كريه ، فظيع

خطف

abide → above 2

abide /əˈbaɪd/ verb

IDM can't/couldn't abide sb/sth/doing sth to dislike sth very much

PHRV abide by sth to obey a law, etc; to do what you have agreed or decided: You must abide يتقيد (بقانون) يلتزم by the rules of the game.

- % ability /ə'bɪləti/ noun [C,U] (pl. abilities) the mental or physical power or skill that makes it possible to do sth: A person of his ability will have no difficulty getting a job. o an ability to make de
 - ablaze /ə'bleɪz/ adj (not before a noun) burning strongly; completely on fire: Within ten minutes. the whole house was ablaze.
- ?able¹ /'eɪbl/ adj be able to do sth (used as a modal verb) to have the ability, power, opportunity, time, etc. to do sth: Will you be able to come to a meeting next week? o I'll be able to give you the money back in a few days. O I was able to solve the problem quickly. 1 In the passive can/could are used, not be able: The arrangement can't be changed.
 - able2 /'eibl/ adj clever; doing your job well: one of the ablest students in the class o an able polit-متمكّن، بارع، قدير ician باقتدار
 - ▶ ably adv
- able-bodied adj physically healthy and قوي البنية strong; having full use of your body
- abnormal /æb'nɔ:ml/ adj different from what is normal or usual, in a way that worries you or that is unpleasant: abnormal levels of sugar in the blood o abnormal weather conditions
- شاذً ؛ غير طبيعي، غير سوي ▶ abnormality / æbno: 'mæləti/ noun [C,U] (pl. شذوذ : خلاف المعتاد abnormalities) abnormally /æb'nɔ:məli/ adv على نحو غير طبيعي
- aboard /ə'bɔ:d/ adv, prep on or into a train, ship, aircraft or bus: We went aboard the boat and found our cabins. O Welcome aboard this flight to على متن (قطار أو سفينة أو طائرة أو باص)
- abode /ə'bəod/ noun [usually sing.] (formal) the place where you live: They have the right of abode in this country (= they are officially allowed to live there). سكن ، إقامة
- IDM (of) no fixed abode/address → FIX¹
- abolish /əˈbɒlɪʃ/ verb [T] to put an end to or stop a law or system officially: When was capital pun ishment abolished here?
- ▶ abolition /,æbə'lı∫n/ noun [U]: the abolition of slavery in the US
- abominable /əˈbɒmɪnəbl; US -mən-/ adj very unpleasant: very bad ريه: شنيع: رديء
- ▶ abominably /əˈbɒmɪnəbli; US -mən-/ adv على نحو رديء أو شنيع
- Aboriginal /aborridgonl/ (also Aborigine /acba'rid3oni/) noun [C] a member of the race of people who were the original inhabitants of Aus-من سكان أستراليا الأصليين tralia
- ▶ Aboriginal (also Aborigine) adj: Aboriginal متعلق بسكان أستراليا الأسليين
- abort /ə'bə:t/ verb [1,T] 1 to end a pregnancy in-

- tentionally and cause the baby inside to die
- 2 to end sth before it is complete
- abortion /a'bo:fn/ noun [C.II] an operation to end a pregnancy intentionally, causing the baby inside to die: to have an abortion o Abortion is illegal in that country. إحهاض
- abortive /ə'bɔ:tɪv/ adj not completed successfully: an abortive attempt مخفق
- abound /ə'baond/ verb [I] 1 to exist in large numbers: Animals abound in the forest. يڭثر
 - 2 abound with sth to contain large numbers of
- Rabout¹ /ə'bavt/ adv 1 (especially US around) a little more or less than; approximately: It's about three miles from here to the city centre. \circ I got home at about half past seven. نحو
 - 2 (informal) almost; nearly: Dinner's just about ready.
 - 3 (also around) in many directions or places: I could hear people moving about upstairs. في كلّ الاتجاهات
 - 4 (also around) here and there, in different positions: clothes lying about all over the floor هنا و هناك
 - 5 (also around) (used after certain verbs) without doing anything in particular: People were standing about in the street. (يقف) متبطَّلاً
 - 6 (also around) present in a place; existing: It was very late and there were few people about. ، أنحاء المكان؛ موجود
 - IDM be about to do sth to be going to do sth very soon: The film's about to start. o I was just about to explain when she interrupted me.
- Rabout² /ə'baot/ prep 1 on the subject of: a book about Spain o Let's talk about something else. I don't like it, but there's nothing I can do about عن، بشأن
 - 2 (also around) in many directions or places; in different parts of sth: We wandered about the town for an hour or two. في أنحاء (المكان)
 - 3 in the character of sb: There's something about متعلق به ، في شخصيته him that I don't quite trust.
 - IDM how/what about...? 1 (used when asking for information about sb/sth or for sb's opinion or wish): How about Ruth? Have you heard from her lately? o I'm going to have chicken. What about vou? عن، بشأن
 - 2 (used when making a suggestion): What about عن ، بشأن ، ما رأيك في...؟ going to a film tonight?
- a,bout-'turn (US a,bout-'face) noun [C] a turn in the opposite direction; a change of opinion تحوّل للاتجاه المعاكس، تغيير في الرأي
- Labove /ə'bʌv/ adv, prep 1 in a higher place: The people in the flat above make a lot of noise. O I live in a small house above the village. \circ He looked up at the sky above. فوق
 - 2 in an earlier part (of sth written): When replying, quote the reference number above.

3

- 3 more than a number, amount, price, etc: ?absent / absent / adj 1 not present somewhere: children aged 11 and above o A score of 70 and above will get you a grade B. o You must get above 50% to pass. o above-average tempera-أكبر ، أعلى، أكثر tures
- 4 too good, etc. to do sth: She's not above telling a أرفع ، أسمى few lies, if it makes life easier.
- 5 with a higher rank: The person above me is the department manager.
- above all most importantly: Above all, stay أهم من كلّ شيء calm!
- (be) above board (used especially about a business deal, etc.) honest and open
- abrasive /ə'breisiv/ adj 1 rough and likely to scratch: Do not use abrasive cleaners on the كاشط ، مخرّش
- 2 (used about a person) rude and rather aggres-(شخص) غير مهذب sive
- abreast /ə'brest/ adv abreast (of sb/sth) next to or level with and going in the same direction: The soldiers marched two abreast. حنباً إلى حنب DM be/keep abreast of sth to have all the most recent information about sth

يتابع آخر الأخبار و المعلومات

فوق الشبهات ، شريف

- abridge /ə'bridʒ/ verb [T] to make sth (usually a book) shorter by removing parts of it: an abridged version of a novel
 - ▶ abridgement (also abridgment) noun
- Labroad /a'bro:d/ adv in or to another country or countries: My mother has never been abroad. o They found it difficult to get used to living abroad.
 - abrupt /ə'brʌpt/ adj 1 sudden and unexpected: مفاجئ ، غير متوقع an abrupt change of plan
 - 2 (used about a person's behaviour) rather rude and unfriendly فظ ، جاف فجأة
 - ▶ abruptly adv

مباغتة ؛ فظاظة abruptness noun [U] abscess /'æbses/ noun [C] a swelling on or in

- the body, containing a poisonous liquid (pus) غراج
- abscond /əb'skond/ verb [I] (formal) to run away from a place where you should stay, sometimes with sth that you should not take: She absconded with all the company's money.
- abseil / wbseil / (US rappel) verb [I] to go down a steep cliff or rock while attached to a rope, pushing against the slope or rock with your feet هبوط المنحذرات الصخرية بالحبال
- ? absence / wbsens/ noun 1 [C,U] a time when sb is away from somewhere; the fact of being away from somewhere: Frequent absences due to illness meant he was behind with his work. O I have to make all the decisions in my boss's absence.
 - 2 [U] the fact of sth not being there; lack: The first thing I noticed about the place was the غياب ، انعدام absence of noise.

- He was absent from work because of illness. o absent friends
 - 2 thinking about sth else, and so not paying شارد الذهن attention: an absent stare بذهن شارد
 - ▶ absently adv
- absentee / æbsən'ti:/ noun [C] a person who is absent and should be present
- .absent-'minded adj often forgetting or not noticing things, because you are thinking about sth else
- بذهن شارد ightharpoonup ,absent-'mindedly advabsent-'mindedness noun [U] شرود الذهن ، غَفْلة
- Rabsolute /'æbsəlu:t/ adj 1 complete; total: The whole trip was an absolute disaster. O None of the parties had an absolute majority (= more votes, etc. than all the other parties together).
 - كامل ، مطلق 2 not measured in comparison with sth else: Spending on the Health Service has increased in absolute terms.
- Pabsolutely adv 1 / wbsəlu:tli/ completely; totally: What you're saying is absolutely wrong. o Labsolutely refuse to believe that. o He made absolutely no effort (= no effort at all) to help me.

كلياً، قطعاً

- 2 / æbsə'lu:tli/ (used when you are agreeing with sb) yes; certainly: 'It is a good idea, isn't it?' 'Oh. absolutely!'
- absolve /ab'zplv/ verb [T] absolve sb (from/of sth) to state formally that sb is free from guilt or blame: The driver was absolved from any responsibility for the train crash.
- Pabsorb /ab'so:b; -zo:b/ verb [T] 1 to take in and hold sth (a liquid, heat, etc.): a drug that is quickly absorbed into the bloodstream بمتص
 - 2 to take sth into the mind and understand it: I found it impossible to absorb so much informa-يستوعب ، يفهم tion so quickly.
 - 3 to take sth into sth larger, so that it becomes part of it: Over the years many villages have been absorbed into the city. يستوعب، يبتلع
 - 4 to hold sb's attention completely or interest sb greatly: History is a subject that absorbs her. يستحوذ على انتباهه أو اهتمامه
 - 5 to reduce the effect of a sudden violent knock, hit, etc: The front of the car is designed to absorb most of the impact of a crash.
 - ▶ absorbed adj with sb's attention completely held: He was absorbed in his work and didn't مستغرق، منهمك hear me come in.
 - absorbent /-ont/ adj able to take in and hold ماصٌ، نشَّاف liquid: an absorbent cloth absorbing adj holding the attention completely:
 - يستحوذ على الذهن an absorbing story absorption /əbˈsɔːpʃn; -zɔːp-/ noun [U] امتصاص
 - abstain /əb'stein/ verb [I] abstain (from sth) 1 to stop yourself from doing sth that you enjoy:
 - to abstain from eating during daylight hours • The noun is abstinence. يمنع نفسه من، يمسك عن
 - 2 (in a vote) to say that you are not voting either abstention → accept for or against sth: Two people voted in favour, two voted against and one abstained. 6 The noun is يمتنع عن التصويت abstention.

- abstention /əb'sten [n/ noun [C,U] the act of not voting either for or against sth
- abstinence /'æbstinens/ noun [U] stopping yourself from having or doing sth that you امتناع ؛ تقشف
- abstract¹ / æbstrækt/ adj 1 existing only as an idea, not as a physical or real thing: I find it hard to think about abstract ideas like the meaning of
- 2 (used about art) not showing things as they really look: an abstract painting نجريدي
- abstract2 /'æbstrækt/ noun [C] an example of عمل (فني) تجريدي
- IDM in the abstract without mentioning particular people, objects, etc: I find it hard to think about the problem in the abstract.

على نحو تجريدي ، نظرياً

- absurd /əb'ss:d/ adj that should be laughed at; ridiculous; not seeming sensible: You look absurd in that hat. o Don't be absurd! I can't possibly do all this work in one day. حك ؛ سخيف ؛ غير معقول
- ▶ absurdity noun [C,U] (pl. absurdities) absurdly adv: The rules of the game are absurdly complicated. بشكل غير معقول
- abundance /ə'bʌndəns/ noun [U, sing.] a very large quantity of sth غزارة ، وَفُرة
- abundant /ə'bʌndənt/ adj existing in very large quantities; more than enough: abundant supplies of food غزير ، وفير
- ▶ abundantly adv
- labuse / /a'bju:z/ verb [T] 1 to use sth in the wrong way, e.g. dishonestly: He was accused of abusing his position for personal gain.

بكثرة ، بوفرة ، بغزارة

- 2 to say rude things to sb
- 3 to treat sb badly, often violently: Social workers discovered that the girl had been sexually abused by her father.
- labuse / a'bju:s/ noun 1 [C,U] using sth in the wrong way: an abuse of power o the dangers of drug abuse إساءة الاستعمال
 - 2 [U] rude words, used to insult another person: The other driver leaned out of the car and hurled
 - 3 [U] bad, usually violent treatment of sb: child abuse
- abusive /əˈbjuːsɪv/ adj using rude language to insult sh: an abusive remark مسيء، بذيء
- abysmal /əˈbizməl/ adj very bad; of very poor رد*يء* لُلغاّيةٌ auality بشكل سيع للغاية
 - ▶ abysmally adv
- Tacademic / aeka'demik/ adj 1 connected with the educational activities of schools, colleges and universities: The academic year begins in September

- 2 connected with subjects of interest to the mind rather than technical or practical subjects: أكاديميّ ، فكري، academic subjects such as history
- 3 not connected with reality; not affecting the facts of a situation: It's academic which one I prefer because I can't have either of them.
- ▶ academic noun [C] a person who teaches and/or does research at a university or college academically /-kli/ adv
- academy /əˈkædəmi/ noun [C] (pl. academies) 1 a school for special training: a military acad-أكاديميّة ، كليّة
 - 2 (also Academy) a society of people who are important in art, science or literature: the Royal Academy of Arts
- accelerate /ək'seləreit/ verb [I,T] to go faster; to make sth go faster or happen more quickly: I accelerated and left the other cars behind.
- ➤ acceleration /əkˌseləˈreɪ[n/ noun [U]
- accelerator /ək'seləreitə(r)/ noun [C] the pedal in a car, etc. that you press in order to increase دواسة البنزين ، مسرع speed
- Paccent / wksent; -sent/ noun 1 [C,U] a particular way of pronouncing words that is connected with the country, area or social class that you come from: a strong Scottish accent
 - 2 [C] the act of emphasizing a word or part of a word by pronouncing it with greater force: In the word 'because' the accent is on the second syl-
 - 3 [C] (in writing) a mark, usually above a letter, that shows that it has to be pronounced in a علامة كتابية certain way
 - 4 [C, usually sing.] the particular importance that is given to sth: In all our products the accent توكيد، تركيز الاهتمام is on quality.
 - accentuate /ək'sentsueit/ verb [T] to make sth easier to notice يبرز، يوضح
- ?accept /ək'sept/verb 1 [I,T] to take sth willingly that sb offers you: Please accept this small gift. o Do I have to pay in cash or will you accept a cheque? • Why won't you accept my advice? يقبَل 2 [I,T] to say yes to sth or to agree to sth: Thank you for your invitation. I am happy to accept.

o He asked her to marry him and she accepted him. o I'd be pleased to accept your offer.

- 3 [T] to admit or recognize that sth unpleasant is true: They refused to accept responsibility for the accident. يسلّم ب
- 4 [T] to recognize that sth cannot be changed: It is hard to accept the death of a child.

- 5 [T] to believe sth: I'm afraid I don't accept that. It simply isn't true. o She didn't accept that I was telling the truth. يصذق
- 6 [T] to allow sb to join a group, etc: I had a letter from the university saying that I had been يقبل، يوافق على accepted on the course.

- Racceptable /ak'septabl/ adj 1 allowed, often by people in general: One or two mistakes are acceptable but no more than that.
 - 2 satisfactory; good enough: We hope that you will consider our offer acceptable.
 - 1 The opposite is unacceptable.
 - ► acceptability /əkˌseptəˈbɪləti/ noun [U]

acceptably /-bli/ adv

قبول ، درجة التقبُّل بشكل معقول

- acceptance /ək'septəns/ noun [C,U] the act of accepting or being accepted: a letter of acceptance from the university o the acceptance of a difficult situation (= seeing that it cannot be changed) o He quickly gained acceptance in the group (= the other people thought of him as equal to them).
- Raccess / akses/ noun [U] 1 access (to sth) a way of entering or reaching a place: Access to the garden is through the kitchen. مدخل، وسيلة الوصول
 - 2 access (to sth) the chance or right to use or have sth: Do you have access to a personal computer?
 - 3 access (to sb) permission, especially legal or official, to see sb: They are divorced, but he has regular access to the children.
 - إذن رسمي (بمقابلة شخص مثلاً) ► access verb [T] to find information on a computer: Click on the icon to access a file.

يصل إلى، يحصل على accessible /ək'sesəbl/ adj 1 possible to be reached or entered: Because of the snow, the village was not accessible by car: يسهل الوصول إليه

- يَسُهُلِ الوصول إليه age was not accessible by car. 2 easy to get, use or understand
- f The opposite is inaccessible.
- ► accessibility /ək,sesə'bɪləti/ noun [U] سهولة الوصول إلى ، انفتاح

accession /æk'seʃn/ noun [U] the act of taking a very high position or rank, especially as ruler of a country or head of sth: the accession of Queen Elizabeth to the throne in 1952

- accessory /ək'sesəri/ noun [C] (pl. accessories) 1 an extra item that is added to sth and is useful or attractive but not essential: The car has accessories such as an electronic alarm.
- ملحق 2 [usually pl.] a small item that is worn or carried with the main items of clothing (e.g., shoes, a bag, etc.)
- 3 an accessory (to sth) (in law) a person who helps sb to do sth illegal مساعد (في ارتكاب جريمة)
- Paccident /ˈæksɪdənt/ noun [C] an unpleasant event that happens unexpectedly and causes damage, injury or death: I hope they haven't had an accident. a car accident a fatal accident (e when sb is killed) I didn't mean to kick you, it was an accident.
 - DM by accident by chance; without being planned: We met each other again completely by accident.
- Raccidental /ˌæksrˈdentl/ adj happening by chance; not baving been planned بالمصادفة : عَرَضَى

► accidentally /-təli/ adv

بالمصادفة ؛ عَرَضاً ؛ دونَ قصد

- accident and e'mergency noun (abbr A & E) (Brit) (Brit also casualty; US emergency room) the part of a hospital where people who have been injured in accidents are taken for immediate treatment (فتم الحوادث (في مستشفى)
- 'accident-prone adj more likely to have accidents than other people معرّض للحوادث، عرضة ا
- acclaim /o'klerm/ verb [T] to praise sb/sth greatly: The novel has been acclaimed as a modern classic.
- ► acclaim noun [U]: The film received widespread critical acclaim.
- acclimatize (also acclimatise) /əˈklaɪmətaɪz/ verb [I.T] acclimatize (yourself) (to sth) to get used to a new climate, a new situation, etc. so that it is not a problem any more: It took me a long time to get acclimatized to the heat when I went to live in Africa.
- > acclimatization (also acclimatisation) /a,klaımətaı'zeı∫n; US -tı'z-/ noun [U]
- accommodate /oʻkomədeit/ verb [T] 1 to have enough space for sb/sth (especially a certain number of people): Each apartment can accommodate up to six people.
- 2 to provide sb with a place to stay, live or work: During the conference, you will be accommodated in a nearby hotel.
- 3 to do or provide what sb wants or needs: Should you have any special requirements, our staff will do their best to accommodate you.
- يرود. accommodating adj (used about a person) willing to do or provide what sh wants خدوم: متسامع ، لين العريكة
- Raccommodation /e,kome'den∫n/ noun [U] a place for sb to live or stay: We lived in rented accommodation before buying this house. The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 . €...
 . €...
 . €...
 . €...
 . €...
 . €...
 . ↑ □

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.
 . €...
 . ↑ □

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.
 . ↑ □

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.
 . ↑ □

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights are the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights are the holiday includes flights and accommodation.

 The price of the holiday includes flights are the holiday includes flights

Accommodation is uncountable. We cannot say, 'I will help you to find an accommodation.' In this case we could say, 'I will help you to find somewhere to live.'

- accompaniment /əˈkʌmpənimənt/ noun 1 [C] something that naturally or pleasantly goes with sth else (especially food or drink): Chocolates were provided as an accompaniment to the coffee.
- 2 [C,U] music that is played with singing or the main instrument: a violin piece with a piano accompaniment (مصاحبة (موسيقية)
- Raccompany /əˈkʌmpəni/ verb [T] (pres part accompanying; 3rd pers sing pres accompanies; pt, pp accompanied) 1 to go with sb to a place: Children must be accompanied by an adult.
 - 2 to happen or exist at the same time as, or because of, sth: Massive publicity accompanied the film's release.
 - 3 to give or send sth together with sth else, in accomplice → accuracy

addition to it: The letter was accompanied by a cheque for £50.

4 to play music for a singer or another instrument: She accompanied him on the guitar.

accomplice /əˈkʌmplɪs; US əˈkɒm-/ noun [C] a person who helps sb to do sth bad, especially a crime accomplish /əˈkʌmplɪʃ; US əˈkɒm-/ verb [T] to succeed in doing sth requiring effort and/or skill; to achieve: Very little was accomplished in the meeting.

► accomplished adj skilled: an accomplished pianist accomplishment /əˈkʌmplɪʃmənt; US əˈkɒm-/ noun 1 [U] the act of completing sth successfully

2 [C] something impressive that sb has achieved; a skill that sb has accord¹ /əˈkɔːd/ noun [C] (formal) an agreement, e.g. between countries: the Helsinki accords on human rights

IDM in accord in agreement about sth

على وفاق of your own accord without being forced or asked: He wasn't sacked from his job, he left of his aum accord

accord² /əˈkɔːd/ verb 1 [T] to give sth to sb: The diplomats were accorded every respect during their visit.

2 [I] (formal) to match; to agree with: The information did not accord with what I had been told previously.

accordance /ə'kɔ:dns/ noun

in accordance with sth in a way that follows or obeys sth: to act in accordance with instructions accordingly /əˈkɔːdɪŋli/ adv 1 in a way that is suitable after what has happened: I realized that I was in danger and acted accordingly.

2 (formal) therefore; for that reason: We accept that the mistake was ours and, accordingly, have pleasure in refunding your money.

according to /əˈkoːdɪŋ tə/ prep 1 as stated by sb; as shown by sth: According to Mick, it's a brilliant film. • More people now have a high standard of living, according to the statistics.

2 in a way that matches, follows or depends on sth: Everything went off according to plan (= as we had planned it). • The salary will be fixed according to age and experience.

accordion /əˈkɔːdiən/ noun [C] a musical instrument that you hold in both hands and play by pulling the two sides apart and then pushing them together, while pressing the keys with your fingers

accost /o'kɒst; US o'kɔːst/ verb [T] to approach and talk to a stranger in a way that is considered unpleasant or frightening بدنو منه و يتعرض له بالكلام

Laccount / Jo kaont / noun [C] 1 a report or description of sth that has happened: She gave the police a full account of the robbery.

2 the arrangement by which a bank looks after your money for you: to open/close an account o an account with Barclays o My salary is paid into my bank account. o How much money have I got left in my account? o Can I withdraw £500 from my account?

We use a current account to pay for things with a cheque. We can save money in a deposit or savings account.

3 [usually pl.] a record of all the money that a person or business has received or paid out: He takes care of the business and his wife keeps the accounts.

4 an arrangement with a shop, etc. that allows you to pay for goods or services at a later date: Could you charge that to my account?

by all accounts according to what everyone says: By all accounts, she's a very good doctor: مسب كل الراويات ، بإجماع الآراء on account of because of: Our flight was delayed on account of bad weather:

on no account; not on any account not for any reason: On no account should you walk home by yourself.

take account of sth; take sth into account to consider sth, especially when deciding or judging sth: We'll take account of your comments.

Laccount2 /əˈkaʊnt/ verb reason for sth: How can we account for these changes? • I was asked by my boss to account for all the money I had spent (= to say what I had spent it on).

2 to supply the amount that is mentioned: Sales to Europe accounted for 80% of our total sales last year.

accountable /əˈkauntəbl/ adj expected to give an explanation of your actions, etc; responsible: She is too young to be held accountable for what she did.

► accountability /-abilati/ noun [U]: The new law requires greater accountability from the police.

accountant /ə'kaontənt/ noun [C] a person whose job is to keep or examine the financial accounts of a business, etc.

► accountancy /əˈkaontənsi/ noun [U] the profession of an accountant: a career in accountancy (علم) المحاسبة

accumulate /əˈkjuːmjəleɪt/ verb 1 [T] to collect a number or quantity of sth over a period of time: Over the years, I've accumulated hundreds of records.

2 [I] to increase over a period of time: Dust soon accumulates if you don't clean the house for a week or so.

► accumulation /əˌkjuːmjəˈleɪʃn/ noun |C,U| تراکي accuracy / ekjərəsi/ noun [U] the quality of being exact and correct 1 The opposite is inaccuracy

- Paccurate / ækjeret/adj careful and exact; without mistakes: an accurate description of the house o That clock isn't very accurate. The opposite is "acid /'æsɪd/ noun [C,U] (in chemistry) a liquid inaccurate.
 - ▶ accurately adv
 - accusation / ækju'zeɪʃn/ noun [C,U] a statement that says that sb has done sth wrong: He said that a false accusation had been made against him. o There was a note of accusation in her voice (= she sounded critical).
- Laccuse /əˈkiuːz/ verb [T] accuse sb (of sth) to say that sb has done wrong or broken the law: I accused her of cheating. o He was accused of murder and sent for trial.
 - ▶ the accused noun [C] (pl. the accused) (used in a court of law) the person who is said to have broken a law: Will the accused please المتّهم
 - accusing /əˈkjuːzɪŋ/ adj that shows that you think sb has done sth wrong: He gave me an accusing look. معبّر عن اللوم ، أتّهام على نحو يوحى بالاتهآم
 - accusingly /əˈkjuːzɪŋli/ adv
 - accustomed /əˈkʌstəmd/ adj 1 accustomed to sth if you are accustomed to sth, you are used to it and it is not strange for you: She's accustomed to travelling a lot in her job. o It took a while for my eyes to get accustomed to the dark متعود على room.
 - 2 (formal) usual; regular: He took his accustomed walk after lunch.
 - ace /eis/ noun [C] 1 a playing card which has a single shape on it. An ace has either the lowest or the highest value in a game of cards: the ace of الآس في ورق اللعب
 - 2 (in tennis) a serve (the first stroke of a game) that is so good that the person playing against you cannot hit it back (في التنس): ضربة أولى لا تردُ
 - ache /erk/ noun [C,U] a pain that lasts for a long time: to have toothache, earache, stomach ache, ألم متواصل
 - Ache is often used in compounds. In British English it is usually used without 'a' or 'an': I've got toothache. But we always use 'a' with 'headache': I've got a headache. In American English, ache is usually used with 'a' or 'an', especially when talking about a particular attack of pain: I have an awful toothache.
 - ▶ ache verb [I] to feel a continuous pain: His legs ached after playing football for two hours. o She was aching all over. يتألم طويلأ
- Lachieve /ə'tʃi:v/ verb [T] 1 to gain sth, usually by effort or skill: You have achieved the success يحقِّق، يُحرز
 - 2 to get sth done; to complete: They have achieved a lot in a short time. يحقّق: ينجز
 - ▶ achievement noun 1 [C] something that is done successfully, especially through hard work or skill: She felt that the book was her greatest achievement.

- 2 [U] the act of finishing sth successfully; the feeling that you get when you have finished sth successfully: Climbing the mountain gave him a sense of achievement.
- substance that can dissolve metal and may burn your skin or clothes: sulphuric acid > Look at al-حمض أو حامض
 - ▶ acid adj 1 (used about a fruit, etc.) with a لاذع، حامض sharp, sour taste
 - 2 (also acidic) containing an acid: an acid solution 2 Look at alkaline.
 - acidity /ə'sɪdəti/ noun [U] the quality of being
- acid 'rain noun [U] rain that is polluted by acid substances from the chimneys of factories and that causes damage to trees, buildings and rivers أمطار حمضية ، أمطار ملوَّثة
- Racknowledge /ək'nplid3/ verb [T] 1 to accept or admit that sth is true or exists: He acknowledged the fact that he had been wrong. o They wouldn't acknowledge defeat. O It is acknowledged that he is the country's greatest writer. o He is acknowledged to be the country's greatest
 - 2 to show that you have seen sb by raising your hand, smiling, etc: She refused to acknowledge him and walked straight past.
 - يبدى تعرفه (على شخص)
 - 3 to say that you have received a letter, etc: I would be grateful if you could acknowledge my يشعر بالاستلام
 - 4 to show or say that you are grateful for sth: I should like to acknowledge all the help I have received from my family. يعبّر عن شكره
 - ▶ acknowledgement (also acknowledgment) noun 1 [U] the act of acknowledging: I have received no acknowledgement for all the اعتراف (بتقدير) work I did.
 - 2 [C] a letter, etc. stating that sth has been received خطاب (يشعر) بالاستلام
 - 3 [C] a few words of thanks that an author writes at the beginning or end of a book to the كلمة شكر people who have helped him/her
 - acne / wkni/ noun [U] a type of skin disease, usually affecting young people, that causes a lot of spots on the face and neck
- acorn /'eiko:n/ noun [C] a small nut that is the fruit of the oak tree جوزة البلوط
- acoustic /əˈkuːstɪk/ adj 1 connected sound or the sense of hearing
 - 2 (of a musical instrument) not electric: an (آلة موسيقية) غير كهربائية acoustic guitar
 - ▶ acoustics noun [plural] 1 the qualities of a room, etc. that make it good or bad for you to hear music, etc: The theatre has excellent acous-الخصائص السمعية (لحجرة أو قاعة مثلاً)
- 2 [with sing. verb] the scientific study of sound علم الصوت ، علم السمعيات
- acquaintance /əˈkwemtəns/ noun 1 [C] a per acquainted → act

son that you know but who is not a close friend أحد المعارف

2 [U] acquaintance with sb/sth a slight knowledge of sb/sth معرفة فليلة. DM make sb's acquaintance; make the acquaintance of sb to meet sb for the first time: I made his acquaintance at a party in London acquainted /əˈkweɪntɪd/ adj (formal) 1 acquainted with sth knowing sth: Are you acquainted with the facts?

2 acquainted (with sb) knowing sb, but usually not very closely: The two women had been acquainted since they were children.

على معرفة بشخص

acquiesce /ˌækwi'es/ verb [۱] (formal) to accept sth without argument, although you may not agree with it

► acquiescence /ˌækwiˈesns/ noun [U] إذعان، قبول

- Racquire /əˈkwaɪə(r)/ verb [T] to get or obtain sth:

 The company has acquired shares in a rival business. Children do not automatically acquire British citizenship if they are born in this country.

 She acquired an American accent while living in New York. He's acquired a reputation for being difficult to work with.

- acquisition /ˌækwrˈzɪˌʃn/ noun 1 [C] something that you have obtained or bought, especially sth you are pleased with: This painting is my latest acquisition.
 - 2 [U] the act of obtaining sth: the acquisition of wealth
- acquit /ə'kwit/ verb [T] (acquitting; acquitted)

 1 acquit sb (of sth) to declare formally that a person is not guilty of a crime: The jury acquitted her of murder. The opposite is convict.
- 2 acquit yourself ... (formal) to behave in the way that is mentioned: He acquitted himself quite well in his first match as a professional.

يتصرَّف (وفق ما هو مذكور) ، يقوم بالعمل تبرئة acquittal /əˈkwɪtl/ noun [C,U]

acre /'eɪkə(r)/ noun [C] a measure of land; 0.405 of a hectare: a farm of 20 acres/a 20-acre farm

فدان إنكليزي

- acrobat /ˈækrəbæt/ noun [C] a person who performs difficult movements of the body or difficult balancing acts (e.g. walking on a wire), especially in a circus
- بهلواني acrobatic /ˌækrə'bætɪk/ adj acrobatics noun [U] (the art of performing) acrobatic acts
- acronym /'ækrənım/ noun [C] a short word that is made from the first letters of a group of words: TEFL is an acronym for Teaching English as a Foreign Language.

كلمة مؤلفة من أوائل حروف مجموعة من الكلمات

Lacross /3'krus; US 3'krus/ adv, prep 1 from one side of sth to the other: The stream was too wide to jump across. • He walked across the field.

- \circ I drew a line across the page. \circ A smile spread across his face.
- 2 on the other side of sth: There's a bank just across the road.

We can use across or over to mean on or to the other side: Iran across/over the road. But when we talk about crossing something high, we usually use over: I can't climb over that wall. With 'room' we usually use across: I walked across the room to the door.

3 measuring from side to side: The river was about 20 metres across.

all groups, members, cases, etc: a 10% pay increase across the board acrylic /ə'krılık/ adj of a material that is made artificially by a chemical process and used in making sweaters and other clothes

أكريليك: نسبج صناعي

- Ract¹ /ækt/ verb 1 [i] to do sth; to take action:

 There's no time to lose you must act now. The government were slow to act over the problem of dangerous dogs. The man we met on the plane to Tokyo was kind enough to act as our guide (= to perform the function of guide).

 Jeff 1 to behave in the manner stated: Don't act like a fool.
 - 3 [I,T] to perform or have a part in a play or film: I've never acted before. He's always wanted to act the part of Hamlet.
 - ► acting noun [U] the art or profession of performing in plays or films
- Ract² /ækt/ noun 1 [C] a thing that you do: In a typical act of generosity they refused to accept any money.
 - Act and action can have the same meaning It was a brave act/action. Act, not action can be followed by of. It was an act of bravery. Activity is used for something that is done regularly: I like outdoor activities such as walking and gardering. Deed is a formal and rather old-fashioned word and often refers to very important acts: Robin Hood was famous for his brave deeds. It is the word usually used with good: I wanted to pay back the good deed he had done.
 - 2 often Act [C] one of the main divisions of a play or opera: How many scenes are there in Act 4? فصل في مسرحية
 - 3 [C] a short piece of entertainment that is usually part of a show or circus: Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome our next act, the Roncalli brothers.
 - 4 often Act [C] a law made by a government: the Prevention of Terrorism Act
 - 5 [C] (informal) a piece of behaviour that hides your true feelings: She seems very happy but she's just putting on an act.

get your act together to get organized so that you can do sth properly ينظم نسم in the act (of doing sth) while doing sth, especially sth wrong: He was looking through the papers on her desk and she caught him in the متلبساً (بفعل شيء) act.

- acting adj (only before a noun) doing the job mentioned for a short time: Helen will be the acting director of studies while Susan White is نائب (عن) awav.
- Laction / wkfn/noun 1 [U] doing things, often for Lactress / wktres/noun [C] a woman whose job is a particular purpose: Now is the time for action. ○ Look also at course (7). عمل، نشاط أو فعالية
 - 2 [C] something that you do: The doctor's quick action saved the child's life. o They should be judged by their actions, not by what they say. ◆ Look at the note at act². تصرُف
 - 3 [sing.] the most important events in a story or play: The action is set in London during the أُحداث (قصة أو مسرحية) Second World War.
 - 4 [U] exciting things that happen: I didn't like the film, there wasn't much action in it.

أحداث مثيرة، حركة

- 5 [sing.] the effect that one substance has on another: The building has been damaged by the تأثير action of acid rain.
- 6 [U] the fighting that takes place in battle: Their son was killed in action. معركة ، قتال
- 7 [C,U] the process of settling an argument in court: He is going to take legal action against the اجراء قانوني، مَقَاضَاةً
- in action in operation; while working or doing sth: We shall have a chance to see their new team in action next week. أثناء العمل
- into action into operation: We'll put the plan موضع التنفيذ into action immediately.
- out of action not working; unable to function as normal: The coffee machine's out of action معطّا ، متعطّا
- take action to do sth, in order to solve a problem, etc: The government must take action over unemployment.
- activate /'æktrvert/ verb [T] to make sth start working: A slight movement can activate the car alarm. يشغُل، يحرُك
- Lactive / adj 1 able and willing to do things; energetic: My grandfather is very active for his age. O Students should take an active part in college life. o He was on active service for five years during the war (= he served in the armed نشيط ؛ فعَّال ؛ فعلى
 - 2 that produces an effect; that is in operation: What is the active ingredient in this medicine? o an active volcano (= one that can still erupt)
 - 3 (used about the form of a verb or a sentence when the subject of the sentence performs the action of the verb): In the sentence 'The dog bit him', the verb is active. 1 You can also say: 'The verb is in the active'. Look at passive.

Ractivity /æk'tıvəti/ noun (pl. activities) 1 [U] a situation in which there is a lot of action or movement: The house was full of activity on the morning of the wedding. 1 The opposite is in-نشاط ، حركة activity.

- 2 [C] something that you do, usually regularly and for enjoyment: The hotel offers a range of leisure activities. • Look at the note at act2.
- ? actor /'æktə(r)/ noun [C] a person whose job is to act in a play, film or television programme
- to act in a play, film or television programme

- Lactual / wkt [uəl/ adj (only before a noun) real; that happened, etc. in fact: The actual damage to the car was not as great as we had feared. O They seemed to be good friends but in actual fact they hated each other.
 - ► actually /ˈæktʃuəli/ adv 1 really; in fact: You don't actually believe her, do you? \circ I can't believe that I'm actually going to America!

في الواقع ، في الحقيقة

2 although it may seem strange: He actually expected me to cook his meal for him!

في الواقع (رغم غرابته)

Actually is often used in conversation to get somebody's attention or to correct somebody politely: Actually, I wanted to show you something. Have you got a minute? • We aren't married, actually. o I don't agree about the book. I think it's rather good, actually, acupuncture / wkjupankt fo(r)/ noun [U] a way of treating an illness or stopping pain by putting thin needles into parts of the body

بالوخز بالإبر

- acute /ə'kju:t/ adj 1 severe; very great: an acute shortage of food \circ acute pain
- 2 (used about an illness) reaching a dangerous stage quickly: acute appendicitis 6 The opposite is chronic. حاد
- 3 (used about feelings or the senses) very strong: Dogs have an acute sense of smell.
- 4 showing that you are able to understand things easily: The report contains some acute observations on the situation.
- ▶ acutely adv: They are acutely aware of the problem. بشدّة ، إلى حدّ كبير
- a,cute 'angle noun [C] an angle of less than 90° زاوية حادة
- AD (US A.D.) / e1 'di:/ abbrev anno domini; used in dates for showing the number of years after the time it was traditionally believed that Jesus Christ was born: 44AD. ◆ Look at CE.
- ad /æd/ noun (informal) = ADVERTISEMENT: I saw your ad in the local paper.
- adamant / adj (formal) (used about a person) very sure; not willing to change your mind: He was adamant that he had not made a صلب الرأي ، عنيد باصرار ، بعناد mistake.
- ▶ adamantly adv
- ladapt /ə'dæpt/ verb 1 [I] adapt (to sth) to change your behaviour because the situation

you are in has changed: He was quick to adapt to ىتكيف مع the new system.

2 [T] adapt sth (for sth) to change sth so that { addition /ə'dıfn/ noun 1 [U] the process of addyou can use it in a different situation: The car was adapted for use as a taxi. يكيف، يعدل

3 [T] to change a book, etc. so that it can be shown as a film, etc: Tonight's play has been adapted for radio from the novel by Charles يحور، يعد (الإداعة) Dickens.

▶ adaptable /-abl/ adj able and willing to change to suit new conditions: You have to be adaptable if you want to live in a foreign coun-مرن، قابل للتكيّف adaptation / ædæp'tersn/ noun [C] 1 a play or film that is based on a novel, etc: a television adaptation of 'Wuthering Heights'

مسرحية أو فيلم مقتبس من رواية

2 the state or process of adapting: a period of تكنّف؛ تعديل adaptation adaptor (also adapter) noun [C] 1 a device that allows more than one plug to be connected "address" /ə'dres; US 'ædres/ noun [C] 1 the to an electricity supply point (socket) قابس متعدد المآخذ

2 a device that fits on an electrical plug and allows you to use a piece of electrical equipment with a different type of socket: You'll need an adaptor to use your hairdryer in Spain.

? add /æd/verb 1 [I,T] add (sth) (to sth) to put sth together with sth else, so that you increase the size, number, value, etc: Next, add some milk to the mixture. \circ He wanted to add his name to the letter. o They had invited an entertainer to the party, just to add to the fun.

2 [T] to put numbers or amounts together so that you get a total: If you add 3 and 3 together, you get 6. o Add £8 to the total, to cover postage and packing. 1 The opposite is subtract. 1 We often use the word plus when we add two يجمع ، يضيف numbers: 2 plus 2 is 4.

3 [T] to say sth more: 'Don't forget to write to us,' ضيف ، يردف (قائلاً) she added.

PHEV add sth on (to sth) to include: 10% will be added on to your bill as a service charge.

add up to seem as if it could be true: I'm sorry, بقبل التصديق but your story just doesn't add up. add (sth) up to find the total of several numbers: The waiter hadn't added up the bill correctly.

add up to sth to have as a total: The bill should add up to about £40. يبلغ

adder /'ædə(r)/ noun [C] a small poisonous snake addict /'ædikt/ noun [C] a person who cannot $stop\ taking\ or\ doing\ sth\ harmful:\ a\ drug\ addict$

▶ addicted /əˈdɪktɪd/ adj addicted (to sth) unable to stop taking or doing sth harmful: He is addicted to heroin. o He's addicted to football.

addiction /ə'dikfn/ noun [C,U]: the problem of teenage drug addiction إدمان addictive /ə'dıktıv/ adj: addictive drugs يؤدي إلى الإدمان

ing sth, especially of adding up two or more numbers 3 Look at subtraction.

2 [C] addition (to sth) a person or thing that is added to sth: They've got a new addition to the شخص أو شيء إضافي family (= another child). IDM in addition (to sth) as well as: She speaks five foreign languages in addition to English.

علاوة على ، إضافة إلى ▶ additional /-∫ənl/ adj added; extra: a small additional charge for the use of the swimming بالإضافة إلى ذلك

additionally / fanali/ adv

additive /'ædətɪv/ noun [C] a substance that is added in small amounts for a special purpose: food additives (= to add colour or flavour)

number of the house and the name of the street and town where you live or work: Let me give you my home/business address. o She no longer lives at this address. o Please inform the office of any change of address. o an address book (= a small book that you keep the addresses of people you know in) o an email address عنوان

2 a formal speech that is given to an audience

Laddress² /ə'dres/ verb [T] 1 address sth (to sb/sth) to write (on a letter, etc.) the name and address of the person you are sending it to: The parcel was returned because it had been wrongly addressed.

2 to make an important or formal speech to a يخاطب ؛ يلقي خطبة crowd or audience

3 address sth to sb (formal) make a remark, etc. to sb: Would you kindly address any complaints you have to the manager.

4 to talk or write to sb using a particular name or title: She prefers to be addressed as 'Ms'. يخاطب (بلقب)

5 address yourself to sth (formal) to try to deal with a problem, etc: He had to address himself to the task of finding a new job. ينصرف إلى ، يجدُّ في adept /a'dept/ adj adept (at sth) very good or بارع ، حاذق skilful at sth

Radequate /'ædikwət/ adj 1 enough for what you need: The food they eat is barely adequate to keep them alive. o Make sure you take an ad-كأف equate supply of water with you.

2 good enough; acceptable: Your work is adequate but I'm sure you could do better. واف (بالحاجة) ؛ لا بأس به

The opposite is inadequate.

▶ adequacy /ˈædɪkwəsi/ noun [U]

كفاية ، وفاء (بالحاجة) adequately adv: The work has been done adequately, but not well. o The mystery has never been adequately explained.

adhere → admit

11

- adhere /ədˈhɪə(r)/ verb [I] (formal) 1 adhere (to sth) to stick firmly: Make sure that the paper adheres firmly to the wall.
- 2 adhere to sth to continue to support an idea, etc.; to follow a rule: This rule has never been strictly adhered to by members of staff.
- adherence /-ons/ noun [U]: His adherence to his principles cost him his job.
- adhesive /əd'hi:sɪv/ noun [C] a substance that makes things stick together: a fast-drying adhesive
- ► adhesive adj that can stick, or can cause two things to stick together: He sealed the parcel with adhesive tape.
 (شريط) لزاق أو لاصق
- ad hoc /,æd 'hok/ adj made or formed for a particular purpose: They set up an ad hoc committee to discuss the matter.
- adjacent /aˈdʒeɪsnt/ adj situated next to or close to sth: There was a fire in the adjacent building.

 o She works in the office adjacent to mine.
- adjective /ˈædʒɪktɪv/ noun [C] (grammar) a word used with a noun that tells you more about it: The adjective 'asleep' cannot come before a noun.
 - adjectival /,ædʒek'taɪvl/ adj that contains or is used like an adjective: an adjectival phrase وصفي . نعتي وصفي . نعتي
 . نعتی
 . نیتی
 . نیتی
- adjoining /əˈdʒɔɪnɪŋ/ adj joining sth or situated next or nearest to sth: A scream came from the adjoining room.
- adjourn /a'dʒɜːn/ verb [I.T] to stop sth (a meeting, a trial, etc.) for a short period of time and start it again later: This court will adjourn until tomorrow. o The meeting was adjourned until the following week.
- ► adjournment noun [C]: The lawyers asked for an adjournment.
- adjudicate /əˈdʒuːdɪkeɪt/ verb [I.T] (formal) to act as an official judge in a competition or to decide who is right when two sides disagree about sth
- adjudicator noun [C] a person who acts as a judge, especially in a competition
- Radjust /əˈdʒʌst/verb 1 [T] to change sth slightly, especially because it is not in the right position:

 There's something wrong with the brakes on the car they need adjusting. The figures have been adjusted to take account of inflation.
 - 2 [I] adjust (to sth) to get used to new conditions or a new situation: She found it hard to adjust to working at night.

 يتأقام مع يتعود على
 - ► adjustable /-ebl/ adj that can be adjusted: an adjustable mirror قابل التعديل أو الضبط adjustment noun [C,U]
 - ad lib /æd 'lıb/ adj, adv done or spoken without preparation: She had to speak ad lib because she couldn't find her notes.
 - b ad lib verb [I] (ad libbing; ad libbed) جل
 - administer /admmsta(r)/ verb [T] 1 to control

- or manage sth: The system is very complicated and difficult to administer.
- 2 (formal) to make sb take sth (especially medicine): The doctor administered a pain-killing drug.
- administration /ad,mini'streisn/ noun 1 [U] the control or management of sth (e.g. a system, an organization or a business): The administration of a large project like this is very complicated.
- 2 [sing.] the group of people who organize or control sth: the hospital administration
- 3 often the Administration [C] the government of a country, especially the USA: the Bush Administration
- Administrative /əd'mɪnɪstrətɪv; US -stretɪv/adj connected with the organization and management of a country or business, etc: London is still the most important administrative centre.
 an administrative assistant
- administrator /ədˈmɪnɪstreɪtə(r)/ noun [C] a person whose job is to organize or manage a system, a business, etc.
- admirable /ˈædmərəbl/ adj deserving admiration or praise: an admirable example of good planning جدير بالإعجاب، رائع
- > admirably /-abli/ adv: She dealt with the problem admirably.
- admiral /ˈædmərəl/ noun [C] an officer of very high rank in the navy who commands a group (fleet) of ships
- admiration /ˌædməˈreɪʃn/ noun [U] a feeling that you have when you like and respect sb/sth very much: I have great admiration for his work.

 yellique

 yellique
- ? admire /ad'maio(r)/ verb [T] to respect or like sb/sth very much; to look at sb/sth with pleasure: Everyone admired the way he dealt with the problem. o I've always admired her for being such a wonderful mother: o We walked round the house, admiring the furniture and decorations.
 - معجب بنيتانل معجباً • admirer noun [C] a person who admires sb/ sth
 - admiring adj feeling or expressing admiration: an admiring look معبّر عن الإعجاب admiringly adv
 - admission /ədˈmɪʃn/ noun 1 [C,U] permission to enter a school, club, public place, etc: Admissions to British universities have increased by 15% this year. o All those who were not wearing a tie were refused admission to the club.
 - 2 [U] the amount of money that you pay to enter a place: The museum charges £3 admission.
 - رسم الدخول
 - ${f 3}$ [C] a statement that something, usually unpleasant, is true: I viewed her silence as an admission of guilt.
- ? admit /əd'mɪt/ verb (admitting; admitted) 1 [I,T] admit to sth/doing sth; admit (that...) to agree, often without wanting to, that sth is true:

admittance → adventure

admit your mistake. o I have to admit that I was wrong. o 'I was wrong,' he admitted. o She admitted having broken the vase. يقرّ ، يعترف

2 [T] admit sb/sth (into/to sth) to allow sb/sth to enter; to take sb into a place: I have a ticket that admits a member plus one guest to the gardens. O He was admitted to hospital with suspected appendicitis. يسمح بالدخول ؛ يدُخل

▶ admittedly adv it must be admitted (that): The work is very interesting. Admittedly, I do get admittance /əd'mɪtns/ noun [U] being allowed to enter a place (especially a private one); the right to enter: The journalist tried to gain admittance to the minister's office. O No admittance (= as a warning on a door that people should keep out). دخول : حقُّ الدخول adolescence / wdə'lesns/ noun [U] the period of a person's life between being a child and becoming an adult, i.e. between the ages of about (سن) المراهقة 13 and 17

▶ adolescent / ædə'lesnt/ noun [C] a young person who is no longer a child and not yet an adult: the problems of adolescents o an adolescent daughter 2 Look at teenager.

Radopt /ə'dopt/ verb 1 [I,T] to take a child into your family and treat him/her as your own child by law

2 [T] to take and use sth: She decided not to adopt her husband's name when she got married. o All his suggestions have been adopted.

▶ adopted adj: an adopted child

متبنّی ، (طفل) بالتبنّي adoption /ə'dɒpʃn/ noun [C,U]: The party is considering the adoption of a new transport policy. O We can't have children so we're interested in adoption. o The number of adoptions has risen in the past year (= the number of children being adopted).

adoptive /ə'doptiv/ adj

adorable /ə'də:rəbl/ adj (used for expressing affection for a child or animal) very attractive محبوب ؛ جذَّاب

adore /ə'də:(r)/verb [T] 1 to love and admire sb/ sth very much: Kim adores her older sister. ىحب بشغف؛ يعشق

2 (informal) to like sth very much: I adore يهوي، يولع ب strawberries.

عشق، عبادة ▶ adoration / ædəˈreɪʃn/ noun [U] adorn /ə'də:n/ verb [T] to add sth in order to make a thing or person more attractive or beautiful: a building adorned with flags adrenalin /ə'drenəlm/ noun [U] a substance that your body produces when you are very angry, frightened or excited and that makes your heart beat faster adrift /ə'drıft/ adj (not before a noun) not tied to anything or controlled by anybody (used about a (قارب) سائب boat)

He refused to admit to the theft. • You should ?adult /'ædalt; ə'dalt/ noun [C] a person or animal that is fully grown: This film is suitable for both adults and children. بالغي اشد ▶ adult adj: She was born here but has spent her ناضج ، راشد adult life in Chile.

adultery /ə'daltəri/ noun [U] sexual relations between a person who is married and sb who is not that person's wife/husband

Radvance /ad'va:ns; US -'væns/ verb 1 [I] to move forward: The army advanced towards the city. 2 Look at retreat. يتقدم نحو

2 [I,T] to make progress or help sth make progress: Our research has not advanced much يتقدّم ؛ يساعد على تقدّمه recently.

▶ advanced adj 1 of a high level: an advanced متقدّم ؛ على مستوى عال English class

2 highly developed: a country that is not very advanced industrially متقدم ، متطور

?advance2 /əd'va:ns; US -'væns/ noun 1 [C, usually sing.] forward movement: the army's advance towards the border تقدم، زحف

2 [C,U] progress in sth: advances in computer technology

3 [C] an amount of money that is paid to sb before the time when it is usually paid سلفة IDM in advance (of sth) before a particular time or event: You should book tickets for the concert well in advance.

advance3 /əd'va:ns; US -'væns/ adj (only before a noun) that happens before sth: There was no advance warning of the earthquake

Ad'vanced level = A LEVEL

Radvantage /əd'vo:ntid3; US -'væn-/ noun 1 [C] an advantage (over sb) something that may help you to do better than other people: Her secretarial experience gave her an advantage over the other people applying for the job. \circ Our team had the advantage of playing at our home ground.

ميزة، أفضلنة

2 [C,U] something that helps you or that will bring you a good result: the advantages and disadvantages of a plan o The traffic is so bad here that there is no advantage in having a car.

The opposite is disadvantage.

IDM take advantage of sth 1 to make good or full use of sth: Take advantage of the cheap prices يستفيد من ، ينتهز الفرصة while they last.

2 to make unfair use of sb or of sb's kindness. etc. in order to get what you want: You shouldn't let him take advantage of you like this. يستغل

▶ advantageous /,ædvən'teidʒəs/ adj that will help you or bring you a good result

مفيد : موات ؛ مربح

advent / advent/ noun [sing.] 1 (formal) the arrival or coming of sb/sth: This area was very isolated before the advent of the railway.

2 Advent (in the Christian year) the period which includes the four Sundays before Christ-الأسابيع الأربعة قبل عيد ألميلاد

Radventure /od'ventfo(r)/ noun [C,U] an experience or event that is very unusual, exciting or dangerous: She left home to travel, hoping for excitement and adventure. o an adventure story

مغامرة:مخاطرة ► adventurous adj 1 (used about a person) liking to try new things or have adventures مغامر: محب التحريب الأشياء الجديدة

2 involving adventure: For a more adventurous holiday try mountain climbing.

مثير ، مليء بالمغامرات

عبارة ظرفية

adverb /'ædv3:b/ noun [C] a word that adds information to a verb, adjective, phrase or another adverb. In the sentence 'Please speak slowly', 'slowly' is an adverb. o 'Happily', 'well', 'always, 'very' and 'too' are all adverbs.

▶ adverbial /æd'vɜ:biəl/ adj used like an adverb: 'In the afternoon' is an adverbial phrase.

adversary /ˈædvəsəri; US-seri/ noun [C] (pl. adversaries) (formal) an enemy, or an opponent in a competition adverse /'ædv3:s/ adj (formal) making sth difficult for sb; not favourable: Our flight was cancelled because of adverse weather conditions.

معاد : معاكس على نحو سين على نحو سين adversity /adva:sati/ noun [C,U] (pl. adversities) (formal) difficulties or problems: to show strength in the face of adversity

? advert /'ædv3:t/ noun [C] (Brit informal) = ADVER-TISEMENT

Radvertise /ˈædvətaɪz/ verb 1 [1.T] to put information in a newspaper, on television, on a poster, etc. in order to persuade people to buy sth, apply for a job, etc: a poster advertising a new type of biscuit o The job was advertised in the local newspapers. o It's very expensive to advertise on television.

2 [1] advertise for sb/sth to say publicly in a newspaper, on a noticeboard, etc. that you need sb to do a particular job, want to buy sth, etc. The shop is advertising for a part-time sales assistant.

advertising noun [U]: The magazine gets a lot of money from advertising. ○ an advertising campaign

Radvice /əd'vais/ noun [U] an opinion that you give sb about what he/she should do or how he/she should behave: She took her doctor's advice and gave up smoking. You should get some legal advice (= ask a lawyer to tell you what to do). Let me give you some advice ...

Advice is an uncountable noun, so we cannot say 'an advice' or 'some advices'. We can say: a piece of advice and: a lot of advice.

advisable /ədˈvaɪzəbl/ adj (formal) that sb would recommend you to do; sensible: It is advisable to reserve a seat.

Ladvise /əd'vaız/ verb 1 [I.T] advise (sb) (to do sth); advise (sb) (against sth/against doing sth) to tell sb what you think he/she should do: I would strongly advise you to take the job. • They advised us not to travel on a Friday. • The newspaper article advised against buying a house in that area. • He did what the doctor advised. • She advises the Government on economic affairs.

ینصح: یشیر علی 2 [T] (formal) to inform sb: We would like to advise you that the goods are now ready for collection.

Adviser (US advisor) noun [C] a person who gives advice to a company, government, etc: an adviser on economic affairs advisory /ədˈvatzəri/ adj giving advice only; not having the power to make decisions: an advisory committee advocate /ˈædvəkeɪt/ verb [T] (formal) to recommend or say that you support a particular plan or action: The Minister advocated a reform of the tax system.

Advocate /'ædvəkət/ noun [C] 1 advocate (of sth) a person who supports a particular plan or action, especially in public: an advocate of nuclear disarmament

2 a lawyer who defends sb in a court of law محامي دفاع

A & E / ei and 'i: / abbrev = Accident and Emergency aerial¹ /ˈeəriəl/ (especially US antenna) noun [C] a long metal stick on a building, car, etc. that receives radio or television signals

aerial² /'eəriəl/ adj 1 from or in the air: an aerial attack on the city o aerial warfare جوي 2 taken from an aircraft: an aerial photograph

2 taken from an aircraft: an aerial photograph of the village aerobics /eə'rəubiks/ noun [U] energetic physical exercises that increase the amount of oxygen in your blood. Aerobics is often done to music: I do aerobics twice a week to keep fit.

تمرينات رياضية

aerodynamics /ˌeərəʊdarˈnæmɪks/ noun [U] the scientific study of the way that things move through the air ملاياميك الهوائي aerodynamic adj

aeroplane /'eərəplein/ noun [C] = PLANE

aerosol /ˈeərəsɒl; US -sɔːl/ noun [C] a container in which a liquid substance is kept under pressure. When you press a button the liquid comes out in a fine spray.

aesthetic /iːsˈθetɪk/ (US also esthetic /es-'θetɪk/) adj involving people's sense of beauty: The columns are there for purely aesthetic reasons (= only to look beautiful).

» aesthetically (US also esthetically) /-kli/adv: to be aesthetically pleasing afar /əˈfɑ:(r)/ adv (formal) affair → afraid

Em from afar from a long distance away: The lights of the city were visible from afar.

R affair /əˈfeə(r)/ noun 1 [C] an event or situation: The wedding was a very grand affair o The whole affair has been extremely unpleasant.

2 affairs [plural] important personal, business, national, etc. matters: The organization should have control of its own financial affairs. o the Irish minister for foreign affairs o current affairs (= the political and social events that are happening at the present time)

3 [sing.] something private that you do not want other people to know about: What happened between us is my affair. I don't want to discuss it.

4 [C] a sexual relationship between two people who are not married to each other: They are having an affair.

IDM state of affairs → STATE¹

Raffect /ə'fekt/ verb [T] 1 to influence or cause sb/sth to change in a particular way: Her personal problems seem to be affecting her work. • Loud music can affect your hearing. • Look at the note at influence.

2 to cause sb to feel very sad, angry, etc: The whole community was affected by the terrible tragedy.

يوْتُرْ فِي بِحِنْ ؛ يَضِرُ ؛

Notice that affect is a verb and effect is a noun: Smoking can affect your health. • Smoking can have a bad effect on your health.

affected /əˈfektɪd/ adj (used about a person or a person's behaviour) not natural or sincere

➤ affectation /ˌæfekˈteɪʃn/ noun [C,U] تَصنَع. نظاهـ

? affection /ofeksn/ noun [U] affection (for/towards sb/sth) a feeling of loving or liking sb/sth: Mark felt great affection for his sister.

حب، حنان ، موذة عffectionate /əˈfekʃənət/ adj showing that you love or like sb very much: a very affectionate child affectionately adv: He looked at her affectionately affiliate /aˈfiliert/ verb [T] (usually passive) affiliate sth (to sth) to connect an organization to a larger organization: Our local club is affiliated to the national association. يلحق بريضم إلى • affiliated adj: the NUJ and other affiliated unions ملحق، منتسب affiliation /əˌfiliˈeɪʃn/ noun [C,U] a connection made by affiliating: The group has affiliations with the Conservative Party.

affinity /əˈfɪnəti/ noun [C,U] (pl. affinities) 1 affinity (for/with sb/sth) a strong feeling that you like and understand sb/sth, usually because you feel similar to him/her/it in some way: He had always had an affinity for wild and lonely places.

2 affinity (with sb/sth); affinity (between A and B) a similar quality in two or more people or things: His music has certain affinities with Brahms.

affirm /əˈfɜːm/ verb [T] (formal) 1 to say clearly that you hold a particular belief: The people affirmed their country's right to independence.

يۇڭد ئىسرخ 2 to say that sth is a fact: She affirmed that he would resign.

▶ affirmation /,æfə'mei∫n/ noun [C,U]

إثبات ، تأكيد

affirmative /əˈfɜːmətɪv/ adj (formal) meaning 'yes': an affirmative answer 🚯 We can also say 'an answer in the affirmative'. 🐧 The opposite is negative.

afflict /əˈflıkt/ verb [T] (usually passive) (formal) to cause sb/sth to suffer pain, sadness, etc: He had been afflicted with a serious illness since childhood.

▶ affliction /əˈflɪkʃn/ noun [C,U] a thing that causes suffering: Poor sight and hearing are common afflictions of old age.

affluent /ˈæfluənt/ adj having a lot of money

له affluence /-əns/ noun [U]

Pafford /əˈfɔːd/ verb [I,T] 1 (usually after can, could or be able to) to have enough money or time to be able to do sth: We couldn't afford a television in those days. ○ There's a lot to do. We can't afford to waste any time.

2 can't/couldn't afford to not be able to do sth or let sth happen because it would have a bad result for you: The other team was very good so we couldn't afford to make mistakes.

ليس في وسعه أن...

affront /ə'frʌnt/ noun [C] something that you say or do that is insulting to another person or thing

afield /əˈfiːld/ adv

DM far afield → FAR²

afloat /əˈfləʊt/ adj (not before a noun) 1 on the surface of the water; not sinking

2 (used about a business, an economy, etc.) having enough money to survive: We will need to borrow ten million pounds to keep the company afloat.

afoot /əˈfot/ adj (not before a noun) being planned or prepared: There was a plan afoot to build a new theatre.

Rafraid /əˈfreɪd/ adj (not before a noun) 1 afraid (of sb/sth); afraid (of doing sth/to do sth) having or showing fear; frightened: Why are some people afraid of spiders? Sue is afraid of going out after dark. I was too afraid to answer the door:

2 afraid (that...); afraid (of doing sth) worried about sth: We were afraid that you would be angry. o to be afraid of offending sb

Compare afraid and frightened. You can only use afraid after a noun, but you can use frightened before or after a noun: a frightened animal or The animal was afraid/frightened.

الكس الم afraid (that...) (used for saying politely that you are sorry about sth): I'm afraid I can't come on Sunday.

afresh /əˈfreʃ/ adv (formal) again, in a new way: to start afresh

African-American /ˌæfrɪkən əˈmerɪkən/ noun [C] an American citizen whose family was originally from Africa مواطن أمريكي من أصل افريقي ► African-American adj

Afro-Caribbean /ˌæfrəʊ kærıˈbiːən; US -kə-ˈrɪbɪən/ noun [C] 1 a person from the Caribbean whose family was originally from Africa كاريبيَ من أصل إفريقي

2 a person from a different country whose family was originally Afro-Caribbean (1)

شخص من اُصَلْ كاريبيّ-اَفريقيّ • Afro-Caribbean adj: the Afro-Caribbean community in West London کاريبيّ-افريقيّ

Pafter /*a:ftə(r); US 'æf-/ prep 1 later than sth:

Ian phoned just after six o'clock. ○ the week, month, year, etc. after next ○ I hope to arrive some time after lunch. ○ We spent three days in Edinburgh and after that we went to Glasgow. ○ After doing my homework, I went out for a walk.

2 ...after... repeated many times or continuing for a long time: day after day of hot weather o I've told the children time after time not to do that.

3 following or behind sb/sth: Shut the door after you. • The dog ran after its master. • After you (= used for politely allowing sb to use sth, go through a door, etc. first)

4 following in order: C comes after B in the alphabet.

5 because of sth: After the way he behaved I won't invite him here again.

6 looking for or trying to catch or get sb/sth: The police were after him. o Nicky is after a job in advertising.

7 (used when sb/sth is given the name of another person or thing): The street is called Wellington Street, after the famous general.

نسبة إلى IDM after all 1 (used when sth happens that you did not expect to happen, or when you discover that sth that you thought was not true is, in fact, true): So you decided to come after all:

(= I thought you weren't going to come) o Maybe he's not so stupid after all.

2 (used for reminding sb of a certain fact): She can't understand. After all, she's only two.

? after² /'ɑ:ftə(r); US 'æf-/ conj at a time later than sth: They arrived at the station after the train had left. • After we had finished our dinner, we went into the garden.

? after³ /'a:ftə(r); US 'æf-/ adv at a later time: That was in 1986. Soon after, I heard that he was ill.

They lived happily ever after (= for ever).

ىعد ذلك

It is more common to use afterwards at the end of a sentence: We played tennis and then went to Angela's house afterwards.

'after-effect noun [C] an unpleasant result of sth that comes some time after it has happened: the after-effects of a serious illness

عاقبة ، نتيجة وخيمة

aftermath /ˈɑːftəmæ0; Brit also ˈɑːftəmɑːθ/ noun [sing.] a situation that is the result of an important or unpleasant event: the aftermath of a war عاقبة ، آثار (الكارفة)

Rafternoon /a.ftə'nu:n; US æf-/ noun [C,U] the part of a day between midday and about six o'clock: I'll see you tomorrow afternoon. • We sat in the garden all afternoon. • He goes swimming every afternoon. • She arrived at four o'clock in the afternoon. • Tom works two afternoons a week. • Are you busy on Friday afternoon? • afternoon tea • Where were you on the afternoon of February 26th?

when you see sb for the first time in the afternoon) of Often we just say Afternoon: 'Good afternoon, Mrs Davies.' 'Afternoon, Jack.' کو Look at the note at morning.

aftershave /ˈɑːftəʃeɪv/ noun [C,U] a liquid with a pleasant smell that men put on their faces after shaving afterthought /ˈɑːftəθɔːt/ noun [C, usually sing.] something that you think of or add to sth else at a later time: He did the shopping, and then bought some flowers on the way home as an afterthought.

Lafterwards /'a:ftəwədz; US'æf-/ (US also afterward) adv at a later time: I met her at a party and saw her again soon afterwards. • Afterwards, Nick said he hadn't enjoyed the film.

. بعد ذلك ، فيما بعد

Tagain /əˈgen; əˈgen/ adv 1 once more; another time: Could you say that again, please? o She was out. I'll phone again later. o Don't ever do that again!

2 in the place or condition that sb/sth was in before: It's great to be home again. • I hope you'll soon be well again.

3 (used for expressing that sth you have just said may not happen or be true): She might pass her test, but then again she might not.

أعود وأستدرا

4 in addition: 'Is that enough?' 'No, I'd like half as much again, please' (= one-and-a-half times the original amount).

may times: He said he was sorry again and again. He said he

(but) then again = THEN yet again → YET

ragainst /o'genst; o'genst/ prep 1 touching or leaning on sb/sth for support: Put the cupboard over there against the wall.

- 2 in the opposite direction to sth: We had to cycle بعكس ، في الاتّجاه المعاكس ا against the wind.
- 3 opposing sb/sth in a game, competition, war, etc: Leeds are playing against Everton on Saturdav.
- 4 not agreeing with or supporting sb/sth: Are you for or against the plan? O She felt that everybody was against her.
- 5 what a law, rule, etc. says you must not do: It's against the law to buy cigarettes before you are مخالف ا sixteen.
- 6 in order to protect yourself from sb/sth: Take these pills as a precaution against malaria.
- ?age1/eid3/noun 1 [C,U] the length of time that sb has lived or that sth has existed: Nigel is seventeen years of age, o She left school at the age of sixteen. O When I was your age I never did anything like that! o Children of all ages will enjoy this film. o He needs some friends of his own age.

When you want to ask about somebody's age, you usually say: How old is she? and the answer can be: She's eighteen or: She's eighteen years old but NOT: She's eighteen years. Here are some examples of other ways of talking about age: I'm nearly nineteen. o a girl of eighteen o an eighteen-year-old girl o The girl, aged 18, said she came from Perth. o I first went abroad when I was fifteen.

- 2 [U] one of the periods of sb's life: a problem that often develops in middle age
- 3 [U] the state of being old: a face lined with age ⇒ Look at youth. شيخوخة ، كبّر السِّن
- 4 [C] a particular period of history: We are now living in the computer age. \circ the history of art through the ages
- 5 ages [plural] (informal) a very long time: We لمدُة طويلة حداً had to wait ages at the hospital. IDM under age not old enough by law to do
- age² /eidʒ/ verb [I,T] (pres part ageing or aging; pt, pp aged /eid3d/) to become or look old; to cause sb to look old: My father seems to have aged يَشيخ ؛ تظهر عليه علائم الشيخوخة a lot recently.
- ▶ aged /eid3d/ adj (not before a noun) of a particular age (1): The woman, aged 26, was last بالغ من العمر seen at Victoria Station.
- the aged /'eid3id/ noun [plural] old people
- 'age group noun [C] people of a particular age(1): This club is very popular with the 20-30 مجموعة أفراد من سِنٌ معيّنة age group.
- Ragency /'eidzənsi/ noun [C] (pl. agencies) 1 a business that provides a particular service: an advertising agency
 - 2 (US) a government department: the Central دائرة حكومية : وكالة Intelligence Agency
 - agenda /ə'dʒendə/ noun [C] a list of all the subjects that are to be discussed at a meeting جدول أعمال
- Lagent /'eidgənt/ noun [C] 1 a person whose job is to do business for a company or for another person: Our company's agent in Rio will meet you at the airport. o Most actors and musicians have their own agents. \circ a travel agent \circ an estate agent وكيل

2 = SECRET AGENT

aggravate /'ægraveit/ verb [T] 1 to make sth worse or more serious: The country's food problems were aggravated by the hot dry summer.

يَزيد (الوضع) سوءاً

- 2 (informal) to make sb angry or annoyed,
- يغيظ ، يزعج | aggravation /,ægrə'veı∫n/ noun [C,U]

aggregate /ˈægrɪgət/ noun

DM on aggregate in total: Our team won 3-1 on aggregate.

- aggression /ə'gresn/ noun [U] 1 the act of starting a fight or war without reasonable cause: This is an intolerable act of aggression against my اعتداء، عدوان
 - 2 angry feelings or behaviour that make you want to attack other people: People often react to this kind of situation with fear or aggression.
- ▶ aggressor /əˈgresə(r)/ noun [C] a person or country that attacks sb/sth or starts fighting
- Laggressive /əˈgresɪv/ adj 1 ready or likely to fight or argue: an aggressive dog o Some people get aggressive after drinking alcohol.
 - بُ للشجار ، عدواني 2 using or showing force or pressure in order to succeed: an aggressive salesman ▶ aggressively adv
- aggrieved /əˈgriːvd/ adj (formal) upset or مستاء ، ممتعض؛ غاضب
- agile /'ædʒaɪl; US ædʒl/ adj able to move quickly خفيف الحركة، رشيق
 - and easily ▶ agility /əˈdʒɪləti/ noun [U] خفّة الحركة ، نشاط
- agitate /'æd3iteit/ verb [I] agitate (for/against sth) to make other people feel very strongly about sth so that they want to do sth to help you achieve it: to agitate for reform
- يحرِّض على ، يهيِّج المشاعر ▶ agitated adi worried or excited: She became more and more agitated when her son did not مضطرب، قَلق appear اضطراب، اهتياج agitation / æd31'te1fn/ noun [U]

AGM / ei d3i: 'em/ abbrev (Brit) Annual General الاجتماع السنوي العام

- agnostic /æg'npstik/ noun [C] a person who believes that you cannot know whether or not God اللاأدري
- lago /ə'gəo/ adv in the past; back in time from now: Patrick left ten minutes ago (= if it is twelve o'clock now, he left at ten to twelve). o That was a long time ago. o How long ago did this happen? منذ ، من : في الماضي

Ago is used with the simple past tense and not the present perfect tense: I arrived in Britain three months ago. Compare ago and before. Ago means 'before now' and before means 'before then' (i.e. before a particular time in the past): Anne married Simon two years ago. o She had left her first husband six years before (= six years before she married Simon).

17

agonize (also agonise) /'ægənaɪz/ verb [I] to worry or think about sth for a long time: to agonize over a difficult decision يتعذّب ، يتألّم ▶ agonized (also agonised) adj showing extreme pain or worry: an agonized cry agonizing (also agonising) adj causing extreme worry or pain: an agonizing choice o an agonizing headache مؤلم ، مبرح agony /'ægəni/ noun [C,U] (pl. agonies) great pain or suffering: to scream in agony

ألم مبرح ، عذاب

- Lagree /əˈgriː/ verb 1 [I,T] agree (with sb/sth); agree (that...) to have the same opinion as sb/ sth: I think we should talk to the manager about this.' 'Yes, I agree.' o I agree with Paul. o Do you agree that we should travel by train? o I'm afraid I don't agree. 2 Look at disagree.
 - يوافق ، يتُفق في الرأي 2 [I] agree (to sth) to say yes to sth: I asked if I could go home early and she agreed. O Andrew has agreed to lend me his car for the weekend. ○ Look at refuse¹
 - 3 [LT] agree (to do sth); agree (on) (sth) to make an arrangement or agreement with sb: They agreed to meet again the following day. o Can we agree on a price? o We agreed a price of يتُفق على
 - 4 [I] agree with sth to think that sth is right: I don't agree with experiments on animals پرض*ی ب*، پوافق علی

5 [I] to be the same as sth: The two accounts of the accident do not agree. agreeable /ə'gri:əbl/ adj (formal) 1 pleasant;

nice 1 The opposite is disagreeable.

لطيف، حُلو المعشر؛ سائغ

- 2 ready to agree: If you are agreeable, we would موافق like to visit your offices on 21 May.
- بصورة ممتعة ▶ agreeably /-abli/ adv
- Ragreement /əˈgriːmənt/ noun 1 [C] a contract or decision that two or more people have made together: Please sign the agreement and return it to us. o The leaders reached an agreement after five days of talks. اتُفاقية؛ اتّفاق
 - 2 [U] the state of agreeing with sb/sth: She nodded her head in agreement. • The opposite is disagreement.
 - agriculture /'ægrikaltfə(r)/ noun [U] keeping animals and growing crops for food; farming: the زراعة Minister of Agriculture
 - ▶ agricultural / ægrī'k∧lt∫ərəl/ adj: agricul-زراعي
 - ah /a:/ interj (used for expressing surprise, pleasure, sympathy, etc.): Ah, there you are. o Ah well, صيحة تدلُّ على الدهشة أو الغبطة..الخ never mind.

aha /q:'hq:/ interj (used when you suddenly find or understand sth): Aha! Now I understand.

ها هوَ (وحدته!) ؛ أيوه (فهمت!)

- Rahead /əˈhed/ adv, adj ahead (of sb/sth) 1 in front of sb/sth: I could see the other car about half a mile ahead of us. o The path ahead looked narrow and steep. o Look straight ahead and don't turn round!
 - 2 before or in advance of sb/sth: Jane and Nicky arrived a few minutes ahead of us. o London is about five hours ahead of New York.
 - 3 into the future: He's got a difficult time ahead of him. o We must think ahead and make a plan.
 - 4 doing better than another person or team in a game, competition, etc: The third goal put Italy في المقدمة ، متفوّق
 - 5 more advanced than sb/sth else: The Japanese are way ahead of us in their research.

ahead of your time so modern that people طليعي، سابق لأوانه do not understand you go ahead (used to give sb permission to do sth): 'Can I take this chair?' 'Sure, go ahead. لا مانع، افعل ذلك!

streets ahead → STREET

- Raid /eid/ noun 1 [U] help: to walk with the aid of a stick o to go to sb's aid (= to go and help sb) ○ Look at first aid. مساعدة ، غَوْن
 - 2 [C] a person or thing that helps you: a hearing مساعد ، معين ؛ إداة معينة
 - 3 [U] money, food, etc. that is sent to a country or people in order to help them: We sent aid to the earthquake victims. Oxfam and other aid agencies معونة in aid of sb/sth in order to raise money for sb/sth: a concert in aid of Children in Need

▶ aid verb [T] (formal) to help sb DM aid and abet to help sb to do sth that is يساعد شخصاً في مخالفة القانون against the law aide /eid/ noun [C] a person who is an assistant to sb important in the government, etc.

مساعد (لشخصية هامة)

AIDS (Brit usually Aids) /eidz/ noun [U] an illness which destroys the body's ability to fight infection: an AIDS victim o Thousands of people have died of Aids. ('AIDS' is short for Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome.

ailing /'eɪlm/ adj not in good health; weak: (figurative) an ailing economy

معتل الصحة ، مريض ؛ متدهور

- ailment /'eilment/ noun [C] (formal) an illness (that is not very serious) اعتلال ، مرض خفیف
- ?aim1 /eim/ noun 1 [C] something that you intend to do or achieve: Our aim is to open offices in Paris and Rome before the end of the year. O His only aim in life is to make money. هدف ، غابة
 - 2 [U] the act of pointing sth at sb/sth before aim → air traffic controller trying to hit him/her/it with it: Get ready to shoot. Take aim – fire! o Her aim was good and she hit the target.

▶ aimless adj having no purpose: an aimless discussion بلاهدف، متخط

aimlessly adv

على غير هدى

- Ç aim² /eim/ verb 1 [I] aim to do sth; aim at/for sth to intend to do or achieve sth: We aim to leave after breakfast. > The company is aiming at a 25% increase in profit. > You should always aim for perfection in your work.
 - 2 [T] aim sth at sb/sth to direct sth at a particular person or group: The advertising campaign is aimed at young people.
 - 3 [I,T] aim (sth) (at sb/sth) to point sth at sb/sth before trying to hit him/her/it with it: She picked up the gun, aimed, and fired.

 Description

 be aimed at sth to be intended to achieve sth: The new laws are aimed at reducing heavy traffic in cities.
- ain't /eint/ (informal) short for am not, is not, are not, has not, have not 6 Ain't is considered to be incorrect English.
- Qair /ee(r)/ noun 1 [U] the mixture of gases that surrounds the earth and that people, animals and plants breathe: the pure mountain air o The air was polluted by smoke from the factory.
 - 2 [U] the space around and above things: to throw a ball high into the $air \circ in$ the open air (= outside)
 - ${f 3}$ [U] travel or transport in an aircraft: to travel by $air\circ an$ air ticket
 - 4 [C] an air (of sth) the impression that sb gives or the impression you get of a place, event, etc: a confident air o There was a general air of confusion outside the President's palace.

a breath of fresh air → BREATH

- in the air probably going to happen soon: A feeling of change was in the air. متوقّع الحدوث in the open air → open¹
- on (the) air broadcasting on the radio or television: This radio station is on the air 24 hours a day.

vanish, etc. into thin air → THIN

- air² /eə(r)/ verb 1 [1.T] to put clothes, etc. in a warm place or outside in the fresh air to make sure they are completely dry; to be put in this place: Put the sleeping bag on the washing line to air.
- 2 [I.T] to make a room, etc. fresh by letting air into it; to become fresh in this way: Open the window to air the room.
- 3 [T] to tell people what you think about sth: The discussion gave people a chance to air their views.
- airbag /ˈeəbæg/ noun [C] a device in a car that fills with air if there is an accident, to protect the people in the car کیس مواء، "بالون"
- airbase /ˈeəbeɪs/ noun [C] an airport for military aeroplanes

- airborne /'eəbɔ:n/ adj flying in the air: airborne missiles
- 'air-conditioned adj having air conditioning; air-conditioned offices
- 'air conditioning noun [U] the system that keeps the air in a room, building, etc. cool and dry تكبيف الهواء
- Raircraft /ˈeəkrɑːft; US -kræft/ noun [C] (pl. aircraft) any vehicle that can fly in the air, e.g. an aeroplane, a helicopter, etc.
- 'aircraft carrier noun [C] a ship that carries military aircraft and that has a long flat area where they can take off and land
- airfield /ˈeəfiːld/ noun [C] an area of land where aeroplanes can land or take off. An airfield is smaller than an airport.
- 'air force noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] the part of a country's military organization that fights in the air ⊋ Look at army and navy.

سلاح الطيران ، السلاح الجُوري

- 'air hostess (also hostess) noun [C] (old-fashioned) a woman who looks after the passengers on an aeroplane
- 'airing cupboard noun [C] a warm cupboard that you use for airing²(1) clothes in خزانة (دولاب) تهوية الثياب

- airless /ˈeələs/ adj not having enough fresh air: The room was hot and airless. غير مهوري
- airline /ˈeəlaɪn/ noun [C] a company that provides regular flights for people or goods in aeroplanes: an airline pilot شركة طَيْران
- airliner /'eəlamə(r)/ noun [C] a large aeroplane that carries passengers مائرة ركّاب كبيرة
- airmail /ˈeəmeɪl/ noun [U] the system for sending letters, parcels, etc. by aeroplane البريد الجوّي
- airplane /'eaplein/ noun [C] (US) = PLANE
- Rairport / eapo:t/ noun [C] a place where aircraft can land and take off and that has buildings for passengers to wait in
- 'air raid noun [C] an attack by military aeroplanes
- airsick /ˈcesɪk/ adj feeling sick or vomiting as a result of travelling on a plane ك Look at carsick, seasick and travel-sick.
- airspace /ˈeospeɪs/ noun [U] the part of the sky that is above a country and that belongs to that country by law
- airstrip /ˈcəstrɪp/ (also landing strip) noun [C] a narrow piece of land where aircraft can take off and land
- airtight /ˈeətaɪt/ adj that air cannot get into or out of
- air traffic con'troller noun [C] a person whose job is to organize routes for aircraft, and to tell pilots by radio when they can land and take off

airy → alienate

19

- airy /ˈeəri/ adj (airier; airiest) having a lot of fresh air: a light and airy room
- aisle /aɪl/ noun [C] a passage between the rows of seats in a church, theatre, etc. مَمَرُ (بين المقاعد)
- ajar /əˈdʒɑ:(r)/ adj (not before a noun) slightly open (used about a door) (الباب) موارَب، مفتوح جزئيناً
- akin /əˈkɪn/ adj akin to sth similar to or like sth
- à la carte /ˌɑː lɑː ˈkɑːt/ adj, adv (used about a meal in a restaurant) where each dish on the menu has a separate price and there is not a fixed price for a complete meal
- Çalarm /ə'lɑ:m/ noun 1 [U] a sudden feeling of fear or worry: She jumped up in alarm.
 - 2 [sing.] a warning of danger: A small boy saw the smoke and raised the alarm.
 - 3 [C] a machine that warns you of danger, e.g. by ringing a loud bell: a burglar alarm a fire alarm

 جرس الإنذار
 - 4 [C] = ALARM CLOCK
 - IDM a false alarm → FALSE
 - ► alarm verb [T] to make sb/sth feel suddenly frightened or worried: The news of the escaped prisoner alarmed the local people. يرعب نقلق alarmed adj alarmed (at/by sth) frightened or worried: Government ministers are alarmed at the recent rise in unemployment.
 - alarming adj that makes you frightened or worried: The population of the world is increasing at an alarming rate. مفزع : مقلق مطلق alarmingly adv
 - a'larm clock (also alarm) noun [C] a clock that you can set to make a noise at a particular time to wake you up: She set the alarm clock for half past six. o My alarm clock goes off at seven o'clock.
- alas /əˈlæs/ interj (formal) (used for expressing sadness about sth)
- albino /ælˈbiːnəʊ; US -ˈbai-/ noun [C] (pl. albinos) a person or animal with very white skin, white hair and pink eyes
- album /'ælbəm/ noun [C] a book in which you can keep stamps, photographs, etc. that you have collected, or a collection of pieces of music that have been recorded on one record, CD or cash
- ? alcohol /ˈælkəhɒl; US -hɔ:l/ noun [U] 1 the colourless liquid in drinks such as beer, whisky and wine that can make you drunk

 2 the drinks (e.g. beer, whisky, wine) that
 - contain alcohol مسكر مسكر المشروب) مسكر المشروب) مسكر المشروب) مسكر المسكر المسكوب المسكر المسكوب ال
 - holic drinks 6 The opposite is non-alcoholic. Drinks without alcohol are also called soft drinks.
 - alcoholic noun [C] a person who is dependent on alcohol and drinks a large amount of it every day 6 A person who does not drink alcohol at all is a teetotaller.
 - alcoholism /-ızəm/ noun [U] the medical condi-

- tion that is caused by regularly drinking too much alcohol إدمان المسكرات، الكحولية
- alcove /ˈælkəʊv/ noun [C] a small area in a room where one part of the wall is further back than the rest of the wall
- ale /eil/ noun [U] beer ♦ In modern English we use the word beer, not ale, except when we are talking about certain types of beer.
- alert /əˈlɜːt/ adj alert (to sth) watching, listening, etc. for sth with full attention: Security guards must be alert at all times. o to be alert to possible changes
- ▶ alert noun [C] a warning of possible danger: a bomb alert
- on the alert (for sth) ready or prepared for danger or an attack: The public were warned to be on the alert for possible terrorist attacks.
 على استعداد المواجهة خطر)
- alert verb [T] alert sb (to sth) to warn sb of danger or a problem
- A level /'er levl/ (also Advanced level) noun a British exam taken in a particular subject, usually in the final year of school at the age of 18: How many A levels have you got? o I'm doing my A levels this summer. D Look at AS level A2 and GCSE. (النخول الجامعات البريطانية العامة (للخول الجامعات البريطانية)
- algae /ˈældʒi:; ˈælgi:/ noun [plural, with sing. or pl. verb] very simple plants that grow mainly in water. During the hot summer algae spread levels which made it impossible to swim at some beaches.
- algebra /ˈældʒɪbrə/ noun [U] a type of mathematics in which letters and symbols are used to represent numbers
- alias /ˈeɪliəs/ noun [C] a false name, e.g. one that is used by a criminal
- ► alias adv (used for giving sb's false name): Mrs Phillips, alias Maria Jones
- alibi /ˈæləbaɪ/ noun [C] a statement by sb that says you were in a different place at the time of a crime and so cannot be guilty of the crime: He had a good alibi for the night of the robbery. دَفْع بِالغَيْبَة ، وجود المتَّه في غير مكان الجريمة
- alien /ˈeɪliən/ noun [C] 1 (formal) a person who comes from another country
- 2 a creature that comes from another planet مخلوق من کوکب آخر
- ▶ alien adj 1 of another country; foreign: an alien land
- 2 very strange and completely different from your normal experience: Cruelty was alien to him.
- alienate /'eɪliəneɪt/ verb [T] 1 to make people feel that they cannot share your opinions any more: The Prime Minister's new policies on defence have alienated many of his supporters.
- 2 alienate sb (from sb/sth) to make sb feel that he/she does not belong somewhere or is not part of sth: Many young unemployed people feel alight → allegiance completely alienated from the rest of society.

► alienation /ˌeɪliəˈneɪʃn/ noun [U] اغتراب، نفور ؛ عزلة

alight¹ /əˈlaɪt/ adj on fire; burning: The petrol had been set alight (= made to start burning) by a cigarette.

Alight can only be used after a noun, but you can use burning before a noun: The whole building was alight. o a burning building.

alight² /əˈlaɪt/ verb [1] (formal) alight (from sth) to get off a bus, ṭrain, etc. (ينزل (من حافلة أو قطار الخ

align /əˈlaɪm/ verb [T] 1 align sth (with sth) to arrange things in a straight line or so that they are parallel to sth else: to align the wheels of a car

2 align yourself with sb to say that you support the opinions of a particular group, country, etc: The Green Party has aligned itself with the Socialists over this issue. $\mathcal{2}$ Look at non-aligned.

► alignment noun 1 [U] arrangement in a straight line or parallel to sth else

2 [C,U] an agreement between political parties, countries, etc. to support the same thing: the alignment of Japan with the West alike /əˈlaɪk/ adj like one another; the same: The two children are very alike.

Alike can only be used after a noun, but you can use similar-looking before a noun: The houses in this street are all alike. o a street of similar-looking houses.

▶ alike adv in the same way: We try to treat women and men alike in this company. ○ The musical has been a success with adults and children alike.

alimony /ˈælɪməni; US -məʊni/ noun [U] money that you have to pay by law to your former wife or husband after a divorce

Ralive /ə'laɪv/ adj 1 not dead; living: The young woman was still alive when the ambulance reached the hospital. • He kept the little cat alive by feeding it warm milk.

Alive can only be used after a noun, but you can use living before a noun: Are her parents still alive? • Does she have any living relatives?

2 full of life: In the evening the town really comes alive.

3 continuing to exist: Many old traditions are very much alive in this area of Britain.

alkali /ˈælkəlaɪ/ noun [C,U] any of the chemical substances with a pH value of more than 7 كالمادة الوية . قلي المادة الوية . قلوي المادة الوية . قلوي عليه المادة الوية . قلوي عليه المادة ا

Rall¹/ɔ:l/ det, pron 1 the whole of a thing: All (of) the food has gone. • They've eaten all of it.
• They've eaten it all. • This money is all yours.
• All of it is yours.

2 the whole of the period of time: It rained all day. \circ all week/month/year \circ He worked hard all his life. کل طوال

3 every one of a group: All cats are animals but not all animals are cats. ○ All (of) my children can swim. ○ My children can all swim. ○ She's read all (of) these books. ○ She's read them all. ○ The people at the meeting all voted against the plan. ○ All of them voted against the plan.

4 everything that; the only thing that: I wrote down all I could remember. • All I've eaten is a slice of toast.

IDM above all → ABOVE

after all → AFTER1

in all in total: There were ten of us in all.

جملة ، في المجموع not all that... not very: The film wasn't all that good. ليس في المستوى المتوقع (not) at all in any way: I didn't enjoy it at all.

(not) at all in any way: I didn't enjoy it at all.

• We can say not at all as a reply when somebody thanks us for something.

Rall² /o:1/ adv 1 completely; very: He has lived all alone since his wife died. O I didn't watch that programme – I forgot all about it. O They got all excited about it.

2 (in sport) for each side: The score was two all.

DM all along from the beginning: I knew you were joking all along.

all right; (informal) alright 1 good or good enough: Is everything all right? good or good

2 safe; not hurt; well: The children are all right. Don't worry. O Do you feel all right? سليم: بخير

3 (showing you agree): 'You go on ahead.' 'Oh, all right.' (التعبير عن الموافقة)

You say 'That's all right,' when sb thanks you for sth or when sb says sorry for sth he/she has done: 'Thanks for the lift home.' 'That's (quite) all right.' o 'T'm so sorry I'm late.' 'That's all right. We haven't started yet anyway.'

all the better, harder, etc. better, harder, etc. than before: It will be all the more difficult with two people missing.

Allah /ˈælə/ the Arabic name for God allay /ə'leɪ/ verb [T] (formal) to make sth less strong: to allay sb's fears the ˌail-ˈclear noun [sing.] a signal telling you that danger is over allege /əˈledʒ/ verb [T] (formal) to say that sb has done sth wrong, but without proving that this is true: The woman alleged that Williams had attacked her with a knife.

Allegation / ælə'geɪʃn/ noun [C]: to make allegations of police corruption وزعم العاء alleged /ə'ledʒd/ adj: the alleged criminal (= people say this person is a criminal but nobody has proved that this is true) ما يوعو allegedly /ə'ledʒɪdli/ adv: The man was allegedly shot while trying to escape.

allegiance /ə'li:dʒəns/ noun [U,C] (formal) support for or loyalty towards a leader, government, belief, etc: to swear your allegiance to the Queen

- allergy /'ælədʒi/ noun [C] (pl. allergies) an allergy (to sth) a medical condition that makes you ill when you eat, touch or breathe sth that does not normally make other people ill: an allergy to cats, shellfish, pollen, etc.
- ▶ allergic /əˈlɜːdʒɪk/ adj 1 allergic (to sth) having an allergy: I can't drink cow's milk. I'm عنده حساسية، أرجي allergic to it.
- 2 caused by an allergy: an allergic reaction to سى، تسببه حساسية house dust
- alleviate /ə'li:vieit/ verb [T] to make sth less strong or bad: The doctor gave me an injection to alleviate the pain. تخفيف
- ▶ alleviation /əˌliːvi'eɪ∫n/ noun [U]
- alley /'æli/ (also 'alleyway /'æliwei/) noun [C] a narrow passage between buildings

ممرُ ضيق ، زقاق

- alliance /əˈlaɪəns/ noun [C] an agreement between people, groups, countries, etc. to work together and support each other: the country's military alliance with France o The two parties formed an alliance. S Look at ally.
- Rallied /ə'laid; 'ælaid/ adj 1 (used about organizations, countries, etc.) having an agreement to work together and support each other: allied forces o Allied Irish Banks
 - 2 allied (to sth) connected with; similar: coal ذُو صلة بِ : شبيه mining and allied industries
 - alligator /'æligeitə(r)/ noun [C] a large animal with a long body and sharp teeth that lives in the lakes and rivers of the southern United States and China. An alligator is similar to a croco-تمساح أمريكي dile.
- ,all-'in adj including everything: an all-in price
- allocate / æləkeɪt/ verb [T] allocate sth (to sb/ sth) to give sth to sb as his/her share or to decide to use sth for a particular purpose: 6 000 seats for next Saturday's football match have been allocated to Liverpool supporters. O The BBC has allo $cated\ \pounds 160\ 000\ for\ each\ new\ programme.$
- ص: يوزع ▶ allocation /æləˈkeɪʃn/ noun [C,U] giving sth for a particular purpose; the amount that is given: the allocation of resources for health
- allot /ə'lot/ verb [T] (allotting; allotted) allot sth (to sb/sth) to give sb money, a piece of work, etc. as his/her share or to decide to allow a certain amount of time for sth: Different tasks were allotted to each member of the class. O We all finished the exam in the allotted time.
- allotment /ə'lptmənt/ noun [C] (Brit) a small area of land in a town that you can rent for grow-قطعة أرض تستأجر لزراعة الخضراوات ing vegetables on
- ,all 'out adj, adv using all your strength, etc: We're going all out for the Cup. o an all-out effort (يبلل) قصاري جهده

- Callow /əˈlaʊ/ verb [T] 1 allow sb/sth to do sth; allow sth to give permission for sb/sth to do sth or for sth to happen: Children under sixteen are not allowed to buy cigarettes. o I'm afraid we don't allow people to bring dogs into this restaurant. o Photography is not allowed inside the cathedral.
 - Compare allow, permit and let. Allow can be used in both formal and informal English. The passive form be allowed to is especially common. Permit is a formal word and is usually used only in written English. Let is an informal word, and very common in spoken English. You allow sb to do sth but let sb do sth (no 'fo'). Let cannot be used in the passive: Visitors are not allowed/permitted to smoke in - this area. Smoking is not allowed/permitted. o I'm not allowed to smoke in my bedroom. o My Dad won't let me smoke in my bedroom.
 - 2 to give permission for sb/sth to be or go somewhere: No dogs allowed. o I'm only allowed out on Friday and Saturday nights.
 - 3 allow sb sth to let sb have sth: My contract allows me four weeks' holiday a year.
 - 4 allow sb/sth to do sth to make it possible for sb/sth to do sth: Working part-time would allow me to spend more time with my family.
 - 5 allow sth (for sb/sth) to provide money, time, etc. for sb/sth: You should allow about 30 minutes for each examination question. PHRV allow for sb/sth to think about possible
 - problems when you are planning sth and include extra time, money, etc. for them: The journey should take about two hours, allowing for heavy بأخذ بعين الاعتبار
 - allowance /ə'lavəns/ noun [C] 1 an amount of sth that you are allowed: Most flights have a 20 kg baggage allowance.
 - 2 an amount of money that you receive regularly to help you pay for sth that you need
 - IDM make allowances for sb/sth to judge a person or a person's actions more kindly because he/she has a particular problem or disadvantage: You really should make allowances for her. She's very inexperienced.

يراعي ، يأخذ بعين الاعتبار

- alloy /'ælɔɪ/ noun [C] a metal that is formed by mixing two types of metal together, or by mixing metal with another substance: Brass is an alloy of copper and zinc. سبكة خليطة
- all-'rounder noun [C] a person who can do many different things well شخص متعدد البراعات
- all-time adj (used when you are comparing things or saying how good or bad sth is) of any time: one of the all-time great players o my alltime favourite song \circ Unemployment reached an all-time record of 3 million. o Profits are at an على مر العصور، في أي وقت كان all-time high/low.
- allude /əˈluːd/ verb [I] allude to sb/sth (formal) to speak about sb/sth in an indirect way: He mentioned no names but we all knew who he was alluding to.

- ▶ allusion /ə'lu:ʒn/ noun [C,U] an act of speaking about sth indirectly: The play is full of تلميح ، إشارة خفيفة allusions to classical mythology.
- Lally /'ælai/ noun [C] (pl. allies) 1 a country that has an agreement to support another country, especially in a war: France and its European allies ♦ Look at alliance and allied. دولة حليفة
 - 2 a person who helps and supports you, especially when other people are against you: the Prime Minister's political allies حلیف ، نصب
 - almighty /ɔ:l'maɪti/ adj 1 having the power to ذو قدرة كليّة do anything: Almighty God
 - 2 (only before a noun) (informal) very great: Suddenly we heard the most almighty crash. م، هائل
- almond /'a:mənd/ noun [C] an oval nut that is often used in cooking: trout with almonds
- ? almost /'o:lməust/ adv not quite; very nearly: By nine o'clock almost everybody had arrived. o Careful! I almost fell into the water then! o The film has almost finished. o She almost always cycles to school. O There's almost nothing left.
- Raione /ə'ləun/ adj, adv 1 without any other person: The old man lives alone. o Are you alone? Can I speak to you for a moment? o I don't like walking home alone after dark. وحيد؛ بمفرده

Alone and lonely both mean that you are not with other people. Lonely (US lonesome) means that you are unhappy about this, but alone does not usually suggest either happiness or unhappiness. Alone cannot be used before a noun. You can also use on your own and by yourself to mean 'alone'. These expressions are more informal and very common in spoken English.

2 (after a noun or pronoun) only: You alone can help us. o The food alone cost £40. The wine was extra.

IDM go it alone to do sth on your own without help from anyone دون الاعتماد على أحد leave sb/sth alone → LEAVE1

let alone → LET1

- % along /ə'lɒŋ; US ə'lɔːŋ/ prep 1 from one end to or towards the other end of sth: I walked slowly along the road. o David looked along the corridor to see if anyone was coming. O Carry on along this street until you get to the traffic lights. على طول
 - 2 in a line that follows the side of sth long: Wild flowers grew along both sides of the river.
 - 3 at a particular point on or beside sth long: Our house is about halfway along Hope Street. ▶ along adv 1 forward: We moved along slowly إلى الأمام with the crowd.
 - 2 (informal) with sb: We're going to the pub. Why مع (شخص مأ) don't you come along too?

IDM all along → ALL2 along with sb/sth together with sb/sth: Along with hundreds of others, she lost her job when the factory closed.

- lalongside /əˌlɒŋˈsaɪd; US -ˌlɔːŋ-/ adv, prep 1 next to or along the side of sth: a garden with a small river running alongside o The boat moored alongside the quay. بمحاذاة
 - 2 together with sb/sth: the opportunity to work alongside experienced musicians
- aloof /ə'lu:f/ adj 1 not friendly or open to other متحفظ ؛ متناعد people; distant
 - 2 not involved in sth; apart: The President can no longer remain aloof from the problem.

مبتعد، منعزل

- speaking voice that other people can hear; not silently: to read aloud from a book بصوت عال ، جهاراً
- % alphabet /'ælfəbet/ noun [C] the set of letters that you use when you are writing a particular language, especially when they are arranged in a fixed order: There are 26 letters in the English الأبحدية alphabet.
 - ▶ alphabetical / ælfə'betikl/ adj arranged in the same order as the letters of the alphabet: The poems are listed in alphabetical order. alphabetically /-kli/ adv
 - alpine /'ælpaın/ adj of or found in high moun-موجود على الجبال الشاهقة tains: alpine flowers
- Raiready /o:l'redi/ adv 1 (used for talking about sth that has happened before now or before a particular time in the past, especially if it happened earlier than you expected): 'Would you like some lunch?' 'No, I've already eaten, thanks.' o We got there at 6.30 but Martin had already left. O Sarah was already awake when I went into her room.

من قبل ، مسبقاً

- 2 (used in negative sentences and questions for expressing surprise) so early; as soon as this: Have you finished already? o Surely you're not مبكّراً هكذا! going already!
- alright /o:l'rait/ adv (informal) = ALL RIGHT
- Alsatian /æl'seɪʃn/ noun [C] (US German shepherd) a large dog with smooth hair, that is often trained to help the police or as a guard dog کلب حراسة کبیر، کلب بولیسی
- lalso /'a:lsev/ adv (not with negative verbs) in addition; too: Mark Wilson paints and writes novels in his spare time. He also speaks Chinese. o Please bring some paper, a pen and also a calculator. o The food is wonderful, and also very أيضاً ؛ علاوة على ذلك

Too and as well are less formal than also and are very common in spoken English. Also usually goes before a main verb or after 'is' 'are', 'were', etc: He also enjoys reading. . He has also been to Australia. • He is also intelligent. Too and as well usually go at the end of a phrase or sentence: I really love this song, and I liked the first one too/as well. Do not confuse also with even: Even (NOT also) in the middle of summer, the nights can be cold.

IDM not only ... but also → ONLY2

altar /'o:lta(r)/ noun [C] the holy table in a church or temple

- Talter /'o:lta(r)/ verb [I,T] to make sth different in some way, but without changing it completely; to become different: They've altered the plan for the new building. The main entrance will now be in Queen Street. o This does not alter the fact that the company is in serious financial difficulty. o This skirt is too big for me now. I'll have to alter it (= make it smaller by sewing it). o The village seems to have altered very little in the last twenty vears.
 - پهير.يغير alteration / o:ltəˈreɪʃn/ noun [C.U] a small change in sb/sth: We want to make a few alterations to the house before we move in. o The travel company will inform you of any alteration in the time of departure. تغيير ، تعديل
 - alternate¹ /o:l'ta:nət; US 'o:ltərnət/ adj 1 (used about two types of events, things, etc.) happening or following regularly one after the other: Helen and Nick take the children to school on alternate days (= Helen takes them on Monday, Nick on Tuesday, Helen on Wednesday, etc.).
 - 2 one of every two: He works alternate weeks (= he works the first week, he doesn't work the second week, he works again the third week, (أسابيع مثلاً) متخالفة etc.). بالتماقب ، بالتناوب
 - alternately adv
 - alternate² /ˈɔːltəneɪt/ verb 1 [I] alternate with sth; alternate between A and B (used about two types of events, things, etc.) to happen or follow regularly one after the other: It's exciting music. Quiet violin passages alternate with sudden bursts of trumpet sound. O She seemed to alternate between hating him and loving him. يتعاقب ، يتناوب
 - 2 [T] alternate A with B to cause two types of events or things to happen or follow regularly one after the other: He alternated periods of work with periods of rest.
 - ▶ alternation /,ɔ:ltə'nei∫n/ noun [C,U]

تعاقب ، تناو ب

- Ralternative /o:l'to:netrv/ adj (only before a noun) that you can use, do, etc. instead of sth else: There is heavy traffic on the A34. Drivers are advised to find an alternative route.
 - ▶ alternative noun [C] one of two things that you can choose between: The Minister suggested community service as an alternative to imprison-خيار آخر

Alternative is now often used for talking about more than two things: There are several alternatives open to us at the moment.

alternatively adv: Trains leave London Paddington every half hour. Alternatively, there is a regular coach service from Victoria Coach Sta-بدلاً من ذلك tìon.

Ralthough /ɔ:l'ðəʊ/ conj 1 (used for introducing a statement that makes the main statement in a sentence seem surprising): Although she was tired, she stayed up to watch the late-night film on television.

2 (used for introducing a statement that modifies the main statement) and yet; but: There will be heavy rain in many parts of Britain tonight, although it is unlikely to reach the South West إِلاَّ أَن until morning.

You can also use though but it is less formal than although. Even can be used with though for emphasis, but not with although: She didn't want to go to the party, although/though/even though she knew all her friends would be there. Though, but not although can be used at the end of a sentence: She knew all her friends would be there. She didn't want to go, though.

- altitude /'æltɪtju:d; US -tu:d/ noun 1 [sing.] the height of sth above sea: The plane climbed to an altitude of 10 000 metres. ارتفاع (فوق مستوى البحر)
 - 2 [C, usually pl] a place that is high above sea level: You need to carry oxygen when you are climbing at high altitudes. الأماكن المرتفعة
- Alt key (also ALT key) / o:lt ki:/ noun a key on a computer keyboard which you press while pressing other keys, in order to change their func-
- alto /'æltəʊ/ noun [C] (pl. altos) the lowest normal singing voice for a woman, the highest for a man; a woman or man with this voice

إحدى الطبقات الصوتية ؛ مغنّ بهذا الصوت

- Taltogether / p:ltəˈgeðə(r)/ adv 1 completely: I don't altogether agree with you. o At the age of 55 he stopped working altogether.
 - 2 including everything: We've got about £65 altogether.
 - 3 when you consider everything; generally: Altogether, Oxford is a pleasant place to live.

Altogether is not the same as all together. All together means 'everything or everybody together': Put your books all together on the table. • Let's sing. All together now!

aluminium / æljə mmiəm; ælə-/ (US aluminum /ə'lu:minəm/) (symbol Al) noun [U] a light silver-coloured metal that is used for making cooking equipment, etc: aluminium foil

(معدن) الألومنيوم

- Ralways / o:lweiz/ adv 1 at all times; regularly: We almost always go to Scotland for our holidays. o Why is the train always late when I'm in a hurry?
 - 2 all through the past until now: Tom has دوماً always been shy. o I've always liked music.
 - 3 for ever: I shall always remember this mo-أبدأ ment.
 - 4 (with continuous tenses) again and again, usually in an annoying way: She's always complaining about something. لا ينفكُ (يفعل شيئاً)

Always does not usually go at the beginning of a sentence. It usually goes before the main verb or after 'is', 'are', 'were', etc: He always wears

لون أصفر ضارب للحمرة

گهرمان*ي*

Alzheimer's disease → amends

those shoes. I have always wanted to visit Egypt. Fiona is always late. However, always can go at the beginning of a sentence when you are telling somebody to do something. Always stop and look before you cross the road.

5 (used with 'can' or 'could' for suggesting sth that sb could do, especially if nothing else is possible): If you haven't got enough money, I could always lend you some.

Alzheimer's disease /ˈæltshaɪməz dɪziːz/noun [U] a disease that affects the brain and makes you become more and more confused as you get older

AM /,ei 'em/ abbrev amplitude modulation; one of the systems of broadcasting radio signals تضمين الذروة (راديو)

Ç a.m. (US also A.M.) /,er 'em/ abbrev before midday; 10 am (= 10 o'clock in the morning)

am → BE

amalgamate /əˈmælgəmeɪt/ ver b [I,T] (used especially about organizations, groups, etc.) to join together to form a single organization, group, etc. If the two unions amalgamated, they would be much more powerful.

> amalgamation /əˌmælgəˈmeɪ∫n/ noun [C,U] amass /o'mæs/ verb [T] to gather together a large quantity of sth: We've amassed a lot of information on the subject.

amateur /ˈæmətə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person who takes part in a sport or an activity for pleasure, not for money as a job: Only amateurs can take part in the tournament; no professionals will be allowed.

2 (usually used when being critical) a person who does not have skill or experience when doing sth: The repair work on this house was clearly done by a bunch of amateurs.

► amateur adj 1 done, or doing sth, for pleasure (not for money as a job): an amateur photographer

2 (also amateurish) done without skill or experience بلاخبرة، بلابراعة

Ramaze /a'meiz/ verb [T] to surprise sb very much; to seem incredible to sb: Sometimes your behaviour amazes me! o It amazes me that anyone could be so stupid!

➤ amazed adj extremely surprised; feeling that you cannot believe sth: She was amazed to discover the truth about her husband. ○ I was amazed by the change in his attitude.

amazement noun [U]: He looked at me in amazement. o To my amazement, I passed the test easily.

amazing adj causing you to be very surprised: She has shown amazing courage. \circ Pve got an amazing story to tell you.

amazingly adv

ambassador /æm'bæsədə(r)/ noun [C] a diplomat of high rank who represents his/her country in a foreign country: the Spanish Ambassador to Britain 🔾 Look at embassy.

amber /ˈæmbə(r)/ noun [U] 1 a hard clear yellow-brown substance used for making jewellery or ornaments

2 a yellow-brown colour: The three colours in traffic lights are red, amber and green.

▶ amber adi

ambiguity /ˌæmbi'gju:əti/ noun [C,U] (pl. ambiguities) the possibility of being understood in more than one way; sth that can be understood in more than one way ambiguous /æmˈbɪɡjuəs/ adj having more than one possible meaning: That's a rather ambiguous remark – what exactly do you mean?

▶ ambiguously adv

قبل الظهر قبل الظهر عambition /æm'bɪʃn/ noun 1 ambition (to be/do sth) [U] strong desire to be successful, to have power, etc: One problem of young people today is their lack of ambition.

2 [C] something that you very much want to have or do: It has always been her ambition to travel the world.

ambitious /æmˈbɪʃəs/ adj 1 ambitious (to be/do sth) having a strong desire to be successful, to have power, etc: I'm not particularly ambitious

- I'm content with my life the way it is.

2 difficult to achieve or do because it takes a lot of work or effort: The company have announced ambitious plans for expansion.

ambivalent /æmˈbɪvələnt/ adj having or showing a mixture of feelings or opinions about sth or sb: I have always felt rather ambivalent about having children.

تناقض المشاعر ambivalence /-ens/ noun [U] تناقض المشاعر ambivalence //www.icl. a special

Rambulance /'æmbjələns/ noun [C] a special motor vehicle for taking ill or injured people to and from hospital ambush /ˈæmbʊʃ/ noun [C] a surprise attack from a hidden position کمین ambush verb [T] پهاچم من مکمن

amen /ɑ:ˈmen; US eɪˈmen/ interj (used at the end of a prayer by Christians) let this be so: In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. Amen.

amenable /ه'mi:nəbl/ adj willing to accept sth; willing to be guided: I'm amenable to any suggestions you may have.

amend /əˈmend/ verb [T] to change sth slightly, often in order to make it better: The law needs to be amended.

► amendment noun 1 [C] a part that is added or a small change that is made to a piece of writing, especially to a law

2 [U] an act of amending: The bill was passed without amendment.

amends /əˈmendz/ noun [plural]

IDM make amends to do sth for sb, that shows that you are sorry for sth bad that you have done before: I bought her a present to make amends for the horrible things I had said to her: يكفّر عن amenity /ه'mi:nəti; US ə'menəti/ noun [C] (pl. amenities) something in a place that helps to make living there pleasant or easy: Among the town's amenities are two cinemas and a sports centre.

American /əˈmerikən/ adj from or connected with the USA: Have you met Bob? He's American. o an American accent o In American English 'theatre' is spelt 'theater'.

American noun [C] a person who comes from the USA: His wife is an American. (شخص) أمريكي

A,merican 'football (US football) noun [U] a form of football played in the USA with an oval-shaped ball. The players wear helmets and other protective clothing and are allowed to pick up and carry, as well as kick, the ball.

كرة القدم الأمريكية

بود

على نحو ودي

A,merican 'Indian = Native American amiable /'enmiabl/ adj friendly and pleasant

▶ amiably /-əbli/ adv

amicable /'æmɪkəbl/ adj made or done in a friendly way, without argument: I'm sure we can find an amicable way of settling the dispute.

▶ amicably /-abli/ adv

amid /aˈmɪd/ (also amidst /aˈmɪdst/) prep (for-mal) in the middle of; among: Amid all the confusion, the thieves got away.

amiss /əˈmɪs/ adj, adv wrong; not as it should be:
When I walked into the room I could sense that something was amiss.

not come/go amiss to be welcome: Things are fine, although a bit more money wouldn't come amiss. • An apology wouldn't gomiss take sth amiss to be upset by sth, perhaps because you have understood it in the wrong way: Please don't take my remarks amiss. ِ پنزعج، پسيء فهم الشيء

ammunition /æmju'nı∫n/ noun [U] 1 the supply of bullets, etc. that you need to fire from a weapon: The troops surrendered because they had run out of ammunition.

2 (figurative) facts or information that can be used against sb/sth amnesia /æmˈniːziə/ noun [U] loss of memory

amnesty /ˈæmnəsti/ noun [C] (pl. amnesties)

1 a time when a government forgives political crimes

2 a time when people can give in illegal weapons

Lamong /ə'mʌŋ/ (also amongst /ə'mʌŋst/) prep 1 surrounded by; in the middle of: I often feel nervous when I'm among strangers. Often modern block looks wrong among all the old buildings. \circ I found the missing letter amongst a heap of old newspapers.

2 in the group or number of: She is among the nicest people I have ever met. • Among the city's attractions are its museums and art galleries.

3 to each one (of a group): On his death, his money will be divided among his children.

4 inside (a group): Discuss it amongst yourselves and let me know your decision. ⊃ Look at the note at between.

lamount /əˈmaont/ noun [C] 1 the amount of sth is how much of it there is; quantity: I spent an enormous amount of time preparing for the exam.

enormous amount of time preparing for the exam. I have a certain amount of sympathy with her. کینّد، قنر 2 total or sum of money: You are requested to pay مجمع: مبلغ amount within seven days. مجمع: مبلغ amount verb [I] amount to sth 1 to add up to; to total: The cost of the repairs amounted to £5 000.

2 to be the same as: Whether I tell her today or tomorrow, it amounts to the same thing.

یتساوی مع

amp /æmp/ (also formal ampere /ˈæmpeə(r); US ˈæmpɪər/) noun [C] a unit for measuring electric current amphibian /æmˈfibiən/ noun [C] an animal that can live both on land and in water. Amphibians have cold blood and skin without scales. يرماني ample /ˈæmpl/ adj 1 enough or more than enough: We've got ample time to make a decision.

○ I'm not sure how much the trip will cost, but I should think £500 will be ample.

2 large; having a great deal of space: There is space for an ample car park.

► amply /ˈæmpli/ adv: The report makes it amply clear whose mistake it was.

amplify /ˈemplɪfaɪ/ verb [T] (pres part amplifying; 3rd pers sing pres amplifies; pt, pp amplified) 1 to increase the strength of a sound, using electrical equipment

2 (formal) to add details to sth in order to explain it more fully: Would you like to amplify your recent comments, Minister?

► amplification /æmplifi'kei∫n/ noun [U]: These comments need further amplification.

amplifier noun [C] a piece of electrical equipment for making sounds louder or signals amputate /ˈæmpjuteɪt/ verb [I,T] to cut off a person's arm or leg (or part of it) for medical reasons: His leg was so badly injured that it had to be amoutated.

بَثْرُ amputation / æmpjuˈteɪʃn/ noun [C,U] بُثُرُ

Tamuse /oʻmju:z/ verb [T] 1 to make sb laugh or smile; to seem funny to sb: Everybody laughed but I couldn't understand what had amused them.

2 to make time pass pleasantly for sb; to stop sb from getting bored: I did some crosswords to amuse myself on the journey. o I've brought a few toys to amuse the children.

▶ amused adj 1 if you are amused, you think that sth is funny and it makes you want to laugh or smile: You may think it's funny, but I'm not amused. ○ I was amused to hear his account of what happened.

2 if sth keeps you amused, it makes you pass the time pleasantly, without getting bored

متسلُ غير شاعر بالملل amusement noun 1 [U] the feeling caused by sth that makes you laugh or smile, or by sth that entertains you and that stops you from being bored: There was a look of amusement on his face. Much to the pupils' amusement, the teacher fell off his chair.

2 [C] something that makes time pass pleasantly; an entertainment: The holiday centre offers a wide range of amusements, including golf and tennis.

amusing adj causing you to laugh or smile: He's a very amusing person and he makes me laugh a lot. o an amusing story

an → A2

- anaemia (US anemia) /əˈniːmiə/ noun [U] a medical condition in which there are not enough red cells in the blood الأنيميا: فقر الدم
- ▶ anaemic (US anemic) /əˈniːmɪk/ adj suffering from anaemia
- anaesthetic (US anesthetic) /ˌænəs'θetik/noun [C,U] a substance that stops you feeling pain, e.g. when a doctor is performing an operation on you: You'll need to be under anaesthetic for the operation. a local anaesthetic (= one that only affects part of the body and does not make you unconscious) a general anaesthetic (= one that makes you unconscious)
- > anaesthetist (US anesthetist) /əˈniːsθətist/ noun [C] a person who is qualified to give anaesthetics to patients طبيب التغذير anaesthetize (also anaesthetise; US anes-thetize) /əˈniːsθətaɪz/ verb [T] to give an anaesthetic to sb anagram /ˈænəgræm/ noun [C] a word or phrase that is made by arranging the letters of another word or phrase in a different order: 'Worth' is an anagram of 'throw'.

analogous /əˈnæləgəs/ adj (formal) analogous (to/with sth) similar in some way; that you can compare analogy /əˈnælədʒi/ noun [C] (pl. analogies) an analogy (between sth and sth) a comparison between two things that shows a way in which they are similar: You could make an analogy between the human body and a car engine.

by analogy If you explain sth by analogy to sthe lse you compare it to the other thing and show how it is similar.

Lanalyse (US analyze) /'ænəlaız/ verb [T] to look at or think about the different parts or details of sth carefully in order to understand or explain it:

The water samples are now being analysed in a laboratory. • to analyse statistics • She analysed the situation and then decided what lo do.

Ranalysis /əˈnæləsɪs/ noun (pl. analyses /-siːz/)

1 [C.U] the careful examination of the different parts or details of sth: Some samples of the water were sent to a laboratory for analysis. • They carried out an analysis of the causes of the problem.

2 [C] the result of such an examination: Your analysis of the situation is different from mine. نتيجة التحليل

► analytical /ˌænəˈlɪtɪkl/ (also analytic) adj looking carefully at the different parts of sth in order to understand or explain it: analytic techniques analyst /'ænəlist/ noun [C] a person whose job is to analyse things as an expert: a food analyst

محلًا ،

- anarchy /ˈænəki/ noun [U] a situation in which people do not obey rules and laws; a situation in which there is no government in a country: While the civil war went on, the country was in a state of anarchy.
- ► anarchic /əˈnɑːkɪk/ adj without rules or laws موضوي anarchism /ˈænəkɪzəm/ noun [U] the political theory that there should be no government or laws in a country منظريّة الفوضوية anarchist noun [C] a person who believes in this theory, especially one who takes action to anatomy /o'nætəmi/ noun (pl. anatomies) 1 [U] the scientific study of the structure of human or animal bodies

- 2 [C] the structure of a living thing: the anatomy of the frog
- ▶ anatomical / ænəˈtɒmɪkl/ adj

ancestor /ˈænsestə(r)/ noun [C] a person in your family who lived a long time before you, from whom you are descended: My ancestors settled in this country a hundred years ago.

▶ ancestry /ˈænsestri/ noun [C,U] (pl. ancestries) all of a person's ancestors, when you think of them as a group: He was of Irish ancestry.

anchor /ˈæŋkə(r)/ noun [C] a heavy metal object at the end of a chain that you drop into the water from a boat in order to keep the boat in one place:

They dropped anchor 400 yards offshore.

• anchor verb 1 [I,T] to drop an anchor; to stop a boat moving by using an anchor: We anchored in the harbour and went ashore.

2 [T] to fix sth firmly so that it is held in a place and cannot move: They anchored the tent with strong ropes.

anchovy /ˈæntʃəvi; US -əʊvi/ noun [C,U] (pl. anchovies) a small fish with a strong salty flavour

Çancient /ˈemʃənt/ adj 1 belonging to or connected with the distant past: ancient civilizations

- 2 having existed for a long time: The annual festival is one of the ancient traditions of the
- 3 (informal) very old: I can't believe he's only 30, he looks ancient! متقدم في السِن
- land /end; en; strong form ænd/ conj 1 (used to connect words or parts of sentences) also; in addition to: bread and butter o one woman, two men and three children o a boy and a girl o an apple and a pear o Do it slowly and carefully. o We were singing and dancing all evening. وَ (حرف عطف)

When the two things are closely linked, you do not need to repeat the 'a', etc: a knife and fork my mother and father

2 (used when you are saying numbers) plus: Twelve and six is eighteen. o It cost me a hundred and sixty pounds.

When you are saying large numbers and is used after the word 'hundred': We say 2 264 as two thousand, two hundred and sixty-four.

- 3 then; following this or that: Come in and sit
- 4 as a result of this or that; because of this or that: It was a terrible shock and he was very $upset. \circ \textit{Say that again and I'll lose my temper.}$
- 5 (used between repeated words to show that sth is increasing or continuing): The situation is getting worse and worse. o I shouted and shouted but nobody answered.

(للتدليل على استفحال أمر أو استمراره)

- 6 (used between repeated words for saying that there are important differences between things of the same kind): City life can be very exciting but there are cities and cities. (لتأكيد الفَرق)
- 7 (used instead of 'to' after certain verbs e.g. 'go', 'come', 'try'): Go and answer the door for me, will you? o I'll try and find out what's going on. o Why don't you come and stay with us one (بعد بعض الأفعال) weekend?

anecdote / enikdout/ noun [C] a short interesting story about a real person or event حکایة، نادرة anemia, anemic (US) = ANAEMIA, ANAEMIC

anesthetic (US) = ANAESTHETIC

- anew /ə'nju:: US ə'nu:/ adv (formal) again; in a new or different way: They started life anew in محدداً، مرّة أخرى
- angel /'eind3l/ noun [C] 1 a servant of God: In pictures angels are usually dressed in white, with مَلاك، مَلَك
- 2 a person who is very kind: Be an angel and شخص لطيف wash these clothes for me, will you? ▶ angelic /æn'dʒelɪk/ adj looking or acting like ملائكي ۗ ىملائكىة an angel angelically /-kli/ adv
- Langer /'ængə(r)/ noun [U] the strong feeling that you have when sth has happened or sb has done sth that you do not like: He could not hide his anger at the news. o She was shaking with anger.

- ▶ anger verb [T] to cause sb to become angry: It angers me that such things can be allowed to happen.
- rangle / 'ængl/ noun [C] 1 the space between two lines or surfaces that meet, measured in degrees: a right angle (= a angle of 90°) o at an angle of 40° o The three angles of a triangle add up to 180°.
 - 2 the direction from which you look at sth: Viewed from this angle, the building looks bigger than it really is. o If we look at the problem from another angle, it might be easier to solve it.

زاوية، حهة IDM at an angle not straight: This hat is meant to be worn at an angle.

- ▶ angle verb [T] 1 to put sth in a position that is not straight; to be in this position: Angle the lamp towards the desk.
- 2 angle sth (at/to/towards sb) to present sth from a particular point of view; to aim sth at a particular person: The new magazine is angled at young professional people.

يعرض من زاوية معيّنة، يستهدف

angle² /'ængl/

PHRV angle for sth to try to make sb give you sth, without asking for it directly: She was angling for a free ticket to the match.

يحتال لنَيْل شيء

- angler / engla(r)/ noun [C] a person who catches هاوي صيد سمك fish as a hobby
- ▶ angling noun [U] fishing as a sport or hobby: He goes angling at weekends. صَيْد السمك (هواية)

Anglican /'ænglikən/ noun [C] a member of the Church of England, or of a related church in another English-speaking country أنكليكاني: تابع للكنيسة الأنكليكانية

- Anglo- /'ængləv/ (in compounds) English or British: connected with England or Britain (and another country or countries): Anglo-American إنكليزيّ، متعلّق بإنكلترا أو بريطانيا relations
- Anglo-Saxon /ænglev 'sæksn/ noun 1 [C] a person whose ancestors were English

شخص من أصل انكليزي

- 2 [C] an English person who lived in the period أنكلوسكسوني before the Norman Conquest
- 3 (also Old English) [U] the English language اللغّة الانكلوسكسونية الانكلوسكسوني before about 1150
- ► Anglo-Saxon adj
- Langry / engri/ adj (angrier; angriest) angry (with sb) (at/about sth) feeling or showing anger: Calm down, there's no need to get angry. My parents will be angry with me if I get home late. o I'm very angry with them for letting me down at the last moment. o He's always getting angry about something. ▶ angrily /-əli/ adv
 - anguish / engwis/ noun [U] great pain or suffering, especially of a mental kind: The newspaper told of the mother's anguish at the death of her أَلُم مَبْرُح، حسرة
 - ▶ anguished adj: There was an anguished متألم، كمد expression in his eyes.

angular → anorak

angular /'ængjələ(r)/ adj with sharp points or corners: an angular face (= one where you can حاد الزّوايا؛ بارز العظام see the bones clearly)

- Canimal /eniml/ noun [C] 1 a living creature that is not a plant: the animal kingdom o Humans are a social animals. حيوان
 - 2 a living creature of this kind, but not including humans: She thinks that zoos are cruel to animals. o They keep cows, chickens and other animals on their farm.
 - 3 a living creature that is not a human, bird, fish, insect or reptile: He studied the animals and birds of Southern Africa. o Domestic animals such as cats and dogs are not very popular in my country.
- animated / enimeitid/ adj 1 lively and interesting: an animated discussion مفعم بالحيوية
- 2 (used about films) using a technique by which drawings or models appear to move an ani-(أفلام) الرسوم المتحركة mated cartoon
- ▶ animation / ænr'mer∫n/ noun [U] 1 the state of being lively: She spoke with great animation on the subject.
- 2 the technique of making films, videos and computer games with drawings that appear to رسوم متحركة move
- ? ankle /'ænkl/ noun [C] the part of the body where the foot joins the leg. The water only came up to \annual /'ænjuəl/ adj 1 happening or done once my ankles. o I tripped and sprained my ankle.

الكاحل: رسغ القدم

- annex /ə'neks/ verb [T] to take possession and control of another country or region
- ▶ annexation / ænek'sei∫n/ noun [C,U]: the annexation of Austria
- annexe (especially US annex) / eneks/ noun [C] a building that is joined to or near a larger one
- annihilate /ə'naɪəleɪt/ verb [T] to destroy or defeat sb/sth completely: The army was annihilated in the battle. o They weren't just beaten in the match, they were annihilated.
- ▶ annihilation /ə,naıə'leɪ∫n/ noun [U]: Modern weapons have placed mankind in danger of
- Canniversary / enr'va:səri/ noun [C] (pl. anniversaries) a day that is exactly a year or a number of years after a special or important event: the hundredth anniversary of the country's independence o a twenty-fifth wedding anniversary ○ Look at birthday.
 - annotated /'enəteitid/ adj (used about a book, etc.) with notes added to it that explain and give extra information about the contents
- Lannounce /ə'nauns/ verb [T] 1 to make sth known publicly, in an official way: We are pleased to announce the opening of our new department store. O The winners will be announced in next week's paper. o The champion was defeated and announced his retirement from the sport.
 - 2 to say sth in a loud voice or in an aggressive

- way: She stormed into my office and announced that she was leaving.
- ▶ announcement noun 1 [C] a statement that tells people about sth: Ladies and gentlemen, may I have your attention. I have an important announcement to make.
- 2 [U] the act of telling people about sth: The announcement of the election results takes place at the Town Hall
- announcer noun [C] a person who introduces or gives information about programmes on radio or television
- rannoy /ə'nɔɪ/ verb [T] to make sb quite angry: It really annoys me when you act so selfishly. O Close the door if the noise is annoying you.
 - ▶ annoyance /-ons/ noun 1 [U] the feeling of being annoyed: Much to my annoyance, the train had just left when I got to the station.
 - 2 [C] something that annoys: Low-flying planes are an annoyance in this area.
 - annoyed adj angry or fairly angry: I shall be extremely annoyed if he turns up late again. o She's annoyed with herself for making such a stupid mistake. o He's annoyed that nobody believes him. o I was annoyed to see that they had left the door open.
 - annoying adj making you feel rather angry: Oh, how annoying! I've left my money at home.
- a year or every year: the company's annual report o an annual festival سنوى
- 2 for the period of one year: Her annual income is £20 000. o the annual sales figures ▶ annual noun [C] a book or magazine that is published once a year, with the same title but different contents: the 2006 Football Annual
- كتاب سنويّ، مجلّة سنويّة annually /'ænjuəli/ adv: Payment will be made annually. o China produces about 60 tonnes of gold annually.
- anon. /ə'npn/ abbrev (used to show that we do not know who the author of a piece of writing is) anonymous
- anonymity / ænə'nıməti/ noun [U] the situation where a person's name is not known
 - مجهولية؛ عدم معرفة الاسم
- anonymous /ə'nɒniməs/ adj 1 (used about a person) with a name that is not known or made public: An anonymous caller told the police that the robbery was going to take place. مجهول الاسم
- 2 done, written, given, etc. by sb whose name is not known or made public: He received an مجهولِ المصدر، (فاعله) غير مسمّى anonymous letter. ▶ anonymously adv
- anorak / eneræk/ noun [C] 1 a short coat with a hood that protects you from rain, wind and سترة مع غطاء للرأس
 - 2 (Brit informal) a person who enjoys learning boring facts or collecting things that most people think are boring: He's a real anorak - he can name every player in the World Cup.

من يشغل نفسه بأمور مملّة

مذيّل بحواش

anorexia / ænəˈreksiə/ (also anorexia nervosa / ,ænəreksiə na:'vəusə/) noun [U] an illness, especially affecting young women. It makes them afraid of being fat and so they do not eat. ▶ anorexic / ænəˈreksik/ adj

Canother /əˈnʌðə(r)/ det, pron 1 one more; an additional thing or person: Would you like another drink? o 'Have you finished yet?' 'No, I've still got another three questions to do.' o They've got three children already and they're having an other. o Is this another of your silly jokes?

2 a different thing or person: I'm afraid I can't see you tomorrow, could we arrange another day? o She discovered that he was having an affair with another woman. o If you've already seen that film, we can go and see another. 2 Look also at one another.

IDM one after another/the other → ONE1

say or write sth back to sb who has asked you sth: I asked her what the matter was but she didn't answer. o I've asked you a question, now please answer me. o Answer all the questions on the form, o When I asked him how much he earned. he answered that it was none of my business.

Answer and reply are the most common verbs used for speaking or writing in reaction to questions, letters, etc: I asked him a question but he didn't answer. o I sent my application but they haven't replied yet. Note that you answer a person, a question or a letter (no 'to') but you reply to a letter. Respond is less common and more formal with this meaning: Applicants must respond within seven days. It is more commonly used with the meaning of 'reacting in a way that is desired': Despite all the doctor's efforts the patient did not respond to treatment.

2 to do sth as a reply: Can you answer the phone for me, please? o I rang their doorbell but nobody answered. o He hasn't answered my letter yet (= written a letter back to me).

PHRV answer back to defend yourself against sth bad that has been written or said about you: It's wrong to write things like that about people who can't answer back. يردُ (دفاعاً عن النفس) answer (sb) back to reply rudely to sb

يردُ بخشونة، يتواقح answer for sb/sth 1 to accept responsibility or blame for: Somebody will have to answer for all the damage that has been caused. يتحمّل المسؤوليّة

2 to speak in support of sb/sth: I can certainly answer for her honesty.

▶ answerable /-abl/ answerable to sb (for sth) having to explain and give good reasons for your actions to sb; responsible to sb محاسّب لدي، م

وول

Lanswer² /'a:nsə(r); US 'ænsər/ noun [C] answer

(to sb/sth) 1 something that you say, write or do as a reply: The answer to your question is that I don't know. o They've made me an offer and I have to give them an answer by Friday. o I wrote to them two weeks ago and I'm still waiting for an answer. o I knocked on the door and waited but there was no answer. احابة، رُدَ

2 a solution to a problem: I didn't have any money so the only answer was to borrow some.

3 something that is written or said, trying to give the correct information asked for in a test or exam: What was the answer to question 4?

IDM in answer (to sth) as a reply (to sth): They sent me some leaflets in answer to my request for information.

answering machine (Brit answerphone /'amsəfəun; US 'æns-/) noun [C] a machine that answers the telephone and records messages from callers: I rang him and left a message on his answerphone. آلة تسجيل الرسائل التليفونيّة ant /ænt/ noun [C] a very small insect that lives in large groups and works very hard: an army of antagonism /æn'tægənizəm/ noun [U] antagonism (towards sb/sth); antagonism (between A and B) a feeling of hate and of being opposed to sb/sth antagonize (also antagonise) /æn'tægənaɪz/ verb [T] to make sb angry or to annoy sb: She tends to antagonize people with her outspoken re-يستعدي (على نفسه) marks.

Antarctic /æn'tɑ:ktɪk/ adj connected with the coldest, most southern parts of the world: an Antarctic expedition 2 Look at Arctic.

متعلّق بالقطب الجنوبي

▶ the Antarctic noun [sing.] the most southern part of the world

antelope /'æntiləup/ noun [C] (pl. antelope or antelopes) an animal with horns that has long, thin legs, looks like a deer and can run very fast. It is found especially in Africa.

antenatal /, anti 'nertl/ adj happening or existing before birth: an antenatal clinic (= for pregnant women) antenna /æn'tenə/ noun [C] 1 (pl. antennae /-ni:/) one of the two long thin parts on the heads of insects and some animals that live in shells. It is used for feeling things with.

قرن الاستشعار (لدى الحشرة)

2 (pl. antennas) (US) = $AERIAL^{\dagger}$

anthem /'æntem/ noun [C] a song, especially one that is sung in church or on special occasions: the national anthem (= the special song of ترتيلة (دينيّة)، نشيد a country)

anthology /æn'θnlədʒi/ noun [C] (pl. anthologies) a book that contains pieces of written work or poems, often on the same subject, by different authors: an anthology of love poetry محموعة نثرنة أو شعرنة anthropology / ænθrə poladzi/ noun [U] the study of human beings, especially of their origin, development, customs and beliefs

antibiotic → anybody

antibiotic / entibar ptik/ noun [C] a medicine which is used for destroying bacteria and curing infections: The doctor gave me some antibiotics مضاد حيوي for a chest infection.

antibody /'æntibodi/ noun [C] (pl. antibodies) a substance that the body produces to fight dis-

Canticipate /æn'tisspeit/ verb [T] to expect sth to happen (and to prepare for it): to anticipate a problem o Traffic jams are anticipated on all coastal roads this weekend. o I anticipate that the situation will get worse. o We anticipate an increase in sales over the next few months. يتوقع anticipation /æn,tisi'peifn/ noun [U] 1 the state of expecting sth to happen (and preparing for it): The government has reduced tax in anticipation of an early general election.

2 the state of feeling excited about sth that is going to happen: They queued outside the cinema in excited anticipation. توقّع، انتظار anticlimax / ænti klaımæks/ noun [C,U] an event, etc. that is less exciting than you had expected or than what has already happened: a mood/feeling of anticlimax o The ending of the film was a dreadful anticlimax.

هبوط (لنهاية مخيّبة للآمال مثلاً)

anticlockwise / ænti klokwaiz/ (US counterclockwise) adv, adj in the opposite direction to $lid\ anticlockwise/in\ an\ anticlockwise\ direction.$

عكس حركة عقارب الساعة

antics / entites / noun [plural] funny, strange or silly ways of behaving: The children roared with laughter at the clown's antics.

antidote /'æntidəʊt/ noun [C] 1 a medical substance that is used to prevent a poison or a disease from having an effect: an antidote to snakebites

2 anything that helps you to deal with sth unpleasant: Many people find music a marvellous antidote to stress.

antipathy /æn'tipəθi/ noun [U] antipathy (to/ towards sb/sth) (a strong feeling of) dislike antiperspirant / enti'ps:sperent/ noun [C,U] a liquid, cream, etc. that you use to reduce sweating, especially under the arms

قاطع التعرّق، مزيل رانحة العرق

نفور

antiquated /'æntikweitid/ adj old-fashioned and not suitable for the modern world: anti-مهجور، قديم، فأت زمانه quated ideas/methods antique /æn'ti:k/ adj very old and therefore unusual and valuable: an antique vase, table, etc. o antique furniture, jewellery, etc. ▶ antique noun [C] an old and valuable object, e.g. a piece of furniture: He collects antiques. o an antique shop (= one that sells antiques) o That vase is an antique.

antiquity /æn'trkwəti/ noun (pl. antiquities) 1 [U] ancient times, especially those of the Egyptians, Greeks and Romans: myths and legends from antiquity

2 [C, usually pl.] a building, work of art or other object that remains from ancient times: Greek, أثر (من عهد قديم) Roman, etc. antiquities

3 [U] great age: priceless objects of great antiauitv عمر طويل anti-Semitism / ænti 'semətizəm/ noun [U] prejudice against Jewish people

اللاساميّة: مُعاداة اليهود

antiseptic / ænti 'septik / noun [C,U] a liquid or cream that prevents a cut, etc. from becoming infected: Put an antiseptic/some antiseptic on that scratch.

▶ antiseptic adj: antiseptic cream antisocial /,ænti'səuʃl/ adj 1 not considered acceptable by other people or the rest of society: antisocial behaviour/activities o Some people regard smoking as antisocial.

2 not willing to be with other people; unfriend-غير اجتماعي، مجاف antler /'æntlə(r)/ noun [C, usually pl.] a horn on the head of a male deer: a pair of antlers

قرن الوَعل

anus /'eməs/ noun [C] (pl. anuses) the hole through which solid waste substances leave the است، شرج body

feeling of worry or fear, especially about the future: a feeling/a state of anxiety o There are anxieties over the effects of unemployment. قَلْق، هُمُ

Canxious /ˈæŋkʃəs/ adj 1 anxious (about/for sb/sth) worried and afraid: I began to get anxious when they still hadn't arrived at 9 o'clock. o an anxious look, expression, etc.

قَلق، مُضْطَرِب الخاطر

2 causing worry and fear: For a few anxious moments we thought we'd missed the train.

3 anxious to do sth wanting sth very much: eager for sth: Police are anxious to find the owner حريص، متلهّف (على فعل شيء) of the white car. ▶ anxiously adv

Lany /eni/det, pron 1 (used in negative sentences and in questions, also after if/whether) some: We didn't have any lunch. o I speak hardly any Spanish. o I don't know any Canadians. o He asked if we had any questions. O I wanted chips but there aren't any. o I don't like any of his books. 3 Look at the note at some.

2 (used for saying that it does not matter which thing or person you choose): Take any book you want. o Any teacher would say the same. o Come round any time - I'm usually in. o I'll take any that you don't want.

▶ any adv (used in negative sentences and questions) at all; to any degree: I can't run any مطلقاً، إلى أي حد faster. O Is your father any better?

Canybody /'enibodi/ (also anyone) pron 1 (usually in questions or negative statements) any person: I didn't know anybody at the party. O Is there anybody here who can speak Japanese? o Would anybody else (= any other person) like to come with me?

شيء عتيق، أثري

The difference between somebody and anybody is the same as the difference between some and any. Look at the notes at some and

- (= all people) can learn to swim. o Can anybody come? Or are there special invitations?
- anyhow /'enihau/ adv 1 (also anyway) (used to add an extra point or reason) in any case: Spain will be terribly hot in August and anyhow we can't afford a holiday abroad. على أية حال
 - 2 (also anyway) (used when saying or writing sth which contrasts in some way with what has gone before) however: It's a very difficult exam but anyway you can try. o I'm afraid I can't come to your party, but thanks anyway. على كل حال
- 3 (also anyway) (used for correcting sth you have just said and making it more accurate) at least: Everybody wants to be rich - well, most على الأقلُّ people anyhow.
- 4 (also anyway) (used after a pause in order to change the subject or go back to a subject being discussed before): Anyway, that's enough about my problems. How are you?
- 5 in a careless way; with no order: She threw her clothes on anyhow and dashed out of the door. كيفما أتفق anyone /'eniwan/ pron = anybody

anyplace (US) = ANYWHERE

Lanything /'eniθιη/ pron 1 (usually in questions or negative statements) one thing (of any kind): The fog was so thick that I couldn't see anything at all. o There isn't anything interesting in the newspaper today. o Did you buy anything? o 'I'd like a pound of apples please.' 'Anything else?' (= any other thing?)

The difference between something and anything is the same as the difference between some and any. Look at the note at some.

2 any thing or things: it does not matter what: I'm starving. I'll eat anything. o I'll do anything vou sav.

anything like sb/sth at all similar to sb/ sth; nearly: She isn't anything like her sister, is she? o This car isn't anything like as fast as mine. لا يشبه، لا يقارب like anything → LIKE2 not come to anything → COME anyway /'eniwei/ adv = Anyhow

lanywhere /'eniwea(r)/ (US also anyplace) adv 1 (usually in questions or negative statements) in, at or to any place: I can't find my keys anywhere. o Is there a post office anywhere near here? O You can't buy the book anywhere else (= in another place). o If we want to go anywhere in August we'd better book it now. في أي مكان

The difference between somewhere and anywhere is the same as the difference between some and any. Look at the note at 2 any place; it does not matter where: 'Where shall we go to eat?' 'Oh, anywhere will do.' في أي مكان

- 2 any person, it does not matter who: Anybody Lapart /ə'pa:t/ adv 1 away from sb/sth or each other; not together: The doors slowly slid apart. o They always quarrel so it's best to keep them منفردًا، بِمَعْزِل apart.
 - 2 away from each other by the distance mentioned: Plant the potatoes two feet apart. o I'm afraid our ideas are too far apart.
 - 3 into pieces: to fall apart o The material was so old that it just fell/came apart in my hands. $\circ \ \textit{Their relationship was clearly falling apart} \ (=$ يتكسر، يتهشم about to end).

IDM take sth apart to separate sth into pieces: He took the whole bicycle apart. مَفك tell A and B apart to see the difference between A and B: It's very difficult to tell the twins

- a'part from (especially US aside from) prep 1 except for: I've finished my homework apart from some reading we have to do. o There's nobody here apart from me.
- 2 as well as; in addition to: Apart from their house in the country they've got a flat in Lon-
- apartheid /ə'pa:thait; US-heit/ noun [U] the former official government policy in South Africa of separating people of different races and making them live apart (سياسة) التَفْرقة العنصرية
- apartment /ə'pa:tmənt/ noun [C] 1 (especially US) = $FLAT^1$
 - 2 [usually pl.] one of a number of rooms in a large house, used by an important person: the حَجْرة أو شقّة، مقصورة Duke's private apartments
 - a'partment block noun [C] a large building containing several apartments عمارة متعددة الشقق
- apathy /'æpəθi/ noun [U] a lack of_interest in things or of a desire to do anything لامبالاة apathetic / æpə'θetik/ adj lacking interest or a desire to act: Don't be so apathetic!
- ape /em/ noun [C] a type of animal like a large monkey with no tail or only a very short tail: Chimpanzees and gorillas are apes. ▶ ape verb [T] to copy sb/sth
- aperitif /ə,perə'ti:f; US ə,perə'ti:f/ noun [C] a drink of alcohol that you have before a meal مشروب كحولي فاتح للشهية
- apiece /ə'pi:s/ adv each: He gave the children £1
- apologetic /ə,pplə'dzetik/ adj feeling or showing that you are sorry for sth you have done: He was most apologetic about his son's bad behaviour. اعتذاري I wrote him an apologetic letter. ▶ apologetically /-kli/ adv باعتذار

Papologize (also apologise) /ə'pplədʒaiz/ verh

apology → appendicitis

[I] apologize (to sb) (for sth) to say that you are sorry for sth you have done: I do apologize for taking so long to reply to your letter. • You'll have to apologize to your teacher for forgetting to do your homework. • When you apologize, the actual words you use are usually 'I'm sorry'.

apology /əˈpɒlədʒi/ noun [C.U] (pl. apologies) apology (to sb) (for sth) a spoken or written statement that you are sorry for sth you have done, etc: Please accept our apologies for the problems you experienced during your stay in the hotel. Ohe was full of apology for having missed my birthday.

apostle /e'pɒsl/ noun [C] one of the twelve men chosen by Christ to spread his teaching حواري

- apostrophe /əˈpɒstrəfi/ noun [C] 1 the sign (') used for showing that you have left a letter or number out of a word (as in 'I'm', 'can't', 'we'll', etc.) (الفاصلة العليا (للدُلالة على حَذَف حَرف أو عدد)
- 2 the sign (') used for showing who or what sth belongs or relates to as in 'John's chair', 'the boy's room' or 'the book's title'.

الفاصلة العليا (للدلالة على الإضافة)

- appal (US appall) /əˈpɔːl/ verb [T] (appalling; appalled) (usually passive) to shock sb deeply: We were appalled by the poverty and starvation we saw everywhere.
- ▶ appalling adj shocking or terrible: appalling cruelty ∘ The food is appalling.
 مشنيح، شنيح
 appallingly adv
- apparatus / epəˈreɪtəs; US -ˈrætəs/ noun [U] a set of tools, instruments or equipment used for doing a job or an activity: the scientific apparatus necessary for carrying out experiments
- Ç apparent /əˈpærənt/ adj 1 (only before a noun) perhaps not true or real although seeming to be so: His apparent interest in the proposal didn't last very long.
 - 2 apparent to sb clear; easy to see: It was apparent to everyone that the man could not be trusted. For no apparent reason she suddenly burst into tears.
 - ► apparently adv 1 according to what people say (but perhaps not true): Apparently, he's already been married twice.
 - 2 according to how sth seems or appears (but perhaps not true): He was apparently undisturbed by the news.
- Rappeal /əˈpi:l/ verb [1] 1 appeal to sb (for sth); appeal for sth to make a serious request for sth you need or want very much: Relief workers in the disaster area are appealing for more help and supplies. She appeared on television to appeal to the men for her child's safe return.
 - 2 appeal (to sb) to be attractive or interesting (to sb): The idea of living in the country doesn't appeal to me at all.
 - 3 appeal to sth to influence sb's feelings or thoughts so that he/she will do sth you want: to appeal to sb's honour, sense of justice, etc. We aim to appeal to people's generosity.

يحتكِم إلى، يخاطب

- 4 appeal (to sb) (for/against sth) to ask sb in authority to change a decision: He decided to appeal against his conviction. o The team appealed against the referee's decision.
- > appeal noun 1 [C] a serious request for sth you need or want very much: The police have made an urgent appeal for witnesses to come forward. a television, radio, etc. appeal (= a television or radio programme asking for help or money for a particular cause)
- 2 [C] appeal to sth a written or spoken statement that tries to influence sb's feelings or thoughts so that he/she will do what you want: a powerful appeal to our sense of loyalty
- 3 [C] a formal request to sb in authority to change a decision: The judge turned down the defendant's appeal.
- 4 [U] attraction or interest: I can't understand the appeal of stamp collecting. appealing adj 1 attractive or interesting: The idea of a Greek holiday sounds very appealing!
- 2 showing that you need help, etc: an appealing glance in my direction

 appealingly adv
- Cappear /ə'pɪə(r)/ verb [I] 1 to be seen; to come into sight: The bus appeared round the corner
- into sight: The bus appeared round the corner.
 - 2 to begin to exist: The disease is thought to have appeared in Africa. يَظُهِن بِيداً
- 3 to be published or printed: The article appeared in the 'Daily Mail' on Friday.
- 4 to present yourself in public to speak, perform, act, etc. to appear on television o A man will appear in court today charged with murder. o She is currently appearing in 'Macbeth'.

يَظهر، يُمثل (أمام محكمة)

- 5 to seem: She appears to be very happy in her job. It appears that you were given the wrong information. 'Do you think there will be an election?' 'It appears so/not.' ④ The adjective is apparent.
- Rappearance /oʻpiərəns/ noun 1 [sing.] the arrival of sb/sth: I was surprised by her unexpected appearance at the party.
 - 2 [sing.] the beginning (of sth never seen or used before): the appearance of television in the home in the 1950s
 - 3 [C] an act of appearing in public, especially on stage, television, etc: His last appearance before his death was in 'Julius Caesar'.

ظهور، مثول (أمام محكمة)

- 4 [C,U] the way that sh/sth looks: A different hairstyle can completely change your appearance.

 O He gives the appearance of being extremely confident.
- appendicitis /ə,pendə'sartıs/ noun [U] an illness in which your appendix becomes extremely painful and usually has to be removed التهاب الزائدة الدودية

- appendix /əˈpendiks/ noun [C] 1 (pl. appendixes) a small tube inside your body which is attached to the intestine
- 2 (pl. appendices /-disi:z/) a section at the end of a book, etc. that gives extra information
- appetite /ˈæpɪtaɪt/ noun 1 [C,U] the desire for food: a good/healthy appetite o My two teenage sons have enormous appetites! o Some fresh air and exercise should give you an appetite (= make you hungry).
- 2 [C,U] a natural desire: sexual appetites 596

 DM whet sb's appetite → WHET
- appetizer (also appetiser) /ˈæpɪtaɪzə(r)/ noun [C] a small amount of food or a drink that you have before a meal
- appetizing (also appetising) /ˈæpɪtaɪzɪŋ/ adj (used about food, etc.) attractive and tempting: an appetizing smell
- applaud /əˈplɔːd/ verb 1 [I,T] to clap your hands in order to show that you like sb/sth: The audience applauded loudly. The team was applauded as it left the field.
- 2 [T] (usually passive) to praise sb/sth: The decision was applauded by everybody.
- applause /əˈplɔːz/ noun [U] the noise made by a group of people, clapping their hands to show their approval and enjoyment: The performance got terrific applause from the audience. The actor was greeted by a round of applause.
- Lapple /ˈæpl/ noun [C] a hard, round fruit with a smooth green, red or yellow skin: cooking/eating apples o an apple pie
 - appliance /ə'plaɪəns/ noun [C] a piece of equipment for a particular purpose in the house: electrical appliances
 - applicable /əˈplɪkəbl; ˈæplɪkəbl/ adj (not before a noun) applicable (to sb/sth) that concerns or relates to: This part of the form is only applicable to married women.
- applicant /ˈæplɪkənt/ noun [C] a person who applies for sth, especially a job
- $ application /ˌæplrˈkerʃn/ noun 1 [C,U] application (to sb) (for sth) a formal written request, especially for a job or a place in a school, club, etc: Applications for the job should be made to the Personnel Manager. o an application form (= a special form on which you apply for a job, etc.)
 - 2 [C,U] a/the practical use (of sth): The lecture was about the application of educational theory to the classroom.
 - 3 [C] a computer program designed to do a particular job; a piece of software: a database application
 - 4 [U] hard work; effort شابرة، جَهْد
- Lapply /ə'plai/ verb (pres part applying; 3rd pers sing pres applies; pt, pp applied) 1 [I] apply (to sb) (for sth) to ask for sth in writing: I'm going to apply for that job they advertised. \circ My daughter's applying for a place at university.

يتقدّم (لوظيفة)

- 2 [T] apply yourself/sth (to sth/to doing sth) to make yourself concentrate on sth: to apply your mind to sth o He applied himself to his studies.
- 3 [I] apply (to sb/sth) to concern or relate (to sb/sth): This information applies to all children born after 2003.
- 4 [T] apply sth (to sth) to make practical use of sth: new technology which can be applied to solving problems in industry
- 5 [T] (usually passive) to use a word, a name, etc. to refer to sb/sth: I don't think the word 'antique' can be applied to this old table, do you?
- 6 [T] apply sth (to sth) to put or spread sth (onto sth): Apply the cream to the infected area twice a day.
- ► applied adj (used about a subject) having a practical use: applied mathematics (e.g. as used in engineering)
- Rappoint /əˈpɔmt/ verb [T] 1 appoint sb (to sth) to choose sb for a job, etc: The committee have appointed a new chairperson. o He's been appointed (as) Assistant Secretary to the Minister of Education.
 - 2 appoint sth (for sth) (formal) to arrange or decide on sth: the date appointed for the next meeting
- Rappointment /ə'pɔintmənt/ noun 1 [C,U] appointment (with sb) an arrangement to see sb at a particular time: a doctor's, dentist's, hairdresser's, etc. appointment o I'd like to make an appointment to see the manager. I'm afraid I won't be able to keep our appointment on Monday.

 to cancel an appointment o Visits are by appointment only (= at a time that has been arranged in advance).
 - 2 [C] a job or position of responsibility: a temporary/permanent appointment
 - 3 [U] appointment (to sth) the act of choosing sb for a job: Many people criticized the appointment of such a young man to the post.
- appraise /əˈpreɪz/ verb [T] (formal) to form an opinion about the value or quality of sb/sth
- ▶ appraisal /əˈpreɪzl/ noun [C,U] an opinion about the value or quality of sb/sth; a judgement
- appreciable /əˈpriːʃəbl/ adj noticeable or important: There has been an appreciable drop in the rate of inflation.
- Rappreciate /əˈpri:ʃieɪt/ verb 1 [T] to enjoy sth or to understand the value of sth: The art of Van Gogh was not appreciated during his own lifetime.
 - 2 [T] to understand sth (a problem, situation, appreciation → April Fool's Day etc.): I don't think you appreciate how serious this situation is.

- 3 [T] to be grateful for sth: Thanks for your help. We did appreciate it. ىقدر
- 4 [I] to increase in value: Houses in this area have appreciated faster than elsewhere.
- ▶ appreciative /əˈpri:ʃətɪv/ adj 1 feeling or showing pleasure or admiration: 'You look lovely,' he said, with an appreciative smile,
 - ينم عن التقدير أو الاعجاب
- 2 appreciative (of sth) grateful for sth: He was very appreciative of our efforts to help.
- appreciation /ə,pri:fi'e1fn/ noun 1 [U] understanding and enjoyment (of the value of sth): I'm afraid I have little appreciation of modern archi-فَهُم، استمتاع
- 2 [U] the feeling of being grateful for sth; We bought him a present to show our appreciation for flowers as a token (= a sign) of my appreciation.
- 3 [U, sing.] understanding of what sth involves: None of us had the slightest appreciation of the seriousness of the situation.
- 4 [U] increase in value: the appreciation of زيادة (في القيمة) antiques and works of art
- apprehension /.æpri'hen[n/ noun [C,U] (formal) worry or fear about sth in the future: feelings of apprehension
- apprehensive / æpri'hensiv/ adj worried or afraid: to be/feel apprehensive o The students were apprehensive about their forthcoming exams. متخوف
- apprentice /ə'prentis/ noun [C] a person who works for sb for low wages, in order to learn an occupation or skill: an apprentice electrician
 - تلمىذ الصنعة ▶ apprenticeship /-tɪʃɪp/ noun [C,U] the state or time of being an apprentice

فترة التتلمذ على صنعة

- ?approach /ə'prəut [/ verb 1 [I,T] to come near or nearer to sb/sth: The day of her wedding approached. o When you approach the village you will see a garage on your left. يقترب
 - 2 [T] to speak to sb usually in order to ask for sth: I'm going to approach my bank manager about a loan. يكلُم، يفاتح
 - 3 [T] to begin to deal with sth (a problem, a situation, etc.): What is the best way to approach this problem?
 - 4 [T] to almost reach sth (a certain standard, level, etc.): at a depth approaching 50 feet under water
 - ▶ approach noun 1 [sing.] the act of coming nearer (to sb/sth): The children stopped talking at the teacher's approach.
 - 2 [C] a discussion about getting sth; a request for sth: The company has made an approach to us for financial assistance. مفاتحة، طلب

- 3 [C] a road or path, etc. leading to sth: the approach to the village
- 4 [C] a way of dealing with sb/sth: Parents don't always know what approach to take with teenage children. وسيلة (للتعامل)
- approachable /-abl/ adj 1 friendly and easy to talk to: She's nice but her husband's not very approachable. 1 The opposite is unapproach-سهل الجانب، يسهل التعامل معه able.
- 2 (not before a noun) able to be reached: The area was easily approachable by bus. سهل الوصول
- lappropriate /əˈprəʊpriət/ adj appropriate (for/to sth) suitable or right: The matter will be dealt with by the appropriate authorities. o This card is rather appropriate for the occasion, isn't it? o Please take whatever action you think is appropriate. The opposite is inappropriate.
 - ► appropriately adv

على نحو ملائم

- all the work he had done. Please accept these Lapproval /ə'pru:vl/noun [U] feeling, showing or saying that you think sth is good; agreement: Everybody gave their approval to the proposal. o I'm afraid I can't sign these papers without my partner's approval. O She was always anxious to win her mother's approval. استحسان، موافقة
 - Capprove /əˈpruːv/ verb 1 [1] approve (of sb/ sth) to be pleased about sth; to like sb/sth: His father didn't approve of his leaving school at 16. o Her parents don't approve of her friends. 6 The opposite is disapprove.
 - 2 [T] to agree to sth or to accept sth as correct: We need to get an accountant to approve these figures. ىصدُق على
 - ▶ approving adj showing support or admiration for sth: 'I agree entirely,' he said with an approving smile. approvingly adv
 - Papproximate /əˈprɒksɪmət/ adj (abbr approx) almost correct but not completely accurate: The approximate time of arrival is 3 o'clock. o I can only give you an approximate idea of the cost.
 - ▶ approximately adv (abbr approx) about: It's approximately fifty miles from here. تقريبأ approximation /ə.proksi'meifn/ noun [C] a number, answer, etc. which is nearly, but not exactly, right
 - apricot /'eiprikpt/ noun [C] a small, round, vellow or orange fruit with soft flesh and a stone in-
 - ? April /'eiprəl/ noun [C,U] (abbr Apr.) the fourth month of the year, coming before May 6 For examples of the use of the months in sentences, look at January. أبريل/نيسان
 - April 'Fool noun [C] a person who has a joke or trick played on him/her on 1 April

سحية كذبة أبريل

April 'Fool's Day noun [sing.] 1 April

يوم كذبة أبريل

On this day it is traditional for people to play tricks on each other, especially by inventing silly stories and trying to persuade other people that they are true. If somebody believes such a story he/she is called an April Fool.

apron /'erprən/ noun [C] a piece of clothing that you wear over the front of your usual clothes in order to keep them clean, especially when cooking

apt /æpt/ adj 1 suitable: a very apt reply بب

2 apt to do sth having a tendency to do sth; likely: You'd better remind me. I'm rather apt to forget.

► aptly adv suitably: The house was aptly named 'Sea View' (= because it had a view of the sea).

aptitude /ˈæptɪtjuːd; US -tuːd/ noun [C,U] aptitude (for sth/for doing sth) (a) natural ability: She has an aptitude for learning languages.

• He's shown no aptitude for music.

aquarium /əˈkweəriəm/ noun [C] (pl. aquariums or aquaria /-riə/) 1 a glass container filled with water, in which fish and water animals are kept

2 a building, often in a zoo, where fish and water animals are kept معرض الأسماك والأحياء المائية

Aquarius /ə'kweəriəs/ noun [C,U] the eleventh sign of the zodiac, the Water-carrier; a person who was born under this sign

برج الدلو ؛ شخص من مواليد هذّا البرج معتصم apout an apimal المعتدي الله نام ما المعتدد

aquatic /əˈkwætɪk/ adj 1 (used about an animal or a plant) living in water (حيوان أو نبات) ماني

2 (used about a sport) performed on or in water (ریاضة) مائیّة

Arab /ˈærəb/ noun [C] a member of a people who lived originally in Arabia and who now live in many parts of the Middle East and North Africa

► Arab adi: Arab countries

Arabic /ˈærəbɪk/ noun [sing.] 1 the language that is spoken by Arab people

2 the religious language of Islam اللغة العربية arable /'ærəbl/ adj (in farming) connected with growing crops for sale, not keeping animals arbitrary /'ɑ:bɪtrəri; US 'ɑ:rbɪtrəri/ adj not based on any principle or reason; not thinking about the wishes of the other people involved: The choice he made seemed completely arbitrary. I couldn't see any reason for it, anyway.

راعي

مشوائي، اعتباطي: تعسّفي عتباطاً عrbitrarily adv ► arbitrate /ˈɑːbɪtreɪt/ verb [I,T] to settle an argument between two people or groups by finding a solution that both can accept arbitration /ˌɑːbɪ'treɪʃn/ noun [U] the process of settling an argument between two people or groups by a third person (who has been chosen by them): The union and the management decided to go to arbitration.

arc /a:k/ noun [C] a curved line, part of a circle arcade /u:'keɪd/ noun [C] a large covered passage or area with shops along one or both sides; a passage with arches: a shopping arcade arch / art J/ noun [C] 1 a structure made with two columns joined over the top in a curve. An arch may support a bridge or the roof of a large building or it may be above a door or a window.

رواق مغطى فيه حوانيت ؛ ممر بقناطر

◆ Look at archway.

2 a monument in the shape of an arch: Marble Arch in London نصُب مقوّس، قوس

3 the middle part of the inside of your foot قوس القدم

▶ arch verb [I,T] to make a curve: [T]: The cat arched its back and hissed.

archaeology (especially US archeology) /ˌɑ:ki'ɒlədʒi/ noun [U] the study of ancient civilizations, based on objects or parts of buildings that are found in the ground

► archaeological (especially US archeological) adj connected with archaeology

متعلق بالآثار القديمة

archaeologist (especially US archeologist) noun [C] an expert in archaeology

archaic /ɑ:ˈkeɪɪk/ adj old-fashioned; no longer in common use قديم : مهجور الاستعمال archbishop /ˌɑːtʃˈbɪʃəp/ noun [C] a priest in some branches of the Christian church who is in charge of all the bishops, priests and churches in a large area of a country: the Archbishop of Canterbury archer /ˈaːtʃə(r)/ noun [C] a person who shoots with a bow and arrow

▶ archery noun [U] the sport of shooting with a bow and arrow architect /ˈɑːkɪtekt/ noun [C] a person whose job is to design buildings architecture /ˈɑːkɪtektʃə(r)/ noun [U] 1 the study of how buildings are planned and constructed الهندسة المعمارية

2 the style or design of a building or buildings: the architecture of the fifteenth century o modern architecture

► architectural /ˌɑːkɪ'tektʃərəl/ adj connected with the design of buildings archives /ˈɑːkaɪvz/ noun [plural] (also archive /ˈɑːkaɪv/ noun [C]) a collection of historical documents, etc. which record the history of a place or an organization; the place where they are kept: In the city archives they found letters dating from the Middle Ages. o archive material on the First World War archway /ˈɑːtʃweɪ/ noun [C] a passage or entrance with an arch over it

Arctic /'a:ktik/ adj 1 connected with the region round the North Pole (the most northern point of the world) 2 Look at Antarctic.

متعلق بالقطب الشمالي

the Arctic Circle → armaments

- arctic conditions near the top of the mountain. قارس الباد
- ▶ the Arctic noun [sing.] the area round the منطقة القطب الشمالي North Pole
- the 'Arctic 'Circle noun [sing.] the line of lati-الدائرة القطسة الشمالية tude 66° 30′N
- ardent /'a:dnt/adj showing strong feelings, especially a strong liking for sb/sth: He was an ardent supporter of the Government. بحماس ▶ ardently adv
- arduous /'a:djuəs; US -dʒu-/ adj full of difficulties; needing a lot of effort: an arduous journey مسير ؛ شاق

are, aren't → BE

- larea /'eəriə/ noun 1 [C] a part of a town, a country or the world: Housing is very expensive in the London area. ○ The wettest areas are in the West of the country. o a built-up area (= where there are buildings) o The high winds scattered litter over a wide area. So Look at the note at district.
 - 2 [C,U] the size of a surface, that you can calculate by multiplying the length by the width: The area of the office is 35 square metres. o The office is 35 square metres in area.
 - 3 [C] a space used for a particular activity: The restaurant has a non-smoking area. o the penalty area (= the space in front of the goal, in football)
 - 4 [C] a particular part of a subject or activity: Training is one area of the business that we could
 - arena /əˈriːnə/ noun [C] 1 an area with seats around it where public entertainments (sporting ميدان، سآحة، حلبة events, concerts, etc.) are held
 - 2 where a particular activity happens: The Foreign Secretary was well-respected in the international political arena.
 - arguable /'a:gjuəbl/ adj 1 that can be argued; probably true: It is arguable that no one should have to pay for hospital treatment.
 - قابل التأييد : محتمل الصحة 2 not certain; that you do not accept without question: It is arguable whether the case should have ever gone to trial (= perhaps it should not قابل للأخذ و ألرد
 - ▶ arguably adv probably; you can argue that: 'King Lear' is arguably Shakespeare's best من المحتمل ؛ على الأرجح
- Rargue /'a:gju:/ verb 1 [I] argue (with sb) (about/over sth) to say things (often angrily) that show that you do not agree with sb about sth: The couple next door are always arguing. I never argue with my husband about money.
 - 2 [I,T] argue that; argue (for/against sth) to give reasons that support your opinion about sth: John argued that buying a new computer was a waste of money. o He argued against buying a new computer.

- 2 arctic very cold: The mountaineers faced largument /a:gjument/ noun 1 [C,U] argument (with sb) (about/over sth) an angry discussion between two or more people who disagree with each other: Sue had an argument with her father about politics. O He accepted the decision without argument. A quarrel is usually about something less serious. جدال ، نزاع
 - 2 [C] the reason(s) that you give to support your opinion about sth: His argument was that if they bought a smaller car, they would save money.
 - argumentative / a:gju'mentativ/ adj often involved in or enjoying arguments محبّ للجدال ، شديد الخصام
 - arid /'ærɪd/ adj (used about land or climate) very dry: with little or no rain
 - Aries /'eəri:z/ noun [C,U] the first sign of the zodiac, the Ram; a person who was born under this برج الحَمَل ؛ شخص من مواليد هذا البرج
 - Parise /a'raiz/ verb [I] (ph arose; pp arisen) to begin to exist; to appear: If any problems arise,
 - aristocracy / err'stokrasi/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] (pl. aristocracies) the people of the highest social class who often have special titles الأرستقر اطية: طبقة النبلاء
 - aristocrat /'ærɪstəkræt; US ə'rɪst-/ noun [C] a member of the highest social class, often with a special title
 - ▶ aristocratic adj
 - arithmetic /əˈrɪθmətɪk/ noun [U] the branch of mathematics which involves counting with numbers (adding, subtracting, multiplying and dividing)
 - ? arm1 /am/ noun [C] 1 the limb at each side of the human body from the shoulder to the hand: He was carrying a newspaper under his arm. o They waved their arms in the air and shouted at us. o I put my arm round her and tried to comfort
 - 2 the part of a piece of clothing that covers your arm; a sleeve: He had a hole in the arm of his jumper.
 - ${f 3}$ something shaped like an arm: the arm of a chair (= where you rest your arm)
 - يد (الكرسي مثلاً) IDM arm in arm with your arm linked together with sb else's arm: The two friends walked arm متشابك الذراعين in arm.
 - cross/fold your arms to cross your arms in front of your chest: She folded her arms and waited. o James was sitting with his arms يشبك الذراعين أمام صدره crossed.

twist sb's arm → TWIST1 with open arms → OPEN1

- يجادل، يختلف مع 'aːm/ verb [I,T] to prepare sb/yourself to fight by supplying weapons: The country is beginning to arm itself for war. 3 Look at armed and يسلّح ؛ يتسلّح
 - armaments /'a:məmənts/ noun [plural] weapons and military equipment

- armband /ˈɑːmbænd/ noun [C] 1 a piece of material that you wear around your sleeve شریط یُلف حول الذراع
- 2 a plastic ring filled with air which you can wear on your arms when you are learning to swim طوق سباحة يلبس حول الفراع
- armchair /ˈɑːmtʃeə(r)/ noun [C] a soft comfortable chair with sides which support your arms کرسی مربح ذو موفقین
- Rarmed /a:md/ adj carrying a gun or other weapon; involving weapons: All the terrorists were armed. armed robbery the armed forces (= the army, navy and air force) (figurative) They came to the meeting armed with all the latest information.
- armful /ˈɑːmfʊl/ noun [C] the amount that you can carry in your arms
- armhole /ˈɑːmhəʊl/ [C] the opening in a piece of clothing where your arm goes through فتحة الذراع في الثوب
- armistice /ˈɑːmɪstɪs/ noun [C] an agreement between two countries who are at war that they will stop fighting
- armour (US armor) /'ɑ:mə(r)/ noun [U] clothing, often made of metal, that soldiers wore in earlier times to protect themselves: a suit of armour
- ► armoured (US armored) adj (used about a vehicle) covered with metal to protect it in an attack (سيارة) مصفّحة
- armpit /ˈɑːmpɪt/ [C] the part of the body under the arm at the point where it joins the shoulder
- f arms /q:mz/ noun [plural] 1 weapons, especially those that are used in war: a reduction in nuclear arms
 - 2 = COAT OF ARMS
 - DM be up in arms very angry; protesting about sth: The workers were up in arms over the news that the factory was going to close.
 - غاضب جداً ؛ محتج
- Tarmy /ˈɑːmi/ noun [C, with sing, or pl. verb] (pl. armies) the military forces of a country which are trained to fight on land; a large group of soldiers:

 the British Army o She joined the army at the age of eighteen, o He's a sergeant in the army. o an army officer 2 Look at air force and navy.
- 'A-road noun [C] (Brit) a major road, usually not as wide as a motorway
- aroma /əˈrəʊmə/ noun [C] a smell (usually one that is pleasant) رائحة ذكية : شذا، عبير
- aromatherapy /a,rəomə'θerəpi/ noun [U] the use of natural oils that smell pleasant for controlling pain or for massage (=rubbing into the body)
- arose pt of arise
- (around for hours looking for a cafe. I don't want to buy

- anything I'm just looking around. This is our office David will show you around (= show you the different parts of it).
- 2 moving so as to face in the opposite direction: Turn around and go back the way you came. إلى الوراء
- 3 on all sides; forming a circle: The garden is very nice with a wall all around. Gather around so that you can all see. حول ؛ على شكل دائرة
- ♠ In senses 1, 2 and 3 round can be used instead of around.
- 4 (also about) present or available: I went to the house but there was nobody around. That isn't a new book. It's been around for ages.
 - موجود؛متوفّر
- 5 (also about) (used for activities with no real purpose): 'What are you doing?' 'Nothing, just lazing around.' o John likes messing around with cars. o I found this pen lying around on the floor.
- l around² /əˈraʊnd/ prep 1 in various directions inside an area; in different places in a particular area: They wandered around the town, looking at the shops.
 - 2 in a circle or following a curving path: We sat down around the table. \circ The athlete ran around the track ten times. \circ Go around the corner and it's the first house on the left. \circ She had a bandage around her leg. \circ (figurative) There doesn't seem to be any way around the problem.
 - 3 near a place: Is there a bank around here? قريب (من)
 - 1 In senses 1, 2 and 3 round can also be used.
 - 4 (also about) (at) approximately: It's around three hours' drive from here. o I'll see you around seven (= at about 7 o'clock).
 - arouse /əˈraʊz/ verb [T] to cause a particular reaction in people: His actions have aroused a lot of criticism.
 - ▶ arousal noun [U]
 - arr. abbrev arrives: arr New York 07.15
- وقت الوصور

إثارة

- Rarrange /əˈreɪndʒ/ verb 1 [T] to put sth in order or in a particular pattern: The books were arranged in alphabetical order. Arrange the chairs in a circle. She arranged the flowers in a vase.
 - 2 [I.T] to make plans and preparations so that sth can happen in the future: Isobel's parents arranged a big party for her eighteenth birthday.
 He arranged for Peter to stay with friends in France. She arranged to meet Stuart after work.
- R arrangement /ə'reindʒmənt/ noun 1 [C, usually pl.] plans or preparations for sth that will happen in the future: We're just making the final arrangements for the concert.
 - 2 [C.U] something that you have agreed or settled with sb else; the act of doing this: They made an arrangement to share the cost of the food.

- o Under the new arrangement it will be possible to pay monthly instead of weekly. o Use of the swimming pool will be by special arrangement
- particular pattern: a flower arrangement

ترتيب، تشكيل فني

- array /əˈreɪ/ noun [C] a large collection of things, especially one that is impressive and is seen by other people: There was a colourful array of vegetables on the market stall. مجموعة بديعة ، عرض جميل
- arrears /əˈrɪəz/ noun [plural] money that should have been paid by an earlier date or that is owed for work which has been done: I'm in arrears with the rent (= I owe some money). o You will be paid monthly in arrears (= at the end of month for the work done during the month).

متأخّرات ، ديون لم تسدّد بعد

- Parrest /ə'rest/ verb [T] when the police arrest sb they take him/her prisoner in order to question him/her about a crime
 - ▶ arrest noun [C] the act of arresting sb: The اعتقال police made ten arrests after the riot. DM be under arrest: He was under arrest for
- ?arrival /ə'raɪvl/ noun 1 [U] the act of reaching the place to which you were travelling: On our arrival we were told that our rooms had not been reserved. O We apologize for the late arrival of this
 - 2 [C] people or things that have arrived: We brought in extra chairs for the late arrivals. 0 I'll look on the arrivals board to see when the train (شخص) وافد، قادم
- Parrive /a'raɪv/ verb [I] 1 to reach the place to which you were travelling: We arrived home at about midnight. O What time does the train arrive in Newcastle? o They arrived at the station ten minutes late. o Has my letter arrived yet?

We use arrive in with the name of a town, country, etc. and arrive at with a place, building, etc.

2 to come or happen: The day of the wedding had finally arrived. o Paula's baby arrived (= was born) two weeks late.

PHRV arrive at to reach sth: After months of discussions they finally arrived at a decision.

- arrogant /'ærəgənt/ adj thinking that you are better and more important than other people and not caring about their feelings; proud
- ▶ arrogance /'ærəgəns/ noun [U] arrogantly adv
- Larrow /'ærəʊ/ noun [C] 1 a thin piece of wood or metal, with one pointed end and feathers at the other end, that is shot from a bow
 - 2 the sign (→) which is used to show direction: The arrow is pointing left. إشارة الس
 - arsenic /'a:snik/ noun [U] a type of very strong poison زرنيخ

- arson /'a:sn/ noun [U] the crime of setting fire to جريمة إحراق الممتلكات عمدأ a building on purpose ▶ arsonist a person who deliberately sets fire to محرق المباني إجراما a building
- things such as paintings, drawings, etc.; the objects that are produced: an art class o She studied History of Art at university. 0 the art of the Italian Renaissance o modern art o an art gallery ◆ Look at work of art. فن : أعمال فنيّة
 - 2 [C, usually sing.] a skill or sth that requires skill: There's an art to writing a good letter.
 - 3 the arts [plural] activities such as painting, writing literature or writing and performing music: The government has agreed to spend £2 million extra on the arts next year. الفنون والآداب
 - 4 arts [plural] subjects such as history or languages that you study at school or university • We usually contrast arts (or arts subjects) with sciences (or science subjects).
 - artery /'a:təri/ noun [C] (pl. arteries) one of the tubes which take blood from the heart to other parts of the body 2 Look at vein.
 - artful /'a:tfl/ adj clever at getting what you want, perhaps by deceiving people
 - arthritis /o:'0raitis/ noun [U] a disease which causes swelling and pain in the joints of your body (where you bend your arms, fingers,
 - artichoke /'a:tɪtʃəʊk/ (also globe 'artichoke) noun [C] a plant whose flower looks like pointed leaves. The bottoms of the leaves and the centre of the flower can be eaten as a vegetable. أرضى شوكي/ خرشوف/ حَرشُف
 - ? article /'a:tikl/ noun [C] 1 a thing or object, especially one of a set: Articles of clothing were lying شيء ؛ قطعة all over the room.
 - 2 a piece of writing in a newspaper or magazine: There's an article about cycling holidays in today's paper.
 - 3 (grammar) the words 'a/an' (the indefinite article) or 'the' (the definite article) أداة (التنكير أو التعريف)
 - articulate 1 /a: trkjələt/ adj good at expressing your ideas clearly
 - articulate2 /q:'trkjulert/ verb [I,T] to say sth clearly or to express your ideas or feelings

ينطق بوضوح: يفصح

articulated /a:'tɪkjuleɪtɪd/ adj (Brit) (used about a vehicle such as a lorry) made of two sections which are connected in a special way so that the lorry can turn corners easily

- Partificial / o:ti'fɪʃl/ adj not genuine or natural but made by people to seem like something natural: artificial flowers o an artificial lake
 - اصطناعي ▶ artificially /-∫əli/ adv: This drug cannot be produced artificially.

artificial insemination → ashore

- artificial insemi'nation noun [U] a scientific technique to introduce male seed into a female, so that babies or young can be produced without sex
- artificial in'telligence noun [U] (the study of) the way in which computers can be made to imitate human thought
- artillery /a:'tɪləri/ noun [U] a number of large guns on wheels; the part of the army which uses them
- artist /ˈaːtɪst/ noun [C] somebody who produces art, especially paintings or drawings: I like that picture – who is the artist? o an exhibition of paintings by the English artist, Constable
- ې artistic /a:ˈtɪstɪk/ adj 1 connected with art: the artistic director of the theatre
 - 2 showing a skill in art: Helen is very artistic – her drawings are excellent.

 ➤ artistically /ɑ:'tɪstɪkli/ adv: The garden was laid out very artistically.
- artistry / artistri / noun [U] the skill of an artist
- Sas |az; strong form æz| conj, prep, adv 1 while sth else is happening: The phone rang just as I was leaving the house. As she walked along the road, she thought about her father.
 - 2 as... as (used for comparing people or things): Tom's almost as tall as me. \circ Tom's almost as tall as I am. \circ It's not as cold as it was yesterday. \circ I'd like an appointment as soon as possible.

مثل ، بقدر

- 3 as... as (used with 'much' or 'many' for comparing people or things): She earns twice as much as her husband. o I haven't got as many books as you have.
- 4 (used for talking about sh's job): He works as a train driver.
- 5 (used for describing sb/sth's role): Think of me as your friend, not as your boss.
- 6 (used for describing sb/sth in an unusual role or function): I went to the party dressed as a policeman. You could use this white sheet as a tablecloth.
- 7 in a particular way, state, etc: Please do as I tell you. Leave the room as it is. Don't move anything.
- 8 (used at the beginning of a comment about what you are saying): As you know, I've decided to leave at the end of the month.
- 9 because: I didn't buy the dress, as I decided it was too expensive.
- as for; as to (used when you are starting to talk about a different person or thing): Jane's in Paris at the moment. As for Andrew, I've no idea where he is.
- as if; as though (used for saying how sb/sth appears): She looks as if she's just got out of bed.

 He behaved as though nothing had happened.
- as it were (used for saying that sth is only true

- in a certain way): She felt, as it were, a stranger in her own house.
- as of; as from starting from a particular time: As from next week, Tim Shaw will be managing this department.
- as to about a particular thing: I was given no instructions as to how to begin.
- asap /ˌeɪ es eɪ ˈpiː/ abbrev as soon as possible باسرع ما يكون
- asbestos /æs'bestəs/ noun [U] a soft grey material which does not burn and which is used to protect against heat الأسبستوس أو الحرير الصخري
- ascend /əˈsend/ verb [I,T] (formal) to go or come up
- ➤ ascending adj: The questions are arranged in ascending order of difficulty (= the most difficult ones are at the end). ② Look at descend.
 - صاعد ؛ متصاعد ، متزايد
- Ascension Day /ə'sen∫n der/ the day forty days after Easter when Christians remember Christ leaving the earth and going to heaven
 - عيد الصعود
- ascent /aˈsent/ noun [C] 1 the act of climbing or going up: Their aim was the ascent of the highest mountains in the Himalayas. صعود، تسلّق
- 2 a path or slope leading upwards: There was a steep ascent before the path became flat again.
 - موثقى
- ascertain /ˌæsəˈtem/ verb [T] (formal) to find out: It was difficult to ascertain who was telling the truth.
- ascribe /əˈskraɪb/ verb [T] ascribe sth to sb/ sth to say that sth was written by or belonged to sb, or that sth was caused by sth: This piece of music was ascribed to Bach, although we now believe it was written by another composer. • He ascribed his forgetfulness to old age.
 - ينسب أو يعزو إلى
- ash¹ /æʃ/ noun [C] a type of tree that is found in British forests
- ash² /æʃ/ noun 1 [U] (also ashes [plural]) the grey or black powder which is left after sth has burned: cigarette ash o They found the ring in the ashes of the fire.
 - 2 ashes [plural] what remains after a human body has been burned رماد، رفات
- Rashamed /aˈʃeɪmd/ adj ashamed (of sth/sb/ yourself); ashamed (that...); ashamed (to...) (not before a noun) feeling sorry or embarrassed about sb/sth or about yourself or sth you have done: She was ashamed of her old clothes. • He was ashamed of himself for having made such an unkind remark. • How could you be so rude? I'm ashamed of you! • She felt ashamed that she hadn't visited her aunt more often. • He knew that it was his fault but he was ashamed to admit his mistake.
 - ashore /əˈʃɔː(r)/ adv onto the land: The passengers went ashore for an hour while the ship was in port.

ashtray → assemble

ashtray /ˈæʃtreɪ/ noun [C] a small dish for cigarette ash (سجاير)

Asian /ˈeɪʃn; US ˈeɪʒn/ noun [C] a person from Asia or whose family was originally from Asia: British Asians

► Asian adj: the Asian community in Birmingham

Raside /ə'saɪd/ adv 1 on or to one side; out of the way: She took Richard aside to tell him her secret.

2 to be kept separately, for a special purpose: They are setting aside £50 a month for their summer holiday.

▶ aside noun [C] something which a character in a play says to the audience, but which the other characters on stage do not hear

مخاطبة جانبيّة للجمهور في المسرح

a'side from prep (especially US) = APART FROM

Rask /a:sk/ verb 1 [I.T] ask (sb) (about sb/sth) to put a question to sb in order to find out some information: We need to ask about the price. o I'll ask the salesman how much the jacket is. o Did you ask Sarah about the bike? o She asked whether I wanted tea or coffee. o 'What's the time?' he asked. o He asked what the time was. o He asked me the time. o She asked the little boy his name. o I got lost coming here and I had to ask somebody the way.

2 [I.T] ask (sb) for sth; ask sth (of sb); ask sb to do sth to request that sb gives you sth or does sth for you: She sat down at the table and asked for a cup of coffee. • Don't ask John for money - he hasn't got any. • You are asking too much of him - he can't possibly do all that! • Ring this number and ask for Mrs Smith (= ask to speak to Mrs Smith). • I asked him if he would drive me home. • I asked him to drive me home.

3 [T] to say the price that you want for sth: They're asking £2 000 for their car.

4 [I,T] to request permission to do sth: I'm sure she'll let you go if you ask. • He asked to use our phone. • We asked permission to go early. • We asked if we could go home early.

5 [T] ask sb (to sth) to invite sb: They asked six friends to dinner. \circ He's asked Eileen out on Saturday (= asked her to go out with him).

IDM ask for trouble/it to behave in a way that will almost certainly cause trouble: Not wearing a seat belt is just asking for trouble.

يبحث عن المتاعب if you ask me if you want my opinion: If you ask me, she's too young to travel alone.

ان کنت ترید سماع رأیي EHEW ask after sb to inquire about sb's health or to ask for news of sb: I saw Miss Black today. She asked after you.

askew /əˈskjuː/ adv, adj (not before a noun) not in a straight or level position بانحراف : منحرف

AS (level) /e1 'es levl/ noun [C,U] Advanced subsidiary (level); a British exam usually taken in Year 12 of school or college (= the year before the final year) when students are aged 17. Together with A2 exams, AS levels form the A-level qualification, which is needed for entrance to universities.

asleep /əˈsliːp/ adj (not before a noun) not awake; sleeping: The baby is asleep. ○ to be sound/fast asleep ○ to fall asleep ② Look at the note at sleep².

Notice that you can only use asleep after the noun. Sleeping can be used before or after the noun: a sleeping child asparagus /əˈspærəgəs/ noun [U] a plant with long green stems that you can cook and eat as a vegetable (نبات) الهلِّين

Raspect /ˈæspekt/ noun [C] one of the qualities or parts of a situation, idea, problem, etc: information about many aspects of British life asphalt /ˈæsfælt; US-fɔ:lt/ noun [U] a thick black substance that is used for making the surface of roads, etc.

asphyxiate /əsˈfiksiert/ verb [T] (usually passive) (used about gas, smoke, etc.) to cause sb to be unable to breathe: He was asphyxiated by the smoke while he was asleep.

► asphyxiation /əsˌfɪksi'eɪʃn/ noun [U]

aspic /ˈæspɪk/ noun [U] a clear jelly made from meat juices and served with or around meat, fish, eggs, etc: chicken in aspic aspiration / ,æspəˈreɪʃn/ noun [C,U] (often plural) a strong desire to have or do sth: She has aspirations to become an opera singer. طلوح ، أمنية aspire /əˈspaɪə(r)/ verb [I] aspire to sth/to do sth (formal) to have a strong desire to have or do sth: She aspired to become managing director.

o an aspiring ballet dancer aspirin /ˈæsprɪn; ˈæspərɪn/ noun [C,U] a type of medicine that reduces pain and fever: I've taken two aspirins (= two tablets).

ass /æs/ noun [C] 1 = DONKEY

حمار : شخص غبي (informal) a stupid person حمار : شخص غبي assailant /əˈseɪlənt/ noun [C] a person who attacks sb assassin /əˈsæsɪn; US -sn/ noun [C] a person who kills a famous or important person for money or for political reasons assassinate /ə'sæsıneıt; US -sən-/ verb [T] to kill a famous or important person for money or for political reasons ② Look at the note at kill.

► assassination /əˌsæsɪˈneɪʃn; US əˌsæsə-ˈneɪʃn/ noun [C,U]: an assassination attempt assault /əˈsɔːlt/ noun [C,U] assault (on sb/sth) a sudden attack on sb/sth: Assaults on the police are becoming more common.

▶ assault verb [T]: a prison sentence for assaulting a police officer پهاجم، يعتدي على

assemble /əˈsembl/ verb 1 [I,T] to come together in a group; to gather or collect: The leaders assembled in Strasbourg for the summit meeting. or I've assembled all the information I need for my يجتمع : يجمع

2 [T] to fit the parts of sth together: We spent all day trying to assemble our new bookshelves.

- assembly /əˈsembli/ noun (pl. assemblies) 1 [C,U] a large group of people who come together for a particular purpose: school assembly (= a regular meeting for all the students and teachers of a school) o The regional assembly has the power to raise local taxes. اجتماع ، مجلس
- 2 [U] the act of fitting the parts of sth together: the assembly of cars by robots
- as'sembly line noun [C] a line of people and machines in a factory that fit the parts of sth together in a fixed order: the assembly-line workers at the Toyota car plant صف التجميع في مصنع
- assent /ə'sent/ noun [U] (formal) agreement: The committee gave their assent to the proposed موافقة
 - ▶ assent verb [i] assent (to sth) to say that you agree to sth يوافق
- assert /ə'sa:t/ verb [T] 1 to say sth clearly and firmly: He asserted that the allegations were un-
- 2 to behave in a way that makes other people listen to you and take notice of you: You ought to assert yourself more. o to assert your authority يفرض أو يثبت (شخصيته)
- assertion /ə'sa: [n/ noun 1 [U] the act of asserting sth/yourself: the assertion of power
- 2 [C] something that you say firmly and clearly: his confident assertion that he would win
- توكيد، جزم assertive /ə'sə:tɪv/ adj expressing your opinion clearly and firmly so that people listen to you and take notice of you: to speak in an assertive man-
- جازم ؛ توكيدي ▶ assertively adv فرض أو إثبات الشخصية assertiveness noun [U]
- assess /ə'ses/ verb [T] 1 to estimate or decide the amount or value of sth: The value of the house was assessed at £75 000. o to assess the cost of re-يقدر، يخمن
- 2 to judge or form an opinion about sth: It's too early to assess the effects of the price rises.
- يقدر ، يقيم، يحكم على ▶ assessment noun [C,U] the act of judging or forming an opinion about sb/sth: Students' marks are based on continuous assessment of their work. o to make a careful assessment of a
- asset / eset/ noun [C] 1 an asset (to sb/sth) a person or thing that is useful to sb/sth: She's a great asset to the organization. O It's an asset to شخص أو شيء مفيد be able to drive.
- 2 [usually pl.] something of value that a person,

- company, etc. owns: The company is having to م مودات ، ممتلکات sell its assets.
- assign /ə'sain/ verb [T] 1 assign sth to sb to give sth to sb for him/her to use or do
 - 2 assign sb to sth to give sb a particular job or type of work to do: She was assigned to the publicity department. o A detective was assigned to the case.
- ▶ assignment noun [C] a job or type of work that you are given to do: Kate is on an assign ment for the BBC. o to give pupils an assignment مهمة : وظيفة معيّنة to do during the holidays
- assimilate /əˈsɪməleɪt/ verb 1 [I,T] (to allow sb sth) to become part of a country or social group Many immigrants have difficulty in assimilating o to assimilate people from other cultures

- 2 [T] to learn and understand sth: to assimilate new facts/information/ideas
- ▶ assimilation /ə,sɪmə'leɪʃn/ noun [U] تمثل ، استيعاب ؛ اندماج

lassist /əˈsɪst/ verb [I,T] assist (sb) in/with sth; assist (sb) in doing sth (formal) to help: A man is assisting the police with their inquiries.

- ▶ assistance /-ons/ noun [U] (formal) help: Can I be of any assistance? o financial assistance for مساعدة ، عون poorer families
- assistant noun [C] 1 a person who helps sb of higher rank: The director is away today. Would you like to speak to her assistant? o the assistant مساعد، معاون
- 2 (US clerk) a person who sells things to people in a shop: a shop/sales assistant بائع في مخزن

Assoc (also assoc) abbrev = Association

- Rassociate /əˈsəʊʃiət; -siət/ adj (only before a noun) of a slightly lower rank or status: associate members of the organization
 - ▶ associate noun [C] a person that you meet and get to know through your work: a business رفيق أو زميل في العمل associate
- lassociate /ə'səʊʃieit; -sieit/ verb 1 [T] associate sb/sth (with sb/sth) to connect sb/sth with sb/sth else (in your mind): lung cancer and other illnesses associated with smoking o Somehow, I don't associate Sweden with skiing.
 - 2 [I] associate with sb to spend time with يخالط ، يختلط ب sh
 - 3 [T] associate yourself with sth to say that you support sth or agree with sth: I do not wish to associate myself with any organization that يؤيّد، يرتبط ب promotes violence.
- lassociation /ə.səʊʃi'eɪʃn; -si'eɪʃn/ noun 1 [U] the act of joining or working with another person or group: We work in association with our New York office.
 - 2 [C] a group of people or organizations who join or work together for a particular purpose: a housing association o the British Medical Association o the Football Association

بحزم assorted → at

3 [C,U] the act of connecting sb/sth to sb/sth else in your mind

assorted /əˈsɔːtɪd/ adj of different types; mixed: a packet of assorted sweets ▶ assortment /əˈsɔːtmənt/ noun [C] a group of ▶ assortment /assitment/ noun [c] a group of different things or of different types of the same thing; a mixture: You'll find a wide assortment of different gifts in our shop.

Asst (especially US Asst.) abbrev = ASSISTANT

- Passume /ə'sju:m; US ə'su:m/ verb [T] 1 to accept or believe that sth is true even though you have no proof; to expect sth to be true: I assume that you have the necessary documents. O You'll be going to the meeting, I assume? O We can assume profits of around 5%. O Everyone assumed Ralph was guilty. O Everyone assumed Ralph to be guilty.
 - 2 to falsely pretend to have or be sb/sth: to assume a false name

 - assumption /ə'sʌmpʃn/ noun 1 [C] something that you accept is true even though you have no proof: Our figures are based on the assumption that the rate of inflation will be 5% by the end of the year o a reasonable, false, etc. assumption
 - 2 [U] assumption of sth the act of taking power or of starting an important job: the assumption of power by the army
 - تقلّد منصب؛ تولّي الحكم assurance /əˈʃʊərəns; Brit also əˈʃɔːrəns/ noun 1 (also self-assurance) [U] the belief that you can do or succeed at sth; confidence: He spoke
 - with assurance (= confidently).

 2 [C] a promise that sth will certainly happen or be true: They gave me an assurance that the work would be finished by Friday.
- Passure /aˈʃvə(r); Brit also aˈʃɔ:(r)/ verb [T] 1 to promise so that sth will certainly happen or be true, especially if he/she is worried: I assure you that it is perfectly safe. o Let me assure you of my full support.
 - 2 to make sth sure or certain: The survival of the species is assured.
 - ▶ assured (also self-assured) adj believing that you can do sth or succeed at sth; confident: a calm and self-assured young woman

asterisk /ˈæstərɪsk/ noun [C] the sign (*) that you use to call attention to sth in a piece of writing asteroid /'æstərɔɪd/ noun [C] any of the many small planets that go round the sun

كوكب صفير سيّار

asthma /ˈæsmə; US ˈæzmə/ noun [U] a medical condition that causes difficulty in breathing

- ▶ asthmatic /æs'mætik; US æz'm-/ noun [C] a person who suffers from asthma
- astonish /aˈstɒnɪʃ/ verb [T] to cause sb to be very surprised: She astonished everybody by announcing her engagement.
- ▶ astonished adj: I was astonished by the decision.
- astonishing adj: astonishing news مدهش astonishingly adv: astonishingly successful astonishment noun [U] very great surprise: To my absolute astonishment the scheme was a huge success. O A look of astonishment crossed her face. O He dropped his book in astonishment.

دهشة ، استغراب

- astound /aˈstaund/ verb [T] (usually passive) to cause sb to be very surprised: We were astounded at how well he performed.
- astounding adj very surprising: an astounding success
- astray /əˈstreɪ/ adv away from the right way: The young are easily led astray (= persuaded to do bad things by other people).

IDM go astray to become lost: My new pen seems to have gone astray.

- astride /ə'straıd/ adv, prep with one leg on each side of sth: to sit astride a horse
- astrology /əˈstrɒlədʒi/ noun [U] the study of the positions and movements of the stars and planets and the way that they are supposed to affect people and events D Look at astronomy and also at horoscope and zodiac.
- ► astrologer /-edʒə(r)/ noun [C] a person who is an expert in astrology
- astronaut /ˈæstrənɔːt/ noun [C] a person who travels in a spaceship
- astronomy /əˈstrɒnəmi/ noun [U] the scientific study of the sun, moon, stars, etc. الله كام الثالث لله للتالي علم الثالث علم الثالث الله علم اله
- Astronomer /-nəmə(r)/ noun [C] a person who studies or is an expert in astronomy astronomical /ˌæstrəˈnɒmɪkl/ adj 1 connected with astronomy
- 2 very large, often too large (describing a price, number, amount, etc.): astronomical house prices
- astute /əˈstjuːt; US əˈstuːt/ adj very clever; good at judging people or situations داهية، ثاقب البصيرة
- asylum /əˈsaɪləm/ noun 1 [U] protection that a government gives to people who have left their own country for political reasons: The leaders of the coup were given political asylum by the US (invited to stay in the US where they would be safe).
- 2 [C] an old-fashioned word for a hospital for people who are mentally ill
- Lat /at; strong form æt/ prep 1 (showing the position of sth or where sth happens): at the bottom of the page at the top of the hill He was standing at the door. Change trains at Didcot. We were at home all weekend. Are the children at school? o at the theatre o 'Where's Peter?' 'He's at Sue's. '(= at Sue's house)

The sign used in email addresses @ is pronounced 'at'...

- 2 (showing when sth happens): I start work at 9 o clock. \circ at the weekend \circ at night \circ at Christmas \circ She got married at 18 (= when she was 18)
- 3 in the direction of sb/sth: What are you looking at? He pointed a gun at the policeman.

 Somebody threw a tomato at the Prime Minister.

 Don't shout at me!

 """ المن نحو: على
- 4 because of: I was surprised at her behaviour.

 We laughed at his jokes.
- 5 (showing what sb is doing or what is happening): They were hard at work. The two countries were at war.
- 6 (showing the price, rate, speed, etc. of sth): What price are you selling at? We were travelling at about 50 miles per hour.
- 7 (used with adjectives that show how well sb/sth does sth): She's not very good at French. o I'm hopeless at hockey.

ate pt of EAT

- atheism /ˈeɪθiɪzəm/ noun [U] the belief that there is no God
- ► atheist /ˈeɪθiɪst/ noun [C] a person who believes that there is no God
- athlete /ˈæθliːt/ noun [C] a person who can run, jump, etc. very well, especially one who takes part in sports competitions, etc.
- athletic /æθ'letık/ adj 1 connected with athletes or athletics رياضي ، متعلق بالرياضة
- 2 (used about a person) having a fit, strong, and healthy body
- athletics /æθˈletɪks/ noun [U] sports such as running, jumping, throwing, etc: an athletics meeting/track
- meeting/track

 atishoo /əˈtɪʃuː/ interj (used for expressing the sound that you make when you sneeze)
 - (للتعبير عن صوت العطس)
- atlas /ˈætləs/ noun [C] (pl. atlases) a book of maps
- ATM /,ei ti: 'em/ noun automated teller machine = CASH MACHINE
- Ratmosphere /ˈætməsfiə(r)/ noun 1 [C, usually sing.] the atmosphere the mixture of gases that surrounds the earth or any other star, planet, etc: the earth's atmosphere
 - 2 [sing.] the air in a place: a smoky atmosphere
 - 3 the mood or feeling of a place or situation: There was a tense atmosphere during the final minutes of the game.
- atmospheric /ætməsˈferɪk/ adj connected with the atmosphere(1) ويعدد مناطقة والمناطقة والمناطقة
- fatom /'ætem/ noun [C] the smallest part into which an element can be divided: (figurative)

- She hasn't got an atom of common sense (= she hasn't got any). Look at molecule.
- atomic /əˈtɒmɪk/ adj of or concerning an atom or atoms: atomic physics
- a,tomic 'bomb (also 'atom bomb) noun [C] a bomb that explodes using the energy that is produced when an atom or atoms are split
- a,tomic 'energy noun [U] the energy that is produced when an atom or atoms are split. Atomic energy can be used to produce electricity.
- atrocious /əˈtrəʊʃəs/ adj very bad or cruel:

 What atrocious weather!
- ► atrociously adv: The children behaved atrociously.

 المجالة على نحو سين جداً المجالة المجال
- atrocity /ə'trɒsəti/ noun [C,U] (pl. atrocities) (an act of) great cruelty: Both sides were guilty of dreadful atrocities during the war.
 - عمل وحشي ؛ فظاعة
- Rattach /əˈtætʃ/ verb [T] 1 attach sth (to sth) to fasten or join sth to sth: A note was attached to the document with a paper clip.
 - 2 attach yourself to sb/sth; attach sb to sb/ sth to join another person or group; to make sb do this: Tom will be attached to the finance department for the next six months.
 - 3 attach sth to sb/sth to think that sth has a particular quality: Don't attach too much importance to what they say. o No blame was attached to him. (ه) مُلْقَدُ الْمُعَنِّينَ الْمُعَنِّينَ الْمُعَنِّينَ الْمُعَنِّينَ الْمُعَنِّينَ الْمُعَنِّينَ الْمُعْمِّينَ الْمُعْمِّينَ الْمُعْمِّينَ الْمُعْمِّينَ الْمُعْمِّينَ الْمُعْمِّينَ الْمُعْمِّينَ الْمُعْمِّينَ الْمُعْمِّينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِّينَ الْمُعْمِينَ اللَّهُ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ اللَّهُ مِنْ اللَّهُ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينِ الْمُعْمِينِ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينِ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينِ الْمُعْمِينِ الْمُعْمِينِ الْمُعِمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينِ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينَ الْمُعْمِينِ الْم
 - IDM (with) no strings attached; without strings → STRING¹
 - ► attached adj attached to sb/sth liking sb/sth very much: He's become very attached to you.
 - attachment noun 1 [C] something that can be fitted on sth else: a bath with a shower attachment (شيء) ملحق : وصلة
 - 2 [C.U] attachment (to/for sb/sth) the feeling of liking sb/sth very much: an emotional attachment o I feel a strong attachment to this house.
 تَعْلَقَ ، ولوع
 - 3 a document that you send to sb using email
- Rattack /əˈtæk/ noun 1 [C,U] an attack (on sb/ sth) an act of trying to hurt or defeat sb/sth by using force: The rebel forces launched an attack on the capital. o to be under attack (= to be attacked by sb/sth)
 - 2 [C,U] attack (on sb/sth) an act of saying strongly that you do not like or agree with sb/sth: an outspoken attack on government policy
 - 3 [C] a short period when you suffer badly from a disease, medical condition, etc: an attack of asthma, flu. etc.
 - 4 [C] an act of trying to score a point in a game of sport: England made several strong attacks but failed to score a goal. The home team went on the attack again.
 - ▶ attack verb 1 [I,T] to try to hurt or defeat sb/attain → atypical

sth by using force: The enemy attacked at night.

o to be attacked by a wild animal

- 2 [T] to say strongly that you do not like or agree with sb/sth: The minister attacked the press for misleading the public.
- 3 [T] to damage or harm sb/sth: a virus that attacks the nervous system
- 4 [I,T] to try to score a point in a game of sport attacker noun [C] a person who attacks sb/sth attain /əˈteɪn/ verb [T] to succeed in getting or achieving sth, especially after great effort: to attain a goal

➤ attainable /-əbl/ adj that can be attained ممكن تحقيقه

attainment noun 1 [U] the act of achieving sth: the attainment of the government's objectives تحقيق، إحراز

2 [C] a skill or achievement: students with few academic attainments

- Ç attempt /ə'tempt/ verb [T] to try to do sth that is difficult: The prisoner was shot while attempting to escape. She was accused of attempted murder (= she didn't succeed). Don't attempt to argue with him.
 - > attempt noun [C] 1 attempt (to do sth/at doing sth) an act of trying to do sth: He managed to hit the target at the first attempt. They failed in their attempt to reach the North Pole.
 - 2 attempt (on sb/sth) an act of trying to attack or beat sb/sth: She hopes to make an attempt on the world record in tomorrow's race. o an attempt on sb's life (= to kill sb)
- ? attend /ə'tend/ verb 1 [T] to go to or be present at a place: Do you attend church regularly? I'm afraid I will be unable to attend tonight's meeting. The children attend the local school.
 - يحضر، يذهب إلى 2 [I] attend to sb/sth (formal) to give your care, thought or attention to sb/sth or look after sb/sth: Please attend to this matter immediate by.
 - attendance /ə'tendəns/ noun 1 [U] being present somewhere: Attendance at lectures is not compulsory.
 - 2 [C,U] the number of people who go to or are present at a place: There was a large attendance at the meeting. O Attendance has decreased in recent months.
 - attendant /ə'tendənt/ noun [C] 1 a person who looks after a public place: a swimming-pool attendant خادم
 - 2 a person who looks after an important person: the Queen's attendants
 - ➤ attendant adj (only before a noun) (formal) that goes with or results from sth: unemployment and all its attendant social problems

Lattention /ə'tenfn/ noun [U] 1 the act of watching, listening to or thinking about sb/sth carefully: to call/draw sb's attention to sth \circ The bride is always the centre of attention (= the person that everybody is watching). \circ I shouted in order to attract her attention. \circ to hold sb's attention (= to keep them interested in sth)

2 special care or action: The hole in the roof needs urgent attention. o to require medical attention عناية الهتمام: عمل

3 a position in which a soldier stands up straight and still: to come/stand to attention وقفة الاستعداد (عسكريّة)

 \overline{DM} catch sb's attention/eye \rightarrow CATCH¹ draw sb's attention to sth \rightarrow DRAW² pay attention \rightarrow PAY²

hattention interj (used for asking people to listen to sth carefully): Attention, please! The boat will be leaving in five minutes.

attentive /əˈtentiv/ adj watching, listening to or thinking about sb/sth carefully: The staff at the hotel were very attentive. o an attentive audience مصع، منتبه : کثیر العنایة به > attentively adv: to listen attentively to sth بانتباه ، باهتمام attic /ˈætɪk/ noun [C] the space or room under the roof of a house 🔾 Look at loft.

Ç attitude /ˈætɪtjuːd; US -tuːd/ noun [C] attitude (to/towards sb/sth) the way that you think, feel or behave: social attitudes and beliefs o She shows a very positive attitude to her work.

R attorney /əˈtɜːni/ noun [C] (pl. attorneys) (US) a lawyer

Rattract /əˈtrækt/ verb [T] 1 to cause sb/sth to go to or give attention to sth: to attract sb's attention

Moths are attracted to light. ○ The new film has attracted a lot of publicity.

2 to cause sb to like sb/sth: She's attracted to older men.

Rattraction /əˈtrækʃn/ noun 1 [U] attracting or being attracted: I can't understand the attraction of fishing. o sexual attraction

2 [C] something that attracts sb/sth: The city offers all kinds of tourist attractions. O One of the attractions of the job is having a company car.
شئنء مقر ، مقربات

Lattractive /ə'træktıv/ adj 1 that pleases or interests you; that you like: an attractive idea

attribute¹ /ə'tribju:t/ verb [T] attribute sth to sb/sth to believe that sth was caused or done by sb/sth: Terry attributes his success to hard work. o a poem attributed to Shakespeare

يعزو أو ينسب إلى

attribute² / 'ætrɪbjuːt/ noun [C] a quality or feature of sb/sth: physical attributes atypical /,er'tipikl/ adj (formal) not typical of a particular type, group, etc: atypical behaviour aubergine /ˈəʊbəʒiːn/ (especially US eggplant) noun [C,U] a long vegetable with dark purple skin auburn /'ɔ:bən/ adj (usually used about hair) reddish-brown (شعّر) بنی محمر auction /'o:k[n/ noun [C,U] a public sale at which items are sold to the person who offers to pay the most money: The house will be sold by auction.

▶ auction verb [T] to sell sth at an auction يبيع بالمزاد العلني

auctioneer / p:kfə'nɪə(r)/ noun [C] a person who organizes the selling at an auction

دلال (للبيع بالمزاد)

audible /'o:dəbl/ adj that can be heard: Her speech was only just audible. 2 Look at inaud-

▶ audibly /-əbli/ adv: to sigh audibly

Yaudience /'b:diens/ noun [C] 1 [with sing. or pl. verb) the group of people who are watching or listening to a play, concert, speech, the television, etc: The audience was/were wild with excitement. .. There were only about 200 people in the audience. o Television can reach an audience of mil-الحضور ؛ جمهور المستمعين

2 a formal meeting with a very important per-مقابلة (رسمية) son: an audience with the Pope audio /'ɔ:diəʊ/ adj connected with the recording of sound: audio equipment o audio tape audio-'visual adj using both sound and pictures: A video recorder is an excellent audio-visual ald in the classroom.

audit /'a:dit/ noun [C] an official examination of the present state of sth. especially of a company's financial records: to carry out an audit

تدقيق الحسابات ▶ auditor /'ɔːdɪtə(r)/ noun [C] a person whose job is to examine a company's financial records audition /o:'dɪ[n/ noun [C] a short performance by a singer, actor, musician, etc. to find out if he/ she is good enough to be in a play, show, concert, اختبار صلاحية الشخص للفناء أو التمثيل و غير ذلك auditorium /,ɔ:dr'tɔ:riəm/ noun [C] (pl. auditorlums or auditoria) the part of a theatre, etc. قاعة الحضور ؛ قاعة المحاضرات where the audience sits augur /'o:gə(r)/ verb

good/bad sign of what will happen in the future: The opinion polls augur well for the govern-يتكهن ؛ يبشر/ينذر

*August /'o:gest/ noun [C,U] (abbr Aug.) the eighth month of the year, coming before September • For examples of the use of the months in sentences, look at January. أغسطس/آب

"aunt /a:nt; US ænt/ (also informal auntie; aunty /'a:nti; US 'ænti/) noun [C] the sister of your father or mother; the wife of your uncle: Aunt Ann D Look at the note at uncle.

au pair /,əʊ 'peə(r)/ noun [C] a person, usually a young woman, from another country who comes to live with a family in order to learn the language. An au pair helps with the housework and looking after the children.

فتاة أجنبية تساعد في شؤون المنزل

aura /'o:rə/ noun [C] (formal) the quality that sb/ sth seems to have: The village had an aura of peace and tranquility.

aural /'o:ral/ adj of or concerning the ear or hearing: an aural comprehension test 3 Look at oral.

auspices /'ɔ:spɪsɪz/ noun [plural]

IDM under the auspices of sb/sth with the help and support of sb/sth: a conference under the auspices of the UN تحت رعاية (شخص أو شيء) auspicious /o:'spifes/ adj (formal) that seems likely to succeed or be pleasant in the future ميمون الطالع ، مبشر بالنجاح austere /p'stɪə(r)/adj 1 not having pleasures or

2 very plain and simple; without decoration ىط؛ بلازينة

▶ austerity /p'sterəti/ noun [U] the quality of تقشّف ، بساطة being austere authentic /ɔ:'θentik/ adj that you know is true or genuine: an authentic Van Gogh painting

▶ authenticity /ˌɔ:θen'tɪsəti/ noun [U]; to check the authenticity of a document صحّة ، موثوقيّة

Lauthor /'ɔ:θə(r)/ noun [C] a person who writes a book, play, etc: a well-known author of detective novels ▶ authorship noun [U]: The authorship of the play is unknown.

authoritarian /ο:,θριτίτε arian/ adj not allowing people the freedom to decide things for themselves: The authoritarian government crushed all signs of opposition. o authoritarian parents authoritative /ɔ:'θprətətiv; US -tertiv/ adj 1 having authority: demanding or expecting that people obey you: an authoritative tone of voice سيطر ، آمر

2 that you can trust because it/he/she has a lot of knowledge and information: They will be able to give you authoritative advice on the problem.

ma augur well/ill for sb/sth (formal) to be a quuthority /o:'0preti/noun (pl. authorities) 1 [C] (often plural) a person, group or government department that has the power to give orders, make official decisions, etc: Cases of the illness must be reported to the health authority. O The French authorities refused permission for the hijacked plane to land.

> 2 [U] the power and right to give orders and make others obey: Children often begin to question their parents' authority at a very early age.

authorize → avenge

- o You must get this signed by a person in authority (= who has a position of power). سَلُعَة، نَفُوذُ
- 3 [U] authority (to do sth) the right to act in a particular way: The police have the authority to question anyone they wish.
- 4 [U] a quality that sb has which makes it possible to influence and control other people: He spoke with authority and everybody listened.

 سلطان، نفوذ، قوة الشخصية
- 5 [C] a person with special knowledge: He's an authority on ancient Egypt.
- authorize (also authorise) /'ɔːθəraɪz/ verb [T] to give official permission for sth or for sb to do sth: Any new buildings have to be authorized by the planning department. He authorized his secretary to sign letters in his absence. عنول برخص الله authorization (also authorisation) /ˌɔː-θəraɪˈzeɪʃn; US -rıˈz-/ noun [U] official permission for sth: I can't give you the information without authorization from the manager.
- autistic /ɔ:ˈtɪstɪk/ adj having a serious mental illness which makes it very difficult to form relationships with other people: an autistic child منطو ذاتياً، متوجد
- autobiography /,o:təbai'ngrəfi/ noun [C,U] (pl. autobiographies) the story of a person's life written by that person ⊅ Look at biography.
- autobiographic /ˌo:təbarəˈgræfik/autobio-graphical /ˌo:təˌbarəˈgræfikl/ adj متملق بالسيرة الذاتية
- autograph /ˈɔːtəgrɑːf; US -græf/ noun [C] the signature of a famous person: People were waiting at the stage door to get the dancer's autograph.
- ▶ autograph verb [T] to put your signature on or in sth: a painting autographed by the artist
- automate /'c:təmeɪt/ verb [T] (usually passive) to make sth operate by machine, without needing people: The system in the factory has been fully automated.
- Rautomatic / منتخباله adj 1 (used about a machine) that can work by itself without direct human control: an automatic washing machine
 - 2 (used about actions) done without thinking or like a machine; unconscious: Practise this exercise until it becomes automatic.
 - تلقائيً . (يعمَل) دون تفكير 3 certain to happen because it is part of a normal process: Not everyone with a British passport has the automatic right to live in Britain.
 - P automatic noun [C] an automatic machine, gun or car: This car is an automatic (= has automatic gears).

 automatic gears).

 automatically |-kli| adv: The lights will come on automatically when it gets dark. o You will automatically receive a reminder when your next payment is due.

- automation /ˌɔ:təˈmeɪʃn/ noun [U] the use of machines, instead of people, to do work: Unemployment is rising because of increased automation.
- automobile /'o:təməbi:1/ noun [C] (especially US) = CAR(1)
- autonomous /o:'tonomos/ adj having the right to govern or control its own affairs: The people in this region want to be completely autonomous.
- مستقل ذاتیاً • autonomy /ɔ:'tɒnəmi/ noun [U] the right of an organization, region, etc. to govern or control its own affairs
- autopsy /ˈɔːtɒpsi/ noun [C] (pl. autopsies) an examination of a dead body to find out the cause of death
- Rautumn / منتصر (US usually fall) noun [C,U] the season of the year that comes between summer and winter: It was a very cold autumn that year.

 o In autumn the leaves on the trees begin to fall.

 autumn weather
 - ▶ autumnal /ɔː'tʌmnəl/ adj
- auxiliary /ɔ:gˈzıliəri/ adj (only before a noun) giving extra help: auxiliary nurses, troops, etc. o auxiliary equipment
- au,xiliary 'verb noun [C] (grammar) a verb (e. g. be, do or have) that is used with a main verb to show tense, etc. or to form questions
- avail /ə'veɪl/ noun [U] (formal)
- of little/no avail not helpful or effective: All our efforts to persuade her were of little avail.
- to little/no avail; without avail without success: They had searched everywhere, but to no avail.
- Ravailable /a'verləbl/ adj 1 (used about things) that you can get, buy, use, etc: Do you know if there are any flats available in this area? o I'm afraid that material is no longer available, Madam. o This information is easily available to everyone at the local library. o Refreshments are available at the snack bar.
 - 2 (used about people) free to be seen, talked to, etc: The minister was not available for comment.
 - » availability /ə,veilə'biləti/ noun [U] the state of being available: You will receive the colour you order, subject to availability (= if it is available).
 - avalanche /ˈævəlɑːnʃ; US -læntʃ/ noun [C] a very large amount of snow that slides quickly down the side of a mountain: Two skiers are still missing after yesterday's avalanche. (figurative) The company received an avalanche of complaints.
 - avant-garde /ˌævɒn ˈgɑːd/ adj (used especially about art and literature) extremely new and modern
 - avenge /ə'vendʒ/ verb [T] avenge sth; avenge yourself on sb to punish sb for hurting you, your family, etc. in some way: He wanted to awenge his father's murder. • He wanted to avenge himself on his father's murderer. • Look at revenge.

- avenue /ˈævənju:; US -nu:/ noun [C] 1 (abbr Ave.; Av.) a wide street, especially one with trees or tall buildings on each side: The house is on Beech Avenue. I live at 12 Tennyson Avenue. Fifth Avenue, New York Look at the note at road.
- 2 a way of doing or getting sth: We must explore every avenue open to us (= try every possibility).
- Taverage / weverids / noun 1 [C] the number you get when you add two or more figures together and then divide the total by the number of figures you added: The average of 14, 3 and 1 is 6 (= 18 divided by 3 is 6).
 - 2 [sing., U] the normal standard, amount or quality: Only 60% of the students passed the exam. That's well below the national average. On average, I buy a newspaper about twice a week.
 - » average adj 1 (only before a noun) (used about a number) found by calculating the average (1): What's the average age of your students?
 - 2 normal or typical. People on average incomes are finding it hard to manage at the moment. • children of above/below average intelligence
 - average verb [T] to do, get, etc. a certain amount as an average: If we average 50 miles an hour we should arrive at about 4 o clock.
 - يبلغ معدله EHRV average out (at sth) to result in an average (of sth): The meal averaged out at about £20 each.
 - averse /a'v3:s/ adj averse to sth (formal) (often with a negative) against or opposed to sth: He is not averse to trying out new ideas.
 - ممانع ؛ كارِه أ ، نافر من
 - aversion /ə'vɜ:ʃn; US ə'vɜ:rzn/ noun [C] 1 [usually sing.] an aversion (to sb/sth) a feeling of great dislike: Some people have an aversion to spiders.
 - 2 a thing that you greatly dislike: Mathematics was always one of my particular aversions.
- avert /a'va:t/ verb [T] to prevent sth unpleasant; to avoid: The accident could have been averted. يتفادئ: بتحنّب
- aviary /ˈeɪviəri; US -vieri/ noun [C] (pl. aviaries) a large cage or area in which birds are kept بيت أو قفص كبير للطيور
- aviation /ˌeɪvi'eɪʃn/ noun [U] the flying or building of aircraft
- avid /ˈævɪd/ adj keen and eager; greedy: an avid collector of antiques o The people crowded round the radio, avid for news.
- ▶ avidly adv: He read avidly as a child.

avocado / ævəˈkɑːdəʊ/ noun [C] (pl. avocados)

- a fruit shaped like a pear with a tough dark green skin and a large stone inside فوكادو: نوع من الفواكه
- Ravoid /a'vɔɪd/ verb [T] 1 avoid (doing sth) to prevent sth happening or try not to do sth: He always tried to avoid an argument if possible. It was so dark that we managed to avoid being seen.
 She has to avoid eating fatty food (= she must make an effort not to eat it).
 - 2 to keep away from (sb/sth): I leave home at 7 o'clock in order to avoid the rush hour. Jane is trying to avoid him at the moment.
 - » avoidable /-abl/ adj that can be prevented; unnecessary: We have been asked to cut down on any avoidable expense. The opposite is unavoidable. يعكن تجنبه: غير ضروري avoidable. avoidance /-ans/ noun [U]
 - await /a'went/ verb [T] (formal) 1 (used about people) to wait for sb/sth: Please await further instructions.
 - 2 (used about things or events) to be ready or waiting for sb/sth: We were unaware of the danger that awaited us.
 - awake¹/ə'weik/ verb (pt awoke /ə'wəuk/; pp awoken /ə'wəukən/) 1 [I,T] to wake up; to make sb/sth wake up: I awoke to find that it was already 9 o'clock. A sudden loud noise awoke us all. ④ Wake up is more common than awake.
 - 2 [T] to make sb have a particular feeling, attitude, etc: His words awoke fear and hatred in the boy.
- Rawake² /ə'wetk/ adj (not before a noun) not sleeping: I was awake most of the night, worrying.

 o The children are always wide (= completely) awake at 6 o'clock in the morning. o They were so tired that they found it difficult to keep awake.

 The opposite is asleep.
 - awaken /əˈweɪkən/ verb 1 [1,T] (formal) to wake up; to make sb/sth wake up: I awakened to find the others already up. We were awakened by a loud knock at the door. Wake up is much more common than awaken.
 - 2 [T] (formal) to produce a particular feeling, attitude, etc. in sb: The film awakened memories of her childhood.
 - aware of sth: The letter awakened me to the seriousness of the situation.
 - > awakening /ə'werkənɪŋ/ noun [C. usually sing.] 1 the start (of a feeling, etc.): the awakening of an interest in the opposite sex
 - 2 an act of realizing: It was a rude (= unpleasant) awakening when I suddenly found that I was unemployed.
- Raward /əˈwɔːd/ verb [T] award sth (to sb/sth) to give sth to sb as a prize, payment, etc: She was awarded first prize in the gymnastics competition.

 The novel was awarded the Booker Prize. The court awarded £10 000 each to the workers injured in the factory accident.
 - ▶ award noun [C] 1 a prize, etc. that sb gets for doing sth well: This year the awards for best

aware → aye 48

actor and actress went to two Americans.

جائزة ، مكافأة

- 2 an amount of money given to sb as the result of a court decision: She received an award of £5 000 for damages.
 تعویف: حکم ب
- Raware /o'weo(r)/ adj 1 aware (of sb/sth); aware (that) knowing about or realizing sth; conscious of sb/sth: I am aware of the difficulties you face. o I am aware that you will face difficulties. o I suddenly felt aware of somebody watching me. o There is no other entrance, as far as I am aware. The opposite is unaware.
 - 2 interested and informed: to be politically aware
 - heating has increased in recent years. الله awareness or interest: People's awareness of healthy eating has increased in recent years.
- awash /aˈwɒʃ/ adj (not before a noun) covered with water; flooded: The bathroom was awash because the bath had overflowed. o (figurative) The city was awash with rumours.
- Çaway /ə'wei/ adj, adv ⊃ Look also at phrasal verbs, e.g. give away, take away.
 - 1 away (from sb/sth) to a different place or in a different direction: Go away! I'm busy! o I asked him a question, but he just looked away.
 - 2 at a distance from a place: My parents live five miles away. The village is two miles away from the sea.
 - 3 away (from sth) (used about people) not present; absent: My neighbours are away on holiday at the moment. Tom was away from school for two weeks with measles.
 - 4 away (from sth) in the future: Our summer holiday is only three weeks away.

بَعْد: (التعبير عن المستقبل)

5 into a safe place: Put your books away now. ○ He tidied his clothes away. ○ They cleared the dishes away (= off the table). ⑥ Contrast throw that away (= put it in the rubbish bin).

(في مكان آمن)

6 (used about a football, etc. team) on the other team's ground: Our team's playing away on Saturday. \circ an away match/game

على ملعب الفريق الآخر

- 7 until it disappears completely: The crash of thunder slowly died away. The writing has almost faded away. (حتى يتلاشى تماماً)
- 8 continuously, without stopping: They chatted away for hours. باستمرال، دون توقف right/straight away immediately; without any delay: I'll phone the doctor right away o I understood straight away what she wanted me to do.
- awe /ɔ:/ noun [U] a feeling of respect and either fear or admiration: We watched in awe as the rocket took off into space. O As a young boy he was very much in awe of his uncle.
- > awesome /-səm/ adj impressive and rather frightening: an awesome task

- 'awe-inspiring adj causing a feeling of respect and fear or admiration مهيب، يبعث على الرهبة
- Rawful /ˈɔrfl/ adj 1 very bad or unpleasant: We had an awful holiday. It rained every day. What an awful thing to say!
 - 2 terrible; very serious: I'm afraid there's been some awful news. شنيع : بغيض : مقلق للغاية
 - 3 (only before a noun) (informal) very great: I'm in an awful hurry. See you later. We've got an awful lot of work to do.
 - ▶ awfully /ˈɔːfli/ adv (informal) very; very much: I'm awfully sorry.
- Rawkward / c:kwed/ adj 1 not convenient, difficult: My mother always phones at an awkward time. ○ You've put me in an awkward position. ○ That's an awkward question. ○ It's awkward for her to get home by bus. ○ This tin-opener is very awkward to clean.
 - 2 (used about people) causing difficulties; unreasonable: He keeps asking for different things – he's just being awkward.
 - 3 embarrassed; not relaxed: There was an awkward silence when no one could think of anything to say.
 - 4 without grace or skill: an awkward gesture

► awkwardly adv

على نحو أخرق ؛ بصورة محرجة أو غير ملائمة صعوبة؛ حرج؛ عدم مهارة awkwardness noun [U]

awoke pt of AWAKE

awoken pp of AWAKE

- awry /ə'raɪ/ adv wrong, not in the way that was planned: Our plans went awry.
- منحرفاً عن هدفه؛ فاشلاً: سدى awry adj (not before a noun) untidy; in the
- ▶ awry adj (not before a noun) untidy; in the wrong position: Her hair was all awry.
- axe (especially US ax) /æks/ noun [C] a tool with a wooden handle and a metal blade used for cutting wood, etc: He chopped the tree down with an axe.
- ▶ axe (especially US ax) verb [T] 1 to remove or end sth: Hundreds of jobs have been axed.

ينهي ، يلغي ؛ يقضي على L hudgate ara to ba

- 2 to reduce sth greatly: School budgets are to be axed.
- axis /ˈæksɪs/ noun [C] (pl. axes /ˈæksiːz/) 1 an imaginary line through the middle of an object that turns: The earth rotates on its axis.
- 2 a fixed line used for marking measurements on a graph: the horizontal/vertical axis
- axle /ˈæksl/ noun [C] a bar that connects a pair of wheels on a vehicle محور أو جَزْع (الدولاب)
- ayatoliah /ˌaɪəˈtɒlə; US -təul/ noun [C] a religious leader of Shiite Muslims in Iran
- aye (also ay) /aɪ/ interj yes 🖰 Aye is common in Scotland and the North of England.

B b

- B, b /bi:/ noun [C] (pl. Bs; B's; b's) the second letter of the English alphabet: 'Billy' begins with (a) 'B'.
 الحرف الثاني في الأبجلية الإنكليزية
- BA (US B.A.) /,bi: 'ei:/ abbrev Bachelor of Arts; the degree that you receive when you complete a university or college course in an arts subject
- b. abbrev born: J S Bach, b. 1685 baa /bɑ:/ noun [C] the sound that a sheep or lamb makes babble /'bæbl/ verb [I] 1 to talk quickly or in a way that is difficult to understand

يتكلّم على نحو يصعب فهمه ، يغمغم

- ${f 2}$ to make the sound of water running over stones
- ► babble noun [U] 1 the sound of many voices talking at the same time: I could hear a babble of voices coming from downstairs.
- 2 the sound of water running over stones خریر (الماء)

babe /beɪb/ noun [C] 1 (old-fashioned) a baby طفل رضيع

2 (US slang) (used when talking to sb, especially a girl or young woman): It's OK, babe.

مبارة تدليع: "يا حلوة"

- T baby /'berbi/ noun [C] (pl. babies) 1 a very young child: I've got wonderful news. I'm going to have a baby. She's expecting a baby early next year (= she's pregnant and the baby will be born early next year). When's the baby due? (= when will it be born?) Babies can usually sit up when they are about six months old. a baby boy/ girl
 - 2 a very young animal or bird: a haby rabbit صغير الحيوان أو الطير
 - 3 (US slang) a person, especially a girl or young woman that you are fond of
 - ▶ babyish adj like or suitable for a baby: Don't be so babyish - stop crying, o This book is a bit too babyish for Tom now.

'baby boom noun [C] a time when more babies are born than usual, for example after a war

فترة ازدهار الولادات 'baby boomer noun [C] a person born during a baby boom

during

'baby carriage noun [C] (US) = PRAM

- babysit /'beɪbisɪt/ verb [I] (babysitting; pt, pp babysat) to look after a child for a short time while the parents are out: We have friends who babysit for us if we go out in the evening.
- يرعى الأطفال • 'babysitter noun [C]: We can't come this evening. We couldn't find a babysitter.

- bachelor /ˈbætʃələ(r)/ noun [C] 1 a man who has not yet married 6 Nowadays single is the most usual word that is used to describe a man or a woman who is not married: a single man/noman
- 2 a person who has a first university degree: a Bachelor of Arts o a Bachelor of Science مجاز جامعی: حامل بکالورپوس
- Rback¹/bæk/noun [C] 1 the part of a person's or animal's body between the neck and the bottom: Do you sleep on your back or on your side? ○ She was standing with her back to me so I couldn't see her face. ○ He swung himself up onto the horse's back.
 - 2 the part or side of sth that is furthest from the front: David couldn't see the blackboard because he was sitting at the back of the class. Jane sat next to the driver and Anne and I sat in the back of the car. The back of the house is much prettier than the front. There's some information about the author at the back of the book.
 - 3 the part of a chair that you lean against when you sit down: Don't climb on the back of the sofa, children!

back to front with the back where the front should be: Wait a minute - you've got your jumper on back to front.

behind sb's back without sb's knowledge or agreement: They criticized her behind her back.

get off sb's back (informal) to stop bothering or annoying sb: I wish she'd get off my back! يتر كه في سلام know sth inside out/like the back of your hand \rightarrow KNOW a pat on the back \rightarrow PAT¹

- لل back² /bæk/ adj 1 (only before a noun) furthest from the front: Have you locked the back door?

 o the back row of the theatre o back teeth
 - 2 owed for a time in the past: back pay
- Lesson back daw 1 in or to a place or state that sb/sth was in before: Bye! I'll be back about 6 o'clock (= back home again). When is your brother coming back from Australia? Go back to sleep. Could I have my pen back, please?

(يعود) لبيته أو حالته السابقة

- 2 away from the direction you are facing or moving in: She walked away without looking back.

 Could everyone move back a bit, please?
- 3 away from sth; under control: The police were unable to keep the crowds back. She tried to keep back her tears. (بعيداً عن شيء): (تحت سيطرته)
- 4 in return or in reply: He said he'd phone me back in half an hour. كردُ أو جواب ا back → backup

5 in or into the past; ago: I met him a few years back, in Madrid. O Think back to your first day at school.

DM back and forth from one place to another and back again, all the time: Travelling back and forth to work takes up quite a bit of time.

- P back⁴ /bæk/ verb 1 [I,T] to move backwards or to make sth move backwards: I'll have to back into that parking space. • He backed the car into the parking space.
 - 2 [I] to face sth at the back: Many of the colleges, back onto the river. (الله مثلاً) يطل من الخلف (على النهر مثلاً)
 - 3 [T] to give help or support to sb/sth: We can go ahead with the scheme if the bank will agree to back us.
 - 4 [T] to bet money that a particular horse, team, etc. will win in a race or game: Which horse are you backing in the 2 o'clock race?

back away (from sb/sth) to move backwards because you are afraid, shocked, etc: He began to back slowly away from the snake.

back out (of sth) to decide not to do sth that you had promised to do: You promised you would come with me. You can't back out of it now!

يتراجع عن ، يتنصل من back sb/sth up to support sb; to say or show that sth is true: I'm going to say exactly what I think at the meeting. Will you back me up? o All the evidence backed up what the woman had said.

back sth up (computing) to make a copy of a computer program, etc. in case the original one is lost or damaged: If you don't back up your files you risk losing data.

backer noun [C] a person who gives support or money to another person, a scheme, etc.

مول، داعم (المشروع)

backing noun [U] help or support to do sth, often in the form of money: financial backing

,back 'bench noun [C, usually pl.] (Brit) a seat in the House of Commons for an ordinary member of Parliament: to sit on the back benches

المقعد الخلني (في البرلمان الإنكليزي) ▶ 'back-'bencher noun [C] (Brit) a member of Parliament who does not have an important position in a political party backbone /ˈbækbəʊn/ noun 1 [C] the line of bones down the back of your body ♣ Look at spine. ♣ Look at spine.

عضو برلمان يشغل مقعداً خلفياً .

2 [sing.] the main strength or support: Volunteer workers are the backbone of the organization.

backdate /ˌbæk'deɪt/ verb [T] to make sth valid from an earlier date: The pay rise will be backdated to 1 April.

backfire /,bæk'faiə(r)/ verb [I] to have an unexpected and unwanted result, often the opposite of what was intended بتمخض عن نتيجة عكسية

F background /'bækgraund/ noun 1 [C] the type of family and social class you come from and the education and experience you have: We get on very well together in spite of our different backgrounds. o a working-class background

خلفيّة اجتماعية، بيئة

- 2 [sing., U] the facts or events that are connected with a situation: The talks are taking place against a background of increasing tension.

 o I need some background information.
- 3 [sing.] the part of a view, scene, picture, etc. which is furthest away from the person looking at it: You can see the mountains in the background of the photo. 2 Look at foreground.

خلفية

4 [sing.] a position where sb/sth can be seen/heard, etc. but is not the centre of attention: The film star's husband prefers to stay in the background. • All the time I was speaking to her, I could hear a child crying in the background. • The restaurant kept playing the same background music again and again.

خلفية ؛ بعد عن الأنظار

backhand /bækhænd/ noun [sing.] a stroke in tennis, etc. that is made with the back of your hand facing forward 3 Look at forehand.

ضرية في التنس بظهر اليد backlash /ˈbæklæʃ/ noun [sing.] a strong reaction against a political or social event or development وردُ فعل عنيف backlog /ˈbæklog/ noun [C, usually sing.] an amount of work, etc. that has not yet been done and needs doing: I've got an enormous backlog of letters to write. متأخرات، عمل متراكم

backpack/bækpæk/noun[C](especially US) = RUCKSACK

➤ backpack verb [I] to go walking or travelling with your clothes, etc. in a backpack ❸ Go backpacking is used when you are talking about spending time backpacking: We went backpacking round Europe last summer.

يسافر حاملا حقيبته على ظهره

مسافر يحمل امتعته على ظهره [C] backpacker noun backside /'bæksaɪd/ noun [C] (informal) the part of the body that you sit on; your bottom

عجيزة : مؤخّرة

backslash /ˈbækslæʃ/ noun [C] a mark (\) used in computer commands شرطة مائلة (كمبيوتر)

backstage /ˌbæk'steɪdʒ/ adv behind the stage in a theatre, where the actors get dressed, etc. وراء الكواليس backstroke /ˈbækstrəʊk/ noun [U] a style of swimming that you do on your back: Can you do backstroke?

backup /ˈbækʌp/ noun 1 [U] extra help or support: Her success is partly due to the backup she gets from her team.

2 [C] a copy of a computer disk that you can use

if the original one is lost or damaged: Always make a backup of your files.

- ? backward /'bækwəd/ adj 1 (only before a noun) directed towards the back: a backward step, glance, etc. خلفي ؛ متجه الى الوراء
 - 2 slow to learn or develop: Considerable modernization is needed in the more backward areas of the country
 - (especially US backward) ▶ backwards adv 1 away from the front; towards the back: Could everybody take a step backwards? o He fell backwards and hit the back of his head. o We seem to be going backwards, not forwards.
 - 2 the opposite way to usual; with the end first: It was a very easy code. All the words were written بالمعكوس، بالمقلوب backwards.
 - 3 towards an earlier time: The film was about some people who travelled backwards in time.
 - DM backward(s) and forward(s) first in one direction and then in the other, all the time: The dog ran backwards and forwards, barking loud-إلى الأمام و إلى الوراء
- backwater /'bækwɔ:tə(r)/ noun [C] a place that is not affected by new ideas or outside events مكان معزول عن المدنيّة
- backyard / bæk'ja:d/ noun [C] an area behind a house, usually of concrete or stone, with a wall or فناء مسور خلف البيت fence around it
- bacon /'beikən/ noun [U] thin pieces of salted or smoked meat from the back or sides of a pig
- La Company de la Company de l living things that can only be seen with a microscope. Bacteria exist in large numbers in air, water, soil, plants and the bodies of people and animals. Some bacteria cause disease. 3 Look at بكتيريا ، جراثيم
- t bad /bæd/ adj (worse /ws:s/, worst /ws:st/) 1 not good or pleasant: Our family's had rather a bad time recently. o The weather forecast for the weekend is very bad. رديء ؛ مكدّر
 - 2 severe or serious: The traffic was extremely bad on the way to work. O She went home with a bad headache. o That was a bad mistake!
 - سيَّىٰ ؛ شديد ؛ (خطأ) فاحش
 - 3 of poor quality; of a low standard: Many accidents are caused by bad driving. o Some of the company's problems are the result of bad
 - 4 bad (at sth/at doing sth) not able to do sth well or easily; not skilful or reliable: a bad teacher, driver, cook, etc. o I've always been bad at sport, but Liz is even worse than me. o He's very bad at keeping us informed (= we can't rely on him to give us information). غير ماهر ؛ غير موثوق
 - 5 (used about food) not fresh or fit to eat; rotten: Smell this meat - I think it's gone bad.
 - 6 (used about parts of the body) not healthy; مُعْتلٌ ؛ مؤلم painful: He's always had a bad heart.

- 7 (used about a person or behaviour) not good; morally wrong: He was not a bad man, just rather weak
- 8 (not before a noun) bad for sb/sth likely to damage or hurt sb/sth: Too many sweets are bad for you. ضار
- 9 bad (for sth/to do sth) difficult or unsuitable: This is a bad time to phone - everyone's out صعب؛ غير ملاتم to lunch.
- not bad (informal) quite good: 'What was the lecture like?' 'Not bad.' o He earned £100 - not حَسَن ؛ لا بأس به bad for four hours' work!
- too bad (informal) (used to show that nothing can be done to change a situation): 'I'd much rather stay at home.' 'Well that's just too bad. We've said we'll go.' (أمر) سيّى للغاية
- ▶ baddy noun [C] (pl. baddies) (informal) a bad person in a film, book, etc. (1) The opposite is a الشخص الشرير في فيلم و نحوه goody.
- badge /bæd3/ noun [C] a small piece of metal or cloth with a design or words on it which you pin or sew onto your clothing. A badge can show position, rank, membership of a club, etc., or express a message: The players all have jackets with the شارة ؛ شعار ؛ وسام club badge on them.
- badger /'bædʒə(r)/ noun [C] an animal with black and white stripes on its head that lives in holes in the ground and comes out at night
- bad 'language noun [U] words that are used for swearing: You'll get into trouble if you use لغة بذيثة bad language.
- ? badly /'bædli/ adv (worse; worst) 1 in a way that is not satisfactory; not well: 'Can you speak French?' 'Well, only very badly.' O Some modern houses are very badly built. o She did badly in the exams. على نحو غير مرض ؛ بشكل رديء
 - 2 greatly or severely: He was badly hurt in the بشدة ؛ (يجرح جرحاً) بليغاً accident.
 - 3 very much: He badly needed a holiday.
 - DM badly off poor; not having enough of sth: They don't seem too badly off - they have smart clothes and a nice house. The opposite is well فقير، معوز
 - badminton /'bædmintən/ noun [U] a game for two or four people in which players hit a type of light ball with feathers (shuttlecock) over a high net, using rackets: to play badminton
 - لعبة الرِّيشة الطائرة
- bad-'tempered adj often angry or impatient: ŗ. a bad-tempered old man سريع الغضب ، سيَّئ الطبع
 - baffle /'bæfl/ verb [T] to be impossible for sb to understand; to confuse greatly: His illness baffled the doctors. يستغلق على ؛ يحير
 - ▶ baffled adj very confused; unable to understand: The instructions were so complicated that I مشوّش ؛ عاجز عن الفهم was absolutely baffled. baffling adj: I find English a baffling lan-محيّر ، صعب الفهم guage.
- Lbag¹ /bæg/ noun [C] 1 a container made of paper, plastic, cloth or leather that is open at the top, often with handles, in which you can carry bag → balance

things: The assistant took my money and put the book in a paper bag. \circ She brought some sandwiches in a plastic bag. \circ Are carrier bags free in this supermarket? \circ a shopping bag \circ a shoulder bag \circ a sports bag \circ a handbag \circ She took her purse out of her bag (= handbag).

- 2 a container made of paper or plastic that is closed at the top; a packet: a bag of sweets, crisps, sugar, etc.
- 3 a thing that looks like a bag: bags under the eyes (= folds of skin under the eyes, often caused by lack of sleep)
- امرأة ممقوتة (slang) an unpleasant woman
- 5 bags (of sth) [plural] a lot (of sth); plenty (of sth): There's no hurry, we've got bags of time.
- bag² /bæg/ verb [T] (bagging; bagged) (informal) to try to reserve sth for yourself so that other people cannot have it: Somebody's bagged the seats by the pool!
- Laggage /'bægid3/ noun [U] = LUGGAGE: We loaded our baggage into the car. O Baggage should be checked in (= given to an airline employee at a counter) at least an hour before the flight. O excess baggage (= baggage weighing more than the airline's permitted limit)
- baggy /ˈbægi/ adj (baggier; baggiest) (used about a piece of clothing) hanging loosely on the body: a baggy pullover
- a musical instrument, popular in Scotland, that is played by blowing air through a pipe into a bag and then pressing the bag so that the air comes out of other pipes
- baguette /bæˈget/ noun [C] a loaf of white bread in the shape of a long thick stick that is crisp on the outside and soft inside
- bail /beil/ noun [U] 1 money that sb agrees to pay if a person accused of a crime does not appear in front of the court on the day he/she is called. When bail has been arranged, the accused person can go free until that day: She was released on bail of £2 000. The judge set bail at £10 000.

فالة مالية

- 2 permission for sb who is accused of a crime to be free until the trial if a sum of money is handed over to the court: The judge felt that he was a dangerous man and refused him bail.

 She was granted bail.
- ▶ bail verb

paying his/her bail(1): After she had been charged, her parents bailed her out.

يدفع كفالة لإطلاق سراح متهم

2 to rescue sb or sth from a difficult situation (especially by providing money)

يستنقذ (بعون مالي)

bailiff /'berlif/ noun [C] an officer whose job is to make sure that a court order is carried out, especially by taking possession of people's goods when they owe money

- bait /beɪt/ noun [U] 1 food or sth that looks like food that is put onto a hook to catch fish, or placed in a trap to catch animals or birds
- 2 something that is used for tempting or attracting sb: Free offers are often used as bait to attract customers.
- P bake |betk| verb [I,T] 1 to cook in an oven in dry heat: I could smell bread baking in the oven. On his birthday she baked him a cake. Would you like boiled or baked potatoes? ◆ Look at the note at cook.
 - 2 to become or to make sth hard by heating it: The hot sun baked the earth. يتحمص يحصص يشوي baking adj (informal) very hot: The workers complained of the baking heat in the office in the summer.
 - baker /ˈbeɪkə(r)/ noun [C] a person who bakes and sells bread, cakes, etc: Get a loaf at the baker's. Note that the baker is the person who runs the shop and the baker's is the shop.
 - ▶ bakery /ˈbeɪkəri/ noun [C] (pl. bakeries) (US 'bake shop) a place where bread, cakes, etc. are baked to be sold
- ? balance¹ /'bæləns/ verb 1 [I,T] to be or to put sb/sth in a steady position in which weight is evenly spread: I had to balance on the top step of the ladder to paint the ceiling. O Carefully, she balanced a glass on top of the pile of plates.

يتوازن ؛ يوازن

- 2 [I,T] to have equal totals of money spent and money received: I must have made a mistake—the accounts don't balance. O She is always very careful to balance her weekly budget.
 - يرصِّد الحساب؛ يوازن بين الدخل و النفقات
- 3 [T] balance sth (out) (with sth) to have or give sth equal value, importance, etc. in relation to other parts: It's difficult to balance the demands of a career with caring for an elderly relative. The loss in the first half of the year was balanced out by the profit in the second half. يسلوي (بين): يعلل
- 4 [T] balance sth against sth to consider and compare one matter in relation to another: In planning the new road, we have to balance the benefit to motorists against the damage to the environment.
- ▶ balanced adj 1 including all different sides, opinions, etc. equally; fair: I like this newspaper because it gives a balanced view.

متوازن ، شامل لآراء مختلفة

- 2 consisting of parts that are in the correct or pleasing proportions: A balanced diet plays an important part in good health.
- Palance / 'bælens / noun 1 [U] the state of being in a steady position in which weight is evenly spread: You need a good sense of balance to ride a motor bike.
 - 2 [sing.] (a) balance (between A and B) a situation in which different or opposite things are of equal importance, size, etc. or are in the correct proportions: The course provides a good balance between academic and practical work.

balance of payments → ballot

- ن Man has upset the environmental balance of the world.
- 3 [C] (technical) an instrument used for weighing things ⊃ Look at scales. ميزان
- 4 [C] the amount of money in sb's bank account: While I was in the bank I asked the cashier for my balance.
- 5 the balance [sing.] the amount that still has to be paid; the amount that remains after some has been used, taken, etc: You can pay a 10% deposit now, with the balance due in one month. o I took most of my annual holiday in the summer and I'm taking the balance over Christmas.

in the balance uncertain: Following poor results, the company's future is in the balance.

غير مؤكد keep/lose your balance to remain/not to remain steady and upright: It's difficult to keep your balance on this icy path. She tripped, lost her balance and fell over. (catch/throw sb) off balance (to find or put sb) in an unsteady position from which it is easy to fall: A strong gust of wind caught me off balance and I nearly fell over.

مُقْلَدُ وَالِينُهُ وَاللّٰهُ on balance having taken all sides, facts, etc. into consideration: On balance, I've had a pretty into consideration: On balance, I've had a pretty good year:

بعد أخذ كل شيء بعين الاعتبار strike a balance → STRIKE²

balance of 'payments noun [sing.] the difference between the amount of money one country receives from other countries from exports, etc. and the amount it pays to them for imports, etc.

balance of 'power noun [sing.] 1 a situation in which power is evenly divided among the various sides, parties, groups, etc. involved

توانن القوى 2 the power that a smaller political party has when the larger parties need its support because they do not have enough votes on their own (يحمل) ميزان القوى

'balance sheet noun [C] a written record of money received and money paid out, showing the difference between the totals of each

سان المنز أثبة

- balcony /ˈbælkəni/ noun [C] (pl. balconies) 1 a platform built on an upstairs outside wall of a building, with a wall or rail around it: Our hotel room had a balcony where we could sit and look at the lake.
- 2 the rows of seats high up and near the back of a theatre
- bald /bo:ld/ adj 1 (used about people) having little or no hair on the head: He went bald when he was only 30. He has a bald patch on the top of his head.
- 2 (used about sth that is said) simple; without extra words: the bald truth لسيط مجرد balding adj becoming bald: a balding man in his fifties bale /beil/ noun [C] a large quantity of sth (paper, hay, cloth, etc.) tied together in a bundle so that it can be transported بالة، يزمة

balk = BAULK

- Lead 1 bo:1/noun [C] 1 a round object that you hit, kick, throw, etc. in games and sports: a tennis ball o a golf ball o a football o The children were playing with a ball in the garden. O The ball bounced over the fence.
 - 2 any object that has this shape or has been formed into this shape: a ball of wool o The cat curled up into a ball and went to sleep. o The children threw snowballs at each other. o We had meatballs and pasta for dinner.
 - (be) on the ball (informal) (to be) aware of what is happening and able to react to or deal with it quickly: With so many new developments, you really have to be on the ball. عقل متنه: عطلي set/start the ball rolling to start sth (an activity, conversation, etc.) that involves or is done by a group: I made the first contribution to the collection to set the ball rolling.

يستهل أمرا أو حديثا

ball² /bɔːl/ noun [C] a large formal party at which people dance ballad /ˈbæləd/ noun [C] a long song or poem in simple language, telling a story ball 'bearing noun [C] one of a number of metal balls put between parts of a machine to make them move smoothly

ballerina /ˌbæləˈriːnə/ noun [C] a woman who dances in ballets

- ballet /'bæleı/ noun 1 [U] a style of dancing that tells a story with music but without words: I like opera but I'm not keen on ballet.
- 2 [C] a performance or work that consists of this type of dancing: They went to see a performance of Tchaikovsky's ballet 'The Nutcracker'.

(حفلة أداء) باليه

'ballet dancer noun [C] a person who dances in ballets راقص أو راقصة باليه

'ball game noun 1 [C] any game played with a ball: Tennis, football, golf - he's good at all ball games.

- 2 [C] (US) a baseball match مباراة بيسبول
- 3 [sing.] (informal) a situation; a set of circumstances: *After living in a village for so long, living in the big city is a whole new ball game for me.*وضع، ظرف
- palloon /bə'lu:n/ noun [C] 1 a small coloured rubber bag that you blow air into and use as a toy or for decoration: We hung balloons around the room for the party. The child cried when his balloon burst.
- 2 (also hot-'air balloon) a large bag that is filled with gas or hot air so that it can rise into and fly through the air, carrying people in a basket attached below it: They crossed the Atlantic in a balloon.

ballot /'bælət/ noun [C,U] a secret written vote: A ballot will be held to elect a new chairman. ○ The ballpark → banger

members of the union voted in a ballot to accept the pay rise. • The committee are elected by ballot every year. تصویت سري

▶ ballot verb [T] ballot sb (about/on sth) to ask sb to vote in a ballot; to arrange and hold a ballot: The union is balloting its members on strike action.

ballpark /ˈbɔːlpɑːk/ noun [C] a place where baseball is played in the ballpark (informal) (used about figures or amounts) that are within the same limits: All the bids for the contract were in the same ballpark.

a ballpark figure/estimate a number, amount, etc. that is approximately correct: We asked the builders for a ballpark figure, to give us an idea of how much it would cost.

ballpoint /ˈbɔːlpɔːnt/ (also ˌballpoint 'pen) noun [C] a pen with a very small metal ball at the end that rolls ink onto paper $\mathbb{D}$ Look at Biro.

ballroom /ˈbɔːlruːm; -rom/ noun [C] a large room used for dancing ballroom 'dancing noun [U] a formal type of dance in which couples dance together using particular steps and movements رقص ثنائي بخضع لخطوات معينة bamboo /,bæm'bu:/ noun [C,U] a tall tropical plant of the grass family. Young bamboo shoots can be eaten; the hard, hollow stems are used for

Lean /bæn/ verb (banning; banned) [T] 1 to forbid officially, often by law: The government has banned the import of products from that coun-

making furniture, etc: a bamboo chair

يمنم يحظر 2 ban sb (from sth/from doing sth) to officially forbid sb to do sth, often by law: He was fined £400 and banned from driving for a year

▶ ban noun [C] a ban (on sth/sb): There is a ban on smoking in this office.

banal /bəˈnɑːl; US ˈbeɪnl/ adj not original or interesting: a banal comment banana /bəˈnɑːnə; US bəˈnænə/ noun [C] a long curved fruit that has a yellow skin and that can be eaten: a bunch of bananas ○ a banana milk-shake

Reband / 'bænd; bænd / noun [C] 1 a thin, flat, narrow piece of material used for fastening sth, or put round sth, often to hold it together: She rolled up the papers and put an elastic band round them.

The cards were held together by a rubber band.

He was wearing a white hat with a black band round it.

2 a line of a colour or design that is different from the one on either side of it: She wore a red pullover with a green band across the middle.

(العام ملون (على ثوب مثال العام)

3 [with sing. or pl. verb] a group of people who have joined together with a common purpose:

The attack was made by a small band of rebels.

4 a group of musicians: a brass band o a jazz band o a rock band فرقة (موسيقية)

5 = WAVEBAND

pandage /'bændɪdʒ/ noun [C] a long piece of soft white material that is wrapped round a wound or injury ► bandage verb [T] bandage sth/sb (up): She played the game with a bandaged knee.

Band-AidTM /'bænd eid/ noun [C] (especially US) = PLASTER (2)

B and B (also b and b) /,bi: ən 'bi:/ abbrev = bed AND BREAKFAST bandit /ˈbændɪt/ noun [C] an armed robber, usually in a wild place bandwagon /'bændwægen/ noun

EM climb/jump on the bandwagon to copy what other people are doing because it is fashionable or successful

يقلُّد الآخرين ؛ يلتحق بالجانب المتوقع فوزه

bang¹ /bæŋ/ verb [I,T] 1 to make a loud noise by hitting sth hard, closing sth, or putting sth down: The people downstairs banged on their ceiling to complain about the noise. • Somewhere in the house, I heard a door bang. • She stormed out of the room, banging the door behind her. • He banged his fist on the table and started shouting.

2 to knock against sth by accident: As I was crossing the room in the dark I banged into a table. • Be careful not to bang your head on the ceiling. It's quite low.

PHRV bang about/around to move around a place making loud noises: I could hear him banging about in the kitchen.

bang² /bæn/ noun [C] 1 a sudden, short, very loud noise: There was an enormous bang when the bomb exploded. ○ The balloon burst with a bang.

2 a short, strong knock or blow, especially one that causes pain and injury: He received a nasty bang on the head and was unconscious for several minutes.

قرية عنيفة

bang interj (used to sound like the noise of a gun, etc.): The children were running around with toy guns, shouting, 'Bang! Bang!'

bang³ /bæŋ/ adv (informal) exactly; directly; right: She phoned bang in the middle of dinner.

o The shot was bang on target.

EM bang goes sth (informal) (used for expressing the idea that sth is now impossible):
"It's raining!" Ah well, bang goes our picnic!"

الأمل الآن في...

banger /ˈbæŋə(r)/ noun [C] (Brit informal) 1 a sausage

2 an old car that is in very bad condition سیارة قدیمة و بحالة ردینة

3 a small firework that explodes with a short loud noise مفرقعة أو لعبة نارية صغيرة

55

bangle /'bængl/ noun [C] a large bracelet or metal band that is worn round the arm for decor-

bangs /bænz/ noun [plural] (US) = FRINGE(1) banish /'bænɪʃ/ verb [T] 1 to send sb away (especially out of the country), usually as a punishment: They were banished from the country for demonstrating against the government. O The children were banished to the garden for making too much noise in the house. ينفى ، يطرد من البلاد

2 to remove sth completely; to force out: She hanished all hope of winning from her mind.

banister /'bænɪstə(r)/ noun [C] (often plural) a rail supported by upright bars at the side of a staircase, that you hold on to when you are going up- or downstairs

banjo /'bændʒəʊ/ noun [C] (pl. banjos) a musical instrument with a long thin neck, a round body and four or more strings, played with the fin-البانجو: آلة موسيقية gers

- T bank¹ /bænk/ noun [C] 1 an organization which keeps money safely for its customers; the office or building of such an organization. You can take money out, save, borrow or exchange money at a bank: My salary is paid directly into my bank. .. He went to the bank and got some money out of his account. O She got a loan from the bank to buy
 - 2 a store of things, which you keep to use later: a data bank o a blood bank in a hospital

- ▶ banker noun [C] a person who owns or has an مدير أو موظف كبير في بنك important job in a bank banking noun [U] the type of business done by banks: She decided on a career in banking.
- Tbank² /bæŋk/ noun [C] 1 the ground along the side of a river or canal: People were fishing along the banks of the river. O We rowed to the bank and got out of the boat.
 - 2 any area of sloping ground: There were grassy banks on either side of the road. جرف، منحَدُر
 - 3 (used about certain features of weather) a mass of sth: a bank of cloud ركام ، كومة

bank³/bænk/verb

PHRV bank on sb/sth to expect and trust sb to do sth, or sth to happen: I suppose you might be lucky but I wouldn't bank on it. o We haven't booked a hotel - we're banking on finding somewhere to stay when we get there.

bank 'holiday noun [C] a public holiday (not a Saturday or Sunday) when banks are officially عطلة رسمية closed

banknote /'bænknəʊt/ noun [C] = NOTE1 (4) bankrupt /'bænkrapt/ adj not having enough money to pay your debts: The company went bankrupt owing thousands of pounds. ▶ bankrupt verb [T] to cause sb/sth to become bankrupt

bankruptcy /'bænkrapsi/ noun [C,U] the state

when a person or an organization is bankrupt: During this period of economic difficulty, bankruptcies are becoming more common. O Competition from larger companies drove them to إفلاس bankruptcy.

'bank statement (also statement) noun [C] a printed list of all the money going into or out of a bank account during a certain period banner /'bænə(r)/ noun [C] a long piece of cloth with words or signs on it, which can be hung up or carried through the streets on two poles: The demonstrators carried banners saying 'Stop the War'.

banquet /'bænkwit/ noun [C] a formal dinner for a large number of people, usually as a special event at which speeches are made

- baptism /'bæptizəm/ noun [C,U] a ceremony in which a person becomes a member of the Christian Church by being placed briefly under water or having drops of water put onto his/her head. Often he/she is also formally given a name. Look at christening. تعمید (دینی)
- ▶ baptize (also baptise) /bæp'taɪz/ verb [T] to perform the ceremony of baptism: Were you baptized as a child? o He was baptized 'George
- Baptist / bæptist/ noun [C], adj (a member) of a Protestant Church that believes that baptism should only be for people who are old enough to understand the meaning of the ceremony and should be done by placing the person fully under water
- ? bar¹ /ba:(r)/ noun [C] 1 a place where you can buy and drink (especially alcoholic) drinks and sometimes have sth to eat: They had a drink in the bar before the meal. o a wine bar o a coffee bar o a snack bar
 - 2 a long, narrow, high table or counter where drinks are served: We sat on stools at the bar. o He works behind the bar in the local pub. بار ، طاولة المشروبات
 - 3 a long, thin, straight piece of metal, often placed across a window or door, etc. to make it strong or to prevent people from passing through it: They escaped by sawing through the bars of their prison cell. o To open the emergency exit door, push the bar.
 - 4 a small block of solid material, longer than it is wide: a bar of soap o a bar of chocolate

- 5 a thing that prevents you from doing sth: Lack of education is not always a bar to success in business.
- 6 one of the short, equal units of time into which music is divided: If you sing a few bars of the فاصلة موسيقية song I might recognize it.

DM behind bars (informal) in prison

جون ، وراء القضبان

bar² /ba;(r)/ verb [T] (barring; barred) 1 to fasten with a bar1 (3) or bars: The heavy door was barred and bolted. يقفل بمزلاج

2 to stop sb going through or into a place: A line of police barred the entrance to the embassy.

3 bar sb from sth/from doing sth to forbid sb officially to do, use or enter sth: She was barred from the club for bad behaviour.

bar³/ba:(r)/ prep except: All the seats were taken, barbarian /bɑ:ˈbeəriən/ noun [C] a wild, uncivilized person barbaric /bo:ˈbærɪk/ adj very cruel and violent: barbaric punishments o barbaric treatment of prisoners barbarism /ˈbɑːbərɪzəm/ noun [Ū]: acts of barbarism committed in war barbecue /ˈbɑːbɪkjuː/ noun [C] (abbr BBQ) 1 a metal frame on which food is cooked over an open fire outdoors شوآية توضع في الهواء الطلق

2 an outdoor party at which food is cooked in this way: Let's have a barbecue. شُواء في الهواء الطلق

▶ barbecue verb [T]: barbecued steak يشوي في الهواء الطلق

barbed wire /ˌbɑːbd ˈwarə(r)/ noun [U] strong wire with sharp points on it: a barbed wire fence barber /ˈbɑːbə(r)/ noun [C] a man who cuts men's hair: Your hair's getting rather long. It's time you went to the barber's. ♠ Note that the barber is the person who runs the shop and the barber's is the shop.

'bar chart noun [C] a diagram that uses narrow bands of different heights to show different amounts so that they can be compared

'bar code noun [C] a pattern of thick and thin lines that is printed on things you buy. It contains information that a computer can read.

خطوط الترميز

bare /beə(r)/ adj 1 (used about part of the body) not covered by clothing: bare arms ○ a bare chest ○ She killed him with her bare hands (= without a weapon). ◆ Look at naked and nude.

عارِ ، مكشوف مار ، مكشوف

2 without anything covering it: They had taken the paintings down, so the walls were all bare. عارِ اجرد

3 minimum, basic and no more: We were so poor that we didn't even have the bare necessities of life.

Just give me the bare facts as quickly as you can.

4 empty; without its usual contents: I looked for some food but the cupboards were bare. خالِ، خلوِ

► barely adv only just; hardly; almost not: You've barely eaten anything – are you feeling all right? ○ She's barely older than you.

bareback /ˈbeəbæk/ adj, adv on a horse without a saddle: bareback riders in the circus o She likes riding bareback.

barefoot /'beəfot/ (also barefooted /,beə-'fotid/) adj, adv with nothing (e.g. shoes, socks, etc.) on the feet: I was barefoot because my shoes and socks had got wet. \circ We walked barefoot along the beach. wet. \circ We alked barefoot along the beach.

† bargain /'ba:gən/ noun [C] 1 an agreement between people or groups about what each of them will do for the other or others: Let's make a bargain. I'll lend you the money if you'll help me with my work. I hope he keeps his side of the bargain.

2 something that is cheaper or at a lower price than usual: At that price, it's an absolute bargain! o I found a lot of bargains in the sale.

شروة رخيصة "القطة" into the bargain (used for emphasizing sth) as well, in addition, also. They gave me free tickets and a free meal into the bargain.

strike a bargain → STRIKE2

▶ bargain verb [I] bargain (with sb) (about/over/for sth) to discuss the form of an agreement, a price, etc: I'm sure that if you bargain with him, he'll drop the price. ○ They bargained over the price.

EHRY bargain for/on sth to expect sth or to be prepared for sth: When I agreed to help him I didn't bargain for how much it would cost me.

bargaining noun [U] discussion about the form of an agreement, the price for a sale, etc., in which people are trying to get a result that is to their own advantage: Hours of bargaining failed to produce an agreement.

barge /ba:dz/ noun [C] a long narrow boat with a flat bottom that is used for transporting goods or people on a canal or river

مركب نهري لنقل البضائع خاصة

علاوة على (البيعة) ، أيضاً

baritone /ˈbærɪtəʊn/ noun [C] a singing voice that is fairly low, between tenor and bass الجهير الأول (صوت غنائي) bark¹ /bɑːk/ noun [U] the hard outer covering of a tree (الشجر)

bark² /baːk/ verb 1 [I] bark (at sb/sth) (used about dogs) to make a loud, short noise or noises:

Their dog always barks at anyone who rings the doorbell.

2 [I,T] bark (sth) (out) (at sb) to speak to sb in a loud voice with an angry or aggressive tone: The boss came in, barked some orders and left again.

▶ bark noun [C]: The dog next door has a very loud bark.

barley /ˈbɑːli/ noun [U] 1 a plant similar to grass that produces grain that is used for food or for making beer and other drinks

عبُ الشعير the grain produced by this plant barmaid /ˈbɑːmeɪd/ noun [C] a woman who serves drinks from behind a bar in a pub, etc. بائعة المشروب (في حانة) ، نادلة barman /ˈbɑːmən/ noun [C] (pl. barmen /-mən/) a man who serves drinks from behind a bar in a pub, etc.

barn /ba:n/ noun [C] a large building on a farm in which crops or animals are kept رة المأشية

barometer /bəˈrɒmɪtə(r)/ noun [C] 1 an instrument that measures air pressure and indicates بارومتر: ميزان الضغط الحوي changes in weather

2 something that indicates the state of sth (a situation, a feeling, etc.): Results of local elections ure often a barometer of the government's popularity.

baron /'bærən/ noun [C] 1 a man who belongs to the lowest rank of the aristocracy

2 a person who controls a large part of a particular industry or type of business: an oil قطب (في صناعة أو تجارة) baron baroness /'bærənəs/ noun [C] a woman who is of the same rank as a baron or is the wife of a بارونة baron baroque /bə'rok; US bə'rəuk/ adj having the highly decorated and elaborate style that was fashionable in the arts, especially architecture, in Europe in the 17th and 18th centuries barracks /'bærəks/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] (pl. barracks) a building or group of buildings in which soldiers live: Guards were on duty at the gate of the barracks.

barrage /'bæra:3; US bə'ra:3/ noun [C] 1 a continuous attack with a large number of guns in a particular direction قصف مدفعي متواصل

2 a large number of questions, remarks, etc., aimed at a person very quickly: The minister faced a barrage of questions from reporters. وأبل، سيل من الاستلة barrel /'bærəl/ noun [C] 1 a large, round, often wooden container for liquids, that has a flat top and bottom and is wider in the middle; the amount contained in a barrel: The price of oil is usually given per barrel.

2 the long metal tube of a gun, through which the bullet passes when it is fired barren /'bærən/ adj 1 (used about land) not قاحل ، (أرض) جدباء good enough to grow crops on 2 (used about trees or plants) not producing fruit or seeds (شحر) غير مثمر

barricade /,bærrikeid/ noun [C] an object or line of objects that is placed (usually quickly) across a road, entrance, etc. to stop people getting through: The demonstrators put up barricades to keep the police away.

▶ barricade verb [T] to block sth with a barricade: Rioters barricaded the road with cars.

بقيم الحواجز ، يسدُ بمتاريس PHRV barricade yourself in to defend yourself by putting up a barricade: Demonstrators took over the university building and barricaded themselves in. يتمترس ، يتحصن

? barrier /'bæriə(r)/ noun [C] 1 an object that keeps people or things apart or prevents them moving from one place to another: The police put up barriers along the pavement to stop the crowd getting on to the road. O You must show your ticket at the barrier before going onto the platform.

2 something that causes problems or makes it impossible for sth to happen: Old-fashioned attitudes are a barrier to progress. O When you live in a foreign country, the language barrier is often the most difficult problem to overcome. o trade barriers barring /ba:rin/ prep 1 except for: Barring one or two small problems, everything's fine at the mo-فيما عدا ، باستثناء

2 if there is/are not: Barring any unforeseen problems, we'll be moving house in a month.

في حالة عدم حدوث ، ما لَمْ (يحدث) barrister /ˈbærɪstə(r)/ noun [C] (in English law) a lawyer who is trained to speak in the higher courts 2 Look at the note at lawyer.

محام (أمام المحاكم العلباً)

barrow /'bærəʊ/ noun [C] 1 = WHEELBARROW

2 a small cart on which fruit, vegetables, etc. are moved or sold in the street, especially in mar-عرية يد kets barter /'ba:tə(r)/ verb [I,T] barter sth (for sth) to exchange goods for other goods, not for money: I bartered my watch for a guitar with a man in the ▶ barter noun [U] the exchange of goods for other goods, not for money: Spices were used for barter many years ago.

? base beis noun [C] 1 the lowest part of sth, especially the part on which it stands or at which it is attached to sth: The sculptor's name can be found at the base of the statue. O I felt a terrible pain at the base of my spine.

2 a starting point from which sth develops or is made: With these ingredients as a base, you can create all sorts of interesting dishes.

3 a strong foundation on which sth is built or maintained: The country needs a strong economic

4 a place used as a centre from which activities are done or controlled: This hotel is an ideal base for touring the region. o Taxi drivers are in contact with their base so that they know where to مركن؛ نقطة انطلاق go to next.

5 a military centre from which forces operate: an army base o a naval base

Thase /beis/verb [T] 1 base sth on sth to form or develop sth from a particular starting point or source: This film is based on a true story.

يبني أو يقيم على، يسند

2 (usually passive) base sb/sth in... to make one place the centre from which sb/sth can work or move around: I'm based in New York, although my job involves a great deal of travel. يستقر، يقيم baseball /'bersbo:l/ noun [U] a team game that is popular in the USA in which players hit the ball with a bat and run round four points (bases).

basement → bath

They have to touch all four bases in order to score a point (run). البيسبول: لعبة كرة أمريكية

basement /'beismənt/ noun [C] the lowest room or rooms of a building which are partly or completely below ground level: The toy department is in the basement of the store. o a basement flat قبو ، دور تحتاني bases 1 pl. of BASIS

2 pl. of base

bash /bæʃ/ verb (informal) 1 [T] to hit sb/sth very hard

2 [I] bash against/into sb/sth to crash into sb/sth

3 [T] to criticize sb/sth strongly

▶ bash noun [C] 1 a hard blow

2 a large party or celebration

I don't know whether I can do it, but I'll have a bash.

Display to try:

I don't know whether I can do it, but I'll have a bash.

bashful /ˈbæʃfl/ adj shy and embarrassed

Liphasic /'beisik/ adj 1 forming a starting point or basis on which other ideas rest: The basic question is, can we afford it?

2 simplest or most elementary; including only what is most necessary: This course teaches basic skills in First Aid. o The basic pay is £100 a week - with extra for overtime. o The rooms in the chapest hotels are very basic - they have no bathrooms or televisions.

▶ basically /-kli/ adv looking at what is most important or basic in a person or an object or in a particular situation: She seemed to me to be basically a very nice person. ○ The design of the new car is basically the same as the old one. ○ Basically, all I want is to be left alone.

أساسياً ، في جوهر الأمر . basics noun [plural] the things that you need most or that are the most important: You can get all the basics at the local shop.

 ${f basil}$ /'bæzl/ noun [U] a sweet-smelling herb that is used in cooking ريحان، حبق

basin /beisn/ noun [C] 1 = WASHBASIN

2 a round open bowl often used for mixing or cooking food: a pudding basin

طاسة ، سلطانيّة ، "زيديّة" معدد علامة معدد علية المعدد

3 an area of land from which water flows into a river: the Congo Basin

? basis /'bersis/ noun [C] (pl. bases /'bersi:z/)

1 the way sth is done or organized: They meet on a regular basis. o The changes have been introduced on a voluntary basis this year but will become compulsory next year.

2 the principle or reason which lies behind sth: We made our decision on the basis of the reports which you sent us.

3 a starting point, from which sth can develop: Her diaries formed the basis of the book she later wrote.

bask /bask; US bæsk/ verb [I] to sit or lie in a place where you can enjoy the warmth: The snake basked in the sunshine on the rock. o (figurative) He basked in the admiration of his fans.

basket /'ba:skit; US 'bæskit/ noun [C] a container for carrying or holding things, made of strips of light material such as cane or wire that are woven together: a waste-paper basket o a shopping basket o a basket of shopping (= one that is full of shopping)

IDM put all your eggs in one basket → EGG basketball /'bo:skrtbo:l; US 'bæs-/ noun [C] a game for two teams of five players. There is a net (basket) fixed to a metal ring high up at each end of the court and the players try to throw a ball through the other team's net in order to score points (baskets).

bass /bers/ noun 1 [C] the lowest male singing voice; a singer with this kind of voice

الجَهير: صوت غنائي

القراري ، الخفيض [U] the lowest part in music

3 [C] = DOUBLE BASS

4 [C] (also bass guitar) an electric guitar which plays very low notes bass adj producing a deep sound; connected with the lowest part in music: a bass drum

 Can you sing the bass part in this song?
 ذو صوت خفیص: قراري

bassoon /bəˈsuːn/ noun [C] a musical instrument of the woodwind family which makes a very deep sound bastard /ˈbɑːstəd; US ˈbæs-/ noun [C] (slang) (used as an insult) an unpleasant or cruel person

bat¹ /bæt/ noun [C] a small animal, like a mouse with wings, which comes out and flies around at night

bat²/bæt/noun [C] a piece of wood for hitting the ball in sports such as table tennis, cricket or baseball: a cricket bat • Look at club²(2), racket¹ and stick¹(3).

IDM off your own bat without anyone asking you or helping you bat verb [I] (batting; batted) (used about one player or a whole team) to have a turn hitting the ball in sports such as cricket or baseball يأخذ دوره في ضرب كرة الكريكيت مثلاً

bat³/bæt/ verb (batting; batted)

IDM not bat an eyelid to show no reaction الايطرف له جفن

batch /bæts/ noun [C] a number of things or people that belong together as a group: The bus returned to the airport for the next batch of tourists.

bated /'beitid/ adj

mwith bated breath excited or afraid, because you are waiting for sth to happen

کاتم انفاسه (خوفا اُو ترقَباً)

Ç bath /bα:θ; US bæθ/ noun (pl. baths /bα:ðz; US bæðz/) 1 [C] (especially US bathtub) a large container for water in which you sit to wash your body: All the rooms have a private bath or shower. •• Can you answer the phone? I'm in the bath!

59 bathe → BC

حمّام ؛ حوض استحمام (بانيو)

- 2 [sing.] an act of washing the whole of your body when you sit or lie in a bath filled with water: to have a bath o Would you prefer to take a bath or a shower? o bath oil
- 3 baths [piural] (Brit old-fashioned) an indoor public swimming pool or a building where you can take a bath
- ► bath verb 1 [T] to give sb a bath: bath the baby
- 2 [۱] (old-fashioned) to have a bath: I prefer to bath in the mornings.
- bathe /beɪð/ verb 1 [I] to swim in the sea or in a lake or river
- 2 |T| to wash or put part of the body in water, often for medical reasons: She bathed the wound with antiseptic.
- bathed adj (not before a noun) covered with or surrounded by sth: The room was bathed in light.

bathing noun [U] the act of swimming in the sea, etc. (not in a swimming pool): Bathing is possible at a number of beaches along the coast.
سباحة (في البحر)

bathrobe /'ba: θ rəob; US bæ θ -/ noun [C] = DRESS-ING GOWN

- † bathroom /ˈbɑːθruːm; -rom; US bæθ-/ noun [C] 1 a room where there is a bath and usually a washbasin (and sometimes a toilet)
 - 2 (US) a room with a toilet $\Delta$ Look at the note at toilet.
 - bathtub /'ba: θ tAb; US bæ θ -/ noun [C] = BATH(1)
 - baton /ˈbæton; US bəˈton/ noun [C] 1 a short thin stick used by the conductor of an orchestra مخسرة: عصا قائد الفرقة العوسيقية
 - 2 TRUNCHEON
 - 3 a stick which a runner in a relay race passes to the next person in the team

عصا يتبادلها المتنافسون في سباق battalion/bə'tæliən/noun [C] a large unit of soldiers forming part of another larger unit in the army

- batter¹ /ˈbætə(r)/ verb [I,T] to hit sb/sth hard, many times: The wind battered against the window. He battered the door down. High winds battered Britain again yesterday. The parents were accused of battering the child (= of hitting him/her often and violently).

 ▶ battered adj no longer looking new; damaged or out of shape: a battered old hat
- batter² /ˈbætə(r)/ noun [U] a mixture of flour, eggs and milk used to make pancakes, etc. or to cover food such as fish before frying
- $ battery /bætri/ noun [C] (pl. batteries) 1 a device which provides electricity for a torch, radio, car, etc: He couldn't start the car because the bat- tery was flat. When a car battery is flat, you need to recharge it.

- 2 a large number of very small cages in which hens are kept: a battery chicken $\ \tag{battery chicken}$ مركز تفريخ الدجاج
- ل battle /'bætl/ noun 1 [C,U] a fight, especially between armies in a war: the battle of Trafalgar

 They won the first battle but still they lost the war. to die/be killed in battle
 - 2 [C] a struggle of any kind: After three years she lost her battle against cancer. o the battle against inflation صراع . كفاح

M a losing battle → LOSE

- battle verb [1] battle (with/against sb/sth) (for sth); battle (on) to fight hard; to struggle: Mark is battling with his maths homework. The little boat battled against the wind. The two brothers were battling for control of the family business. Life is hard at the moment but we're battling on.
- battlefield /ˈbætlfiːld/ (also battleground /ˈbætlgraʊnd/) noun [C] the place where a battle is fought مبدان القتال ، معترك
- battleship /ˈbætlʃip/ noun [C] the largest type of ship used in war
- baulk (also balk) /bɔːk/ verb [I] baulk (at sth) to be unwilling to do or agree to sth because it seems difficult, dangerous or unpleasant: She liked the flat but she baulked at paying so much for it.
- يزعَق bawl /bo:l/ verb [I,T] to shout or cry loudly
- ل bay¹ /bei/ noun [C] a part of the coast where the land forms a curve inwards: the Bay of Bengal of The harbour was in a sheltered bay.
 - bay² /beɪ/ noun [C] a part of a building, aircraft or area which has a particular purpose: the loading bay of the factory

bay3 /bei/ noun

- ibM hold/keep sb at bay to stop sb who is chasing you from coming near; to stop sb/sth reaching you
- bayonet /'beɪənət/noun [C] a knife which can be fixed to the end of a gun
- bay 'window noun [C] a window in a part of a room that sticks out from the wall of a house
- bazaar /bəˈzɑː(r)/ noun [C] 1 (in Eastern countries) a market
- 2 a sale where the money that is made goes to charity: a church bazaar
- BBC /,bi: bi: 'si:/ abbrev British Broadcasting Corporation; one of the national radio and television companies in Britain: a BBC documentary o watch a programme on BBC 1

هيئة الاذاعة البريطانية

BBQ abbrev = BARBECUE

BC (especially US B.C.) /bi: 'si:/ abbrev before Christ; used in dates to show the number of years before the time it was traditionally believed that

BCE → bear 60

Jesus Christ was born: 300 BC. ♣ Look at BCE. قبل الميلاد

- BCE (especially US B.C.E.) /ˌbi: si: 'i:/ abbrev before the Common Era (may be used instead of BC)
- Pe¹/bi; strong form bi:/ auxiliary verb 1 (used to form the continuous tense of verbs): You're sitting on my book. We were listening to the radio. Is he coming? How long have we been waiting?

 yeşt. هناك... (الدلالة على الاستمرار)
 - 2 (used to form the passive): This cheese is made in France. We were taken to the police station. The car has been repaired. (التكوين صيغة المجهول)
 - 3 (used to show that sth must happen or that sth has been arranged): You are to leave here at 10 o'clock at the latest. They are to be married in June. (اللدلاة على وجوب شيء أو ترتيبه حدوثه)
 - 4 (used to show that sth is possible but not very likely): If they were to offer me the job, I'd probably take it. (شيء ممكن و لكنه غير محتمل)
- ? be² /bi; strong form bi:/ verb 1 (used with there to say that sb/sth exists or is in in a particular place): Is there a God? I tried phoning them but there was no answer. There are some people outside. There are a lot of trees in our garden.

يوجد، هناك...

المستقبلي ، في المستقبل

- 2 (used when you are naming people or things, describing them or giving more information about them): That's Jane over there. o I'm Alan. O He's Italian. He's from Milan. o Sue is 18. She's at university. o He's a doctor. o What's that? o A lion is a mammal. o Where are the scissors? o What colour is your car?' 'It's green.' o It's 6 o'clock. o It was Tuesday yesterday. o How much was your ticket? o The film was excellent. o She's very friendly.
- 3 (only used in the perfect tenses) to go to a place (and return): Have you ever been to Japan?

Compare has/have gone: Julia's gone to the doctor's (= she hasn't returned yet). • Julia's been to the doctor's today (= she has returned).

be yourself to act naturally: Don't be nervous; just be yourself and the interview will be fine.

-to-be (in compounds) future: his wife-to-be ç beach/bi:tʃ/noun[C] the piece of sandy or rocky land next to the sea: a nice sandy beach beacon /ˈbiːkən/ noun [C] a fire or light on a hill, a tower or near the coast, which is used as a signal

- bead /bi:d/ noun [C] 1 a small ball of wood, glass or plastic with a hole in the middle for threading a string through
- 2 beads [plural] a necklace made of beads مِقْد مِن الخَرِزِ
- 3 a drop of liquid: There were beads of sweat on his forehead.

- ? beak /bi:k/ noun [C] the hard pointed part of a bird's mouth
 - beaker /ˈbiːkə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a tall cup for drinks, sometimes without a handle کانس کبیرة
 - 2 a glass container used in laboratories for pouring liquids قدح أو كوب كيمياني
 - beam /bi:m/ noun [C] 1 a long piece of wood, metal, concrete, etc. that is used to support weight, e.g. in the floor or ceiling of a building
 - 2 a line of light: the beam of a car's headlights o a laser beam
 - 3 a happy smile
- ىتسامة مشاقة
- ► beam verb 1 [I] to send out light and warmth:

 The sun beamed down on them.
- 2 [I] to smile happily: Beaming with pleasure she stepped forward to receive her prize. يبتسم ياشراق
- 3 [T] to broadcast a signal: The programme was beamed live by satellite to many different countries.
- bean /bi:n/ noun [C] 1 the seeds or seed containers (pods) from a climbing plant which are eaten as vegetables: broad beans o runner beans o soya beans o a tin of baked beans (= beans in a tomato sauce)
- 2 similar seeds from other plants: coffee beans
- bear¹ /beə(r)/ noun [C] a large, heavy wild animal with thick fur: a brown bear o a polar bear

 Look at teddy bear.
- له bear² /bea(r)/ verb [T] (pt bore /bɔ:(r)/; pp borne /bɔ:n/) 1 to support sth: Twelve pillars bear the weight of the roof.
 - 2 (formal) to carry sth: The waiters came in bearing trays of food. o (figurative) In her position as Minister she bears a great responsibility. o (figurative) Customers will bear the full cost of the improvements.
 - 3 to suffer sth without complaining or giving in: She bore her illness bravely. The heat is too much to bear: These figures won't bear close examination (= when you look closely you will find mistakes).
 - 4 (with can/could in negative sentences or in questions) to dislike strongly; to hate: I can't bear spiders. Joanne can't bear people who are late. She can't bear waiting for people. She can't bear to wait for people. How can you bear to listen to that music?
 - 5 (formal) to give birth to children: She bore four children, all sons.
 - A more common expression is 'She has had four children.' When you talk about a person's own birth you use 'to be born': Robert was born in 1986. The baby will be born in spring.
 - 6 to produce flowers or fruit: The tree in our garden bears more apples than we can eat. (figurative) Our plan is beginning to bear fruit these are the first signs of success.
 - 7 to show the mark of sth: The coins bear the date and the Queen's head on them. o He still bears the scars of his accident. O She bears a strong resemblance to her mother (= she is very يحمل علامة . يشبه

8 (formal) to have a feeling: I offended him once and he bore me a grudge for years.

يكن شعوراً، يض

9 to turn or go in the direction that is mentioned: At the crossroads, bear left, bear the brunt of sth to suffer the main force of sth: The west bore the brunt of the يتحمل وطأة الشيء storm.

bear in mind (that) to remember that: You can have something to eat now but bear in mind that there'll be a big meal later. يتذكر، يضع في الاعتبار bear/keep sb/sth in mind → MIND1 bear witness (to sth) to show evidence of sth: The burning buildings and empty streets bore witness to a recent attack. يشهد على

PHRV bear sb/sth out to show that sb is right or that sth is true: The figures bear him out, ... The figures bear out what he says. يثبت صحته bear with sb/sth to be patient with: Bear with me I won't be much longer.

bearable /'bearabl/ adj that you can bear (3): It was extremely hot but the breeze made it more bearable. The opposite is unbearable.

- Lipeard /biəd/ noun [C,U] the hair which grows on n man's cheeks and chin: He's got a beard.

 He's growing a beard. o He's had his beard shaved off. ذو لحية
 - ▶ bearded adj with a beard bearer /'beərə(r)/ noun [C] a person who carries or brings sth: I'm sorry to be the bearer of bad الحامل؛ رسول bearing /bearm/ noun 1 [U] bearing on sth relation or connection to the subject being discussed: Her comments had no bearing on our decision. علاقة

اتحاه 2 [C] a direction measured by a compass IDM lose your bearings to become confused about where you are يضل طريقة beast /bi:st/ noun [C] 1 (formal) an animal, especially a large one: a wild beast حيوان ، بهيمة

2 (informal) an unpleasant or cruel person خص جلف ، متوحِّش

▶ beastly adj (informal) very unpleasant فظيع ، سيئ جداً ؛ فظاً

- T beat /bi:t/verb (pt beat; pp beaten) 1 [I,T] to hit many times, usually very hard: The man was beating the donkey with a stick. O The rain was lwating on the roof of the car. يضرب بشدة
 - 2 [T] to mix quickly with a fork, etc. Beat the eggs and sugar together. يخفق (البيض مثلاً)
 - 3 [I,T] to make a regular sound or movement: Her heart beat faster as she ran to pick up her child. o We could hear the drums beating as the band marched towards us. o The bird beat its ينېض؛ يضرِب wings and tried to fly away.
 - 4 [T] to defeat sb; to be better than sth: He ulways beats me at tennis. O We're hoping to beat the world record. O You can't beat a nice cup of tea. o (informal) This question beats me (= it is too difficult for me).

DM beat about the bush to talk about sth without mentioning the main point

يدور حول الموضوع beat time (to sth) to move sth (a stick, your foot or your hand) following the rhythm of a يحرك بتوافق مع الإيقاع الموسيقي piece of music off the beaten track in a place where people do

بعيداً عن الأماكن المطروقة not often go PHRV beat sb/sth off to fight until sb/sth goes away: The thieves tried to take his wallet but he beat them off. بصد، باذ beat sb to sth to get somewhere or do sth before sb else: She beat me back to the house. o I wanted to ring him first but Sheila beat me to beat sb up to attack sb by hitting or kicking

يضرِب، يركل ▶ beating noun [C] 1 a punishment that you give to sb by hitting him/her: The boys got a beating when they were caught stealing. ضرب، "علْقة"، "قتْلة"

2 a defeat

IDM take a lot of/some beating to be so good that it would be difficult to find sth better: Mary's cooking takes some beating. تصعب منافسته

- Leat /birt/ noun 1 [C] a single stroke or blow that comes at regular intervals in a series; the sound it makes: a heartbeat o the beat of the خفقة ، دقّة
 - 2 [sing.] the strong rhythm that a piece of إيقاع موسيقي قوي (especially pop) music has
 - 3 [sing.] the route along which a policeman or woman regularly walks: Having more police officers on the beat helps reduce crime.

منطقة تجوال رجل البوليس، دورية beautician /bju:'tɪ[n/ noun [C] a person whose job is to improve the way people look, e.g. with beauty treatments and make-up خبير تجميل

? beautiful /'bju:tɪfl/ adj lovely; attractive; giving pleasure to the senses: The view from the top of the hill was really beautiful. o What a beautiful day - the weather's perfect! o He has a beautiful voice. \circ A beautiful perfume filled the air. \circ a beautiful woman حميل ؛ جذاب ؛ ممتع

Beautiful is usually used for women and girls. It is stronger than pretty, which is also used of women and girls only. Men are described as handsome or good-looking.

- ▶ beautifully /-fli/ adv: He plays the piano beautifully. o She was beautifully dressed. على نحو حميل؛ بمهارة
- ? beauty /'bju:ti/ noun (pl. beauties) 1 [U] the quality which gives pleasure to the senses; the state of being beautiful: Thousands of tourists are attracted to Cornwall by the beauty of its coast. o Brahms wrote music of great beauty. جمال
 - 2 [C] a beautiful woman: She grew up to be a beautv. حسناء
 - 3 [C] a particularly good example of sth: Look at this tomato - it's a beauty! نموذج رائع beauty spot → beet

beauty spot noun [C] a place which is famous for its attractive scenery beaver /ˈbiːvə(r)/ noun [C] an animal with brown fur, a long, broad tail and sharp teeth, with which it cuts branches to make dams across rivers became pt of BECOME

LessonLesson because br'knz; US-kn:z/conj for the reason that: They didn't go for a walk because it was raining.

▶ because of prep by reason of, as a result of: They didn't go for a walk because of the rain.

beck /bek/ noun

الله at sb's beck and call always ready to obey sb's orders

beckon/bekən/verb [I,T] to show sb (often with a movement of your finger or hand) that you want him/her to come closer: She beckoned me over to speak to her.

L become /bı'kam/ verb [I] (pt became /bı'keım/; pp become) to begin to be sth: Mr Saito became Chairman in 2002. • She wants to become a pilot. • They became friends. • She became nervous as the exam date came closer. • He is becoming more like you every day. • It became clear that she wanted to stay.

Get is also used with adjectives in this sense: She got nervous as the exam date came closer. o He's getting more like you every day. It is very common in conversation and is less formal than become.

EHRV become of sb/sth to happen to sb/sth: What became of Eileen? – I haven't seen her for years!

Ped¹/bed/noun 1 [C.U] a piece of furniture that you lie on when you sleep: a single/double bed o twin beds (= two single beds in one room) o The children sleep in bunk beds. o to make a bed (= to arrange the sheets, etc. so that the bed is tidy and ready for sb to sleep in) o What time do you usually go to bed? o When he rang I was already in bed. o It's late. It's time for bed. o to get into/out of bed

2 [C] the ground at the bottom of a river or the sea

3 = FLOWER BED

bed and breakfast (abbr B and B; b and b) accommodation in a house or small hotel that consists of a room for the night and breakfast; a place that provides this: Bed and breakfast costs £23 per night. • We stayed in a nice bed and breakfast near Cork.

go to bed with sb (informal) to have sex with sb bed²/bed/verb [T] (bedding; bedded) to place sth firmly in or on sth يغرس ، يندن ، يثبت

HRV bed down to make yourself comfortable and sleep somewhere: We couldn't find a hotel so we bedded down for the night in the back of the van.

• -bedded (in compounds) having the stated type or number of beds: a twin-bedded room ○ a three-bedded room (التعبير عن عدد الاسرة)

bedding noun [U] the sheets, etc. that are used on a bed, sometimes including the mattress أغطية و شراشف السرير bedclothes /'bedkləoðz/ noun [plural] the sheets, etc. that you use on a bed

أغطية وشراشف السرير

Like Spare bedroom. (bedru:m; -rom/ noun [C] a room which is used for sleeping in: You can sleep in the spare bedroom.

bedside /'bedsaɪd/ noun [sing.] the area that is next to a bed: She sat at his bedside all night long. o a bedside table bedsit /'bedsit/ (also bedsitter /'bedsitə(r)/) noun [C] (Brit) a room which is used for both living and sleeping in غوقة مشتركة للجلوس والنوم

bedspread / bedspred/ noun [C] an attractive cover for a bed that you put on top of the sheets and blankets bedtime /ˈbedtaɪm/ noun [C,U] the time that you normally go to bed bee /bi:/ noun [C] a black and yellow striped insect that lives in large groups and that makes honey

A large number of bees together is a swarm. Bees buzz or hum when they make a noise. They may sting if they are angry.

beech /bi:tʃ/ (also 'beech tree) noun [C,U] a large tree with a smooth trunk that has small three-sided nuts ك beef /bi:f/ noun [U] the meat of a cow: a slice of roast beef ♪ Look at the note at meat.

beefburger /ˈbiːfbɜːgə(r)/ noun [C] minced beef in a flat round shape, often served in a bread roll كالمام البقري المفروم واللحم البقري المفروم beehive /ˈbi:haɪv/ (also hive) noun [C] a type of box that people use for keeping bees in

been /bi:n/ pp of BE, GO

Been is used as the past participle of both be and go: I've never been seriously ill. • I've never been to Lisbon. Gone is also a past participle of go. Note the difference in meaning. They've been to the cinema (= They went and have come back). • They've gone to the cinema (= They went and have not yet come back).

beep /bi:p/ noun [C] a short high noise, e.g. made by the horn of a car تزمير ، صوت عالي و قصير ▶ beep verb [I] to make a beep

p beer /biə(r)/ noun 1 [U] a type of alcoholic drink that is made from grain

يرة ، كأس من البيرة و [C] a type or glass of beer beet /bi:t/ noun [U,C] a type of plant with a root which is used for feeding animals or for making sugar: sugar beet

beetle → behave

63

beetle /'bi:tl/ noun [C] an insect that has hard coverings for its wings and often a black shiny body. There are many different types of beetle.

beetroot /'bi:tru:t/ (US beet) noun [C,U] a dark red vegetable which is the root of a plant. Beetroot is cooked and can be eaten hot or cold.

befall /bi'fo:l/ verb [I,T] (pt befell /bi'fel/; pp befallen /bifɔ:lən/) (formal) (used about sth bad) to Imppen to sb

- Thefore /bi'fo:(r)/ prep 1 earlier than sb/sth: You can call me any time before 10 o'clock. o the week before last o Ellen worked in Liverpool before moving here. o They should be here before long (= soon).
 - 2 in front/ahead of sb/sth (in an order): 'H' comes before 'N' in the alphabet. o (figurative) A very difficult task lies before us. o (figurative) a company that puts profit before safety
 - 3 when sb is present: You will appear before the court in the morning.
 - 4 (formal) in a position in front of sb/sth: They knelt before the throne.
- Thefore² /bi'fo:(r)/ conj 1 earlier than the time that: Turn the lights off before you leave.
 - 2 (formal) rather than: I'd die before I apologized to him! أفضل من
- Thefore $\frac{1}{2}$ /bifo:(r)/ adv at an earlier time: I think we've met somewhere before, o It was fine vesterday but it rained the day before.

beforehand /br'fo:hænd/ adv at an earlier time than sth: We prepared most of the food for the party beforehand. سلفاً ، مُقَدَّماً befriend /bi'frend/ verb [T] (formal) to act as a friend to sb; to be kind to sb beg /beg/ verb [I,T] (begging; begged) 1 beg (for) sth (from/of sb) to ask sb for food, money, etc., e.g. because you are very poor: There are people begging for food in the streets of London. ... She begged some money for her children's يشحَد ، يتسوّل

2 beg sth (of sb); beg (sb) for sth to ask sb for sth strongly, or with great emotion: He begged for forgiveness. o Can I beg a favour of you? o We lwwged him to let the children go free.

يتوسّل، يرجو IDM I beg your pardon 1 I'm sorry: I beg your pardon. I picked up your bag by mistake.

2 (used for asking sb to repeat sth because you آسف، لم أسمعك جيداً did not hear it properly) began pt of BEGIN beggar /'begə(r)/ noun [C] a person who lives by asking people for money, food, etc. on the Thegin /bi'gin/ verb (pres part beginning; pt began /bi'gæn/; pp begun /bi'gʌn/) 1 [I] to take place from a particular time; to start: What time does the concert begin?

Begin and start are very similar in meaning but start is more often used in informal speech. They can be followed by to or by the -ing form of a verb: The baby began/started to cry/crying. When begin or start are themselves in the -ing form they must be followed by to: The baby was just beginning/starting to cry. In some meanings only start can be used: I couldn't start the car, o We'll have to start (= leave) early if we want to be in Dover by 8 o'clock. Commence is much more formal than begin or start and is not usually used in conversation.

2 [I,T] to do or make a start on the first part of sth; to start: Shall I begin or will you? o Please begin at page 10. o I began (= started reading) this novel last month and I still haven't finished it. O When did he begin his speech? O He began to speak at 11 o'clock. o When do you begin work? o Children usually begin school at 9 o'clock. O We began writing to each other in 1970. o The paint is beginning to get dirty. \circ I should like to begin by thanking everybody for coming.

3 [I] to form the first part of sth: My name begins with 'W' not 'V'. o This is where our garden begins.

IDM to begin with 1 (used for giving your first reason for sth): We can't possibly go. To begin with it's too far and we can't afford it either. بب الأوَل، بادىء ذى بدء

2 at first: To begin with they were very happy. في البدامة

▶ beginner noun [C] a person who has just begun learning sth beginning noun [C,U] the first part of sth; the time when or place where sth starts: The beginning of the book is quite interesting but it gets boring towards the end. o I've read the article from beginning to end. O We're going away at the beginning of the school holidays.

begonia /bi'gəvniə/ noun [C] a garden plant with brightly coloured leaves and flowers begrudge /bi'grAd3/ verb [T] begrudge (sb) sth 1 to feel angry or upset because sb has sth that you think that he/she does not deserve: He's worked hard. I don't begrudge him his success.

له، يستكثر عليه يضنٌ عليه ب

2 to be unwilling to give sb sth

? behalf /bi'ha:f; US - hæf/ noun

IDM on behalf of sb; on sb's behalf for sb; as the representative of sb: Mary couldn't be present so her husband accepted the prize on her behalf. o I should like to thank you all on behalf of my colleagues and myself.

Thehave /bi'heiv/ verb 1 [I] behave well, badly, etc. (towards sb) to act in a particular way: Don't you think that Ellen has been behaving very strangely recently? o I think you behaved very badly towards your father. O He behaves as if he was the boss. يتصرف، يسلك

2 [I,T] behave (yourself) to act in the correct or proper way: The children behaved themselves while we were out. يتصرف بأدب

▶ -behaved (in compounds) behaving in a behaviour → belly particular way: a well-behaved child

(يتصرّف بطريقة معينة)

Line 1 behaviour (US behavior) /br'hervjə(r)/ noun [U] the way that you act or behave: Her behaviour has been very strange recently. • 'I will not tolerate this sort of behaviour', said the teacher.

صرَف ، سلوك

- R behind¹/bı'hamd/prep 1 in, at or to the back of sb/sth: I was sitting behind a very tall woman and I couldn't see anything at all. There's a small garden behind the house. The sun went behind a cloud. Look behind you before you drive off. (figurative) It's time you put your problems behind you (= forgot about them).
 - 2 later or less good than sb/sth: The train is twenty minutes behind schedule. Jane is behind the rest of the class in maths.
 - 3 supporting or agreeing with sb/sth: Most people are behind the President's policies.
 - 4 causing or starting sth: What is the reason behind his sudden change of opinion? بسبب؛ وداء
- $\textbf{behind}^2\text{/brhamd/} adv \mathbf{1} \text{ in, at or to the back of sb/sth: You go on ahead. I'll follow on behind.

 Orry not to look behind. OHe ran off but the police were close behind.
 - 2 in the place where sb/sth is or was: Oh no! I've left the tickets behind (= at home).

3 behind (in/with sth) later or less good than sb/sth: We are a month behind with the rent.

• Arsenal were behind at half-time. • Look at behind³ /brhaind/ noun [C] (informal) the part of your body that you sit on D Look at bottom and buttocks.

ahead.

beige /beɪʒ/ adj, noun [U] (of) a light-brown colour being /ˈbiːn/ noun 1 [U] the state of existing:

When did the organization come into being? (= when did it start)

2 [C] a living person or thing: a human being \circ a strange being from another planet 3 Look also at be.

belated /br'leɪtɪd/ adj coming late: a belated apology

▶ belatedly adv: They have realized, rather belatedly, that they have made a big mistake.

belch /beltʃ/ verb 1 [I] to let gas out from your stomach through your mouth with a sudden noise, e.g. because you have eaten a lot

2 [T] to send out smoke, etc: The volcano þelched smoke and ashes. يقلّف بـ بطلق دخاناً ونحوه belie /brlai/ verb [T] (pres part belying; 3rd pers sing pres belies; pt, pp belied) to give a false or untrue idea of sth: His smiling face belied his true feelings.

▶ belch noun [C]: Julia gave a loud belch.

Libelief /bi'li:f/ noun (pl. beliefs) 1 [sing., U] belief in sb/sth a feeling that sb/sth is true, good or right, or that sb/sth really exists: She has lost her belief in God. • The amount of money we spend has increased beyond belief (= very much).

D Look at disbelief.

2 [sing., U] belief that... (formal) something you accept as true; what you believe: It's my belief that people are basically good. There is a general belief that things will soon get better.

The man was killed in the mistaken belief that he was a member of a terrorist organization.

Contrary to popular belief (= in spite of what many people think) the North of the country is not poorer than the South.

3 [C] an idea about religion, politics, etc: Divorce is contrary to their religious beliefs.

Pelieve /br'li:v/ verb (not used in the continuous forms) 1 [T] to feel sure that sth is true or that sb is telling the truth: He said he hadn't taken any money but I didn't believe him. Nobody believes a word she says. When they said they were getting married, I just couldn't believe it.

2 [T] believe (that)... to think or suppose: I believe they have moved to Peterborough. ○ Ian has joined the army, I believe. ○ The escaped prisoner is believed to be in this area. بمتقد بنظن believe it or not it may be surprising but it is true: Believe it or not, English food can sometimes be quite good.

يعتقد، يؤمن [I] to have religious faith

قد الانصاق و الكنه صحيح

give sb to believe/understand (that) → GIVE¹

□HEV believe in sb/sth to be sure that sb/sth exists: Do you believe in God? ○ Most young children believe in Father Christmas.

believe in sb/sth; believe in doing sth to think that sb/sth is good or right: I believe in the value of a good education. o He doesn't believe in going by car if he can walk.

▶ believable /-abl/ adj that can be believed Clook at unbelievable.
 Deliaver nam [C] a person who has religious believer noun [C] a person who has religious faith

DM be a (great/firm) believer in sth to think

DM be a (great/firm) believer in sth to think that sth is good or right: He is a great believer in getting things done on time.

يؤمن بِ، (يكون) من الأنصار

belittle /bɪˈlɪtl/ verb [T] to make sb/sth seem unimportant or not very good يقلّل من شانه

? bell /bel/ noun [C] 1 a hollow metal object, usually shaped like a cup, that makes a ringing sound when it is hit: the sound of church bells

حَرَس، ناقوس

2 an object that makes a ringing sound; the sound that it makes, often used as a signal: a bicycle bell o a doorbell o Ring the bell and see if they're in. o There's the bell for the end of the lesson.

IDM ring a bell → RING²

bellow /ˈbeləʊ/ verb 1 [I] to make a deep low sound, like a bull

يچاًر :يصرخ bellow noun [C] يجاًر : ويصرخة belly /'beli/ noun [C] (pl. bellies) the stomach or the part of the body between the chest and the legs: a full/empty belly

- R belong /br'lnn; US-lo:n/ verb [I] 1 belong to sb to be owned by sb: Who does this pen belong to?

 Don't take anything that doesn't belong to you.
 - 2 belong to sth to be a member of a group or organization: Do you belong to any political party?
 - 3 to have a proper or usual place: The plates belong in the cupboard over there. \circ I don't think this paragraph really belongs here. \circ It took quite a long time before we felt we belonged in the village (= until we felt at home).
 - يوضع عادةً في: بلاتم ▶ belongings noun [plural] the things that you own that can be moved, i.e. not land and buildings: The tourists lost all their belongings in the hotel fire.
- beloved /brlavid; brlavd/ adj (formal) much loved: They had always intended to return to their beloved Ireland. When 'beloved' comes before a noun, the pronunciation is /brlavid/.

محبوب، معشوق

- R below /br¹əʊ/ prep at or to a lower position or level than sb/sth: Do not write below this line.

 o It hurts here just below my knee. The temperature fell below freezing during the night.

 o Her marks in the exam were below average. A sergeant in the police force is below an inspector.

 D Look at the note at under.
 - P below adv at or to a lower position or level: I don't live on the top floor. I live on the floor below. For further explanation of this point, please see below (= a later part of the book, etc.). temperatures of 30° and below
- Like Seat Not Not Seat Not S
 - 2 a long strip of rubber, etc. in a circle, that is used for carrying things or for making parts of a machine move: The suitcases were carried round on a conveyor belt. \circ the fan belt of a car
 - 3 an area of land that has a particular quality: the Green Belt around London (= an area of countryside where you are not allowed to build houses, factories, etc.) مِنْام (زراعي مثلاً): منطقة خاسة below the belt (informal) unkind or not fair: That remark was rather below the belt.

under your belt (informal) that you have already done or achieved: She's already got four tournament wins under her belt.

▶ belt verb [T] (informal) 1 to hit sb hard

يضرب بشدة يسرع 2 to run or move very fast يسرع PRV belt up 1 to fasten your seat belt in a car

2 (informal) to be quiet: Belt up! I can't think with all this noise.

bemused /bi'mju:zd/ adj not knowing what to think or do; confused or puzzled

حائر ، مشوّش ؛ مذهول

- bench /bentf/ noun [C] 1 a long wooden or metal seat for two or more people, often outdoors: a park bench
- 2 (Brit) (in the British parliament) the seats where a particular group of Members of Parliament sit: the Government front bench o the Labour benches
- 3 a long narrow table that people work at, e.g. in a factory or laboratory: a carpenter's bench طاولة الورشة : دكة (النجار)
- benchmark /ˈbentʃmɑːk/ noun [C] a standard that other things can be compared to: These new safety features set a benchmark for other manufacturers to follow. مقياس، (مثال يحتذي به)
- R bend¹ /bend/ verb (pt, pp bent /bent/) 1 [T] to make sth that was straight into a curved shape; to make sth that was upright lean forward: Bend your legs when you pick up something heavy. to bend a piece of wire into an S shape She sat with her head bent forward, thinking about what he had said.
 - 2 [I] to be or become curved: The road bends to the left here.
 - 3 [I] to move your body forwards and downwards: He bent down to tie up his shoelaces. She had to bend forward to hear what the child was saying.

in order to allow sth for a particular reason كنُف الأنطبة قللاً

- hend² /bend/ noun [C] a curve or turn, e.g. in a road: a sharp bend in the road

 Tound the bend (informal) mad; crazy: His
 - round the bend (informal) mad; crazy: His behaviour is driving me round the bend (= annoying me very much).
- tion than sb/sth; under: The ship disappeared beneath the waves. o I love to feel the grass beneath my feet again. o He seemed a nice person but there was a lot of anger beneath the surface. D Look at the note at under.
 - 2 not good enough for sb: She felt that washing up for other people was beneath her.

 ▶ beneath adv (formal) in, at or to a lower position: From the top of the tower we gazed down on the city beneath.
 - benefactor /bennfæktə(r)/ noun [C] a person who helps or gives money to a person or an organization
- beneficial /ˌbemˈfɪʃl/ adj beneficial (to sb/ sth) having a good or useful effect: a beneficial effect/influence on sb/sth
- Thenefit /'benifit/ noun 1 [U] the advantage or good or useful effect of sth: Most parents want to give their children the benefit of a good education.

 a change in the law would be to everyone's benefit o I can't see the benefit of doing things this way.

benevolent → best

2 [C] a thing that has a good or useful effect: the benefits of modern technology

3 [U] money that the government gives to people who are ill, poor, unemployed, etc: I'm not entitled to unemployment benefit.

for sb's benefit especially to help, please, etc. sb: For the benefit of the newcomers, I will explain again what we are planning to do.

give sb the benefit of the doubt to believe that what sb says is true because there is no clear proof that it is not يبرنه أو يصدقه لعدم توفّر البراهين صَده benefit verb (pt, pp benefited; US also benefitted) 1 [T] to have a good or useful effect: The new tax laws will benefit small businesses.

2 benefit (from sth) [I] to receive an advantage from sth: We've certainly benefited from the changes in the law.

benevolent /bəˈnevələnt/ adj (formal) kind, friendly and helpful to others

▶ benevolence /bə'nevələns/ noun [U]

benign /bıˈnaɪn/ adj 1 (used about people) kind or gentle

2 (used about a disease, etc.) not causing death: a benign tumour 3 Look at malignant.

(ورم) غير خبيث

bent1 pt, pp of BEND1

? bent² /bent/ adj 1 not straight: Do this exercise with your knees bent. ○ This knife is bent. ○ It was so funny we were bent double with laughter.

منحني أو مقوّس الظهر غير نزيه 2 (slang) not honest: a bent policeman

3 bent on sth/on doing sth wanting to do sth very much, so that you cannot accept not doing it: They seem bent on moving house, whatever the difficulties.

bent³ /bent/ noun [C, usually sing.] a bent for sth/doing sth a natural skill at sth or interest in sth: She has a bent for music.

bequeath /brkwi:٥/ verb [T] (formal) bequeath sth (to sb) to arrange for sth to be given to sb after you have died: He bequeathed £1 000 to his favourite charity. • Leave is a more common word.

bequest /bi'kwest/ noun [C] (formal) something that you arrange to be given to sb after you have died: He left a bequest to each of his grandchildren.

bereaved /bɪˈriːvd/ adj having had a relative or close friend die مفجوع bereaved /bɪˈriːvd/ adj relative or close friend has died recently 6 The plural is also the bereaved.

bereavement noun (formal) 1 [U] the state of being bereaved

2 [C] the death of a relative or close friend: There has been a bereavement in the family. فقدان شخص عزيز beret /'berei; US bə'rei/ noun [C] a soft flat round hat

berry /ˈberi/ noun [C] (pl. berries) a small soft fruit with seeds: Those berries are poisonous. o a raspberry berth /bs:0/ noun [C] 1 a place for sleeping on a ship or train: a cabin with four berths

سرير في باخرة أو قطار

2 a place where a ship can be tied up in a harbour

ې beside /bı'saıd/ prep at the side of, or next to sb/ sth: Come and sit beside me. o He kept his bag close beside him at all times. قرب، جانب beside the point not connected with the المسل beside the point not connected with the subject you are discussing لا علاقة له بالدونوع beside yourself (with sth) not able to control yourself because of a very strong emotion: Emily was almost beside herself with grief.

يفقد السيطرة على نفسه

besides /bɪˈsaɪdz/ prep in addition to or as well as sb/sth: There will be six people coming, besides you and David.

besides adv in addition; also: I thought the hotel was too expensive. Besides, it was very close to the main road.

besiege /bi'si:dʒ/ verb [T] to surround a place with an army: (figurative) The actor was besieged by fans and reporters.

Rbest¹ /best¹ adj (the superlative of good) of the highest quality or level; most suitable: Who's your best friend? o His latest book is by far his best. o It's best to arrive early if you want a good seat. o Who in the class is best at maths? o What's the best way to get to York from here? o The best thing to do is to forget all about it.

your best bet (informal) the best thing for you to do in a particular situation: There's nowhere to park in the city centre. Your best bet is to go in by bus.

the best/better part of sth → PART1

میل: موهبة [best² /best/ adv (the superlative of well) 1 in the most excellent way: He works best in the morn-body given begiven

2 to the greatest degree; most: Which of these dresses do you like best? o one of Britain's best-loved TV stars o Next week would suit me best. o Ask Peter. He'll know best what to do.

The state of the § best³ /best/ noun [sing.] 1 something that is of the highest quality or level: When you pay that much for a meal you expect the best. ○ I'm not in the best of health. ○ They are the best of friends. ○ The best we can hope for is that the situation doesn't get any worse. ② Look at second-best.

2 the best [with sing. or pl. verb] a person that is best: Even the best of us make mistakes sometimes.

all the best (informal) (used when you are saying goodbye to sb and wishing him/her success): All the best! Keep in touch, won't you? مع السلامة و أتمنى لك التوفيق at best if everything is as favourable as possible; taking the most hopeful view: We won't be able to deliver the goods before March, or, at best, the last week in February.

at its/your best in its/your best state or condition: This is an example of Beckett's work at its best. O No one is at their best first thing in the morning.

be (all) for the best to be good in the end even if it does not seem good at first: He didn't go to London after all, but as it turned out it was all for the best (= because he was able to do something that was better). كن خبراً له في النهاية bring out the best/worst in sb to show sb's best/worst qualities: The crisis really brought out the best in Tony. يَظْهِرُ الْفَصَلِّ الْمُواْمَا فِي الشَّحْصِ do/try your best to do all or the most that you can: It doesn't matter whether you win or not. The important thing is doing your best.

یبنل قصاری جهده look your best to look as beautiful or attractive as possible

make the best of sth/a bad job to accept a difficult situation and try to be as happy as possible يحاول الانتفاع من وضع سيئ

,best 'man noun [C] a man who helps and supports the bridegroom at his wedding ⊃ Look at the note at wedding.

best-'seller noun [C] a book or other product that has been bought by large numbers of people أروح (كتاب مثلاً) best-'selling adj (not before a noun) very popular: Frederick Forsyth has written many best-selling novels.

Let bet bet verb [I,T] (pres part betting; pt, pp bet or betted) bet (sth) (on sth) to risk some money on the result of sth (e.g. a horse race). If you are wrong about the result, you have to pay some money: I bet him £10 he couldn't stop smoking for a week.

I bet (that)... (informal) I'm sure that...: I bet he arrives late – he always does. آراهن أنّ . أنا متاكد أنّ you bet (informal) a way of saying, 'Yes, of course!': 'Are you coming too?' 'You bet.'

▶ bet noun [C] 1 an act of betting: to win/lose a bet

2 an opinion: My bet is that he's missed the train.

moments your best bet → BEST¹ hedge your bets → HEDGE betray /bı'treı/ verb [T] 1 to be disloyal to a person or thing; to harm a person or organization that trusts you: By taking the money he had betrayed the trust that she had put in him. O When parents get divorced the children often feel betrayed. O to betray your country

2 to make facts about sb/sth known to an enemy; to make a secret known: *She betrayed all the members of the group to the secret police.*Ohe refused to betray the information.

يكشف؛ يفشي سرأ

3 to show a feeling or quality that you would like to keep hidden: Her steady voice did not betray the emotion she was feeling.

▶ betrayal /bı'treɪəl/ noun [C,U] the act of betraying sb/sth

F better¹ /'beta(r)/ adj 1 (the comparative of good) better (than sth) of a higher quality or level or more suitable: I think her second novel was much better than her first. • He's better at chemistry than physics. • It's a long way to drive. It would be better to take the train. • You'd be better getting the train than driving (= it would be more suitable or sensible).

2 less ill or fully recovered from an illness: I feel a bit better today. • You can't go swimming until you're better: أحسن (صحياً): معافى

T better² /'betə(r)/ adv (the comparative of well) in a better way; to a greater or higher degree: I think you could have done this better. O Sylvie speaks English better than I do. O She is much better known than her sister.

the best/better part of sth → PART¹ (be) better off 1 to be in a more pleasant or suitable situation: You look terrible. You'd be better off at home in bed.

2 with more money: We're much better off now I go out to work.

you, etc. had better you should; you would be wise to: I think we'd better go before it gets dark.

o You'd better take a pen and paper. You might want to take notes.

know better \rightarrow KNOW think better of (doing) sth \rightarrow THINK¹

Poetter³ /'betə(r)/ noun [sing.] something that is of higher quality: The hotel wasn't very good. I must say we'd expected better.

Description get the better of sb/sth to defeat or be stronger than sb/sth: When we have an argument she always gets the better of me.

يتغلّب أو يتفوق على

Ş between /bɪˈtwi:n/ prep 1 in the space that separates two things, people, etc.; somewhere in the middle: I was sitting between Anne and Derek. o a village between Cambridge and Ely

2 from one place to another and back again: There aren't any direct trains between here and Milton Keynes. o the journey between home and the office

3 involving or linking two people, groups or things: There's some sort of disagreement between them. ○ There may be a connection between the two crimes.

4 (used about two amounts, distances, ages, times, etc.) at a point that is greater or later than the first and smaller or earlier than the second; somewhere in the middle: She must be between about thirty and thirty-five. • They said they would arrive between 4 and 5 o'clock. • a cost of between £200 and £300

5 choosing one and not the other (of two things): to choose between two jobs o What's the difference between 'some' and 'anv'?

6 by putting together the actions, efforts, etc. of beverage → bid

two or more people: We've got over a thousand pounds saved up between us.

7 giving each person a share: The money was divided equally between the two children. o We ate all the chocolates between us. فيما بين

Between is usually used of two people or things: sitting between her mother and father between the ages of 12 and 14. However, between can sometimes be used of more than two when the people or things are being considered as individuals, especially when the meaning is that of number 7 (above): We drank a bottle between the three of us. Among is always used of more than two people or things considered as a group rather than as individuals: You're among friends here.

▶ between (also in between) adv in the space or period of time that separates two things, points, people, times, etc: We can't get to the beach this way. There's a railway line in between. o I've got a meeting at 10 and one at 11 but 1 في الوسط should manage to see you in between.

beverage /'bevərid3/ noun [C] (formal) (used especially on menus) a drink

beware /bi'weə(r)/ verb [I] (only in the imperative or infinitive) beware (of sb/sth) (used for giving a warning) to be careful: Beware of the dog! (= written on a sign) o We were told to beware of strong currents in the sea.

احترس! ، احذر! ؛ يحترس

bewilder /bɪˈwɪldə(r)/ verb [T] to confuse: I was completely bewildered by his sudden change of mood.

▶ bewildered adj: He seemed bewildered by all the fuss.

bewildering adj: a bewildering experience

محير : مذهل bewilderment noun [U]: to stare at sb in bewil-حَيْرة ، اندهاش derment bewitch /br'witʃ/ verb [T] to fascinate sb and be يفتن ، يسحر اللب very attractive to them

Leavend /bi'jond/ prep 1 on the other side of: beyond the distant mountains خلف ، وراء

2 further than; later than: Does the motorway continue beyond Birmingham? o Most people don't go on working beyond the age of 65.

وراء ، إلى ما بعد

3 out of the range or reach of sth (so that sth is not possible): The house was beyond what I could afford. o The car was completely beyond repair. o His success was beyond all our expectations (= more than we expected). o The fact that she is guilty is beyond doubt (= there is no doubt about أكثر من المستطاع : فوق it).

4 except for or apart from: I haven't heard anything beyond a few rumours.

DM be beyond sb (informal) to be impossible for sb to understand or imagine: Why she wants to go and live there is quite beyond me.

▶ beyond adv on the other side or further on:

We could see the mountains and the sea beyond.

bias /'baɪəs/ noun [C,U, usually sing.] (pl. biases) 1 an opinion, feeling or attitude that is not fair and not based on facts: a bias against women drivers

2 giving one side in an argument an advantage over the other; not being neutral: The BBC has been accused of political bias. تحيّز ؛ انحياز

▶ bias verb [T] (biasing; biased or biassing; biassed) to influence sb/sth, especially unfairly; to give an advantage to one group, etc: Good newspapers should not be biased towards a particular point of view. o Our schools are biased in favour of middle-class children. o a biased (= ينحاز ؛ يحابي unfair) report

bib /bib/ noun [C] a piece of cloth or plastic that a baby or small child wears under the chin to protect its clothes while it is eating مريلة ، صدريّة الطفل

bible /baibl/ (also the Bible) noun [C] the holy book of the Christian and Jewish people

الكتاب المقدس

▶ biblical /ˈbɪblɪkl/ adj

توراتي ، متعلّق بالكتاب المقدس

bibliography / bibli pgrəfi/ noun [C] (pl. bibliographies) 1 a list of the books and articles that a writer used when he/she was writing a particu-بيبلوغرافيا ، مسرد المراجع lar book

2 a list of books on a particular subject

(قائمة) مراجع

bicentenary / barsen'ti:nəri; US - sentəneri/ noun [C] (pl. bicentenaries) (US bicentennial /barsen'tenial/) the day or year two hundred years after sth happened or began: the bicenten-ذكري مرور منتي سنة ary of the French Revolution

biceps /'baiseps/ noun [C] (pl. biceps) the large muscle at the front of the top part of your arms

العضلة ذات الرأسين

bicker /'bikə(r)/ verb [I] to quarrel about unimportant things: The boys were bickering about whose turn it was to play with the train.

Libicycle /'baisikl/ (also informal bike) noun [C] a vehicle with two wheels, which you sit on and ride by moving your legs: to ride a bicycle o to go somewhere by bicycle 2 Look at cycle. This is usually used as the verb. Cyclist is the usual noun.

Part Did / bid/ verb (bidding; pt, pp bid or, in sense 2 pt bade /bæd/; pp bidden /'bidn/) 1 [I,T] bid (sth) (for sth) to offer a sum of money in order to buy sth: to bid for sth at an auction o Somebody bid £5 000 for the painting.

يزايد أو يناقص، يعرض مبلغاً من المال

2 [T] (old-fashioned, formal) to say as a greeting: He bade us good day and got up to leave.

يِّي أو يودُّع

▶ bidder noun [C] a person who offers a sum of money in order to buy sth: The house was sold to the highest bidder (= the person who offered the مزايد ؛ من يعرض مبلغاً من المال most money).

Lipid bid noun [C] 1 an attempt to do, obtain, etc. sth: a bid to slow down traffic and prevent accidents o her bid to win the championship o His hid for power had failed. محاولة ، مسعى

2 an offer of a sum of money in order to buy sth: We made a bid of £100 for the chair.

3 (especially US) = Tender²

bide /baɪd/ verb

DM bide your time to wait for a good opportunity: I'll bide my time until the situation ينتظر (فرصة سانحة)

bidet /'bi:dei; US bi:'dei/ noun [C] a small bath that you can sit on in order to wash your bot-"بيِّديه": مغسلة منخفضة

- ? big /big/ adj (bigger; biggest) 1 large; not small: a big house, town, salary, etc. o This dress is too ضخم؛ كبير big for me.
 - 2 great or important: They had a big argument yesterday. o That was the biggest decision I've ever had to make. o some of the big names in كبير، هام
 - 3 (only before a noun) (informal) older: a big أكبر (سُناً) brother/sister

Big and large can both be used when talking about size or number. Large is more formal and is not usually used for describing people: a big/ large house o a big boy. Great is mostly used when talking about the importance, quality, etc. of a person or thing. It can also be used with: uncountable nouns to mean 'a lot of': a great occasion o a great musician o great happiness, care, etc.

big deal! (informal) used to say that you think sth is not important or interesting: 'Look at my new bike!' 'Big deal! It's not as nice as (يعنى أيه!)، ما هذا الأمر العظيم! mine.

a big deal (informal) something that is very important or exciting: Birthday celebrations are شيء مهم a big deal in our family.

no big deal (informal) something that is not very important or exciting: A 2% pay increase is أمرٌ ليس بذي بال no big deal.

give sb/get a big hand to clap sb/to be clapped loudly: The audience gave the little girl a big hand when she finished her song.

يصفّق أو يتلقّى التصفيق ▶ big adv (slang) in a grand or ambitious way: You have to think big if you want to be success-بطموح ، على مقياس كبير ful bigamy /bigəmi/ noun [U] the crime of being married to two people at the same time

الزواج من امرأتين أو رجلين في نفس الوقت ▶ bigamist noun [C] متزوج من اثنين

'big-head noun (informal) a person who thinks he/she is very important or clever because of الشخص المغرور sth he/she has done ▶ ,big-'headed adj مغرور

bigot /'bigət/ noun [C] a person who has very strong and unreasonable opinions and refuses to change them or listen to other people: religious/ racial bigot

▶ bigoted /'bigətid/ adj

bigotry /'bigətri/ noun [U]

- 'big time noun [sing.] success; fame: This is the role that could help her make it to the big time in النجاح، عالم الشهرة Hollywood.
 - ▶ big time adv (slang) much: You screwed up كثيراً، حداً big time, Wayne!

big-time adj (only before a noun) important or famous: a big-time drug dealer/politician ذاتع الصيت، مشهور

Thike /bark/ noun [C] (informal) a bicycle or a motorcycle: Mary's just learned to ride a bike.

دراحة هوائية ؛ دراجة بخارية bikini /br'ki:ni/ noun [C] a piece of clothing, in two pieces, that women wear for swimming مايوه نسائي من قطعتين

bilingual / bar'lingwel/ adj 1 having or using two languages: a bilingual dictionary

2 able to speak two languages equally well: Our children are bilingual in English and Spanish.

? bill /bɪl/ noun 1 [C] (US check) a piece of paper that shows how much money you owe for goods or services: an electricity bill o Can I have the bill, please (e.g. in a restaurant)? \circ to pay a bill فاتورة ، بيان الحساب

2 [C] (US) = NOTE¹(4): a ten-dollar bill

3 [C] a plan for a possible new law: The bill was discussed in Parliament. o The bill was passed/ defeated.

4 [sing.] the programme of entertainment offered in a show, concert, etc: Which bands are on the bill at the festival? o a double bill of 'Swan Lake' and 'The Nutcracker'

IDM foot the bill → FOOT2

▶ bill verb [T] 1 bill sb (for sth) to send sb a bill for sth: Please bill me for the books.

منْقار

2 to announce to the public with an advertisement, etc: The show is billed as a musical يعلن للجمهور comedy

bill² /bɪl/ noun [C] a bird's beak billboard /'bilbo:d/ noun [C] (US) = HOARDING

bilifold /'bilfəvld/ nounC = WALLET

billiards /'bɪliədz/ noun [U] a game played on a big table covered with cloth. You use a long stick (a cue) to hit balls into pockets at the corners and sides of the table: to play billiards o to have a (لُعبة) البلياردو game of billiards

▶ billiard /'bɪliəd-/ (in compounds) used for billiards: a billiard table (متعلّق بالبلياردو)

?billion /'biljan/ number 1 000 000 000; one thousand million: billions of dollars بليون ، ألف مليون

Notice that when you are counting you use billion without 's': nine billion pounds. Formerly, 'billion' was used with the meaning 'one million million'. We now say trillion for this.

billow /biloo/ verb [I] to rise or move slowly in متعص bin → birth control

the wind, like waves: curtains billowing in the breeze

? bin /bin / noun [C] 1 a container that you put rubbish in: to throw sth in the bin o a litter bin o The dustmen come to empty the bins on Wednesdays.

صفيحة الزبالة، صندوق القمامة

2 a container, usually with a lid, for storing bread, flour, etc: a bread bin

علبة لحفظ الخبز أو الدقيق الخ binary system /ˈbaɪnəri sɪstəm/ noun [sing.] (technical) a system of numbers using only the numbers 0 and 1. It is used especially with computers.

bind /baind/ verb [T] (pt, pp bound /baind/)
1 bind A (to B); bind A and B (together) to the or fasten with string or rope: They bound the prisoner's hands behind his back. o (figurative) The two men were bound together (= united or held together) by the strength of their beliefs.

نیُد ، پریط

- 2 bind sb/yourself (to sth) to cause or force sb to do sth: to be bound by a law, an agreement, etc.

 The contract binds you to completion of the work within two years.
- 3 (usually passive) to fasten sheets of paper into a cover to form a book: The book was bound in leather.
- bind noun [sing.] (informal) something that you find boring or annoying; a nuisance. I find housework a real bind.
 binder noun [C] a hard cover for holding loose sheets of paper together (غلاف مقرى الحفظ الأوراق binding noun 1 [C] a cover that holds the pages of a book together
- 2 [U] material that you use for making the edge of sth stronger or more attractive حافة أو حاشية (التقوية أو التزيين) binding adj making it necessary for sb to do sth they have promised or to obey a law, etc: This contract is legally binding.

binge /bind3/ noun [C] (informal) a period of eating or drinking too much

فترة إفراط في المأكل و المشرب

bingo /'bɪŋgəʊ/ noun [U] a game in which each player has a different card with numbers on it. The person in charge of the game calls numbers out and the winner is the first player to have all the numbers on their card called out.

البِنغو: لعبة قمار

binoculars /brˈnɒkjələz/ noun [plural] an instrument with two lenses which you look through in order to make distant objects seem nearer: a pair of binoculars المنظل مزادي دنال مزادي

biochemistry /,baɪəʊ'kemɪstri/ noun [U] the study of the chemistry of living things

الكيمياء الحيوية

biodegradable /ˌbaɪəʊdrˈgreɪdəbl/ adj that can decay naturally: Most plastic packaging is not biodegradable.

biodiversity / barəudar'va:səti/ noun [U] the existence of a large number of different kinds of animals and plants which make a balanced environment

- biography /bar'pgrəfi/ noun [C,U] (pl. biographies) the story of a person's life written by sb else: a biography of Napoleon o I enjoy reading history and biography. Dook at autobiography.
- biographer /bai'ngrəfə(r)/ noun [C] a person who writes a story of she lese's life ما السيرة biographical /ˌbaiə'græfikl/ adj containing information about sh's life: interesting biographical details
- biological / barə lnd3ıkl/ adj 1 connected with the scientific study of animals, plants and other living things: biological research

بيولوجي ، متعلّق بعلم الأحياء

2 involving the use of living things to destroy or damage other living things: biological weapons o a biological detergent (= one that uses enzymes to destroy dirt)

- biology /bar'plədʒi/ noun [U] the scientific study of living things
- biologist /-d3ist/ noun [C] a person who studies or is an expert in biology biotechnology /ˌbarəotek'nɒlədʒi/ noun [U] the use of living cells and bacteria in industrial and scientific processes: biotechnological research birch /bs:tʃ/ noun [C,U] a type of tree with a smooth trunk and thin branches

P bird /b3:d/ noun [C] a creature with feathers and wings which can (usually) fly 6 Birds fly and sing. They build nests and lay eggs.

⊔M kill two birds with one stone → KILL.

,bird of 'prey noun [C] a bird that kills and eats other animals and birds

birdwatcher /ˈbɜːdwɒtʃə(r)/ noun [C] a person who studies birds in their natural surroundings

The formal word is ornithologist.

Biro™ /'barrəʊ/ noun [C] (pl. Biros) a type of pen in which ink comes out of a small metal ball at the end ⊅ Look at ballpoint.

- t birth /bs:8/ noun 1 [C,U] being born; coming out of a mother's body: It was a difficult birth. o The baby weighed six pounds at birth (= when it was born). o She's been slightly deaf since birth. o What's your date of birth? (= the date on which you were born)
 - 2 [U] your nationality or your place of birth: She's always lived in England but she's German by birth.
 - 3 [sing.] the beginning of sth: the birth of an idea

She gave birth (to sb/sth) to produce a baby: She gave birth to her second child at home.

'birth certificate noun [C] an official piece of paper that states the date and place of a person's birth شهادة ميلاد

'birth control noun [U] ways of controlling or limiting the number of children you have ② Look at contraception. تحديد النسل

T birthday /ˈbɔːθdeɪ/ noun [C] the day in each year which is the same date as the one when you were born: My birthday's (on) November 15th. o my eighteenth birthday o a birthday present o a birthday card

An anniversary is not the same as a birthday. It is the day in each year which is the same date as an important past event: our wedding anniversary o the fiftieth anniversary of the sinking of the Titanic (= exactly fifty years after it happened). When it is a person's birthday we say Happy Birthday! or Many happy returns! If we know the person well we send a special card to them or a present. Your eighteenth birthday is an important occasion when you legally become an adult.

birthmark /ˈbɜːθmɑːk/ noun [C] a permanent mark on your body, that you are born with وحمة: علامة خَلْقَيْة دائمة birthplace /ˈbɜːθpleɪs/ noun 1 [C] the house or area where a person was born

2 [sing.] the place where sth began: in Greece, the hirthplace of the Olympic Games

'birth rate noun [C] the number of babies born in a particular group of people during a particular period of time: The birth rate is falling/rising.

T biscuit /ˈbɪskɪt/ noun [C] (US cookie) a type of small cake that is thin, hard and usually sweet: a chocolate biscuit o a packet of biscuits bisexual /,bai'sekʃuəl/ adj sexually attracted to both men and women

ثنائي الانجذاب الجنسي: من ينجذب للجنسين

blshop /'brfəp/ noun [C] a senior person in the Christian Church, who is in charge of the churches in a city or a district: the Bishop of Durham D Look at archbishop.

blt¹ /bit/ noun 1 [C] a small piece or amount of sth: There were bits of broken glass all over the floor. ○ I think these strawberries need a bit more sugar. ○ Could you give me a bit of advice?

قطعة صغيرة ، قليل من ؛ بعض

2 [sing.] (especially with quite) (informal) a lot:

It must have rained quite a bit during the night.

a bit 1 slightly; rather: I'm afraid I'll be a hit late tonight. ○ I was a bit annoyed with him.

2 a short time or distance: Could you move forward a bit?

blt by bit slowly or a little at a time: Bit by bit we managed to get the information we needed.
تربيحنا : شناً فشناً

a bit much (informal) annoying or unpleasant: It's a bit much expecting me to work on Sundays.

a bit of a (informal) rather a: I've got a bit of a problem... • He's a bit of a tyrant, isn't he? شيء من : بعض الشيء bits and pieces (informal) small things of different kinds: I've finished packing except for a few bits and pieces.

do your bit (informal) to do your share of sth; to help with sth: It won't take long to finish if we all do our bit.

not a bit not at all: The holiday was not a bit what we had expected.

to bits into small pieces: She angrily tore the letter to bits.

bit² /bɪt/ noun [C] a metal bar that you put in a horse's mouth when you ride it شكيمة (اللَّمام)

? bit³/bit/noun [C] (computing) the smallest unit of information that is stored in a computer's memory, represented by the numbers 0 or 1

أصغر وحدة معلومات في ذاكرة الكمبيوتر

bit⁴ pt of BITE¹

bitch /bɪtʃ/ noun [C] 1 a female dog

2 (slang) a very unpleasant woman: She's a real bitch. o You bitch! (= used to insult a woman) امرأة سليطة أو بغيضة

bitchy (bitchier; bitchiest) adj (usually used about women or their behaviour) tending to talk about other people in an unkind way: a bitchy remark hite 1 /batt/ verb (pt bit /bit/; pp bitten /'bitn/) 1 [I.T] bite (into sth) to cut or attack with the teeth: Don't worry about the dog. She never bites.

The dog bit me. • He picked up the bread and bit into it hungrily.

2 [T] (used about insects or snakes) to prick your skin and cause pain: He was bitten by a snake. • Wasps and bees do not bite you. They sting you.

3 [I] to begin to have an effect, usually in an unpleasant way: In the South the job losses are starting to bite.

Rbite² /baɪt/ noun 1 [C] a piece of food that you can put into your mouth: She took a big bite of the apple.

2 [C] a painful place on the skin made by an insect, snake, dog, etc: a mosquito bite

لسعة ، لدغة

3 [sing.] (informal) some food: Would you like a bite to eat before you go? لقمة ، قليل من الطعام

bitten pt of BITE1

Pitter /'bitə(r)/ adj 1 (used about a person) very unhappy or angry about sth that has happened; disappointed: She was very bitter about the breakup of her marriage.

2 causing unhappiness or anger for a long time; difficult to accept: His son has been a bitter disappointment to him. مرير : عسير القبول

3 caused by anger or hatred: a bitter quarrel

4 (used about the weather) very cold: a bitter wind

5 having a sharp, unpleasant taste; not sweet; bitter coffee

bitty → blame

▶ bitter noun [U] (Brit) a type of dark beer with نوع من البيرة a bitter taste bitterly adv 1 (used for describing strong negative feelings or cold weather) extremely: bitterly disappointed o a bitterly cold winter

2 in a bitter(1) way: 'T've lost everything,' he said بمرارة bitterness noun [U] anger and unhappiness as a result of sth bad happening bitty /'bɪtɪ/ (bittier; bittiest) adj made up of lots of parts which do not seem to be connected: a bitty غير مترابط الأحزاء bizarre /bi'za:(r)/ adj very strange: The story had a most bizarre ending.

bk (pl. bks) abbrev = BOOK

- ? black¹ /blæk/ adi 1 of the darkest colour possible, the colour of the night sky أسود
 - 2 belonging to a race of people with dark skins: the black population of Britain o black culture
 - 3 (used about coffee or tea) without milk or cream: black coffee with sugar (قهوة مثلاً) دون حليب
 - 4 (used about a situation) without hope; depressing: The economic outlook for the coming year is rather black. قاتم ، غير مبشر
 - 5 funny in a cruel or unpleasant way: The film was a black comedy. مضحك على نحو مؤلم أو مخيف
 - 6 very angry: a black mood o to give sb a black look

DM black and blue covered with bruises بغطى بالكدمات

- ▶ blacken /'blækən/ verb [T] 1 to make sth black: The soldiers had to blacken their faces at يسود
- 2 to make sth seem bad, by saying unpleasant ىلطخ (سمعته) things about it: to blacken sb's name سواد ؛ ظلام blackness noun [U]
- ? black2 /blæk / noun 1 [U] the darkest colour, like the night sky: People usually wear black (= black clothes) at funerals.
 - 2 usually Black [C] a person who belongs to a race of people with dark skins 3 Look at African-American.

be in the black to have some money in the له رصيد bank 2 Look at in the red.

black and white (used about television, photographs, etc.) showing no colours except black, white and grey: a black and white television أسود وأبيض in black and white in writing or in print: I won't believe we've got the contract till I see it in black and white.

black³/blæk/verb

PHRV black out to lose consciousness for a short time: I remember losing control of the car and then I blacked out.

blackberry /'blækbəri; US -beri/ noun [C] (pl. blackberries) a small black fruit that grows wild توت برُي on bushes blackbird /'blækb3:d/ noun [C] a common European bird. The male is black with a yellow beak and the female is brown.

blackboard /'blækbo:d/ (US chalkboard) noun [C] a piece of dark board used for writing on, especially with chalk and in a classroom

blackcurrant / blæk'kʌrənt/ noun [C] a small round black fruit that grows in bunches on الكشمش الأسود bushes black 'eye noun [C] an eye with dark-coloured skin around it as the result of a blow: He got a كدمة حول العين black eve in the fight.

blackhead /'blækhed/ noun [C] a small spot on the skin with a black centre

بثرة صغيرة برأس أسود، "زيوانة" blacklist / blæklist/ noun [C] a list of people who are considered bad or dangerous: to be on sb's القائمة السوداء يضعه في القائمة الس

▶ blacklist verb [T]

.black 'magic noun [U] a type of magic that is السحر الأسود ، سحر شرير used for evil purposes blackmail /'blækmeɪl/ noun [U] the crime of forcing a person to give you money or do sth for you, usually by threatening to make known sth which they want to keep secret

▶ blackmail verb [T]: He was blackmailed into paying an enormous amount of money. blackmailer noun [C]

black 'market noun [C] the buying and selling of goods or foreign money in a way that is not legal: to buy/sell sth on the black market

السوق السوداء blackout / blækaut / noun [C] 1 a period of time during a war, when all lights must be turned off or covered so that the enemy cannot see them

2 a period when you lose consciousness for a فقدان الوعي short time: to have a blackout blacksmith /'blæksmiθ/ noun [C] a person whose job is to make and repair things made of metal, especially horses' shoes bladder /'blædə(r)/ noun [C] the part of the body where waste liquid (urine) collects before leaving the body

? blade /bleid/ noun [C] 1 the flat, sharp part of a knife, sword, etc. شفرة

2 one of the flat, wide parts that spin round on a ريشة المروحة plane, helicopter, etc.

3 a long, thin leaf of grass, wheat, etc: a blade of grass

Thiame /bleim/ verb [T] 1 blame sb (for sth); blame sth on sb to think or say that a certain person or thing is responsible for sth bad that has happened: The teacher blamed me for the accident. Some people blame the changes in the climate on يلوم pollution.

2 not blame sb (for sth) to think that sb is not wrong to do sth: Td like to leave school and get ajob.' 'I don't blame you.' (= I can understand why). o I don't blame you for feeling fed up.

IDM be to blame (for sth) to be responsible for 8th bad: The police say that careless driving was to blame for the accident. يكون مسؤولاً

▶ blame noun [U] blame (for sth) responsibil-Ity for sth bad: to take the blame for sth o The report puts the blame on rising prices.

مسؤولية، لاثمة

blameless adj deserving no blame; not guilty: He insisted that his wife was blameless and hadn't لا لوم عليه ، بريء known about his activities.

bland /blænd/ adj 1 showing no strong feelings; ساكن ، ھادئ calm

2 (used about food) mild or lacking in taste قليل الطعم ، قليلَ التوابل

3 ordinary or uninteresting: a rather bland style عادي، غير مثير of writing بهدوء ؛ بدماثة

▶ blandly adv

tblank /blænk/ adj 1 without writing or anything else on it: a blank cassette o a blank piece of paper o a blank wall فارغ ، خال

2 without feelings, understanding or interest: a blank expression on his face o My mind went blank when I saw the exam questions (= I couldn't think properly or remember anything).

▶ blank noun [C] an empty space: Fill in the blanks in the following exercise. \circ (figurative) I couldn't remember his name - my mind was a complete blank.

IDM draw a blank → DRAW2 blankly adv with a blank expression (ينظر) نظرة جوفاء أو خاليةً من التعبير blank 'cheque noun [C] a cheque that has been signed but that has an empty space so that the amount to be paid can be filled in later blanket /'blænkit/ noun [C] a cover made of wool, etc. that is put on beds to keep people warm

IDM a wet blanket → WET

▶ blanket verb [T] to cover sth completely: The countryside was blanketed in snow.

blanket adj (only before a noun) affecting everybody or everything: a blanket ban on journalists reporting the case blare /blea(r)/ verb [I,T] blare (sth) (out) to make a loud, unpleasant noise: The radio was blaring in the room next to ours. O The loudspeak-يدوي er blared out a warning.

▶ blare noun [U]: the blare of a siren blasphemy /blæsfəmi/ noun [U] writing or speaking about God in a way that shows a lack تجديف ، كفر of respect

▶ blasphemous /'blæsfəməs/ adj blast / blast; US blæst / noun [C] 1 an explosion, especially one caused by a bomb: The windows of the nearby shops were shattered in the blast.

2 a sudden strong rush of air: a blast of cold

3 a loud sound made by a musical instrument such as a horn: a few blasts on his trumpet blast²/bla:st; US blæst/verb [I,T] to make a hole, a tunnel, etc. in sth with an explosion: They had to blast their way through the mountainside.

يفحر محدثا ثقبا الخ PHRV blast off (used about a spacecraft) to بقلع ؛ ينطلق leave the ground; to take off blast interj a mild swear word, used to show that you are angry: Blast! I've cut my finger. (كلمة للشتّم تعبّر عن الفضب)

blasted adj (informal) very annoying: Can you turn that blasted music down? مزعج جدأ

'blast-off noun [U] the time when a spacecraft انطلاق (الصاروخ مثلاً) leaves the ground blatant /'bleitnt/ adj very clear or obvious: their blatant dislike for each other o a blatant lie This word is used in a critical way.

بوضوح

▶ blatantly adv

blaze / bleiz/ noun 1 [C] a large and often dangerous fire: It took firemen four hours to put out حريق ، لَهَب the blaze.

2 [sing.] a blaze of sth a very bright display of light or colour: In the summer the garden was a blaze of colour. o (figurative) The new theatre was opened in a blaze of publicity (= the newspapers, television, etc. gave it a lot of attention).

blaze² /bleiz/ verb [I] 1 to burn with bright strong flames: a blazing log fire يتقد، يتوهج

2 blaze (with sth) to be extremely bright; to shine brightly: I woke up to find that the room was blazing with sunshine. o (figurative) 'Get out!' she shouted, her eyes blazing with anger. يتوهج ؛ يتألق blazer /'blerzə(r)/ noun [C] a jacket, especially one that has the colours or sign (badge) of a school, club, team, etc. on it; usually worn by men, or by schoolchildren as part of their uni-سترة ذات شارة form: a school blazer bleach /bli:ts/ verb [T] to make sth white or lighter in colour (by using a chemical or by leav-يبيض ؛ يفتع اللون ing it in the sun) ▶ bleach noun [C,U] a strong chemical substance used for making clothes, etc. whiter or for cleaning things مادة (كيماوية) مبيضة

bleak /bli:k/ adj 1 (used about a situation) bad; not encouraging or hopeful: a bleak future for the غير مبشر بالخير ، قاتم next generation

2 (used about a place) cold, bare and grey: the (مكان) كثيب، يثير الانقباض bleak Yorkshire Moors

3 (used about the weather) cold and grey: ableak winter's day āJC.

▶ bleakly adv bleakness noun [U]

فتامة ؛ رداءة الوضع

bleary /'blieri/ adj (blearier; bleariest) (used about the eyes) red, tired and unable to see clear-

bleat → blindfold

▶ bleat noun [C]

ly: We were all rather bleary-eyed after the jour-(عيون) محمرة ومتعبة

▶ blearily adv: 'What's the time?' he said blear-بعيون متعبة وغبشة ily, switching on the light.

bleat /bli:t/ verb 1 [I] to make the sound of a sheep or goat

2 [I,T] to speak in a weak, uncertain way bleed /bli:d/ verb [I] (pt, pp bled /bled/) to lose blood: He was bleeding badly from a cut on his head. o Is your finger bleeding?

▶ bleeding noun [U] blood flowing from a cut, etc: He wrapped a scarf around his arm to try to stop the bleeding.

bleep /bli:p/ noun [C] a short, high sound made صفير أو تزمير متقطع by an electronic machine

▶ bleep verb 1 [I] (used about machines) to make a short high sound: Why is the computer يصفر أو يزمر بصورة متقطعة bleeping?

2 [T] to attract a person's attention using a يناديه بمنبه الكتروني bleeper bleeper noun [C] a small piece of equipment that makes bleeps to let a person (e.g. a doctor) know when sb is trying to contact them

منبه أو صفارة الكترونية

blemish /'blemis/ noun [C] a mark that spoils the way sb/sth looks: make-up to hide spots and other blemishes

▶ blemish verb [T] to spoil sth يعيب (شيئاً) : يلوث

blend /blend / verb 1 [T] blend A with B; blend A and B (together) to mix: First blend the flour and the melted butter together. يمزج

2 [I] blend with sth to look or sound good with sth else: new buildings that don't blend with their surroundings

3 [I] blend (into sth) to be difficult to tell apart from sth else: These animals' ability to blend into their surroundings provides a natural form of PHRV blend in (with sth) to look or sound good with sth else because the two things are similar: The new room is decorated to blend in with the ينسجم ، يتوافق مع rest of the house.

▶ blend noun [C] a mixture: a blend of China and Indian tea o He had the right blend of enthusiasm and experience.

blender /'blendə(r)/ noun [C] (Brit also liquidizer; liquidiser) noun [C] an electric machine that is used for liquidizing food آلة كهربائية صغيرة لتمييع الاطعمة bless /bles/ verb [T] (pt, pp blessed /blest/) to ask for God's help and protection for sb/sth: At the end of the marriage service, the vicar will bless سارك the young couple.

DM be blessed with sth/sb to be lucky enough to have sth/sb: The West of Ireland is an area blessed with many fine sandy beaches.

bless you! what you say to a person who has صحة! ، يرحمك الله! iust sneezed blessed /blesid/ adj 1 (in religious language) holy: the Blessed Virgin Mary

2 (in religious language) lucky; fortunate: Blessed are the pure in heart. مبارك

3 giving great pleasure: The cool breeze brought blessed relief from the heat.

4 (used for expressing anger or surprise): Where's the blessed train?

اللعين! (للتعبير عن الغضب أو الاستغراب) blessing /blesm/ noun [C] 1 a thing that you are grateful for or that brings happiness: It's a great blessing that we have two healthy children. o a blessing in disguise (= something which seems unlucky but turns out to be a good thing) o to count your blessings

2 [usually sing.] approval or support: They got married without their parents' blessing.

3 [usually sing.] (a prayer asking for) God's help and protection: to ask for God's blessing o The priest said a blessing.

blew pt of BLOW1

? blind¹ /blaind/ adj 1 unable to see: a blind person o to be completely/partially blind (1) We can also describe a person as visually impaired.

اعمى ، ضرير 2 blind (to sth) not willing to notice or understand sth: He was completely blind to her أعمى ، متغاض عن faults.

3 without reason or thought: her blind acceptance of fate o He drove down the motorway in a جامِح ، متھور blind panic.

4 impossible to see round: You should never overtake on a blind corner.

مستور ، (منعطف) حاجب للرؤية IDM turn a blind eye (to sth) to pretend not to يتعامى عن ، يتجاهل

notice sth ▶ the blind noun [plural] people who are blind: ways of making homes safer for the blind

المكفوفون blindly adv blindness noun [U]

blind2 /blamd/ verb [T] 1 to make sb unable to see: Her grandfather had been blinded in an accident (= permanently). o For a minute I was blinded by the lights of the oncoming car (= for a short time) يعمى ، يبهر

2 blind sb (to sth) to prevent sb from being aware of sth

blind³ /blamd/ noun [C] a piece of cloth or other material that you pull down to cover a window حاجِب (للنور) ، سِتارة blind 'date noun [C] an arranged meeting between a man and a woman who have never met before to see if they like each other enough to begin a romantic relationship ترتیب تعارف بین رجل و امرأة

blinders /blamdəz/ noun [plural] (US) BLINKERS blindfold /'blamdfauld/ verb [T] to cover a person's eyes with a piece of cloth, etc. so that he/ ?block1 /blok/ noun [C] 1 a large, heavy piece of يعصب العينين she cannot see

- ▶ blindfold noun [C] a piece of cloth, etc. that is عصابة للعينين used for covering sb's eves
- 'blind spot noun [Cl 1 if you have a blind spot about sth, you cannot understand or accept it موضوع لايفهمه الشخص ولايتقبله
 - 2 the part of the road that you cannot see when driving a car, i.e. the part which is just behind بقعة عمياء (لا يراها السائق) vou
- blink /blink/ verb 1 [I,T] to shut your eyes and open them again very quickly: Oh dear! You blinked just as I took the photograph! 3 Look at wink.
 - 2 [1] (used about a light) to come on and go off (النور) يمض again quickly
- ▶ blink noun [C]

blinkers /'blinkez/ (US blinders) noun [plural] pieces of leather fixed beside a horse's eyes so that it can only look straight in front

- blip /blip/ noun [C] 1 a short sound made by an electronic machine صوت قصير يصدر عن آلة الكترونية
- 2 a small point of light on a screen نقطة منيرة على شاشة
- ${f 3}$ a small problem that does not last for long مشكلة صفيرة وعارضة

bliss /blis/ noun [U] perfect happiness: fifteen years of domestic bliss with his wife Mary

▶ blissful /-fl/ adj blissfully /-feli/ adv هنيء ؛ سعيد

- blister /'blistə(r)/ noun [C] a small painful area of skin that looks like a bubble and contains clear liquid. Blisters are usually caused by rubbing or burning: These shoes give me blisters.
- نَفْطة ، بقبوقة، "فقفولة" ▶ blister verb [I,T] to get or cause blisters
- يتنفط أو "يبقبق"؛ يسبب نَفْطة blistering /blisterin/ adj 1 very great or se قاس، شدید vere: the blistering midday heat
- 2 showing great anger: a blistering attack on his مهتاج ، غاضب ؛ لاذع political enemies
- blitz /blits/ noun [C] 1 a sudden heavy military فَجوم (جوي) صاعق attack, especially from the air
- 2 a blitz (on sth) (informal) a sudden great effort: I had a blitz on the garden and it's looking quite nice now.
- blizzard /'blizad/ noun [C] a very bad snowstorm ? blond (also blonde) /blond/ noun [C], adj (a perwith strong winds 2 Look at the note at عاصفة ثلحية storm
- bloated /'bloutid/ adj unusually or uncomfortably large and full because of liquid, food or gas inside: I felt a bit bloated after all that food.
- blob /blob/ noun [C] a small piece of a thick li-كتلة صغيرة quid: a blob of paint, cream, etc.
- bloc /blok/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of countries, political parties, etc. who have similar political ideas and who act together

- sth, usually with flat sides: a block of wood o huge concrete blocks كثلة مصلعة
 - 2 a large building that is divided into separate flats or offices: a block of flats o an office block مُحِمّع ، بناية كبيرة
 - 3 a group of buildings in a town which has streets on four sides: I went for a walk around the مجموعة أبنية تشكل كتلة واحدة block.
 - 4 [usually sing.] a thing that makes movement or progress difficult or impossible: a block to further progress in the talks
 - to have a block (about sth) to be unable to think or understand sth properly: I had a complete mental block. I just couldn't remember his name. ينشل تفكيره
- عمضة أو طَرْفة عبن إلى block² /blok/ verb [T] 1 block sth (up) to make it difficult or impossible for anything or anybody to pass: Many roads are completely blocked by snow. o I'm afraid the sink's blocked up.
 - 2 to prevent sth from being done: The management tried to block the deal.
 - 3 to prevent sth from being seen by sb: Get out of the way, you're blocking the view!
 - PHRV block sth off to separate one area from another with sth solid: This section of the motor-يقفل، يعزل way has been blocked off by the police. block sth out to try not to think about sth unpleasant: She tried to block out the memory of the crash.
 - ▶ blockage /'blokid3/ noun [C] a thing that is blocking sth; the state of being blocked: a blockage in the drainpipe o blockages on some انسداد ؛ عائق major roads
 - blockade /blp'kerd/ noun [C] a situation in which a place is surrounded by soldiers or ships in order to prevent goods or people from reaching it
 - ▶ blockade verb [T]
 - blockbuster /'blokbastə(r)/ noun [C] a book or film with an exciting story which is very success كتاب أو فيلم ذو نجاح كاسح ful and popular
 - block 'letter (also block 'capital) noun [C, usually pl.] a capital letter: Please write your name in block letters.
 - blog /blog/ noun [C] = WEBLOG
 - bloke /blook/ noun [C] (Brit informal) a man: He's a really nice bloke. O What does her bloke (= boyfriend) do?
 - son) with fair or yellow hair: Most of our family have blond hair. أشقى، شقراء
 - When describing women the spelling blonde is used: She's tall, slim and blonde. The noun is usually only used of women and is spelt blonde: She's a blonde.
 - Pblood /blad/ noun [U] the red liquid that flows through the body. Blood was pouring from a cut on his knee. o The heart pumps blood around the bloodbath → blow

in your blood a strong part of your character: A love of the countryside was in his (يجري) في دمه، طبيعة blood.

in cold blood → COLD1

bloodbath /'bladba:θ; US -bæθ/ noun [C] an act of violently killing many people حمّام دم ، سفك دماء

'blood-curdling adj horrible and frightening: aتقشعر كه الأبدان blood-curdling scream

'blood donor noun [C] a person who gives his/ her blood for use in medical operations

'blood group (also 'blood type) noun [C] any of several different types of human blood: 'What فصيلة الدّم blood group are you?' 'O.'

bloodless /bladles/ adj 1 (used about a part of the body) very pale

2 without killing or violence: a bloodless coup غیر دموی ، (ثورة) بیضاء

'blood pressure noun [U] the force with which the blood travels round the body: to have high/ ضفط الدّم low blood pressure bloodshed /'bladsed/ noun [U] the killing or wounding of people: Both sides in the war want to avoid further bloodshed. سفك الدّماء bloodshot /'bladspt/ adj (used about the white part of the eyes) full of red lines, e.g. when sb is محتقن بالدّم

'blood sport noun [C] a sport such as fox-hunting, in which animals are killed

رباضة دموية (يقتل فيها الحيوان)

bloodstained /'bladsteind/ adj having marks ملطخ بالدماء of blood on it bloodstream /'bladstri:m/ noun [sing.] the blood as it flows through the body: drugs injected مجري الدم straight into the bloodstream

متعطش للدماء lence or to watch scenes of violence

'blood transfusion noun [C] an injection of blood into a person's body: to have a blood trans-نقل الدّم

'blood vessel noun [C] any of the tubes in the body which blood flows through وعاء دموي

bloody¹ /'bladi/ adj (bloodier; bloodiest) 1 involving a lot of violence and killing: a bloody دموي ، مليء بالعنف

2 covered with blood: a bloody knife

bloody² /'blAdi/ adj, adv (Brit informal) (used for emphasizing anger, annoyance or just an opinion): The bloody train was late again this morning. o What a bloody stupid idea! o We had a bloody good time. • Some people think that it is rude to use this word.

(لتأكيد الغضب أو الانزعاج أو فكرة ما) bloody-'minded adj (Brit informal) difficult and unhelpful, often on purpose bloom /blu:in/ noun [C] a flower

IDM in bloom with its flowers open: All the wild مُرْهر، متفتح plants are in bloom.

▶ bloom verb [1] to produce flowers: This shrub blooms in May. .. (figurative) You look blooming very healthy)! بزهر ، يتفتح blossom /'blosom/ noun [C,U] a flower or a mass of flowers, especially on a fruit tree: The apple زهر (على شجرة مثمرة) tree is covered in blossom. ▶ blossom verb [I] 1 (used especially about trees) to produce flowers 2 blossom (out) (into sth) to develop well: This young runner has blossomed into a top-class athlete. يترعرع ، يتفتح

blot¹ /blot/ noun [C] 1 a spot or stain, especially one made by ink on paper

2 a blot on sth a thing that spoils sh's reputation, character, future, etc.

blot² /blpt/ verb [T] (blotting; blotted) 1 to make a spot or stain on sth, especially one of ink on بلطخ ، يلوث paper

2 to dry spots of liquid on sth by pressing it with ينشف (الحد مثلاً) soft paper or cloth

PHRV blot sth out to cover or hide: Heavy fog blotted out the view completely. O She kept herself busy, hoping to blot out her unhappy memories (= trying not to think of them).

blotch /blots/ noun [C] a mark or an area of different colour, especially on sb's skin: The blotches on her face showed that she had been cry-لطخة ، بقعة

▶ blotched (also blotchy) adj covered in blotches ملطّخ، مبقّع

'blotting paper noun [U] soft paper that you use for drying wet ink on writing paper, etc. ورق نشكاف

blouse /blauz; US blaus/ noun [C] a piece of clothing like a shirt, that women wear /bləun/) 1 [I] (used about wind, air, etc.) to move: Out at sea, a gentle breeze was blowing.

> 2 [I] to send air out of the mouth: Take a deep ينفخ ، ينفث breath and then blow.

> 3 [T] to make or shape sth by blowing air out of your mouth: to blow bubbles

> 4 [I,T] to produce sound from a musical instrument, whistle, etc. by means of air: The referee's whistle blew for the end of the match. O He blew a few notes on the trumpet. O All the drivers behind me were blowing their horns. يصفر، ينفخ

> 5 [T] (informal) to waste an opportunity of succeeding in sth: I think I've blown my chances of promotion.

> 6 [T] blow sth (on sth) (informal) to spend or waste a lot of money on sth: She blew all her savings on a trip to China. ينفق أو يبعثر نقوده

> 7 [I,T] (used about an electric fuse) to stop working suddenly because the electric current is too strong; to make sth do this: A fuse has blown. o I think the kettle's blown a fuse.

(المصهر) يحترق

8 [I,T] (informal) (used for expressing anger, annoyance or the fact that you do not care about sth): Oh, blow! It's raining. o 'What will the neighbours think?' 'Oh blow the neighbours (= I don't care about them)!'

زَهْرة

(للتعبير عن السخط أو الضيق أو اللامبالاة) IDM blow your nose to clear your nose by blowing strongly through it into a handkerchief,

PHRV blow (sb/sth) down, off, over, etc. to move or make sth move through the air in the direction mentioned, because of the wind, etc: My papers blew all over the garden. o The halloons blew away into the sky. o The wind suddenly blew my hat off. يطير؛ يطيِّر blow sth out to make sth stop burning by blowing air at it: to blow out the candles on a hirthday cake يطفئ blow over to pass away; to end: I expect those black clouds will soon blow over. O We often have arguments but they usually blow over fairly يزول ، ينتهي ، يمر (بسلام) anickly blow up 1 to explode or to be destroyed in an explosion: A bomb blew up near Oxford Street this morning. o The car blew up when the door

2 to start suddenly and strongly: A storm blew up in the night. o An argument blew up about يعصف ، يهبّ فجأة blow sth up 1 to make sth explode or to destroy sth in an explosion: The terrorists tried to blow up the plane. ينسف، يفجر

- 2 to fill sth with air or gas: to blow up a ينفُخ (بالهواء أو الغاز) balloon
- ▶ blow noun [C] an act of blowing: Give your nose a blow! نَفْخة ؛ نف الأنف
- I blow² /bləʊ/ noun [C] 1 a hard knock from your hand, a weapon, etc. that hits or is intended to hit sh/sth: He felt a blow on the back of his head and fell down unconscious. o She aimed a blow at
 - 2 a blow (to sb/sth) a sudden shock or disappointment: It was rather a blow when I heard that I hadn't got the job.

mm a blow-by-blow account, description. etc. (of sth) an account, etc. of an event that وصف تفصيلي gives all the exact details of it come to blows (over sth) to start fighting or arguing (about sth) يتشاجر ، يتضارب deal sb/sth a blow; deal a blow to sb/sth >

'blow-dry verb [T] (pt, pp blow-dried) to dry and shape sb's hair using a hairdryer that you hold and a brush يجفُف الشعر بآلة التجفيف الكهربائية ▶ 'blow-dry noun [sing.]: an appointment at the hairdresser's for a cut and blow-dry

blown pp of BLOW1

- I blue 1/blu:/adj 1 having the colour of a clear sky on a sunny day: His eyes were bright blue. o light/ dark blue أزدق
 - 2 (informal) (often used in popular songs) sad حزين
 - 3 (used about jokes, films, etc.) connected with Sex

IDM black and blue → BLACK1

- ? blue2 /blu: / noun 1 [C,U] the colour of a clear sky on a sunny day: I'd like some curtains with some blue in them. o dressed in blue (= blue clothes)
 - 2 the blues [plural, with sing. or pl. verb] a type of slow sad music similar to jazz: a blues موسيقي جاز حزينة
 - 3 the blues [plural] (informal) the state of feeling sad or depressed: to have the blues حالة اكتئاب

NOM once in a blue moon → ONCE out of the blue suddenly; without being expected: I didn't hear from him for years and then this letter came out of the blue.

bluebell /'blu:bel/ noun [C] a plant with blue or white flowers shaped like bells ياقوتية الكرم blueberry /'blu:bəri; US -beri/ noun a small dark blue berry that grows on low bushes in North America عنب الأحراج، عنب الدب blue-'collar adj doing or involving physical work with the hands rather than office work (عامل) يدوي (أي ليس في مكتب)

blueprint /'blu:print/ noun [C] a plan or description of how to make, build or achieve sth bluff /blaf/ verb [I,T] to try to convince people of sth that is not really true, usually by appearing very confident: Don't take any notice of him, he's just bluffing. o They tried to bluff their parents into believing there was no school that day. بخدّع، يبلف

EHRV bluff your way in, out, through, etc. sth to trick sb in order to get into, out of a place, etc: We managed to bluff our way into the stadium by saying we were journalists. يخادع ▶ bluff noun [C,U]: John keeps threatening to leave home but I'm sure it's only bluff! خداع ، تهدید دون تنفیذ bluish (also blueish) /'blu:15/ adj (informal) slightly blue: bluish green blunder /'blandə(r)/ noun [C] a silly mistake: I'm خطأ فاحش afraid I've made a terrible blunder. ▶ blunder verb [I] to make a blunder

ير تكب خطأ فاحشاً PHRV blunder about, around, etc. to move in an uncertain or careless way, as if blind: We blundered about in the dark, trying to find the blunt /blant/ adj 1 (used about a person, remark, etc.) saving exactly what you think in a not very polite way: I'm sorry to be so blunt, but I'm afraid you're just not good enough.

صريح بشكل جارح

2 (used about a knife, pencil, tool, etc.) not sharp: blunt scissors ▶ blunt verb [T] to make sth less sharp or less

يُثَلُّم (الحدّ) strong bluntly adv

bluntness noun [U]

blur /bla:(r)/ noun [C, usually sing.] something that you cannot see or remember clearly:

Through the window of the train the countryside was just a blur: المعالم المعالم

▶ blur verb [I,T] (blurring; blurred) to become unclear; to make sth less clear: The words on the page blurred as tears filled her eyes. ○ His thoughts were blurred and confused.

يصبح غير واضع ؛ يطمس

blurt /bla:t/ verb

PHRV blurt sth out to say sth suddenly or without thinking: We didn't want to tell Mum but Ann blurted the whole thing out.

تفلت منه الكلمات دون تفكير blush /blas//verb [I] to become red in the face, especially because of shame or embarrassment: She blushed with embarrassment.

يحمر وجهه (خجلاً أو ارتباكاً)

▶ blush noun [C, usually sing.]: She admitted, with a blush, that she had been lying.

تورَّد أُو إحمرار الوجه boa /'bəʊə/ (also 'boa constrictor) noun [C] a large snake that kills animals by squeezing them boar /bɔ:(r)/ noun [C] (pl. boar or boars) 1 a male pig

غنزير برّي a wild pig

l board¹/boːd/noun 1 [C] a long, thin, flat piece of wood used for making floors, walls, etc: The old house needed new floorboards.

2 [C]:a thin flat piece of wood, etc. used for a particular purpose: an ironing board \circ a diving board \circ a blackboard \circ a surfboard

لوح (لأغراض معيّنة) ؛ منضدة

3 [C] a flat and usually square piece of wood, cardboard, etc. that you play certain games on: a chessboard o board games (= games you play on a board)

4 [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of people who control an organization, company, etc. The board of directors is/are meeting to discuss the firm's future. • the Irish Tourist Board

مجلس ، هيئة

5 [U] the meals that are provided when you stay in a hotel, etc: The prices are for a double room and full board (= all the meals).

above board → ABOVE

across the board → ACROSS on board on a ship or aeroplane: All the passengers were safely on board.

على ظهر (السفينة أو الطائرة)

Property (Post) / Post (Post) (Post)

ير كب (الطابرة مثلاً).

PHRV board sth up to cover with boards (1):

Nobody lives there now – it's all boarded up.

- يفطي بالواح خشبية boarder noun [C] 1 a person who pays to live at sb's house
- 2 a pupil who lives at a school during term-تلميذ داخلي

'boarding card noun [C] a card that you must show in order to board a plane or ship بطاقة الركوب (في طائرة أو سفينة)

'boarding house noun [C] a private house where you can pay to stay and have meals for a period of time

'boarding school noun [C] a school that pupils live at during term-time boardroom /ˈboːdruːm; -rom/ noun [C] the room where a company's board of directors meets boast /bəust/ verb 1 [I,T] to talk with too much pride about sth that you have or can do: I wish she wouldn't boast about her family so much.

O He's always boasting that he's the fastest runner in the school.

2 [T] (used about a place) to have sth that it can be proud of: The town boasts over a dozen restaurants.

► boast noun [C] 1 something you say that is too proud: I didn't believe his boasts about how well he played.

2 a thing that you are proud of: It is our proud boast that our city is the most exciting in Europe.

boastful /-fl/ adj (used about a person or the things that he/she says) showing too much pride

P boat /boot/ noun [C] a small vehicle that is used for travelling across water: The cave can only be reached by boat/in a boat. o a rowing boat o a fishing boat o a motor boat

Usually boat means a small vessel but it can also be used for a large ship, especially one that carries passengers: When does the next boat to France sail?

bob /bob/ verb (bobbing; bobbed) [I.T] to move quickly up and down; to make sth do this: The boats in the harbour were bobbing up and down in the water.

PHRV bob up to appear suddenly: He disappeared and then bobbed up again on the other side of the pool.

bobby /ˈbɒbi/ noun [C] (pl. bobbies) (Brit informal) a policeman

bode /baud/ verb (formal)

DM bode well/ill (for sb/sth) to be a good/bad sign for sb/sth bodily /'bɒdɪli/ adj of the human body; physical:

First we must attend to their bodily needs (= make sure that they have a home, enough to eat, etc.).

▶ bodily adv by taking hold of the body: She picked up the child and carried him bodily from the room.

Let whole physical form of a person or animal: the human body

2 [C] the body apart from the legs, arms and head: She had injuries to her head and body.

جذع bodybuilding → bolster

79

3 [C] a dead human body: The police have found a body in the canal.

4 [sing.] the main part of sth: The main body of the guests will arrive at about 7 o'clock.

الجزء الأساسي (من شيء)

5 [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of people who work or act together, especially in an official way: The governing body of the college meets/meet once a month.

6 [C] an object: The doctor removed a foreign body (= something that should not be there) from the child's ear.

in a body all together: The students went in a body to complain to their teacher.

bodybuilding /ˈbɒdibɪldɪn/ noun [U] making the muscles of the body stronger and larger by exercise (رياضة) كمال الأجسام bodyguard /'bodiga:d/ noun [C] a person or group of people whose job is to protect sb

حارس شخسی، حَرَس

ثقب الحسم بأدوات الزينة

When bodyguard means a group of people, it can be used with either a singular or plural verb: His bodyguard is/are armed.

'body language noun [U] showing how you feel by the way you move, stand, sit, etc., rather than by what you say

'body odour noun [U] (abbr BO) the unpleasant smell of a person's body when it is sweating رائحة المرق

'body piercing (also piercing) noun [U] the making of holes in parts of the body as a decoration: tattooing and body piercing bog /bog/ noun [C,U] an area of ground that is very soft and wet: the peat bogs of central Ireland

▶ ,bogged 'down adj 1 if a vehicle is bogged down, it has sunk into mud, etc. and cannot move
غاتص أو مفرز في الوحل (مثلاً)

2 if a person is bogged down in sth, he/she cannot make any progress: We got bogged down in a long discussion and didn't have time to make any decisions.

boggy /ˈbɒgi/ adj (boggier; boggiest) (used about land) soft and wet, so that your feet sink into it boggle /'bogl/verb[I] to be very surprised at sth, or to find it difficult to imagine: Bob Brown as headteacher? The mind boggles!

يحتار ؛ يعجز عن التصور

bogus /ˈbəʊgəs/ adj pretending to be sth that it is not; not genuine: He made a bogus claim to the insurance company.

† boil / boil/ verb 1 [I] (used about a liquid) to reach a high temperature where bubbles rise to the surface and the liquid changes to a gas: Water boils at 100°C. o The kettle's boiling (= the water inside the kettle).

2 [T] to heat a liquid until it boils and let it keep boiling: Boil all drinking water for five minutes.

3 [I,T] to cook in boiling water: Put the potatoes on to boil, please. O He doesn't even know how to boil an egg.

4 [I] (used about a person) to feel very angry: She was boiling with rage.

PHRV boil down to sth to have sth as the most important point: What it all boils down to is that you don't want to spend too much money.

يخلص الأمر إلى boil over 1 (used about a liquid) to boil and flow over the sides of a pan: You let the soup boil over:

2 (used about an argument or sb's feelings) to become more serious or angry محدُّ يفور غضبه boil noun [sing.] an act or period of boiling bring sth to the boil to heat sth until it boils: Bring the soup to the boil, then allow to simmer for five minutes من الدرجة الغلبان، يقور come to the boil to begin to boil boiling (also boiling 'hot) adj (informal) very hot: Open a window - it's boiling hot in here.

o Can I have a drink? I'm boiling. "حارُ حداً: "محموم boil² /boil/ noun [C] a painful swelling under your skin, like a large spot: The boil on my neck has burst.

boiler /ˈboɪlə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a metal container used for providing hot water in a house

2 a large metal container used for producing steam in an engine

'boiler suit noun [C] a piece of clothing that covers your body, arms and legs, worn especially for dirty work رداء من قطعة واحدة الوقاية من الاتساخ

'boiling point noun [C] the temperature at which a liquid starts to boil boisterous /ˈboɪstərəs/ adj (used about a person or his/her behaviour) noisy and full of energy: Their children are very nice but they can get a bit too boisterous.

▶ boisterously adv

her behaviour) brave and confident; not afraid:
Not many people are bold enough to say exactly what they think. • We need somebody with bold new ideas.

2 that you can see clearly: The new fashion is for bold, bright colours.

3 (used about printed letters) in thick, dark type: The title was written in bold type.

(حرف طباعة) ثخينٌ وأسود بجراءة ، بشجاعة

► boldly adv boldness noun [U]

bollard /'bola:d/ noun [C] a short thick concrete post in the middle or at the side of a road. Bollards divide the two sides of the road, or they are used to stop cars passing or parking. عمود قصير غليظ (لتقسيم شارع أو منع المرور) bolster /'baulsta(r)/ verb [T] bolster sb/sth bolt → bonus

(up) to support or encourage sb/sth; to make sth stronger: His remarks did nothing to bolster my confidence. پيننډ، يعزز bolt¹ /bəolt/ noun [C] 1 a small piece of metal (shaped like a screw without a point) that is used with another piece of metal (a nut) for fastening things together. The nut screws onto the bolt.

مسمار ملوّلب

- 2 a bar of metal that you can slide across the inside of the door in order to fasten it בּנַנֵּיץ . בּנֵנֵיץ bolt verb [T] 1 to fasten one thing to another using a bolt: All the tables have been bolted to the floor so that nobody can steal them.
 - يثبنت بمسامير ملولبة
- 2 to fasten a door, etc. with a bolt: Make sure that the door is locked and bolted,

يحكم الإغلاق بمزلاج، يتربس

- bolt² /boolt/ verb 1 [I] (used especially about a horse) to run away very suddenly, usually in fear: The noise of the explosion made the horses bolt
 - 2 [T] bolt sth (down) to eat sth very quickly: She bolted down a sandwich and dashed out of the house.

bolt³/bault/ adv

bolt upright (sitting or standing) very straight

- Rbomb /bom/ noun 1 [C] a container that is filled with material that will explode when it is thrown or dropped, or when a device inside it sets it off: There are reports that a bomb has gone off at the station. The terrorists planted the bomb in a waste bin. Several tons of bombs were dropped on the city.
 - 2 the bomb [sing.] nuclear weapons: How many countries have the bomb now?
 - 3 a bomb [sing.] (informal) a lot of money: That coat must have cost you a bomb!
 - ▶ bomb verb [T] to attack a city, etc. with bombs: Enemy forces have bombed the bridge.

ىقنف بالقنايا .

EHRV bomb along, down, up, etc. (Brit informal) to move along very fast in the direction mentioned, especially in a vehicle: He was bombing along at 90 miles an hour when the police stopped him.

bombard /bom'ba:d/ verb [T] to attack a place with bombs or guns: They bombarded the city until the enemy surrendered. (figurative) The reporters bombarded the minister with questions.

يقذف بالقنابل: يمطر بالأسئلة bombardment /bpm'ba:dment/ noun [C,U] an attack with bombs or guns: The main radio station has come under enemy bombardment.

قذف بالقنابل

- 'bomb disposal noun [U] the removing or exploding of bombs in order to make an area safe: a bomb-disposal expert
- bomber /ˈbɒmə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a type of plane that drops bombs
- 2 a person who throws bombs or leaves them to explode in a public place مفجّر قنابل في مكان عام

bombshell /ˈbɒmʃel/ noun [C, usually sing.] an unexpected piece of news, usually about sth unpleasant bona fide / المحافة (ألمان) bona fide / boona fide / daj real or genuine: This car park is for the use of bona fide customers only.

bon appetit /ˌbɒn æpəˈtiː/ interj (used to wish sb an enjoyable meal) bond /bond/ noun 1 [C] (often plural) something that links two or more people or groups of people together, such as a feeling of friendship. Our two countries are united by bonds of friendship.

2 [C] a certificate that you can buy from a government or company that promises to pay you interest on the money you have lent: National Savings Bonds side the body of a person or animal that are covered with flesh and skin: He's broken a bone in his hand. • This fish has got a lot of bones in it.

2 [U] the substance that bones are made of منظم have a bone to pick with sb to have sth that you want to complain to sb about يودَ أَنَ يُسْتَكِي أُو بِعاتب شخصاً make no bones about (doing) sth to do sth without hesitating or feeling worried about it: She made no bones about telling him exactly what she thought about him.

▶ bone verb [T] to take the bones out of sth: to bone a fish, chicken, etc.

bone 'dry adj completely dry: Give that plant some water. It's bone dry.

'bone marrow (also marrow) noun [U] the soft substance that is inside the bones of a person or animal bonfire /'bɒnfaɪə(r)/ noun [C] a large fire that you build outside to burn rubbish, etc.

ناركسة في العراء

'Bonfire Night noun [C] the night of 5 November. On this day people in Britain light bonfires and fireworks to celebrate the failure of Guy Fawkes to blow up the Houses of Parliament in the seventeenth century.

ليلة إشعال النيران (في بريطانيا) bonkers /'bɒŋkəz/ adj (Brit slang) mad; crazy مجنون : مخبول bonnet /'bonnt/ noun [C] 1 (US hood) the front part of a car that covers the engine

غطاء محرك السيارة

2 a type of hat which covers the sides of the face and is fastened with strings under the chin

قُبُعة (تربط بشريط)

bonus /ˈbəʊnəs/ noun (pl. bonuses) 1 a payment that is added to what is usual: All our employees will receive a Christmas bonus. علوة أكراسة

2 something good that you get in addition to what you expect: As a special bonus, all our holidays will include use of a car for a week. مكافأة . إنسافة bony /ˈbəʊni/ adj (bonier; boniest) so thin that you can see the shape of the bones: long bony fingers نحيل، ناتين العظام

boo /bu:/ interj, noun [C] (pl. boos) 1 a sound you make to show that you do not like sb/sth: The minister's speech was met with boos from the audience. (صوت للتعبير عن الاستخفاف أو الاستهجان)

2 a sound you make to frighten or surprise sb: Ile jumped out from behind the door and said 'hoo'. (موت التخويف أو المباغة)

▶ boo verb [I,T]: The crowd booed when they were told that the show had been cancelled.

boob¹ /bu:b/ noun [C] (informal) a silly mistake:

to make a boob

▶ boob verb [I]: I'm afraid I've boobed again.
پرتکب خطأ سخیفا

boob² /buːb/ noun [C, usually pl.] (slang) a woman's breast

booby prize /ˈbuːbi praɪz/ (also wooden spoon) noun [C] a prize that is given as a joke to the person who is last in a competition حائزة تافهة تعطى للخاسر دعابة

booby trap / bu:bi træp/ noun [C] something dangerous, like a bomb, which is hidden inside sth that seems harmless ▶ booby-trap verb [T]: The car had been boobytrapped.

Thook¹ /bok/ noun 1 [C] a number of sheets of paper, fastened together inside a cover, with words printed on them for people to read: I'm reading a book on astrology. She's writing a book about her life abroad. Do you have any books by William Golding? Open your books, please. o to publish a book o a library book o a cookery book

2 [C] a number of pieces of paper, fastened together inside a cover, for people to write on: Please write down all the new vocabulary in your exercise books.

3 [C] a small number of things fastened together in the form of a book: a book of stamps

4 books [plural] the records that a company, etc., keeps of the amount of money it spends or receives: We employ an accountant to keep the books.

be in sb's good/bad books (informal) to have someone pleased/angry with you: He's been in his girlfriend's bad books since he forgot her birthday.

by the book exactly according to the rules: A policeman must always do things by the book.

$ book² /bok/ verb 1 [I,T] to arrange to have or do sth at a particular time: You must book weeks in advance if you want to travel on Christmas Eve.

∴ Have you booked a table, sir? ○ to book a seat on a plane/train/bus ○ I've booked a hotel room for you/I've booked you a hotel room. ○ I'm sorry, but this evening's performance is fully booked (= there are no seats left).

2 [T] to write the name of a person who has done sth wrong in a book: The police booked her for dangerous driving (= charged her with dangerous driving). • The player was booked twice during the match and then sent off.

PHRV book in to say that you have arrived at a hotel, etc. (and sign your name on a list)

يقوم بالحجز (في فندق مثلاً) room for sb at a hotel, book sb in to arrange a room for sb at a hotel, etc. in advance: I've booked you in at the George Hotel. ليحبر الشخص (في فندق مثلاً)

► booking noun [C.U] the arrangement you make in advance to have a hotel room, a seat on a plane, etc: Did you manage to make a booking? ○ Booking for the new musical does not start until October.

bookcase /ˈbukkeɪs/ noun [C] a piece of furniture with shelves to keep books on خزانة كتب

bookie /'buki/ noun [C] (informal) = BOOKMAKER

'booking office noun [C] an office where you buy tickets (C] an office where you bookkeeping /ˈbokkiːpɪŋ/ noun [U] keeping the accounts of the money that a company, etc., spends or receives booklet /ˈboklət/ noun [C] a small thin book, usually with a soft cover, that gives information about sth bookmaker /ˈbukmeikə(r)/ (also informal bookie) noun [C] a person whose job is to take bets on horse races, etc.

bookmark /ˈbukmaːk/ noun [C] a narrow piece of card, etc. that you put between the pages of a book so that you can find the same place again easily bookseller /ˈbɒkselə(r)/ noun [C] a person whose job is selling books bookshop /ˈbʊkʃɒp/ (US ˈbookstore /ˈbʊk-stɔ:(r)/) noun [C] a shop that sells books ⊅ Look at library.

bookstall /'boksto:l/ (US 'news-stand) noun [C] a type of small shop, which is open at the front, selling newspapers, magazines and books, e.g. on a station bookworm /ˈbukwɜːm/ noun [C] a person who likes reading books very much boom¹/bu:m/ noun [C] a period in which sth increases or develops very quickly: There was a boom in car sales in the 1980s. o a boom year for exports ► boom verb [1] to grow very quickly in size or value: Business was booming in the Japanese car industry.

boom² /bu:m/ verb [I,T] boom (sth) (out) to make a loud, deep, hollow sound: guns booming in the distance o The loudspeaker boomed out instructions to the crowd.

boomerang /bu:məræn/ noun [C] a curved piece of wood that returns to you when you throw it in the right way, used for hunting by the first people who lived in Australia

البومرانغ: قطعة خشبية يرميها الصائد و تعود إليه boon /buːn/ noun [C] a thing that is very helpful and that you are grateful for boost /bu:st/verb [T] to increase sth in number, value or strength: If we lower the price, that should boost sales. ○ The good exam result boosted her confidence.

▶ boost noun [C] an increase; sth that encourages people: The fall in the value of the pound has led to a boost in exports. ○ The president's visit gave a boost to the soldiers' morale.

: : تشجيع ، تعزيز

? boot /bu:t/ noun [C] 1 a type of shoe that covers your foot and ankle and sometimes part of your leg: a pair of ladies' boots ○ ski boots ○ walking/ climbing boots ○ football boots

حذاء عالى الرقبة ، جزمة

2 (US trunk) the part of a car where you put luggage, usually at the back صندوق السيارة

▶ boot verb [T] to kick sth/sb hard: He booted the ball over the fence.

ERV boot sb/sth out to force sb/sth to leave a place: The boys were booted out of the cub for fighting.

booth /buːð; US buːθ/ noun [C] a small enclosed place with thin walls that divide it from the rest of the room or area: He called from a public phone booth at the station. o a ticket booth booty /ˈbuːti/ noun [U] things that are taken by thieves or captured by soldiers in war

two countries, etc.; the land close to this line: The refugees escaped across/over the border. • We crossed the border into Switzerland. • the Swiss border • the border between France and Italy • Italy's border with France

We use border and frontier to talk about the line that divides two countries or states. We usually use border to talk about natural divisions. The river forms the border between the two countries. Boundary is usually used for the line that divides smaller areas: the county boundary.

- 2 a band or strip around the edge of sth, often for decoration: a white tablecloth with a blue border
- ▶ border verb [T] to be a border to; to be on the border of: The road was bordered with trees.
 o Which English counties border Scotland?
 پحد : پتاني: پتاني: إيضاء : پختاني: إيضاء إيضاء

PHRV border on sth 1 to be next to sth: Our garden borders on the railway line. يعادي بيجادد 2 to be almost the same as eth: The dictator's

2 to be almost the same as sth: The dictator's ideas bordered on madness.

borderline /'bo:dəlam/ noun [sing.] the line that marks a division between two different cases, conditions, etc: The novel is on the borderline between fiction and non-fiction. \circ He's a borderline case - he may pass the exam or he may fail. حافة ، خط فاصل

- Lipbore 1/bo:(r)/ perb |T| to make sb tired and uninterested: I hope I'm not boring you. Those old jokes hore me.
 - ▶ bore noun 1 [C] a person who talks or behaves in an uninteresting way: Her husband is such a bore.
 - 2 [sing.] (informal) something that you have to do that you find uninteresting: It's such a bore having to learn these lists of irregular verbs, bored adj feeling uninterested and tired because sth is not exciting or because you do not have anything to do: I'm bored. There's nothing to do at home. • The children get bored in the long holidays. • He gave a bored yawn. • The play was awful. We were bored stiff (= extremely bored).

boredom /-dəm/ noun [U] the state of being bored: People say that many young people turn to crime out of boredom.

boring /ˈbɔːrɪn/ adj uninteresting; dull: a boring film o boring work bore² /bɔː(r)/ verb [i,T] to make a round hole or passage through sth: The drill can bore through solid rock. o They are boring a tunnel through the mountain.

bore3 /bo:(r)/ pt of BEAR2

- R born /bɔ:n/ verb be born to come into the world by birth; to start existing: Where were you born? ○ My parents were born in Wales, but they grew up in England. ○ Peter Jones, born 1932, died 1992. ○ He was born in Frankfurt, of Italian parents. ○ I'm going to give up work after the baby is born. ○ Their baby was born deaf. ○ The idea of free education for all was born in the nineteenth century. ○ His unhappiness was born out of a feeling
 - ▶ born adj having a natural ability to do the task mentioned: She's a born leader.

مطبوع أو مفطور (على)، -born (in compounds) born in the place or state mentioned: Samuel Beckett, the Irish-born writer, lived in Paris most of his life.

born-a'gain adj having found new, strong faith in a religion: a born-again Christian

متجدّد الإيمان (بدين ما)

borne /bo:n/ pp of BEAR² borough /'bʌrə; US -rəʊ/ noun [C] a town, or an area within a large town, that has some form of local government

مدينة أو ج زء من مدينة يتمتع بحكم ذاتي، منطقة

F borrow /'boreo/ verb [I.T] borrow (sth) (from/ off sb/sth) 1 to take or receive sth from sb/sth that you intend to give back, usually after a short time: I had to borrow from the bank to pay for my car. ○ They borrow £10 000 to buy a new car. ○ Could I borrow your pen for a minute? ○ Can I borrow £10? I'll pay you back next week. ○ He's always borrowing off his mother. ○ I borrowed a book from the library. ♠ Be careful not to confuse borrow with its opposite lend.

(التعبير عن الضيق)

DICTIONARY

83

2 to take sth and use it as your own; to copy: That idea is borrowed from another book.

▶ borrower noun [C] a person who borrows ستدین، مقترض ؛ مستعیر bosom /ˈbozəm/ noun (formal) [C, usually sing.] a person's chest, especially a woman's breasts: She clutched the child to her bosom.

in the bosom of sth close to; with the protection of: He was glad to be back in the bosom of his family.

, bosom 'friend noun [C] a very close friend

Thoss / bos/ noun [C] (informal) a person whose lob is to give orders to others at work; an employer; a manager: I'm going to ask the boss for a day off work. O Who's in charge when the boss is away?

OK. You're the boss (= you make the decisions).

boss verb [T] boss sb (about/around) to give orders to sb, especially in an annoying way: I wish you'd stop bossing me around. يتأثير على bossy adj (bossier; bossiest) liking to give orders to other people, often in an annoying way: Ilis mother was a strong, bossy woman.

نب للترؤس، متسلط bossily advbossiness noun [U] botany /ˈbɒtəni/ noun [U] the scientific study of plants botanical /bəˈtænɪkl/ adj: botanical gardens (a type of park where plants are grown for scientific study)

botanist /ˈbɒtənɪst/ noun [C] a person who studies plants

botch /bots// verb [T] botch sth (up) to do or repair sth badly because you are not very skilful: I've made rather a botched job of this typing, I'm afraid.

- ץ both¹/bovθ/ det, pron the two; the one as well as the other: Both women were French. Both the women were French. Both of the women were French. Both of the women were French. I liked to the women. Both of them were French/They were both French. I liked them both. We were both very tired. Both of us were tired. They have both seen the film. I've got two sisters. They both live in London/Both of them live in London. Both of my sisters live in London. ◆ Note that we CANNOT say: the both women or: my both sisters.
- له bother /'bɒðə(r)/ verb 1 [T] to disturb or annoy sb: I'm sorry to bother you, but could I speak to you for a moment? Don't bother Sue with that now she's busy.
 - 2 [T] to worry sb: You don't look very happy. Is something bothering you?
 - 3 [I,T] bother (to do sth); bother about sth

(usually negative) to make the effort to do sth: 'Shall I make you something to eat?' 'No, don't bother – I'm not hungry.' o He didn't even bother to say thank you. o Don't bother about the washing-up. I'll do it later. o Don't bother waiting for me – I'll catch you up later.

> bother noun [U] trouble or difficulty: Thanks for all your help. It's saved me a lot of bother.

bother interj (used when you are annoyed): Oh bother! I've left my keys in the car!

bothered adj worried: I'm a bit bothered about my sister – she doesn't look very well.

DM can't be bothered (to do sth) If sb can't be bothered to do sth, he/she does not want to make the effort and is not going to do it: I can't be bothered to do my homework now. I'll do it tomorrow.

Y يرغب في القيام بعمل ما

I'm not bothered I don't mind: 'What would you like to do this evening?' Tm not bothered really.'

צ' פֿעָם عندي

- ? bottle /'botl/ noun [C] 1 a glass or plastic container with a narrow neck for keeping liquids in: a milk bottle o an empty bottle
 - 2 the amount of liquid in a bottle: a bottle of milk (ما تحوبه الزجاجة من سائل)

 ▶ bottle verb [T] to put sth into bottles: After
 - ▶ bottle verb [T] to put sth into bottles: After three or four months the wine is bottled.

يمين في زجاجات bottled adj that you can buy in bottles: bottled water معبًا في زجاجات

'bottle bank noun [C] a large container in a public place where people can leave their empty bottles so that the glass can be used again (recycled) bottleneck /ˈbɒtlnek/ noun [C] 1 a narrow piece of road that causes traffic to slow down or stop (زنقه ، مختَنَق (في طريق)

2 something that slows down progress, especially in business of industry

- ? bottom /'botem/ noun 1 [C, usually sing.] the lowest part of sth: The house is at the bottom of a hill. O Look at the picture at the bottom of page 23.

 I think I've got a pen in the bottom of my bag.
 - 2 [C] the flat surface on the outside of an object, on which it stands: There's a label on the bottom of the box.
 - 3 [sing.] the far end of sth: The bus stop is at the bottom of the road.
 - 4 [sing.] the least important position in relation to other people: She started at the bottom and now she's the Managing Director. c_{ν}^{\perp} حضيض
 - 5 [sing.] the ground under the sea, a river, a swimming pool, etc: The water was so clear that we could see the bottom.
 - 6 [C] the part of your body that you sit on: He fell over and landed on his bottom.
 - 7 bottoms [plural] the lower part of a piece of clothing that is in two parts: pyjama bottoms منطلون (البيجاما شلاً) بنطلون (البيجاما شلاً)
 - DM be at the bottom of sth to be the real cause of sth: I'm sure Kate Mills is at the bottom (يكون) المسبِّب الحقيقي لشيء of all this.

get to the bottom of sth to find out the real مكتشف حقيقة الأمر cause of sth ▶ bottom adj in the lowest position: the bottom shelf o I live on the bottom floor of a block of flats.

bottomless adj very deep; without limit

عميق ، لا حدّ له

.bottom 'line noun [sing.] 1 the most important thing to consider when you are discussing or deciding sth, etc: A musical instrument should look and feel good, but the bottom line is how it خلاصة الأمر sounds.

2 the final profit or loss that a company has made in a particular period of time

صافي الارباح والخساره للشركة في فترةً ما 3 the lowest price that sb will accept for sth bough /bav/ noun [C] one of the main branches of a tree bought /bo:t/ pt, pp of BUY boulder /bouldo(r)/ noun [C] a very large خرة ضخمة ، جلّمود boulevard /'bu:ləva:d; US 'bol-/ noun [C] a wide street in a city with trees on each side شارع عريض على جانبيه أشجار

bounce /baons/ verb 1 [I,T] (used about a ball, etc.) to move away quickly after it has hit a hard surface; to make a ball do this: In tennis, the ball can only bounce once before you hit it back. o The stone bounced off the wall and hit her on the head. o A small boy came down the street, bouncing a يرتدّ ؛ ينطط

2 [I] to jump up and down continuously: The children were bouncing on their beds.

3 [I] (used about a cheque) to be returned by a bank without payment because there is not يرتدُ (الشيك) enough money in the account

PHRV bounce back to recover from a failure, disappointment, etc. and return quickly to your normal life with the same energy as before يرتد إلى حاله (بعد نكسة) ▶ bounce noun [C]: I couldn't reach the ball ارتداد (الكرة) ، وثبة before the second bounce.

bouncy (bouncier; bounciest) adj

(كرة) نطّاطة؛ كثير الحيوية

Legion Legislation to do sth: You've done so much work that you're bound to pass the exam. o There are bound to be problems in a situation like this.

2 (not before a noun) having a legal or moral duty to do sth: The company is bound by UK employment law. o She felt bound to refuse the

DM bound up with sth very closely connected متّصل بالشيء (اتّصالاً وَثيثَقاً) with sth bound²/baund/adj bound (for...) travelling to a particular place: a ship bound for Australia bound3 /baond/ verb [I] to run quickly with jumping movements: She bounded up the stairs in a state of great excitement. يقفى، بثب ▶ bound noun [C]: With a couple of bounds he قفزة ، وثبة had crossed the room.

bound⁴ pt, pp of BIND boundary /'baondri/ noun [C] (pl. boundaries) 1 a line that marks the limits of a place and divides it from other places: The main road is the boundary between the two districts.

2 the farthest limit of sth: Scientists continue to push back the boundaries of human knowledge. Look at the note at border.

boundless /'baundles/ adj having no limit: boundless energy لاحدله bounds /baundz/ noun [plural] limits that cannot or should not be passed: Price rises must be kept within reasonable bounds.

حدود (لا يمكن تجاوزها) IDM out of bounds forbidden; not to be entered by sb: This area is out of bounds to all staff.

محظور ، يمنع دخوله bouquet /bu'ker/ noun [C] a bunch of flowers that is arranged in an attractive way: The actress received a huge bouquet of roses.

bourgeois /'boəzwa:; boər'zwa:/ adj typical of fairly rich middle-class people: bourgeois attitudes, ideas, values, etc.

برجوازي ، متعلّق بالطبقة الوسطى ▶ bourgeoisie /,boəʒwa:'zi:/ noun [sing., with sing. or pl. verb] the middle class

البرجوازية ، الطبقة الوسطى

bout /baut/ noun [C] 1 a short period of great activity: a bout of hard work فترة نشاط قصيرة

2 a period of illness: I'm just recovering from a bout of flu.

boutique /bu:'ti:k/ noun [C] a small shop that sells fashionable clothes or expensive presents دكان صغير لبيع الملابس الأنيقة

bovine /'bəovam/ adj (formal) connected with بقري

bow /bav/ verb 1 [I,T] to bend your head or the upper part of your body forward and down, as a sign of respect: At the end of the play all the actors came onto the stage and bowed. O He bowed his head respectfully.

2 bow to sth [I] to accept sth: I do not think the unions should bow to pressure from the Govern-يخضع ، بذعن

PHRV bow out (of sth) to retire from an important position or stop taking part in sth: After 12 years on the committee, she decided to ىنسحى، ىتقاعد

▶ bow noun [C] an act of bowing(1): The audience were still clapping so the actors came back for another bow.

bow2 /bəo/ noun [C] 1 a knot with two loops and two loose ends that you use when you are tying shoes, ribbons, etc: He tied the ribbon into a bow. She had a black bow in her hair.

2 a weapon for shooting arrows. A bow is a curved piece of wood that is held in shape by a tight string. $$\mbox{\it e}_{\mbox{\it e}_{\mbox{\it v}}}$$

3 a long thin piece of wood with horsehair stretched along it that you use for playing a violin, etc.

bowel /ˈbaʊəl/ noun [C, usually pl.] one of the tubes that takes waste food from the stomach so that it can pass out of the body

- T bowl hool/ noun [C] 1 a deep round dish without a lid that is used for holding food or liquid: a sugar bowl a mixing bowl مالينة، زبدية
 - 2 the amount of sth that is in a bowl: I usually have a bowl of cereal for breakfast.
 - 3 a large plastic container that is used for washing up, washing clothes, etc. . طلبت بالاستيكي
- $ bowl² /bəʊl/ verb [I,T] (in cricket) to throw the ball in the direction of the batsman

(في الكريكيت) يرمي الكرة EHRV bowl sb over 1 to knock sb down when you are moving quickly

2 to astonish sb in a pleasant way: I was absolutely bowled over by the beautiful scenery. یَدُهُل،یسحر bowler /ˈbəʊlə(r)/ (also ˌbowler ˈhat) (US derby) noun [C] a round hard black hat, usually worn by men bowling /ˈbəʊlɪŋ/ noun [U] a game in which you roll a ball towards a group of wooden objects and try to knock down as many of them as you can:

tenpin bowling

bowls /bəolz/ noun [U] a game in which you try to roll large wooden balls as near as possible to a smaller ball

لُعْبة البولز (دحرجة الكرات للاقتراب من كرة صغيرة)

- how 'tie noun [C] a tie in the shape of a bow (1), that is worn by men, especially on formal occasions "بابيون": ربطة عنّق على شكل الفراشة
- Phox hoks/ noun 1 [C] a square or rectangular container for solid objects. A box often has a lid: We opened the lid and looked inside the box.

 o I keep the letters in an old shoebox.
 - 2 [C] a box and the things inside it: a box of chocolates, matches, tissues, etc.

علبة أو صُنْدوق (شوكولاتة مثلاً)

- 3 [C] an empty square or rectangle on a form in which you have to write sth: Write your full name in the box below.
- 4 [C] an enclosed area that is used for a particular purpose: a telephone box \circ a witness box (= in a court of law) کشك (تلیفون) : قَفَص (الشاهد)
- 5 [C] an enclosed area in a theatre in which a small group of people can sit and watch the play
- 6 the box [sing.] (Brit informal) television: What's on the box tonight?
- ▶ box verb [T] to put sth into a box: a boxed set of CDs

- box²/boks/verb [T] to fight in the sport of boxing: He used to box when he was in the Army.
- ► boxer noun [C] a person who boxes as a sport, often professionally boxing noun [U] a sport in which two people fight by hitting each other with their hands inside large gloves: the world middleweight boxing champion o boxing gloves

"boxer shorts noun [plural] men's underpants that are similar to shorts سروال تحتاني قصير للرجال

Boxing Day /ˈbɒksɪŋ deɪ/ noun [U] the day after Christmas Day; 26 December ⊕ In England and Wales Boxing Day is a public holiday. اليوم التالى لعيد الميلاد

box number noun [C] a number that is given in a newspaper advertisement as part of the address to which replies should be sent

'box office noun [C] the place in a cinema, theatre, etc. where the tickets are sold

- p boy¹ /bɔɪ/ noun 1 [C] a male child: They've got three children two boys and a girl. صبي، ولد
 - 2 the boys [plural] (informal) a group of male friends مجموعة أصدقاء من الرجال howbood (hird) noun [W the time of heing a
 - boyhood /-hod/ noun [U] the time of being a boy: My father told me some of his boyhood memories.

boyish adj like a boy: a boyish smile

- boy² /boɪ/ interj (informal) (especially US) (used for expressing a strong feeling): Boy, it's hot today! (التعبير عن شعور حاد)
- boycott /ˈboɪkot/ verb [T] to refuse to buy things from a particular company, take part in an event, etc. because you strongly disapprove of it: Several countries boycotted the Olympic Games in protest.
 - ▶ boycott noun [C]: a boycott of the local elections
- Lipe Proof: (boyfriend / boyfriend / noun [C] a man or boy with whom a person has a romantic and/or sexual relationship صديق . صاحب

Boy 'Scout = SCOUT (2)

- bra /brɑ:/ noun [C] a piece of clothing that women wear under their other clothes to support their breasts
- brace¹ /breis/ noun 1 [C] a metal frame that is attached to a child's teeth in order to make them straight
- 2 braces (US suspenders) [plural] a pair of straps for holding your trousers up. You put the braces over your shoulders and attach them to the top of your trousers at the front and back.
- brace² /breis/ verb [T] 1 brace (yourself) to make your body stiff or press it against sth in order to prepare yourself, e.g. if sth is going to hit you, or to stop yourself from falling: He braced himself as the big man came towards him.

يستجمع قواه ، يتوتّر

2 brace yourself (for sth) to prepare yourself for sth difficult or unpleasant: You'd better brace yourself for some bad news. يتجلُّد ، يستجمع قواه bracing adj (used about a type of air, etc.) making you feel healthy and lively: bracing sea منعش bracelet /'breislat/ noun [C] a piece of jewellery (e.g. a metal chain or band) that you wear around vour wrist or arm bracken /'bræken/ noun [U] a plant with long leaves like feathers that grows thickly on hills and in woods. In autumn it turns brown.

- bracket /'brækit/ noun [C] 1 [usually pl.] (espe- ${\it cially}\ {\it US}\ {\it parenthesis};\ {\it parentheses})\ {\it one}\ {\it of}$ two marks, () or [], that you put round extra information in a piece of writing
- 2 a piece of metal or wood that is attached to a wall and used as a support for a shelf, lamp, كتيفة أو ذراع (تحت رفٌ مثلاً)
- 3 a group of people whose ages, incomes, etc. are between two limits: to be in a high income bracket o The magazine is aimed at people in the 30-40 age bracket.
- ▶ bracket verb [T] 1 to put brackets (1) round a يضع بين قوسين word, number, etc.
- 2 bracket A and B (together); bracket A with B to think of two or more people or things as similar in some way يقرِن، يجمِل مع
- brag /bræg/ verb [I,T] (bragging; bragged) to talk too proudly about sth: She's always bragging يتبجّح ، يتفاخر about how clever she is.
- braid /breid/ noun 1 [U] a narrow piece of material that is used to decorate clothes, curtains, etc: شريط، ضفيرة a uniform with gold braid on it
- 2 [C] (US) = PLAIT: You look nice with your hair in braids.
- Braille /breil/ noun [U] a way of printing for blind people, using raised dots that they read by touching them with their fingers

طريقة برايل (القراءة للمكفوفين)

- ? brain /brem/ noun 1 [C] the part of the body inside the head that controls your thoughts, feelings and movements: He suffered serious brain damage in a road accident. o a brain surgeon

 - 2 [C,U] the ability to think clearly; intelligence: She has a very quick brain and learns fast. \circ He hasn't got the brains to be a doctor. فهم : ذكاء، نجابة
 - 3 [C] (informal) a very clever person: He's one of شخص ذكي the best brains in the country.
 - 4 the brains [sing.] the person who plans or organizes sth: She's the real brains in the organ-العقل المدبر have sth on the brain (informal) to think about sth all the time: I've had that song on the ينشغل فكره (بالشيء) brain all day.

rack your brains → RACK2

▶ brainless adj very silly brainy adj (brainier; brainiest) (informal) clever brainchild /'breintfaild/ noun [sing.] the idea or invention of a particular person: The music festival was the brainchild of a young teacher.

(من) بنات الأفكار: اختراع

'brain-dead adj 1 having serious brain damage and needing a machine to stay alive ميت الدماغ

2 unable to think clearly; stupid: He's braindead from watching too much TV.

brainstorm /'bremstom/ verb [I,T] to solve problems or make decisions by asking all the members of a group to think of as many ideas as يستشير عدداً من الأدمغة possible brainwash /'bremwp[/ verb [T] to force sb to believe sth by using strong mental pressure: Television advertisements try to brainwash people into believing they need these things. بغسل دماغه

▶ brainwashing noun [U]

brainwave /'breinweiv/ (US brainstorm) noun [C] (informal) a sudden clever idea فكرة عبقرية، إلهام مفاجئ braise /breiz/verb [T] to cook meat or vegetables slowly in a little liquid in a covered dish

- brake /breik/ noun [C] 1 the part of a vehicle that makes it go slower or stop: She put her foot on the brake and just managed to stop in time. o I'm taking my car to the garage today – there's something wrong with the brakes. مكّنيه "فرملة" something wrong with the brakes.
- 2 something that makes sth else slow down or stop: The Government must try to put a brake on مكبح inflation.
- ▶ brake verb [I] to make a vehicle go slower or stop by using the brakes: If the driver hadn't braked in time, the car would have hit me. يكبح (السرعة)

bramble /'bræmbl/ noun [C] (especially Brit) a wild bush with sharp thorns and red or black berries: a blackberry bush

bran /bræn/ noun [U] the brown outer parts of wheat grains that have been separated from the flour

Thranch /braints; US brænts/ noun [C] 1 one of the main parts of a tree that grows from its trunk and often has leaves, flowers or fruit on it: The little boy climbed the tree and sat on a branch.

- 2 an office, shop, etc. that is part of a larger organization: The company I work for has branches in Paris, Milan and New York. o the High Street branch of Barclays Bank
- 3 a part of an academic subject: Psychology is a branch of medicine.
- ▶ branch verb

PHRV branch off (used about a road) to leave a larger road and go off in another direction: A bit further on, the road branches off to the left.

branch out (into sth) to start doing sth new and different from the things you usually do: The company sells radios and stereo equipment and has recently branched out into computers.

يتوسع

brand → break 87

- t brand /brænd/ noun [C] 1 the name of a product that is made by a particular company: a wellknown brand علامة تحارية ، ماركة
 - 2 a particular type of sth: a strange brand of humour نوع ، ضَرَب
 - ▶ brand verb [T] 1 to mark an animal with a يسم (حيواناً بالنار) hot iron to show who owns it
 - 2 brand sb (as sth) to say that sb has a bad character so that people have a bad opinion of him/her: She was branded as a troublemaker after she complained about her long working hours.

brandish /'brændis/ verb [T] to wave sth in the air in an aggressive or excited way: The attacker stood in front of me, brandishing a knife. يلوح (مهدداً أو مهتاجاً)

,brand 'new adj completely new جديد تمامأ

brandy /'brændi/ noun [C,U] a strong alcoholic ر اندی أو كونياك drink that is made from wine brash /bræs/ adj too confident and direct: Her brash manner makes her unpopular with strangers. معديم الخجل، مفرط في الثقة بنفسه عارِم strangers.

▶ brashness noun [U]

- brass /bra:s; US bræs/ noun 1 [U] a yellow metal that is a mixture of copper and zinc: brass but-نحاس أصفر tons on a uniform
- 2 [sing., with sing. or pl. verb] the group of musical instruments that are made of brass, e.g. the trumpet, the trombone: the brass section in an orchestra o a brass band آلات موسيقية نحاسية
- brat /bræt/ noun [C] (informal) a child who behaves badly and annoys you
- bravado /brə'vq:dəʊ/ noun [U] behaviour that makes you appear to be brave and confident when you are not, in order to impress people تظاهر بالشحاعة
- t brave /breiv/ adj ready to do things that are dangerous or difficult without showing fear: the brave soldiers who fought in the war o 'This may hurt a little, so try and be brave,' said the den-شجاع
 - brave verb [T] to face sth dangerous or difficult without showing fear: She braved the يواجه بشجاعة rain and went out into the street. bravely adv: The men bravely defended the town for three days. o She smiled bravely and continued walking. شحاعة bravery /'breivəri/ noun [U]: After the war he received a medal for bravery.

bravo /,brq:'vəu/ interj a word that you shout to show that you like sth that sb has done, e.g. an مرحى!، برافو! actor's performance in a play brawl /bro:1/ noun [C] a noisy fight among a group of people, usually in a public place

يتشاجر بص ▶ brawl verb [I] brazil nut /brəˈzɪl nʌt/ noun [C] a nut that we eat with a very hard shell breach /brixts/ noun 1 [C,U] an act that breaks un agreement, a law, etc: Giving private information about clients is a breach of confidence. o The company was found to be in breach of contract.

- 2 [C] a break in friendly relations between people, groups, etc: a breach between two coun-قطم (لعلاقة)
- 3 [C] an opening in a wall, etc. that defends or protects sb/sth: The waves made a breach in the sea wall.
- ▶ breach verb [T] 1 to an agreement, a law, etc: He accused the Government of breaching international law.
- 2 to make an opening in a wall, etc. that defends or protects sb/sth
- ?bread /bred/ noun [U] a type of food. To make bread you mix together flour and water (and yeast if you want the bread to rise) and bake the mixture in an oven: a piece/slice of bread o We had bread and cheese for lunch. O Would you like some bread and butter?

A loaf of bread is bread that has been shaped and cooked in one piece. Wholemeal bread is made from flour that contains all the grain.

breadcrumbs /'bredkramz/ noun [plural] very small bits of bread that are used in cooking breadth /bred0/ noun 1 [C.U] the distance between the two sides of sth: We measured the length and breadth of the garden. عرض

2 [U] the wide range of sth: I was amazed by the breadth of her knowledge.

The adjective is broad.

IDM the length and breadth of sth → LENGTH breadwinner /'bredwinə(r)/ noun [C, usually sing.] the person who earns the money that his/ her family needs المعيل، كاسب الرزق

- ያ break¹ /breik/ verb (pt broke /breuk/; pp broken /'brəʊkən/) 1 [I,T] to separate, or make sth separate, into two or more pieces: She dropped the vase onto the floor and it broke. O I've broken one of your dinner plates. O He broke his leg in a car يكسر؛ ينكسر accident.
 - 2 [I.T] (used about a machine, etc.) to stop working; to stop a machine, etc. working: The photocopier has broken. O Be careful with my camera - I don't want you to break it.

3 [T] to do sth that is against the law, or to not keep a promise, etc: A policeman told me that I was breaking the law. o Slow down! You're breaking the speed limit. o to break a contract o Don't worry - I never break my promises.

يخرق؛ يحنَّث (بوعده)

- 4 [T] break a record to do sth better or faster than anyone has ever done before: She broke the world record for the 100 metres. يحطم الرقم القياسي
- 5 [I,T] to stop doing sth for a short time: Let's break for coffee now. O We decided to break the journey by stopping for lunch in Chester.

يأخذ راحة قصيرة ، يتوقف ؛ يقطع

6 [T] to interrupt sth so that it ends suddenly:

break → breakdown

Suddenly, the silence was broken by the sound of a bird singing.

7 [T] to make sth end by force or strong action: It's very difficult to break the habit of smoking. Two days of talks failed to break the deadlock between the two countries.

8 [I] (used about a day or the dawn) to begin: Dawn was breaking as I walked home after the party.

9 [1] (used about a storm) to begin suddenly. We ran indoors when the storm broke.

10 [I] (used about a wave) to curl over and fall: I watched the waves breaking on the rocks.

11 [I,T] (used about a piece of news) to become, or to make sth, known: When the story broke in the newspapers, nobody could believe it. O He broke the news to her last night.

12 [I] (used about a boy's voice) to become permanently deeper, usually at about the age of 13 or 14 يتغير صوته (عند البلوغ)

For idioms containing break, look at the entries for nouns, adjectives, etc. For example, break even is at even.

PHRY break away (from sb/sth) 1 to escape suddenly from sb who is holding you

ىنفلت ، ئۇلت

2 to leave a political party, state, etc. in order to form a new one: Several politicians broke away from the Labour Party and formed the SDP.

يئشق بينفصل break down 1 (used about a vehicle or machine) to stop working: Jill's car broke down on the way to work this morning.

2 (used about a system, discussion, etc.) to fail: Talks between the two countries have completely broken down.

3 to lose control of your feelings and start crying: He broke down in tears when he heard the news.

break sth down to make a substance separate into parts or change into a different form in a chemical process: Food is broken down in our bodies by the digestive system.

پخس ہی break in 1 to enter a building by force, usually in order to steal sth

2 to interrupt when sb else is speaking: 'But that's not true!' she broke in angrily.

break into sth 1 to enter a building by force, usually in order to steal sth

2 to start doing sth suddenly: He broke into a smile when he heard the good news. o She broke into a run and disappeared into the distance. يبدأ بأخذ في (الفناء) فجاة break off to suddenly stop doing or saying sth: He started speaking and then broke off in the middle of a sentence.

break (sth) off to remove a part of sth by force; to come off in this way: Could you break off another bit of chocolate for me? Oh no, part of my tooth has broken off!

break sth off to end a relationship suddenly: They broke off their engagement after a argument, ϕ to break off diplomatic relations with another country (خطوبة) and (خطوبة) and break out (used about lighting, wars, fires, etc.) to start suddenly break out (of sth) to escape from a prison, etc. (پهرب (من السجن مثلاً) break up 1 (used about events that involve a group of people) to come to an end: The meeting broke up just before lunch.

2 (Brit) to start school holidays at the end of a term: When do you break up for the summer holidays?

3 when a person who is talking on a mobile phone breaks up, you can no longer hear them clearly because the signal has been interrupted: You're breaking up.

break up (with sb) to end a relationship with a wife, husband, girlfriend or boyfriend: My marriage broke up when I was 25. o She's broken up with her boyfriend.

break (sth) up to separate into parts: The ship broke up on the rocks.

break sth up to end an event by separating the people who are involved in it: The police arrived and broke up the fight.

break with sth to end a relationship or connection with sb/sth: to break with tradition, the past, etc.

ڳ break² /breɪk/ noun [C] 1 a place where sth has been broken: a break in a pipe

2 an opening or space in sth: Wait for a break in the traffic before you cross the road. o a break in the clouds

3 a short period of rest: We worked all day without a break. ○ to take a break ○ a tea/coffee break ② Look at the note at interval.

4 break (in sth); break (with sb/sth) a change from what usually happens or an end to sth: a break with tradition o She wanted to make a complete break with the past. o The incident led to a break in diplomatic relations.

5 (informal) a piece of good luck: to give sb a break (= to help sb by giving him/her a chance to be successful)

DM break of day the time when light first appears in the morning; dawn breakage /ˈbreikidʒ/ noun [C, usually pl.] something that has been broken: Customers must pay for any breakages (e.g. in a shop selling glass).

breakaway /ˈbreɪkəwei/ adj (only before a noun) used about a political group, an organization, or a part of a country) that has separated from a larger group or country breakdown /'breikdaon/ noun [C] 1 a time when a vehicle, machine, etc. stops working: We had a breakdown on the motorway.

2 the failure or end of sth: The breakdown of the talks means that a strike is likely.

3 = nervous breakdown

4 a list of all the details of sth: I would like a full breakdown of how the money was spent.

مة تفصيل

T breakfast /'brekfast/ noun [C,U] the meal which you have when you get up in the morning: to have breakfast o to eat a big breakfast

In a hotel, etc. an English breakfast means cereal, fried eggs, bacon, sausages, tomatoes, toast, etc. A Continental breakfast means bread and jam with coffee.

IDM bed and breakfast → BED

'break-in noun [C] entering a building by force, especially in order to steal sth: The police say there have been several break-ins in this area.

نتحام، سطو

breakneck / 'breiknek/ adj (only before a noun) very fast and dangerous: at breakneck speed (سرعة) خطرة، متهورة breakthrough /'breikθru:/ noun [C] an important discovery or development: Scientists have made a major breakthrough in cancer research.

The agreement represents a breakthrough in relations between the two countries.

اكتشاف حاسم ، فتح (علمي) ؛ تطور هام breakup /ˈbreɪkʌp/ noun [C] 1 the end of a relationship between two people: the breakup of a marriage

- 2 the separation of a group or organization into smaller parts: the breakup of the Soviet Union
- Tbreast /brest/ noun [C] 1 one of the two soft round parts of a woman's body that can produce milk
 - 2 a word used especially in literature for the upper part of the front of your body: to clasp sb to your breast
 - عدر الطائر 3 the front part of the body of a bird breastfeed /'brestfi:d/ verb [I.T] (pt, pp 'breastfed /'brestfed/) to feed a baby with milk from the breast ترضع من الثدي (وليس من الزجاجة)

breaststroke /ˈbreststrəok/ noun [U] a style of swimming on your front in which you start with your hands together, push both arms forward and then pull them outwards and back through the water

§ breath /bre0/ noun 1 [U] the air that you take into and blow out of your lungs: to have bad breath (= breath which smells unpleasant)

2 [C] an act of taking air into as playing air out a breath of fresh air the clean air which you breathe outside, especially when compared to the air inside a room or building: Let's go for a walk. I need a breath of fresh air. o (figurative) Her happy face is like a breath of fresh air in that miserable place.

2 [C] an act of taking air into or blowing air out of your lungs: Take a deep breath.

get your breath (again/back) to rest after physical exercise so that your breathing returns to normal hold your breath to stop breathing for a period of time, e.g. when swimming underwater or because of fear or excitement: We all held our breath as we waited for her reply. يكم نقسه (be) out of/short of breath to be breathing very quickly, e.g. after physical exercise say sth, speak, etc. under your breath to say sth very quietly, usually because you do not want people to hear what you are saying take your breath away to surprise sb very much: The spectacular view took our breath away. The adjective is breathtaking.

(يكون) منقطع النّفَس، يلهث

breathalyse /ˈbreθəlaɪz/ verb [T] (used about a police officer) to test the breath of a driver with a special machine (a breathalyser) to measure how much alcohol he/she has drunk

? breathe /bri:ö/ verb [I.T] to take air, etc. into your lungs and blow it out again: She was unconscious but still breathing. o to breathe in/out (= to take air in/to blow air out) o I hate sitting in restaurants breathing in other people's cigarette smoke.

الكل not breathe a word (of/about sth) (to sb) to not tell sb about sth that is secret: If you breathe a word of this to my mother, I'll never speak to you again!

breathing noun [III: heavy irregular etc.]

▶ breathing noun [U]: heavy, irregular, etc. breathing breather /'bri:ðə(r)/ noun [C] (informal) a short rest: to have/take a breather راحة قصيرة breathless /'breθlos/ adj 1 breathing quickly or with difficulty, e.g. after physical exercise

لاهث

2 not able to breathe because you are so excited, frightened, etc: to be breathless with excitement ightharpoonup breathlessly adv

breathtaking /ˈbreθteɪkɪŋ/ adj very exciting, beautiful, etc: breathtaking mountain scenery

"breath test noun [C] a test by the police on the breath of a driver to measure how much alcohol he/she has drunk (اختبار النَّفْس (لقياس كمية الكحول فيه)

- F breed /bri:d/ verb (pt, pp bred /bred/) 1 [I] (used about animals or plants) to produce young animals or plants: Many animals won't breed in zoos.
 - 2 [T] to keep animals or plants in order to produce young from them: cattle which are bred to produce high yields of milk
 - 3 [T] to cause sth: This kind of thinking breeds intolerance and violence.
 - ▶ breed noun [C] a type of animal: a breed of cattle سلالة، نوع

preeder noun [C] a person who breeds animals or plants: a dog breeder (لغير (حيوانات مثل) breeding noun [U] 1 the act of producing young plants or animals: The breeding of fighting dogs has been banned.

2 good manners and behaviour as a result of coming from an upper-class family: a man and woman of breeding breeding ground → bright

مكان توالد (الحيوأنات) wild animals go to breed

2 a place where sth can develop: a breeding مرِّثُع (الجريمة) ground for crime breeze /bri:z/ noun [C] a light wind: A warm breeze was blowing.

breeze verb

PHRV breeze along, in, out, etc. (informal) to move in a cheerful relaxed way, even when this is not suitable behaviour: He just breezed in twenty minutes late without a word of apology.

ماب كالنسيم (إلى أو خارج المكان) breezy adj (breezier, breeziest) 1 a little (يوم) فيه ريح خفيفة ُ

2 cheerful and relaxed: You're bright and breezy this morning!

brevity /'brevəti/ noun [U] the state of being short or quick • The adjective is brief.

يخمر (الحعة) brew /bru:/ verb 1 [T] to make beer 2 [T] to make a drink of tea or coffee by adding hot water: to brew a pot of tea (الشاي مثلاً) 3 [I] (used about tea) to stand in hot water before it is ready to drink: Leave it to brew for a few minutes.

be brewing (used about sth bad) to develop or grow: There's trouble brewing. يتجمع ويتدبر

▶ brewery /'bru:əri/ noun [C] (pl. breweries) a place where beer is made bribe /braib/ noun [C] money, etc. that is given to sb such as an official to persuade him/her to do sth to help you, especially when you want him/ her to do sth dishonest: to offer a bribe to sb o to رشوة accept/take bribes

▶ bribe verb [T] bribe sb (with sth): They got a visa by bribing an official bribery /'braibəri/ noun [U]

bric-a-brac /'brik ə bræk/ noun [U] ornaments, small items of furniture and other objects of little value: market stalls selling an array of cheap bric-خردة، طرف منوعة

? brick /brik/ noun [C,U] a hard block of baked clay that is used for building houses, etc: a lorry carry ing bricks ○ a house built of red brick طوب ، آجرٌ

bricklayer /'brikleiə(r)/ noun [C] a person whose job is to build walls with bricks

بناء يبنى بالطوب

brickwork / brikws:k/ noun [U] the part of a building that is made of bricks شيد بالطوب bridal /'braidl/ adj (only before a noun) connected with a bride or a wedding: the bridal suite in a عرائسي ، متعلق بالعروس أو الزّفاف hotel bride /braɪd/ noun [C] a woman on or just before her wedding day: the bride and groom 3 Look at the note at wedding.

bridegroom /'braidgru:m/ (also groom) noun [C] a man on or just before his wedding day Look at the note at wedding.

bridesmaid /'braidzmeid/ noun [C] a woman or girl who helps the hride at her wedding • Look إشبينة العروس at the note at wedding.

'breeding ground noun [C] 1 a place where 's bridge' /brid3/ noun [C] 1 a structure that carries a road or railway, across a river, valley, road or railway: a bridge over the River Thames o a motorway bridge جسر، قنطرة

> 2 the high part of a ship where the captain and the people who control the ship stand

> lacktriangle bridge verb [T] to build a bridge over sth

IDM bridge a/the gap to fill a space between two people, groups or things or to bring them يقرب الشفّة closer together bridge2 /brid3/ noun [U] a card game for four أعبة البريدج people bridle /'braidl/ noun [C] the leather straps that you put over a horse's head so that you can control it when you are riding it ايجاز ? brief¹ /bri:f/ adj short or quick: a brief descrip tion o a brief phone call o Please be brief. We don't have much time. 1 The noun is brevity.

> in brief using only a few words: News in بإيجاز؛ بالاختصار Brief (= in a newspaper)

> ▶ briefly adv 1 for a short time; quickly: She glanced briefly at her mother. O We met briefly in لمدة وجيزة ؛ سريعاً London vesterday

> 2 using only a few words: I'd like to comment very briefly on that last statement.

brief²/bri:f/noun[C] instructions or information about a job or task: When he was appointed he was given the brief of improving the image of the organization.

▶ brief verb [T] to give sb information or instructions about sth: The minister has been fully briefed on what questions to expect. يحيطه علماً ؛ يزوده بالتعليمات briefing noun [C,U] instructions or information that you are given before sth happens: a press/ news briefing (= where information is given to journalists) بيان موجز briefcase /'bri:fkeis/ noun [C] a flat case that you use for carrying papers, etc., especially when vou go to work حقيبة أوراق و غيرها

briefs /bri:fs/ noun [plural] pants for men or سروال تحتاني قصير women brigade /bri'geid/ noun [C] 1 a unit of soldiers او اء in the army

2 a group of people who work together for a particular purpose: the fire brigade

 brigadier / brigə'diə(r)/ noun [C] an officer of high rank in the army bright /brait/ adj 1 having a lot of light: a $bright, sunny\, day \circ \, eyes \, bright \, with \, happiness$

مشرق ، نير

2 (used about a colour) strong: a bright yellow iumper

3 clever, or able to learn things quickly: a bright child o a bright idea

4 likely to be pleasant or successful: The future باسم ، مشرق looks bright.

5 cheerful, happy: You seem very bright and cheerful today.

▶ brighten /ˈbraitn/ verb [I.T] brighten (sth)
(up) to become brighter or happier; to make sth brighter: His face brightened when he saw her.

o to brighten up sb's day (= make it happier)

يشرق: يَبُهج brightly adv: brightly-coloured clothes بالوان زاهية : بابتهاج : پإشراق brightness noun [U]

91

t brilliant /'brɪliənt/ adj 1 having a lot of light; very bright: brilliant sunshine very clever or intelligent: a brilliant young scientist على جداً، ألمعي

3 very good: a brilliant performance by Pavarotti

▶ brilliance /'brilians/ noun [U] brilliantly adv

تألّق ، ضياء ؛ المعيّة بتألّق؛ ببراعة

تألّق، زهاء

brim /brim/ noun [C] 1 the top edge of a cup, glass, etc: The cup was full to the brim.

حافّة ، شفة (الفنجان)

2 the bottom part of a hat, that is wider than the rest (القَبْعَة)

▶ brim verb [I] (brimming; brimmed) brim (with sth) to be full of sth: His eyes were hrimming with tears.

The bowl was brimming over with water. (fluurative) to be brimming over with health/happiness

"bring /brinj/verb [T] (pt, pp brought /broxt/) 1 to come to a place with sb/sth: We will be out all day no bring some sandwiches with you. o Is it all right if I bring a friend to the party? o Bring me two coffees, please. o The prisoner was brought into the court by two policewomen. o (figurative) He will bring valuable skills and experience to the leam.

2 to cause or result in sth: The sight of her brought a smile to his face. • Money doesn't always bring happiness.

3 to cause sb/sth to be in a certain place or condition: Their screams brought people running from all directions. o Add water to the mixture and bring it to the boil. o What brings you here? Husiness or pleasure? o to bring sth to an end winv bring sth about to cause sth to happen; to bring about changes in people's lives عدد bring sb/sth back to return sb/sth: You can burrow the DVD if you bring it back tomorrow morning.

bring sth back 1 to cause sth that existed before to be introduced again: Nobody wants to bring back the days of child labour.

It cause sb to remember sth: The photographs, hrought back memories of his childhood. هيد bring sb sth back to return with sth for sb: My sister went to Spain on holiday and brought me back a T-shirt. محل له bring sb/sth down to cause sb/sth to be defeated or to lose a position of power: to bring down a government bring sth down to make sth lower in level: to bring down the price of sth bring sth forward 1 to move sth to an earlier time: The date of the wedding has been brought forward by two weeks.

علن (للقاش) bring sb in to ask or appoint sb to do a particular job: A specialist was brought in to set up the new computer system. bring sth in to introduce sth: The government have brought in a law on dangerous dogs.

bring sth off (informal) to manage to do sth difficult: The team brought off an amazing victory.

bring sth on to cause sth: Her headaches are brought on by stress.

bring sth out to produce or cause sth to appear: When is the company bringing out its next new model? A crisis can sometimes bring out the best in people.

bring sb round to cause sb to become conscious again bring sb round (to sth) to persuade sb to agree with your opinion: After a lot of discussion we finally brought them round to our point of view.

bring sth round to sth to direct a conversation to a particular subject: I finally brought the conversation round to the subject of money.

يحول أو يوجّه (النقاش) إلى hild until he/she is bring sb up to look after a child until he/she is adult and to teach him/her how to behave: After her parents were killed the child was brought up by her uncle. o a well-brought up child bring sth up 1 to be sick so that food that you have swallowed comes back out of your mouth.

2 to introduce sth into a discussion or conversation: I intend to bring the matter up at the next meeting.
يعرض، يطرح

brink /brink/ noun [sing.] the edge at the top of a high place: (figurative) The firm was close to disaster but the new director brought it back from the brink.

IDM be on the brink (of sth/of doing sth) to be about to do or experience sth exciting or dangerous $(\epsilon_{\omega})^{(k)}$ brisk /brisk/ adj 1 quick or using a lot of energy; busy: They set off at a brisk pace. • Trading has been brisk this morning.

2 confident and efficient; wanting to do things quickly: a brisk manner briskly adv

briskness noun [U] تشاط. سرعة bristle /ˈbrɪsl/ noun [C] 1 a short thick hair on a bristle /ˈbrɪsl/ noun [C] 1 a short thick hair on a person or animal

2 one of the short thick hairs of a brush شعرة من شعرات الفرشاة

يجعل؛ يجيء،

► bristle verb [I] 1 (used about hair or an animal's fur) to stand up straight because of fear, anger, cold, etc. (الله مثلاً) يقف شعره (خوفاً مثلاً)

2 bristle (with sth) to show that you are angry

PHRV bristle with sth to be full of sth

يمتلئ بالشيء

Brit /brrt/ noun [C] (informal) a British person (شخص) بریطاني

Britain /britn/ = Great Britain • Look at the note at United Kingdom.

British /ˈbrɪtɪʃ/ adj of the United Kingdom (= Great Britain and Northern Ireland): British industry o to hold a British passport

▶ the British noun [plural] the people of the United Kingdom the "British 'Isles noun [plural] Great Britain and Ireland with all the islands that are near their coasts. The British Isles are a geographical but not a political unit.

Briton / ˈbrɪtn/ noun [C] a person who comes from Great Britain (شخص) بریطانی

This is normally only used in newspapers, or when talking about the inhabitants of Britain in earlier times: Three Britons killed in air crash! o the Ancient Britons. Otherwise we say a British man, a British woman!

brittle /ˈbrɪtl/ adj hard but easily broken: brittle fingernails broach /brəotʃ/ verb [T] to start talking about a particular subject, especially one which is difficult or embarrassing: Have you broached the subject of the money he owes us?

'B-road noun [C] (in Britain) a road that is not as wide or important as a motorway or an A-road:

Turn right onto the B427.
(في بريطانيا) طريق ثانوي

F broad /brɔːd/ adj 1 large in size from one side to the other; wide: a broad river valley o the broad boulevards of the capital

Wide is more often used than broad when you are talking about the distance between one side of something and the other: The gate is four metres wide. • The table is too wide to go through the door. Broad is often used about geographical features: a broad expanse of desert and in particular phrases such as: broad shuilders. The noun from broad is breadth. The opposite is harrow.

- 2 easily noticeable; very clear: She spoke with a broad Somerset accent.
- 3 without a lot of detail; general: Just give me a broad outline of your plan.
- 4 including many different people or things: We sell a broad range of products.
- 5 felt or believed by a lot of people: There seems to be broad support for stronger anti-pollution laws.

[M] (in) broad daylight during the day, i.e. not at night: He was attacked in broad daylight.

broaden / bro:dn/ verb [I,T] broaden (out) to become broader; to make sth broader: The river broadens out beyond the bridge. • (figurative) Travel broadens the mind (= it makes you understand other people better).

broadly adv 1 (used to describe a way of smiling): to smile broadly (= to have a very big, wide smile)

2 generally: Broadly speaking, the scheme will work as follows...

broadband /'bro:dbænd/ noun [U] a way of connecting a computer to the Internet, which allows you to receive information, including pictures, etc., very quickly broad 'bean noun [C] a type of large flat green bean that can be cooked and eaten as a vegetable

Phroadcast / bro:dka:st; US bro:dkæst/ verb (pt, pp broadcast) 1 [I,T] to send out radio or television programmes: The BBC World Service broadcasts to most countries in the world. • The Olympics are broadcast live by satellite.

2 [I] to speak or appear on radio or on television: The President broadcasts to the nation at times of crisis.

▶ broadcast noun [C] something that is sent out by radio or television: a news broadcast broadcaster noun [C] a person who speaks on serious subjects on the radio or on television broad-'minded adj willing to listen to and accept beliefs and ways of life that are different from your own; tolerant ⊕ The opposite is narrow-minded.

broccoli /ˈbrɒkəli/ noun [U] a plant with green or purple flower-heads that can be cooked and eaten as a vegetable brochure /'brəʊʃə(r); US brəʊˈʃoər/ noun [C] a small book with pictures in it that gives you information about sth: a holiday brochure

كرّاسة (للدعاية مثلاً)

broil /broil/ verb [T] (especially US) = GRILL

broke1 pt of BREAK1

broke² /brəʊk/ adj (not before a noun) (informal) having no money: I can't come out tonight. I'm absolutely broke.

broken¹ pp of BREAK¹

Phroken²/brəvkən/adj 1 damaged or in pieces; not working: The washing machine's broken. • Watch out! There's broken glass on the floor. • a broken leg

2 not continuous; interrupted: a broken line • a

(used about a foreign language) spoken slowly with a lot of mistakes: to speak in broken English broken-'down adj 1 in a very bad condition: a broken-down old shed مهلهل

2 (used about a vehicle) not working: A brokendown bus was blocking the road.

broken-'hearted adj = HEARTBROKEN broken 'home noun [C] a family in which the parents do not live together, e.g. because they are separated or divorced: Many of the children came أسرة متصدعة أو مفككة from broken homes.

broken 'marriage noun [C] a marriage that has ended because the partners have got divorced زواج منحل (أي انتهي بالطلاق)

broker /'brəokə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person who buys and sells things (e.g. shares in a business) for other people: an insurance broker bronchitis /bron'kartis/ noun [U] an illness of part of the lungs (bronchial tubes) that causes a very bad cough التهاب رئوي bronze /bronz/ noun 1 [U] a brown-coloured metal that is made from copper and tin برونز

STOCKBROKER

- اللون البرونزي 2 |U| the colour of bronze
- 3 [C] (also bronze medal) a round piece of bronze that you get as a prize for coming third in n race or a competition 2 Look at gold and مدالية برونزية silver medal.
- ▶ bronze adj of the colour of bronze برونزى brooch /brauts/ noun [C] a piece of jewellery with a pin at the back that women wear on a البروش مشبك للزينة dress, blouse or jacket brood /bru:d/ noun [C] all the young birds that حَضنة: كلِّ فراخ الأم الواحدة belong to one mother ▶ brood verb [I] 1 (used about a female bird) to alt on her eggs يحضن (الطائر بيضه) 2 brood (on/over sth) to worry, or to think a lot about sth that makes you sad: to brood on a يطيل التفكير في همومه fallure broody adj 1 (used about a female bird) ready to have or sit on eggs: a broody hen

(دجاجة) حضون

2 (used about a woman) wanting to have a (امرأة) تشتهي الإنجاب brook /brok/ noun [C] a small stream broom /bru:m/ noun [C] a brush with a long handle that you use for sweeping the floor broomstick /'bru:mstik/ noun [C] the handle of n broom. In stories witches are sometimes said to عصا المكنس Ily on broomsticks.

Bros abbrev (used in the name of companies) Brothers: Wentworth Bros Ltd ... إخوان broth /brp0; US bro:0/ noun [U] thin soup: chicken ساء رقيق

brothel /'brotl/ noun [C] a place where men can go and pay to have sex with a woman (a prosti-ماخور ، بیت دعارة

L brother /'brʌðə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a man or boy who has the same parents as another person: Michael and Jim are brothers. O Michael is Jim's brother. o a younger/older brother o a twin brother

Look at half-brother and stepbrother. Notice that there is not a common English word that means 'both brothers and sisters': Have you got any brothers and sisters? The word sibling is very formal.

2 a man who is a member of a Christian religious community: Brother John ▶ brotherhood /-hud/ noun 1 [U] a feeling of great friendship and loyalty between people: the brotherhood of Man (= a feeling of friendship between all the people in the world)

2 [C, with sing. or pl. verb] an organization which is formed for a particular, often religious, pur-حمعية (دينية) pose brotherly adv of or like a brother: brotherly أخوي brother-in-law noun [C] (pl. brothers-in-law) 1 the brother of your husband or wife

أخو الزوج أو الزوجة

زوج الأخت

2 the husband of your sister brought pt, pp of BRING hecome brown

brow /brau/ noun [C] 1 [usually pl.] = EYEBROW

- 2 = FOREHEAD: Sweat was pouring from his brow.
- 3 the top part of a hill or slope: Suddenly a car came over the brow of the hill.

أعلى المنحدر ؛ قمَّة الهضبة

hrown /braun/ adj 1 having the colour of soil or wood: brown eyes o brown shoes o dark brown

2 having skin of this colour: They were very brown when they got back from their holiday.

▶ brown noun [C,U] the colour brown: the yellows and browns of the trees in autumn o You don't look nice in brown (= in brown clothes).

اللون البنّي أو الأسمر brown verb [I,T] to become or cause sth to brownish adj slightly or fairly brown: She has ضارب إلى اللون البني brownish eves.

brownie / braoni/ noun [C] 1 'Brownie a young girl who is a member of the junior branch of the فتاة صغيرة في فرقة كشفية Girl Guides organization

2 a type of heavy chocolate cake that often نوع من حلويات الشوكولاته contains nuts

brown 'paper noun [U] strong, thick paper used for wrapping parcels, etc. ورق لفُ أسمر browse /bravz/ verb [I] 1 to spend time pleasantly, looking round a shop, without a clear idea of what you are looking for: I spent hours browsing in the local bookshop.

يتفرج على المعروضات في دكان

2 browse through sth to look through a book or magazine without reading every part or studying it carefully: I enjoyed browsing through the catalogue but I didn't order anything.

يتصفّح (كتاباً أو مجلة)

3 (computing) to look for and read information on a computer: I've just been browsing the Internet for information on Iceland.

► browse noun [sing.]: I had a browse through the newspapers on the plane.

browser noun [C] a computer program that lets you look at words and pictures from other computer systems by receiving information through telephone wires: an Internet browser bruise /bru:z/ noun [C] a dark mark on the skin caused by a blow that injures but does not break the skin: He didn't break any bones but he suffered cuts and bruises to his face. ① A bruise on your eye is a black eye.

تصفع

bruise verb 1 [T] to cause a bruise or bruises: I fell over and bruised my arm. She had a bally bruised face. Handle the fruit carefully or you'll bruise it.

2 [I] to get a bruise or bruises: I've got the sort of skin that bruises easily.

brunette /brut'net/ noun [C] a white woman with dark brown hair 3 Look at blond.

امرأة بيضاء ذات شعر بنّي داكن brunt /brant/ noun

DM bear the brunt of sth → BEAR²

P brush¹/braʃ/ noun 1 [C] an object that is used for cleaning things, painting, tidying your hair, etc: I took a brush and swept the snow from the path. o a clothes brush o a toothbrush o a paint-brush o a hairbrush

2 [sing.] an act of sweeping, cleaning, tidying the hair, etc. with a brush: Your coat needs a brush.

3 [C] a brush with sb a short argument or fight with sb

? brush² /bra∫/ verb 1 [T] to clean, tidy, sweep, etc. with a brush: Make sure you brush your teeth twice a day. ○ She was brushing her hair in front of a mirror. ② Look at the note at clean².

ينظَف بالفرشاة 2 [I.T] to touch sb/sth lightly when passing. Her hand brushed his cheek. • Leaves brushed against the car as we drove along the narrow يعسنُ مسناً رفيقاً

PHRV brush sb/sth aside 1 to refuse to pay attention to sb/sth: She brushed aside the protests and continued with the meeting.

2 to get past sb/sth: He hurried through the crowd, brushing aside the reporters who tried to stop him.

brush sth away/off to remove sth with a brush or with the hand, as if using a brush: I brushed the dust off my jacket.

brush sth up/brush up on sth to study or practise sth in order to get back knowledge or skill that you had before and have lost: She took a course to brush up her Spanish.

'brush-off noun [sing.] (informal) an act of refusing to be friendly to sb: He asked her to go out with him but she gave him the brush-off.

brusque /bru:sk; US brʌsk/ adj not taking time to be polite when you are dealing with people: He gave a brusque 'No comment!' and walked off.

▶ brusquely adv

مقتضب و جاف بفظاظة : بجفاء

Brussels sprout /braslz 'spraut/ (also sprout) noun [C, usually pl.] a green vegetable that looks like a very small cabbage brutal /ˈbruːtl/ adj very cruel and violent; without pity: a brutal murder o brutal treatment of prisoners o a brutal dictatorship وحشي: قاس brutality /bru:ˈtæləti/ noun [C.U] (pl. brutalities) very cruel and violent behaviour; acts that show no pity: There have been many complaints of police brutality: وحُشِيةً قَدْوةً brutally adv: The girl had been brutally attacked. • He was brutally honest and told her that he didn't love her any more.

کُرُنب بروکسل

brute /brut/ noun [C] 1 a large animal

حيوان هائل

2 a cruel, violent man: Don't you dare hit him again, you brute!

► brute adj (only before a noun) without the use of thought; using a violent method: I think you'll have to use brute force to get this window open.

اعمى ؛ عنيف

BSc /ˌbiː es ˈsiː/ abbrev Bachelor of Science; the degree that you receive when you complete a university or college course in a science subject بكالوريوس علوم

BSE /,bi: es 'i:/ noun (also informal mad 'cow disease) bovine spongiform encephalopathy, a disease of cows which affects their brains and usually kills them. 3 Look also at CJD.

مرض جنون البة

BST /ˌbiː es ˈtiː/ abbrev British Summer Time; the system used in Britain between March and October, when clocks are put one hour ahead of Greenwich Mean Time

R bubble /'bʌbl/ noun [C] a hollow ball containing air or gas, in liquid or floating in the air: The children were blowing bubbles with washing-up liquid. o the bubbles in a glass of champagne فقاعة ▶ bubble verb [I] 1 to produce bubbles or to rise with bubbles: Cook the pizza until the cheese starts to bubble. ○ The clear water bubbled up out of the ground.

2 bubble (over) (with sth) to be full of happy feelings بجيش (بشعور سعيد) bubbly /ˈbʌbli/ adj (bubblier; bubbliest) 1 full of bubbles: a bubbly drink

2 (used about a person) lively and happy: She has a naturally bubbly personality.

مرح ، ملئ بالحيوية

bubblegum /ˈbʌblbʌm/ noun [U] chewing gum that can be blown into bubbles out of the mouth ملكة أو أبان ينفخ إلى فقاعات

buck¹ /bʌk/ noun [C] (US informal) a US dollar: دولار أمريكي Could you lend me a few bucks?

buck² /bʌk/ noun [C] (pl. buck or bucks) a male deer or rabbit ⊅ Look at the note at deer.

ذكر الظبي أو الأرنب

buck³/bʌk/noun

pass the buck → PASS²

buck⁴ /bʌk/ verb [I] (used about a horse) to jump into the air with all four feet off the ground: His horse suddenly bucked and he fell off. עַּבִּי (الفِرس) buck up (informal) to hurry up: Come on, buck up! We have to leave in a minute. בשיי buck (sb) up (informal) to become or to make sb more cheerful or less unhappy: Buck up! It's not the end of the world.

bucket /ˈbʌkɪt/ noun [C] 1 a round, open container, usually made of metal or plastic, with a handle, that is used for carrying or holding liquids or sand

2 (also 'bucketful /-fol/) the amount that a bucket contains: How many buckets of cement do you think we'll need?

buckle /'bʌkl/ noun [C] a piece of metal or plastic nt the end of a belt or strap that is used for fastening it

- ▶ buckle verb [I,T] 1 to fasten or be fastened with a buckle
- 2 to bend because of heat, force, weakness, etc: Some railway lines buckled in the heat.

يلتوي ، يتقوس

bud /bad/ noun [C] a small lump on a tree or plant that opens and develops into a flower or leaf: rose-buds o At this time of year all the trees are in bud (have buds on them).

budding adj wanting or starting to develop and be successful: Have you got any tips for budding young photographers?

Buddhism /'bodizəm/ noun [U] an Asian religion that was founded in India by Buddha

(الديانة) البوذية • Buddhist /'budist/ noun [C] a person whose religion is Buddhism (شخص) بوذي religion is Buddhism بوذي Buddhist adj: a Buddhist temple

buddy /'bʌdi/ noun [C] (pl. buddies) (informal) a friend, especially a male friend of a man

، صاحب ، ، صاحب

وذي

budge /bAd3/ verb [I.T] 1 to move or cause sth to move a little: I tried as hard as I could to loosen the screw but it simply wouldn't budge. ○ We just couldn't budge the car when it got stuck in the mud.

2 to change or cause sb to change a firm opinion: Neither side in the dispute is prepared to budge. O Once he's made up his mind, nothing will budge him.

يتزحزح (عن رأيه) ؛ يزحزح (شخصاً عن رأيه) budgerigar /'bʌdʒərigɑ:(r)/ (also informal budgie) noun [C] a small, brightly-coloured bird that people often keep as a pet in a cage

طائر صغير من نوع الببغاء budget /'bʌdʒɪt/ noun [C] 1 a plan of how to spend an amount of money over a particular period of time; the amount of money that is mentioned: What's your monthly budget for food? o The government has announced reductions in the country's defence budget. o The new product was launched with an advertising budget of £2 million.

2 (also Budget) a statement by a government saying how much money it plans to spend on particular things in the next year and how it plans to collect money: Do you think taxes will go up in this year's budget?

budget verb [I.T] budget (sth) (for sth) to plan carefully how much money to spend on sth: Don't forget to budget for possible increased costs.

Costs for the new building are already far greater than the £10 million originally budgeted.

وما الميزانية: ينظم الإنفاق budget adj (informal) (used in advertisements)

budgie /'bʌdʒi/ noun [C] (informal) = BUDGERIGAR

very cheap

buff /bʌf/ noun [C] (informal) a person who knows a lot about a particular subject and is very interested in it: a film/computer buff buffalo /'bʌfələʊ/ noun [C] (pl. buffalo or buffaloes) a large wild animal that looks like a cow with long curved horns: a herd of buffalo buffer /ˈbʌfə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a flat round piece of metal with a spring behind it that is put on the front or back of a train or at the end of a railway track. Buffers reduce the shock when sth hits them.

2 a thing or person that reduces the unpleasant effects of sth مخفف للأذي أو التصادم

buffet¹/bofer; US bəˈfer/ noun [C] 1 a meal (usually at a party or a special occasion) at which food is placed on a long table and people serve themselves: Lunch was a cold buffet. o a buffet lunch

2 a counter where passengers can buy food and drinks on a train; a cafe at a station: The buffet car is situated at the rear of the train.

مَقْصَف صغير في قطار ؛ مطعم في محطة buffet² /ˈbʌfɪt/ verb [T] to knock or push sth in a rough way from side to side: The boat was buffeted by the rough sea.

bug /bʌg/ noun 1 [C] a small insect, especially one that causes damage or is found in dirty places

2 [C] an illness that is not very serious and that people get from each other: I don't feel very well – I think I've got the bug that's going round.
جرثومة، عدوى

3 [C] something wrong in a system or machine, especially a computer: There's a bug in the software.

4 usually the bug [sing.] (informal) a sudden interest in sth: They've been bitten by the golf bug.

5 [C] a tiny hidden microphone that secretly records people's conversations

ميكرفون بالغ المغر للتنصت bug verb [T] (bugging; bugged) 1 to hide a tiny microphone somewhere so that people's conversations can be recorded secretly: Be careful what you say. This room is bugged.

يتنصت (بإخفاء ميكرفون بالغ الصغر)

2 (informal) to annoy or worry sb: It bugs him that he's not as successful as his brother.

يضايق ؛ يُقلق

buggy /'bʌgi/ noun [C] (pl. buggies) (Brit) 1 (US cart) a small car, often without a roof or doors, used for a particular purpose: a golf buggy

2 = PUSHCHAIR

- P build /bɪld/ verb (pt, pp built /bɪlt/) 1 [T] to make sth by putting pieces, materials, etc. together: How long ago was your house built? They've built a new bridge across the river. The house is built of stone and brick.
 - 2 [I] to build buildings in a place: There's plenty of land to build on around here.
 - 3 [T] to develop or increase sth: The government is trying to build a more modern society. This book claims to help people to build their self-confidence.

EHRV build sth in; build sth into sth 1 (used about furniture) fixed into a wall so that it cannot be moved: We're going to have new cupboards built in in the kitchen.

2 to make sth a part of sth else: They've made sure that a large number of checks are built into the system.

can make further progress: Now that we're beginning to make a profit, we must build on this success.

build sth on sth to base sth on sth: a society built on the principle of freedom and democracy build up to become greater in amount or number; to increase: The traffic starts to build up at this time of day.

build sth up 1 to make sth seem more important or greater than it really is: I don't think it's a very serious matter, it's just been built up in the newspapers.

2 to increase or develop sth over a period: You'll need to build up your strength again slowly after the operation.

▶ build noun [C.U] the shape and size of sb's body: She has a very athletic build. ○ Police are looking for a young man of slim build.

Compare build and figure. Build usually describes size in connection with strength and fluscle and is used for both men and women. Figure usually describes shape, especially whether it is attractive or not, and is usually used only for women.

builder noun [C] a person whose job is to build houses and other buildings

-built (in compounds) having a body with a particular shape and size: a tall well-built man

نو ننة (معينة)

Puilding /ˈbɪldɪŋ/ noun 1 [C] a structure, such as a house, church or school, that has a roof and walls: There are a lot of very old buildings in this town.

2 [U] the process or business of making buildings: building materials o the building industry بناء، تشييد

'building site noun [C] an area of land on which a building is being built

'building society noun [C] (Brit) (pl. building societies) an organization rather like a bank with which people can save money and get interest on it and which lends money to people who want to buy houses or flats build-up noun [C, usually sing.] 1 a build-up (of sth) an increase of sth over a period: The buildup of tension in the area has made war seem inore likely.

2 a build-up (to sth) a period of preparation or excitement before an event: The players started to get nervous in the build-up to the big game.

(فترة) تهيّؤ

built-'in adj 1 (used about furniture) built so it is fixed into a wall and cannot be moved: built-in cupboards

2 made a part of sth else: There is built-in unfairness in the system.

built-'up adj covered with buildings: a built-up, area bulb/balb/noun [C] 1 (also 'light bulb) the glass part of an electric lamp that gives out light: The bulb's gone (= it no longer works) – Pll have to put a new one in. \circ a 60-watt light bulb

2 the round root of certain plants: a tulip bulb صلة النبات

bulge /bʌldʒ/ noun [C] an outward curve or lump on sth that is usually flat ▶ bulge verb [I] 1 to stick out from sth that is usually flat; to swell outwards: My stomach is starting to bulge. I must get more exercise.

يبرُز ، ينتفخ

2 bulge with sth to be full of sth: His bags were bulging with presents for the children.

bulging adj 1 sticking out: He had a thin face and rather bulging eyes.

2 very full: She came home with bulging carrier bags.

bulimia /bu'limiə; -li:miə/ (also bulimia ner-vosa /bu'limiə na:'vəʊsə/) noun [U] an emotional disorder in which a person repeatedly eats too much and then forces him- or herself to vomit bulk /balk/ noun 1 [U] the large size or amount of sth: The cupboard isn't especially heavy, it's its bulk that makes it hard to move.

2 [C] a very large body: He slowly lifted his vast bulk out of the chair.

3 the bulk (of sth) [sing.] the main part of sth; most of sth: The bulk of the work has been done, there's only a bit left.

in bulk in large quantities: If you buy in bulk, it is 10% cheaper. بمقادير كبيرة، بالجملة

▶ bulky adj (bulkier; bulkiest) large and heavy and therefore difficult to move or carry: a bulky parcel bull /bol/ noun [C] 1 an adult male of the cow family ⊃ Look at the note at cow.

2 the male of certain other animals, e.g. the elephant and the whale bulldog /ˈbuldɒg/ noun [C] a strong dog with short legs, a large head and a short, thick neck البلدوغ: نوع من الكلاب bulldoze / buldovz/ verb [T] to make ground flat or knock down a building with a bulldozer: The old buildings were bulldozed and new ones were built.

bulldozer /ˈboldəʊzə(r)/ noun [C] a large, powerful tractor with a broad piece of metal at the front, used for clearing ground or knocking down buildings

The bullet /'bult/ noun [C] a small rounded piece of metal with a pointed end that is fired from a gun:

The bullet hit her in the arm. o a bullet wound

There were bullet holes in the window.

bulletin /ˈbʊlətɪn/ noun [C] 1 a short news report on TV or radio; an official statement about a situation: The next news bulletin on this channel is at nine o'clock.

2 a short newspaper that a club or organization produces

'bulletin board noun [C] (US) = NOTICEBOARD bulletproof /ˈbulrtproːf/ adj made of a strong material that stops bullets from passing through اا

bullfight /'bolfart/ noun [C] a traditional public ontertainment, especially in Spain, Portugal and Latin America, in which a man makes a bull ungry, fights it and often kills it

▶ bullfighter noun [C] a man who takes part in n hullfight bullfighting noun [U] the public entertainment in which men fight bulls in a special stadium (bullring) bullion /ˈbʊliən/ noun [U] bars of gold or silver:

The dollar price of gold bullion has risen by more than 10%.

bull's eye /ˈbolzaɪ/ noun [C] 1 the centre of a target that you aim at when you are shooting or throwing sth

2 a shot that hits this target لرّمية الصائبة bully /'boli/ noun [C] (pl. bullies) a person who uses his/her greater strength or power to hurt or frighten people who are weaker bully verb (pres part bullying; 3rd pers sing pres bullies; pt, pp bullied) to use your strength or power to hurt or frighten sb who is weaker: The older children bullied him at school.

إرعاب أو اعتداء على الضعيف WRV bully sb into doing sth to force sb to do sth by frightening him/her

يجبره (على فعل شيء بالتهديد)

bulrush /ˈbolrʌʃ/ noun [C] a type of tall plant like a reed that grows in or near water تيفا، عشبة البرك bum¹ /bʌm/ noun [C] (especially Brit informal) the part of the body on which you sit; bottom عصرة ، كَفَل bum² /bʌm/ noun [C] (especially US informal)

1 a person who moves from place to place and lives by begging

2 a lazy or useless person شخص كسول أو عديم القيمة

bumbag /ˈbʌmbæg/ noun [C] a small bag worn around the waist to keep money, etc. in محفظة تحمل على الخصر bump /bamp/ verb 1 [1] bump against/into sb/ sth to hit sth solid by accident when you are moving: She bumped into a lamp post because she wasn't looking where she was going.

2 [T] bump sth (against/on sth) to hit sth against or on sth by accident when moving it: I bumped my knee on the edge of the table.

3 [I] to move in an uneven way as if going over bumps: We bumped along the track to the cottage.

PHRV bump into sb to meet sb by chance:
I bumped into a old friend on the bus today.

یلتقی (بشخص) مصادفة

bump sb off (slang) to kill or murder sb لهتاً bump noun [C] 1 a sudden strong blow caused by sth hard hitting sth else; the sound of such a blow: She fell and hit the ground with a bump. ○ We heard a loud bump from upstairs. One of the children had fallen out of bed.

2 a lump on the body, often caused by a blow

3 a part of a flat surface that is raised above the rest of it: There are a lot of bumps in the road, so drive carefully.

bumpy adj (bumpier; bumpiest) 1 (used about a surface) having a lot of bumps (3): We drove along a bumpy road until we reached the farm. فو نتواات، وعر

2 (used about a journey) rough and uncomfortable; not smooth: Because of the stormy weather, it was a very bumpy flight.

وَعِر ، مليء بالمطبّات ؛ غير مريح bumper¹ /ˈbʌmpə(r)/ noun [C] the bar fixed to the front and back of a motor vehicle to reduce the effect if it hits sth bumper² /ˈbʌmpə(r)/ adj larger than usual: The unusually fine weather has produced a humper harvest this year.

bun /bʌn/ noun [C] 1 a small round, often sweet cake: a currant bun

2 hair fastened tightly into a round shape at the back of the head: She wears her hair in a bun. عقَّسة أو كمكة (شعر)

? bunch /bantf/ noun 1 [C] a number of things, usually of the same type, fastened or growing together: He bought her a bunch of flowers for her bundle → bureau de change birthday. o a bunch of bananas/grapes o a bunch باقة : عنقود : حزَّمة

- 2 bunches [plural] long hair that is tied on each side of the head شعر طويل محزوم على جانبي الرأس
- 3 [C, with sing. or pl. verb] (informal) a group of people: My colleagues are the best bunch of people I've ever worked with.
- ▶ bunch verb [I,T] bunch (sth/sb) (up/together) to stay together in a group; to form sth into a group or bunch: The athletes bunched up as they came round the final bend. o He kept his papers bunched together in his hand.

bundle /'bandl/ noun [C] a number of things tied or wrapped together: a bundle of letters with an elastic band round them

- ▶ bundle verb [T] 1 bundle sth (up) to make or tie sth into a bundle or bundles: I bundled up the old newspapers.
- 2 to put or push sb or sth quickly and in a rough way in a particular direction. He was arrested and bundled into a police car.

يدفع بعنف ، يقذف به إلى

bung /han/ noun [C] a round piece of wood or rubber that is used for closing the hole in certain containers e.g. a barrel, a jar, etc.

سدُادة برميل أو جرّة ▶ bung verb [T] (Brit informal) to put or throw sth somewhere in a rough or careless way: We bunged the suitcases into the car and drove يلقى بإهمال away.

bunged up adj blocked, so that nothing can get through: I feel terrible. I've got a cold and my nose is all bunged up.

bungalow /'bangələu/ noun [C] a house that is all on one level, without an upstairs

بيت من طابق واحد

bungee jumping /'bʌndʒi dʒʌmpɪŋ/ noun [U] a sport in which a person jumps from a high place, such as a bridge or a cliff bungle /'bangl/ verb [I,T] to do sth badly: The men fled after bungling a raid on a bank in Oxford Road.

bunk1 /bank/ noun [C] 1 a bed that is fixed to a wall (e.g. on a ship or train) سرير مثبّت بجدار (في سفينة أو قطار مثلاً)

2 (also 'bunk bed) one of a pair of single beds built as a unit with one above the other سريران يعلو أحدهما الآخر

bunk²/bank/ noun

IDM do a bunk (Brit informal) to run away or escape; to leave without telling anyone bunker /'bankə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a strongly built underground shelter that gives protection in a مأوى محصن تحت الأرض

2 an area of sand on a golf course, where it is difficult to hit the ball

مجال رملي في لعبة الغولف يصعب ضرب الكرة منه

bunny /'bani/ noun [C] (used by and to small children) a rabbit buoy /boi/ noun [C] a floating object, fastened to the bottom of the sea or a river, that shows ships and boats where dangerous places are

- ▶ buoy verb [T] buoy sb/sth (up) 1 to keep sb cheerful: His encouragement buoyed her up dur; ing that difficult period. يفرح، يرفع روحه المعنوية
- 2 to keep sth high by supporting it: Share prices were buoyed by news of a takeover.
- buoyant /'bɔrənt/ adj 1 (used about a material) floating or able to float قابل للطّفو
- 2 happy and cheerful: The team were in buoyant mood after their win.
- 3 (used about economic and business life) successful, with a lot of activity: Despite the recession, the property market remained buoyant. منتعش، مزدهر
- 4 (used about prices) rising or keeping at a high
- ▶ buoyancy /-ansi/ noun [U]: a buoyancy aid (= something that helps you float) o the buoyancy of the economy burden /'ba:dn/ noun [C] 1 a heavy load that is difficult to carry

- 2 a responsibility or difficult task that causes a lot of work or worry: Having to make all the decisions is a terrible burden for me. o I don't want to be a burden to my children when I'm old.
- ▶ burden verb [T] burden sb/yourself (with sth) to give sb/yourself a responsibility or task that causes a lot of work or worry: If I were you, I wouldn't burden myself with other people's prob-يثقل كاهله ، يحمّل (نفسه)

bureau /ˈbjʊərəʊ; US bjʊˈrəʊ/ noun [C] (pl. bureaux or bureaus /-rauz/) 1 (Brit) a writing desk with drawers and a lid

- 2 (US) = CHEST OF DRAWERS
- 3 (especially US) one of certain government departments: the Federal Bureau of Investiga-مكتب؛ دائرة حكوميّة
- 4 an organization that provides information: a tourist information bureau bureaucracy /bjpə'rpkrəsi/ noun (pl. bureaucracies) 1 [C,U] a system of government by a large number of officials in various depart-بيروقراطية ments

- 2 [U] (often used in a critical way) the system of official rules that an organization has for doing sth, that people often think are too complicated: With all the bureaucracy involved, it takes ages to get a visa.
- ▶ bureaucrat /'bjvərəkræt/ noun [C] (often used in a critical way) an official in an organization or government department

(شخص) بيروقراطي ، ديواني bureaucratic / bjvərə krætik/ adj connected with a bureaucracy, especially when it follows official rules too closely: You have to go through a complex bureaucratic procedure if you want to بيروقراطي ، ديواني get your money back.

bureau de change /ˌbjvərəv də 'ʃamʒ/ noun [C] (pl. bureaux de change) an office at an airport, in a hotel, etc. where you can change the money of one country to the money of another صراف، مكتب صرافة

burger /'bs:gə(r)/ noun [C] = HAMBURGER

- ▶ -burger (in compounds) 1 a hamburger with sth else on top: a cheeseburger برجر: قرص من اللحم
- 2 something that is cooked like and looks like a hamburger, but is made of sth else: a fish-طعام معدّ على شكل برجر burger
- burgiar /'ba:gla(r)/ noun [C] a person who enters a building illegally in order to steal: The burglars broke in by smashing a window. 3 Look at the لص (يسطو على البيوت والمباني) note at thief.
- ▶ burglary /'bɜ:gləri/ noun [C,U] (pl. burglaries) the crime of entering a building illegally in order to steal: There was a burglary at the house next door last week. o He is in prison for burg-سطوعلى المباني
- 'burglar alarm noun [C] a piece of equipment, usually fixed on a wall, that makes a loud noise if a thief enters a building إنذار أو منبّه ضد السطو
- burgle /'ba:gl/verb [T] to enter a building illegally in order to steal from it: Our flat was burgled while we were out. o Lock all doors and windows or you might get burgled. يسطوعلي مبني
- burial /'berial/ noun [C,U] the ceremony when a dead body is put in the ground (buried): The burial took place on Friday. o The victims of the disaster were flown home for burial. 2 Look at the note at funeral.
- burka (also burkha) /'buəkə; 'bs:kə/ noun [C] a long loose piece of clothing that covers the whole body, including the head and face, worn in public by Muslim women in some countries برقع
- burly /'ba:li/ adj (burlier; burliest) (used about a سخم الحثّة person or sb's body) strong and heavy
- † burn /bs:n/ verb (pt, pp burnt /bs:nt/ or burned /ba:nd/) 1 [T] to destroy, damage or injure sb/ sth with fire or heat: We took all the rubbish outside and burned it. o It was a terrible fire and the whole building was burnt to the ground (= completely destroyed). o The water was so hot that I burned my hands. o If you get too close to the fire you'll burn yourself. o The people inside the building couldn't get out and they were all burnt to death. ىحرق؛ بحترق
 - 2 [I] to be destroyed, damaged or injured by fire or heat: If you leave the cake in the oven for much longer, it will burn. o I can't spend too much time in the sun because I burn easily. O They were trapped by the flames and they burned to death.
 - 3 [T] to produce a hole or mark in or on sth by hurning: He dropped his cigarette and it burned a hole in the carpet. يحرق أويسم بالحرق
 - 4 [I] to be on fire: Firemen raced to the burning يشتعل ، يلتهب building.
 - 5 [I] to produce light: I don't think he went to bed nt all - I could see his light burning all night. يشتعل ، يضيء
 - 6 [1] to feel unpleasantly hot: You must have a temperature, your forehead's burning.

ترتفع درجة حرارته ، يتُقد

7 [I] burn (with sth) to be filled with a very strong feeling: She was burning with indigna-يشتعل أو يتقدب

PHRV burn (sth) down (used about a building) to destroy or be destroyed completely by fire: The fire could not be brought under control and the school burned down. o The house was burnt down in a fire some years ago.

يدمر بالحرق، يحترق عن آخره burn sth off 1 to remove sth by burning: Burn off the old paint before repainting the door.

يزيل بالحرق

2 to use energy by doing exercise: This workout helps you to burn off fat and tone up muscles.

حرق (الحريرات)

burn sth out (usually passive) to completely destroy sth by burning: the burnt-out wreck of a يحرق (شيئاً) حرقاً تاماً burn up to be destroyed by fire or strong heat:

The space capsule burnt up on its re-entry into the بحترق earth's atmosphere.

burn sth up to destroy sth by fire: When all the rubbish had been burnt up I put out the fire. متلف بالإحراق

▶ burn noun [C] an injury or piece of damage caused by fire or heat: He has been treated for burns to his face and hands. o the burns unit of a hospital burner $(US) = RING^{1}(5)$

burp /bs:p/ verb [I] to make a noise with the mouth when air rises from the stomach and is forced out: He sat back when he had finished his meal and burped loudly.

- ▶ burp noun [C]: a loud burp
- burrow /'barəu/ noun [C] a hole in the ground made by certain animals (e.g. rabbits) in which they live
- ▶ burrow verb 1 [I,T] to dig a hole in the
- 2 [I] to search for sth, using your hands as if you were digging: She burrowed in her handbag for
- bursar /'ba:sə(r)/ noun [C] the person who manages the financial matters of a school, college or امين صندوق في مؤسسة دراسية university
- ▶ bursary /'bɜːsəri/ noun [C] (pl. bursaries) a sum of money given to a specially chosen student to pay for his/her studies at a college or university
- ? burst¹ /b3:st/ verb (pt, pp burst) 1 [I,T] to break open suddenly and violently, usually because there is too much pressure inside; to cause this to happen: The balloon burst with a loud bang. o You'll burst that balloon if you blow it up any more. [I] (figurative) 'Would you like some more to eat?' 'No, thanks. If I have any more, I'll burst!' o If it rains much more, the river will burst its ينفجر ، يتفتَّق ؛ يجعله ينفجر الخ
 - 2 [I] be bursting (with sth) to be so full that it is in danger of breaking open: I packed so many clothes that my suitcases were bursting. o (figurative) He was bursting with happiness on his wedding day.

Description to do sth to want to do sth

EM be bursting to do sth to want to do sth very much: I'm bursting to tell someone the news but it's a secret.

PHRV burst in on sb/sth to interrupt sb/sth by arriving suddenly. I'm sorry to burst in on you like this but there's an urgent phone call.

يقتحم أو يقاطع فجاة burst into sth to start doing sth suddenly: On hearing the news she burst into tears (= started crying). • The lorry hit a wall and burst into flames (= started burning).

ينفجر (باكياً): ينفجر (مشتعلاً) burst into, out of, through, etc. to move suddenly in a particular direction, often using force: She burst into the manager's office and demanded to speak to him.

burst out 1 to start doing sth suddenly: He looked so ridiculous that I burst out laughing.
پنفجر (ضاحکاً مثلاً)

2 to say sth suddenly and with strong feeling: Finally she burst out, 'I can't stand it any more!'

- p burst² /bɜːst/ noun [C] 1 an occasion when sth bursts or explodes; a crack caused by an explosion: a burst in a water pipe

 انفجار : شق أو صدع
 - 2 a short period of a particular activity, that often starts suddenly: With a burst of speed, she left the other runners behind. o He prefers to work in short bursts. o There were several bursts of applause during her speech.
- r bury /ˈberi/ verb [T] (pres part burying; 3rd pers sing pres buries; pt, pp buried) 1 to put a dead body in a grave: She wants to be buried in the village graveyard. Anne Brontë is buried in Scarborough.
 - 2 to put sth in a hole in the ground to cover it up: Our dog always buries its bones in the garden. They say there's buried treasure somewhere on the island!
 - 3 (usually passive) to cover or hide: At last I found the photograph, buried at the bottom of a drawer. After the earthquake, hundreds of people were buried under the rubble. (figurative) Sally didn't hear us come in. She was buried in a book.
- R bus /bas/ noun [C] (pl. buses; US also busses) a big public vehicle which takes passengers from one stopping-place to another along a fixed route: Where do you usually get on/off the bus? We'll have to hurry up if we want to catch the 9 o'clock bus. It's so difficult to park your car in town. It's better to go by bus.

The bus driver may also take the money (your fare) and give you your ticket, or there may be a conductor who collects the fares. You can get on or off at a bus stop and the central point where most buses start is the bus station. Note that we travel by bus. We can also say on the bus: How do you get to work? On the bus.

? bush /boʃ/ noun 1 [C] a plant like a small, thick tree with many low branches: a rose bush o The house was surrounded by thick bushes.

2 often the bush [U, sing.] wild land that is not cultivated, especially in Africa and Australia

 \boxed{DM} beat about the bush \rightarrow BEAT¹

▶ bushy (bushier; bushiest) adj growing thickly: bushy hair o bushy eyebrows busier, busiest, busily → BUSY

- Let business /'biznəs/ noun 1 [U] buying and selling as a way of earning money; commerce: She has set up in business as a hairdresser. They are very easy to do business with. He teaches English for Business.
 - 2 [U] the work that you do as your job: The manager will be away on business next week. \circ a business trip
 - 3 [U] the amount of trade done: Business has been good for the time of year.
 - 4 [C] a firm, a shop, a factory, etc. which produces or sells goods or provides a service: She started an antique business of her own. o Small businesses are finding it hard to survive at the moment.
 - 5 [U] something that concerns a particular person: The friends I choose are my business, not yours. o Our business is to collect the information, not to comment on it. o 'How much did it cost?' 'It's none of your business!' (= I don't want to tell you. It's private.)
 - 6 [sing.] a situation or an event: The divorce was an awful business. I found the whole business very depressing.

المرافقة العمل aget down to business to start the work that must be done: Let's just have a cup of coffee before we get down to business.

go out of business to have to close because there is no more money available: The shop went out of business because it couldn't compete with the new supermarket. ينهي عمله التجاري . يفلس have no business to do sth/doing sth to have no right to do sth: You have no business to read/reading my letters without asking me. ليس له حق mind your own business \rightarrow MIND² businesslike /ˈbɪznəslaɪk/ adj efficient and practical: She has a very businesslike manner. عملي، منظّم، جدي

- ل businessman /ˈbɪznəsmæn; -mən/, businesswoman /ˈbɪznəswomən/ noun [C] (pl. businessmen /-mən/, businesswomen /-wımın/) 1 a person who works in business (1) especially in a top position رجل أعمال ، سيدة أعمال
 - 2 a person who is skilful at dealing with money: My brother can advise you on your investments he's a better businessman than I am.

خبير بشؤون المال

'business studies noun [U, with sing. or pl. verb] the study of how to control and manage a business (4): a course in business studies دراسات أعمال، دراسات تجارية

busk /bask/ verb [I] to sing or play music in the street so that people will stop and give you money پعزف أو يغني في الشوارع (بقصد الارتزاق)

busker noun [C] a street musician عازف أو مغنى شوارع

bust¹ /bʌst/ noun [C] 1 a model in stone, etc. of a person's head, shoulders and chest

- a woman's breasts; the measurement round a woman's chest: This blouse is a bit tight around the hust. مدر (المرأة) :محيط صدر العرأة)
- 3 an unexpected visit by the police in order to arrest people for doing sth illegal: a drugs bust

bust² /bast/ verb [T] (pt, pp bust or busted) (informal) to break or damage sth so that it cannot be used to have to close because it has lost so much money: During the recession thousands of businesses went bust.

▶ bust adj (not before a noun) (informal) broken or not working: The zip on these trousers ts hust.

bustle 'basl/ verb [I.T] 1 to move in a busy, noisy or excited way; to make sb move somewhere quickly: He bustled about the kitchen making tea. • They bustled her out of the room before she could see the body.

يروح و يجيء بنشاط ؛ يستحث ، يخرجه بسرعة

- 2 bustle (with sth) to be full of sth (people, noise, activity, etc.): It was the week before Christmas and the streets were bustling with whomers
- bustle noun [U] excited and noisy activity:

 She loved the bustle of city life.

'bust-up noun [C] (informal) a serious quarrel جار حاد

- "busy /ˈbuzi/ adj (busier; busiest) 1 busy (at/ with sth); busy (doing sth) having a lot of work or tasks to do; not free; working on sth: Mr Smith is busy until 4 o'clock but he could see you after that. o Don't disturb him. He's busy. o She's busy with her preparations for the party. o We're busy decorating the spare room before our visitors arrive.
 - 2 (used about a period of time) full of activity and things to do: I've had rather a busy week.
 - 3 (used about a place) full of people, movement and activity: Oxford Street was so busy that I could hardly move.

 کثیر الحرکة ، یعج بِ مزدحم
 - 4 (US) = ENGAGED(2): The line's busy at the moment. I'll try again later.

يبدأ العمل get busy start working: We'll have to get husy if we're going to be ready in time.

• busy verb [T] (pres part busying; 3rd pers sing pres busies; pt, pp busied) busy yourself with busy yourself doing sth to keep yourself busy; to find sth to do

• busily ado: When I came in she was busily writing something at her desk.

busybody /'brzibodi/ noun [C] (pl. busybodies)

a person who is too interested in other people's affairs

- Pbut¹ /bət; strong form bʌt/ conj 1 (used for introducing an idea which contrasts with or is different from what has just been said): The weather will be sunny but cold. Theirs is not the first but the second house on the left. James hasn't got a car but his sister has.
 - 2 however; and yet: She's been learning Italian for five years but she doesn't speak it very well.

 o I'd love to come but I can't make it till 8 o'clock.
 - 3 (used with an apology): Excuse me, but is your name Peter Watkins? I'm sorry, but I can't stay any longer. (تصاحب الاعتفار)
 - 4 (used for introducing a statement that shows that you are surprised or annoyed or that you disagree): 'Here's the money I owe you.' 'But that's not right it was only £6.'

(التعبير عن الاندماش أو الازعاج أو الاختلاف)

DM but then however; on the other hand: We could go swimming. But then perhaps it's too codd.

He's brilliant at the piano. But then so was his father (= however, this is not surprising because...).

but²/bət; strong form bʌt/ prep except: I've told no one but you about this. O We've had nothing but trouble with this washing machine! וְצֹּיִ מִּי שֵּׁבוּ וְשַׁלִּי שׁׁבוּ וְשַׁׁ but for sb/sth except for or without sb/sth: We wouldn't have managed but for your help.

butcher /'botfə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person who sells meat: The butcher cut me four lamb chops.
o She went to the butcher's for some sausages.
O Note that the butcher is the person who runs the shop and the butcher's is the shop.

جزار، قصاب، لحام 2 a person who kills many people in a cruel way

► butcher verb [T] to kill a lot of people in a cruel way منطك الدماء ، يقوم بمذبحة butchery noun [U] unnecessary or cruel killbutler /ˈbʌtlə(r)/ noun [C] the most important male servant in a big house

butt¹ /bʌt/ noun [C] 1 the thicker, heavier end of a weapon or tool: the butt of a rifle

كعب أو عقب (البندقية) ﴿

- 2 a short piece of a cigarette or cigar which is left when it has been smoked
- 3 (especially US informal) your bottom: Get up off your butt and do some work! عجيزة ، مؤخّر
- 4 the act of hitting sb with your head نطحة

butt² /bʌt/ noun [C] a person who is often laughed at or talked about unpleasantly: Fat children are often the butt of other children's jokes.

butt³ /bʌt/ verb [T] to hit or push sb/sth with the head

PHRV butt in (on sb/sth) to interrupt sb/sth or to join in sth without being asked: I'm sorry to butt in but could I speak to you urgently for a minute? (بيئه مثلاً) يقاطع (حديثه مثلاً)

- putter /ˈbʌtə(r)/ noun [U] a soft yellow fat that is made from cream and used for spreading on bread, etc. or in cooking
 - butter verb [T] to spread butter on bread, etc:
 I'll cut the bread and you butter it. hot buttered toast
- 'butter bean noun [C] a large pale yellow bean.

 Butter beans are often sold dried
- buttercup /ˈbʌtəkʌp/ noun [C] a wild plant with bright yellow flowers shaped like small cups حَوْدُان
- butterfly /'bʌtəflaɪ/ noun [C] (pl. butterflies) an insect with a long, thin body and four brightly coloured wings: Caterpillars develop into butterflies.
- in have butterflies (in your stomach) (informal) to feel very nervous before doing sth يشعر بالاضطراب والهلع
- buttermilk / 'bʌtəmɪlk / noun [U] the liquid that is left when butter has been separated from milk مخيض (اللبن)
- buttock /ˈbʌtək/ noun [C, usually pl.] the part of the body which you sit on
- ? button /'bʌtn/ noun [C] 1 a small, often round, piece of plastic, wood or metal that you use for fastening your clothes: One of the buttons on my jacket has come off. o a coat, shirt, trouser, etc. button o This blouse is too tight. I can't fasten the buttons
 - 2 a type of small switch on a machine, etc. that you press in order to operate sth: Press this button to ring the bell. Which button turns the volume down? the buttons on a telephone Double-click the right mouse button.
- buttonhole /'bʌtənhəʊl/ noun [C] 1 a hole in a piece of clothing that you push a button through in order to fasten it
- 2 (Brit) a flower that you pin to your coat or jacket or push through your buttonhole
- زهرة توضع في عروة السترة

 buttonhole verb [T] to make sb stop and listen to what you want to say: I'll try to buttonhole the headmaster before he goes home.

 يجبره على الاستماع إليه
- P buy /bai/ verb [T] (pt, pp bought /bɔ:t/) to get sth by paying money for it: I'm going to buy a new dress for the party. We bought this book for you in London. Can I buy you a coffee? He bought the car from a friend. Did you buy this sofa new? He bought the necklace as a present for his wife.
 - ▶ buy noun [C] an act of buying sth or a thing that you can buy: I think your house was a very good buy (= worth the money you paid).

buyer noun [C] 1 a person who is buying sth or may buy sth: I think we've found a buyer for our house!

- 2 a person whose job is to choose and buy goods to be sold in a large shop
- buyout /'baraut/ noun [C] the act of buying enough or all of the shares in a company in order to get control of it
- buzz /bʌz/ verb 1 []] to make the sound that bees, etc. make when flying: A large fly was buzzing against the window pane.
- 2 [i] buzz (with sth) to be full of (talk, thoughts, etc.): Her head was buzzing with questions that she wanted to ask. o The office was buzzing with rumours about the proposed changes.
- 3 [I,T] to call sb by using an electric bell, etc: The doctor will buzz for you when he's ready. پستدعي بضغط جرس کهربائي الخ
- ▶ buzz noun 1 [C] the sound that a bee, etc. makes when flying: the buzz of insects
- طنين؛ ازيز ، زنن 2 [sing.] the low sound made by many people talking at the same time: I could hear the buzz of conversation in the next room.
- 3 [sing.] (informal) a strong feeling of excitement or pleasure: a buzz of expectation o She gets a buzz out of shopping for expensive clothes.
- om give sb a buzz (informal) to telephone sb
- buzzer noun [C] a piece of equipment that makes a buzzing sound: You'll hear the buzzer on the cooker when the meal's ready.
- buzzword /'bʌzwɜːd/ noun [C] a word or phrase,
- especially one connected with a particular subject, that has become fashionable and popular العبارة الرائجة أو (آخر موضة)
- Let by 1 /bai/ adv 1 past: We stopped to let the ambulance get by. o If we sit here we can watch the boats sail by. o Time seemed to be going by very slowly.
 - على مقربة من به مقربة من by and large mostly; in general: By and large the school is very efficient. مشكل عام ؛ غالباً by the way → wav¹
- p by /bai/ prep 1 beside; very near: Come and sit by me. We stayed in a cottage by the sea.
 - 2 past: He walked straight by me without speaking.
 - 3 not later than; before: I'll be home by 7 o'clock.

 O He should have telephoned by now/by this time.
 - By this time tomorrow you'll be married!
 في وقت لا يتحاوز (كذا) ، قبل
 - 4 (usually without the) during a period of time; in particular circumstances: By day we covered about thirty miles and by night we rested. The electricity went off so we had to work by candle light.
 - 5 (after a passive verb) (used for showing who or what did or caused sth): She was knocked down by a car. The event was organized by local people. I was deeply shocked by the news. The building was designed by Stirling. Who was the book written by?/Who is the book by?

- 6 through doing sth: You can get hold of me by phoning this number.
- 7 using sth: Will you be paying by cheque? The Labor T house is heated by electricuy. ما المعنوب العلم المعنوب المعنوب المعنوب المعنوب المعنوب المعنوب المعنوب المعن bicycle, etc.
- 8 as a result of; due to: I got on the wrong bus by mistake/accident. o I met an old friend by نتيجة ل، ب (الصدفة) chance.
- 9 according to: It's 8 o'clock by my watch. \circ By law you have to attend school from the age of five.
- 10 (used for multiplying or dividing): 4 multiplied by 5 is 20. o 6 divided by 2 is 3. (مضروباً) في : (مقسوماً) على
- 11 (used for showing the measurements of an area): The table is six feet by three feet (= six feet long and three feet wide).
- 12 (with the) in quantities or periods of: We buy material by the metre. O You can rent a car by the day, the week or the month. o Copies of the book have sold by the million.
- 13 in groups or units of: They came in one by one. o Bit by bit I began to understand. o Day by day she was getting better.
- 14 to the amount of: Prices have gone up by 10 per cent. o I missed the bus by a few minutes.
- 15 (used with a part of the body or an article of clothing) holding: He grabbed me by the arm.
- 16 with regard to: She's French by birth. o He's

- a doctor by profession. O By nature she's a very ب ، (فيما يتعلَّق) بـ gentle person.
- bye: Bye! See you tomorrow. وداعاً ؛ مع السلامة
- 'by-election noun [C] an election to choose a new Member of Parliament for a particular town or area (a constituency). It is held when the previous member has resigned or died. 2 Look at انتخاب فرعي general election.
- bypass /'barpa:s; US -pæs/ noun [C] a road which traffic can use to go round a town, instead of through it طريق حول المدينة يتجنب دخولها
- ▶ bypass verb [T] to go around or to avoid sth using a bypass: Let's try to bypass the city centre. o (figurative) It's no good trying to bypass the بتحاشى ، يتجنب problem.
- 'by-product noun [C] 1 something that is formed during the making of sth else

محصول ثانوي

- 2 something that happens as the result of sth حصيلة أو نتيجة ثانوية
- bystander /'baistændə(r)/ noun [C] a person who is standing near and sees sth that happens. without being involved in it: Several innocent bystanders were hurt when the two gangs attacked متفرج، مشاهد، أحد الموجودين each other.
- byte /bart/ noun [C] (computing) a unit of information that can represent one item, such as a letter or a number. A byte is usually made up of a series of eight smaller units (bits).

في الكمبيوتر: وحدة معلومات

- C, c/si:/noun[C](pl. Cs; C's; c's) the third letter of the English alphabet: 'Come' begins with (a) الحرف الثالث من الأبحدية الإنكليزية
- C abbrev = Celsius
- C (also ca) abbrev (before dates) about, approximately: c 1770 حوالي
- cab /kæb/noun [C] 1 (especially US) = TAXI: Let's take a cab/go by cab.
- 2 the part of a lorry, train, bus, etc. where the مكان جلوس السائق في شاحنةُ أو قطار وُغّيره driver sits
- cabaret /'kæbərei; US ˌkæbə'rei/ noun [C,U] an entertainment with singing, dancing, etc. in a restaurant or nightclub
- cabbage /'kæbid3/ noun [C,U] a large round vegetable with thick green, or sometimes dark red leaves, often eaten cooked: We've planted cabbages in the garden. o Shall we have cabbage with the sausages? ک نّب ، ملفوف
- cabin /'kæbm/ noun [C] 1 a small room in a ship or boat, where a passenger sleeps: We've booked a

- cabin on the ferry as we'll be travelling over-قَمَرة ، حجرة في سفينة night.
- 2 one of the parts of a plane, at the front or where the passengers sit: I prefer to have a seat at the front of the cabin. o the pilot's cabin المقصورة: مكان الجلوس في الطائرة
- 3 a small wooden house or hut: We stayed in a log cabin in Sweden.
- 'cabin cruiser noun [C] = cruiser (2)
- Cabinet /'kæbinət/ noun [C] 1 a cupboard with shelves or drawers, used for storing things: a medicine cabinet o a filing cabinet
 - 2 (also the Cabinet) [with sing. or pl. verb] the most important ministers in a government, who have regular meetings with the Prime Minister: The Cabinet is/are meeting today to discuss the crisis. o a cabinet meeting, minister, etc.
- %cable /'kerbl/ noun 1 [C] a very strong, thick حبل غليظ ؛ سلسلة معدنية rope or chain, etc.
 - 2 [C,U] a set of wires covered with plastic, etc., for carrying electricity or signals: an undercable car → calendar

ground electrical cable o a telephone cable o كابل: سلك كهرباني غليظ fibre-optic cable

3 [C] (old-fashioned) = TELEGRAM

4 [U] = CABLE TELEVISION

'cable car noun [C] a carriage that hangs on a moving cable(1) and carries passengers up and مركبة معلقة على سلك down a mountain

cable 'television (also cable) noun [U] a system of broadcasting television programmes by cable (2) instead of by radio signals

البث التلفزيوني بواسطة الكآبلات

'cab stand (US) = TAXI RANK

cackle /'kækl/ noun [C] 1 the loud sound that a قوقأة الدجاج hen makes after laying an egg

ضحكة عالية مزعحة 2 a loud, unpleasant laugh

▶ cackle verb [I]

تقوقئ (الدجاجة) ؛ يضحك ضحكة عالية مزعجة

cactus /'kæktəs/ noun [C] (pl. cactuses or cacti /'kæktai/) a type of plant that grows in hot, dry areas, especially deserts. A cactus has a thick stem and sharp points (prickles) but no leaves.

cadet /kə'det/ noun [C] a young person who is training to be in the army, navy, air force or po طالب في كلية عسكرية cadge /kæd3/ verb [I,T] cadge (sth) (from/off sb) (informal) to try to persuade sb to give or lend you sth: He's always cadging meals from people without repaying them!

يستجدي (من أصدقائه) ، يتطفّل

Caesarean (also Caesarian; US also Cesarian, Cesarean) /sr'zeəriən/ noun [C] an operation to remove a baby from its mother's body when a normal birth would be impossible or dan-عملية (ولادة) قيصرية cafe /'kæfer; US kæ'fer/ noun [C] a small restaurant that serves drinks and light meals cafeteria / kæfə tıəriə/ noun [C] a restaurant, especially one for staff or workers, where people collect their meals on trays and carry them to their tables 2 Look at canteen

مطعم يقوم على الخدمة الذاتية

caffeine /'kæfi:n/ noun [U] the substance found in coffee and tea which makes you feel more awake and lively O Look at decaffeinated

كافين: المادة المنشِّطة في القهوة أو الشاي

cage /keid3/ noun [C] a box made of bars or wire, or a space surrounded by wire or metal bars, in which a bird or animal is kept so that it cannot escape: The tiger paced up and down its cage. o The parrot has escaped from its cage.

▶ caged /keid3d/ adj: He felt like a caged محبوس في قفص animal in the tiny office.

cagey /kerd3i/ adj cagey (about sth) (informal) not wanting to give information or to talk about sth 1 A more formal word is secretive. حَذر ، محترس (في كلامه)

caqoule /ka'gu:l/ noun |C| a long waterproof سترة بغطاء للرأس واقية من المطر jacket with a bood

Cake /kerk/ noun 1 [C,U] a sweet food made by mixing flour, eggs, butter, sugar, etc. together and baking the mixture in the oven: a birthday cake o a wedding cake o a chocolate cake o a fruit cake ϕ a sponge cake ϕ . The bride and bridegroom cut the cake. .. Would you like some more cake? o a piece of birthday cake كعكة ، "كاتو"

After making or baking a cake we often ice or (US) frost the top and sides of it.

2 [C] a mixture of other food, cooked in a round, flat shape: fish cakes o potato cakes

قرص من (السمك المهروس مثلاً)

have your cake and eat it to enjoy the advantages of sth without its disadvantages; to have both things that are available: You can't go out every night and save for your holiday. You can't have your cake and eat it.

يربح على الوجهين ، يجمع بين النقيضين a piece of cake → PRECE1

▶ cake verb [T] (usually passive) to cover sth thickly with a substance that becomes hard when it dries: boots caked in/with mud calamity /kəl'æməti/ noun [C,U] (pl. calamities) a terrible event that causes a lot of damage or harm calcium /'kælsiəm/ noun [U] (symbol Ca) a chemical element. Calcium is found in bones, كلسيوم teeth and chalk.

Calculate / kælkjulent/verb[T] 1 to find sth out by using mathematics: I've been calculating the costs involved and it's too expensive. o It's difficult to calculate how long the project will take.

2 to consider or expect sth: We calculated that the advantages would be greater than the disadvantages.

DM be calculated to do sth to be intended or designed to do sth: His remark was clearly calculated to annoy me. متعمد ؛ يقصد به

▶ calculating adj planning things in a very careful and selfish way in order to achieve exactly what you want: Her cold, calculating approach made her many enemies. ذو کید ، ماکر calculation /,kælkju'leifn/ noun 1 [C,U] finding an answer by using mathematics: Several of his calculations are wrong. o Calculation of the exact cost is impossible. حساب ، عملية حسابية

2 [U] (formal) careful thought and planning in order to achieve your own, selfish aims: His actions were clearly the result of deliberate calcu-مكر، تخطيط مدروس calculator /'kælkjulestə(r)/ noun [C] a small electronic machine used for calculating figures: آلة حاسبة a pocket calculator

caldron (especially US) = CAULDRON

calendar /'kælində(r)/ noun [C] 1 a list that shows the days, weeks and months of a particular year: She had ringed the important dates on her calendar in red. o There was a calendar hang ing on the back of the door.

A calendar is often hung on a wall and may have a separate page for each month, sometimes with a picture or photograph. A diary is a little book which you can carry around with you and which has spaces next to the dates so that you can write in appointments, etc.

- 2 a system for dividing time into fixed periods and for marking the beginning and end of a year: the Muslim calendar
- 3 a list of dates and events in a year that are important in a particular area of activity: Wimbledon is a major event in the sporting calen-تقويم ، برنامج سنوي

calendar 'month noun [C] = month (1,2)

calendar 'year noun [C] = YEAR (2)

- calf1 /ka:f; US kæf/ noun [C] (pl. calves /ka:vz; US kævz/) 1 a young cow 6 The meat from a calf is called veal. Look at the note at meat. 2 Look at the note at cow.
- 2 the young of some other animals, e.g. ele-صغير بعض الحيوانات (مثل الفيل) phants
- calf² /ka:f; US kæf/ noun [C] (pl. calves /ka:vz; US kævz/) the back of your leg, below your بطّة أو ربّلة الساق knee
- calibre (US caliber) / kælībə(r)/ noun [sing., U] the quality or ability of a person or thing: The company's employees are of the highest calibre.

مقدرة ، مستوى

- [C] a loud sound that is made to attract attention; a shout: a call for help o That hird's call is easy to recognize.
 - 2 (also 'phone call) [C] an act of telephoning or a conversation on the telephone: Were there any calls for me while I was out? o I'll give you a call at the weekend. o The manager is on the line. Will you take the call? o a local call o a long-distance call مخابرة تليفونية
 - 3 [C] a short visit, especially to sb's house: We could pay a call on Dave on our way home. o The doctor has several calls to make this morning. زيارة قصيرة
 - 4 [C] a request, demand for sth: There have been دعوة ، مطالبة calls for the President to resign.
 - 6 [C,U] call for sth a need for sth: The doctor said there was no call for concern. ضرورة ، لزوم mm at sb's beck and call → BECK
 - (be) on call to be ready to work if necessary: Dr Young will be on call this weekend.

(یکون) تحت الاستدعاء

" Call /kp:1/ verb 1 [I,T] call (out) to sb; call (ath) (out) to say sth loudly or to shout in order to attract attention: 'Hello, is anybody there?' she called. ○ I could hear a voice calling for help. ○ He called out the names and the winners stepped forward. o Call the children. Breakfast is ready.

ينادي ؛ يصرخ ؛ يتلو بصوت عال

2 [I,T] to telephone sb: Who's calling, please?

- o Thank you for calling. o I'll call you tomorrow. o We're just in the middle of dinner. Can I call you back later?
- 3 be called to have as your name: What's your wife called? o What was that village called?

- 4 [T] to name or describe a person or thing in a certain way: They called the baby Martin. o My name is Elizabeth but I'm often called Liz. o Can you really call this picture 'art'? o It was very rude to call her fat. o Are you calling me a liar? يسمى ، يدعو
- 5 [T] to order or ask sb to come to a certain place: Can you call everybody in for lunch? o The President called his advisers to the White House. o I think we had better call the doctor.

- 6 [T] to arrange for sth to take place at a certain time: to call a meeting, an election, a strike, etc. يعلن ؛ ينظم
- 7 [I] call (in/round) (on sb/at...) to make a short visit to a person or place: Can I call in/ round after supper? o We called at his house but there was nobody in.
- 8 [I] call at... (used about a train, etc.) to stop at: This train is for Poole, calling at Reading and يتوقف في Southampton.

DM call it a day (informal) to decide to stop doing sth: Let's call it a day. I'm exhausted.

يتوقّف عن العمل

PHRV call by (informal) to make a short visit to a place or person as you pass: I'll call by to pick up the book on my way to work. يمرٌ على

call for sb/sth (Brit) to collect: I'll call for you when it's time to go.

call for sth to demand or need: The opposition is calling for an early general election. O The crisis calls for immediate action. o This calls for a celebration! o Their rudeness was not called for (= there was no need for it).

يطالب ب: يستدعى ، يتطلُّ call sth off to cancel sth: The football match was called off because of the bad weather.

call sb out to ask or tell sb to go somewhere: We had to call out the doctor in the middle of the night. o The police were called out to control the call sb/sth up 1 (especially US) to telephone sb: He called me up to tell me the good news.

يتلفن ، يخابر تليفونياً

- 2 to order sb to join the army, navy or air force: All the men between the ages of 18 and 25 were يستدعى (للخدمة العسكرية) called up.
- call sth up to look at sth that is stored in a computer: The bank clerk called up my account details on screen.
- ▶ caller noun [C] a person who telephones or visits sb: I don't know who the caller was. He rang off without giving his name.

من يتصل تليفونياً : زائر

'call box noun [C] = PHONE BOX

'call centre (US 'call center) noun [C] an office in which a large number of people work using telephones, for example arranging insurance for people, or taking customers' orders and answering questions مركز لخدمات العملاء هاتفياً

'call-in (US) = PHONE-IN callous /ˈkæləs/ adj not caring about the suffering of other people

Calm /ka:m/ adj 1 not worried or angry; quiet: Try to keep calm - there's no need to panic. ○ She spoke in a calm voice. ○ The city is calm again after last night's riots.

2 without big waves: a calm sea

3 without much wind: calm weather

▶ calm noun [C,U] a period of time or a state when everything is peaceful: After living in the city, I enjoyed the calm of country life.

calm verb [I,T] calm (sb/sth) (down) to become or to make sb quiet or calm: Calm down! Shouting at everybody won't help. • She calmed the horses by talking quietly to them. • He read the children a story to calm them down.

يهدا: يُهلَى، يُسكَن calmly adv: Len told the police very calmly exactly what he had seen. هدوم سكون almness noun [U]

Calor gas[™] /kælə gæs/ noun [U] gas that is kept in special bottles and used for cooking, heating, etc. (غاز البوتان أو بوتوغاز (للاستعمالات المنزلية) calorie /ˈkæləri/ noun [C] 1 a unit for measuring the energy that a certain amount of food will produce حرَيْرة ، سعُر (حراري)

2 a unit for measuring heat

calves pl. of CALF

camcorder /'kæmkɔːdə(r)/ noun [C] a camera that you can carry with you and use for recording pictures and sound on a video cassette

آلة تصوير فيديو

سعر حراري ، حريرة

ساكن ، هادئ

ساكن

came pt of come camel /'kæml/ noun 1 [C] an animal that lives in the desert and has a long neck and either one or two humps on its back. It is used for carrying people and goods.

2 [U] a light brown colour camellia /kəˈmiːliə/ noun [C] a bush, originally from China and Japan, with shiny leaves and white, red or pink flowers

Reamera /'kæmərə/ noun [C] a piece of equipment that you use for taking photographs or moving pictures: I need a new film for my camera a digital camera a television camera a video camera cameraman / kænnərəmən/ noun [C] (pl. cameramen /-men/) a person whose job is to operate a camera for a film or a television company

camomile = CHAMOMILE

camouflage /'kæməflo:3/ noun [U] materials or colours that soldiers use to make themselves and their equipment less easy to see

► camouflage verb [T] to make sb/sth difficult to see in a particular place

Reamp /kæmp/ noun [C,U] a place where people live in tents or huts for a short time: a scout camp o a holiday camp o a training camp (= for soldiers) o We returned to camp tired after our long hike. o The climbers set up camp at the foot of the mountain.

► camp verb [1] camp (out) to put up a tent and sleep in it: Where shall we camp tonight? • The children like to camp out in summer. • Go camping is a common way of talking about camping for pleasure: They went camping in France last year.

camper noun [C] 1 a person who camps

2 (Brit) (also 'motor home; Brit also 'camper van; US also recreational vehicle) a large vehicle designed for people to live and sleep in when they are travelling camping noun [U] sleeping or spending a holiday in a tent: Camping is cheaper than staying in hotels. o a camping holiday

Campaign /kæm'peɪn/ noun [C] 1 a plan to do a number of things in order to achieve a special aim: an advertising campaign

2 a planned series of attacks in a war

► campaign verb [I] campaign (for/against sb/sth) to take part in a campaign (1) in order to make sth happen or to prevent sth عقوم بحملة campaigner noun [C]: a campaigner for equal rights for women campsite /ˈkæmpsaɪt/ (also 'camping site) noun [C] a place where you can camp campus /'kæmpos/ noun [C,U] (pl. campuses) the area of land where the main buildings of a college or university are: the college campus o About half the students live on campus – the other half rent rooms in the town.

الحرم الجامعي، المدينة الجامعية

حملة عسكرية

Rcan¹/kən; strong form kæn/ modal verb (negative cannot /ˈkænnt/ short form can't /ka:nt; US kænt/; pt could /kəd/ strong form /kvd/; negative could not short form couldn't /ˈkvdnt/) ¹ (used for showing that it is possible for sb/sth to do sth or that sb/sth has the ability to do sth): I can catch a bus from here. o Can you ride a bike? o He can't speak French. o She couldn't answer the question.

Can has no infinitive or participle forms. To make the future and perfect tenses, we use be able to. One day people will be able to travel to Mars. o. He's been able to swim for almost a year. Could have is used when we say that somebody had the ability to do something but did not do it. She could have passed the exam but she didn't really try.

2 (asking or giving permission): Can I have a drink, please? • He asked if he could have a can → canoe 107

drink. o You can't go swimming today.

- When we are talking about general permission in the past could is used: Ecould do anything I wanted when I stayed with my grandma. When we are talking about one particular occasion we do not use could: They were allowed to visit him in hospital yesterday.
- 3 (asking sb to do sth): Can you help me carry these books? هل من الممكن
- 4 (offering to do sth): Can I help at all?
- 5 (talking about sb's typical behaviour or of a typical effect): You can be very annoying. O Wasp قديكون stings can be very painful.
- 6 (used in the negative for saying that you are sure sth is not true): That can't be Mary - she's in London. o Surely you can't be hungry. You've only just had lunch. لايمكن أن يكون
- 7 (used with the verbs 'feel', 'hear', 'see', 'smell', 'taste') 1 These verbs are not used in the continuous tenses. If we want to talk about seeing, hearing, etc. at a particular moment, we use can: I can smell something burning. NOT I'm (مع بعض الأفعال) smelling..
- [Can²/kæn/noun [C] 1 a metal or plastic container that is used for holding or carrying liquid: an مفیحة ، تنکة a watering can مفیحة ، تنکة
 - 2 a metal container for food that is sealed so that the food stays fresh: a can of sardines o a can of lemonade 1 In British English the more usual word is tin. (Can is used for drinks.)
 - ▶ can verb [T] (canning; canned) to put food, drink, etc. into a can in order to keep it fresh for n long time: canned fruit
 - canal /kəˈnæl/ noun [C] a channel that is cut through land so that boats or ships can travel along it or so that water can flow to an area where it is needed: the Suez Canal
- Canary /kə'neəri/ noun [C] (pl. canaries) a small yellow bird that sings and is often kept in a cage
- [T] cancel /'kænsl/ verb [T] (cancelling; cancelled; 1/8 canceling; canceled) 1 to decide that sth that had been planned or arranged will not happen: Recause of the bad weather the picnic was cancelled. 2 Look at postpone.
 - 2 to stop sth that you asked for or agreed to: We shall have to cancel the reservation. o I wish to cancel my order for these books.

cancel (sth) out to be equal or have an equal effect: What I owe you is the same as what you owe me, so our debts cancel each other out.

- يتعادل مع ؛ يبطل ▶ cancellation /,kænsə'leɪ∫n/ noun [C,U] the net of cancelling sth: We've had several cancellations for this evening's concert. O The cancellation of the match was a great disappointment. إلغاء ؛ حجز ملغى
- CAN NOT | CAN NOT | Cannot / kænøt | CAN NOT disease in which lumps grow in the body in an

- uncontrolled way: She has lung cancer. O He died سرطان of cancer.
- 2 Cancer the fourth sign of the zodiac, the Crab; a person who was born under this sign برج السّرطان ؛ شخص من مواليد هذا البرج
- candid /'kændid/ adj honest and frank; saying exactly what you think of The noun is candour. سريم
- ► candidly adv
- Reandidate /'kændidat; US -deit/ noun [C] 1 a person who applies for a job or wants to be elected to a particular position: We have some very good candidates for the post.
 - 2 a person who is taking an examination

▶ candidacy /'kændidəsi/ noun [U] being a candle /'kændl/ noun [C] a round stick of wax with a piece of string (a wick) through the middle that you can burn to give light: to light/blow out a candlelight /'kændllart/ noun [U] the light that a candle produces: They had dinner by candle-

- 'candlestick /ˈkændlstɪk/ noun [C] a holder for a candle or candles
- candour (US candor) /'kændə(r)/ noun [U] the quality of being honest; saying exactly what you think • The adjective is candid. صراحة
- $\c candy / kændi / noun [C,U] (pl. candies) (US) =$ SWEET2 (1): You eat too much candy
- cane /kein/ noun 1 [C,U] the long, hollow stem of certain plants, such as the sugar plant

فصب ، خيزران

- 2 [C] a stick, for example a walking stick or a عصا ، عكّاز stick used to hit sb with ▶ cane verb [T] to punish sb by hitting him/her with a cane (2) يضرب (بعصا أو خيزرانة)
- canine /kemam/ adj connected with dogs or كلبي: متعلق بالكلاب like a dog
- canister /'kænɪstə(r)/ noun [C] a small metal container
- cannabis /'kænəbis/ noun [U] a drug made from a plant (hemp) that some people smoke for pleasure, but which is illegal in many countries

- cannibal /'kænɪbl/ noun [C] a person who eats other people
 - ▶ cannibalism /ˈkænɪbəlɪzəm/ noun [U]
- cannon /'kænən/ noun [C] (pl. cannon or cannons) 1 a large old-fashioned gun that was used for firing stone or metal balls (cannon balls)
- 2 a large modern gun on a ship, tank, plane, etc.
- - canoe /kə'nu:/ noun [C] a light, narrow boat for one or two people that you can move through the water using a flat piece of wood (a paddle) الكَنو: قارب حَفيف طويل يَدْفع بمحداف ○ Look at kayak. ▶ canoe verb [I] (pres part canoeing; 3rd pers sing pres canoes; pt, pp canoed) to travel in a يتحرك بالكنو canoe

We can say 'He is learning to canoe' or "They canoed down the river', but when we are talking about spending time in a cance it is more usual to say go canoeing: We're going canoeing on the Thames tomorrow.

canon /'kænən/ noun [C] a Christian priest who قسيس في كاتدرائية works in a cathedral canopy /'kænəpi/ noun [C] (pl. canopies) a cover, often a piece of cloth, that hangs above sth: a throne with a purple silk canopy over it

ظُلّة ، سدة

? can't short for CAN NOT canteen /kæn'ti:n/ noun [C] the place in a school, factory, office, etc. where the people who work there can get meals: the staff canteen مطعم في مدرسة أو مصنع الخ Look at cafeteria.

canter /'kæntə(r)/ verb (used about a horse and its rider) to run fairly but not very fast canvas /'kænvəs/ noun 1 [U] a type of strong cloth that is used for making tents, sails, bags, خَيْش، جنفاص etc.

يخب، يهرول

2 [C] a piece of canvas for painting a picture on; فُماش الرسم الزيتي ' لوحة زيتية the painting itself canvass /'kænvəs/ verb 1 [I,T] to go around an area trying to persuade people to vote for a particular person or political party in an election: He's canvassing for the Conservative Party.

يحول ملتمسا أصوات الناخبين

2 [T] to find out what people's opinions are يستطلع الآراء about sth canyon /'kænjen/ noun [C] a deep valley with very steep sides: the Grand Canyon, Arizona canyoning /ˈkænjənɪŋ/ noun [U] a sport in which you jump into a mountain stream and allow yourself to be carried down at high رياضة الانجراف في نهر جبلي سريع speed

? cap /kæp/ noun [C] 1 a soft flat hat that is usually worn by men or boys قبَعة ، طاقية

2 a hat that is worn for a particular purpose: a قُعة ، طاقية shower cap

3 a covering for the end or top of sth: Please put the cap back on the bottle. O Take the lens cap off before you take the photo! 2 Look at the note at top1.

▶ cap verb [T] (capping; capped) 1 to cover the top of sth: mountains capped with snow

يُغَطِّي (قمة شيء)، يكلِّل

2 to follow sth with sth bigger or better to cap it all as a final piece of bad luck: What a holiday! The plane was delayed for 24 hours, they lost their luggage and to cap it all he broke his leg skiing. والأنكى من ذلك capability /,keɪpə'bɪləti/ noun [C,U] (pl. capabilities) the quality of being able to do sth: Animals in the zoo have lost the capability to catch/of catching food for themselves. O I tried to fix the computer, but it was beyond my capabilities.

[capable /kerpəbl/ adj 1 capable of (doing) sth able to do sth; having the power to do sth: He's capable of passing the exam if he tries harder. o That car is capable of 180 miles per hour. o I do not believe that she's capable of stealing (= she is not the sort of person who would steal). • The opposite is incapable. قادر على (فعل شيء)

2 having a lot of skill; good at doing sth: She's a very capable teacher. O We need a capable person قدير ، بارع to organize the concert. بكفاءة ، بمقدرة

▶ capably adv

Rcapacity /kəˈpæsəti/ noun (pl. capacities) 1 [sing., U] the greatest amount that a container or space can hold: The tank has a capacity of 1 000 litres. O The stadium was filled to capacity.

2 [sing., U] the amount that a factory or machine can produce: The power station is working at full capacity.

3 [sing.] capacity (for sth) the ability to understand or do sth: That book is beyond the capacity of children who are still learning to read. استيعاب ، مقدرة عقلية ؛ مقدور

4 [C] the official position that a person has: In his capacity as chairman of the council...

cape¹ /kerp/ noun [C] a piece of clothing with no sleeves that hangs from your shoulders (A cape رداء بلا كمين يتدلى من الكتفين is shorter than a cloak.

cape2 /keip/ noun [C] a piece of land that sticks out into the sea: the Cape of Good Hope رأس (في الجغرافياً)

Capital / 'kæpɪtl/ noun [C] 1 (also capital city) the town or city where the government of a country is: Madrid is the capital of Spain.

2 (also capital 'letter) the large form of a letter that is used at the beginning of a name or sentence: Write your name in capitals.

حرف كبير (في الأحرفُ اللاتينية) ▶ capital adj (only before a noun) written in the large form that we use at the beginning of a name, a sentence, etc: 'David' begins with a حرف كبير ، حرف استهلالي capital 'D'.

capital2 /'kæprtl/ adj connected with punishment by death: a capital offence (= a crime for which sb can be sentenced to death) o capital punishment (= punishment by death)

متعلق بعقوية الإعدام

?capital3 /'kæpitl/ noun [U] an amount of money that you use to start a business or to invest so that you earn more money (interest) on it: When she had enough capital, she bought a shop. o The firm has been trying to raise extra capital.

رأس المال

IDM make capital (out) of sth to use a situ-يستغلّ، ينتفع ب ation to your own advantage capitalism / kæpıtəlizəm / noun [U] the economic system in which businesses are owned and run for profit by individuals and not by the state Look at communism and socialism.

الوأسمالية ، النظام الرأسمالي

▶ capitalist noun [C], adj

capitalize (also capitalise) / kæpītəlaiz/ verb THEY capitalize on sth to use sth to your indvantage: We can capitalize on the mistakes that our rivals have made. يستغلُّ ، ينتفع ب capitulate /kəˈpɪtʃuleɪt/ verb [I] (formal) to stop sh and do what he/she wants

► capitulation /kəˌpɪtʃu'leɪʃn/ noun [Ć,U]

Capricorn /'kæprīkɔːn/ noun [C,U] the tenth sign of the zodiac, the Goat; a person who was born under this sign

برج الجدي : شخص من مواليد هذا البرج capsize /kæp'saiz; US 'kæpsaiz/ verb [I,T] (used about boats) to turn over in the water: The yacht capsized. o She capsized the yacht.

capsule /'kæpsju:l; US kæpsl/ noun [C] 1 a very small tube containing medicine that you swallow whole

2 the part of a spaceship in which the crew live غرفة القيادة والمعيشة في سفينة فضائية and work

Captain /'kæptm/ noun [C] (abbr Capt.) 1 the person who is in command of a ship or a plane

ربّان؛ قبطان 2 an officer of middle rank in the Army or نقيب Navv

3 a person who is the leader of a group or team: Who's (the) captain of the French team?

قائد ، رئيس ▶ captain verb [T] to be the captain of a group caption /'kæpsn/ noun [C] the words that are written above or below a picture, cartoon, etc. to explain what it is about

تعليق على صورة في مجلة وغيرها captivate /kæptivert/ verb [T] to attract and يفتن ، يأسر ، يخلب الألباب hold sb's attention ▶ captivating adj captive /'kæptɪv/ noun [C] a prisoner

▶ captive adj kept as a prisoner; (of animals) kept in a cage, zoo, etc. أسير ؛ حسس hold sb captive to keep sb as a prisoner and not allow him/her to escape يأسّر؛ يحبّس take sb captive to catch sb and hold him/her يأسر ، يحتجز as your prisoner

1 It is also possible to say hold sb prisoner and take sb prisoner.

captivity /kæp'trvəti/ noun [U] the state of being kept as a captive: Wild animals are often unhappy in captivity. اسر ، حبس captor /'kæptə(r)/ noun [C] a person who takes or keeps a person as a prisoner or animal prisoner: The lion was captured and taken back to the zoo. يقبض على

2 to take or win sth from your enemy by force: The town has been captured by the rebels.

3 to succeed in representing sth in words, pictures, etc: This poem captures the atmosphere يعكِس، ينجح في تصوير.. of the carnival.

▶ capture noun [U] a time when a person, animal or thing is captured cially US automobile) a vehicle with an engine and four wheels that up to four or five people can ride in: a new/second-hand car o Where can I park the car? \circ He's having the car serviced tomorrow. o They had a car crash. o She gave me a lift in her car. o to get into/out of a car o an estate car 1 Note that we go by car. We can also say in the car: Do you prefer going on holiday by coach or by car? o I come to work in the car. سيّارة، عربيّة

> 2 a railway carriage that is used for a particular purpose: a dining car o a sleeping car caramel /'kærəmel/ noun 1 [U] sugar that has been burned so that it is dark brown. It is used in food because of its colour and taste

الكرميلة: سكر محروق

2 [C,U] a type of sticky sweet that is made from boiled sugar حلوى الكرميلة أو الكراميل

carat (US karat) /'kærət/ noun [C] a unit of measurement used to describe how pure gold is or how heavy jewels are: a 20-carat gold ring caravan /'kærəvæn/ noun [C] 1 (US trailer) a large vehicle that can be pulled by a car or horse. You can sleep, cook, etc. in a caravan when you are travelling or on holiday: They're touring in Wales with a caravan. o a caravan holiday

مسكن متنقل (يقطر بسيارة أو حصان)

When we are talking about using a caravan for holidays we say go caravanning: We're going caravanning in Scotland this summer.

2 a group of people and animals that travel together, e.g. across a desert caraway /'kærəwei/ noun [C,U] a plant with seeds that have a strong taste and are used for giving flavour to bread, cakes, etc: Add a teaspoon of caraway seed(s).

carbohydrate /_ka:bəv'haidreit/ noun [C,U] one of the substances in food, e.g. sugar, that gives your body energy: Athletes need a diet that is high in carbohydrate and low in fat. o Bread, potatoes and rice all contain carbohydrates.

النشويات و السكريات ، الكربوهيدرات carbon /'ka:bən/ noun [U] (symbol C) a chemical substance that is found in all living things, for example in a pure form in diamonds and in an impure form in coal فحم/كربون

carbon 'copy noun [C] (pl. carbon copies) 1 a copy of a letter, etc. that was made by using carbon paper

2 an exact copy of sth

نسخة مطابقة (للأصل)

carbon di'oxide noun [U] (symbol CO₂) a gas that has no colour or smell that people and animals breathe out of their lungs ثاني أكسيد الكريون carbon mon'oxide noun [U] (symbol CO) the poisonous gas that is produced when carbon is burned in a small amount of air. Motor vehicles produce a lot of carbon monoxide.

أول أكسيد الكربون

'carbon paper noun [U] thin paper with carbon on one side that you put between two pieces of paper. When you write or type on the top piece of paper a copy is produced on the second piece.

car 'boot sale noun [C] a sale in an outdoor place where people sell things they do not want from the back of their cars ♣ Look at jumble sale.

carburettor /,ka:bə'retə(r)/ (US carburetor /'ka:rbəreitər/) noun [C] the piece of equipment in a car's engine that mixes petrol and air

المُكَرِّبِن في السيارة

carcass /ˈkɑːkəs/ noun [C] the dead body of an animal ᢒ Look at corpse. جنَّة (الحيوان)

Reard /kɑːd/ noun 1 [U] thick paper that does not bend easily

2 [C] a piece of card or plastic that has information on it: Here is my business card with my address and telephone number on it. \circ a membership card \circ an identity card \circ a credit card

3 [C] a piece of card with a picture on it that you use for sending greetings or a message to sb: a Christmas card o a birthday card o a get-well card (= one that you send to sb who is ill) o We've had a card (= a postcard) from Diana in Portugal.

4 (also playing card) [C] one of a set of 52 small pieces of card with shapes or pictures on them that are used for playing games: a pack of cards

5 cards [plural] games that are played with cards: Let's play cards. ○ Let's have a game of cards. ○ I never win at cards!

on the cards (informal) likely to happen الكافق on the cards المراكبير من الاحتمال

?cardboard /'ka:dbo:d/ noun [U] very thick paper that is used for making boxes, etc: *The gro*ceries were delivered in large cardboard boxes.

cardiac /ˈkɑːdiæk/ adj connected with the heart cardigan / ka:drgen/ noun [C] a piece of clothing for the top part of the body, often made from wool, that has long sleeves and buttons at the front 2 Look at the note at sweater.

جاكيت أو سترة من الصوف

ورق مقوري

cardinal '' /'kɑːdɪnl/ noun [C] a priest of high rank in the Roman Catholic church کاردینال (فی الکتیسة الکاثولیکیة)

cardinal² /ˈkɑːdɪnl/ (also ˌcardinal ˈnumber) noun [C] a whole number, e.g. 1, 2, 3 that shows quantity ➡ Look at ordinal.

'card index noun [C] → INDEX (2)

Care /kee(r)/verb 1 [I,T] care (about sth) to be worried about or interested in sth; to mind: I shall be late and my mother will be cross, but I don't care. ○ Money is the thing that she cares about most. ○ I don't care what you do.

يهتم ب، يحرص على ؛ يكترث

2 [1] care for sth; care to do sth (formal) to like or want: Would you care for a drink?

• Would you care to leave a message, sir? • Care for in this sense is used in questions and always with 'would'.

3 [I] care for sb/sth to like: I don't care for that colour very much. ○ Do you think she still cares for him although he married someone else?

[I] I, etc. couldn't care less (informal) it does not matter to me, etc. at all: 'You don't look very smart.' 'Well, quite honestly, I couldn't care less.'

who cares? (informal) nobody is interested; it is not important to anyone: 'I wonder who'll win the match.' 'Who cares?'

PHRV care for sb to look after sb: Who cared for her while she was ill?

► caring /ˈkeərɪn/ adj showing that you care about other people: We must work towards a more caring society.

Rcare² /keə(r)/ noun 1 [U] care (over sth/in doing sth) thinking about what you are doing so that you do it well or do not have an accident: You should take more care over your homework.

This box contains glasses - please handle it with care.

2 [U] care (for sb) looking after people so that they have things they need; responsibility for sb/sth: All the children in their care were healthy and happy. o health care o medical care o She's in intensive care (= the part of the hospital for people who are very seriously ill).

Children in care live in a home which is organized by the government or the local council.

3 [C.U] worry, anxiety: She went on holiday to try to forget all her cares. O It was a happy life, free from care.

eare of sb (abbr c/o) words used on an envelope when you are writing to sb at another person's address: Mary Jenkins, c/o Mrs Brown, 10 Riverside Way, Oxford. O You can write to the author, care of his publisher. take care (that.../to do sth) to be careful: Goodbye and take care! O Take care that you don't spill your tea. O He took care not to arrive too early.

take care of sb/sth to deal with sb/sth; to organize or arrange sth: I'll take care of the food for the party.

care assistant → carriage

111

take care of yourself/sb/sth to keep yourself/ sb/sth safe from injury, illness, damage, etc: You should take more care of yourself. You look tired. Oculd you take care of the cat while we are away on holiday? O She always takes great care of her books.

'care assistant = care worker

- Career / kəˈrɪə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a job or profession for which you are trained and which you do for a long time, often with the chance to move to a higher position: Sarah is considering a career in engineering. o His career was always more important to him than his family. o a successful car-
 - 2 your working life: She spent most of her career الحياة المهنية working in India.
 - career2 /kə'rɪə(r)/ verb [I] to move quickly and dangerously: The car careered off the road and يندفع بسرعة ، يفلت دون ضابط crashed into a wall.
- carefree /'keəfri:/ adj happy because you have no problems or worries لا هم له ، ناعم البال
- $oxed{careful}$ $oxed{/'keəfl}$ $oxed{adj}$ 1 careful (of/with sth) thinking about what you are doing so that you do not have an accident or make mistakes, etc: By careful! There's a car coming. o Be careful of that knife - it's very sharp. o Please be very careful with those glasses. o That ladder doesn't look very sufe. Be careful you don't fall. o I was careful not to say anything about the money. O Don't worry she's a careful driver. منتبه ، محترس
 - 2 showing care and attention to details: I'll need to give this matter some careful thought. دقيق ▶ carefully /'keəfəli/ adv: Please listen carefully.
 - It's important that you remember all this. بانتياه ؛ بدقة

carefulness noun [U]

- Careless /keələs/ adj careless (about/with sth) not thinking enough about what you are doing so that you make mistakes, lose or damage things, etc: It was careless of you to go out without lucking the door. \circ Here's another careless mistake you've forgotten the full stop at the end of the sentence. O The accident was caused by careless driving مهمل ؛ طائش
 - ▶ carelessly adv: She threw her coat carelessly بلامبالاة on the chair. إهمال ؛ استهتار
 - carelessness noun [U]
 - Carer /'keərə(r)/ (US caregiver /'keəgıvə(r)/) noun [C] a person who takes care of a sick or old من يرعى مريضاً أو عاجزاً person at home
 - caress /kə'res/ verb [T] to stroke sb in a gentle and loving way: He caressed her hand and looked \ Carpet /'ka:pit/ noun 1 [C,U] (a piece of) thick, يداعب ، يلامس بحبً ملاطفة ، ملامسة بحبً deep into her eyes. caress noun [C]
 - caretaker / 'keəteikə(r)/ (US janitor) noun [C] a person whose job is to look after a large building (e.g. a school or a block of flats) and to do small repairs and other services قيَم ، فرّاش مؤسّسة
- 'care worker (also care assistant) noun a person whose job is to help and take care of people who are mentally ill, sick or disabled, especially those who live in special homes or hospitals من يرعى المرضى أو العجزة في مؤسسة

- cargo /'ka:gəʊ/ noun [C,U] (pl. cargoes; US also cargos) the goods that are carried in a ship or aircraft: The ship was carrying a cargo of wheat.
- Caribbean / kærə'bi:ən; kə'rıbıən/ noun [sing.] the Caribbean the area in the Caribbean Sea where the group of islands called the West Indies منطقة البحر الكاريبي are situated
- ▶ Caribbean adj: the Caribbean islands

كاريبي

caricature /'kærıkətʃvə(r)/ noun [C] a picture or description of sb that makes his/her appearance or behaviour funnier and more extreme than it really is: She drew a very funny caricature of the Prime Minister. o Many of the people in the book are caricatures of the author's friends.

رسم كاريكاتوري

- carnation /kg:'nei[n/ noun [C] a white, pink or red flower with a pleasant smell
- carnival /'ka:nivl/ noun [C] a public festival that takes place outdoors, during which there is a procession in the streets with music and dancing: كارنفال ، احتفال the carnival in Rio
- carob /'kærəb/ noun [C] a southern European tree with dark brown fruit that can be made into شجرة الخروب a powder that tastes like chocolate
- carol /'kærəl/ noun [C] a Christian religious song that people sing at Christmas: carol singers (= groups of people who sing carols outside people's houses in order to collect money for charity) أنشودة (في عيد الميلاد)
- carousel / kærə'sel/ noun [C] 1 (US) = ROUND-ABOUT²(2)
- 2 (at an airport) a moving belt that carries luggage for passengers to collect سير متحرك للحقائب (في مطار)
- carp /ka:p/ noun [C,U] (pl. carp) a large fish that you can eat that lives in rivers, lakes, etc.
- car park (US parking lot) noun [C] an area or building where you can leave your car: a multi-موقف (سيارات) storev car park
- carpenter /'karpente(r)/ noun [C] a person whose job is to make and repair wooden ob-
- ▶ carpentry /-tri/ noun [U] the skill or work of a carpenter
- flat material that is used for covering floors and stairs: We need a new carpet in the bedroom. o a fitted carpet (= one that has been cut to the exact سحّادة ، سياط
 - 2 [C] a thick layer of sth that covers the ground: The fields were under a carpet of snow.
 - ▶ carpeted adj: All the rooms are carpeted.

carriage /'kærid3/ noun 1 [C] (also coach) a عناية ، دقّة

carriageway → cartridge

vehicle with wheels that is pulled by horses مربة تجرّها الخيول

- ${f 2}$ [C] (also coach) (US car) one of the separate parts of a train where people sit: a first-class carriage عربة أو حافلة (في قطال)
- 3 [U] the cost of transporting goods from one place to another: Carriage must be paid by the receiver.
- carriageway /ˈkærɪdʒweɪ/ noun [C] one of the two sides of a motorway or major road on which vehicles travel in one direction only: the south-bound carriageway of the motorway ◆ Look at dual carriageway.
- carrier /ˈkæriə(r)/ noun [C] 1 (in business) a company that transports people or goods: the Dutch carrier, KLM
- 2 a military vehicle or ship that is used for transporting soldiers, planes, weapons, etc: an armoured personnel carrier o an aircraft carrier ناقلة (جنود أو عناد حرير)
- 3 a person or animal that can give an infectious disease to others but does not show the signs of the disease: Some insects are carriers of tropical diseases.
- 4 (Brit also 'carrier bag) a plastic or paper bag for carrying shopping
- Carrot /'kærət/ noun 1 [C,U] a long thin orange vegetable that grows under the ground: A pound of carrots, please. grated carrot
 - 2 [C] something attractive that is offered to sb in order to persuade him/her to do sth: The management have offered them the carrot of a £500 bonus if they agree to work extra hours.
 شئء مفر عافر: عكافات
- Carry /'kæri/ verb (pres part carrying; 3rd pers sing pres carries; pt, pp carried) 1 [T] to hold sb/sth in your hand, arms or on your back while you are moving from one place to another: Could you carry this bag for me? It's terribly heavy.

 She was carrying a rucksack on her back.

You use wear, not carry, to talk about having clothes, jewellery, etc. on your body: He was wearing a black jacket.

- 2 [T] to have with you as you go from place to place: I never carry much money with me when I go to London. Do the police carry guns in your country?
- 3 [T] to transport sb/sth from one place to another: A train carrying hundreds of passengers crashed yesterday. The waves carried the boat to the shore.
- 4 [T] to have an infectious disease that can be given to others, usually without showing any signs of the disease yourself: Rats carry all sorts of diseases.
- 5 [T] (usually passive) to accept a proposal in a meeting because a majority of people vote for it: The motion was carried by 12 votes to 9.

6 [I] (used about a sound) to reach a long distance: You'll have to speak louder if you want your voice to carry to the back of the room.

be/get carried away to be so excited that you forget what you are doing: I got so carried away watching the race that I forgot how late it was.

(الحداس مثلاً)

carry weight to have great influence on the opinion of sb else: Nick's views carry a lot of weight with our manager.

CATTY IT/SHOT to succeed in doing sth difficult: He felt nervous before he started his speech but he carried it off very well.

ينجز (شيئاً صعباً) بنجاح

carry on (with sth/doing sth); carry sth on to continue: How long did the party carry on after I left? o Carry on (= continue speaking). What happened next? o They ignored me and carried on with their conversation. o She intends to carry on studying after the course has finished.

carry sth on to take part in sth: I can't carry on a normal conversation while you're making that noise.

carry sth out 1 to do sth that you have been ordered to do: The soldiers carried out their orders without question.

2 to do or perform sth, e.g. a test, repair, etc: I think we should wait until more tests have been carried out. o The owner is responsible for carrying out repairs to the building.

'carry-all noun [C] (US) = HOLDALL

carrycot /ˈkærikɒt/ noun [C] a small bed, like a box with handles, that you can carry a baby in صرير صغير نقال للأطفال carsick /ˈkɑːsɪk/ adj feeling sick or vomiting as a result of travelling in a car: to get/feel/be car-sick

cart /ka:t/ noun [C] a wooden vehicle with wheels that is used for transporting things: a horse and cart (بناية) عبد في (نقل)

► cart verb [T] (informal) to take or carry sth somewhere, often with difficulty: We left our luggage at the station because we didn't want to cart it around all day. ○ Six of the women were carted off to the police station.

cartilage /ˈkɑːtɪlɪdʒ/ noun [C,U] a strong substance that surrounds the places where your bones join carton /'kɑ:tn/ noun [C] a small container made of cardboard or plastic: a carton of milk, orange juice, etc.

cartoon /kɑːtuːn/ noun [C] 1 a funny drawing, especially one in a newspaper or magazine that makes a joke about a current event دسم هزلي

2 a film that tells a story by using moving drawings instead of real people and places: a Donald Duck cartoon

► cartoonist noun [C] a person who draws cartoons ورأي a person who draws رسام الكاريكاتير . رسام هزلي cartridge /ˈkɑ:trɪdʒ/ noun [C] 1 a small tube that contains explosive powder and a bullet. You put a cartridge into a gun when you want to fire it.

يو افق على

- 2 a closed container that holds camera film, typewriter ribbon, ink for a pen, etc. It is easy to change a cartridge when you want to put in a خرطوشة: علبة خاصة مغلقة new one.
- Carve /ka:v/ verb 1 [I,T] carve sth (out of sth) Case² /keis/ noun [C] 1 (especially in comto cut wood or stone in order to make an object or to put a pattern or writing on it: The statue had been carved out of marble. O He carved his name on the desk.
- 2 [I,T] to cut a piece of cooked meat into slices: Can you carve while I serve the vegetables? o to يشرح اللحم المطبوخ carve a chicken
- ▶ carving noun [C,U] an object or design that has been carved: There are ancient carvings on (شيء) منحوت the walls of the cave.

$\textbf{cascade} \ / \texttt{k} \texttt{\&e} \texttt{'skeid} / \textit{noun} \ [\texttt{C}] \ \textbf{1} \ \ \texttt{a} \ \texttt{waterfall}$

شلأل

- 2 something that hangs or falls in a way that seems similar to a waterfall: The wall of the villa شيء كالشلاّل was covered in a cascade of flowers. ▶ cascade verb [I] ينهمر كشلأل
- Case1 /keis/ noun 1 [C] a particular situation or a situation of a particular type: In some cases, people have had to wait two weeks for a doctor's appointment. o Most of us travel to work by tube or, in Susie's case, by train and tube. ○ There's no secret to success in this business. It's just a case of hard work.
 - 2 the case [sing.] the true situation: The man said he worked in Cardiff, but we discovered later الأمر الحقيقي that this was not the case.
 - 3 [C] an example of an illness; a person who is suffering from an illness: Cases of the disease are very unusual in this country. O The most serious cases were taken to hospital immediately.
 - إصابة ؛ حالة مرضية 4 [C] a crime that is being investigated by the جريمة (تحت التحقيق)

5 [C] something that is decided in a court of law; n trial: The case will come to court in a few دعوى ؛ قضية

police: a murder case

6 [C, usually sing.] the facts and reasons that support one side in a discussion or legal matter: She made a case for shorter working hours, but the others disagreed. (يقدَم) الحجج والبراهين

DM as the case may be (used when you are not sure which of two or more possibilities will be true in a particular situation): The money will be received by the husband or wife, as the case كما يقتضى الأمر

In any case 1 whatever happens or has happened: We've decided to go in any case.

meeting and in any case it's too late now.

على أية حال 2 anyway: He didn't say anything about it at the

In case because sth might happen: I think I'll take an umbrella in case it rains. O Take my number in case you need to phone me. o I wasn't Intending to buy anything but I took my credit card just in case. تحسباً 1؛ في حالة

In case of sth if sth happens: In case of fire, فُي حَالة (حدوث شيء) break this glass.

in that case if that is the situation: 'T'm busy on Tuesday.' 'Oh well, in that case we'll have to meet another day

- prove your/the case/point → PROVE
- pounds) a container or cover for sth: a pencil case o a pillowcase o a bookcase o She put her glasses back in the case. علبة ؛ غطاء ؛ غلاف ؛ حقيبة
 - 2 = SUITCASE: Would vou like me to carry your case?
- 'case study noun [C] (pl. case studies) a study of the development of a person or group of people, especially in social research
- cash /kæs/ noun [U] 1 money in the form of coins or notes and not cheques, credit cards, etc: Would you prefer me to pay in cash or by cheque? o How much cash have you got with you?
 - We use cash when we are talking about coins and notes, but change when we are talking about coins only.
 - 2 (informal) money in any form: I'm a bit short of cash this month so I can't afford to go out much.
 - ▶ cash verb [T] to exchange a cheque, traveller's cheque, etc. for coins and notes: I'm just going to the bank to cash a cheque. PHRV cash in (on sth) to take advantage of a situation
 - cashback /'kæfbæk/ noun [U] 1 an offer of money as a present that is made by some banks, companies selling cars, etc. in order to persuade customers to do business with them

مبلغ يدفع للترويج

- 2 a system in some large shops which allows the customer to take money out of his/her bank account at the same time as paying for the goods with a cash card نقود يمكن سحبها عند شراء الحاجيات
- 'cash card noun [C] (US ATM card) a plastic card given by a bank to its customers so that they can get money from a cash dispenser

- 'cash desk noun [C] the place in a large shop where you pay for things مكان الدفع (في متجر)
- cashew /'kæʃu:; kæ'ʃu:/ (also 'cashew nut) noun [C] a small nut with a curved shape that ثمرة الأكاجو vou can eat
- 'cash flow noun [sing.] the movement of money into and out of a business as goods are bought and sold
- cashier /kæ'frə(r)/ noun [C] the person in a bank, shop, etc. that customers pay money to or get money from أمين الصندوق ، صرّاف
- 'cash machine (also 'cash dispenser; Cashpoint / kæfpoint/; US also ATM) noun [C] a machine inside or outside a bank from which you can get money at any time of day by putting in a special card

آلة صرف النقود (في داخل مصرف أو خارجه) cashmere / kæʃ'mɪə(r)/ noun [U] a type of wool الكشمير: صوف ناعم that is very fine and soft casino → catalogue

casino /kə'si:məʊ/ noun [C] (pl. casinos) a place where people play roulette and other games in which you can win or lose money

كازينو ، ملهى قمار

cask /kɑːsk; US kæsk/ noun [C] a large wooden container in which alcoholic drinks, etc. are stored; barrel casserole /ˈkæsərəʊl/ noun 1 [C,U] a type of food that you make by cooking meat and vegetables in liquid for a long time in the oven: chicken casserole

2 [C] a large dish with a lid for cooking casseroles in الكسرولة: طبق كبير بغطاء cassette /kə'set/ noun [C] a flat case with magnetic tape inside that you use for recording and playing music and other sounds • Another word for cassette is tape. When you want to go back to the beginning of a cassette you rewind it. When you want to go forward you fast forward it. • Look at video.

cas'sette recorder noun [C] a machine that you use for recording and playing cassettes

مسحّلة كاست

Reast¹ /kɑ:st; US kæst/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] all the actors in a play, film, etc: The film has an excellent cast. (الممثلون (في مسرحية أو فيلم الخ

Cast² /kɑ:st; US kæst/ verb (pt, pp cast) 1 [T] (often passive) to choose an actor for a particular role in a play, film, etc: She always seems to be cast in the same sort of role.

2 [T] to make an object by pouring hot liquid metal into a shaped container (a mould): a statue cast in gold

 ${f 3}$ [I.T] to throw a fishing line or net into the water cast doubt on sth to make people unsure about sth: The newspaper report casts doubts on the truth of the Prime Minister's statement.

يشكك (في شيء) cast an eye/your eye(s) over sb/sth to look at sth quickly cast light on sth to help to explain sth: I'd be grateful if you could cast any light on the problem.

cast a shadow (across/over sth) to cause a shadow to appear somewhere: The tree cast a long shadow across the garden. و (figurative) The accident cast a shadow over the rest of the holiday (= stopped people enjoying it fully). ولَقِي ظِلاَ عَلَى اللهِ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهِ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى

EHRY cast sb/sth off to remove or make yourself free of sb/sth: He cast off the stress of city life and went to live in the country.

castaway /ˈkɑːstəweɪ; US kæst-/ noun [C] a person who is left in a place far from civilization after a shipwreck مناج من سفينة غارقة في مكان منعزل

caste /kɑːst/ noun 1 [C] one of the social classes into which Hindus are divided طبقة اجتماعية

2 [U] the system of dividing people in this way cast 'iron noun [U] a hard type of iron

حديد مسبوك ، حديد الصب

► cast-iron adj made of cast iron: (figurative) a cast-iron alibi (one that people cannot doubt)

ر castle /ˈkɑːsl; USˈkæsl/ noun [C] a large building with high walls and towers that was built in the past to defend people against attack: a medieval castle حقلة

'cast-off noun [C, usually pl.] a piece of clothing that you no longer want and that you give to sh else or throw away: When I was little I had to wear my sister's cast-offs.

castrate /kæˈstreɪt; US ˈkæstreɪt/ verb [T] to remove part of the sexual organs of a male animal or person casual /'kæʒuəl/ adj 1 relaxed and not worried; not showing great effort or interest: She tried to appear casual as he walked towards her. The manager is not happy about your casual attitude to your work. • It was only a casual remark so I don't know why he got so angry.

► castration /kæ'strei∫n/ noun [U]

غير مبال ؛ غير مقصود

2 (used about clothes) not formal: I always change into casual clothes as soon as I get home from work.

3 (used about work) done only for a short period; not regular or permanent: Most of the building work was done by casual labour. She had a number of casual jobs during the university holidays.

قصير: متطع، مؤقت

► casually /'kæʒuəli/ adv: She walked in casually and said, 'I'm not late, am !?' ○ Dress casually, it won't be a formal party.

بلا مبالاة ؛ على نحو غير رسمي casualty /ˈkæʒuəlti/ noun (pl. casualties) 1 [C] a person who is killed or injured in a war or an accident: After the accident the casualties were taken to hospital. • The army retreated after suffering heavy casualties.

2 [C] a person or thing that suffers as a result of sth else: Many small companies have been casualties of the country's economic problems.

3 [U] (Brit) = accident and emergency

"Cat /kæt/ noun [C] 1 a small furry animal with four legs and a tail. People often keep cats as pets.

A young cat is called a kitten. A male cat is called a tom. When a cat makes a soft sound of pleasure, it purrs. When it makes a louder sound, it miaows.

2 any larger wild animal that is related to a cat, e.g. a lion or tiger: We went to the zoo to see the big cats.

catalogue (US catalog /ˈkætəlog; US -loːg/) noun [C] 1 a list of all the things that you can buy from a company, all the books in a library, all the paintings in an art exhibition, etc.

کتالوج ، کشف ، مدرک

- 2 a series, especially of bad things: a catalogue of disasters شالت مثلاً)
- catalogue verb [T] to list things in a catalogue: She started to catalogue all the new library books.
- catalytic converter /ˌkætəˌlɪtɪk kənˈvɜːtə(r)/ noun [C] (technical) a device used in motor vehicles to reduce the damage caused to the environment by poisonous gases
- catapult /ˈkætəpʌlt/ noun [C] a Y-shaped stick with a piece of elastic attached to each side that is used by children for shooting stones
- مرِجام، "نبلة"، "نقَيفة" catapult verb [T] 1 to shoot sth from a catapult يقذف بالمرجام
- 2 to throw sb/sth suddenly and with great force: When the train crashed, several people were cataputted through the windows. (figurative) The success of his first film cataputted him to stardom.
- cataract /ˈkætərækt/ noun [C] a diseased area that can grow on a person's eye and cause difficulty in seeing
- catarrh /kəˈtɑː(r)/ noun [U] a thick liquid that forms in the nose and throat when you have a cold
- catastrophe /kəˈtæstrəfi/ noun [C] a sudden event that causes great suffering or damage; disaster: Major catastrophes like floods and earth-quakes happen regularly in that part of the world. o a financial catastrophe كارثة : كله حدمة المعاملة من المعاملة المعاملة
- Reatch¹ /kætʃ/ verb (pt, pp caught /kɔːt/) 1 [T] to take hold of 5th that is moving, usually with your hand or hands: She threw the ball and he caught it in one hand. The dog caught the ball in its mouth.
 - 2 [T] to capture sb/sth that you have been chasing or looking for: Two policemen ran after the thief and caught him at the end of the street.

 The murderer still hasn't been caught. to catch a fish
 - 3 [T] to discover sb who is doing sth bad: I caught her taking money from my purse.
 - 4 [T] to get on a form of public transport: I caught the bus into town. to catch a train, plane, etc.
 - 5 [T] to be in time for sth; not to miss sb/sth: If I take the letter now, I should catch the post. We arrived just in time to catch the beginning of the film. I'll phone her now. I might just catch her hefore she leaves the office.
 - 6 [T] to hear or understand sth that sb says: I'm sorry, I didn't quite catch what you said. Could you repeat it?
 - 7 [I.T] to become or cause sth to become accidentally attached to or trapped in sth: His jacket caught on a nail. I caught my finger in the

- drawer as I shut it. o I'm sorry I'm late. I got caught in the traffic. يعلق :ينحبس
- 8 [T] to get an illness: I've got a terrible cold. I must have caught it from someone at work.
- catch sb's attention/eye to make sb notice sth: I tried to catch the waiter's eye so that I could get the bill.
- catch fire to start burning, often accidentally: Nobody knows how the building caught fire.
- catch sb red-handed to find sb just as he/she is doing sth wrong: A policeman noticed the ladder at the window and caught the burglars red-handed.
- catch sight/a glimpse of sb/sth to see sb/sth for a moment: I caught sight of the man at the end of the street. We waited outside the theatre, hoping to catch a glimpse of the actress.
- catch the sun to become burned or tanned by the sun: Your face looks red. You've really caught the sun, haven't you?
- catch/take sb unawares → UNAWARE
- PHRV catch on (informal) 1 to understand or realize sth: She's sometimes a bit slow to catch on.
- 2 to become popular or fashionable: The idea has never really caught on in this country.
- ينتشر ، يروج catch sb out to cause sb to make a mistake by asking a clever question: Ask me anything you like - you won't catch me out.
- catch up (with sb); catch sb up 1 to reach sb/sth who is ahead of you: Jackie was walking very fast and I had to run to catch up with her o I'll just finish this letter. You go on and I'll catch you up in a minute.
- 2 to reach the same level as sb/sth else: Our economy is developing fast and we should soon catch up with other countries in the western world.
- catch up on sth to spend time doing sth that you have not been able to do until now: I'll have to go into the office at the weekend to catch up on my work.
- be/get caught up in sth to be or get involved in sth, usually without intending to: I seem to have got caught up in a rather complicated situation.
- Catch² /kætʃ/ noun [C] 1 an act of taking hold of sth that is moving, usually with your hand or hands
 - 2 the amount of fish that sb has caught: The fishermen brought their catch to the harbour.
 کسته السمال المصطاد
 - 3 a device for fastening sth and keeping it closed: I can't close my suitcase the catch is broken. o a window catch
 - 4 a hidden disadvantage to sth that seems attractive: It looks like a good offer but I'm sure there must be a catch in it.
- catchment area /ˈkætʃmənt eəriə/ noun [C] the area from which a school gets its pupils, a hospital gets its patients, etc.

catchphrase → cavity

catchphrase /ˈkætʃfreɪz/ noun [C] a phrase that becomes famous for a while because it is used by a famous person catchy /'kætʃi/ adj (catchier; catchiest) (used about a tune or song) easy to remember categorical /ˌkætəˈɡprɪkl; US -ˈɡɔːr-/ adj completely definite: The answer was a categorical 'no'.

يعلق بسرعة ، سهل التذكر

categorically /-kli/ adv: The Minister categorically denied the rumour.

Category /ˈkætəgəri; US-goːri/ noun [C] (pl. categories) a group of people or things that are similar to each other: There were two categories in the competition: children under 5 and 6-8 year-olds. ○ These books are divided into categories according to subject.

► categorize (also categorise) /ˈkætəgəratz/ verb [T] to divide people or things into groups, or to say that sb/sth belongs to a particular group cater /ˈkentə(r)/ verb [I] 1 cater for sb/sth; cater to sth to provide what sb/sth needs or wants: We need a hotel that caters for small children. • a newspaper that caters to people's love of gossip

2 cater (for sb/sth) to provide and serve food and drink for a social event: the firm that catered at our wedding

► caterer noun [C] a person or business that provides food and drink for social events

متعهد (بخدمات الطعام والثيراب)

catering noun [U] the activity or business of providing food and drink for social events: the hotel and catering industry

خدمة الحفلات العامة (بالطعام والشراب) caterpillar /ˈkætəpɪlə(r)/ noun [C] an animal like a small hairy worm with legs, which changes into a butterfly or moth cathedral /kəˈθiːdrəl/ noun [C] a large church that is the most important one in a district

Catholic /ˈkæθlɪk/ noun [C], adj = Roman Catholic

Catholicism /kə'θɒləsɪzəm/ noun [U] = Roman Catholicism

cattle /ˈkætl/ noun [plural] male and female cows, e.g. on a farm: a herd of cattle (= a group of them) ⊃ Look at the note at cow.

Caucasian /kɔ:'keɪziən; kɔ:'keɪʒn/ noun, adj (of) a member of the race of people who have white or light-coloured skin

قوقازي: ينتمي للعرق الأبيض caught pt, pp of CATCH1

cauldron (also caldron) / ko:ldrən/ noun [C] a large, deep, metal pot that is used for cooking things over a fire cauliflower /'kɒliflaʊə(r); US 'kɔːli-/ noun [C,U] a large vegetable with green leaves and a round white centre that you eat when it is cooked

قر نسط

Reause /ko:z/ noun 1 [C] a thing or person that makes sth happen: The police do not know the cause of the accident. • Smoking is one of the causes of heart disease.

2 [U] cause (for sth) reason: I don't think you have any real cause for complaint.

3 [C] an aim or principle that a group of people believe in and support: We are all committed to the cause of racial equality. ○ I don't mind giving money to a good cause.

IDM a lost cause → LOST

► cause verb [T] to make sth happen: The fire was caused by an electrical fault. ○ High winds caused many trees to fall during the night. ○ Is your leg causing you any pain?

caustic /ˈkɔːstɪk/ adj 1 (used about a substance) able to burn or destroy things by chemical action

2 (used about a comment or type of humour) cruel and unpleasant caution /ˈkɔːʃn/ noun 1 [U] great care, because of possible danger: Caution! Falling rocks! (= on a road sign)

2 [C] a spoken warning that a judge or policeman gives to sb who has committed a small crime تعذير ، تنبيه

► caution verb [I,T] to warn sh about sth: He cautioned me not to believe everything I heard.

o The President's advisers have cautioned against calling an election too early.

cautionary /ˈkɔːʃənəri; US ˈkɔːʃəneri/ adj giving a warning: a cautionary tale تحذيري، للعظة والعبرة cautious /ˈkɔːʃəs/ adj taking great care to avoid possible danger: I'm very cautious about expressing my opinions in public.

► cautiously adv

cavalry /kævlri/ noun [sing., with sing. or pl. verb] 1 the part of the army which fights in fast, heavily protected vehicles

2 the group of soldiers who fought on horses in the past (سلاح) الفرسان

Cave /keɪv/ noun [C] a large hole in the side of a cliff or hill, or under the ground: When it started to rain, we ran to shelter in a cave.

> cave verb

PHRV cave in 1 to fall in: The roof of the tunnel had caved in and we could go no further.

نقو َض، بنهار

2 to suddenly stop arguing or opposing sth: He finally caved in and agreed to the plan.

ستسلم ، يذعن

cavern /'kævən/ noun [C] a large, deep cave - کهف ، مغارة کبیرة

Caviare (also caviar) /ˈkæviɑ:(r)/ noun [U] the eggs of a large fish (a sturgeon) that are eaten as food. Caviare is usually very expensive.

الكافيار: نوع من البطرخ cavity /'kævəti/ noun [C] (pl. cavities) 1 an empty space inside sth solid: a wall cavity

2 a hole in a tooth

CC / si: 'si: / abbrev 1 cubic centimetre(s): a 1200 cc engine

2 carbon copy: cc Harriet Symes

صورة طبق الأصل؛ نسخة إلى

CCTV / si: si: ti: 'vi:/ abbrev = closed-circuit tele-

CD / si: 'di:/ abbrev compact disc; a small, round piece of hard plastic, like a record, on which sound is recorded or information stored

قرص مضغوط (أو مركّز أو مدمُج)

CD-ROM (US CD/ROM) /,si: di: 'rom/ abbrev compact disc read-only memory; a compact disc which can be used in a computer and which has a lot of information recorded on it. The information cannot be changed or removed.

قرص مدمّج للقراءة فقط

CE / si: 'i:/ abbrev Common Era (may be used instead of AD)

- Cease /si:s/ verb [I,T] (formal) to stop or end: Fighting in the area has now ceased. o That organization has ceased to exist. o 500 people lost their jobs when the company ceased trading.
 - يتوقّف؛ يوقف؛ يُنه ► ceaseless adj continuing for a long time تمر ، متواصل without stopping باستمرار ، بلا انقطاع ceaselessly adv

ceasefire /'si:sfaiə(r)/ noun [C] an agreement between two groups to stop fighting each other وقف إطلاق النار code /si:d/ verb [T] (formal) to give land or control of sth to another country or person يتنازل عن

- [C] 1 the top surface of the inside of a room: We painted the walls pink and the ceiling white. o a room with a high/low ceil-
 - 2 a top limit on wages, prices, etc: The Government has put a 10% ceiling on wage increases. حدُ أعلى
- Icelebrate /'selibreit/ verb 1 [I,T] to do sth special and enjoyable on an important day or because of an important event: When I got the job we celebrated by going out for a meal. o Mrs Halfurd celebrated her 80th birthday yesterday.

2 [T] (used about a priest) to lead a religious يقوم بالشعائر ceremony: to celebrate Mass

- ▶ celebration /,seli'brei∫n/ noun [C,U] the act or occasion of doing sth enjoyable because sth wood has happened or because it is a special day: Christmas celebrations o I think this is an occa-Mon for celebration!
- celebrated /'selibreitid/ adj (formal) famous: a celebrated poet
- colobrity /sə'lebrəti/ noun [C] (pl. celebrities) a fumous person

- celery /'seləri/ noun [U] a vegetable with long green stems that is eaten raw in salads and sometimes used in cooking: a stick of celery o celery
- celibate /'selibat/ adj (formal) remaining unmarried or never having sexual relations, often because of religious beliefs متبتل ؛ عُزَب تبتُّل! عزوبة
- ► celibacy /'selibəsi/ noun [U]
- ?cell /sel/ noun [C] 1 the smallest living part of an animal or a plant body: The human body consists of millions of cells. o red blood cells خَليّة
 - 2 a small room in a prison or police station in which a prisoner is locked ز نزانة
 - cellar /'selə(r)/ noun [C] an underground room that is used for storing things 2 Look at base-
 - cello /'t[eləʊ/ noun [C] (pl. cellos) a musical instrument like a large violin. You sit down to play it and hold it between your knees.
 - فيولونسيل: كمنجة كبيرة ightharpoonup cellist /'tselist/ noun [C] a person who plays عازف فيولونسيل
 - Cellophane™ /'seləfem/ noun [U] thin transparent material that is used for wrapping things ورق سلوفان
- Cellphone /'selfeon/ (also cellular phone) noun = MOBILE PHONE
- cellular /'seljələ(r)/ adj consisting of cells(1): cellular tissue خلوي
- Celsius /'selsias/ (also Centigrade) adj (abbr C) the name of a scale for measuring temperatures, in which water freezes at 0° and boils at 100°: The temperature tonight will fall to 7°C. 1 We say 'seven degrees Celsius'. Look also at Fahrenheit. (مقياس حرارة) مئوي ً
- Celtic /'keltik; US 'seltik/ adj connected with the people (the Celts) who lived in Wales, Scotland Ireland and Brittany in ancient times, or with their culture
- cement /si'ment/ noun [U] 1 a grey powder, that becomes hard after it is mixed with water and left to dry. It is used in building for sticking bricks or stones together or for making very hard surfaces.
- 2 a type of glue
- لصاق ▶ cement verb [T] 1 to cover sth with cement
- 2 to stick things together
- 3 to make a relationship very strong: This agreement has cemented the relationship between our two companies.
- cemetery /'semətri; US 'seməteri/ noun [C] (pl. cemeteries) a place where dead people are buried (that does not belong to a church) 3 Look at graveyard.
- censor /'sensə(r)/ noun [C] an official who examines books, films, plays, etc. and removes any parts that might offend people, or who examines letters, newspaper reports, etc. and removes any parts which contain secret information رقيب

the information they sent back to Britain was being censored.

censorship noun [U]: state censorship of radio and television programmes مر اقبة censure /'senfə(r)/verb [T] (formal) to tell sb, in a strong and formal way, that he/she has done sth wrong: The minister was censured for not revealing the information earlier. بقرع، يويخ

▶ censure noun [U]: a vote of censure in parlia-تقريع ، توبيخ

census /'sensəs/ noun [C] (pl. censuses) an official count of the people who live in a country, including information about their ages, jobs, etc. إحصاء أو تعداد (السكّان)

Reent /sent/ noun [C] (abbr c, ct) a unit of money that is worth 100th part of the main unit of money in many countries e.g. the euro or the US dollar ⇒ Look also at per cent.

centenary /sen'ti:nəri; US 'sentəneri/ noun [C] (pl. centenaries) (US also centennial /sen-'tenial/) the year that comes exactly one hundred years after an important event or the beginning of sth: 2005 is the centenary of Norway's independence. o centenary celebrations

Tenter /'sentə(r)/ noun [C] (US) = CENTRE

centigrade /'sentigreid/ adj = Celsius centilitre (US centiliter) /'sentilite(r)/ noun [C] (abbr cl) a unit for measuring liquids. There are 100 centilitres in a litre.

R centimetre (US also centimeter) /'sentimità (r)/ noun [C] (abbr cm) a measure of length. There are 100 centimetres in a metre: The insect was about two centimetres long.

Reentral /'sentral/ adj 1 in the centre of sth: a map of central Europe o The flat is in Edgware Road, which is very central (= near the centre of the city and therefore very convenient).

2 (only before a noun) (used about an office, group, etc.) having control of all other parts of an organization: central government (= the government of a whole country, not local government) مركزي o the Conservative Central Office

3 most important; main: The film's central character is a fifteen-year-old girl.

► centralize (also centralise) /'sentralaiz/ verb [T] (usually passive) to make sth come under central control: Our educational system is becoming increasingly centralized.

يمركز: يضع تحت السلطة المركزية centralization (also centralisation) / sentralar'zerfn; US -lr'z-/ noun [U] مركزية ؛ مركزة centrally /'sentrali/ adv in or from the centre: a centrally located hotel (= near the centre of the في أو من المركز town) o a centrally heated house

.central 'heating noun [U] a system for heating a building from one main point. Air or water is heated and carried by pipes to all parts of the building: The house has gas central heating.

▶ censor verb [T]: The journalist said that all {centre (US center) | rento(r) | noun 1 [C, usually sing.] the middle point or part of sth: There was a vase of flowers in the centre of the table. o I work in the centre of London. O Which way is the town centre, please? I Look at the note at mid-مركز، وسط، قلب

2 [C] a building or place where a particular activity or service is based: a sports, leisure, arts, shopping, etc. centre o a job, information, health, etc. centre

3 [C] a person or thing that receives a lot of attention: She always likes to be the centre of محور ، مُحَطُ attention

4 the centre [sing., with sing. or pl. verb] a political position that is not extreme: the centre parties

▶ centre verb

PHRY centre on/around sb/sth to have sb/sth as its centre: The life of the village centres on the church, the school and the pub.

يتركّز في ؛ يتمحور حول

Century /'sentfəri/ noun [C] (pl. centuries) 1 a particular period of 100 years that is used for giving dates: the 20th century (= the period between the years 1901 and 2000)

2 any period of 100 years: His family have owned this farm for centuries. قرن ceramic /səˈræmɪk/ adj made of clay that has خزفي، من السيراميك been baked: ceramic tiles

▶ ceramic noun [C] a pot or other object made of clay: an exhibition of ceramics by Picasso

إناء خزفي

ceramics noun [U] the art of making and decorating clay pots, etc. فن أو صناعة الخزف

cereal /'siəriəl/ noun [C,U] 1 a plant such as wheat, rice, etc. that is grown to produce grain: These fields are usually planted with cereals. حُبوب، غلال cereal crops

2 food that is made from the grain of cereals: 10 different varieties of breakfast cereal cerebral /'serəbrəl; US sə'ri:brəl/adj connected with the brain: He died of a cerebral haemorrhage. دماغي أو مخّي ceremonial /.serr'məuniəl/ adj relating to a ceremony: a ceremonial occasion

طعام من الحبوب

► ceremonially /-niəli/ adv

على نحو احتفالي ؛ بصورة رسميّة

Receremony /'serəməni; US -məuni/ noun (pl. ceremonies) 1 [C] a formal public or religious event: the opening ceremony of the Olympic Games احتفال رسمي o a wedding ceremony

2 [U] formal behaviour, speech, actions, etc. that are expected on special occasions: The Queen was welcomed with great ceremony.

?certain1 /'sa:tn/ adj 1 (not before a noun) certain (that...); certain (of sth) completely sure; without any doubts: She's absolutely certain that there was somebody outside her window. o I think this is the man, but I can't be certain. O We're not quite certain what time the train leaves. o I'm cer

certain → chalet

119

tain of one thing - he didn't take the money

متأكّد ؛ واثق

- 2 certain (that...); certain (to do sth) sure to happen or to do sth; definite: It is almost certain that unemployment will increase this year. The Director is certain to agree. Nothing is certain at the moment. Wait and see. We must rescue them today, or they will face certain death.

 2 Look at the note at sure.
- in for certain without doubt: I don't know for certain what time we'll arrive.
 على وجه التأكيد
 make certain (that...) to do sth in order to be sure that sth else happens: They're doing everything they can to make certain that they win.
- يتأكد. يستوقق Let ainly adv 1 without doubt; definitely: The number of students will certainly increase after 2010. • It certainly was a very good party. • I certainly don't think you should tell him now.
- 2 (used in answer to questions) of course: 'Do you think I could borrow your notes?' 'Certainly.'

 'Can I take your car to France?' 'Certainly 'not!'
- certainty /sa:tnti/ noun (pl. certainties) 1 [U] the state of being completely sure about sth: We can't say with certainty that there is life on other planets. 1 The opposite is uncertainty.
- 2 [C] something that is sure to happen: It's now almost a certainty that Italy will play in the World Cup Final.
- Certain² /'ss:tn/ adj (only before a noun) 1 (used for talking about a particular thing or person without naming them): You can only contact me at certain times of the day: There are certain reasons why I'd prefer not to meet him again.
 - 2 noticeable but difficult to describe: There was a certain feeling of autumn in the air. شعور)
 - 3 (used before a person's name to show that you do not know him/her): I received a letter from a certain Mrs Berry.
 - ▶ certain pron certain of... (formal) (used for talking about some members of a group of people or things without giving their names): Certain of our hotels are only open in the summer months.
- Certificate /sə'tıfıkət/ noun [C] an official piece of paper that says that sth is true or correct: a hirth certificate
 - certify /ˈssːtɪfaɪ/ verb [T] (pres part certifying; 3rd pers sing pres certifies; pt, pp certified) 1 to say formally that sth is true or correct: We need someone to certify that this is her signature.
 - to give sb a certificate to show that he/she has successfully completed a course of training for a particular profession

Cesarian, Cesarean (US) = Caesarean

- أنظر ef/ abbrev compare: cf note on p 20
- CFC /,si: ef 'si:/ noun [C] a type of gas used especially in aerosols. CFCs are harmful to the layer of ozone in the earth's atmosphere. CFC stands for 'chlorofluorocarbon'. فحم الكلود والفلود

- ch (also chap) abbrev = CHAPTER
- chador /tʃɑːdɔː(r)/ noun [C] a large piece of cloth that covers a woman's head and upper body so that only the face can be seen, worn by some Muslim women
- Rchain /tʃeɪn/ noun 1 [C,U] a line of metal rings that are joined together: They used heavy chains to pull the boat out of the water. o a bicycle chain o She was wearing a silver chain round her neck. o a length of chain
 - 2 [C] a number of things in a linc: a chain of mountains/a mountain chain
 - 3 [C] a group of shops, hotels, etc. that are owned by the same person or company: a chain of supermarkets/a supermarket chain
 - سلسلة مؤسسات تجارية
 - 4 [C] a number of connected events that happen one after another: The book examines the complex chain of events that led to the Russian Revolution.
 - ► chain verb [T] chain sb/sth (to sth); chain sb/sth (up) to fasten sb/sth to sth else with a chain: The prisoners had been chained to the walls.
- 'chain-smoker noun [C] a person who smokes continuously, lighting one cigarette after another مُنَّ لا يَتْوَقَفَ عَنِ التَّلْخِينِ
- 'chain store noun [C] one of a number of similar shops that are owned by the same company متجر في سلسلة (متاجر متماثلة)
- Chair /tʃeə(r)/ noun 1 [C] a piece of furniture for one person to sit on. It has a seat, a back and usually four legs. It sometimes has two arms: a kitchen chair o an armchair o a wheelchair
 - 2 [sing.] the person who is controlling a meeting: Please address your questions to the chair.
 رئيس (رئيسة) الاجتماع
 - 3 [C] the position of a university professor: the chair of economics at London University
 - ► chair verb [T] to be the chairman or chair woman of a meeting: Who's chairing the meeting this evening?
- R chairman /'tʃeəmən/ noun [C] (pl. chairmen)

 1 the head of a committee, company or other organization: the Chairman of IBM

 رئيس (لجنة الخ)
 - رئيس الاجتماع a person who controls a meeting رئيس الاجتماع ► chairmanship /'tʃeəmənʃɪp/ noun [sing.] being the chairman of sth; the time during which sb is chairman of sth
 - chairperson /'tʃeəpɜ:sn/ noun [C] (pl. chairpersons) a person who controls a meeting رئیس (رئیسة) الاجتماع
- Chairwoman /ˈtʃeəwumən/ (pl. chairwomen) noun [C] a woman who controls a meeting المامة الاجتماع المناطقة الاجتماع المناطقة ال
 - chalet /'fæler/ noun [C] a house or hut that is made of wood, especially in a mountain area or holiday camp

- chalk /tʃo:k/ noun 1 [U] a soft, white rock: chalk cliffs طباشير ، حوار
- 2 [C,U] a small stick of this that is used for writing or drawing on a blackboard: a piece of chalk

The team has chalked up five wins this summer.

- chalkboard /'tsp:kbo:d/ noun [C] (US) = BLACK-BOARD
- rchallenge¹/tʃælmdʒ/noun 1 [C,U] something new and difficult that forces you to make a lot of effort: I'm finding my new job an exciting challenge. Reducing unemployment will be the main challenge for the new government.
 - 2 [C] a challenge (to sb) (to do sth) an invitation from sb to fight, play, argue, etc. against him/her: The Prime Minister should accept our challenge and call a new election now.
- T challenge² /tʃælɪndʒ/ verb [T] 1 challenge sb (to sth) to invite sb to fight, play, argue, etc. against you: They've challenged us to a football match this Saturday.
 - 2 to question whether sth is true or right: She hates anyone challenging her authority.
 - یعترض علی ، یتحدی

 ► challenger noun [C] a person who invites you to take part in a competition, because he/she wants to win a title or position that you already have challenging adj forcing you to make a lot of effort: a challenging job

- Ç chamber /'tʃeɪmbə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a large room that is used for formal meetings: a council chamber غوفة احتماعات
 - 2 a room that is used for a particular purpose: a torture chamber (بغرض معين)
 - chambermaid /ˈtʃeɪmbəmeɪd/ noun [C] a woman whose job is to clean and tidy hotel bedrooms
- 'chamber music noun [U] music that is written for a small group of instruments
 - موسيقى لعدد محدود من الآلات an/ noun [C] a small lizard
- chameleon /kəˈmiːliən/ noun [C] a small lizard that can change colour according to its surroundings
- chamomile (also camomile) /ˈkæməmaɪl/ noun [U] a sweet-smelling plant with small white and yellow flowers whose leaves and flowers are used in medicine, etc: camomile tea o camomile shampoo
- champagne /ʃæmˈpem/ noun [U] a French white wine which has a lot of bubbles in it and is often very expensive

- champion /'tʃæmpiən/ noun [C] 1 a person, team, etc. that has won a competition: a world champion o a champion swimmer
- 2 a person who speaks and fights for a particular group, idea, etc: a champion of free speech مدافع عن ، نصير
- ► champion verb [T] to support or fight for a particular group or idea: to champion the cause of human rights championship noun [C] 1 (often plural) a competition or series of competitions to find the best player or team in a sport or game: to win the world championship o the World Hockey Championships

- 2 the position or title of a champion (1) بطولة
- Chance¹ /tfa:ns; US tfæns/ noun 1 [C,U] chance of (doing) sth; chance (that...) (a) possibility: The plan didn't really have a chance of succeeding. I think there's a good chance that she'll be the next Prime Minister. I'm afraid he has very little chance of winning. Is there any chance of getting tickets for tonight's concert?

إمكانية ، احتمال

- 2 [C] chance (of doing sth/to do sth) an opportunity: If you get the chance of going to America, you should take it! O Be quiet and give her a chance to explain. O I think you should tell him now. You may not get another chance. ② Look at the note at occasion.
- 3 [C] a risk: We may lose some money but that's a chance we'll have to take.
- 4 [U] luck or fortune (= sth that you cannot control): I don't know what will happen we'll have to leave it to chance. O We met by chance (we had not planned to meet) as I was walking down the street.

by any chance (used for asking sth politely) perhaps or possibly: Are you, by any chance, going into town this afternoon?

the chances are (that)... (informal) it is probable that...: The chances are that it will rain tomorrow.

no chance (informal) there is no possibility of that happening: 'Perhaps your mother will give you the money.' 'No chance!'

on the off chance in the hope that sth might happen, although it is not very likely: I didn't think you'd be at home, but I just called in on the off chance. (العنه غير محتمل خلي أمل (حلوث شيء غير محتمل stand a chance (of sth/of doing sth) to have a possibility of achieving sth: I think she stands a good chance of winning the competition.

يمكنه أن يحقِّق شيئاً

- chance² /tʃɑ:ns; US tʃæns/ verb 1 [T] (informal) to risk sth: Shall we take umbrellas or shall we chance it (= risk getting wet)?
- 2 [I] (formal) to do sth without planning or trying to do it: I chanced to see the letter on his desk.

chance³ /tʃɑ:ns; US tʃæns/ adj (only before a noun) not planned: a chance meeting (القاء) مصادفة chancellor /'tfa:nsələ(r); US 'tfæns-/ noun [C]

- German chancellor مستشار؛ رئيس وزراء
- 2 (also Chancellor of the Ex'chequer) (Brit) the government minister who makes decisions about taxes and government spending

وزير المالية (فيّ بريطانيا)

chandelier / [ændə'lɪə(r)/ noun [C] a large light that hangs from the ceiling and that has many light bulbs or candles

- change /tfeind3/verb 1 [I,T] to become different or to make sb/sth different: This town has changed a lot since I was young. Our plans have changed. We leave in the morning. O His fame has not changed him at all. ىتفىر:يفير
 - 2 [I,T] change (sb/sth) to/into sth; change (from sth) to become sth different; to make sb/ sth take a different form: to change from a caterpillar to a butterfly o to change water into يتحول؛ يغير، يحول
 - 3 [T] change sth (for sth) to take, have or use sth instead of sth else: Could I change this blouse for a larger size? o to change jobs o to change a light bulb o to change direction o Can I change my appointment from Wednesday to Thursday?
 - يغير، يستبدل 4 [LT] to get out of one bus, train, etc. and get into another: Does this bus go through to the airport or do we have to change? o She has to change trains at Reading and Didcot. يغير واسطة النقل
 - 5 [I,T] change (out of sth) (into sth) to take off your clothes and put different ones on: He's changed his shirt. o I'm going straight to the party from work, so I'll change when I get there. o She changed out of her gardening clothes and into a clean dress. 6 Get changed is a common expression meaning 'to change your clothes': You can get changed in the bedroom.
 - 6 [T] to put clean things onto sb/sth: to change the bed (= to put clean sheets on) o The baby's nappy needs changing.
 - 7 [T] change sth (for/into sth) to give sb money and receive the same amount back in money of a different type: Can you change a tenpound note for two fives? o I'd like to change fifty pounds into Swiss francs. يحوُل ، يصرف change hands to pass from one owner to another change your mind to change your decision or opinion: I'll have the green one. No, I've changed يعدل عن رأيه my mind. I want the red one.

change/swap places (with sb) → PLACE1 change the subject to start talking about sth يفير الموضوع different change your tune (informal) to change your oninion or feelings about 5th يغير موقفه

chop and change → CHOP3

THEY change over (from sth) (to sth) to stop doing or using one thing and start doing or using sth else: The theatre has changed over to a يتغيّر؛ ينقلب إلى computerized booking system.

▶ changeable /'t∫eind3əbl/ adj likely to change; often changing: English weather is very متقلّب changeable.

1 the head of government in some countries: the ?change /tfeind3/ noun 1 [C,U] change (in/to sth) the process of becoming or making sth different: There was little change in the patient's condition overnight. o After two hot summers, people were talking about a change in the climate.

> 2 [C] change (of sth) something that you take, have or use instead of sth else: We must notify the bank of our change of address.

3 [U] coins or notes of lower value that together make up the same value as a larger coin or note: Have you got change for a pound? فكّة، فراطة

4 [U] coins of low value: He needs some change for the phone. فكّة، فراطة

5 [U] the money that you get back if you pay more than the amount sth costs: If a paper costs 60p and you pay with a pound coin, you will get 40p change. كمالَّة النقود (التي يعيدها البانع)

a change of heart a change in your opinion or the way that you feel تغير في الموقف ؛ تغيير الرأي for a change in order to do sth different from usual: We always spend our holidays by the sea. Let's go to the mountains for a change this year. على سبيل التغيير make a change to be enjoyable or pleasant because it is different from what you usually بخلق تغييرا ممتعأ changeover /'tfeindzəuvə(r)/ noun [C] a change from one system to another تغيير؛ تبدّل

'changing room noun [C] a room for changing clothes in, e.g. before or after playing sport غرفة تبديل الملابس channel /'t∫ænl/ noun [C] 1 [C] a television or radio station. Each channel broadcasts on its own frequency or wavelength: There's an interesting programme on Channel 4 tonight. o Can I switch over to the other channel?

قناة (تلفزيونية أو إذاعية)

2 [C] a narrow area of water between two seas

3 the Channel [sing.] the sea between England القنال الإنكليزي ، بحر المانش and France

4 [C] an open passage along which liquids can flow: a drainage channel

5 [C] the part of a river, etc. which is deep مجرى النهر enough for boats to pass along

6 [C] a way or route along which news, information, etc. is sent: a channel of communica-

► channel verb [T] (channelling; channelled; US also channeling; channeled) to make sth move along a particular path or route: Water is channelled from the river to the fields. o (figurative) You should channel your energies into something the Channel 'Tunnel noun [sing.] the tunnel under the sea that connects England and نفق القنال الإنكليزي France chant /t[a:nt/ noun [C] a word or phrase that is sung or shouted many times: A chant of 'we are chaos → charge

the champions' went round the stadium.

- هتاف مكرّر؛ ترنيمة ► chant verb [I,T] to sing or shout a word or phrase many times: The protestors marched by, chanting slogans.
- Chaos /ˈkeɪɒs/ noun [U] a state of great disorder; confusion: The meeting ended in chaos when demonstrators threw tomatoes at the speakers. The accident has caused chaos on the M25 motor nous
- ► chaotic /ker'ntık/ adj in a state of chaos: With no one in charge the situation became chaotic.
 فوضوي، في حالة فوض
- chap /tʃæp/ noun [C] (especially Brit informal) a man or boy
- chapel /'tʃæpl/ noun 1 [C] a small part of a large church that can be used for private prayer
- church that can be used for private prayer جناح في كنيسة 2 [C] a small building or room in a prison, hospital, school, etc. that is used as a church

- على عام 3 [C,U] (Brit) a church for some Protestant groups: a Methodist chapel کنیسة (بروتستانتیة)
- chaperone (Brit also chaperon) /ˈʃæpərəʊn/noun [C] an older person, usually a woman, who goes to public places with a young unmarried woman to look after her and to make sure that she behaves correctly
 - ► chaperone (Brit also chaperon) verb [T] یرافق فتاة لحمایتها
- يراق قداه تحماييه chaplain /ˈtʃæplɪn/ noun [C] a priest who works in a hospital, school, prison, army, etc.

يس خاص

- Chapter /'tʃæptə(r)/ noun [C] (abbr ch; chap) one of the parts into which a book is divided: Please read Chapter 2 for homework. In the opening chapter, the author sets the scene of the novel. (figurative) The last few years have been a difficult chapter in the country's history.
- Rcharacter /ˈkærəktə(r)/ noun 1 [C.U, sing.] the quality that makes sb/sth different from other people or things; the nature of sb/sth: Although they are twins, their characters are quite different.

 The introduction of more practical work has completely changed the character of the science course. Modern houses often seem to lack character (= they all seem the same).
 - 2 [U] a person's inner strength: The match developed into a test of character rather than just physical strength. Military service is said to be character-building.
 - 3 [C] (informal) a person: There was a suspicious-looking character hanging around outside so I phoned the police.
 - 4 [U] the good opinion that people have of you:
 The article was a vicious attack on the President's character.
 - 5 [C] a person who is very interesting or amusing: Neil's quite a character. شخصية طريفة
 - 6 [C] a person in a book, story, etc: The main

- character in the book is a boy who meets an alien. (في قصة الخ شخصية (في قصة الخ
- 7 [C] a letter or sign that you use when you are writing or printing: Chinese characters حرف علامة (کتابة)
- IDM in/out of character typical/not typical of sb/sth

ينسجم مع شخصيته/لا ينسجم مع شخصيته، ليس من طبعه

- Characteristic /ˌkærəktəˈrɪstık/ noun [C] a quality that is typical of sb/sth and that makes him/her/it different from other people or things:

 The chief characteristic of reptiles is that they are cold-blooded.
 - ► characteristic adj: Thatched cottages are characteristic of this part of England. The opposite is uncharacteristic.
 - characteristically /-kli/ adv: 'No' he said, in his characteristically direct manner. على الوجه المعهود
 - characterize (also characterise) /ˈkærəktə-raiz/ verb [T] 1 (often passive) to be typical of sb/sth: The 1980s were characterized by the pursuit of money.
 - 2 characterize sb/sth as sth to describe the nature of sb/sth or to show a person's character in a particular way: The President characterized the meeting as friendly and positive.
 - charade /ʃəˈrɑːd; US ʃəˈreɪd/ noun 1 charades [U] a game that is played at a party, etc. in which one person or team acts out a word for others to guess ازاى عروستى: لعبة جماعية تمثّل فيها معاني الكلمات
 - 2 [C] a situation or event that is clearly false but in which people pretend to do or be sth: They pretend to be friends but it's all a charade. Everyone knows they hate each other.
 - charcoal /'tJɑ:kəʊl/ noun [U] a black substance that is produced when you burn wood in an oven with very little air. Charcoal can be used for drawing with or as a fuel.
- rcharge¹/tʃaːdʒ/ noun 1 [C,U] the price that you must pay for sth: The hotel makes a small charge for changing currency. We deliver free of charge.
 A small charge is made for admission. Look at the note at price.
 - 2 [C] an official statement that says that sb has done sth which is against the law: He was arrested on a charge of theft.
 - 3 [C] a sudden attack where sb/sth runs directly at sb/sth else: a cavalry charge

حملة ، هجوم (مفاجئ)

- 4 [C] the amount of electricity that is put into a battery or carried by a substance: a positive/negative charge
- in charge (of sb/sth) in control or command (of sb/sth): Who is in charge of the office while Alan's away? I'd like to speak to the person in charge.

reverse the charges \rightarrow REVERSE³ take charge (of sth) to take control of or responsibility for sth يكون مسؤولاً عن

Charge² /tʃa:dʒ/ verb 1 [I.T] charge (sb/sth) for sth to ask sb to pay a particular amount of money: Do you charge for postage and packing?

- \circ We charge £35 per night for a single room. \circ He charged me 30 pence for the onions.
- يطلب ثمناً : يتقاضي أجراً 2 [T] charge sb (with sth) to accuse sb officially of doing sth which is against the law: Six men are to be charged with attempted robbery.
- 3 [I.T] to attack sb/sth by running directly at him/her/it: The bull put its head down and charged. o (figurative) The children charged down the stairs and into the garden.
- 4 [T] to put electricity into sth: to charge a battery
- chariot /'t∫æriət/ noun [C] an open vehicle with two wheels, that was pulled by a horse or horses in ancient times
- charisma /kəˈrɪzmə/ noun [U] the power that some people have to attract and influence people

 کارزما: جاذبیّة شخصیة
- ► charismatic / ˌkærɪz'mætɪk/ adj: a charismatic politician کارزمي، نو جاذبية قوية
- charitable /'t∫ærətəbl/ adj 1 kind; generous: Some people accused him of lying, but a more charitable explanation was that he had made a mistake. ↑ The opposite is uncharitable.

طيب النفس : كريم

2 connected with a charity (1)

- Therefore the vertile of the state of the s
 - 2 [U] kindness towards other people: to act out of charity
- 'charity shop noun [C] a shop that sells clothes, books, etc. given by people to make money for charity
- charm¹/tʃɑːm/noun 1 [C,U] the quality of being pleasant or attractive: The charm of the island lies in its unspoilt beauty. One of his charms was his ability to talk amusingly on any topic.
- 2 [C] something that you wear because you believe it will bring you good luck: a necklace with a lucky charm on it
- Charm²/tʃɑ:m/verb[T] to please sb; to influence people by your power to attract them: Her drawlings have charmed children all over the world.
- ► charming adj very pleasing or attractive: Everyone enjoyed talking to them because they're such a charming couple. What a charming little cottage!

Charmingly adv: She smiled charmingly.

- charred /tʃɑːd/ adj black and partly burnt by fire
- | Ghart /tʃɑ:t/ noun 1 [C] a drawing which shows Information in the form of a diagram, etc: a temperature chart o a bar chart

- 2 [C] a map of the sea or the sky: navigation charts
- 3 the charts [plural] an official list of the songs or CDs, etc., that have sold the most in a particular week
- ▶ chart verb [T] 1 to make a map of one area of the sea or sky: an uncharted coastline

يرسم خريطة

- 2 to follow or record sth carefully and in detail: This television series charts the history of the country since independence. (يسجل (تسجيلاً تفصيلاً تفصيلاً عنصيلاً تفصيلاً عنصيلاً تفصيلاً تفصيلاً عنصيلاً تفصيلاً تفصيلاً عنصيلاً تفصيلاً عنصيلاً تفصيلاً تفصيلا
- charter /'tʃɑːtə(r)/ noun [C,U] 1 an official written statement of the rights, beliefs and purposes of an organization or a particular group of people: The club's charter does not permit women to become members.
 - 2 the hiring of a ship, plane, etc. for a particular purpose or for a particular group of people: a charter airline
 - ► charter verb [T] 1 to hire a ship, plane, etc. for a particular purpose or for a particular group of people يستأجر سفينة أو طائرة الخ لفرض محدد
 - 2 to give a charter(1) to an organization or a particular group of people يزوّر بدستور أو ميثاق chartered /ˈtʃɑːtəd/ adj (only before a noum) (used about people in certain professions) fully qualified: He's training to be a chartered account-
- 'charter flight noun [C] a flight in which all seats are paid for by a travel company and then sold to their customers, usually at a lower price than a scheduled flight
 - رحلة بطائرة مستأجرة لغرض محدد
- chase¹ /tfeis/ verb [I,T] to run after sb/sth in order to catch him/her/it: The dog chased the cat up a tree. The police car chased the stolen van along the motorway.
- Chase² /tʃeɪs/ noun [C] the act of following sb/ sth in order to catch him/her/it; chasing or being chased: an exciting car chase
 - IDM give chase to begin to run after sb/sth in order to try to catch him/her/it: The robber ran off and the policeman gave chase.
- chasm /ˈkæzəm/ noun [C] 1 a long deep hole in the ground
 - 2 (figurative) a wide difference of feelings, interests, etc.
- chassis /ˈʃæsi/ noun [C] (pl. chassis /ˈʃæsiz/) the metal frame of a vehicle onto which the other parts fit هيكل (السيارة)
- $\textbf{chaste} \ / t \texttt{ferst} / \ adj \ \textbf{1} \ \ \text{never having had a sexual} \\ \ \ \text{relationship, or only with your husband/wife}$
- 2 not involving thoughts and feelings about sex
- chastity /'tʃæstəti/ noun [U]: The nuns took a vow of chastity.
- Ç chat /tʃæt/ noun [C,U] a friendly informal conversation: Why don't you come in for a cup of coffee and a chat?
 - ▶ chat verb [I] (chatting; chatted) 1 to talk to sb chat room → check

124

in a friendly, informal way: The two grandmothers sat chatting about the old days.

يتآنس بالحديث

2 to exchange messages with other people on the Internet, especially in a chat room Check to shin check / tjek/ verb 1 [I.T] check (up) to exama friendly way because you are sexually attract-يغازل ، يتودد إلى chatty adj (chattier; chattiest) 1 fond of talking: My neighbour's very chatty - she tells me all محبّ للحديث

2 in an informal style: a chatty letter

دو أسلوب غير رسمي

'chat room noun [C] (computing) an area on the Internet where people can communicate with each other, usually about one particular topic

'chat show noun [C] a television or radio programme on which well-known people are interviewed

chatter /'tfætə(r)/ verb [I] 1 to talk quickly or for a long time about sth unimportant: The children chattered away continuously. ىئرثر

2 (used about your teeth) to knock together because you are cold or frightened تصطك (الأسنان)

▶ chatter noun [U]: Stop that chatter and get on with your work.

chauffeur /'ʃəʊfə(r); US ʃəʊ'fa:r/ noun [C] a person whose job is to drive a car for sb else: a chauf-سائق feur-driven limousine

► chauffeur verb [T]

chauvinism /'səovinizəm/ noun [U] 1 a strong belief that your country is better and more important than all others ب مفرط للوطن

2 = MALE CHAUVINISM

▶ chauvinist /'∫əʊvɪnɪst/ noun [C] a person who believes in or shows chauvinism

chauvinist, chauvinistic /, Jəovi nistik/ adj believing in or showing chauvinism

?cheap /tsi:p/ adj 1 low in price, costing little money: Oranges are cheap at the moment. o It's cheaper to buy a return ticket than two singles. 1 The opposite is expensive.

2 charging low prices: We are looking for a cheap hotel for the night.

3 low in price and quality and therefore not مبتذل

▶ cheap adv (informal) for a low price: I got this coat cheap in the sales. بسعر رخيص IDM be going cheap (informal) to be selling at a low price: They've got strawberries going cheap يباع بسعر رخيص cheaply adv for a low price: You can travel quickly and cheaply all over the town by bus.

?cheat /tsi:t/ verb [I] to act in a dishonest or unfair way in order to get an advantage for yourself: Len was caught cheating in the exam. o to cheat at cards

PHRV cheat sb (out) of sth to take sth from sb in a dishonest or unfair way: They tried to cheat the old lady out of her savings.

▶ cheat noun [C] a person who cheats

غشاش، محتال

ine sth in order to make sure that it is safe, correct, in good condition, etc: He wasn't sure whether he had locked the door, so he went to check. o I expect they're coming by car but I'll ring them and check up. O Check your work through for mistakes before you hand it in. o Can you check that we've got everything that's on the list? o She looked in her diary to check what time her appoint-ىتحقّق (من)

2 [T] to stop or go more slowly; to make sb/sth stop or go more slowly: A tight bandage should check the flow of blood from a wound.

يتوقف؛ يوقف؛ يبطئ

 ${f 3}$ [T] (US) to write a cross on a form, etc., to show your choice: Check the box next to the right يضع علامة answer 2 Look at tick.

PHRV check in (at...); check into... to go to a hotel/airline desk and say that you have arrived: Passengers should check in two hours before their departure time.

يسجّل وصوله في فندق أو في مطار check sth off to mark names or items on a list: The boxes were all checked off as they were يضع علامة أمام بنود القائمة unloaded check (up) on sb/sth to find out more information about sh/sth: The boss is checking up on how much work we've done.

check out (of ...) to pay your bill and leave a يدفع الحساب ويغادر الفندق hotel

check sb/sth out 1 to find out if sth is correct, or if sb is acceptable: The police are checking out his alihi

2 (especially US) to look at or examine a person or thing that seems interesting or attractive: Check out the prices at our new store!

Check² /tʃek/ noun 1 [C] a check (on sth) a close look at sth to make sure that it is safe, correct, in good condition, etc: We do regular checks on our products to make sure that they are of high quality. o a security check مراقبة ؛ تدقيق

2 [C] an act of going more slowly or stopping or of making sb/sth go more slowly or stop

توقّف ؛ ايقاف ، كبح

3 [sing.] (in the game of chess) the situation in which a player must move to protect his/her king 🗢 Look at checkmate. (في الشطرنج) كش ملكًا!

4 [C] (US) = CHEQUE

5 [C] $(US) = BILL^{1}(1)$

6 [C] (US) = $TICK^{1}(3)$

IDM hold/keep sth in check to stop sth from advancing or increasing too quickly: government measures to keep inflation in check

يضبط ، يتحكّم في، يكبح

?check3 /tsek/ noun [C,U] a pattern of squares, often of different colours: a check jacket o a pattern of blue and red checks رسم ذو مربعات ملوّنة

- ▶ checked /t∫ekt/ adj with a pattern of squares: a red-and-white checked tablecloth
- checkbook noun [C] (US) = CHEQUEBOOK
- checkers /'tsekaz/ noun [U] (US) = DRAUGHTS
- 'check-in noun [C] 1 the act of checking in at an airport: Our check-in time is 10.30 am.
 - بر عند وصوله إلى المطار
- 2 the place where you check in at an airport: the نقطة القيام بإجراءات السفر في المطار check-in desk
- 'checking account noun [C] (US) = CURRENT ACCOUNT
- checklist /'t feklist/noun [C] a list of things that you must do or have جدول التحقق
- checkmate /'tsekmert/ (also mate) noun [sing.] (in the game of chess) the situation in which you cannot protect your king and so have lost the (في الشطرنج) شاه مات! game 2 Look at check2(3).
- checkout /'tsekaut/ noun [C] the place in a supermarket where you pay for the things you نقطة الدفع (في سوبرماركت) have bought
- checkpoint /'tʃekpɔmt/ noun [C] a place where all people and vehicles must stop and be checked: an army checkpoint
- 'check-up noun [C] a general medical examination to find out whether you are healthy: You should visit your dentist for a check-up twice a vear. فحص طبی (عام)
- cheddar /'tfedə(r)/ noun [U] a type of hard yellow cheese that can be eaten cooked or raw
- $ cheek /tsi:k/ noun 1 [C] one of the two parts of your face that are on each side of your nose and mouth and below your eyes: Their cheeks were red when they came in out of the cold. O Tears rolled down her cheeks.
 - 2 [U, sing.] (informal) rude or impolite behavlour; lack of respect: What cheek! Asking for my help after saying such horrible things about me. o He's got a cheek!
 - IDM (with) tongue in cheek → TONGUE
 - ▶ cheeky adj (cheekier; cheekiest) impolite; not showing respect: Don't be so cheeky! Of course I'm not fat! غير مؤدّب، متجرّئ cheekily adv بتجرو
- cheekbone /'tsi:kboun/ noun [C] the bone that is below your eve
- cheer¹/tʃɪə(r)/verb 1 [I,T] to shout to show that you like sth or to encourage sb who is taking part In competition, sport, etc: The crowd clapped and cheered. O Everyone cheered the winner as he يهتف، يشجع crossed the finishing line.
- were all cheered by the good news.
- cheer sb on to cheer (1) sb in order to encourage him/her to do better: As the runners started the last lap the crowd cheered them on.
- جُع، يهتف له مشحعاً cheer (sb/sth) up to become or to make sb

- happier; to make sth look more attractive: Cheer up! Things aren't that bad. o A few pictures would cheer this room up a bit. يبتهج ؛ يبهج ؛ يزين
- cheer² /tfiə(r)/ noun [C] a loud shout to show that you like sth or to encourage sb who is taking part in a competition, sport, etc: Three cheers for the winning team! (= 'Hip, hip, hurrah' three
- cheerful /'tsiəfl/ adj happy: Tom remained cheerful throughout his illness. o a cheerful smile
 - بابتهاج ، بم ► cheerfully /-fəli/ adv cheerfulness noun [U]
- cheerio /tsəri'əu/ interj (Brit informal) good-إلى اللقاء
- cheers /tʃɪəz/ interj (especially Brit informal) 1 (used to express good wishes before you have a drink): 'Cheers,' she said, raising her glass.
 - إلى اللقاء
 - 2 goodbye 3 thank you
- cheese /tsi:z/ noun 1 [U] a type of solid food that is made from milk. Cheese is white or yellow in colour: a simple lunch of bread and cheese o a $cheese \ sandwich \ \circ \ Sprinkle \ the \ top \ of \ the \ pizza$ with grated cheese.
 - 2 [C] a type of cheese: a wide selection of نوع من الجبُّن cheeses
- cheesecake /'tsi:zkeik/ noun [C,U] a type of cake that is made from soft cheese and sugar on a pastry or biscuit base
- cheetah /'tsi:tə/ noun [C] a large wild animal of the cat family that comes from Africa and can run very fast
- chef /fef/ noun [C] a person who works as the كبير الطهاة chief cook in a hotel, restaurant, etc.
- Chemical /'kemikl/ adj connected with chemistry; produced by processes that involve changing the structure of a substance: a chemical reaction o the chemical industry o Farmers are using too many chemical fertilizers. كيميائي أو كيماوي
 - ▶ chemical noun [C] a substance that is used or produced in a chemical process: Sulphuric acid مادة كيماوية is a dangerous chemical. chemically /-kli/ adv
- Chemist /'kemist/ noun [C] 1 (also pharmacist) (US druggist) a person who prepares and sells medicines: I got my tablets from the chemist's. o The doctor gave me a prescription to take to the chemist's. 1 A chemist's shop usually sells soap, perfume, etc., as well as medicines. صيدلي
 - 2 a person who is a specialist in chemistry (خبير) كيمياني
- 2 [T] to make sb happy or more hopeful: They, chemistry /'kemistri/ noun [U] 1 the scientific study of the structure of substances and what happens to them in different conditions or when mixed with each other: We did an experiment in the chemistry lesson today. o a chemistry labora-الكيمياء
 - 2 the structure of a particular substance and the chemotherapy → child

way that it may change under different conditions (التركيب الكيميائي المادة) التركيب الكيميائي

- chemotherapy /ˌkiːməʊˈθerəpi/ noun [U] the treatment of disease, especially cancer, with the use of chemical substances
- Reheque (US check) /tfek/ noun [C,U] a piece of paper printed by a bank that you can fill in, sign and use to pay for things: She wrote out a cheque for £20. I went to the bank to cash a cheque.

 Can I pay by cheque?
- chequebook (US 'checkbook) /'tʃekbʊk/ noun [C] a book of cheques /'tʃekbʊk/
- 'cheque card noun [C] (Brit) a small plastic card that you get from your bank. A cheque card guarantees that any cheques you write will be paid, up to a certain amount.
- cherish /ˈtʃerɪʃ/ verb [T] 1 to love sb/sth: The ring was her most cherished possession.
- 2 to look after sb/sth carefully
- 3 to keep a thought, feeling, etc. in your mind and think about it often: a cherished ambition
- cherry /ˈtʃeri/ noun [C] (pl. cherries) 1 a small round black or red fruit that has a stone inside it
- 2 (also 'cherry tree) the tree that produces cherries: a flowering cherry
- cherub /ˈtʃerəb/ noun [C] (pl. cherubim /ˈtʃerəbm/, cherubs) a beautiful child often shown in religious paintings as having wings and a round face; a small angel
- chess /tʃes/ noun [U] a game for two people that is played on a board with 64 black and white squares (a chessboard). Each player has sixteen pieces which can be moved according to fixed rules.
- ?chest /t∫est/ noun [C] 1 a container, often a large strong one, that is used for storing or transporting things
 - 2 the upper part of the front of your body: What is your chest measurement? This jacket is a 40-inch chest. to have a hairy chest Linda went to the doctor complaining of chest pains.
 - pm get sth off your chest (informal) to talk about sth that you have been thinking about or that has been worrying you
 - chestnut /ˈtʃesnʌt/ noun [C] 1 (also 'chestnut tree) a tree with large leaves that produces smooth reddish-brown nuts in prickly shells شعرة الكستناء
 - 2 one of the nuts from the chestnut tree. You can eat some chestnuts: roast chestnuts $\mathcal{O}$ Look at conker.
- chest of 'drawers (US bureau) noun [C] a piece of furniture with drawers in it that is used for storing clothes, etc.
- Chew /tʃu:/ verb [I.T] to break up food in your mouth with your teeth before you swallow it: You should chew your food thoroughly.

- 'chewing gum (also gum) noun [U] a sweet sticky substance that you chew in your mouth but do not swallow لبان، علكة، مضغة
- chic /fi:k/ adj fashionable; elegant
- chick /tʃɪk/ noun |C| a young bird, especially a young chicken
- R chicken /ˈtʃɪkɪn/ noun 1 [C] a bird that people often keep for its eggs and its meat فرخة، دجاجة [U] the meat of this bird: roast chicken o cold chicken and salad

Notice that chicken is the general word for the bird and its meat. A male chicken is called a cock (US rooster), a female is called a hen and a young bird is called a chick.

حم الدحاج

- ▶ chicken verb
- PHRY chicken out (of sth) (informal) to decide not to do sth because you are afraid: He wanted to swim across the river but he chickened out when he saw how far it was.
- chickenpox /ˈtʃɪkmpɒks/ noun [U] a disease, especially of children. When you have chickenpox you have a temperature and get red spots on your skin that itch a lot.
- chickpea /ˈtʃɪkpi:/ noun [C] a hard round seed, like a light brown pea, that is cooked and eaten as a vegetable
- chicory /'tʃɪkəri/ (US endive) noun [U] a plant with slightly bitter-tasting leaves that can be eaten in salads
- Rehief /tʃiːf/ noun [C] 1 the leader or ruler of a group of people: African tribal chiefs o Indian chiefs
 - 2 the person who has command or control over an organization: the chief of police
 - chief adj (only before a noun) 1 most important; main: One of the chief reasons for his decision was money.
 - 2 of the highest rank: the chief executive of a company
 - chiefly adv mainly; mostly: His success was due chiefly to hard work. بشكل رئيسي ؛ غالباً
 - chieftain /ˈtʃiːftən/ noun [C] the leader of a tribe
 - chilblain /ˈtʃɪlbleɪn/ noun [C] a painful red area on your foot, hand, etc. that can be caused by cold weather تثليج ودم مؤلم يسببه البرد
- Child /tʃaɪld/ noun [C] (pl. children /'tʃɪldrən/)

 1 a boy or girl; a human who is not yet fully grown: A group of children were playing in the park. o a six-year-old child
 - 2 a son or daughter of any age: She has two children but both are married and have moved away. He is married with three children.

An only child is a child who has no brothers or sisters. People may adopt a child who is not their own son or daughter (for example if the child's parents are dead). A foster child is looked after for a certain period of time by a family that is not his/her own.

► childhood /'tʃaɪldhod/ noun [C,U] the time when you are a child: Harriet had a very unhappy childhood. ○ childhood memories childless adj having no children: a childless marriage بلاولد، بلاعقب child 'benefit noun [U] (Brit) a sum of money that is paid every week by the government to parents for each child that they have childbirth /'tʃaɪldbɜ:θ/ noun [U] the act of giving birth to a baby: His wife died in childbirth.

childcare /'tʃaɪlkeə(r)/ noun [U] the job of looking after children, especially while the parents are at work: Some employers provide childcare facilities.

طفولي ؛ صبياني childish /ˈtʃaɪldɪʃ/ adj like a child

If you say that people or their behaviour are childlike, you mean that they are like children in some way: childlike innocence o His childlike enthusiasm delighted us all. If you say that an adult's behaviour is childlish, you are criticizing it because you think it is silly and that he she should be more sensible: Don't be so childish! You can't always have everything you want.

► childishly adv: to giggle childishly مبيانية: بصورة سخيفة childlike /ˈtʃaɪldlaɪk/ adj like a child ⊅ Look at مالطفل علي . بريء كالطفل childminder /'t∫aɪldmaɪndə(r)/ noun [C] (Brit) a person whose job is to look after a child while his/her parents go out to work

'children's home noun [C] an institution where children live whose parents cannot look after them

chili (US) = CHILLI

Chill /tʃɪl/ noun 1 [sing.] an unpleasant coldness: There's a chill in the air. ○ (figurative) A chill of fear went down my spine.

2 [C] an illness like a cold that is caused by being cold or damp: to catch a chill y

▶ chill verb [I,T] to become or to make sb/sth colder: Chill the melon before you serve it.

chilling /ˈtʃɪlɪŋ/ adj frightening: a chilling ghost story chilly /ˈtʃɪli/ adj (chillier; chilliest) unpleasantly cold: It's a chilly morning. You need a coat on. (figurative) a chilly reception بارد، فيه قرصة برد

Chilli (US chili) /'tʃrli/ noun [C,U] (pl. chillies; US chilies) a small green or red vegetable that has a very strong hot taste: chilli powder فلنقلة أو فلفل خار

chime /tʃaɪm/ verb 1 [I] (used about a bell) to ring (الجرس) ينق أويون

2 [T] (used about a bell or a clock) to show the time by ringing: The town-hall clock chimed midnight.

EHRV chime in (with sth) (informal) to interrupt a conversation and add your own comments

► chime noun [C] the sound of a bell or a clock chiming رئين الجرس: دقات الساعة chimney /ˈtʃɪmni/ noun [C] (pl. chimneys) the passage through which smoke, etc. can get out of a building. A chimney in a house usually goes up from the fireplace, behind the walls and to a hole in the roof: The chimney is sooty and needs sweeping. O Smoke poured out of the factory chimneys.

'chimney sweep (also sweep) noun [C] a person whose job is to clean chimneys by sweeping them with long brushes

chimpanzee /ˌtʃɪmpæn'ziː/ (also informal chimp) noun [C] a type of small ape that lives in Africa

Chin /tʃin/ noun [C] the part of your face that is below your mouth: He sat listening, his chin resting on his hand.

china /'tʃamə/ noun [U] 1 the substance of which cups, plates, etc. can be made. China is made from fine white baked clay: a china vase

2 cups, saucers, plates, etc. that are made from china: We only use the best china when we have visitors.

chink¹ /tʃɪŋk/ noun [C] a small narrow opening صَدُّع.شق

chink² /tʃɪŋk/ verb [I,T] to make a light ringing sound; to cause this sound, e.g. by knocking two pieces of china or glass together gently

▶ chink noun [C]

%chip¹ /tʃrp/ noun [C] 1 a small piece of wood, stone, glass, etc. that has broken off sth

سطية، سره

2 a place where a piece has broken off sth: This dish has a chip in it.

3 (US French fry) [usually pl.] a thin piece of potato that is fried in hot fat or oil: Would you like boiled potatoes or chips? o fish and chips

4 (also potato chip) (US) = $CRISP^2$

5 a flat round piece of plastic that you use instead of money when you are playing some games

(بيشة (في اللعب)

6 = MICROCHIP

have a chip on your shoulder (informal) to be angry about sth for a long time, especially because you think you have been treated unfairly دائم الشعور بالسخط والظلامة

chip² /tʃɪp/ verb [I,T] (chipping; chipped) to lose or to knock a small piece off the edge or surface of sth: They chipped the paint trying to get the table through the door.

PHRV chip in (with sth) (informal) 1 to inter-

فاخر ، من أحسن صنف chiropodist → chop

rupt when sb else is talking

بقاطع (حديث شخص آخر)

- to give some money as part of the cost of sth: We all chipped in and bought him a present when he left.
- chiropodist /kı'rnpədist/ (US podiatrist) noun [C] a person whose job is to care for people's feet مختص بمعالجة الأقدام
- chirp /tʃɜ:p/ noun [C] the short high sound that a small bird makes (الطائر) دَوْرَقَهُ أُو شَقْشَقَةُ (الطائر) دُوْرَقَهُ أُو شَقْشَقَةُ (الطائر) دُوْرُقَ أُو يُشْقَشْقَ (الطائرة للله الطائرة الط
- chisel /'tʃɪzl/ noun [C] a tool with a sharp end that is used for cutting or shaping wood, stone, etc.
- chivalry /ˈʃɪvəlri/ noun [U] behaviour which shows particular respect, usually of men towards women
- ▶ chivalrous /'ſıvlrəs/ adj

شَهُم ، رفيع الأُخلاق

- chives /tʃaɪvz/ noun [plural] a plant with purple flowers and long thin leaves that are used in cooking. Chives taste similar to onions.
- chloride /'klɔ:raɪd/ noun [U] a chemical compound of chlorine and another chemical الكلوريك
- chlorine /ˈkloːriːn/ noun [U] (symbol Cl) a greenish-yellow gas with a strong smell, that is used for making water safe to drink or to swim in (غاز) الكلود
- chock-a-block / بازاه الله عنه الله (not before a noun) completely full: The High Street was chock-a-block with shoppers.
- ? chocolate /'tʃɒklət/ noun 1 [U] a sweet brown substance that you usually buy in the form of a hard block (bar). Chocolate is made from cocoa beans: milk chocolate (= sweet and light in colour) plain chocolate (= more bitter and darker in colour)
 - ${f 2}$ [C] a small sweet that is made from chocolate with a nut or another sweet substance inside: a box of chocolates
 - 3 [C,U] a drink made from powdered chocolate with hot milk or water: a mug of hot chocolate مشروب شو کواتهٔ أو کاکاو
 - ► chocolate adj 1 made from or covered with chocolate: chocolate cake o a chocolate biscuit (مصنوع من أو مغطى ب) الشوكولاتة
 - 2 dark brown

بنّي: لون الشوكولانة

- R choice /tʃɔɪs/ noun 1 [C] a choice (between A and B) an act of choosing between two or more people or things: to make the right/ wrong choice David faced a difficult choice between moving house and losing his job. You can have first choice of all the cakes (= you can choose first).
 - 2 [U] the right or chance to choose: There was a rail strike so we had no choice but to stay on in Paris. o to have freedom of choice
 - 3 [C.U] two or more things from which you can or must choose: This cinema offers a choice of six different films every night. You get more choice of vegetables at the market.

- 4 [C] a person or thing that has been chosen: What is your choice of colour?

 DM out offrom choice because you want to; of your own free will: I wouldn't have gone to
- America out of choice. I was sent there on business.

 > choice adj of very good quality: choice beef
- choir /ˈkwaɪə(r)/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of people who sing together: Dennis sings in the church choir: The choir meets/meet on Thursday to rehearse.
- choke /tʃəʊk/verb 1 [I,T] to be or to make sb unable to breathe because sth is stopping air getting into the lungs: The child swallowed a pen top and choked to death. The smoke choked us. She was choking on a fish bone.
- 2 [T] (usually passive) choke sth (up) (with sth) to fill a passage, space, etc., so that nothing can pass through: The roads to the coast were choked with traffic.

PHRV choke sth back to hide or control a strong emotion: to choke back tears (بکیم، یتماسك عن (البکاء)

- ► choke noun [C] 1 an act or a sound of choking (1)
- 2 the piece of equipment in a car, etc. that controls the amount of air going into the engine. If you pull out the choke it makes it easier to start the car.
- cholera /ˈkɒlərə/ noun [U] a serious disease that causes diarrhoea and vomiting. Cholera is most common in hot countries and can be carried by water.

 وليرا
- cholesterol /kəˈlestərɒl/ noun [U] a substance that is found in the bodies of people and animals, and that helps to carry fats. Too much cholesterol is thought to be a cause of heart disease: a high/low level of cholesterol
- R choose /t∫u:z/ verb [1,T] (pt chose /t∫ovz/; pp chosen /'t∫ovzn/) 1 choose (between A and/ or B); choose (A) (from B); choose sb/sth as sth to pick or select the person or thing that you prefer: Choose carefully before you make a final decision. Amy had to choose between getting a job or going to college. You can choose three questions from the five on the exam paper. The viewers chose this programme as their favourite.
 - 2 to decide or prefer to do sth: You are free to leave whenever you choose. \circ They chose to resign rather than work for the new manager.

يقرر ؛ يفضل

- choosy (also choosey) /ˈtʃuːzi/ adj (choosier; choosiest) (informal) careful in choosing; difficult to please منقق في اختياره : صعب الإرضاء
- T chop 1/tJop/verb [T] (chopping; chopped) chop sth (up) (into sth) to cut sth into pieces with an axe or knife: They chopped the logs up. o finely chopped herbs o Chop the onions up into small pieces.

EHRV chop sth down to cut a tree, etc. at the bottom so that it falls down مقطع (خاتر مناز) chop sth off (sth) to remove sth from sth by cutting it with an axe or knife: to chop a branch off a tree

chop² /tʃɒp/ noun [C] 1 an act of chopping sth فرم · تقطيع

2 a thick slice of meat with a piece of bone in it لا Look at steak.

 $\textbf{chop}^{3}\,/t\mathfrak{f}\mathfrak{pp}/\,\textit{verb}\,(\text{chopping; chopped})$

را chop and change to change your plans or opinions several times chopper /tfppa(r)/ noun [C] 1 (informal) = HELI-COPTER

2 a heavy tool that is used for cutting wood, meat, etc.

choppy /'tʃɒpi/ adj (choppier; choppiest) (used about the sea) having a lot of small waves, slightly rough chopsticks /ˈtʃɒpstrks/ noun [plural] two thin sticks that people in China, Japan, etc. use for picking up food عودا الأكل (عند الصينيين الخ) choral /ˈkɒ:rəl/ adj written for or involving a group of singers (a choir) كورالي ، متعلّق بجوقة غنائية chord /kɔːd/ noun [C] two or more musical notes that are played at the same time نفمات متألفة

■ strike a chord → STRIKE²

chore /tʃɔ:(r)/ noun [C] a job that is not interesting but that you must do: household chores

ممل مستم ، شغل روتيني

choreograph /ˈkɒriəgraːf; US ˈkɒːriəgræf/ verb |T| to design and arrange the movements of a dance chorus /'kɔ:rəs/ noun [C] 1 [with sing. or pl. verb] a large group of people who sing together

gether کورس: جوقة غنائية

2 the part of a song that is repeated at the end of each verse: The audience joined in with the churuses.

ky أه الأغنية

3 a piece of music for a large group to sing قطعة موسيقية تغنيها جوقة كبيرة

هطعه موسیقیه تغنیها جوقه کبیرهٔ 4 something that a lot of people say together: a chorus of cheers, boos, criticism, etc. هتاف (مثلاً) بصوت واحد

5 [with sing. or pl. verb] a group of singers and dancers in a show: She was always in the chorus, never a star. كورس: جماعة المغنين والراقصين

► chorus verb [T] (used about a group of people) to sing or say sth together: "That's not fair!" the children chorused.

chose pt of choose chosen pp of choose

Christ /kraist/ (also Jesus; Jesus Christ

رُرِعَ:زعه 'kraɪst/) the man who Christians believe is the son of God and who established the Christian religion

christen /'krɪsn/ verb [T] 1 to give a person, often a child, a name during a Christian ceremony in which he/she is made a member of the Church: The baby was christened Simon Mark, المائية عند التعبيد كالموافقة عند التعبيد التعبي

2 to give sb/sth a name: People drive so dangerously on this stretch of road that they've christened it 'The Mad Mile'.

➤ christening /ˈkrɪsnɪŋ/ noun [C] the church ceremony in which a baby is given a name حفل التعميد

Christian /'kristJən/ noun [C] a person whose religion is Christianity: Christians all over the world will join in prayers for peace today.

► Christian adj: the Christian Church, faith, religion, etc.

Christianity /ˌkrɪsti'ænəti/ noun [U] the religion that is based on the teachings of Jesus Christ: to be converted to Christianity

'Christian name (especially US 'given name) noun [C] the name given to a child when he/ she is born; first name 2 Look at the note at name!. الاسم (الإل)

Christmas /ˈkrɪsməs/ (also informal Xmas) noun [C.U] the period of time before and after Christmas Day: We wish you a merry Christmas • Where are you spending Christmas this year? • the Christmas holidays

"Christmas card noun [C] a card with a picture on the front and a greeting inside that people send to their friends and relatives at Christmas بطاقة عبد الميلاد

Christmas 'cracker noun [C] = CRACKER (2)

Christmas 'Day noun [C] the day on which Christians celebrate the birth of Christ each year. For most Christians Christmas Day is 25 December.

Christmas 'dinner noun [C] the traditional meal eaten on Christmas Day, often with roast turkey as the main dish, followed by Christmas pudding

Christmas 'Eve noun [C] the day before Christmas Day, 24 December

Christmas 'pudding noun [C] a sweet made from dried fruit and eaten hot with sauce at Christmas dinner

"Christmas tree noun [C] a tree such as a fir, or an artificial tree, which people bring into their homes and decorate with bright lights and coloured balls شجرة عبد الميلاد

chrome /krəum/ (also chromium /'krəumiəm/) noun [U] a hard shiny metal that is used for covering other metals: chrome-plated taps chromosome /'krəuməsəum/ noun [C] the part chronic → cinema

(معدن) الكروم

of the cells of living things that contains the genes

chronic / kronik/ adj (used about a disease or a problem) that continues for a long time: chronic bronchitis ∘ There is a chronic shortage of housing in the city. ② Look at acute.

لى نحو مزمن chronically /ˈkronɪkli/ adv chronicle /ˈkrɒnɪkl/ noun [C] (often plural) a record of events that happened in the past chronological /ˌkronə'lɒdʒikl/ adj arranged in the order in which the events happened: This book describes the main events in his life in chronological order: مرتب حسب التسلسل الزمني

► chronologically /-kli/ adv

chrysanthemum /krr'sænθəməm; 'krr'zæ-/ noun [C] a garden plant with brightly coloured flowers chubby /'tʃʌbi/ adj (chubbier; chubbiest) rather fat; round: chubby cheeks

سمين نوعاً ما، ممتلئ (الخدين)

chuck /tʃʌk/ verb [T] (informal) 1 to throw sth in a careless way: Chuck that magazine over here. • You can chuck those old shoes in the bin.

یلتی یاهمان 2 chuck sth (in) to give sth up: He's chucked his job in because he was fed up.

ایترك بستقیل داده او الاستان المستقبل الاستان المستقبل المستقبل المستوب المستوب chuckle /'tʃʌkl/ verb [I] to laugh quietly: Bruce chuckled to himself as he read the letter.

ی chuckle noun [C]: He put down the phone with a chuckle.

chug /tامر/tرها/tرها/tرواله (chugging; chugged) (used about a machine or engine) to make short repeated knocking sounds while it is working or moving slowly

EHRV chug along, down, up, etc. to move in a particular direction making this sound: The train chugged out of the station.

chum /tʃʌm/ noun [C] (informal, old-fashioned) a friend chunk /tʃʌŋk/ noun [C] a large or thick piece of sth: chunks of bread and cheese قطعة كبيرة

chunky /ˈtʃʌŋki/ adj (chunkier; chunkiest) 1 short and rather fat nade of thick material or thick pieces: chunky jewellery o a chunky sweater

مصنوع من قطع كبيرة : سميك

Rechurch /tfs:tf/ noun 1 [C,U] a building where Christians go to pray: Services are held in this church every Sunday morning at 10. • They are getting married in the village church. • the church tower • Do you go to church regularly?

Notice that when you are talking about going to a ceremony (a service) in a church you say 'in church', 'to church' or 'at church' without 'a' or 'the'; Was Mrs Stevens at church today?

2 Church [C] a particular group of Christians: the Anglican, Catholic, Methodist, etc. Church کنسة ، طائفة مسحنة churchgoer /ˈtʃɜːtʃɡəoə(r)/ noun [C] a person who goes to church regularly the ,Church of 'England noun [sing.] the Protestant Church which is the official church in England ⊋ Look at Anglican.

churchyard /ˈtʃɜːtʃjɑːd/ noun [C] the area of land that is around a church المادة عدل الكنيسة كلم الكنيسة عدل الكنيسة churn /tʃɜ:n/ verb 1 [T] to beat milk or cream so that it turns into butter (پمخض اللبن (الحليب) can churn out cars at an amazing speed.

chute /ʃuːt/ noun [C] a passage down which you can drop or slide things, so that you do not have to carry them: a loundry chute (مزلقة (النفايات مثلاً) chutney /'tʃʌtni/ noun [U] a thick sweet sauce that is made from fruit or vegetables with sugar, vinegar and spices. You eat chutney cold with cheese or meat.

CIA /,si: 31 'e1/ abbrev (US) Central Intelligence Agency; the US government organization that tries to discover political and military information about other countries

وكالة المخابرات المركزية الامريكية cider /'saɪdə(r)/ noun [U] an alcoholic drink that is made from apples مشروب کحولي من التفاح cigar /sr'go:(r)/ noun [C] a roll of dried tobacco leaves that people smoke. Cigars are larger and more expensive than cigarettes: cigar smoke

Reigarette /,sigə'ret; US 'sigərət/ noun [C] a roll of tobacco in a tube of thin white paper that people smoke: a packet of cigarettes o to smoke a cigarette o She lit another cigarette. John put out his cigarette.

ciga'rette lighter (also lighter) noun [C] an object which produces a small flame for lighting cigarettes and cigars cinder /'sındə(r)/ noun [C] a very small piece of coal, wood, etc. that has been burning and may still be hot cinema /'sɪnəmə; US 'sɪnəmə/ noun (US also the movies) 1 [C] a place where you go to see a film: Let's go to the cinema this evening (= go and see a film). O What's on at the cinema this week?

In American English, you use movie theater to talk about the building where films are shown: There are five movie theaters in this town but the 131 cinnamon → cite movies when you are talking about going to see a film there: Let's go to the movies this evening.

- 2 [U] films in general: Are you interested in cinema?
- cinnamon /ˈsɪnəmən/ noun [U] a brown powder that is used for giving flavour to sweet food
- Circa /ˈsɜːkə/ prep (abbr c) (formal) (used with dates) about: The vase was made circa 600 AD.
- reircle /'ss:kl/ noun 1 [C] a line which curves round to form the shape of a ring. Every point on the line is the same distance from the centre:

 The children were drawing circles and squares on a piece of paper. We all stood in a circle and held hands.
 - 2 [C] a flat, round area: She cut out a circle of paper.
 - 3 [C] a group of people who are friends, or who have the same interest or profession: He has a large circle of friends. o Her name was well known in artistic circles.
 - 4 [sing.] an area of seats that is upstairs in a cinema, theatre, etc: We've booked seats in the front row of the circle. (الشُرُفة (في السينما أو المسرح الخ a vicious circle → vicious
 - ► circle verb 1 [I,T] to move, or to move round sth, in a circle, especially in the air: The plane circled the town several times before it landed.
 - يحلّق حول، يحرّم 2 [T] to draw a circle round sth, e.g. on an examination paper: There are three possible
 - answers to each question. Please circle the correct one.
 - Circuit /'ss:krt/ noun [C] 1 a complete circular path that an electric current can flow around دارة أو دائرة كهربائية
 - 2 a number of competitions or other events that take place every year in a particular sport. People often take part in all the events, moving round from place to place: She's one of the best players on the tennis circuit.
 - 3 a circular journey round sth: The cars have to complete ten circuits of the track.
 - circular /'ss:kjələ(r)/ adj 1 round and flat; whaped like a circle: a circular table
 - دائري ، مستدير
 - 2 (used about a journey, etc.) going round in a circle: The bus will take you on a circular tour of Oxford.
 - 3 (used about a theory, etc.) using the point it is trying to prove as evidence for its conclusion (نظریة) دائریة
 - ► circular noun [C] a printed letter, notice or ndvertisement that is sent to a large number of people
 - circulate /'sa:kjəleɪt/ verb [I,T] 1 to go from one person to another; to pass information from one person to another: Stories were circulating about the Minister's private life. We've circulated a cupy of the report to each department.

ينتشر ، تتناقله الألسن ؛ يوزَع

- 2 (used about a substance) to move or make sth move round continuously: Blood circulates round the body.
- circulation /ˌsɜːkjəʾleɪʃn/ noun 1 [U] the passing of sth from one person or place to another: the circulation of news, information, rumours, etc. \circ Old five pence coins are no longer in circulation (= being used by people).
- 2 [C] the number of copies of a newspaper, magazine, etc. that are sold each time it is produced: This newspaper has a circulation of over a million.
- 3 [sing.] the movement of blood around the body: If you have bad circulation, your hands and feet get cold easily.
- circumcise /ˈsɜːkəmsaɪz/ verb [T] to cut off the skin at the end of a man's penis, for religious or medical reasons
- ► circumcision /ˌsɜːkəmˈsɪʒn/ noun [C,U]
- circumference /səˈkʌmfərəns/ noun [C,U] the distance round a circle or sth circular: The circumference of the Earth is about 40 000 kilometres.

 The Earth is about 40 000 kilometres in circumference.
- Reircumstance /ˈsɜːkəmstəns/ noun 1 [C, usually pl.] the facts and events that affect what happens in a particular situation: We need to know the exact circumstances surrounding the accident.

 In normal circumstances I would not have accepted the job, but at that time I had very little money.
 - 2 circumstances [plural] (formal) the amount of money that you have: The company has promised to repay the money when its financial circumstances improve.
 - in/under no circumstances never, for any reason: You must in no circumstances mention this subject again.
 - in/under the circumstances as the result of a particular situation. My father was very ill at that time, so under the circumstances I decided not to apply for the job. o Well, it's not an ideal solution, but it's the best we can do in the circumstances.
 - circumstantial /ˌsɜːkəmˈstænʃl/ adj (used in connection with the law) containing details and information that strongly suggest sth is true but are not actual proof of it: circumstantial evidence
 - circus /'sa:kəs/ noun [C] a show performed in a large tent by a company of people and animals: We saw clowns, acrobats, lions and elephants at the circus.
 - cistern /ˈsɪstən/ noun [C] a tank for water, especially one that is connected to a toilet
 - cite /sait/ verb [T] (formal) to mention sth as an example to support what you are saying: She cited the high unemployment figures as an example of the Government's bad management.

بستشهد ب، يذكر

citizen → clairvoyant

- ? citizen /'sıtızn/ noun [C] 1 a person who is legally accepted as a member of a particular country: a British citizen o She was born in Japan, but became an American citizen in 1981.
 - 2 a person who lives in a town or city: Many of the citizens of Paris leave the town for the seaside during the summer. 2 Look at senior citizen.
 - citizenship noun [U] the state of being a citizen of a particular country: After living in Spain for twenty years, he decided to apply for Spanish citizenship.
- citrus fruit /ˈsɪtrəs fru:t/ noun [C.U] a fruit such as an orange or lemon
- City /'sıti/ noun (pl. cities) 1 [C] a large and important town: Venice is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Tokyo is the capital city of Japan. Many people are worried about housing conditions in Britain's inner cities (= the central parts where there are often social problems). the city centre
 - 2 the City [sing.] the oldest part of London, which is now Britain's financial centre: She works in a bank in the City.
 - civic /'sɪvɪk/ adj of a city or town: civic pride (= feeling proud because you belong to a particular town or city) o Guildford Civic Centre
 - civil¹ /'sıvl/ adj polite, but not very friendly:

 I know you don't like the director, but do try and be civil to him.
 - ► civilly /'sɪvəli/ adv
- ? civil² /'sıvl/ adj 1 (only before a noun) connected with the state, not with the army or the Church: civil aviation o civil engineering (= the designing and building of roads, railways, bridges, etc.) o a civil wedding (= not a religious one)
 - 2 (in law) relating to the rights of ordinary people, and not criminal offences: civil courts
 - civilian /sə'vıliən/ noun [C] a person who is not in the army, navy, air force or police force: Two soldiers and one civilian were killed when the bomb exploded. He left the army and returned to civilian life.
 - civilization (also civilisation) /,sıvəlar'zetʃn; US -əlr'z-/ noun 1 [C,U] a society which has its own highly developed culture and way of life: the civilizations of ancient Greece and Rome Western civilization
 - 2 [U] an advanced state of social and cultural development, or the process of reaching this state: China had reached a higher level of civilization than Europe at that time. The civilization of the human race has taken thousands of years.
 - civilize (also civilise) /'sıvəlaız/ verb [T] to make people or a society develop from a low social and cultural level to a more advanced one
 - ► civilized (also civilised) /'sɪvəlaɪzd/ adj 1 (used about a society) having a high level of

- social and cultural development: In a civilized society there should not be people sleeping on the streets.
- 2 polite and reasonable: a civilized conversation
- civilly $adv \rightarrow civil^1$
- civil 'rights (also civil 'liberties) noun [plural] a citizen's legal right to freedom and equality whatever his/her sex, race or religion
 - حقوق مدنية
- civil 'servant noun [C] a person who works in the Civil Service
- the , Civil 'Service noun [sing.] all the government departments (except for the armed forces) and all the people who work in them
 - دوائر الحكومة وموظفوها
- civil 'war noun [C.U] a war between different groups of people who live in the same country
- CJD /ˌsi: dʒeɪ ˈdi:/ abbrev Creutzfeldt-Jakob disease; a disease of the brain caused by eating infected meat

 مرض کرویتسفلت جاکوب
- Clabbrev (pl. cl or cls) = CENTILITRE(S)
- clad /klæd/ adj (not before a noun) (old-fashioned, formal) dressed: The children were warmly clad in coats, hats and scarves. ציים י ה עניג
- Relaim¹ /kleim/ verb 1 [T] to say that sth is true, without having any proof: The bus driver claimed that she had not seen the cyclist. O Colin claims the book belongs to him. The woman claims to be the oldest person in Britain. No one has claimed responsibility for the bomb attack.
 - 2 [1,T] claim (for sth) to ask for sth because you think you should have it or that it belongs to you: The police are keeping the animal until somebody claims it. If you are disabled you can claim a special allowance from the Government.
 Don't forget to claim for your travel expenses when you get back.
 - 3 [T] (formal) to cause death: The earthquake claimed thousands of lives.
- Ç claim² /kleım/ noun [C] 1 a statement that sth is true, that does not have any proof: I do not believe the Government's claim that they can reduce unemployment by the end of the year.
 - 2 claim (for sth) a demand for sth that you think you have a right to: to make an insurance claim o After the accident he decided to put in a claim for compensation. o a pay claim طلب (تعویض مثلاً)
 - 3 claim (to sth) the right to have sth: You will have to prove your claim to the property in a court of law.
 - IDM stake a/your claim → STAKE¹
 - claimant /ˈkleimənt/ noun [C] a person who believes he/she has the right to have sth: The insurance company refused to pay the claimant any money.
 - clairvoyant /kleə'vərənt/ noun [C] a person who some people believe has special mental powers and can see what will happen in the future منجَّم، كاشف الغيب، بصار

ىأدب

clam¹ /klæm/ noun [C] a type of shellfish

clam²/klæm/ verb (clamming; clammed)

PHRV clam up (informal) to stop talking and refuse to speak: She always clams up when I ask her about her past.

clamber /'klæmbə(r)/ verb [I] to climb with difficulty, usually using both your hands and feet: She managed to clamber up the hillside.

نسلق بصعوبة

clammy /ˈklæmi/ adj (clammier; clammiest) damp and sticky: clammy hands

Clamour (US clamor) /ˈklæmə(r)/ verb [I] clamour for sth to demand sth in a loud or angry way: The public are clamouring for an answer to all these questions.

► clamour (US clamor /ˈklæmə(r)/) noun [sing.]: We could hear the clamour of angry voices.

clamp/klæmp/ noun [C] 1 a tool that you use for holding two things together very tightly مَأْرُهُ ، مَضِيَّةً

2 (also wheel clamp) (Brit) a metal object that is fixed to the wheel of a car that has been parked illegally, so that it cannot drive away مضَّة الاطارات

- ► clamp verb [T] 1 to fasten two things together with a clamp: The metal rods were clamped together. Clamp the wood to the table so that it doesn't move.
- 2 to put or hold sth very firmly in a particular place: He kept his pipe clamped between his teeth.
- 3 (also wheelclamp) to attach a metal object to the wheel of a vehicle that has been parked in an illegal place, so that it cannot move: Oh no! My car's been clamped.

CHEV clamp down on sb/sth (informal) to take strong action against sb/sth in order to stop or control sth: The police are clamping down on people who drink and drive.

يضيّق الخناق على ، يشدّد على clampdown /ˈklæmpdaʊn/ noun: a clampdown on tax evasion clan /klæn/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of families who are related to each other, especially in Scotland

 ${f clandestine}$ /klæn'destm/ adj (formal) secret and often not legal clang /klæŋ/ noun [C] a loud ringing sound that is made when a metal object hits sth: The huge metal door closed with a clang.

► clang verb [I,T] to make or cause sth to make this sound

Clank /klæŋk/ noun [C] a loud sound that is made when a metal object (e.g. a heavy chain) hits sth

► clank verb [I,T] to make or cause sth to make this sound

Relap /klæp/verb (clapping; clapped) 1 [I,T] to put your hands together quickly in order to make a loud sound, usually to show that you like sth: The audience clapped as soon as the singer walked onto the stage. • Everybody was clapping their hands in time to the music.

2 [T] to put sth onto sth quickly and firmly: 'Oh no, I shouldn't have said that,' she said, clapping a hand over her mouth.

► clap noun [C] 1 an act of clapping: Let's have a big clap for our next performer!

2 a sudden loud noise of thunder: a clap of thunder قصفة رعد clarify /'klærəfat/ verb [T] (pres part clarifying; 3rd pers sing pres clarifies; pt, pp clarified) to make sth become clear and easier to understand: I hope that what I say will clarify the situation.

► clarification /ˌklærɪfi'keɪʃn/ noun [U]: We'd like some clarification of exactly what your company intends to do.

clarinet /ˌklærəˈnet/ noun [C] a musical instrument that is made of wood. You play a clarinet by blowing through it.

clarity /ˈklærəti/ noun [U] the quality of being clear and easy to understand: clarity of expression clash /klæʃ/ verb 1 [I] clash (with sb) (over sth) to fight or disagree seriously about sth: A group of demonstrators clashed with police outside the Town Hall. • Conservative and Labour politicians have clashed again over defence cuts.

2 [I] clash (with sth) (used about two events) to happen at the same time: It's a pity the two concerts clash. I wanted to go to both of them.

(مع)

3 [I] clash (with sth) (used about colours, etc.) not to match or look nice together: I don't think you should wear that tie – it clashes with your shirt

4 [I,T] (used about two metal objects) to hit together with a loud noise; to cause two metal objects to do this: Their swords clashed.

یصطدم محدثاً صلیلاً: یجمله بصل • clash noun [C] 1 a fight or serious disagreement: a clash between police and demonstrators

2 a big difference: a clash of opinions o There was a personality clash between the two men.

تضارب

3 a loud noise, made by two metal objects hitting each other: the clash of cymbals

مقعة ، صليا

clasp¹/kla:sp; US klæsp/ noun [C] an object, usually of metal, which fastens or holds sth together: the clasp on a necklace, brooch, handbag, etc.

مشبك clasp² /kla:sp; US klæsp/ verb [T] to hold sb/sth

class → clean tightly: She was clasping a knife. o Kevin clasped the child in his arms. يقبض (على) ؛ يضم

- R class /klɑ:s; US klæs/ noun 1 [C] a group of pupils or students who are taught together: Jane and I are in the same class at school. In the singular class can be used with either a singular or a plural verb: The whole class is/are going to the theatre tonight.
 - 2 [C.U] a lesson: Classes begin at 9 o'clock in the morning. o I go to evening classes in local history on Wednesdays. o We watched an interesting video in class (= during the lesson) yesterday.
 - 3 [U] the way people are divided into social groups: The idea of class still divides British society. class differences
 - 4 [C,U] a group of people who are at the same social and economic level: the working/middle/upper class 6 In the singular class can be used with either a singular or a plural verb.
 - 5 [C] a group of things of a similar type: There are several different classes of insects.
 - 6 [U] (informal) high quality or style: Pele was a football player of great class.
 - 7 [C] (especially in compounds) of a certain level of quality or comfort: a first-class compartment on a train
 - 8 [C] (Brit) (especially in compounds) a grade that you get when you pass your final university examination: a first-/second-/third-class de gree
 - ► class verb [T] class sb/sth (as sth) to put sb/sth in a particular group or type: The house has recently been classed as a 'historic building'.

classy /ˈklɑːsi; US ˈklæsi/ adj (classier; classiest) (informal) of high quality or style; expensive: She took me to a classy restaurant in Soho.

§ classic /ˈklæsɪk/ adj 1 typical: This painting is a classic example of the French Impressionist style.

• It was a classic case of bad management.

نموذجي 2 (used about a book, play, etc.) important and having a value that will last: the classic film "Gone With The Wind" کلاسیکي، (اثر) خالد

- ► classic noun 1 [C] a famous book, play, etc. which has a value that will last: All of Charles Dickens' novels are classics.
- 2 Classics [U] the study of ancient Greek and Roman language and literature دراسة اليونانية واللاتينية وآدامهما
- classical /ˈklæsɪkl/ adj 1 (used ahout music) serious and having a value that lasts: I prefer classical music to pop or jazz. (موسيقي) كلاسيكية
- 2 traditional, not modern: classical ballet o classical scientific methods
- 3 relating to ancient Greece or Rome: classical architecture

 متعلق باليونان أو روما القديمتين classically /ˈklæsɪkəli/ adv / امؤهل) كلاسيكياً classified ad'vertisements (also (Brit informal) classified ads; small ads) noun [plural] small advertisements that you put in a newspaper if you want to buy or sell sth, employ sb, find a flat, etc.

classify /ˈklæsɪfaɪ/ verb [T] (pres part classifying; 3rd pers sing pres classifies; pt, pp classified) classify sb/sth (as sth) to put sb/sth into a group with other people or things of a similar type: The books in a library are usually classified according to subject.

▶ classification / klæstſt'ket∫n/ noun [C,U]: His job involves the classification of the different species of butterfly.

classified adj officially secret: classified information پرې

classmate /ˈklɑ:smeɪt; US ˈklæs-/ noun [C] a person who is in the same class as you at school or college زميل في الصف أو الفصل

Classroom /ˈklɑːsruːm; -rom; US ˈklæs-/ noun [C] a room in a school, college, etc. where classes are taught clatter /ˈklæta(r)/ noun [sing.] a series of short loud repeated sounds that is made when hard objects hit against each other: the clatter of knives and forks clatter verb [1,T] to make or cause sth to make this noise: The horses clattered down the street.

 يقرقع ، يطقطق

Clause /klɔːz/ noun [C] 1 a paragraph in a legal document (فقرة (في قانون)

2 (grammar) a group of words that includes a subject and a verb. A clause is usually only part of a sentence: The sentence, 'After we had finished eating, we watched a video' contains two clauses.

claustrophobia /ˌklɔːstrəˈfəʊbiə/ noun [U] great fear of being in a small or closed space الخوف من الأماكن المغلقة

- ► claustrophobic /ˌklɔ:strəˈfəʊbik/ adj 1 afraid in this way: I always feel claustrophobic in lifts.
- 2 (used about sth that makes you feel afraid in this way): a claustrophobic little room

مسبب للضيق والخوف

- Claw /klɔ:/ noun [C] 1 one of the pointed nails on the feet of some animals and birds: Cats have sharp claws.
- 2 the part of a leg on some types of insects and sea animals which they use for holding things
- Clay /kle1/ noun [U] heavy earth that is soft when it is wet and becomes hard when it is baked or dried: The students were modelling heads out of clay. o clay pots
- ? clean¹ /kIi:n/ adj 1 not dirty: The whole house was beautifully clean. ○ Are your hands clean? ○ I think I'll change into some clean clothes.
 - 2 (used about animals and people) having clean habits: Cats are very clean animals.

- 3 (used about humour) not about sex, etc.; not dirty: a clean joke
- 4 having no record of offences: a clean driving licence
- 5 not owning or carrying anything illegal such as drugs or weapons: The police searched her but she was clean.

 اليحمل المعنوعات
- a clean sweep a complete victory in a sports competition, election, etc. that you get by winning all the different parts of it: The Russians made a clean sweep of all the gymnastics events.
- ► clean adv (informal) completely: The lorry went clean through the wall. I clean forgot it was your birthday.
- rmal) to tell the truth about sth that you have been keeping secret: She decided to come clean with them about the mistake she had made. بكشف (الحقيقة). بعترف
- Clean2 | Kli:n | verb 1 [T] to remove dirt and marks from sth: to clean the house, the windows, the kitchen floor, etc. O Don't forget to clean your teeth! O Oh dear, my shoes need cleaning.
 - Clean is a general word for removing dirt from something. If you wash something you clean it with water and often soap. You can wipe a surface by rubbing it with a wet cloth; you dust a surface by rubbing it with a dry cloth. If you brush something you clean it with a brush that has a short handle; if you sweep the floor you use a brush with a long handle.
 - 2 [I] to make the inside of a house, office, etc. free from dust and dirt: Mr Burrows comes in to clean after office hours.
 - Clean sth out to clean the inside of sth thoroughly: I'm going to clean out all the kitchen cupboards next week. ينظف (داخل الشيء) نظافة تأمة clean (sth) up 1 to remove all the dirt from a place that is particularly dirty: I'm going to clean up the kitchen before Mum and Dad get back.
 - 2 to remove sth that has just been spilled: Oh no, you've spilt coffee on the new carpet! Can you rlean it up?
- cleaner /'kli:nə(r)/ noun 1 [C] a person whose job is to clean the rooms and furniture inside a house or other building: an office cleaner المنظف
- 2 [C] a substance or an instrument that you use for cleaning sth: liquid floor cleaners \circ a carpet cleaner 2 Look at vacuum cleaner.
- مادة أو أداة) منظفة 3 cleaner's = DRY-CLEANER'S: Could you take my roat to the cleaner's?
- Cleanliness /'klenlines/ noun [U] being clean:
 High standards of cleanliness are extremely important in a hotel kitchen.
- cleanly /ˈkliːnli/ adv easily or smoothly: The knife cut cleanly through the rope. بسهولة . بيسر
- cleanse /klenz/ verb [T] to make sth thoroughly clean: to cleanse a cut ينظف (نظافة تامة) : يطهُر داوية المهادي cleanser noun [C] a substance that you use

- for cleaning sth, especially your skin مادة منظّفة (للبشرة)
- , clean-'shaven adj (used about men) not having a beard or a moustache مليق: بلالحية أو شارب
- R clear / kliə(r)/ adj 1 easy to see through: clear glass o The water was so clear that we could see the bottom of the lake.
 - 2 easy to see, hear or understand: We get a very clear picture on our new television. His voice wasn't very clear on the telephone. She gave me clear directions on how to get there.
 - 3 free from marks: a clear sky (= without clouds) ه م clear skin (= without spots) خال (من الغيوم أو الشوائب الخ) ، صاف
 - 4 free from things that are blocking the way: The police say that most roads are now clear of snow.
 خال من العوائق، سالك
 - 5 clear (to sb) easy to see; obvious: There are clear advantages to the second plan. o It was clear to me that he was not telling the truth. o The answer to the problem is quite clear.
 - 6 clear (about/on sth) sure or definite; without any doubts: I'm not quite clear about the arrangements for tomorrow.
 - 7 not confused: Clear thinking is very important in this job. We need to get a clear understanding of the situation.
 - 8 free from guilt: It wasn't your fault. You can have a completely clear conscience.
 - plain (to sb) to speak so that there can be no doubt about what you mean: 'I do not want you to go to that concert,' said my mother.' Do I make myself clear?' He made it quite clear that he was not happy with the decision.
 - > clearly adv 1 in a way that is easy to see, hear or understand: It was so foggy that we couldn't see the road clearly.
 - 2 in a way that is not confused: I'm so tired that I can't think clearly.
 - 3 obviously; without doubt: She clearly doesn't want to speak to you any more.
- clear² /kliə(r)/ adv 1 = CLEARLY (1): We can hear the telephone loud and clear from here.
 - 2 clear (of sth) away from sth; not touching sth: Stand clear of the doors (= on a train).

 بعيداً عن (شيء)
 - mm keep/stay/steer clear (of sb/sth) to avoid sb/sth: It's best to keep clear of the town centre during the rush hour.
- Pclear³ /kliə(r)/ verb 1 [T] to remove sth that is not wanted or needed: to clear the roads of snow/ to clear snow from the roads. o It's your turn to clear the table (= to take away the dirty plates, etc. after a meal). o Shall I help you clear away the plates?
 - 2 [I] (used about fog, smoke, etc.) disappear: The fog slowly cleared and the sun came out.
 - 3 [I] (used about the sky, the weather or water) to become free of clouds, rain, or mud: After a cloudy start, the weather will clear during the afternoon.

clearance → click

- 4 [T] to jump over or get past sth without touching it: The horse cleared the first jump but knocked down the second.
 شب (فوق شيء) دون مسه
- 5 [T] to give permission for sth to happen: At last the plane was cleared for take-off.
- 6 [I] (used about a cheque) to go through the system that transfers money from one account to another: The cheque will take three days to clear.
- 7 [T] clear sb (of sth) to prove that sb is not guilty of a crime or mistake: The man has finally been cleared of murder.
- clear the air to remove tension by talking openly about worries, doubts, etc: I'm sure if you discuss your feelings with her it will help to clear the air between you.
- clear your throat to cough slightly in order to make it easier to speak: He cleared his throat and then began his speech.

The clear off (informal) (used especially as an order) to go away: 'Clear off,' shouted the farmer, 'you're on my land!'

clear sth out to tidy sth and throw away things that you do not want: I really must clear out the kitchen cupboards. يرتُب و يرمي ما لا يحتاج إليه clear up (used about the weather or an illness) to get better: We can go out for a walk if it clears up later on. ○ The doctor told him to stay at home until his cold cleared up.

clear (sth) up to make sth tidy: Make sure you clear up properly before you leave. رِنَّبُ (العكان) clear sth up to find the solution to a problem, mystery, etc: There's been a slight misunderstanding but we've cleared it up now.

يحُلُ (مشكلة أو لغزاً الخ)

- clearance /klierens/ noun [U] 1 the removing of sth that is old or not wanted: slum clearance o The shop is having a clearance sale (= selling things cheaply in order to get rid of them).
 - إزالة ، تَخْلَصُ : تَصَفَية 2 the distance between an object and something - that is passing under or beside it, e.g. a ship or vehicle: There was not enough clearance for the bus to pass under the bridge safely.
- 3 official permission for sb/sth to do sth: clearance to work at the nuclear research establishment
- clear-'cut adj definite and easy to see or understand: It was a clear-cut case of police corruption.
- clear-'headed adj able to think clearly, especially if there is a problem
- clearing /'klierinj/ noun [C] a small area without trees in the middle of a wood or forest

رقعة صفيرة بلاشجر

clearly adv → CLEAR1

- clear-'sighted adj able to understand situations well and to see what might happen in the future
- cleavage /ˈkliːvɪdʒ/ noun [C,U] the space between a woman's breasts

- clef /klef/ noun [C] (in music) a sign (﴿, ﴾) at the beginning of a line of written music that shows the range of the notes
- clematis /'klemətis; klə'meitis/ noun [U.C] a climbing plant with white, purple or pink flowers
- clementine /ˈklemənti:n/ noun [C] a type of small orange
- clench /klentf/ verb [T] to close or hold tightly: He clenched his teeth in pain. o She clenched her fists and looked as if she was about to hit him. شند على الصال (استال)
- clergy /ˈklɜːdʒi/noun [plural] the people who perform religious ceremonies in the Christian church: a member of the clergy ربال الدين المسيحي
- clergyman /ˈklɜːdʒimən/ noun [C] (pl. clergymen /-mən/) a member of the clergy
- clerical /ˈklerɪkl/ adj 1 connected with the work of a clerk in an office: clerical work
 - 2 of or concerning the clergy کَهَنُوتِي، إكليروسي
- Relerk /kla:k; US kla:rk/ noun [C] 1 a person whose job is to do written work or look after records or accounts in an office, bank, court of law, etc.
 - 2 (also sales clerk) (US) = SHOP ASSISTANT
- Relever /'klevə(r)/ adj 1 able to learn, understand or do sth quickly and easily; intelligent: a clever student o How clever of you to mend my watch! o She's so clever with her hands she makes all her own clothes.
 - 2 (used about things, ideas, etc.) showing skill or intelligence: a clever device \circ a clever plan
 - دُكيَ، بارع ُ ريراعة، بذكاء د cleverly adv دكاء، نباهة : براعة : ب
 - cliché (also cliche) /'kli:'fer; US kli:'fer/ noun [C] a phrase or idea that has been used so many times that it no longer has any real meaning or interest: The story was full of clichés.

كليشيه، فكرة مبتذلة

- Relick / klık/ noun [C] 1 a short sharp sound:

 I heard the click of a key in the lock. o the click of a switch
 - 2 (computing) the act of pressing the button on a computer mouse
- Click² /klik/ verb 1 [I.T] to make a short sharp sound; to cause sth to do this: The door clicked shut. o He clicked the switch.

يطقٌ؛ يضغط على (محدثاً صوتاً)

- 2 [I. T] click (on sth) (computing) to press one of the buttons on a mouse: To open a file, click on the menu.
- 3 [I] (Brit informal) (used about two people) to become friendly immediately: We met at a party and just clicked.
- 4 [I] (informal) (used about a problem, etc.) to become suddenly clear or understood: Once I'd found the missing letter, everything clicked into place.

- ?client /'klaient/ noun [C] someone who receives a service from a professional person زيون ، عميل
- clientele / kli:en'tel; US klaren'tel/ noun [U] the group of people who regularly go to a particular shop, hotel, etc. 1 This word is more formal than alternatives such as customers or guests.

عملاء أو زبائن دائمون

- cliff /klif/ noun [C] a high, very steep area of rock, especially one next to the sea: the white cliffs of منحدر صخري ، جرّف Dover
- ?climate /'klaimət/ noun [C] 1 the normal weather conditions of a particular region: a dry, humid, tropical, etc. climate o What are the effects of global warming on our climate?
 - 2 the general opinions, etc. that people have at a particular time: What is the current climate of opinion regarding the death penalty? o the polit-
 - ▶ climatic /klar'mætik/ adj connected with climate: a conference to discuss climatic change
 - climax /'klaımæks/ noun [C] the most important and exciting part of a book, play, piece of music, event, etc: the novel's climax in the final chapter o The election victory marked the climax of his ذروة ، أوج political career.
 - ▶ climax verb [I] to reach a climax

يصل إلى الذروة

- ?climb /klarm/ verb 1 [I,T] to move up to the top of sth: The cat managed to climb to the top of the tree. o to climb a tree, mountain, rope, etc. o She climbed the stairs to bed. o to climb up a ladder يتسلق، يصعد
 - 2 [I] to move, with difficulty, in the direction mentioned: I managed to climb out of the win-يتسلق بصعوبة
 - 3 [I] to go up mountains, etc. as a sport o Go climbing is a common way of talking about climbing for pleasure: I go climbing in the Alps يمارس رياضة التسلق most summers.
 - 4 [I] to rise to a higher position: The plane climbed steadily. o The road climbed steeply up the side of the mountain. o (figurative) The value of the dollar against the pound has climbed to a يصعد، يرتفع record level.

IDM climb/jump on the bandwagon → BAND WAGON

PHRV climb down (over sth) (informal) to admit that you have made a mistake; to change يعترف بخطئه ؛ يغيّر رأيه your opinion about sth ▶ climb noun [C] an act of climbing or a journey made by climbing: The monastery could only be reached by a three-hour climb. صعود، ارتقاء climber noun [C] a person who climbs mountains or rocks as a sport

climbdown /'klaimdaon/ noun [C] an act of admitting you have been wrong: a government climbdown clinch /klint \(/ verb \[\] (informal \) to settle or decide sth finally, e.g. an argument or business cling /klin/ verb [I] (pt, pp clung /klan/) 1 cling

- (on) to sb/sth; cling together to hold on tightly to sb/sth: to cling to a rope o They clung together for warmth. يتمسك أو يتعلق (بشيء) ؛ يلتصق ب
- 2 to continue to believe that sth is true, often when it is not reasonable to do so: They were still clinging to the hope that the girl would be found
- 3 to stick firmly to sth: Her wet clothes clung to يلتصق
- cling film noun [U] a thin transparent material used for covering food to keep it fresh

- clinic /'klinik/ noun [C] 1 a small hospital or a part of a hospital where you go to receive special medical treatment: He's being treated at a private clinic. o The ante-natal clinic is part of the mater-مستوصف ؛ عبادة nity department.
- 2 a time when a doctor in a hospital sees patients and gives special treatment or advice: Dr Greenall's clinic is from 2 to 4 on Mondays. واعيد العيادة في مستشفى
- clinical /'klmikl/ adj 1 of or relating to the examination and treatment of patients at a clinic or hospital: Clinical trials of the new drug have proved successful.
 - 2 (used about a person) cold and not emotion-بارد (المشاعر)
- ▶ clinically /-kli/ adv 1 according to medical طبياً ، سريرياً examination: to be clinically dead
- بشكل محرد من العواطف 2 in a clinical(2) way
- clink /klink/ noun [sing.] the short sharp sound that objects made of glass, metal, etc. make when they touch each other: the clink of glasses
- رنينٍ ؛ صليل ؛ صوت قرع (الكؤوس) يرنّ، يصِلّ ؛ يقرع (الكؤوس) ▶ clink verb [I,T]
- clip¹ /klip/ noun [C] a small object, usually made of metal or plastic, used for holding things to-مَنْبِكَ ، "شَكَّالَة" ؛ دبّوس شعر gether: a paper clip
- ▶ clip verb [I,T] (clipping; clipped) to be fastened with a clip; to fasten sth to sth else with a clip: Do your earrings clip on? O Clip the photo to the letter, please. ينشبك ؛ يشبك ؛ يربط بدبوس
- clip² /klip/ verb [T] (clipping; clipped) to cut sth, especially by cutting small parts off: The hedge needs clipping.
- ▶ clip noun [C] 1 an act of cutting sth
- 2 (informal) a short sharp blow: She gave the boy a clip round the ear.
- 3 a small section of a film that is shown separately so that people can see what the rest of the مقطع قصير من فيلم film is like
- clipping (US) noun [C] = CUTTING¹(1)
- clipboard /'klipbo:d/ noun [C] a small board with a clip at the top for holding papers, so that you can write while you are standing or moving لوحة كتابة في أعلاها ملقط للأوراق around
- clippers /'klipəz/ noun [plural] a small metal tool used for cutting things (e.g. hair or fingernails): a pair of nail clippers
- clique /kli:k/ noun [C] a small group of people cloak → close with the same interests who do not want others to join their group

- cloak /kləuk/ noun 1 [C] a type of loose coat close 1/kləus/ adj 1 (not before a noun) close without sleeves, more common in former معُطّف فضفاض دون أكمام ، عباءة
- ستار ؛ ذريعة 2 [sing.] a thing that hides sth else
- cloakroom /'kləokru:m; -rom/ noun [C] 1 a room near the entrance to a theatre, school, club, etc. where you can leave your coat, bags, etc. مجرة إيداع المعاطف والحقائب الخ
- 2 (Brit) a lavatory in a public building: Excuse me. Where are the ladies' cloakrooms, please? مِرحاض في مبنّى عام
- clobber /'klobə(r)/ verb [T] (Brit informal) to hit sb hard
- Clock1 /klok/ noun [C] 1 an instrument that shows you what time it is, often found on the wall of a house or building (not worn like a watch): an alarm clock o That clock is five minutes slow (= it says 10.55 when it is really 11 o'clock). o The clock is five minutes fast (= it says 6.05 when it is really 6 o'clock). o The clock struck midnight.

- 2 an instrument in a car that measures how far it has travelled: My car has only 10 000 miles on عدّاد المسافة المقطوعة (في السّيارة) the clock
- around/round the clock all day and all night: They are working round the clock to repair the bridge.
- put the clock/clocks forward/back to change the time, usually by one hour, at the beginning/ end of summer يقدّم/يؤخّر الساعة (في بداية/نهاية الصيف) ▶ clockwise adv, adj in the same direction as the hands of a clock: Turn the handle clockwise. o to move in a clockwise direction 1 The opposite في اتجاه عقارب الساعة is anticlockwise.
- Lclock2 /klok/ verb
 - PHRV clock in/on; clock off to record the time that you arrive at or leave work, especially by putting a card into a type of clock
 - يسجّل زمن الوصول للعمل أو الخروج منه clock sth up to achieve a certain number or total: Our car clocked up over 2 000 miles while we were on holiday. يسجّل أو يصل رقماً معيّناً
- clockwork /'klpkws:k/ noun [U] a type of machinery found in certain toys, etc. that you operate by winding a key: a clockwork toy o The plan went like clockwork (= smoothly and without any ألية تعمل بزنبرك ، انتظام (آلي)
- clog1 /klog/ noun [C] a type of shoe made completely of wood or with a thick wooden bottom: a pair of clogs
- clog² /klpg/ verb (clogging; clogged) [I,T] clog (sth) (up) (with sth) to block or become blocked: The drain is clogged up with leaves. o You've clogged up the machine. O The roads were clogged with traffic.
- clone /kləun/ noun [C] an identical copy of a plant or animal that is produced by artificial methods نبات أو حيوان مستنسخ

- ▶ clone verb [T] to cause sth to grow as a clone
- (to sb/sth); close (together) near: Is our hotel close to the beach? o It's close to midnight, o The edges are quite close together.
 - 2 (used about a friend, etc.) known very well and liked: They invited only close friends to the wedding. (صديق) مقرّب
 - 3 near in a family relationship: a close rela-قريب ، لصيق
 - 4 (used about a competition, etc.) only won by a small amount: a close match (فوز) بفارق ضئيل
 - 5 careful; thorough: On close examination, you could see that the banknote was a forgery.
 - 6 (used about the weather, etc.) warm in an uncomfortable way and with little movement of air: It's so close today that there might be a (جوّ) ثقيل
 - IDM a close shave/thing a bad thing that almost happened: I wasn't injured, but it was a close shave. نجاة بأعجوية
 - at close quarters at or from a position that is very near من مكان قريب، عن كَثُب
 - keep a close watch on sb/sth to watch sb/sth very carefully: The police kept a close watch on يراقب مراقبة دقيقة the gang.
 - ▶ closely adv in a close way: to watch sb closely o The insect closely resembles a stick.

عن كَثَب : بإمعان : إلى حدّ كبير ${\bf closeness}\ noun\ [{\rm U}]$ the state of being close

- Close* /klaus/ adv near: The child stood close to his mother. o to follow close behind someone I held her close (= tightly).
 - close by (sb/sth) at a short distance from sb/sth: She lives close by. close on nearly; almost: He was born close on a - hundred years ago. تقريباً close up (to sb/sth) at or from a very short distance to sb/sth: You can't tell it's a forgery until you look at it close up.
- close³ /kləʊs/ noun [C] part of the name of a street, especially one that is closed off at one حيّ مسدود في آخره end: 5 Devon Close
- Close* /kləvz/ verb [I,T] 1 to shut: The door closed quietly. o to close a door, window, cupboard, etc. o Close your eyes - I've got a surprise.

 - 2 to be, or to make sth, not open to the public: What time do the shops close? o The police have closed the road to traffic.
 - 3 to come or bring sth to an end: The meeting closed at 10p.m. o Detectives have closed the case on the missing girl.
 - PHRV close (sth) down to stop all business or work permanently, at a shop or factory: The factory has had to close down because of the recession. o Health inspectors have closed the restaurant down.
 - close in (on sb/sth) to come nearer and gradually surround sb/sth, especially in order to attack: The army is closing in on the enemy troops.

- Relose⁵ /kləvz/ noun [sing.] the end, especially of a period of time or an activity: the close of trading on the stock market

 | DM bring sth/come/draw to a close to end:

 The chairman brought the meeting to a close.

 The guests began to leave as the evening drew to a close.
- Reep your mouth closed. o with closed eyes مُقْفَل مُفْلَق عَلَى الله عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى الله عَلَى الله عَلَى الله عَلَى ا
- ,closed-,circuit 'television noun [C,U] (abbr CCTV) a type of television system that works within a limited area, for example a public building, to protect it from crime
 - كاميرا (الدائرة المغلقة) للمراقبة
- ? closet /ˈklɒzɪt/ noun [C] (US) a large cupboard that is built into a room خزانة (مشيّدة داخل حجرة)
- 'close-up noun [C] a photograph or film of sb/sth that you take from a very short distance away:

 Here's a close-up of our wedding cake.

 صورة مَقْرَبَة
- 'closing time noun [C] the time when a shop, etc. closes (وقت انتهاء (العمل)
- closure /ˈkləʊʒə(r)/ noun [C,U] the permanent closing, e.g. of a business: Miners are protesting against pit closures. The firm is threatened with closure.
- clot /kint/ noun [C] 1 a lump formed by blood as it dries
- R cloth /kloð; US klo:ð/noun (pl. cloths /kloðs; US klo:ðz/) 1 [U] a material made of cotton, wool, etc. that you use for making clothes, curtains, etc: a metre of cloth
 - 2 [C] a piece of cloth that you use for a particular purpose: a tablecloth o Where can I find a cloth to wipe this up?
 - د الله (kləvő/ verb [T] to provide clothes for sb; to feed and clothe a child بلبس . يكسو clothed adj clothed (in sth) dressed: He was clothed in leather from head to foot. Luckily I was fully clothed when they arrived.

- Relothes /kləoðz; US kləoz/ noun [plural] the things that you wear, e.g. trousers, shirts, dresses, coats, etc. (when thought of all together).

 Take off those wet clothes. She was wearing new clothes.

Remember that clothes is always plural. We can use an item/piece/article of clothing to describe a single thing that you wear: A kilt is an item of clothing worn in Scotland. Look also at garment.

'clothes hanger noun [C] = HANGER

'clothes line noun [C] a thin rope that you hang clothes on so that they can dry

- 'clothes peg (US 'clothespin) noun [C] = $peg^{1}(3)$
- Relose⁵ /kləʊz/ noun [sing.] the end, especially of a period of time or an activity: the close of trading on the stock market (انتهاء اختتام) (I the clothes that you wear: You will need waterproof clothing to clothes) (I the clothes that you wear: You will need waterproof clothing to clothes) (I the clothes that you wear: You will need waterproof clothing to clothes) (I the clothes that you wear: You will need waterproof clothing to clothes) (I the clothes that you wear: You will need waterproof clothing to clothes) (I the clothes that you wear: You will need waterproof clothing to clothes) (I the clothes that you wear: You will need waterproof clothing to clothes) (I the clothes that you wear: You will need waterproof clothing to clothes) (I the clothes that you wear: You will need waterproof clothing to clothes) (I the clothes)
 - clotted 'cream noun [U] (Brit) a type of thick rich cream
 - R cloud¹/klaud/noun 1 [C,U] a mass of very small drops of water that floats in the sky and is usually grey or white: The sun disappeared behind a cloud. o A band of thick cloud is spreading from the west.
 - 2 [C] a mass of smoke, dust, sand, etc: Clouds of smoke were pouring from the burning building.

with the disapproval of the people around you: She left her job under a cloud because she'd been accused of stealing.

- محاط باستهجان الآخرين، موضع نقمة cloudless adj (used about the sky, etc.) clear; without any clouds
- cloudy adj (cloudier; cloudiest) 1 (used about the sky, etc.) full of clouds

 2 (used about liquids, etc.) not clear: cloudy
- used about liquids, etc.) not clear: ciouay water
- cloud² /klaud/ verb 1 [I.T] to become or make sth difficult to see through: His eyes clouded with tears.
- 2 [T] to make sth less clear or easy to understand يعثّم: يبوم
- 3 [T] to make sth less enjoyable; to spoil: Illness; has clouded the last few years of his life.

 PHRV cloud over 1 (used about the sky) to become full of clouds
- 2 (used about a person's face) to start to look sad يتكدّر (الوجه بالحزن)
- cloudburst /ˈklaʊdbɜːst/ noun [C] a sudden heavy fall of rain وابل (من المطر)
- clout /klaot/ noun (informal) 1 [C] a heavy blow, usually with the hand: to give someone a clout لطمة قوية
- 2 [U] influence and power: He's an important man he has a lot of clout in the company.
- clove¹/kləʊv/ noun [C] the small dried flower of a tropical plant, used to give a special flavour in cooking بهار أو كَبْش الفَرْتُقُلُ
- ${f clove^2}$ /kl ${ ext{eov}}/$ noun [C] a section of a garlic bulb
- clover /'kləʊvə(r)/ noun [C] a small plant with pink or white flowers and leaves with three parts to them Sometimes clover leaves have four parts and it is thought to be very lucky if you find one of these.
- clown /klaun/ noun [C] a person who wears funny clothes and makes people laugh, especially in a circus
- ▶ clown verb [I] clown (about/around) to act in a funny or foolish way, like a clown: Stop clowning around and get some work done! يتصرف كالمهرج

Club1 /klab/ noun [C] 1 a group of people who meet to share an interest; the place where they meet: to join a club o to be a member of a club o a social clubo a tennis, football, golf, etc. club

2 = NIGHTCLUB

Going dancing and drinking in a club is known as clubbing or going clubbing. A person who often goes to nightclubs is called a clubber.

PHRV club together (to do sth) to share the cost of sth, e.g. a present: We clubbed together to buy him a leaving present.

club2 /klab/ noun [C] 1 a heavy stick, usually with one end that is thicker than the other, used مراوة as a weapon

2 a long stick that is specially shaped at one end and used for hitting a ball when playing golf ⇒ Look at bat², racket¹ and stick¹(3).

مضرب الغولف ▶ club verb (clubbing; clubbed) [T] to hit sb/sth hard with a heavy object, especially a club2(1): to يضرب بهراوة club somebody to death

club³ /klnb/ noun 1 clubs [plural] the set (suit) of playing cards with black three-leafed shapes السبآتي (في ورق اللعب) on them

2 [C] a playing card from this suit

ورقة لعب سباتي

clubber /'klabə(r)/ noun [C] a person who goes مرتاد النوادي الليلية to nightclubs regularly

cluck /klak/ noun [C] the noise made by a hen

نقيق أو قَرْق الدَّجاج تنق أو تَقْرُق (الدَجاَّجة)

▶ cluck verb [I] clue /klu:/ noun [C] a piece of information that helps you solve a problem, answer a question, etc: The police were looking for clues to his disappearance. o the clues for solving a crossword puz-مفتاح لحلَّ لغُز

not have a clue (informal) to know nothing: to be unable to help or understand: I haven't a clue where you left your watch. ليس لديه أدنى فكرة ► clued up / klu:d 'Ap/ adj knowing a lot about sth: I'm not really clued up on the technical عالم أو خبير بـ clueless adj not able to understand; stupid: I'm غبي: جاهل clump /klamp/ noun [C] a small group of plants or trees, growing together أحمة ، شجراء absolutely clueless about computers.

clumsy /'klamzi/ adj (clumsier; clumsiest) 1 (used about a person) careless or awkward and likely to drop things or do things badly: I'm afraid I've broken the glass - it was very clumsy of me. o She undid the parcel with clumsy fingers. أخرق

2 (used about a remark, etc.) not showing enough understanding of the feelings of other people; likely to upset or offend people: He made a clumsy apology. o her clumsy attempts at غير لبق : تُقيل humour

3 large, awkward to use, and not attractive in design: a clumsy piece of furniture

▶ clumsily adi على نحو غير مصقول ؛ بشكل أخرق خرق ؛ عدم رشاقة clumsiness noun [U] clung pt, pp of cling cluster /'klastə(r)/ noun [C] a group of people, plants or things that stand or grow close together: a cluster of schoolchildren o a cluster of محموعة ؛ عنقو د berries

▶ cluster verb

PHRV cluster/be clustered round sb/sth to form a group around sb/sth: The tourists clustered around their guide.

clutch /klnts/ verb [T] to hold sth tightly, especially because you are afraid or excited: He clutched his mother's hand in fear. o The girl ran يقبض بقوة ، يمسك ر off, clutching her prize.

PHRV clutch at sth to try to take hold of sth: She clutched at the money but the wind blew it

▶ clutch noun 1 [C] the part of a car that you press with your foot before you change gear; the apparatus that it is connected to: to press/release قابض ؛ جهاز تعشيق التروس في السيارة the clutch

2 clutches [plural] the power or control of a person or group: He fell into the enemy's clutches.

3 [C] an act of seizing or clutching: to make a قَنْضة شديدة clutch at sth clutter /'klʌtə(r)/ noun [U] things that are where they are not wanted or needed and make a place untidy: Who left all this clutter on the table?

أشياء مبعثرة ، فوضى ، "كركبة" ▶ clutter verb [T] clutter sth (up) to cover or fill sth with lots of objects in an untidy way: Don't leave those books there - they're cluttering up the table. يبعثر، "يكركب" cluttered adj: a cluttered desk

ملىء بالفوضى، يعوزه النظام

cm abbrev (cm or cms) = CENTIMETRE(S)

Co. 1 /k = COMPANY: W Smith and Co.

2 = COUNTY Co. Down

c/o /,si: 'au/ abbrev (used for addressing a letter to somebody who is staying at another person's house) care of: Mr Peter Boyes, c/o Mr and Mrs بواسطة، عناية، طرف B. Jav

{coach1 /kəvtʃ/ noun [C] 1 a comfortable bus used for long journeys: It's cheaper by coach than by train. o a coach trip

2 = CARRIAGE

3 a large carriage with four wheels pulled by horses and used especially in former times: the عربة تجرها الجياد roval coach

<code>rcoach2</code> /kəutʃ/ noun [C] a person who trains people to compete in certain sports: a tennis مدری باضہ

▶ coach verb [I,T] to train or teach sb, especially to compete in a sport or pass an examination: She is coached by a former Olympic champion. يدرَب، يعلم

- Recoal /kəʊl/ noun 1 [U] a type of black mineral that is dug (mined) from the ground and is burned to give heat and energy: a lump of coal o a coal fire
 - 2 coals [plural] burning pieces of coal فحم مشتعل أو جَمر
- coalition /ˌkəʊə'lıʃn/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] the joining of two or more political parties, often for a temporary period, usually in order to form a government: a coalition between the socialists and the Green Party o a coalition government
- 'coal mine (also pit) noun [C] a place, usually underground, where coal is dug from the ground المنجم فحم حجري كلوية المناس كالمناس على المناس كالمناس المناس ال
- 'coal miner (also miner) noun [C] a person whose job is to dig coal in a coal mine
- coarse /ko:s/ adj 1 consisting of large, not fine pieces; rough, not smooth: coarse salt o coarse cloth
- 2 (used about a person or sb's behaviour) rude, likely to offend people; having bad manners: His coarse remarks about women offended her.
- ► coarsely adv: Coarsely chop the onion (= into pieces which are not too small). ∘ He laughed coarsely.
- coarsen /ˈkɔ:sn/ verb [1,T] to become or to make sth coarse
- Recast Neost/ noun [C] the area of land that is next to or close to the sea: After sailing for an hour we could finally see the coast. Holiday-makers reported seeing sharks just off the coast. It was a sunny weekend and the roads were full of people going to the coast. Scarborough is on the east coast.
 - ► coastal adj at or near a coast: coastal areas o fishing in coastal waters
- [coast² /kəʊst/ verb [I] 1 to move (especially down a hill) without using power

يسير أو يهبط تلقائيا

- 2 to achieve sth without much effort: They coasted to victory.
- coastguard /ˈkəʊstgɑːd/ noun [C] a person or group of people whose job is to watch the sea near the coast in order to warn or help ships that are in danger or to stop illegal activities
- coastline /ˈkəʊstlaɪn/ noun [C] the edge or shape of a coast: a rocky coastline
- - 2 the fur or hair covering an animal's body: a dog with a smooth coat
 - 3 a layer of sth covering a surface: The walls will probably need two coats of paint.
 - ► coat verb [T] coat sth (with/in sth) to cover sth with a layer of sth: biscuits coated with milk chocolate coating noun [C] a thin layer of sth that covers sth else: a coating of dust

- 'coat hanger noun [C] = HANGER
- coat of 'arms (also arms) noun [C] a design that is used as the symbol of a family, a town, a university, etc.
- COAX /kəʊks/ verb [T] to persuade sb gently: The child wasn't hungry, but his mother coaxed him into eating a little. o They coaxed the cat out of the basket.
- EHRV coax sth out of/from sb to get sth from sb by gently persuading: At last he coaxed a smile out of her.
- cobble¹ /ˈkɒbl/ (also ˈcobblestone) noun [C] a rounded stone used (in the past) for covering the surface of streets حجر خاص لرصف الشوارع
- مرصوف بالحجارة cobbled adj: cobbled streets
- cobble²/'kpbl/verb
- EHRV cobble sth together to make sth or put sth together quickly and without much care يصنعه بسرعة ودون إتقان
- cobbler /ˈkɒblə(r)/ noun [C] (old-fashioned) a person who repairs shoes
- cobra /ˈkəʊbrə/ noun [C] a poisonous snake found in Africa and Asia صول: نعبان سام
- cobweb /'knbweb/ noun [C] a net of threads made by a spider in order to catch insects

بيت أو نسج العنكبوت

- Coca-Cola™ /,kəʊkə 'kəʊlə/ (also Coke™) noun [C,U] a brown, sweet, non-alcoholic drink الکوکا کولا
- cocaine /kəʊˈkeɪn/ noun [U] a drug that some people take for pleasure but to which they can become addicted (= they cannot stop using it) (مختُر) الكوكائين
- COCk¹ /kɒk/ noun [C] 1 (US rooster) an adult male chicken: cocks crowing at dawn Э Look at the note at chicken.
- 2 an adult male bird of any type: a cock spar-row
- cock² /knk/ verb [T] to raise or move part of the body: The horse cocked its ears on hearing the noise.
- PHRV cock sth up (Brit slang) to do something very badly and inefficiently; to spoil sth
 - 'يطصلق" أو يفسد العمل
- cock-a-doodle-doo /ˌkɒk ə ˌduːdl ˈduː/ interj the noise made by a cock
- cockerel /ˈkɒkərəl/ noun [C] a young male chicken
- cockney /ˈkɒkni/ noun 1 [C] person who was born and grew up in London, especially the East End شخّص من الحيّ الشعبي في لندن
 - 2 [U] the way of speaking English that is typical of cockneys
- لهجة cockney adj: a cockney accent متعلَّق بهذه اللهجة
- cockpit /ˈkɒkpɪt/ noun [C] 1 the part of an aircraft where the pilot sits

2 the part of a racing car in which the driver مقعد السائق في سيارات السباق sits cockroach /'kpkrəotf/ (US roach) noun [C] a large dark brown insect, often found in dirty rooms or damp places cocktail /'kpkteil/ noun [C] 1 an alcoholic مزيج من مشروبات كحوليّة

2 a mixture of small pieces of food, usually served as the first part of a meal: a prawn طعام من قطع صغيرة cocktail

'cock-up noun [C] (slang) something that was badly done; a mistake that spoils sth: What a cock-up! You'll have to start again.

إفساد العمل ، لخبطة

cocoa /'kəʊkəʊ/ noun 1 [U] a dark brown powder made from the seeds of a tropical tree and used in making chocolate

2 [C,U] a hot drink made from this powder مشروب الكاكاو mixed with milk or water coconut /'kəʊkənʌt/ noun [C,U] the large brown fruit of a tropical tree. Coconuts have very hard, hairy shells and are filled with a white liquid that you can drink. The white substance inside the shell is often eaten in sweets and cakes cocoon /kə'ku:n/ noun [C] a fine covering like silk threads made by an insect to protect itself during one stage of its development شرنقة، فَلَحة

cod /kpd/noun [C,U] (pl. cod) a large sea fish that vou can eat سمك القد

Rcode /kəʊd/ noun 1 [C,U] a system of words, letters, numbers, etc. used instead of other words, letters, etc. so that messages, information, etc. can be kept secret: They succeeded in breaking/ cracking the enemy code (= in finding out what it was). o They wrote letters to each other in code.

2 [C] a group of numbers, letters, etc. that is used for identifying sth: What's the code (= the telephone number) for Stockholm? o a bar code (= a pattern of lines printed on goods, that a مفَّتاح ، رمز computer can read)

3 [C] a set of rules for behaviour: a code of practice (= a set of standards agreed and accepted by a particular profession) o the Highway Code (= the rules for driving on the roads)

قواعد ، مجموعة قوانين ▶ code verb [T] 1 to put or write sth in code (1): coded messages

2 to use a particular system for identifying things: The files are colour-coded: blue for Europe, ينظم حسب قواعد معينة green for Africa.

co-educational / kəvedzu'keıfənl/ adj (used about a school) with both boys and girls together in the same classes coerce /kəʊˈɜːs/ verb [T] (formal) to force sb to do sth, e.g. by threatening him/her ► coercion /kəʊˈɜːʃn; US -ʒn/ noun [U] coexist / kəvig'zist/ verb [I] to exist together at the same time or in the same place: Is it possible for these different ethnic groups to coexist peaceful-يتعايش

▶ coexistence /-əns/ noun [U]

C of E / si: av 'i: / abbrev = Church of England drink made from a mixture of drinks: a cocktail coffee /'knfi; US 'knfi/ noun 1 [U] the roasted seeds of a tropical tree, made into powder and used for making a drink: Coffee is the country's biggest export.

> 2 [U] a drink made by adding hot water to this: Would you prefer tea or coffee? \circ a cup of coffee

> 3 [C] a cup of this drink: Two coffees please. فنجان قهوة

Black coffee is made without milk; white coffee is with milk. Decaffeinated coffee has had the caffeine taken out. Coffee can be weak or strong. Instant coffee is made by pouring hot water or milk onto coffee powder. Fresh coffee is made in a coffee pot from coffee beans that have just been ground.

'coffee table noun [C] a small low table, usually طاه لة القمه ة in a living room coffin /'kpfin/ noun [C] a box in which a dead body is buried 2 Look at the note at funeral.

cog /kng/ noun [C] one of the tooth-shaped parts on the edge of a wheel in a piece of machinery. The cogs fit into those on another wheel so that, as it moves, the other wheel moves too.

سنّ الدولاب

cohabit /kəʊˈhæbɪt/ verb [I] (formal) (used about an unmarried couple) to live together as if they يعاشر (من غير زواج) were married coherent /kəʊˈhɪərənt/ adj connected in a way that makes sense; clear and easy to understand: a coherent plan متماسك؛ مترابط منطقياً

تماسك ، ترابط ➤ coherence /-ans/ noun [U] coherently adv

cohesion /kəʊˈhi:ʒn/ noun [U] the ability to stay or fit together well: What the team lacks is cohesion - all the players play as individuals.

بشكل يسهل فهمه ؛ بصورة منطقية مترابطة coil /koil/ verb [I,T] to wind sth into a round shape: The snake coiled itself round a tree. o He coiled up the cable and put it into his tool bag.

ىلتف : ىلف ▶ coil noun [C] 1 a length of rope, wire, etc. that has been wound into a round shape: a coil of

2 a small piece of plastic or metal that a woman can wear inside her body to prevent her becom-او لب ing pregnant

Rcoin /kom/ noun [C] a piece of money made of metal: a pound coin قطعة نقود coin verb [T] to invent a new word or phrase: Who was it who coined the phrase 'a week is a يبتكر، يأتي و long time in politics'?

coinage noun [U] the system of coins used in a country: decimal coinage coincide / kəum'said/ verb [I] coincide (with sth) 1 (used about events) to happen at the same cide with the country's centenary celebrations.

يتزامن ، يتوافق

2 to be exactly the same or very similar: Our views coincide completely. ىتطابق coincidence /kəʊˈɪnsɪdəns/ noun [C,U] the surprising fact of two or more similar things happening at the same time by chance; an occasion when this happens: By an incredible coincidence I found myself sitting next to someone I hadn't seen for years. O We hadn't planned to meet, it was just coincidence.

coincidental /kəʊˌmsɪ'dentl/ adj resulting from two similar or related events happening at the same time by chance اتفاقي ، عرضي اتفاقاً ، بالمصادفة ► coincidentally /-təli/ adv

 $Coke^{TM}/k\partial Uk/noun[C,U] = Coca-Cola$ coke /kəuk/ noun [U] a solid black substance pro-(فحم) الكوك duced from coal and used as a fuel

ol. abbrev = Colonel cola /'kəʊlə/ noun [C,U] a brown, sweet non-alcoholic drink; a glass, can, etc. of this کو کا (کولا)

colander /'kʌləndə(r)/ noun [C] a metal or plastic bowl with a lot of small holes in it, used for draining water from food

Cold¹ /kəuld/ adj 1 having a low temperature; not hot or warm: If I were you, I'd put a coat on. It's cold outside. o I'm not going into the sea, the water's too cold. o Shall I put the heating on? I'm Compare cold, hot, cool, and warm. Cold -indicates a lower temperature than cool and may describe a temperature that is unpleasantly low: a terribly cold winter. Cool means 'fairly cold' and may describe a pleasantly low temperature: It's terribly hot e outside but it's nice and cool in here. Hot bindicates a higher temperature than warm and may describe a temperature that is unpleasantly high: I can't drink this yet, it's too . hot. Warm means 'fairly hot' and may describe a pleasantly high temperature: Come and sit by ', the fire, you'll soon get warm again.

- 2 (used about food or drink) not heated or cooked; having become cold after being heated or cooked: I don't feel like coffee, I'd rather have a cold drink. O Have your soup before it gets cold.
- 3 (used about a person or sb's behaviour) very unfriendly; not showing kindness, sympathy, etc: She gave him a cold, hard look. بارد؛ غير ودي get/have cold feet (informal) to become/ be afraid to do sth: She started to get cold feet as her wedding day approached. يخاف، يرتعب In cold blood cruelly and without pity: to kill sb in cold blood بوحشية ، بلا رحمة coldly adv in an unfriendly way; in a way that shows no kindness or sympathy: He looked at her coldly and did not reply. ببرود ؛ بفتور ، بجفاء coldness noun [U] unfriendliness; a lack of برود : فتور ، جفاء kindness or sympathy time as sth else: The Queen's visit is timed to coin- \cold^2 /kauld/ noun 1 [sing., U] lack of heat; low temperature; cold weather: We walked home in the snow, shivering with cold. o He seldom wears a coat because he doesn't feel the cold. O Come on, let's get out of the cold and go indoors. بَرْد ؛ حوّ بارد 2 [C.U] a common illness of the nose and throat. When you have a cold you sneeze a lot, you have a sore throat and often cannot breathe through your nose: I think I'm getting a cold. O Wear some warm clothes when you go out or you'll catch > cold-blooded adi 1 having a blood temperature that varies with the temperature of the surroundings: Reptiles are cold-blooded.

2 cruel; having or showing no pity: cold-blooded killers

.cold-'hearted /-'ha:trd/ adj unkind; showing no kindness, sympathy, etc.

colesiaw /'kəulslo:/ noun [U] raw cabbage and carrots, etc., chopped and mixed with mayonnaise and eaten as a salad

سلطة الملفوف (الكرنب) المفروم colic /'kplik/ noun [U] pain in the stomach area, which especially babies get collaborate /kəˈlæbəreɪt/ verb [I] 1 collaborate (with sb)(on sth) to work together (with sb), especially to create or produce sth: She collaborated with another author on the book.

2 collaborate (with sb) to help the enemy forces who have taken control of your country يتعاون مع العدو 1 This word shows disapproval. ▶ collaboration /kə,læbə'rei∫n/ noun [U]

1 working together to create or produce sth

2 help given to enemy forces who have taken تعاون مع العدو control of your country collaborator /kəˈlæbəreitə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person who works together with sb else, especially in order to create or produce sth

2 a person who helps the enemy forces who have taken control of his/her country متعاون مع العدوّ collage /'kplq:3; US kə'lq:3/ noun 1 [C] a picture made by fixing pieces of paper, cloth, photographs, etc. onto a surface كولاج 2 [U] the art of making these pictures

ارد Collapse /kəˈlæps/ verb [I] 1 to fall down or inwards suddenly: A lot of buildings collapsed in the

> 2 (used about a person) to fall down and perhaps become unconscious: The winner collapsed at the end of the race. ينهار ؛ يغمى عليه

> 3 to fail or break down suddenly or completely: The company collapsed, leaving hundreds of people out of work.

earthquake.

collar → colloquial

- ► collapse noun 1 [sing.,U] a sudden fall: the collapse of the motorway bridge
- 2 [sing.,U] (used about a person) falling down and perhaps becoming unconscious: a state of collapse
- 3 [C,U] sudden or complete failure: economic collapse إخفاق تامُ : أنهيار collapsible adj able to be folded into a shape that makes it easy to store: a collapsible chair collar /ˈkplə(r)/ noun [C] 1 the part of a shirt, coat, dress, etc. that fits round the neck and is often folded over

- 2 a band of leather that is put round an animal's neck (especially a dog or cat)
- ▶ collar verb [T] (informal) to catch and keep or hold sb: She collared me during the party and asked me for advice on her problems.

يمُسك ب، يحصر

- collarbone /ˈkɒləbəʊn/ noun [C] one of the two bones that connect the chest bones to the shoulder عظم التُرقُوة
- collateral /kəˈlætərəl/ noun [U] property or sth valuable that you agree to give if you cannot pay back money that you have borrowed
- Colleague /'kpli:g/ noun [C] a person that you work with in a job, especially in a profession

زميل

- Collect /ke'lekt/ verb 1 [T] collect sth (up) to bring a number of things together: All the exam papers will be collected at the end.
 - 2 [I] to come together; to gather: A crowd collected to see what was going on.
 - 3 [I,T] to ask for money from a number of people: Hello, I'm collecting for a local charity. Would you like to make a contribution? The landlord collects the rent at the end of each month.

جمع، يحصّل

- 4 [T] to gather a number of objects of a particular type over a period of time as a hobby: He used to collect stamps.
- 5 [T] to go and fetch sb/sth from a particular place: My daughter's at a party and I have to collect her in half an hour.
- 6 [T] collect yourself/sth to get control of yourself, your feelings, thoughts, etc: She collected herself and went back into the room as if nothing had happened. o I tried to collect my thoughts before the exam.
- ▶ collect adj, adv (US) (used about a telephone call) to be paid for by the person who receives the call: a collect call ∘ She called me collect because she hadn't any money.

مكالمة تليفونية محولة الأجرة (على مستلمها) collected adj in control of yourself, your feelings, thoughts, etc.; calm

Recollection /kə'leksin/ noun 1 [C,U] the act of getting sth from a place or from people: The repairs won't take long and your car will be ready for collection tomorrow.

- 2 [C] a group of objects of a particular type that sb has collected as a hobby: a stamp collection
- 3 [C] a number of poems, stories, letters, articles, etc. published in one book: a collection of modern poetry
- 4 [C] the act of asking for money from a number of people (for charity, in church, etc.): a collection for the poor The staff had a collection to buy him a present when he retired.

تَبَرُّع، جمع تبرَّعات

- 5 [C] a group of people or things; a pile: a large collection of papers on the desk
- collective /kəˈlektɪv/ adj shared by a group of people together; not individual: collective responsibility
- ▶ collective noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] an organization or business that is owned and controlled by the people who work in it

(منظمة) تعاونية

- collectively adv: We took the decision collectively at a meeting.
- collector /kə'lektə(r)/ noun [C] (often in compounds) a person who collects things: a stamp collector ه delea مثلاً المعالمة المعالمة على المعالمة المعالمة
- College /'kolid3/ noun 1 [C,U] an institution where you can study after you leave school: an art college o a college of education o He first got interested in politics when he was at college.

We talk about college, without the, when we mean that somebody is attending it as a student. He's at college in York, o She's going to college in October, but not if somebody goes there for any other reason: I went to an art exhibition at the college last night.

كلية

- 2 [C] (in Britain) one of the separate institutions into which certain universities are divided: Kings College, London
- 3 [C] (in the US) a university, or part of one, where students can study for a degree
- collide /kəˈlaɪd/ verb [I] collide (with sb/sth) to crash; to hit sb/sth very hard while moving: He ran along the corridor and collided with his teacher. The lorry collided with a coach but fortunately nobody was injured.
- collie /'kɒli/ noun [C] a dog with long hair and a long pointed nose. Some types of collie are used for guarding and looking after sheep.
 کولی: کلب الحراسة ورمي الختم
- colliery /ˈkɒliəri/ noun [C] (pl. collieries) (especially Brit) a coal mine and its buildings منَحَم الفحم (ومبانيه)
- collision /kəˈlɪʒn/ noun [C,U] a crash; an occasion when things or people collide: It was a head-on collision and the driver was killed instantly. The two planes were in collision with each other and exploded.

colloquial /kə'ləvkwiəl/ adj (used about words, phrases, etc.) used in conversation, not in formal situations or formal writing

► colloquially /-kwiəli/ adv

باللغة الدارجة إو العاميّة cologne /kə'ləun/ noun [U] = EAU DE COLOGNE

colon /'kəʊlən/ noun [C] a punctuation mark (:) used before a list, an explanation, an example, etc.

colonel /ˈkɜːnl/ noun [C] (abbr Col.) an officer with a high rank in the army colonial /kəˈləʊniəl/ adj connected with or owning a colony (1): Spain used to be a major colonial power.

colonialism noun [U] the practice of keeping countries as colonies colonist /'kɒlənɪst/ noun [C] a person who goes to live in a colony (1) when it is first established as one colonize (also colonise) /ˈkɒlənaɪz/ verb [T] to take control of a place as a colony; to establish a colony in a place

► colonization (also colonisation) /kblanativei∫n; US -ni'z-/ noun [U]; the colonization of South America by the Spanish colony /'kpləni/ noun (pl. colonies) 1 [C] a country or area that is ruled by another, more powerful country: Kenya used to be a British colony.

2 [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of people from the same country living in a foreign country or city: the English colony on the Spanish coast

3 [C, with sing, or pl. verb] a group of people with the same interests, profession, etc. living toyether in the same place: an artist's colony

ستعمرة (فنّانين مثلاً)

4 [C] a group of the same type of animals, insects or plants living or growing in the same place: a colony of ants قرية ؛ جماعة : مستوطنة ، مستعمرة

 $\mathbf{Color}(US) = \text{colour}$

 ${f Colossal}$ /kəˈlɒsl/ adj extremely large; huge: a colossal $building \circ a$ colossal amount

"Colour" (US color) /'kAlə(r)/ noun 1 [C,U] the quality that makes sth red, green, yellow, etc: 'What colour is your car?' 'Red.' > Brown isn't my favourite colour. > What colours do the Swedish team play in? > a dark/light colour > a bright colour o a deep/pale colour. Those flowers certainly give the room a bit of colour. • We say that a thing le a certain colour, not that it has a colour.

2 [U] the use of all the colours, not just black and white: All the pictures in the book are in colour o a colour television

3 [U. sing.] redness in your face, particularly showing how healthy you are: You look much better now, you've got a bit more colour.

4 [C,U] the colour of a person's skin, showing the person's race: people of all colours and religions o Discrimination on the grounds of colour is illegal.

5 [U] interesting or exciting details: It's a busy area, full of activity and colour.

pm off colour ill: I didn't go out because I was feeling a bit off colour.

with flying colours → FLYING

► colourful (US colorful) /-fl/ adj 1 with bright colours; full of colour: a colourful shirt زاهی الگوان

2 full of interest or excitement: a colourful story و الله المعنة : شير بالعياة : dourless (US colorless) adj 1 without colour: a colourless liquid, like water عيب اللوت 2 dull and uninteresting: a colourless descrip-

Colour² (US color) /ˈkʌlə(r)/ verb [T] 1 to put colour on sth, e.g. by painting it: Colour the picture with your crayons. • The area coloured yellow on the map is desert.

2 to influence thoughts, opinions, etc: You shouldn't let one bad experience colour your attitude to everything.

etc. with colour using pencils, chalk, etc: The children were colouring in pictures of animals.

المان (صورة قطان)

> coloured (US colored) adj 1 having colour; a particular colour: She always writes letters on coloured paper. ○ a coffee-coloured dress o brightly-coloured lights

2 (used about a person) belonging to a race that does not have white skin ⊕ This word is old-fashioned and may offend some people. To refer to a person belonging to a particular racial group, you should use black, Asian, etc. as appropriate.

colouring (US coloring) noun 1 [U] the colour of a person's hair, skin, etc: People with such fair colouring get sunburnt easily. لون (الشعر، البشرة الخ)

2 [C,U] a substance that is used for giving a particular colour to sth, especially food مادة ملونة ، مسيفة

'colour-blind (US color-blind) adj unable to distinguish between certain colours, especially

'colour scheme (US color scheme) noun [C] the way in which colours are arranged, especially in a room

colt /kəʊlt/ noun [C] a young male horse

red and green

column /'kpləm/ noun [C] 1 a tall solid vertical post made of stone, supporting or decorating a building or standing alone

2 something that has the shape of a column: a column of smoke

3 one of the vertical sections into which a printed page, especially in a newspaper, is

4 a series of numbers written one under the other: to add up a column of figures

5 a piece of writing in a newspaper or magazine that is part of a regular series or written by the same writer: the travel column

- 6 a long line of people, vehicles, etc., one following behind another: a column of troops صف طویل ، طابور
- ► columnist /ˈkɒləmnist/ noun [C] a journalist who writes regular articles in a newspaper or magazine: a gossip columnist a political columnist مصحفي (بكتب عموداً خاصاً)
- coma /ˈkəʊmə/ noun [C] a state of deep unconsciousness, often lasting for a long time and caused by serious illness or injury: She went into a coma and a few days later she died.
- comb /keom/ noun 1 [C] a piece of metal or plastic with a row of teeth that you use for making your hair tidy
- 2 [C, usually sing.] an act of combing the hair: Give your hair a comb before you go out.

 ▶ comb verb [T] 1 to make the hair tidy using a
- comb

 comb
- 2 comb sth (for sb/sth) to search thoroughly: Police are combing the area for the escaped prisoners.
- combat /ˈkɒmbæt/ noun [C,U] a fight, especially in war: unarmed combat (= without weapons)

 O He got a medal for bravery in combat.
- combat verb [T] to fight against sth; to try to stop, reduce or defeat sth: This government will do everything in its power to combat terrorism. يقاتل: يكافح

combatant /ˈkɒmbətənt/ noun [C] a person who takes part in fighting, especially in war

- Recombination / kpmbi'net fn/ noun [C,U] a number of people or things mixed or joined together; a mixture: He left the job for a combination of reasons. o The team manager still hasn't found the right combination of players. o On this course, you may study French in combination with Spanish or Italian.
- Recombine 1 /kəmˈbaɪn/ verb 1 [I,T] combine (with sb/sth); combine A and B/A with B to join or mix two or more things together: The two organizations combined to form one company.

 Bad planning, combined with bad luck, led to the company's collapse.
 - 2 [T] combine A and B/A with B to do two or more things at the same time or have two or more qualities at the same time: to combine business with pleasure. o This car combines speed and reliability.
 - be combined adj done by a number of people joining together, resulting from the joining of two or more things: The combined efforts of the emergency services prevented a major disaster.

 I use that room as a spare bedroom and office combined (= it can be used as either).
- Combine² /'kombam/ (also ,combine 'harvester) noun [C] an agricultural machine that both cuts corn and separates the seed from the stem combustion /kəmˈbʌstʃən/ noun [U] the process of burning

- 1 to move to or towards the person who is speaking or the place that sb is talking about: Come here, please. Come and see what I've found. I hope you can come to my party. They're coming to stay for a week. The children came running into the room.
 - 2 to arrive or reach: What time are you coming home? Has the newspaper come yet? The news came as a complete surprise. The time has come to say goodbye.
 - 3 to have a particular position: March comes after February. O Charlie came second in the exam.
 - 4 to be available: This blouse comes in a choice of four colours.
 - 5 to be produced by or from sth: Wool comes from sheep.
 - 6 to become: Your blouse has come undone.
 - 7 come to do sth (used for talking about how, why or when sth happened): How did you come to lose your passport?
 - 8 (used with to/into and a noun) to reach a particular state: We were all sorry when the holiday came to an end. o The military government came to power in a coup d'état.

 يمل بيلغ come and go to be present for a short come and go to be present for a short time and then go away: The pain in my ear comes and goes.

come easily, etc. to sb to be easy, etc. for sb to do: Apologizing does not come easily to her.

come to nothing; not come to anything to be unsuccessful: Unfortunately, all his efforts came to nothing.

how come...? (informal) why or how: How come you're back so early? o How come I didn't get one too?

to come (used after a noun) in the future: You'll regret it in years to come.

when it comes to sth/to doing sth when it is a question of sth: When it comes to value for money, these prices are hard to beat. فيما يتعلق بالله Come about to happen: How did this situation come about?

come across/over to make an impression of a particular type: Elizabeth comes across as being rather shv.

come across sb/sth to meet or find sb/sth by chance: I came across this book in a second-hand shop.

come along 1 to arrive or appear: An old man was coming along the road.

- 2 = come on(2)
- 3 = come on (3)

come apart to break into pieces: This old coat is coming apart at the seams. يَعْمُكُكُ بِيَعْمُمُ : يَعْمُنُ . يَعْمُمُ اللهِ يَعْمُ لُونَ اللهُ اللهِ اللهِ اللهُ ال particular opinion or feeling: We came away with a very favourable impression of Cambridge.

يرجم حاملاً إنطباعاً معيناً come back 1 to return: I don't know what time I'll be coming back.

2 to become popular or fashionable again: Flared trousers are coming back again.

come back (to sb) to be remembered: When I went to Italy again, my Italian started to come back.

come before sb/sth to be more important than sb/sth else: Mark feels his family comes before his career.

come between sb and sb to damage the relationship between two people: Arguments over money came between the two brothers.

يفىد العلاقة (بين شخصين)

come by sth to get sth: Fresh vegetables are hard to come by in the winter.

come down 1 to fall down: The power lines came down in the storm.

2 (used about an aircraft, etc.) to land: The helicopter came down in a field.

3 to become lower: The price of land has come down in the past year. منزل المنطقة come down to sth/to doing sth (informal) to have as the main feature or most important fact: It all comes down to having the right qualifications.

come down to sth to reach down to a particular point: Her hair comes down to her waist.

come down with sth to become ill with sth: I think I'm coming down with flu. (يصاب (بيرض) come forward to offer help: The police are asking witnesses to come forward.

يساعد، يتقدّم للمساعدة come from... to live in or have been born in a place: Where do you come from originally?

يسكن في مكان أو يكّرن مولوداً فيه come from (doing) sth to be the result of sth: 'I'm tired.' 'That comes from all the late nights you've had.'

come in 1 (used about the tide) to move towards the land (برتفع (المد)

2 to become popular or fashionable: Punk fashtons came in in the seventies. يصبح شانعاً، يروج

3 (used about news or information) to be received: Reports are coming in of fighting in Reirut.

come in for sth to receive blame, etc: The movernment came in for a lot of criticism. يتعرُض (للنقد مثلاً) come of sth/of doing sth to be the result of sth: We've written to several companies asking for help but nothing has come of it yet. مثمر بنتج come off 1 to be able to be removed: Does the collar come off?

2 (informal) to be successful: The deal seems unlikely to come off.

$ (informal) (followed by an adverb) to be in a good, bad, etc. situation as a result of sth: Unfortunately, Dennis came off worst in the flyht.

come off (sth) 1 to fall off sth: Kim came off her bicycle and broke her leg.

2 to become removed from sth: One of the legs has come off this table.

come off it (informal) (used for showing that you do not believe sb/sth or that you strongly disagree with sb): I thought it was quite a good performance. 'Oh, come off it – it was awful!'

2 (also come along) to make progress or to improve: Your English is coming on nicely.

3 (also Come on!; Come along!) (used for telling sb to hurry up, try harder, etc.): Come on or we'll be late! • Come on! You can do better work than that.

4 to begin: I think I've got a cold coming on.

come out 1 to appear: The rain stopped and the sun came out. \circ The report came out in 1988.

يطلع ، يصدر

2 to become known: It was only after his death that the truth came out.

3 (used about a photograph, etc.) to be produced successfully: Only one of our photos came out.

(الصورة) تطلع أو تنجح (الصورة) تطلع أو تنجح come out (of sth) to be removed from sth: Red wine stains don't come out easily. בענ come out against sth to say in public that you do not like or agree with sth: The Prime Minister came out against capital punishment.

يعارض علانية come out in sth to become covered in spots, etc: Heat makes him come out in a rash. يصاب بطفع جلدي وغيره come out with sth to say sth: The children came out with all kinds of stories.

يطلع (بفكرة) ، يحكي

come over = come across come over (to...) (from...) to move from one place to another: They've invited us to come over to Australia for a holiday.

come over sb (used about a feeling) to affect sb; A feeling of despair came over me.

come round 1 (used about an event that happens regularly) to happen: The end of the holidays always comes round very quickly.

يحدث : يَاتِّي 2 (also come to) to become conscious again پستردُ وعيه ، يفيق من إغماء come round (to...) to visit a person or place: Why don't you come round to see us on Saturday?

come round (to sth) to change your opinion so that you agree with sb/sth: They finally came round to our way of thinking.

يفيّر رأيه . يتنازل عن موقفه come through (used about news, information, etc.) to arrive: The football results are just coming through. come through (sth) to escape injury or death comeback → command in a dangerous situation, illness, etc: to come through a heart attack come to = COME ROUND

come to sth 1 to equal or total a particular amount: The bill for the meal came to £35.

2 to reach a bad situation: We will sell the house to pay our debts if we have to but we hope it won't يتلنّى الوضع (إلى ذلك) come to that.

come under to be included in a particular section, department, etc: Garages that sell cars come under 'car dealers' in the telephone book.

نَف، يقع تحت اسم come up 1 (used about a plant) to appear above the soil

2 (used about the sun and moon) to rise

يشرق، يبزغ

3 to be about to happen in the future: I have an important meeting coming up next week.

يحدث أو يأتي قريباً

4 to be discussed: The subject of religion came يعرض للمناقشة come up against sb/sth to find a problem or difficulty that you have to deal with: The developers came up against a lot of opposition from the local residents.

come up to sth 1 to reach up as far as a particular point: The water in the pool came up to يبلغ، يصل

2 to be as good as usual or as necessary: This piece of work does not come up to your usual يو قي

come up with sth to find an answer or solution to sth: Engineers have come up with new ways of saving energy. يجد حلاً، يبتكر comeback /'kambæk/ noun [C] a return to a position of strength or importance that you had before: The former world champion is hoping to استعادة مجد سابق make a comeback.

comedian /kəˈmiːdiən/ (also comic) noun [C] a person whose job is to entertain people and make them laugh, e.g. by telling jokes

كوميدي ، ممثل هَزْلِي

comedown /'kamdaun/ noun [C, usually sing.] (informal) a loss of importance or social position: It's a bit of a comedown for her having to move to a نخفاض في المنزلة smaller house.

Comedy /'kpmadi/ noun (pl. comedies) 1 [C] an amusing play, film, etc. that has a happy end-كوميديا ، مسرحية أو فيلم هَزْلِي ing 3 Look at tragedy.

2 [U] the quality of being amusing or making people laugh: There is a hint of comedy in all her novels.

comet /'kpmit/ noun [C] an object that looks like a bright star with a tail and that moves around the sun

?comfort /'kamfet/ noun 1 [U] the state of having everything your body needs, or of having a pleasant life: Most people expect to live in comfort راحة ، رفاهية in their old age. \circ to travel in comfort راحة ، 2 [U] the state of being relaxed: This furniture is not designed for comfort.

3 [U] help or kindness to sb who is suffering: I tried to offer a few words of comfort. عزاء ، مو اساة

4 [sing.] a person or thing that helps you when you are very sad or worried: You've been a real comfort to me.

5 [C] something that makes your life easier or more pleasant: After a week's camping we really appreciated the comforts of home. 2 Look at discomfort. وسيلة راحة

▶ comfort verb [T] to try to make sb feel less worried or unhappy: to comfort a crying child يعزِّي ، يسكِّن ، يطيّب خاطره

Rcomfortable /'kamftəbl; US -fərt-/ (also informal comfy) adj 1 allowing you to feel relaxed and providing you with everything your body needs: Our hotel room was large and comfortable. o a comfortable temperature (= not too hot or too cold) o Sit down and make yourselves comfort*able.* The opposite is uncomfortable.

2 not having or causing worry, pain, difficulty, etc: He did not feel comfortable in the presence of so many women.

3 having or providing enough money for all your needs: They are not wealthy but they're ميسور ، مكْتَف مالياً quite comfortable.

▶ comfortably /-təbli/ adv in a comfortable way: You can't live comfortably on such low على نحو مريح أو كاف comfy /'kamfi/ adj (comfier; comfiest) (informal) comfortable (1): a comfy chair مريح ، وثير

comic /'kpmrk/ adj that makes you laugh; funny: a comic scene in a play

► comic noun [C] 1 = COMEDIAN

2 a magazine for children that tells stories through pictures مجلة أطفال مصورة comical /'kpmrkl/ adj that makes you laugh مُضْحِكَ ، مثير للضحّك على نحو مضحك أو هزّلِي comically /-kli/ adv

'comic strip (also 'strip cartoon) noun [C] a series of pictures that tell a story, e.g. in a news-قصة مصورة paper, etc.

coming /'kamin/ noun [C] the arrival of sth: The coming of the computer meant the loss of many comma /'kpmə/ noun [C] the punctuation mark (,) used for dividing parts of a sentence or items

Rcommand¹ /kəˈmɑːnd; US -ˈmænd/ verb 1 [I,T] to tell or order sb to do sth: The men did as their officer had commanded.

2 [T] to control or be in charge of sb/sth: to command a ship, regiment, army, etc. يقود ؛ يرأس 3 [T] to deserve and get sth: The old man commanded great respect. يحظى ب، يستحق ▶ commanding adj 1 (used about a person who commands (2) sb/sth): Who is your commanding officer? 2 having or showing power or authority: to آمر (ونَّاه) speak in a commanding tone of voice

3 strong: The castle occupied a commanding position at the head of the valley.

- Command² /kəˈmɑːnd/ noun 1 [C] an order: The captain's commands must be obeyed without
 - 2 [U] control over sb/sth: Who is in command of the expedition? o to take command of a situ-قيادة ؛ إشراف ؛ سلطة
 - 3 [sing.] the state of being able to do or use sth: She has a good command of French.
 - IDM at/by sb's command (formal) because you were ordered by sb: At the command of their officer the troops opened fire.
 - be at sb's command to be ready to obey sb: I'm تحت أمر (شخص) completely at your command.
 - commandeer / kpmən'dıə(r)/ verb [T] to take control or possession of sth for military use يصادر لفرض عسكري
- commander /kəˈmɑːndə(r); US -ˈmæn-/ noun [C] 1 a person who controls or is in charge of sb/sth قائد ، أُمر
- ضابط بحرية 2 (Brit) an officer in the Navy
- (also commandment Commandment) /kə'ma:ndmənt; US -'mænd-/ noun [C] (formal) one of the ten important laws that Christian وصية (من الوصايا العشر) people should obey
- commando /kəˈmɑːndəʊ; US -ˈmæn-/ noun [C] (pl. commandos) one of a group of soldiers who are trained to make quick attacks in enemy areas أحد المغاوير، فدائي
- commemorate /kəˈmeməreɪt/ verb [T] to keep a special event in people's memories; to exist in order to make people remember a special event: a statue commemorating all the soldiers who died in يحيي ذكري the last war
- ▶ commemoration /kəˌmeməˈreɪʃn/ noun [C,U]: The concerts were held in commemoration of the 200th anniversary of the composer's death. إحياء ذكري
- Commence /kə'mens/ verb [I,T] (formal) commence sth/doing sth to start or begin 2 Look at the note at begin.
- ► commencement noun [C,U]
- is very good: Dean was commended for his excel-یشید ب، یثنی علی
- ▶ commendable /-abl/ adj that you must praise: She acted with commendable honesty and fairness.
- Comment /'kpment/ noun [C,U] comment (on sth) something that you say or write that gives your opinion or feeling about sth: The chancellor was not available for comment. o I have heard both favourable and unfavourable comments ulmut the film.
 - no comment (used in reply to a question when you do not want to say anything at all): 'Mr President, how do you feel about these latest لاأريد أن أعلق developments?' 'No comment.'
 - ▶ comment verb [I,T] comment (on sth) to give your opinion or feeling about sth: Several

- people commented on how lovely the garden looked. O Somebody commented that it didn't seem verv fair.
- commentary /'kpmantri; US -teri/ noun (pl. commentaries) 1 [C,U] a spoken description on the radio or television of sth as it is happening: the commentary on a football match
- 2 [C] a written explanation of sth: a translation of Shakespeare's plays with a commentary
- commentate /'kpməntert/ verb [I] to give a spoken description on the radio or television of يعلق تعليقاً حياً sth as it is happening
- ► commentator /'kpməntertə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person who commentates on sth: a sports commentator
- 2 a person who gives his/her opinion about sth on the radio, on television or in a newspaper: a political commentator
- commerce /'kpma:s/ noun [U] the activities that are involved in buying and selling things: the Minister for Industry and Commerce
- Rcommercial /kəˈmɜːfl/ adj 1 connected with buying and selling goods: a specialist in commer-
 - 2 making a profit: Although it won a lot of awards, the film was not a commercial success. مربح (تجارياً)
 - ▶ commercial noun [C] an advertisement on دعاية أو إعلان تجاري the radio or on television commercialism /kəˈmɜːʃəlɪzəm/ noun [U] the attitude that making a profit is more important النزعة التجارية ، التركيز على الكسب than anything else commercialize (also commercialise) /kə'm3:fəlaiz/ verb [T] to try to make a profit out of sth, even if it means spoiling it: Christmas has become very commercialized over recent يجعله تجارياً؛ يستغل للربح vears.
 - commercially /-fali/: The factory was closed down because it was no longer commercially تحاريأ
 - commiserate /kəˈmɪzəreɪt/ verb [I] commiserate (with sb) (on/over sth) (formal) to feel or show sympathy for sb who is very unhappy بواسي، يتعاطف مع or in difficulty
- commend /ke/mend/verb [T] to say that sb/sth ?commission /ke/mifn/ noun 1 [C] an act of asking sb to do a piece of work for you: He received a commission to write a play for the festival.
 - 2 often Commission [C, with sing. or pl. verb] an official group of people who are asked to find out about sth: A Commission was appointed to investigate the causes of the accident. لجنة تحقيق
 - 3 [C,U] money that you get for selling sth: Agents get 10% commission on everything they sell (= 10% of the value of the things they sell). ▶ commission verb [T] to ask sb to do a piece of
 - work: to commission an architect to design a building بكلف
 - commissioner /kə'mıʃənə(r)/ noun [C] an official of high rank in an organization Commit /kə'mɪt/ verb [T] (committing; commit-committee → communicate

- ted) 1 to do sth bad or illegal: to commit a crime \circ to commit suicide (עניאה (جريمة)
- 2 (formal) to send sb to a prison, mental hospital, etc: He was committed to Broadmoor for the rest of his life.

 (خ) سجن أو مصحة النها المحمدة النهاء الن
- 3 commit sb/yourself (to sth/to doing sth) to promise to do sth: I can't commit myself to helping you tomorrow. I'm still not sure if I will be free.
- 4 to decide to use sth for a particular purpose پوچه (لفرض معین) : پودع
- 5 commit yourself (on sth) to say openly what you think or believe: When asked for her opinion she refused to commit herself. $\mathbb{O}$ Look at non-committal.
- > commitment noun 1 [U] commitment (to sth) the state of giving a lot of your time and attention to sth because you believe it is right or important: We are looking for a teacher with enthusiasm and commitment. o commitment to an ideal
- 2 [C] something that you have promised to do; a responsibility: Marriage is a great commitment.

 We usually have family commitments on Sunday. > Japan has made a commitment to respect the new agreement.
- committed adj giving a lot of your time and attention to sth because you believe it is right or important: a committed Christian o The company is committed to providing quality products.
- Ecommittee /ko'miti/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of people who have been chosen to discuss sth or decide on sth: They have set up a committee to look into ways of reducing traffic in the city centre. o to be/sit on a committee o The planning committee meets/meet twice a week.
- commodity /kəˈmɒdəti/ noun [C] (pl. commodities) something that you buy or sell: Salt was once a very valuable commodity.
- commodore /ˈkɒmədɔ:(r)/ noun [C] an officer of middle rank in the Navy
- rcommon¹ /'kɒmən/ adj 1 happening or found often or in many places; usual: Nowadays it is quite common for people to go abroad for their holidays. o The word is no longer in common use.

 o The daisy is a common wild flower: شنام: على
 - 2 common (to sb/sth) shared by or belonging to two or more people or groups, or by most or all people: The Americans and the British share a common language. This type of behaviour is common to most children of that age. We have a common interest in gardening.
 - 3 (only before a noun) not special; ordinary: The officers had much better living conditions than the common soldiers.
 - 4 (informal) having or showing a lack of education: Don't speak like that. It's common!

مبتذل، سوقيً Be common/public knowledge → KNOW-LEDGE

- > commonly adv often; usually: These insects are commonly known as midges.
- common² /ˈkɒmən/ noun [C] an area of open land where the public is free to walk: cricket on the village common
- baye sth in common (with sb/sth) to share sth with sb/sth else: They seem to be good friends although they have few interests in common. to have a lot in common with sb in common with sb/sth like sb/sth: This company, in common with many others, is losing a lot of money.
- commoner /ˈkɒmənə(r)/ noun [C] an ordinary person, i.e. not a member of a noble or royal family
- common 'ground noun [U] beliefs, interests, etc. that two or more people or groups share: They have very little common ground.
 - آراء أو هوايات الخ...مشتركة ·
- common 'law noun [U] laws in England that are based on decisions that judges have made, not laws that were made by Parliament
 - قانون العرف والعادة
- commonplace /ˈkɒmənpleɪs/ adj not very exciting or unusual; ordinary: Foreign travel has become commonplace in recent years.
- 'common room noun [C] a room in a school, university, etc. where students or teachers can go to relax when they are not in class غرفة الاستراحة (في مدرسة أو جامعة الخ)
- Commons /'kpmənz/ noun [plural] the Commons (Brit) = The HOUSE OF COMMONS Took at the note at Parliament.
- good sensible decisions because of your experience of life, not because of what you have learned at school or from books: Safety precautions are basically just common sense.
- Commonwealth /ˈkɒmənwelθ/ noun [sing.] the Commonwealth the group of countries that once formed the British Empire and that try to work and to trade together in a friendly way (دول) الكوبوتوك
- commotion /kəˈməʊʃn/ noun [sing.,U] great noise or excitement: People looked out of their windows to see what all the commotion was about.
- communal /ˈkɒmjənl; kəˈmju:nl/ adj shared by a group of people: a communal kitchen
- commune /ˈkomjuːn/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of people, not from the same family, who live together and share their property and responsibilities
- Communicate /kəˈmjuːnıkert/ verb 1 [I,T] to make information or your opinions, feelings, etc. known to sb: Parents often have difficulty communicating with their teenage children (= understanding them and being understood).

 They communicate by sign language. Our boss is good at communicating her ideas to the team.

151

- 2 [I] communicate (with sth) to be joined or connected with sth: two rooms with a communicating door
- ♀ communication /kəˌmju:nr'ker∫n/ noun 1 [U]
 the act of communicating: There is little real communication between father and daughter: verbal/non-verbal communication Radio is the only means of communication in remote areas.
 - 2 communications [plural] the methods that are used for travelling to and from a place or for sending messages between places: The telephone lines are down so communications are very difficult.
 - 3 [C] (formal) a message: a communication from our chairman
 - DM be in communication with sb/sth (formal) to be in regular contact with: The astronauts are in direct communication with the control centre in Houston. (یکون) علی اتصال
 - communicative /kə'mju:nɪkətɪv; US -keɪtɪv/adj willing to talk or give information: Daphne seems shy and not very communicative. The opposite is uncommunicative.

على استعداد للكلام ، غير متحفّظ communion /kəˈmjuːniən/ noun 1 Communion (also Holy Communion) [U] the ceremony in the Christian Church in which people share bread and wine as symbols of Christ's body and blood: to take/go to Communion

العشاء الرباني ، القربان المقدِّس

- 2 (formal) [U] the sharing of thoughts or feelings: Modern man is no longer in communion with nature.
- communiqué /kəˈmjuːnɪker; US kəˌmjuːnə-ˈkeɪ/ noun [C] an official statement, especially from a government, a political group, etc.

بيان (رسمي)

- communism /ˈkɒmjunɪzəm/ noun [U] the political and economic system or theory in which the state owns and controls the means of production and in which everybody is supposed to be equal
- ▶ communist /'kpmjənɪst/ noun [C] a person who believes in or supports communism

When we are talking about a particular society or political party which is organized according to the principles of communism we often use a capital letter for communism and communist. Russian Communism of He was a member of the Communist Party.

Community /kəˈmjuːnəti/ noun (pl. communities) 1 the community [sing.] the group of people who live in a particular place, area or country: She was given an award for her work with young people in the community. • Recent increases in crime have disturbed the whole community.

- 2 [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of people who have sth (e.g. nationality, interests, type of work, etc.) in common: the Asian community in Britain o the business community
- 3 [U] the feeling of belonging to a group in the place where you live: There is a strong sense of community in the neighbourhood.
- com'munity centre (US community center) noun [C] a building where local people can take part in classes, sports, etc.

مركز ثقافي ورياضي لخدمة الأهالي

- com,munity 'service noun [U] work helping people in the local community that sb does without being paid, sometimes because he/she has been ordered to do it by a court of law as a punishment
- commute /ke mju:t/ verb [I] to travel a long distance from home to work every day: A lot of people commute to London from nearby towns.
- يسافر يومياً إلى مكان عمله commuter noun [C]: The trains are always full of commuters at this time of day.
- compact /kəmˈpækt/ adj small, neat and taking up little space: a compact camera o The compact design of the iron makes it ideal for travel.

مدمّج صفير مركز

compact 'disc noun [C] = CD

- companion /kəmˈpæniən/ noun [C] a person or animal with whom you spend a lot of time or go somewhere: They were constant companions at school. o a travelling companion
- ► companionship noun [U] friendship or company: A lot of people get married for companionship.
- Company /'kʌmpəni/ noun (pl. companies) 1 [C, with sing, or pl. verb] a business organization selling goods or services: an engineering company Is the telephone company here private or state-owned? She applied to several companies for a job. The company is/are planning to build a new factory in Derby. 6 In names company is written with a capital letter. The abbreviation is Co: the Walt Disney Company Milton & Co.
 - 2 [U] being with a person: I always enjoy her company because she always has amusing stories to tell. She was very good company (= pleasant to be with) and I thoroughly enjoyed our evening together.
 - 3 [U] a visitor or visitors: We were surprised when the doorbell rang because we weren't expecting company.
 - 4 [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of actors, singers, dancers, etc: a ballet company o the Royal Shakespeare Company (المسرحية مثلاً) المسلمة المسرحية مثلاً المسرحية مثلاً المسلمة المس
 - comparable /'kpmperebl/ adj comparable (to/with sb/sth) of a similar standard or size; that can be compared with sth: A comparable flat comparative → compensate in my country would be a lot cheaper.

مشابه ؛ قابل للمقارنة

- comparative /kəmˈpærətɪv/ adj 1 compared with sth else or with what is usual or normal: He had problems with the written exam but passed the practical exam with comparative ease.
- 2 involving comparing things of the same kind: a comparative study of systems of government
- 3 (grammar) (used about the form of an adjective or adverb) expressing a greater amount, quality, size, etc: 'Hotter' is the comparative form of 'hot'.
- ► comparative noun [C] (grammar) the form of an adjective or adverb that expresses a greater amount, quality, size, etc: 'Worse' is the comparative of 'bad'.
- comparatively adv as compared with sth else or with what is usual: The disease is comparatively rare nowadays. Most of the houses are old but this one was built comparatively recently.
- Recompare /kəm'peə(r)/ verb 1 [T] compare A and B; compare A with/to B to consider people or things in order to find ways in which they are similar or different: If you compare the old and the new models, you'll see the changes we've made.

 When the police compared the two letters, they realized that they had been written by the same person. Write an essay comparing Britain in the eighteenth century with Britain today.
 - 2 [T] compare A to B to say that things or people are similar in a way or ways: When it was built, people compared the cathedral to a huge tent.
 - 3 [I] compare with sb/sth to be of the same quality as sb/sth: Her last film was brilliant but this one simply doesn't compare. There is nothing to compare with the taste of bread fresh from the oven.

DM compare notes (with sb) to discuss your opinions, ideas, experiences, etc. with sb else: At the beginning of term we met and compared notes about the holidays.

- ► compared adj compared to/with in comparison with; considered in relation to: I'm quite a patient person, compared with him. Compared to the place where I grew up, this town is exciting.
- Recomparison /kəm'pærısn/ noun [C,U] an act of comparing, a statement in which people or things are compared: Put the new one and the old one side by side, for comparison. A comparison of this year's figures with last year's shows that the economy is improving. It's hard to make comparisons between lan's painting and Sheila's because he's been learning so much longer.

 IDM by/in comparison (with sb/sth) when compared: He's quite tall, by comparison with some of the older boys. In comparison with many other people, they're quite well off. When she told me about her problems I realized that mine were small by comparison.

بالنسبة لِ، بالمقارنة مع

draw a comparison/a parallel → DRAW2

- compartment /kəmˈpɑ:tmənt/ noun [C] 1 one of the separate sections into which some railway carriages are divided: a first-class compartment
- 2 one of the separate sections into which certain containers are divided: The drugs were discovered in a secret compartment in his suitcase.

 o the glove compartment (= the space where you can keep maps, etc. in a car)
- compass /'kampos/ noun [C] 1 an instrument for finding direction, with a needle that always points north: a ship's compass o They had to find their way back to the camp using a map and a compass.
- 2 (also compasses) [plural] a V-shaped instrument that is used for drawing circles, etc. a pair of compasses
- compassion /kəmˈpæʃn/ noun [U] compassion (for sb) sympathy or pity for sb who is suffering
- ► compassionate /kəmˈpæʃənət/ adj having or showing sympathy or pity for sb who is suffering شفوق، رحيم
- compatible /kəmˈpætəbl/ adj compatible (with sb/sth) suitable to live together or to be used together: As a couple, they are simply not compatible. compatible software The opposite is incompatible.
- ► compatibility /kəmˌpætəˈbɪləti/ noun [U] تلاؤم، توافق
- compatriot /kəmˈpætriət; US -ˈpeɪt-/ noun [C] a person who comes from the same country as another
- compel /kəm'pel/ verb [T] (compelling; compelled) (formal) to force sb to do sth: I felt compelled to tell her what I really thought of her.
- برر compelling adj 1 very exciting; holding your attention: a compelling story
- 2 forcing sb to do sth; convincing: I felt that there was no compelling reason to stay, so I left.

 The noun is compulsion.
- compensate /ˈkɒmpenseɪt/ verb compensate (sb) for sth 1 [I.T] to pay sb money because you have injured him/her or lost or damaged his/her property: To compensate for the loss of my luggage, the airline sent me a cheque.
- 2 [I] to remove or reduce the bad effect of sth; to make up for sth: His willingness to work hard compensates for his lack of skill.
- ► compensation /ˌkompen'setʃn/ noun compensation (for sth) 1 [U] money that you pay to sb because you have injured him/her or lost or damaged his/her property: She claimed compensation from the company for the injury she suffered while working there.
- 2 [C.U] a fact or action that removes or reduces the bad effect of sth: City life can be very tiring but there are compensations (= good things about it). \circ He took the children to the zoo as compensations.

sation for not taking them on holiday.

compère /'kpmpeə(r)/ noun [C] (Brit) a person who introduces the different performers in a show at the theatre or on television

- مقدم برنامج فني ▶ compère verb [T] (Brit) to act as a com-يقدم برنامجاً فنياً
- Compete /kəm'pi:t/verb[I] compete (against/ with sb) (for sth) to try to win or achieve sth, or to try to be better than sb else: The world's best athletes compete in the Olympic Games. O The teams are competing for a silver trophy. o As children, they always used to compete with each other. They had to compete against several larger companies to get the contract. O We can't compete with overseas firms unless we improve the quality of our goods. يتنافس
 - competent /'kpmprtənt/ adj 1 having the ability or skill needed for sth: a highly competent player o She is competent at her job. o He is not competent to be a manager. The opposite is incompetent. كفء ، مقتدر
 - 2 satisfactory but not excellent: a competent, but not particularly exciting, performance ▶ competence /'kompitens/ noun [U] having the ability or skill that is needed: She quickly proved her competence in her new position. 6 The opposite is incompetence. كفاءة ، مقدرة باقتدار ، بكفاءة competently adv

- competition / kpmpə'tɪʃn/ noun 1 [C] an organized event in which people try to win sth: She entered a competition in the newspaper and won a car. o They're holding a competition to find the best name for the new magazine. O He came second in an international piano competition.
 - 2 [U] a situation where two or more people are complaint /kem'pleint/ noun complaint trying to achieve the same thing or gain an advantage: There was fierce competition among the players for places in the team. O He is in competition with three other people for promotion. o Competition from the supermarkets means that many small shops have had to close.
 - 3 the competition [sing., with sing. or pl. verb] the other people, companies, etc. who are trying to achieve the same as you: If we are going to succeed, we must offer a better product than the المنافسون competition.
- 1 competitive /kəm'petətiv/ adj 1 involving people competing against each other: The travel industry is a highly competitive business. o competitive sports مزاحم: تنافسي
 - 2 able to be as successful as or more successful than those competing: They are trying to make the company competitive in the international market. o Our prices are highly competitive (= as low as or lower than those of the others).
 - 3 (used about people) eager to win or to be more successful than others: She's a very competitive player.
 - competitively adv

- competitor /kəm'petitə(r)/ noun a person, company, product, etc. that is competing with another or others: All competitors must wear a number in the race. o Two local companies are our main competitors. متسابق ؛ متنافس
- compile /kəm'paɪl/ verb [T] to collect information and arrange it in a list, book, etc: to compile a list of addresses
- ▶ compilation / kpmpi'lei∫n/ noun 1 [U] the act of compiling: The compilation of the encyclopedia took many years.
- 2 [C] something that has been compiled: This CD is a compilation of the band's previous hits.
- complacent /kəm'pleisnt/ adj feeling so satisfied with yourself or with the situation that you think (perhaps wrongly) that there is no need to worry: He had won his matches so easily that he was in danger of becoming complacent.
- راض عن نفسه : متواكل ▶ complacency /kəm'pleɪsnsi/ noun [U]: We have achieved a high standard but there is no cause for complacency. We can still improve.
- الرُضا عن النفس ؛ التواكل complacently adv: We had complacently assumed that it was not our problem.
- Rcomplain /kəm'plein/ verb 1 [I,T] complain (about sth); complain (that...) to say that you are not satisfied with or happy about sth: I wish you wouldn't keep complaining. O People are always complaining about the weather. o We complained to the hotel manager that the room was too noisy. 2 Look at the notes at grumble and protest. يشكو ، يتذمر
 - 2 [I] complain of sth to say that you have a pain or illness: He went to the doctor, complaining of chest pains. بشكو (من مرض)
- (about sth); complaint (that...) 1 [U] an act or acts of complaining: I wrote a letter of complaint to the manager about the service I had received. شكوى o a cause for complaint
 - 2 [C] a statement that you are not satisfied with sth: You should make a complaint to the company that made the machine.
 - 3 [C] an illness or disease: a heart complaint o minor complaints
- complement /'kpmpliment/ noun [C] 1 a thing that goes together well with sth else: A cream sauce is the perfect complement to this des-مكمل ا sert.
- 2 the total number that makes a group complete: Without a full complement of players, the team will not be able to take part in the match.
- 3 (grammar) a word or words, especially a noun or adjective, used after a verb such as 'be' or 'become' and describing the subject of that verb: In 'He's friendly' and 'He's a fool', 'friendly' عبأرة متممة للخبر and 'fool' are complements.
- ▶ complement verb [T] to go together well with: The colours of the furniture and the carpet يلاتم ، يناسب complement each other.

قادر على المزاحمة التحارية complete → compose complementary /,kompli'mentri/ adj going together well with sth; adding sth which the other thing does not have: They work well together because their skills are complementary: he's practical and she's creative.

مكمّل (لبعضه البعض)

- ?complete1 /kəm'pli:t/ adj 1 having or including all parts; with nothing missing: I gave a complete list of the stolen items to the police. o a complete set of Dickens' novels o The book explains the complete history of the place. كامل
 - 2 (not before a noun) finished or ended: The repair work should be complete by Friday.
 - 3 (only before a noun) as great as is possible; total; in every way: the complete reorganization of the department o It was a complete waste of time
 - ▶ completely adv as much as is possible; totally; in every way: The building was completely destroyed by fire. o We're trying a completely تماماً ، كلُّناً new method. تمام ؛ اكتمال completeness noun [U]
- ?complete2 /kəm'pli:t/ verb [T] 1 to make sth whole: We need two more players to complete the team. o I finally managed to complete my collection. يكَمُل
 - 2 to finish sth; to bring sth to an end: When the building has been completed, it will look impressive. o He completed his teacher training course in يڭىل، يىھي June 2001.
 - 3 to fill in sth (e.g. a form): Please complete the following in capital letters.
- completion /kəm'pli:fn/ noun [U] the act of completing or the state of being complete. The new motorway is due for completion within two
- complex1 /'kpmpleks; US kəm'pleks/ adj made up of several connected parts and often difficult to understand; complicated: a complex system of taxation o You can't expect to find a simple solution when the problem is so complex. مُعَقَد: مَرِكُبُ ► complexity /kəmˈpleksəti/ noun (pl. com
 - plexities) 1 [U] the state of being complex: an issue of great complexity
 - 2 [C] one of the many details that make sth complicated: I haven't time to explain the complexities of the chemical process now. تعقيد ؛ تركيب
 - complex2 /'kpmpleks/ noun [C] 1 a group or set of things, especially buildings, designed for a particular purpose: a shopping complex o a مجمع (مبانٍ) sports complex
 - 2 a complex (about sth) a mental problem that causes sb to worry or be upset about sth: He's got a complex about his height. o an inferiority complex
 - complexion /kəm'plek sn/ noun [C] 1 the natural colour and quality of the skin or the face: a fair complexion o a healthy complexion
 - 2 [usually sing.] the general nature or character of sth: This news puts a completely different complexion on our situation. طسعة: مظهر عام

- compliant /kəm'plaıənt/ adj (formal) compliant (with sth) working or done in agreement with particular rules, orders, etc. All new products must be compliant with EU specifications.
- مطابق، موافق ا ▶ compliance /-ons/ noun [U]: A hard hat must be worn at all times in compliance with safety م اعاة (النظام) regulations.
- Complicate /'komplikeit/ verb [T] to make sth difficult to understand: Let's not complicate things by adding too many details.
 - ▶ complicated adj difficult to understand; made up of many parts: a novel with a very complicated plot o a complicated mathematical calculation o I can't tell you all the details now, it's too complicated.
 - complication /,kpmpli'keifn/ noun [C] 1 something that complicates sth: Unless there are any unexpected complications, I'll be arriving next month. o The fact that she changed her mind تعقيد ؛ صعوبة was yet another complication.
 - 2 a new illness that you get when you are مضاعفة (في المرض) already ill
 - complicity /kəm'plisəti/ noun [U] being involved, with sb else, in a crime
 - compliment /'kpmpliment/noun 1 [C] a compliment (on sth) a statement or action that praises or expresses admiration for sb: People have often paid her compliments on her piano
 - 2 compliments [plural] (formal) greetings or good wishes given in a message: Tea and coffee are provided with the compliments of the hotel management (= without charge).
 - ▶ compliment /'kompliment/ verb [T] compliment sb (on sth) to praise or express admiration for sb. She complimented them on their smart appearance. يطري ، يثني على
 - complimentary / komplimentri/ adj 1 praising or expressing admiration for sb: He made several complimentary remarks about her work.
 - 2 given free of charge: a complimentary theatre ticket
 - comply /kəm'plai/ verb [I] (pres part complying; 3rd pers sing pres complies; pt, pp complied) comply (with sth) (formal) to obey an order or request: All office buildings must comply with the fire and safety regulations.
 - component /kəm'pəʊnənt/ noun [C] one of the parts that together form sth, especially a machine: car components o the components of a video جزء ؛ عنصر مركب recorder
 - ▶ component adj being one of the parts that together form sth: the component parts of an engine
 - compose /kəm'pəʊz/ verb 1 [I,T] to write music: Mozart composed forty-one symphonies.

يؤلُّف (قطعة موسيقية)

- 2 [T] to produce a piece of writing, using careful thought: I sat down and composed a letter of reply.

 2 [T] to produce a piece of writing, using careful thought: I sat down and composed a letter of reply.
- 3 [T] to be the parts that form sth: the parties that compose the coalition government

ۇڭف، ىشكل

- 4 [T] compose yourself/sth to make yourself, your feelings, etc. become calm and under control: The news came as such a shock that it took me a while to compose myself. She tried to compose her thoughts and answer calmly.
- پهتي نفت ، يضبط (اعصابه) composed adj 1 composed of sth made up of sth; having as its parts: The committee is composed of politicians from all parties.

- 2 calm, in control of your feelings: Although he felt very nervous, he managed to appear composed.
- composer /kəmˈpəʊzə(r)/ noun [C] a person who writes music professionally مؤلف موسيقي
- composite /ˈkɒmpəzɪt/ adj consisting of different parts, substances or materials
- composition /kpmpə'zıʃn/ noun 1 [C] a piece of music that has been written by sb: 'Finlandia' is probably Sibelius' best-known composition.

قطعة موسيقية

- 2 [U] the act of composing a piece of music or writing تأليف (قطعة موسيقية أو كتاب)
- 3 [U] the skill or technique of writing music: She studied both musical theory and composition.

تأليف موسيقي

- 4 [C] a short piece of writing done as part of an educational course or exam: Write a composition of about 500 words on one of the following subjects.
- $\mathbf{5}$ [U] the parts that form sth: the chemical composition of a substance \circ the composition of the population $\mathbf{5}$
- compost /'kompost/ noun [U] a mixture of decaying substances, such as plants and waste material, that is added to soil to help plants to grow
- composure /kəmˈpəʊʒə(r)/ noun [U] the state of being calm and having your feelings under control
- compote /'kompot; US 'kompout/ noun [C,U] fruit cooked with sugar
- compound¹ /'kompaund/ noun 1 something that consists of two or more things or substances combined: a chemical compound
- 2 (grammar) a word or phrase consisting of two or more parts that combine to make a single meaning: 'General election' and 'bad-tempered' are compounds.

 The compounds of the compound of the compounds of the compound of the compound
- compound² /kəmˈpaʊnd/ verb [T] 1 to make sth (a problem, etc.) worse يزيد الأمر سواً
- ${f 2}$ (usually passive) to form by combining two or more things
- compound3 /'kompaund/ noun [C] an area of

- land with a group of buildings on it, surrounded by a wall or fence قطعة أرض مسيجة عليها مباني
- comprehend /ˌkɒmprrhend/ verb [T] (formal) to understand sth completely: She's too young to comprehend what has happened.
- comprehensible /ˌkɒmprr'hensəbl/ adj easy to understand: The book is written in clear, comprehensible language. The opposite is incomprehensible.
- the ability to understand or the act of understanding: How such a peculiar thing could happen is beyond my comprehension. The opposite is incomprehension.
- 2 [C,U] an exercise that tests how well you understand spoken or written language: a listening comprehension o The first part of the exam is reading comprehension.
- comprehensive /ˌkɒmprɪˈhensɪv/ adj 1 including everything or nearly everything that is connected with a particular subject: a guide book giving comprehensive information on the area o The store offers a comprehensive range of kitchen equipment.
- 2 (Brit) (used about education) educating pupils of all levels of ability in the same school: a comprehensive education system
- نظام تعليمي) عام أو شامل ► comprehensively adv thoroughly; complete على نحو شامل
- compre'hensive school (also comprehensive) noun [C] (Brit) a secondary school in which pupils of all levels of ability are educated: I went to the local comprehensive.
 (في بريطانيا) مدرسة إعدادية شاملة لقدوات مختلفة
- compress /kəmˈpres/ verb [T] compress sth (into sth) 1 to press sth together so that it takes up less space
 - 2 to express sth briefly or in a shorter form
- یرس. ضفط compression /kəmˈpreʃn/ noun [U]
- comprise /kəm'praız/ verb [T] 1 to consist of; to have as parts or members: The set comprises a pen, pencil, ruler and rubber. a house comprising three bedrooms, kitchen, bathroom and a living room
- 2 to be the parts or members that make up sth; to form: Women comprise 62% of the staff. يؤلف، يشكّل
- compromise /ˈkɒmprəmaɪz/ noun [C,U] a compromise (between/on sth) an agreement that is reached when each side allows the other side part of what it wanted: Unless the union and the management can reach a compromise on pay, there will be a strike. It's difficult to find a compromise between the protection of the countryside and the need for more housing. There can be no compromise on the subject of terrorism, a government minister said.
- ► compromise verb 1 [I] compromise (with sb) (on sth) to reach an agreement by which compulsion → conceive

each side gets sth it wants and allows the other side to have sth it wants يتوصّلان إلى حلّ وسط

2 [T] compromise yourself to put yourself in a position in which other people can criticize you for not being honest: He compromised himself by accepting money from them.

يعرضُ نفسه للشبهة 3 [T] to do sth that is harmful to sth: She refused to compromise her principles by signing the letter:

compulsion /kəmˈpʌlʃn/ noun 1 [U] forcing sb to do sth or being forced to do sth: There is no compulsion to take part. You can decide yourself.

↑ The verb is compel.

- قاهِر ، لا يقاوم 2 (used about a person) having a bad habit that he/she cannot control: a compulsive liar عبد لرغباته . مدمن 3 so interesting or exciting that you cannot take your attention away from it: This book makes compulsive reading. اجباري ، آسر compulsively adv compulsory /kəmˈpʌlsəri/ adj that must be done, by law, rules, etc: Maths and English are compulsory subjects on this course; Art and Music are optional. ○ It is compulsory to wear a hard hat on the building site. ◆ Something that you do no have to do is non-compulsory, voluntary or optional.

compute /kəmˈpjuːt/ verb [T] (formal) to calculate sth

- Computer /kəm'pju:tə(r)/ noun [C] an electronic machine that can store and arrange information, make calculations and control other machinery: The bills are all done by computer a computer program a computer programmer a home computer ∘ a personal computer ∘ computer software ∘ computer games ∘ These days the whole process is done by computer. ∘ First of all, the details are fed into a computer.
 - الكبيوتر. الحاسوب

 computerize (also computerise) /-təraız/

 verb [T] 1 to put computers in a place of work:

 The whole factory has been computerized.

 بجش بكبيوترات

2 to deal with sth by computer; to store information in a computer: We have now computerized the library catalogue.

computerization (also computerisation)

kəmˌpjuːtəraiˈzeɪʃn; US rɪˈz-/ noun [U]

استعمال الكمبيوتر في مجالات مختلفة computing noun [U] the skill of using computers: She did a course in computing.

استعمال الكمبيوتر

comrade /ˈkɒmreid; US -ræd/ noun [C] 1 (used by members of a union or of a socialist party when they talk about or to each other)

2 (formal) a friend or companion, especially one with whom you share a difficult experience

رفيق (السلاح مثلاً)

comradeship /ˈkɒmreɪdʃɪp/ noun [Ū] رفقة، روح الزمالة

Con (also Cons) abbrev = Conservative

- con¹ /kpn/ verb [T] (conning; conned) con sb (into doing sth/out of sth) (informal) to cheat sb, especially in order to get money: He conned her into investing in a company that didn't really exist. The old lady was conned out of her life savings.
- ► con noun [C] (informal) a trick, especially in order to cheat sb out of some money: I didn't sign anything because I suspected that the whole scheme was a con.

con² /kpn/ noun

IDM the pros and cons → PRO

concave /kɒnˈkeɪv/ adj (used about a surface) curving inwards ♦ Look at convex.

conceal /kənˈsiːl/ verb [T] conceal sth/sb (from sb/sth) to hide sb/sth; to prevent sb/sth from being seen or discovered: She tried to conceal her anger from her friend. • The film was taken with a concealed camera.

► concealment noun [U]: the concealment of the facts of the case concede (kən'si:d/ verb [T] 1 to admit that sth is true, often unwillingly: When it was clear that he would lose the election, he conceded defeat.

She conceded that the problem was mostly her fault.

2 concede sth (to sb) to allow sb to take sth, often unwillingly: They lost the war and had to concede territory to their enemy. O Despite conceding two late goals, they still won. The noun is concession.

conceit /kən'si:t/ noun [U] too much pride in yourself, too high an opinion of your abilities and importance conceive /kənˈsiːv/ verb 1 [I.T] to become pregnant: Tests showed that she was unable to conceive. • Their first child was conceived soon after they got married.

► conceited adj too proud of yourself, your abilities, your importance, etc: He's so conceited he thinks he's the best at everything!

2 [T] to form or think of sth (an idea, plan, etc.); to imagine: He conceived the idea for the novel during his journey through India. \circ I cannot conceive that she would lie to me.

يخطر في باله ؛ يتخيّل

- 3 [I] conceive (of) sb/sth (as sth) to think of sb/sth in a particular way: He started to conceive of the world as a dangerous place.
- The noun is conception.
 - ▶ conceivable /-əbl/ adj possible to imagine or believe: I made every conceivable effort to succeed.
 - The opposite is inconceivable.

ممكن تصوّره ؛ معقول conceivably /-əbli/ adv: She might just conceivably be telling the truth.

مرگز

- Concentrate /'konsntreit/ verb [I,T] 1 concentrate (sth) (on sth/doing sth) to give all vour attention or effort to sth: How can vou concentrate on your work with so much noise going on? o It is important to concentrate on the road when you are driving. o I tried to concentrate my thoughts on the problem. يرڭز على
 - 2 to come together or to bring people or things together in one place: The general concentrated most of his tanks on the border.
 - ▶ concentrated adj 1 aimed at one particular point: With another concentrated attack we should break through the enemy's defences.
 - 2 made stronger by the removal of some liquid: This is concentrated orange juice. You have to add water before you drink it.
- concentration /kpnsn'treifn/ noun 1 [U] concentration (on sth) the act of giving all your attention or effort to sth: This type of work requires total concentration. O She lost her concentration when she heard a door bang. تركيز
 - 2 [C] concentration (of sth) a large amount of people or things in one place: There are high concentrations of nitrates in the drinking water تركيز ؛ كثافة
- concen'tration camp noun [C] a prison (usually a number of buildings inside a high fence) where political prisoners are kept in very bad conditions: Millions of Jews died in Nazi concentration camps. معسكر اعتقال
- concentric /kən'sentrik/ adj (used about cir-. متُحد المركز cles) having the same centre
- Concept /'kpnsept/ noun [C] concept (of sth/ that...) an idea; a basic principle: The basic concepts of physics can be quite difficult to understand. o The concept that 'big is beautiful' is no longer as popular as it was.
 - conception /kən'sepfn/ noun [C,U] 1 the beginning of a new life inside a female person or animal: an embryo 14 days after conception حَمْل (الجنين)
 - 2 an idea or a plan: We have no real conception of what people suffered during the war. فكرة ؛ تخيّل
 - 1 The verb is conceive.
- Concern¹ /kən'sa:n/ verb [T] 1 to affect or be of importance to sb: The destruction of the world's forests concerns everybody in some way. o This does not concern you. Please go away. O The closure of the factory came as a shock to all those concerned. o It is important that no risks are taken where safety is concerned. يَهم، يخص
 - 2 concern yourself with sth to give your attention to sth: You needn't concern yourself with the hotel booking. The travel agent will take care of it. يهتم
 - 3 to worry sb: What concerns the experts most is the increasing level of pollution in our cities.
 - as/so far as sb/sth is concerned → FAR² to be concerned in sth to have a connection with or be involved in sth: Everyone who was

- directly concerned in the incident has now re-متورط (في شيء) signed.
- to be concerned with sth to be about sth: Tonight's programme is concerned with the effects of the law on ordinary people. متعلق
- concerned adj concerned (about/for sth); concerned (that...) worried or anxious: If you are concerned about your baby's health you should consult a doctor immediately. 6 The opposite is unconcerned.
- concerning prep about; on the subject of: She refused to answer questions concerning her private life.
- Concern² /kən'ss:n/ noun 1 [U] concern (for about/over sb/sth); concern (that...) worry: Following the accident there is growing concern over the safety of rail travel, o Don't worry. There is no cause for concern.
 - 2 [C,U] something that affects you or is of importance to you: Edward's family problems are not my concern. o He showed great concern for the poor.
 - 3 [C] a company or business: a large industrial شركة ، مؤسسة تجارية concern
 - IDM a going concern → GOING²
- *Concert /'kpnsət/ noun [C] a performance of music: a rock concert o The concert was held in the Albert Hall. O The orchestra is giving concerts in Liverpool, Glasgow and London.
- concerted /kən'sa:tid/ adj done by a group of people working together: We must all make a con-متناسق، جماعي، موحّد certed effort.
- concertina /,kpnsə'ti:nə/ noun [C] a musical instrument that you hold in your hands and play by pressing the ends together and pulling them apart, so that the material in the middle folds and unfolds (A concertina is like a small accor-الكونسرتينا: آلة موسيقية
- concerto /kən'tʃɜːtəʊ/ noun [C] (pl. concertos) a piece of music for an orchestra with one instrument playing an important part (solo): Tchai-الكونشيرتو: قطعة موسيقية kovsky's piano concerto
- concession /kən'sefn/ noun 1 [C,U] concession (to sb/sth) something that you agree to do or give up in order to end an argument: Employers have been forced to make concessions to the union. 1 The verb is concede.
- 2 [C] a lower price for certain groups of people: Concessions are available for students and pensioners. سعر مخفّض
- 3 [C] a special right to do sth that is given or sold to sb/sth: mining concessions امتىاز
- ▶ concessionary /kənˈseʃənəri; US -neri/ adj having a lower price for certain groups of people: a concessionary fare
- conciliate /kənˈsɪlieɪt/ verb [I,T] (formal) to try to end a disagreement between two groups
 - يصالح ، يوفّق (بين)
- ▶ conciliation /kən,sıli'eı∫n/ noun [U] the process of ending a disagreement: All attempts at conciliation have failed and civil war seems مصالحة ، توفيق inevitable.

يقلق

concise → condescend

مهادِن ، استرضائي conciliatory speech concise /kən'saıs/ adj giving a lot of information in a few words; short: He gave a clear and concise summary of what had happened.

موجز بإيجاز ▶ concisely adv conciseness (also concision /kən'sıʒn/) noun

إيجاز

- Reconclude /kən'klu:d/ verb 1 [I,T] (formal) to end or to bring sth to an end: May I conclude by thanking our guest speaker. o The Prince concluded his tour with a visit to a charity concert.
 - 2 [T] conclude sth from sth to reach a belief or opinion as a result of thought or study: From their studies the archaeologists concluded that the area was the site of an ancient temple.
 - 3 [T] conclude sth (with sb) to arrange or agree to sth formally: to conclude a treaty, يعقد:يبرم business deal, etc.
- Reconclusion /kən'klu:3n/ noun 1 [C, usually sing.] the end: The conclusion of the novel was quite unexpected. o to bring sth to a conclusion o The conclusion is just as important a part of your essay as the introduction.
 - 2 [C] the conclusion (that...) a belief or opinion that you reach after considering sth carefully: We came to the conclusion that he was right. o What conclusions can you draw from her remarks? O Have you reached any conclusions from your studies? استنتاج
 - 3 [U] an act of arranging or agreeing to sth formally: The summit ended with the conclusion of an arms-reduction treaty.

IDM a foregone conclusion → FOREGONE in conclusion finally; lastly: In conclusion, I would like to wish you continued success in the jump to conclusions → JUMP1 future.

conclusive /kən'klu:sıv/ adj that shows sth is definitely true or real: conclusive proof of sb's guilt 1 The opposite is inconclusive.

قاطع ، حاسم > conclusively adv: Tests can now prove con-بشكل قاطع clusively who is the father of a child.

concoct /kən'knkt/ verb [T] 1 to make sth by بعد (بالخلط) mixing different things together

2 to make up or invent sth (an excuse, a story, يلفُق، يختلق

► concoction /kənˈkɒkʃn/ noun [C,U] خليط ؛ اعداد

- concourse /'konko:s/ noun [C] a large hall or space inside a building such as a station or an قاعة كبيرة أو باحة داخل محطّة أو مطار
- *Roncrete1 /'kmpkri:t/ adj 1 that can be touched, felt, etc.; real: a concrete object 2 Look (شيء) ملموس ؛ حقيقي at abstract.
 - 2 definite; particular: Can you give me a concrete example of the behaviour you're complaining about? محلّد، معين
 - ▶ concretely adv

 $\textbf{conciliatory} \hspace{0.2cm} / \text{ken's Iliətəri;} \hspace{0.2cm} \textit{US-to:ri/} \hspace{0.2cm} \textit{adj:} \hspace{0.2cm} a \hspace{0.2cm} \textbf{\concrete}^2 / \text{kenkri:t/} \hspace{0.2cm} \textit{noun} \hspace{0.2cm} \textbf{\coloredge} \hspace{0.2c$ made from cement mixed with sand, water, small stones (gravel), etc., that is used in building: a modern office building of glass and concrete

> ▶ concrete verb [T] concrete sth (over) to cover sth with concrete يغطى بالاسمنت concur /kən'ks:(r)/ verb [I] (concurring; concurred) (formal) concur (with sb/sth) (in sth) concurrent /kən'karənt/ adj existing or happening at the same time as sth else متزامن

▶ concurrently adv: The semi-finals are played concurrently, so it is impossible to watch both. في نفس الوقت

concuss /kən'kas/ verb [T] (often passive) to injure sb's brain by hitting his/her head: to be badly concussed

▶ concussion /kən'kʌʃn/ noun [U] an injury to the brain that was caused by a blow to the head: He was rushed to hospital suffering from concus-ارتجاج في المخ condemn /kən'dem/ verb [T] 1 condemn sb/ sth (for/as sth) to say strongly that you think sb/sth is very bad or wrong: A government spokesman condemned the bombing as a cowardly act of terrorism. يدين، يستنكر

2 condemn sth (as sth) to say officially that sth is not good enough to use: The building was condemned and had to be demolished.

يحكم رسميا بعدم صلاحيته للاستعمال

- 3 condemn sb (to sth/to do sth) to say what sb's punishment will be: The murderer was condemned to death. o (figurative) Their poor education condemns them to a series of low-paid
- ▶ condemnation / kpndem'ner∫n/ noun [C,U] the act of condemning sth; a statement that condemns: The bombing of the airport brought condemnation from all around the world.

condensation / kpnden'seifn/ noun [U] small drops of liquid that are formed when warm air touches a cold surface: On cold mornings the win-قطرات مكثفة dows are covered in condensation.

condense /kən'dens/ verb 1 [I,T] to change from gas to liquid; to make a gas change to liquid: Steam condenses into water when it touches a cold surface. 2 Look at evaporate.

يتكثّف أو يكثّف (الغاز)

2 [I,T] to become or to make sth thicker: con-يتكثّف؛ يكثّف، يركّز densed soup

3 [T] condense sth (into sth) to make a piece of writing shorter: We'll have to condense these three chapters into one.

condescend / kondi'send/ verb [I] 1 to do sth that you believe is below your level of importance: Celia only condescends to speak to me when she wants me to do something for her. يتنازل، يتكرم

2 condescend (to sb) to behave towards sb in a way that shows that you think you are better or more important than him/her: The teacher

ختاماً ، أخبراً

حالة

must be able to explain things at the right level for the children without condescending to them. يعامله بشيء من التعالى

- ► condescending adj: a condescending smile متنازل، متكرم
- condescendingly adv بتنازل ، بلهجة متعطّفة condescension /ˌkɒndɪˈsenʃn/ noun [U]
- condition | /kən'dɪ[n/ noun 1 [sing., U] the state that sb/sth is in: The car is three years old but it is still in very good condition. He looks really ill. He is certainly not in a condition to drive home.
 - 2 [C] something that must happen so that sthe lese can happen or be possible: One of the conditions of the job is that you agree to work on Sundays. We agreed to the conditions that the landlord laid down.
 - 3 conditions [plural] a situation or circumstances: The prisoners were kept in terrible conditions. o poor housing conditions o The weather conditions were very favourable for the expedition.
 - مرض a heart condition مرض on condition (that...) only if: I agreed to help on condition that I got half the profit.

 - out of condition not very healthy; unfit: I need to get more exercise. I'm really out of condition. سيّن الصحة : سيّن اللباقة البدنية
- condition² /kənˈdɪʃn/ verb [T] 1 to affect or control the way that sb/sth behaves: Boys are conditioned to feel that they are stronger than girls. ○ to be conditioned by your environment كَفُ (الساول)
- 2 to keep sth in a good condition: a cream that moisturizes and conditions your skin
- b conditioner /kən'dɪʃənə(r)/ noun [C,U] a substance that keeps sth in a good condition: hair conditioner
- conditional /kən'dıʃənl/ adj 1 conditional (on/upon sth) if sth is conditional on sth else, it can only happen if this other thing happens first; the one thing depends on the other: My university place is conditional on my getting good marks in the groups.
- 2 (grammar) (used about a phrase or sentence) expressing a condition: A conditional clause usually begins with 'if' or 'unless'.
- ► conditionally /-∫ənəli/ adv
- condolence /kən'dəvləns/ [C, usually pl., U] an expression of sympathy to sb whose relative or close friend has just died: Please accept my condolences on your sister's death.
- condom /'kondom/ (also informal rubber) noun(C] a rubber covering that a man wears over his penis during sexual intercourse to prevent the woman from becoming pregnant or as protection against disease

- condominium /ˌkɒndəˈmɪniəm/ noun [C] (US) a flat or block of flats owned by the people who live in them
- condone /kənˈdəʊn/ verb [T] to accept sth; not to consider sth to be wrong: I can never condone violence no matter what the circumstances are.
- conducive /kən'dju:sıv; US 'du:s-/ adj conducive (to sth) helping or making sth likely to happen: This hot weather is not conducive to hard work.
- conduct¹ /'kɒndʌkt/ noun [U] 1 a person's behaviour: His conduct has always been of the highest possible standard. o a code of conduct (= a set of rules for behaviour)
 - 2 conduct of sth the act of controlling or organizing sth: She was criticized for her conduct of the bank's affairs.
- Conduct² /kən'dʌkt/ verb [T] 1 to carry out or organize sth: Tests are being conducted to find the cause of the accident.
 - 2 to stand in front of an orchestra and direct the musicians: The orchestra was conducted by Karajan.
 - 3 conduct yourself well, badly, etc. (formal) to behave in a particular way
 - 4 to allow heat or electricity to pass along or through sth: Rubber does not conduct electricity.
 - 5 to lead or guide sb/sth: a conducted tour of the cathedral
 - conductor /kənˈdʌktə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person who stands in front of an orchestra and directs the musicians
 - 2 (Brit) a person who collects the fares on a bus
 - 3 (US) = $GUARD^2(4)$
 - 4 a substance that allows heat or electricity to pass through or along it: Water is a good conductor. موصل (کهربائی)
 - cone /kəʊn/ noun [C] 1 a solid shape that has a round base and gets narrower, making a point at the top 1 The adjective is conical.
 - 2 an object of this shape: Orange cones marked off the area where the roadworks were. o an icecream cone
 - 3 the hard fruit of a pine or a fir tree ♣ Look at conifer. كوز (صنوبر أو تنُوب)
- confectionery /kənˈfekʃənəri; US -ʃənerɪ/noun [U] sweets, cakes, chocolates, etc.
- confederation /kənˌfedə'renˌʃn/ noun [C,U] an organization of smaller groups which have joined together: a confederation of independent republics o The Confederation of British Industry represents employers.
- confer/kən'fa:(r)/verb(conferring; conferred) 1[I] confer (with sb) (on/about sth) to discuss sth with sb before making a decision: The President is conferring with his advisers.

يتباحث ، يتشاور

conference → conflict

2 [T] confer sth (on sb) to give sb a special right or advantage: Oxford University first conferred degrees on women in 1920.

F. conference /ˈkɒnfərəns/ noun [C] a meeting for discussion, often one held every year where representatives of a particular profession, political party, etc. meet for several days to hear speeches and vote on the matters discussed: The Conservative Party conference is held in the autumn. o an international conference on global warming o a press conference (= when a politician, etc. talks to reporters) confess /ken'fes/ verb [I.T] 1 confess (to sth/ to doing sth); confess (sth) (to sb) to say that you have done sth bad or wrong. The young woman confessed to the murder of her boyfriend/ to murdering her boyfriend. ○ Frank confessed that he had stolen the car. ○ They confessed to their mother that they had spent all the money. ○ I must confess I didn't understand a word of that talk!

يعترف، يُقرّ ب

2 confess (sth) (to sb) to tell a priest or God what you have done that is bad or wrong: to confess a sin confession /kən'feʃn/ noun [C,U] an act of confessing sth: The young man made a full confession to the police. • She goes to confession (= with a priest) twice a year.

confetti /kənˈfeti/ noun [U] small pieces of coloured paper that people throw at the bride and bridegroom after a wedding confide /kən'faɪd/ verb [T] confide sth to sb to tell sb sth that is secret: She did not confide her love to anyone – not even to her best friend.

يبوح (بسره)

PHRV confide in sb to talk to sb whom you trust about sth that is secret or private.

يأتمنه (على سرُّه)

- Confidence /'kpnfidens/ noun [U] 1 confidence (in sb/sth) trust or strong belief in sb/sth: I have every confidence in Emily's ability to do the job. They don't have much confidence in him. The public is losing confidence in the government's ability to improve the economy.
 - 2 the feeling that you are sure about your own abilities, opinion, etc: I didn't have the confidence to tell her I thought she was wrong. o to be full of confidence o 'Of course we will win,' the team captain said with confidence. ② Look at self-confidence.

in (strict) confidence as a secret: The information was given to me in the strictest confidence.

take sb into your confidence to tell sb a secret to tell sb a secret ويفضي له بسر

'confidence trick noun [C] a way of getting money by cheating sb (انتيل المال)

*Confident /'knnfident/ adj confident (of sth/ that...) feeling or showing that you are sure about your own abilities, opinions, etc: Kate feels confident of passing/that she can pass the exam. • to be confident of success • Donald has a very confident manner. 2 Look at self-confident.

be confidently adv. She stepped confidently onto the stage and began to sing. We confidently expect an improvement in sales next year.

ىثقة ، باعتداد

confidential /ˌkɒnfi'denʃl/ adj secret; not to be shown or told to other people: The letter was marked 'private and confidential'.

confidentially |-$\int \text{3-li} | adv: She told me confidentially that she is going to retire early.

سرآ، بشكل سِرَي

- Confine /kənˈfaɪn/ verb [T] 1 confine sb/sth (in/to sth) to keep a person or animal in a particular place, usually a small place: The prisoners are confined to their cells for long periods at a time.
 - 2 confine sb/sth/yourself to sth to stay within the limits of sth: Please confine your questions and comments to the topic we are discussing.
 - یقتصر علی ، یتقید بر confined adj (used about a space) very small:

 Sailors on submarines must get used to living in confined spaces.

confinement noun [U] being kept in a small space: to be kept in solitary confinement حَبْس، عَزَل (في مَكان صَقِق) confines /'konfanz/ noun [plural] (formal) the limits or outer edges of sth: Patients are not allowed beyond the confines of the hospital grounds.

Reconfirm /kən'fa:m/ verb [T] 1 to say or show that sth is true; to make sth definite: Please confirm your telephone booking in writing. Seeing the two of them together confirmed our suspicions.

Can you confirm that you will be able to at tond?

statement that confirms sth: We are waiting for confirmation of the report. O You will receive a written confirmation of your reservation.

تأكيد، تثبيت

2 [C] a religious service at which a person is confirmed (2) تثبيت التعميد ويتي التعميل التعميل التعميل التعميل (only before a noun) fixed in a particular habit or way of life: a confirmed bachelor confiscate /'konfiskeit/ verb [T] to take sth away from sb as a punishment: Any cigarettes found in school will be confiscated.

► confiscation / konfr'skei∫n/ noun [C,U]

صادرة

- Ç conflict /kvnflıkt/ noun [C,U] 1 a fight or an argument: an armed conflict o The new laws have brought the Government into conflict with the unions.
 - 2 a difference between two or more ideas, wishes, etc: When both my wife and father were taken ill, I had a serious conflict of loyalties. و a conflict of interests

- ► conflict /kənˈfhkt/ verb [I] A and B conflict; A conflicts with B to disagree with or be different from sb/sth: The statements of the two witnesses conflict. ○ John's statement conflicts with yours. ○ The two studies came up with conflicting results.
- conform /kənˈfoːm/ verb [1] conform (to sth)
 1 to obey a rule or law; to come up to a particular standard: This building does not conform to fire regulations.
 پتوافق (مع قانون)، يطابق
- 2 to behave in the way that other people and society expect you to behave: Children are under a lot of pressure to conform when they first start school.
- ► conformist /kənˈfɔːmɪst/ noun [C] a person who behaves in the way that people are expected to behave by society

 من براغي متطلبات المحتمع conformity /kənˈfɔːməti/ noun [U] (formal) behaviour which conforms to rules and customs

 مراعاة القراء لمد والعراف
- Reconfront /kənˈfrʌnt/ verb [T] 1 confront sth; confront sb with sb/sth to think about, or to make sb think about, sth that is difficult or unpleasant: to confront a problem, difficulty, etc. o When the police confronted him with the evidence, he confessed.
 - 2 to stand in front of sb, e.g. because you want to fight him/her: The unarmed demonstrators were confronted by a row of soldiers.

 > confrontation / konfran'teɪʃn/ noun [C.U] a fight or an argument
- Reconfuse /kənˈfjuːz/ verb [T] 1 (usually passive) to make sb unable to think clearly or to know what to do: I'm a bit confused. Could you explain that again? o He confused everybody with his pages of facts and figures.
 - 2 confuse A and/with B to mistake sb/sth for sb/sth else: *I often confuse Lee with his brother.*They look very much alike. O Don't confuse 'complement' with 'compliment'.
 - 3 to make sth unclear: The situation is confused by the fact that so many organizations are involved.
 - ► confused adj 1 not able to think clearly: When he regained consciousness he was dazed and confused.
 - 2 difficult to understand: The article is very confused I don't know what the main point is.

confusedly /-ədli/ adv confusing adj difficult to understand: Her instructions were contradictory and confusing.

confusingly adv

Reconfusion /kənˈfjuːʒn/ noun [U] 1 the state of not being able to think clearly or to know what to do: He stared in confusion at the crowd of people in front of his house.

2 a state of disorder: In the panic and confusion two people were trampled to death. • Their unex-

- pected visit threw all our plans into confusion. فوضى ، اضطراب ، لخبطة
- 3 the act of mistaking sb/sth for sb/sth else: To avoid confusion, all luggage should be labelled with your name and destination.
 - خَلْط بين الأشياء ، لخبطة
- 4 the state of being uncertain or unclear. There is still a great deal of confusion as to the true facts.
- congeal /kənˈdʒiːl/ verb [1,T] to become solid; to make a liquid solid: congealed blood يتخلُر ؛ يخلُر
- congenial /kənˈdʒiːniəl/ adj (formal) pleasant: We spent an evening in congenial company.

لطيف، أنيس

- congenital /kən'dʒenɪtl/ adj (used about a disease) beginning at and continuing since birth: congenital brain damage
- congested /kən'dʒestɪd/ adj so full of sth that nothing can move: The streets of London are congested with traffic.
- congestion /kən'dʒestʃən/ noun [U] the state of being very full of sth: severe traffic congestion اکتفاط ،ازدحام
- conglomerate /kənˈglɒmərət/ noun [C] a large firm made up of several different companies شركة ضخمة تتألف من عدة شركات
- ► conglomeration /kənˌglɒməˈreɪʃn/ noun [C] a group of many different things that have been gathered together
- congratulate /kənˈgrætʃuleɪt/ verb [T] congratulate sb (on sth) to praise sb or tell sb that you are pleased about sth he/she has done: I congratulated Sue on passing her driving test. o They sent a card to congratulate the couple on their engagement.
- [plural] (used for praising sb or telling sb that you are pleased about sth he/she has done): Congratulations on the birth of your baby boy! © Congratulations! Your painting has won first prize.
 - congregate /ˈkɒngrɪgeɪt/ verb [I] to come together in a crowd
 - congregation /ˌkɒŋgrɪˈgeɪʃn/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of people who attend church (منيسة والمصلين في كنيسة)
- Congress /ˈkɒŋgres; US -gros/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] 1 a large formal meeting or series of meetings: a medical congress o When is the Trades Union Congress held?
 - 2 Congress the name in some countries (e.g. the USA) for the group of people who are elected to make the laws ⊕ The US Congress is made up of the Senate and the House of Representatives.
 - ► congressional /kənˈgreʃənl/ adj connected with a congress or Congress: a congressional committee conical /'kpnikl/ adj having a round base and عب الفهم ؛ محيّر

ممّا يصعب فهمه

conifer → conscience

getting narrower towards a point at the top

The noun is cone.

conifer /'konnfə(r); 'kəon-/ noun [C] a tree with long, very thin leaves (needles) that stay green all through the year and that has hard brown fruit (cones)

ightharpoonup coniferous /kəʊˈnɪfərəs; $U\!S$ kəʊˈn-/ adj conjecture /kən'dʒektʃə(r)/ verb [I,T] to guess about sth without real proof or evidence

صنويري

▶ conjecture noun [C,U]

يحلس، يخمن حَلْس، تخمين

conjugate /ˈkɒndʒəgeɪt/ verb [T] to give the different forms of a verb

▶ conjugation /ˌkɒndʒuˈgeɪʃn/ noun [C,U] تصریف (الأفعال)

conjunction /kənˈdʒʌŋkʃn/ noun [C] a word that is used for joining other words, phrases or sentences: 'And', 'but' and 'or' are conjunctions.

in conjunction with sb/sth together with sb/sth: Various charities are working in conjunction with the United Nations to help the disaster victims.

conjure /'kʌndʒə(r)/ verb [I] to do tricks by clever, quick hand movements, that appear to be magic يشعوذ . يقرم بألعاب سحرية

Conjure sth up to cause a picture to appear in your mind: Hawaiian music conjures up images of sunshine, flowers and sandy beaches.

conjure sth up; conjure sth (up) from/out of sth to make sth appear quickly or suddenly پستحضر (شیناً بسرعة أو فجاة)

► conjurer (also conjuror) /'kAndʒərə(r)/ noun [C] a person who does clever tricks that appear to be magic 3 Look at magician.

conjuring /ˈkʌndʒərɪŋ/ noun [U]: to perform conjuring tricks

conker /ˈkɒŋkə(r)/ (informal) (Brit) (also horse chestnut) noun [C] the seed of the horse chestnut tree, used in a popular children's game ثمرة شجرة الكستناء المرة

Reconnect /kəˈnekt/ verb 1 [I.T] connect (sth)

(up) (to/with sth) to be joined or linked to sth;

to join or link sth to sth else: The tunnels connect

(up) ten metres further on. o This pipe connects with the main drain outside the house. o The printer is connected to the computer o This motor way connects Oxford with Birmingham. o The plumber hasn't connected the shower up yet.

Look at disconnect.

2 [T] (usually passive) connect sb/sth (with sb/sth) to associate sb/sth with sb/sth; to consider sb/sth to be related to sb/sth else: There was no evidence that she was connected with the crime. • Doctors believe that the increase in asthma is connected with pollution levels.

يرتبط؛ يربط

3 [I] connect (with sth) (used about a bus, train, plane, etc.) to arrive at a particular time so that passengers can change to another bus, train, plane, etc: This train connects with the ferry to Le Havre. پريط ېږيوصل إلى

162

4 [T] connect sb (with sb) to link sb by telephone: Hold the line, please. I'm just trying to connect you.

Reconnection (Brit also connexion) /ke'neksn/noun 1 [C,U] connection between A and B; connection with/to sth connecting or being connected: There is a clear connection between crime and poverty. • Is there any connection between the two organizations? • What is your connection with the school? Do you work here?

2 [C] a place where two wires, pipes, etc. join together: The radio doesn't work. There must be a loose connection somewhere.

3 [C] a bus, train, plane, etc. that leaves soon after another arrives: Our bus was late so we missed our connection.

4 [C, usually pl.] a person that you know who is important or of high rank: Chris got a good job because of his mother's connections.

in connection with sb/sth (formal) about or concerning. I am writing to you in connection with your application.

in this/that connection (formal) about or concerning this/that بهذا الصدد، فيما يتعلق بهذا

connive /kəˈnaɪv/ verb [I] 1 connive at sth to do nothing to stop sth that is illegal or wrong يتغاضى عن

2 connive (with sb) (to do sth) to work together with sb to do sth that is wrong connoisseur /ˌkɒnəˈsɜː(r)/ noun [C] a person who knows a lot about art, good food, music, etc: a connoisseur of modern art connotation /ˌkɒnəˈteɪʃn/ noun [C] an impression that a word gives in addition to its meaning: 'Spinster' means a single woman but it has negative connotations.

conquer/'kmjkə(r)/verb[T] 1 to take control of an area by winning a war: Napoleon's ambition was to conquer Europe. (figurative) The young singer conquered the hearts of audiences all over the world.

2 to defeat an enemy, an army, etc.; to overcome sth: The Spanish conquered the Incas. o She's trying to conquer her fear of flying.

• conqueror /ˈkngkərə(r)/ noun [C] a person who has conquered (1) sth conquest /ˈkɒŋkwest/ noun 1 [C, U] an act of conquering sth: the Norman conquest (= of England in 1066) o (figurative) the conquest of Mount Everest

2 [C] an area of land that has been taken by war conscience /'kɒnʃəns/ noun [C,U] your own feeling about whether what you are doing is right or wrong: a clear/a guilty conscience

ضمیر، وجدان have sth on your conscience to feel guilty because of sth that you have done that was wrong بوثبه ضميره

conscientious / knnfi'enfəs/ adi 1 (used about people) careful to do sth correctly and well: He's a very conscientious worker.

- 2 (used about actions) done with great care and (عمل) متفن attention: conscientious work بإتقان
- ▶ conscientiously adv
- conscientious ob'jector noun [C] a person who refuses to join the army, etc. because he/she believes it is morally wrong to kill other المعارض الاخلاقى people
- Conscious /kpnfas/ adj 1 able to see, hear, feel, etc. things; awake: She was badly injured but conscious and able to tell the doctor what had happened. • The opposite is unconscious.
 - 2 conscious of sth/that... noticing or aware of sth: He suddenly became conscious that someone was following him. o She didn't seem conscious of مدرك ل، شاعر ب the danger.
 - 3 that you do on purpose or for a particular reason: We made a conscious effort to treat both children equally. 2 Look at deliberate. It has a similar meaning. 1 The opposite is uncon-
 - 4 being particularly interested in or aware of sth: Young people today are very fashion-con-مهتمٌ ب
 - ▶ consciously adv: I have never consciously harmed another human being.
- consciousness /'kpnfəsnəs/ noun 1 [U] the state of being conscious(1); being able to see, hear, feel, etc. things: As he fell, he hit his head and lost consciousness. o She regained consciousness after two weeks in a coma. وعي ، شعور
- 2 [U, sing.] the state of being aware of sth: There is growing consciousness of the need to save إدراك ، اهتمام ، وعي
- conscript /kən'skript/ verb [T] to make sb join the army, navy or air force: When war broke out all the young men were conscripted. بحند (إلزامياً) conscript /'kpnskript/ noun [C] a person who has been conscripted conscription /kən'skrrp fn/ noun [U] the system of making sb join the army, etc.

- consecrate /'konsikreit/ verb [T] to make a place or an object holy in a special ceremony
- يقدس، يبارك ► consecration / kpnsi krei∫n/ noun [C,U] ترسيم (بغرض إسباغ القداسة عليه)
- consecutive /kən'sekjətiv/ adj coming or happening one after the other: We have had three consecutive hot summers.
- على التوالي ، بالتعاقد ▶ consecutively adv
- consensus /kən'sensəs/ noun [sing., U] agreement among a group of people: to reach a consensus after a long discussion o There is no consensus among experts about the causes of global warming. اتفاق أو اجماع الآراء

- consent /kənˈsent/ verb [I] consent (to sth) to agree to sth; to allow sth to happen يوافق؛ يسمَح ▶ consent noun [U] agreement; permission:
- The child's parents had to give their consent to the operation.
- /konsikwens; US -kwens متقن (لعمله)، صاحب وجدان noun 1 [C] something that follows as a result or effect of sth else: The power station was shown to be dangerous and, as a consequence, was closed down. o The error had tragic consequences.

نتىحة ، عاقبة

- 2 [U] (formal) importance: It is of no consequence.
- consequent /'kpnsikwent/ adj (formal) following as the result of sth else: The lack of rain and consequent poor harvests have led to food short-
- ▶ consequently adv: She didn't work hard enough, and consequently failed the exam. وبالتالي، ونتيجة لذلك
- conservation / konsə'vei [n/ noun [U] 1 not allowing sth to be wasted, damaged or destroyed: the conservation of energy
- 2 the protection of the natural world: Conservation groups are protesting against the plan to build a road through the forest. 1 The verb is conserve.
- ▶ conservationist /-∫ənɪst/ noun [C] a person who believes in conservation (2) المحافظ على البيئة
- conservatism /kən'sa:vətrzəm/ noun [U] 1 the محافظة على القديم dislike of new ideas and change
- 2 usually Conservatism the beliefs of the معتقدات حزب المحافظين Conservative Party
- *Conservative /kən'ss:vətrv/ adj 1 not liking change; traditional: They have very conservative tastes. This design is too modern for them.

محافظ ؛ تقليدي

- 2 Conservative connected with the British Conservative Party: Conservative voters
- 3 (used about a guess, estimate, etc.) cautious, not extreme: rather low: At a conservative estimate I would say the damage will cost about £4 000 to repair. حذر؛ معتدل
- ▶ conservative noun [C] 1 a conservative(1) (شخص) محافظ
- 2 usually Conservative a member of the British Conservative Party عضو حزب المحافظين البريطاني conservatively adv: We have estimated the costs conservatively.
- Con'servative Party noun [C] one of the main political parties in Britain. The Conservative Party supports a free market and is opposed to the state controlling industry 2 Look at Labour Party and Liberal Democrats.

حزب المحافظين البريطاني

- conservatory /kən'sa:vətri; US -to:ri/ noun [C] (pl. conservatories) a room with a glass roof and walls often built against the outside wall of a غرفة من زجاج ملحقة بالبيت house
- conserve /'kpns3:v/ verb [T] to avoid wasting sth: Higher charges will encourage people to con-

consider → consortium serve water. ↑ The noun is conservation. يحافظ على ، يصون

Ronsider /kənˈsɪdə(r)/ verb [T] 1 consider sbl sth (for/as sth); consider doing sth to think about sb/sth, often before making a decision: We must consider the matter carefully before we make our choice. They are considering him for the part of Romeo. She had never considered nursing as a career. He is still considering what material to include in the book. We're considering going to Spain for our holidays.

- 2 to have sth as your opinion; to think about sb/sth in a particular way: He considered that the risk was too great. He considered the risk (to be) too great.
- 3 to remember or pay attention to sth: I can't just move abroad. I have to consider my family.

 Be tactful. Consider how other people feel.
- Reconsiderable /kənˈsɪdərəbl/ adj great in amount or size: We had considerable difficulty in getting tickets for the flights we wanted. A considerable number of people preferred the old building to the new one.

 کثیر: صُخير: صُخير: صُخير: كُثِير: صُخير: صُخي
 - ► considerably /-əbli/ adv: This flat is considerably larger than our last one. بكثير، إلى حد كبير
 - considerate /kənˈsɪdərət/ adj careful not to upset people; thinking of others: It was very considerate of you to offer to drive me home. ↑ The opposite is inconsiderate.
- Consideration /kənˌsɪdəˈreɪʃn/ noun 1 [U] (formal) an act of thinking about sth carefully or for a long time: I have given some consideration to the idea but I don't think it would work. After careful consideration, we regret that we cannot offer you the position.
 - 2 [U] consideration (for sb/sth) the quality of thinking about other people's wishes and feelings: You should keep your music turned down low out of consideration for your neighbours.

 (ربانا ورائح وزير)
 - 3 [C] something that you think about when you are making a decision: If he changes his job, the salary will be an important consideration.

Think about sth when you are forming an opinion or making a decision

Think about think about sth when you are forming an opinion or making a decision considering /kənˈsɪdərɪn/ prep, conj (used for introducing a surprising fact) when you think about or remember sth: He coped with the long journey well, considering his age. o Considering you've only been studying for a year, you speak English very well.

consign /kənˈsaɪn/ verb [T] (formal) 1 to put sb/sth in, or to send sb/sth to, a particular place

- 2 to send goods to sb
- ► consignment noun 1 [U] sending sb/sth to a particular place
- 2 [C] goods that are being sent to sb/sth: We are expecting a new consignment of bicycles very soon. (وبضائع)

R consist /kən'sıst/ verb

EMRY consist in sth to have sth as its main point or feature: Her job consisted in welcoming the guests as they arrived.

يقوم على consist of sth to be made up of sth: Pastry consists of flour, fat and water. o The band consists of a singer, two guitarists and a drum-consistency /kənˈsɪstənsi/ noun (pl. consistencies) 1 [U] the quality of being consistent (1); always having the same standard, opinions, etc: Your work lacks consistency. Sometimes it's excellent but at other times it's full of mistakes. 1 The opposite is inconsistency.

ثبات على مبدأ واحد ؛ إتباع طريقة واحدة

2 [C, U] the degree of thickness or firmness that a liquid substance has: The mixture should have a thick, sticky consistency.

consistent /kənˈsɪstənt/ adj 1 always having the same opinions, standard, behaviour, etc.; not changing: You must be consistent. If you punish Jason, you must punish Paul for doing the same thing. The opposite is inconsistent.

2 consistent (with sth) agreeing with or similar to sth: I'm afraid your statement is not consistent with what the other witnesses said.

متوافِق مع ، مطابِق ل_ِ consistently adv: We must try to maintain a consistently high standard.

- consolation /ˌkɒnsəˈleɪʃn/ noun 1 [U] making sb feel better when they are sad: It was some consolation to me to know that I wasn't the only one who had failed the exam.
- 2 [C] a person or thing that consoles you: Having his children near him was a great consolation when his wife died.
- console¹ /kənˈsəʊl/ verb [T] to make sb happier when he/she is very sad or disappointed; to comfort sb
- console² /ˈkɒnsəʊl/ noun [C] a flat surface which contains all the controls and switches for a machine, a piece of electronic equipment, etc.

consolidate /kən'splideit/ verb [I,T] to become or to make sth firmer or stronger: We're going to consolidate what we've learned so far by doing some revision exercises today.

يتعزز: بثبُت، يقوِّي ، يوحُد consolidation /kənˌsɒlɪˈdeɪʃn/ noun [U] consonant /'konsənənt/ noun [C] 1 a sound that you make by partly stopping the air as it comes out through your mouth

2 a letter that represents this sound: The letters 't', 'm', 's' and 'b' are all consonants. © Look at vowel.

consortium /kən'sə:tiəm; US -fiəm/ noun [C] (pl. consortiums or consortia /-tiə; US -fiə/) a group of companies that work closely together for a particular purpose

يشحن (بضاعة)

تكوين

- conspicuous /kənˈspɪkjuəs/ adj easily seen or noticed: As a tall, blond American he was very conspicuous in China. ⊕ The opposite is inconspicuous.
- ► conspicuously adv: She was conspicuously dressed in bright colours.
- conspiracy /kən'spirəsi/ noun (pl. conspiracies) 1 [U] planning sth, especially a crime, together with other people: They were accused of conspiracy to murder:
- 2 [C] a secret plan to do sth bad or illegal: Investigators have uncovered a conspiracy to defraud the bank of thousands of pounds.
- conspire /kənˈspaɪə(r)/ verb [I] 1 to plan sth, especially a crime, together with other people: A group of terrorists were conspiring to blow up the plane.
- 2 conspire (against sb/sth) to work together to produce a particular, usually bad, result for sb/sth: When we both lost our jobs in the same week, we felt that everything was conspiring against us.
- ► conspirator /kənˈspirətə(r)/ noun [C] a person who conspires(1)
- constable /'kanstəbl; US 'kpn-/ noun [C] = PO
- ► constabulary /kənˈstæbjələri; US -leri/ noun [C] (pl. constabularies) the police force of a particular area: the West Yorkshire Constabulary
- Constant /'knnstent/ adj 1 happening or existing all the time or again and again: The constant noise gave me a headache. Don't lock this door. It's in constant use. There were constant interruptions so we didn't get the work finished.
 - 2 that does not change: You use less petrol if you drive at a constant speed.
 - constantly adv always; again and again: The situation is constantly changing.
- constellation /ˌkɒnstəˈleɪʃn/ noun [C] a number of stars that are considered as a group مجموعة نجوم ، كوكبة
- consternation /ˌkɒnstə'neɪʃn/ noun [U] surprise and worry or fear: We stared at each other In consternation.
- constipated /ˈkɒnstɪpertɪd/ adj not able to pass waste material easily from the bowels: If you are constipated you should eat more fibre and fresh fruit.
- مساك constipation / kɒnstɪˈpeɪʃn/ noun [U]
- constituency /kənˈstrtjuənsi/ noun [C] (pl. constituencies) a district which has its own Member of Parliament دائرة (انتخابية)
- constituent /kon'strtjuent/ noun [C] 1 a person who lives in the district for which a particulm Member of Parliament is responsible أخد أوراد دائرة انتخابية معينة
- 2 one of the parts of sth

(عنصر) مكوِّن

- constitute /ˈkɒnstɪtjuːt/ verb [T] (formal) (not used in the continuous tenses) to make up or form sth: Women constitute a high proportion of part-time workers. The presence of the troops constitutes a threat to peace.
- constitution /ˌkɒnstr'tju:ʃn; US -'tu:ʃn/noun 1 [C] the laws or rules of a country or organization: the United States constitution
- 2 [U] the way sth is put together
- 3 [C] (old-fashioned) the condition of your body; your health
- constitutional /ˌkɒnstɪˈtju:ʃənl; US -ˈtu:-/ adj connected with a constitution(1)
- constrain /kənˈstreɪn/ verb [T] (formal) to set limits on sth, especially sb's freedom; to force sb to do sth
- constraint /kan'stremt/ noun [C.U] a limit on sth, or on your freedom to do sth: There are always some financial constraints on a project like this. He signed the document under constraint (= he was forced to do it).

 قید : اگراه
- constrict /kənˈstrɪkt/ verb [T] 1 to make sth tighter or narrower; to reduce sth يغبق: يقلُص
- 2 to limit a person's freedom to do sth
- یحدٌ (من حریة شخص) ► constriction /kənˈstrık∫n/ noun [C,U] 1 a reduction in the space or the range of possibilities available
- 2 making sth tighter or narrower: a feeling of constriction in the chest
- Construct /kən'strakt/ verb [T] to build or make sth: Early houses were constructed out of mud and sticks. ⊕ Construct is more formal than build.
- Reconstruction /kənˈstrʌkʃn/ noun 1 [U] the act or method of building or making sth: A new bridge is now under construction. He works in the construction industry.
 - 2 [C] something that has been built or made: The new pyramid was a construction of glass and steel
 - 3 [C] the way that words are used together in a phrase or sentence: a complex sentence construction o Which construction is more common 'to dress' or 'to get dressed'?
 - constructive /kənˈstrʌktɪv/ adj useful or helpful: She made a number of constructive criticisms to help us to improve our work.
 - ightharpoonup constructively adv

على نحو بنّاء

- construe /kənˈstruː/ verb [T] (formal) construe sth (as sth) to understand the meaning of sth in a particular way: Her confident manner is often construed as arrogance.
- consul/'konsl/ noun [C] an official who works in a foreign city helping people from his/her country who are living or visiting there 2 Look at ambassador.
- consular /ˈkɒnsjələ(r); US -səl-/ adj connected with a consul consult → contemplate

office of a consul

Leonsult /kən'sʌlt/ verb 1 [T] consult sb/sth (about sth) to ask sb or to look sth up in a book, etc. to get information or advice: You should consult a doctor if the symptoms get worse. O He consulted the map to find the shortest route.

متشير (طبيباً الخ): يستعين ب 2 [I] consult with sb to discuss sth with sb يتباحث أو يتشاور مع consultancy /kən'sʌltənsi/ noun [C] 1 a company that gives expert advice on a particular sub-مكتب استشاري iect

2 [U] expert advice that sb is paid to provide on مشورة. إستشارة a particular subject consultant /kən'saltənt/ noun [C] 1 a person who gives advice to people on business, law, etc: a firm of management consultants

2 (Brit) a hospital doctor of high rank who is a specialist in a particular area of medicine

(طبيب) أخصائي أو استشاري

consultation / kpnsl'terfn/ noun 1 [U] discussing sth or looking sth up in a book to get in-استشارة ؛ مراجعة formation or advice

2 [C,U] a meeting at which sth is discussed: Diplomats met for consultations on the hostage crisis. o The measures were introduced without اجتماع تشاوري ، تشاور consultation.

consume /kən'sju:m; US -'su:m/ verb [T] (formal) 1 to use sth: The United States imports 45% of the oil it consumes.

2 to eat or drink sth

يأتي على، يأكل أو يشرب

تلتهم (النار) 3 (used about fire) to destroy sth

4 (used about an emotion) to affect sb very strongly: She was consumed by grief when her son يضني: يأكله (الحزن) was killed.

consuming adj (only before a noun) that takes up a lot of your time and attention: Sport is تحوذ على عقله ووقته her consuming passion.

Consumer /kən'sju:mə(r); US -su:-/ noun [C] a person who buys things or uses services: Consumers should complain if they are not satisfied with the service they receive. o the rights of the consumer o Consumer spending has risen in the past few months ستهلك consummate /ˈkɒnsəməɪt/ verb [T] (formal) 1 to make sth complete يكمل، ينجز

2 to make a marriage legal or complete by having sexual intercourse ببني (بزوجته)

► consummation / kpnsə'mei∫n/ noun [C,U] اكمال، إتمام consumption /kən'samp[n/ noun [U] 1 the act of using, eating, etc. sth: This fish is unfit for human consumption (= for people to eat).

2 the amount of fuel, etc. that sth uses: a car استهلاك with low fuel consumption

cont. (also contd) abbrev continued: cont. on p يتبع

consulate /'konsjələt; US -səl-/ noun [C] the contact /'kontækt/ noun 1 [U] the state of touching sb/sth: Don't let the wires come into contact with each other.

> 2 [U] meeting, talking to or writing to sb else: We are in close contact with our office in New York. o I've lost contact with most of my old school friends. o They are trying to make contact with the kidnappers. o Tom has not been in contact since he moved to Edinburgh. o Tom broke off اتّصال contact with his family after a quarrel.

> 3 [C] a person that you know who may be able to help you: I have some useful business contacts in واسطة ، أحد المعارف Berlin.

> ▶ contact /'kpntækt/ verb [T] to telephone, write to, etc. sb: Is there a phone number where I can contact you?

'contact lens noun [C] a small piece of plastic that fits onto your eye to help you to see better contagious /kən'teɪdʒəs/ adj (used about a disease) that you can catch by touching sb/sth: Smallpox is a contagious disease. o (figurative) contagious laughter 2 Look at infectious.

Contain /kənˈteɪn/ verb [T] 1 to have sth inside (or as part of) itself: Each box contains 24 tins. o petrol containing lead بحوي ، يحتوي على

2 to keep sth within limits: efforts to contain inflation o The children couldn't contain themselves - they burst out laughing. o She found it hard to contain her anger. يحصر، يحدُ من

Contain or include? Contain is used when we are talking about objects which have other things inside them: a jar containing olives o The parcel contained six books. Include is used to show that several things are part of a whole or thought to belong to something: The price of the holiday includes accommodation and evening meals but not lunch, o a team of seven people including a cameraman and a doctor container /kənˈteɪnə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a box, bottle, packet, etc. in which sth is kept: a plastic container o a watertight container وعاء ، إناء

2 a large metal box that is used for transporting goods by sea, road or rail: a container lorry, ship, خزان نقل ، صهريج

contaminate /kən'tæmment/ verb [T] to add a substance which will make sth dirty, harmful or dangerous: The town's drinking water was contaminated with poisonous chemicals.

▶ contamination /kənˌtæmɪˈneɪʃn/ noun [U]: There was widespread radioactive contamination of farmland after the accident at the nuclear contemplate / /kpntəmpleit/ verb [T] 1 to think about sth or the possibility of doing sth: The idea was too awful to contemplate.

Before her illness she had never contemplated retiring.

يفكر (قَي فعل شيء) ، يعتزم

2 to look at sb/sth, often quietly or for a long يتأمل contemporary → continual

167 contemplation /ˌkɒntəm'pleɪʃn/ noun [U] looking at sth quietly

ر (عميق) 2 thinking deeply about sth

- 1 belonging to the same time as sb/sth else: Samuel Pepys' diary gives us a contemporary account of the Great Fire of London in 1666.
 - 2 of the present time; modern: contemporary music, art, etc.
 - ► contemporary noun [C] (pl. contemporaries) a person who lived or did sth at the same time as sb else: Telemann, a contemporary of Bach
 - contempt /kən'tempt/ noun [U] contempt (for sb/sth) the feeling that sb/sth does not deserve to be respected or is unimportant: That country has shown contempt for human rights.
 - ► contemptuous /kən'temptʃuəs/ adj feeling or showing contempt for sb/sth
 - contend /kən'tend/ verb 1 [i] contend with/against sb/sth; contend for sth to struggle to overcome sth or to win sth: She's had a lot of problems to contend with. Two athletes are contending for first place.
 - 2 [T] (formal) to declare or argue that sth is true: The young man contended that he had never met the murdered girl.
 - contender noun [C] a person who takes part in a competition: There were three contenders for the leadership.
 - content¹/kən'tent/adj (not before a noun) content (with sth); content to do sth satisfied with what you have: She is quite content to stay at home looking after her children.
 - > content noun [U] the state of being happy or satisfied: His face was a picture of content.
 - content verb [T] content yourself with sth to accept sth even though it was not exactly what you wanted. The castle was closed, so we contented ourselves with a walk round the park. يشتر contented adj happy or satisfied: The baby gave a contented chuckle.

contentedly adv: The cat purred contentedly. إضا contentment noun [U]: a sigh of contentment

- the thing or things that are inside sth: Add the contents of this packet to a pint of cold milk and mix well. The contents page tells you what is inside a book.
 - 2 [sing.] the main subject, ideas, etc. of a book, article, television programme, etc: The content of the essay is good, but there are too many grammatical mistakes.
 - 3 [sing.] the level or amount of a particular substance that sth contains: Many processed foods have a high sugar content.
 - contention /kənˈtenʃn/ noun 1 [U] the situation of competing for sth: Four players are still in contention for the cup.

2 [U] arguing; disagreement

راء: خلاف

- 3 [C] your opinion; sth that you declare to be true: The government's contention is that unemployment will start to fall next year.
- contentious /kən'tenʃəs/ adj likely to cause argument: a contentious issue
- Contest /kən'test/ verb [T] 1 to say that sth is wrong or that it was not done properly: They contested the decision, saying that the judges had not been fair.
 - 2 to take part in a competition or try to win sth: a hotly contested world-championship fight پنافس، بباري
 - ▶ contest /'kpntest/ noun [C] a competition to find out who is the best, strongest, most beautiful, etc: a boxing contest ∘ The by-election will be a contest between the two main parties.

contestant /kən'testənt/ noun [C] a person who takes part in a contest: Four contestants appear on the quiz show each week.

- Context /'kontekst/ noun [C,U] 1 the words that come before or after a word, phrase, sentence, etc. and that help you to understand its meaning: You can often guess the meaning of a word from its context. Taken out of context, his comment made no sense.
 - 2 the situation in which sth happens or that caused sth to happen: The rise in nationalism must be seen in the context of changing attitudes in Europe.
- Recontinent /'kontment/ noun 1 [C] one of the seven main areas of land on the Earth: Asia, Africa and Antarctica are continents.
 - 2 the Continent [sing.] (Brit) the main part of Europe, i.e. not the British Isles: Hotels on the Continent are much cheaper than in Britain.
 - أوروبا (عدا برطانيا)، القارة الأوروبية • continental / kontinent/ adj 1 connected with or typical of a continent: Moscow has a continental climate: hot summers and cold winters.
 - 2 (also Continental) (Brit) connected with the main part of Europe: continental holidays

أوروبي

- continental 'breakfast noun [C] a breakfast of bread and jam with coffee كا Look at English breakfast.
- contingency /kənˈtındʒənsi/ noun [C] (pl. contingencies) a possible future situation or event: contingency plans حدث محتمل الوقوع ، طارئ
- contingent /kən'tmdʒənt/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] 1 a group of people from the same country, organization, etc. who are attending an event: the Irish contingent at the conference فریق ، مجموعة : حالیة
- 2 a group of armed forces forming part of a larger force. (فرقة (عسكرية
- continual /kən'tinjuəl/ adj happening again and again: His continual phone calls started to annoy her.

continuation → contradict

► continually /kənˈtɪnjuəli/ adv: She continually criticizes his behaviour. بشكل متلاحق، باستمرار

Continual or continuous? We use continuous to describe an action or state that goes on without stopping: There has been a continuous improvement in his work. O After climbing continuously for three hours, we were exhausted. Continual is used to describe something that happens repeatedly, especially something that annoys us: They have had continual problems with the heating.

continuation /kən,tmju'eıʃn/ noun 1 [sing., U] continuing to do sth without stopping; starting to do sth again after you have stopped

متابعة ؛ استئناف

2 [sing.] something that continues sth else or makes it longer: a continuation of recent trends o The track was a continuation of the road.

متداد ، تتمّ

- Rontinue /ken'tmju:/ verb 1 [I.T] continue (doing/to do sth): continue (with sth) to go on happening or existing, or to make sth go on happening or existing: If the pain continues, see your doctor. They ignored me and continued their conversation. He continued working/to work late into the night. I shall continue with the lessons after the exam.
 - 2 [I,T] to begin to do or say sth again after you had stopped: The meeting will continue after lunch. \circ I'm sorry I interrupted. Please continue. \circ The next day we continued our journey.
 - 3 [I,T] to go further or to make sth go further: We continued along the path until we came to the river.
 - 4 [I] to remain in a particular situation or condition: He will continue as headmaster until the end of term.
 - ➤ continued adj going on without stopping: There are reports of continued fighting near the border.
- continuity /ˌkɒntɪˈnjuːəti; US -ˈnuː-/ noun [U] the state of continuing without interruption; linking one thing smoothly with the next: The pupils will have the same teacher for two years to ensure continuity.
- Continuous /kənˈtɪnjuəs/ adj happening or existing without stopping: a period of continuous economic growth o a continuous process o There was a continuous line of cars stretching for miles.
 - ► continuously adv: It has rained continuously here for three days. 2 Look at the note at continual.
 - con'tinuous tense (also progressive tense) noun [C] (grammar) the form of a verb such as 'I am waiting' or 'It was raining' which is made from a part of 'be' and a verb ending in '-ing' and is used to describe an action that continues for a period of time

contort /kən'tɔːt/ verb [I,T] to move or to make sth move into an unnatural shape: His face contorted/was contorted with pain. يتلوي : يلتوي

contortion /kən'tɔ:∫n/ noun [C] تلوية الجسم بحركات بهلوائية

contour /'kpntoo(r)/ noun [C] 1 the outline or shape of the outer surface of sth: I could just make out the contours of the house in the dark.

الخط الخارجي ، الكفاف

2 (also 'contour line) a line on a map joining places of equal height: From the contour lines I could tell that there was a steep hill to climb.

الخط الكنتوري أو التسامقي

- contraception /kpntre'sep∫n/ noun [U] the means of preventing a woman from becoming pregnant: Your doctor will be happy to advise you about contraception. a reliable form of contraception
- ► contraceptive /ˌkɒntrə'septɪv/ noun [C] a pill or object that prevents a woman from becoming pregnant: an oral contraceptive ○ a packet of contraceptives وسيلة لهنع الحمل contraceptive adj: a contraceptive pill

مانع للحَمْل

- R contract¹ /ˈkɒntrækt/ noun [C] a written legal agreement: They signed a three-year contract with a major record company. The company has just won a contract to supply machinery to the government. a temporary contract
 - > contractual /kənˈtræktʃuəl/ adj connected with or included in a contract
 - contract² /kən'trækt/ verb 1 [I,T] to make a written legal agreement with sb to do sth or to have sb work for you: His firm has been contracted to supply all the furniture for the new building.
 - 2 [T] to get an illness or disease: She contracted pneumonia. پيماب (بمرض)
 - > contractor noun [C] a person or company that does work, especially building work, by contract: a building contractor
- Contract /kən'trækt/ verb [I,T] to become or to make sth smaller or shorter: Metals contract as they cool. 'Tm' is the contracted form of 'I am.'

 D Look at expand. It is the opposite for the first example.

 - 2 [C] a contracted form of a word or words: 'Mustn't' is a contraction of 'must not.' صنفة مختصرة
 - 3 [C] a strong tightening of muscles that happens to a woman as her baby is born تقلّص (العضلات) contradict /ˌkɒntrəˈdɪkt/ verb 1 [I,T] to say that sth is wrong or untrue; to say the opposite of sth: 'We haven't got any tea.' 'Yes, we have,' she contradicted. o I didn't dare contradict him, but I think he was wrong.

2 [T] (used about a statement, fact, etc.) to be different from or opposite to sth: These instruc- tions seem to contradict previous ones.

- يناقض بخالف • contradiction /ˌkɒntrəˈdɪkʃn/ noun 1 [C] a statement or fact that is opposite to or different from another;: There were a number of contradictions in what he told the police.
- 2 [C.U] (a) contradiction (between sth and sth) the fact of two things being opposite to or not matching each other: There is a contradiction between the two sets of figures. This letter is in complete contradiction to their previous one.

contradictory /kuntra'dıktəri/ adj being opposite to or not matching sth else: Contradictory reports appeared in the newspapers.

متناقض، متعارض contraflow /'kontrəfləʊ/ noun [C] an arrangement where part of a wide road is closed, usually for repairs, and traffic going in both directions has to use one side of the road

استخدام جزء من الطريق لحركة المرور في الاتحاهين contraption /kən'træp∫n/ noun [C] a strange or complicated piece of equipment

أداة غربة الشكل أو معقّدة

- contrary¹ /ˈkɒntrəri; US -treri/ adj completely different; opposite: I thought it was possible but she took the contrary view.
- ► contrary to prep completely different from; opposite to; against: He's actually very nice, contrary to what people say about him.

contrary2 /'kpntrəri; US -treri/ noun

- on the contrary the opposite is true; certainly not: 'You look as if you're not enjoying yourself.' 'On the contrary, I'm having a great time'.
- to the contrary saying the opposite: Unless I hear anything to the contrary, I shall assume that the arrangements haven't changed. بما يؤكّد العكس
- Contrast¹ /kən'trɑ:st; US -'træst/ verb 1 [T] contrast (A and/with B) to compare people or things in order to show the differences between them: It's interesting to contrast the various styles of architecture here. The film contrasts his poor childhood with his later life as a millionaire.
 - يقارن . يُبرز الفروق بين 2 [I] contrast with sb/sth to be clearly different when compared: The red cushions contrast dramatically with the black sofa. • This comment contrasts sharply with his previous remarks.
- to/with sb/sth); contrast (between A and B) 1 [U] comparison between two people or things that shows the differences between them: In contrast to previous years, we've had a very successful summer. o He was friendly and talkative; she, by contrast, said nothing.
 - 2 [C,U] a clear difference between two things or people that is seen when they are compared: There is a tremendous contrast between the climate in the valley and the climate in the hills.

3 [C] something that is clearly different from sth else when the two things are compared: This house is quite a contrast to your old one!

شيء مختلف جداً

- contravene /ˌkɒntrəˈviːn/ verb [T] (formal) to break a law or a rule ينتهك (قانوناً) ، يخالف، يخرق
 - ► contravention / kontro 'ven fn/ noun [C,U] انتهاك ، تعارض ، خرق ، مخالفة
- Recontribute /kənˈtrɪbjuːt/ verb 1 [I,T] to give a part of the total, together with others: Would you like to contribute towards our collection for famine relief? He didn't contribute anything to the conversation. We contributed £5 each towards a retirement present for her.
 - 2 [I] to help to produce sth; to play a part in sth: Every member of the team contributed to the victory.
 - 3 [I,T] to write articles for a magazine or newspaper يساهم بالكتابة في الصحف أو المجلات
 - ► contributor noun [C] a person who contributes to sth
- Recontribution / kontribju: fn/ noun [C,U] something that you give or do together with others; the act of giving your share: All contributions to the appeal will be gratefully received. o He made a significant contribution to the country's struggle for independence.
- contributory /kənˈtrɪbjətəri; US -tɔ:ri/ adj helping to cause or produce sth: a contributory factor
- contrive /kən'traɪv/ verb [T] 1 to plan or invent sth clever and/or dishonest
- 2 to manage to do or make sth, although there are difficulties
- contrived adj clearly artificial or invented, not natural: The ending of the film seemed rather contrived.
- Control / ken'treul/ noun 1 [U] control (off over sb/sth) power over sth; the ability to organize, direct or guide sb/sth: Rebels took control of the radio station. He lost control of the car and crashed. There's nothing I can do about the problem, it's outside my control. I was late because of circumstances beyond my control.

سيطرة ؛ تحكُم

- 2 [C,U] (a) control (on/over sth) a limit on sth; a way of keeping sb/sth within certain limits: price controls o crowd control
- 3 [C] one of the parts of a machine that is used for operating it: the controls of an aeroplane جهاز تحكم
- 4 [sing.] the place from which sth is operated or where sth is checked: We went through passport control and then got onto the plane.
- نقطة تفتيش أو مراقبة 5 (also con'trol key) (on a computer keyboard) a key that you press when you want to perform a particular operation be in control (of sth) to be in command of sth; to have the power or ability to deal with sth:

The police are again in control of the area control → convert following last night's violence.

یدیر، یشرف علی، یسیطر علی be/get out of control to be/become impossible to deal with or guide: The demonstration got out of control and fighting broke out.

يفقد التحكّم في؛ يفلت الزمام under control being dealt with, directed or run successfully: It took several hours to bring the fire under control. o She finds it difficult to keep her feelings under control. تحكّم (في الأمر)، "تحت السيطرة"

- Control /kən'trəʊl/ verb [T] (controlling; controlled) 1 to have power over sth or the ability to organize, direct or guide sth: One family controls the company. o Police struggled to control the crowd. o I couldn't control myself any longer and burst out laughing. يسيطر على ؛ يضبط
 - 2 to keep sth within certain limits: measures to يضبط ، ينظّم control price rises
 - ▶ controller noun [C] a person who directs sth: air traffic controllers مرأقب ؛ مدبر controversial / kontrə vs: $1/ adj causing public discussion and disagreement: a controversial TV programme o a controversial new law مثير للجدل ، موضع خلاف controversy /'kontrovasi; kan'trovasi/ noun [C,U] (pl. controversies) public discussion and disagreement about sth: The plans for changing the city centre caused a great deal of contro-جدال ، خلاف conurbation / kpns: bei fn/ noun [C] a group of towns that have grown and joined together

convalesce / kpnvə'les/ verb [I] to rest and recover from an illness over a period of time

يتماثل للشفاء ▶ convalescence / konvə'lesns/ noun [sing., Ul convalescent / konvə'lesnt/ adj نَقاهى ؛ متماثل للشفاء ۗ or to bring people together for a meeting, etc. يجتمع : يعقد احتماعاً convenience /kən'vi:niəns/ noun 1 [U] the quality of being suitable or practical for a particular purpose: a building designed for the con $venience\ of\ disabled\ people \circ\ For\ convenience,\ you$ can pay for everything at once.

2 [C] something that is useful or suitable: houses with all modern conveniences وسيلة راحة، (مجهز بوسائل الراحة)

3 [C] (Brit) a public toilet: public conveniences Look at the note at toilet. دورة مياه او مرحاض عام

con'venience food noun [C,U] food that you buy frozen or in a box or can, that you can prepare very quickly and easily

con'venience store noun [C] a shop/store that sells food, newspapers, etc. and often stays دكان للحاجيات يفتح طويلاً open 24 hours a day

?convenient /kən'vi:niənt/ adj 1 suitable or practical for a particular purpose; not causing difficulty: I'm willing to meet you on any day

that's convenient for you. o It isn't convenient to talk at the moment, I'm in the middle of a meet-ملائم ، مناسب

2 close to sth; in a useful position: The hotel is convenient for the beach. 6 The opposite is inconvenient. قريب ؛ مفيد

▶ conveniently adv: Conveniently, a bus was waiting when I got there. o She had conveniently forgotten that she owed me some money.

170

convent /'konvent; US -vent/ noun [C] a place where women (nuns) live in a religious community 2 Look at monastery. دير راهبات

- convention /kən'ven∫n/ noun 1 [C] a large meeting or conference: the Democratic Party Con-مؤتمر ، اجتماع كبير
 - 2 [C,U] a traditional way of behaving or of doing sth: A speech by the bride's father is one of the conventions of a wedding. o The film shows no respect for convention. تقلد، عُرف
 - 3 [C] a formal agreement, especially between nations: the Geneva Convention اتفاقية
- conventional /kən'ven∫ənl/ adj following what is traditional or considered to be normal, sometimes too closely: conventional attitudes o The house was built with conventional materials but in a totally new style o I quite like him but he's so conventional (= boring, because of this). The opposite is unconventional.

تقليدى ؛ متمسكُ بالتقاليد

▶ conventionally /-∫ənəli/ adv: He always dresses conventionally.

على نحو تقليدي ؛ وفق الطراز المألوف

converge /kənˈvɜːdʒ/ verb [I] converge (on sb/sth) to move towards or meet at the same point from different directions: People from the surrounding areas converge on the village during the annual festival. o The paths converge at the يتجمع ، يلتقي في نقطة واحدة bottom of the hill.

 $\textbf{convene} \ / \texttt{ken'vi:n/} \ \textit{verb} \ [I,T] \ \text{to come together} \ \ \textbf{\conversation} \ / \texttt{,kenve'selfn/} \ \textit{noun} \ [C,U] \ information \ \conversation \ \conversatio$ mal talk: I had a long conversation with her about her plans for the future. o His job is his only topic of conversation. o They sat in the corner, deep in conversation. O She finds it difficult to make con*versation* (= to think of things to say).

> converse /kən'va:s/ verb [I] (formal) to talk informally; to have a conversation يتحدث مع ؛ يحادث

> conversely /'konva:sli/ adv (formal) in a way that is opposite to sth: People who earn a lot of money have little time to spend it. Conversely, many people with limitless time do not have وعلى العكس enough money to do what they want.

> conversion /kən'vɜ:∫n; US kən'vɜ:rʒn/ noun (a) conversion (from sth) (into/to sth) 1 [C,U] change from one form, system or use to another: a conversion table for miles and kilo-تحويل metres

2 [C.U] becoming a member of a different reli-اعتناق دين آخر gion: conversion to Catholicism

"Convert /kən'va:t/ verb [I,T] 1 convert (sth) (from sth) (into/to sth) to change from one form, system or use to another: a sofa that converts into a double bed \circ How do you convert pounds into kilos? \circ They're converting the house into four flats.

2 convert (sb) (from sth) (to sth) to change to, or persuade sb to change to a new religion: As a young man he converted to Islam. o to convert people to Christianity (الدين آخر) يعتنق دينا آخر ؛ يحول (الدين آخر)

convert² /'kpnvs:t/ noun [C] a convert (to sth) a person who has been persuaded to become a member of a particular religion

معتنق أو متحوّل لدين آخر

convertible /kən'vɜ:təbl/ adj able to be changed into another form: a convertible sofa (= one that unfolds to make a bed) convertible currencies (= those that can be exchanged for other currencies)

► convertible noun [C] a car with a roof that can be folded down or taken off convex /'kɒnveks/ adj having a surface that curves outwards: a convex lens المحد Look at concave.

to make ideas, thoughts, feelings, etc. known to sb; to communicate sth: The film conveys a lot of information but in an entertaining manner.

o Please convey my sympathy to her at this sad time.

2 (formal) to transport sb/sth from one place to another con'veyor belt noun [C] a continuous moving belt that carries objects from one place to another, e.g. in a factory convict /kən'vıkt/ verb [T] convict sb (of sth) to declare in a court of law that sb is guilty of a crime: He was convicted of armed robbery and sent to prison. ○ a convicted criminal The opposite is acquit.

▶ convict /ˈkɒnvikt/ (formal) noun [C] a person who has been found guilty of a crime and put in prison conviction /kən'vık∫n/ noun 1 [C,U] an occasion when sb is found guilty of a crime in a court of law; the act of finding sb guilty in this way: He has several previous convictions for burglary.

2 [C] very strong opinion or belief: religious convictions

3 [U] being certain and able to convince others about what you are doing: He played without conviction and lost easily.

tonvince /kən'vms/ verb [T] 1 convince sb (of sth/that...) to succeed in making sb believe sth: She convinced him of the need to go back.

o I couldn't convince her that I was right.

2 convince sb (to do sth) to persuade sb to do sth: The salesman convinced them to buy it.

6 Some people feel that this second use of 'convince' is incorrect.

▶ convinced adj completely sure about sth:

Ile's convinced of his ability to win. ○ I'm convinced that she said it but she denies it.

convincing adj 1 able to make sb believe sth:
Her explanation for her absence wasn't very convincing.

2 (used about a victory) complete; clear: a convincing win تام قاطع مين
convincingly adv: She argued convincingly that the law should be changed.

He won the race convincingly.

convoy /'kpnvɔi/ noun [C,U] a group of vehicles or ships travelling together: a convoy of lorries o warships travelling in convoy

قافلة (سيّارات أو سفن)

convulse /kənˈvʌls/ verb [I,T] to make sudden violent movements that you cannot control; to make sb move in this way convulsion /kən'vʌlʃn/ noun [C, usually pl.] a sudden violent movement of the body that you cannot control: Children sometimes have convulsions when their temperature goes up.

coo /ku:/ verb [1] 1 to make the sound that a dove or pigeon makes

2 to speak in a soft, gentle voice: He went to the cot and cooed over the baby.

COOK /kvk/ verb 1 [I,T] to prepare food for eating by heating it: My mother taught me how to cook.
 The sauce should be cooked on low heat for twenty minutes.
 He cooked us a meal.

2 [I] (used about food) to be prepared for eating by being heated: I could smell something cooking in the kitchen.

Food can be cooked in various ways: by boiling in a saucepan of hot water; by frying in a frying pan with hot oil or fat; or by grilling under a grill, which heats the food from above. We can toast bread under a grill or in a toaster to make it crisp and brown. Cakes and bread are baked in the oven, but we use the word roast for cooking meat or potatoes in the oven.

EHRV cook sth up (informal) to invent sth that is not true: She cooked up an excuse for not arriving on time.

► cook noun [C] a person who cooks: My sister is an excellent cook. ○ He works as a cook in a hotel restaurant.

cooking noun [U] 1 the preparation of food for eating: Cooking is one of her hobbies. 6 A common way of talking about the activity of preparing food is do the cooking. In our house, I do the cleaning and my husband does the cooking.

2 food produced by cooking: He missed his mother's cooking when he left home.

cookbook /'kukbuk/ noun [C] = cookery book

Rcooker /'kukə(r)/ noun [C] a piece of kitchen equipment for cooking using gas or electricity, consisting of an oven, a flat top on which pans can be placed and often a grill cookery /ˈkukəri/ noun [U] the skill or methods of cooking: My new recipe book is called 'Chinese Cookery for Beginners'.

cookery book → copper

'cookery book (also cookbook) noun [C] a book of recipes and instructions for cooking

كتاب فن الطبخ

Cookie /'kuki/ noun [C] (pl. cookies) 1 (US) =

2 a computer file with information in it that is sent to the central server each time a particular person uses a network or the Internet

كوكي (كمبيوتر)

- ?cool /ku:1/ adj 1 fairly cold; not hot or warm: It was a cool evening so I put on a pullover. O This product should be stored in a cool place. O What I'd like is a nice cool drink. 2 Look at the note at cold.
 - 2 calm; not excited or affected by strong emotions: She always manages to remain cool under هادى الأعصاب، غير انفعالي
 - 3 unfriendly; not showing interest: When we first met, she was rather cool towards me, but بارد ، فأتر later she became friendlier.
 - ▶ cool noun [sing.] the cool a cool temperature or place; the quality of being cool: We sat in the cool of a cafe, out of the sun. برودة معتدلة (محبّبة) IDM keep/lose your cool to remain calm/to stop being calm and become angry, nervous, يحافظ على/يفقد هدوء أعصابه coolly /'ku:lli/ adv in a calm way; without showing much interest or excitement: At first she was very angry; then she explained the problem coolly. O My offer was received rather بهدوء؛ بفتور

coolness noun [U] the quality or state of being cool: the coolness of the water o his coolness under stress o their coolness towards strangers برودة محبّبة ؛ هدوء ؛ فتور

- COOl² /ku:l/ verb 1 [I,T] cool (sth/sb) (down/ off) to lower the temperature of sth; to become cool (1): Let the soup cool (down). ○ After the game we needed to cool off. o A nice cold drink will soon cool you down. يبرد؛ يبُرُد
 - 2 [I] (used about feelings) to become less strong

PHRV cool (sb) down/off to become or make sb يهدئ؛ يهدأ

,cooling-'off period noun [C] a delay when sb is given time to think about sth

فترة تريّث ؛ فترة لتهدئة الخواطر

coop /ku:p/ verb

EHRY coop sb/sth up (in sth) to keep sb/sth inside a small space: The children were cooped up indoors all day because the weather was so يحصر ، يحبس (في مكان ضيِّق) cooperate (also co-operate) /kəu'npəreɪt/ verb [I] 1 to work with sb else to achieve sth: Our company is cooperating with a Danish firm on this project.

2 to be helpful by doing what sb asks you to do: If everyone cooperates by following the instructions, there will be no problem. o to cooperate with the police (e.g. by giving them informa-يتعاون cooperation (also co-operation) /kəu,ppə-

'rei[n/noun[U] 1 cooperation (with sb) working together with sb else to achieve sth: international cooperation to protect the ozone layer o Schools are working in close cooperation with parents to improve standards. تعاون

2 willingness to be helpful by doing what sb asks you to do: The police asked the public for their cooperation in the investigation.

تعاون ، مساعدة

- cooperative (also co-operative) /kəu'ppərətiv/ adj 1 done by people working together: a cooperative business venture
- 2 helpful; doing what sb asks you to do: My firm were very cooperative and allowed me to have time off. 1 The opposite is uncooperative.

متعاون ، محبّ للمساعدة

▶ cooperative noun [C] a business or organization that is owned and run by all of the people who work for it: a workers' cooperative

(شركة) تعاونية

coordinate¹ (also co-ordinate) /kəʊˈɔːdɪnət/ noun [C] one of the two sets of numbers and/or letters that are used for finding the position of a point on a map

- coordinate² (also co-ordinate) /kəʊˈɔːdɪneɪt/ verb [T] to organize different things or people so that they work together efficiently: It is her job to پنسٽق (ما بين) coordinate the various departments. ▶ coordination /kəʊˌɔːdɪˈneɪʃn/ noun [U] 1 the
- organization of different things or people so that they work together efficiently
- 2 the ability to control the movements of your body properly: You need good coordination between eye and hand to play badminton well. تناسق الح كة coordinator noun [C] a person who is responsible for organizing different things or people so that they work together efficiently: a project coordinator

cop¹/kpp/ noun [C] (informal) a police officer شرطي أو شرطية

COp² /kpp/ verb (copping; copped) (informal)

PHRY cop out (of sth) to avoid sth that you should do, because you are afraid or lazy: She was going to help me with the cooking but she copped out at the last minute.

ينسحب ؛ يتقاعس أو يتواني عن

ն cope /kəʊp/ verb [I] cope (with sb/sth) to deal successfully with a difficult matter or situation: She sometimes finds it difficult to cope with all the ينجح في مواجهة مشكلة pressure at work.

copious /'kəopiəs/ adj in large amounts; plentiful: She made copious notes at the lecture.

► copiously adv

وافر ، غزير بغزارة

'cop-out noun [C] (informal) a way of avoiding sth that you should do: I'm paying somebody to do the cooking for the party. It's a bit of a cop-out, تقاعس ، هروب I know.

copper / 'kppə(r)/ noun 1 [U] a common reddish-brown metal: water pipes made of copper ocopper wire.

2 [C] a coin of low value made of brown metal: I only had a few coppers left. قطعة نقدية صغيرة القيمة

copper² /ˈkɒpə(r)/ noun [C] (informal) a police officer

copse /kops/ noun [C] a small group of trees or bushes that are close together copulate /'kɒpjuleɪt/ verb [1] (formal) (used especially about animals) to have sexual intercourse copulation /,kppju'ler∫n/ noun [U]

- that is made to look exactly like sth else: I kept a copy of the letter I wrote. The painting isn't an original, of course, it's only a copy. the master copy (= the original piece of paper from which copies are made) to make a copy of a computer file 2 Look at photocopy.
 - 2 a book, newspaper, record, etc. of which many have been printed or produced: I managed to buy the last copy of the book left in the shop.
- "Copy2 /'kppi/ verb (pres part copying; 3rd pers sing pres copies; pt, pp copied) 1 [T] copy sth (down/out) to write down sth exactly as it is written somewhere else: The students copied what was written on the board. I copied down the address on the brochure. I copied out the letter more neatly.
 - 2 [T] to make a copy of a video, computer information, etc: It is illegal to copy videos.

3 [T] = PHOTOCOPY

- 4 [T] to do or try to do the same as sb else; to imitate: She copies everything her friends do.
- 5 [I] copy (from sb) to cheat by writing what sb else has written: He was caught copying from his neighbour in the exam.
- copyright /ˈkɒpiraɪt/ noun [C,U] the legal right to be the only person who may print, copy, perform, etc. a piece of original work, such as a book, a song or a computer program. Other people who want to use work must ask permission of the person who holds the copyright.
- coral /'kɒrəl; US 'kɔ:rəl/ noun [U] a hard red, pink or white substance formed from the bones of very small sea animals, often used for making jewellery: a coral reef (= a line of rock in the sea formed by coral) o a coral necklace

cord /kɔːd/ noun 1 [C,U] (a piece of) strong, thick string حَبُل : شريط کهربائی

2 [C,U] (especially US) = FLEX1

3 cords [plural] corduroy trousers

بنطلون من قماش الكوردروي • cordless /'kɔ:dləs/ adj without a cord(2): a • cordless phone بلاشريط كهربائي cordial /ˈkɔːdiəl; US ˈkɔːrdʒəl/ adj friendly: a cordial greeting o a cordial meeting cordiality /ˌkɔ:di'æləti; US ˌkɔ:rdʒi-/ noun [U] مودة

 cordially /-diəli; US -dʒəli/ adv

cordon /ˈkɔːdn/ noun [C] a line or ring of police or soldiers that prevents people from entering or leaving an area نطاق من الشرطة أو الجنود

▶ cordon verb

EHRY cordon sth off to close an area by surrounding it with a ring of police or soldiers: The street where the bomb was discovered was quickly cordoned off.

corduroy /'ko:dərɔi/ noun [U] a thick soft cotton cloth with raised lines on it, used for making clothes: a corduroy jacket

الكوردروي: قماش قطني محزر

?core /kɔ:(r)/ noun 1 [C] the hard centre of certain fruits, containing seeds: an apple core

قلب الثمرة

- 2 [sing.] the central or most important part of sth: the core curriculum (= the subjects that all pupils have to study) o the core vocabulary of a language (= the most common and important words)
- ${f 3}$ [C] the central part of a planet: the earth's core

The core completely; in every way: The system is rotten to the core (= bad in every part). o The news shook him to the core (= shocked him very much).

- coriander /ˌkɒri'ændə(r); US ˌkɒ:r-/ noun [U] a plant whose fresh leaves and dried seeds are used in cooking كزيرة أو كسبرة
- cork /kɔːk/ noun 1 [U] a light but tough substance which comes from the outside of a type of tree. It floats on water: cork floor tiles
- 2 [C] a round piece of cork that you push into the end of a bottle to close it فلينة: سدادة الزجاجة

corkscrew /'kɔ:ksku:/ noun [C] a tool that you use for pulling corks out of bottles

بريمة لنزع فلينة الزجاحة

corn¹ /ko:n/ noun [U] 1 (especially Brit) a general word for grain crops such as wheat, or the seeds from these crops: a field of corn o a cornfield o sacks of corn

2 (US) = MAIZE

corn² /ko:n/ noun [C] a small, painful area of hard skin on the toe

- Corner¹ /'kɔ:nə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a place where two lines, edges, surfaces or roads meet: in a corner of the room o Write your address in the top right-hand corner. o The pub is on the corner of Wall Street and Long Road. o He went round the corner at top speed.
 - 2 a quiet or secret place or area: a remote corner of Scotland
 - 3 a difficult situation which you cannot escape from: to get yourself into a corner مأزق
 - 4 (also 'corner kick) (in football) a kick from the corner of a field

حيح ، مضبوط

corner → correspondence

cut corners to do sth quickly and not as well as you should يفعل الشيء على عجل ويلا إتقان (just) round the corner very near: There's a phone box just round the corner.

corner² /ˈkɔːnə(r)/ verb [T] 1 to get a person or an animal into a position from which it is difficult or impossible to escape: He cornered me at the party and started telling me all his problems.

2 to get control in some area of business so that there is no room for anybody else to have any success: That company's really cornered the market in health foods.

cornflakes /ˈkɔːnfleɪks/ noun [plural] food made of small pieces of dried corn and eaten with milk for breakfast: a bowl of cornflakes

رقائق من الذرة المحمّصة

cornflour /ˈkɔːnflaʊə(r)/ noun [U] very fine flour often used for making puddings, sauces, etc.

cornflower /'kɔ:nflaʊə(r)/ noun [C] a small plant with blue flowers, that often grows wild corn on the 'cob noun [U] the long round part of the maize plant with yellow grains on it that is cooked and eaten as a vegetable corny /ˈkɔːni/ adj (cornier; corniest) (informal) too ordinary or familiar to be interesting or amusing: a corny joke

coronary /ˈkɒrənri; US ˈkɒrəneri/ adj connected with the heart ► coronary noun [C] (pl. coronaries) a type of heart attack in which the blood cannot flow to the heart because a tube (artery) is blocked. Coronaries can cause damage to the heart and death.

coronation /ˌkɒrəˈneɪʃn; US ˌkɒ:r-/ noun [C] a ceremony at which a king or queen is crowned (حفل) تتوبج

coroner /ˈkɒrənə(r); US ˈkɔːr-/ noun [C] an official whose job is to find out the causes of death of people who have died in violent or unusual ways

Corp. (US) abbrev = Corporation

corporal /'ko:pərəl/ noun [C] a person of low rank in the army or air force عريف (في الجيش أو الطيران) corporal 'punishment noun [U] the punishment of people by hitting them, especially the punishment of children by parents or teachers corporate /ˈkɔːpərət/ adj of or shared by all the members of a group or organization: corporate responsibility مشترك ، متضامن (في المسؤولية) corporation /ˌko:pə'reɪʃn/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] 1 (abbr Corp.) a large business company: the Nikon Corporation o multinational corporations o the British Broadcasting Corporation شرکة، عينة

2 a group of people elected to govern a particular town or city corps /kɔ:(r)/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] (pl. corps /kɔ:(r)/) 1 a part of an army with special duties: the medical corps

2 a group of people involved in a special activity: the diplomatic corps corpse /kɔːps/ noun [C] a dead body, especially of a person

Correct¹/kə'rekt/ adj 1 with no mistakes; right or true: Well done! All your answers were correct.

• Have you got the correct time, please?

2 (used about behaviour, manners, dress, etc.) suitable according to normal customs and ideas: What's the correct form of address for a vicar?

The opposite for 1 and 2 is incorrect.
 ► correctly adv
 correctness noun [U]

Recorrect² /kə'rekt/ verb [T] 1 to make a mistake, fault, etc. right or better: to correct a spelling mistake o to correct a test (= mark the mistakes in it)

2 to point out the mistakes or faults of sb: He's always correcting me when I'm talking to people.

correction /kəˈrekʃn/ noun [C,U] (an act of) making sth right or changing sth: Can you do your corrections to the essay, please? o Some parts of the report needed correction.

corrective /kəˈrektɪv/ adj intended to put right sth that is wrong: to take corrective action correlate /ˈkɒrəleɪt; US ˈkɒ:r-/ verb [I,T] to have or to show a relationship or connection يربط بين شيئين؛ يرتبط ب

► correlation /ˌkɒrə'leıʃn; US ˌkɒ:r-/ noun [C,U]: a correlation between diet and height

ارتباط ، علاقة

COFFESPOND /ˌkɒrəˈspɒnd; US ˌkɔːr-/ verb [I]
1 correspond (to sth) to be similar or equal (to sth): American High Schools correspond to British comprehensives.

2 correspond (with sth) to be the same as; to match: Does the name on the envelope correspond with the name inside the letter?

3 correspond (with sb) to write letters to and receive them from sb: They corresponded for a year before they got married.

related or similar: Sales are up 10% compared with the corresponding period last year.

correspondingly adv

correspondence / kprə'spondəns; US ,kɔ:r-/ noun 1 [U] the act of writing letters; the letters themselves: There hasn't been any correspondence between them for years. • Please address all correspondence to the Arts Editor: مراسلة : رسائل

2 [C,U] a close connection or relationship: There correspondent → costume

175

is no correspondence between the two sets of figures.

correspondent /kpre'spondent; US kpr-/ noun [C] 1 a person who provides news or writes articles for a newspaper, etc., especially from abroad: our Middle East correspondent, Andy Jen-مراسل

2 a person who writes letters

مكاتب، مراسل

narrow passage in a building or train, with doors that open into rooms, etc: to walk along a corricorroborate /kə'rpbəreit/ verb [T] (formal) to support a statement, idea, etc. by providing new evidence: The witness corroborated Mr Patton's statement about the night of the murder.

يعزز، يؤيد ▶ corroboration /kə,rɒbə'reɪʃn/ noun [U]

إثبات ، تعزيز

corrode /kəˈrəʊd/ verb [I,T] (used about metals) to become weak or to be destroyed by chemical action; to cause a metal to do this: Parts of the يتآكل؛ يأكله (الصدأ) car were corroded by rust. ▶ corrosion /kəˈrəʊʒn/ noun [U] the process of being destroyed by chemical action; the damage تآكل caused when sth is corroded (عامل) أكال corrosive /kə'rəusıv/ adj corrugated /'kpragertid/ adj (used about metal or cardboard) shaped into folds; not smooth and (حديد) متموّج flat: corrugated iron corrupt /kə'rʌpt/ adj not honest, moral or legal: corrupt business practices o corrupt officials who accept bribes corrupt verb [I,T] to cause sb/sth to become dishonest or to have lower moral standards: Too many people are corrupted by power. corruption /kə'rʌpʃn/ noun [U] 1 behaviour that is not honest or legal, especially by people in official positions: There were accusations of corruption among senior police officers

2 the process of making sb/sth corrupt: the corruption of an innocent young boy إفساد ؛ تحريف

corset /'kɔ:sɪt/ noun [C] a tight piece of clothing worn by some women close to their skin in order to make themselves look thinner cosmetic /kpz'metik/ noun [C] a substance that you put on your face or hair to make yourself look more attractive: I only use cosmetics that are مستحضر تجميلي not tested on animals. ▶ cosmetic adj 1 used or done in order to improve your appearance: cosmetic products تجميلي o cosmetic surgery

2 done in order to improve only the appearance of sth, without changing it in any other way: changes in government policy which are purely تجميلي ، ظاهري cosmic /'kpzmik/ adj of the whole universe cosmopolitan / kozmə pplrtən/ adj 1 containing people from all over the world: $a\ cosmopol$ عالمي. فيه أناس من مختلف القوميّات

2 having, or influenced by, wide experience of other countries and cultures: the cosmopolitan atmosphere of the bars and cafes o a cosmopolitan and sophisticated young woman

cosmos /'kpzmps/ noun [sing.] the cosmos the الكون corridor /'kprido:(r); US 'ko:r-/ noun [C] a long 'cost' /kpst; US ko:st/ noun 1 [C,U] the money that you have to pay for sth: The cost of petrol has gone up again. o the cost of living (= the general level of prices for things that you need to live a normal life) o The damage will have to be put right regardless of cost. 2 Look at the note at > 2 [sing., U] what you have to give or lose in order to obtain sth else: He achieved great success but only at the cost of a happy family life.

3 costs [plural] the cost of settling sth in a court of law; the amount of money that the losing side has to pay to the winning side: a £250 fine and نفقات (الدعوي) £100 costs at all costs using whatever means are necessary to achieve sth: We must win at all بأي ثمن ، بكل الوسائل to your, etc. cost as you, etc. experienced it yourself: Life can be lonely at university, as I على حساب تجربة الشخص found out to my cost.

Cost2 /kpst; US ko:st/ verb [T] (pt, pp cost) 1 to have the price of: These apples cost 60p a pound. o How much does it cost? o It cost me £10 to go by

2 to make you lose sth: That one mistake cost يفقد him his job.

3 to estimate the price to be asked for some goods, a service, etc: Engineers costed the repairs at £2 million. 6 The past tense and past participle for this sense is costed. يقدر التكاليف مثلاً

co-star /'kəʊ sta:(r)/ verb (co-starring; costarred) 1 [T] (used of a film, play, etc.) to have two or more famous actors as its stars: a film costarring Kate Winslet and Leonardo di Caprio (فيلم) يشارك في تمثيله

2 [I] (used of actors) to be one of two or more stars in a film, play, etc. Michael Caine co-stars يمثّل بالاشتراك مع with Sean Connery in the film.

► co-star /'kəʊ stɑː(r)/ noun [C] a famous actor or actress who has one of the most important parts in a film, play, etc. in which another famous actor or actress also appears: His co-star شريك (في التمثيل) was Marilyn Monroe.

costly /'kostli; US 'kost-/ adj (costlier; costliest) 1 costing a lot of money; expensive: a costly غال ، مكلّف repair bill

2 involving great loss of time, effort, etc: a costly costume /'kpstju:m; US -tu:m/ noun [C,U] a set or style of clothes worn by people in a particular country or at a particular time: She designs costumes for the theatre. o 17th century costume o the

Welsh national costume 2 Look at swimming

cosy /'kəozi/ adj (cosier; cosiest) (US cozy) warm and comfortable: The room looked cosy and inviting in the firelight.

cot /kot/ (US crib) noun [C] a bed for a baby or young child, with high sides to stop it from fall-مهد ، سرير أطفال ing out cottage /'kotid3/ noun [C] a small and usually old house, especially in the country: a pretty village with little thatched cottages cottage 'cheese noun [U] a type of soft white نوع من الجبن الأبيض cheese in small lumps

cottage 'pie noun [C] = SHEPHERD'S PIE

Recotton 1 /'kptn/ noun [U] 1 a natural cloth or thread; the tall tropical plant that produces it: This shirt is 60% cotton and 40% polyester. o cotton fields in Mississippi \circ a reel of cotton (= for قطن ، شجر القطن sewing with)

2 (US) = COTTON WOOL

Tcotton2 /'kptn/ verb

PHRV cotton on (informal) to understand sth: It took me ages to cotton on.

.cotton 'wool (US cotton) noun [U] soft, loose cotton in a mass, used for cleaning the skin couch¹ /kautʃ/ noun [C] a long seat, often with a back and arms, for sitting or lying on: They were sitting on the couch in the living room. o a doctor's couch

 ${\tt couch^2}\ /{\tt kautf/}\ {\it verb}\ [T]$ (usually passive) (for {\tt council}\ (also {\tt Council})\ / {\tt kaunsl/}\ noun [C, with mal) to express a thought, idea, etc. (in the way mentioned): His reply was couched in very polite يصوغ بطريقة معينة

'couch potato noun [C] (informal) a person who spends a lot of time sitting and watching جليس التلفزيون television

?cough /kpf; US ko:f/ verb 1 [I] to send air out of your throat and mouth with a sudden loud noise, especially when you have a cold, have sth in your throat, etc: I could hear him coughing all night.

2 [T] cough (sth) (up) to send sth out of your throat and mouth with a sudden loud noise: He was coughing blood. يسعل ، يخرج بالسعال PHRV cough (sth) up (Brit informal) to give money or information unwillingly: Come on, cough up what you owe me! يعطى مكرهأ ▶ cough noun [C] 1 an act or the sound of coughing: He gave a nervous cough before he started to speak. سعال 2 an illness or infection that makes you cough a lot: She's had a cough for weeks. o cough medicine o coughs and colds

Recould /kad; strong form kvd/ modal verb (negative could not; short form couldn't /'kudnt/) 1 (used as the past form of 'can' when you report what sb says): She said that she couldn't come.

(صيغة الماضي can 1 في الإفادة عما يقوله شخص)

2 (used for saying that sth is, will be, or was possible): I could do it now if you like. O She could be famous one day. o Couldn't you come earlier? (= I wish you could) o He could have gone to university but he didn't want to. o I can't find my purse. I could have left it in the bank. O You could have said you were going to be late! (= I wish that يستطيع ، يمكن

If something was possible on one occasion in the past use was/ were able to: The firemen were able to rescue the children. But in negative sentences could not can be used, too: The firemen couldn't rescue the children.

3 (used for saying that sb had the ability in the past to do sth): I could run two miles without stopping when I was younger. o My mother could كان في استطاعته cook beautifully.

4 (used for asking permission politely): Could I هل يمكنني أن... possibly borrow your car?

5 (used for asking sb politely to do sth for you): Could you open the door? My hands are full. هل يمكنك أن..

6 I could/could have I would like/have liked to: I could scream, I'm so angry. o I was so angry أُوِّدُ أَنْ...؛ كان بودّي لو... I could have screamed.

7 (used with the verbs 'feel', 'hear', 'see', 'smell', (مع أفعال معيّنة) 'taste')

These verbs are not used in the continuous tenses. If we want to talk about seeing, hearing, etc. at a particular moment in the past, we use could: We could hear the birds singing. (NOT We were hearing...)

sing, or pl. verb] 1 a group of people who are elected to manage affairs for a town, city, country, etc: The county council has/have decided to build a new road. o a council decision o Oxford City $Council \circ a council house$ (= one huilt and owned by a city or county council and rented out)

مجلس (بلدی)

2 a group of people elected to give advice, manage affairs, etc. for a particular organization or area of activity: a student council o the Arts مجلس Council

▶ councillor /'kaʊnsələ(r)/ noun [C] a member of a council: to elect new councillors counsel1 /'kaonsl/ verb [T] (counselling; counselled: US counseling; counseled) 1 (formal) to advise or recommend: Mr Dean's lawyers counselled him against making public statements.

بنصح، يشير عليه ب

2 to give professional advice to sb with a prob-ightharpoonup counseling) /-səlɪŋ/ noun [U] professional advice given to people with problems: Many students come to us for counselproblems: wuny مستخدم ling. o psychiatric counselling استشارة : تقديم النصح والإرشاد counsellor (US counselor) / kaunsələ(r)/ noun [C] a person whose job is to give advice: a student counsellor

- counsel² /ˈkaʊnsl/ noun 1 [U] (formal) advice
- 2 [C] (pl. counsel) a lawyer who speaks in a court of law: the counsel for the defence/prosecution
- Tcount¹ /kaont/ verb 1 [I] to say numbers one after another in order: Close your eyes and count (up) to 20. to count from 0 to 100
 - 2 [T] count sth (up) to calculate the total number or amount of sth: The teacher counted the children as they got on the bus.
 - 3 [I] count (for sth) to be important or valuable: Your opinion really counts.
 - 4 II] count (as sth) to be accepted: 'I won,' shouted Tom. 'But you cheated so it doesn't count,' replied Sarah. o Will my driving licence count as identification?
 - 5 [T] to consider to be: You should count yourself lucky to have a good job.
 - 6 [T] to include sb/sth when you are calculating an amount or number: The holiday costs about 11 000, not counting the flights.

يشمل، يدخل في الاعتبار count against sb to be considered as a disadvantage: Do you think my age will count against me?

count on sb/sth to expect sth with confidence; to rely on sb/sth: In England you can't count on good weather in May. o Can I count on you to help me?

count sb/sth out 1 to count things slowly, one by one: She carefully counted out £100 in five pound notes.

- 2 (informal) not include sb/sth: If you're going swimming, you can count me out!
- يستثنيه الايدخله في الحساب ► countable /-abl/ adj that can be counted The opposite is uncountable.
- Count²/kaont/ noun[C] 1 [usually sing.] an act of counting or a number that you get after counting: At the latest count, there were nearly 2 million unemployed.
- 2 [usually pl.] a point that is made in a discussion, argument, etc: I proved her wrong on all counts.

Rim keep/lose count (of sth) to know/not know how many there are of sth: I've lost count of the number of times he's told that joke! يذكر/لا يذكر عدد المرات

count³ (also Count) /kaont/ noun [C] a title for a man of noble birth in some European countries الكونت: نبيل أوروبي (countable 'noun (also 'count noun) noun [C] (grammar) a noun that can be used in the plural, and with words like 'a', 'many' and 'few': Countable nouns are marked [C] in this dictionary.

Gountdown /ˈkaontdaon/ noun [C] the act of maying numbers backwards to zero just before all important happens: the countdown to take-nff activity

Counter / 'kaontə(r) / noun [C] 1 a long, flat sur-

- face or table in a shop, bank, etc., where customers are served
- 2 a small object (usually round and made of plastic) that is used in some games to show where a player is on the board
- counter² /'kaontə(r)/ adv counter to sth in the opposite direction to sth: The results of these experiments run counter to previous findings.
- counter³ /ˈkaontə(r)/ verb [I.T] to answer or react to sb/sth with a different opinion or a return attack: He countered our criticism with a powerful defence of his actions.
- counteract /ˌkaontərˈækt/ verb [T] to reduce the effect of sth by acting against it: measures to counteract traffic congestion
- 'counter-attack noun [C] an attack made in reaction to an enemy's attack > counter-attack verb [I,T]

- counterclockwise / kaonta klokwaiz/ (US) = ANTICLOCKWISE
- counterfeit /ˈkaontəfɪt/ adj not genuine, but copied so that it looks like the real thing: counterfeit money
- counterfoil /ˈkaontəfɔɪl/ noun [C] the part of a cheque or receipt that you keep as a record أرومة أو كَعْب الشبك أو الإيصال
- counterpart /ˈkaʊntəpɑːt/ noun [C] a person or thing that has a similar position or function to sb/sth else: She's my counterpart in our New York office (= she does the same job there that I do here).
- counter-pro'ductive adj having the opposite, effect to the one you want
- countess /ˈkaontəs/ noun [C] a woman who is married to a count or earl, or who has the same rank as one
- countless /ˈkauntləs/ adj (only before a noun) very many: I've tried to telephone him countless times.
- Recountry /ˈkʌntri/ noun (pl. countries) 1 [C] an area of land with its own people, government, etc. France, Spain and other European countries o There was snow over much of the country during the night.

State is used for talking about a country as an organized political community controlled by one government. It can also mean the government itself: a politically independent state of the EU o You get a pension from the state when you retire. O state education. Land is more formal or literary: explorers who set out to discover new lands.

- 2 the country [sing.] the people who live in a country: a survey to find out what the country really thinks
- 3 the country [sing.] land which is away from towns and cities: Do you live in the town or the country? o country life

country-and-western → course

The word country is used for emphasizing that an area of land is away from towns, etc: city workers who like to get out into the country at weekends. The word countryside also refers to areas of land that are away from towns but it emphasizes the natural features such as hills, rivers, trees, etc. that you find there: beautiful countryside o the destruction of the countryside by new roads. Landscape refers to everything you see when you look across an area of land either in the town or the country: a dreary landscape of factories and chinneys o a landscape of forests and chinneys o a landscape of forests and lakes

4 [U] an area of land (especially considering its physical features): We looked down over miles of open country. و hilly country

,country-and-'western noun [U] a type of popular music that comes from the southern and western USA

الموسيقى الشعبية لجنوب وغرب الولايات المتحدة الأمريكية

رcountry 'house noun [C] a large house in the country, usually owned by an important family and often with a lot of land countryman /ˈkʌntrimən/ noun [C] (pl. countrymen; feminine countrywoman /ˈkʌntriwomən/; pl. countrywomen) 1 a person from your own country

2 a person who lives in the country (3)

. ويَ ، ريف

- Recountryside /ˈkʌntrisaɪd/ noun [U,sing.] the countryside land which is away from towns and cities, consisting of farms, woods, etc. the French countryside of The countryside near York is very beautiful. الريف Look at the note at country.
- ر county /ˈkaʊnti/ noun [C] (pl. counties) an area in Britain, Ireland or the USA which has its own local government: the county of Kent coup /ku:/ noun [C] (pl. coups /ku:z/) 1 (also coup d'état /,ku: der'ta:/) (pl. coups d'état /,ku: der'ta:/)) a sudden and often violent change of government organized by a small group of people: a coup to overthrow the President o an attempted coup (= one which did not succeed)

انقلاب (عُسكري)

- 2 a clever and successful thing to do: Getting that promotion was a real coup.
- Couple¹ /'kApl/ noun [C] two people who are married, living together, etc: A very nice couple have moved in next door. ○ a married couple ma couple of people/things 1 two people/things: I need a couple of glasses.

2 a few (not saying an exact number): I last saw her a couple of months ago.

couple² /ˈkʌpl/ verb [T] (usually passive) to join or link sb/sth to sb/sth else: The fog, coupled with the amount of traffic on the roads, made driving very difficult.

coupon /ku:pon/ noun [C] 1 a small piece of paper which you can use to buy goods at a lower price, or which you can collect and then exchange for goods: a coupon worth £1 off your next purchase

2 a small form in a newspaper or magazine which you fill in with your name and address and send off, in order to get information or to enter a competition: To place your order, simply fill in the coupon at the bottom of this page.

قسمة

Recourage /ˈkʌrɪdʒ/ noun [U] the ability to control fear in a situation that may be dangerous or unpleasant: It took real courage to go back into the burning building. She showed great courage all through her long illness.

IDM pluck up courage → PLUCK courageous /kəˈreidʒəs/ adj having or showing courage; brave courageously adv

courgette /kvəˈʒet/ (especially US zucchini) noun [C] a long vegetable with a dark green skin that is eaten cooked. A courgette is a small marrow.

courier /ˈkoriə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person whose job is to carry letters, important papers, etc., especially when they are urgent

2 (Brit) a person whose job is to look after a group of tourists

► courier verb [T] to send sth by courier(1) پرسل مع ساع خاص

- Recourse /ko:s/ noun 1 [C] one of the parts of a meal: a three-course lunch o I had chicken for the main course.
 - 2 [C] a course (in/on sth) a complete series of lessons or studies: I've enrolled on an English course. o I'm taking a course in self-defence. O At some universities the course lasts for four years.
 - 3 [C] an area where golf is played or where certain types of race take place: a golf course a racecourse (= where horse races take place) o Several of the horses didn't complete the course.
 - 4 [C] a course (of sth) a series of medical treatments: The doctor put her on a course of tablets.
 - 5 [C,U] the route or direction that sth, especially a plane, ship or river, takes: We changed course and sailed towards land. to be on/off course (= going in the right/wrong direction) the course of the Rhine (figurative) I'm on course (= making the right amount of progress) to finish this work by the end of the week.

اتّجاه ، خطّ (السير)، مجرى

- 6 [sing.] the development of sth over a period of time: events that changed the course of history o In the normal course of events (= the way things normally happen) such problems do not arise.
- 7 (also course of action) [C] a way of acting in or dealing with a particular situation: In that situation resignation was the only course open to him.

DM in the course of sth during sth: He mentioned it in the course of conversation.

ي غضون

in (the) course of time eventually; when enough time has passed: I'm sure that all these problems will be sorted out in the course of time.

in due course → DUE1

a matter of course → MATTER1

- of course naturally; certainly: Of course, having children has changed their lives a lot. Of course it can be repaired but I think it will be too expensive to do it. O'Can I use your phone?' Of course you can.' O'You're not annoyed with me, are you?' Of course not.'
- coursebook /ˈkɔːsbʊk/ noun [C] a book for studying from that is used regularly in class کتاب دراسی مقرر
- Court¹ /ko:t/ noun 1 [C.U] a place where trials take place in front of a judge or a jury, to decide whether a person has broken the law: a magistrate's court A man has been charged and will appear in court tomorrow.
 - 2 the court [sing.] the people in a court, especially those taking part in the trial: Please tell the court exactly what you saw.
 - 3 often Court [C,U] the official home of a king or queen بَلاط ، قَصُر
 - 4 [C.U] an area where certain ball games are played: a tennis, squash, etc. court o The players have been on court for nearly three hours.

 ملعب take sb to court to take legal action against sb in a court of law: She took the company to court for breaking the contract.

يقاضي ، يقيم دعوي

- court²/ko:t/verb 1 [T] to try to gain sb's support by paying special attention to them: Politicians from all parties will be courting voters this week.
- 2 [T] to do sth that might lead to sth unpleasant: Britain is courting ecological disaster if it continues to dump waste in the North Sea.

يلعب بالنار ، يجلب على نفسه المتاعب

- 3 [I] (old-fashioned) (used about two people) to spend time together in a relationship that may lead to marriage: There were a lot of courting couples in the park.
- ► courtship / kɔ:tʃɪp/ noun [C,U] (old-fashioned) the period or situation of having a relationship that leads or may lead to marriage: [C]: They got married after a brief courtship.
- courteous /ˈkɜːtiəs/ adj polite and pleasant, showing respect for other people ⊕ The opposite is discourteous.
- ▶ courteously adv
- courtesy /ˈkɜːtəsi/ noun (pl. courtesies) 1 [U] polite and pleasant behaviour that shows respect for other people: She didn't even have the courtesy to say that she was sorry.
- 2 [C] (formal) a polite action or remark: The two presidents exchanged courtesies before their meet-lng.
- (by) courtesy of sb with the permission

- or because of the kindness of sb: These pictures are being shown by courtesy of BBC TV. پاڼن من : تکرماً من
- courtier /ˈkɔːtiə(r)/ noun [C] (especially in the past) a companion of a king or queen at his/her court
- court martial /ˌkɔːt ˈmɑːʃl/ noun [C] (pl. courts martial or court martials) a military court that deals with matters of military law; a trial that takes place in such a court: His case will be heard by a court martial.
- ► court-martial verb [T] (court-martialling; court-martialled; US court-martialing; court-martialed) to try sb in a military court

يحاكم أمام محكمة عسكرية

COURT OF 'law noun [C] (pl. courts of law) = LAW

courtship noun → COURT2

- courtyard /ˈkɔːtjɑːd/ noun [C] an area of ground, without a roof, that has walls or buildings around it, e.g. in a castle, or between house or flats
- couscous /'koskos; 'ku:sku:s/ noun [U] a type of N African food made from crushed wheat; a dish of meat and/or vegetables with couscous

كسكس، مغربية

Cousin /'kazn/ (also first 'cousin) noun [C] the child of your aunt or uncle: Have you met Lizzie? We're cousins. • The same word is used for both male and female cousins. A second cousin is the child of your cousin.

ابن أو بنت العم أو العمة أو الخال أو الخالة

- cove /kəʊv/ noun [C] a small bay on the coast: a sandy cove
- TCOVEr¹ /ˈkʌvə(r)/ verb [T] 1 cover sb/sth (up/ over) (with sth) to put sth on or in front of sth in order to hide or protect it: Could you cover the food and put it in the fridge? o She couldn't look any more and covered her eyes. o She was asleep on the sofa so he covered her over with a blanket. I covered the floor with newspaper before I started painting.
 - 2 to be across or over the surface of sth: Snow covered the ground.
 - 3 cover sb/sth in/with sth to form a layer on sb/sth: A car went through the puddle and covered me with mud.
 - 4 to fill or be spread over a certain area: The smoke from the fire now covers about 15 000 square kilometres.
 - 5 to include or to deal with sth: Part-time workers are not covered by the law. The course covered both British and European history. I think we've covered everything. Now, does anyone have a question?
 - 6 to travel a certain distance: We covered about 500 kilometres that day.
 - 7 to be enough money for sth: Will £20 cover your expenses? يكفي، يغطّي (النفقات)
 - 8 (used about the media) to report on or show cover → crack

sth: All the papers covered the election in depth.

9 cover sb/sth against/for sth to protect sb/sth by insurance: The insurance policy covers us for any damage to our property. • The policy even covers your garden furniture (= it is insured).

يؤمن على CHRV cover (sth) up to prevent people hearing about a mistake or sth bad: The police have bear accused of trying to cover up the facts of the case.

cover up for sb to hide a person's mistakes or crimes in order to protect him/her: His wife covered up for him to the police.

يخْني بقصد الحماية ، يَسْتَر على covered adj 1 covered in/with 5th having a layer or a large amount of 5th on 5b/5th: The victim was lying on the floor, covered in blood.

The whole room was covered in dust.

ىغطّى ، مكسوّ

2 having a cover, especially a roof: a covered shopping centre covering /ˈkʌvərɪŋ/ noun [C] something that covers the surface of sth: A thick covering of snow lay on the ground.

- $ cover² /'kavə(r)/ noun 1 [C] something that is put on or over sth, especially in order to protect it: a plastic cover for a computer o a duvet cover
 - 2 [C] the outside part of a book or magazine: I can't remember the title of the book but I know it has a green cover. I read the magazine from cover to cover (= from beginning to end).
 - 3 the covers [plural] the blankets, sheets, etc. that cover sb in bed: She pulled the covers off him and said: 'Get up!'
 - 4 [U] cover (against sth) insurance against sth, so that if sth bad happens you get money or help in return: The policy provides cover against theft.
 - 5 [U] shelter or protection from the weather, damage, etc: When the storm started we took cover in a shop doorway. The soldiers had no cover and were easy targets.
 - 6 [C, usually sing.] a cover (for sth) something that hides the real nature of sth, especially sth illegal: The whole company was just a cover for all kinds of criminal activities.
 - 7 [U] doing sb's job for him/her while he/she is away from work: Joanne's off next week, so we'll have to arrange cover.

moder cover of sth hidden by sth; not noticed because of sth: They attacked under cover of darkness. (الظلام) coverage /ˈkʌvərɪdʒ/ noun [U] the act or amount of reporting on or showing an event in the media: TV coverage of the Olympic Games was excellent.

coveralls /'kavəro:lz/ noun [plural] (US) = OVER-ALLS

,covering 'letter noun [C] a letter that you send with a parcel, job application, etc. explaining it or giving more information about it

إسالة توضيحية

- covert /ˈkʌvət; US ˈkəuvɜːrt/ adj done secretly, not openly: a covert police operation سري ► covertly adv
- "COVET-up noun [C] an act of preventing sth bad or dishonest from becoming known: Several newspapers have claimed that there has been a government cover-up.
- covet /ˈkʌvət/ verb [T] (formal) to want very much to have sth (especially sth that belongs to sb else) يشتهي (ما عند الغير)
- R COW /kaʊ/ noun [C] 1 a large female animal that is kept on farms to produce milk: to milk a cow م a herd of cows

Cow is often used for both male and female members of the cattle family. The special word for a male is bull. A young cow is a calf. A number of cows together can be called cattle. Look at the note at meat.

- 2 the adult female of certain large animals, e.g the elephant الثيرة مثل الفيل
- 3 (slang) an insulting word for a woman: She's a real cow! (امرأة (كلمة مسينة)
- coward /ˈkauəd/ noun [C] (used when disapproving) a person who has no courage and is afraid in dangerous or unpleasant situations: I hate going to the dentist's because I'm a terrible coward. وبال was too much of a coward to argue.
- ► cowardice /ˈkaʊədɪs/ noun [U] a lack of courage: I was ashamed at the cowardice I showed in running away.
 حبن حبن وwardly adj
- cowboy /ˈkaʊbət/ noun [C] 1 a man whose job is to look after cows (usually on a horse) in certain parts of the USA: a cowboy film
- 2 (Brit informal) a person in business who is not honest or who does work badly: a cowboy builder عامل غشَاشُ أو غير متقن لعمله
- COWET /ˈkaʊə(r)/ verb [1] to move back or into a low position because of fear: The dog cowered under the table.

cowslip /ˈkauslɪp/ noun [C] a small wild plant with sweet-smelling yellow flowers زهرة الربيع المرجيّة coy /kɔɪ/ adj 1 pretending to be shy or modest: She lifted her head a little and gave him a coy

- She lifted her head a little and gave him a coy smile.

 2 unwilling to say sth directly or to give infor- mation: Don't be coy, tell me how much you earn.

► coyly adv

cozy(US) = cosy

Crab /kræb/ noun [C] a sea animal with a flat body covered by a shell and five pairs of curved legs. The front two legs have long claws (pincers) on them. Crabs move sideways.

$crack¹ /kræk/ noun [C] 1 a line on the surface of sth where it has broken, but not into separate pieces: a pane of glass with a crack in it

كَسْر، صَدْع، شَعْر 2 a narrow opening: The wind blew through the

- cracks in the roof.
- 3 a sudden loud, sharp sound: There was a crack and he realized that he had broken his leg.

4 an amusing, often critical, remark; a joke: She made a crack about his clothes.

. تعلیق فکاهی ساخر : نکتة the crack of dawn very early in the في مطلع الفجر have a crack (at sth/at doing sth) (informal) to try to do sth: I'm not sure how to play but I'll يحاول (فعل شيء) have a crack at it.

▶ crack adj (used especially about soldiers) very well-trained and skilful: crack troops (جندي) فائقُ التدريبُ والمهارةُ

- I crack² /kræk/ verb 1 [I,T] to break so that a line appears, but without breaking into pieces; to make sth do this: Don't put boiling water into that glass, it'll crack. O You can crack this sort of glass but you can't break it. o Oh no, this glass is cracked. يصدّع؛ يتصدّع
 - 2 [T] to break sth open: Crack two eggs into a يكسر ؛ يفلقَ bowl.
 - 3 [I,T] to make a sudden loud, sharp sound; to cause sth to make this sound: He cracked his يفرقع ، يطقطق
 - 4 [T] to hit a part of your body against sth: She stood up and cracked her head on the cupboard يصدم (رأسه بالخزانة مثلاً)
 - 5 [I] to stop being able to deal with pressure and so lose control: She cracked under the strain of all her problems.
 - 6 [T] (informal) to solve a problem: I think I've cracked it! o The police have cracked an international drug-smuggling ring. يحُلّ (مشكلة) يدرك كنه شيء

ينكُت

7 [T] to tell or make a joke IDM get cracking (informal) to start doing sth Immediately: I have to finish this job today so I'd hetter get cracking. يشرع في فعل شيء حالاً

THRY crack down (on sb/sth) (used about people in authority) to start dealing severely with bad or illegal behaviour: The police have started to crack down on drug dealers.

يقمع ، يضرب بيد من حديد

crack up (informal) to be unable to deal with pressure and so lose control and become mentally ill: He cracked up when his wife left him.

crackdown /krækdavn/ noun [C] action to ntop bad or illegal behaviour: a police crackdown قمع ، مكافحة on street crime

gracker /'krækə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a thin flat dry biscuit that is often eaten with cheese بسكوتة رقيقة (تؤكل مع الجبن)

2 (also Christmas cracker) a cardboard tube wrapped in coloured paper and containing a small present. Crackers are pulled apart by two people, each holding one end, at Christmas parties. They make a loud sharp noise as they فرقاعة صغيرة تحوي هدية crackle /'krækl/ verb [I] to make a series of short, sharp sounds: The radio started to crackle يطقطق ، يخشخش and then it stopped working. ▶ crackle noun [sing.]: the crackle of dry wood cradle /'kreidl/ noun [C] a small bed for a baby. Cradles can often be moved from side to side.

- ▶ cradle verb [T] to hold sb/sth carefully and gently in your arms: He cradled her head in his arms until the ambulance came. يحتضن برفق
- ?craft1/kra:ft; US kræft/ noun [C] 1 a job or activity for which you need skill with your hands: an arts and crafts exhibition o the craft of basket making \(\mathbb{O} \) Look at handicraft. حرفة
 - 2 any job or activity for which you need skill: He regards acting as a craft. مهنة تتطلب مهارة
 - ▶ craftsman /ˈkrɑːftsmən; US ˈkræfts-/ noun [C] (pl. craftsmen /-man/) a person who makes things skilfully, especially with the hands: All the furniture we sell is individually made by حرفي ، عامل يدوي ماهر craftsmen.

craftsmanship noun [U] the skill used by sb to make sth of high quality with the hands

مهارة يدوية ؛ جودة الصنعة

Craft2 /krc:ft; US kræft/ noun [C] (pl. craft) a boat, aircraft or spaceship: There were a few sailing craft on the lake. قارب أو طائرة أو سفينة فضائية crafty /'kra:fti; US 'kræfti/ adj (craftier; craftiest) clever at getting or achieving things by deceiving people or using indirect methods

مکّار ، خبي بمكر

► craftily adv

crag /kræg/ noun [C] a steep, rough rock on a hill صخرة وعرة شديدة الانحدار or mountain

- cram /kræm/verb (cramming; crammed) 1 [T] to push people or things into a small space: I managed to cram all my clothes into the bag but I couldn't zip it up. o How many more people can they cram onto this train? o (figurative) We only spent two days in Rome but we managed to cram يحشو، يحشِر، يُحشكُ a lot of sightseeing in.
- 2 [I] to move, with a lot of other people, into a small space: He only had a small car but they all ينحشر ، ينحشك managed to cram in.
- 3 [I] to study very hard and learn a lot in a short time before an examination: She's cramming for ينكب على الدراسة قبل الامتحان her exams
- ▶ crammed adj very or too full: That book is crammed with useful information. o Athens is crammed with tourists at that time of year.

cramp /kræmp/ noun [U] a sudden pain that you get in a muscle, that makes it difficult to move: One of the swimmers got cramp and we had to pull him out of the water.

cramped /kræmpt/ adj not having enough space: The flat was terribly cramped with so many of us living there. مكتظ ، محشور ؛ ضيّق

فوهة cranberry → crazy

- cranberry /'krænbəri; US -beri/ noun [C] (pl. cranberries) a small red berry with a slightly وع من التوت البري
- crane1 /krein/ noun [C] a large machine with a long metal arm that is used for moving or lifting رافعة ، ونُش heavy objects
- crane2 /krein/ verb [I,T] to stretch your neck forward in order to see or hear sth: We all craned forward to get a better view.
- crank /krænk/ noun [C] a person with strange ideas or who behaves in a strange way: Lots of cranks phoned the police confessing to the mur-شخص غريب الأطوآر
- cranny /'kræni/ noun [C] (pl. crannies) a small opening in a wall, a rock, etc. صدع ، شق
- IDM every nook and cranny → NOOK
- ?crash¹ /kræf/ noun [C] 1 a sudden loud noise made by sth breaking, hitting sth, etc: I heard a crash and ran outside. صوت تهشّم أو ارتطام
 - 2 an accident when a car or other vehicle hits sth and is damaged: She was injured in a serious car crash. o a plane crash with no survivors اصطدام ، حادث
 - 3 an occasion when there is a failure in the business world: the Stock Market crash of 1987
 - crash adj done with a lot of effort in a short period of time: She did a crash course in Spanish مكثف وقصير before going to work in Madrid.
- ?crash2 /kræs/ verb 1 [I] to fall or move suddenly, making a loud noise: The tree crashed through the window. o The elephant went crashing through the jungle. ينهار فجأة محدثاً ضجيجاً ؛ يتخبط
 - 2 [I,T] to have an accident in a vehicle; to cause a vehicle to have an accident: He braked too late and crashed into the car in front. $\circ\,$ He crashed his يصطدم ، يصدم father's car.
 - 3 [I] to make a loud noise: I could hear thunder, crashing outside. يدوي ، يفرقع
 - 4 [I] (used about a business or a financial organization) to fail suddenly
 - 5 [I] (used about a computer) to stop working suddenly: We lost the data when the computer crashed.
- 'crash barrier noun [C] a fence that keeps people or vehicles apart, e.g. when there are large crowds, or between the two sides of the حاجز الوقاية من التصادم
- 'crash helmet noun [C] a hard hat worn by motorcyclists, racing drivers, etc. to protect their heads in an accident خوذة واقبة
- crass /kræs/ adj 1 stupid, showing that you do not understand sth: It was a crass comment to make when he knew how upset she was.
 - مفرط 2 extreme: crass carelessness
- crate /kreit/ noun [C] a large box in which goods are transported or stored. Sometimes crates are divided into sections, for carrying bottles: We had to pack everything into crates when we moved صندوق كبير (للشحن) house. o a crate of beer

- crater /'kreitə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a large hole in the ground: The bomb left a large crater. o craters on the moon حفرة ، فجوة
- 2 the hole in the top of a volcano
- cravat /kra'væt/ noun [C] a wide piece of cloth that men tie around their neck and wear inside the collar of their shirt
- crave /kreiv/ verb [I,T] crave (for) sth to want and need to have sth very much: He craves atten-يتوق إلى : يشتهي tion from other people.
- ▶ craving noun [C] a strong desire for sth: When she was pregnant she had cravings for all sorts of peculiar food.
- crawl /kro:l/ verb [I] 1 to move slowly with the body on or close to the ground, or on the hands and knees: An insect crawled across the floor. o Their baby has just started to crawl.
 - يزحَف، يحبو 2 (used about vehicles) to move very slowly: The traffic crawls through the centre of town in the يزحف، يسير ببطء rush hour.
- 3 crawl (to sb) (informal) to be too polite or pleasant to sb in order to be liked or to gain sth: He only got promoted because he crawled to the يداهن، يتملق
- Tom crawling with sth to be completely full of or covered with sb/sth that is moving and that is considered unpleasant: The kitchen was crawling with insects. o The village is always crawling with tourists at this time of year. يعج أو يغص ب
- ▶ crawl noun [sing.] 1 a very slow speed: The traffic slowed to a crawl.
- 2 often the crawl a style of swimming which you do on your front. When you do the crawl, you move first one arm and then the other over your head, turn your face to one side so that you can breathe and kick up and down with your نوع من السياحة
- crayon /'kreiən/ noun [C,U] a soft, thick, coloured pencil sometimes made of wax, used for drawing or writing, especially by children
- قلم طباشير ملون يرسم بقلم طباشير ملون ▶ crayon verb [I,T]
- craze /kreiz/ noun [C] a craze (for sth) 1 a strong interest in sth, that usually only lasts for a short time: There was a craze for that kind of music years ago.
- 2 something that a lot of people are very interested in: Pocket TVs are the latest craze among جنون، "صرعة" teenagers.
- Crazy /'kreɪzi/ adj (crazier; craziest) (informal) 1 very silly or foolish: I think that that's a crazy idea. O You must be crazy to turn down such a wonderful offer. سخيف ، أحمق
 - 2 very angry: She goes crazy when people criticize her.
 - 3 crazy about sth very interested in sth; liking sth very much: He's always been crazy about مغرم أو مهووس بِ horses.
 - 4 crazy about sb very much in love with sb مغرم ب، شدید الولع ب

5 showing great excitement: The fans went crazy when their team scored the first goal.

شديد الاهتياج والحماس" ► crazily adv على نحو أحمق جنون ' حمالة (Taziness noun [U]

creak /kri:k/ verb [I] to make the noise of wood bending or of sth not moving smoothly: The floor-boards creaked when I walked across the room.

The lift creaked to a halt.

creak noun [C]

ربرير creak noun [C] پرير پحدث صوتاً کالصرير creaky adj: creaky stairs

Cream (kri:m/ noun 1 [U] the thick yellowish-white liquid that is the fatty part of milk and that rises to the top of it: coffee with cream o struuberries and cream o whipped cream (= cream that has been beaten)

2 [C,U] a substance that you rub into your skin to keep it soft or as a medical treatment

ڭرىم: مستحضر تجميل

3 the cream [sing.] the best part of sth or the best people in a group (ربدة (الشيء)، صَفُوة (الناس) cream adj having a yellowish-white colour

ذو لون أبيض ماثل للصفرة creamy adj (creamier; creamiest) 1 containing cream: a creamy sauce

2 thick, smooth and soft; looking or feeling like cream: Beat the mixture until it is creamy and light.

cream² /kri:m/ verb

EHRY cream sb/sth off to take away the best people or part from sth for a particular purpose:

The big clubs cream off the country's best young players.

cream 'tea noun [C] (Brit) a meal taken in the afternoon consisting of tea with a special type of cake (scone) that is eaten with jam and cream وجبة من الشاي ونوع معين من الكمك مع القشدة

Crease /kri:s/ noun [C] 1 an untidy line on paper, material, a piece of clothing, etc. that is caused by not treating it carefully: Your shirt needs ironing, it's full of creases. • When I unrolled the poster there was a crease in it.

غُضُن ، تجعيدة، "كرمشة"

2 a neat line that is put on paper, material, a piece of clothing, etc. intentionally: He had a sharp crease in his trousers.

"تسوقية "كسوة"
كسوة كسوة (I't) to get creases (I) to make sth

Create /kri'ert/ verb [T] to cause sth new to happen or exist: God created the world. o a plan to create new jobs in the area o All these changes will simply create confusion. o He created a bad impression at the interview.

Creation /kri'erJn/ noun 1 [U] the act of causing sth new to happen or exist: the creation of new independent states

2 usually the Creation [sing.] the act of making the whole universe, as described in the Bible الخلق ، خَلق السموات والأرض

3 [C] something that sb has made or produced, especially using skill or imagination: This dish is a new creation, I didn't use a recipe.

Creative /kri'ettıv/ adj 1 using skill or imagination to make or do new things: She's a fantastic designer – she's so creative. • We need some creative thinking to solve this problem.

2 connected with producing new things, especially works of art: His creative life went on until he was well over 80.

▶ creatively adv: They haven't got a very big house but they use the space creatively.

على نحو خلاق: بَخيال إبداعي creativity / kri:er'tivəti/ noun [U] the ability to make or produce new things, especially using skill or imagination: We want teaching that encourages children's creativity.

creator /kri'eɪtə(r)/ noun 1 [C] a person who makes or produces sth new, especially using skill or imagination: He was the creator of some of the best-known characters in literature.

2 the Creator [sing.] God الخالق ، الله

Creature /ˈkriːtʃə(r)/ noun [C] a living thing such as an animal, a bird, a fish or an insect, but not a plant: a living creature o a small black furry creature o creatures from other planets crèche (also creche) /kreʃ/ noun [C] (Brit) a place where small children are looked after while their parents are working credentials /krə'den [lz/ noun [plural] 1 something that shows that a person is qualified or suitable for sth: He has perfect credentials for the top job.

2 a document that proves that sb is who he/she claims to be, or that he/she is qualified to do sth وثيقة اعتماد credible /ˈkredəbl/ adj 1 that you can believe: It's hardly credible that such a thing could happen without him knowing it. The opposite is incredible.

2 that you can trust or take seriously: We need to think of a credible alternative to nuclear energy.

عدير بالشقة

➤ credibility / kredə'biləti/ noun [U] the quality of being able to be believed or trusted and taken seriously: The Prime Minister had lost all credibility and had to resign.

credibly /-əbli/ adv

على نحو ممقول أو قابل للتصديق

Rcredit¹ /'kredit/ noun 1 [U] the system of buying goods or services and not paying for them until later: I bought the television on credit. o interest-free credit (= payment over a period without any extra charges) o Read the credit terms carefully before signing.

2 [U] having money in an account at a bank: No bank charges are made if your account remains in credit.

3 [C] a payment made into an account at a bank ⇒ Look at debit.

4 [C,U] a sum of money that a bank, etc. lends: The company was not able to get any further credit and went bankrupt.

5 [U] praise for sth good that a person has done: He got all the credit for the success of the project. o I can't take any credit; the others did all the work. O She didn't do very well but at least give فضلّ ، شَرَف ؛ مديح her credit for trying.

6 credits [plural] the list of the names of the people who made a film or TV programme, shown at the beginning or end of the film ماء المشاركين في إنتاج فيلم أو برنامج تلفزيوني

7 [sing.] a credit to sb/sth a person or thing that gives honour: She is a lovely girl and a credit to her school.

8 [C] (US) a part of a course at a college or university, that a student has completed and that appears on his/her record

قسم من برنامج دراسي مقبول رسميا do sb credit to make sb deserve to be praised or respected: His courage and optimism do him credit. يشرُف، يجعله جديراً بالثناء have sth to your credit to have finished sth that is successful: He has three best-selling novels to his credit.

(be) to sb's credit (used for showing that you approve of sth that sb has done, although you have criticized sth else): The company, to its credit, apologized and refunded my money.

credit² /'kredit/ verb [T] 1 credit sb/sth with sth; credit sth to sb/sth to accept or believe that sb/sth has a particular quality or is responsible for sth good or successful: Of course I wouldn't do such a stupid thing - credit me with a bit more sense than that! O He credited his success to a lot of hard work. يعزو أو ينسب إلى

2 to record that money has been added to an account: Has the cheque been credited to my

3 (especially in negative sentences and questions) to believe: I simply cannot credit that he has made the same mistake again!

creditable /'kreditəbl/ adj deserving to be praised or respected (even if it is not excellent): It was a creditable result considering that three جدير بالثناء، جدير بالاحترام players were injured.

?'credit card noun [C] a small plastic card that allows sh to get goods or services without using money. You usually receive a bill once a month for what you have bought: Can I pay by credit بطاقة ائتمان/اعتماد card?

creditor /'kreditə(r)/ noun [C] a person or company to whom money is owed creed /kri:d/ noun [C] a set of beliefs or principles (especially religious ones) that strongly influence sb's life creek /kri:k/ noun [C] 1 (Brit) a narrow piece of water where the sea flows into the land

خليج ضيق، شرم، خُور 2 (US) a small river or stream نهير ، جدول

creep¹ /kri:p/ verb [I] (pt, pp crept /krept/) 1 to move very quietly and carefully, often with the body in a low position, so that nobody will notice you: The cat crept silently towards the bird. o She crept into the room so as not to wake him up.

يز حُف ، يتسلَّل

2 to move forward slowly: His latest record has crept up to number 10 in the charts. يتقلكم ببطء PHRV creep in to begin to appear: All sorts of changes are beginning to creep into the education يظهر ، ينسل إلى system.

creep2 /kri:p/ noun [C] (informal) a person that you dislike because they try too hard to be liked (شخص) متملّق أو مداهن by people in authority IDM give sb the creeps (informal) to give sb an unpleasant feeling; to make sb feel frightened: There's something about the way he laughs, that gives me the creeps. يضايق؛ يرعب

creeper /'kri:pə(r)/ noun [C] a plant that grows up trees or walls or along the ground

نيات مدّاد أو مت

creepy /'kri:pi/ adj (creepier; creepiest) (informal) that makes you feel rather nervous and مخيف، موحش frightened

cremate /kra'mest/verb [T] to burn the body of a dead person as part of a funeral service يحرق جثة الميّت (بدل دفنها) ▶ cremation /krə'meɪʃn/ noun [C,U] an act of cremating a dead person 2 Look at the note at إحراق جثة الميت funeral. crematorium / krema totriam/ noun [C] (pl.

crematoriums or crematoria /-ɔ:riə/) (US crematory /'kremətəri/ or /-tɔ:ri/) a place where dead people are cremated

مكان إحراق جثث الموتى

crêpe paper /,kreɪp 'peɪpə(r)/ noun [U] a type of thin brightly coloured paper that stretches and has a surface covered in lines and folds, used especially for making decorations

ورق رقيق مكرمش (مجعد)

crept pt, pp of CREEP

crescendo /kra'[endau/ noun [C] (pl. crescendos) a noise or piece of music that is very loud or that gets louder and louder

تصعيد الصوت أو النغمة ؛ مقطع تصعيدي

crescent /'kresnt/ noun [C] 1 the shape of the moon in its first and last stages; a curved shape that is pointed at both ends

2 a street or row of houses that is curved حي سكني على هيئة هلال

cress /kres/ noun [U] a small plant with small green leaves that is eaten raw in salads crest /krest/ noun [C] 1 a group of attractive fea-عُرِف الطائر، قُنبرة thers on the top of a bird's head قمة ، ذروة

2 the top of a hill

3 the white part at the top of a wave قمة الموحة المزيدة crestfallen / krestfo:lən/ adj sad or disappoint-حزين ، خانب الأمل ، كسير الخاطر cretin /'kretin; US kri:tn/ noun [C] (slang) a stu-غبي ، ضعيف العقل pid person

- crevasse /krəˈvæs/ noun [C] a deep crack in thick ice منع عميق في الجليد
- crevice /ˈkrevɪs/ noun [C] a narrow crack in a rock, wall, etc.
- Crew /kru:/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] 1 all the people who work on a ship, plane, etc: The captain and his crew hope you had a pleasant flight
- 2 a group of people who work together: a camera crew (= people who film things for television, etc.)
- 'crew cut noun [C] a very short hairstyle for men الرجال الرجال
- crewman /ˈkruːmən/ noun [C] (pl. -men /-mən/) a member of a crew(1): Four crewmen were drowned.
- crib¹/krıb/ noun [C] (especially US) = COT
- crib² /krıb/ verb [I.T] (cribbing; cribbed) crib (sth) (from/off sb) to copy sh else's work and pretend it is your own: She cribbed some of the answers off her friend. يغش في الامتحان اينقل من غيره
- crick /krik/ noun [sing.] a pain in your neck, back, etc. that makes it difficult for you to move easily: I've got a crick in my neck.
 - easily: I've got a crick in my neck. ملّب أو تشنّج مؤلم
- crick verb [T]: I've cricked my neck.
- cricket¹ /ˈkrɪkɪt/ noun [U] a game that is played with a bat and ball on a large area of grass by two teams of eleven players لعبة الكريكيت
- In cricket the bowler bowls the ball to the batsman who tries to hit it with a bat and then score a run by running from one end of the pitch to the other.
- ► cricketer noun [C] a person who plays cricket, especially as their job
- cricket²/'krıkıt/ noun [C] an insect that makes a loud noise by rubbing its wings together
 - جُدَجُد، صرّار الليل
- † crime /kraım/ noun 1 [C] something which is against the law and which people are punished for, e.g. by being sent to prison: to commit a crime o serious crimes such as murder and armed robbery

 مولية منالة
 - 2 [U] illegal behaviour in general: There has been an increase in car crime recently, o to lead a life of crime o to fight crime o crime prevention measures
 - 3 usually a crime [sing.] something that is morally wrong: It is a crime to waste food when people are starving.
 - b criminal /'krımınl/ adj 1 (only before a noun) connected with crime: Deliberate damage to public property is a criminal offence. و criminal law
 - 2 morally wrong: a criminal waste of taxpayers' money غير أخلاقي criminal noun [C] a person who has committed a crime

- crimson / krimzn/ adj, noun [U] (of) a dark red colour 2 Look at maroon and scarlet.
 - قرمزي : اللون القرمزي ً
- cringe /krɪndʒ/ verb [I] 1 to move away from sb/ sth because you are frightened: The dog cringed in terror when the man raised his arm.
 - ينكمش خوفاً ، ينفر
- 2 to feel embarrassed: awful family photographs that make you cringe in embarrassment
 - يخجل ، يشعر بالحرج
- crinkle /ˈkrɪnkl/ verb [I,T] crinkle (sth) (up) (to cause sth) to have thin folds or lines in it: He crinkled the silver paper up into a ball.

 ➤ crinkly /ˈkrɪnkli/ adj: a type of soft crinkly material
- cripple /ˈkrɪpl/ verb [T] 1 (usually passive) to cause sb to be a cripple: He was crippled in a road accident.
- 2 to damage sth badly: The recession has crippled the motor industry.
- ➤ crippling adj that causes very great damage; that has a very harmful effect: They had crippling debts and had to sell their house.
 - مُشلّ للحركة ؛ فظيع
- Rerisis / 'kraisis/ noun [C,U] (pl. crises / 'kraisiz/) a time of great danger or difficulty; the moment when things change and either improve or get worse: the international crisis caused by the invasion o Events reached a crisis during the summer of 1939. o a friend you can rely on in times of crisis.
- R crisp¹ /krɪsp/ adj 1 hard and dry: Store the biscuits in a tin to keep them crisp.
 - 2 firm and fresh or new: a crisp salad ∘ a crisp apple ∘ a crisp new £10 note ∘ a crisp cotton dress
 - 3 (used about the air or weather) cold and dry: a crisp winter morning
 - 4 (used about the way sb speaks) quick, clear but not very friendly: a crisp reply
 - کلام) واضح جازم • crisply adv in a crisp¹ (4) way: 'I disagree,' she said crisply.
 - crispy adj (crispier; crispiest) (informal) = crisp¹ (1,2): fish in crispy batter هش: طازج
- crisp² /krɪsp/ (also po tato 'crisp) (US potato chip; chip) noun [C] a very thin piece of potato that is fried in oil, dried and then sold in packets. Crisps usually have salt or another flavouring on them: a packet of crisps
- crispbread /'krɪspbred/ noun [C,U] a thin crisp biscuit that is usually made from rye and often eaten with cheese بسكوت خاص من الشعير
- criss-cross /ˈkrɪs krɒs; US -krɔːs/ adj (only before a noun) with many lines that cross over each other: a criss-cross pattern
- ► criss-cross verb [I,T]: the footpaths which criss-cross the countryside مقاطو أو بتصالب: يقطو بخطوط متصالبة
- Criterion /krar'tierien/ noun [C] (pl. criteria /-rie/) the standard that you use when you make critic → cross

a decision or form an opinion about sb/sth: What is the criterion for deciding who gets a place on the course?

- critic /'krttik/ noun [C] 1 a person who says what he/she thinks is bad or wrong with sb/sth:

 He is a long-standing critic of the council's transport policy.
- 2 a person whose job is to give his/her opinion about a play, film, book, work of art, etc: a film critic (= in a newspaper, etc.).
- Critical /ˈkrɪtɪkl/ adj 1 critical (of sb/sth) saying what is wrong with sb/sth; disapproving: The report was very critical of safety standards on the railways. critical remarks ◆ The opposite is uncritical.
 - 2 (only before a noun) describing the good and bad points of a play, film, book, work of art, etc: a critical guide to this month's new films
 - 3 dangerous or serious: The patient is in a critical condition.
 - 4 very important; at a time when things can suddenly become better or worse: The talks between the two leaders have reached a critical stage.
 - ► critically /-ıkli/ adv: a critically ill patient ∘ a critically important decision

بصورة خطيرة ؛ ذو نتائج هامّة

- Criticism /'kritisizəm/ noun 1 [C,U] (an expression of) what you think is bad about sb/sth: My main criticism is that it is too expensive. The council has come in for severe criticism over the plans
 - 2 [U] the act of describing the good and bad points of a play, film, book, work of art, etc: literary criticism
- Pcriticize (also criticise) / kritisaiz/ verb criticize sb/sth (for sth) to say what is bad or wrong with sb/sth: The doctor was criticized for not sending the patient to hospital. Stop criticizing!
- critique /krı'ti:k/ noun [C] a piece of writing that describes the good and bad points of sb/stb

نقد، عرض نقدی

- croak /krəʊk/ noun [C] a deep low sound, like the noise that a frog makes تقيق (الضفلاء): صوت أجش

 rorak verb [I,T] to make a noise like a croak, e.g. because you have a cold and are losing your voice
- crochet /ˈkrəʊʃeɪ; US krəʊˈʃeɪ/ noun [U] a way of making clothes, cloth, etc. by using wool or cotton and one needle with a hook at one end "كروشيه"، شفل الصنّارة
- ► crochet verb [T] (pt, pp crocheted /-ferd/): to crochet a shawl 3 Look at knit.

crockery /'krokəri/ noun [U] cups, plates and dishes ك Look at cutlery.

crocodile /'krokədaɪl/ noun [C] 1 a large, long animal with hard skin that lives in rivers in hot countries. A crocodile is a dangerous animal because it has a large mouth with a lot of sharp teeth in it. It is a reptile. 3 Look at alligator.

2 (Brit) a line of children standing or walking in pairs صفً طويل مزدوج من التلاميذ

Crocus /ˈkrəʊkəs/ noun a small plant that produces yellow, purple or white flowers early in spring (زهر) الكركم؛ زعفران croissant /'krwæsō; US krwæ'sō/ noun [C] a type of light bread roll, shaped in a curve, that is eaten with butter at breakfast

"كرواسان"، كعكة خفيفة هلالية

crony /'krəoni/ noun [C] (pl. cronies) (informal) (often used in a critical way) a friend

صديق ، خليل

crook /krok/ noun [C] 1 (informal) a dishonest person; a criminal

2 a bend or curve in sth: the crook of your arm (= the inside of your elbow) crooked /krokid/ adj 1 not straight or even: That picture is crooked. o crooked teeth

معقوف ، ملتوِ ، غير مستقيم

2 (informal) not honest: a crooked accountant غیر اُمین ، غشاش

- ? Crop /krpp/ noun 1 [C] all the grain, fruit, vegetables, etc. that grow or are collected at one time or place: a crop of apples o Another year of crop failure would mean starvation for many people.
 - غلّة ، محصول 2 [C, usually pl.] plants that are grown on farms for food: Rice and soya beans are the main crops here.
 - 3 [sing.] a number of people or things which have appeared at the same time: the recent crop of movies about aliens
 - ► crop verb (cropping; cropped) 1 [T] to cut sth very short: cropped hair
 - 2 [I] to produce a crop (1) يغلُ. ينتج PHRV crop up to appear suddenly, when you are not expecting it: Some problems have cropped up that we weren't expecting.

cropper /'krppə(r)/ noun

DM come a cropper (informal) 1 to fall over

2 to fail; to have an accident يخفق ؛ يصاب بحادث

- croquet /ˈkrəokeɪ; US krəoˈkeɪ/ noun [U] a game that you play on grass. When you play croquet you use wooden sticks (mallets) to hit balls through metal arches (hoops).
- ? Cross¹ /kros; US kros/ noun 1 [C] a mark that you make by drawing one line across another (e.g. x). The sign is used for showing the position of sth, for showing that sth is not correct, etc: The cross on the map shows where our house is. Incorrect answers were marked with a cross.

صليب، إشارة الضرب أو الجمع

- 2 (also the Cross) [sing.] the two pieces of wood in the shape of a cross on which people were killed as a punishment in former times: Christ's death on the cross
- 3 [C] something in the shape of the cross (2) that is used as a symbol of the Christian religion: She wore a gold cross round her neck. The priest made the sign of the cross (= by moving his right hand in front of his face and chest in the shape of a cross). Look at crucifix.

- 4 [C, usually sing.] a cross (between A and B) something (especially a plant or an animal) that is a mixture of two different types of thing: a fruit which is a cross between a peach and an apple
- 5 [C] (formal) something that makes you unhappy or worried or that makes your life more difficult: We all have our own cross to bear.
- Cross²/krps; US krps; verb 1 [I,T] cross (over) (from sth/to sth) to go from one side of sth to the other: to cross the road o You can't cross here, there's too much traffic. o Where did you cross the border?
 - 2 [I] (used about lines, roads, etc.) to pass across each other: The two roads cross just north of the village. (figurative) Our letters crossed in the post.
 - 3 [T] to put sth across or over sth else: to cross your arms
 - 4 [T] cross yourself to make the sign of a cross in front of your face and chest as a symbol of the Christian religion يصلّب، يرسم علامة الصليب
 - 5 [T] to refuse to do what sb wants you to do; to oppose sb: He's an important man. It could be dangerous to cross him.
 - 6 [T] cross sth with sth to produce a new type of plant or animal by mixing two different types: If you cross a horse with a donkey you get a mile.

cross your fingers to hope that things will happen in the way that you want; to wish for good luck: There's nothing more we can do now – just cross our fingers and hope for the best.

يتنى له النجاح ، يدعو له بالخير.

If a person says they are 'crossing their fingers' or 'keeping their fingers crossed' it doesn't mean that they are really doing this with their hands. It means that they are wishing somebody luck or hoping very much that gomething good will happen.

cross sth out to draw a line through sth that you have written because you have made a mistake, etc: to cross out a spelling mistake

Cross /kros; US kross/ adj cross (with sb) (about sth) (informal) angry or annoyed: I was really cross with her for leaving me with all the work. • What are you so cross about? @ Cross is less formal than angry.

crossly adv: 'Be quiet,' Dad said crossly.
 بغضب، بانزعاج

crossbar /ˈkrɒsbɑ:(r); US krɔ:s-/ noun [C] 1 the piece of wood over the top of a goal in football, etc.

2 the metal bar that joins the front and back of a bicycle قضيب مستعرض cross-'country adj, adv across fields, etc.; not using main roads: a cross-country run عبر الريف cross-e'xamine verb [T] to ask sb a lot of questions (e.g. in a court) in order to find out the truth about sth: to cross-examine a witness in a court of law cross-eyed /ˈkros aid; US ˈkrɔːs-/ adj having one or both your eyes looking towards your nose crossfire /'krosfarə(r); US 'kro:s-/ noun [U] situation in which guns are being fired from two or more different directions: The journalist was killed in crossfire. o (figurative) When my parents argued, I sometimes got caught in the crossfire.

(تبادل) اطلاق النار crossing /'krosn; US 'kross-/ noun [C] 1 a journey across water: a rough sea crossing

، حلة بحرياً

- 2 a place where roads or railway lines cross each other: a level crossing (= where a road crosses a railway line)
- 3 a place where you can cross over sth: to cross the road at a pedestrian crossing o a border crossing

cross-legged /ˌkrɒs ˈlegd; ˈlegd; US ˌkrɔːs-/ adj, adv sitting on the floor with your legs pulled up in front of you and with one leg or foot over the other: to sit cross-legged واضعاً رجلاً على رجل: متصالب السالين

cross 'purposes noun

at cross purposes in a state of confusion and misunderstanding between people who are talking about different things but think they are talking about the same thing: I think we've been talking at cross purposes. You mean next Saturday but I'm talking about this one.

,cross-'reference noun [C] a note in a book, etc. that tells you to look in another place in the book for more information

إحالة ، إشارة إلى جزء آخر من الكتاب

crossroads /ˈkrɒsrəudz; US ˈkrɒ:s-/ noun [C] (pl. crossroads) a place where two or more roads cross each other: When you come to the next crossroads turn right.

cross 'section noun [C] 1 a picture of what the inside of sth would look like if you cut through it: a diagram of a cross-section of the human brain

2 a group of people that are typical of a larger crosswalk → cruelty

group: a representative cross-section of society وgroup: a representative cross-section of crosswalk /'kroswo:k; US 'kro:s-/ noun [C] (US) = PEDESTRIAN CROSSING

crossword /'kroswa:d; US 'kro:s-/ (also 'crossword puzzle) noun [C] a word game with black and white squares where you write the words in the white squares, either across or down. The correct words are the answers to special questions (clues): to do a crossword crotch /krptʃ/ (also crutch) noun [C] the place where a person's legs, or trouser legs, join at the top "تقطة التفاء الساقين في الأعلى؛ "السرج"

(أححية) الكلمات المتقاطعة

crouch /kraut∫/ verb [I] to bend down so that your body is close to the ground and leaning forward slightly: The cat crouched in front of the hole waiting for the mouse to appear. ∘ He crouched down behind the sofa.

CFOW¹ /krəʊ/ noun [C] a large black bird that makes a loud noise

DM as the crow flies (used for describing distances) in a straight line: It's a kilometre as the crow flies but three kilometres by road.

Crow² /krəʊ/ verb [I] 1 to make a loud noise, such as a male chicken (a cock) makes, e.g. early in the morning

 ${f 2}$ (informal) to speak very proudly about sth; to boast crowbar /ˈkrəʊbɑː(r)/ noun [C] a long iron bar that is used for forcing sth open

RCFOWd¹/kraud/noun 1 [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a large number of people in one place: The crowd was/were extremely noisy. • A large crowd gathered to hear the President speak. • He pushed his way through the crowd. • There were crowds of people waiting outside the cinema.

2 the crowd [sing.] most people: to follow the crowd (= to do what everybody else does)

الناس، الأغلبيّة و group of المسترحة المستركة ا

3 [C, with sing. or pl. verb] (informal) a group of people who know each other: John, Linda and Barry will be there – all the usual crowd.

crowd² /kraud/ verb 1 [1] crowd around/ round (sb) (used about a lot of people) to come together in one place: Fans crowded round the singer hoping to get his autograph.

2 [T] (used about a lot of people) to fill an area: Groups of tourists crowded the main streets. پحشد، بملا المكان

EMEV crowd into sth; crowd in to go into a small place and make it very full: Somehow we all crowded into their small living room. ينشر crowd sb/sth into sth; crowd sb/sth in to put a lot of people into a small place: Ten prisoners were crowded into one small cell.

► crowded adj full of people: The town was crowded with Christmas shoppers. o a crowded bus

Crown¹ /kraon/ noun 1 [C] a round ornament made of gold and jewels, that a king or queen wears on the head on official occasions ϵ^{L}

2 the Crown [sing.] the state as represented by a king or queen: an area of land belonging to the Crown

3 [sing.] the top of your head or of a hat

قمة الرأس قمة ، ذروة

4 [sing.] the top of a hill

crown²/kraon/verb [T] 1 to put a crown on the head of a new king or queen in an official ceremony: Elizabeth was crowned in 1952. (figurative) the newly crowned British champion

2 crown sth (with sth) (formal) to cover the top of sth: The mountain was crowned with snow.

3 to be a good or successful end to sth: years of hard work that were finally crowned with success (بكثل (بالنجاح)

To crown it all to be the last in a number of lucky or unlucky events: She failed her exam, her boyfriend left her and to crown it all her handbag was stolen.

rowning adj (only before a noun) the best or most important: Winning the World Championship was the crowning moment of her career:

(مُعَمُ الْمِنْ (لَحَقَّا) الْمِنْ (لَقَعْلَ) crown 'prince (feminine ,crown prin'cess) noun [C] the person who has the right to become the next king or queen

[crucial /ˈkruːʃl/ adj crucial (to/for sth) very important: Early diagnosis of the illness is crucial for successful treatment.

هام جلدا: حاسم

► crucially /-[əli/ adv: a crucially important decision, meeting, etc.

crucifix /'kru:səfiks/ noun [C] a small model of a cross with a figure of Jesus on it

تمثال المسيح المصلوب crucifixion /,kru:sə'fikʃn/ noun [C,U] the act of crucifying sb: the Crucifixion of Christ crucify /'kru:sifat/ verb [T] (pres part crucifying; 3rd pers sing pres crucifies; pt, pp crucified) to kill sb by nailing or tying him/her to a cross crude /kruːd/ adj 1 in its natural state: crude oil

2 done or made in a simple way; not skilful: The method was crude but very effective. غير متقن ، بدائي ، بسيط

3 rude, talking or acting in a way that would offend many people: He's always telling crude jokes.

بصورة غير متقنة ؛ بفظاظة

▶ crudely adv

rcruel /kru:əl/ adj (crueller; cruellest) causing physical or mental pain or suffering to sb/sth; unkind: Ithink it's cruel to keep animals in cages.

o cruel words o Life can be cruel. o a cruel punishment

► cruelly /'kru:əli/ adv

cruelty /'kru:əlti/ noun (pl. cruelties) 1 [U] cruelty (to sb/sth) cruel behaviour: cruelty to children معاملة قاسية . إيذاء

2 [C, usually pl.] a cruel act: the cruelties of war عمل وحشى cruise /kru:z/ verb [I] 1 to travel by boat, visiting a number of places, as a holiday: to cruise around the Caribbean

2 to travel by car, plane, etc. staying at the same speed: cruising at 70 miles an hour

السيارة مثلاً) تسير بسرعة ثابتة • cruise noun [C] a holiday in which you travel on a ship and visit a number of different places: After they retired they went on a world cruise.

تطواف أو جولة بحريّة cruiser /ˈkruːzə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a large warship

2 (also 'cabin cruiser) a motor boat which has room for people to sleep on it

قارب للرحلات صالح للسكني

çrumb /krʌm/ noun [C] a very small piece of bread, cake or biscuit (فنبز مثلا) crumble /ˈkrambl/ verb [1,T] crumble (sth) (into/to sth); crumble (sth) (up) (to cause sth) to break into very small pieces: The walls of the church are beginning to crumble. • We crumbled up the bread and threw it to the birds. • (figurative) Support for the government is beginning to crumble.

Crummy /ˈkrʌmi/ adj (crummier; crummiest) (informal) bad or unpleasant: a crummy little backstreet hotel crumpet /ˈkrʌmpɪt/ noun [C] (Brit) a flat round type of small cake with holes in the top that you eat hot with butter on it كمكة طريّة تشبه القطابف

crumple /ˈkrʌmpl/ verb [I,T] crumple (sth) (into sth); crumple (sth) (up) (to cause sth) to be folded or pressed in an untidy or irregular way: The front of the car crumpled when it hit the wall. o to crumple a piece of paper into a ball بيحفد، "يكرمش": "ينكرمش":

crunch /krantf/ verb 1 [I,T] crunch sth (up) to make a loud noise when you are eating sth hard to crunch an apple/a carrot

"يقرقش" ، يجرش الطعام في فمه

2 [I] to make a loud noise like the sound of sth being walked on and crushed: We crunched through the snow. • The snow made a crunching noise under our feet.

Forume noun [sing.] an act or noise of crunching: There was a loud crunch as he sat on the box of eggs.

الكل if/when it comes to the crunch if/when you are in a difficult situation and must make a difficult decision: If it comes to the crunch, I'll stay and fight.

عندما بجد الجدا في المحقة الحاسة والمحققة الحاسة المحققة المحققة الحاسة المحققة الحاسة المحققة الحاسة المحققة الم crunchy adj (crunchier; crunchiest) hard and crisp, so that it makes a noise when you eat it or step on it: a crunchy apple

(تفّاح مثلاً) مكتنز يقرقش تحت الأسنان crusade /kru:'seid/ noun [C] 1 a fight for sth that you believe to be good or against sth that you believe to be bad; a crusade against drugs

2 Crusade one of the wars that European Christians fought with Muslims in the Middle Ages

► crusader noun [C] a person who takes part in a crusade

$\textbf{Crush}^1 \kras\formal{f} \verb [T] 1 to press sb/sth hard so that he/she/it is broken, damaged or injured:
Don't pack the cakes at the bottom of the box or they'll get crushed. ○ to be crushed to death

تمعتىء بهرسي

2 crush sth (up) to break sth hard into very small pieces or a powder: First crush the garlic and fry in olive oil.

3 to defeat sb/sth completely: The army was sent in to crush the rebellion.

► crushing adj (only before a noun) that defeats sb/sth completely or upsets sb/sth a lot: a crushing defeat o a crushing blow to the country's economy

crush² /krʌʃ/ noun 1 [sing.] a large group of people in a small space: There was such a crush that I couldn't get near the bar.

2 [C] a crush (on sb) (informal) a strong feeling of love and admiration for sb that does not usually last for a long time: to have a crush on your teacher crust /krʌst/ noun [C,U] 1 the hard part on the outside of a loaf of bread, pie, etc: I cut the crusts off the bread.

2 [C] a hard layer on the outside of sth: the Earth's crust crusty /ˈkrʌsti/ adj (crustier; crustiest) 1 having a hard crust (1): crusty bread

2 (informal) bad-tempered and impatient: a crusty old professor سين الخلق ، سريع الغضب crutch /kratʃ/ noun [C] 1 a type of stick that you put under your arm to help you walk when you have hurt your leg or foot: to be on crutches (= to walk using crutches)

2 = CROTCH

Crux /kraks/ noun [sing.] the most important or difficult part of a problem: Now we come to the crux of the problem.

$ Cry¹ /krai/ verb (pres part crying; 3rd pers sing pres cries; pt, pp cried) 1 [i] to make a noise and produce tears in your eyes, e.g. because you are unhappy or have hurt yourself: The baby never stops crying. ○ The child was crying for (= because she wanted) her mother. ○ to cry yourself to sleep ○ They were crying with cold and hunger.

2 [I,T] cry (out) to shout or make a loud noise: Look,' he cried, 'There they are.' o to cry out in pain.

EMEV cry out for sth to need sth very much:

London is crying out for a new transport system.

بكون بأمس الحاجة إلى

?cry² /krai/ noun (pl. cries) 1 [C] a shout or loud noise: the cries of the children in the playground

- o the cry of a seagull o a cry of pain, fear, joy, etc.
- 2 [sing.] an act of crying 1 (1): After a good cry I felt much better.
- IDM a far cry from sth/from doing sth → FAR1
- crying /ˈkraɪɪn/ adj (only before a noun) very great (usually used when talking about a bad situation, etc.): There's a crying need for more doctors. It's a crying shame that so many young people can't find jobs.
- crypt /kript/ noun [C] a room that is under a church, where dead people are sometimes buried سرداب تحت كنيسة
- cryptic /ˈkrɪptɪk/ adj having a hidden meaning that is not easy to understand; mysterious: a cryptic message, remark, etc.
- crystal /ˈkrɪstl/ noun 1 [U] a transparent rock or mineral
- 2 [U] very high-quality glass: a crystal vase زجاج کریستال
- 3 [C] a regular shape that some mineral substances form when they are solid: salt crystals
- crystal 'ball noun [C] a glass ball in which some people believe you can see what is going to happen in the future

 كرة بأورية لرفية الطالع
- crystal 'clear adj very easy to understand: The meaning is crystal clear. غاية في الوضوح
- cub/kʌb/ noun [C] 1 a young fox, bear, lion, tiger or wolf
- 2 the Cubs (US the Cub Scouts) [plural] the part of the Boy Scout organization that is for younger boys الجرامين، الكشافة الصغار السنّ
- cube /kju:b/ noun [C] 1 a solid shape that has six equal square sides
- 2 the number that you get if you multiply a number by itself twice: The cube of 5 (5^3) is 125 (= 5x5x5).
- ► cube verb [T] (usually passive) to multiply a number by itself twice: Four cubed (4³) is 64 (= 4 x 4 x 4).
- cubic /ˈkjuːbɪk/ adj (abbr cu.) if a box is 2m long, 2m wide and 2m high, its volume is 8 cubic metres
- cubicle /ˈkjuːbɪkl/ noun [C] a small separate section of a larger room, e.g. for changing in at a swimming pool or trying on clothes in a shop مقصورة أو حجيرة مفصولة عن بقية الغرفة
- cuckoo /ˈkokuː/ noun [C] a bird which makes a sound like its name and which lays its eggs in another bird's nest
- cucumber /'kju:kʌmbə(r)/ noun [C,U] a long, thin vegetable with a dark green skin and a soft white inside that is often used in salads
- cuddle /'kʌdl/ verb [I.T] to hold (sb/sth/each other) closely in your arms as a sign of love: She cuddled her baby until he fell asleep.

- LIEV cuddle up (to/against sb/sth); cuddle up (together) to move close to sb and sit or lie comfortably: She cuddled up to her mother on the sofa. \circ They cuddled up together for warmth.
- cue¹ /kju:/ noun [C] 1 a word or gesture that is the signal for sb else to say or do sth, especially in a play: When Julia puts the tray on the table, that's your cue to come on stage.
 - إشارة خاصة ليبدأ (الممثل) دوره
- 2 an example of how to behave: I wasn't sure how to behave at a Japanese wedding, so I took my cue from my hosts.
- المصلة (right) on cue at exactly the moment expected في اللحظة المناسبة
- cue² /kju:/ noun [C] a long, thin wooden stick, used to hit the ball in games like snooker and billiards
- cuff' /kʌf/ noun [C] the end part of a sleeve, which often fastens at the wrist اسوارة أو طرف الكم

 DM off the cuff (used about a remark, etc.) without previous thought or preparation:
 I haven't got the figures here, but, off the cuff, I'd say the rise is about 10%.
- cuff² /kʌf/ verb [T] to hit sth (especially sb's head) lightly with your open hand
- cuisine /kwı'zı:n/ noun [U] a style of cooking:

 Italian cuisine ♠ A less formal word is cooking.

 ing.
- cul-de-sac /'kʌl də sæk/ noun [C] (pl. cul-de-sacs) a street that is closed at one end طریق غیر نافذ
- culinary /ˈkʌlɪnəri; US -neri/ adj connected with cooking
- cull /kʌl/ verb [T] 1 to reduce the size of a group of animals such as deer, by killing its weakest members يقلّل من عدد القطيع بقتل الضعيف منه
 - 2 to gather or select information, ideas, etc., from different sources
- culminate /ˈkʌlmɪneɪt/ verb [I] (formal) culminate in sth to reach a final result or high point: The team's efforts culminated in victory in the championships.
- ► culmination / kalmr'netsn/ noun sing. The joint space mission was the culmination of years of research.
- culottes /kju:'lots/ noun [plural] women's wide shorts that look like a skirt: a pair of culottes "الكولوت": مزيج من بنطلون قصير وتنورة
- culpable /ˈkʌlpəbl/ adj (formal) guilty; deserving blame
- culprit /ˈkʌlprɪt/ noun [C] a person who has done sth wrong
- cult /kalt/ noun [C] 1 a type of religion or religious group, especially one that is considered un-دين ؛ طائفة دينية usual

2 a person or thing that has become popular with a particular group of people: His books have become a cult among young people.

وضع إعجاب جمهور معين cultivate /'kaltiveit/ verb [T] 1 to prepare and use land for growing crops: to cultivate the soil

- 2 to grow crops: Olives have been cultivated for centuries in Mediterranean countries. يزرع
- 3 to try hard to develop sth: He cultivated links with colleagues abroad. ينمى، يطور
- 4 to try to form a friendship with sb who could be useful to you يسعى لمصادقة شخص للاستفأدة منه
- ▶ cultivated adj 1 well educated, with good
- 2 (used about land) used for growing plants for food or to sell
- 3 (used about plants) grown on a farm not يشذب الأشجار والنباتات cultivation / kaltr'versn/ noun [U]
- cultural /'kaltsərəl/ adj 1 connected with the customs, ideas, art, etc. of a society: cultural identities o The country's cultural diversity is a result of taking in immigrants from all over the world. ثقافي ، حضاري
 - 2 connected with art, music, literature, etc: The city has a rich cultural life, with many theatres, ثقافي concert halls and art galleries.
 - من الوجهة الحضاريّة ؛ ثقافيّاً ► culturally /-rəli/ adv
- ! Culture /'kaltfə(r)/ noun 1 [C,U] the customs. ideas, civilization, etc. of a particular society or group of people: the language and culture of the Aztecs o The international conference aims to bring together people from many different cultures حضارة
 - 2 [U] achievement in or understanding of art, literature, ideas, etc: London has always been a centre of culture. o a man/woman of culture Z 41 71
 - 3 [U] the growing of plants or the keeping of certain types of animals
 - ▶ cultured adj well-educated, showing a good knowledge of the arts, etc: a cultured manner, مثقّف ؛ مهذَّب ؛ مطَّلع على الفنون والآداب mind, person, etc.
- 'culture shock noun [U] a feeling of confusion, etc. that you may experience when you go to a country that is very different from your own صدمة حضارية cum /knm/ prep (used for linking two nouns) also used as; as well as: a bedroom-cum-study مع ، إضافة إلى كونه

- cumbersome /'kambəsəm/ adj 1 heavy and difficult to carry, use, wear, etc.
- 2 (used about a system, etc.) slow; too complicated to be efficient: Collection of the new tax proved cumbersome. معقد وبطيء cumin /'kamin/ noun [U] a plant whose seeds are 2 cure1 /kjuə(r)/ verb [T] 1 cure sb (of sth) to used as a spice in cooking

- cumulative /'kju:mjələtiv; US -leitiv/ adj increasing steadily in amount, degree, etc: a cumu-تراكمي ، متزايد
- cunning /'kanin/ adj clever, especially at deceiving people: a cunning liar o a cunning ماکر ، شاطر
- ▶ cunning noun [U] cunning behaviour

cunningly adv

مكر ، دهاء بمكر وذكاء ، بدهاء

- Cup¹ /kAp/ noun [C] 1 a small deep container with a round base and usually a handle, used for drinking liquids: a cup and saucer o a teacup o a cup of coffee فنجان ، كوب
 - 2 (in sport) a large metal cup given as a prize; the competition for such a cup: Our team won the cup in the basketball tournament. o Is Scotland in the World Cup? كأس (البطولة مثلاً)
 - 3 an object shaped like a cup: an egg cup وعاء يشبه الفنجان
 - IDM (not) sb's cup of tea not what sb likes or is interested in: Horror films aren't my cup of ماً يوافّق مزاّج المرء ، هوى
 - CUP²/kap/verb (cupping; cupped) [T] to form sth, especially your hands, into the shape of a cup; to hold sth with your hands shaped like a cup: I cupped my hands to take a drink from the stream. o to cup your chin in your hands يجعله على شكل كوب ؛ يضمّ بين كفّيه
- Cupboard /'kabəd/ noun [C] a piece of furniture, usually with shelves inside and a door or doors at the front, used for storing food, clothes, etc: a kitchen cupboard o built-in cupboards خزانة ، دولاب
 - curable /'kjuərəbl/ adj that can be cured: a curable disease 6 The opposite is incurable. قابل للشفاء
- curate /'kjuərət/ noun [C] a priest of the lowest rank in the Church of England, who helps the vicar of a church district (parish)
 - قسّ ، مساعد الخوري
- curator /kjuə'reɪtə(r)/ noun [C] a person whose job is to look after the things that are kept in a museum, art gallery, etc. أمين (المكتبة) ، قيم
- Curb /k3:b/ noun [C] 1 a curb (on sth) something that controls or puts a limit on sth else: a curb on local government spending
 - 2 (especially US) = KERB
 - ▶ curb verb [T] to control or set a limit on sth: The law aims to curb pollution of rivers.
- curd /ka:d/ noun [U] (also curds [plural]) a thick soft substance formed when milk turns sour. used in making cheese: curds and whey
 - مخثّر اللبن: روبة
- curdle /'k3:dl/verb [I,T] to turn sour or to separate into different parts; to make something do this: (figurative) The scream made her blood curdle (= made her very frightened). 3 Look at blood-curdling ىتخثر ؛ بخثر make sb healthy again: The treatment cured him of cancer. o The doctors couldn't cure her.

- 2 to make an illness, injury, etc. end or disappear: It is still not possible to cure the common cold. (figurative) The plumber cured the problem with the central heating.
- 3 to make certain types of food last longer by drying, smoking or salting them: cured meat يحفظ الطعام بالتقديد أو التمليح وغيره
- Cure² /kjvə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a medicine or treatment that can cure an illness, etc: There is no known cure for AIDS.
 - 2 a return to good health; the process of being cured: The new drug brought about a miraculous cure.
- curfew /ˈkɜːfjuː/ noun [C] a time after which people are not allowed to go outside their homes, e.g. during a war: *The government imposed a cur*few.
- curiosity /kjoəri'ɒsəti/ noun [C,U] (pl. curiosites) 1 [U] a desire to know or learn: I was full of curiosity about their plans. Out of curiosity, he opened her letter.
- 2 [C] an unusual and interesting person or thing: The museum was full of historical curiosities.
- Curious /ˈkjʊəriəs/ adj 1 eager to know or learn as much as you can: He was curious to know how the machine worked.
 - 2 too interested in other people's affairs: Don't be so curious it's got nothing to do with you.
 - 3 unusual or strange: As I was walking home, a curious thing happened.
 - ► curiously adv: Curiously enough, we discovered that we had exactly the same name.
 من العجيب؛ بفضول
- ? Curl¹ /k3:1/ noun [C] 1 a piece of hair that curves round: Her hair fell in curls round her face.
 - خصلة شعر ملتفة 2 a thing that has a curved round shape: a curl شيء ملتو ، عكفة
- Let Complete Personal Property (k3:1) verb 1 [I,T] to form or to make sth form into a curl or curls: Does your hair curl naturally? The pages had curled with age. He curled his lip and laughed scornfully.
 - يتجفد، يلتوي ؛ يلفُ 2 [I] to move round in a curve: The snake curled around his arm.
 - EHRY curl up to pull your arms, legs and head close to your body: I like to curl up on the couch and watch TV. The animal curled up into a ball to protect itself.
 - ► curler noun [C] a small plastic or metal tube that you wrap hair around in order to make it curly
 - currant /'kʌrənt/ noun [C] 1 a very small dried grape used to make cakes, etc.

- 2 (often in compounds) one of several types of small soft fruit: blackcurrants
- Currency /ˈkʌrənsi/ noun (pl. currencies) 1 [C,U] the system or type of money that a particular country uses: The currency of Argentina is the austral. o foreign currency o a weak, strong, stable, etc. currency
- 2 [U] the state of being believed, accepted or used by many people: The new ideas soon gained currency.
- Current¹ /'kʌrənt/ adj 1 of the present time; happening now: current fashions o current events
 - 2 generally accepted; in common use: Is this word still current?
 - currently adv at present: He is currently working in Spain.
- Pcurrent²/karənt/noun 1 [C] a continuous flowing movement of water, air, etc: to swim against/with the current o You shouldn't swim in the river.
 There are dangerous currents. o (figurative) a current of anti-government feeling
 - 2 [U] the flow of electricity through a wire, etc: Turn on the current.
- 'current account (US checking account) noun [C] a bank account from which you can take out money with a cheque book or cash card
- current affairs noun [plural] important political or social events that are happening at the present time
- curriculum /kəˈrɪkjələm/ noun [C] (pl. curriculums or curricula /-lə/) all the subjects that are taught in a school, college or university; the contents of a particular course of study: Latin is not on the curriculum at our school. o The curriculum for foreign languages emphasizes communication skills.
- curriculum vitae /kə,rıkjələm 'viːtaɪ/ (abbr CV) (US also résumé) noun [sing.] a short account of your education and work experience, often used when you are applying for a new job
- CURTY /ˈkʌri/ noun [C,U] (pl. curries) a hot-tasting dish of meat, vegetables, etc. usually served with rice: some Indian vegetable curry o a hot/mild curry
- curried adj made into a curry: curried chicken "الكري" الكري"
- 'curry powder noun [U] a fine mixture of strongly flavoured substances (spices) that is used to make curry بهارات "الكري"
- curse¹/ks:s/noun [C] 1 a word used for expressing anger; a swear word
- 2 a word or words expressing the wish that sth terrible will happen to sb: The witch put a curse on him. The family seemed to be under a curse (= lots of bad things happened to them).
- 3 something that causes great harm: the curse of drug addiction

- curse² /ks:s/ verb 1 [I,T] to swear at sb/sth; to use rude language to express your anger: He dropped the box, cursed, and began to pick up the contents. o They cursed the traffic, realizing they would be late. ىلغى، يىن
- 2 [T] to use a curse1(2) against sb/sth: She cursed his family. يستنزل اللعنة على
- CUTSOT /'ks:sə(r)/ noun [C] a small sign on a computer screen that you can move to indicate a particular position المؤشر على شاشة الكمبيوتر
- cursory /'ks:səri/ adj quick and brief; done in a hurry: a cursory glance سريع خاطف، عابر؛ متعجّل
- curt /ks:t/ adj short and not polite: She gave him a curt reply and slammed the phone down.
- ▶ curtly adv بجفاء، بشيء من الحدة اقتضاب ، حفاء الرد curtness noun [U]
- curtail /ks:'teil/ verb [T] to make sth shorter or smaller; to reduce بقصر ؛ يقلص
- سير ، تقليص ؛ قطع curtailment noun [C,U] Curtain /ks:tn/ noun [C] 1 (US also drape) a
- piece of material that you can move sideways to cover a window, etc: Could you draw the curtains, please? o lace curtains o The curtain goes up at 7pm (= in a theatre, the play begins). ستارة
 - 2 a thing that covers or hides sth: a curtain of ستار ، حجاب ؛ غطاء mist
 - PHRY curtain sth off to divide a room, etc. with a curtain: The bed was curtained off from the rest of the room. يفصل شيئاً بستار ، يجزّي (الغرفة) بالستر
- CUrtsy (also curtsey) /'ks:tsi/ noun [C] (pl. curtsies or curtseys) a movement made by a woman as a sign of respect, done by bending the knees, with one foot behind the other تحناءة احترام (تقوم بها النساء)
- ▶ curtsy (also curtsey) verb (pres part curtsying or curtseying; 3rd pers sing pres curtsies or curtseys; pt, pp curtsied or curtseyed) [I] to تنحني احترامأ make a curtsy
- Curve /ks:v/ noun [C] a line that bends round: a curve on a graph خط منحن متعطف
 - curve verb [I,T] to bend or to make sth bend in a curve: The bay curved round to the south. o a ينحني ، يتقوس ؛ يحني أو يقوس
- cushion /'koʃn/ noun [C] 1 a bag filled with soft "Cut" /kʌt/ verb (pres part cutting; pt, pp cut) 1 material, e.g. feathers, which you put on a chair, etc. to make it more comfortable: She sat back in the armchair with a cushion behind her head. 6 A وسادة ، مخدّة cushion on a bed is a pillow.
- 2 something that acts or is shaped like a cush-ميثرة: مخدة واقية ion: a cushion of air
- ▶ cushion verb [T] 1 to make a blow, etc. less painful: The snow cushioned his fall. بخفف شدة الصدمة
- 2 to reduce the unpleasant effect of sth: She spent her childhood on a farm, cushioned from the يقي ، يلطف ، يخفّف الوطأة effects of the war.
- cushy /'kuʃi/ adj (cushier; cushiest) (informal) too easy, requiring little effort (to a degree that seems unfair to others): a cushy job هين لين
- custard /'kasted/ noun [U] a sweet yellow sauce

- made from milk and cornflour and eaten hot or cold: apple pie and custard
- custodian /ka'stəvdiən/ noun [C] (formal) a person who looks after sth, especially a museum,
- custody /'kastadi/ noun [U] 1 the legal right or duty to take care of sb/sth: After the divorce, the mother was given custody of the children.
- 2 the state of being guarded, or kept in prison temporarily, especially by the police: The man was arrested and kept in custody until his trial. اعتقال ، حجز
- Custom /'kastəm/ noun 1 [C,U] a way of behaving which a particular group or society has had for a long time: It's the custom in Britain for a bride to throw her bouquet to the wedding guests. o according to local custom 2 Look at the note at habit. عادة ، عرف ، تقليد
 - 2 [C] something that a person regularly does: They were walking through the park, as was their custom, when a large dog attacked them.
 - 3 [U] trade; the practice of people buying things regularly from a particular shop, etc: The local shop lost a lot of custom when the new supermar-زبانة ، تعامل مع متجر معين ket opened.
- customary /'kastəməri; US -meri/ adj according to custom; usual: Is it customary to tip hair-معتاد ، متعارف عليه dressers in your country?
- customarily /'kʌstəmərəli; US ˌkʌstə'merəli/
- Customer /'kastəmə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person who buys goods or services: a regular customer The shop assistant was serving a customer.
 - 2 (informal) (after certain adjectives) a person: a tough, awkward, odd, etc. customer
 - شخص (غريب، شاذ الخ)
- Customs (also the Customs) /'kAstəmz/ noun [plural] the place at an airport, etc. where government officials check your luggage to see whether you are bringing goods into the country illegally: We went straight through customs with nothing to declare. o a customs officer
- [I,T] to make an opening, wound or mark in sth using a sharp tool, e.g. a pair of scissors or a knife: I cut my finger with a vegetable knife. o Be careful not to cut yourself on that broken glass! o This knife doesn't cut very well. يجرح ايقطع
 - 2 [T] to remove sth or a part of sth, using a knife, etc: She cut two slices of bread (from the loaf).
 - 3 [T] cut sth (in/into sth) to divide sth into pieces with a knife, etc: She cut the cake into يقطع ، يقسم eight (pieces). O He cut the rope in two.
 - 4 [T] to make sth shorter by using scissors, etc: I cut my own hair. o to have your hair cut (= at the hairdressers). o to cut the grass
 - 5 [T] to make or form sth by removing material with a sharp tool: She cut a hole in the card and cut → cwt. 194

pushed the string through. o They cut a path يثقب، يحفر ؛ يفتح (طريقاً) through the jungle.

6 [T] to reduce sth or make it shorter; to remove sth: to cut taxes o Train services have been cut because of the strike. O Several violent scenes in the film were cut. يقلُل، يخفض؛ يحذف

7 [T] (computing) to remove a piece of text from the screen: Use the cut and paste buttons to change the order of the paragraphs.

DM cut sth/sb short → SHORT2

PHRY cut across sth to go beyond the limits of: The question of aid for the earthquake victims cuts across national boundaries.

cut across, along, through, etc. (sth) to go across, etc. sth, in order to shorten your journey: It's much quicker if we cut across the field.

يسلك طريقاً مختصراً cut sth back; cut back (on sth) to reduce sth: to cut back on public spending يقلّل، ينقص cut sth down 1 to make sth fall down by يقطع (شجرة) cutting it: to cut down a tree

2 to shorten sth: I have to cut my essay down to 2 000 words. يختصر، يقصّر cut sth down; cut down (on sth) to reduce the quantity or amount of sth; to do sth less often: You should cut down on fatty foods.

يخفف من ، يقلُل cut in (on sb/sth); cut into sth to interrupt sb/ يقاطع (ألحديث) sth: to cut into a conversation cut sb off (often passive) to stop or interrupt sb's telephone conversation: We were cut off before I could give her my message.

يقطع الاتصال التليفوني cut sb/sth off (often passive) to stop the supply of sth to sb: If you don't pay your gas bill they'll cut you off. o The electricity has been cut off.

cut sth off to block a road, etc. so that nothing can pass: We must cut off all possible escape يسدّ ، يقطع routes cut sb/sth off (from sb/sth) (often passive) to prevent sb/sth from moving from a place or contacting people outside: The farm was cut off from the village by heavy snow. يقطع، يعزل cut sth open to open sth by cutting: She fell and cut her head open. cut sth out 1 to remove sth or to form sth into a particular shape by cutting: to cut out a dress from a piece of cloth يفصل: يفصّل (ثوباً مثلاً)

2 to leave sth out: Cut out the boring details!

3 (informal) (often in orders) to stop saying or doing sth, usually sth annoying: Cut that out and leave me alone! يتوقف عن

4 (informal) to stop doing or using sth: You'll only lose weight if you cut out sweet things from يلغى، يتركُّ

cut sth out (of sth) to remove sth from sth larger by cutting: He cut the job advertisement out of the newspaper. يقص ، يقتطع be cut out for sth; be cut out to be sth to have the qualities to be able to do sth; to be suitable for sth/sb: You're not cut out to be a soldier. o David and Janet are cut out for each يصلح لـ : ينامّ cut sth up to cut sth into small pieces with a

Rcut2 /kat/ noun [C] 1 a wound or opening made with a knife, etc: He had a deep cut on his fore-

2 an act of cutting: to have a cut and blow-dry (= at a hairdresser's)

3 a cut (in sth) a reduction in size, amount, etc: a cut in government spending o a power cut (= when the electric current is cut off temporar-تخفيض ، تقليل ؛ قطع

4 a piece of meat from a particular part of an animal

5 (informal) a share, especially in profits حصّة (من الأرباح) cutback /'katbæk/ noun [C] a reduction in amount or number: The management were forced to make cutbacks in staff. تخفيض، تقليص، تقليل cute /kju:t/adj (especially US) attractive; pretty: Your little girl is so cute! ○ a cute smile

محبّب ، حذّاب

cuticle /'kju:trkl/ noun [C] the piece of hard skin at the base of a nail on a person's finger or toe جليدة تغطي منبت الظفر cutlery /'katləri/ noun [U] the knives, forks and spoons that you use for eating food: Where do you keep your cutlery? Look at crockery.

السكاكين والملاءق والشوكات cutlet /'kʌtlət/ noun [C] a small, thick piece of meat, e.g. lamb, often with bone in it, that is fried شريحة من لحم الضُلوع or grilled

'cut-off noun [C] the level at which sth stops: The cut-off date is 12 May. After that we'll end the آخر موعد (للطلبات) ؛ الحد الأقصى cut-'price (US cut-rate) adj sold at a reduced price; selling goods at low prices: cut-price offers o a cut-price store (سعر) مخفّض cutter /'kAtə(r)/ noun [C] (also cutters [plural]) a tool that you use for cutting through sth, e.g. metal: a pair of wire-cutters cut-throat /'kutprout/ adj caring only about success and not worried about hurting anybody: قاس لا يرحم ، عنيف cut-throat business practices

cutting¹ /'kAtm/ noun [C] 1 (US clipping) a piece cut out from a newspaper, etc: press cut-قصاصة من جريدة

2 a piece cut off from a plant that you use for growing a new plant فسيلة أو "فسخ" من نبات cutting² /'kʌtɪŋ/ adj 1 (used about sth you say) unkind; meant to hurt sb's feelings: a cutting re-

2 (of the wind, etc.) cold, strong and unpleas-قارص ، لاذع

CV / si: 'vi:/ abbrev = curriculum vitae

cwt. abbrev = HUNDREDWEIGHT

195 cyanide /ˈsaɪənaɪd/ noun [U] a poisonous chemical cyberspace /ˈsaɪbəspeɪs/ noun [U] a place that is not real, where electronic messages exist while they are being sent from one computer to another

Cycle /'saɪkl/ noun [C] 1 a series of events, etc. that happen repeatedly in the same order: the life cycle of a frog

2 a bicycle or motorcycle: a cycle shop دراجة ► cycle verb [I] to ride a bicycle: He usually cycles to school. 6 Go cycling is a common way of talking about cycling for pleasure: We like to go cycling at weekends. حريك دراجة (cyclist /saɪklıst/ noun [C] a person who rides a cyclist /'saiklist/ noun [C] a person who rides a bicycle cyclic /ˈsaɪklɪk; ˈsik-/ (also cyclical /ˈsaɪklɪk]; 'sik-/) adj following a repeated pattern cyclone /'saiklaon/ noun [C] a violent wind that moves in a circle causing a storm → Look at the note at storm.

cygnet /'sɪgnət/ noun [C] a young swan

فرخ التّم (البجع)

cylinder /'sɪlɪndə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a shape or an object with circular ends and straight sides

سطوأنة

2 a cylinder-shaped part of an engine, e.g. in a car: a five-cylinder engine اسطوانه ، "سلندر"

► cylindrical /sə'lındrıkl/ adi having the shape cylindrical /səˈlɪndrikl/ adj having the shape of a cylinder cymbal /'simbl/ noun [C, usually pl.] one of a pair of round metal plates used as a musical instrument. Cymbals make a loud ringing sound when you strike them together or hit them with a stick.

cynic /'sɪnɪk/ noun [C] a person who believes that people only do things for selfish reasons: Don't be such a cynic. He did it to help us, not for the money.

المستخف بنوايا الآخرين ، المتهكم cynical /'smrkl/ adj: She takes a cynical view of politics. o a cynical remark مستخف بنوایا الآخرین ، تهکمي

بصورة تهكميَّة الاستخفاف بالدنيا : cynically /-kli/ adv cynicism /'smisizəm/ noun [U] الشك بوجود الخير

cypress /'saɪprəs/ noun [C] a tall straight tree of the kind that does not lose its leaves in winter (an evergreen)

Cyrillic /sı'rılık/ adj the Cyrillic alphabet is used in languages such as Russian (الأبجدية) السيريليّة

cyst /sɪst/ noun [C] a swelling filled with liquid in the body or under the skin (حاب العبر العب)

D_d

D, d /di:/ noun [C] (pl. Ds; D's; d's) the fourth letter of the English alphabet: 'David' begins with (a) 'D'.
الحرف الرابع من الأبجدية الإنكليزية

 $\mathbf{d.} abbrev = DIED$

dab /dæb/ verb (dabbing; dabbed) [I,T] to touch sth lightly, usually several times: He dabbed the cut with some cotton wool.

LEV dab sth on/off (sth) to put sth on or to remove sth with a light stroke or strokes: to dab some antiseptic on a wound

► dab noun [C] 1 a light touch: She gave her eyes a dab with a handkerchief.

2 a small quantity of sth that is put on a surface: a dab of paint, perfume, etc. "قليل من . "نقطة dabble /ˈdæbl/ verb 1 [T] to put your hands, feet, etc. in water and move them around: We sat on the bank and dabbled our toes in the river.

يُطْبُصُ أُو "بِيلِطِ" فِي الماء

2 [I] to become involved in sth in a manner that is not very serious: to dabble in politics

dachshund /ˈdækshnd; US ˈdɑ:kshvnd/ noun [C] a small dog with a long body and short legs کلب صغیر قصیر القوائم

t dad /dæd/ noun [C] (informal) father: Is that your dad?⊙ Come on, Dad!

daddy /ˈdædi/ noun (pl. daddies) (informal) (used by children) father: I want my daddy! • Give daddy a kiss.

daffodil /ˈdæfədɪl/ noun [C] a tall yellow flower that grows from a bulb in the spring نرجس بري أو كانب daft /dɑ:ft; US dæft/ adj (informal) silly; foolish: Don't be daft. o a daft idea dagger /ˈdægə(r)/ noun [C] a type of knife with a point and two sharp edges used as a weapon, especially in former times: He plunged a dagger into her heart.

و daily /ˈdeɪli/ adj, adv done, made or happening every day: Our airline flies to Japan daily. ○ a daily routine, delivery, newspaper, etc.

> daily noun [C] (pl. dailies) a newspaper that is published every day except Sunday dainty /'demti/ adj (daintier; daintiest) small or delicate and pretty: a dainty lace handkerchief

رقيق ، لطيف ، أنيق معتدم طينية

► daintily adv: She walked daintily, with graceful little steps.

dairy /'deəri/ noun [C] (pl. dairies) 1 a place on a farm where milk is kept and butter, cheese, etc. are made

2 a shop which sells milk, butter, eggs, etc., or a dairy cattle → danger company that supplies shops with these products with the products مخزن بيع الألبان

'dairy cattle noun [U] cows which are kept for their milk, not their meat

'dairy farm noun [C] a farm that produces mainly milk and milk products

'dairy products noun [plural] food made from milk, such as butter, cheese, etc.

daisy /'deɪzi/ noun [C] (pl. daisies) a small white flower with a yellow centre, which usually grows wild on grass dale /deɪl/ noun [C] a valley, especially in Northern England (واد (في شمال انكلترة خاصة) dalmatian /dæl'meɪʃn/ noun [C] a large dog with short white hair marked with dark spots dam/dæm/ noun [C] a wall built across a river to hold back the water and form a lake (reservoir) behind it

▶ dam verb [T]

بنی سدآ

- R damage /ˈdæmɪdʒ/ noun 1 [U] damage (to sth) harm or injury caused when sth is broken or spoiled: The earthquake caused widespread damage o It will take weeks to repair the damage done by the vandals. o The arms scandal did considerable damage to relations between the two countries.
 - 2 damages [plural] money that you can claim from sb if he/she damages sth of yours or hurts you تعويض ماليّ، عطل وضَرَد
 - ▶ damage verb [T] to spoil or harm sth, e.g. by breaking it: The roof was damaged by the storm.

 ${f damaging} \; adj \; {f having} \; {f a} \; {f bad} \; {f or} \; {f harmful} \; {f effect}$ فيار، مؤذ dame /deɪm/ noun [C] 1 Dame (Brit) a title given to a woman as an honour because of sth special that she has done: Dame Ellen Mac-Arthur

2 (US old-fashioned informal) a woman

damn¹/dæm/verb [T] 1 (informal) (used for expressing anger or annoyance): Damn that stupid driver! • Damn! I've left my money behind.

2 to describe sth as very bad: The film was damned by all the critics.

3 (used about God) to send sb to hell

يغلّده في الجميم the damned noun [plural] the people who suffer in hell: The film was called 'The Journey of the Damned'.

damning adj very unfavourable; extremely critical: There was a damning article about the book in the newspaper: عنيف بانتقاده ، مليء باللم

damn2 /dæm/ noun

informal) not care at all: I don't give a damn what he thinks about me. پيتم أبداً

▶ damn adj (only before a noun) (informal) (used for expressing anger or annoyance): Some damn fool has parked too close to me.

(تستعمل للتعبير عن الغضب أو الانزعاج): لعين damn adv (informal) (used for emphasizing that sth is good or bad) very: Don't be so damn silly! • Read it! It's a damn good book.

- Leamp damp adj a little wet: The grass is a bit damp. Sit on the rug. The house had been empty and felt rather damp.
 - ► damp noun [U] the state of being a little wet, especially in the air or in a house: She hated the damp and the cold of the English climate. We inspected the walls for signs of damp. ② Look at the note at wet.
 - damp² /dæmp/ verb [T] damp sth (down) to make sth less strong or urgent: He tried to damp down their expectations in case they failed.

بخفّف ، بخمد ؛ بشّط الهمّة

- dampen /ˈdæmpən/ verb [T] 1 dampen sth (down) to make sth less strong or urgent: Even the awful weather did not dampen their enthusiasm for the trip.
- 2 to make sth a little wet: He dampened his hair to try to stop it sticking up. يبلُّ، يندي
- damson /ˈdæmzn/ noun [C] a small dark purple fruit; a type of plum نوع من البرقوق/الخوخ/الاجاص
- R dance¹ /da:ns; US dæns/ noun 1 [C] a series of steps and movements which you do to music: What sort of dance is this? A waltz? • Would you like a dance?
 - 2 [C] a social meeting at which people dance with each other: There's usually a dance at the end of term.
 - 3 [U] dancing as a form of art or entertainment: She's very interested in modern dance. دقص
- Rdance² /da:ns; US dæns/ verb 1 [I,T] to move around to the rhythm of music by making a series of steps: I can't dance very well. o to dance the waltz
 - 2 [I] to move in a lively way, usually up and down: She was dancing up and down with excitement.

 "يقفز (فرحاً)." "يتنطط"
 - ► dancer noun [C] a person who dances, often as a job: a ballet dancer o She's a good dancer. راقص أو راقصة dancing noun [U] moving to music: Will there be dancing at the party? ♦ Look at ballet.

dandelion /'dændılarən/ noun [C] a small wild plant with a bright yellow flower

هندب، بریه ، طرحمهفون ۲۰۰۰ - داند السامه

dandruff /ˈdændrʌf/ noun [U] small pieces of dead skin in the hair, that look like white dust قشرة الرأس ، هبرية

فسره الراس ، هبریه

- R danger /ˈdeɪndʒə(r)/ noun 1 [U] the chance that sb/sth may be hurt, killed or damaged or that sth unpleasant may happen: Danger! Steep hill! o As a fighter pilot, he had to face danger daily. o The men kept on running until they thought they were out of danger.
 - 2 [C] a danger (to sb/sth) a person or thing that can cause injury, pain or damage: Careless drivers are a danger to everyone on the road.

- R dangerous /'demd3ərəs/ adj likely to cause injury or damage: a dangerous animal, road, illness, etc. o The strong currents in the sea here are extremely dangerous for swimmers.
 - ► dangerously adv: He was standing dangerously close to the cliff edge.
 - dangle /ˈdæŋgl/ verb [I,T] to hang or swing freely; to hold sth so that it hangs in this way: She sat on the fence with her legs dangling. The police dangled a rope from the bridge and the man grabbed it.
 - dank /dænk/ adj damp, cold and unpleasant: a dank cave
- Rdare¹ /deə(r)/ verb (usually in negative sentences) to be brave enough to do sth: I daren't ask her to lend me any more money. We were so frightened that we didn't dare go into the room.
 The government dared not increase taxes again that year. If you dare say that again, I'll hit you!
 - The negative is dare not (usually daren't /deent/) or do not/does not (= don't/doesn't) dare. In the past tense it is did not (didn't) dare, or (formal) dared not. Dare is usually followed by an infinitive without 'to': Nobody dared (to) speak.
 - don't you dare (used for telling sb very strongly not to do sth): Don't you dare tell my parents about this.
 - how dare you (used when you are angry about sth that sb has done): How dare you speak to me like that!
 - I dare say I suppose: 'I think you should accept the offer.' 'I dare say you're right.'
- (dare²/deo(r)/verb [T] to try to persuade sb to do sth in order to prove how brave he/she is: Can you jump off that wall? Go on, I dare you! He dared his friend to put a worm on the teacher's desk.
- dare³ /deə(r)/ noun [C, usually sing.] something you do because sb asks you to, to prove how brave you are: 'Why did you try to swim across the river?' 'For a dare.'
- daredevil /ˈdeədevl/ noun [C] a person who is willing to take risks, often foolishly شخص متهور
- daring /'deərɪn/ adj willing to take risks or to do or say things which other people might not; brave; bold: a daring attack
- Adark¹/daːk/ noun [sing.] the dark the state of having no light: He's afraid of the dark. o Why are you sitting alone in the dark?

 القلام القلام القلام القلام القلام القلام القلام القلام before/after dark before/after the sun goes down

 قبل أو بعد غياب الشمس (be/keep sb) in the dark (about sth) (be/keep sb) in a position of not knowing (about sth): Don't keep me in the dark. Tell me!
- 1 dark2 /da:k/ adj 1 with no light or very little light: It was a dark night, with no moon

بظلی معتب

- 2 (used about a colour) nearer black than white; not light: dark blue
- 3 (used about a person) having brown or black skin or hair; not fair: She was small and dark with brown eyes.
- 4 (only before a noun) sad; without hope: the dark days leading up to the start of the war كتيب، يائس
- 5 (only before a noun) mysterious or slightly threatening: He seemed friendly, but there was a dark side to his character: غامض، غريب وريّما شرير

 | DM | keep | it/sth | dark (from | sb) | to | keep | sth | secret
- b darkness noun [U] the state of being dark: We sat in complete darkness, waiting for the lights to come back on.
- darken /ˈdɑːkən/ verb [I,T] to become or to make sth darker: The sky suddenly darkened and it looked like rain.
- dark 'glasses noun [plural] = SUNGLASSES
- darkroom /'da:kru:m; -rom/ noun [C] a room that can be made completely dark so that film can be taken out of a camera and photographs can be produced there
- darling /'da:lɪŋ/ noun [C] a person or thing that you like or love: Hello darling! How lovely to see you. He's so kind. He's an absolute darling!
- darn /dɑ:n/ verb [I,T] to mend a hole (in clothes) by sewing across it in one direction and then in the other
- dart¹ /da:t/ noun 1 [C] an object like a small arrow. It is thrown or shot as a weapon or in a game: They first tranquillize the tiger with a special dart.
 - 2 darts [U] a game in which you throw darts at a round board with numbers on it (a dartboard): Darts is a popular game in English pubs. لمبة رمى سهام مشيرة على هلك.
- dart² /da:t/ verb [1,T] to move suddenly and quickly in a certain direction; to make sth move in this way: A rabbit darted across the field. She darted an angry glance at me (= suddenly glanced angrily).
- dash¹ /dæʃ/ noun 1 [sing.] a sudden, quick forward movement: We made a dash for the bus and just got on.
- 2 [C, usually sing.] a small amount of sth that you add to sth else: a dash of lemon juice

لمل من ، ", شّة"

- 3 [C] a small horizontal line (-) used in writing, especially for adding extra information ♦ Look at hyphen.
- dash² /dæʃ/ verb 1 [I] to go or run suddenly and quickly: We all dashed for shelter when it started to rain
- 2 [I,T] to hit sth with great force; to throw sth so that it hits sth else very hard: The waves dashed

dashboard → day against the harbour wall. \circ She dashed her racket to the ground. \circ (figurative) The accident dashed his hopes of becoming a pianist.

ورهم بریحمم PHRV dash sth off to write or draw sth very quickly

- dashboard /ˈdæˌfbɔːd/ noun [C] the part in a car in front of the driver where most of the switches, etc. are لوحة العدادات (في السيارة)
- ر data /'dertə; 'de:tə (US also) 'dætə/ noun [U, plura] facts or information: to gather data o The data is/are still being analysed. O How much data can we store on one disk? (= on a computer).

Data was originally the plural form of a Latin noun, but it is now often used as an uncountable noun: The data we have is not very interesting.

database /'dettabers (US also) 'dæta-/ noun [C] a large amount of data that is stored in a computer and can easily be used, added to, etc.

قاعدة المعلومات أو البيانات

- Rdate¹ /dert/ noun 1 [C] a particular day of the month or of the year: What's the date today? o What date is it today? o What's your date of birth?
 - 2 [sing.] a particular time: We can discuss this at a later date.
 - 3 [C] an appointment to meet sb, especially a boyfriend or girlfriend: Shall we make a date to have lunch together? o I've got a date with Tom on Friday night.
 - 4 [C] (especially US) a boyfriend or girlfriend: Who's your date is it Sarah?

صاحب أو صاحبة (بالمعنى الغرامي) out of date 1 unfashionable; no longer useful: out-of-date methods, machinery, etc.

قديم المهاد، "موضة" قديمة

2 no longer able to be used: I must renew my passport. It's out of date.

to date (formal) until now: We've had very few complaints to date.

up to date 1 modern: The new kitchen will be up to date 1 modern: The new kitchen will be right up to date, with all the latest gadgets.

auty. عصري حاليت with all the latest information; having done everything that you should have done: In this report we'll bring you up to date with the latest news from the area. • Are you up to date with your homework?

مطَّلع على آخر المعلومات؛ مكملاً لواجباته في حينها

date² /dent/ verb 1 [T] to discover or guess how old sth is: The skeleton has been dated at about 3000 BC.

- 2 [T] to write the day's date on sth: The letter is not dated so we can't tell when it was written.
- 3 [I,T] to seem, or to make sb/sth seem, unfashionable: We chose a simple style so that it wouldn't date as quickly.
- 4 [I,T] (especially US informal) to meet a girlfriend or boyfriend regularly

يواعد فتى أو فتاة بصورة منتظمة 5 [I] date from.../back to... to have existed since...: The house dates back to the seventeenth century.

b dated adj unfashionable: This sort of jacket looks rather dated now. موضة" قليمة، قليم الطراز

date³ /dert/ noun [C] a small, sweet, dark brown fruit that comes from a tree which grows in hot countries

Radaughter /ˈdɔːtə(r)/ noun [C] a female child:

I have two sons and one daughter. • Janet's daughter is a doctor.

'daughter-in-law noun [C] (pl. daughters-inlaw) the wife of your son daunt /domt/ verb [T] (usually passive) to frighten or to worry sb by being too big or difficult: I was rather daunted by the sudden responsibility.

► daunting adj: A daunting journey lay ahead.

dawdle /'dɔ:dl/ verb [I] to be slow or to move slowly; to waste time: Stop dawdling! We're waiting for you!

dawn¹ /do:n/ noun 1 [C,U] the early morning, when light first appears in the sky: a beautiful winter's dawn, still and cold o before/at dawn

فجر ، سحر

2 [sing.] the beginning: the dawn of civilization مطلع بزوخ

IDM the crack of dawn → CRACK1

dawn² /dɔ:n/ verb [I] 1 to begin to grow light, after the night: The day dawned bright and cold. o (figurative) A new era of peace is dawning.

ينبثق (الفجر) ؛ يبزغ ، يبدأ

- 2 dawn (on sb) to become clear (to sb): Suddenly it dawned on her. 'Of course!' she said. 'You're Mike's brother!'
- Cday /dei/ noun 1 [C] a period of 24 hours, of which seven make up a week: 'What day is it today?' 'Tuesday.' \circ We went to Italy for ten days.

 I saw that film a few days ago. \circ There's a meeting in two days' time. \circ The next day was Saturday. \circ the day before \circ the following day \circ New Year's Day
 - 2 [C,U] the time between sunrise and sunset:
 The days were warm but the nights were freezing.

 o Have a good day! See you tonight. o It's been raining all day. 2 Look at daily.
 - 3 [C] the hours of the day when you work: She's expected to work a seven-hour day.

عدد ساعات العمل

4 [C] (also days) a particular period of time: in Shakespeare's day o in the days of Shakespeare o In the old days, most houses had an outside toilet

IDM break of day → BREAK²

by day/night during the day/night. These animals sleep by day and hunt by night. اثناء النهار call it a day → CALL²

يؤرخ (رسالة)

the day after tomorrow not tomorrow, but the next day the day before yesterday not yesterday, but the day before day by day every day; as time passes: Day by day, she was getting a little bit stronger.

يوماً بعديوم ؛ كل يوم day in, day out every day, without any change: He sits at his desk working, day in, day out.

كلّ يوم دون انقطاع from day to day; from one day to the next within a short period of time: Things change so auickly that we never know what will happen from one day to the next. بين عشية وضحاها make sb's day (informal) to make sb very happy

one day; some day at some time in the future: Some day we'll go back and see all our old يوماً ما friends.

the other day a few days ago; recently: I bumped into him in town the other day.

منذ أيّام ، من مدّة قصيرة

the present day → PRESENT1

these days in the present age; nowadays: More and more couples are getting divorced these في هذه الأيام days.

daybreak /'derbrerk/ noun [U] the time in the early morning when light first appears: at daybreak نجر ، انبلاج الصبح daydream /'deidri:m/ noun [C] thoughts that are not connected with what you are doing; often pleasant scenes in your imagination: The child stared out of the window, lost in a daydream.

▶ 'daydream verb [I]

يشرد فكره ، يستفرق في أحلام اليقظة daylight /'derlart/ noun [U] the light that there is during the day: The colours look quite different in daylight, o daylight hours

IDM broad daylight → BROAD day off noun [C] a day on which you do not go to work: Wednesday's my day off next week.

يوم عطلة من العمل

day re'turn noun [C] (Brit) a train or bus ticket which is cheaper than normal. You have to go somewhere and come back on the same day

تذكرة ذهاب واياب يومية

daytime /'dertaim/ noun [U] the time between sunrise and sunset: These flowers open in the daytime and close up again at night.

daze /detz/ verb [T] (usually passive) to make sb يُذهل: يدوخ unable to think clearly ▶ daze noun.

في حالة ذهول IDM in a daze in a confused state dazed /deizd/ adj confused; not showing normal reactions: He had a dazed expression on his مذهول ، مبهوت dazzle /'dæzl/ verb [T] (usually passive) 1 (used about a bright light) to make sh unable to see clearly: She was dazzled by the other car's headlights. يخطف أو يبهر (الأبصار) 2 to impress sb very much: He had been dazzled by her beauty.

ightharpoonup dazzling adj very bright or impressive: adazzling light o a dazzling performance

مبهر للبصر ؛ (نجاح) باهر

deacon /'di:kən/ (feminine deaconess) noun [C] an official who has a rank below a priest, in some Christian churches شماس (في الكنيسة)

?dead /ded/ adj 1 no longer alive: They rushed him to hospital, but he was dead on arrival. o There's a dead spider in the bath.

2 (not before a noun) no longer able to feel anything (used about a part of the body): My fingers had gone dead with the cold.

خُدر ، فاقد الإحساس

3 (not before a noun) no longer working properly (used about a piece of equipment): I picked up the telephone but the line was dead.

4 (only before a noun) complete: There was dead silence when she finished speaking. شامل ، مطبق

5 without movement, activity or interest: This town is completely dead after 11 o'clock at میّت ، راکد

6 no longer used; over and finished: Latin is a dead language. O We've made our decision so the subject is now dead. بائد، ميت ؛ منته

a dead end 1 a street that is only open at one end طريق مسدود

2 a point, situation, etc. from which you can make no further progress: a dead-end job (= one that offers no chance of promotion)

(وظيفة) لا مجال فيها للترفيع

drop dead → DROP1

▶ dead adv completely, exactly or very: The sign said 'Dead slow!' o He's dead keen to start تماماً ، كلياً : بالضبط work.

the dead noun [plural] people who have died: A church service was held in memory of the dead.

IDM in the/at dead of night in the middle of the night, when it is very dark and quiet في هدأة الليل deaden /'dedn/ verb [T] to make sth less strong, painful, etc: They gave her drugs to try and deaden the pain.

dead 'heat noun [C] the result in a race when two people finish at exactly the same time: The تعادل في السباق race was a dead heat.

deadline /'dedlam/ noun [C] a time or date before which sth must be done: A journalist is used to having to meet deadlines.

آخر موعد (لتقديم الطلبات مثلاً) deadlock /'dedlok/ noun [U] a situation in which an agreement between two sides cannot be reached فشل التوصل إلى إتّفاق deadly /'dedli/ adj (deadlier; deadliest) 1 causing or likely to cause death: a deadly poison ميت ، قاتل ، زعاف

2 very great: They're deadly enemies.

(عدو) لدود ؛ شديد

3 (informal) very boring

مملّ جداً ، لا حياة فيه

deadpan → death penalty

 deadly adv extremely; very: I'm not joking -للغاية ، حداً I'm deadly serious!

deadpan /'dedpæn/ adj without any expression on your face or in your voice: He told the joke with (وجه) خالِ من أي تعبير a completely deadpan face.

? deaf /def/ adj 1 unable to hear anything or unable to hear very well: You'll have to speak louder. My father's a bit deaf. أصم ، أطرش

2 deaf to sth not wanting to listen to sth: I've told her what I think but she's deaf to my غيّر راغب فيّ الإصغاء

▶ the deaf noun [plural] deaf people: sign lan-الطرش ، الصمّ guage for the deaf deafness noun [U] the state of being deaf

deafen /'defn/verb [T] (usually passive) to make sb unable to hear by making a very loud noise: We were deafened by the loud music and conversa-يصمّ الآدان tion was impossible. عال جداً ، يم deafening adj very loud

R deal di:1 noun

IDM a good/great deal (of sth) a lot (of sth): I've spent a great deal of time on this report. مقدار كبير ، كمّية كبيرة

? deal² /di:l/ verb [I,T] (pt, pp dealt /delt/) 1 deal sth (out); deal sth (to sb) to give cards to players in a game of cards: Start by dealing seven بوزَع أوراق اللعب على اللاعبين cards to each player.

2 [I, T] (informal) to buy and sell illegal drugs ببيع أو يتاجر بالمخدرات

IDM deal sb/sth a blow; deal a blow to sb/ sth 1 to hit sb/sth يضرب، يسلدله ضربة

2 to give sb a shock, etc: This news dealt a terrible blow to my father.

PHRV deal in sth to buy and sell sth; to trade in يتاجرب sth: He deals in second-hand cars. deal sth out to give sth to a number of people: The profits will be dealt out among us.

يقسم ، يوزع deal with sb to behave towards sb; to handle sb: He's a difficult man. Nobody quite knows how to يعامل ، يتعامل مع deal with him.

deal with sth 1 to act in a suitable way in order to solve a problem, complete a task, etc.; to situation at work. o My secretary will deal with my correspondence while I'm away.

يعالج (المشكلة) ؛ يدبّر

2 to have sth as its subject: This chapter deals with letter-writing.

? deal3 /di:1/ noun [C] an agreement or arrangement, especially in business: It was part of the deal that they would deliver by May. o We've done/made a deal with an Italian company. o a fair deal ○ a bad deal

IDM a big deal/no big deal → BIG dealer /'di:lo(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person whose business is buying and selling things: a dealer in gold and silver o a drug dealer

2 the person who gives the cards to the players من يوزع أوراق اللعب in a game of cards dealing /'di:lin/ noun 1 [U] buying and selling: تجارة ، بيع وشراء drug dealing

2 dealings [plural] relations, especially in business: We had some dealings with that firm several تعامل ، علاقات تجارية years ago.

dealt pt, pp of DEAL2 dean /dim/ noun [C] 1 an important official at some universities or colleges

2 a priest who is head of a large church or responsible for a number of small churches رئيس كنسي ذو مرتبة عالية

? dear /dia(r)/adj 1 (used at the beginning of a letter before the name or title of the person you are writing to): Dear Sarah, ... o Dear Sir or Madam, عزيزي/عزيزتي

2 (only before a noun) a word that is used with 'little' or 'old' to express your liking for sb/sth: Dear old Jane! She always remembers to write at العزيز أو العزيزة (تقال تحبباً) Christmas.

3 dear (to sb) loved by or important to sb: She's one of my dearest friends. o It was a subject that was very dear to him.

4 (Brit) expensive: How can people afford to smoke when cigarettes are so dear?

▶ dear adv at a high price: Always buy cheap and sell dear, if possible!

dear noun [C] 1 a kind, gentle person: She's a kind old lady - an absolute dear.

شخص لطيف محبوب

2 (used for speaking to sb you know well or يا عزيزي ?(love): Would you like a cup of tea, dear dear interi (used for expressing disappointment, sadness, surprise, etc.): Oh dear! I've spilt the tea. Dear me! Aren't you ready?

(صيحة تعبّر عن خيبة الأمل أو الدهشة الخ) dearly adv 1 very much: He loves her dearly. (حباً) جمّاً ؛ كثيراً o I'd dearly like to go there again. 2 (formal) at great cost: I've already paid dearly dearth /ds:0/ noun [sing.] a lack of sth; not enough of sth: There's a dearth of young people in قلَّة ، ندرة ؛ جدب the village.

(= suffered a lot) for that mistake. (يدفع الثمن) غالياً ، (يعاني) كثيراً

handle sth: I'm not sure how to deal with the \ center death /deθ/ noun 1 [C,U] the end of sb/sth's life; dying: He continued to write until his death. There were two deaths and many other people were injured. o Most people are afraid of death. o The police do not know the cause of death. o There was no food and people were starving to death.

2 [U] the end (of sth): the death of communism نهابة put sb to death (usually passive) to kill sb, usually as a punishment: The general had, ordered the prisoners to be put to death. sick to death of sb/sth → SICK sudden death → SUDDEN deathly /'de0li/ adj, adv like death: There was a شبيه بالموت : (صمت) مطبق deathly silence.

'death penalty noun [sing.] the punishment of عقوبة الإعدام being killed

- 'death toll noun [C] the number of people killed in a disaster, war, etc.
- debase /dr'beis/ verb [T] (usually passive) (formal) to reduce the quality or value of sth يخفّض قيمة (العملة): يحطُ من قدره
- debatable /dɪ'beɪtəbl/ adj not certain; some thing that you could argue about
 - غير مؤكّد ؛ قابل للأخذ والردّ
- R debate /dr'bert/ noun 1 [C] a formal argument or discussion of a question at a public meeting or in Parliament. At the end there may be a vote: a debate in Parliament on educational reform
 - 2 [C,U] a discussion; talk expressing different opinions: There's been a lot of debate about the cause of acid rain.
 - ▶ debate verb 1 [I,T] to discuss sth in a formal way or at a public debate
 - 2 [T] to think about or discuss sth before deciding what to do: They debated whether to go or not.
 - debit /'debit / noun [C] a sum of money paid out of a bank account; a written note of this
 - له ملغ مدين أو مسحوب: الإشعار بهذا العبلغ مدين أو مسحوب: الإشعار بهذا العبلغ babit verb [T] to take a sum of money out of a bank account, etc. usually as a payment; to record this: The bank hasn't debited my account with the money I paid for the car yet. ◆ Look at credit and direct debit.
 - يأخذ مبلغاً من رصيده ؛ يقيد عليه الدين
- 'debit card noun [C] a plastic card that can be used to take money directly from your bank account when you pay for sth
- debris /'debri:; US də'bri:/ noun [U] pieces from sth that has crashed to the ground or been destroyed: debris from the crashed plane
- Ç debt /det/ noun 1 [C] a sum of money that you owe sb: She borrowed a lot of money and she's still paying off the debt.
 - 2 [U] the state of owing money: After he lost his job, he got into debt.
 - 3 [C, usually sing.] (formal) something that you owe sb, e.g. because they have helped or been kind to you: In his speech he acknowledged his debt to his family and friends for their support.
 - المديونية: كُون الإنسان مَديناً السلام الله be in/out of debt to owe/not owe money be in sb's debt (formal) to feel grateful to sb for sth that he/she has done for you

 - debtor /'detə(r)/ noun [C] a person who owes money
 - debut (also début) /'derbju:; US dı'bju:/ noun [C] a first appearance in public of an actor, etc: She made her debut in London in 1959. أوَلُ ظهور على المسرح أو في المجتمع
 - Dec. abbrev = December
- و decade /'dekeid; di'keid/ noun [C] a period of ten years
 - decadence /'dekadans/ noun [U] behaviour, at-

- titudes, etc. that show a fall in standards, especially moral ones
- decadent /'dekədənt/ adj: a decadent society
- decaffeinated /،di:ˈkæfmeɪtɪd/ adj (used about coffee or tea) with most or all of the caffeine removed مزال منه مادّة الكافيين
- decapitate /dɪˈkæpɪteɪt/ verb [T] (formal) to cut off a person's head
- Recay /dı'keı/ verb [I] 1 to become bad or fall apart: The old farm buildings had been left to decay. the decaying body of a dead sheep Children's teeth will decay if they eat too many sweets.
 - 2 to become weaker or less efficient: The Roman Empire had by then begun to decay. منحط بنهار

 ▶ decay noun [U] the process of decaying, or the state reached after decaying: It is better to prevent tooth decay than to treat it. Many of the old houses had fallen into decay.
 - تسوّس، بليّ، تفسيّخ : انهيار مسوس، نُخر: متفسخ : انهيار
 - decease /dr'si:s/ noun [U] (formal) the death of a person
 - » deceased adj (formal) dead: He inherited the house from his deceased parents.
 - the deceased noun [sing.] (formal) a person who has died, especially one who has died recently: Many friends of the deceased were present at the funeral.
 - deceit /dr'si:t/ noun [U] dishonest behaviour; trying to make sb believe sth that is not true خداء، تفلیل، غش
 - ► deceitful /dr'sixtfl/ adj dishonest, and intending to make sb believe sth that is not true
 - خلّاع ، مَشَلَّل ، غشّاش طى نحو مضلّل ، بصورة كاذبة طeceitfulness noun [U]
 - deceive /dr'si:v/ verb [T] deceive sb/yourself (into doing sth) to try to make sb believe sth that is not true: He deceived his mother into believing that he had earned the money, not stolen it.
 - Her story didn't deceive me I knew it was a lie.
 You're deceiving yourself if you think there's an easy solution to the problem.
 ⊕ The noun is deception or deceit.
- ر December /dı'sembə(r)/ noun [C,U] (abbr Dec.) the twelfth month of the year, coming before January ⊕ For examples of the use of the months in sentences, look at January.
- decency /ˈdiːsnsi/ noun [U] moral or correct behaviour: She had the decency to admit that it was her fault.
- decent /'di:snt/ adj 1 satisfactory; of an acceptable standard: All she wants is a decent job with decent wages.
- 2 (used about people or behaviour) honest and respectable: All decent people are appalled by such terrible crimes.
- 3 not likely to embarrass or offend sb: I can't come to the door, I'm not decent (= I'm not

لائق، ، محد

deception → decompose dressed). Of The opposite is indecent مرتد ملابسه decently adv

deception /dr'sepsn/ noun [C,U] deceiving or being deceived; a trick: He had obtained the secret خداع ، تضليل ؛ خدعة أو حيلة papers by deception.

deceptive /dr'scptrv/ adj likely to give a false impression or to make sb believe sth that is not true: The water is deceptive. It's much deeper than مضلّل، خداء

▶ deceptively adv: She made the task sound بصورة مضلّلة deceptively easy.

decibel /'desibel/ noun [C] a measurement of how loud a sound is وحدة قياس شدة الصوت

- ? decide /dr said/ verb 1 [I,T] to think about two or more possibilities and choose one of them: There are so many to choose from - I can't decide! o She decided against borrowing the money. o They decided on a name for the baby. o He decided that it was too late to go. o You'll have to decide what to do. o We've decided not to invite Isabel. o The date hasn't been decided yet.
 - يىت : يقرر : يختار 2 [T] to influence sth so that it produces a particular result: Your votes will decide the يفصل، يحسم، يقرر winner.
 - 3 [T] to cause sb to make a decision: What finally decided you to leave? 6 The noun is decision. The adjective is decisive.
 - يجعله يقرر ، يحمله على ▶ decided adj clear; definite: There has been a decided improvement in his work.

واضع ؛ مؤكّد ، جازم decidedly adv: The new office is decidedly better حتماً ، قطعاً ، دون ريب than the old one deciduous /di'sidʒuəs/ adj (used about a tree) of a type that loses its leaves every autumn (شجر) متساقط الأوراق ⇒ Look at evergreen.

decimal /'desiml/ adj based on or counted in units of ten: decimal currency

- ▶ decimal noun [C] part of a number, written after a dot (decimal point) and expressed in tenths, hundredths, etc: Three quarters expressed as a decimal is 0.75. كسر عشريً
- decipher /dr'sarfə(r)/ verb [T] to succeed in reading or understanding sth that is not clear: It's impossible to decipher his handwriting. يفك رموز (الشفرة) ، يتمكن من قراءة شيء غامض
- ? decision /dr'sr3n/ noun 1 [C,U] a decision (on/ about sth); a decision (to do sth); a decision (that...) a choice or judgement that you make after thinking about various possibilities: 'Have you made a decision yet?' 'No, I'm still thinking about it!' o I took the decision that I believed to be right, o I realize now that I made the wrong decision. O There were good reasons for his decision to leave. O Who made the decision that the school should be closed? o How you vote is a matter of personal decision. قرار
 - 2 [U] being able to decide clearly and quickly عزم ، تص

- decisive /dɪ'saɪsɪv/ adi 1 making sth certain or final: the decisive battle of the war
- 2 having the ability to make clear decisions quickly: It's no good hesitating. Be decisive.

▶ decisively adv decisiveness noun [U] بصورة جازمة

مقدرة على اتّخاذ قرارات حاس deck /dek/ noun [C] 1 one of the floors of a ship or bus: The restaurant is on the upper deck.

طابق في سفينة أو باصَّ

2 $(US) = PACK^{1}(4)$

3 a piece of equipment on which you can play حهاز للأسطوانات والأشرطة records or tapes DM on deck on the floor of a ship which is in the open air: I'm going out on deck for some fresh على ظهر السفينة deckchair /'dektseə(r)/ noun [C] a chair that you use outside, especially on the beach. You can fold it up and carry it.

كرسي قابل للطي للجلوس على الشاطي مثلاً

- declaration /,deklə'reifn/ noun 1 [C,U] a statement: In his speech he made a strong declaration of support for the rebels. o Fighting has started without declaration of war.
- 2 [C] a written statement giving information on goods or income on which you have to pay tax: If you're sending a parcel abroad, you have to fill in a customs declaration.
- Let declare /drklea(r)/ verb [T] 1 to announce or to make sth known, especially in an official or forceful way: to declare war on another country o The republic has declared its independence. o I declare that the winner of the award is Joan Taylor. o 'I've had enough of this,' she declared and walked out of the room.
 - 2 to give information about goods or income on which you have to pay tax: You must declare all your income on this form.
- ?decline1 /di'klain/ verb 1 [I,T] (formal) to refuse, usually politely: Thank you for the invitation but I'm afraid I have to decline. O The minister declined to make a statement.

يعتذر عن القبول ، يرفض بأدب

- 2 [I] to become weaker, smaller or less good: declining profits o The standard of education has declined in this country. ينحط ، ينحدر ؛ ينخفض
- ? decline² /dr'klam/ noun [C,U] (a) decline (in sth) a process or period of becoming weaker, smaller or less satisfactory: a decline in sales o As an industrial power, the country is in de-انحطاط ، انهيار ، هبوط decode / di:'kəud/ verb [T] to find the meaning of sth that is in code 1 The opposite is encode.

يفك رموز الشفرة

▶ decoder noun [C] a piece of equipment that allows you to receive satellite television channels for which you have to pay extra

(جهاز) فاكّ الرموز

decompose / di:kəm'pəuz/ verb [I,T] to decay or to make sth decay: The body was so badly decomposed that it couldn't be identified.

يتفسّخ ، يتحلّل ؛ يعفّن decor /'derkɔ:(r); US der'kɔ:r/ noun [U, sing.] the furniture and decoration in a place "ديكور": تزيين داخلي

- Recorate /'dekərent/ verb 1 [T] decorate sth (with sth) to add sth in order to make a thing more attractive to look at: Decorate the cake with cherries and nuts.
 - 2 [I,T] to put paint and/or wallpaper onto walls, ceilings and doors in a room or building: I think it's about time we decorated the living room.

 پيفن أو يطلي (البيت مثلاً)
- ? decoration /,dekə'rer∫n/ noun 1 [C.U] the decorating of a room or building with paint, wall-paper, etc.; the wallpaper, curtains, etc. that have been used in a room or building: The theatre has been renovated in the style of the original decoration. The house is in need of decoration.

طلاء وغيره ؛ التزيينات الداخلية

- 2 [C,U] something that is added to sth in order to make it look more attractive: Christmas decorations
- Ş decorative /'dekərətıv; US 'dekəretıv/ adj attractive to look at; added to sth to make it prettier: The cloth had a decorative lace edge.
- decoy /'di:kɔɪ/ noun [C] a person or object that is used to lead sb/sth in the wrong direction

شَرَك؛ تمويه

- Reference of drkriss/verb [I,T] to become or to make sth smaller or less: As the temperature decreases, the metal contracts. Profits have decreased by 15%. Decrease speed when you are approaching a road junction. ❸ The opposite is increase
 - نيخفض، بتناقص: يخفض ► decrease /ˈdiːkriːs/ noun [C,U] (a) decrease (in sth) a process of becoming or making sth smaller or less; a reduction: a decrease in the number of students ∘ a 10% decrease in sales اتخفاض: تضاول: تخفيض
- decree /dı'kri:/ noun [C] an official order given by a government, a ruler, etc.

 ▶ decree verb [T] (pt, pp decreed) (used about a government, a ruler, etc.) to give an official order order

- decrepit /dı'krepɪt/ adj old and in very bad condition هُرِم متهدُم الصحَّة ، عاجز لكبر سنَّه
- dedicate /ˈdedɪkert/ verb [T] 1 to give all your energy, time, efforts, etc. to sth: He dedicated his life to helping the poor: پکرس، ينذر
- 2 dedicate sth to sb to say that sth is in honour of sb: He dedicated the book he had written to his brother. اللولْف) يهدي كتابه إلى
- ▶ dedicated adj giving a lot of your energy, time, efforts, etc. to sth that you believe to be important: dedicated nurses and doctors dedication /,dedr'kerʃn/ noun 1 [U] being willing to give your time and energy to sth: I admire her dedication to her career.

تكريس (الوقت) ، إخلاص (للعمل)

- 2 [C] a message at the beginning of a book or before a piece of music is played, saying that it is for a particular person
- deduce /dr'dju:s/ verb [T] to form an opinion using the facts that you already know: From his name I deduced that he was Polish. The noun is deduction.
- deduct /dr'dʌkt/ verb [T] deduct sth (from sth) to take sth such as money or points away from a total amount: Income tax is deducted from your salary. Marks will be deducted for untidy work.
- deduction /dr'dak§n/ noun [C,U] 1 something that you work out from facts that you already know; the skill of reasoning in this way: It was a brilliant piece of deduction by the detective.

استنتاج ، استدلال

- 2 deduction (from sth) taking away an amount or number from a total; the amount or number taken away from the total: What is your total income after deductions? (= when tax, insurance, etc. are taken away).
- deed /di:d/ noun [C] (formal) something that you do; an action: Deeds are more important than words.
- deem /di:m/ verb [T] (formal) to consider sth: He did not even deem it necessary to apologize.

بعتبر،بری

- ? deep¹ /di:p/ adj 1 going a long way down from top to bottom: the deep end of a swimming pool o to dig a deep hole o That's a deep cut I think you'd better see a doctor. o a coat with deep pokest T The noun is depth.
 - 2 going a long way from front to back: deep shelves
 - 3 measuring a particular amount from top to bottom or from front to back: The water is only a metre deep at this end of the pool. o shelves 40 centimetres deep
 - 4 (used about sounds) low: a deep voice (صوت) خفيض
 - 5 (used about colours) dark; strong: a deep red غامق ، داکن
 - 6 strongly felt; serious: Please accept my deepest sympathy on this sad occasion. o The country is in a deep recession and there is massive unemployment.
 - 7 (used about a breath) taking in or letting out a lot of air: Take a few deep breaths.
 - 8 concentrating on or involved in sth: She was deep in thought. o deep sleep o deep in conversation مستغرق، غارق
 - 9 thorough, able to deal with the difficult parts of sth: His books show a deep understanding of human nature.
 - ▶ deepen /ˈdiːpən/ verb [I,T] to become or to make sth deep or deeper: The river deepens here.
 o This bad news deepened the atmosphere of depression.

deeply adv: a deeply unhappy person o to breathe deeply بشدة: عميقاً: بتعميّق

R deep² /di:p/ adv a long way down or inside sth:

The ship sank deep into the sea. • They talked deep into the night.

عبقاً: إلى عبق أو جزء كبير من

DM deep down in what you really think or feel: I tried to appear optimistic but deep down I knew there was no hope.

في دخيلة النفس ، في حقيقة الأمر deep-'freeze noun [C] = FREEZER deep-'fry verb [T] (usually passive) to cook food, in oil that covers it completely: deep-fried chicken pieces deeply $adj \rightarrow DEEP^1$ deep-'rooted (also deep-'seated) adj strongly felt or believed and therefore difficult to change: deep-seated prejudices راسخ ، متأمل الجذور deer /drə(r)/ noun [C] (pl. deer) a large wild grass-eating animal. The male has horns shaped like branches (antlers).

A male deer is called a buck or, especially if it has fully grown antlers, a stag. The female is a doe and a young deer a fawn. Venison is the meat from deer.

deface /drfers/ verb [T] to spoil the way sth looks by writing on or marking the surface of it: Vandals defaced the statue with graffiti.

default /drfɔ:lt/ noun [sing.] (computing) a course of action taken by a computer when it is not given any other instruction اختيار افتراضي by default because nothing happened, not because of successful effort: They won by default, because the other team didn't turn up.

لعدم حدوث شيء معين، بسبب غياب... ► default verb [I] 1 not to do sth that you should do by law: If you default on the credit payments (= you don't pay them), the car will be taken back.

2 (computing) to take a particular course of action when no other command is given

يفترض اختيارا معينا

```Lefeat /dr'fi:t/verb [T] 1 to win a game, a fight, a vote, etc. against sb: The army defeated the rebels after three days of fighting. ○ In the last match France defeated Wales by ten points to six.

يهزم ، يتغلّب على

- 2 to prevent sth from succeeding: The local residents are determined to defeat the council's building plans.
- 3 to be too difficult for sh to do or understand: I've tried to work out what's wrong with the car but it defeats me.

  پتعلز فهمه أو عمله
- ▶ defeat noun 1 [C] an occasion when sb is defeated: This season they have had two victories and three defeats.
- 2 [U] defeating or being defeated: She refused to admit defeat and kept on trying. هزيمة الغزام defeatism /-ızəm/ noun [U] the attitude that you have when you expect sth to end unsuccessfully defeatist /-ıst/ noun [C]: Don't be such a defeatist, we haven't lost yet! defecate /ˈdefəkeɪt/ verb [I] (formal) to pass waste materials from the bowels

defect¹ /'dirfekt/ noun [C] something that is wrong with or missing from sb/sth: a speech defect o defects in the education system

► defective /dıˈfektıv/ adj: If you find any of our goods to be defective, please return them to the shop.

defect<sup>2</sup> /dr'fekt/ verb [I] to leave your country, a political party, etc. and go to or join an opposing one: a spy who defected from the East

ينضم إلى جانب العدو ينضم إلى جانب العدو Arlfok fn / mours IC II

▶ defection /drˈfekʃn/ noun [C,U] انضمام إلى جانب العدو

R defence (US defense) /drfens/ noun 1 [U] defence (against sth) action to protect sb/sth from attack: Would you fight in defence of your country?

2 [C] a defence (against sth) something that protects sb/sth from sth or that is used for fighting against attack: to build up a country's defences o the body's defences against disease وسلة دفاء. وقاء

3 [U] the military equipment, forces, etc. for protecting a country: the Defence Minister o Spending on defence can be cut if fewer weapons are needed.

4 [C.U] something that you say or write to support sb'sth that is being attacked or accused: In his speech, he made a strong defence of the party's policy. I must say in her defence that I have always found her very reliable.

5 [C] (in law) an argument in support of the accused person in a court of law: His defence was that he was only carrying out orders.

6 the defence [sing., with sing. or pl. verb] (in law) the accused person in a court of law and the lawyer or lawyers who are acting for him/her: The defence claims/claim that many of the witnesses were lying. o a witness giving evidence for the defence

7 usually the defence [sing., with sing. or pl. verb, U] (in sport) action to prevent the other team scoring; the players who try to do this: The defence was/were unable to stop Brown and he scored. o They put up no defence and were beaten by five points.

▶ defenceless adj unable to defend yourself against attack defend /drfend/ verb 1 [T] defend sb/sth (against sb/sth) to act, especially to fight, to protect sb/sth: Would you be able to defend your-self if someone attacked you in the street?

2 [T] defend sb/sth (against sb/sth) to say or write sth to support sb/sth: The minister went on television to defend the government's policy.

3 [T] (in law) to speak for sb who is accused of sth in a court of law

4 [I,T] to try to stop the other team or player scoring: They defended well and managed to hold onto their lead.

- 5 [T] to try to win a match so that you remain champion: She successfully defended her title. يدافع عن ، يحاول الاحتفاظ ب
- ▶ defender noun [C] a person who defends sb/ sth, especially in sport مدافع ، الدفاع
- defendant /dr'fendənt/ noun [C] a person who is accused of sth in a court of law المدعى عليه

defense(US) = DEFENCE

- defensive /di'fensiv/ adj 1 used or intended for protecting sb/sth from attack: The troops took up a defensive position.
- 2 showing that you feel that sb is accusing or criticizing you: When I asked him about his new job, he became very defensive and tried to change متَّحفَّز للدفاع ، مستعدّ لردّ الاتَّهام the subject.
- ▶ defensive noun

DM on the defensive ready to defend yourself في موقف دفاعي against attack or criticism defer /di'f3:(r)/ verb [T] (deferring; deferred) (formal) to leave sth until a later time; to postpone

يرجئ، يؤجل

- deference /'deferens/ noun [U] polite behaviour that you show towards sb/sth, usually be-مراعاة ، احترام cause you respect him/her
- IDM in deference to sb/sth because you respect and do not wish to upset sb: In deference to her father's wishes, she didn't mention the subject احترامأ لشعوره again.
- defiance /di'faiəns/ noun [U] open refusal to obey: As an act of defiance they continued to play their music loud. 1 The verb is defv. تحد ، عصيان IDM in defiance of sb/sth openly refusing to obev sb/sth
- defiant /dɪˈfaɪənt/ adj showing open refusal to متحدً بجسارة ، متمرّد بتحدُ وجسارة
- ▶ defiantly adv
- deficiency /di'fifnsi/ noun (pl. deficiencies) 1 [C,U] a condition of not having enough of sth; a lack: a deficiency of vitamin C
- 2 [C] something that is not good enough or that is wrong with sb/sth: The problems were caused by deficiencies in the design. خلل ، نقطة ضعف
- deficient /difisnt/ adj 1 deficient (in sth) not having enough of sth: food that is deficient in minerals
- 2 not good enough or not complete

- deficit /'defrsit/ noun [C] the amount by which the money you receive is less than the money you have spent: a trade deficit
- t define /di'fain/ verb [T] 1 to say exactly what a word or idea means: How would you define 'happiness'?
  - 2 to explain the exact nature of sth clearly: We need to define the problem before we can attempt يحدُد ، يتبيّن بوضوح
- Idefinite /'definet/ adj 1 fixed and unlikely to

- change; certain: I'll give you a definite decision in حازم ، أكيد a couple of days.
- 2 clear; easy to see or notice: There has been a definite change in her attitude recently.
- ▶ definitely adv certainly; without doubt: I'll definitely consider your advice. O We definitely can't afford such a high price. بكل تأكيد ؛ بلا ريب
- definite 'article noun [C] (grammar) the name used for the word 'the' a Look at indefinite art-أداة التعريف (في النحو)
- La definition /.defr'n1fn/ noun [C,U] a statement of the exact meaning of a word or idea

تعريف؛ تحديد؛ وضوح

- definitive /dɪˈfɪnətɪv/ adj in a form that cannot be changed or that cannot be improved: This is the definitive version.  $\circ$  the definitive performance نهائيّ ، قاطع ، لا مجّال فيه للتحسين . بشكل قاطع of Hamlet
- ▶ definitively adv
- deflate /dirflest/ verb 1 [I,T] to become or to make sth smaller by letting the air or gas out: The balloon slowly deflated and began to come down. 1 The opposite is inflate.

يَنفُس ؛ يفرع الهواء من شيء منفوخ

- 2 [T] to make sb feel less confident, proud or يقلِّل من غطرسته ؛ يضعف حماسه excited
- deflect /di'flekt/ verb 1 [I,T] to change direction after hitting sb/sth; to make sth change direction in this way: The ball was deflected off a defender ينُحْرُفُ (بَعَد ارتطام) ؛ يحرف and into the net.
- 2 [T] to turn sb or sb's attention away from sth: Nothing could deflect her from her aim.

يثني (عن عزمه)

- ▶ deflection /dr'flek[n/ noun [C,U] a change of انحراف (بعد ارتطام) direction after hitting sb/sth
- deforestation /di: fpm'sterfn/ noun [U] cutting down trees over a large area: Deforestation is a إتلاف الحراج major cause of global warming.
- deform /dr'fo:m/ verb [T] to change the shape of sth so that it is unnatural يمسخ ، يشوه
- ▶ deformed adj having an unnatural or ugly shape
- deformity /dr'fo:məti/ noun (pl. deformities) [C,U] the state of being deformed; a part of the body that is deformed: The drug caused women to give birth to babies with severe deformities.

- defraud /dr'froid/ verb [T] to get sth from sb by cheating يحتال على، يغبن
- defrost / di:'frost; US di:'frost/ verb 1 [T] to remove the ice from sth: to defrost a fridge (= by switching it off so that the ice melts) يذيب الجليد (المتراكم في ثلاَجة مثلاً)
- 2 [I,T] (used about frozen food) to return to a normal temperature; to make food do this: Defrost the chicken thoroughly before cooking. بأنب الأطعمة المتحمدة
- deft /deft/ adj (used especially about movements) رشيق ، سريع الحركة skilful and quick برشاقة ، بخفّة
  - ▶ deftly adv

defunct → deliberate

defunct /drˈfʌŋkt/ adj no longer existing or in use defuse /ˌdiːˈfjuːz/ verb [T] 1 to remove the part of a bomb that would make it explode: Army experts defused the bomb safely.

2 to make a situation calmer or less dangerous: She defused the tension by changing the subject.

defy /dı'fat/ verb [T] (pp defying; 3rd pers sing pres defies; pt, pp defied) 1 to openly refuse to obey sb/sth: She defied her parents and continued seeing him. ⊕ The adjective is defiant and the noun defiance.

- 2 defy sb to do sth to tell sb to do sth that you believe to be impossible: I defy you to prove me wrong.
- 3 to make sth impossible or very difficult: It's such a beautiful place that it defies description.

s description. پستعصی علی degenerate /dr'dʒenəreit/ verb [I] to fall to a less satisfactory standard; to become worse: The calm discussion degenerated into a nasty argument.

▶ degeneration /dɪˌdʒenəˈreɪʃn/ noun [U] degrade /dı'greɪd/ verb [T] to make people respect sb less: It's the sort of film that really degrades women.

b degrading adj: Having to ask other people for money is degrading. degradation / degrade(fn/ noun [U] 1 degraddegradation /ˌdegrə'deɪʃn/ noun [U] 1 degrading sb or being degraded: the degradation of women

- ${f 2}$  causing the condition of sth to become worse: environmental degradation
- ? degree /drgri:/ noun 1 [C] a measurement of temperature: Water boils at 212 degrees Fahrenheit (212°F) or 100 degrees Celsius (100° C). three degrees below zero/minus three degrees (-3°)
  - 2 [C] a measurement of angles: a forty-five degree (45°) angle ∘ An angle of 90 degrees is called a right angle.
  - 3 [C,U] (used about feelings or qualities) a certain amount or level: There is always some degree of risk involved in mountaineering. Our lives have changed to a considerable degree. I sympathize with her to some degree.

4 [C] a qualification gained by successfully completing a course at university or college: She's got a degree in Philosophy.  $\circ$  He's at university, doing an Economics degree.

شهادة ، درجة علميّة

In Britain degree is the usual word for the qualification you get when you complete and pass a university course. You can study for a diploma at other types of college. The courses may be shorter and more practical than degree

dehydrate /di:'haidreit; ,di:hai'dreit/ verb 1

[T] (usually passive) to remove all the water from food so that it can be kept longer: dehydrated vegetables

2 [I,T] to lose or to take water from the body: If you run for a long time in the heat, you start to dehydrate.

► dehydration /ˌdiːhaɪˈdreɪʃn/ noun [U]

deign /dein/ verb [T] to do sth in a way that shows people that you are really too important for it: He didn't even deign to look up when I entered the room.

deity /ˈdeɪəti/ noun [C] (pl. deities) (formal) a god or goddess

dejected /dı'dʒektɪd/ adj very unhappy, especially because you are disappointed

كسير الخاطر ، مكتنب ، مغموم م بيأس ، بكدر dejectedly adv بيأس ، بكدر dejection /drˈdʒek∫n/ noun [U]

Ç delay /drleı/ verb 1 [T] to make sb/sth slow or late: The plane was delayed for several hours because of bad weather.

2 [I,T] delay (doing sth) to decide not to do sth until a later time: I was forced to delay the trip until the following week.

▶ delay noun [C,U] a situation or period of time where you have to wait: Delays are likely on the roads because of heavy traffic. ○ Because of an accident, all trains are subject to delay.

تأخير ؛ تأخُر delegate<sup>1</sup> /'deligat/ noun [C] a person who has been chosen to speak or take decisions for a group of people, especially at a meeting

مندوب ، ممثّل

delegate² /ˈdelɪgett/ verb [I,T] to give sb with a lower job or rank a particular task to carry out: You can't do everything yourself. You must learn how to delegate.

delegation /ˌdelhˈgeɪʃn/ noun 1 [U] giving sb with a lower job or rank a particular task to perform تغويض، توكيل

2 [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of people who have been chosen to speak or take decisions for a larger group of people, especially at a meeting. The British delegation walked out of the meeting in protest.

delete /dr'li:t/ verb [T] to remove sth that is written: 'I will/will not be able to attend the meeting. Delete as appropriate.' (= on a form, cross out the words which do not apply to you).

يشطب، بزيل، يحذف، يمحو deletion /drli:∫n/ noun 1 [U] the act of deleting شطب، إزالة، حذف، محو

2 [C] part of sth written or printed (e.g. a word, a sentence, a paragraph, etc.) that is deleted

عبارة محذوفة أو مشطوبة

Legiliberate d'dr'liberet/ adj 1 done on purpose; planned: Was it an accident or was it deliberate?

2 done slowly and carefully, without hurrying: She spoke in a calm, deliberate voice.

→ deliberately adv 1 on purpose; intentionally: I didn't break it deliberately, it was an عمداً ، عن قصد

207

2 slowly and carefully, without hurrying بتأنُّ ، متمهَّلاً deliberate<sup>2</sup> /dr'libereit/ verb [I,T] (formal) to think about or discuss sth thoroughly before making a decision: The judges deliberated for an hour before announcing the winner.

يفكر في الأمر ملياً ؛ يتشاور ، يتداول deliberation /dɪ,lɪbə'reɪ[n/ noun 1 [C,U] discussion or thinking about sth: After much deliberation I decided to reject the offer.

تفكير في الأمر ؛ تشاور ، تداوّل

2 [U] slowness and carefulness; lack of hurry: He spoke with great deliberation. تأنُّ ، تمهّل delicacy /'delikəsi/ noun (pl. delicacies) 1 [U] lightness and gentleness; having a fine or detailed quality: The pianist played the quiet song with great delicacy.

2 [U] using or needing particular care or skill so as not to offend sb: Be tactful! It's a matter of حساسية ، رهافة some delicacy.

3 [C] a type of food that is considered particularly good: Try this dish, it's a local delicacy. طعام خاصٌ مترف

? delicate /'delikət/ adj 1 fine or thin; easy to damage or break: delicate skin o delicate china teacups o the delicate mechanisms of a watch

رقيق ، ناعم ؛ سريع العطب 2 frequently ill or easily made ill: He was a delicate child and often in hospital. 3 (used about colours, flavours, etc.) light and pleasant; not strong: a delicate shade of pale خفيف ، لطيف

4 requiring skilful treatment and care: Repairing this is going to be a very delicate operation.

دقيق ، متطلب عناية خاصة ▶ delicately adv 1 lightly, gently or finely: بشُكُلُ لطيف ناعم delicately painted vases

2 with skilful and careful movement: She stepped delicately over the broken glass

3 carefully so as not to offend sb: I phrased my comments delicately so as not to upset her.

delicatessen /delikə'tesn/ noun [C] a shop that sells special, unusual or foreign foods, especially cold cooked meat, cheeses, etc. مخزن لبيع أطعمة خاصة منها اللحوم والأجبان delicious /di'lifəs/ adj having a very pleasant taste or smell: What are you cooking? It smells de-لذيذ ، شهي

? delight1 /dr'lait/ noun 1 [U] great pleasure; joy: She laughed with delight as she opened the pres-سرور شدید ، ابتهاج

2 [C] something that gives sb great pleasure: The story is a delight to read.

مصدر سرور ، مدعاة للبهجة ▶ delightful /-fl/ adj: a delightful view o The people were delightful and I made a lot of ممتع ، مبهج ؛ لطيف friends.

delightfully /-fəli/ adv

بشكل جميل ، بصورة تبعث على البهجة

? delight2 /dr'lart/ verb [T] to give sb great pleasure: She delighted the audience by singing all her old songs.

PHRV delight in sth/in doing sth to get great pleasure from sth: He delights in playing tricks يجدمتعة وسرورأ delighted adj delighted (at/with sth); delighted (to do sth/that...) extremely pleased: 'How do you feel about winning today?' 'Delighted.' o She was delighted at getting the job/that she got the job. o They're absolutely delighted with their baby. o Would you like to come for dinner?' 'Thanks, I'd be delighted to.'

مسرور جداً ، مبتهج

delinquency /drlinkwənsi/ noun [U] bad or criminal behaviour, usually among young people جنوح (الأحداث)

delinquent /drlinkwənt/ adj (usually used about a young person) behaving badly and often breaking the law: delinquent children

▶ delinquent noun [C]: a juvenile delinquent

حَدَث جانح

delirious /di'liriəs/ adj 1 speaking or thinking in a crazy way, often because of a fever

مهلوس ، هاذ في غاية ال

2 extremely happy ▶ deliriously adv

? deliver /dɪ'lıvə(r)/ verb 1 [I,T] to take sth (goods, letters, etc.) to the place requested or to the address on it: Your order will be delivered within five يوصل، يسلم

2 [T] to help a mother to give birth to her baby: The doctor who delivered the baby said she was lucky to be alive.

3 [T] to give sth (a speech, a warning, etc.): He delivered a long lecture to the staff about effi-يلقى (خطاباً مثلاً)

4 [I] deliver (on sth) (informal) to do or give sth that you have promised: He's made a lot of promises, but can he deliver? يفي بالوعد ، ينفُذ IDM come up with/deliver the goods → GOODS

Redelivery /dr'hvəri/ noun (pl. deliveries) 1 [U] the act of taking sth (goods, letters, parcels, etc.) to the place or person who has ordered it or whose address is on it: Please allow 28 days for delivery. o a delivery van تسليم ، توصيل

2 [C] an occasion when sth is delivered: Are there any postal deliveries here on Sundays? دور توزيع، توزيعة

3 [C] something (goods, letters, parcels, etc.) رسالة أو طرد مثلاً يسلّم بالبريد that is delivered

4 [C] the process of giving birth to a baby: an easy delivery

delta /'deltə/ noun [C] an area of flat land shaped like a triangle where a river divides into smaller rivers flowing towards the sea delude /drlu:d/ verb [T] to make sb believe sth that is not true: If he thinks he's going to get rich

deluge → demonstrate quickly, he's deluding himself. ⊕ The noun is delusion.

- deluge /ˈdeljuːdʒ/ noun [C] 1 a sudden very heavy fall of rain; a flood أمطار غزيرة مفاجئة ؛ طوفان
- 2 a very large number of things that happen or arrive at the same time: The programme was followed by a deluge of complaints from the public.
- ► deluge verb [T] (usually passive) to send or give sb/sth a very large quantity of sth, all at the same time: They were deluged with applications for the job.
- delusion /dr'luːʒn/ noun [C,U] a false belief: He seems to be under the delusion that he's popular.

  The verb is delude.
- de luxe /dəˈlʌks; -ˈlʊks/ adj of extremely high quality and more expensive than usual: a de luxe hotel
- delve /delv/ verb [I] delve into sth to search inside sth: She delved into the bag and brought out a tiny box. o (figurative) We must delve further into the past to find the origins of the custom.

نقّب؛ يتعمّق .

Dem. abbrev = Democrat; Democratic (Party)

- R demand drimaind; US drimænd/ noun 1 [C] a demand (for sth/that...) a strong request or order that must be obeyed: The demand for the kidnappers to release the hostage has not been met. a demand for changes in the law I was amazed by their demand that I should leave immediately.
  - 2 [U, sing.] demand (for sth/sb) the desire or need for sth/sb among a group of people: We no longer stock that product because there is no demand for it.
  - in demand wanted by a lot of people: I'm in demand this weekend I've had three invitations! رائع عليه طلب كبير
  - make demands on sb to require a large amount of effort from sb: Playing so many matches makes enormous demands on the players.
  - on demand whenever you ask for it: This treatment is available from your doctor on demand.
- R demand<sup>2</sup> /dr'ma:nd; US dr'mænd/ verb [T] 1 to ask for sth in a way that shows you expect to get it: I walked into the office and demanded to see the manager. She demanded that I pay her immediately. Your behaviour was disgraceful and I demand an apology.
  - 2 to ask a question in an aggressive way: 'Have you seen her?' he demanded.
  - ${f 3}$  to require or need: a sport that demands skill as well as strength  ${f as}$
  - demanding /di'ma:ndin; US di'mændin/ adj 1 (used about a job, task, etc.) requiring a great deal of effort, care, skill, etc: It will be a demanding schedule I have to go to six cities in six days.
  - 2 (used about a person) constantly wanting attention or expecting very high standards of people: a demanding child o a demanding boss متطلب عناية كبيرة: ملحف

- demise /dɪˈmaɪz/ noun [sing.] 1 (formal) the death of a person: the King's demise
- 2 the unsuccessful end of sth: Poor business decisions led to the company's demise.
- democracy /dr'mokrəsi/ noun (pl. democracies) 1 [U] a system in which the government of a country is elected by all of the people

الديموقراطية

2 [C] a country that has this system: How long has that country been a democracy?

(دولة) ديموقر اطيّة

- 3 [U] the right of everyone in an organization, etc. to vote on matters that affect them and to be treated equally: There is a need for more democracy in the company.
- democrat /'deməkræt/ noun [C] 1 a person who believes in and supports democracy

ديموقراطي

2 Democrat (abbr Dem.) a member or supporter of the Democratic Party of the USA 2 Look at Republican.

عضو أو مؤيد للحزب الديموقراطي الأمريكي

- democratic / demə'krætık/ adj 1 based on the system of democracy: democratic elections o a democratic government
- 2 having or supporting equality for all members: the democratic traditions of the party  $\circ$  a fully democratic society
- ► democratically /-kli/ adv: a democratically elected government
- Demo'cratic Party noun [sing.] (abbr Dem.) one of the two main political parties of the USA
- demolish /dı'mɒlıʃ/ verb [T] 1 to knock sth down (e.g. a building): The old shops were demolished and a supermarket was built in their place.
- 2 to destroy sth (an idea, a belief, etc.): She demolished his argument in one sentence.
- يقوض ، يدخض demolition /,demə'lı∫n/ noun [C,U] the act of knocking down or destroying sth
- demon /ˈdiːmən/ noun [C] an evil spirit: He thinks he is possessed by demons.
- Remonstrate /'demənstrett/ verb 1 [T] to show clearly that sth exists or is true; to prove: Scientists demonstrated the presence of radioactivity in the soil. The prison escape demonstrates the need for greater security.
  - 2 [T] to show and explain to sb how to do sth or how sth works: The crew demonstrated the use of life jackets just after take-off.
  - 3 [I] demonstrate (against/for sb/sth) to take part in a public protest or march in which a crowd of people express their opposition or support of sb/sth: Enormous crowds have been demonstrating for human rights.

يشترك في مُظاهرة ، يتظاهر

demonstration → department

- demonstration / demon'strei[n/ noun 1 [C,U] something that shows clearly that sth exists or is true: This accident is a clear demonstration of the system's faults.
  - 2 [C,U] an act of showing or explaining to sb how to do sth or how sth works: The salesman gave me a demonstration of what the computer could
  - 3 [C] a demonstration (against/for sb/sth) a public protest or march in which a crowd of people show how they oppose or support sb/sth: Many thousands took part in demonstrations for greater political freedom.
- demonstrative /dr'monstrativ/ adj (used about a person) showing feelings, especially af-fection. openly
- demonstrator /'demonstreito(r)/ noun [C] a person who takes part in a public protest or march
- demoralize (also demoralise) /di'mprəlaiz; US -'mo:r-/ verb [T] to make sb lose confidence or the courage to continue doing sth: Repeated defeats demoralized the team.
  - يثبِّط العزيمة ، يحطِّم المعنويَّات
- ▶ demoralization (also demoralisation) /dɪˌmɒrəlaɪˈzeɪʃn; US -ˌmɔ:rəlɪˈz-/ noun [U]
- demure /dɪˈmjʊə(r)/ adj (used especially about a girl or young woman) shy, quiet and well behaved
- den /den/ noun [C] 1 the hidden home of certain wild animals, e.g. lions
- a gambling den مخبأ ، وكر
- denial /dr'narəl/ noun 1 [C] a statement that sth is not true: The minister issued a denial that he was involved in the scandal. إنكار ، تكذيب
  - 2 [C,U] (a) denial (of sth) refusing to allow sb to have or do sth: a denial of personal freedom منع ، رفض
- 1 The verb is deny.
- denim /'denim/ noun 1 [U] a thick cotton material (often blue) that is used for making clothes, قُماش قطني متين e.g. jeans
- 2 denims [plural] trousers made of denim بَنْطلون مصنوع من هذا القماش
- denomination /di,npmi'neifn/ noun [C] a religious group that is part of a larger religious organization: Anglicans, Methodists and members of other denominations attended the meeting. طائفة دينية
- denote /dr'nəut/ verb [T] to indicate or be a sign of sth; to mean: What does [U] denote in this dictionary?
- denounce /di'naons/ verb [T] to say publicly that sth is wrong; to be very critical of a person in public: Opposition MPs have denounced the government's decision. o The actor has been denounced as a bad influence on young people. 1 The noun is denunciation. يشجب ، يدين ، يتهم

- dense /dens/ adj 1 containing a lot of things or people close together: dense forests o areas of dense population كَثف، مكتظ ؛ مكتنز
  - 2 difficult to see through: dense fog
- 3 (informal) not intelligent; stupid
- ▶ densely adv: densely populated
  - بكثافة بشكا مكتظأ

كثيف

- density /'densəti/ noun (pl. densities) 1 [U] the number of things or people in a place in relation كثافة ، ازدحام to its area: the density of population
- 2 [C,U] (technical) the relation of the weight of a substance to the space it occupies
- dent /dent/ noun [C] a hollow place in the surface of sth hard, especially metal, that is the result of sth hitting or pressing against it: This tin's got a بعحة ، ۖ"طعحة" : "فعصة" dent in it.
- ▶ dent verb [T] to damage sth by hitting it and making a hollow place in it: I hit a wall and يبعج ، "يطعج" ، "يفعص" dented the front of the car.
- dental /'dentl/ adj connected with teeth: dental ذو علاقة بالأسنان
- Lidentist /'dentist/ (also 'dental surgeon) noun [C] a person whose job is to look after people's teeth: The dentist examined my teeth. 6 We refer to the dentist's surgery as 'the dentist's': I went to the dentist's to have a tooth out. طبيب أسنان
- dentures /'dentʃəz/ noun [plural] = FALSE TEETH
- denunciation /dɪ,nʌnsi'eɪʃn/ noun [C,U] an expression of strong disapproval of sb/sth in public: a strong denunciation of the invasion 6 The شحب ، إدانة ، استنكار verb is denounce.
- 2 a secret place, especially for illegal activities: ? deny /dr'nai/verb [T] (pres part denying; 3rd pers sing pres denies; pt, pp denied) 1 deny sth/ doing sth/that... to state that sth is not true: In court he denied all the charges. O When I challenged her, she denied telling lies/that she had told
  - 2 deny sb sth; deny sth (to sb) to refuse to allow sb to have sth: She was denied permission to remain in the country. يمنع من، يحرم من
  - The noun is denial.
  - deodorant /di'əudərənt/ noun [C,U] a chemical substance that you put onto your body to destroy or prevent bad smells مزيل للروائح (الكريهة)
  - dep. abbrev = DEPARTS
  - depart /dr'pa:t/ verb [I] (formal) to leave a place, usually at the beginning of a journey: Ferries depart for Spain twice a day. o The next train to the airport departs from platform 2. 1 The noun is departure. 2 Look at the note at leave.
  - Repartment /di'pa:tment/ noun [C] (abbr Dept) 1 one of the sections into which an organization (e.g. a school or a business) is divided: the Modern Languages department o The book department is on the second floor. O She works in the إدارة ؛ قسم ؛ شعبة accounts department.
    - 2 = MINISTRY (1); the Department of Health
    - ▶ departmental /,di:pa:t'mentl/ adj concern-

department store → deposit

ing a department: There is a departmental meeting once a month.

- de'partment store noun [C] a large shop that is divided into departments selling many different types of goods
- R departure /dr'pa:tʃə(r)/ noun [C,U] 1 leaving or going away from a place: Arrivals and departures are shown on the board in the main hall of the station. Passengers should check in at least one hour before departure.
  - 2 an action which is different from what is usual or expected: a departure from normal practice انحراف، تحوُّل
- የ depend /dr pend/ verb
  - alone or at the beginning of a sentence) it is not certain; it is influenced or decided by sth: 'Can you lend me some money?' 'That depends. How much do you want?' o I don't know whether I'll see him. It all depends what time he gets here.
  - will help you; to trust sb/sth to be sure that sb/sth will help you; to trust sb/sth to do sth: If you ever need any help, you know you can depend on me. You can't depend on the trains. They're always late. I was depending on things going according to plan. You can always depend on him to say what he thinks (= you can be sure that he will say what he thinks).
  - depend on sb/sth (for sth) to need sb/sth to provide sth: I depend on my parents for advice.

    Our organization depends on donations from the public.
  - depend on sth to be decided or influenced by sth: His whole future depends on these exams. The starting salary will be between £17 000 and £19 000, depending on age and experience.
  - ينونف على • dependable /-abl/ adj that can be trusted: The bus service is usually very dependable.
  - يعتمد عليه، موثوق به dependant (especially US dependent) /di-'nondant/ noun [C] a person who depends on sh
  - 'pendant/ noun [C] a person who depends on sb else for money, a home, food, etc: The insurance provides cover for you and all your dependants. شخص بعتمد على غيره لإعالته
  - dependence /dr'pendens/ noun [U] dependence on sb/sth the state of needing sb/sth: The country wants to reduce its dependence on imported oil.
  - dependency /du'pendensi/ noun [U] the state of being dependent on sb/sth; the state of being unable to live without sth, especially a drug: a drug dependency clinic
  - dependent /dr'pendent/ adj 1 dependent (on sb/sth) needing sb/sth to support you: The industry is heavily dependent on government funding. o dependent children
  - 2 dependent on sb/sth influenced or decided by sb/sth: The price you pay is dependent on the number in your group.
  - depict /di'pikt/ verb [T] 1 to show sb/sth in a - painting or drawing: a painting depicting a country scene

- 2 to describe sb/sth in words: The novel depicts rural life a century ago.
- deplete /dr'pli:t/ verb [T] to reduce the amount of sth: We are depleting the world's natural resources.
- b depletion /dɪˈpli:ʃn/ noun [U]: the depletion of the ozone layer
- deplore /dr'plɔ:(r)/ verb [T] (formal) to feel or state that sth is morally bad: I deplore such dishonest behaviour: بستنكر، بستهجن، يندب
- deplorable /dr'plo:rəbl/ adj morally bad and deserving disapproval مستهجن أو مستنكر: مؤسف deplorably /-əbli/ adv
- deploy /dr'ploi/ verb [T] 1 to put soldiers or weapons in a position where they can be used
- 2 to arrange people or things so that they can be used efficiently مريزَع (الأشخاص أو الأشياء) لتسهيل العمل العمل
- deport /dr'po:t/ verb [T] to send a foreigner out of a country officially: A number of illegal immigrants have been deported.
- ▶ deportation /,di:po:'tei∫n/ noun [C,U]: The illegal immigrants face deportation.
  - ترحيل، إخراج
- depose /dr'pəuz/ verb [T] to remove a ruler or leader from power: There was a revolution and the dictator was deposed.
- Ç deposit¹ /dı'pɒzɪt/ verb [T] 1 to put money into an account at a bank: He deposited £20 a week into his savings account.
  - 2 to put sth valuable in a official place where it is safe until needed again: Valuables can be deposited in the hotel safe.
  - 3 to pay a sum of money as the first payment for sth, with the rest of the money to be paid later: You will have to deposit 10% of the cost when you book.

    yet a lamed left : يدفع عربوناً
  - 4 to put sth down somewhere: He deposited his bags on the floor and sat down.
  - 5 to leave sth lying on a surface, as the result of a natural or chemical process: mud deposited by a flood
- l deposit<sup>2</sup> /dr'pozit/ noun [C] 1 a sum of money paid into a bank account; the paying of a sum of money into a bank account
  - 2 a deposit (on sth) a sum of money which is the first payment for sth, with the rest of the money to be paid later: Once you have paid a deposit, the booking will be confirmed.
    - قسط أوَل : عربون
  - 3 a deposit (on sth) a sum of money that you pay when you rent sth and get back when you return it without damage: Boats can be hired for £5 an hour, plus £20 deposit.
  - 4 a substance that has been left on a surface or has developed in the ground as the result of a ### deposit account → derive natural or chemical process: mineral deposits راسب؛ طبقة معدنية

de'posit account noun [C] a type of bank account where your money earns interest. You cannot take money out of a deposit account without arranging it first with the bank.

ماب وديعة ، حساب مع فائدة depot /'depəu; US 'di:pəu/ noun [C] 1 a place where large numbers of vehicles (buses, lorries, مستودع سيارات etc.) are kept when not in use

2 a place where military supplies are stored تودع عسكري

3 (US) a bus or railway station

محطّة قطارات أو باصات

depreciate /di'pri:fieit/ verb [I] to lose value, تنخفض قيمته especially as a result of use or age  $\blacktriangleright \ \, \textbf{depreciation} \ / di, pri: \textbf{\textit{fi'eifn/}} \ noun \ [\textbf{\textit{C,U}}]$ انخفاض قيمة (الأسهم مثلاً)

Rdepress /di'pres/ verb [T] 1 to make sb unhappy: The thought of going to work tomorrow really depresses me. يكلُر ، يغُم

2 (used especially in connection with business) to cause sth to become less successful or profitable: The reduction in the number of tourists has depressed local trade. بكسد (التحارة)

3 (formal) to press sth down when operating sth: To switch off the machine, depress the lever.

بضغط على (إلى الأسفل) ، ينزل ▶ depressed adj very unhappy, often for a long period. If you are depressed you may be suffering from the medical condition of depression: He's been very depressed since he lost his job.

depressing adj making sb feel sad or without hope: The outlook for the future of the company is very depressing. مكدّر ، محزن ، لا يدعو إلى التفاؤل بصورة تبعثُ على الكآبةُ أ depressingly adv depression /dr'pre [n/ noun 1 [U] a feeling of unhappiness and hopelessness that lasts for a long time. Depression can be a medical condition and may have physical symptoms.

2 [C] a period when the economic situation is bad, with little business activity and many كساد ؛ ركود اقتصادي people without a job

3 [C] a hollow part in the surface of sth: adepression in the ground deprive /di'praiv/ verb [T] deprive sb/sth of sth to prevent sb/sth from having sth; to take away sth from sb/sth: to deprive people of their rights as citizens o The prisoners were deprived deprived adj not having enough of the basic things in life, such as food, money, etc: He came from a deprived background.

فقير، محروم من أساسيًات الحياة deprivation / deprivein/ noun [C,U] حرمان

Dept (especially US Dept.) abbrev = DEPARTMENT

1 depth /depth /oun 1 [C.U] the distance down from the top surface of sth; the measurement of how deep sth is: What's the depth of the swimming pool? • The hole should be 3 cm in depth.

2 [C.U] the distance from the front to the back: the depth of a shelf

3 [U] (used about emotions, knowledge, etc.) the amount that a person has: He tried to convince her of the depth of his feelings for her. in depth looking at all the details: to discuss a problem in depth بالتفصيل، بتعمّق out of your depth 1 in water that is too deep for you to stand up in ماء أعمق من أن يقف فيه

2 in a situation that is too difficult for you: When they start discussing politics I soon get out (موضوع) أصعب من أن يفهمه of my depth.

deputation / depju'ter fn/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of people sent to sb to speak for deputize (also deputise) /'depjətaiz/ verb [I] deputize (for sb) to act for sb who is absent or unable to do sth

deputy /'depjəti/ noun [C] (pl. deputies) the second most important person in a particular organization. A deputy does the work of his/her boss if the boss is absent: the Deputy Manager o While I am away my deputy will take over.

نائب الرئيس ، وكيل

derail /dr'reil / verb [T] to cause a train to come off, يُخرج القطار عن الخط الحديدي a railway track ▶ derailment noun [C,U] an occasion when this happens: Due to a derailment, all trains have been cancelled this morning.

خروج القطار عن الخط الحديديّ deranged /dr'reind3d/ adj thinking and behaving in a way that is not normal, especially be-فاقد صوابه ، مشوّش ؛ مجنون cause of mental illness

derby /'da:rbi; 'da:bi/ noun [C] (pl. derbies) (US) derelict /'derəlikt/ adj no longer used and in bad condition: a derelict house مخرب ومهجور

deride /dr'raid/ verb [T] to say that sb/sth is ridiculous; to laugh at sb/sth in a cruel way

خر أو يهزأ من

▶ derision /dɪˈrɪʒn/ noun [U]: Her comments were met with howls of derision. سخرية أو استهزاء derisive /di'raisiv/ adj: 'What rubbish!' he said with a derisive laugh. ساخر أو مستهزئ

derisory /dı'raısəri/ adj so small that it is ridiculous or does not deserve to be considered seriously: He made a derisory offer, which I turned تافه ، ضئيل لا يستحق الذكر down immediately.

derivation /.deri'vei[n/ noun [C,U] the origin from which a word or phrase has developed: a أصل ؛ اشتقاق word of Latin derivation derivative /di'rivətiv/ adj copied from sth or influenced by sth and therefore not new or origin-غير أصليّ ، منقول عن غيره

▶ derivative noun [C] a form of sth (especially a word) that has developed from the original form: 'Sadness' is a derivative of 'sad.

المشتق : كلمة مشتقة

? derive /di'raiv/ verb 1 [T] (formal) to get sth (especially a feeling or an advantage) from sth:

derogatory → desire

I derive great satisfaction from my work.

يستمدّ، يحصل على

- 2 [I,T] to come from sth; to have sth as its origin: 'Mutton' derives from the French word 'mouton'.

  The town derives its name from the river on which it was built.
- derogatory /dı'rɒgətri; US -tɔ:ri/ adj expressing a lack of respect for, or a low opinion of sth: derogatory comments about the standard of my work معبر عن الاستخفاف، حاط من القيمة
- descend /dr'send/ verb [I,T] (formal) to go down to a lower place; to go down sth: The plane started to descend and a few minutes later we landed.

  She descended the stairs slowly. (6) The opposite is ascend.

relative or relatives in the distant past: He says he's descended from a Russian prince.

▶ descendant /-ont/ noun [C] a person who is related to sb who lived a long time ago: Her related to sb who lived a long time ago: Her family are descendants of one of the first convicts who were sent to Australia. • Look at ancestor.

descent /di'sent/ noun 1 [C] a movement down to a lower place: The pilot informed us that we were about to begin our descent.

2 [U] family origins, especially in connection with nationality: He is of Italian descent.

أصل، سلالة

- Rescribe /dr'skrath/ verb [T] describe sb/sth (as sth) to say what sb/sth is like, or what happened: Can you describe the bag you lost? o It's impossible to describe how I felt. o She described what had happened to the reporter. o The thief was described as tall, thin, and aged about twenty. o Would you describe yourself as confident?
- Rescription /dr'skrrpfn/noun 1 [C,U] a picture in words of sb/sth or an account of sth that happened; the ability to describe sb/sth: The man gave the police a detailed description of the burglar. O Her description of the events that evening was most amusing.
  - 2 [C] a type or kind of sth: It must be a tool of some description, but I don't know what it's for some description, but I don't know what it's for نوع أو ضرب من descriptive /dı'skrıptıv/ adj 1 that describes sb/sth: a piece of descriptive writing وصفي . تصويري 2 that describes sb/sth in a skilful and interest

? desert '/dı'zɜːt/ verb 1 [T] to leave sb/sth, usually for ever: Many people have deserted the country-side and moved to the towns.

2 [I,T] (used especially about sb in the armed forces) to leave without permission: He deserted because he didn't want to fight.

deserted adj empty, because all the people have left: a deserted house deserter noun [C] a person who leaves military duty without permission الفار من الجيش desertion /dr'za:ʃn/ noun [C,U] leaving sb/sth, especially your husband or wife, or leaving military duty without permission

هَجُر ، تحل عن ؛ فرار من الجيش

Ç desert<sup>2</sup> /'dezet/ noun [C,U] a large area of land, usually covered with sand, that has very little water and very few plants: the Gobi Desert

صحرا

- desert 'island noun [C] an island, especially a tropical one, where nobody lives
- R deserve /dr'zɜ:v/ verb [T] (not used in the continuous tenses) to earn sth, especially a suitable reward or punishment, for sth that you have done: We've done a lot of work and we deserve a break.

  He deserves to be punished severely for such a crime.
  - > deservedly /dı'za:vıdli/ adv as is deserved; rightly: He deservedly won the Best Actor award.
- deserving /dɪˈzɜːvɪn/ adj that deserves help: This charity is a most deserving cause.

مستأهل أو مستحقٌ ل

- ? design /dr'zaın/ noun 1 [C] a drawing that shows how sth should be made: The architect showed us her design for the new theatre.
  - تصميم،مخطّط،رسم
  - 2 [U] the way in which sth is planned and made or in which the parts of sth are arranged: Design faults have been discovered in the car.
  - 3 [U] the process and skill of making drawings that show how sth should be made: to study industrial design o graphic design
  - 4 [C] a pattern of lines, shapes, etc. that decorate sth: a T-shirt with a geometric design on it
  - b design verb 1 [I,T] to plan and make a drawing of how sth will be made: She designs the interiors of shops.
  - 2 [T] to invent, plan and develop sth for a particular purpose: I designed a scheme for increasing profits. The bridge wasn't designed for such heavy traffic.
  - designate /ˈdezɪgneɪt/ verb [T] (formal) 1 to give sth a name to show that it has a particular purpose: This has been designated a conservation area.
  - عين to choose sb for a particular job or task
  - 3 to show or mark sth: These arrows designate the emergency exits.
  - designer /dıˈzaɪnə(r)/ noun [C] a person whose job is to make drawings showing how sth will be made: a fashion designer o designer jeans (= made by a famous designer)
  - desirable /dı'zaɪərəbl/ adj 1 wanted, often by many people; worth having: a desirable area (= one that many people would like to live in) o Experience is desirable but not essential for this ioh.
    - 2 sexually attractive

جذّاب (جنسيّاً)

$ desire¹ /dr'zaiə(r)/ noun [C,U] 1 (a) desire (for sth/to do sth) the feeling of wanting sth very much; a strong wish: the desire for a peaceful solution to the crisis o I have no desire to visit that place again. رغبة

- 2 the wish for sexual relations with sb شهوة
- ? desire2 /di'zaiə(r)/ verb [T] 1 (formal) to want: They have everything they could possibly desire.

2 to find sb/sth sexually attractive

يشتهى (امرأة مثلاً)

? desk /desk/ noun [C] 1 a type of table, often with drawers, that you sit at to write or work: The pupils took their books out of their desks. o a computer that fits easily onto any desk

2 a table or place in a building where a particular service is provided: Brochures are available منصّة ، مكتب ، قسم at the information desk.

desktop /'desktop/ noun [C] 1 the top of a سطح المكتب desk

2 a computer screen on which you can see symbols showing the programs, information, etc. that are available to be used desktop 'publishing (abbr DTP) noun [U] the use of a small computer and a machine for printing, to produce books, magazines and other print-الطباعة والنشر بواسطة الكمبيوتر ed material desolate /'desələt/ adj 1 (used about a place) sad, empty and depressing: desolate wasteland

موحش. مقْفر

- 2 (used about a person) lonely, very unhappy and without hope
- ▶ desolation / desoler[n/ noun [U] 1 the state of being empty because all the people have left: All the factories closed, leaving the town a scene of وحشة ، كآمة ، إقفار desolation
- 2 the feeling of being lonely and without hope: He felt utter desolation when his wife died. تعاسة ، وحدة ؛ قنوط despair /dr'speə(r)/ noun [U] the state of having lost all hope: I felt like giving up in despair. o Despair drove him to attempt suicide. يأس، قنوط despair verb [I] despair (of sb/sth) to lose all hope and to feel that there will be no improvement: Don't despair. Keep trying and I'm sure you'll get it right. O We began to despair of ever finding somewhere to live. بيأس، يقنط (صرحّة) يائسة despairing adj: a despairing cry

despatch = DISPATCH

Idesperate /'desperet/ adj 1 out of control and willing to do anything to change the situation vou are in because it is so terrible: She became desperate when her money ran out. o I only took this job because I was desperate

ميت ، متهور لشدة يأسه 2 done with little hope of success, as a last thing to try when everything else has failed: I made a desperate attempt to persuade her to change her mind. (محاولة) أخيرة يائسة

3 desperate (for sth/to do sth) wanting or needing sth very much: Let's go into a cafe. I'm في أشد الحاجة إلى desperate for a drink.

- 4 terrible, very serious: There is a desperate فظيع ، هائل ، شديد shortage of skilled workers.
- ▶ desperately adv: She was desperately (= extremely) unlucky not to win. للغَاية ، إلى أقصى حدّ desperation / desperreisn/ noun [U] the feeling or state of being desperate: She felt she wanted to scream in desperation.
- despicable /dr'spikəbl/ adj deserving to be hated: a despicable liar o a despicable act of ter-حقير ، دنيء، بغيض rorism
- despise /dr'sparz/ verb [T] to hate sb/sth; to consider sb/sth worthless: I despise him for lying يحتقر ؛ يكره about me to other people.
- مقعد (مدرسيّ): مكتب: منضدة \despite /dr'spart/ prep (used to show that sth happened although you would not expect it): Despite having very little money, they enjoy life. o The scheme went ahead despite public opposition.

رغم ، بالرغم من

despondent /dr'spondent/ adj without hope; قانط ، يائس expecting no improvement

▶ despondency /di'spondensi/ noun [U] قنوط ، اكتئاب

dessert /dr'za:t/ noun [C,U] something sweet that is eaten after the main part of a meal: What would you like for dessert - ice cream or fresh fruit? ⇒ Look at pudding and sweet.

الحلوى في نهاية الوحبة

dessertspoon /dr'za:tspu:n/ noun [C] a spoon of medium size, used for eating dessert

ملعقة متوسطة الحجم

destabilize / di: sterbalarz / verb [T] to make a system, government, country, etc. become less safe and successful: Terrorist attacks were threatening to destabilize the government.

يزيل الاستقرار، يقلق الوضع destination /_destr'nerfn/ noun [C] the place where sb/sth is going or being sent: I finally reached my destination two hours late.

وجهة السفر ؛ نهاية السَّفْرة ؛ المكان المقصود

destined /'destind/ adj 1 destined for sth/to do sth sure to or intended to be, have or do sth: I think she is destined for success, o He was destined to become one of the country's leading polit-مكتوب له (النجاح)

2 destined for... on a journey or moving towards a particular place: I boarded a bus destined for New York. o They were destined for متُحه نحو، قاصد a new life in a new country.

destiny /'destəni/ noun (pl. destinies) 1 [U] a power that people believe influences their lives; القضاء والقدر fate

2 [C] the things that happen to you in your life, especially things that you do not control: She felt that it was her destiny to be a great singer. o The destiny of the country lies in the hands of the people.

destitute /'destitjuit; US -tuit/ adj not having the things that are necessary in life, such as money, food, a home, etc.

▶ destitution / destr'tju:∫n; US -'tu:∫n/ noun فاقة ، فقر مدقع [U]

destroy → determiner

Idestroy /dr'stroi/ verb [T] 1 to damage sth so badly that it can no longer be used or no longer exists: The building was destroyed by fire. o The defeat destroyed his confidence.

يخرّب، يدمّر ؛ يقضي على

2 to kill an animal, especially because it is injured or dangerous: The horse broke its leg and يقتل حيواناً (جريحاً مثلاً) تخفيفاً عنه had to be destroyed. ▶ destroyer noun [C] 1 a person or thing that destroys sth

2 a small warship

المدمّرة (سفينة حربيّة)

?destruction /di'strak[n/ noun [U] destroying or being destroyed: The war brought death and destruction to the city. o the destruction of the rain-ىمار ، خراب ؛ تىمىر destructive /dr'straktiv/ adj causing a lot of damage: destructive weapons o the destructive ef-مدمر ، مخرّب ، هذّام fects of drink and drugs detach /dr'tæt [/ verb [T] detach sth (from sth) to separate sth from sth it is attached to: Detach the form at the bottom of the page and send it to يفصل this address...

▶ detached adj 1 not being or not feeling متجرّد؛ غير مرتبط عاطفيّاً personally involved

2 (used about a house) not joined to any other (بیت) منفصل detachable /-abl/ adj that can be separated from sth it is attached to قابل للفصل (عن شيء مربوط به)

لى، باسهاب

detachment /dr'tætsment/ noun 1 [U] the fact or feeling of not being personally involved تجرُد عاطفي ، عدم تحيز

2 [C] a group of soldiers who have been given a particular task away from the main group

مفرزة ، تجريدة عسكرية

? detail /'di:terl; US di'terl/ noun [C,U] a small individual fact, point or piece of information: Just give me the basic facts. Don't worry about the details. On the application form you should give details of your education and experience. o For full details of the offer, contact your local travel agent. o The work involves close attention to detail. جزء تفصيلي ؛ تفصيل go into detail(s) to talk or write about the details of sth: I can't go into detail now because it يذكر بالتفصيل ، يدخل بالتفاصيل would take too long. in detail including the details; thoroughly: We haven't discussed the matter in detail yet.

detail2 /'di:teil; US di'teil/ verb [T] to give a full list of sth; to describe sth fully: He detailed all the equipment he needed for the job.

يعدِّد، يَفَصُّل، يَصِف بالتفصيل ▶ detailed adj having many details or giving a lot of attention to details: a detailed description of detain /dr'tern/ verb [T] to stop sb from leaving a place; to delay sb: A man has been detained by the police for questioning (= kept at the police station). o Don't let me detain you if you're busy. • The noun is detention. يحتجز ؛ يؤخَر detect /dr'tekt/ verb [T] to notice or discover sth that is difficult to see, feel, etc: I detected a slight change in his attitude. o Traces of blood were detected on his clothes. يلاحظ: يكتشف

▶ detection /dr'tekfn/ noun [U]: The crime كشف، أهتداء إلى escaped detection for many years. detector noun [C] an instrument that is used for مِكشَاف: جهاز كشف detecting sth: a smoke detector detective /di'tektiv/ noun [C] a person, especially a police officer, who tries to solve crimes and find the person who is guilty

"التحري" ، بوليس سري de'tective story noun [C] (pl. detective stories) a story about a crime in which sb tries to find out who the guilty person is détente (also detente) / der'ta:nt/ noun [U] (formal) a more friendly relationship between countries that had previously been very unfriendly وفاق (دولي) towards each other detention /dr'ten[n/ noun [U] 1 the act of stopping a person leaving a place, especially by keeping him/her in prison, often for political reasons حجز ؛ اعتقال • The verb is detain.

2 the punishment of being kept at school after the other children have gone home deter /dr't3:(r)/ verb [T] (deterring; deterred) deter sb (from doing sth) to make sb decide not to do sth: The council is trying to deter visitors from bringing their cars into the city centre.

يردع ، يثني عن

detergent /drta:d3ent/ noun [C,U] a chemical liquid or powder that is used for cleaning things deteriorate /di'tiəriəreit/ verb [I] to become worse: The political tension is deteriorating into يتردى، يسوء، يتدهور

▶ deterioration /dx,tɪəriəˈreɪʃn/ noun [C,U]

? determination /di,ts:mi'neifn/ noun [U] 1 the quality of having firmly decided to succeed in doing sth, even if it is very difficult or people are against you: her determination to win o You need great determination to succeed in business.

2 the act of fixing or deciding sth: the determin-تحديد، تقرير ation of future council policy

? determine /di'ta:min/ verb [T] 1 to fix or decide sth: The results of the tests will determine what treatment you need. يحلّد، يقرَر

2 to find sth out: an attempt to determine the exact position of the enemy submarine بعين ، يحدُد

3 (formal) to decide sth firmly: He determined to give up smoking in the New Year.

? determined /dr'ts:mind/ adj having firmly de cided to succeed in doing sth, even if it is difficult or people are against you: He is determined to leave school, even though his parents want him to stay. o She's a very determined athlete.

مصمِّم، ذو عزيمة، عاقد العزم determiner /di'ta:minə(r)/ noun [C] (grammar) a word that comes before a noun to show how the noun is being used: 'Her', 'most' and 'those' are all determiners. كلمة تسبق الاسم توضح استعماله deterrent /dr'terent; US -'ts:-/ noun [C] something that is intended to stop you doing sth: Their punishment will be a deterrent to others. o the belief that nuclear weapons act as a deterrent bedterrent adj detest /dı'test/ verb [T] to hate or dislike sb/sth: They absolutely detest each other.

detonate /ˈdetəneɪt/ verb [I,T] to explode or to make sth explode detour /ˈdi:tvə(r); US dr'tvər/ noun [C] 1 a longer route that you take from one place to another in order to avoid sth or in order to see or do sth:

Because of the accident we had to make a five-kilometre detour.

2 (US) = DIVERSION

detract /drtrækt/ verb [I] detract from sth to make sth seem less good or important: These criticisms in no way detract from the team's achievements.

detriment / 'detriment / noun

IDM to the detriment of sb/sth harming or damaging sb/sth: Doctors claim that the changes will be to the detriment of patients.

فيه ضرر أو أذى ا ► detrimental / detrimentl/ adj: Eating too much sweet food is detrimental to your health.

deuce /dju:s; US du:s/ noun [U] a score of 40 points to each player in a game of tennis er in a game of tennis تعادل أربعين نقطة في التنس

devalue /,di:'vælju:/ verb [T] to reduce the value of the money of one country in relation to the value of the money of other countries: The pound has been devalued against the dollar.

يخفَض قيمة العملة ▶ devaluation /ˌdi:ˌvæljuˈerʃn/ noun [U] تخفيض قيمة العملة

devastate /ˈdevəsteɪt/ verb [T] to destroy sth or damage it badly: a land devastated by war بنسّ تدميراً شديداً

▶ devastated adj 1 completely destroyed

2 shocked or very upset: The community was devastated by the killings.

شديد الاضطراب، مصاب بهزة عنيفة devastating adj 1 that destroys sth complete-اب: a devastating explosion

2 that shocks or upsets sb very much: The closure of the factory was a devastating blow to the workers. منظر اللوبي devastatingly adv

devastatingly adv بشكل هائل devastation /,devə'sterʃn/ noun [U]: a scene of total devastation بمار، خراب

Adevelop /drveləp/ verb 1 [I,T] to grow slowly, increase, or change into sth else; to make sb/sth do this: to develop from a child into an adult o Gradually their friendship developed into love.

o a scheme to help pupils develop their natural talents

2 [T] to begin to have sth: to develop cancer يصاب بِ: تبدأ عليه أعراض المرض

3 [I] to begin to happen or be noticeable: A fault developed when we'd only had the car a month.

Trouble is developing at the border.

يبدأ في الحدوث أو الظهؤر

4 [T] to make pictures or negatives from a piece of film by using special chemicals: to develop a film

5 [T] to build houses, shops, factories, etc. on a piece of land: This site is being developed for offices.

► developed adj of a good level or standard: a highly developed economy متطور. نام developer (also property developer) noun [C] a person or company that develops land شخص أو شركة تتولّى تعمير الأراضي

de'veloping country noun [C] (pl. developing countries) a poor country that is trying to develop or improve its economy

Rdevelopment /dr'veləpmənt/ noun 1 [U] developing or being developed: the development of tourism in many Mediterranean resorts o the history of Japan's development from a feudal to an industrial society o a child's intellectual development

2 [C] a new event: This week has seen a number of new developments in the crisis. تطور ، حدث جدید

3 [C,U] a new product or the act of making a new product: a technological development o research and development

4 [C] a piece of land on which houses, shops, factories, etc. have been built: a new housing development لأرض أقيمت عليها البيوت أو المخازن أو غير ذلك

deviate /'di:viert/ verb [I] to change the way you think or behave, or to start to behave in a way that is not acceptable to other people: He never once deviated from his Christian principles.

▶ deviation /ˌdiːviˈeɪʃn/ noun [C,U] a difference from what is usual or expected, or from what is approved of by society: sexual deviation ∘ a deviation from our usual way of doing things was

**Rdevice /dr'vais/ noun [C] 1 a tool or piece of equipment made for a particular purpose: a security device which detects any movement or change in temperature o labour-saving devices such as washing machines and vacuum cleaners

**D Look at the note at tool.**

2 a trick or plan: Critics dismissed the speech as a political device for winning support.

حيلة ، وسيلة

devil /'devi/ noun [C] 1 the Devil the most powerful evil being, according to religion 🗢 Look at Satan.

2 an evil being or spirit

شيطان

3 (informal) a word used when you are describing a person: The poor devil died in hospital two days later o You're a lucky devil!

(تستعمل وصفاً لشخص): المسكين؛ المحظوظ...

IDM speak/talk of the devil used when the

devious → diamond

person who is being talked about appears unexpectedly

تحدّث عن الشيطان يظهر لك. اذكر الديب وهيّن القضيب!
why, etc. the devil (used for expressing great surprise or annoyance about sth): It's two o'clock in the morning. Where the devil have you been?
بحق السماء! (تستممل تعبيراً عن الاستغراب أو الاستياء) devious /'di:viəs/ adj 1 clever but not honest or direct: I wouldn't trust him – he can be very devi

2 (used about a route, path, etc.) having many bends and curves; not straight devise /dı'vaız/ verb [T] to invent a plan, system, etc: They've devised a plan for keeping traffic out of the city centre.

devoid /dr'vɔɪd/ adj (formal) devoid of sth not having a particular quality; without sth: to be devoid of hope

devolution /ˌdiːvəˈluːʃn; US ˌdev-/ noun [U] the transfer of power, especially from central to local government (الى المقاطعات مثلاً)

R devote /dr'vəvt/ verb [T] devote yourself/sth to sb/sth to give a lot of time, energy, etc. to sb/sth: She gave up work to devote herself full-time to her music. • Schools should devote more time to science subjects.

b devoted adj loving sb/sth very much: Neil's absolutely devoted to his wife. محبا موقع با مخطوع با مخطوع المعالمة المعالمة على المعالمة المعالمة devotion /drvəʊʃn/ noun [U] devotion (to sb/sth) 1 great love: a mother's devotion to her children

2 the act of giving a lot of your time, energy, etc. to sb/sth: devotion to duty تكريس : إخلاص

تقوى ، عبادة great religious feeling devour /dɪ'vaʊə(r)/ verb [T] to eat sth quickly and with enjoyment devout /dı'vaʊt/ adj very religious: a devout Muslim family

→ devoutly adv

dew /dju:; US du:/ noun [U] small drops of water that form on plants, leaves, etc. during the night dexterity /dek'sterəti/ noun [U] skill at doing things, especially with your hands

diabetes /ˌdaɪə'biːtiːz/ noun [U] a serious disease in which a person's body cannot control the level of sugar in the blood

► diabetic /ˌdaiəˈbetik/ adj of or for diabetes or diabetics: diabetic chocolate (= safe for diabetics) متعلق بعرض السكري : خاص بعرض السكري diabetic noun [C] a person who suffers from diabetes diagnose /ˈdaɪəgnəʊz; US ˌdaɪəgˈnəʊs/ verb [T] to find out what is wrong or what illness a person has: His illness was diagnosed as bronchitis.

(العرض العرض العرض)

▶ diagnosis / daiəg'nəʊsis/ noun [C,U] (pl.

diagnoses /-inausi:z/) an act of diagnosing sth:
The doctor's diagnosis was proved right.

O What's your diagnosis of the situation?

diagonal /dai'ægənl/ adj 1 (used about a straight line) not vertical or horizontal; slop-

2 going from one corner to the opposite corner of a square, rectangle, etc.

▶ diagonally /-nəli/ adv: I was sitting diagonally opposite Diane at the table.

R diagram /ˈdaɪəgræm/ noun [C] a simple picture that is used to explain how sth works or what sth looks like: a diagram of the body's digestive system

dial<sup>1</sup> /'daɪəl/ verb [I,T] (dialling; dialled; US dialing; dialed) to move the dial<sup>2</sup>(3) or push the buttons on a telephone in order to call a particular telephone number: You can now dial direct to Singapore. o to dial the wrong number

يدير قرص التليفون؛ يتَلْفِن

dial<sup>2</sup>/'daɪəl/ noun [C] 1 the round part of a clock, watch or other piece of equipment that gives you information about the time or about a measurement. A dial has numbers and a hand or pointer on it: a dial for showing air pressure

وحه الساعة ، لوحة العدّاد

2 the round part on a piece of equipment that you turn to change sth

3 the round part with holes in it on some telephones. You put your finger in one of the holes and turn the dial to call a number.

قرص التليفون dialect /ˈdaɪəlekt/ noun [C,U] a form of a language that is spoken in one part of a country: a local dialect

'dialling code noun [C] (Brit) the numbers that you must dial for a particular area or country: The dialling code for York is 01904.

الرمز التليفوني (لبلد ما)

'dialling tone noun [C,U] (Brit) the sound that you hear when you pick up a telephone before you begin to dial ونين الخطُ التليفوني

dialogue (US dialog) /'danalog; US -lo:g/ noun [C,U] 1 (a) conversation between people in a book, play, etc.

2 (a) discussion between people who have different opinions: a dialogue between the major political parties dialysis /ˌdarˈæləsɪs/ noun [U] a process for separating substances from a liquid, especially for taking waste substances out of the blood of people with damaged kidneys diameter /dar'æmrtə(r)/ noun [C] a straight line that goes from one side to the other of a circle, passing through the centre D Look at radius.

?diamond /'datamend/ noun 1 [C,U] a hard, bright precious stone which is very expensive

diamond wedding → difference and is used for making jewellery and in industry. A diamond usually has no colour. ألماسة: ألماس

- 2 [C] a flat shape that has four sides of equal length and points at two ends
- 3 diamonds [plural] the group (suit) of playing cards with red shapes like diamonds(2) on them
- 4 [C] one of the cards from this suit

قة لعب ديناري

diamond 'wedding noun [C] the 60th anniversary of a wedding ◆ Look at golden wedding and silver wedding.

الاحتفال بمرور ستين عاماً على الزواج diaper /'daiəpə(r); US 'daipər/ noun [C] (US) = NAPPY

- diaphragm /ˈdaɪəfræm/ noun [C] the muscle between your lungs and your stomach that helps you to breathe
- diarrhoea (US diarrhea) / daɪəˈrɪə/ noun [U] an illness that causes you to pass waste material (faeces) from your bowels very often and in a more liquid form than usual: diarrhoea and vomiting
- Ç diary /ˈdaɪəri/ noun [C] (pl. diaries) 1 a book in which you write down your appointments, etc: I'll just check in my diary to see if I'm free that weekend. 2 Look at the note at calendar.
  - 2 a book in which you write down what happens to you each day: Do you keep a diary?
  - dice /dais/ noun [C] (pl. dice) a small cube with a different number of spots (from one to six) on each side, used in certain games: Throw the dice to see who goes first.
- dictate /dık'teıt; US 'dıkteıt/ verb 1 [I,T] to say sth aloud so that sb else can write or type it: to dictate a letter to a secretary
- 2 [I.T] to tell or order sb to do sth: Parents can't dictate to their children how they should run their lives.
- 3 [T] to decide or influence sth: The kind of house people live in is usually dictated by how much they earn.
- dictation /dik'teifn/ noun [C,U] spoken words that so else must write or type: We had a dictation in English today (= a test in which we had to write down what the teacher said).
- dictator /dık'teɪtə(r); US 'dıkteɪtər/ noun [C] a ruler who has total power in a country, especially one who used force to gain power and who rules the country unfairly
- ► dictatorship noun [C,U] government by a dictator; a country that is ruled by a dictator: a military dictatorship دکتاورید . حکم مطلق
- R dictionary /ˈdɪkʃənri; US -neri/ noun [C] (pl. dictionaries) a book that lists the words of a language in alphabetical order and that tells you what they mean, in the same or another language: to look up a word in a dictionary o a bilingual/monolingual dictionary o a French-English dictionary

did pt of DO

didn't short for DID NOT

- R die /dat/ verb (pres part dying; 3rd pers sing pres dies; pt, pp died) 1 [1] to stop living: Thousands of people have died from this disease. o to die of hunger o to die of a heart attack o to die for what you believe in o (figurative) Our love will never die.
  - 2 [T] to have a particular kind of death: to die a natural death (العبقياً مثلاً)

DM be dying for sth/to do sth to want sth/to do sth very much: I'm dying for a cup of coffee.

في غاية التلهف أو قبي أشد الصاّجة إلى die hard to change or disappear only slowly or with difficulty: Old attitudes towards women die hard.

to die for if you think that sth is to die for, you really want it and would do anything to get it: They have a house in town that's to die for.

يموت في سبيل غرض ما

PHRY die away to slowly become weaker before stopping or disappearing: The sound of the engine died away as the car drove into the distance.

die down to slowly become less strong: Let's wait until the storm dies down before we go out.

يخف ، يسكن ! يخمد die out to disappear: The use of horses on farms has almost died out in this country.

يزول ، يختفي ؛ ينقرض

الطعام المعتاد

- diesel /ˈdiːzl/ noun 1 (also 'diesel engine) [C] an engine in buses, trains, and some cars that uses heavy oil
- 2 [U] the heavy oil that is used in these engines: a taxi that runs on diesel 2 Look at petrol.
- ? diet /daɪət/ noun 1 [C,U] the food that a person or animal usually eats: The peasants live on a diet of rice and vegetables. Poor diet is a cause of ill
  - 2 [C] certain foods that a person who is ill, or who wants to lose weight is allowed to eat: a low-fat diet
  - imm be/go on a diet to eat only certain foods or a small amount of food because you want to lose weight: I won't have a cake, thank you. I'm on a diet.
  - ► diet verb [I] to be trying to lose weight by eating less food or only certain kinds of food: You've lost some weight. Have you been dieting?
  - differ /ˈdɪfə(r)/ verb [I] 1 differ (from sb/sth) to be different: How does this car differ from the more expensive model?
  - 2 differ (with sb) (about/on sth) to have a different opinion: I'm afraid I differ with you on that question.
- **Rdifference /'difrens/ noun 1 [C] difference (between A and B) the way that people or things are not the same or the way that sb/sth has changed: What's the difference between this computer and that cheaper one? From a dis-health.

different → dignified

tance, it's hard to tell the difference between the twins.

2 [C,U] difference (in sth) (between A and B) the amount by which people or things are not the same or by which sb/sth has changed: There's an age difference of three years between the two children. o There's very little difference in price since last year. o We paid a 30% deposit and we'll pay the difference when the work is finished (= the rest of the money).

3 [C] a disagreement that is not very serious: All couples have their differences from time to time.

make a, some, etc. difference (to sb/sth) to have an effect (on sb/sth): A week's holiday made a lot of difference to her health.

make no difference (to sb/sth); not make any difference to not be important (to sb/sth): It makes no difference to us if the baby is a girl or a boy.

- R different /ˈdɪfrənt/ adj 1 different (from/to sb/sth) not the same: Cricket is quite different from baseball. The play was different to anything I had seen before. The two houses are very different in style. In US English different than is also used.
  - 2 separate; individual: This coat is available in three different colours.
  - ► differently adv: I think you'll feel differently about it tomorrow.
  - differentiate /ˌdɪfəˈrenʃieɪt/ verb 1 [I,T] differentiate between A and B; differentiate A (from B) to see how things are different: It is hard to differentiate between these two species of fungus.
  - 2 [T] differentiate sth (from sth) to make one thing different from another: The coloured feathers differentiate the male bird from the plain brown female.
  - 3 [T] to treat one person or group differently from another: We don't differentiate between the two groups we treat everybody alike.

يميز واحدأ على الآخر

- Ç difficult /'difikəlt/ adj 1 not easy to do or understand: a difficult test o a difficult problem o a difficult language to learn o Dean found it difficult to pass the driving test. o It was difficult for Dean to pass the driving test. o I'm in a difficult situation. Whatever I do, somebody will be upset.
  - 2 (used about a person) not friendly, reasonable or helpful: a difficult customer
- R difficulty /ˈdɪfikəlti/ noun (pl. difficulties) 1 [U] difficulty (in sth/in doing sth) the state of being difficult or of not being able to do sth easily: Gail had great difficulty in getting a visa to go to America. We had no difficulty selling our car.
  - 2 [C, usually pl.] something that is difficult to do or understand; a problem: There will be some difficulties to start with but things should get easier later. • If you borrow too much money you may get into financial difficulties. معوبة، مشكلة diffident /ˈdɪfɪdənt/ adj not feeling or showing belief or confidence in your own strengths or abilities: He has a very diffident manner.

▶ diffidence /-dəns/ noun [U]

استحياء، عدم ثقة بالنفس

[LT] to move earth and make a hole using your hands, a spade, a machine, etc: The children are busy digging in the sand. o to dig a hole o to dig for gold

PHRV dig sth in; dig sth into sth to push sth into sb/sth: She dug her fingernails into my arm.

dig sb/sth out (of sth) 1 to get sb/sth out of sth by digging: Rescue workers dug the survivors out of the rubble.

2 to get or find sb/sth by searching: Bill went into the attic and dug out some old photos.

يجداً ويستخرج (بعد تفتيش)، ينتبش dig sth up 1 to remove sth from the earth by digging: to dig up potatoes

2 to make a hole or take away soil by digging: Workmen are digging up the road in front of our house.

3 to find information by searching or studying: Newspapers have dug up some embarrassing facts about his private life.

▶ dig noun 1 [C] a hard push: to give sb a dig in the ribs (= with your elbow, etc.)

2 [C] something that you say to upset sb: The others kept making digs at him because of the way he spoke.

3 digs [plural] (Brit old-fashioned) a room in a person's house that you rent and live in: Some university students have flats, others live in digs.

digest /dar'dʒest; dr-/ verb [T] 1 to change food in your stomach so that it can be used by the body

2 to think about new information so that you understand it fully (يهضم أو يتمثل (عقلياً)

▶ digestion /darˈdʒestʃən; dr-/ noun [C,U] the process of digesting food digestive /darˈdʒestɪv; dr-/ adj: the digestive system

digit /'dɪdʒɪt/ noun [C] any of the numbers from 0 to 9: a six-digit telephone number

رقم (من الصفر إلى التسعة) ، خانة

digital /ˈdɪdʒɪtl/ adj 1 using an electronic system that uses the numbers 1 and 0 to record sound or store information, and that gives results of a high quality: a digital recording

2 a digital watch or clock shows the time by numbers alone and does not have hands or a dial دو أرقام، رقميً dignified /'dıgnıfaıd/ adj behaving in a calm, serious way that makes other people respect you: dignified behaviour for The opposite is undignified.

dignity → diocese

219

dignity /'dignəti/ noun [U] 1 calm, serious behaviour that makes other people respect you: to behave with dignity o He managed to keep his dignity, even in prison. وقار ، هيبة

2 the quality of being serious or formal: the quiet dignity of the funeral service

digress /dar'gres/ verb [I] (formal) to stop talking or writing about the main subject under discussion and start talking or writing about another, possibly less important, one استطراد ▶ digression /dar'gre∫n/ noun [C,U]

dike → DYKE

dilapidated /di'læpideitid/ adj (used about a building, furniture, etc.) old and broken

▶ dilapidation /dɪˌlæpɪˈdeɪ∫n/ noun [U] تداع ، خراب ، تهدّم dilemma /dı'lemə/ noun [C] a situation in which you have to make a difficult choice between two or more things: Doctors face the moral dilemma of when to keep patients alive artificially and when ورطة ، خيار بين أمور صعبة

dill /dɪl/ noun [U] a herb used in cooking whose seeds have a strong taste: dill pickles

شبّت، سنّوت، رز الدجاج

dilute /dar'lu:t/ verb [T] dilute sth (with sth) to make a liquid weaker by adding water or another liquid Cook at concentrate.

▶ dilute adj dim /dim/ adj (dimmer; dimmest) 1 not bright or easily seen; not clear: The light was too dim to read by. o a dim shape in the distance o My memories of my grandmother are a bit dim.

2 (informal) not very clever; stupid: He's a bit بليد ، بطيء الفهم ▶ dim verb [I,T] (dimming; dimmed) to become or make sth dim (1): to dim the lights يخفت (الأضواء) ، يعتّم ؛ يصبح معتماً أو ضعيفاً dimly adv: I dimly remember meeting him some-بصورة غير واضحة ، بغموض where before.

dime /daim/ noun [C] a coin used in the USA and Canada that is worth ten cents

قطعة نقود أمريكية تعادل 10 سنتات dimension /dar'mensn/ noun 1 [C,U] a measurement of the length, width or height of sth

2 dimensions [plural] the size of sth including its length, width and height: to measure the dimensions of a room o (figurative) The full dimensions of this problem are only now being recognized.

3 [C] something that affects the way you think about a problem or situation: Global warming has added a new dimension to the problem of نُعُد؛ عنصر، معطى hunger in the world.

▶ -dimensional /-∫ənəl/ (in compounds) with the number of dimensions mentioned: a threedimensional object ذو (ثلاثة) أبعاد diminish /di'minis/ verb [I,T] (formal) to become or to make sth smaller or less important: The bad news did nothing to diminish her enthusiasm for يقلُل ، يَضْعف ؛ يقلّ ، يَضعف the plan.

diminutive /di'mɪnjətɪv/ adj (formal) very small dimple /'dimpl/ noun [C] a small round hollow area on your chin, cheek, etc. which can often only be seen when you smile

din /dɪn/ noun [sing.] a loud unpleasant noise that continues for some time: Will you stop making مجيج مزعج ، جلبة such a din!

dine /dam/ verb [I] (formal) to eat dinner: We dined at an exclusive French restaurant. o We dined on fresh salmon. يتناول العشاء

PHRV dine out to eat in a restaurant يتناول العشاء في مطعم

▶ diner /'damə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person who iş eating at a restaurant متناول الطعام في مطعم

2 (US) a small restaurant beside a main road مطعم صغير بجانب طريق عام ding-dong /'din don/ noun [U] the sound that a bell makes dinghy /'dɪŋi/ noun [C] (pl. dinghies) 1 a small sailing boat Dook at yacht. زورق شراعی صغیر

2 a small open boat, often used to take people to or from a larger boat dingy /'dɪndʒi/ adj (dingier; dingiest) dirty and not bright or cheerful: a dark and dingy room dining → DINE

'dining room noun [C] a room where you eat meals

dinner /ˈdɪnə(r)/ noun 1 [C,U] the main meal of خافت، مُعتم ؛ ضعيف the day, eaten either at midday or in the evening: What time is dinner served? o That was a lovely dinner you cooked. O It's dinner time/time for din-الوحبة الرئيسية

> People from different parts of the country, different backgrounds, etc. have different ways of talking about their meals. As a general rule, if dinner is eaten at midday the lighter meal eaten in the evening is then called tea or supper. Supper is eaten later in the evening than tea. Tea may also mean a drink with cake or biscuits in the late afternoon. If dinner is eaten in the evening, the lighter meal eaten at midday is then called lunch.

2 [C] a formal occasion in the evening during which a meal is served: A dinner was given for the president.

'dinner jacket (US tuxedo) noun [C] a black or white jacket that a man wears on formal occasions. A dinner jacket is usually worn with a بدلة السهرة للرحال bow tie.

dinosaur /'daməsə:(r)/ noun [C] a very large animal that disappeared from the earth (became extinct) before the appearance of Man diocese /'daɪəsɪs/ noun [C] an area containing a number of churches, for which a bishop is responsible dip /dip/ verb (dipping; dipped) 1 [T] dip sth (into sth); dip sth (in) to put sth into liquid for a short time: Julie dipped her toe into the pool to see how cold it was. يغمس ، يغطس

2 [I,T] to go down; to lower sth: The road suddenly dipped down to the river. o The driver dipped his headlights when a car came in the opposite direction. ينحدر : يخفض ، يخفف

PHRV dip into sth 1 to take money out of sth: Tim had to dip into his savings to pay for his new ينفق ، يسحب نقوداً

- 2 to read parts, but not all, of sth: I've only dipped into the book. I haven't read it all the way
- ▶ dip noun 1 [C] a drop; a downwards move-انخفاض ؛ انحدار ment: a dip in sales
- 2 [C] (informal) a quick swim: We went for a dip غطسة ، سبحة سريعة before breakfast.
- 3 [C,U] a thick sauce that you eat by dipping pieces of vegetable, bread, etc. into it
  - صلصة يغمس فيها الطعام
- 4 [C] an area of lower ground: The cottage lay in a dip in the hills.
- diphtheria /dɪf θɪəriə/ noun [U] a serious disease of the throat that makes it difficult to الخنَّاق أو الدفتريا breathe
- diphthong /'difθon; US -θo:n/ noun [C] two vowel sounds pronounced together, making one ?direct2 /də'rekt; dı-; daɪ-/ verb [T] 1 direct sb sound: The /aɪ/ sound in 'fine' is a diphthong. تتابع حرفي علَّة في مقطع واحد
- diploma /dr'pləomə/ noun [C] 1 a qualification that you receive when you complete a course of study, often at a college: a diploma in hotel management شهادة دراسية
- 2 the official piece of paper which shows that you have completed a course of study 2 Look at the note at degree. وثيقة (دراسية)
- diplomacy /di'pləuməsi/ noun [U] 1 the management of the relations between countries
- 2 skill in dealing with people: He handled the awkward situation with tact and diplomacy.

- دبلوماسية ، كياسة diplomat /'dipləmæt/ noun [C] one of the officials who represent their country abroad: a dip-
- lomat at the embassy in Rome ▶ diplomatic / drpləˈmætɪk/ adj 1 connected with diplomacy (1): The two countries will restore diplomatic relations and the embassies will be دبلوماسي reopened.
- 2 clever at dealing with people: He searched for a diplomatic reply so as not to offend her.

لبق، كيُس، دبلوماسيٌ

diplomatically /-kli/ adv

بالطرق الدبلوماسيّة ؛ دبلوماسيّاً dire /'daɪə(r)/ adj (formal) very bad or serious; terrible: dire consequences o dire poverty فظيع ، وخيم : (فقر) مدقع

? direct1 /də'rekt; d1-; da1-/ adj 1 going from one place to another without turning or stopping; straight: The most direct route is through the city centre. o a direct flight to Hong Kong

مباشر ؛ دون توقّف

- 2 with nobody/nothing in between; not involving anybody/anything else: The Prime Minister is in direct contact with the President. o a direct attack on the capital o As a direct result of the new road, traffic jams in the centre have been
- 3 saying what you mean; clear: Politicians never give a direct answer to a direct question.
- 1 The opposite for senses 1, 2 and 3 is indirect.
- 4 (only before a noun) complete; exact: What she did was in direct opposition to my orders.

▶ direct adv 1 not turning or stopping; straight: This bus goes direct to London.

رأساً ، دون توقّف

2 not involving anybody/anything else: I always مباشرة deal direct with the manager.

directly adv 1 exactly; in a direct way: The bank is directly opposite the supermarket. O He refused to answer my question directly. 6 The تماماً ؛ بصورة صريحة opposite is indirectly.

2 immediately; very soon: Wait where you are. I'll be back directly. حالاً ؛ بعد قليل directly conj as soon as: I phoned him directly I heard the news.

- (to...) to tell or show sb how to get somewhere: I was directed to an office at the end of the corridor. ○ Look at the note at lead<sup>3</sup>(1). يدلّ، يرشد
  - 2 to manage or control sb/sth: a policeman in the middle of the road, directing the traffic o to direct a play, film, etc.
  - 3 direct sth to/towards sb/sth; direct sth at sb/sth to turn or aim your attention or actions towards sb/sth: In recent weeks the media's attention has been directed towards events abroad. o The advert is directed at young يوجُه
  - 4 (formal) to tell or order sb to do sth: Take the tablets as directed by your doctor.

di_rect 'debit noun [C,U] an order to your bank that allows sb else to take a particular amount of money out of your account on certain dates

دفع مباشر: تخويل البنك لتحويل مبلغ معين في موعد معين

?direction /də'reksn; da-/ noun 1 [C] the path or line along which a person or thing is moving, looking or pointing: When the path divided, they didn't know which direction to take. o A woman was seen running in the direction of the station. o The wind has changed direction.  $\circ$  People began arriving from all directions.  $\circ$  We met him coming in the opposite direction.

اتّحاه ، جهة

2 [C, usually pl.] information or instructions about how to do sth or how to get to a place ارشادات ، تعلّیمات

- 3 [U] management or control: This department is under the direction of Mrs Walters. o the direction of a play, film, etc.
- 4 [C,U] a purpose; an aim: Once again her life seemed lacking in direction.
- directive /dəˈrektɪv; dɪ-; daɪ-/ noun [C] an official order to do sth: an EU directive on safety at work تعليمات، توجيه أو أمر رسمي

directly adv → DIRECT1

- di,rect 'object noun [C] a noun or phrase that is directly affected by the action of a verb: In the sentence 'Anna bought a CD', 'a CD' is the direct object. © Look at indirect object.
- § director /də'rektə(r); dı-; dar-/ noun [C] 1 a person who manages or controls a company or organization: the managing director of Rolls Royce of the director of studies of a language school
  - 2 a person who tells the actors, camera crew, etc., what to do in a film, play, etc.
- directory /dəˈrektəri; dɪ-; daɪ-/ noun [C] (pl. directories) 1 an alphabetical list of names, addresses and telephone numbers
- 2 a file containing a group of other files or programs in a computer
- direct 'speech noun [U] the actual words that a person said 3 Look at indirect speech.
- کلمان المتحدّث کما قالها تماماً q dirt /da:t/ noun [U] 1 a substance that is not clean, such as dust or mud: Wipe the dirt off your
  - 2 earth or soil: a dirt track shoes before you come in.

- Adirty¹/ˈdɜːti/ adj (dirtier; dirtiest) 1 not clean:
  Your hands are dirty. Go and wash them! Lighting the fire can be a dirty job (= it makes you dirty).
  - 2 referring to sex in a way that may upset or offend people: to tell a dirty joke
  - 3 unpleasant or dishonest: He's a dirty player. د He doesn't sell the drugs himself – he gets kids to do his dirty work for him. منحط. لا وازع له المنافع a dirty word an idea or thing that you do not like or agree with
  - dirty² /ˈdɜːti/ verb [I,T] (pres part dirtying; 3rd pers sing pres dirties; pt, pp dirtied) to become or to make sth dirty
  - disability /ˌdɪsə'biləti/ noun (pl. disabilities) 1 [U] the state of being unable to use a part of your body properly: physical/mental disability
  - 2 [C] something that makes you unable to use a part of your body properly: Because of his disability, he needs constant care.
  - disable /dis'eibl/verb[T] (often passive) to make sb unable to use a part of his/her body properly: Many soldiers were disabled in the war.
- R disabled /dis'erbld/ adj unable to use a part of your body properly: The car has been adapted for disabled drivers.

- ► the disabled noun [plural] people who are disabled: The hotel has improved facilities for the disabled. There are new lifts and wheelchair ramps.
- Adisadvantage / disəd'va:ntid3; US 'væn/ noun [C] 1 something that may make you less successful than other people: Your qualifications are good. Your main disadvantage is your lack of experience.
  - 2 something that is not good or that causes problems: The main disadvantage of the job is the long hours. What are the advantages and disadvantages of nuclear power?
  - DM put sb/be at a disadvantage to put sb/be in a situation where he/she/you may be less successful than other people: The fact that you don't speak the language will put you at a disadvantage in France.
  - يقلّل من فرص نجاحه ، يشعه في موقف أضعف to sb's disadvantage (formal) not good or helpful for sb: The agreement will be to your disadvantage - don't accept it.
  - b disadvantaged adj in a bad social or economic situation; poor: extra help for the most disadvantaged members of society معتاج فقير disadvantageous / disædvæn'terd3os/ adj causing sb to be in a worse situation compared to other people
- R disagree / disa'gri: / verb [I] 1 disagree (with sb/sth) (about/on sth) to have a different opinion from sb/sth; not agree: Nigel often disagrees with his father about politics. They strongly disagreed with the idea.
  - 2 to be different: These two sets of statistics disagree.
  - ► disagreement noun 1 [U] disagreement (about/on sth) having a different opinion from sb or not agreeing with sb/sth: There's great disagreement about what causes people to turn to crime.
  - 2 [C] an argument: Mandy resigned after a disagreement with her boss.
- disagreeable /ˌdɪsəˈgri:əbl/ adj (formal) unpleasant غير مستحبّ، بغيض، مزعج بصورة مزعجة disagreeably /-əbli/ adv
- disallow /ˌdɪsəˈlaʊ/ verb [T] to not allow or accept sth: The goal was disallowed because the player was offside.

  روفن ، پردُ ؛ لا يسمح
- R disappear / disəˈpiə(r) / verb [I] 1 to become impossible to see; to go away: He walked away and disappeared into a crowd of people. My purse was here a moment ago and now it's disappeared.
  - 2 to go to a place where you cannot be found: She disappeared five years ago and has never been heard of since. يختفي (من الوجود)
  - to stop existing: Plant and animal species are disappearing at an alarming rate. ينظر ض بزول be disappearance /-Pipierons/ noun [C.U]: The mystery of her disappearance was never solved.
    - stery of her disappearance was never solved. اختفاء : زوال
- I disappoint / disə point / verb [T] to make sb sad

يعجز ، يكسح

disapprove → discipline

because what he/she had hoped for has not happened or because sb/sth is less good, interesting, etc. then he/she had hoped: I'm sorry to disappoint you but I'm afraid you haven't won the prize.

▶ disappointed adj disappointed (about/at sth); disappointed (in/with sb/sth) sad because you/sb/sth did not succeed or because sth was not as good, interesting, etc. as you had hoped: They are very disappointed that they can't stay longer. ○ We were disappointed with our accommodation — we were expecting a luxury apartment. ○ Lucy was deeply disappointed at not being chosen for the team. ○ I'm disappointed in you. I thought you could do better.

خانب الأمل ، مخذول disappointing adj making you feel sad because stown was not as good, interesting, etc. as you had hoped: It has been a disappointing year for the company.

disappointingly adv. The amount of money they collected was disappointingly small.

بمورة غير متوقّعة ، بشكل مخيّب disappointment noun 1 [U] the state of being disappointed: To his great disappointment he failed to get the job.

2 [C] a disappointment (to sb) a person or thing that disappoints you: Our holiday was a bit of a disappointment.

Ç disapprove /,disə'pru:v/ verb [I] disapprove (of sb/sth) to think that sb/sth is bad, foolish, etc: His parents strongly disapproved of him leaving college before he had finished his course.

ستنكر، يستهجن الايستحسن • disapproval /-'pru:vl/ noun [U] a feeling that sth is bad or that sb is behaving badly: to shake your head in disapproval

استنكار، استهجان: عدم استحسان disapproving adj: After he had told the joke there was a disapproving silence.

دالَ على الاستهجان أو الاستنكار disapprovingly adv: David frowned disapprovingly when I lit a cigarette. باستنكان باستهجان، بعدم استحسان disarm /dis'a:m/ verb 1 [T] to take weapons away from sb: The police caught and disarmed the terrorists.

2 [I] (used about a country) to reduce the number of weapons it has

3 [T] to make sb feel less angry يُلطُّف من حدَّة غضبه

► disarmament /dɪs'ɑːməmənt/ noun [U] reducing the number of weapons that a country has:

nuclear disarmament نزع السلاح

disassociate = DISSOCIATE

? disaster /dr'zɑ:stə(r); US -'zæs-/ noun 1 [C] an event that causes a lot of harm or damage: earth-quakes, floods and other natural disasters

كارثة ، نكبة

2 [C] a person or thing that is very bad, harmful or unsuccessful: The school play was an absolute disaster. Everything went wrong.

حَلَثُ فاشل، طامّة؛ شخص أخرق

3 [U] failure; a terrible situation: The drought brought disaster to the area. فشل: أوضاع صعبة برزء

→ disastrous /dr'xa:strəs; US -'zæs-/ adj very bad, harmful or unsuccessful: Our mistake had disastrous results.

disastrously adv: The plan went disastrously disastrously adv: The plan went disastrously wrong. went disastrously disband /dɪsˈbænd/ verb [I,T] to stop existing as a group; to break up disbelieve / disbr'li:v/ verb [T] to think that sth is not true or that sb is not telling the truth: I have no reason to disbelieve her.

▶ disbelief / disbr'li:f/ noun [U] not believing sb/sth: 'It can't be true!' he shouted in disbelief.

□ disbelief | disbr'li:f/ noun [U] not believing sb/sth: 'It can't be true!' he shouted in disbelief.

? disc (especially US disk) /disk/ noun [C] 1 a round flat object

2 = CD

3 (Brit) a disk for a computer

4 one of the pieces of thin strong material (cartilage) between the bones in your back غضروف بين الفقرات

5 (old-fashioned) = RECORD

discard /dɪs'kɑːd/ verb [T] (formal) to throw sth away because it is not useful يطرح ، ينبذ ، يرمي جانباً discern /dr'sa:n/ verb [T] (formal) to see or notice sth with difficulty: I discerned a note of anger in his voice.

▶ discernible adj that can only be seen or noticed with difficulty: The shape of a house was just discernible through the mist.

مشاهد أو مميز بصعوبة

discerning /dr'sa:mɪŋ/ adj able to recognize the quality of sb/sth: The discerning music lover will appreciate the excellence of this recording.

بصير ، حصيف، ذو خبرة discharge /dis'tsad3/ verb [T] 1 to send sth out (a liquid, gas, etc.): Smoke and fumes are discharged from the factory and cause air pollution.

2 to allow sb officially to leave; to send sb away: to discharge sb from hospital, the army, etc.

يُخْرِج ؛ يخلي سبيله ، يسرُح

3 to do or carry sth out (a duty, task, etc.) يقوم (بعمله) . يؤدي (واجبه)

► discharge /ˈdɪstʃɑːdʒ/ noun [C.U] 1 the action of sending sb/sth out or away: The discharge of oil from the leaking tanker could not be prevented. ○ The wounded soldier was given a medical discharge.

2 a substance that has come out of somewhere: yellowish discharge from a wound

إفراز ، مادة مفرزة ، صديد

disciple /dr'saɪpl/ noun [C] a person who follows a teacher, especially a religious one: the twelve disciples of Jesus

? discipline /'disəplin/ noun 1 [U] a way of training your mind and body so that you control your actions and obey rules: military discipline ○ It takes a lot of self-discipline to train for three hours a day. ضبط ، انضباط

- 2 [U] the result of such training: A good teacher must be able to maintain discipline in the class-
- 3 [C] a subject of study; a type of sporting event: academic disciplines o Olympic disciplines
- موضوع دراسي ؛ حدث رياضي ً ▶ discipline verb [T] 1 to train sb to obey and to behave in a controlled way: You should discipline yourself to practise the piano every
- 2 to punish sb

يعاقب ، يؤدُّب disciplinary /'disəplməri; US -neri/ adj connected with punishment for breaking rules

'disc jockey noun [C] (abbr DJ) a person whose job is to play and introduce pop music on the radio or in a disco مقدم التسجيلات الموسيقية الحديثة disclaim /dis'kleim/ verb [T] to say that you do not have sth, especially responsibility or knowledge يتنصل من ؛ ينكر disclose /dis'klauz/ verb [T] (formal) to tell sth to sb or to make sth known publicly: The newspapers did not disclose the victim's name.

يكشف عن ، يعلن ، يفشى ▶ disclosure /dis'kləʊʒə(r)/ noun [C,U] making sth known; the facts that are made known: the disclosure of secret information o He resigned following disclosures about his private life.

كشف عن ؛ فَضْح ، حقائق تظهر للوجود

disco /'diskəu/ (also formal discotheque) noun [C] (pl. discos) a place, party, etc. where people مرقص ، "ديسكو" dance to popular music

discolour (US discolor) /dis'kalə(r)/ verb 1 [1] to change colour (often by the effect of light, age or dirt) يتغير لونه ، يبهت

2 [T] to change or spoil the colour of sth

يغير اللون أو يفسده

discomfort /dis'kamfət/ noun 1 [U] a slight feeling of pain: There may be some discomfort from the wound after the operation.

ألم خفيف ، انزعاج

- able or that causes a slight feeling of pain: The beauty of the scenery made up for the discomforts شيء متعب ، مشقّة of the journey.
- حرج ، عدم ارتياح 3 [U] a feeling of embarrassment

disconcert / disken'ss:t/ verb [T] (usually passive) to make sb feel confused or worried: She was disconcerted when everyone stopped talking يربك ، يقلق and listened to her. مريك ، مثير للقلق

▶ disconcerting adj disconcertingly adv

بصورة تبعث على القلق : بشكل محرج disconnect / diskə nekt/ verb [T] to undo two things that are joined or connected together: If you don't pay your gas bill your supply will be dis-يفك ، يفصل ، يقطع

discontent /,disken'tent/ (also discontentment /,disken'tentment/) noun [U] the state of being unhappy or not satisfied with sth

استياء ، سخط ، تذمّر ▶ discontented adj unhappy or not satisfied مستاء ، ساخط ، متذمّر discontinue / diskən'tinju: / verb [T] (formal) to stop sth or stop producing sth

يوقف ، يتوقّف عن إنتاج شيء

discord /'disko:d/ noun (formal) 1 [U] disagreement or argument خلاف ، نزاع

2 [C] two or more musical notes that do not sound pleasant when they are played together

▶ discordant /dis'ko:dent/ adj not producing harmony; causing an unpleasant impression: Her criticism was the only discordant note in the متنافر ، متضارب ، ناشز discussion.

discotheque /'diskətek/ noun [C] (formal) = discount¹ /ˈdɪskaʊnt/ noun [C.U] a reduction in the price or cost of sth: Staff get 20% discount on all goods. o Do you give a discount for cash? خَصْم ، حَسْم ، تخفيض discount<sup>2</sup> /dis'kaont; US 'diskaont/ verb [T] to consider sth not true or not important: I think we can discount that idea. It's just not practical. يهمل، يصرف النظر عن discourage /dis'karid3/ verb [T] 1 discourage sb (from doing sth) to make sb lose hope or feel less confident about sth: Don't let these little problems discourage you. يثبط العزيمة

2 discourage sb from doing sth to try to stop sb doing sth: Consumers should be discouraged from throwing away glass and tins. 1 The op-يشجّعه على ألاّ.... posite is encourage.

b discouraged adj having lost hope; not feeling confident about sth: After failing the exam again Paul felt very discouraged.

فاقد الأمل ، ضعيف الثقة ب .... discouragement noun [C,U] discouraging or being discouraged; something that discourages you: High parking charges would be a discouragement to people taking their cars into the city تشبيط العزيمة : شيء غير مشجّع centre.

learn sth that nobody knew or had found before: Who discovered Australia? Scientists are hoping to discover the cause of the epidemic.

> 2 to find or learn sth new or unexpected or sth that you did not know before: I think I've discovered why the computer won't print out. o We recently discovered that a famous writer يكتشف ، يعلم used to live in this house.

> ▶ discoverer noun [C] a person who discovers discovery /di'skavəri/ noun (pl. discoveries) 1 [U] finding sth: The discovery of X-rays changed the history of medicine. O The discovery of fingerprints in the car helped the police to find the thief.

2 [C] something that has been discovered: scientific discoveries discredit /dis'kredit/ verb [T] to cause sb/sth to

discreet → disguise

يزعزع ثقة الناسُّ به ؛ يشوُّه سمعته

▶ discredit noun [U] loss of trust; damage to the فقدان الثقة بـ : تشويه السمعة reputation of sb/sth discreet /dr'skri:t/ adj careful not to attract attention and so cause embarrassment or difficulty for sb: She was too discreet to mention the argument in front of Neil. 1 The noun is discretion. The opposite is indiscreet. كيس، حذر، متحفظ بحذر، بتحفظ ▶ discreetly adv discrepancy /dis'krepansi/ noun [C,U] (pl. discrepancies) a difference between two things that should be the same: Something is wrong here. There is a discrepancy between these two sets of تضارب أو تفاوت ، اختلاف figures.

discretion /dr/skre[n/ noun [U] 1 care not to attract attention and so cause embarrassment or difficulty for sb: This is confidential but I know I can rely on your discretion. The adjective is dis-تحفّظ ، حذر ، لباقة creet.

2 the freedom and ability to make decisions by yourself: You must decide what is best. Use your اجتهاد ؛ حرية الاختيار

IDM at sb's discretion depending on what sb thinks or decides: Pay increases are awarded at the discretion of the director.

وفق قراره ، (يتوقّف) على اجتهاده discriminate /di'skrimineit/ verb 1 [I] discriminate (against sb) to treat one person or group worse than others: It is illegal to discriminate against any ethnic or religious group.

يتحامل على ، يتحيّز ضد

2 [I,T] discriminate (between A and B) to see or make a difference between two people or things: The immigration law discriminates between political and economic refugees. يفرق ، يميز ▶ discrimination /di,skrimi'nei∫n/ noun [U] 1 discrimination (against sb) treating one person or group worse than others: sexual, racial, religious, etc. discrimination تفرقة ، تمييز ، تحيّز 2 the state of being able to judge what is good, حصافة ، حسن التمييز true, etc.

discus /'diskəs/ noun [C] a heavy round flat ob; قرص (رمي القرص) ject that is thrown as a sport

Ldiscuss /di'skas/ verb [T] discuss sth (with sb) to talk or write about sth seriously or formally: I must discuss the matter with my parents before I make a decision. O The article discusses the need for a change in the law. ▶ discussion /dr'sk∧∫n/ noun [C,U] a time when you talk about sth: After much discussion we all agreed to share the cost. o a long discussion on the meaning of life

IDM under discussion being talked about: Plans to reform the Health Service are under discussion in Parliament.

disdain /dis'dem/ noun [U] the feeling that sb/ sth is not good enough and does not deserve to ترفّع، أنفة ، ازدراء مترفّع، مِمتهن، مزد be respected ▶ disdainful /-fl/ adj بترفَع، بأنفة ، بازدراء disdainfully /-fali/ adv

lose people's trust; to damage the reputation of ?disease/diziz/noun[C,U] an illness of the body in humans, animals or plants: an infectious disease o Many diseases can be prevented by vaccination. o Rats and flies spread disease. ▶ diseased adj: His diseased kidney had to be مريض أو ممروض ، معلول removed.

> Illness and disease can be used in a similar way. However, we use disease to describe a type of illness which has a name and is recognized by certain symptoms. Diseases may be caused by bacteria, viruses, etc., and you can often catch and pass them on to others. Illness is used to describe the general state of being ill and the time during which you are not well.

disembark / disim'ba:k/ verb [I] to get off a ship or a plane: All foot passengers should disembark ينزل من سفينة أو طائرة from Deck B. ▶ disembarkation / dis,emba: 'kei∫n/ noun نزول من سفينة أو طائرة

disenchanted / disin't faintid; US -t fænt-/ adj having lost your good opinion of sb/sth

خائب الأمل ب، لم يعد مسحوراً بـ ▶ disenchantment noun [U]: There is increasing disenchantment among voters with the gov-خيبة أمل ؛ فقد الثقة ernment's policies.

disentangle / dism'tængl/ verb [T] 1 to remove the knots from sth and make it straight: to disentangle wool, rope, string, etc.

يحلَ أو يفكَ التعقّد أو التشابكَ

2 to free sb/sth that was stuck in or attached to sb/sth else: I helped to disentangle the sheep from the bush. يفكء يحرر

disfigure /dis'figə(r); US dis'figjər/ verb [T] to spoil the appearance of sb/sth disgrace /dis'greis/ noun 1 [U] the state of not being respected by other people, usually because you have behaved badly: There is no disgrace in not having much money.

2 [sing.] a disgrace (to sb/sth) a person or thing that gives such a bad impression that other people feel ashamed: The streets are covered in litter. It's a disgrace! شيء مخزِ

IDM (be) in disgrace (with sb) (to be) in a position where other people do not respect you, usually because you have behaved badly

في خزي ، في موقف محتَّقُر

بصورة مخزية

▶ disgrace verb [T] 1 to cause disgrace to sb/ يخزي ، يجلب العار vourself

2 to cause sb to lose his/her position of power: (رئيس) مُخلوع the disgraced leader disgraceful /-fl/ adj very bad, making other people feel ashamed: The football supporters behaviour was absolutely disgraceful. مخر ، مشين ، مسيء للغاية

disgracefully /-fəli/ adv

disgruntled /dis'grantld/ adj rather angry; dis-ساخط ، مستاء ، متبرم appointed and annoyed disguise /dɪs'gaɪz/ verb [T] disguise sb/sth (as sb/sth) to change the appearance, sound, etc. of sb/sth so that people cannot recognize him/her/ it: They disguised themselves as fishermen and escaped in a boat. o to disguise your voice o (figurative) His smile disguised his anger. يتنكّر ؛ يخفي

▶ disguise noun [C,U] clothes or items such as false hair, glasses, etc., that you wear to change your appearance so that nobody recognizes ملابس تنكرية

in disguise wearing or using a disguise متنكّر، متخفٍّ

? disqust /dis'gast/ noun [U] a strong feeling of dislike or disapproval: She looked round the filthy room with disgust. o The film was so bad that we walked out in disgust. اشمئزاز ؛ امتعاض

▶ disgust verb [T] to cause disgust: Cruelty towards animals absolutely disgusts me.

يثير الاشمئزاز أو الامتعاض disgusted adj feeling disgust: We were disgusted at the standard of service we received.

مشمئز ، ممتعض disgusting adj causing disgust: What a disgust-مُقرِف، مثير للاشمئزاز ing smell! على نحو يثيّر الاشمتزاز disgustingly adv

? dish<sup>1</sup> /drʃ/ noun 1 [C] a shallow container for food. You can use a dish to cook sth in the oven, to serve food on the table or to eat from: Is this صحن ، طبق dish ovenproof?

2 [C] a type of food prepared in a particular way: The main dish was curry. It was served with a طبق ، أكلة selection of side dishes.

3 the dishes [plural] all the plates, cups, etc. that you use during a meal: I'll cook and you can wash the dishes. الصحون، الأطباق

4 = SATELLITE DISH

dish2 /dis/ verb

PHRV dish sth out (informal) to give away a lot يوزِّع (بسخاء) ، يغرف أو يسكب الطعام of sth dish sth up (informal) to serve food disheartened /disha:tnd/ adj sad or disap-مثبط العزيمة pointed مثنط للعزيمة disheartening /-ha:tnm/ adj dishevelled (US disheveled) /dr'fevld/ adj (used about a person's appearance) untidy

مهمَل الهندام ؛ مشعَّث

adj not honest or truth-

كاذب ، غشّاش ، غير بصورة مضلّلة ، بعدم ▶ dishonestly adv عدم الأمانة ، غشّ dishonesty noun [U]

dishonour (US dishonor) /dis'vnə(r)/ noun [U, sing.] (formal) the state of no longer being re-خُزي ، عار spected: shame

▶ dishonour verb [T] (formal) to bring shame on sb/sth يجلب العار على عديم الشرف ، غَشَّاش dishonourable /-nərəbl/ adj dishwasher /'dıfwpfə(r); US -wo:f-/ noun [C] an electric machine that washes plates, cups, حِلاَية ، غسَّالة صحون knives forks etc.

disillusion / disi'lu:3n/ verb [T] to destroy sb's belief in or good opinion of sb/sth

ب فأله ؛ يزول وَهُمه disillusioned adj disappointed because sb/ sth is not as good as you first thought: She's disillusioned with nursing. خاتب الفأل disillusionment (also disillusion) noun [U] disappointment because sb/sth is not as good as you first thought خيبة الفأل

disinfect / disin'fekt/verb [T] to clean sth with a liquid that destroys bacteria: to disinfect a toilet o to disinfect a wound

▶ disinfectant / disin'fektant/ noun [C,U] a substance that destroys bacteria and is used for cleaning: wash the floor with disinfectant disinfection / disin'fek in/ noun [U]

disintegrate /dis'intigreit/ verb [I] to break into many small pieces: The spacecraft exploded and disintegrated. ىتفكك، بتفتّت

▶ disintegration /dis,inti'grei∫n/ noun [U]: the تَفكُّك ، تَفتُّت ؛ تداع disintegration of the empire disinterested /dis'intrestid/ adj fair, not influenced by personal feelings: disinterested advice Look at uninterested. It has a different mean-disjointed /dis'd3pintid/ adj (used especially about ideas, writing or speech) not clearly linked and therefore difficult to follow غير مترابط بصورة متقطعة

▶ disjointedly adv

disk /disk/ noun [C] 1 (US) = DISC

2 (computing) a flat piece of plastic that stores information for use by a computer 3 Look at floppy disk and hard disk.

disk drive noun [C] a piece of electrical equipment that passes information to or from a com-وحدة دفع الأقراص puter disk

diskette /dis'ket/ noun [C] = FLOPPY DISK

I dislike /dis'laik/ verb [T] to think that sb/sth is unpleasant: I really dislike flying. o What is it that you dislike about living here?

▶ dislike noun [U, sing.] dislike (of/for sb/sth) the feeling of not liking sb/sth: She couldn't hide her dislike for him. o He seems to have a strong كره: نفور dislike of hard work.

IIM likes and dislikes → LIKES take a dislike to sb/sth to start disliking sb/ صار یکره dislocate /'dɪsləkeɪt; US 'dɪsləʊkeɪt/ verb [T] to put sth (often a bone) out of its proper position: He dislocated his shoulder during the game.

▶ dislocation /,dislə'kei∫n; US ,disləv'kei∫n/ noun [C,U] dislodge /dis'lod3/ verb [T] to make sb/sth move from a fixed position يزيح ، يزحزج disloyal /dis'lorəl/ adj doing or saying sth that is against sb/sth that you should support; not loyal: It was disloyal of him to turn against his غير مخلص ، خائن friends.

▶ disloyalty /-'lɔɪəlti/ noun [C,U] (pl. disloyal-عدم ولاء ، عدم إخلاص dismal /'dizmal/ adj 1 depressing; causing sadness: dismal surroundings o a dismal failure قابض للصدر، موحش؛ رهيب

dismantle → displace

2 (informal) of low quality; poor: a dismal standard of work رديء، غير مثقن dismantle /dis'mæntl/ verb [T] to take sth to pieces; to separate sth into the parts it is made from: The photographer dismantled his equipment and packed it away.

dismay /dɪsˈmeɪ/ noun [U] a strong feeling of worry and shock: I realized to my dismay that I was going to miss the plane.

dismember /dıs'membə(r)/ verb [T] to tear or cut a body apart يقطع الأوصال dismay verb [T] (usually passive)

R dismiss /dis'mis/ verb [T] 1 to order an employee to leave his/her job: He was dismissed for refusing to obey orders. There and sack are less formal words for dismiss.

2 to allow sb to leave: The lesson ended and the teacher dismissed the class. (التلاميذ)

3 to remove sb/sth from your mind; to stop thinking about sb/sth completely: She decided to dismiss her worries from her mind.

بطرد، يبعد من تفكيره

يقلق، يفزع

4 dismiss sb/sth (as sth) to say or think that sb/sth is not important or is not worth considering seriously: He dismissed the idea as nonsense.

ينبذ الفكرة، يصرف النظر عن

► dismissal /dɪsˈmɪsl/ noun 1 [C,U] ordering sb or being ordered to leave a job: a case of unfair dismissal مرد. فصل من العمل

2 [U] refusing to consider sb/sth seriously: She was hurt at their dismissal of her offer of help. نَبُذُ، علم اهتمام بِ dismissive /dis'misiv/ adj saying or showing that you think that sb/sth is not important or is not worth considering seriously: The boss was dismissive of all the efforts I had made.

نابذ (للفكرة) دون اكتراث

dismount /dis'maunt/ verb [I] to get off sth that you ride (a horse, a bicycle, etc.)

يترجّل، ينزل عن ركبه disobedient / disəˈbiːdiənt/ adj not willing to obey; refusing to do what you are told to do; not obedient عام، غير مطبع

b disobedience /-jans/ noun [۱] disobey /ˌdɪsəˈbeɪ/ verb [I,T] to refuse to do what you are told to do; not to obey: He was punished for disobeying orders.

disorder /dɪsˈɔːdə(r)/ noun 1 [U] an untidy, confused or disorganized state: His financial affairs are in complete disorder.

2 [U] violent behaviour by a large number of people: Disorder broke out on the streets of the capital.

3 [C.U] an illness in which the mind or part of the body is not working properly: a stomach disorder نشطراب: علله

► disordered adj untidy, confused or disorganized غير منظم، مشوش disorderly adj 1 yorg untidy

مشوَشْ "مَلْخَبَط" (used about people or behaviour) out of control and violent; causing trouble in public: They were arrested for being drunk and disorderly. مشاغب : مثير للفوضي ، مخلّ بالنظام disorganization (also disorganisation) /disorganarzer[n; US -nr'z-/ noun [U] a lack of organization ► disorganized /dis'o:gənaizd/ (also disorganised) adj not organized; badly planned disorientate /dis'ɔ:riənteit/ (especially US disorient /dis'ɔ:riənt/) verb [T] (usually passive) to make sb lose all sense of direction or become confused about where he/she is: The road signs were very confusing and I soon became disorientated.

يفقِده وجُهته ، يضلّله ► disorientation /dis,o:riən'ter∫n/ noun [U] فقدان التعرف على المكان ، تشوش

disown /dis'əon/ verb [T] to decide or say that you are no longer associated with sb/sth: When he was arrested, his family disowned him. پتبرأ من، ينكر

disparage /di'spæridʒ/ verb [T] (formal) to talk about sb/sth in a critical way or to say that sb/sth is of little value or importance

ينتقد ، يذم ، يحط من قيمته disparaging adj: disparaging remarks

dispatch (also despatch) /dr'spæts// verb [T] (formal) to send: Your order will be dispatched from our warehouse within 7 days.

يرسل؛ يبعث، يوفد

dispel /du'spel/ verb [T] (dispelling; dispelled) to make sth disappear; to remove sth from sb's mind: His reassuring words dispelled all her fears.

dispensable /dr'spensabl/ adj not necessary: I suppose I'm dispensable. Anybody could do my job. ♠ The opposite is indispensable.

غير أساسي ، يمكن الاستغناء عنه dispense /dr'spens/ verb [T] 1 (formal) to give out: a machine that dispenses hot and cold drinks

► dispenser noun [C] a machine or container from which you can get sth: a cash dispenser at a bank الله أوتوماتيكية تعطي نقوداً أو قطع حلوى وغير ذلك disperse /dr'spa:s/ verb [I,T] to separate and go in different directions; to break sth up: When the meeting was over, the group dispersed. • Police arrived and quickly dispersed the crowd. يتفرق، يتشتت: يفرق أو يشتت

dispirited /dı'spırıtıd/ adj having lost confidence or hope; depressed مثبط العزيمة ، قائط

displace /displeis/ verb [T] 1 to force sb/sth to move from the usual or correct place

2 to remove and take the place of sb/sth: She hoped to displace Williams as the top player in the world.

- ? display di'splei verb [T] 1 to put sth in a place where people will see it or where it will attract attention: Posters for the concert were displayed throughout the city. يعرض
  - 2 to show sth (e.g. a feeling or personal quality): She displayed no interest in the discussion.

- ? display<sup>2</sup> /dr'sple1/ noun [C] 1 a public event in which sth is shown in action: a firework display
  - 2 an arrangement of things for people to see: The shops take a lot of trouble over their window معروضات displays.
  - 3 behaviour that shows a particular feeling or quality: a sudden display of aggression إظهار ، إبداء
  - 4 (computing) words, pictures, etc. that can be seen on a computer screen

المعروض على الشاشة ، عرض IDM on display in a place where people will see it and where it will attract attention: Treasures from the sunken ship were put on display at the معروض (في متحف مثلاً)

- displease /dis'pli:z/ verb [T] (formal) to annoy يغضب، يثير استياءه sb or to make sb angry or upset
- displeasure /dis/pleas(r)/ noun [U] (formal) the feeling of being annoyed or not satisfied: I wrote to express my displeasure at not having been informed sooner.
- disposable /dr'spauzabl/ adj intended to be thrown away after being used once or for a short معد للطرح بعد الاستعمال time: a disposable razor
- disposal /di'spoozl/ noun [U] the act of getting rid of sth: the disposal of dangerous chemical التخلّص من ، طرح

IDM at sb's disposal available for sb's use at any time: They put their house at my disposal.

dispose /dr'spauz/ verb

PHRV dispose of sb/sth to throw away or sell sth; to get rid of sb/sth that you do not want يتخلص من ؛ يبيع

/,disprə'po:fənət/ adi

- disproportionate larger or smaller than is acceptable or expect-فير متناسب ، غير متكافئ مع edبشكّل غير متناسب (مع) ▶ disproportionately adv
- disprove / dis'pru:v/ verb [T] to show or prove that sth is not true يُلحض، يفنُك، ينقض
- dispute<sup>1</sup> /dr'spju:t; 'drspju:t/ noun [C,U] disagreement or argument between people. There was some dispute about whose fault it was. o a نزاع ، خلاف pay dispute

IDM in dispute in a situation of arguing or being argued about: He is in dispute with the tax office about how much he should pay. موضع نزاع: في حالة نزاع dispute2 /dr'spju:t/verb [T] to argue about sth or to suggest that sth is not true: The player disputed يخالف ، يَشكُ في ، يَجَادل بشدَة the referee's decision.

disqualify /dis'kwplifai/ verb [T] (pres part disqualifying; 3rd pers sing pres disqualifies; pt, pp disqualified) disqualify sb (from sth/from doing sth) to officially forbid sb to do sth or to take part in sth, usually because he/she has broken a rule or law: The team were disqualified for cheating. يسقط حقّه، يجرّده من أهليّته (للعب)

▶ disqualification /dis.kwplifi'kei∫n/ noun تجريد من الأهليّة، حِرمان (من اللَّعب)

disregard / disri'ga:d/ verb [T] to take no notice of sb/sth; to pay no attention to sb/sth: These are the latest instructions. Please disregard any you received before. يهمل، يتجاهل

▶ disregard noun [U, sing.] (a) disregard (for/ of sb/sth) lack of attention to, interest in or care for sb/sth: He rushed into the burning building with complete disregard for his own safety. عدم اكتراث ، تجاهل ، صرف النظر

disrepair /disri'pea(r)/ noun [U] a bad condition, existing because repairs have not been made: Over the years the building fell into a state تداع ، تهدّم ، حاجة إلى الترميم of disrepair.

disreputable /dis'repjətəbl/ adj not deserving to be trusted; having a bad reputation: a disreputable area, full of criminal activity o disreputable سيّى السمعة ، مشبوه business methods disrepute /,disrr'pju:t/ noun [U] the situation when people no longer respect sb/sth: Such unfair decisions bring the legal system into disreриte.

disrespect / disri'spekt/ noun [U] behaviour or words that show that you do not respect sb/sth

عدم احترام ، ازدراءً

- عديم الاحترام ، قليل الأدب ▶ disrespectful /-f1/ adj باستخفاف ، بعدم احترام disrespectfully /-fəli/ adv
- disrupt /dis'rapt/verb [T] to disturb a process or system: The strike severely disrupted flights to Spain. يعطُّل، يشوِّش
- ► disruption /dis'rap∫n/ noun [C,U]

تعطيل، تشويش disruptive /dis'raptiv/ adj: A badly behaved child can have a disruptive influence on the rest of مشوش، مخرب the class.

dissatisfaction /,dis,sætis'fæk∫n/ noun [U] the feeling of not being satisfied or pleased: There is some dissatisfaction among teachers with the plans for the new exam. عدم رضى ؛ استياء dissatisfied /dis'sætisfaid/ adj dissatisfied (with sb/sth) not satisfied or pleased: complaints from dissatisfied customers غير راض، مستاء، متبرم dissect /dr/sekt/ verb [T] to cut up a dead body, a plant, etc. in order to examine its structure

▶ dissection /dr'sek∫n/ noun [C,U]

dissent1 /dr'sent/ noun [U] (formal) disagreement with official or generally agreed ideas or opinions: There is some dissent within the Labour انشقاق ، خلاف في الرأي Party on these policies.

dissent<sup>2</sup> /dr'sent/ verb [I] dissent (from sth) (formal) to have opinions that are different to ### dissertation → distinguish

those that are officially held

ينشقّ على ، يخالف في الرأي معنده معناه معناه على الرأي dissenting adj showing or feeling dissent منشق ، مخالف

dissertation /ˌdɪsə'teɪʃn/ noun [C] a long piece of writing on sth that you have studied, especially as part of a university degree ك Look at thesis.

disservice /dɪsˈsɜːvɪs/ noun [U, sing.] (a) disservice to sb/sth an action that is unhelpful or has a negative effect dissident /ˈdɪsɪdənt/ noun [C] a person who expresses disagreement with the actions or ideas of a government or organization

| العنشق ، الخارج على | dissidence /ˈdɪsɪdəns/ noun [U]

dissimilar /drˈsɪmɪlə(r)/ adj dissimilar (from/ to sb/sth) unlike; not similar; different dissociate /dr'soofient/ (also disassociate /,drso'soofient/) verb [T] dissociate sb/sth/ yourself from sth to say or believe that a thing or a person is not connected with another, or that you do not agree with sth: She dissociated herself from the views of the extremists in her party.

يتبرأ من : يفرق أو يفصل بين

§ dissolve /dı'zɒlv/ verb [1,T] to become liquid or to make sth become liquid: Sugar dissolves in water. ○ Dissolve two tablets in cold water.

ينحل ، يذوب : يحل أو يذيب dissuade /dr'sweid/ verb [T] dissuade sb (from doing sth) to persuade sb not to do sth:

I tried to dissuade her from spending the money, but she insisted.

R distance 1/distans/ noun 1 [C,U] the amount of space between two places or points: It's only a short distance from my home to work. • The map tells you the distances between the major cities. • We can walk home from here, it's no distance (= it isn't far). • The house is within walking distance of the shops.

2 [sing.] a point that is a long way from sb/sth: At this distance I can't read the number on the bus. • From a distance the village looks quite attractive min the distance far away: I could hear voices in the distance.

keep your distance to stay away from sb/sth: Rosie's got a bad cold so I'm keeping my distance until she gets better:

distance² /'dıstəns/ verb [T] 1 to make sh feel less friendly towards sh/sth: Her wealth and success have distanced her from her old friends.
يقصي، يخلق جفوة

2 distance yourself from sb/sth to show that you are not involved or connected with sb/sth: She was keen to distance herself from the views of her colleagues.

distant /'distant/ adj 1 a long way away in space or time: travel to distant parts of the world o in the not-too-distant future (= quite soon)

 ${f 2}$  (used about a relative) not closely related: a distant cousin

3 not very friendly: He has a rather distant manner and it's hard to get to know him well. متجاف ، متحفظ، بارد

4 seeming to be thinking about sth else: She had a distant look in her eyes and clearly wasn't listening to me.

distaste /dis'teist/ noun [U, sing.] (a) distaste (for sb/sth) dislike; the feeling that sb/sth is unpleasant or unacceptable: She viewed business with distaste. O He seems to have a distaste for hard work.

▶ distasteful /dis'teistfl/ adj causing the feeling of dislike; unpleasant or unacceptable

مكروه ، ممقوت ، منفّر

distil (US distill) /drstıl/ verb [T] (distilling; distilled) to heat a liquid until it becomes steam and then collect the liquid that forms when the steam cools; distilled water distinct /dı'stınkt/ adj 1 clear; easily seen, heard or understood: There has been a distinct improvement in your work recently. O I had the distinct impression that she was lying.

2 distinct (from sth) clearly different: Her books fall into two distinct groups: the novels and the travel stories. • This region, as distinct from other parts of the country, relies heavily on tourism.

► distinctly adv 1 clearly: I distinctly heard her say that she would be here on time.

2 very; particularly: His behaviour has been distinctly odd recently. جداً، بصورة خاصة distinction /dɪˈstɪnkʃn/ noun [C,U] 1 (a) distinction (between A and B) a clear or important difference between things or people: We must make a distinction between classical and popular music here.

2 the quality of being excellent; fame for what you have achieved: a violinist of some distinction o She has the distinction of being the only player to win the championship five times.

امتياز ، تفوّق ؛ شهرة

3 the highest mark that is given to students in some exams for excellent work: James got a distinction in maths.

IDM draw a distinction between sth and sth → DRAW<sup>2</sup> distinctive /dr/stn/ktn/ adj clearly different from others and therefore easy to recognize: the soldiers wearing their distinctive red berets

▶ distinctively adv

سير ، مميزة أو خاصة

Redistinguish /dr/stmgwrf/ verb 1 [I.T] distinguish between A and B; distinguish A from B to recognize the difference between things or people: He doesn't seem able to distinguish between what's important and what isn't. > People who are colour-blind often can't distinguish red from green.

2 [T] distinguish A (from B) to make sb/sth different from others; to show the difference between people or things: distinguishing features (= things by which sb/sth can be recognized)

229

- 3 [T] to see, hear or recognize with effort: I listened carefully but they were too far away for me to distinguish what they were saying.
- 4 [T] distinguish yourself to do sth which causes you to be noticed and admired: She distinguished herself in the exams.
- بكتسب شهرة ؛ يبرز ▶ distinguishable /-abl/ adj 1 possible to distinguish as different from sb/sth else: The male bird is distinguishable from the female by the colour of its beak. مميّز عن ، يمكن تمييزه
- 2 possible to see, hear or recognize with effort: The letter is so old that the signature is barely distinguishable. يمكن تبينه بصعوبة distinguished adj important and respected: I am pleased to welcome our distinguished guests to the conference. بارز، شهیر، محترم
- or sound of sth so that it seems unnatural: Her يغيّر المعالم ، يشوّه face was distorted with grief.
- 2 to change sth and show it falsely: Foreigners are often given a distorted view of this country. يحرف؛ يعطي صورة زائفة
- ▶ distortion /di'sto:∫n/ noun [C,U] تشوّه ؛ تشويه، تحريف
- distract /dr'strækt/ verb [T] to take sb's attention away from sth: Could you stop talking please? You're distracting me from my work.
- يلهي ، يُصْرِف الانتباه distracted adj unable to concentrate because of being worried or thinking about sth else مشوّش أو شارد الذهن
- distraction /dr'stræk[n/ noun [C,U] something that takes your attention away from what you were doing or thinking about: I find it hard to work at home because there are so many distrac-
- distraught /di'stro:t/ adj extremely sad and في غاية الحزن والاضطراب، مذهول
- very upset or unhappy or of suffering great pain: Their distress on hearing the bad news was obvious. o She was in such distress that I didn't want أسى ، ألم ، لوعة to leave her on her own.
- 2 the state of being in great danger and needing immediate help: The ship's captain radioed that it was in distress.
- distress2 /di'stres/ verb [T] (often passive) to make sb very upset or unhappy: She was too distressed to talk. يحزن، يؤلم؛ يقلق
- ▶ distressing adj causing sb to be very upset or unhappy محزن ، مؤلم ، مقَلق
- L' distribute /di'stribju:t/ verb [T] 1 distribute sth (to/among sb/sth) to give things to a number of people; to divide sth up and give the parts to people or place them in various positions: Protesters were distributing leaflets in the street. o Tickets will be distributed to all club members.

- o Make sure that the weight is evenly distrib-يوزع
- 2 distribute sth (to sb/sth) to transport and supply sth to various people or places: They distributed emergency food supplies to the areas that were most in need. يوزع
- ▶ distribution /,distri'bju:∫n/ noun 1 [sing.,U] the act of giving sth: the distribution of food parcels to the refugees
- 2 [sing., U] the way sth is shared out; the pattern in which sth is found: The uneven distribution of wealth causes many problems. o a map to show توزيع ؛ توزع the distribution of rainfall in India
- 3 [U] the transport and supply of goods, etc. to various people or places: The country produces enough food but distribution is a problem.

distributor /dɪ'strɪbjətə(r)/ noun [C] a person or company that transports and supplies goods to a number of shops and companies الموزّع، وكيل التوزيع

- distort /dr'sto:t/ verb [T] 1 to change the shape ? district /'distrikt/ noun [C] 1 a part of a town or country that has a particular feature or is of a particular type: railway services in rural dis-حيّ ؛ منطقة tricts
  - 2 an official division of a town or country: the دائرة: مقاطعة district council o postal districts
  - A district may be part of a town or country, and it may have fixed boundaries: the district controlled by a council. A region is larger usually part of a country only and may not have fixed boundaries: the industrial regions of the country. An area is the most general term and is used with the same meaning as both district and region; the poorer areas of a town o an agricultural area of the country. We use part more often when we are talking about a section of a town: Which part of Paris do you live in?
  - distrust /dis'trast/ noun [U, sing.] (a) distrust (of sb/sth) the feeling that you cannot believe عدم ثقة ، ارتياب sb/sth: lack of trust
  - distrust verb [T]: She distrusts him because he lied to her once before.
- distress 1/d1'stres/noun [U] 1 the state of being 2 disturb /d1'sts:b/verb [T] 1 to interrupt and possibly annoy sb while he/she is doing sth or sleeping; to spoil a peaceful situation: I'm sorry to disturb you but there's a phone call for you. o Keep the noise down! You'll disturb the neighbours. o Their sleep was disturbed by a loud crash.
  - يزعج: يقاطع
  - 2 to cause sb to worry: It disturbed her to think, that he might be unhappy.
  - 3 to change sth from its normal position or condition: I noticed a number of things had been disturbed and realized that there had been a يقلِق ترتيب الأشياء المعهود ، يُلَخُبط burglary.
  - ▶ disturbed adj having mental or emotional problems: a school for disturbed young people
  - مصاب باضطراب نفسي disturbing adj causing sb to worry: These disturbing developments suggest that war is a possibility.

- disturbance /dr'sta:bəns/ noun 1 [C,U] an interruption; something that stops you concentrating, sleeping, etc.
- 2 [C] an occasion when people behave violently or make a lot of noise in public: Further disturbances have been reported in the capital city.
- disuse /drs'ju:s/ noun [U] the state of not being used any more: The farm buildings had fallen into disuse.
- ► disused /ˌdɪs'ju:zd/ adj not used any more: a disused railway line
- ditch /dit f/ noun [C] a long narrow hole that has been dug into the ground, especially along the side of a road or field for water to flow through: The car left the road and ended up in a ditch.
- ► ditch verb [T] (informal) to get rid of or leave sb/sth: She ditched her old friends when she became famous.
- dither /ˈdɪðə(r)/ verb [I] to hesitate and be unable to decide sth: Stop dithering and make up your mind!
- ditto /ˈdɪtəʊ/ noun [C] (represented by the mark (´´) and used instead of repeating the thing written above it) the same
- divan /drvæn; US 'darvæn/ noun [C] a type of bed with only a base and a mattress, not with a frame
- dive<sup>1</sup> /daɪv/ verb [I] (pt dived; US also dove /dəov/; pp dived) 1 to jump into water with your head first: In Acapulco, men dive off the cliffs into the sea. O A passer-by dived in and saved the drowning man.
- 2 dive (down) (for sth) to go under water: people diving for pearls
- 3 to move downwards steeply and quickly through the air: The engines failed and the plane dived.

her bag and brought out an old photograph.

- یدس بده داخل شيء منقباً

  Liver noun [C] a person whose job is going underwater using special equipment: Police divers searching the lake found the body.
- diving noun [U] the activity or sport of diving into water or swimming under water: The resort has facilities for sailing, waterskiing and diving.
- dive² /darv/ noun [C] 1 the act of diving into the water
- 2 (in football, hockey, etc.) a deliberate fall that a player makes when sb tackles them so that the referee awards a foul وقوع أو سقوط مفاجيء
- diverge /dai'v3:d3/ verb [I] diverge (from sth)
  1 (used about roads, lines, etc.) to separate and

- go in different directions: The paths suddenly diverged and I didn't know which one to take.
- 2 to be or become different (from each other): Attitudes among teachers diverge on this ques-
- diverse /daı'va:s/ adj very different from each other: people with diverse social backgrounds
- diversify /dar'v3:stfar/ verb [I] (pres part diversifying; 3rd pers sing pres diversifies; pt, pp diversified) diversify (into sth) (used about a business) to increase the range of activities, products, etc: To remain successful in the future, the company will have to diversify.
- يتنوّع العمل ► diversification /dai,v3:sifi'kei∫n/ noun آتوبع الإنتاج
- diversion /dai'v3:∫n/ noun 1 [C,U] the act of changing the direction or purpose of sth especially in order to solve or avoid a problem: the diversion of a river to prevent flooding ∘ the diversion of government funds to areas of greatest need تحویل (مبوری النهر مثلاً)
- 2 [C] (US detour) a different route which traffic can take when a road is closed: There are temporary traffic lights and diversions due to roadworks on the A161.
- 3 [C] something that takes your attention away from sth: Some prisoners created a diversion while others escaped.

  تسلية ، وسيلة لهو : صرف للانتباه
- diversity /dan'v3:səti/ noun [U] the wide range or variety of sth: a country of tremendous diversity, with landscape ranging from semi-desert to tropical
- divert /dar'v3:t/ verb [T] divert sb/sth (from sth) (to sth) to change the direction or purpose of sb/sth, especially to avoid a problem: During the road repairs, all traffic is being diverted. Government money was diverted from defence to education and training.
- ? divide /dr'vard/ verb 1 [I.T] divide (sth) (up) (into sth) to separate into different parts: The egg divides into two cells. a book divided into ten sections The house was divided into flats.
  - 2 [T] divide sth (out/up) (between/among sb) to separate sth into parts and give a share to each of a number of people: The robbers divided the money among themselves. When he died, his property was divided up among his children.
  - يقسم، يوزع 3 [T] divide sth (between A and B) to use different parts or amounts of sth for different purposes: They divide their time between their two homes.
  - 4 [T] to separate two places by being a boundary or area between them: The river divides the old part of the city from the new.
  - 5 [T] to cause people to disagree: The question of immigration has divided the country.

يسبب الشقاق

ينقسم؛ يُقسّم

6 [T] divide sth by sth to calculate how many times a number will go into another number: 10 divided by 5 is 2.

di_vided 'highway (US) = DUAL CARRIAGEWAY dividend /'dividend/ noun [C] a part of a company's profits that is paid to the people who own shares in it حصّة من أرباح الأسهم

divine /dr'vam/ adj connected with God or a سماوي ، إلهي ً من قبل الآلهة ، س

▶ divinely adv

diving /'daivin/ noun [U] → DIVE1

'diving board noun [C] a board at the side of a swimming pool from which people can dive into the water منصّة القفز او الغوص divisible /dr'vrzəbl/ adj that can be divided: 9 is قابل للقسمة divisible by 3.

- ? division /dr'v13n/ noun 1 [U] the dividing of sth into separate parts: the division of Germany after the Second World War تقسيم ، تجزئة
  - 2 [U, sing.] the sharing of sth: a fair/unfair تقسيم ، توزيع division of the profits
  - 3 [U] dividing one number by another: the teaching of multiplication and division
  - 4 [C] a disagreement or difference in thought, way of life, etc: deep divisions within the Labour Party
  - 5 [C] something that divides or separates: The division between arts and science subjects is a problem in our education system.

فرق ؛ تفريق، فصل بين

- 6 [C] a part or section of an organization: the company's sales division o the First Division (= of the football league)
- divisive /di'vaisiv/ adj (formal) likely to cause disagreements or arguments between people: a divisive policy مسبب للشقاق
- ? divorce di'vo:s/ noun [C,U] the legal end of a marriage: to get a divorce o One in three marriages ends in divorce.
- ? divorce<sup>2</sup> /dr'vo:s/ verb [T] 1 to legally end your marriage to sb: She divorced him a year after their marriage. يطلق
  - It is more common to say to get divorced than to divorce: My parents got divorced when I was three. However when only one partner wants a divorce or when the reason for the divorce is given, we say to divorce: She divorced her first husband for mental cruelty.
  - 2 divorce sb/sth from sth to separate sb/sth from sth: Sometimes these modern novels seem completely divorced from everyday life.
  - يفصل ، يعزل ▶ divorced adj: No, I'm not married - I'm divorced. مطلق divorcee /dr,vo:'si:/ noun [C] a person who is divorced المطلق أو المطلقة divulge /dai'vald3/ verb [T] (formal) to tell sth secret: The phone companies refused to divulge details of their costs.

DIY /,di: ar 'war/ abbrev do it yourself; the activity of making and repairing things yourself around your home: a DIY expert

dizzy /'dızi/ adj (dizzier; dizziest) feeling as if everything is spinning round and that you might يشعر بدوار ، يدوخ fall: to feel/get dizzy ▶ dizziness noun [U]: He had been to the doctor complaining of headaches and dizziness.

دوار ، دُوْخة

DJ / di: 'd3et/ abbrev = DISC JOCKEY

DNA / di: en 'ei/ noun [U] (deoxyribonucleic acid) the chemical in the cells of animals and plants that carries genetic information

إختبار الحامض النووي

? do<sup>1</sup> /də/ auxiliary verb (negative do not; short form don't /dəunt/; 3rd pers sing pres does /dəz; strong form duz/; negative does not; short form doesn't /'duznt/; pt did /did/; negative did not; short form didn't /'didnt/) 1 (used with other verbs to form questions and negative sentences, also in short answers and question tags): Do you know John? • He doesn't live in Oxford. • 'Do you agree?' 'No, I don't/yes I do.' O She works in Paris, doesn't she? o He didn't say that, did he?

هل.. ؛ لا (يفعل)

- 2 (used for emphasizing the main verb): 'Why didn't you buy any milk?' 'I did buy some, It's in the fridge." (تستعمل للتوكيد)
- 3 (used to avoid repeating the main verb): He earns a lot more than I do. o She's feeling much better than she did last week.

(تستعمل بدلاً من تكرار الفعل)

- قسم: فنة مي 'do2 /də; du:/ verb (pres part doing; 3rd pers sing pres does /dvz/; pt did /drd/; pp done /dvn/) 1 [T] to perform an action: What are you doing? o We didn't do much yesterday. o Please do as you're told. o It's not fair but what can we do about it (= how can we change it)? o What is the government doing about pollution? What do you do (= what is your job)? o I don't know what I did with the keys (= where I put them). يعمل، يفعل
  - 2 [T] to carry out a particular activity: Do (= tidy) your hair before you go out. O Has he done his homework? o Who does the cooking in your house? o Did you get your essay done (= finished)?
  - 3 [I] to make progress or develop: 'How's your daughter doing at school?' 'She's doing well (= she is successful). يتقدم ؛ ينجح
  - 4 [T] to travel at a certain speed: This car does يسير (بسرعة كذا) 120 miles per hour.
  - 5 [T] to produce sth: The photocopier does 60 يعمل ، ينتج copies a minute.
  - 6 [T] to study a subject: I'm doing a course on يدرس hotel management.
  - 7 [T] to have a particular effect: A holiday will do you good. o The storm did a lot of damage.

يۇڭر ، يسبّب

ىزور

8 [I,T] to be good enough: I don't need much money – £10 will do.

be/have to do with sb/sth to be connected with sb/sth: Don't ask me about the accident. I had nothing to do with it. o I'm not sure what Paul's job is, but I think it's something to do with animals.

could do with sth to want or need sth: I could do with a holiday. يودُ بِحتاج إلى

how do you do? → HOW

make do with sth → MAKE1

والمعنى do away with sth to get rid of sth: Most European countries have done away with their royal families.

do sb out of sth to prevent sb having sth in an unfair way: They've cheated me! They've done me out of £50!

do sth up 1 to fasten a piece of clothing: He can't do his shoelaces up yet.

2 to repair a building and make it more modern: They're doing up the old cottage.

do without (sth) to manage without having sth: If there isn't any coffee left, we'll just have to do without. پدئر أمره، "يعشي الحال"

ر do³ /du:/ noun [C] (pl. dos or do's /du:z/) (Brit informal) a party or other social event: We're having a bit of a do to celebrate Tim's birthday on Saturday.

docile /'dəʊsaɪl; US 'dɒsl/ adj (used about a person or animal) quiet and easy to control

وديع ؛ سهل القياد

dock<sup>1</sup>/dok/ 1 [C,U] an area of a port where ships stop to be loaded, unloaded, repaired, etc.

2 docks [plural] a group of docks with all the sheds, offices, etc. that are around them: He works down at the docks.

▶ dock verb [I,T] (used about a ship) to sail into a dock: The ship had docked/was docked at Lisbon.

dock² /dɒk/ noun [C, usually sing.] the place in a court of law where the person accused sits or stands dock<sup>3</sup> /dɒk/ verb [T] to take away part of sb's wages, especially as a punishment: They've docked £20 off my wages because I was late.

Redoctor /ˈdɒktə(r)/ noun [C] (abbr Dr; Dr.) 1 a person who has been trained in medical science and who treats people who are ill: Our family doctor is Dr Young. o I've got a doctor's appointment at 10 o'clock. o What time is the doctor's surgery today?

We can say go to the doctor or to the doctor's (= the doctor's surgery). A doctor sees or treats his/her patients. He/she may prescribe treatment or medicine. This is written on a prescription.

2 a person who has got the highest degree from a university: Doctor of Philosophy

دکتور، حامل دکتوراه doctor verb [T] 1 to change sth that should not be changed in order to gain some advantage: The results of the survey had been doctored.

2 to add sth harmful to food or drink

يدسَ شيئا ضَاراً (في الطعام مثلًا) doctorate /ˈdʊktərət/ noun [C] the highest سرجة الدكتوراه درجة الدكتوراه doctrine /'doktrm/ noun [C,U] a belief or a set of beliefs that is taught by a church, political party, etc.

Redocument /'dokjument/ noun [C] 1 an official piece of writing which gives information, proof or evidence: Her solicitor asked her to read and sign a number of documents.

2 a computer file that contains writing etc: Save the document before closing.

documentary /ˌdɒkjuˈmentri/ noun [C] (pl. documentaries) a film or television or radio programme that gives facts or information about a particular subject: a documentary on/about life in Northern Ireland doddle /ˌdodl/ noun [sing.] (Brit informal) something that is very easy to do: The work is an absolute doddle!

dodge /dnd3/ verb 1 [I.T] to move quickly in order to avoid sb/sth: I managed to dodge the headmaster and slipped into the classroom.

يتجنب، يروغ

 ${f 2}$  [T] to avoid doing or thinking about sth such as a duty, etc: Don't try to dodge your responsibilities!

▶ dodge noun [C] 1 [usually sing.] a quick movement to avoid sb/sth: He made a sudden dodge to the right.

2 (informal) a clever way of avoiding sth: The man had been involved in a massive tax dodge.

ثهرت، خدعة

dodgy /ˈdɒdʒi/ adj (dodgier; dodgiest) (especially Brit informal) risky; not reliable or honest: a dodgy business deal غير مأمون : مشبوه doe /dəʊ/ noun [C] a female deer or rabbit أنشى الغزال أو الأرنب

does → DO1,2

Leadog dog; US dog/ noun [C] 1 an animal that many people keep as a pet, or for working on farms, hunting, etc. ♠ A dog can bark, growl, whine and wag its tail.

2 a male dog or fox: If you're getting a puppy, bitches are gentler than dogs. ذكر الكلب أو الثعلب dog² /dng; US do:g/ verb [T] (dogging; dogged) to follow closely: A shadowy figure was dogging their every move. ○ (figurative) Bad luck and illness has dogged her career from the start.

بلازم ، يقتفي الاتر

'dog collar noun [C] (informal) a white collar that is worn by priests in the Christian church ياقة القسيس

'dog-eared adj (used about a book or piece of paper) in bad condition and having the corners of the pages turned down because it has been used a lot (زوایا الصفحات) مبرومة أو متفتّلة dogged /'dogid; US 'do:gid/ adj refusing to give up even when sth is difficult: I was impressed by his dogged determination to succeed.

 doggedly adv: She doggedly refused all offers of help.

dogma /ˈdɒgmə; US ˈdɔ:gmə/ noun [C,U] a belief or set of beliefs that people are expected to accept as true without questioning dogmatic /dɒgˈmætɪk; US dɔ:gˈmætɪk/ adj insisting that sth is true or right; not prepared to consider other opinions

► dogmatically /-kli/ adv

بتعنُّت: بإصرار على صحة آرائه

dogsbody /'dogzbodi; US 'do:g-/ noun [C] (pl. dogsbodies) (Brit informal) a person who is made to do the boring or unpleasant jobs that no one else wants to do and who is treated as being less important than other people

شخص يوكل بأحقر الأعمال

doldrums /'doldrəmz/ noun [plural]

in the doldrums (informal) 1 not active or busy: Business has been in the doldrums but should improve later in the year.

2 sad or depressed

dole1 /dəul/ verb (informal)

THAY dole sth out to give sth, especially food, money, etc. to a number of people, in small amounts dole<sup>2</sup> /dool/ noun [sing.] the dole (Brit informal) money that the State gives every week to people who are unemployed: He's been on the dole (= receiving this money) for six months.

إعانة حكومية للعاطلين تدفع أسبوعيا doleful /ˈdəʊlfl/ adj sad or depressed: She looked at him with doleful eyes. → dolefully /-fəli/ adv

doll /dol; US do:l/ noun {C] a child's toy that looks like a small person or a baby

Çdollar /'dolə(r)/ noun 1 [C] (symbol $) a unit of money in the US, Canada, Australia, etc. 6 There are 100 cents in a dollar.

2 [C] a note or coin that is worth one dollar ورقة أو قطعة نقديّة بقيمة دولار

3 the dollar [sing.] the value of the US dollar on international money markets

dollop /ˈdɒləp/ noun [C] (informal) a lump of sth soft, especially food dolphin /ˈdolfɪn/ noun [C] an intelligent animal that lives in the sea and looks like a large fish.

Dolphins usually swim in large groups.

domain /dəˈmeɪn/ noun [C] 1 an area of knowledge or activity: I'm afraid I don't know – that's really outside my domain. O This issue is now in the public domain (= the public knows about it). ميدان، مجال (التخصي)

2 (computing) a set of websites on the Internet which end with the same group of letters, for example.com or.org dome /dəom/ noun [C] a round roof on a building: the dome of St Paul's in London

R domestic /dəˈmestik/ adj 1 connected with the home or family: domestic responsibilities o domestic water, gas, etc. supplies

2 (used about a person) enjoying doing things in the home, such as cooking and housework

محباً للشؤون المنزلية 3 not international; of or inside a particular country: domestic flights (= within one country)

4 (used about animals) kept as pets or on farms; not wild: domestic animals such as cats, dogs and horses domesticated /dəˈmestɨkeitid/ adj 1 (used about animals) used to living near people and being controlled by them

2 (used about people) able to do or good at housework, cooking, etc: Men are expected to be much more domesticated nowadays.

ماهر في الشؤون المنزلية dominant /'dommənt/ adj 1 the strongest or most important: His mother was the dominant influence in his life.

2 that you notice very easily: The castle stands in a dominant position above the town. بارز : مشرف على

b dominance /'dommens/ noun [U] control or power: Japan's dominance of the car industry

Redominate /'domment/ verb 1 [I.T] to have strong control or influence; to be the most important person or thing in sth: The Italian team dominated throughout the second half of the game.

She always tends to dominate the conversation at dinner parties.

2 [T] (used about a building or place) to look down on or over: The cathedral dominates the area for miles around.

domination /ˌdɒmɪˈneɪʃn/ noun [U] strong را ontrol, power or influence سيطرة، تحكم في domineering /ˌdɒmɪˈnɪərɪŋ/ adj having a very strong character and wanting to control other people محبّ للسيطرة : مستبدّ

dominion /dəˈmmiən/ noun 1 [U] (formal) the power to rule and control: to have dominion over an area

2 [C] (formal) an area controlled by one government or ruler: the dominions of the Roman empire

domino /'dpminou/ noun [C] (pl. dominoes) one of a set of small flat pieces of wood or plastic that are used for playing a game (dominoes). Each domino has a different number of spots on one side of it.

donate /dəu'neit; US 'dəuneit/ verb [T] to give money or goods to an organization, especially one for people or animals who need help: She do-

done → dot

nated a large sum of money to Cancer Research.

▶ donation /dəu'neɪʃn/ noun [C] a gift of money or goods to an organization, especially one for people or animals who need help: Would you like to make a small donation to the Red Cross?

done<sup>1</sup> pp of DO<sup>2</sup>

done<sup>2</sup> /dʌn/ adj (not before a noun) 1 finished: I've got to go out as soon as this job is done.

2 (used about food) cooked enough: The meat's ready but the vegetables still aren't done.

الطعام) ناضج ، مطبوخ جيداً wer and done with completely finished; in the past done interj (used for saying that you accept an offer): "I'll give you twenty pounds for it," donkey /ˈdɒŋki/ noun [C] (pl. donkeys) (also ass) an animal like a small horse, with long ears donkey's years (Brit informal) a very long time: They've been going out together for donkey's years.

Done!"

donor /'dəunə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person who gives blood or a part of his/her own body for medical use: a blood donor o a kidney donor

المتبرع للطب بأجزاء من جسمه

2 a person who gives money or goods to an organization that needs it, especially an organization for helping other people

don't → po1,2

donut = DOUGHNUT

doodle /'du:dl/ verb [1] to draw lines, patterns, etc. without concentrating, especially when you are bored or thinking about sth else

يشَخَبط أو يرسم وهو شارد الذهن شخبطة أو رسم عابث [C] doodle noun له doom /du:m/ noun [U] death or a terrible event in the future which you cannot avoid: In the last scene of the film the villain plunges to his doom in the river. o a sense of doom (= that something bad is going to happen) doomed adj certain to fail or to suffer sth unpleasant: The plan was doomed from the start.

 a doomed love affair

2 the entrance to a building, room, car, etc: I peeped through the door and saw her sitting there.

 $\overline{\text{DM}}$  (from) door to door (from) house to house: The journey takes about five hours, door to door  $\circ$  a door-to-door salesman (= a person who visits people in their homes to try and sell them things) من الباب إلى الباب: (بانع) يزود البيوت next door (to sb/sth) in the next house, room, etc: Do you know the people who live next door? o You'll find the bathroom next door to your bedroom. في البيت أو في الفرفة المجاورة out of doors outside: Shall we eat out of doors today? The opposite is indoors.

doorbell /ˈdɔːbel/ noun [C] a bell on the outside of a house which you ring when you want to go in doormat /ˈdɔːmæt/ noun [C] a mat beside a door which you can wipe your shoes on to clean them before going inside (مسحة الأرجُل (عند المدخل) doorstep /ˈdoːstep/ noun [C] a step in front of a door, usually outside a building عتبة باب البيت on your doorstep very near to you: The sea was right on our doorstep.

قريب جداً، على بعد خَطوتَيْن doorway /ˈdɔːweɪ/ noun [C] an entrance into a building, room, etc: She was standing in the doorway.

dope /dəup/ noun (informal) 1 [U] a drug that is not legal, especially cannabis

عبي مغلل (C] a stupid person: What a dope! غبي مغلل (D) dope verb (T] to give a drug secretly to a person or animal, especially to make them sleep

dopey (also dopy) /'dəupi/ adj (dopier; dopiest) 1 sleepy and not able to think clearly, especially because of drugs, alcohol or lack of sleep نعسان (وکانه مغدر)،مخبول

2 (informal) stupid; not very intelligent

فسرّ، بلد

dormant /'do:mənt/ adj not active for some time: a dormant volcano نائم ؛ کامن ، ساکن

dormitory /'do:mətri; US -tə:ri/ noun [C] (pl. dormitories) 1 a large bedroom with a number of beds in it, especially in a school, etc.

2 (US) a building at a college or university where students live dosage /ˈdəʊsɪdʒ/ noun [C, usually sing.] the amount of a medicine you should take over a period of time: The recommended dosage is one tablet every four hours.

dose /doos/ noun [C] 1 an amount of medicine that you take at one time: You should take a large dose of this cough medicine before going to bed.

2 an amount of sth, especially sth unpleasant: a dose of the flu  $\circ$  I can only stand my mother-in-law in small doses.

b dose verb [T] to give sb/yourself a medicine or drug معطي أو يجرع دواءً و المحرع دواءً و المحرع

doss /dos/ verb

PHRY doss down (Brit slang) to lie down to sleep, without a proper bed: Do you mind if I doss down on your floor tonight?

? dot /dot/ noun [C] 1 a small, round mark: a white dress with black dots o The letters i and j have dots above them.

2 something that looks like a dot: He watched until the plane was just a dot in the sky. DM on the dot (informal) at exactly the right time or at exactly the time mentioned: Lessons start at 9 o'clock on the dot. بالضبط ، تمامأ

▶ dot verb [T] (dotting; dotted) (usually passive) to mark with a dot ينقط ، يضع نقاطاً على be dotted about to be scattered over an area: There are little bars and restaurants dotted about all over the centre of town.

يتبعثر أو ينتشر في كلّ مكان be dotted with to have many things or people in or on it: a hillside dotted with sheep and cows dot-com (also dotcom) /dpt 'kpm/ adj, noun [C] a company that sells goods and services on the Internet, especially one whose address ends شركة على الانترنت '.com'

dote /dout/ verb [I] dote on sb/sth to have or show too much love for sb/sth and think they are perfect: He's always doted on his eldest son.

يَشْغَف أو يتولّع بِ، يدلّل ▶ doting adj very or too loving: doting parents مولَع ، مَفْرط في الحبّ dotted 'line noun [C] a line of dots which show where sth is to be written on a form, etc, خط منقط (يكتب أو يُوقع عليه)

- ? double<sup>1</sup> /'dabl/ adj 1 twice as much or as many (as usual): a double helping of ice cream
  - 2 having two equal or similar parts: Don't park on double yellow lines. o double doors o Does 'necessary' have a double 's'? o My phone number is two four double 0 four (= 24004). مزدوج ؛ ثنائي
  - 3 made for or used by two people or things: a double garage
- የ double<sup>2</sup> /'dʌbl/ det twice as much or as many (as usual, as sb/sth, etc.): His income is double hers. We'll need double the amount of food.
- saw her with her twin sister I thought I was seeing بشكل مزدوج أو ثنائي
- Ldouble4 /'dAbl/ noun 1 [U] twice the (usual) number or amount: When you work overtime, you get paid double.
  - 2 [C] a person who looks very much like another: I thought it was you I saw in the supermarket You must have a double.
  - 3 doubles [plural] (in some sports, e.g. tennis) with two pairs playing: the Men's Doubles final ○ Look at singles (4). مباراة ثنائية أو زوجيّة
- ? double b / 'dabl / verb [I,T] 1 to become or to make sth twice as much or as many: The price of houses has almost doubled. o Think of a number and double it. يتضاعف ؛ يضاعف
  - 2 double (up) as sth to have a second use or function: The small room doubles as a study.

مل لغرض آخر DM double (sb) up (to cause sb) to bend the body: to be doubled up in pain, with laughter, يثني ؛ ينطوي ، يتلوني

- double 'bass (also bass) noun [C] the largest instrument of the violin family, that you play أكبر أنواع آلة الكمان standing up
- ,double 'bed noun [C] a bed made for two people Look at single and twin. سرير مزدوج
- double-'breasted adj (used about a coat or jacket) having two rows of buttons down the (معطف) بصفيّن من الأزرار front
- ,double-'check verb [I,T] to check sth again, or with great care يدقّق بعناية أو مرة ثانية
- , ${f double-'click}\; verb\; {f [T]}\; {f double-click}\; (on\; {f sth})$ (computing) to choose a particular function or item on a computer screen, etc. by pressing one of the buttons on a mouse twice quickly: To run an application, just double-click on the icon.

- double-'cross verb [T] to cheat sb who believes that he/she can trust you يخون
- .double-'decker noun [C] a bus with two باص ذو طابقين floors
- double 'Dutch noun [U] talk or writing that you cannot understand at all كلام غير مفهوم
- double 'figures noun [U] a number that is more than 10: Inflation is now in double figures. رقم ذو خانتين (10-99)
- ,double-'glaze verb [T] to put two layers of glass in a window, so that the building is kept يركب زجاجا مزدوجا للنوافذ warm or quiet

double glazing noun [U]

تركيب زجاج مزدوج للنوافذ doubly /'dabli/ adv 1 in two ways: He was  $doubly\ blessed\ with\ both\ good\ looks\ and\ talent.$

- 2 more than usually: I made doubly sure that the door was locked.
- kdouble /'dʌbl/ adv in twos or two parts: When I kdoubt / daut/ noun [C,U] (a feeling of) uncertainty: If you have any doubts, feel free to ring me and discuss them. o You'll definitely pass. There's no doubt about it. o There was some doubt as to whether she was the right person for the job. DM cast doubt on sth → CAST2 give sb the benefit of the doubt → BENEFIT in doubt not sure or definite غير متأكَّد ؛ غير مؤكَّد no doubt (used when you expect sth to happen but you are not sure that it will) probably: No doubt she'll write when she has time. without (a) doubt definitely: It was, without doubt, the coldest winter for many years.

- Light doubt daut verb [T] to think sth unlikely or to feel uncertain (about sth): She never doubted (= she was always sure) that he was telling the truth. o I doubt whether/if I'll have time to go to the shops today (= I don't think I'll be able to go). o He had never doubted her support. يشكّ في
  - doubtful /'dautfl/ adj 1 unlikely or uncertain: It's doubtful whether/if we'll finish in time for

doubtless → downmarket

Christmas. O It was doubtful that he was still alive.

2 doubtful (about sth/about doing sth) (used about a person) not sure: He still felt doubtful about his decision. شاك في: غير متأكد، متردد doubtless /ˈdaʊtləs/ adv almost certainly: Doubtless she'll have a good excuse for being late!

► doubtfully /fəli/ adv: 'I suppose it'll be all right,' she said doubtfully.

dough /dəʊ/ noun [U] 1 a mixture of flour, water and sometimes fat and sugar. It is used for baking into bread, etc.

2 (informal) money doughnut (especially US donut) /ˈdəʊnʌt/ noun [C] a small cake in the shape of a ball or a ring, made from sweet dough cooked in fat

كعكة مستديرة مقليّة

نقود ، فلوس

dour /dvə(r)/ adj (used about a person's manner or expression) cold and unfriendly douse (also dowse) /daus/ verb [T] 1 douse sth (with sth) to stop a fire, etc. burning: The firemen managed to douse the blaze.

2 douse sb/sth (in/with sth) to cover sb/sth with liquid: to douse yourself in perfume (= wear too much of it)

dove¹ /dʌv/ noun [C] a type of bird, similar to a pigeon, often used as a sign of peace

 $dove^2/d\partial vv/(US)$  pt of Dive<sup>1</sup>

dowdy /ˈdaʊdi/ adj (dowdier; dowdiest) (used about a person or the clothes he/she wears) dull and unfashionable

Rdown¹ /daun/ adv 1 to or at a lower level or place; not up: We sat and watched the sun go down. • Can you get that book down from the top shelf? • 'Where's Mary?' 'She's down in the basement.'

3 to or in the south: We went down to Devon for our holiday.

4 (used for showing that the level, amount, strength, etc. of sth is less or lower): Do you mind if I turn the heating down a bit?

بقدر أقلّ، إلى حدُ أدنى 5 (written) on paper: Put these dates down in بشكل مكتوب بشكل مكتوب

6 down to sb/sth even including: Everybody was invited from the Director down to the tea ladies.

المسلم be down to sb to be sb's responsibility:

When my father died it was down to me to look after the family's affairs.

be/go down with sth to be or become ill with sth: Simon's gone down with flu. يبرض، يصاب ب down and out having no money, job or home down under (informal) (in) Australia: He comes from down under. (من) استراليا

Ç down<sup>2</sup> /daun/ prep 1 along: 'Where's the nearest garage?' 'Go down this road and take the first turning on the right.'

2 from the top towards the bottom of sth: Her hair hung down her back.  $\circ$  The snow began to slide down the mountain.

3 at or to a lower or further part of sth: We sailed down the river towards the sea.

(ينزل) إلى ؛ مع مجرى (النهر) down<sup>3</sup> /daʊn/ verb [T] (informal) to finish a drink quickly: She downed her drink in one (= she drank the whole glass without stopping).

پزدرد: پشرب بسرعة

down4 /davn/ noun

IDM ups and downs → UP down<sup>5</sup> /daon/ adj 1 sad: You're looking a bit down today.

2 lower than before: Unemployment figures are down for the third month in succession.

منخفض ، أقلّ من السابق

3 (used about computers) not working (الكمبيوتر) معطّل down<sup>6</sup> /daʊn/ noun [U] very soft feathers: a duvet filled with down

'down-and-out noun [C] a person who has not got money, a job or a home

downcast /'daunku:st; US 'daunkæst/ adj 1 (used about a person) sad and without hope قانط ، كسير الخاطر

2 (used about eyes) looking down (نظر) مخفوض downfall /'daunfɔ:l/ noun [sing.] 1 a loss of power or success: The government's downfall seemed inevitable.

2 a thing that causes a loss of power or success مسبب الانهيار أو الخراب downgrade /'daungrend/ ver b [T] to reduce sb/ sth to a lower level or position of importance يُغَفِّن مِرتبته أو قيمته downhearted /ˌdaʊn'hɑ:tɪd/ adj sad or depressed مكتنب، قانط downhill /daon'hil/ adj, adv (going) down a slope; towards the bottom of a hill: It's an easy walk. The road runs downhill most of the way.

• Do you go downhill or cross-country skiing?

نحو الأسفل، بانحدار؛ إلى اسفل التلّ -to get worse: Their relation go downhill to get worse: Their relationship has been going downhill for some time now.

download /ˌdaʊn'ləʊd/ verb [T] to copy a computer file, etc. from a large computer system to a smaller one downmarket /ˌdaʊnˈmɑːkɪt/ adj cheap and of not very high quality رخيص ومبتلل ، غير متقن downpour /'daunpo:(r)/ noun [C, usually sing.] a heavy, sudden fall of rain وابل مفاجئ من المطر

downright /'daunrait/ adj (only before a noun) (used about sth bad or unpleasant) complete: The holiday was a downright disaster. تام صرف

▶ downright adv completely or thoroughly: تماماً ؛ كلياً That road is downright dangerous!

downs /daunz/ noun [plural] an area of low, round hills, especially in the south of England: منطقة تلَّال (وخاصّة في جنوب انكلترا) ۗ the Sussex Downs downside /'daonsaid/ noun [usually sing.] a negative aspect; a disadvantage or set of disadvantages: All good ideas have a downside.

جانب سلبی، نقص، عیب

Down's syndrome /'daonz sindroom/ noun [U] a condition that a person is born with. People with this condition have a flat, wide face and lower than average intelligence.

المغولية: عيب حلقي

adownstairs /,dawn'steez/ adv, adj 1 down the adraft1 /draft; US dræft/ noun 1 [C] a piece of stairs: He fell downstairs and broke his arm.

2 on or to the ground floor or a lower floor: Dad's downstairs, in the kitchen. o a downstairs toilet 1 The opposite is upstairs.

في أو إلى الطابق السفلي ، تحت downstream / dawn'stri:m/ adv in the direction in which a river flows: We were rowing downstream, towards the sea. 6 The opposite is upstream. باتّجاه مجرى النهر

.down-to-'earth adj sensible and practical; not complicated or too clever

واقعيّ ، عمليّ ، خال من التعقيد downtown /'dauntaun/ adv, adj (especially US) in or towards the centre of a city, especially its main business area: to go/work downtown o a بالقسم التجارى بالمدينة downtown store

▶ downtown noun: a hotel in the heart of القسم التحاري بالمدينة

downturn /'davnts:n/ noun [C] downturn (in sth) a reduction in economic or business activity: hit by a downturn in consumer spending هبوط تجاري، ركود

Ldownward /'daunwed/ adj (only before a noun) towards the ground or a lower level: a downward movement o There is still a downward trend in house prices. نازل، متُحه نحو الأسفل

▶ downwards (also downward) adv towards the ground or a lower level: She laid the picture face downwards on the table. 1 The opposite is upward(s). نحو الأسفل، مقلوباً

dowry /'dauri/ noun [C] (pl. dowries) an amount of money or property which a woman's family gives to the man she is marrying or a man's family give to the woman he is marrying

مَهْر ، صَداق ؛ "دوطة"

dowse = DOUSE

doze /dəuz/ verb [I] to sleep lightly and/or for a short time: He was dozing in front of the television.

PHRY doze off to go to sleep, especially during the day: I'm sorry - I must have dozed off for a minute. يغفو ، يغلبه النعاس

▶ doze noun [C, usually sing.] a light, short sleep غفوة ، نومة قصيرة

Ldozen /'dazn/ noun [C] (pl. dozens or dozen) (abbr doz.) twelve or a group of twelve: A dozen eggs, please. o half a dozen (= six) o two dozen sheep مُرُينة ، اثنا عشر DM dozens (informal) very many: I've tried phoning her dozens of times. عشرات ، مرّات كثيرة

dozy /'dəʊzi/ adj (dozier; doziest) 1 sleepy: The heat had made her rather dozy. نعسان، وسنان

2 (Brit informal) stupid: You dozy thing - look غبيّ ، مغفّل what you've done!

Dr (also Dr.) abbrev = DOCTOR drab /dræb/ adj (drabber; drabbest) dull and not interesting or attractive: a drab grey office build-أغبر اللون ، باهت ؛ كثيب ing writing, etc. which will probably be changed and improved; not the final copy: the first draft of a speech

2 a written order to a bank to pay money to sb: Payment must be made by bank draft.

3 (US) = DRAUGHT

? draft2 /dra:ft; US dræft/ verb [T] 1 to make a first or early copy of a piece of writing: I'll draft a letter and show it to you before I type it. بعد مسودة

2 (usually passive) (US) to order sb to join the armed forces: He was drafted into the army. يستدعى للخدمة العسكرية

drafty (US) = DRAUGHTY

Ldrag1 /dræg/ noun 1 [sing.] (informal) a person or thing that is boring or annoying: 'The car's broken down.' 'Oh no! What a drag!'

شخص أو شيء ممل أو مرعج

2 [U] (informal) the wearing of women's clothes by a man, especially as part of a show, etc. (رجل) في ملابس امرأة

3 [C] (informal) an act of breathing in cigarette smoke: He took a long drag on his cigarette.

سحبة (من سيجارة)

? drag2 /dræg/ verb (dragging; dragged) 1 [T] to pull sb/sth along with difficulty: The box was so heavy we had to drag it along the floor.

2 [T] to force or to make sb come or go somewhere: She dragged the child up the steps by her arm. o Can I drag you away from the television for a moment? يجر ، يرغم ؛ يبعد

3 [I] drag (on) to be boring or to seem to last a long time: The speeches dragged on for hours.

(خطاب) يطول على نحو مملّ

PHRV drag sth out to make sth last longer than necessary: Let's not drag this decision out - shall يمط أو يطيل اكثر من اللازم we go or not? drag sth out (of sb) to force or persuade sb to ### dragon → draw

give you information that you want

بأو يستخرج منه المعلومات dragon /'drægen/ noun [C] (in stories, etc.) an imaginary animal with wings, which can breathe out fire dragonfly /'drægənflai/ noun [C] (pl. dragonflies) an insect with a long thin body and two pairs of transparent wings يعسوب أو سرمان drain / drem / noun [C] a pipe or hole that dirty water, etc. goes down to be carried away: The drain outside the kitchen is blocked.

أنبوب التصريف ؛ بالوعة a drain on sb/sth something that uses up time, money, strength, etc: The cost of travelling is a great drain on our budget. استنزاف، تبديد (go) down the drain (informal) (to be) wasted: All that hard work has gone down the drain.

drain<sup>2</sup> /drein/ verb 1 [I,T] to become dry as liquid flows away; to make sth dry in this way: The whole area will have to be drained before it can be used for farming. يصرّف الماء ، يجفّف

2 [I,T] to flow away; to make a liquid flow: The sink's blocked - the water won't drain away at all. o The plumber had to drain the water from the heating system. يجري؛ يصرف، يفرغ (الماء)

3 [T] to drink all the liquid (in a glass, etc.): He يشرب (حتى الثمالة) drained his glass in one gulp.

4 [I] (used about a feeling) to become weaker and weaker until it disappears: He felt all his anger begin to drain away.

5 [T] drain sb/sth (of sth) to make sb/sth weaker, poorer, etc. by slowly using all the strength, money, etc. available يستنزف (قوته أو ماله) drainage /'dremid3/ noun [U] a system used for draining water, etc. away from a place

تصريف ؛ نظام التصريفَ

'draining board (US 'drainboard) noun [C] the place beside a kitchen sink where you put plates, cups, knives, etc. to dry (في حوض المطبخ) سطح مائل لتجفيف الصحون

drainpipe /'dreinpaip/ noun [C] a pipe which goes down the side of a building, especially one that carries water from the roof into a drain

I drama /'dra:mə/ noun 1 [C] a play for the theatre, radio or television: a contemporary drama

2 [U] plays as a form of writing; the performance of plays: He wrote some drama, as well as poetry. مُسْرِحيًاتُ ، الفنّ المسرحيّ o a drama student

3 [C] an exciting event

4 [U] excitement: Why is there so little drama in my life? o ...and to add to all the drama, the lights went out!

I dramatic /dramatik/ adj 1 noticeable or sudden: a dramatic change مفاجئ ، مدهل

2 exciting or impressive: The opening scene of the film was extremely dramatic.

3 (used about a person, a person's behaviour, etc.) showing feelings, etc. in a very obvious way because you want other people to notice you or pay attention to you: Calm down. There's no need to be so dramatic about everything! درامي ، متصنع (لجذب الانتباه)

4 connected with plays or the theatre: Shakespeare's dramatic works ▶ dramatically /-kli/ adv in a dramatic way: 'I can't go on,' she said dramatically.

بشكل مسرحي ، على نحو درامي dramatist /'dræmətist/ noun [C] a person who writes plays dramatize (also dramatise) /'dræmətaɪz/ verb 1 [T] to make a book, an event, etc. into a play: The novel has been dramatized for televi-يضعه في قالب مسرحي

2 [I,T] to make sth seem more exciting or important than it really is: The newspaper was accused of dramatizing the situation. يصور بشكل درامي

▶ dramatization (also dramatisation) /dræmətarzeifn/ noun [C,U]

drank pt of DRINK

drape /dresp/ verb [T] 1 drape sth round/over sth to put a piece of cloth, clothing, etc. loosely on sth: He quickly draped a towel round his يلتحف، يلتفَ ب

2 drape sb/sth (in/with sth) (usually passive) to cover sb/sth (with cloth, etc.): The furniture was draped in dust sheets. يحلِّل ، يعطي بالقماش

▶ drape noun [C] (US) = CURTAIN

drastic /'dræstik/ adj 1 strong, effective and usually quick: The situation requires drastic ac-صارم ، فعُال

2 very noticeable or serious: There has been a drastic rise in crime in the area. ▶ drastically /-kli/ adv: House prices have fallen drastically over the last two years.

draught /dra:ft/ (US draft /dræft/) noun 1 [C] a current of air that comes into a room: Can you shut the door? There's a draught in here. جريان، مجري أو تيار هوائي ·

2 draughts (Brit) (US checkers) [U] a game for two players that you play on a black and white board using round black and white لعبة الداما

▶ draught adj (used about beer, etc.) served from barrels, not bottles: draught beer (شراب) مسحوب من برميل draughtsman /'dra:ftsmən/ (US draftsman /'dræfts-/) noun [C] (pl. draughtsmen; US draftsmen /-mən/) a person whose job is to make technical drawings draughty /'dra:fti/ (US drafty /'dræfti/) adj (draughtier; draughtiest) having currents of air blowing through: a large, draughty old house (بيت قديم) تدخله تيارات الهواء draw<sup>1</sup> /dro:/ noun [C] 1 a result of a game or competition in which both players or teams get the same score so that neither of them wins: The match ended in a draw.

2 an act of deciding sth by chance by pulling out names or numbers from a bag, etc.

سحب ورق القرعة أو اليانصيب

- f draw<sup>2</sup> /dro:/ verb (pt drew /dru:/; pp drawn /dro:n/) 1 [I.T] to make a picture or diagram of sth with a pencil, pen, etc: Shall I draw you a map of how to get there?
  - 2 [I] to move in the direction mentioned: At last the train drew into/out of the station.

يسير باتّجاه...، يدخل أو يخرج

- 3 [T] draw sth out of/from sth to pull sth smoothly out of its present position: She drew the letter out of her pocket and handed it to me.
- 4 [T] to pull sb/sth gently into a new position: He drew me by the hand into the room. Why don't you draw your chairs up to the fire?
- 5 [T] (used about horses, etc.) to pull sth along: The Queen's carriage was drawn by six horses.
- 6 [T] to open or close curtains, etc: It was getting dark so I switched on the lights and drew the curtains.
- 7 [T] to pull a gun, sword or knife out of its holder, quickly and in order to attack sb: The cowboy drew his gun.
- 8 [T] draw sth from sb/sth to gain sth from sb/sth: This information has been drawn from a number of sources.
- 9 [T] draw sth (from sth) to learn sth from study, experience, etc: Can we draw any conclusions from this survey?
- 10 [T] draw sth (from sb) to produce a reaction or response to the thing mentioned: The advertisement has drawn interest from people all over the country.
- 11 [T] draw sb (to sb/sth) to attract or interest sb: She had always been drawn to older men. • The musicians drew quite a large crowd.
- 12 [I,T] to finish a game, competition, etc. with equal scores so that neither person or team wins: The two teams drew. The match was drawn.

DM bring sth/come/draw to an end → END¹ draw sb's attention to sth to make sb aware of sth: Can I draw your attention to point seven on the agenda?

draw a blank to get no result or response:

Detectives investigating the case have drawn a blank so far:

تنص ساعه سدی

draw a comparison/a parallel to show how two things compare or are similar: The programme drew an interesting comparison between education in Japan and Britain.

draw a distinction between sth and sth to show how two things are different: It's important to draw a distinction between the methods used now and those used previously.

يَفرُّق ، يُبيِّن أُوْجِه الخلاف draw the line at sth to say 'no' to sth even though you are prepared to be helpful in other ways: I do most of the cooking but I draw the line at washing up as well!

draw lots to decide sth by chance: They drew lots to see who should stay behind.

يجري قرعة

GHRV draw in 1 (used about the hours of daylight) to get shorter before the winter

2 (used about cars, buses, etc.) to go to the side of the road and stop يتوقّف عند جانب الطريق draw out 1 (used about the hours of daylight) to get longer in the spring

2 (used about cars, buses, etc.) to move out from the side of the road where they have stopped السَيارة) تتحرُك من موقفها draw sth out to take money out of a bank account: How much money do I need to draw out?

draw up (used about a car, etc.) to drive up and stop in front of or near sth: A police car drew up outside the building.
draw sth up to prepare a document, list, etc. and write it out: Our solicitor is going to draw up the contract.

drawback /ˈdrɔːbæk/ noun [C] a disadvantage or problem: His lack of experience is a major drawback.

- I drawer /dro:(r)/ noun [C] a container which forms part of a piece of furniture such as a desk, that you can pull out to put things in or take things out: There's some paper in the top drawer of my desk.
- Rdrawing /ˈdrɔːɪŋ/ noun 1 [C] a picture made with a pencil, pen, etc.

  2 [U] the art of drawing pictures: She's good at drawing and painting.
- 'drawing pin (US thumbtack) noun [C] a short pin with a flat top, used for fastening paper, etc. to a board or wall
- 'drawing room noun [C] a living room, especially one used mainly for formal occasions غرقة الضيوف
- drawl /drɔːl/ verb [I,T] to speak slowly, making the vowel sounds very long يمط ُ كلامه ، ينشدُق ► drawl noun [sing.]: a slow Kentucky drawl
- drawn¹ /drɔ:n/ adj (used about a person or his/ her face) looking tired, worried or ill: He looked pale and drawn after the long journey.

drawn<sup>2</sup> pp of DRAW<sup>2</sup>: The match was drawn. O The curtains were drawn.

dread /dred/noun [U, sing.] great fear: He lived in dread of the same thing happening to him one day. ○ a secret dread of what might happen ightharpoonup dread verb [T] to be very afraid of or worried about sth: I'm dreading the exams.  $\circ$  She dreaded

فزع، هلع، رهبة

dreadful → dressing

having to tell him what had happened. o I dread to think what my father will say. لرهب لمختفى dreaded adj terrible; causing you to feel afraid or worried: the most dreaded punishment of all dreadful /'dredfl/ adj very bad, unpleasant or poor in quality: We had a dreadful journey - traffic jams all the way! ○ What a dreadful man!

○ I'm afraid there's been a dreadful (= very serious) mistake.

► dreadfully /-fəli/ adv

dreadlocks /'dredloks/ noun [plural] hair worn in long curled pieces, especially by some black people

- Rdream¹ /dri:m/ noun 1 [C] a series of events or pictures which happen in your mind while you are asleep: I had a strange dream last night. In my dream I was flying a helicopter... Э Look at nightmare.
  - 2 [C] an event or situation that you want very much to happen, although it is not very likely that it will: His dream was to give up his job and live in the country. o a dream house (= one that you would like very much to own)
  - 3 [sing.] a state of mind in which you are not concentrating on what is happening around you: You've been in a dream all morning!

عالم الخيال ، (سابح في) حلم

R dream² /dri:m/ verb [I,T] (pt, pp dreamt /dremt/ or dreamed /dri:md/) 1 to see or experience pictures and events in your mind while you are asleep: I dreamed about the house that I lived in as a child. I woke up to find that I wasn't really rich. I had only dreamt it. I dreamed that I was running but I couldn't get away.

2 to imagine sth that you would like to happen: I've always dreamt about winning lots of money.

I never dreamt that I would be so lucky! كا Look at daydream.

| السلام | etc. would not dream of sth I, etc.

► dreamer noun [C] a person who thinks a lot about ideas, plans, etc. which may never happen instead of concentrating on what is really happening dreamy /'dri:mi/ adj (dreamier; dreamiest) (used about a person or his/her expression) having or showing thoughts that are far away from the real world: a dreamy look, expression, etc.

dreary /ˈdrɪəri/ adj (drearier; dreariest) dull, boring or depressing: What dreary weather! It's so grey.

dredge /dred3/ verb [T] to clear the mud, etc.

from the bottom of a river or harbour using a special machine يجرف الوحل من القاع

PHRY dredge sth up to mention again sth unpleasant from the past that it would be better to forget: The newspaper had dredged up all sorts of embarrassing details about her private life.

dregs /dreg2/ noun [plural] 1 the unwanted liquid left at the bottom of sth, including any solid bits that have sunk down: 'Is there anything left in that bottle?' 'Only the dregs.'

2 the worst and most useless part of sth: These people were regarded as the dregs of society. حثالة (الناس) ، غثاء drench /drent∫/ verb [T] (usually passive) to make sb/sth completely wet: We got absolutely drenched in the storm.

Ç dress¹/dres/noun 1 [C] a piece of clothing worn by a girl or a woman. It covers the body from the shoulders to the knees or below and often covers the arms.

2 [U] clothes for either men or women: formal/informal dress o evening dress

? dress² /dres/ verb 1 [I.T] to put clothes on sb or yourself: He dressed quickly and left the house with a minute to spare. • If you don't get dressed soon, we'll be late. • My husband dressed the children while I got breakfast ready. • Hurry up, Simon! Aren't you dressed yet? • It is more common to say get dressed than dress.

يلبس، يرتدي؛ يلبِس

- 2 [I] to put or have clothes on, in the way or style mentioned: to dress well, badly, etc. o to be well dressed, badly dressed, etc.
- 3 [I] to put on formal clothes for the evening: In the past wealthy families always dressed for dinner.
- 4 [T] to clean and put a bandage, etc. on a wound: to dress a wound

DM (be) dressed in sth wearing sth: The people at the funeral were all dressed in black.

THEV dress up 1 to put on special or unusual clothes for fun or for a play: The children decided to dress up as pirates.

2 to put on smart clothes, usually for a special occasion: You don't need to dress up for the party.

- dresser /ˈdresə(r)/ noun [C] 1 (especially Brit) a piece of furniture with cupboards at the bottom and shelves above. It is used for holding dishes, cups, etc.
- 2 (US) a chest of drawers, usually with a mirror on top منضدة الزينة ، "تواليت"

dressing /ˈdresɪŋ/ noun 1 [C] a covering that you put on a wound to protect it and keep it clean

2 [C,U] a sauce for food, especially for salads صلصة وتوابل السلطة

 ${f 3}$  [U] the act or action of putting on clothes

ارتد

'dressing gown (also bathrobe; US robe) noun [C] a piece of clothing like a loose coat which you wear before or after a bath or over pyjamas, etc.

'dressing table noun [C] a piece of furniture in a bedroom. It has drawers and a mirror.

غضدة الزينة

dressmaker /ˈdresmeɪkə(r)/ noun [C] a person, especially a woman, who makes women's clothes

dressmaking /'dresmerkm/ noun [U] خياطة الملابس النسائية

drew pt of DRAW2

dribble /ˈdribl/ verb 1 [1.T] (used about a liquid) to move downwards in a thin stream; to make a liquid move in this way: The paint dribbled down the side of the pot. "بَشْرَ"، بسيل أو يجعله يسيل قطرة قطرة [1] to allow liquid (saliva) to run out of the mouth: Small children often dribble.

Small children often aribble. وأراء تسلل لعانه

3 [1,T] (used in ball games) to make a ball move forward by using many short kicks or hits

يدفع أو يدحرج الكرة

dried pt, pp of  $DRY^2$

 $drier^1 adj \rightarrow DRY^1$

drier2 noun [C] → DRYER

- drift /drift/ verb [1] 1 to be carried or moved along by wind or water: The boat drifted out to sea.
- 2 (used about snow or sand) to be moved into piles by wind or water: The snow drifted up to two metres deep in some places.

(الرمل) ينجرف ويتراكم

- 3 to move slowly or without any particular purpose: He drifted from room to room. She drifted into acting almost by accident. At one time they were close friends, but over the years they've drifted apart.
- ► drift noun 1 [C] a slow movement towards sth: the country's drift into economic decline انحراف، انسياق، جنوح
- 2 [sing.] the general meaning of sth: I couldn't understand every word but I got the drift of what he was saying.
- 3 [C] a pile of snow or sand that was made by wind or water (رکام أو کومة (ثلج مثلاً)
- drill 'dril' noun [C] a tool or machine that is used for making holes in things: a dentist's drill
- ► drill verb [I,T] to make a hole in sth with a drill: to drill a hole in sth o to drill for oil يحفر بمثقاب: يحفر بئر نفط

3.5 . . . . . . .

- drill² /drɪl/ noun 1 [U] exercise in marching, etc. that soldiers do
- 2 [C] something that you repeat many times in order to learn sth
- 3 [C,U] practice for what you should do in an emergency: a fire drill تدريب؛ تجربة المناسبة التعلق الت
- ▶ drill verb [I.T] to teach sb by making him/her repeat sth many times

drily /'draili/ adv → DRY1

- ያ drink /drɪŋk/ verb (pt drank /dræŋk/; pp drunk /drʌŋk/) 1 [[.T] to take liquid into your body through your mouth: You've lost a lot of fluid. You must keep drinking. We sat drinking coffee and chatting for hours.
  - 2 [I] to drink alcohol: Don't drink and drive. يشرب الكحول

PHRV drink to sb/sth to wish sb/sth good luck by raising your glass before you drink: We all drank to the future of the bride and groom.

Dook at toast<sup>2</sup>.

drink (sth) up to finish drinking sth: Drink up your tea – it's getting cold.

- ► drink noun [C,U] 1 liquid for drinking: Can I have a drink please? a drink of milk food and drink شراب ، مشروب
- 2 alcoholic drink: the link between drink and crime o a strong drink مشروب تحولي drinker noun [C] a person who drinks alcohol: a heavy drinker شارب الخبر ، سکّير

drinking noun [U] drinking alcohol: Her drinking became a problem.

,drink-'driving noun [U] driving a vehicle after drinking too much alcohol: He was convicted of drink-driving and was banned for two years.

قيادة السيارة في حالة سُكْر

- 'drinking water noun [U] water that is safe to drink سائر ب
- drip /drɪp/ verb (dripping; dripped) 1 [I] (used about a liquid) to fall in small drops: Water was dripping down through the roof.
- 2 [I.T] to have drops of liquid falling: The tap is dripping.  $\circ$  Her finger was dripping blood.
- ► drip noun 1 [sing.] the act or sound of water dripping: the drip of a leaky tap
- 2 [C] a drop of water that falls down from sb/
- 3 [C] a piece of medical equipment, like a tube, that is used for putting liquid food or medicine directly into a sick person's blood: She's on a drip.

  "محقنة "سيروم"
- ل drive drive / draw/ verb (pt drove / draw/); pp driven / 'drivn/) و الله (J.T] to control or operate a car, train, bus, etc: Can you drive? to drive a car, train, bus, lorry, etc.
  - 2 [I,T] to go or take sb somewhere in a car, etc: I usually drive to work. We drove Nancy to the airport.
  - 3 [T] to force people or animals to move in a particular direction: The dogs drove the sheep into the field.
  - 4 [T] to force sth into a particular position by hitting it: to drive a post into the ground
  - 5 [T] to cause sb to be in a particular state or to do a particular thing: That noise is driving me mad. o to drive sb to despair o His loneliness drove him to commit suicide.
  - 6 [T] to make sb/sth work very hard: You shouldn't drive yourself so hard.

drive → drop

7 [T] to make a machine work, by giving it power: What drives the wheels in this engine?

يسير، يحرك IDM be driving at (informal) to want to say sth; to mean: I'm afraid I don't understand what you يعني، يقصد are driving at.

drive sth home (to sb) to make sth clear so that people understand it

PHRV drive off (used about a car, driver, etc.) و العمل الع drive sb/sth off to force sb/sth to go back or away: They kept a large dog outside to drive off burglars.

- ? drive² /draɪv/ noun 1 [C] a journey in a car: The supermarket is only a five-minute drive away.

  o Let's go out for a drive.
  - 2 [C] a private road that leads to a house
    - طريق خاصَ يوصل إلى البيت tormination way need to
  - 3 [U] the energy and determination you need to succeed in doing sth
  - 4 [C,U] a strong natural need or desire: a strong sex drive
  - 5 [C] a strong effort by a group of people in order to achieve sth: a sales drive
- 'drive-by adj (US) (only before a noun) (used about a shooting) done from a moving car: driveby killings (قتل) من سيارة عابرة مسرعة
- 'drive-in noun [C] a place where you can go to eat, watch a film, etc. in your car سينما في الهواء الطلق تدخلها السيّارات

driven pp of DRIVE1

- l driver /'draıvə(r)/ noun [C] a person who drives a vehicle: One passenger died in the accident but the driver was unhurt.
- 'drive-through noun [C] (especially US) a restaurant, bank, etc. where you can be served without getting out of your car

(مطعم مثلاً) ممكن الشراء منه من السيارة

? driving¹/drawin/noun [U] the act of controlling a car, etc: Driving in the fog is very frightening.
• She was arrested for dangerous driving.

. سُوْق ، قيادة

driving<sup>2</sup> /ˈdraɪvɪn/ adj very strong: driving rain o Who's the driving force behind this plan? شدد : عات

'driving licence (US 'driver's licence) noun
[C] an official piece of paper that says you are allowed to drive a car, etc. You get this piece of paper after you have passed a test.

شهادة سُوْق أو قيادة

'driving school noun [C] an organization for teaching people to drive a car

مدرسة لتعليم قيادة السيارات

drizzle /ˈdrɪzl/ noun [U] light rain that has many small drops: A cloudy day with rain or drizzle is expected.

► drizzle verb [I] $\times$ Look at the note at weather.

drone /droon/ verb [I] to make a continuous low sound: the sound of the tractors droning away in the fields

CHRV drone on to talk in a flat or boring voice

► drone noun [C, usually sing.] a continuous low sound

- drool /dru:l/ verb [I] 1 to let liquid (saliva) come out from your mouth, usually at the sight or smell of sth good to eat
- 2 drool (over sb/sth) to show in a foolish way how much you like or admire sb/sth: teenagers drooling over photographs of their favourite pop stars

  يبدي إعجابه بصورة مزرية
- droop /dru:p/ verb [1] to bend or hang downwards, e.g. because of weakness or tiredness: The flowers were drooping without water.
  - يتهدل ، يتراخى، يذوي ► drooping adj: drooping shoulders ∘ a drooping moustache متهدل
- Rdrop¹ /drop/ verb (dropping; dropped) 1 [T] to allow sth to fall: The helicopters dropped food and medicine. That vase was very expensive. Whatever you do don't drop it!
  - 2 [I] to fall: The parachutist dropped safely to the ground.
  - 3 [I,T] to become weaker or lower; to make sth weaker or lower: The temperature will drop to minus 3 overnight. They ought to drop their prices. to drop your voice (= speak more quietly)

    پهېد، بخفض ؛ بخفض أو بخفض أو بخفض أو بخفض أو بخفض أو بخفض أو بخفص أو بخفص
  - 4 [T] drop sb/sth (off) to stop your car, etc. so that sb can get out, or in order to take sth out: Drop me off at the traffic lights, please. o I'll drop the parcel at your house.
  - 5 [T] to no longer include sb/sth in sth: Joe has been dropped from the team.
  - 6 [T] to stop doing sth: I'm going to drop geography next term (= stop studying it). O Drop everything I need your help right now!

بىرى يىلى drop dead (informal) to die suddenly

يموت فجأة drop sb a line to write a letter to sb: Do drop me a line when you've time.

EHRV drop back; drop behind (sb) to move into a position behind sb else, because you are moving more slowly: Towards the end of the race she dropped behind the other runners.

يتخلّف عن الآخرين drop by/in; drop in on sb to visit sb informally or without having told them you were coming: We were in the area so we thought we'd drop in and see you.

drop off (informal) to fall into a light sleep: I must have dropped off in front of the television.

drop out (of sth) to leave or stop doing sth before you have finished: His injury forced him to drop out of the competition. o to drop out of college

Çdrop² /drpp/ noun 1 [C] a small round mass of liquid: I thought I felt a drop of rain.

drop-down menu → dry

243

- 2 drops [plural] liquid medicine that you put into your eyes, ears or nose
- 3 [C, usually sing.] a small amount of liquid: I'll just have a drop more tea. "عَلَيْهُ مَغْيِرةً، "نقطة"
- 4 [sing.] a vertical distance down from a place: a sheer drop of 40 metres to the sea
- 5 [sing.] a smaller amount or level of sth: The job is much more interesting but it will mean a drop in salary.
- drop-down 'menu noun (computing) a menu that appears on a computer screen when you choose it, and that stays there until you choose one of the functions on it

لاتحة هابطة، قائمة بالبرامج الموجودة على الكمبيوتر

- 'drop-out noun [C] 1 a person who leaves school, university, etc. before finishing his/her studies
- 2 a person who does not accept the rules of society and who wants to live in a way that is different from one that most people consider is acceptable
- droppings /ˈdrɒpɪnz/ noun [plural] waste material from the bodies of small animals or birds: rabbit droppings بعر الغنم وغيره ، فرق الطيور
- drought /draut/ noun [C.U] a long period of weather which is too dry: Drought has affected many countries in Africa.

drove pt of DRIVE1

- drown /draun/ verb 1 [I,T] to die in water because it is not possible to breathe; to make sb die in this way: The girl fell into the river and drowned. Twenty people were drowned in the floods.
- 2 [T] (used about a sound) to be so loud that you cannot hear sb/sth else: His answer was drowned by the music.
- drowsy /ˈdraʊzi/ adj (drowsier; drowsiest) very sleepy: The heat made me feel drowsy.

  ► drowsily /-əli/ adv
  شبه نائم ، بنعاس طrowsiness noun [U]
- drudgery /ˈdrʌdʒəri/ noun [U] hard and uninteresting work
- R drug /drʌg/ noun [C] 1 a chemical which is used as a medicine: Some drugs can only be obtained with a prescription from a doctor.
  - 2 a chemical which people use to give them pleasant or exciting feelings. It is against the law in many countries to use drugs: hard drugs such as heroin and cocaine
  - ► drug verb [T] (drugging; drugged) 1 to give a person or animal a chemical to make them sleepy or unconscious: The lion was drugged before the start of the journey.
  - 2 to put a drug into food or drink: drugged food
- 'drug addict noun [C] a person who cannot stop taking drugs
- 'drug addiction noun [U] the state of being a drug addict الإدمان على المخلرات

- druggist /'dragist/ noun [C] (US) = CHEMIST (1)
- Ç drugstore /ˈdrʌgstɔː(r)/ noun [C] (US) a shop that sells medicine, soap, shampoo, film, etc. as well as drinks and light meals
- Fdrum /drAm/ noun [C] 1 a round hollow musical instrument, with plastic or skin stretched across the ends. You play a drum by hitting it with your hands or with sticks: She plays the drums in a band.
  - a round hollow container: an oil drum برميل ► drum verb (drumming; drummed) 1 [I] to play a drum or drums
  - 2 [I,T] to make a noise like a drum by hitting sth many times: to drum your fingers on the table (= because you are annoyed, impatient, etc.)

ويقى المسر PHRV drum sth into sb to make sb remember sth by repeating it many times: Road safety should be drummed into children from an early age.

drum sth up to try to get more of sth: to drum up more custom مِسْمِعَ ، يُوفِحَ drummer noun [C] a person who plays a drum or drums

 $drunk^1 pp$  of DRINK

- ፍ drunk² /drʌŋk/ adj (not before a noun) having drunk too much alcohol: You're drunk!
  - سکران، مخمور drunk noun [C] a person who is drunk

السكران drunkard /'drʌŋkəd/ noun [C] a person who often gets drunk

- drunken /ˈdrʌnkən/ adj (only before a noun) 1 having drunk too much alcohol: drunken drivers
- 2 showing the effects of too much alcohol: drunken singing
- لِثُمَل، (تكلَّم) وهو مخمور drunkenny adv
   حالة سُكُر، ثُمَل خالة سُكُر، ثُمَل
- ? dry¹ /drar/ adj (drier; driest) 1 without liquid in it or on it; not wet: The washing isn't dry yet.

   The paint is dry now. Rub your hair dry with a towel. In the hot weather the stream ran dry.
  - 2 having little or no rain: a hot, dry summer
  - 3 (used about wine) not sweet فير علو (خمر) مزّ اي غير حلو
  - 4 (used of a remark, etc.) amusing, although it sounds serious: a dry sense of humour
    - (تعليق) مضحك وذكيّ ولو أنّه يبدو جادّاً
  - 5 dull or boring: dry legal documents بافريطل ► drily (also dryly) /'dralli/ adv in a dry(4) way: 'I can hardly contain my excitement,' Peter said dryly (= he was not excited at all).

بجفاء، دون اكتراث

.. جفاف : انعدام الروح أو التشويق dryness noun [U]

R dry<sup>2</sup> /drai/ verb [I,T] (pres part drying; 3rd pers sing pres dries; pt, pp dried) to become dry; to make sth dry: Leave your swimsuit in the sun to dry. o to dry your hands on a towel عبداً بيشنف [PHRY] dry (5th) out (to cause sth wet) to dry-clean → duet

Oxford O

become very dry or too dry: Don't allow the soil to dry out.

dry up 1 (used about a river, etc.) to have no more water in it

2 to stop being available: Because of the recession a lot of building work has dried up. ينفد، ينقطع

3 to forget what you intended to say, e.g. because you are very nervous پنسي ما يود قوله dry (sth) up to dry plates, knives, forks, etc. with a towel after they have been washed

► dried adj (used about food) with all the liquid removed from it: dried milk o dried fruit مبغنف dryer (also drier) /'draɪə(r)/ noun [C] a machine that you use for drying sth: a hairdryer o a tumble dryer

,dry-'clean verb [T] to clean clothes using special chemicals, without using water

التنظيف على الناشف. ► ,dry-'cleaner's (also cleaner's) noun [C] the shop where you take your clothes to be cleaned dry 'land noun [U] land, not the sea: I was glad to, be back on dry land again.

dual /ˈdju:əl; US ˈdu:əl/ adj (only before a noun) having two parts; double: the dual role of mother and working woman o to have dual nationality ثنائي أو مزدوج ، مضاعف noun [C] a road that has an area of grass or a fence down the middle to separate the lines of traffic going in one direction from the traffic going in the other direction dub /dʌb/ verb [T] (dubbing; dubbed) 1 to give sb/sth a new or amusing name (a nickname):

The Belgian actor Jean Claude Van Damme has been dubbed 'Muscles from Brussels'.

2 to change the sound in a film so that what the actors said originally is spoken by actors using a different language: I don't like foreign films when they're dubbed into English. I prefer subtitles.

يُدَبِّلج الفيلم: يجعل الممثلين يتكلّمون لَغة أخرى dubious /ˈdjuːbiəs; US ˈduː-/ adj 1 dubious (about sth/about doing sth) not sure or certain: I'm very dubious about whether we're doing the right thing.

2 that may not be honest or safe: dubious financial dealings ▶ dubiously adv duchess (also Duchess) /ˈdʌtʃəs/ noun [C] 1 the wife of a duke

2 a woman who is of the same rank as a duke

duck¹ /dʌk/ noun (pl. duck or ducks) 1 [C] a common bird that lives on or near water. Ducks have short legs, special (webbed) feet for swimning and a wide beak. They are kept on farms for their meat and eggs.

عِلَة [C] a female duck

A male duck is called a drake and a young duck is a duckling. A duck waddles and quacks.

3 [U] the meat of a duck: roast duck with orange sauce duck<sup>2</sup>/dak/ verb 1 [I,T] to move your head down quickly so that you are not seen or hit by sb/sth: I saw the ball coming towards me and ducked.

یخفض رأسه (تفادیا لشیء)

2 [I.T] (informal) duck (out of) sth to try to avoid sth difficult or unpleasant: She tried to duck out of apologizing.

3 [T] to push sb's head under water for a short time, especially when playing يغطّس رأسه تحت الماء للمداعبة

duct /dAkt/ noun [C] a tube that carries liquid, gas, etc: They got into the building through the air duct.

dud /dʌd/ noun [C] (informal) a thing that is useless or that does not work properly

شيء معطّل أو عديم القّيمة ۖ

dude /du:d/ noun [C] (slang) a man رجل، شخص، واحد من الناس

? due<sup>1</sup> /dju:; US du:/ adj 1 (not before a noun) expected or planned to happen or arrive: The conference is due to start in four weeks' time. • What time is the plane due?

2 (not before a noun) having to be paid: The rent is due on the fifteenth of each month.

مستحقّ (الدفع)

3 that is owed to you because it is your right to have it: Make sure you claim all the benefits that are due to you.

4 due to sb/sth caused by or because of sb/sth: His illness is probably due to stress. ناتج عن 'بسبب

Some careful speakers only use due to after the verb to be: The strike was due to poor working conditions. However, due to is often used in the same way as owing to and because of: Due to/owing to/because of the bad weather many trains have been cancelled.

5 due for sth deserving or expecting to have sth: I think that I'm due for a pay rise.

6 (only before a noun) (formal) suitable or right: After due consideration I have decided to accept your offer.

in due course at some time in the future, quite soon: All applicants will be informed of our decision in due course.

due2 /dju:; US du:/ noun

المسل give sb his/her due to be fair to a person:
She doesn't work very quickly, but to give her her due, she is very accurate.

due<sup>3</sup> /dju:; US du:/ adv (used before 'north', 'south', 'east' and 'west') exactly: The plane was flying due east.

duel /ˈdjuːəl; US ˈduːəl/ noun [C] a formal type of fight with guns or swords which was used in the past to settle an argument between two men: to challenge sb to a duel duet /dju'et; US du:'et/ (also duo) noun [C] a piece of music for two people to sing or play الحن ثنائي duffel coat (also duffle coat) /'dʌfl kəʊt/ noun [C] a coat made of heavy woollen cloth with a hood. A duffel coat has special long buttons (tog-معطف سميك ذو قلنسوة gles).

dug pt, pp of DIG

- duke /dju:k; US du:k/ (also Duke) noun [C] a nobleman of very high rank: the Duke of York Look at duchess
- Rdull /dnl/ adj 1 not bright: a dull and cloudy معتم ، قاتم day
  - 2 not loud, sharp or strong: Her head hit the floor خافت ، مكتوم with a dull thud. o a dull pain
  - 3 not interesting or exciting: Life is never dull in the city.
  - ▶ duliness noun [U] رتابة ؛ ملل ؛ بهوت الألوان بصورة مملَّة dully /'dalli/ adv 1 in a dull way
  - 2 showing no interest: Sheila didn't answer. She just stared dully at me.
  - duly /'dju:li; US 'du:li/ adv (formal) in the correct or expected way: We all duly assembled at 7.30 as كما يحب ، على النحو المطلوب agreed.
  - dumb /dam/ adj 1 not able to speak: to be deaf and dumb o (figurative) They were struck dumb أخرس . أبكم with amazement.
  - 2 (informal) stupid: What a dumb thing to do!
  - أحمق ، غبي ▶ dumbly adv without speaking: Ken dumbly nodded agreement.
  - dumbfounded /dam'faundid/ adj very sur-معقود اللَّسان ، مبهوت prised
  - dummy /'dami/ noun [C] (pl. dummies) 1 a model of the human body used for putting clothes on in a shop window or while you are making clothes: a tailor's dummy تمثال لعرض الأزياء
  - 2 (US pacifier) a rubber object that you put in a baby's mouth to keep him/her quiet and happy لهاية ، مصاصة
  - 3 something that is made to look like sth else but that is not the real thing
  - نسخة مزيّفة عن ، دمية "تقليداً ▶ dummy adj made to look like sth else but not the real thing: dummy bullets
- ? dump /damp/ verb [T] 1 to take sth that you do not want to a place, especially a place which is not suitable, and leave it there: Nuclear waste should not be dumped in the sea. o piles of rubbish dumped by the side of the road يرمي ، يتخلّص من
  - 2 to put something down quickly or in a careless way: The children dumped their coats and bags in the hall and ran off to play. يلقي به على عجل
  - ▶ dump noun [C] 1 a place where rubbish or waste material from factories, etc. is left: the municipal rubbish dump
  - 2 (informal) a place that is very dirty, untidy or unpleasant: The flat is cheap but it's a real مكان قذر حقير
  - dumpling /'damplin/ noun [C] a small ball of fat and flour (dough) that is cooked and usually eaten with meat كرة عجين مطبوخة dumps /damps/ noun [plural] (informal)

- IDM down in the dumps unhappy or depressed
- dune /dju:n; US du:n/ (also sand dune) noun [C] a low hill of sand by the sea or in the desert كثيب رملي
- dung /dan/ noun [U] waste material from the bodies of large animals
- dungarees /dangə'ri:z/ noun [plural] a piece of clothing, similar to trousers, but covering your chest as well as your legs and with straps that go over the shoulders: a pair of dungarees
- dungeon /'dand3ən/ noun [C] an underground prison, e.g. in a castle سجن تحت الأرض ، ديماس
- duo /'diu:əu; US 'du:əu/ noun [C] 1 two people playing music or singing together
- dupe /dju:p; US du:p/ verb [T] (informal) to trick sb: The woman was duped into carrying the يحتال على ، يغرّر ب
- duplicate<sup>1</sup> /'dju:plikət; US 'du:pləkət/ adj (only before a noun) exactly the same as sth else: a duplicate key (= a copy of another key)
- سوخ عنه ▶ duplicate noun [C] something that is exactly the same as sth else صورة طبق الأصل
- IDM in duplicate with two copies (e.g. of an official piece of paper) that are exactly the same: The contract must be in duplicate.
- duplicate<sup>2</sup> /'dju:plikeit; US 'du:plakeit/ verb [T] 1 to make an exact copy of sth يستنسخ عن
- 2 to do sth that has already been done: We don't want to duplicate the work of other departments.
- ▶ duplication / dju:plr'kei∫n; US du:plə'kei∫n/ استنساخ ؛ تكرآر noun [U]
- durable /'djvərəbl; US 'dvə-/ adj that is able to last a long time: a durable fabric
  - متين ، شديد التحمّل
- ▶ durability /ˌdjʊərəˈbɪləti; US ˌdʊə-/ noun متانة ، شدّة التحمّل
- duration /dju'reifn; US du-/ noun [U] the time that sth lasts: Please remain seated for the duration of the flight.
- duress /dju'res; US du-/ noun [U]
- IDM under duress because of the threat of force being used; not willingly: He signed the confession under duress. إكراه ، إرغام
- ?during /'djuərɪŋ; US 'duər-/ prep 1 for all of a period of time: The audience must remain seated during the performance.
  - 2 on more than one occasion in a period of time: During the summer holidays we went swimming أثناء، خلال every day.
  - 3 at some point in a period of time: Grandpa was taken very ill during the night. خلال، أثناء
  - Notice that you use during to say when something happens and for to say how long

dusk → dysentery

something lasts: I went shopping during my lunch break. I was out for about 25 minutes.

- dusk /dʌsk/ noun [U] the time in the evening when the sun has already gone down and it is nearly dark ⊅ Look at dawn.
- R dust¹/dʌst/ noun [U] a fine dry powder that is made of very small pieces of earth, dirt, etc: There is dust everywhere in our house. o a thick layer of dust o chalk dust o The tractor came up the track in a cloud of dust. o a speck (= small piece) of dust
- Q dust² /dast/ verb [I,T] to remove dust from furniture, etc. with a cloth: Let me dust those shelves before you put the books on them. 2 Look at the note at clean².
  - ► duster noun [C] a soft cloth that you use for dusting furniture
- dustbin /ˈdʌstbin/ (US garbage can; trash can) noun [C] a large container for rubbish that you keep outside your house
- dustman /ˈdʌstmən/ (pl. dustmen /-mən/) noun
  [C] a person whose job is to take away the rubbish that people put in their dustbins
- dustpan /ˈdʌstpæn/ noun [C] a flat container with a handle into which you brush dust or dirt from the floor "خروو"، "كريك" جاروف الكناسة ، "مجروو"، "كريك"
- dusty /ˈdʌsti/ adj (dustier; dustiest) having a lot of dust: This shelf has got very dusty.
- هولندي Dutch adj from the Netherlands
- dutiful /ˈdjuːtɪfl; US ˈduː-/ adj (formal) willing to respect and obey: a dutiful daughter مطبع بار
- R duty /'dju:ti; US 'du:ti/ noun (pl. duties) 1 [C,U] something that you have to do because people expect you to do it or because you think it is right: A soldier must do his duty. a sense of moral duty o It's your duty to look after your parents when they get older.
  - 2 [C,U] the tasks that you do when you are at work: the duties of a policeman o to be on night duty (= e.g. as a nurse)
  - 3 [C] a tax that you pay, especially on goods that you bring into a country فريبة جمركية PDM on/off duty (used about doctors, nurses,
  - policemen, etc.) to be working/not working: The porter's on duty from 8 till 4.0 What time does she go off duty?
- duty-'free adj, adv (used about goods) that you can bring into a country without paying tax: an airport duty-free shop o How many cigarettes can you bring into Britain duty-free?
- duvet /'du:vei/ noun [C] a thick cover filled with feathers or another soft material that is placed on top of a bed instead of a sheet and blankets

  Look at eiderdown and quilt.
- Ç DVD /,dir vir 'dir/ noun [C] digital videodisc or digital versatile disc; a disk on which large amounts of information, especially photographs

- and video, can be stored, for use on a computer or DVD-player: a DVD-ROM drive اسطوانة فيديو رقمية
- dwarf /dwo:rf/ noun [C] (pl. dwarfs or dwarves /dwo:vz/) 1 a person, animal or plant that is much smaller than the usual size
- 2 (in children's stories) a very small person, often with special powers: Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs
- dwarf verb [T] (used about a large object) to make sth seem very small in comparison: The skyscraper dwarfs all the other buildings around.
- dwell /dwel/ verb [I] (pt, pp dwelt /dwelt/ or dwelled) (old-fashioned, formal) to live or stay in a place
  - THEY dwell on/upon sth to think, speak or write about sth for a long time: I don't want to dwell on the past. Let's think about the future. يطيل التفكير في يسهب
  - ► dweller noun [C] (often in compounds) a person or animal that lives in the place mentioned: city-dwellers
- dwelling noun [C] (formal) the place where a person lives; a house
- dwindle /ˈdwmdl/ verb [1] to become smaller or weaker: Their savings dwindled away to nothing.
- dye¹/daı/verb [T] (pres part dyeing; 3rd pers sing pres dyes; pt, pp dyed) to colour sth, especially by putting it into a liquid: Does she dye her hair?

  o I'm going to dye this blouse black.
- dye² /daɪ/ noun [C,U] a substance, usually added to a liquid, that changes the colour of sth, e.g. cloth. hair
- dying present participle of DIE
- dyke (also dike) /daɪk/ noun [C] 1 a wall made of earth, etc. used for preventing a river or the sea from flooding سور بحري، حاجز اصد العباه
- 2 a channel used for taking water away from land
- dynamic /dar'næmɪk/ adj 1 (used about a person) full of energy and ideas; active
  - مفعم بالنشاط ؛ فعَّال
- 2 (used about a force or power) that causes movement حرکي، دينامي أو ديناميکي
- dynamism /ˈdaɪnəmɪzəm/ noun [U] نشاط فعّال ، ديناميّة
- dynamite /'daməmaɪt/ noun [U] 1 a type of explosive, used especially in mining
- 2 a thing or person that causes great excitement, shock, etc: His news was dynamite.
  - شخص دينامي مثير ؛ (خبر) مذهل
- dynamo /ˈdaɪnəməʊ/ noun [C] (pl. dynamos) a device that changes a type of power such as steam or water into electricity مولّد کهربائي، دينامو
- dynasty /ˈdməsti; US ˈdaɪ-/ noun [C] (pl. dynasties) a series of rulers who are from the same family: the Ming dynasty
- dysentery /'disəntri; US -teri/ noun [U] a serious disease which causes a severe form of diarrhoea dyslexia /dɪs'leksiə; US dɪs'leksə/ noun [U] a problem in sb's brain that causes difficulties in reading and spelling

► dyslexic /dɪs'leksɪk/ noun [C], adj

Еe

E, e /i:/ noun [C] (pl. Es; E's; e's) the fifth letter of the English alphabet: 'Egg' begins with (an) beginning of a period of time, a piece of work, a 'E'. begins with (an) beginning of a period of time, a piece of work, a series, etc: Come in the early afternoon. o I have to

 $\mathbf{E} \ abbrev = \text{EAST(ERN)}$

Reach /i:t∫/ det, pron every one of two or more things or people in a group, when you think about them individually: Each lesson lasts an hour. ○ Each of the lessons lasts an hour. ○ The lessons each last an hour. ○ He gave each child a present. ○ He gave each of the children a present. ○ He gave the children a present each.

كلّ ، كلّ واحد

Ç each 'other (used for saying that sb feels, does or has the same thing as another person/other people in the group): They loved each other very much. • We looked at each other.

بعضهما أو بعضهم بعضأ

eager /'i:gə(r)/ adj full of desire or interest: He is eager to meet you. ○ eager for success

متلهِّف ، تو ّاق إلى بتلهُّف

► eagerly adv eagerness noun [U]

eagle /'i:gl/ noun [C] a very large bird that can see very well. It eats small birds and animals.

نسر، عقاب

Lear 1/10(r)/ noun 1 [C] one of the two parts of the body of a person or animal that are used for hearing: Elephants have large ears. • He pulled his hat down over his ears. • Whisper in my ear!

2 [sing.] an ear (for sth) an ability to recognize or appreciate sounds, especially in music or language: an ear for music play (sth) by ear to play a piece of music, etc. from memory and without using written notes

"" אָב פֿאָה פֿאָר פֿאָה פֿאָר פֿאָה פֿאָה פֿאָה פֿאָר פֿאָר ear² /١ə(r)/ noun [C] the top part of a plant that produces grain: an ear of corn earache /ˈrəreɪk/ noun [U] a pain in your ear: I've got earache. 2 Look at the note at ache.

سرَف وفق ما تقتضيه الظروف prick up your ears → PRICK<sup>2</sup>

م ف*ي* الأذن

eardrum /ˈɪədrʌm/ noun [C] a thin piece of skin inside the ear that is tightly stretched and that allows you to hear sound earl /a:l/ noun [C] a British nobleman of high rank 🗗 A woman of the same rank is called a countess. "ايرل": نبيل بريطاني عالي المركز early /ˈɜːli/ (earlier; earliest) adj, adv 1 near the beginning of a period of time, a piece of work, a series, etc: Come in the early afternoon. • I have to get up early on weekday mornings. • He died in his early twenties. • The project is still in its early stages. • The tunnel should be finished early next year.

2 before the usual or expected time: She arrived five minutes early for her interview. • Spring is early this year.

at the earliest not before the date or time mentioned: I can repair it by Friday at the earliest.

the early hours very early in the morning, in the hours after midnight الساعات الأخيرة من الليل an early/a late night → NIGHT early on soon after the beginning: He achieved fame early on in his career. مبكراً، بعد فترة قصيرة

earmark /ˈiəmɑːk/ verb [T] earmark sb/sth (for sth/sb) to choose sb or keep sth for a particular job or purpose: The factory has been earmarked for closure.

Pearn /s:n/ verb [T] 1 to get money by working: How much does a dentist earn? I earn £20 000 a year. He earns his living as an artist. How much interest will my savings earn (= produce) in the bank?

2 to get sth that you deserve: The team's victory today has earned them a place in the final.

o You've earned a holiday.

rearrings noun [plural] the money that a person earns by working: Average earnings have increased by 5%.

earnest /ˈaːmɪst/ adj serious or determined: He's such an earnest young man – he never makes a joke. • They were having a very earnest discussion.

▶ earnest noun

what you are going to do: His mother was worried that he was in earnest about wanting to leave university.

2 happening more seriously or with more force than before: Work began in earnest on the project.

earnestly adv in an earnest way earphones /ˈiəfəʊnz/ noun [plural] a piece of equipment that fits over the ears and is used for listening to music, the radio, etc.

earring /'ıorıŋ/ noun [C] a piece of jewellery that is worn in or on the lower part of the ear: Do these

earshot → easy

earrings clip on or are they for pierced ears?

earshot /'iərfpt/ noun [U]

IDM (be) out of/within earshot where a person cannot/can hear: Wait until he's out of earshot before you say anything about him.

خارج مدى السمع ؛ على مسمع من rearth 1/3:θ/ noun 1 (also the earth; the Earth) [sing.] the world; the planet on which we live: life on earth o The earth is protected by the ozone الكرة الأرضيّة ، العالم layer.

2 [sing.] the surface of the world; land: The spaceship fell towards earth. o The earth الأرض

3 [U] soil (that plants grow in): The earth is very fertile here. 2 Look at the note at ground.

IDM charge, cost, pay, etc. (sb) the earth (informal) to charge, etc. a very large amount of (بكلف) منالغ طائلة

how, why, where, who, etc. on earth/in the world (informal) (used for emphasizing sth or expressing surprise): Where on earth have you بحق السماء (أين كنت!)

earth<sup>2</sup> /3:0/ (especially US ground) verb [T] to make a piece of electrical equipment safer by connecting it to the ground with a wire: Make يؤرض، يصل سلكاً بالأرض sure the plug is earthed.

▶ earth noun [C, usually sing.] (especially Brit) (US ground) a wire that makes a piece of electrical equipment safer by connecting it to the ground: The green and yellow wire is the موصل أرضىً، الأرضى earthly /'a:0li/ adj 1 connected with this world, not heaven: The monks gave up all their earthly دنيوي ، مادي

2 (often in questions or negatives) possible: What earthly use is a gardening book to me? I haven't got a garden!

earthquake /'a:0kweik/ (also informal quake) noun [C] a sudden violent movement of the زلزال earth's surface earthworm /'a:0wa:m/ noun [C] a common type دودة التراب of worm that lives in the soil

Rease1 /i:z/ noun [U] a lack of difficulty: She answered the questions with ease. O The ease with which he won the match amazed the spectators. ○ Look at easy. DM (be/feel) at (your) ease to be/feel comfortable, relaxed, etc: They were all so kind and friendly that I felt completely at ease.

(يشعر) بالارتياح وعدم الارتباك

?ease<sup>2</sup>/i:z/verb 1 [I,T] to become or make sth less painful or severe: The pain should ease by this evening. o What can I take to ease this headache? o This money will ease their financial problems a little. o The tension has eased.

يخفّ أو يخفّف (الألم مثلاً)

2 [T] to cause sth to move slowly and gently: He eased the key into the lock.

يحرك شيئا ببطء وعناية بالغة

IDM ease sb's mind to make sb feel less worried: The doctor tried to ease her mind about her son's illness.

PHRV ease off to become less severe: Let's wait until the rain eases off.

ease up to work less hard: Ease up a bit or you'll make yourself ill! يخفف من عمله easel /'i:zl/ noun [C] a wooden frame that holds a blackboard or a picture that is being painted حامل السبورة أو لوحة الرسام

easily adv → EASY1

Peast /i:st/ noun [sing.] (abbr E) 1 (also the east) one of the four main points of the compass; the direction you look towards in order to see the sun rise: Which way is east? o a cold wind from the east o Which county is to the east of Oxford-

2 the east; the East the part of any country, city, etc. that lies further to the east than the other parts: Norwich is in the East of England. شرق ، الشرق

3 the East the countries of Asia, e.g. China, Japan S Look at Far East and Middle East. الشرق ، بلاد المشرق

▶ east (also East) adj in or towards the east, or from the east: the East Coast of America o an east شرقي wind ○ East London east adv to or towards the east: They headed east. o We live east of the city. شرقاً ، شرق (المدينة) easterly /'i:stəli/ adj 1 to, towards or in the east: They travelled in an easterly direction.

شرقيّ ، متّجه نحو الشرق

2 (used about winds) coming from the east: cold (ريح) شرقيّة easterly winds eastward /'i:stwəd/ adj towards the east: to متعه نحو الشرق travel in an eastward direction eastward (also eastwards) adv towards the east: The Amazon flows eastwards.

شرقاً ، نحو الشرق

eastbound /'i:stbound/ adj travelling or leading towards the east: The eastbound carriageway متّحه أو مؤدّ إلى الشرق of the motorway is blocked.

Easter /'i:stə(r)/ noun [U] the Sunday in March or April when Christians celebrate Christ's re-عيد الفصح turn to life

'Easter egg noun [C] an egg, usually made of chocolate, that you give as a present at Easter بيضة الفصح (من الشوكولاتة عادة)

Reastern (also Eastern) /'i:stən/ adj (abbr E) 1 of, in or from the east of a place: Eastern Scot $land \circ the eastern shore of the lake$ شرقي

2 from or connected with the countries of the East: Eastern cookery (= that comes from Asia) شرقي أو آسيوي

eastward adj, adv → EAST

?easy¹ /'i:zi/ adj (easier; easiest) 1 not difficult: an easy question o It isn't easy to explain the system. o The system isn't easy to explain. سهل، هين

2 without any pain, trouble or worry: an easy life o My mind's easier now. 🗢 Look at ease. مرتاح ، مطمئن

IDM free and easy → FREE1

مدّ وجزر ، تقدّم وتراجع

I'm easy (informal) I don't mind; whichever you prefer: 'Would you like to go first or second?' 'I'm easy.' لافق عندي، کما ترید

► easily adv 1 without difficulty: I can easily ring up and check the time.

ring up and check the time.

2 without doubt: It's easily his best novel.

easiness noun [U]

دون شكَ سهولة ، يُسر ؛ راحة easy<sup>2</sup> /'i:zi/ adv (easier; easiest) easier said than done more difficult to do than to talk about: 'You should get her to help you.' 'That's easier said than done.'

الكلام أسهل من الفعل go easy (informal) to work less hard: My doctor advised me to go easy until I'm fully recovered.

يغَفُ من عبله go easy on/with sb/sth (informal) 1 to be gentle or less strict with sh: Go gasy on him:

gentle or less strict with sb: Go easy on him; he's just a child. يتساهل مع .يعامل برفق 2 to avoid using too much of sth: Go easy with

2 to avoid using too much of sth: Go easy with the salt, it's bad for your heart.

يتجنّب الاكثار من، يخفَف take it/things easy to relax and not work too hard or worry too much easy 'chair noun [C] a large comfortable chair with arms

,easy-'going adj (used about a person) calm, relaxed and not easily worried: Her parents are very easy-going. They let her do what she wants.

هادئ النفس ؛ متساهل

? eat /i:t/ verb (pt ate /et; US eit/; pp eaten /'i:tn/) 1 [I.T] to put food into your mouth, then chew and swallow it: Have you eaten all the biscuits? o Eat your dinner up, Joe (= Finish it all). o She doesn't eat properly. No wonder she's so thin.

يأكل

2 [I] to have a meal: What time shall we eat? يتناول الطعام

Mave your cake and eat it → CARE PRO eat sth away/eat away at sth to damage or destroy sth gradually: The sea had eaten away at the cliff.

eat out to have a meal in a restaurant: Would you like to eat out tonight?

▶ eater noun [C] a person who eats in a particular way: My uncle's a big eater (= he eats a lot).

eau de cologne /,əu də kə'ləun/ (also cologne) noun [U] a type of perfume that is not very strong eaves /i:vz/ noun [plural] the edges of a roof that come out beyond the walls: There's a bird's nest under the eaves.

eavesdrop /ˈiːvzdrɒp/ verb [I] (eavesdropping; eavesdropped) to listen secretly to other people talking: They caught her eavesdropping on their conversation.

ebb /eb/ verb [۱] 1 (used about the tides of the sea) to go out

2 (used about a feeling, etc.) to become weaker: The crowd's enthusiasm began to ebb. يتضامل، يضعف ebony /ˈebəni/ noun [U] a hard black wood خشب الأبنوس

eccentric /ik'sentrik/ adj (used about people or their behaviour) strange or unusual: People said he was mad but I think he was just slightly eccentric. شاذُ، غرب الأطوار

► eccentric noun [C] an eccentric person: She is quite an eccentric. ويبا الأطول eccentricity /,eksen'trisəti/ noun [C,U] (pl. eccentricities)

ecclesiastical /ɪˌkliːziˈæstɪkl/ adj connected with the Christian Church: ecclesiastical law

كَنَسيّ

echo /'ekəʊ/ noun [C] (pl. echoes) a sound that is repeated as it is sent back off a surface such as the wall of a cave: 'Is anybody there?' she shouted.'...ere,' came back the echo.

▶ echo verb 1 [I] (used about a sound) to be repeated; to come back as an echo: Their footsteps echoed in the empty church.

يُصدي ، يردِّد الصدى

2 [T] echo sth (back) to repeat or send back a sound: The tunnel echoed back their calls. (figurative) The child echoed everything his mother said.

3 [I] echo (to/with sth) (used about places) to be full of a particular sound: The valley echoed with their laughter. يدي بيدا أرجاء المكان

eclair /ı'kleə(r)/ noun {C] a type of long thin cake, usually filled with cream and covered with chocolate فطيرة ملينة بالقشدة

eclipse /ɪˈklɪps/ noun [C] 1 an occasion when the moon passes between the earth and the sun or the earth's shadow falls on the moon, cutting off all or some of the light: a total/partial eclipse of the sun

2 the loss of a person's importance, success, etc.

▶ eclipse verb [T] 1 (used about the moon, etc.) to cause an eclipse of the sun, etc.

2 (used about a person) to make another person seem less interesting, important, etc. يبزُ، يفوق eco-friendly /'ikəʊ frendli/ adj not harmful to the environment: eco-friendly products/fuel غبر ضارً بالسنة

ecology /i'kɒlədʒi/ noun [U] the relations between living things and their surroundings; the study of this subject

► ecological / iːkəˈlɒdʒɪkl/ adj: an ecological disaster o The Green Party has tried to make people aware of ecological issues. ينتأ فيما يتعلق بالبنة ecologically / kli/ adv

ecologist /iˈkɒlədʒɪst/ noun [C] a expert in ecology

Reconomic / i:kəˈnɒmɪk; ekə-/ adj 1 (only be-

economical → educate

fore a noun) connected with the supply of money, trade, industry, etc: the government's economic policy o The country faces growing economic اقتصادي

2 producing a profit: The mine was closed because it was not economic. 2 Look at economical. It has a different meaning.

▶ economically /-kli/ adv: The country was economically very underdeveloped.

economical / i:kə'npmɪkl; ekə-/ adj costing less time, money, fuel, etc.; using sth carefully: an economical car to run 🗢 Look at economic. It has a different meaning. مقتصد، مليّر: رخيص ▶ economically /-kli/ adv: The train service بتوفير ، باقتصاد could be run more economically.

economics /,i:kə'npmɪks; ,ekə-/ noun [U] the study or principles of the way money, trade and industry are organized: a degree in economics o the economics of a company economist /r'kpnəmist/ noun [C] an expert in عالم اقتصادي economics economize (also economise) /I'kpnəmaiz/ verb [I] economize (on sth) to save money, time, resources, etc.; to use less of sth

يقتصد ، يوفر

Reconomy /rkpnami/ noun (pl. economies) 1 [C] (also the economy) the operation of a country's money supply, trade and industry: The economy of the country is based on agriculture. o There are signs of improvement in the economy. o the economies of America and Japan

2 [C,U] careful spending of money, time, resources, etc.; trying to save, not waste sth: Our department is making economies in the amount of paper it uses. o For reasons of economy, please turn off all unnecessary lights. o economy class (= اقتْصاد ، توفير the cheapest class of air travel) ecstasy /'ekstəsi/ noun [C,U] (pl. ecstasies) a feeling or state of great happiness: to be in ecstasy o She went into ecstasies about the ring he had نشوة ، شدّة الفرح bought her.

▶ ecstatic /ık'stætık/ adj extremely happy نشوان ، في غاية الفرح ecumenical /ˌiːkjuː'menɪkl; ˌekju:-/ adj connected with the idea of uniting all the different parts of the Christian Church eczema /'eksimə; US ig'zi:mə/ noun [U] a disease which makes the skin red and itchy

ed. (also Ed.) abbrev = edited by; edition; editor

eddy /'edi/ noun [C] (pl. eddies) a circular movement of water, wind, dust, etc.

Redge /ed3/ noun [C] 1 the place where sth, especially a surface, ends; the limit: the edge of a table o The leaves were brown and curling at the edges. ○ I stood at the water's edge. ○ to fall off the edge of a cliff

2 the sharp cutting part of a knife, etc. حدّ DM an/the edge on/over sb/sth a slight advantage over sb/sth: She knew she had the ميزة ، أفضلية edge over the other candidates. (be) on edge to be nervous, excited or quick to lose your temper: I'm a bit on edge because I get my exam results today. 2 Look at edgy. It has a متوتّر الأعصاب، "منرفز" similar meaning.

edge<sup>2</sup> /ed3/ verb 1 [T] (usually passive) edge sth (with sth) to arrange sth along the edge of sth else: The cloth was edged with lace.

يجعل له حافة أو حاشية

2 [I,T] edge (sth/your way) across, along, away, back, etc. to move slowly and carefully across, etc: The burglar edged his way along the roof. O We edged closer to get a better view. O She edged her chair up to the window.

يقترب أو يبتعد تدريجياً ؛ يحرك شيئاً ببطء وعناية

edgeways /'ed3weiz/ (also edgewise /'ed3waiz/) adv

IDM get a word in edgeways → word edgy /'ed3i/ adj (edgier; edgiest) (informal) nervous, worried or quick to become upset: You seem very edgy. What's bothering you?

متوتّر الأعصاب، مضطرب edible /'edəbl/ adj good or safe to eat: Are these mushrooms edible? The opposite is inedible. صالح للأكل edifice /'edifis/ noun [C] (formal) a large impres-بناء ضخم، صرح sive building edit /'edit / verb [T] 1 to prepare a piece of writing to be published, making sure that it is correct, يحقق ويعد نصاً للنشر the right length, etc.

2 to prepare a film, television or radio programme by arranging filmed or recorded mater-يحرر أو يعد فيلمأ ial in a particular order

3 to be in charge of a newspaper, magazine, يحرر (جريدة مثلاً)

4 (computing) to make changes to text or data

Redition /r'drfn/ noun [C] 1 the form in which a book is published: a paperback/hardback edi-

2 one of a series of television or radio programmes: And now for this week's edition of 'Panorama'...

3 the number of copies of a book, etc. that are printed at the same time: the morning edition of a newspaper

Reditor /'editə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person whose job is to prepare a book, television or radio programme محرّر: منقّع

2 the person who is in charge of a newspaper or part of a newspaper: the financial editor o Who is the editor of 'The Times'?

editorial / edito:rial/ noun [C] an article in a newspaper, usually written by the editor, giving an opinion on an important subject

المقال الافتتاحي

Reducate /'ed3ukeit/ verb [T] to teach or train sb, especially in school: Young people should be educated to care for their environment. o All their children were educated at private schools.

251

▶ educated adj having learnt a lot of things to a high standard: a highly educated woman

Reducation / edgu'ker fn/ noun [C, usually sing., U] the teaching or training of people, especially in schools, etc. to improve their knowledge and develop their skills: primary, secondary, higher, adult education o She received an excellent educa-تعليم ، تربية ▶ educational /-fənl/ adj connected with or providing education: an educational toy, visit, تعليمي ، تربوي experience, etc.

eel /irl/ noun [C] a long fish that looks like a أنقليس ، ثعبان السمك snake eerie /'ıəri/ adj strange and frightening

بشكل غريب مفزع ▶ eerily adv وحشة ، جو غريب مفزع eeriness noun [U]

Reffect /r'fekt/ noun 1 [C,U] (an) effect (on sb/ sth) a change that is caused by sth; a result: the effects of acid rain on the lakes and forests o His words had a strong effect on me. o Her shouting had little or no effect on him. 2 Look at after-effect and side effect. أثر، تأثير، نتيجة

2 [C,U] the impression that a speaker, book, film, etc. gives: How does the artist create the effect of moonlight? o He likes to say things just وڤع ، انطباع for effect (= to impress people).

3 effects (formal) your personal possessions أمتعة أو ممتلكات شخصيّة come into effect (used especially about laws or rules) to begin to be used; to come into (قانون) يسري مفعوله operation in effect 1 in fact; for all practical purposes: Though they haven't made an official announcement, she is, in effect, the new director.

2 (used about a rule, a law, etc.) in operation; in use: The new rules will be in effect from next سارى المفعول season.

take effect 1 (used about a drug, etc.) to begin anaesthetic took effect immediately.

(دواء) يحدث مفعولاً ؛ يعطي النتيجة المطلوبة 2 (used about a law, etc.) to come into operation: The ceasefire takes effect from midnight.

يصبح نافذ المفعول to this/that effect with this/that meaning: I told him to leave her alone, or words to that effect. بهذا المعنى ، بما معناه

▶ effect verb [T] (formal) to cause sth to happen; to have sth as a result: to effect a change

Look at affect. It has a different meaning. يحدث، يحقُق

Refrective /r'fektrv/ adj 1 producing the result that you want: Scientists are looking for an effective way to reduce energy consumption. o a medicine that is effective against the common cold • The opposite is ineffective. مؤثّر ، فعّال

2 making a pleasing impression: That picture would look more effective on a dark back-ذو تأثير حسن ، أخَّاذ

3 real or actual, although perhaps not official: The soldiers gained effective control of the town.

▶ effectively adv 1 in a effective way: She dealt with the situation effectively.

بشكل فعًال ، بنجا

2 in effect; for practical purposes: It meant that, effectively, they had lost. ي الواقع فعّالية ، نجاح effectiveness noun [U] effeminate /1'feminat/ adj (used about a man or his behaviour) like a woman efficient /1'f1 (nt/ adi able to work well without making mistakes or wasting time and energy: Our secretary is very efficient. O You must find a more efficient way of organizing your time. • The كفء، قدير ؛ فعّال opposite is inefficient.

▶ efficiency /ɪˈfɪʃnsi/ noun [U]

فعَّالية ؛ كفاءة ؛ قدرة بكفاءة ؛ بمردود حسن efficiently adv effluent /'efluent/ noun [U] liquid waste, especially chemicals produced by factories

المناه والنفايات القذرة

Reffort /'efət/ noun 1 [U] the use of strength or energy: They have put a lot of effort into their studies this summer.  $\circ$  He made no effort to contact his parents. حهد ، محهو د

2 [C] something that is done with difficulty or the use of energy: It was a real effort to stay awake in the lecture.

▶ effortless /'efətləs/ adj (apparently) needing little or no effort سهل effortlessly adv بسهولة ، دون عناء

EFL / i: ef 'el/ abbrev English as a Foreign Lan-الانكليزية كلغة أحنيبة guage

Le.g. /,i: 'd3i:/ abbrev for example egalitarian /i,gælı'teəriən/ adj (used about a person, system, society, etc.) following the principle that everyone should have equal rights مؤمن بالمسأواة to work; to produce the desired result: The Legg / noun 1 [C] an oval object with a hard shell that contains a young bird, reptile or insect A female bird lays her eggs and then sits on them until they hatch.

2 [C.U] an egg from a hen, etc., used as food: Would you like an egg for breakfast? ❸ Eggs may be boiled, fried, poached (cooked in water without their shells) or scrambled.

3 [C] the small seed in a female animal that can join with a male seed (a sperm) to make a baby

DM put all your eggs in one basket to risk everything by depending completely on one يجازف بكل شيء thing, plan, etc.

egg² /eg/ verb

PHRV egg sb on (to do sth) to encourage sb to do sth (bad or dangerous)

eggcup /'egkap/ noun [C] a small cup for hold-قدح للبيضة المسلوقة ing a boiled egg

..Y.

eggplant → elder

- eggplant /'egpla:nt; US -plænt/ noun [C,U] (especially US) = AUBERGINE
- eashell /'egfel/ noun [C,U] the hard outside part of an egg
- ego /'i:gəu; Brit also 'egəu/ noun [C] (pl. egos) the (good) opinion that you have of yourself: It was a blow to her ego when she lost her job.

الاعتزاز بالنفس؛ الذات egocentric /,i:gəv'sentrik; Brit also ,eg-/ adj interested only in yourself; selfish

مهتم بنفسه فقط ؛ أناني

- egoism /'i:gəvɪzəm; Brit also 'eg-/ noun [U] thinking about yourself too much; selfishness بُ الذات ؛ أنانية
- ▶ eqoist /-ist/ noun [C] a person who thinks about himself/herself too much; a selfish per-- per مسيد المحب لذاته : الأناني son مركز على ذاته ، مهتم بنفسه فقط egoistic /-'ıstık/ adj
- eh /ei/ interj (informal) 1 (used for asking sb to agree with you): 'Good party, eh?

"مش كده" ، "موهيك"؟

- 2 (used for asking sb to repeat sth): 'Did you like the film?' 'Eh?' 'I asked if you liked the film!' تستعمل لحث المستمع على الإحابة
- Eid (also Id) /i:d/ noun [C] any of several Muslim festivals, especially the one that celebrates the end of the fast of Ramadan
- eiderdown / aidədaun/ noun [C] a covering for a bed filled with soft feathers (down), usually used on top of blankets 2 Look at duvet.

حاف محشو بالزغب

- Reight /eit/ number 8; one more than seven & For examples of how to use numbers in sentences. look at six.
  - ▶ eight- (in compounds) having eight of sth: an نو ثمانية (أضلاع مثلاً) eight-sided coin eighth /eɪt0/ pron, det, adv 8th; next after
  - ثامن seventh
  - eighth noun [C] the fraction 1/8; one of eight equal parts of sth 2 Look at the examples at
- Reighteen /,ei'ti:n/ number 18; one more than seventeen 6 For examples of how to use num- Relbow /'elbou/ noun [C] 1 the joint where the bers in sentences, look at six. ثمانية عشر
  - ▶ eighteenth / er'ti:nθ/ pron, det, adv 18th; next after seventeenth Dook at the examples at ثامن عشر sixth
- Reighty /'eiti/ number 80; one more than seventynine for examples of how to use numbers in sentences, look at sixtv.
  - ▶ eightieth /'eɪtiəθ/ pron, det, adv 80th, next after seventy- ninth 2 Look at the examples at الثمانون sixth
- Reither /'aiðə(r); 'iːðər/ det, pron 1 one or the other of two; it does not matter which: There's cake or ice cream. You can have either. O You can ask either of us for advice. O Either of us is willing to help. ی (منهما)
  - 2 both: It is a pleasant road, with trees on either side.
  - ▶ either conj either ... or ... (used when you are giving a choice, usually of two things): You can have the car in either black or blue. o Either you leave or I do. o You can either write or phone. امًا هذا أو ذاك

- either adv 1 (used after two negative statements) also: I don't like Pat and I don't like Nick much either. o 'I can't remember his name.' can't either.' • We can also say neither can I.
- 2 (used for emphasizing a negative statement): The restaurant is quite good. And it's not expen-كما أنّه ليس sive either.
- eject /i'd3ekt/ verb 1 [T] (often passive) to push or send sb/sth out of a place (usually with force): The protesters were ejected from the building.
- 2 [I] to make an emergency exit from an aero-ينقذف من الطائرة plane
- eke /i:k/ verb
- IDM eke out a living to manage to live with very little money يسلارمقه ، يدبر معيشته PHRV eke sth out to make a small amount of sth last longer
- elaborate /ı'læbərət/ adj very complicated; done or made very carefully: elaborate plans معقد ؛ مفصل ، متقن
- ▶ elaborate /ıˈlæbəreit/ verb [I] elaborate (on sth) (formal) to give details about sth

يفصل ، يتوسع

- elapse /I'læps/ verb [I] (formal) (used about يمضي ، ينقضي time) to pass
- elastic /r'læstrk/ noun [U] material with rubber in it which can stretch
- ▶ elastic adj 1 (used about material, etc.) able to return to its original size after being stretched مطاطي ؛ مُرِن
- 2 (figurative) able to be changed; not fixed: Our rules are quite elastic.
- e lastic 'band noun [C] = RUBBER BAND
- elated /i'leitid/ adj (formal) very happy and ex-مبتهج ، جذل ، نشوان cited ابتهاج ، جذل
- ▶ elation /i'lei∫n/ noun [U]
- arm bends in the middle مرفق ، کوع 2 the part of the sleeve of a coat, jacket, etc. that مرفق كم الجاكيت وغيره covers the elbow
- ▶ elbow verb [T] to push with the elbows: She elbowed me out of the way to get to the food يشق طريقه بمرفقيه
- elbow room noun [U] enough space to move متسع كاف للحركة freely
- elder /'eldə(r)/ adj (only before a noun) older (of two members of a family): My elder daughter is at university now but the other one is still at أكبرهما سنأ school.
- elder noun 1 [sing.] the older of two people: Who is the elder of the two?
- 2 my, etc. elder [sing.] (formal) a person who is older than me, etc: He is her elder by several الأكبر سنأ vears.

elderly → elementary school

- 3 elders [plural] older people: Do children still respect the opinions of their elders?
- Pelderly /'eldəli/ adj (used about a person) old This is a polite way of saying 'old'. You can use the elderly to refer to old people in general: The elderly need special care in winter.
  - eldest /'eldist/ adj, noun [C] oldest (of three or more members of a family): Their eldest child is a boy. • John's got 4 boys. The eldest has just gone to university.
- Pelect /r'lekt/ verb [T] 1 elect sb (to sth); elect sb (as sth) to choose a Member of Parliament, President, representative, etc. by voting: He was elected to Parliament in 1970. The committee elected her as their representative.
  - 2 elect to do sth (formal) to decide to do sth يقرّر ، يختار

Letter Pilek In/noun [C,U] (the time of) choosing a Member of Parliament, President, etc. by voting: In America, presidential elections are held every four years. ○ I will not be standing for elec-

انتخاب، الانتخابات

In Britain, general elections are held about every five years. Sometimes by-elections are held at other times. In each region (constituency) voters must choose one from a list of candidates.

tion again. o election results

- elector /r'lektə(r)/ noun [C] a person who has the right to vote in an election 6 Voter is a more common word.
- ► electoral /r'lektərəl/ adj: the electoral register/roll (= the list of electors in an area) التخابي electorate /r'lektərət/ noun [C, with sing, or pl. verb] all the people who can vote in a region, country, etc.
- Relectric /rˈlektrik/ adj 1 producing or using electricity: an electric current o an electric kettle
  - 2 (figurative) very emotional: The atmosphere in the room was electric. مكهرب، مشحون بالانفعال
- Pelectrical /rlektrıkl/ adj of or about electricity: an electrical fault o an electrical appliance (= a machine that uses electricity) o an electrical engineer (= a person who produces electrical systems and equipment)
- the e lectric 'chair noun [sing.] a chair used for putting criminals to death with a very strong electric current الكرسيّ الكهربائي
- electrician /ɪˌlek'trɪʃn/ noun [C] a person whose job is to install and repair electrical systems and equipment
- Relectricity /ɪˌlekˈtrɪsəti/ noun [U] a type of energy that provides heat, light and power to work machines, etc. Turn that light off. We don't want to waste electricity.

  الكورية

Electricity is usually generated in power stations. It may also be produced by generators or by batteries.

e lectric 'razor = SHAVER

- e,lectric 'shock (also shock) noun [C] the effect on the body when an electric current goes through it: That light switch isn't safe. I got a shock when I touched it.
- electrify /rˈlektrɪfar/ verb [T] (pres part electrifying; 3rd pers sing pres electrifies; pt, pp electrified) 1 to supply sth with electricity: The railways are being electrified as quickly as possible. پکورې پاڅخن بالکورياء پکورې پاڅخن بالکورياء
- 2 (figurative) to make sb excited
- electrocute //'lektrəkju:t/ verb [T] (usually passive) to kill sb with an electric current that passes through the body: Don't touch that wire! You'll electrocute yourself:
- ► electrocution /ɪˌlektrəˈkju:ʃn/ noun [U] الإعدام بالصدمة الكهريائية
- electrode /rlektraud/ noun [C] one of two points (terminals) where an electric current enters or leaves a battery, etc.
- Relectronic /1,lek'tronik/ adj using electronics: electronic equipment o Some dictionaries are available in electronic form (= on a computer disk).
  - ▶ electronically /-kli/ adv
- ,electronic 'mail = EMAIL
- electronics /ɪˌlek'trɒnɪks/ noun [U] the technology of using silicon chips, etc. to produce computers, radios, etc: the electronics industry
- lelegant /'eligənt/ adj showing style or good design: She looked very elegant in her new dress.

  o an elegant coat
  - ► elegance /'eligens/ noun [U] elegantly adv
- Relement /'elimənt/ noun 1 [C] one important part of sth: Cost is an important element when we're thinking about holidays.
  - 2 [C, usually sing.] an element of sth a small amount of sth: There was an element of truth in what he said.
  - 3 [C] people of a certain type: The criminal element at football matches causes a lot of trouble.
  - 4 [C] one of the basic substances e.g. water, oxygen, gold, etc.
  - 5 [C] the part of a kettle, an electric heater, etc. that produces heat
    - سلك التسخين (في مدفأة كهربانية مثلاً)

أناقة بأناقة

- 6 the elements [plural] (formal) (bad) weather: exposed to the elements
  العوالمل التجرية القاسية

  IDM in/out of your element in a situation where you feel comfortable/uncomfortable في (أو خارج) جوة الملاتم
- elementary /ˌelɪˈmentri/ adj 1 at or in the beginning stages: an elementary course in English ه a book for elementary students
- 2 basic; not difficult: elementary physics
- ele'mentary school noun [C] (US) a school for children aged six to eleven

elephant → embargo

elephant /ˈelɪfənt/ noun [C] a very large grey animal with two long curved teeth (tusks) and a long nose (a trunk)

elevate /'eliveit/verb [T] (formal) to raise sb/sth to a higher place or position: an elevated railway

He was elevated to the Board of Directors.

► elevating adj (formal) improving the mind; educating: an elevating book elevation /ˌelɪˈveɪʃn/ noun 1 [C,U] (formal) elevating or being elevated

2 [C] the height of a place (above sea level): The city is at an elevation of 2 000 metres.

Relevator /'eliveitə(r)/ noun [C] (US) = LIFT

Peleven /rlevn/ number 11, one more than ten ↑ For examples of how to use numbers in sentences, look at six.

► eleventh /rlevnθ/ pron, det, adv 11th, next after tenth ⊃ Look at the examples at sixth.

elf /elf/ noun [C] (pl. elves /elvz/) (in stories) a small creature with pointed ears who has magic powers elicit /iˈlɪsɪt/ verb [T] elicit sth (from sb) (formal) to get information, facts, a reaction, etc. from sb eligible /ˈelɪdʒəbl/ adj eligible (for sth/to do sth) having the right qualifications for sth; suitable: In Britain, you are eligible to vote when you are eighteen. o an eligible young man (= a man who might be a suitable husband) eliminate /r'Immnert/ verb [T] 1 to remove sb/ sth that is not wanted or needed: We must try and eliminate the problem.

2 (often passive) to stop sb going further in a competition, etc: The school team was eliminated in the first round of the competition.

يخرج من مباراة | elimination /I,limi'nei∫n/ noun [U] قضاء على ، إزالة : إخراج elite /er'li:t/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a social group that is thought to be the best or most important because of its power, money, intelligence, etc: the ruling elite o an intellectual elite an elite group

▶ elitism /ei'li:trzəm/ noun [U] the belief that elites should be treated in a special way

الإيمان بامتياز النخبة elitist /-tɪst/ noun [C], adj

مفضل ا أو مقتصر على الصفوة

elk /elk/ (pl. elk or elks) (US moose) noun [C] a very large deer with large flat horns (antlers)

أيُّل كبير elm /elm/ (also 'elm tree) noun [C] a tall tree with broad leaves

elocution /ˌeləˈkjuːʃn/ noun [U] the art of speaking clearly (especially in public) elongated /ˈiːlɒŋgertɪd; US ɪˈlɔːŋ-/ adj long and thin طویل ، مطول ، معدود elope /rˈləʊp/ verb [I] elope (with sb) to run away secretly to get married يفرُ مع حبيب للزواج eloquent /ˈeləkwənt/ adj (formal) able to use language and express your opinions well, especially when you speak in public

▶ eloquence /ˈeləkwəns/ noun [U]

▶ eloquence /ˈeləkwəns/ noun [U] المعادة ، فصاحة والمواحد المعادة المعادة

? else /els/ adv (used after words formed with any-, no-, some- and after question words) 1 in addition: What else would you like? ○ Does anybody else (= any other person) know about this?

(شيء أو شخص) آخر

2 different: There's nothing on the television. Let's find something else to do. o This isn't mine. It must be somebody else's (= belong to another person). o You'll have to pay. Nobody else (= no other person) will.

apart from: Everybody else (= everybody apart from me) is allowed to stay up late.

آخر: الآخرون

or else otherwise; if not: You'd better go to bed now or else you'll be tired in the morning.

or He's either forgotten or else he's decided not to come.

Relsewhere /ˌels'weə(r); US -'hweər/ adv (formal) in or to another place: If she doesn't like it here, she can go elsewhere. • He's travelled a lot in Europe and elsewhere. • في أو إلى مكان آخر

ELT / i: el 'ti:/ abbrev English Language Teaching (to non-native speakers) تعليم اللغة الانكليزية

elude /i'lu:d/ verb [T] (formal) 1 to escape (from sb/sth) (sometimes by using a trick)

يتهرب من ؛ يهرب من

2 to be difficult or impossible to remember: I remember his face but his name eludes me. پمتنع على ، پراوخ elusive /i'lu:sɪv/ adj not easy to find, catch or remember مراوغ (سهل) ممتنع عمراوغ

elves pl. of ELF

'em /əm/ pron (informal) = THEM

emaciated / i'mer fiertid / adj (used about a person) thin and weak because of illness, lack of food, etc.

→ emaciation /I,meisi'ei∫n/ noun [U]

«زال )

و العنال (also e-mail) /'i:meil/ (also electronic mail; mail) noun [U] sending information using a computer التراسل بواسطة الكمبيوتر، بريد الكتروني email verb [I. T]: I'll email the information to ▶ email verb [I, T]: I'll email the information to you.

emancipate /rˈmænsɪpeɪt/ verb [T] to give sb the same legal, social and political rights as other people

► emancipation /I,mænsi'per∫n/ noun [U] تحرير (المرأة)

embankment /im'bæŋkmənt/ noun [C] a thick wall of earth, stone, etc. that is built to stop a river overflowing or to carry a road or railway جدار أو طريق بمحاذاة نهر embargo /m'ba:geu/ noun [C] (pl. embargoes) an official order to stop trade with another country: to impose an oil embargo o to lift/remove the embargo on the trade in oil مطر أو حصار اقتصادي embark /m'bɑ:k/ verb [I] to get on a ship: Passengers with cars must embark first. • The opposite is disembark.

255

EHRV embark on sth (formal) to start sth (new): I'm embarking on a completely new career: يشرع في : بخوض في

► embarkation /ˌembɑːˈkeɪʃn/ noun [C,U] الصعود إلى السفينة

- Rembarrass / Im bærəs / verb [T] to make sb feel ashamed or uncomfortable: She was very embarrassed when her child behaved badly in public.

  He felt really embarrassed to be seen in odd socks. The Minister's mistake embarrassed the government.
  - ► embarrassing adj embarrassingly adv
  - embarrassingly adv بصورة معرجة embarrassment noun 1 [U] the feeling you have when you are embarrassed
  - 2 [C] a person or thing that makes you embarrassed
  - embassy /ˈembəsi/ noun [C] (pl. embassies) (the official building of) a group of people (diplomats) headed by an ambassador, who are sent to live in a foreign country and represent their government there D Look at consulate.
- embed /im'bed/ verb [T] (embedding; embedded) (usually passive) to fix sth firmly and deeply (in sth else): The axe was embedded in the piece of wood.
- embezzle /m'bezl/ verb [T] to steal money, etc. that you are responsible for (e.g. in a firm or organization)
- emblem /'embləm/ noun [C] an object or symbol that represents sth: The dove is the emblem of peace.
- embody /m'bodi/ verb [T] (pres part embodying: 3rd pers sing pres embodies; pp, pt embodied) (formal) 1 to be a very good example of sth: To me she embodies all the best qualities of a teacher.
- 2 to include or contain sth: This latest model embodies many new features. يعتوي على
- embrace /ɪmˈbreɪs/ verb 1 [I,T] to take sb into your arms as a sign of love or affection
- یعانق ، پحتضن 2 [T] (formal) to include: His report embraced all
- the main points. يتضمَّن بشمل 3 [T] (formal) to accept sth eagerly: She em-
- braced Christianity in her later years.

  ▶ embrace noun [C] the act of embracing(1)
- عناق ، ضمّة إلى الصدر embroider /ɪmˈbrɔɪdə(r)/ verb 1 [I.T] to decorate cloth by sewing with small stitches: She em-
- broidered flowers on the cushion in gold thread. يطرز 2 [T] to add untrue details to a story, etc. to make it more interesting بهر أو نتمور (اللاصلة)
- يهو او ينعق (القصة) embroidery noun [U] decorative sewing with small stitches; something that has been embroidered(1)

- embryo /'embriəʊ/ noun [C] (pl. embryos /-əʊz/) an animal or a plant in the early stages of development before birth ⊅ Look at foetus.
- embryonic /ˌembri'pnɪk/ adj جنيني : في المرحلة الأولى
- emerald / emerald / noun [C] a bright green precious stone
- emerald (also emerald 'green) adj bright green
- [ emerge /i'ms:ds/ verb [I] emerge (from sth)

  1 to appear or come from somewhere (unexpectedly): A man emerged from the shadows. o (figurative) to emerge strengthened from a difficult experience
  - 2 to become known: During investigations it emerged that she was lying about her age.
  - ▶ emergence /-dʒəns/ noun [U]

emergent /-dʒənt/ adj

طهور ، انبتاق ، نسو ناشئ ، نام

- Remergency /iˈmɜːdʒənsi/ noun [C,U] (pl. emergencies) a serious event that needs immediate action: In an emergency phone 999 for help. o The government has declared a state of emergency.

  o an emergency exit
- e'mergency room noun [C] (abbr ER) (US) = ACCIDENT AND EMERGENCY
- emigrate /'emigreit/ verb [I] to leave your own country to go and live in another: They emigrated to Australia twenty years ago.
- ► emigrant / 'emigrant / noun [C] a person who has gone to live in another country emigration / emi'gret∫n/ noun [C,U]
- ⊃ Look at immigrant and immigration.
- eminent /'emmənt/ adj (formal) (used about a person) famous and important: an eminent scientist
- eminently /'emməntli/ adv obviously; very: She is eminently suitable for the job.
  - بصورة واضحة ، للغاية
- emit /i'mɪt/ verb [T] (emitting; emitted) (formal) to send out sth (a smell, a sound, smoke, heat, light, etc.)
  - ▶ emission /i'mɪʃn/ noun [C,U]: controls on sulphur dioxide emissions from power stations
- emoticon /r'məotikon/ noun [C] (computing) a short set of keyboard symbols that represents the expression on sb's face, used in email, etc. to show the feelings of the person sending the mesage. For example :-) represents a smiling face (when you look at it sideways).
- gemotion /ɪˈməʊʃn/ noun 1 [C] a strong feeling such as love, anger, fear, jealousy, etc.
  - 2 [U] strength of feeling: His voice was filled with emotion.
  - ► emotional /-ʃənl/ adj 1 connected with the emotions: emotional problems

emotive → encircle

- 2 causing strong feelings: He gave an emotional speech
- 3 having strong emotions and showing them openly: She always gets very emotional when I leave. O He's a very emotional sort of person. عاطفي ، سريع الأنفعال عاطفياً emotionally /-[ənəli/ adv

emotive /i'məʊtɪv/ adj causing strong emotions: emotive language o an emotive issue انفعاليّ ، مثير للعواطف empathy /'empə0i/ noun [U] the ability to imagine how another person is feeling and so مشاركة وجدانية ، تعاطف understand his/her mood emperor /'empara(r)/ (feminine empress) noun [C] the ruler of an empire

- Lemphasis /'emfəsis/ noun [C,U] (pl. emphases /-siz/) 1 the force that you give to a word or phrase when you are speaking to show that it is important
  - 2 emphasis (on sth) (giving) special importance or attention (to sth): There's a lot of emphasis on science at our school. o We should really put a greater emphasis on getting our facts (يعطى) أهميّة خَاصةً
- Remphasize (also emphasise) / emfəsaiz/ verb [T] emphasize (that...) to put emphasis on sth; stress: They emphasized that healthy eating is important. o They emphasized the importance of healthy eating. يۇڭد، يشلاد
- emphatic /im'fætik/ adj having or using emphasis: an emphatic refusal مشدّد ، مؤكّد ؛ باتّ ▶ emphatically /-kli/ adv بلهجة جازمة ؛ مؤكِّداً
- Rempire /'empara(r)/ noun [C] 1 a group of countries that is governed by one country: the Roman Empire 3 Look at emperor and empress.

إمبراطورية 2 a group of companies that is controlled by one parent company إمبراطورية (من الشركات)

empirical /im'pirikl/ adj (formal) based on observation and practical experience, not on theory: empirical evidence تحريبي ، مبنى على التحرية

- Remploy /m'ploi/ verb [T] 1 employ sb (in/on sth); employ sb (as sth) to pay sb to work for you: He is employed in a chocolate factory. O She is employed as a lorry driver. o They employ 600 workers. 2 Look at unemployed. يوظف، يشغّل
  - 2 employ sb/sth (in/on) sth (formal) to use: We must employ all our expertise in solving this problem.
  - ▶ employee /ım'plɔɪi:/ noun [C] a person who works for sb: The factory has 500 employees. موظف، مستخدم employer noun [C] a person or company that employs other people: The car factory is a large employer in this town. رِبُ العمل ؛ موظّف employment noun [U] 1 the state of having a paid job: She is in/out of employment. o This bank can give employment to ten extra staff. o It is difficult to find employment in the north of the country. 2 Look at unemployment and at the عمل، شغل، وظيفة note at work1.

2 (formal) the use of sth: the employment of em'ployment agency noun [C] a business that helps people to find work وكالة استخدام (لإنحاد وظائف) empower /im'pauə(r)/ verb [T] (usually passive) (formal) to give sb power or authority (to يخول ، يمنح سلطة do sth) empress /'empres/ noun [C] 1 a woman who إمبراطورة rules an empire

2 the wife or widow of an emperor إمبراطورة

Lempty / 'empti/ adj 1 having nothing or nobody inside it: an empty box o The bus was half empty. o That house has been empty for months.

فارغ ، خالٍ

2 without meaning or value: It was an empty threat (= it was not meant seriously). o My life feels empty now the children have left home. فارغ، لا معنى له

فراغ ، خلاء ▶ emptiness /'emptines/ noun [U]

- Rempty<sup>2</sup> /'empti/ verb (pres part emptying; 3rd pers sing pres empties; pt, pp emptied) 1 [T] empty sth (out) to make sth empty: 'Where can I empty my cup?' 'Oh, empty it into the sink.' o Empty your pockets out, please.
  - 2 [T] empty sth (out) (into/onto sth) to take sth from a container and put it somewhere else: Empty that milk into the sink. It's gone sour. o The boy emptied out all his toys onto the floor. يفرغ في أو على
  - 3 [I] to become empty: The cinema emptied very quickly once the film was finished.
- .empty-'handed adj bringing or taking nothing: She went out to buy a new dress but returned empty-handed.
- emulate /'emjulest/ verb [T] (formal) to try to do sth as well as, or better than, sb & A less formal يتشبّه بر؛ يضاهي ، يحاكي word is copy.
- renable /reneral/ verb [T] enable sb/sth to do sth to make sb/sth able to do sth (by giving him/her/it power, authority, etc.): The new law has enabled more women to return to work.

- enamel /1'næml/ noun [U] 1 a hard, shiny substance used for protecting or decorating metal, ميناء (لطلي المعادن) etc: enamel paint
- 2 the hard white outer covering of a tooth ميناء الأسئان

enc. (also encl.) abbrev = ENCLOSED

- enchanted /m'tfa:ntid; US -'tfænt-/ adj 1 pleased or delighted: The audience was en-مفتون ؛ مسرور جدأ chanted by her singing.
- 2 under a magic spell: an enchanted forest enchanting /m'tfa:ntm; US -'tfænt-/ adj very nice or pleasant; delightful فاتن ، أخَّاذ ، حذَّاب encircle /m'ss:kl/ verb [T] (formal) to make a circle round sth; to surround: London is encircled by the M25 motorway. يطوق، يحيط ب enclose /mˈkləʊz/ verb [T] 1 enclose sth (in/ with sth) to surround sth with a wall, fence, etc: The garden is enclosed by a high hedge. O He gets very nervous in enclosed spaces.

يسور : يعصر 2 to put sth in an envelope, parcel, etc: Can I enclose a letter with this parcel?

enclosure /m'klaʊʒə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a piece of land that is enclosed by a wall, fence, etc.

2 something that is enclosed in an envelope, parcel, etc. an envelope, parcel, etc.

encode /mˈkəʊd/ verb [T] to put or write sth in code encore /ˈɒŋkɔ:(r)/ interj (called out by an audience that wants the performers in a play, concert, etc. to perform sth extra) ▶ encore noun [C] (a call for) an extra performance at the end of a play, concert, etc.

استعادة الأداء (في المسرح)

? encounter /mˈkaʊntə(r)/ verb [T] 1 (formal) to meet sb unexpectedly

2 to experience sth (a danger, difficulty, etc.): I've never encountered any discrimination at work. ① Meet with is used as a synonym for encounter in this sense.

► encounter noun [C] an unexpected (often unpleasant) meeting

Pencourage /m'kartdz/ verb [T] 1 encourage sb/sth (in sth/to do sth) to give hope, support or confidence to sb: The teacher encouraged her students to ask questions. • His friends encouraged him in his attempt to stop smoking.

The epposite is discourage. Note that we say discourage sb from doing sth: The teacher discouraged her students from asking questions.

to make sth happen more easily: The government wants to encourage new businesses.

▶ encouragement noun [C,U] encouraging adj

encroach /m'krəots// verb [I] (formal) encroach (on/upon sth) to take away part of sth or use more of sth than is right: I do hope that I am not encroaching too much upon your free time.

encyclopedia (also encyclopaedia) /ln-,sarklə'pi:diə/ noun [C] (pl. encyclopedias) a book or set of books that gives information about very many subjects, arranged in alphabetical order (i.e. from A to Z)

Rend¹/end/noun [C] 1 the furthest or last part of sth; the place or time where sth stops: the end of a road, room, line, piece of string, etc. ○ Join the end of the queue. ○ My house is at the end of the street. ○ The man on the other end of the phone spoke so quietly that I didn't eatch his name. ○ There are some seats at the far end of the room. ○ I'm going on holiday at the end of October ○ He promised to give me an answer by the end of the story. ② Look at the noun finish. It is used to mean end only in connection with races and competitions. ♠ End is sometimes used before another noun: the end house  $\circ$  the end seat

2 a little piece of sth that is left after the rest has been used: a cigarette end

3 (formal) an aim or purpose: They were prepared to do anything to achieve their ends.

at an end (formal) finished or used up: Her career is at an end.

at the end of your tether having no more patience or strength عيل صبره، طفح الكيل

at a loose end → LOOSE

at your wits' end → wit bring sth/come/draw to an end (to cause sth) to finish: His stay in England was coming to an end and he was thinking about going home again.

a dead end → DEAD

end to end in a line with the ends touching: They put the tables end to end.

طرفاً ملاصقاً لطرف ، متلاصقيَّن get (hold of) the wrong end of the stick → wrong¹ in the end at last; finally: He wanted to get home early but in the end it was midnight before he left.

The idiom in the end refers to time and means finally. At the end of sth refers to the last part of a book, film, class, etc., at the point where it is about to finish. At the end of the meal we had a row about who should pay for it.

make ends meet to have enough money for your needs: It's hard for us to make ends meet. يفتصد حتى لا يتجاوز إمكاناته

a means to an end → MEANS<sup>1</sup> no end of sth (informal) very many or much; a lot of sth: She has given us no end of trouble. کثیر من ، مقدار لاحد له odds and ends → odds

on end (used about time) continuously: He sits and reads for hours on end.

علالقطاع and reads for hours on end.

put an end to sth to stop sth from happening any more

Pend² /end/ verb [1.T] end (in/with sth) (to cause sth) to finish: The road ends here. • How does this story end? • The match ended in a draw. • Most adverbs in English end in .ly. • I think we'd better end this conversation now.

Enter end up (as sth); end up (doing sth) to find yourself in a place/situation that you did not intend or expect: We got lost and ended up in the centre of town. o She had always wanted to be a writer but ended up as a teacher. o There was nothing to eat at home so we ended up going out for fish and chips.

endanger /in'deindzə(r)/ verb [T] to cause danger to sb/sth: Smoking endangers your health.

بعرض للخطر Ie_nlante

► endangered adj (used about animals, plants, etc.) in danger of disappearing from the world (becoming extinct): The panda is an endangered species.

endear /m'dıə(r)/ verb [T] endear sb/yourself to sb (formal) to make sb/yourself liked by sb:

طاقة ، قوة ، نشاط

endeavour → engine

She managed to endear herself to everybody by her kindness.

- ► endearing adj endearingly adv
  هحبّب، محبّب، بصورة تستدر العطف
- endeavour (US endeavor) /ın'devə(r)/ verb [I] (formal) endeavour (to do sth) to try: She endeavoured to make the best of a very difficult situation.
- ► endeavour noun [C,U] (formal) مسعى، محاولة
- endemic /en'demik/ adj regularly found in a particular country or area, or among a particular group of people: Malaria is endemic in/to many hot countries.
- Fending /'endɪŋ/ noun [C] 1 the end (of a story, play, film, etc.): That film made me cry but I was pleased that it had a happy ending.
  - 2 (grammar) the last part of a word, which can change: When nouns end in -ch or -sh or -x, the plural ending is -es not -s.

endive /'endarv/ noun [C,U] (US) = CHICORY

- endless /endles/ adj 1 very large in size or amount and seeming to have no end: The possibilities are endless.

  צ حدّ له
- 2 lasting for a long time and seeming to have no end: Our plane was delayed for hours and the wait seemed endless.

  ▶ endlessly adv
- endorse /m'dɔ:s/ verb [T] 1 to give (official) support or agreement to a plan, statement, decision, etc.
- 2 (Brit) to write a note in a driving licence to say that the driver has broken the law
- يسجُل عليه مخالفة في شهادة السواقة ► endorsement noun (C,U]

تصديق على ؛ مخالفة مرور

'end product noun [C] the final product of a manufacturing process or an activity ctivity. الحصيلة ، المنتوج النهائي

- endure /In'djoə(r); US -'doər/ verb (formal) 1 [T] to suffer sth painful or uncomfortable: She endured ten years of loneliness. 6 Endure is often used in the negative: My parents can't endure pop music. In this sense can't bear or can't stand are less formal.
- يدوم، يستمر [U] to last; continue معرفي الله endurance /m'djuərəns; US -'duə-/ noun [U] the ability to endure(1): You need endurance to play a four-hour match.
- ,end-'user noun [C] a person who actually uses a product rather than one who makes or sells it, especially a person who uses a product connected with computers: Programs are tailored to meet the needs of end-users and their own business environments. o an end-user application
- Renemy /'enami/ noun (pl. enemies) 1 [C] a person who hates and tries to harm sb/sth: It's strange that people who used to be friends can become bitter enemies. He has made several enemies since his arrival in the school. The noun is enmity.

- 2 the enemy [with sing. or pl. verb] the army or country that your country is fighting against: The enemy is/are attacking at daybreak. o enemy forces
- energetic /ˌenəˈdʒetɪk/ adj full of or needing energy(1): Jogging is a very energetic form of exercise.
  نشيط ، نو طاقة حيوية ؛ متطلّب طاقة
- بهمة ونشاط energetically /-kli/ adv
- Renergy / ened3i/ noun (pl. energies) 1 [U] the ability to be very active or do a lot of work without getting tired: Children are usually full of energy. O This flu has left me with no energy at all.
  - 2 energies [plural] the effort and attention which you give to doing sth: She devoted all her energies to charity work.
  - 3 [U] the power that comes from coal, electricity, gas, etc. that is used for driving machines, etc: nuclear energy
  - enforce /mˈfoːs/ verb [T] 1 to make sure that laws, etc. are obeyed: How will they enforce the new law?
  - 2 to force sth to be done or to happen: Enforcing discipline by using threats is not often successful. يفرض (على) ، يطبقي بالقوة
  - تنفيذ (القانون): فرض فرض [U] enforcement noun
- Rengage /m'gerd3/ verb [T] 1 to occupy sb's thoughts, time, interest, etc: You need to engage the students' attention right from the start.
  - 2 to give work to sb: They engaged him as a cook.
  - 3 to make parts of a machine fit together: Engage the clutch before selecting a gear.
  - یعشق (المسنّنات مثلاً)

    PHRV engage in sth to take part in sth: I don't engage in that kind of gossip!
    یشترك في، بشغل وقته
- Rengaged /m'geɪdʒd/ adj 1 engaged (to sb) having agreed to get married: We've just got engaged. o Susan is engaged to Jim.
  - 2 (US busy) (used about a telephone) in use: That line/number is engaged. o the engaged tone
  - 3 (used about a toilet, etc.) in use
  - 4 engaged (in/on sth) (used about a person) busy doing sth: They are engaged in talks with the Irish government.
- engagement /in'geidsment/ noun [C] 1 an agreement to get married; the time when you are engaged: Their engagement was announced in the paper. Their engagement only lasted for six months. He broke off their engagement.

فطوبة

- 2 (formal) an arrangement to go somewhere or do sth at a fixed time; an appointment: a lunch engagement
- en'gagement ring noun [C] a ring, usually with precious stones in it, that a man gives to a woman on their engagement(1)
- Lengine /'end3in/ noun [C] 1 the part of a machine that changes energy (from oil, electricity, etc.) into movement: This engine runs on diesel. o a car engine o a jet engine 2 Look at the note

- 2 (also locomotive) a machine that pulls a قاطرة railway train
- Rengineer<sup>1</sup> /endgr'nrə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person whose job is to design, build or repair engines, machines, roads, bridges, railways, mines, etc: a civil, chemical, electrical, mechanical, etc. engin-
  - 2 (US) a person whose job is to drive a railway سائق القطار
  - ▶ engineering noun [U] (the study of) the work that is done by an engineer: mechanical engineering o a degree in engineering
- engineer2 /,end31'n19(r)/ verb [T] (formal) to arrange for sth to happen by careful (secret) planning: Her promotion was engineered by her يدبّر أمراً ، يخطّط ا father.
- English /'nnglis/ noun 1 [U] the language that is spoken in Britain and the USA and in some other countries: Do you speak English? o I've been learning English for 5 years. O I don't know what 'cadeau' is in English. اللغة الإنكليزية/الإنجليزية
- 2 the English [with pl. verb] the people of England الإنكلية
- ▶ English adj belonging to England, the English people, the English language, etc: English history o the English countryside إنكليزي
- Be careful. The people of Scotland (the Scots) and of Wales (the Welsh) are British not English. Look at the note at United Kingdom.
- .English 'breakfast noun [C] a breakfast that consists of cereals, cooked bacon and eggs, toast and marmalade and tea or coffee, etc. 2 Look at فطور إنكليزي continental breakfast.
- Englishman /'inglifmən/ noun [C] (pl. Englishmen), Englishwoman /ˈɪŋglɪʃwʊmən/ noun [C] (pl. Englishwomen) a person who comes from England or whose parents are English • We normally say: 'I'm English' not 'I'm an رجل إنكليزي ؛ امرأة إنكليزية Englishman/-woman.'
- English 'muffin nounC = MUFFIN(1)
- engrave /m'greiv/verb[T] engrave B on A/engrave A with B to cut patterns or words on metal, stone, etc: His name is engraved on the cup. o The cup is engraved with his name.
- بنقش ، بحفر على ▶ engraving noun [C] a picture that is printed from an engraved metal plate صورة مطبوعة عن لوح معدنيٌ منقوش
- engrossed /m'graust/ adj engrossed (in sth) very interested in sth so that you forget other things: She was completely engrossed in the play نغرق ، منهمك في
- enhance /m'ha:ns; US -'hæns/ verb [T] (formal) to improve sth or to make sth look better on television

enigma /rinigma/ noun [C] (pl. enigmas) a per-

- son, thing or situation that is difficult to under-لغز ، شيء غامض stand
- ▶ enigmatic /ˌenɪgˈmætɪk/ adj

- Renjoy /m'dʒɔɪ/ verb [T] 1 enjoy sth/enjoy doing sth to get pleasure from: I really enjoyed that meal - thank you very much. o Do you enjoy your work? o He enjoys listening to music while he's driving. يتمتع أو يستمتع ب
  - 2 enjoy yourself to be happy; to have a good time: I enjoyed myself at Sue's party last night -يسرَ ، يقضى وقتاً ممتعاً
  - ▶ enjoyable /-abl/ adj giving pleasure: We spent an enjoyable few days in Scotland. enjoyment noun [C,U] pleasure or a thing which gives pleasure: She gets a lot of enjoyment from travelling.
  - enlarge /m'la:d3/ verb [I,T] (to cause sth) to become larger: I'm going to have this photo en-يكبر؛ يكبر
  - PHRV enlarge on sth to say or write more يتوسع في
  - ▶ enlargement noun [C,U] making sth larger or sth that has been made larger: an enlargement of تكبير ؛ صورة مكبرة
  - enlighten /m'laitn/ verb [T] (formal) to give sb more information about sth so that he/she knows the truth يزيده علماً ، ينور
  - enlist /in'list/verb 1 [I,T] to join the army, navy or air force; to make sb a member of the army, etc: They enlisted as soon as war was declared. ينخرط (في الجيش مثلاً) ، يتجنّد ؛ يجنّد
  - 2 [T] to get help, support, etc: We need to enlist the support of everybody who works here.
    - يستعين ب، يطلب العون

إلى حَدَّ كبير ، للغاية

- enmity /'enməti/ noun [U] the feeling of hatred towards an enemy
- enormity /1'no:mati/ noun [sing.] (formal) the extent or seriousness of sth; how bad sth is
- ?enormous /r'no:məs/ adj very large or very great: an enormous building o enormous pleasure There is an enormous amount of work involved in this. ضخم ، هائل
  - ▶ enormously adv
- Renough<sup>1</sup>/t'nAf/ det, pron 1 as much or as many of sth as necessary: We've saved enough money to buy a computer. O Not everybody can have a book there aren't enough. o Are there enough chairs? o If enough of you are interested, we'll arrange a trip to the theatre. مقدار أو عدد كاف
  - 2 as much or as many as you want: I've had enough of living in a town (= I don't want to live in a town any more). O Don't give me any more work. I've got quite enough already.
- Renough2 /1'nnf/ adv (used after verbs, adjectives and adverbs) 1 to the necessary degree: sufficiently: You don't practise enough. o He's not old enough to travel alone. O Does she speak Italian well enough to get the job? إلى حدّ كاف

2 quite, but not very: She plays well enough, for a beginner: لا بأس به ، إلى حدّ معقول

idm fair enough → FAIR<sup>2</sup>

funnily, strangely, etc. enough it is funny, etc. that...: Funnily enough, I thought exactly the same myself. (مما بثير (الضحك أو الدهشة...الخ) sure enough → Sure enquire (also inquire) /in'kwatə(r)/ verb (formal) [I,T] to ask for information about sth: We must enquire whether it is possible to get a bus on a Sunday. • Could you enquire when the trains to Cork leave? • We need to enquire about hotels in Vienna. • 'Do they take travellers' cheques here?' I don't know. I'll enquire.'

يستعلم بيسال "Idon't know. I'll enquire." PHRV enquire after sb to ask about sb's health enquire into sth to study or investigate sth to find out all the facts: The journalist enquired into the politician's financial affairs.

• enquirer (also inquirer) noun [C] a person who enquires

enquiring (also inquiring) adj 1 interested in learning new things: We should encourage children to have an enquiring mind.

مستطلع ، محب للاستطلاع

2 asking for information: an enquiring look مستطلع، مستطلع، مستطلع، مستطلع، مستطلع، مستطلع، مستطلع، مستطلع

enquiringly (also inquiringly) adv

كأنه يسأل سؤالاً ؛ مستفهماً

- Penquiry (also inquiry) /m'kwaiəri; US 'mkwəri/ noun (pl. enquiries) 1 [C] enquiry (about/concerning sb/sth) (formal) a question that you ask about sth: I have made some enquiries into English language courses in Oxford.
  - 2 [U] the act of asking about sth: After weeks of enquiry he finally found what he was looking for:
  - 3 [C] enquiry (into sth) an official investigation to find out the cause of sth: After the accident there were many calls for an enquiry into safety procedures.

enrage /mˈreɪdʒ/ verb [T] to make sb very angry

enrich /mˈrɪtʃ/ verb [T] 1 to make sb/sth rich or richer

2 to improve the quality, flavour, etc. of sth: These cornflakes are enriched with vitamins/are vitamin-enriched. يحسن قيمته (الغذائية مثلاً) يفني enrol (US enroll) /in'rəol/ verb [1,T] (enrolling; enrolled) enrol (sb) (in/as sth) to become or to make sb a member of a club, school, etc: I've enrolled in my local swimming class. • They enrolled 100 new students last year.

• enrolment (US enrollment) noun [U]: Enrolment for the course will take place next week.

en route /ˌn̄n ˈruːt/ adv en route (from...) (to...); en route (for...) on the way: The car broke down when we were en route for Dover. في الطريق إلى ensue /m'sju:; US -'su:/ verb [I] (formal) to happen after (and often as a result of) sth else پنجم عن، يتلو en suite /ō swi:t/ adv, adj (used about rooms) forming one unit: The bedroom has a bathroom en suite. ٥ an en-suite bathroom

Pensure (US insure) /in'ʃvə(r); -ʃɔ:(r); US in-'ʃvər/ verb [T] to make sth certain to happen: Please ensure that the door is locked before you leave.

entail /m'terl/ verb [T] (formal) to make sth necessary; to involve: This is going to entail a lot of hard work. o The job sounds interesting but I'm not sure what it entails.

entangled /in'tæŋgld/ adj caught in sth else: The bird was entangled in the net. (figurative) I've got myself entangled in some financial problems.

Renter /'entə(r)/ verb 1 [I.T] (formal) to come or go into a place: Don't enter without knocking.

They all stood up when he entered the room.

(figurative) We have just entered a new phase international relations. ♦ Note that enter is used without a preposition. Come into and go into are much more common. ♦ Look at entrance, entrant and entry.

2 [I,T] enter (for) sth to put your name on the list for an exam, race, competition, etc: I entered that competition in the Sunday paper and I won يتسجل، يدرج أسمه

3 [T] enter sth (in/into/on/onto sth) to put names, numbers, details, etc. in a list, book, computer, etc: Please enter your name in the book. o I've entered all the data onto the computer.

4 [T] to become a member of a school, a college, a profession, an institution, etc: She entered politics in 1960.

PHRV enter into sth 1 to start to think or talk about sth: I don't want to enter into details now. بدخل (في التفاصيل)، يطرق (موضوعاً)

2 to be part of sth: This is a business matter. Friendship doesn't enter into it. يدخل ضعن enter into sth (with sb) to begin sth: The government has entered into negotiations with the unions.

enterprise /'entəpraız/ noun 1 [C] something (e.g. a plan or a project) that is new and difficult: It's a very exciting new enterprise.

مشروع جديد جريء

2 [U] the courage that you need to start such an enterprise: We need men and women of enterprise and energy: جرأة. مبادرة

3 [C,U] a business; the way business is organized: a new industrial enterprise  $\circ$  This government supports private enterprise.

مؤسّسة تجارية صفيرة ؛ إدارة الأعمال ► enterprising adj having enterprise(2) 6 The opposite is unenterprising.

. جرىء (في المشاريع التجاريّة) ؛ مغامر

Lentertain /,entə'tein/ verb 1 [T] to interest and amuse sb: He entertained us with jokes all evening. o I find it very hard to keep my class entertained on a Friday afternoon.

- 2 [I.T] to welcome sb as a guest; to give sb food and drink: They entertain a lot./They do a lot of entertaining.
- ► entertainer noun [C] a person who entertains (1) as a job ممثل هزلي أو معن لتسلية الجمهور entertaining adj interesting and amusing

- Rentertainment /,entə'teɪnmənt/ noun [C,U] things to do that interest and amuse people: There isn't much entertainment for young people in this town. Entertainments Guide (= a list in a newspaper of the cinema, theatre, concert, etc. programmes)
  - enthral (US enthrall) /nı'θrɔ:l/ verb [T] (enthralling; enthralled) to hold sh's interest and attention completely: He was enthralled by her story.
  - ▶ enthralling adj
- Renthusiasm /m@ju:ziæzəm; US -'@u:-/ noun [U] enthusiasm (for/about sb/sth) a strong feeling of eagerness or interest: Jan showed great enthusiasm for the new project. o There wasn't much enthusiasm when I mentioned the trip to the museum.
  - ► enthusiast /ɪnˈθjuːziæst; US -ˈθuː-/ a person who is very interested in an activity or subject: She is a jazz enthusiast.
  - enthusiastic /mˌθjuːziˈæstɪk; US -θuː-/ adj full of enthusiasm enthusiastically /-kli/ adv
- entice /m'taɪs/ verb [T] to persuade sb to do sth by offering something nice: Advertisements try to entice people into buying more things than they
- يفري، يستهوي بصدي. يستهوي enticement noun [C,U] فريات : إغراء enticing adj attractive
- Ş entire /in'taiə(r)/ adj (only before a noun) whole or complete: Surely she didn't eat the entire cake herself? We invited the entire village to the party. 6 Entire is stronger than whole.
  - ▶ entirely adv completely: I entirely agree with you.
  - entirety /m'taɪərəti/ noun [U]: We must consider the problem in its entirety (= as a whole). حملة تمام
- Çentitle /in'taitl/ verb [T] to give sb the right to have or do sth: I think I'm entitled to a day's holiday I've worked hard enough.
  - entitled adj (used about books, plays, etc.) with the title: Duncan's first book was entitled 'Aquarium'.
  - entity /'entəti/ noun [C] (pl. entities) something that exists separately from sth else: The kinder-garten and the school are in the same building but they're really separate entities.
    کیان، و حدة مستقلّة
- Lentrance / entrans/ noun 1 [C] the door, gate or opening where you go into a place: I'll meet you at the entrance to the theatre. O Entry is used in American English with the same meaning.

مدخل

- 2 [C] entrance (into/onto sth) the act of coming or going in: He made a dramatic entrance onto the stage. © Entry can be used with the same meaning.
- 3 [U] entrance (to sth) the right to enter a place: They were refused entrance to the disco because they were wearing shorts. ο an entrance fee Φ Entry is also possible. Look at admission, admittance.
- 4 [U] entrance (into/to sth) the right to join a club, institution, etc: You don't need to take an entrance exam to get into university. D Look at admission.
- entrant /'entrənt/ noun [C] a person who enters a profession, competition, examination, university, etc.
- entreat /m'tri:t/ verb [T] (formal) to ask sb, with great feeling, to do sth (that may be difficult)

يتوسّل، يترجّي

entrust /in'trast/ verb [T] entrust A with B/entrust B to A (formal) to make sb responsible for sth that is given to him/her: I entrusted Rachel with the arrangements for the party./I entrusted the arrangements for the party to Rachel.

يأتمن على ، يعهد به إلى

- Pentry / entry / noun (pl. entries) 1 [C] entry (into sth) the act of coming or going in; entering(1):
  The thieves forced an entry into the building.
  Entrance is also possible.
  - 2 [U] entry (to sth) the right to enter a place: The immigrants were refused entry at the airport. The sign says 'No Entry'. an entry visa
  - the Entrance is also possible. Look at admission and admittance.
  - 3 [C] (US) a door, gate, passage, etc. where you enter a building, etc.; an entrance hall 6 Entrance is also possible in American English and is the only word used in British English.
  - 4 [C] entry (in sth) one item that is written down in a list, diary, account book, dictionary, etc. You'll find 'enrolment' at the entry for 'enrol'.
  - 5 [C] entry (for sth) a person or thing that is entered for a competition, etc: There were fifty entries for the Eurovision song contest. o The winning entry is number 45!
- envelop /m'veləp/ verb [T] (formal) to cover or surround sb/sth completely (in sth): The hills were enveloped in mist.
- Renvelope /ˈenvələʊp; ˈɒn-/ noun [C] the paper cover for a letter

After writing a letter you address the envelope, seal it and stick a stamp in the top right-hand corner. Sometimes when you answer an advertisement you are asked to send an SAE. This is a 'stamped addressed envelope', addressed to yourself.

enviable /'enviabl/ adj (used about sth that sb else has and that you would like) attractive ① The opposite is unenviable.

مود عليه ، مرغوب فيه

envious /'envios/ adj envious (of sb/sth) feeling or showing envy, i.e. wanting sth that sb else has: She was envious of her sister's success.

سود

▶ enviously adv

- Lenvironment /m'varrənmənt/ noun 1 [C,U] the conditions in which you live, work, etc: A bad home environment can affect a child's progress at school.
  - 2 the environment [sing.] the natural world, e.g. land, air, water, etc. in which people, animals and plants live: We need stronger laws to protect the environment.
  - environmental /in,vairən'mentl/ adj: environmental science ويثي environmentalist /in,vairən'mentəlist/ noun

[C] a person who wants to protect the environment environmentally /-təli/ adv: These products are environmentally friendly.

- environs /m'varrənz/ noun [plural] (formal) the area around a place, especially a town: Berlin and its environs
- envisage /in'vizid3/ verb [T] (formal) to think of sth as being possible in the future; to imagine: I don't envisage any problems with this.

يتصوّر، يتخيّل ، يتوقّع

- envoy /'envoɪ/ noun [C] a person who is sent by a government with a message to another country
- envy /'envi/ noun [U] envy (of sb); envy (at/of sth) the feeling that you have when sb else has sth that you want: It was difficult for her to hide her envy of her friend's success. Dook at enviable and envious.

- ▶ envy verb [T] (pres part envying; 3rd pers sing pres envies; pt, pp envied) envy (sb)(sth) to want sth that sb else has; to feel envy: I've always envied your good luck. I don't envy you that job (= I'm glad that I don't have it).
- enzyme /ˈenzaɪm/ noun [C] 1 a chemical substance which occurs naturally in living creatures and assists in performing chemical changes, e.g. in processing food in the stomach, without being changed itself أنزيم، خميرة كيميائية
- 2 a similar substance that is produced artificially, e.g. for use in washing powders: Washing powders containing enzymes are said to remove stains more efficiently.
- epic /ˈepɪk/ noun [C] a long book, poem, film, etc. that describes exciting adventures: The film 'Glory' is an American Civil War epic. ملحمة : مؤلف فني بطولي
- ▶ epic adj of or like an epic: an epic struggle ملحمي، بطولي epidemic / epi'demik/ noun [C] a large number of cases of people or animals suffering from the same disease at the same time: A flu epidemic broke out in February.

- epilepsy /'epılepsi/ noun [U] a disease of the brain that can cause a person to become unconscious (sometimes with violent uncontrolled movements)
- epileptic / epi'leptik/ adj connected with or suffering from epilepsy: an epileptic fit o She's epileptic.
- epileptic noun [C] a person who suffers from epilepsy
- epilogue /'epilog/ (US epilog /-lɔ:g/) noun [C] a short passage that is added at the end of a book, play, etc. and that comments on what has gone before ⊃ Look at prologue.

خاتمة الكتاب أو المسرحيّة

- episode /ˈepɪsəʊd/ noun [C] 1 one separate event in sb's life, a novel, etc: That's an episode in my life I'd rather forget.
- 2 one part of a TV or radio drama that is broadcast in several parts (a serial): Don't miss tomorrow's exciting episode.
- epitaph /'epita:f; US -tæf/ noun [C] words that are written or said about a dead person, especially words written on a gravestone

تأبين مكتوب على القبر

- epitome /ı'pıtəmi/ noun [sing.] a perfect example of sth عنوان لامثان ،نبوذج ► epitomize /ı'pıtəmaız/ verb [T] to be typical مناز المثان بنبوذج الله والمثان بالمثان المثان ا
- epoch/'i:pnk; US 'epək/noun [C] a period of time in history (that is important because of special events, features, etc.)
- Pequal /'i:kwəl/ adj 1 the same in size, amount, value, number, status, etc: They are equal in weight. They are of equal weight. Divide it into two equal parts. Women are demanding equal pay for equal work. We've appointed an Equal Opportunities Officer (= a person who makes sure that people are treated equally).

  The opposite is unequal.
  - 2 equal to sth (formal) having the strength, ability etc. to do sth: I'm afraid Bob just isn't equal to the task.
  - be on equal terms (with sb) to have the same advantages and disadvantages as sb else يكون على قدم المساواة مع
  - ► equal noun [C] a person who has the same ability, rights, etc. as you do: to treat sb as an equal
  - equal verb [T] (equalling; equalled; US equaling; equalled) 1 (used about numbers, etc.) to be the same as sth: 44 plus 17 equals 61 is written: 44 + 17 = 61.
  - 2 equal sb/sth (in sth) to be as good as sb/sth: He ran an excellent race, equalling the club record. • Nowhere quite equals France for food. يعادل، يضاهي equally /'i:kwəli/ adv 1 to the same degree or extent: They both worked equally hard.

على حدّ سو

- 2 in equal parts: His money was divided equally between his children.
- 3 (used when you are comparing two ideas or commenting on what you have just said) at the same time; but/and also: I do not think what he did was right. Equally, I can understand why he في الحين ذاته... ؛ ولكن did it.
- equality /i'kwpleti/ noun [U] the situation in which everybody has the same rights and advantages; being equal: equality of opportunity 6 The opposite is inequality.
- equalize (also equalise) /'i:kwəlaiz/ verb [1] (sport) to reach the same number of points as your opponent: Wales equalized in the 87th minute to make the score 2 all.
- equate /i'kweit/ verb [T] equate sth (with sth) to consider one thing as being the same as sth else: It is a mistake to equate wealth with happi-يساوي بين
- equation / i'kwei3n/ noun [C] (in mathematics) a statement that two quantities are equal: 2x + 5=11 is an equation.
- equator (also Equator) /r'kwertə(r)/ noun [sing.] the imaginary line around the earth at an equal distance from the North and South Poles: north/south of the equator o on the equator
  - خط الاستواء
- equestrian /I'kwestrian/ adj (formal) connected with horse riding: equestrian events at the Olympic Games
- equilibrium / i:kwi'libriəm; ek-/ noun [U] 1 a situation in which opposing forces, influences, etc. are balanced and under control: the need to keep supply and demand in equilibrium.
- 2 a state of mind in which feelings and emotions are under control: He sat down for a while to recover his equilibrium. هدوء، رباطة جأش
- equip /r'kwrp/ verb [T] (equipping; equipped) equip sb/sth (with sth) 1 (usually passive) to supply sb/sth with what is needed (for a particular purpose): We shall equip all schools with new computers in the next year. o The schools in France are much better equipped than ours. o The flat has a fully equipped kitchen. يزود ، بمجهز
- 2 to prepare sb for a particular task: The course equips students with all the skills necessary to become a chef. يهيئ ، يؤهب
- Lequipment /r'kwipment/ noun [U] the things that are needed for carrying out a particular activity: office equipment o sports equipment o Standard equipment in the car includes power steering and central door locking. معدّات ، لوازم
  - Note that equipment is uncountable. We have to say 'a piece of equipment' if we are talking about one item: a very useful piece of kitchen equipment.
  - equity /'ekwəti/ noun 1 [U] the value of the shares issued by a company: He controls seven قيمة الأسهم per cent of the equity.
  - 2 equities [plural] ordinary stocks and shares

- that carry no fixed interest: invest in equities o the equities market سندات أو أسهم عادية
- 3 [U] the money value of a property after all the charges on it, e.g. those relating to a mortgage, قُيمة عَقَارَ بعد دفع المصاريف المترتبة عليه have been paid
- Requivalent /r'kwrvələnt/ adj equivalent (to sth) equal in value, amount, meaning, importance, etc: The price of British cars is higher than that of equivalent French or German models. o People in Britain smoked 94 billion cigarettes last year, equivalent to 1680 per person.

▶ equivalent noun [C] something that is equivalent: There is no English equivalent to the French 'bon appetit'.

ER/i:  $\alpha$ :(r)/= EMERGENCY ROOM

- er /3:(r)/ interj (used in writing to show that sb cannot decide what to say next): Well, er, ladies and gentlemen, I, er, I'm very pleased to be here (تشير إلى التردد في الكلام) today
- era /'iərə/ noun [C] a period of time in history (that is special for some reason): We are living in the era of the computer.
- eradicate /i'rædikeit/ verb [T] (formal) to des-يستأصل؛ يقضي على troy sth completely
- ▶ eradication /1,rædi'kei∫n/ noun [U]

استنصال ، محو ، قضاء على

- erase /i'reiz; US i'reis/ verb [T] (formal) to remove sth (a pencil mark, a recording on tape, etc.): (figurative) He tried to erase the memory of those terrible years from his mind. 6 We usually say rub out a pencil mark.
- ▶ eraser /ɪˈreɪzə(r); US -sər/ noun [C] (especially US) = RUBBER (2)
- erect1 /1'rekt/ adj 1 standing straight up; up right: He stood with his head erect.
- 2 (used about the penis) stiff and upright because of sexual excitement
- erect2 /1'rekt/ verb [T] (formal) to build sth or to put sth in an upright position: to erect a statue o Huge TV screens were erected so that everybody could see what was going on. يقيم ، ينصب ؛ يشيّد
- ► erection /1'rek∫n/ noun 1 [U] (formal) the act of putting sth in an upright position or of إقامة ، تشييد building sth
- 2 [C] the hardening of the penis in sexual excitement: to get/have an erection
- ermine /'a:mɪn/ noun the white winter fur of a stoat, that is sometimes used on the clothes worn by judges, etc: a gown trimmed with ermine

قاقم، قاقوم

- erode /1'rəud/ verb [T] (usually passive) (used about the sea, the weather, etc.) to destroy sth slowly: The cliff has been eroded by the sea. o (figurative) Freedom of speech is being eroded.
- يحتٌ ، يفتُت ؛ يُزيل تدريجياً ▶ erosion /I'rəʊʒn/ noun [U]: the erosion of the حَّتُّ ، تُعرية ؛ زوال تدريجي
- erotic /r'rptik/adj causing sexual excitement: an erotic film, poem, etc. مثير جن coastline by the sea

ىقر ، مَهُرَب

err /3:(r); US ear/ verb [I] (formal) to be or do wrong; to make mistakes: It is better to err on the side of caution (= it is better to be too careful rather than not careful enough). يخطئ ؛ يُزِل errand /'erənd/ noun [C] a short journey to take or get sth for sb, e.g. to buy sth from a shop

مهمّة صغيرة . "مشوار" أو "مرسال" erratic /i'rætik/ adj (used about a person's behaviour, or about the quality of sth) changing without reason: that you cannot rely on: Jones is a talented player but he's very erratic (= sometimes he plays well, sometimes badly). ► erratically /-kli/ adv

بصورة غير منتظمة ، بشكل متقلب

Rerror /'erə(r)/ noun 1 [C] a mistake: The telephone bill was far too high due to a computer error. o an error of judgement o to make an Error is more formal than mistake. There are some expressions, e.g. error of judgement, human error where only error can be used.

- 2 [U] the state of being wrong in behaviour or belief: The letter was sent to you in error. o The accident was the result of human error. IDM trial and error → TRIAL
- erupt /1'rapt/verb [I] 1 (used about a volcano) to explode and throw out fire, rock that has melted (lava), etc. يثور أو ينفجر (البركان)
- 2 (used about violence, anger, etc.) to start suddenly: The demonstration erupted into vio-ينقلب فجاة إلى
- 3 (used about people) to suddenly become very angry: George erupted when he heard the news. يثور غضبه
- ► eruption /I'rAp∫n/ noun [C,U]

ثوران أو انفجار : تفجّر

- escalate /'eskəleit/ verb [I,T] 1 (to cause sth) to become stronger or more serious: The demonstrations are escalating into violent protest in all the major cities. O The terrorist attacks escalated ten-يتصاعد ، يزداد حدة ؛ يزيد من sion in the capital.
- increase: The cost of housing has escalated in يرتفع : يزداد : يرفع recent years.
- ▶ escalation / eskə lerfn/ noun [C,U] تصاعد ؛ تفاقم ؛ تُصعيد
- escalator /'eskəleitə(r)/ noun [C] a moving درج أو سلم متحوك staircase in a shop, etc.
- escapade / eska peid/ noun [C] an exciting adventure that may be dangerous مغامرة جريئة
- Rescape 1 /I'skeip/ verb 1 [I] escape (from sb/ sth) to get away from a place where you do not want to be; to get free: Two prisoners have escaped. o A lion escaped from its cage at Bristol Zoo last night. يهرب ، يفلت من
  - 2 [I] (used about gases or liquids) to find a way out of a container, etc: There's gas escaping somewhere.
  - 3 [I,T] to be safe from sth; to avoid sth: The two men in the other car escaped unhurt in the accident. o David Smith escaped injury when his car skidded off the road. o to escape criticism ىنجو (من)؛ بتحنّب

- 4 [T] to be forgotten or not noticed by sb: His name escapes me. o to escape sb's notice (= not be noticed by sb) يغيب عن باله ، يفوته
- ▶ escaped adj having escaped from a place: The escaped prisoners have not been recaptured.
- escape<sup>2</sup> /r'skerp/ noun 1 [C,U] escape (from sth) the act of escaping 1(1,2,3): There have been twelve escapes from the local prison this year. She had a narrow escape when a lorry crashed into her car (= she was nearly killed or seriously hurt). O Escape from Alcatraz prison was impos-فرار ، هروب : نجاة sible.
  - 2 [C] a means of escaping: a fire escape

3 [U, sing.] something that helps you forget your daily life: For him, listening to music is a means of escape. o an escape from reality

- escort /'esko:t/ noun [C] 1 [with sing. or pl. verb] a person or vehicle (or group of people and vehicles) that goes with and protects sb/sth, or that goes with sb/sth as an honour: a police escort ♠ Note the phrase under escort: He arrived under military escort. مرافق ، حُرُس، حراسة
  - 2 (formal) a companion for a particular social مرافق (إلى حفل مثلاً) event
- ▶ escort /1'sko:t/ verb [T] 1 to go with sb as an escort: The President's car was escorted by several police cars. يرافق ، يحرس
- 2 to take sb somewhere: Philip escorted her to يرافق ، يوصل the door.
- Eskimo /'eskiməʊ/ noun [C] (pl. Eskimo or Eskimos) = Inuit
- ESL / i: es 'el/ abbrev English as a Second Lan-الانكليزية كلغة ثانية
- especial /r'spefl/ adj (only before a noun) (formal) not usual; special: This will be of especial interest to you. خاص ، غير عادي
- 2 (to cause sth) to become greater or higher; to ?especially /r'spefəli/ adv 1 (abbr esp.) to an unusual degree; in particular: She loves sport, especially tennis. o The Irish, especially, are proud of their traditions, o The car is rather small, especially if you have a large family. O He was very disappointed with his mark in the exam, especially as he had worked so hard for it. خاصة ، بوجه خاص
  - 2 for a particular purpose: I made this especially for you. 6 Specially is also possible with this meaning. It is less formal.
  - 3 very (much): It's not an especially difficult exam. o 'Do you like jazz?' 'Not especially.'
  - espionage / espiana:3/ noun [U] the system of finding out secret information about another country or organization 3 Look at spy.
  - espresso /e'spresau/ noun (pl. espressos) 1 [U] strong black coffee made by forcing steam or boiling water through ground coffee

قهوة "اسبرسو"

- 2 [C] a cup of espresso: Two espressos, please.
- Lessay /'esei/ noun [C] a short piece of writing on one subject: to write an essay on tourism

مقال ، موضوع (أدبي)

essence /'esns/ noun 1 [sing.] the basic or most important quality of sth: The essence of the problem is that there is not enough money available.

رهر ، لب

- 2 [C,U] a substance (usually a liquid) that is taken from a plant or food and that has a strong smell or taste of that plant or food: vanilla essence
- Ressential /u'senfl/ adj absolutely necessary; that you must have or do: Essential medical supplies will be delivered to the area by plane.

  Maths is essential for a career in computers.

  It is essential that all school-leavers should have a qualification. It is essential to book in advance if you are travelling by coach. Local clubs are an essential part of village life.
  - essential noun [C, usually pl.] something that is necessary or very important: food, and other essentials such as clothing and heating مسلزمات essentially /rsenfall/adv basically; really: The problem is essentially one of money.

وهريا ؛ في الحقيقة

- Pestablish /ɪˈstæblɪʃ/ verb [T] 1 to start sth (especially an organization or institution): The school was established in 1875.
  - يوسس،يسنغ 2 to make sth exist: We must establish good relations with the local newspaper.
  - 3 establish sb/sth (as sth) to place sb/sth in a position permanently: She has been trying to get established as a novelist for several years. The festival has become established as one of the most popular events in the town.
  - 4 to decide sth: We need to establish our aims before we can go any further:
  - 5 to discover or find proof of sth: The police are not able to establish where he was at the time of the murder: يتحقق من : يثبت
- establishment / الاعتاد / stæblishment / noun 1 [U] the act of starting sth such as an organization or institution: the establishment of a new government department
  - 2 [C] a shop or business
- 3 the Establishment [sing.] (Brit) the people in positions of power in a country, who usually do not support change
- ? estate / i'stert/ noun [C] 1 a large area of land in the country that is owned by one person or family: He owns a large estate in Scotland.
  - ضيعة ، عِزبة ، ملك

مؤ سّسة

- 2 (Brit) an area of land that has a lot of buildings of the same type on it: an industrial estate (= where there are a lot of factories) a housing estate
- 3 all the money and property that sb leaves when he/she dies التركات، مجموع أموال المتوفّى es'tate agent (US Realtor; real estate agent) noun [C] a person who buys and sells houses and land for other people

سمسار عقارات ، دلآل

- es'tate car (US station wagon) noun [C] a car with a door at the back and a large area for luggage behind the back seat
- esteem /ı'sti:m/ noun [U] (formal) great respect; a good opinion of sb
- esthetic (US) = AESTHETIC
- Lestimate 'estimat' noun [C] 1 a guess or judgement about the size, cost, etc. of sth, before you have all the facts and figures: Can you give me a rough estimate of how many people will be at the meeting?
  - 2 a written statement from a builder, etc. giving a price for a particular job
- Pestimate<sup>2</sup> /'estiment/ verb [T] to calculate the size, cost, etc. of sth approximately, before you have all the facts and figures: She estimated that the work would take three months. o The police estimated the crowd at 10 000. o Work on the new bridge will cost an estimated five million pounds.
  - estimation /ˌestɪˈmeɪʃn/ noun [U] (format) opinion or judgement
  - estranged /ı'stremdʒd/ adj 1 no longer living with your husband/wife: He's estranged from his wife.
  - 2 no longer friendly towards sb who used to be close to you
  - estuary /'est∫uəri; US -veri/ noun [C] (pl. estuaries) the wide part (mouth) of a river where it joins the sea
- Retc. abbrev et cetera; and so on, and other things of a similar kind: sandwiches, biscuits, cakes, etc.
- eternal /ı'tɜ:nl/ adj 1 without beginning or end; lasting for ever: eternal life (= after death) أبديَ، سرمديَ، خالد
  - 2 happening too often; seeming to last for ever: I'm tired of these eternal arguments!
- دائم، مستمرً، متكرِّر • eternally /1't3:noli/ adv: I'll be eternally grate-إلى الأبد، دوماً الأبد، دوماً
- eternity /i'ts:neti/ noun 1 [U] time that has no end; the state or time after death
- الأبد، السرمديّة ، الأزل 2 an eternity [sing.] (informal) a period of time that seems endless: It seemed like an eternity before the ambulance arrived.
- ethics /ˈeθɪks/ noun 1 [U] the study of what is right and wrong in human behaviour: Ethics is a branch of philosophy.
- 2 [plural] beliefs about what is morally right and wrong: The medical profession has its own code of ethics.
- ► ethical /'eθikl/ adj 1 connected with ethics(2): That is an ethical problem.
- 2 morally correct: She had not broken the law

- ethnic /ˈeθnɪk/ adj connected with or typical of a racial group or groups: ethnic minorities o ethnic food, music, etc. إثني، متعلق بعرق معين
- ethnic 'cleansing noun [U] the policy of forcing people of a certain race or religion to leave an area or country
- etiquette /ˈetɪket/ noun [U] the rules of polite and correct behaviour
- etymology /ˌetrˈmɒlədʒi/ noun (pl. etymologies) 1 [U] the study of the origins and history of words and their meanings دراسة أصول الكلمات
- 2 [C] an explanation of the origin and history of a particular word

EU abbrev = European Union

- euphemism /ˈjuːfəmɪzəm/ noun [C,U] (using) a polite word or expression instead of a more direct one when you are talking about sth that is unpleasant or embarrassing: 'Pass away' is a euphemism for 'die'. (قام تعبير ملطف: تلطيف تعبير ملطف: تلطيف تعبير ملطف:
- euphoria /ju:ˈfɔ:riə/ noun [U] (formal) a strong feeling of happiness نشوة ، ابتهاج شدید
- ין euro /'juərəv/ noun [C] (pl. euros or euro) (symbol) a unit of money used in several countries of the European Union
- European / juərəˈpi:ən/ adj of or from Europe: European languages o the European Championship
- ► European noun [C] a person from a European country
- the Euro pean 'Union noun [sing.] (abbr EU) an economic and political association of certain European countries
- euthanasia / ju:00'nerziə; US -'nerʒə/ noun [U] the painless killing of sb who is very old or suffering from a disease that cannot be cured

الماتة الحيمة الماتة الحيمة

- evacuate /ɪ'vækjueɪt/ verb [T] to move people from a dangerous place to somewhere safer; to leave a place because it is dangerous. During the war children were evacuated from London to the country. The village had to be evacuated when the river burst its banks.
- ► evacuation /I,vækju'eI∫n/ noun [C,U] إخلاء، جلاء عن
- evade /r'veɪd/ verb [T] 1 to get out of the way of or to escape from sb/sth: They managed to evade capture and escaped to France.

يتفادي ، يتجنّب ؛ ينجو من

- 2 to avoid sth: He was accused of evading income tax.  $\circ$  I asked her directly, but she evaded the question.
- 1 The noun is evasion.
- evaluate /rˈvæljueɪt/ verb [T] (formal) to study the facts and then give your opinion about the meaning of sth or about how good sth is: We evaluated the situation very carefully before we made our decision.

▶ evaluation /ɪˌvælju'eɪʃn/ noun [C,U]

تقييم ، تقدير

- evangelical /i.væn'dʒelɪkl/ adj (of certain Protestant churches) believing that religious ceremony is not as important as faith in Jesus Christ and study of the Bible
  - إنجيليّ ؛ متعلّق بالكنيسة البروتستانتية
- evaporate /rˈvæpəreɪt/ verb [I] 1 (used about a liquid) to change into steam or a gas and disappear: The water evaporated in the sunshine.

  2 Look at condense.
- 2 (used about feelings) to disappear: All her hopes evaporated when she heard the news.

يزول، يختفي، يتبخّر

- تبخُر evaporation /ɪˌvæpəˈreɪʃn/ noun [U]
- evasion /ɪ'veɪʒn/ noun [C,U] an action, statement, etc. that is used for avoiding sth unpleasant: He has been sentenced to two years' imprisonment for tax evasion. 6 The verb is evade.
- evasive /r'veɪsɪv/ adj trying to avoid sth; not direct: Ann gave an evasive answer.
- eve /i:v/ noun [C] the day or evening before a religious festival, important event, etc: Christmas عشية عبد أو اليوم السابق له
- Reven<sup>1</sup> /'i:vn/ adj 1 flat, level or smooth: The game must be played on an even surface.

مستو ، منبسط

- not changing; regular: He's very even-tempered in fact I've never seen him angry.
- 3 (used about a competition, etc.) with one side being as good as the other: The contest was very even until the last few minutes of the game.

متعادل

- The opposite for senses 1,2,3 is uneven.
- 4 (used about numbers) that can be divided by two: 4, 6, 8, 10, etc. are even numbers. 1 The opposite is odd.
- opposite is odd.

  DM be/get even (with sb) to hurt or harm sb who has hurt or harmed you

  ينتقم أو يشأر من break even to make neither a loss nor a profit

  (الشركة) لا تربع ولا تخسر
- ► evenly adv in an even way: The match was very evenly balanced. Spread the cake mixture evenly in the tin.
- Reven<sup>2</sup> /'i:vn/ adv 1 (used for emphasizing sth that is surprising): It isn't very warm here even in summer. Even the children helped in the garden. He didn't even open the letter (= so he certainly didn't read it). I have been so busy that I haven't even had time to read the newspaper. I like her very much even though she can be very annoying. 2 Look at the note at although.
  - 2 (used when you are comparing things, to make the comparison stronger): You know even less about it than I do. o It is even more difficult than I expected. o We are even busier than yesterday.

even if (used for saying that what follows 'if makes no difference): I wouldn't do it, even if you paid me a thousand pounds. حتى لو... even so (used for introducing a new idea, fact.

etc. that is surprising) in spite of that; nevertheless: There are a lot of spelling mistakes; even so it's quite a good essay.

Fevening /'i:vntn/ noun [C,U] the part of the day between the afternoon and the time that you go to bed: What are you doing this evening? o We were out yesterday evening. o I went to the cinema on Saturday evening. o Tom usually goes swimming on Wednesday evenings. o Most people watch television in the evening. o an evening class (= a course of lessons for adults that takes place in the evening)

IDM good evening (used when you see sb for the first time in the evening) • Often we just say Evening: 'Good evening, Mrs Wilson.' 'Evening, Mr Mills.'

? event /r'vent/ noun [C] 1 something that happens, especially sth important or unusual: an historic event • The events of the past few days have made things very difficult for the Government.

مَدَث ، و اقعة

2 one of the races, competitions, etc. in a sports programme: The next event is the 800 metres.

* every /'evri/ det 1 (used with singular nouns) all the people or things in a group of three or more:

at all events/in any event whatever happens: I hope to see you soon, but in any event I'll phone you on Sunday.

in the event of sth (formal) if sth happens: In the event of fire, leave the building as quickly as possible.

► eventful /-fl/ adj full of interesting or important events The opposite is uneventful.
مل ، ع الأحداث . زاخر

eventual /t'ventsuel/ adj (only before a noun) happening as a result at the end of a period of time or of a process: It is impossible to say what the eventual cost will be.

Reventually /i'ventʃuəli/ adv in the end; at last: He eventually managed to persuade his parents to let him buy a motor bike. أخيراً في النهاية

Rever /'evə(r)/ adv 1 (used in questions and negative sentences, when you are comparing things, and in sentences with 'if') at any time: Do you ever wish you were famous? O Nobody ever comes to see me. O She hardly ever (= almost never) goes out. O Today is hotter than ever. O This is the best meal I have ever had. O If you ever visit England, you must come and stay with us.

3 (used with a question that begins with 'when', 'where', 'who', 'how', etc., to show that you are surprised or shocked): How ever did he get back so quickly? ○ What ever were you thinking about when you wrote this? ② Look at whatever, whenever, however, etc.

(تستعمل تعبيراً عن الاستغراب) 4 ever- (in compounds) always; continuously:

the ever-growing problem of pollution

دائماً، بصورة مستمرّة

[DM] (as) bad, good, etc. as ever (as) bad, good, etc. as usual or as you expected: In spite of his problems, Andrew is as cheerful as ever.

ever after (used especially at the end of stories) from that moment on for always: The prince married the princess and they lived happily ever after: الى الأبد ever since (...) all the time from (...) until now: She has had a car ever since she was at university:

ever solever such a (Brit informal) very: He's ever so kind. ○ He's ever such a kind man. for ever → FOREVER(1) evergreen /'evəgri:n/ noun [C], adj (a tree, etc.) with green leaves throughout the year ⊅ Look at deciduous.

everlasting /ˌevəˈlɑːstɪŋ; US -ˈlæst-/ adj (for-mal) lasting for ever: everlasting life

Revery /'evri/ det 1 (used with singular nouns) all the people or things in a group of three or more: She knows every student in the school. • There are 200 students in the school, and she knows every one of them. • I've read every book in this house. • You were out every time I phoned.

2 all that is possible: You have every chance of success. • She had every reason to be angry.

3 (used for saying how often sth happens): We see each other every day. O Take the medicine every four hours (= at 8, 12, 4, etc.). O The milkman comes every other day (= on Monday, Wednesday, Friday, etc.). O One in every three marriages ends in divorce.

Leverybody /'evribodi/ (also everyone /'evriwan/) pron every person; all people: Is everybody here? • The police questioned everyone who was at the party. • I'm sure everybody else (= all the other people) will agree with me.

كلِّ واحد، الجميع

Everyone is only used about people and is not followed by 'of'. Every one means each person or thing' and is often followed by 'of'. Every one of his records has been successful. Look also at the note at somebody.

everyday /ˈevrideɪ/ adj (only before a noun) normal and usual: The computer is now part of everyday life. alpha alc, يومي

everyplace /'evripleis/ adv (US) = EVERYWHERE

Peverything /'evriθη/ pron [with sing. verb]

1 each thing; all things: Sam lost everything in the fire. • Everything is very expensive in this shop. • We can leave everything else (= all the other things) at my parents' house.

2 the most important thing: Money isn't everything. أهم شيء في الحياة، كل شيء

Leverywhere /'evriweə(r)/ (also everyplace) adv in or to every place: I've looked everywhere, but I still can't find it.

evict /i'vikt/ verb [T] to force sb (officially) to "exact" /ig'zækt/ adj 1 (completely) correct; acleave the house or land where he/she is living: They were evicted for not paying the rent.

إخلاءً رسمي ▶ eviction /I'vIk∫n/ noun [C,U]

?evidence /'evidens/ noun [U] something that gives a reason for believing sth: There was no evidence of a struggle in the room. o There was not enough evidence to prove him guilty. O Her statement to the police was used in evidence against him. o The witnesses to the accident will be asked to give evidence in court. O You have absolutely no evidence for what you're saying! دليل، برهان، بينة

Note that evidence is uncountable. We use piece if we are talking about single items that are evidence: One piece of evidence is not enough to prove somebody guilty.

IDM (to be) in evidence to be seen; to be noticeable: When we arrived there was no ambu-يمكن رؤيته، باد للعيان lance in evidence.

- evident /'evident/ adj clear (to the eye or mind); obvious: It was evident that the damage was very واضح جليّ؛ ظاهر
- ▶ evidently adv 1 it appears that: Evidently he has decided to leave.
- 2 it is obvious that: She was evidently extremely من الواضح أن...: بوضوح shocked at the news.
- Levil /'i:vl/ adj very bad; causing trouble or harm: Dr Jekyll and the evil Mr Hyde o In the play Richard is portrayed as an evil king.

Another word for evil is wicked. These are very strong words. Children are usually described as naughty or mischievous.

▶ evil noun [C,U] (formal) something that is very bad; wickedness: The play is about the good and evil in all of us. o Drugs and alcohol are two of the evils of modern society.

IDM the lesser of two evils → LESSER

- evoke /I'vəʊk/ verb [T] (formal) to produce a memory, feeling, etc: For me, that music always evokes long summer evenings. OHer article يستثير؛ يعيد إلى الذاكرة evoked a lot of interest.
- evolution / i.və'lu: [n; US ev-/ noun [U] 1 the development of living things over many thousands of years from simple early forms: Darwin's theory of evolution تطور، نشوء، ارتقاء
  - 2 the process of change and development: Political evolution is a slow process. نموً، تطور
- evolve /i'vplv/ verb 1 [I] (used about living things) to develop from simple early forms يتطور، ينشأ، يرتقى
- 2 [I,T] (formal) to develop or to make sth develop: His style of painting has evolved gradually over the past 20 years. o The twins have  $evolved\ a\ language\ of\ their\ own.$ يتطور؛ يبتكر؛ يطور
- ewe /ju:/ noun [C] a female sheep 2 Look at the note at sheep.
- ex- /eks/ prefix (in nouns) former: ex-wife o expresident

- curate: He's in his mid-fifties. Well, 56 to be exact. o What is the exact time? o I can't tell you the exact number of people who are coming. o She's the exact opposite of her sister. صحيح؛ مضبوط
  - 2 able to work in a way that is completely accurate: You need to be very exact when you calculate the costs.
- ▶ exactly adv 1 (used for emphasizing sth) just: You've arrived at exactly the right moment. o I found exactly what I wanted. تماماً، بالضبط
- 2 (used when you are asking for, or giving, completely correct information): Where exactly are you going on holiday? o He took exactly one hour to finish.
- 3 (used for agreeing with a statement) yes; you are right: 'But I don't think she's old enough to travel on her own.' 'Exactly.' نعم، هذا صحيح...
- IDM not exactly (informal) 1 not really; not at all: He's not exactly the most careful driver I في الواقع إنه ليس... know.
- 2 (used as an answer to say that sth is almost true): 'So you think I'm wrong?' 'No, not exactly, صحيح إلى حدٌ ما، "ليس تماماً" hut ...
- exactness noun [U] the quality of being exact
- exact2 /1g'zækt/ verb [T] (formal) to demand and يرغمه على، يأخذ عنوة ▶ exacting adj needing a lot of care and atten
  - tion: difficult: exacting work متطلّب عناية فائقة؛ صعب
- Rexaggerate /ig'zædʒəreit/ verb [I,T] to make sth seem larger, better, worse, etc. than it really is: Don't exaggerate. I was only two minutes late, not twenty. o The problems have been greatly ex-يبالغ، يغالي aggerated.
  - ▶ exaggeration /ig,zædʒə'rei∫n/ noun [C,U] making sth seem bigger, etc. than it really is; sth that does this: It's rather an exaggeration to say that all the students are lazy.
- ?exam /ig'zæm/ noun [C] (informal) examination (2): an English exam o the exam results

- ?examination /ɪg,zæmɪ'neɪʃn/ noun 1 [C,U] the act of looking at sth carefully: They made a thorough examination of the car before buying it. o On close examination, it was found that the passport was false. o a medical examination فحص؛ تدقيق
  - 2 (also informal exam) [C] a written, spoken or practical test of what you know or can do: I've got an examination in French next week. o to take/sit an examination o to pass/fail an examination & A test is less formal and usually shorter than an examination.
- Rexamine /1g'zæmm/ verb [T] 1 examine sb/ sth (for sth) to look at sb/sth carefully in order to find out sth: The detective examined the room for clues. o I'm going to have my teeth examined next week. o Please examine your change carefully before you leave the shop. يفحص؛ يفتّش
  - 2 examine sb (in/on sth) (formal) to test what sb knows or can do: You will be examined on everything that has been studied in the course. متحن، يفحص

- ► examiner noun [C] a person who tests sb in an examination(2)
- Rexample /1g'za:mpl; US -'zæmpl/ noun [C] 1 a thing that shows a general rule about what sth is like: This dictionary gives many examples of how words are used in sentences. I don't quite understand you. Can you give me an example of what you mean? This is a typical example of a Victorian house.
  - 2 a person or thing or a type of behaviour that is good and should be copied: Joe's bravery should be an example to us all.

follow sb's example/lead → FOLLOW for example (used for giving an illustration of what you are talking about): In many countries, Italy, for example, family life is much more important than here. ⊕ The short form is e. g.

set a good, bad, etc. example (to sb) to behave in a way that should/should not be copied: Parents should always take care when crossing roads in order to set their children a good example.

exasperate /ɪgˈzæspəreɪt/ verb [T] to make sb angry; to annoy: She was exasperated by the lack, of progress. يغضب، بثير السخط؛ يضايق

▶ exasperating adj: I spent an exasperating morning trying to arrange our flights.

مثير للغضب: مزعج للغاية exasperation /19,zæspə're1fn/ noun [U]: She finally threw the book across the room in exasperation.

- excavate /'ekskəveɪt/ verb [I,T] 1 to dig a hole in the ground
- 2 to uncover objects or buildings from the past by digging in an area of land: A Roman villa has been excavated in a valley near the village.
- يحفر، ينقب عن الآثار ► excavation /ˌekskəˈveɪʃn/ noun [C.U]: Excavations on the site have revealed several Roman buildings.
- exceed /ik'si:d/ verb [T] 1 to be greater than sth: The price must not exceed £100.
  - 2 to go beyond what is allowed or necessary: He was stopped by the police for exceeding the speed limit. ♦ Look at excess and excessive.

     exceedingly adv (formal) very: an exceeding-
- اللغابة. إلى أقصى حدّ الغابة. إلى أقصى حدّ العالم. excel /ik'sel/ verb [I] (excelling; excelled) (formal) 1 excel in/at sth to be very good at sth
- يتفرق. بيرع 2 excel yourself (Brit) to do sth even better than you usually do: Rick's cooking is always good, but this time he really excelled himself. بتحارز نقسه أو حدود امكانباته
- excellence /ˈeksələns/ noun [U] the quality of being very good: The headteacher said that she wanted the school to be a centre of academic excellence.

- و excellent / eksələnt/ adj very good; of high quality: He speaks excellent French. حِيْد حداً، معتاز • excellently adv فصررة معتازة، بشكل رائع
- Rexcept '/ik'sept/ prep except (for) sb/sth; except (that...) not including sb/sth; apart from the fact that: The museum is open every day except Mondays. Everyone except Tony is going on the trip. I can answer all of the questions except for the last one. It was a good hotel except that it was rather noisy.
- و except² /ıkˈsept/ verb [T] (often passive) except sb/sth (from sth) (formal) to leave sb/sth out; to not include sb/sth
  - یستثني، یسقط من به درون مسلمی ( excepting prep not including; except ا ماعدا، باستثناء
- Rexception / ik'sep∫n/ noun [C] a person or thing that is not included: Most of his songs are awful but this one is an exception. There's an exception to every rule.

  | Down to make an exception (of sb/sth) to

to make an exception (of sb/sth) to treat sb/sth differently: We don't usually allow children under 14 but we'll make an exception in your case.

with the exception of except for; apart from: He has won every major tennis championship with the exception of Wimbledon. ماعداً باستثناء without exception in every case; including everybody/everything: Everybody without exception must take the test.

- exceptional /ik'sepsənl/ adj very unusual; unusually good: You will only be allowed to leave early in exceptional circumstances. We have had a really exceptional summer.
- استثنائي، خارق العادة، رائع • exceptionally /-fənəli/ adv: The past year has been exceptionally difficult for us.

بشكل استثنائيّ، بصورة غير معهودة

- excerpt /'ekss:pt/ noun [C] a short piece taken from a book, film, piece of music, etc.
- excess<sup>1</sup> /ik'ses/ noun [sing.] more of sth than is needed or usual; too much of sth: An excess of fat in your diet can lead to heart disease.

زيادة. إفراط، فرط IDM in excess of more than: Her debts are in الكثر من، يزيد عن 1000.

excess<sup>2</sup> /ekses/ adj (only before a noun) more than is usual or allowed; extra: There are high charges for excess baggage on planes.

زائد عن المحدّد؛ إضافيَ

- excessive /ɪk'sesɪv/ adj too much; too great: I think £200 for a dress is excessive.
  - مفرط، متجاوز الحدّ -u are heing exces
- ► excessively adv: I think you are being excessively pessimistic about this.
- Rexchange¹/ıks'tʃemdʒ/noun 1 [C,U] giving or receiving sth in return for sth else: a useful exchange of information o We can offer free accommodation in exchange for some help in the house.
  - 2 [C] an (angry) conversation or argument مُشَادُة، حدال
  - 3 [U] the relation in value between kinds of # exchange → excuse

money used in different countries: What's the exchange rate/rate of exchange for dollars? صوف أو تحويل العملة

4 [U] money that can be used to pay for goods or services from other countries: Most of the country's foreign exchange comes from oil.

قطع، عملة اجنبيّة

5 [C] a visit by a group of students or teachers to another country and a return visit by a similar group from that country: an exchange with a school in France  $\circ$  an exchange visit

زيارة تبادل (بين طلاب دولتين)

- 6 = TELEPHONE EXCHANGE 1 Look at Stock Exchange.
- § exchange² /ıks'tʃemdʒ/ verb [T] exchange A for B; exchange sth (with sb) to give or receive sth in return for sth else: I would like to exchange this skirt for a bigger one. Amy and Lisa exchanged addresses with the boys. They exchanged glances (= they looked at each other).

يبدل؛ يبادل؛ يتبادل

excise /ˈeksaɪz/ noun [U] a government tax on certain goods that are produced or sold in a country, e.g. tobacco, alcohol, etc. 2 Look at customs.

excitable /ık'sartəbl/ adj easily excited سريع الهياج، انفعاليً

- Rexcite /ik'sait/ verb [T] 1 to cause strong feelings (e.g. of happiness or nervousness): Don't excite the baby too much or we'll never get him off to sleep.
  - 2 to cause a reaction in sb: The programme excited great interest.
- Pexcited /ik'saitid/ adj feeling very happy because you are looking forward to sth happening, not calm: Are you getting excited about your holiday? We re all very excited at the thought of moving into our new house.

   excitedly adv
- Ç excitement /ik'saitment/ noun 1 [U] the state of being excited; a feeling of pleasure, especially because sth interesting is happening or will happen: There was great excitement as the winner's name was announced. The match was full of excitement until the very last minute.

اهتياج: حماس: إثارة: ابتهاج

- 2 [C] something that makes you feel excited: After all the excitements of the last few weeks, it's nice to relax at home for a while.
- Pexciting /ik'sattın/ adj causing strong feelings of pleasure and interest: That's very exciting news. o Berlin is one of the most exciting cities in Europe. The opposite is unexciting.
- exclaim /ik'skleim/ verb [I,T] to say sth suddenly because you are surprised, angry, etc: 'I just don't believe it!' he exclaimed.
- exclamation / eksklə meɪʃn/ noun [C] a sound or word that expresses sudden pain, anger, surprise, etc: 'Ouch!' is an exclamation.

صيحة أو كلمة تدلّ على الانفعال

- excla'mation mark (US excla'mation point) noun [C] a mark (!) that is written after an exclamation
- Pexclude /ik'sklu:d/ verb [T] 1 exclude sb/sth (from sth) to prevent sb/sth from getting in: Women are excluded from the temple. o Try and exclude draughts from the room, and you will save money on your heating bills.
  - 2 to decide that sth is not true: The police had excluded the possibility that the child had run away.
  - 3 to leave out; not include: The price excludes all extras such as drinks or excursions.

    ▶ excluding prep not including: Lunch costs £10 per person excluding drinks.
  - exclusion /ik'sklu:را / noun [U] keeping or leaving sb/sth out
  - exclusive /ik'sklu:siv/ adj 1 (only before a noun) for only one person, group, etc.; not to be shared: This car is for the Director's exclusive use.

    o Tonight we are showing an exclusive interview with the new leader of the Labour Party (= on only one television or radio station).

خاصٌ؛ مقصور على (صحيفة واحدة مثلاً)

- 2 expensive and not welcoming people who are thought to be socially unsuitable: an exclusive restaurant o a flat in an exclusive part of the city
- 3 exclusive of sb/sth not including sb/sth; without: Lunch costs £10 per person exclusive of drinks.
- ▶ exclusive noun [C] a newspaper story that is given to and published by only one newspaper مقال یکتب خصیصاً لجریدة واحدة فقط
- exclusively adv only; not involving anybody/anything else: The swimming pool is reserved exclusively for members of the club.

فقط؛ على وجه الحصر

- excrement /'ekskriment/ noun [U] (formal) the solid waste matter that is passed from the body through the bowels ⊋ Look at faeces. غانط: براذ
- excrete /ik'skri:t/ verb [T] (formal) to pass out waste matter from the body يفُرِن بطرح الفضلات
- excruciating / ɪkˈskruːʃieɪtɪŋ/ adj (used about pain, etc.) very bad
- excursion /ik'sk3:[n; US 3:73n/ noun [C] a short journey or trip (that a group of people make for pleasure): to go on an excursion D Look at the note at travel.
- Rexcuse¹ /ık'skju:s/ noun [C] excuse (for sth/ for doing sth) a reason (that may be true or untrue) that you give in order to explain your behaviour: There's no excuse for rudeness. o He always finds a good excuse for not helping with the housework. o to make an excuse
- Lexcuse /ik'skju:z/ verb [T] 1 excuse sb/sth (for sth/for doing sth) to forgive sb/sth: Please excuse the interruption but I need to talk to you.

يعذر، يصفح عن

2 to explain sb's bad behaviour and make it seem less bad: Nothing can excuse such behaviour. يقدم عذراً: يبرر

3 excuse sb (from sth) to free sb from a duty, responsibility, etc: She was excused from PE because of her leg injury. • She excused herself for arriving late and sat down.

The expression excuse me is used when you interrupt somebody or when you want to start talking to somebody that you don't know:

Excuse me, can you tell me the way to the station? In US English and sometimes in British English excuse me is used when you apologize for something. Did I tread on your toe? Excuse

- ► excusable /ɪk'skju:zəbl/ adj that can be forgiven ⊕ The opposite is inexcusable.
- execute /'eksɪkju:t/ verb [T] 1 to kill sb as an official punishment: He was executed for murder
- 2 (formal) to perform a task, etc. or to carry out a plan
- execution /ˌeksrˈkju:ʃn/ noun 1 [C,U] the act of killing sb as an official punishment
- 2 [U] (formal) carrying out a plan, order, etc.
- ► executioner /ˌeksɪˈkjuːʃənə(r)/ noun [C] a person whose job is to execute criminals الحلاد. منفذ حكم الإعدام
- Texecutive /ɪgˈzekjətrv/ adj 1 (used in connection with people in business, government, etc.) concerned with managing, carrying out decisions, plans, etc: an executive director of the company
  - 2 (used about goods, buildings, etc.) designed to be used by important business people: an executive briefcase
  - executive noun [C] 1 a person who has an important position in a business: She's a senior executive in a computer company.
  - 2 the part of an organization which takes important decisions
  - exemplary /ɪg'zempləri/ adj very good; that can be an example to other people: exemplary behaviour
- exemplify /ɪgˈzemplɪfaɪ/ verb (pres part exemplifying; 3rd pers sing pres exemplifies; pt, pp exemplified) [T] to be a typical example of sth يعثل، يعطى مثلاً عن
- exempt /ɪgˈzempt/ adj (not before a noun) exempt (from sth) free from having to do sth or pay sth: Children under 16 are exempt from dental charges.
- ► exempt verb [T] exempt sb/sth (from sth) (formal) to say officially that sb does not have to do sth or pay sth يعفي من exemption / Ig'zemp∫n/ noun [C,U]
- [ exercise<sup>1</sup> / eksəsaiz/ noun 1 [U] physical or mental activity that keeps you healthy: The doc-

- tor advised him to take regular exercise. O Swimming is a good form of exercise. وياضة بدنية
- 2 [C] (often plural) a movement or activity that you do in order to keep healthy or to train sth: I do keep-fit exercises every morning. You need to do some exercises to improve your technique.

تمارين رياضية

- 3 [C] a piece of work that is intended to help you learn or practise sth: an exercise on phrasal verbs
- 4 [C] a series of actions that have a particular aim: The project is an exercise in getting the best results at a low cost.
- 5 [U] (formal) the use of sth (e.g. a power, right, etc.)
- 6 [C] a series of activities by soldiers to practise fighting: military exercises

تدريبات أو مناورات عسكرية

- ? exercise<sup>2</sup> /'eksəsaız/ verb 1 [I] to do some form of physical movement in order to stay fit and healthy: It is important to exercise regularly.
  - يمارس الرياضة البدنيَّة، يتمرَّن
  - 2 [T] to make use of sth (e.g. a power, right, etc.): You should exercise your right to vote.

یمارس، یستخد،

- 'exercise book (US notebook) a small book for students to write their work in
- exert /19'23:t/ verb [T] 1 to make use of sth (e.g. influence, strength, etc.): Parents exert a powerful influence on their children's opinions.
- 2 exert yourself to make an effort: You won't make any progress if you don't exert yourself a bit more.
- exertion /ig'za:ʃn; US-a:rʒn/ noun [C,U] using your body in a way that takes a lot of effort; sth that you do that makes you tired: I'm tired after the exertions of the past few days. At his age physical exertion was dangerous.
- exhale /eks'heil/ verb [I, T] (formal) to breathe out the air or smoke, etc. in your lungs

يزفر، ينفث

- exhaust<sup>1</sup> / (1g'zo:st/ noun 1 [C] a pipe (particularly at the back of a car) through which waste gas escapes from an engine or machine
  - (انبوب) العادم
- ${f 2}$  [U] the waste gas that escapes from an engine or machine الفاز المنطلق من العادم
- exhaust<sup>2</sup> /ig'zɔ:st/ verb [T] 1 to make sb very tired: The long journey to work every morning exhausted him.
- 2 to use sth up completely; to finish sth: All the supplies of food have been exhausted.
- 3 to say everything you can about a subject, etc: Well, I think we've exhausted that topic.
- ينهك الموضوع. لا يترك فيه شيئاً للبحث ► exhausted adj very tired منهك exhausting adj making sb very tired: Teaching young children is exhausting work.
- exhaustion /ɪgˈzɔ:stʃən/ noun [U] great tiredness [بيائه إرهاق: إنهاك

exhaustive → expect exhaustive /ɪgˈzɔ:stɪv/ adj including everything possible: This list is certainly not exhaustive. شامل: کامل

exhibit¹ /ɪgˈzɪbɪt/ noun [C] an object that is shown in a museum, etc.

- Lexhibit<sup>2</sup> /ɪg'zɪbɪt/ verb [T] 1 to show sth to the public: His paintings have been exhibited in the local art gallery.
  - 2 (formal) to show sth (e.g. a feeling or quality):

    The refugees are exhibiting signs of exhaustion, and stress
  - ► exhibitor noun [C] a person who shows his/ her work to the public
- Rexhibition /ˌeksɪˈbɪsə/n/ noun 1 [C] a collection of objects that are shown to the public: an exhibition of photographs o Have you seen the Picasso exhibition? o the National Exhibition Centre in Birmingham (a) Notice the expression on exhibition: Her paintings will be on exhibition in London for the whole of April.
  - 2 [C] an occasion when a particular skill is shown to the public: We saw an exhibition of Scottish dancing last night.
  - 3 [sing.] (formal) the act of showing a quality, feeling, etc: The game was a superb exhibition of football at its best.
  - exhilarate /ig'ziləreit/ verb [T] (usually passive) to make sb feel very happy, excited, etc: We felt exhilarated by our walk along the beach.
  - يبعج: ينعش، بشرح الصار • exhilarating adj • exhilaration /tgˌzɪləˈreɪʃn/ noun [U]

ابتهاج، انتعاش

- exile /'eksaɪl/ noun 1 [U] the state of being forced to live outside your own country (especially for political reasons): He went into exile after the revolution of 1968. They lived in exile in London for many years.
- 2 [C] a person who is forced to live outside his/her own country (especially for political reasons): Trotsky spent his last years as a political exile in Mexico. 2 Look at refugee.

   exile verb [T] (usually passive) to send sb to live in another country (especially for political
- live in another country (especially for political reasons): After the revolution the king was exiled.

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revolution of the king was exiled.**

  **Text of the revo
- Rexist / Ig'zɪst/ verb [I] 1 to be real; to be found in the real world; to live: Does God exist? I don't think that word exists, does it? Fish cannot exist out of water.

  کون له وجود، یوجد: یعیش
  - 2 exist (on sth) to manage to live: I don't know how she exists on the wage she earns.
  - ▶ existing adj (only before a noun) that is already there or being used; present: Under the existing law you are not allowed to work in this country.
- Lexistence /1g'z1stons/ noun 1 [U] the state of existing: This is the oldest human skeleton in existence. The country of Yugoslavia came into existence in 1918.
  - 2 [sing.] a way of living; life: They lead a miserable existence in a tiny flat in London. هیشة، حیاة

- Çexit /'eksit; 'egzit/ noun [C] 1 a door or way out of a public building: an emergency exit
  - 2 the act of leaving sth: When he saw her coming he made a quick exit.  $\circ$  an exit visa (= one that allows you to leave a country)
  - 3 a place where traffic can turn off a motorway, roundabout, etc: At the roundabout take the third exit.
  - ▶ exit verb 1 [I] (formal) to go out or away یخرج؛ ینصرف
  - 2 [I, T] (computing) to finish using a computer program: I exited the database and switched off the computer.
  - exonerate /ɪgˈzɒnəreɪt/ verb [T] (often passive) (formal) to free sb from blame, responsibility etc.
  - exorbitant /ig'zɔ:bitənt/ adj (formal) (used about the cost of sth) much more expensive than it should be
  - exotic /ɪgˈzɒtɪk/ adj unusual or interesting because it comes from a different country or culture: exotic plants, animals, etc.
- Rexpand /ik'spænd/verb [I,T] to become bigger or to make sth bigger: Metals expand when they are heated. We hope to expand our business this year. The opposite is contract.

  THY expand on sth to give more details of a story, plan, point of view, etc.
  - expanse /ik'spæns/ noun [C] a large open area (of land, sea, sky, etc.)
  - expansion /ik'spænʃn/ noun [U] the action of expanding or the state of being expanded: The rapid expansion of the university has caused a lot of problems.
  - expansive /ik'spænsiv/ adj (formal) (used about a person) willing to talk a lot; friendly
  - expatriate /ˌeks'pætriət/ (also informal expat /ˌeks'pæt/) noun [C] a person who lives outside his/her own country
- Rexpect /ik'spekt/ verb [T] 1 to think or believe that sb/sth will come or that sth will happen: She was expecting a letter from the bank this morning but it didn't come. I expect that it will rain this afternoon. He expected it to be hot in Washington and it was. 'I'm really disappointed she forgot my birthday.' 'Well, what did you expect?' (= it's not surprising) She's expecting a baby in the spring (= she's pregnant). D Look at the note at wait!
  - 2 expect sth (from sb); expect sb to do sth to hope that you will get sth from sb or that he/ she will do what you want: He expects a high standard of work from everyone. Factory workers are often expected to work at nights.
  - 3 (not used in the continuous forms) (Brit) (used when you think sth is probably true) to suppose: 'Who's eaten all the biscuits?' 'Oh it was

Tom, I expect.' o 'Will you be able to help me later on?' 'I expect so.'

▶ expectancy /ik'spektansi/ noun [U] the state of expecting sth to happen; hope: a look, feeling, etc. of expectancy. ② Look at life expectancy.

expectant /ik'spektənt/ adj expecting sth good; hopeful: an expectant audience o expectant faces (ع Expectant also means 'pregnant' or 'waiting for a baby': Expectant mothers need a lot of rest.

عتوقع إخيراًا، متطلع: (امرأة) حامل expectantly adv

- [U] the belief that sth will happen: There's no expectation of the weather getting better for some days yet.
  - 2 [C, usually pl.] hope for the future: They had great expectations for their daughter, but she didn't really live up to them.

against/contrary to (all) expectation(s) quite different to what was expected: Contrary to all expectations, Val won first prize.

not come up to (sb's) expectations to be less good than expected: I'm afraid the hotel did not come up to our expectations.

- expedient /ık'spi:diənt/ adj (formal) (used about an action) convenient or helpful for a purpose (but not always good or moral): Before the election the government thought that it was expedient not to increase taxes.
- ▶ expediency /-ənsi/ noun [U]
- expedition /ekspəˈdɪʃn/ noun [C] 1 a long journey for a special purpose: a scientific expedition to Antarctica
- 2 a short journey that you make for pleasure: a shopping expedition
- expel /ik'spel/verb [T] (expelling; expelled) 1 to force sb to leave a country, school, club, etc: The government has expelled all foreign journalists.

  The boy was expelled from school for smoking.
- 2 (formal) to send sth out by force: to expel air from the lungs 3 The noun is expulsion.

ينفث (بقوة)

- expend /ik'spend/ verb [T] (formal) to spend or use money, time, care, etc. in doing sth: I have expended a lot of time and energy on that project.
- ► expendable /-abl/adj (formal) not thought of as important or worth saving: In a war human life is expendable.
- expenditure /ik'spenditso(r)/ noun [U, sing.] (formal) the act of spending or using money, etc.; the amount of money, etc. which is spent: Government expenditure on education is very low. م an expenditure of £2000 إثناق: نقفات أو مصروف
- Rexpense /ik'spens/ noun 1 [C,U] the cost of sth in time or money: Running a car is a great expense. Expense wasn't important when they were deciding where to go on holiday. Note the expressions: at great expense (= at a high cost) and at no expense (= at no cost).

2 expenses [plural] money that is spent for a particular purpose: You can claim back your travelling expenses.

DM at sb's expense 1 with sb paying; at sb's cost: My trip is at the company's expense.

2 against sb, so that he/she looks silly: They were always making jokes at Paul's expense.

at the expense of sth harming or damaging sth: He was a successful businessman, but it was at the expense of his family life.

- Rexpensive /īk'spensīv/ adj costing a lot of money: Houses are very expensive in this area.

  o It's too expensive. ♦ The opposite is inexpensive or cheap.

  ▶ expensively adv
- Rexperience /ik'sprarians/ noun 1 [U] the things that you have done; the knowledge or skill that you get from seeing or doing sth: We all learn by experience. O She has five years' teaching experience. O You need a lot of experience in this job.

o I know from experience what will happen.

2 [C] something that has happened to you (often something unusual or exciting): She wrote a book about her experiences in Africa مادة علمة تحب المادة على المادة experience not to be missed. حادثة هامة، تجرية • experience verb [T] to have experience of sth; to feel: It was the first time I'd ever experience failure. o to experience pleasure, pain, difficulty, etc.

experienced adj having the knowledge or skill that is necessary for sth: He's not a very experienced driver. The opposite is inexperienced.

Rexperiment /ik'speriment/ noun [C,U] a scientific test or trial that is done in order to prove sth or to get new knowledge: Researchers often perform experiments on animals. o It's difficult to do experiments into how people learn languages.

I'm going to try cycling to work – it's just an experiment. We need to prove this theory by experiment.

Pexperiment verb [I] experiment (on sth) / (with sth) to do an experiment or to test: Is it really necessary to experiment on animals?

O We're experimenting with a new timetable this month.

experimental /ik,speri'mentl/ adj connected with experiments or new ideas: We're still at the experimental stage with the new product. و experimental schools experimentally /-tali/ adv

Lexpert /'eksps:t/ noun [C] an expert (at/in/on sth) a person who has special knowledge or skill: He's an expert on the history of rock music. • She's a computer expert. • Let me try – I'm an expert at parking cars in small spaces.

▶ expert adj expert (at/in/on sth) with special knowledge or skill: He's an expert cook. ○ I think we should get expert advice on the problem.

expertly adv

بشكل محترف، بمهارة

استطلاعي: تمهيدي

- expertise /ˌekspɜ:'ti:z/ noun [U] special knowledge or skill: I was amazed at his expertise on the word processor: خبرة، مهارة
- expire /ɪk'spaɪə(r)/ verb [I] (used about sth that only lasts for a certain period of time) to come to the end of the time when you can use it: My passport's expired. I'll have to get it renewed.

نتهي مفعوله

- expiry /ik'spaiəri/ noun [U] the end of a period when you can use sth: The expiry date on this yogurt was 20 November. انتهاء مدة أو مفعول
- Rexplain /ık'spleın/ verb [I.T] 1 to make sth clear or easy to understand: A dictionary explains the meaning of words. She explained how I should fill in the form. Idon't understand this. Can you explain?
  - 2 to give a reason for sth: 'This work isn't very good.' 'I wasn't feeling very well.' 'Oh, that explains it then.' o That explains why she was looking so miserable. o The manager explained to the customers why the goods were late.
- Ç explanation /ˌekspləˈneɪʃn/ noun 1 [U] making sth clear or giving a reason for sth: That idea needs some explanation.
  - 2 [C] something that makes a situation clear or understandable: He could not give a satisfactory explanation for his behaviour.
  - explanatory /ik'splænətri; US-tə:ri/adj giving an explanation: There are some explanatory notes at the back of the book. o Those instructions are self-explanatory (= they don't need explaining).
  - explicable /rk'splikəbl; 'ek-/ adj (formal) (usually used about people's behaviour) that can be explained ① The opposite is inexplicable.
  - explicit /ik'splisit/ adj 1 clear, not making anything difficult to understand: I gave you explicit instructions not to touch anything. She was quite explicit about her feelings on the subject.
  - 2 not hiding anything: Some of the sex scenes in that TV play were very explicit.
  - ► explicitly adv: He was explicitly forbidden to stay out later than midnight.
- ? explode /rk'spləud/ verb [I,T] to burst with a loud noise: The bomb exploded without warning.

   The bomb was taken away and the army exploded it at a safe distance from the houses. (figurative) My father exploded (= became very angry) when I told him how much the car would cost to repair. ❸ The noun is explosion.

ينفجر؛ يفجُر sth or to

- exploit¹ /ik'sploit/ verb [T] 1 to use sth or to treat sb unfairly or selfishly: This region has been exploited for oil for fifty years.
- 2 to develop sth or make the best use of sth: Solar energy is a source of power that needs to be exploited more fully.
- ▶ exploitation /,eksplor'ter∫n/ noun [U] exploit-

- ing or being exploited: They're only paying £3 an hour? That's exploitation!
- exploit² /'eksploit/ noun [C] a brave or adventurous action عمل بطولي، مفامرة
- Rexplore /ik'splɔ:(r)/ verb [1.T] to travel around a place, etc. in order to learn about it: They went on an expedition to explore the River Amazon. o I've never been to Paris before I'm going out to explore. o (figurative) We need to explore (= look carefully at) all the possibilities before we decide.
  - > exploration /eksplə'reı∫n/ noun [C,U] the act of exploring: space exploration exploratory /tk'splorati; US -tɔ:rı/ adj done in order to find sth out: The doctors are doing some exploratory tests to try and find out what's
  - explorer noun [C] a person who travels round a place in order to find out about it
- Rexplosion /ik'spləuʒn/ noun [C] the sudden and violent bursting and loud noise that happen when sth like a bomb explodes: The explosion may have been caused by a gas leak. o (figurative) the population explosion (= the sudden increase in the number of people in a country or in the world)
  - explosive /ik'splausiv/ adj 1 capable of exploding and therefore dangerous: Hydrogen is extremely explosive.
  - 2 causing strong feelings or having dangerous effects: The situation is explosive. We must do all we can to calm people down.

    ▶ explosive noun [C] a substance that can explode: Dynamite and TNT are powerful explo
- Rexport¹ /ɪk'spɔ:t/ verb [I,T] 1 to send goods, etc. to another country, usually for sale: India exports tea and cotton.
  - 2 (computing) to move information from one program to another ينقل مادة من برنامج إلى آخر exporter noun [C] a person, firm or country that exports goods: Which country is the largest exporter of electronic goods? ♠ The opposites are
- lexport<sup>2</sup> /'ekspo:t/ noun 1 [U] sending goods to another country for sale: Most of our goods are produced for export. o the export trade import, importer.

- 2 [C, usually pl.] something that is sent to another country for sale: What are the main exports of Brazil? The opposite is import.
- Lexpose /ik'spouz/ verb [T] 1 to make it possible to see sth that is usually hidden: The rocks are exposed at low tide.
  - 2 to put sb/sth or yourself in a situation that could be difficult or dangerous: Thousands of people were exposed to radiation when the nuclear reactor exploded.
  - 3 to make public the truth about a bad person or situation: This is an injustice which needs to be exposed.
  - 4 (in photography) to allow light to reach the يعرض film by opening the shutter of the camera

- 5 expose sb to sth to give sb the chance to experience sth: I like jazz because I was exposed to it as a child. يتعرّف على؛ يتعرّض
- ▶ exposed adj (used about a place) not protected from the wind and bad weather

(مكان) مكشوف، معرض للعوامل الطبيعية

- exposure /ik'spayaa(r)/ noun 1 [U] being affected or influenced by sth: Exposure to radiation is almost always harmful. تعرض
- 2 [U] a harmful condition when a person becomes very cold because he/she has been outside in very bad weather: The climbers all died of التعرض للعوامل الجوية القاسية exposure.
- 3 [C,U] the act of making sth public; the thing that is made public: The minister resigned because of the exposures about his private life. كَشُف، فَضْح؛ الخفايا المفضوحة
- publicity: The President's visit has been given a دعاية اعلاميّة lot of exposure in the media.
- 5 [C] the amount of film that is exposed(4) when you take one photograph: How many exposures are there on this film? (= how many photographs can I take?)
- ? express / ik'spres/ verb [T] 1 to show sth such as a feeling or an opinion by words or actions: I found it very hard to express what I felt about
  - 2 express yourself to speak or write: I don't think she expresses herself very well in that article. يفصح عن رأيه
- Lexpress<sup>2</sup> /ik'spres/ adj (only before a noun) 1 going or sent quickly: an express letter o an express coach
  - 2 (used about a wish, command, etc.) clearly and openly stated: It was her express wish that he should have the picture after her death.
  - صريح، وأضح ▶ express adv by a special service that does sth faster than usual: We'd better send the parcel express if we want it to get there on time.
  - (بالبريد) السريع expressly adv 1 clearly; definitely: I expressly بشكل واضح told you not to eat in the classroom.
  - 2 for a special purpose; specially: These scissors are expressly designed for left-handed people.
  - express 3 /ik'spres/ (also express train) noun { extent /ik'stent/ noun [U] the length, area or size [C] a fast train that does not stop at all stations
- Rexpression /ik'spre [n/ noun 1 [C] a number of words that belong together: You haven't quite got the right expression here. o a slang expression o 'I'm starving' is an expression meaning 'I'm عبارة، تعبير very hungry'.
  - 2 [C] the look on a person's face that shows what he/she is thinking or feeling: He had a puzzled expression on his face.
  - 3 [C,U] putting feelings or thoughts into words or actions; an example of doing this: Freedom of expression (= freedom to say what you think) is a basic human right. o These flowers are an expression of our gratitude. o She read the poem with great expression (= showing feeling for the meaning of it). الإفصاح عن المشاعر، تعبير

- expressive /1k'spresiv/ adj showing feelings or thoughts: That is a very expressive piece of
- ▶ expressively adv
- ex'pressway noun [C] (US) = MOTORWAY
- expulsion /1k'spalsn/ noun [C,U] making sb leave a place or an institution (when he/she does not want to go): There have been three expulsions from school this year. The verb is expel.

طَرُد، إخراج

- exquisite /ık'skwızıt/ adj very beautiful and pleasing: She has an exquisite face. o I think that ring is exauisite.
- 4 [U] attention from newspapers, television, etc.; ?extend /ik'stend/ verb 1 [T] to make sth longer or larger (in space or time): They are planning to extend the motorway as far as Fishguard. O Could you extend your visit for a few days? O We're going to extend the sitting room. يمد، يطيل، يوسع
  - 2 [I] (usually used about space, land, time, etc.) to continue or stretch: How far does your garden extend? o This project will extend well into next
  - 3 [T] to stretch out a part of the body: She extended her hand to her new colleague.
  - 4 [T] (formal) to offer or give sth (such as an invitation or a welcome): The whole town extended a warm welcome to the president.
  - Lextension /ik'sten∫n/ noun [C] 1 a part which is added to a building: They've just opened the hospital extension.
    - 2 an extra period of time that is given to you by an official: I've applied for an extension to my work permit.
    - 3 (abbr ext.) a telephone that is connected to a central phone in a house or to a central point (switchboard) in a large office building: What's your extension number? o Can I have extension تليفون فرعي 4342, please?
  - Lextensive /ik'stensiv/ adj large in area or amount: The house has extensive grounds, o Most of the buildings suffered extensive damage.
    - ▶ extensively adv

سع؛ واسع النطاق على نطأق واسع

- of sth: From the roof we could see the full extent of the park. o I was amazed at the extent of his knowledge. o The full extent of the damage is not yet مدی، امتداد
- to a certain/to some extent (words used to show that sth is only partly true): I agree with you to a certain extent but there are still a lot of points I disagree with. Ĺ
- to what extent how far: I'm not sure to what extent I believe her. إلى أي حد
- exterior /ik'stiəriə(r)/ adj on the outside: the exterior walls of a house 1 The opposite is inter-خارجى ior.

▶ exterior noun [C] the appearance of sb/sth; the outside of sth: The exterior of the house is fine but inside it isn't in very good condition.

exterminate /ik'sta:mineit/ verb [T] to kill a large group of people or animals يبيد، يقضى على ▶ extermination /ɪkˌstɜːmɪˈneɪʃn/ noun [U] external /ik'sta:nl/ adj 1 connected with the outside of sth: The cream is for external use only (= to be used on the skin).

2 coming from another place: You will be tested by an external examiner. 16 The opposite is خارجي، (ممتحِن) من جامعة أخرى extinct /ik'stinkt/ adj 1 (used about a type of animal, plant, etc.) no longer existing: Tigers are {extraordinary /ik'stro:dnri; US -dəneri/ adj منقرض، باند nearly extinct in the wild.

2 (used about a volcano) no longer active (بركان) خامد

▶ extinction /ik'stink[n/ noun [U]: The panda is in danger of extinction.

extinguish /ik'stingwis/ verb [T] (formal) to cause sth to stop burning: The fire was extinguished very quickly. o The stewardess asked everybody to extinguish their cigarettes. 6 A less formal expression is put out.

▶ extinguisher noun [C] = FIRE EXTINGUISHER

extort /ik'sto:t/ verb [T] extort sth (from sb) to get sth by using threats, violence, etc. ىت; أ:

▶ extortion /ik'sto:∫n/ noun [U]

extortionate /ik'sto:fənət/ adj (used about demands, prices, etc.) too great or high: Three pounds for a cup of coffee? That's extortionate! ابتزازي، (سعر) فاحش

Lextra /'ekstrə/ adj, adv more than is usual: I'll need some extra money for the holidays. o The football match went into extra time. o 'What size is this pullover?' 'Extra large.' o The meal costs £10 and drinks are extra.  $\circ$  They charge £1 extra if you want to reserve a seat. o I tried to be extra nice to him yesterday because it was his birth إضافيّ: أكثر من المعتاد

▶ extra noun [C] 1 something that is or costs extra: Optional extras such as colour printer, scanner and modem are available on top of the علاوة، رسم اضافي basic package.

2 a person in a film, etc. who has a small unimportant part, for example in a crowd ممثل يقوم بدور تافه جداً، "كمبارس"

extract /ik'strækt/ verb [T] to take or get sth out (with force or difficulty): I think this tooth will have to be extracted. o I wasn't able to extract an apology from her. يقتلع، ينتزع؛ يستخرج extract /'ekstrækt/ noun [C] a part of a book, piece of music, etc. An extract has often been specially chosen to show sth: We're reading extracts from modern British novels this term.

extraction /ik'stræksn/ noun 1 [U] the act of استخراج taking or getting sth out p pen

2 [C] the removal of a tooth

اقتلاع، خلع

3 [U] (formal) family origin: He's an American but he's of Italian extraction.

extra-curricular / ekstra ka'rıkjala(r)/ adj not part of the normal course of studies (curriculum) in a school or college: The school offers many extra-curricular activities such as sport, music, drama, etc.

(نشاط مدرسي) ليس جزءاً من المنهج الدراسي المقرر extradite /'ekstradait/ verb [T] to send a person who may be guilty of a crime from the country in which he/she is living to the country which wants to try him/her for the crime: The suspected terrorists were captured in Spain and extradited يسلم مجرماً فاراً إلى دولته to France.

ightharpoonup extradition /,ekstra'dı $\int$ n/ noun [C,U]

نسليم محرم فار إلى دولته

1 very unusual: She had an extraordinary ability to learn new languages.

2 very strange (and not what you would expect in a particular situation): That was extraordinary behaviour for a teacher! غر مألوف، غریب ▶ extraordinarily /ik'stro:dnrəli; US -dənerəli/

adv: He was an extraordinarily talented musi-بشكل خارق extravagant /ik'strævəgənt/ adj 1 spending or costing too much money: He's terribly extravagant - he never looks at the price of anything. o an extravagant present مىڭر؛ مفرط

2 (used about ideas, behaviour, etc.) not controlled, not realistic: The advertisements made extravagant claims for the new medicine

▶ extravagance /-gəns/ noun [C,U]

إسراف، تبذير بِإسراف؛ بشكل مبالغ فيه extravagantly adv

?extreme /ik'stri:m/ adj 1 (used about a person and his/her political opinions) not usual or moderate: She holds extreme views on immigration. o the extreme left/right 6 This word is used in a disapproving way. متط ف

2 (only before a noun) the greatest or strongest possible: You must take extreme care when driving at night.

3 (only before a noun) as far away as possible; at the very beginning or at the very end: Kerry is in the extreme West of Ireland.

▶ extreme noun [C] something that is completely different from or opposite to sth else: Alex used to be very shy but now she's gone to the opposite extreme.

extremely adv very extremity /ik'stremati/ noun [C] (pl. extrem-ط, ف، نهاية ities) the furthest point of sth extreme 'sport noun [C] a very dangerous sport or activity which some people do for fun extremist /ik'stri:mist/ noun [C] a person who has extreme (1) political opinions ▶ extremism noun [U]

extricate /'ekstrikeit/ verb [T] to free sb/sth/ yourself from a difficult situation or position: I finally managed to extricate myself from the meeting by saying that I had a train to catch.

يخلص (من مأزق)

extrovert /'ekstrəva:t/ noun [C] a person who is lively and cheerful and who prefers being with other people to being alone ⊕ The opposite is introvert.

exuberant /ɪgˈzjuːbərənt; US -ˈzuː-/ adj (used about a person and his/her behaviour) full of energy and excitement

حيويَّة، بِشْر ومَرَح | exuberance /-rəns/ noun [U]

Reye¹/aɪ/noun [C] 1 one of the two organs of the body that we use to see with: She opened/closed her eyes. ○ He is blind in one eye. ○ She's got blue eyes. ○ an eye operation

If somebody hits you on the eye you might get a black eye. When you close both eyes very quickly and open them again you blink. To close one eye quickly and open it again is to wink.

2 the power of seeing: He has sharp eyes (= he can see very well). • She has an eye for detail (= she notices small details).

3 the part at one end of a needle that the thread passes through be up to your eyes in sth (informal) to have more of sth than you can easily do or manage: I can't come out with you tonight - I'm up to my eyes in work.

cast an eye/your eye(s) over sb/sth → CAST<sup>2</sup> catch sb's attention/eye → CATCH<sup>1</sup>

in the eyes of sb/in sb's eyes in the opinion of sb: She was still a child in her mother's eyes.

keep an eye on sb/sth to make sure that sb/sth is safe; to look after sb/sth: Please could you keep an eye on the house while we are away? پراتب يرغى

keep an eye open/out (for sb/sth) to watch or look out for sb/sth: I've lost my ring - could you keep an eye out for it?

the naked eye → NAKED see eye to eye with sb to agree with sb; to have the same opinion as sb: We're good friends but we don't always see eye to eye on political set eyes on sb/sth → SET<sup>2</sup> turn a blind eye → BLIND<sup>1</sup> with your eyes open knowing what you are doing: He married her with his eyes open so he can't complain now.

eye² /aı/ verb [T] (pres part eyeing or eying; pt, pp eyed) to look at sb/sth closely: She eyed him with suspicion.

eyeball /ˈaɪbɔːl/ noun [C] the whole of the eye (including the part which is hidden inside the head) العين، مقلة العين

eyebrow /'arbrav/ (also brow) noun [C] the line of hair that is above your eye: to pluck your eyebrows

IDM raise your eyebrows → RAISE1

'eye-catching adj (used about a thing) attracting your attention immediately because it is interesting, bright or pretty eyeglasses /'aɪglɑ:sɪz; US -glæsɪz/ noun [plural] (US) = GLASSES eyelash /'aɪlæʃ/ (also lash) noun [C] one of the hairs that grow on the edges of your eyelids

هُدب، رَمش

'eye level adj level with sb's eyes when he/she is standing up: an eye-level grill على مستوى البصر

eyelid /ˈaɪlɪd/ (also lid) noun [C] the piece of skin that can move to close your eye

DM not bat an eyelid → BAT³ eye-opener noun [C] something that makes you realize the truth about sth: That television programme about the inner cities was a real eye-opener.

eyeshadow /'aiʃædəʊ/ noun [U] colour that is put on the skin above the eyes to make them look more attractive علل (لتحميل العبون) eyesight /ˈaɪsaɪt/ noun [U] the ability to see: good/poor eyesight eyesore /ˈaɪsɔ:(r)/ noun [C] something that is ugly and unpleasant to look at: All this litter in the streets is a real eyesore.

eyewitness /'aɪwɪtnəs/ noun [C] = wɪɪness (1)

Ff

يوافق في الراي

F, f/ef/noun [C] (pl. Fs; F's; F's) the sixth letter of the English alphabet: 'Father' begins with (an) 'F'.
العرف السادس من الابجدية الاتكليزية

Fabbrev = Fahrenheit

matters.

f (also fem) abbrev = FEMALE; FEMININE fable /'feibl/ noun [C] a short story that teaches a lesson (a moral) and that often has animals as speaking characters: Aesop's fables

أقصوصة ذات مغزى تروى على ألسنة الحيوان fabric /ˈfæbrɪk/ noun 1 [C,U] (a type of) cloth: cotton fabrics

2 [sing.] the walls, floor, roof, etc. (of a building):

fabulous → fact

The fabric of the church is in need of repair. o (figurative) The Industrial Revolution changed the fabric (= the basic structure) of society.

بنية، بنيان

fabulous /'fæbjələs/adj 1 (informal) very good; excellent: It was a fabulous concert. رائع، ممتاز

2 (used about beauty, wealth, etc.) very great أسطوريُّ؛ هائل facade /fə'sa:d/ noun [C] 1 the front wall of a large building that you see from the outside

2 something that gives you the wrong impres-

- sion about a situation: His good humour was just مظهر خارجي a facade.
- Lface / feis/ noun [C] 1 the front part of your head; the expression on it: Go and wash your face. She has a very pretty face.
   He came in with a smile on his face. o the children's happy faces
  - 2 the front or one side of sth: the north face of the mountain o He put the cards face up/down on the وجه: وأجهة: سطح table, o a clock face

face to face (with sb/sth) close to and looking at sb/sth: She turned the corner and came face to face with the headmaster. وجهأ لوجه

keep a straight face → STRAIGHT1 lose face → LOSE

make/pull faces/a face (at sb/sth) to make an expression that shows that you dislike sb/sth: When she saw what was for dinner she pulled a تعبير على الوجه ينم عن الاستياء، يكشّر face.

make/pull faces to make rude expressions with your face: The children made faces behind يسخر منه بحركات على وجهه the teacher's back.

save face → SAVE to sb's face openly and directly: I wanted to say that I was sorry to her face, not on the phone. The opposite is behind sb's back.

- مواجهة، وجهاً لوجه ▶ faceless adj without individual character: faceless civil servants
- Liface2 /feis/ verb [T] 1 to have or turn the face or front towards sb/sth: The garden faces south. o Can you all face the front, please? o Turn round and face the camera.
  - 2 to have to deal with sth unpleasant; to deal with sb in a difficult situation: They faced a lot of problems when they moved house. o I can't face another argument. o He couldn't face going to work yesterday - he felt too ill. o I didn't know how to face my mother after I'd crashed her car.
  - 3 to need attention from sb: Several problems face the government. O There are several problems facing the government. يجابه، يواحه
  - 4 (often passive) to force somebody to deal with a situation, etc: We are faced with a difficult يتصدي ا، يجابه

let's face it (informal) we must accept it as \fract /fact /fact / fact / four 1 [C] something that you know true: Let's face it, your spelling is terrible.

لنعترف بالواقع PHRV face up to sth to accept a difficult or unpleasant situation and do sth about it: She faced up to the fact that she had no money and went out and got a job.

▶ -faced (in compounds) with a particular type of face: red-faced facecloth /'feiskloθ/ (also flannel) (US washcloth) noun [C] a small square towel that is used for washing the face, hands, etc.

فوطة صغيرة لتنظيف الوجه facelift /'ferslift/ noun [C] a medical operation عملية شد الوجه that makes your face look younger

'face-saving adj done to stop yourself looking silly or losing other people's respect: In his interview, the captain made face-saving excuses for his حافظ للكّرامة، حافظ لمّاء الوجه team's defeat.

facet /'fæsit/ noun [C] 1 one part of sth: There are many facets to this argument (= points that must be considered).

2 one side of a precious stone

سطيح أو وحيه في جوهرة

facetious /fəˈsiːʃəs/ adj trying to be amusing at an unsuitable time or about an unsuitable subject: He kept making facetious remarks during سخيف، (تعليق) هزليّ في غير محلّه the lecture. بسخف، مداعباً دعابة سخيفة

▶ facetiously adv face 'value noun [C,U] the cost or value that is shown on stamps, coins, etc. قيمة، (طابع مثلاً) من فتة...

IDM take sb/sth at (its, his, etc.) face value to accept sb/sth as it, he, etc. appears to be: Don't take his story at face value. There is something he hasn't told us yet.

(يقبل الشيء) على علاته، كما يبدو في الظاهر

facial /'feisl/ adj of or for the face: a facial expres-

▶ facial noun a beauty treatment in which a person's face is cleaned using creams, steam, etc. in order to improve the quality of the skin معالجة تجميلية للوجه facile /'fæsail: US 'fæsl/ adi (used about a remark, argument, etc.) not carefully thought facilitate /fə'sılıteit/ verb [T] (formal) to make sth possible or easier

Lifacility /fə'sɪləti/ noun (pl. facilities) 1 facilities [plural] a service, building, piece of equipment, etc. that makes it possible to do sth: Our town has excellent sports facilities (e.g. a stadium, swimming pool, etc.). o The room was nice but there were no cooking facilities.

تسهيلات؛ معدّات؛ وسائل

2 [C] an extra feature that a machine, etc. may وسيلة؛ امكانية have: a facility for checking spelling facsimile /fæk'sıməli/ noun [C,U] an exact copy of a picture, piece of writing, etc. 2 Look at نسخة طبق الأصل has happened or is true: It is a scientific fact that light travels faster than sound. O We need to know all the facts before we can decide. O I know for a fact that Peter wasn't ill yesterday. O The fact that

279

I am older than you makes no difference at all. o You must face facts and accept that he has حقيقة، أمر واقع

2 [U] true things; reality: The film is based on fact. 1 The opposite is fiction. حقائق، وقائع

IDM as a matter of fact → MATTER1

the fact (of the matter) is (that)... the truth is that ...: I would love a car, but the fact is that I just واقع ألأمر can't afford one.

facts and figures (informal) detailed information: Before we make a decision, we need some more facts and figures. معلومات، تفاصيل

the facts of life the details of sexual behaviour and how babies are born

حقائق الحياة؛ الحقائق المتعلقة بالجنس والحمل وغير ذلك

hard facts → HARD1

in (actual) fact 1 (used for emphasizing that sth is true) really; actually: I thought the lecture would be boring but in actual fact it was rather في الحقيقة، في الواقع

2 (used for introducing more detailed information): It was cold. In fact it was freezing.

faction /'fæk[n/ noun 1 [C] a small group within a larger one that opposes some of its beliefs or activities: rival factions within the govern-فئة معارضة

2 [U] films, programmes, plays, books, etc. that combine real events with fiction

عمل فني يمزج الحقيقة والخيال

- ? factor /'fæktə(r)/ noun [C] 1 one of the things that influences a decision, situation, etc: economic factors o His unhappiness at home was a major factor in his decision to go abroad. عامل، عنصر
  - 2 (in mathematics) a whole number (except 1) by which a larger number can be divided: 2, 3, 4 and 6 are factors of 12.
- ? factory /'fæktri/ (pl. factories) noun [C] a large building or group of buildings where goods are manufactured or put together in large quantities (by machine): a car factory ∘ factory workers معمل، مصنع factual /'fæktʃuəl/ adj based on or containing facts: a factual account of the events 2 Look at fic-faculty /'fæklti/ (pl. faculties) noun [C] 1 one of the natural abilities of a person's body or mind: ملكة، مقدرة the faculty of hearing, sight, etc.

2 (also Faculty) one department in a univer-كلية، قسم sity, college, etc: the Faculty of Law

The Faculty can also mean the teaching staff of a university or college department and is then used with either a singular or a plural verb: The Faculty has/have been invited to the meeting.

fad /fæd/ noun [C] (informal) a fashion, interest, etc, that will probably not last long

ميل عابر، "صرعة" أو "موضة" لاتدوم fade /feid/ verb 1 [I] to become lighter in colour or less strong or fresh: Jeans fade when you wash them. o The sun was setting and the light was fading fast. يُبهت، يَخفت، يخبو

- 2 [T] to make sth fade: Look how the sun has faded these curtains. يذبل، يبهت (اللون)
- 3 [I] fade (away) to disappear slowly (from sight, hearing, memory, etc.): The cheering of the crowd faded away. o The smile faded from his يتلاشى، يَذبل faeces (US feces) /fi:si:z/ noun [plural] (formal) solid waste matter that is passed from the body through the bowels & Faeces is used mainly in a medical context. Look at excrement. براز، غائط fag /fæg/ noun 1 [C] (Brit slang) a cigarette

- 2 [sing.] (informal) a piece of work that you do not want to do: I've got to wash the car. What a
- Fahrenheit /'færənhait/ noun [U] (abbr F) the name of a scale which measures temperatures: Water freezes at 32° Fahrenheit (32°F). 3 Look at
- على الأصحُ، بالأحرى Yfail /feɪl/ verb 1 [I,T] to be unsuccessful in sth: She failed her driving test. o I feel that I've failed - I'm 29 and I still haven't got a steady job. 3 Look at pass and succeed. يفشل، يُخفق
  - 2 [T] (used about an examiner, etc.) to decide that sb is unsuccessful in a test, examination, etc: The examiners failed half of the candidates. • The opposite is pass.
  - 3 [I] fail to do sth to not do sth: Jimmy failed to arrive on time. O She never fails to do her يعجز عن، يقصر، يتخلف homework.
  - 4 [I,T] to not be enough or not do what people are expecting or wanting: If the crops fail, people will starve. o I think the government has failed يخذل، يتخلّى عن؛ يفشل
  - 5 [I] (used about health, eyesight, etc.) to become weak: His health is failing.
  - 6 [I] to stop working: My brakes failed on the hill but I managed to stop the car.
  - ▶ fail noun [C] a failure in an examination 1 The opposite is a pass.

IPM without fail always, even if there are difficulties: The postman always comes at 8 o'clock without fail. بكلّ تأكيد؛ دوماً وبدون تقصير

failing1 /'ferlin/ noun [C] a weakness or fault: She's not very patient - that's her only failing. نقطة ضعف، عيب failing<sup>2</sup> /'feɪlɪŋ/ prep if sth is not possible: Ask Jackie to go with you, or failing that, try Anne. في حال عدم حدوث...، إنَّ لم...

? failure /'feɪljə(r)/ noun 1 [U] lack of success: All my efforts ended in failure. فشل، إخفاق

2 [C] a person or thing that is unsuccessful: I was a failure as a mother. o His first attempt at ice skating was a miserable failure.

شخص فاشل؛ خائب

- 3 [C,U] failure to do sth not doing sth that people expect you to do: I was very disappointed تخلّف، تقصير at his failure to come to the meeting.
- 4 [C,U] an example of sth not working or functioning properly: She died of heart failure.

There's been a failure in the power supply.
 غطل: قصور: سكتة (قلبية)

- Rfaint /femt/ adj 1 (used about things that you can see, hear, feel, etc.) not strong or clear: a faint light in the distance o They heard a faint cry, then there was silence. o There is still a faint hope that they will find more people alive.
  - 2 (used about people) on the point of losing consciousness; very weak: I feel faint I'd better sit down.
  - 3 (used about actions, etc.) done without much effort: He made a faint protest.

not have the faintest/foggiest (idea) not to know at all: I haven't the faintest idea where they've gone.

- ▶ faint verb [I] to lose consciousness: She fainted from shock and loss of blood.
- Pfair¹ /feə(r)/ adj 1 fair (to/on sb) treating each person or side equally, according to the law or the rules, etc: That's not fair he got the same number of mistakes as I did and he's got a better mark. o It wasn't fair on her to ask her to stay so late. o a fair trial
  - 2 right, according to what people generally accept as right: That's a fair price for that house, I think. I think it's fair to say that the number of homeless people is increasing.
  - 3 quite good, large, etc: They have a fair chance of success. It is a fair-sized house.
  - 4 (used about the skin or hair) light in colour: We think of Germans as having fair hair but a lot of them are dark.
  - 5 (used about the weather) good, without rain

(طقر) صحر (طقر) صحر fair play equal treatment of both/all sides according to the rules: The referee is there to ensure fair play during the match.

منصف، مراع للشروط والانظمة (more than) your fair share of sth (more than) the usual or expected amount of sth: We've had more than our fair share of trouble this year.

▶ fairness noun [U] the state or quality of being fair عدل، إنصاف

fair² /feə(r)/ adv in a fair way: You must play fair in all team games.

The fair enough (used for showing that you agree with what sh has suggested): 'Td rather go on Sunday, if that's all right with you.' 'Fair enough, Sunday is fine.'

fair³ /feə(r)/ noun [C] 1 (also funfair) a public entertainment which is held outside. At a fair you can ride on machines or try and win prizes at games. Fairs usually travel from town to town.

2 a large exhibition of commercial or industrial goods: a trade fair o the Frankfurt book fair fairground /'feagraund/ noun [C] a large outdoor area where fairs<sup>3</sup>(1) are held

أرض يقام عليها معرض أو سوق

- fair-'haired adj with light-coloured or blond, hair شقر
- Learny feeli/adv 1 in a fair (1) way: I felt that the teacher didn't treat us fairly. The opposite is unfairly.
  - 2 quite, not very: He is fairly tall. We must leave fairly soon. Look at the note at rather.
  - fairy /ˈfeəri/ noun [C] (pl. fairies) (in stories) a small creature with magical powers
- 'fairy story noun [C] (pl. fairy stories) (also 'fairy tale) a story that is about fairies, magic, etc: Grimm's fairy tales
- R faith /fei\theta/ noun 1 [U] faith (in sb/sth) strong belief (in sb/sth); trust: I've got great faith in your ability to do the job (= I'm sure that you can do it).

  I have lost faith in him.
  - 2 [U] strong religious belief: I've lost my faith.
  - 3 [C] a religion: the Christian faith

    IDM in good faith with honest reasons for doing sth: I bought the car in good faith. I didn't know it was stolen.
- Rfaithful /ˈfenθfl/ adj 1 not changing; loyal: Peter has been a faithful friend. o He was always faithful to his wife (= he didn't have sexual relations with anyone else). The opposite is unfaithful.
  - ${f 2}$  true to the facts; accurate: a faithful description deligible by the facts; accurate:  ${f a}$
  - ▶ faithfully /-fəli/ adv ♠ Yours faithfully is used to end formal letters.

المخلص (تستعمل في نهاية الرسائل الرسمية في الانكليزيّة) إخلاص، وفاء [U] faithfulness noun fake /ferk/ noun [C] 1 a work of art, etc. that seems to be real or genuine but is not: That's not a real diamond necklace. It's just a fake!

شيء مزيف: زيف

- 2 a person who pretends to be sb/sth else in order to deceive people
- fake adj not real or genuine: a fake passport
- fake verb [T] 1 to copy sth in order to deceive people: He faked his father's signature.
- 2 to pretend that you are feeling sth that you are not: I faked surprise when he told me the news. بلفّق: يتظاهر ب falafel (also felafel) /fəˈlæfl/ noun [U,C] (pl. falafel or falafels) a Middle Eastern dish consisting of small balls formed from crushed chickpeas, usually eaten with flat bread; one of these balls falcon /'fo:lken; US 'fælken/ noun [C] a small bird of the type that kills and eats other animals (a bird of prey). Falcons can be trained to hunt.

fall¹ /fo:l/ verb [i] (pt fell /fel/; pp fallen /'fo:lən/)
1 to drop down towards the ground: He fell off the ladder onto the grass. o Don't walk along that wall - you might fall. o Autumn came and the خاطىء؛ كاذب

leaves started to fall. o The rain was falling stead-يسقط، يقع

- 2 fall (down/over) to suddenly stop standing: She slipped on the ice and fell. o The little boy fell over and hurt his knee. يسقط، يهوي
- 3 (formal) to come or happen: My birthday falls on a Sunday this year. o In the word 'interesting' the stress falls on the first syllable. يقع؛ يصادف
- 4 to hang down: Her hair fell down over her shoulders. يتدلى
- 5 to become lower or less: The temperature is falling. o The price of coffee has fallen again. When he heard the bad news, his spirits fell (=
- 6 to be killed (in battle): Millions of soldiers fell in the Second World War. يخر (صريعاً)
- 7 to be defeated: The Government fell because of
- 8 to change into a different state; to become: He fell asleep on the sofa.  $\circ$  They fell in love with each other in Spain. o I must get some new shoes these ones are falling to pieces. يصبح؛ يقع (في الحب)
- 9 to belong to a particular group, type, etc: Animals fall into two groups, those with backbones and those without. يقع: يصنف

IDM fall flat → FLAT3

fall in love → LOVE1

fall short (of sth) → SHORT2

PHRV fall apart to break (into pieces): My car is يتداعى؛ يصبح خرباً أو مهترناً falling apart.

fall back on sb/sth to use sb/sth when you are in difficulty: When the electricity was cut off we يلجأ أو يعمد إلى fell back on candles.

fall for sb (informal) to fall in love with sb يغرم بِ، يقع في حبّه fall for sth (informal) to be tricked into believing sth that is not true: He makes excuses and she falls for them every time.

fall out (with sb) to quarrel or fight (with sb) يتخاصم يتشاجر fall through to fail or not happen: Our trip to Japan has fallen through. يفشل؛ يلغى

- [C] an act of falling (1, 2): She had a nasty fall from her horse. كبوة، سقطة
  - 2 [C] a fall (of sth) the amount of sth that has fallen or the distance that sth has fallen: We have  $had\ a\ heavy\ fall\ of\ snow. \circ\ a\ fall\ of\ four\ metres$ كمية (المطر) الهاطلة؛ مسافة السقوط
  - has been a sharp fall in the price of oil.  $\ensuremath{\bullet}$  The opposite is rise. انخفاض، هبوط
  - 4 [sing.] the fall of sth a (political) defeat: the fall of the Roman Empire انهار ، سقوط
  - 5 [C, usually pl.] a waterfall: Niagara Falls شلاًلات؛ شلاّل

 $fall^3/fo:1/nounC = AUTUMN: I visited Europe$ in the fall of 1963.

fallacy /'fæləsi/ noun (pl. fallacies) [C,U] (formal) a false or mistaken belief or argument: It's a fallacy to believe that money brings happiness (= it's not true). فكرة خاطئة، مُغالطة fallen pp of FALL<sup>1</sup>

- fallible /'fæləbl/ adj able or likely to make mistakes: Even our new computerized system is fallinfallible. A The opposite is عرضة للخطأ، غير معصوم
- fallout /'fo:laut/ noun [U] radioactive waste matter that is carried in the air after a nuclear explo-الغبار الذري
- Ifalse /fo:ls/ adj 1 not true; incorrect: Bucharest is the capital of Romania - true or false? o I think the information you have been given is false.
  - 2 not real; artificial: false hair, eyelashes, etc. اصطناعي؛ مستعار
  - 3 based on wrong information or belief: I got a completely false impression of him from our first meeting.
  - 4 made or done incorrectly in order to deceive people: This suitcase has a false bottom. o a false مزيف؛ مزور
  - 5 not faithful; not loyal: a false friend

خادع، لايؤتمن IDM a false alarm a warning about a danger that does not happen on/under false pretences pretending to be or to have sth in order to deceive people: She got into the club under false pretences - she isn't a member at all!

false 'teeth (also dentures) noun [plural] teeth that are made of plastic, etc., worn by a person who has lost his/her natural teeth

- falsify /'fɔ:lsıfai/ verb [T] (pres part falsifying; 3rd pers sing pres falsifies; pt, pp falsified) (formal) to change a document, information, etc. in order to deceive other people يزور، يزيف
- falter /'fo:ltə(r)/ verb [I] 1 to become weak or move in a weak, unsteady way: As she began to speak her voice faltered. o The engine faltered ىتعقر؛ يتداعى and stopped.
- 2 to lose confidence and hesitate: Roddick faltered and missed the ball. يتردد؛ يتلعثم
- Lifame /feim/ noun [U] being known or talked about by many people: Pop stars achieve fame at a voung age.
  - ▶ famed adj well-known (for sth): Welsh people are famed for their singing. 3 Look at famous, which is the more usual word.
- 3 [C] a decrease (in value, quantity, etc.): There \frac{ramiliar}{fa'milia(r)} adj 1 (not before a noun) familiar with sth having a good knowledge of sth: People in Europe aren't very familiar with Chinese music. عليم، ذو إلمام
  - 2 familiar (to sb) well-known (to sb): Chinese music isn't very familiar to people in Europe. O It was a relief to see a familiar face in the crowd. مألوف، معروف
  - The opposite for senses 1 and 2 is unfamiliar.
  - 3 too friendly and informal: I was annoyed by the waiter's familiar behaviour.
  - ▶ familiarity /fəˌmɪli'ærəti/ noun [U] 1 good knowledge of sth: His familiarity with the area was an advantage. معرفة (بالشيء)؛ اطَّلاع َ
  - رفع الكُلفة 2 being too triendly and informal

familiarize → fantasize

familiarize (also familiarise) /fəˈmɪliəraɪz/verb [T] to inform sb/yourself about sth: I want to familiarize myself with the plans before the meeting.
پتعرف على معالم شيء؛ يعرد نفسه على

Ç family /ˈfæməli/ noun (pl. families) 1 [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a group of people who are related to each other

Sometimes we use family' to mean 'parents and their children' (a nuclear family), sometimes we use it to include other relatives, e.g. grandparents, aunts. uncles. etc. (an extended family). Family is used with a singular verb when we are talking about it as a unit. Almost every family in the village owns a television. A plural verb is used when we are thinking about the members of a family as individuals: My family are all very tall. Family can be used before another noun to describe things that are suitable for or that can be used by all the family: family entertainment o the family can:

- 2 [C,U] children: Do you have any family? We are planning to start a family next year (= to have our first baby).
- 3 [C] a group of animals, plants, etc. that are related to each other: Lions belong to the cat family.

IDM run in the family to be found very often in a family: Red hair runs in the family.

وراثي، موروث

- 'family name noun [C] the name that is shared by members of a family; surname ೨ Look at the note at name<sup>1</sup>.
- family 'planning noun [U] controlling the number of children in a family by using birth control 2 Look at contraception.
- family 'tree noun [C] a diagram that shows the relationships between different members of a family
- famine /fæmin/ noun [C,U] a lack of food in a large area that can cause the death of many people: There is a severe famine in many parts of Africa. O The long drought was followed by famine.
- famished /ˈfæmɪʃt/ adj (not before a noun) (informal) very hungry: When's lunch? I'm famished!
- Ramous /ˈfeɪməs/ adj famous (for sth) wellknown to many people: a famous singer o Glasgow is famous for its museums and art galleries. D Look at infamous and notorious, which mean 'famous for being bad'.
  - ▶ famously adv (informal) very well: She's getting on famously in the new job.

بشكل ممتاز، بشكل هائل

- - ▶ fan verb [T] (fanning; fanned) 1 to cool sb/sth

by moving the air with a fan or sth like a fan: She used a newspaper to fan her face. (پهوي (بالمروحة)

2 to make a fire burn more strongly: The strong wind really fanned the flames. بزيد (النار) اشتمالاً fan out to spread out: The police fanned out across the field. fan² /fæn/ noun [C] somebody who admires and is very enthusiastic about a sport, a film star, a

- very enthusiastic about a sport, a film star, a singer, etc: football fans o He's a Van Morrison fan. o I'm not a great fan of modern jazz (= I don't like it very much).
- fanatic /fəˈnætɪk/ noun [C] a person who is too enthusiastic about sth (especially about religion or politics): a religious fanatic o She's a health-food fanatic.
- ► fanatic (also fanatical /-kl/) adj feeling very strongly or being too enthusiastic about sth: He's fanatical about keeping things tidy.

fanatically /-kli/ adv sfanaticism /-tisizəm/ noun [C,U]

'fan belt noun [C] the belt that drives the fan to cool the engine of a car, etc. حزام مروحة السيارة، سير

Lfancy1 /fænsi/ noun

take sb's fancy to attract or please sb: If you see something that takes your fancy I'll buy it for you.

take a fancy to sb/sth to start liking sb/sth: I think that Alan's really taken a fancy to you. بستلطف، بصادف هوی عند

- Lifancy<sup>2</sup> /'fænsi/ adj not simple or ordinary: My father doesn't like fancy food. I just want a pair of black shoes nothing fancy.
  - غير عادي؛ مُنَمَّق؛ "مُفَزِّلك"
- § fancy³ / fænsi/verb (pres part fancying; 3rd pers sing pres fancies; pt, pp fancied) 1 [T] (informal) to like the idea of having or doing sth: What do you fancy for supper? o I don't fancy going out in this rain.
  - 2 [T] (Brit informal) to be (sexually) attracted to sb: Alan keeps looking at you. I think he fancies you.
  - 3 [I,T] (used for expressing surprise, shock, etc.): 'They're getting married next week.' 'Well, fancy that!' o Fancy meeting you here!
  - 4 [T] (formal) to think or imagine sth: He fancied that he heard footsteps behind him.
- fancy 'dress noun [U] special clothes that you wear to a party at which people dress up to look like a different person (e.g. from history or a story): We've been invited to a fancy dress party I'm going as Napoleon. o It was a Halloween party and everyone went in fancy dress.
- fanfare /ˈfænfeə(r)/ noun [C] a short loud piece of music played on trumpets that is used for introducing sb/sth
- fang /fæŋ/ noun [C] a long sharp tooth of a dog, poisonous snake, etc. (ناب (حيوان أو أفعى)
- fantasize (also fantasise) /ˈfæntəsaiz/ verb [I,T] to imagine sth that you would like to happen: He liked to fantasize that he had won a gold medal at the Olympics.

fantastic /fæn'tæstik/ adj 1 (informal) very good; excellent: She's a fantastic swimmer. o You عظيم؛ هائل، رائع passed your test. Fantastic!

2 strange and difficult to believe: a story full of fantastic creatures from other worlds

3 (informal) very large or great: A Rolls Royce هَائلُ: خيالي costs a fantastic amount of money. بشكل لا يصدق؛ بشكل رائع ► fantastically /-kli/ adv fantasy /'fæntəsi/ noun [C,U] (pl. fantasies) situations that are not true, that you just imagine: They live in a world of fantasy. 2 Look at the note at imagination. وهم؛ خيال

FAQ /ef ei 'kju:/ abbrev frequently asked questions الأسئلة الشائعة

- Lifar /fa:(r)/ adj (farther /'fa:ðə(r)/ or further /'fa:ðə(r)/, farthest /'fa:ð $\operatorname{ist}$ / or furthest /'fa:ðist/) 1 distant; a long way away: Let's walk - it's not far.
  - 2 (only before a noun) more distant (used about one of two ends, sides, etc.): My friend lives at the far end of the street. o In the far north, days are short in winter.

IDM a far cry from sth/from doing sth an experience that is very different from sth/doing مختلف جداً عن sth

 $far^2/f\alpha:(r)/$  adv (farther /'fa:ðə(r)/ or further /ˈfɜːðə(r)/, farthest /ˈfɑːðɪst/ or furthest /'fa:ðist/) 1 (at) a distance: London's not far from here. o Do you live far from Oxford? o How far did we walk yesterday? o Call me if you need me; I won't be far away. بعيد؛ بعيداً

Far in this sense is usually used in negative sentences and questions. In positive sentences we say a long way: It's a long way from here to the sea. Some sentences have a negative meaning although they are positive in form. Far can be used in them: Let's get a bus. It's 😬 much too far to walk.

- 2 a long time: This story began far back, in 1850. We danced far into the night. زمن بعيد، وقت طويل
- 3 (before comparative adjectives) very much: She's far more intelligent than I thought. o It's far wetter in England than in Italy. حداً: بكثير

IDM as far as to the place mentioned but not further: We walked as far as the river and then حتى: لغاية turned back.

as/so far as 1 the same distance as (sb): I can't مسافة، بقَدْر swim as far as you.

2 to the degree that: As far as I know, she's not coming, but I may be wrong. إلى حد as far as I can see (used for introducing your opinion): As far as I can see, the accident was John's fault, not Ann's. في حدود علمي

as/so far as sb/sth is concerned on the subject of sb/sth; as sb/sth is affected or influenced by sth: As far as school work is concerned, he's hopeless. o As far as I'm concerned (= in my opinion), this is the most important point. فيما يتعلق ب by far (used for emphasizing comparative or superlative words) by a large amount: Jane is by بمراحل: بكثير far the best student in the class. far afield far away, especially from where you live or from where you are staying: We decided to hire a car in order to explore further afield.

far from doing sth instead of doing sth: Far from enjoying the film, he fell asleep in the middle. بدلاً من far from sth/from doing sth almost the opposite of sth: He's far from happy (= he's sad).

ر)؛ بالعكس far from it (informal) certainly not; just the opposite: 'Did you enjoy your holiday?' 'No, far from it. It was awful.'

few and far between → FEW1 go far 1 to be enough: This food won't go very يكّفي far between three of us

2 to be successful in life: Dan is very talented ينجح في الحياّة، له مستقبل بأهر and should go far. go too far to behave in a way that causes trouble or upsets other people: He's always been يجاوز الحد naughty but this time he's gone too far. so far until now: So far the weather has been good but it might change. حتى الآن

faraway /'fo:rawei/ adj 1 distant: He told us stories of faraway countries. قصي، ناءِ

2 (used about a look in a person's eyes) as if you are thinking of sth else: She stared out of the window with a faraway look in her eyes.

farce /fa:s/ noun [C] 1 a funny play for the theatre full of ridiculous situations

2 something important or serious that is not organized well or treated with respect: The trial was a complete farce. مهزلة

▶ farcical /'fɑ:sɪkl/ adj

fare /feə(r)/ noun [C] the amount of money you pay to travel by bus, train, taxi, etc: What's the fare to Birmingham? o Train fares are going up next month. 1 Adults pay full fare, children pay half fare. أجرة السفر

fare2 /feə(r)/ noun [U] food, especially that served طعام؛ ماكولات at a restaurant, pub or hotel fare / fea(r)/verb [I] (formal) to be successful/unsuccessful in a particular situation: How did you fare in your examination? (= did you do well or badly?) (تسير الأمور)

the Far 'East China, Japan and other countries in E and SE Asia الشرق الأقصى farewell /,feə'wel/ interj (old-fashioned) good-وداعاً، الوداع bve

▶ farewell noun [C]: He said a sad farewell and left. o a farewell party وداع far-'fetched adj not easy to believe: It's a good book but the story's too far-fetched.

يصعب تصديقه؛ بعيد عن العقل

? farm1 /fa:m/ noun [C] an area of land with fields and buildings that is used for growing crops and keeping animals: In the summer holidays I often work on a farm, o farm buildings

? farm² /fa:m/ verb [I,T] to use land for growing ? fashionable /ˈfæʃnəbl/ adj following the latest crops or keeping animals: He's farming in Scotland. o She farms 200 acres. يزرع؛ يُفلِّح

▶ farmer noun [C] a person who owns or manages a farm farming noun [U] managing a farm or working on it: Farming is extremely hard work.

farmhouse /'fa:mhaus/ (also farm) noun [C] the house on a farm where the farmer lives

بيت المزارع farmyard /'fa:mja:d/ noun [C] an outside area near a farmhouse surrounded by buildings or walls حَوِّش أو فناء المزرعة

'far-off adj (only before a noun) 1 a long distance away: a far-off land

2 a long time ago: memories of those far-off غَابِر، قديم

.far-'reaching adj having, or going to have, a great influence on a lot of other things: far-عظيم الأثر، بعيد المدى reaching changes

.far-'sighted adj 1 being able to see what will be necessary and making plans for it

2 (US) = LONG-SIGHTED

? farther /'fɑ:ðə(r)/ adj, adv more distant in space or time; a greater distance: Rome is farther from London than Paris is. o I can swim farther than you. • Farther is the comparative of far. Look at the note at further. أبعد؛ مسافة أطول

? farthest /'fa:ŏist/ (also furthest) adj, adv most distant in space or time; the greatest distance: the farthest corner of Europe o Who can swim farthest? • Farthest is the superlative of far.

الأقصى: أطول مسافة

fascinate /'fæsineit/verb [T] to attract or interest sb very much: He fascinated the children with his magic tricks. o I was fascinated by that film. يسحّر، يفتن

▶ fascinating adi fascination / tæsi'ner fn/ noun [C,U] fascism (also Fascism) /'fæ[izəm/ noun [U] an extreme right-wing political system: the rise of الفاشية fascism in the 1930s

▶ fascist (also Fascist) /'fæ∫ist/ noun [C], فاشيّ، فاشستي

? fashion /'fæ∫n/ noun 1 [C,U] the style of dressing or behaving that is the most popular at a particular time: What is the latest fashion in hairstyles? o a fashion show, model, etc.

موضة أو مودة؛ زيّ 2 [sing.] the way you do sth: Watch him. He's been behaving in a very strange fashion.

طريقة، أسلوب DM be in/come into fashion to be or to become popular as a style: Jeans are always in يكون أو يصير زيّاً دارجاً be/go out of fashion to be or to become unpopular as a style: That colour is out of fashion لم بعد شائعًا، "بطلت موضته" this year.

popular style: a fashionable woman, suit, restaurant, idea, etc. 1 The opposite is unfashionable or old-fashioned.

► fashionably /-əbli/ adv

?fast<sup>1</sup> /fa:st; US fæst/ adj 1 able to move or act at great speed: a fast car, train, worker, etc. 2 Look at the note at quick. 6 There is no noun formed from fast. Use speed: The car was travelling very fast./The car was travelling at great speed.

2 (used about a clock or watch) showing a time that is later than the real time: I'm early - my watch must be fast. o The clock is five minutes fast. 1 The opposite is slow. (ساعة) مقدمة

▶ fast adv quickly: Don't drive so fast.

?fast2 /fa:st; US fæst/ adj 1 (only after a noun) firmly fixed: Peter made the boat fast (= he tied it مكين، راسخ to something) before he got out.

2 (used about colours) not likely to change when washed: Colour-fast materials can be washed in ▶ fast adv firmly or deeply: The children were fast asleep when we got home. Our car was عميقاً: بإحكام stuck fast in the mud.

fast<sup>3</sup> /fa:st; US fæst/ verb [I] to eat no food for a certain time usually for religious reasons: Muslims fast during Ramadan.

▶ fast noun [C]

? fasten /'fa:sn; US 'fæsn/ verb 1 [T] to fix, join or shut and lock sth firmly: Please fasten your seat belts. o Could you fasten this suitcase for me?

2 [I] to become closed or fixed: My blouse fastens at the back.

3 [T] fasten sth (on/to sth); fasten A and B (together) to attach sth to sth, or two things together: Fasten this badge on your jacket. O How can I fasten these pieces of wood together?

▶ fastener /'fɑ:snə(r); US fæs-/ (also fastening /'fa:snin; US 'fæs-/) noun [C] something that fastens things together وسيلة للربط؛ سحّاب أو سوستة fast 'food noun [U] food like hamburgers and chips that can be cooked and eaten quickly in a restaurant or taken away from the restaurant:  $\alpha$ fast-food restaurant fast 'forward verb [T] to make a cassette, tape or video go forward quickly without playing it fastidious /fæ'stɪdiəs/ adj (used about people) difficult to please, wanting everything to be very يق؛ مفرط في التدقيق clean and tidy

?fat1 /fæt/ adj (fatter; fattest) 1 (used about bodies) covered with too much flesh: You'll get fat if you eat too much. 1 The opposite is thin. 1 It is not very polite to describe a person as fat. Less direct words are plump, stout or overweight.

2 (used about a thing) thick or full: a fat wallet, book, etc.

¶ fat² /fæt/ noun 1 [U] the greasy substance under the skins of animals and people: I don't like meat with too much fat on it.
♠ The adjective is fatty.

وهن:شخم 2 [C,U] the substance we obtain from animals, plants or seeds and use for cooking: Cook the onions in a little fat. • Vegetable fats are healthier than animal fats.

fatal /'fertl/ adj 1 causing or ending in death: It was a fatal accident – both drivers were killed.

مُسِت. فاتل 2 causing trouble or a bad result: She made the fatal mistake of forgetting her passport.

مشؤوم؛ ذو عواقب وُخيمة؛ حتميّ بشكل قاتل: حتى الموت fatally adv ▶

fatality /fəˈtæləti/ noun [C] (pl. fatalities) a person's death caused by an accident or in war, etc:

There were no fatalities in the fire.

fate /fett/ noun 1 [U] the power that some people believe controls everything that happens: It was fate that brought them together again after twenty vears.

2 [C] your future or something that happens to you: Both men suffered the same fate - they both lost their jobs.

fateful /'feɪtfl/ adj having an important effect on the future: a fateful decision

حاسم؛ تترتب عليه نتائج هامة؛ مشؤوم

? father /ˈfɑːðə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person's male parent: John looks exactly like his father.

2 a man who starts something important: Shakespeare is the father of English drama.

ب؛ مبتدع

3 Father the title of certain priests: Father OReilly

Fatherhood /-hud/ noun [U] the state of being a father: How are you enjoying fatherhood? أبوء 'fatherly adj like or typical of a father: Would you like a piece of fatherly advice?

,Father 'Christmas (also Santa Claus) an old man with a red coat and a long white beard who, children believe, brings presents at Christmas بابا نویل

'father-in-law noun [C] (pl. fathers-in-law) the father of your husband or wife

(أبو الزوج أو الزوجة) حمَّ

'Father's Day noun [C] a day when fathers receive cards and gifts from their children, usually the third Sunday in June

fathom /'fæðəm/ noun [C] a measure of the depth of water; 6 feet (1.8 metres)

قامة، مقياس للعمق يعادل 6 اقدام

▶ fathom verb [T] (usually in the negative) to understand sth: I can't fathom what he means.

fatigue /fə'ti:g/ noun [U] 1 great tiredness

إعياء

2 weakness in metals caused by a lot of use إجهاد أو كُلال fatten /ˈfætn/ verb [T] fatten sb/sth (up) to maker sb/sth fatter: He's fattening the pigs up for market.

• fattening adj (used about food) that makes people fat: You shouldn't eat too much chocolate, It's very fattening.

fatty /ˈfæti/ adj (fattier; fattiest) (used about food) having a lot of fat in or on it

faucet /'fo:sit/ noun [C] (US) = TAP1

?fault /fɔ:lt/ noun 1 [C] something wrong or not perfect in a person's character or in a thing. One of my faults is that I'm always late. o a fault in the electricity supply 2 Look at the note at mistake.

2 [U] responsibility for a mistake: 'We're going to be late.' 'Well, it's not my fault – I was ready on time.' o It will be your own fault if you don't pass your exams.

be at fault be wrong or responsible for a mistake: The other driver was at fault − he didn't stop at the traffic lights.

find fault → PIND¹

▶ fault verb [T] to find a fault or mistake in sh/sth; It was impossible to fault her English.

یعیب، پنتفد kee: perfect: The faultless adj without any mistakes; perfect: The pianist gave a faultless performance.

لاعيب فيه، كامل الأوصاف faulty adj (used especially about electricity or machinery) not working properly: a faulty switch fauna /ˈfɔːnə/ noun [U] all the animals of an area or a period of time: the flora and fauna of South America 3 Look at flora.

حيوانات حقبة أو منطقة معينة faux pas /ˌfəʊ 'pɑː/ noun [C] (pl. faux pas /ˌfəʊ 'pɑːz/) something you say or do that is embarrassing or offends people (زَلَة (تَعرِج اجتماعياً)

Let Solution 1 (US favor) /'feivo(r)/ noun 1 [C] something that helps sb: Would you do me a favour and post this letter for me? ○ Could I ask you a favour – could you babysit for us tonight?

معروف، خدمة

2 [U] liking or approval: In the end the politician won the crowd's favour.

DM be infout of favour (with sb) to have/not have a person's approval: I'm afraid I'm out of favour with my neighbour since our last argument.

in favour of sb/sth in agreement with: Are you in favour of private education?

in sb's favour to the advantage of sb: The committee decided in their favour.

Rfavour<sup>2</sup> (US favor) /ˈfeɪvə(r)/ verb [T] 1 to support sb/sth; to prefer: Which suggestion did they favour?

2 to treat one person very well and so be unfair to others: Parents must try not to favour one of their children.

favourable → federal favourable (US favorable) /'fervərəbl/ adj 1 showing liking or approval: Did you get a favourable report on your work? O He made a favourable impression on his bank manager. (تقرير) ايجابي: (انطباع) حسن

2 (often used about the weather) suitable or helpful: Conditions are favourable for skiing مناسب، ملائم today.

6 The opposite for both senses is unfavourable. ▶ favourably (US favorably) /-əbli/ adv (أكثر) ملاءمة؛ ايجابيا؛ بشكل حسن

?favourite1 (US favorite) /'feivərit/ adj liked more than any other: What is your favourite colour? · Who is your favourite singer?

? favourite2 (US favorite) /'feivərit/ noun [C] 1 a person or thing that you like more than any others: This restaurant is a great favourite of mine. o That sweater is my husband's favour-(شئ) مفضّل أو محبوب

2 the favourite (especially in horse racing) the horse that is expected to win الحصان المرجح فوزه

▶ favouritism (US favoritism) /-Izəm/ noun [U] giving unfair advantages to the people that you تحيّز؛ محسوبيّة like best fawn<sup>1</sup>/fo:n/ noun [C] a young deer 2 Look at the note at deer.

fawn2 /fo:n/ adj, noun [U] (of a) light yellowishbrown colour: a fawn coat o Fawn doesn't really (لُون) طحيني، "بيج" suit vou.

fax /fæks/ noun 1 [C,U] a copy of a letter, etc. which you can send by telephone lines using a special machine: I need an answer today. Send them a fax!  $\circ$  They contacted us by fax.

2 [C] (also 'fax machine) the machine that you use for sending faxes: Have you got a fax? • What's your fax number?

▶ fax verb [T] fax sth (to sb); fax sb (sth) to send sb a fax: We will fax our order to you tomorrow. O I've faxed her a copy of the letter. يرسل بالفاكس

faze /feiz/ verb [T] (informal) to make sb anxious or nervous: He doesn't get fazed by things going wrong. يقلق، يريك

FBI / ef bi: 'ai/ abbrev (US) Federal Bureau of Investigation, the section of the US Justice Department which investigates crimes that are against federal law, such as bank robbery and terror-مكتب التحقيقات الفدرالي

? fear /frə(r)/ noun [C,U] the feeling that you have when sth dangerous, painful or frightening might happen: He was shaking with fear after the accident. O She showed no fear. O My fears for his safety were unnecessary. خوف

IDM no fear (informal) (used when answering a suggestion) certainly not ▶ fearful /-fl/ adj 1 fearful (of sth/of doing sth); fearful (that) anxious or afraid about sth: You should never be fearful of starting something new. Dook at frightened and the note at afraid. These words are much more common.

خائف، متخوّف

2 terrible: the fearful consequences of war

fearfully /-fəli/ advfearfulness noun [U] fearless adj not afraid; brave fearlessly adv fearlessness noun [U]

?fear<sup>2</sup> /fiə(r)/ verb 1 [I,T] to be afraid of sb/sth great or important: We all fear illness and death. o We'll get there in time - never fear! (= don't يخاف، يخشى

2 [T] to feel that something bad might happen: The government fears that it will lose the next election. o Thousands of people are feared dead in the earthquake. 2 Look at afraid and at the note at frightened. يخشى؛ يتوجس

PHRV fear for sb/sth to be worried about sb/ sth: Parents often fear for the safety of their feasible /'fi:zəbl/ adj possible to do: a feasible plan

▶ feasibility /ˌfiːzəˈbɪləti/ noun [U]

إمكان تطبيق (مشروع ما)

feast /fi:st/ noun [C] a large, special meal (some-وليمة، مأدبة؛ عيد times to celebrate sth)

▶ feast verb [I] يقيم الولائم

feat /fi:t/ noun [C] something you do that shows great strength, skill or courage: The new bridge is مَّأَثرة، عمل بطولي a feat of engineering.

? feather /'feðə(r)/ noun [C] one of the light, soft things that grow in a bird's skin and cover its hody

?feature /'fi:t[o(r)/ noun [C] 1 an important or noticeable part of sth: Mountains and lakes are the main features of the landscape of Wales. Noise is a feature of city life. تضريس، مَعْلَم (مَعالَم) 2 a part of the face: Her eyes are her best

3 a feature (on sth) an important newspaper or magazine article or television programme: a مقالة صحفية هآمة؛ برنامج تلفزيوني front-page feature

4 (also 'feature film) a full-length film with a فيلم رئيسي

▶ feature verb 1 [T] to include sb/sth as an important part: The film features many wellknown actors. يبرز

2 [I] feature in sth to have a part in sth: Does marriage feature in your future plans?

يلعب دوراً، يشترك؛ يبرز featureless adj uninteresting; with no features عديم الشخصية؛ عديم المعالم

February /'februəri; US -ueri/ noun [C,U] (abbr Feb.) the second month of the year, coming before March @ For examples of the use of the months in sentences, look at January.

فبراير/شباط

قَسَمة (قسمات)

feces (US) = faeces

fed pt, pp of FEED1

feature.

?federal /'fedərəl/ adj 1 organized as a federation: the Federal Republic of Germany

يبحث باللمس، يتلمّس طريقه

اتحادى، فيدرالى

2 relating to the central government of a federation: That is a federal, not a state, law.

- federation / fedə'rei [n/ noun [C] a political union of states for the control of foreign affairs, defence, etc. by the central (federal) government but with local (state) government for areas such as education
- fed up /,fed 'Ap/ adj (not before a noun) (informal) bored or unhappy; tired of sth: What's the matter? You look really fed up. 0 I'm fed up with waiting for the phone to ring.
- Lifee /fi:/ noun [C] 1 (usually plural) the money you pay for professional advice or service from private doctors, lawyers, schools and universities, etc: We can't afford private school fees. ⇒ Look at the note at pay¹. أجر، رُسُم
  - 2 the cost of an examination, club membership, entrance etc: How much is the entrance fee?
  - feeble /'fi:bl/ adj 1 with no energy or power; weak: a feeble old man o a feeble cry
    - 2 not able to convince sb: a feeble argument
- Lifeed fixed verb (pt, pp fed fed/) 1 [T] to give food to a person or an animal: Don't forget to feed the dog. o I can't come yet. I haven't fed the baby. o I've cooked enough to feed us for weeks.
  - 2 [I] (used about animals or babies) to eat: What do horses feed on in the winter? یاکل، یتغذی
  - 3 [T] feed A (with B); feed B into A to supply sth to sh/sth: This channel feeds us with news and information 24 hours a day. o Metal sheets are fed into the machine one at a time.

يغذي، يزود، يلقم (ماكينة أو آلة)

- Lifeed fixed noun 1 [C] a meal for an animal or a baby: When's the baby's next feed due? 2 [U] food for animals
- feedback /'fi:dbæk/ noun [U] information about sth that you have done or made which tells you how good or successful it is: We need some more feedback from the people who use our textbooks.
- ? feel fi::/ verb (pt, pp felt /felt/) 1 [I] (usually with an adjective) to be in the state that is mentioned: to feel cold, sick, tired, happy, etc. o How are you feeling today? o You'll feel better in the morning.
  - 2 [I] feel (to sb) (like sth/sb) to give an impression of sth: The hole in my tooth feels much bigger than it is. o My new coat feels like leather but it's not.
  - 3 [T] to learn about sth by touching it with your hands: Feel this material. Is it silk or cotton? o I felt her forehead and knew that she had a temperature. يتحسس باللمس
  - 4 [T] to be aware of sth: I felt something crawling up my back. o I could feel myself dropping off to

- 5 [T] to believe or think: I felt (that) it was a mistake not to ask her advice.
- 6 [T] to suffer from sth: Do you feel the cold in winter? o She felt it badly when her mother, يقاسى من
- 7 [I] feel (about) (for sb/sth) to try to find something with your hands instead of your eyes: She felt about in the dark for the light switch."
- 8 [I] feel (to sb) as if/as though to have or give the impression that: He felt as if he had been there before. o My head feels as though it will burst. 1 it is often used as the subject of feel in this sense: It feels as if it is going to snow soon.

IDM feel like sth/doing sth to want sth or to want to do sth: Do you feel like going out? يود

- feel<sup>2</sup> /fi:1/ noun [sing.] 1 the feel the impression something gives you when it is touched; the impression an experience gives you: You can tell it's wool by the feel.
- 2 an act of touching sth in order to learn about it: Let me have a feel of that material.
- feelers /'fi:ləz/ noun [plural] the long thin parts at the front of an insect's head that it uses to feel things with
- reeling /fi:lm/ noun 1 [C] a feeling (of sth) something that you feel in your mind or body: a feeling of hunger, happiness, fear, success, etc.
  - إحساس، شعور 2 feelings [plural] a person's emotions: I don't want to hurt his feelings (= make him unhappy).

She's not very good at hiding her feelings.

- 3 [U] the ability to feel in your body: After the accident he lost all feeling in his legs.
- 4 [sing.] a belief or idea that you cannot explain exactly: She had a feeling that something terrible would happen. o I get the feeling that Ian doesn't like me much. o I had a nasty feeling that Jan didn't get our message.
- 5 [U] sympathy or understanding: She hasn't much feeling for music.
- bad/ill feeling unhappy relations between people: The decision caused a lot of bad feeling at نفور، تنافر the factory.

have mixed feelings about  $sb/sth \rightarrow \text{mixed}$ feet pl. of FOOT

feisty /'faisti/ adj (feistier; feistiest) (informal, approving) (of people) strong, determined and not afraid of arguing with people شديد الحيوية، قوى الشخصية

felafel = FALAFEL

كالقطّة، قطّي feline /'fi:lam/ adj of or like a cat fell<sup>1</sup> pt of FALL<sup>1</sup> fell<sup>2</sup> /fel/ noun [C] an area of mountain country: the fells of the Lake District feli<sup>3</sup> /fel/ verb [T] to cut down a tree ?fellow<sup>1</sup> /'feləʊ/ noun [C] 1 a member of an صدي العمل

fellow → fertile

academic or professional organization, or of certain universities

2 a person who is paid to study a particular thing at a university: Jill is a research fellow in the biology department.

3 (old-fashioned) a man: What's that fellow over there doing?

? fellow<sup>2</sup> /'feləv/ adj (only before a noun) another or others like yourself in the same situation: Her fellow students were all older than her. زميل، فرين fellowship /ˈfeləʊʃɪp/ noun 1 [U] friendly relations with others

2 [C] a group or society

3 [C] the position of a college or university fellow felt1 pt, pp of FEEL1

felt<sup>2</sup> /felt/ noun [U] a type of soft cloth made from wool, etc. which has been pressed flat felt-tip 'pen (also felt-tip, felt-tipped 'pen) noun [C] a type of pen with a tip made of felt لم لبّاد

حماعة

- Remale /'fi:mell/ adj 1 of the sex that can give birth to young: Please state sex: male or female (e.g. on a form).
  - 2 (used about plants and flowers) producing fruit مثُمرة
  - ▶ female noun [C] a female animal or plant: Is your mouse a male or a female?
    أثنى حيوان أو نبات

Female and male are used only to describe the sex of a creature. To describe the qualities we think of as typical of females and males, we use feminine and masculine.

feminine /ˈfemənɪn/ adj (abbr fem) 1 of or like a woman: My daughter always dresses like a boy. She hates looking feminine. • Look at masculine and the note at female.

- 2 (grammar) (in English) of the forms of words used to describe females: 'Lioness' is the femining form of 'lion'.
- 3 (grammar) (in certain languages) belonging to a certain grammatical class: The German word for a flower is feminine. 2 Look at masculine and neuter.
- أَنُوتُهُ، أَنْثُوبِهُ [U] femininity / feməˈnɪnəti/ noun إِنَّاقُهُ، أَنْثُوبِهُ feminism /ˈfemənɪzəm/ noun [U] the belief that women should have the same rights and opportunities as men الاسركة) النسوية المسابقة / feminist /ˈfemənɪst/ noun [C] a person who believes in and supports the aims of feminism نصير الحركة النسوية

fen /fen/ noun [C] an area of low wet land

إض مستنقعية

- Rence fence fence for wooden or metal posts joined by wood, wire, metal, etc. to divide land or to keep in animals: a garden fence an electric fence or barbed-wire fence
  - ► fence verb [T] to surround land with a fence

פאדע fence sb/sth in to surround sb/sth with a fence: They fenced in their garden to make it more private.

fence sth off to separate one area from another with a fence

fence<sup>2</sup> /fens/ verb [I] to fight with a long thin sword (a foil) as a sport fencing /ˈfensɪŋ/ noun [U] the sport of fighting with swords fend /fend/ verb

EHRV fend for yourself to look after yourself:
It's time Ben left home and learned to fend for himself.

fend sth/sb off to defend yourself from sth/sb:
He fended off the dog with his stick. o Politicians usually manage to fend off awkward questions. يحمي نفسه: يَصَدُ

fender /ˈfendə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a low metal guard put in front of an open fire to stop coal or wood from falling out

2 (US) = wing(4)

fenne! /'fenl/ noun [U] a plant that has a thick round part at the base of the leaves with a strong taste. The base is used as a vegetable and the seeds and leaves are also used in cooking.

الشمار

ferment /fo ment / verb [I,T] to (make sth) change chemically: The wine is starting to ferment.

Ferment /'fs:ment/ noun [U] a state of excitement and change: The country is in ferment and nobody's sure what will happen next.

fern /fs:n/ noun [C] a green plant with no flowers and a lot of long thin leaves سرخس (نبات) ferocious /fəˈrəʊʃəs/ adj very fierce and vio-

▶ ferociously adv

ferocity /fə'rɒsəti/ noun [U] violent cruelty

ferret /ˈferɪt/ noun [C] a small fierce animal used for hunting rats and rabbits ferry /ˈferi/ noun [C] (pl. ferries) a boat that transports people and goods on short journeys: a car ferry (معنَّانَةُ (م كي)

» ferry verb [T] (pres part ferrying; 3rd pers sing pres ferries; pt, pp ferried) to carry people or goods by boat, plane, car, etc. from one place to another: Could you ferry us across to the island?

We have to ferry the children to school every day.

fertile /ˈfɜːtaɪl; US ˈfɜːrtl/ adj 1 (used about land, plants, animals and people) able to produce crops, fruit or young 6 The opposite is infertile.

Look at sterile.

- 2 (used about a person's mind) full of ideas: a fertile imagination
- Fertility /fə'tıləti/ noun [U] the state of being fertile: Nowadays women can take drugs to increase their fertility (= their chances of having a child). The opposite is infertility.

fertilize (also fertilise) /'fa:təlaɪz/ verb [T] 1 to put a male seed into an egg, a plant or a female animal so that it starts to develop fruit or يلقح

2 to put natural or artificial substances on soil in order to make it more fertile ▶ fertilization (also fertilisation) /ˌfɜːtəlaɪ-'zeɪʃn; US -lə'z-/ noun [U] fertilizer (also fertiliser) noun [C,U] a natural or chemical substance that is put on land to make plants grow better fervent /'fa:vant/ adi showing strong feelings: She's a fervent believer in women's rights.

▶ fervently adv

fervour (US fervor) /'f3:va(r)/ noun [U] very strong feelings about sth; enthusiasm

حَمَاسة، عاطفة جياشة، حمية

fester /'festə(r)/ verb [I] 1 (used about a cut or يتعفن، يتقيح wound) to become infected

2 (used about an unpleasant situation, feeling or thought) to become more unpleasant or pain-

- Lifestival /'festivl/ noun [C] 1 a day or time when people celebrate sth (especially a religious event): Christmas is an important Christian festi-
  - 2 a series of musical or dramatic performances often held regularly in one place: the Cannes Film Festival o a jazz festival festive /'festiv/ adj happy, because people are enjoying themselves: the festive season (= Christfestivity /fe'stɪvəti/ noun (pl. festivities) 1 [U] being happy and celebrating: The wedding was followed by three days of festivity.

- 2 festivities [plural] happy events when people celebrate sth: The festivities went on until أعباد، احتفالات dawn
- ?fetch /fets/ verb [T] 1 to go for and bring back sb/sth: Shall I fetch you your coat?/Shall I fetch your coat for you? o I left my keys on the table; could you fetch them for me? o It's my turn to fetch the children from school.
  - 2 (used about goods) to be sold for the price mentioned: 'How much will your car fetch?' 'Iț should fetch about £900.' يباع (بكذا)
  - fête /feit/ noun [C] an outdoor event with competitions, entertainment and things to buy, often organized to make money for a particular purpose: the church fete مهرجان؛ سوق خيرية

fetus (US) = FOETUS

feud /fju:d/ noun [C] a long and serious quarrel between two people or groups يتعادى

▶ feud verb [I] feudal /'fju:dl/ adj relating to the system of feudalism feudalism /'fju:dəlɪzəm/ noun [U] the social system which existed in the Middle Ages in Europe, in which people worked and fought for a landowner and received land and protection from

- ?fever /'fi:və(r)/ noun 1 [C,U] a condition of the body when it is too hot because of illness: A high fever can be dangerous, especially in small children.  $\circ$  Aspirin can reduce fever.  $\bullet$  When somebody's body is very hot we normally say they have a temperature.
  - 2 [sing.] (figurative) a state of nervous excite-فيجان
  - ▶ feverish /'fi:vərɪʃ/ adj 1 showing the signs of حموم مهتاج
  - 2 showing great excitement

feverishly adv very quickly and excitedly بهيجان

few<sup>1</sup> /fju:/ det, adj, pron (used with a plural noun and a plural verb) not many: Few people live to be 100. O There are fewer cars here today than yesterday. o The few people I have asked thought the same as I do. o Few of the players played really well. O Very few of the books were new. قليل

IDM few and far between not happening very often: Our visits to the theatre are few and far between.

- Lifew<sup>2</sup> /fju:/ a few det, pron (used with a plural noun and a plural verb) a small number of; some: a few people o a few letters o Only a few of the people who applied were suitable. O She's written lots of books but I've only read a few (of them).  $\circ$  I knew a few (= some) of the people there. ೨ Compare with: I knew few of the people (= not عدد قلیل، بعض many).
  - IDM a good few; quite a few quite a lot: It's been a good few years since I saw him last.
  - ff. abbrev (used to indicate that sth starts on a particular page or line and continues for several pages or lines more): British Politics, p 10 ff fiancé /fi'pnsei; US fi:a:n'sei/ noun [C] a man to whom a woman is engaged to be married: This is my fiancé Dave. We got engaged a few weeks ago.

fiancée /fi'pnsei; US ,fi:a:n'sei/ noun [C] a woman to whom a man is engaged to be married: Can I introduce you to my fiancée?

fiasco /fi'æskəu/ noun [C] (pl. fiascos; US also fiascoes) an event that does not succeed, often in a way that causes embarrassment: Our last إخفاق تام، فَشَل مُخْز party was a complete fiasco.

fib /fib/ noun [C] (informal) something you say that is not true; a small lie: Please don't tell fibs.

▶ fib verb [I] (fibbing; fibbed) to say untrue things, to tell a fib 2 Look at lie. Fib is used when the lie does not seem very important.

fibre (US fiber) /'faɪbə(r)/ noun 1 [C] one of the thin threads which form a natural or artificial substance: a fibre of cotton  $\circ$  a muscle fibre

2 [C,U] material or a substance made from fibres

fibreglass → fifth

- O Natural fibres are, for example, cotton and wool. Man-made or synthetic fibres are nylon, مادة ليفية polyester, etc.
- 3 [U] the parts of plants (used as food) that your body cannot digest and that are thought to be good for it: Wholemeal bread is high in fibre.

ليف (نباتي)، ألياف

(US fiberglass fibreglass /'faibəgla:s/ /'farbərglæs/) (also glass fibre) noun [U] a material made from plastic and glass fibres, used for making small boats, parts of cars, etc. زجاج ليفي fickle /'fikl/ adj always changing your mind or مُتَقَلِّب your feelings fiction /'fiksn/ noun [U] stories, novels, etc. which describe events and people that do not really exist: I don't read much fiction.

نصص، روایات

Piction is one type of literature. Look at drama and poetry. The opposite is non-fiction. Look ▶ fictional /-∫ənl/ adj only existing in fiction: The book gave a fictional account of a doctor's life. 2 Look at factual.

fictitious /fik'tifəs/ adj invented; not real: They used fictitious names in the newspaper article.

fiddle<sup>1</sup> /'fidl/ noun [C] (informal) 1 a dishonest action, especially one that is connected with احتيال؛ تلاعب (في الحسابات) money: a tax fiddle 2 a violin or an instrument of the violin famfiddle<sup>2</sup> /'frdl/ verb 1 [I] fiddle (about/around) (with sth) to play with sth carelessly, nervously or without thinking: He sat nervously, fiddling with a pencil.

2 [T] (informal) to change sth (business accounts, income tax forms, etc.) to gain money: She fiddled her expenses form.

▶ fiddly /'fɪdli/ adj (fiddlier; fiddliest) (informal) difficult to do or manage with your hands (because small or complicated parts are in-يصعب عمله أو الإمساك به لدقة أجزائه أو تعقَّدها volved)

fidelity /fr'deləti; US fai-/ noun [U] 1 (formal) the quality of being faithful @ The opposite is infi-

2 (used in connection with texts, translations, reproduction of music, etc.) the quality of being accurate or close to the original 3 Look at hi-fi.

fidget /'frd3rt/verb [1] fidget (about) (with sth) to move about or play with sth in a restless way because you are nervous, bored, etc: Stop fidgeting! o The children were fidgeting with their books while they waited for the bell to ring.

▶ fidgety adj

field /fi:ld/ noun [C] 1 an area of land on a farm, usually surrounded by fences or hedges and used for growing crops or keeping animals in: a cornfield o a field of corn

2 an area of land used for sports, games or some other activity: a football field o the playing fields (= the area of grass in a village or town or belonging to a school where people go to play games, sports, etc.) o an airfield (= where planes مَلْعَب؛ ميدان land and take off) o a battlefield

3 an area of land where oil, coal or other minerals are found: a coalfield o a North Sea oilfield

4 an area of study or knowledge: He's an expert in the field of economics. O That question is محال: مندان outside my field.

5 an area affected by or included in sth: a magnetic field o It's outside my field of vision (= I can't see it).

field<sup>2</sup> /fi:ld/ verb 1 [I,T] (to be ready) to catch and throw back the ball (in cricket and baseball) 1 When one team is fielding, the other is bat-(فَي لَعبة الكريكيت مثلاً) يتلقف الكرة ثم يعيدها

2 [T] to choose a team for a game of football, cricket, hockey, etc: New Zealand is fielding an excellent team for the next match.

يشكّل فريق اللاعبين

'field day noun [C] a day or time of great excitement: The newspapers always have a field day when there's a royal wedding.

field event noun [C] an athletics event that is not running, e.g. jumping and throwing 3 Look لعبة من العاب الميدان at track events.

fieldwork /fi:ldw3:k/ noun [U] practical research work done outside the classroom, labora-عمل ميداني tory, etc.

fiend /fi:nd/ noun [C] 1 a devil or a very cruel شيطان؛ طاغية

2 (informal) a person who is unusually fond of or interested in one particular thing: a health هووس

fiendish /'fimdis/ adj 1 very fierce or cruel شيطانيَ؛ وحشم

2 clever and complicated: a fiendish plan

(خطة) حمنمية ▶ fiendishly adv very, extremely: fiendishly حداً؛ للغابة clever fierce /fiəs/ adj 1 angry and aggressive: The house was guarded by fierce dogs.

2 very strong: fierce competition for jobs & The noun is ferocity.

▶ fiercely adv

fiery /'farəri/ adj 1 looking like fire

ناري 2 (used about a person's character or temper) quick to become angry زق

? fifteen / fifti:n/ number 15, one more than fourteen 6 For examples of how to use numbers in sentences, look at six.

▶ fifteenth / fifti:nθ/ pron, det, adv 15th, next after fourteenth 2 Look at the examples at الخامس عشر

Lifth /fift/ pron, det, adv 5th, next after fourth الخامس Look at five. ▶ fifth noun [C] the fraction 1/s; one of five equal parts of sth 2 Look at the examples at sixth.

- fifty /'fifti/ number 50, one more than forty-nine
  For examples of how to use numbers in sentences, look at sixty.
  - ▶ fiftieth /'fiftiəθ/ pron, det, adv 50th, next after forty-ninth ③ Look at the examples at sixth.
- fifty-'fifty adj, adv (informal) equal or equally (between two people, groups, etc.): You've got a fifty-fifty chance of winning. We'll divide the money fifty-fifty.
- fig /fig/ noun [C] (a type of tree with) a soft sweet fruit full of small seeds that grows in warm countries and is often eaten dried
- fig. abbrev 1 = figure, illustration: See diagram at fig 2.
- 2 = FIGURATIVE(LY)
- fight! /fait/ verb (pt, pp fought /fo:t/) 1 [I.T] fight (against/with sb/sth) (about/over sth) to use physical strength, guns, weapons etc. against sb/ sth: Did he fight in the Gulf War? O What were the boys fighting each other about? O Have you been fighting with your sister again?
  - يحارب، يقاتل؛ يتشاجر 2 [I.T] fight (against sth) to try very hard to
  - stop or prevent sth: to fight a fire, a decision, etc. د ده to fight against crime, disease, etc. كانح. يحارب
  - 3 [I] fight (for sth/to do sth) to try very hard to get or keep sth: to fight for your rights
  - 4 [I] fight (about/over sth) to quarrel: It's not worth fighting about money.

    PHRV fight back to protect yourself by fighting
  - with actions or with words: If he hits you again, fight back!
  - ► fighter noun [C] 1 (also 'fighter plane) a small fast aircraft used for shooting down enemy aircraft
  - 2 a person who fights in war or in sport (especially a boxer)
  - fighting noun [U] an occasion when people fight:
    There has been street fighting in many parts of the city today.
- fight² /faɪt/ noun 1 [C] an act of fighting or a struggle: Don't get into a fight at school, will you? ○ the government's fight against inflation
  - 2 [U] the desire to continue trying or struggling: I've had some bad luck but I've still got plenty of fight in me.

IDM pick a fight → PICK<sup>1</sup>

- figurative / frgərətiv/ adj (used about a word or an expression) not used with its exact meaning but used for giving an imaginative description or a special effect: 'He exploded at the news' is a figurative use of the verb 'to explode'. The opposite is literal.

  I figuratively adv
- figure¹ /'figə(r); US 'figjər/ noun [C] 1 a written sign for a number (0 to 9): Write the numbers in figures, not words. He has a six-figure income/

- an income in six figures (= more than £100 000).

  Our pay rise is going to be in single figures (= less than 10 per cent).

  double figures (= more than 10)
- 2 an amount (in numbers) or a price: The unemployment figures are lower this month.

   What sort of figure are you thinking of for your house?
- 3 a person (that you cannot see very clearly):
  Two figures were coming towards us in the dark
- 4 a person (in a picture or photograph): There were two figures on the right of the photo that I didn't recognize.
- 5 the shape of the human body: She's got a beautiful slim figure. Look at the note at build.
- 6 a well-known or important person: an important political figure
- 7 a diagram or illustration used in a book to explain sth: Figure 3 shows the major cities of Italy.
- 8 figures arithmetic: I'm not very good at figures.

IDM facts and figures → FACT in round figures/numbers → ROUND<sup>1</sup>

- In round figures/numbers → ROUND
- ? figure<sup>2</sup> /ˈfigə(r); US ˈfigjər/ verb 1 [I] figure (in sth) to be included in sth; to be an important part of sth: *Women don't figure much in his novels.*یدخل فی نطاق یظین بیرز
  - 2 [T] figure (that) (especially US) to think or guess sth: I figured he was here because I saw his
  - car outside.

    المُثَنَّنُ ithat figures (informal) that is what I expected
  - THEV figure on sth/on doing sth (especially US) to include sth in your plans: I figure on arriving in New York on Wednesday. פָּשִּׁישׁ figure sb/sth out to find an answer to sth or to understand sb
- figure of 'eight (US figure eight) noun [C] (pl. figures of eight) something in the shape of an 8 شبيه بالرقم 8
- figure of 'speech noun [C] (pl. figures of speech) a word or expression used not with its original meaning but in an imaginative way to make a special effect 2 Look at figurative.
- file 1 /fail / noun [C] 1 a box or a cover that is used for keeping papers together and in order: Students are given a file to keep their course notes in.
  - 2 a collection of papers or information kept in a file: I can't remember what exactly I said in the letter. I'll need to look at the file.
  - 3 a collection of information or material on one subject that is stored in a computer or on a disk: to open/close a file
  - mon file kept in a file: We have all the information you need on file.

    the rank and file → RANK

▶ file verb [T] file sth (away) to put in a file: File these letters under 'Job Applications'.

file<sup>2</sup> /fail / noun [C] a metal tool with a rough surface used for making rough surfaces smooth: a ▶ file verb [I,T] to use a file to cut sth or make sth smooth

file3 /faɪl/ noun

IDM in single file in a line, one behind the other: You'll have to go in single file - the path is

▶ file verb [1] file in, out, past, etc. to walk or march in a line fill /fil/ verb 1 [I,T] fill (sth/sb) (with sth) to make sth full or to become full: Can you fill the kettle for me? o The news filled him with excitement. o The room filled with smoke within min-يملاً؛ يمتلئ

2 [T] to occupy a position or time: I'm afraid that teaching post has just been filled (= somebody has got the job).

PHRV fill sth in (US also fill sth out) to complete a form, etc. by writing information on it: Could you fill in the application form, please? بملأ استمارة fill (sth) up to become or to make sth completely full: There weren't many people at first but then the room filled up. o Fill up the tank, please (= with petrol). يمتلئ؛ يملأ

fillet (US filet) /'filit/ noun [C,U] (a piece of) meat or fish with the bones taken out شريحة لحم أو سمك بلا عظم filling /fnlm/ noun 1 [C] the material that a dentist uses to fill a hole in a tooth: a gold filling مادة حشو الأسنان 2 [C,U] food put inside a sandwich, pie, cake, etc.

طعام في شطيرة filling adj (used about food) that makes you يملأ إلى حد التخمة، "شبّاعي"

'filling station (US) = PETROL STATION to make it taste nice

? film /frlm/ noun 1 (US movie) [C] a story, play, etc. shown in moving pictures at the cinema or on television: There's a good film on at the cinema this week. Do you fancy going? o the film industry o the film version of 'Hamlet'

Some types of film are documentary, feature, horror films and westerns.

2 [C,U] a roll of thin plastic that you use in a camera to take photographs: a 35-millimetre film o a black and white film o a colour film o Fast film is better in this light. فيلم تصوير

You load a film into a camera and rewind it when it is finished. When the film is developed, you can have prints made from the negatives.

3 [usually sing.] a thin layer of a substance or material: a film of oil غشاء رقيق؛ غشاوة film<sup>2</sup> /film/ verb [I,T] to make a film of an event, story, etc. with a camera: They're filming in Oxford today. O A lot of westerns are filmed in Spain.

The man was filmed stealing from the shop.

يصور فيلمأ سينمائيا

'film star noun [C] a person who is a well-known نجم سينمائي actor or actress in films

filter /'frltə(r)/ noun [C] 1 an apparatus for holding back solid substances from a liquid or gas that passes through it: a coffee filter  $\circ$  an oil fil-مرشح

2 a piece of coloured glass used with a camera to hold back some types of light

▶ filter verb 1 [T] to pass a liquid through a filter: Do you filter your water? يرشح

2 [I] filter in, out, through, etc. to move slowly and/or in small amounts: (figurative) News of her illness filtered through to her friends.

filth /filth /noun [U] 1 disgusting dirt: The room was covered in filth. وسخ

2 extremely rude words, pictures, etc. usually in books, magazines or films

▶ filthy adj (filthier; filthiest) 1 very dirty: They got absolutely filthy playing football in the

2 (used about language, books, films, etc.) ex-بذيء؛ فاحِشُ tremely rude and unpleasant fin /fin/ noun [C] a part of a fish, shaped like a thin wing. Fish use fins for swimming.

final /'fainl/ adj 1 (only before a noun) last (in a series): This will be the final lesson of our course. o I don't want to miss the final episode of that serial.

2 not to be changed: The judge's decision is always final.

IDM the last/final straw → STRAW

▶ final noun [C] 1 (also finals) the last game or match in a series of competitions or sporting events: I wonder who'll get through to the final at Wimbledon this year? o The finals of the swimming championship will be held in Cardiff. Look at semi-final. المباراة النهائية

2 finals the examinations you take in your last year at university: I'm taking my finals in امتحانات نهائية (قبل التخرّج) finalist /-nəlist/ noun [C] a person who is in the final of a competition  $\Im$  Look at semi-finalist.

مشارك في مباراة نهائية finalize (also finalise) verb [T] to make firm decisions about plans, dates, etc: Have you finalized your holiday arrangements yet? يحسم؛ يقرر نهائياً finale /fr'no:li; US-'næli/ noun [C] the last part of a piece of music, an opera, show, etc.

نهاية عرض فن*ي*َ

I finally /'faməli/ adv 1 (used at the beginning of a sentence when you have a list of things to say, especially in a speech) as a last point: Finally, I would like to say how much we have all enjoyed this evening. أخيرا

2 after a long time or delay: It was getting dark أخيرأ when the plane finally took off.

3 in a definite way so that sth cannot be changed: We haven't finally decided yet - it بشكل نهائي depends on the cost.

- ? finance /'fainæns; fai'næns/ noun 1 [U] the money you need to start or support a business, etc: How will you raise the finance to start your own business?
  - 2 [U] the management of (public) money: Who is the new Minister of Finance? o an expert in finance
  - 3 finances [plural] the money a person, comfinances like at the moment? (= how much money حالة ماليّة have we got?)
  - ▶ finance verb [T] to provide the money to pay for sth: Your trip will be financed by the com-مول financial /far'nænsl; far'nænsl/ adj connected with money: The business got into financial difficulties. o New York and Tokyo are important financial centres. مالناً financially adv /-Jəli/

finch /fints/ noun [C] a small bird with a strong

- ? find<sup>1</sup> /faind/ verb [T] (pt, pp found /faund/) 1 to get back sth that you have lost: Did you find the pen you lost? o I can't find my new sweater any-
  - 2 to discover sth or get sth that you want (after a search): After six months she finally found a job. o Did you manage to find a good hotel? o Scientists haven't yet found a cure for colds. o They found oil in the North Sea. o I hope you find an answer to your problem.

Notice the expressions find the time, find the money: I never seem to find the time to write letters these days. O We'd like to go on holiday but we can't find the money.

- 3 to discover sth by chance: Tom found a £20 note in the park. o I've found a piece of glass in this milk. O We went into the house and found her يجد؛ يكتشف lying on the floor.
- 4 to think or to have an opinion about sth (because of your own experience): I find that book very difficult to understand. O We didn't find the film at all funny. o How are you finding life as a student? • When we are expressing an opinion we say I think that... NOT I find that....

find fault (with sb/sth) to look for things that are wrong with sb/sth and complain about يتصيد أو يتلمس الأحطاء؛ يعيب find your feet to become confident and independent in a new situation: Don't worry if the job seems difficult at first - you will soon find your يقف على قدميه؛ يكتسب مهارة وثقة

find your way (to...) to discover the right route (to a place): I hope you can find your way home. يحد طريقه إلى

PHRV find (sth) out to get some information by asking or studying: Have you found out how يستطلع؛ يعرِف؛ يكتشفّ much the tickets cost?

find sb out to discover that sb has done sth wrong: He used a false name for years before they found him out. يكشُّف، يفتضح أمر شخص ما finding noun [C] (usually plural) something that is discovered by research or investigation: the findings of a survey, a report, a committee, etc.

▶ finder noun [C] a person that finds sth: The lucky finder of the buried treasure will win a holiday in Spain.

نتائج بحث أو تحقيق

- find2 /famd/ noun [C] a thing or a person that is unusually good or valuable: That new software is a real find.
- pany, country, etc. has to spend: What are our afine 1 /fam/ adj 1 (only before a noun) of very good quality, beautiful: a fine piece of work o That's the finest painting I've ever seen by that
  - 2 good enough: 'Do you want some more milk in your coffee?' 'No that's fine, thanks.' O Don't cook anything special - a sandwich will be fine. o The hotel rooms were fine but the food was awful. كاف، لا بأس به
  - 3 in good health, or happy and comfortable: 'How are you?' 'Fine thanks.' o 'Do you want to change places?' 'No I'm fine here, thanks.' بصحة جيدة؛ مرتاح

We do not use meanings 2 and 3 in questions or in the negative form, so you CANNOT say 'Are you fine?' or "This isn't fine".

- 4 (used about weather) bright and sunny; not raining: Let's hope it stays fine for our barbecue (طقس) جميل، صحو tomorrow
- 5 thin: That hairstyle's no good for me my hair's too fine. O You must use a fine pencil for the diagrams. 1 The opposite is thick.
- دقيق: (شعر) ناعم 6 made of very small pieces, grains, etc: Salt is
- finer than sugar. The opposite is coarse. 7 difficult to see; very detailed: The difference in meaning between those two words is very fine.
- o I couldn't understand the finer points of his argument. دقيق حداً (لدرجة الغموض)؛ دقيق التفاصل ▶ finely adv 1 into small pieces: The onions must be finely chopped for this recipe. (بقطّع) قطعاً صغيرة
- 2 very delicately: a finely tuned instrument (مضبوط) بدقّة
- fine<sup>2</sup> /fam/ noun [C] a sum of money that you have to pay for breaking a law or rule: a parking fine o You'll get a fine if you park your car there. o He'll either have to pay a heavy fine or go to prison.
- ▶ fine verb [T] fine sb (for sth/for doing sth) to make sb pay a sum of money because he/she has broken a law or rule: He was fined £50 for speeding.
- ? finger 1 / fingə(r) / noun [C] one of the five parts at the end of each hand (or a glove): little finger, ring finger, middle finger, forefinger (or index finger), thumb o Children learn to count on their fin gers. إصبع

Sometimes we think of the thumb as one of the fingers, sometimes we contrast it: Hold the pen

finger → fire alarm

between your finger and thumb. The 'fingers' on our feet are called toes.

sb/sth will be successful or lucky: I'll keep my يتفاءل fingers crossed for you in your exams.

○ Look also at cross your fingers at cross<sup>2</sup>. DM snap your fingers → SNAP<sup>1</sup>

finger2 /'fingə(r)/ verb [T] to touch or feel sth يلمس؛ يتحسس بالأصابع with your fingers

fingermark /'fingema:k/ noun [C] a mark on a wall, door, book, etc. made by a dirty finger fingernail /fingeneil/ (also nail) noun [C] the hard parts on the ends of the fingers: Your fingernails are filthy! • She always paints her fingernails bright red.

fingerprint /'fingaprint/ noun [C] the mark made by the skin of a finger, used for identifying people: The burglar left his fingerprints all over the house. o The police took the suspect's finger-بصمة إصبع prints.

fingertip /'fingetip/ noun [C] the end of a fin-

IDM have sth at your fingertips to have sth ready for quick and easy use: They asked some difficult questions but luckily I had all the facts at في متناول اليد my fingertips.

rafinish /'fmis/ verb 1 [I,T] finish (sth/doing sth) to come or bring sth to an end or to reach the end of sth: What time does the film finish? o Haven't you finished yet? You've taken ages! o The Ethiopian runner won the race, and the Kenvans finished second and third. o Finish your work quickly! o Have you finished typing that let-

2 [T] finish sth (off/up) to eat, drink or use the last part of sth: Finish up your milk, Tom!

3 [T] finish sth (off) to complete the last details of sth or make sth perfect: He's just adding the finishing touches to his painting. O He stayed up all night to finish off the article he was writing.

PHRY finish sb/sth off (informal) to kill sb/sth: The cat played with the mouse before finishing it off. o (figurative) I was very tired towards the end of the race, and that last hill finished me off.

finish with sb/sth 1 to stop needing or using sb/sth: Don't go away. I haven't finished with you yet. o I'll borrow that book when you've finished يستغنِي عن: ينتهي مِن

2 to end a relationship with sb: Sally's not going out with David any more - she finished with him يقاطع، ينهى علاقة

? finish<sup>2</sup> /'fɪnɪʃ/ noun [C] 1 (used especially about a race) the end: The last race was a very close finish (= the runners at the front were close together at the end). 1 The opposite is start. نهاية (سياق)

2 (used especially about wood and furniture) the feel or look that sth has when it has been polished, etc: This table has a beautiful finish.

ثمر التنوب

EXECUTE: Where your fingers crossed to hope that \( \frac{1}{2} \) finished \( \frac{1}{2} \) finished \( \frac{1}{2} \) (not before a noun) finished (with sb/sth) having stopped doing sth, using sth or dealing with sb/sth: 'Are you using the computer?' 'Yes, I won't be finished with it for another hour or so. يفرغمن

> 2 (not before a noun) not able to continue: The business is finished - there's no more money.

> 3 made; completed: the finished product, article, مَكْمَل؛ في شكله النهائي، مُنْجَر finite /'famait/ adj having a definite limit or a fixed size: The world's resources are finite. 6 The opposite is infinite.

fiord = EIORD fir /fa:(r)/ (also 'fir tree) noun [C] a straight tree that keeps its thin leaves (needles) in winter ثبحرة التَنُوب

'fir cone noun [C] the fruit of the fir

? fire 1 /'farə(r)/ noun 1 [U] hot bright flames produced by sth that is burning: Many animals are afraid of fire.

2 [C,U] burning that destroys and is out of control: Firemen struggled for three hours to put out the fire. o It had been a dry summer so there were many forest fires. O You need to insure your house against fire. o The furniture caught fire within seconds (= started burning). o Did someone set fire to that pile of wood? o Help! The frying pan's on fire! حريق

3 [C] burning wood or coal to warm people or cook food: They lit a fire to keep warm. o It's cold نار؛ موقد don't let the fire go out! ○ a camp fire

4 [C] an apparatus for heating a room, etc: a gas fire o an electric fire

5 [U] shooting from guns: The soldiers were under fire from all sides. o I could hear gunfire in the distance.

IDM open fire → OPEN<sup>2</sup>

Tfire<sup>2</sup> /'faiə(r)/ verb 1 [I,T] fire (sth) (at sb/sth); fire (sth) into sth to shoot with a gun or shoot bullets, etc. from a gun: 'Fire!' shouted the officer. o Can you hear the guns firing? o He fired his gun at the ceiling. o They fired rubber bullets into the crowd. يطلق النار

2 [T] (informal) to dismiss sb from a job: He was fired for always being late. يطرد من عمل

3 [T] fire sth at sb to ask questions, or make remarks, quickly and aggressively: If you stop firing questions at me I might be able to an-يمُطُرُ وابلاً من الاسئلة، ينهال عليه بِ

4 [T] fire sb with sth to produce a strong feeling in sb: Her speech fired me with determination يهيج: يلهم

▶ -fired (in compounds) using the fuel mentioned: gas-fired central heating مستخدماً الوقود (المذكق

'fire alarm noun [C] a bell or other signal to warn people that there is a fire: If the fire alarm goes off, leave the building immediately.

firearm /ˈfaɪərɑːm/ noun [C, usually pl.] a gun that you can carry: Most policemen don't carry firearms.

'fire brigade (US 'fire department) noun
[C, with sing. or pl. verb] an organization of people trained to put out (= stop) fires: Dial 999 to call the fire brigade.

'fire engine noun [C] a special vehicle that carries equipment for fighting large fires

'fire escape noun [C] a special staircase on the outside of a building that people can escape down if there is a fire

'fire extinguisher (also extinguisher) noun [C] a metal container with water or chemicals inside that you use for fighting small fires: Shops and offices have fire extinguishers on every floor.

firefighter /ˈfaɪəfaɪtə(r)/ noun [C] a person whose job is to fight fires firelight /ˈfaɪəlaɪt/ noun [U] the light that comes from a fire in a fireplace: It's quite romantic sitting here in the firelight.

fireman /ˈfaɪəmən/ noun [C] (pl. firemen /-mən/) a person whose job is to fight fires fireplace /ˈfaɪəplaɪs/ noun [C] the open place in a room (at the bottom of a chimney) where you light a fire fireside /ˈfaɪəsaɪd/ noun [C, usually sing.] the part of a room beside the fireplace: Come and sit by the fireside.

'fire station noun [C] a building where fire engines are kept and firefighters wait to be called firewall /ˈfaɪəwɔːl/ noun [C] (computing) a part of a computer system that is designed to prevent people from getting information without authority but still allows them to receive information that is sent to them

firewood /ˈfaɪəwʊd/ noun [U] wood used for burning on fires

firework /ˈfaɪəwɜːk/ noun [C] a small container with chemicals inside that burns or explodes with coloured lights and bangs, used for entertainment: Be careful not to burn your fingers when you let off that firework o a firework display/party firework is often used in the plural: We went to watch the fireworks in Hyde Park.

'firing squad noun [C] a group of soldiers who have been ordered to shoot and kill a prisoner جنود الإعدام رمياً بالرصاص

Rfirm¹ /fa:m/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] a business company: Which firm do you work for? ○ My firm's moving to Manchester soon.

firm2 /fs:m/ adj 1 able to stay the same shape when pressed; quite hard: a firm mattress

سامد: قاسر

2 strong or steady or not likely to change: She kept a firm grip on her mother's hand. • Have you got a firm date for your holiday yet? • We've taken a firm decision – we're not going to change it now. • I've got a firm offer of a job in New York.

3 firm (with sb) insisting that people do what you want: He's very firm with his children. حاذم firmly adv معرد باعتقاد راسخ firmness noun [U]

**First* /fa:st/ det coming before all others; that has not happened before: his first day at school o their first baby o the first half of the game o You've won first prize! o My first choice is blue, but I'll take green if there's no blue left. o first impressions o The first time she went skiing, she broke her leg. o King Charles I (= King Charles the First) mm at first glance/sight when first seen or examined: At first glance it looked like solid gold.

first/last thing → THING

Firstly adv (used to introduce the first point in a list): They were angry firstly because they had to pay extra, and secondly because no one had told them about it.

first<sup>2</sup> /fa:st/ adv 1 before any others: Sue arrived first at the party. ○ Our team came first in the race (= we won). ○ Do you want to go first or second?

أُوّل، قبل الآخرين 'Yll, come out later

2 before doing anything else: I'll come out later. I've got to finish my homework first.

قبل أي شيء آخر

قَبْلَ كل شيء

3 for the first time: Where did you first meet your husband? لأول مرة

4 at the beginning: When I first started my job I hated it.

5 (used for introducing the first thing in a list): There are several people I would like to thank: First, my mother.

mm at first at the beginning: At first I thought he was joking, but then I realized he was serious.

come first to be more important (to sb) than anything else: Her family has always come first.

first and foremost more than anything else; most importantly: He worked in television but he was a stage actor first and foremost. اوْلاً وقبل كل شئ، first of all as the first thing (to be done or said): In a moment I'll introduce our guest speaker, but first of all, let me thank you all for coming.

head first → HEAD

first<sup>3</sup> /fa:st/noun, pron 1 [sing.] the first the first person or thing, people or things: Are we the first to arrive?
 O You are the first to hear the news.
 O They enjoyed the holiday – their first for ten years.

2 [sing.] an important event that is happening for the first time: This operation is a first in medical history. الأوّل من نوعه

3 [C] a first (in sth) (Brit) the highest grade of university degree مرتبة الامتياز (في الجامعة)

first 'aid noun [U] medical help that you give to sb who is hurt or ill before the doctor arrives إسّعاف أُولَى first 'class adj, adv 1 excellent; of the best quality: a first-class player o This book is really first class.

2 giving or using the best and most expensive type of service: Are the first-class carriages at the front or the back of the train? o He always travels first class. o Ten first-class stamps, please. o If you send the letter first class, it should arrive tomorrow.

first 'cousin = cousin

first 'floor noun [C] 1 (Brit) the floor of a building above the one on street level (the ground floor): I live in a flat on the first floor/a first floor flat.

2 (US) the floor of a building on street level طابق أرضى first 'gear noun [C] the lowest gear on a car, bicycle, etc. (الأول (في مغير السرعة في سيارة أو دراجة) first-hand /ˌfɜːstˈhænd/ adj, adv (used about information, experience, a story, etc.) heard, seen or learnt directly, not from other people: He gave me a first-hand account of the accident (= he had seen it). O I've experienced the problem first-hand, so I know exactly how you feel.

first 'minister (also First 'Minister) noun [C] the leader of the ruling political party in some regions or countries, for example in Scotland الوزير الأول

'first name (especially US given name) noun [C] the name that is given to a child when he/she is born: 'What's Mrs Brown's first name?' 'Alice, I think.' ○ Do you know him well enough to call him by his first name?' ◆ Look at the note at name¹.

the 'first 'person noun [sing.] 1 (grammar) the words such as 'I', 'me', 'we', and the verb forms that go with them: 'I am' is the first person singular of the verb 'to be'.

2 the style of telling a story as if it happened to you: The author writes in the first person (= he writes, 'I...'). (رواية قصة) بضمير المتكلم first-'rate adj excellent; of the best quality من الطراز الأوَل ¶ fish¹ /fis/ noun (pl. fish or fishes) 1 [C] an animal that lives and breathes in water using its fins and tail for swimming: How many fish have you caught? ○ I went diving on holiday – it was fantastic to see so many different fishes (= types or species of fish). ④ The plural form fish is more common. Fishes is used when we are talking about different types of fish.

□ The plural form fish is more common. Fishes is used when we are talking about different types of fish.

□ The plural form fish is more common.

□

2 [U] fish as food: We're having fresh fish for supper.

Fishy adj (fishier; fishiest) 1 of or like a fish, especially in taste or smell: a fishy smell

2 (informal) seeming suspicious or untrue: The police thought the man's story sounded extremely fishy.

fish<sup>2</sup> /fis/ verb [I] 1 fish (for sth) to try to catch fish with rods, nets, etc: He's fishing for trout.

(C. . . . . . . . .

When we are talking about spending time fishing we usually say go fishing: They often go fishing at weekends.

2 fish for sth to search for sth in water or in a deep or hidden place: She fished (around) for her keys in the bottom of her bag.

PIRV fish for sth to try to get sth you want in an indirect way: to fish for an invitation fish sth out (of sth) to take or pull sth out (of sth) especially after searching for it: After the accident they fished the car out of the canal. • She fished a pair of socks out of the bottom of the cupboard.

fish and 'chips noun [U] fried fish and potato, chips often bought already cooked and taken away to eat

We buy fish and chips at a fish and chip shop. The fish is covered with batter (a mixture of flour, egg and milk) and deep-fried. You find a fish and chip shop in most towns in Britain.

fishcake /ˈfiʃkeɪk/ noun [C] pieces of fish mixed with mashed potato made into a flat round shape, covered with breadcrumbs and fried أقراص مقلبة من لحم السمك fisherman /fi∫aman/ noun [C] (pl. fishermen /fi∫aman/) a person who catches fish especially as a job but also as a sport ⊃ Look at angler.

صنگاد سمك م

fish 'finger (US fish stick) noun [C] a small obling piece of fish covered in breadcrumbs: a packet of fish fingers

ې fishing /ˈfɪʃɪŋ/ noun [U] catching fish as a job, sport or hobby: Fishing is a major industry in Iceland. ♦ The sport or hobby of fishing is also called angling.

'fishing rod noun [C] a long thin stick with a line and a hook on it for catching fish fishmonger /ˈfɪʃmʌŋgə(r)/ noun [C] (Brit) a person whose job is to sell fish, or a shop that sells fish (= the fishmonger's): I bought it at the fishmonger's.

fish 'stick noun [C] (US) = FISH FINGER fist /fist/ noun [C] a hand with the fingers closed together tightly: She clenched her fists.

R fit 1 / fit / adj (fitter, fittest) 1 fit for sb/sth; fit to do sth good enough; suitable: These houses are not fit (for people) to live in. O Do you think she is fit for the job?

2 fit (for sth/to do sth) in good physical health (especially because of exercise): He keeps fit by

ذو فتنة وإغراء

jogging five miles a day.  $\circ$  I'm afraid you won't be fit enough for work for a long time yet.  $\circ$  She goes to keep-fit classes.  $\bullet$  The opposite is unfit.

باقه بدريه

 ${f 3}$  (Brit informal) sexually attractive

► fitness noun [U] 1 the condition of being fit (2): Fitness is important in most sports.

اللياقة المدنيّة

2 fitness for sth/to do sth the quality of being suitable: The directors were not sure about his fitness for the job.

- Rfit<sup>2</sup> /fit/ verb (fitting; fitted) 1 [I.T] to be the right size or shape for sh/sth: These jeans don't fit.

  This dress doesn't fit me any more. This key doesn't fit the lock. My car won't fit into your garage.
  - 2 [T] fit sb/sth in/into/on/onto sth to find enough space for sh/sth: Can you fit one more person in the car? I can't fit all these books onto the shelf.
  - 3 [T] to put or fix sth in the right place: The builders are fitting new windows today. I can't fit these pieces of the model together.
  - 4 [T] to be or make sb/sth right or suitable: I don't think Ruth's fitted for such a demanding job.  $\circ$  That description fits Jim perfectly.

وهن بياسين fit sb/sth in; fit sb/sth in/into sth to find time to see sb or to do sth: The doctor managed to fit me in this morning. • You're tired because you're trying to fit too much into one day.

fit in (with sb/sth) to be able to live, work, etc. in an easy and natural way (with sb/sth): The new girl found it difficult to fit in (with the other children) at school. I will happily change my plans to fit in with yours.

► fitted adj made or cut to fit a particular space and fixed there: fitted cupboards o a fitted curpet o a fitted kitchen (= one with fitted cupboards) fit<sup>3</sup> /fit/ noun [sing.] (usually after an adjective) the way in which sth (e.g. a piece of clothing) fits: a good, bad, tight, etc. fit fit<sup>4</sup> /fit/ noun [C] 1 a sudden loss of consciousness with movements that are not controlled and sometimes violent

2 a sudden (usually short) attack of illness: a fit of coughing

3 a sudden period of activity or violent feeling: a fit of laughter, energy, etc. o a fit of anger نوبة: هَبُة fitting<sup>1</sup> /'fitin/ adj (formal) right; suitable fitting<sup>2</sup>/'fitm/ noun [C, usually pl.] the things that are fixed in a building or on a piece of furniture but that can be changed or moved if necessary D Look at fixture.

five /faiv/ number 5; one more than four 2 Look at fifth (= 5th). 6 For examples of how to use numbers in sentences, look at six.

► five- (in compounds) having five of the thing mentioned: a five-day week ∘ a five-hour flight نو خمسة مكونات

fiver /ˈfaɪvə(r)/ noun [C] 1 (Brit informal) a five pound note; £5: Can you lend me a fiver? ورقة ماليّة قيمتها خسمة جنبهات

2 (US informal) a five dollar note; $5

ورقة ماليّة قيمتها خمسة دولارات Yrke/ narh [7] 1 to put eth firmly in place co

Rfix¹/fiks/ verb [T] 1 to put sth firmly in place so that it will not move: Can you fix this new handle to the door? o He fixed the post firmly in the ground. o (figurative) I found it difficult to keep my mind fixed on what they were saying.

2 fix sth (up) to decide or arrange sth: We need to fix the price. • Have you fixed (up) a date for the party?

3 to repair: The electrician's coming to fix the cooker.

4 (usually passive) (informal) to arrange the result of sth in a way that is not honest or fair: The race was fixed (= the result was arranged before it happened).

5 fix sth (for sb) (especially US) to prepare sth (especially food or drink) for sb: Can I fix you a drink/a drink for you?

בובע fix sb up (with sth) (informal) to arrange for sb to have sth: I can fix you up with a job, a car, a place to stay, etc.

► fixed /fikst/ adj 1 already decided: a fixed date, rent, price, etc.

2 not changing: He has such fixed ideas that you can't discuss anything with him. o She looked at him with a fixed smile.

יסא (of) no fixed abode/address (with) no permanent place to live: Smith, of no fixed abode, was found guilty of robbery.

fix² /fɪks/ noun [C] 1 [usually sing.] (informal) a difficult situation: I was in a real fix – I'd locked the car keys inside the car.

2 (informal) an injection of a drug such as heroin زرقة (من مُخَلَر) fixation /fik'seiʃn/ noun [C] a feeling (about sh/ sth) that is too strong and not normal هَوَسِ، تَعْلَق (مَرْضَيُ fixture /ˈfikstʃə(r)/ noun [C] 1 [usually pl.] a piece of furniture or equipment that is fixed in a house or building and sold with it: Does the price of the house include fixtures and fittings? ♣ Look at fitting.

2 a sporting event arranged for a particular day: a fixture list o We had to cancel our fixture last week.

fizz /fiz/ verb [I] to produce many small bubbles and/or make a hissing sound ينز، يفور (شراب غازيَ مثلاً) fizz noun [U] the bubbles in a liquid and the sound they make: This lemonade's lost its fizz.

فقاعات الشراب الغازئ: هسيس، أزيز fizzy /ˈfizi/ adj (fizzier; fizziest) (used about a drink) containing many small bubbles 1 The opposite is still. Look at sparkling. (شراب) فوالر fizzle /'fɪzl/ verb

fjord → flash

FIRM fizzle out to end in a weak or disappointing way: The game started well but it fizzled out in the second half.

fjord (also fiord) /'fi:o:d/ noun [C] a long narrow piece of sea between cliffs, especially in Nor-flabbergasted /'flæbəga:stid; US -gæst-/ adj مذهول، مشدوه (informal) extremely surprised flabby /'flæbi/ adj (flabbier; flabbiest) 1 (used about a person) having too much soft loose مترهل

2 (used about muscles, arms, legs, etc.) too رخو

flag1 /flæg/ noun [C] a piece of cloth with a pattern or picture on it, often attached to a pole (flagpole) or rope and used as a symbol of a country. club, etc. or as a signal: The flag is flying for the Queen's birthday. o The train will leave when the guard waves his flag. عَلَم، راية flag<sup>2</sup> /flæg/ verb [1] (flagging; flagged) to become tired or less strong or active يضعف، يتراخى؛ يفتر flagrant / fleigrant / adj (only before a noun) easily seen to be bad and shocking صارخ، فاضح flail /fleil/ verb [I,T] to wave or swing about without control: The insect's legs were flailing in the air. o The drowning child flailed his arms above يتخبِّط، يترنِّح؛ يلوِّح، يخبط بيديه في الهواء his head.

flair /flea(r)/ noun 1 (a) flair for sth [sing.] a natural ability to do sth well: She has a flair for languages (= she's good at learning them). استعداد فطري، ملكة

2 [U] the quality of being interesting or having style: That poster is designed with her usual نوق فني، مهارة فطرية flair.

flak /flæk/ noun [U] 1 guns shooting at enemy aircraft; fire from those guns: run into heavy (نيران) المدافع المضادة للطائرات flak

2 (informal) severe criticism: The plans for the new tax have come in for a lot of flak.

هجوم، أنتقاد شديد

flake /flerk/ noun [C] a small thin piece of sth: snowflakes o cornflakes o soap flakes

نُدفة (ثلج)، رَقيقة صغيرة flake verb [I] flake (off) to come off in flakes: My skin is very dry - it's beginning to flake (off). يتقشر

flamboyant /flæm'borent/ adj 1 (used about a person) acting in a loud, confident way مفرط في ملبسه وفي إظهار الثقة بنفسه

2 very easily noticed: flamboyant colours

▶ flamboyance /-'bɔɪəns/ noun [U]

إفراط في البُهْرَجة والتنميق flamboyantly advبأسلوب مبهرَج؛ بشكل دُراميٌ

Iflame /fleim/ noun [C,U] an area of bright burning gas that comes from sth that is on fire: The flame of the candle flickered by the open window. o The house was in flames when the fire engine arrived. o The piece of paper burst into flame in the fire (= suddenly began to burn strongly)

أمَّب؛ شعلة

flaming /'fleimin/ adj (only before a noun) 1 burning brightly: a flaming torch ملتَهب

2 (used about colours, especially red) very bright: flaming red hair o a flaming sunset زاهِ، صارخ، فاقع

3 (used about anger, an argument, etc.) violent: محتدم، غاضب، عنيف He was in a flaming temper.

4 (informal) (used as a mild swear word): I can't get in - I've lost the flaming key. الخبيث، الملعون! (تستعمل كشتيمة خفيفة)

flammable /'flæməbl/ adj able to burn easily سريع الاشتعال

The opposite is non-flammable. Inflammable has the same meaning as flammable and is more common.

flan /flæn/ noun [C,U] a round open pie that is filled with cheese, vegetables, fruit, etc. 2 Look فطيرة مستديرة عليها جبن أو خضار ألخ... at the note at pie.

flank /flænk/ noun [C] the side of an animal or of خاصرة، جنب؛ جناح (الجيش) an army ready for battle ▶ flank verb [T] (usually passive) to be placed at the side or sides of: The road was flanked by يحيط من الحانبين flannel /'flænl/ noun 1 [U] a type of soft woollen cloth

2 [C] ≈ facecloth

flap<sup>1</sup> /flæp/ noun [C] a piece of material that is fixed to sth at one side only, often covering an opening: a tent flap o a cat flap (= in a door for a غطاء سائب (للجيب مثلاً) cat to get through) IDM be in/get into a flap (informal) to be in/get into a state of worry or excitement

يصاب باضطراب أو قلق

flap<sup>2</sup> /flæp/ verb (flapping; flapped) 1 [I,T] to move sth up and down or from side to side; to move in this way, especially in the wind: The sails were flapping in the wind. O The bird flapped its wings and flew away. يصفّق (بحناحيه)، يرفرف

2 [I] (informal) to become worried or excited: You don't need to flap - it's all organized!

يضطرب أو يتشوس

flare /flea(r)/ verb [I] to burn with a sudden يتوهج فجأة bright flame PHRV flare up 1 (used about a fire) to suddenly يشتعل، يندلع burn more fiercely

2 (used about violence, anger, a person's temper, etc.) to start suddenly or become worse يَحْتَدم، يستشيط غضباً

▶ flare noun 1 [sing.] a sudden bright light or شُعلة، اندلاع مفاجئ flame

2 [C] a thing that produces a bright light or flame, used especially as a signal إشارة ضوئية، شعلة flared /fleed/ adj (used about trousers and skirts) becoming wider towards the bottom متّسع عند الاسفل (سروال مثلاً)

?flash /flæf/ noun 1 [C] a sudden bright light that comes and goes quickly: a flash of lightning ومضة. وميض

- 2 [C] a sudden ability (to guess, understand or imagine sth): a flash of inspiration o The idea came to me in a flash. (التماعة (ذكاء)
- 3 [C.U] a bright light that you use with a camera for taking photographs when the light is not good; the apparatus for producing this light: My new camera's got a built-in flash. The light's not very good. You'll need flash.

"فلاش": ضوء وهّاج ترسله الكاميرا

- Rflash² /flæs// verb 1 [I,T] to produce a sudden bright light or to make sth produce it: The neon sign above the door flashed on and off all night.

  That lorry driver's flashing his lights at us (= in order to tell us sth).
  - 2 [I] to move very fast: I saw something flash past the window. Thoughts kept flashing through my mind and I couldn't sleep.
  - 3 [T] to show sth quickly: The detective flashed his card and went straight in. تري شيئاً بسرعة خاطفة
  - 4 [T] to send a particular look towards sb (suddenly, and only for a moment): He flashed a smile at her and drove away.
  - 5 [T] to send sth by radio, television, etc: The news of the disaster was flashed across the world.

THEY flash back (used about a person's thoughts) to return suddenly to a time in the past: Something he said made my mind flash back to my childhood.

flashback / flæʃbæk/ noun [C,U] a part of a film, play, etc. that shows sth that happened before the main story رجوع سريع للماضي (في فيلم أن قصة)

'flashlight /'flæslart/ noun [C] (US) = TORCH flashy /ˈflæʃi/ adj (flashier; flashiest) attracting attention by being too bright and smart: a flashy car o flashy clothes flask /fla:sk; US flæsk/ noun [C] 1 a bottle with a narrow neck that is used in a laboratory

- 2 a small flat bottle used for carrying drink in a pocket يجاجة مشروب كحولي توضع في الجيب
- 3 = VACUUM FLASK
- * flat¹ /flæt/ (especially US apartment) noun [C] a set of rooms that is used as a home (usually on one floor in a larger building): Do you rent your flat or have you bought it? o That old house has been divided into luxury flats.
  - Apartment is much more common in American English. In British English we usually say a flat. But we do say apartment when talking about a flat we are renting for a holiday, etc. rather than to live in. We're renting an apartment in the South of France. You rent a flat from a landlord/landlady. The landlord/lady lets the flat to you, the tenant. The money you have to pay is called rent. Your flat may be furnished or unturnished. A tall modern building that contains many flats is a block of flats. A person who shares the flat with you is your flatmate.

- Pflat<sup>2</sup> /flæt/ adj (flatter; flattest) 1 smooth and level, with no parts that are raised above the rest: The countryside in Essex is quite flat (= there are not many hills). I need a flat surface to write this letter on. a flat roof
  - 2 not high or deep: You need flat shoes for walking. a flat dish
  - 3 (used about a tyre) without enough air in it: This tyre looks flat has it got a puncture?. خال من الهواء (إطار سيارة)
  - 4 without much interest or energy: Things have been a bit flat since Alex left.
  - 5 (used about a drink) not fresh because it has lost its bubbles: Open a new bottle. That lemonade has gone flat.
    مشروب فوار بطل مفعوله
  - 6 (used about a battery) no longer producing electricity; not working: We couldn't start the car because the battery was completely flat.

(بطارية) فارغة

- 7 (symbol b) (in music) half a tone lower than the stated note: a symphony in B flat Look at sharp (9).
- 8 (in music) lower than the correct note: That last note was flat. Can you sing it again? Look at sharp (10).
- 9 that will not change; firm (used about sth that you say or decide): He answered our request with a flat 'No!' (جواب) جازم، قاطع
- 10 (used about the cost of sth) that is the same for everybody; that is fixed: We charge a flat fee of £20, however long you stay.

  ► flatly ado 1 in a way that shows no inter-
- est عبر المركز 2 in a direct way; absolutely: He flatly denied the allegations.

flatten /ˈflætn/ verb [I,T] flatten (sth) (out) to become flat or to make sth flat: The countryside flattens out as you get nearer the sea. • The storms have flattened crops all over the country.

يَسَطُح، يَسْرِيٰ: بِسَطْ، يَدْمُونَ فَلَظُمُ

- flat<sup>3</sup> /flæt/ adv 1 in a level position: She lay flat on her back in the sunshine. O He fell flat on his face in the mud.
- 2 lower than the correct note: You're singing flat. ا Look at sharp (9). (نغمة) أخفض مما يجب
- 3 (used for emphasizing how quickly sth is done) in exactly the time mentioned and no longer: She can get up and out of the house in ten minutes flat.

fall flat (used about a joke, a story, an event, etc.) to fail to produce the effect that you wanted flat out as fast as possible; without stopping:

He's been working flat out for two weeks and he needs a break.

flat<sup>4</sup> /flæt/ noun 1 [C] (symbol b) (in music) a note which is half a tone lower than the note with the same letter 2 Look at sharp.

2 [sing.] the flat (of sth) the flat part or side of السطح المنبسط sth: the flat of your hand

3 [C] (especially US) a tyre on a car, etc. that has no air in it (دولاب) أو إطار فارغ من الهواء

flatter /'flætə(r)/ verb [T] 1 to praise sb too much because you want to please him/her or because you want to get an advantage for your-يطري، يتملّق

2 (usually passive) to give pleasure or honour to sb: I felt very flattered when they gave me the يرضي غرور شخص بمدحه، يسر

3 flatter yourself (that) to choose to believe sth good about yourself although you may be wrong: He flatters himself that he speaks fluent French.

▶ flattering adj making sb look or sound more attractive or important than he/she really is بظهر الشخص اكثر جمالاً من حقيقته flattery noun [U] praise that you do not really تملّق, flaunt /flo:nt/ verb [T] to show sth that you are proud of so that other people will admire it بتباهي ب، يعرض نفسه متباهياً flautist /'flo:tist/ (US flutist) noun [C] a person who plays the flute عازف الفلوت

? flavour (US flavor) /'flervə(r)/ noun [C,U] 1 the taste and smell (of food): Do you think a little salt would improve the flavour? o ten different flavours of yogurt o yogurt in ten different flavours

2 the particular quality or character of sth

▶ flavour (US flavor) verb [T] to give flavour to sth: strawberry-flavoured milkshake o I flavoured the soup with lemon and parsley. ىنگە flavouring (US flavoring) /'fleiverin/ noun [C,U] something that you add to food or drink to give it a particular taste flaw /flo:/ noun [C] 1 a mark or crack in an object that means that it is not perfect

2 a mistake in sth that makes it not satisfactory: خطأ، نقص a flaw in an argument

نقيصة 3 a bad quality in sb's character ▶ flawed adj with a fault or weakness so that it معيوب is not perfect لاعيبَ فيه flawless adj perfect flax /flæks/ noun [U] 1 a small plant with blue flowers, that is grown for its stem and seeds نبات الكتّان

2 the thread that is used for making linen. It خيوط الكتّان comes from the flax plant.

flea /fli:/ noun [C] a very small jumping insect without wings that lives on animals, e.g. cats and dogs. Fleas bite people and animals and make them scratch.

'flea market noun [C] a market, often in a street, that sells old and used goods

سوق لبيع أشياء قديمة أو مستعملة

fleck /flek/ noun [C] a tiny mark on sth; a tiny نقطة، ذرّة piece of sth flee /fli:/ verb [I,T] (pt, pp fled /fled/) to run away or escape from sth: When the hunter fired his gun the tiger turned and fled. o The man whom the police want to interview has fled the country.

fleece /fli:s/ noun 1 [C] the wool coat of a sheep or goat: fine thick fleeces صوف الخراف؛ جزّة

2 [U] a type of fabric that feels like sheep's wool: a wind-resistant jacket lined with polyester and قماش يشبه صوف الخروف cotton fleece

3 [C] a type of jacket that is made from this حاكيت مصنوع من صوف الخروف material fleet /fli:t/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] 1 a group of ships or boats that are sailing together

2 a group of vehicles (especially taxis, buses or aircraft) that are travelling together or owned by قافلة (سيارات مثلاً) one person

? flesh /fles/ noun [U] 1 the soft part of a human or animal body (between the bones and under the skin) 6 Flesh that we eat is called meat.

2 the part of a fruit or vegetable that is soft and اللّب (في الثمار) can be eaten flew pt of FLY1

flex<sup>1</sup> /fleks/ (especially US cord) noun [C,U] (a piece of) electric wire inside a plastic tube, used for carrying electricity to electrical equipment At the end of a flex there is a plug which you سلك كهربائي (معزول) fit in to a power point.

flex2 /fleks/ verb [T] to bend or move a leg, arm, muscle, etc. in order to exercise it

بثني أو يحرّك (الذراعين مثلاً) للتدريب flexible /'fleksəbl/ adj 1 able to bend easily without breaking

2 that can change or be changed in order to suit different situations or conditions & The opposite is inflexible.

▶ flexibility /ˌfleksə'bɪləti/ noun [U] flick /flik/ verb 1 [I,T] to move, or to make sth move, with a quick sudden movement: The frog's tongue flicked out and caught the fly. o She flicked the switch and the light came on.

يتحرك أو يحرك بسرعة خاطفة

2 [T] to hit sb/sth lightly and quickly يضرب ضرية خفيفة

PHRV flick sth away; flick sth off sth to remove sth with a quick movement of your hand ينقر، ينفض بإصبعه or finger flick/flip through sth to turn over the pages of a book, magazine, etc. quickly يتصفح بسرعة

▶ flick noun [C] a quick sudden movement or نقرة بالإصبع، ضربة خفيفة light blow flicker /'flikə(r)/ verb [I] 1 (used about a light or a flame) to burn or shine in a weak or unsteady way: The candle flickered and went out. (ضوء) يترجرج أو يضطرب

2 to move lightly and quickly up and down or backwards and forwards: His eyelids flickered for a second and then he lay still. يرفرف؛ يرفُ

▶ flicker noun [C, usually sing.] 1 a flickering movement

2 a slight feeling of sth: a flicker of hope ص؛ شعور خفي flies /flaiz/ noun pl. of FLY2

? flight<sup>1</sup> /flast / noun 1 [C] a journey in a plane, etc: to book a flight o a direct flight o a scheduled flight o a charter flight o They met on a flight to Australia. o a manned space flight to Mars

رحلة جوية

- 2 [C] a plane that takes you on a particular journey: Flight number 340 from London to New York is boarding now (= is ready for passengers to get on it). رحلة حوية معينة
- 3 [U] the action of flying: It's unusual to see swans in flight (= when they are flying). طيوان
- 4 [C] a number of stairs or steps leading up or قسم متواصل من درجات السلم down: a flight of stairs

flight<sup>2</sup> /flast/ noun [C,U] the act of running away or escaping put sb to flight to make sb run away يهزم، يطرد

- 'flight attendant noun [C] a person whose job is to serve and take care of passengers on an aircraft
- flimsy /'flimzi/ adj (flimsier; flimsiest) 1 (used about material) light and thin رقيق
- 2 (used about an object) not strong; easily غبرمتين broken
- 3 weak; not convincing you that it is true: He gave a flimsy excuse for his absence.
- flinch /flints/ verb [I] 1 to make a slight movement backwards because of sth painful or fright-
- 2 flinch from sth/from doing sth to avoid doing sth because it is unpleasant: She didn't flinch from telling him the whole truth.
- $fling^1/flin/verb$  [T] (pt, pp flung/flan/) to throw sb/sth suddenly or with great force: He flung his book on the floor and rushed out.
- fling2 /flin/ noun [C] a short period of fun and علاقة غرامية عابرة؛ فترة متعة قصيرة
- flint /flint/ noun 1 [U] very hard grey stone that produces small flames (sparks) when you strike it against steel
- 2 [C] a small piece of flint or metal that is used to produce sparks (for example in a cigarette حجر القدّاحة أو الولاّعة lighter)
- flip /flip/ verb (flipping; flipped) 1 [I,T] to turn with a quick movement: She flipped the book open and started to read. ينقلب أو يقلب بسرعة
- 2 [T] to throw sth into the air and make it turn over: Let's flip a coin to see who starts. يقذف (قطعة نقود) في الهواء فتتقلّب
- 3 [I] (informal) to become very angry or excited

PHRV flick/flip through sth → FLICK

'flip-flop noun [C] simple open shoe with a thin strap that goes between your big toe and the toe صندل له سير بين الابهام والأصابع next to it flippant /'flipant/ adj not serious or respectful enough about things that are important

غير جدى، أرعن

- flipper /'flipə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a flat limb that some sea animals use for swimming
- 2 a rubber shoe shaped like an animal's flipper that people wear so that they can swim better (especially under water): a pair of flippers

زعانف مطّاطية تلبس في القدمين

- flipping /'flipin/ adj, adv (informal) (used as a mild way of swearing): When's the flipping bus الخبيث، ثقيل الدم (شتيمة خفيفة تقال غيظاً)
- flirt /fl3:t/ verb [I] 1 to behave in a way that suggests you find sb attractive and are trying to attract him/her: Who was that boy Lucy was flirting with at the party? يغازل أو يداعب
- 2 flirt with sth to think about doing sth (but not تداعبه فكرة very seriously)
- ▶ flirt noun [C] a person who often flirts flit /flit/ verb [I] (flitting; flitted) to fly or move quickly from one place to another يطير أو يتنقل بسرعة

- مضيف أو مضيفة طائرة و Yfloat¹ /flout/ verb [I] 1 to stay on the surface of a liquid and not sink; to move gently on the surface of a liquid: Cork floats in water. O There was something floating near the bank of the river.
  - 2 to move slowly through the air: A leaf floated يسبح في الهُواء، يهيم gently down to the ground.
  - ▶ floating adj not fixed; not living permanently in one place: a floating population (one in which people frequently move from one place to another) o a floating voter (= a person who does not always vote for the same political party)

غير ثابت، متغير

- float2 /flout/ noun [C] 1 a light floating object used for helping people learn to swim
  - عه امة (لمساعدة السباحين)
  - 2 a light floating object used on a fishing line or عوَّامة صنَّارة الصيد
- 3 a lorry or other vehicle that is decorated and used in a procession عربة مفتوحة ومزينة تستعمل في المواكد
- flock /flpk/ noun [C] 1 a group of sheep, goats or birds 3 Look at herd. قطيع او سرب
- 2 a large number of people: Flocks of tourists visit London every summer.
- ▶ flock verb [I] to gather or go somewhere in large numbers: People are flocking to the exhib-يتدفّق؛ يحتشد ition in large numbers.
- flog /flog/ verb [T] (flogging; flogged) 1 (Brit in-يبيع شينأ للتخلص منه formal) to sell sth
- 2 to hit sb hard with a whip or stick as a punishment
- ▶ flogging noun [C,U] hitting sb with a whip or stick as a punishment
- ?flood<sup>1</sup> /flad/ verb [I,T] 1 to fill a place with water; to be filled or overflow with water: The river burst its banks and flooded the village. o The river Trent floods almost every year.

يفيض؛ يغمر بالماء

flood → flower

2 (used about a thought, feeling, etc.) to fill sb's mind suddenly: At the end of the day all his يطغى على (الأفكار) worries came flooding back. PHRV flood in to arrive in large numbers: Entries for the competition have been flooding ينهال على

- 'g flood' /flad/ noun [C] 1 (also floods [plural]) a large amount of water (from a river, the sea, etc.) that covers an area which should be dry: Many people have been forced to leave their homes because of the floods.
  - 2 a large number or amount: She received a flood of letters after the accident. O The little boy was in floods of tears (= crying a great deal).
- floodlight /'fladlart/ noun [C] a powerful light that is used for lighting sports grounds, the outside of public buildings, etc.

أنوار ساطعة توجه على المبنى

- floodlit /'fladlit/ adj lit by floodlights: a floodlit hockey match
- ? floor /flo:(r)/ noun 1 [C, usually sing.] the flat surface that you walk on indoors: Don't come in – there's broken glass on the floor! ○ There aren't enough chairs so some people will have to sit on the floor. o to sweep the floor o a wooden floor 2 Look at the note at ground. أرض الغرفة
  - 2 [C, usually sing.] the ground or surface at the bottom of the sea, a forest, etc: the ocean floor
  - 3 [C] a level in a building: Which floor is the طابق، دُور men's department on, please?

In Britain, the ground floor is the floor at street level, and the floor above is the first floor. In US English the first floor is the floor at street level.

? floor<sup>2</sup> /flo:(r)/ verb [T] to surprise or completely confuse sb with a question or a problem

يفحم، يربك

floorboard /'flo:bo:d/ noun [C] one of the long wooden boards used to make a floor

ألواح الأرضية الخث

- flop /flop/ verb [I] (flopping; flopped) 1 to move or fall in a heavy or an awkward way: I was so tired that all I could do was flop onto the sofa and يرتمي بتثاقل، يتهالك
- 2 to hang down loosely: I can't bear my hair يتهدل، يتدلّى flopping in my eyes.
- 3 (used about a book, film, record, etc.) to be unsuccessful with the public يفشل، يخفق
- ▶ flop noun [C] something that is not a success; a failure: Her first novel was very successful but بحاولة فاشلة her second was a flop.
- floppy /'flopi/ adj (floppier; floppiest) soft, loose and hanging downwards; not stiff: a floppy hat متدل، متهدل، مرتخ
- floppy 'disk (also floppy; diskette) noun [C] a square piece of plastic that can store information for a computer: Don't forget to back up your files onto a floppy disk. 2 Look at hard disk. القرص الليّن (في الكمبيوتر)

flora /'flo:rə/ noun [plural] all the plants growing in a particular area: He's studying the flora and fauna (= the plants and animals) of South Amer-نباتات منطقة معينة ica. 3 Look at fauna.

floral /'florral/ adj decorated with a pattern of flowers, or made with flowers

يزهر، مصنوع من الزهور

- florist /'florist; US 'flo:r-/ noun [C] a person who has a shop that sells flowers 6 The shop itself is called the florist's: I bought her a bunch of flowers at the florist's. بائع زهور
- flounder / 'flaundə(r)/ verb [I] 1 to move with difficulty or to struggle (e.g. when you are trying يتعثر، يتخبّط not to sink in water)
  - 2 to find it difficult to speak or act in a suitable way (usually in an awkward situation) يتلعثم، يرتبك

- flounder² /ˈflaʊndə(r)/ noun [C] a small flat sea سمك بحري مفلطح fish that you can eat
- If flour /'flavə(r)/ noun [U] a fine powder made from wheat or other grain and used for making breads, cakes, biscuits, etc.
- flourish /'flaris/ verb 1 [I] to be strong and healthy; to develop in a successful way: These plants flourish in a sunny position. o a flourishing new sports centre
  - 2 [T] to wave sth in the air so that people will يلوح (لجذب الانتباه) notice it
  - ▶ flourish noun [C, usually sing.] a movement that you make to attract attention
- flout /flaut/ verb [T] to refuse to obey or accept sth: to flout the rules of the organization o to flout sb's advice
- flow /flou/ verb [I] 1 to move in a smooth and continuous way (like water): This river flows south into the English Channel. o a fast-flowing stream o It was three hours before the traffic began to flow normally after the accident.

يسيل أو يجرى

- 2 (used about hair and clothes) to hang down in a loose way: a long flowing dress. يتهدل، يسترسل
- ▶ flow noun [sing.] 1 a steady, continuous movement of sth/sb: Press hard on the wound to stop the flow of blood. There's a steady flow of young people from the country to the towns.

تدفق

- 2 a supply of sth: a flow of information between جريان؛ إمداد the school and the parents
- flower /'flavə(r)/ noun [C] 1 the beautiful coloured part of a plant or tree from which seeds or fruit grow 1 A flower consists of several petals. It grows from a bud on the end of a stem.
  - 2 a plant that is grown for its flowers; a flower and its stem: She grows a lot of flowers but no vegetables. o a lovely bunch of flowers

نبات مزهر؛ زهرة

We pick flowers and arrange them in a vase. Flowers that are given or carried on a special occasion are called a bouquet.

▶ flower verb [I] to produce flowers: This plant flowers in late summer.

flowery adj 1 covered or decorated with flowers: a flowery dress, hat, wallpaper, etc.

مزخرف بالأزهار

2 (used about a style of speaking or writing) using long, difficult words

'flower bed (also bed) noun [C] a piece of ground in a garden or park where flowers are grown مفرس الأزهان "مَسْكَبَة"، "حوض زهور" flowerpot /ˈflaoəpot/ noun [C] a pot in which a plant can be grown flown pp of FLY2

fl oz (pl. fl oz) abbrev = fluid ounce(s)

? flu /flu:/ (also formal influenza) noun [U] an illness that is like a bad cold but more serious.

You usually have a temperature and your arms and legs ache: The whole family has got flu.

o They're in bed with flu.

fluctuate /ˈflʌktʃueɪt/ verb [I] fluctuate (between A and B) (used about prices and numbers, or people's feelings) to change frequently from one thing to another: The number of students fluctuates between 100 and 150.

Fluctuation /ˌflʌktʃu'eɪ∫n/ noun [C,U] تأرجح، تراوح، تقلب

fluent /flu:ant/ adj 1 fluent (in sth) able to speak or write a language easily and accurately: After a year in France she was fluent in France.

2 (used about speech, reading or writing) expressed in a smooth and accurate way: He speaks fluent German.

المعادة الله الله fluency /ˈflu:ənsi/ noun [U] المعادة أو طلاقة fluently adv

fluff /flnf/ noun [U] 1 small pieces of waste material (from woollen clothes, etc.) that form into halls and collect under furniture, in the corners of a room, etc. or on people's clothes

2 the soft new fur on young animals or birds

► fluffy adj (fluffier; fluffiest) very soft and light like fur: a fluffy jumper خفيف أو ناعم؛ منفوش خفيف أو ناعم؛ fluid /ˈfluːɪd/ noun [C] a substance that can flow; a liquid: The doctor told her to drink plenty of fluids.

o body fluids o cleaning fluids

▶ fluid adj 1 able to flow like a liquid

سائل أو مائع

2 (used about plans, etc.) able or likely to be changed fluid 'ounce noun [C] (abbr fl oz) a measure of liquid; in Britiain, 0.0284 of a litre; in the USA, 0.0295 of a litre. There are 20 fluid ounces in a British pint and 16 fluid ounces in an American pint.

fluke /flu:k/ noun [C, usually sing.] (informal) something good that happens by accident, not because you have been clever or skilful: The result was no fluke. The better team won.

مصادفة، ضربة حظ

flung pt, pp of FLING1

fluorescent /flo:'resnt/ adj 1 shining with a particular kind of hard white light: People often have fluorescent lighting in the kitchen.

(ضوء) نيون أو فلورسنت

2 very bright; seeming to shine: fluorescent pink socks

fluoride /ˈfluorad; US ˈflɔːr-/ noun [U] a chemical substance that can be added to water or toothpaste to help prevent tooth decay flurry /ˈflʌri/ noun [C] (pl. flurries) 1 a small amount of wind, rain or snow that comes suddenly (مطول خفيف مفاجئ (لمطر أو ثاج)

2 a short sudden burst of activity or feelings: a flurry of excitement فُورة (نشاط) مفاجئة

flush¹/flas// verb [I] (used about a person or his/ her face) to go red: Susan flushed and could not hide her embarrassment.

► flush noun [C, usually sing.] a rush of blood to the face that makes it look red flushed adj with a hot red face: You look very flushed. Are you sure you're all right?

flush² /flas/ verb 1 [T] to clean a toilet by pressing or pulling a handle that sends a stream of water into the toilet: Please remember to flush the toilet.

شند "السيفون" ويشطف السرحاض

2 [I] (used about a toilet) to be cleaned with a stream of water: The toilet won't flush.

"السيفون" لا يشد (أي معطل)

3 [T] flush sth away, down, etc. to get rid of sth in a stream of water: You can't flush tea leaves down the sink - they'll block it.

fluster /ˈflʌstə(r)/ verb [T] (usually passive) to make sb feel nervous and confused (because there is too much to do or not enough time): Don't get flustered – there's plenty of time.

flute /flu:t/ noun [C] a musical instrument like a pipe that you hold sideways and play by blowing over a hole at one side فلوت (الله موسيقية)

▶ flutist /'flu:tist/ noun [C] (US) = FLAUTIST flutter /ˈflʌtə(r)/ verb 1 [I,T] to move up and down or from side to side quickly and lightly; to make sth move in this way: The flags were fluttering in the wind. • The bird fluttered its wings and tried to fly.

2 [I] to move lightly through the air: The dead leaves fluttered to the ground.

3 [I] when your heart or stomach flutters, you are feeling nervous and excited ▶ flutter noun [C, usually sing.] 1 a quick, light movement

2 a state of nervous excitement: I always get in a flutter before I go on holiday. اضطراب أو اهتياج flux /flnks/ noun [U] continuous change; the state of not being settled: a country in a state of flux

تفير مستمر

? fly¹ /flaɪ/ verb (pres part flying; 3rd pers sing pres flies; pt flew /flu:/; pp flown /floon/) 1 [I] (used about a bird, insect, aircraft, etc.) to move through the air: This bird has a broken wing and cannot fly. o I can hear a plane flying overhead.

- 2 [I,T] to travel in or to carry sth in an aircraft, etc: My daughter is flying (out) to Singapore next week. O Supplies of food were flown (in) to the starving people.
- 3 [I.T] (used about a pilot) to control an aircraft, etc: You have to have special training to fly a jumbo jet.
- 4 [T] to travel over an area of land or sea by flying: Concorde could fly the Atlantic in three hours.
- ${f 5}$  [I] to move quickly or suddenly: It's late. I must fly.  $\circ$  A large stone came flying through the window.
- 6 [I] (used about time) to pass quickly: The weekend has just flown (by) and now it's Monday again.
- 7 [I,T] to move about in the air; to make sth move about in the air: The flags are flying.

  Let's go and fly our kite! ↑ The noun is flight.

DM as the crow flies → crow¹ fly off the handle (informal) to become very angry

let fly (at sb/sth) 1 to shout angrily at sb: My parents really let fly at me when I got home late.

- 2 to attack sb in anger: She let fly at him with her fists.
- List fly<sup>2</sup> /flat/ noun [C] (pl. flies) a small insect with two wings: There were flies buzzing round the dead cow.
  - fly<sup>3</sup> /flat/ noun [C] (also flies [plural]) a flap of cloth that covers the zip or buttons on the front of a pair of trousers: Henry, your flies are undone.
- flying /'flam/ adj able to fly: flying insects

قادر على الطيران، طائر with flying colours with great success; very well: Martin passed the exam with flying colours.

get off to a flying start to begin sth well and so get some advantage ▶ flying noun {U} travelling in a plane, etc: I don't like flying.

ıflying 'visit noun [C] a very quick visit: I can't stop. This is just a flying visit.

flyover /ˈflaɪəʊvə(r)/ (US overpass) noun [C] a type of bridge that carries a road over another road مَشْرُ وَقَى، "كوبري علوي"

FM /,ef 'em/ abbrev frequency modulation; one of the systems of broadcasting radio signals تضمین التردد (رادیو)

foal /feol/ noun [C] a young horse 🗢 Look at the note at horse.

foam /foum/ noun [U] 1 a mass of small white bubbles that are formed when air and a liquid are mixed together: white foam on the tops of the waves

- 2 an artificial substance that looks like foam: shaving foam (مادة مزيدة (صابون الحلاقة مثلاً)
- 3 (also foam rubber) soft rubber or plastic that is used inside seats, cushions, etc.

مطّاط اسفنجي

▶ foam verb [I] to produce foam: The dog was foaming at the mouth.

fob /fob/ verb (tobbing; fobbed)

PHRY fob sb off (with sth); fob sth off on sb to try to give sb something that is not suitable or that is not what he/she wants: Don't try to fob me off with that old car - I want a new one.  $\circ$  Don't try and fob that old car off on me.

يتخلّص من شخص بالوعود؛ يصرّف عليه بضاعة ردينة ومن مراط العرب المراجع المراجع المراجع المحدد المراجع المراجع المراجع المراجع المراجع المراجع المراجع المراجع focal point / foukl 'point / noun [sing.] the centre of interest or activity

- ? focus /ˈfəokəs/ noun [C] (pl. focuses) 1 the point at which rays of light meet or from which they appear to come
  - 2 [usually sing.] the centre of interest or attention; special attention that is given to sb/sth: The school used to be the focus of village life.

    o Tonight our focus will be on modern jazz.

ىركز؛ تركيز

mm in focus/out of focus (used about a photograph or sth in a photograph) clear/not clear: This photo is so badly out of focus that I can't recognize anyone.

واضحة/غير وأضحة (بسبب حسن أو سوء تركيز العدسة)

- ▶ focus verb (focussing; focussed or focusing; focused) focus (sth) (on sth) 1 [T] to direct rays of light onto one particular point
  - يركز أو يجمّع في بؤرةً
- 2 [I,T] to be or become able to see clearly; to adjust your eyes so that you can see clearly: Gradually his eyes focused. She focussed her eyes on the page.
- 3 [I.T] to adjust a camera so that the picture that you are taking will be clear: I focussed on the person in the middle of the group.

يركّز عدسة الكاميرا

4 [I,T] to give all your attention to sth: to focus on a problem  $\circ$  to focus attention on a problem y رکز اهتمامه علی fodder /ˈfɒdə(r)/ noun [U] food that is given to farm animals

عدو أو خصم foe /fou/ noun [C] (formal) an enemy

foetus (US fetus) /ˈfiːtəs/ noun [C] (pl. foetuses; fetuses) a young human or animal that is still developing in its mother's body 6 An embryo is at an earlier stage of development.

fog /fog; US fo:g/ noun 1 [U] thick cloud that forms close to or just above the land or sea. Fog makes it difficult for us to see: Patches of dense fog are making driving dangerous. • The fog had lifted/cleared by midday.

Fog is thicker than mist. Haze is caused by heat. Smog is caused by pollution. Look at the note at weather.

2 [C] a period of fog: Thick fogs are common in November.

► foggy adj (foggier; foggiest) used to describe the weather when there is a fog: a foggy morning

IDM not have the faintest/foggiest (idea) → FAINT

foil¹/forl/ noun [U] metal that has been rolled or beaten into very thin sheets, often used when you are wrapping or cooking food: tin/aluminium foil ورق المنبوم"، رقاقة معدنية

foil² /foil/ verb [T] to prevent sb from succeeding or from carrying out his/her plans; to prevent a plan from succeeding: The prisoners were foiled in their attempt to escape.

foist /foist/ verb

PHRV foist sth on/upon sb to force sb to accept sth that he/she does not want

يكرِه شخصاً على قبول شيء ما

Ffold /foold/ verb 1 [T] fold sth (up) to bend one part of sth over another part in order to make it smaller, tidier, etc: He folded the letter into three before putting it into the envelope. • Fold up your clothes neatly, please. 6 The opposite is unfold.

لوی

- 2 [I] fold (up) to be able to be folded in order to be easier to carry or to store: This yarden table folds up flat. o a folding bed
- 3 [I] fold (up) (used about a business, a play in the theatre, etc.) to close because it is unsuccessful يتوقف أو ينتهي (لفشله)

DM cross/fold your arms → ARM1

- ► fold noun [C] 1 the mark or line where sth has been folded ثنية أو طيّة
- 2 a curved shape that is made by a piece of material, etc. that has been folded:  $the\ folds\ of\ a$  dress
- folder /ˈfəʊldə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a cardboard or plastic cover that is used for holding papers, etc.
- 2 a collection of information or files on one subject that is stored in a computer or on a disk مجلَّد أَو إِخْبَارِة (في الكمبيوتر)
- foliage /ˈfəʊliɪdʒ/ noun [U] (formal) all the leaves of a tree or plant أوراق النبتة أو الشجرة
- folk /fəʊk/ noun 1 [plural] (US folks) (informal) people in general: Some folk are never satisfied.
- 2 [plural] a particular type of people: Old folk often don't like change.  $\circ$  country folk

زمرة معيّنة من الناس

- 3 folks [plural] (informal) used as a friendly way of addressing more than one person: What shall we do today, folks?
- 4 folks [plural] (informal) your parents or close relatives: How are your folks?

  ► folk adj traditional in a community; of a traditional style: Robin Hood is an English folk hero. o folk music o a folk song folklore /'fəʊklɔ:(r)/ noun [U] (the study of) the traditional stories and beliefs of a community الفولكلور أو التقاليد الشمبية

- Rfollow /ˈfɒləu/ verb 1 [I,T] to come, go or happen after sb/sth: You go first and I'll follow (on) later.

  The dog followed her wherever she went. The crash was followed by a scream and then there was silence. The news will be followed by a programme on the situation in West Africa. We had steak followed by fresh fruit.
  - 2 [T] to go after sb in order to catch him/her: Go a bit slower! I think the police are following us! مَلَحَقَ أَنْ يَعْتَشَرُ
  - 3 [T] to go along a road, etc; to go in the same direction as sth: Follow this road for a mile and then turn right at the pub. o The road follows the river for a few miles.
  - 4 [T] to accept advice, instructions, an example, etc. and do what you have been told or shown to do: When lighting fireworks, it is important to follow the instructions carefully. She always follows the latest fashions.
  - 5 [I,T] to understand the meaning of sth: I'm sorry, I don't follow. The children couldn't follow the plot of that film.
  - 6 [T] to watch or listen to sb/sth very carefully: You'll have to follow what he says very carefully if you want to understand it.
  - 7 [T] to take an active interest in sth: Have you been following the tennis championships?
  - 8 [I] follow (on) (from sth) to happen as a result of sth; to be the necessary result of sth: It doesn't follow that old people can't lead active lives.
  - 9 [T] to happen in the planned or expected way: The day's events followed the usual pattern. پسیر علی ما پرام as follows (used for introducing a list):

The names of the successful candidates are as follows ...

follow sb's example/lead to do what sb else has done or decided to do

follow suit to do the same thing that sb else has just done يعلو حلو PHRY follow sth through to continue doing يتام قضية حتى نهايتها follow sth up 1 to take further action about sth: You should follow up your letter with a phone متياد بلاحق.

- 2 to find out more about sth: We need to follow up the story about the school.
- ► follower noun [C] a person who follows or supports a person, belief, etc.
- R following /ˈfɒləʊɪŋ/ adj 1 next (in time): He was taken ill on Sunday and died the following week.
- 2 (in a list) that I will mention now: Please could you bring the following items to the meeting ... التالي أو ما يلي

We can also use the following as a noun: The following are the winners of the competition...

▶ following noun [sing.] a group of people who # follow-up → football support or admire sth: Buddhism has quite a large following in Japan. أتباع أو معجّبون following prep after; as a result of: Following the riots many students have been arrested.

'follow-up noun [C] something that is done to continue sth: As a follow-up to the television series, the BBC is publishing a book on the subject.

folly /'foli/ noun [C,U] (pl. follies) (formal) a foolish act: It would be folly to ignore their warn-fond /fpnd/ adj 1 (not before a noun) fond of sb/ sth; fond of doing sth liking a person or a thing, or liking doing sth: We're all very fond of Mrs Simpson: o He's a good cook. I'm especially fond of his chicken casserole. O I'm not very fond محبّ ل، مولع بـ of getting up early.

2 (only before a noun) kind and loving: I have fond memories of both my aunts. حنون، رقيق

3 (only before a noun) wished or hoped for but unlikely to come true: She had a fond belief that بعيد التحقيق David would come back. بحنان، بحبٌ

▶ fondly adv 1 in a loving way

2 in a foolish way: I fondly imagined that you liked me. بحماقة أو بسذاجة fondness noun [U] a liking for sb/sth وآع أو شُغَف fondle /'fondl/ verb [T] to touch or stroke sb/sth in a loving way يلمس برقّة، يداعب

?food /fu:d/ noun 1 [U] something that people, animals or plants take into their bodies in order to keep them alive and healthy: There is a short-غذاء، طعام age of food in some areas.

2 [C,U] a particular type of food that you eat: baby food ○ We eat a lot of health foods. ○ food and drink مأكولات، طعام

'food poisoning noun [U] an illness that is مَّمُ من الطعام caused by eating food that is bad

'food processor noun [C] an electric machine that can mix food and also cut or slice food into آلة كهربائية لتحضير الطعام small pieces foodstuff /'fu:dstAf/ noun [C, usually pl.] a substance that is used as food: There has been a sharp rise in the cost of basic foodstuffs.

fool /fu:1/ noun [C] a person who is silly or who acts in a silly way: I felt such a fool when I realized my mistake. O She was fool enough to believe it when he said that he loved her. 2 Look at April

IDM make a fool of sb/yourself to make sb/ يجعله أضحوكة yourself look foolish or silly ▶ fool verb 1 [T] to trick sb: Don't be fooled into believing everything that the salesman says يخدع

2 [I] to speak without being serious: You didn't really believe me when I said I was going to America, did you? I was only fooling. PHRV fool about/around to behave in a silly way: Stop fooling around with that knife or someone will get hurt!

foolhardy /'fu:lha:di/ adj taking unnecessary متهور أو مخاطر (حماقة) foolish /'fu:lrʃ/ adj 1 silly; not sensible: I was foolish enough to trust him.

2 looking silly or feeling embarrassed: He felt rather foolish when he couldn't start his motorcycle in front of his friends.

▶ foolishly adv foolishness noun [U]

بغباء حماقة

foolproof /'fu:lpru:f/ adj not capable of going wrong or being wrongly used: Our security system is absolutely foolproof.

(جهاز) غاية في سهولة الاستعمال، مضمونٌ

?foot1 /fvt/ noun [C] (pl. feet /fixt/) 1 the lowest part of the leg, below the ankle, on which a person or animal stands: She rose to her feet (= she stood up). o What size feet have you got? o big/ small feet o wide/narrow feet o She sat by the fire and the dog sat at her feet. o a foot brake (= one that is operated by your foot) 6 When you walk somewhere you go on foot.

2 the part of a sock, etc. into which you put your

3 (abbr ft; ft.) a measure of length; 30.48 centimetres. There are 12 inches in a foot, and 3 feet in a yard: 'How tall are you?' 'Five foot two (inches).'  $\circ$  a six-foot high wall  $\odot$  The plural can قدم (مقياس للطول) be feet or foot.

4 [sing.] the bottom of sth: There's a note at the foot of the page. o sitting at the foot of the stairs أسفل أو ذيل؛ سفح (الجبل) 1 The opposite is top.

5 [sing.] the end of a bed where the feet go 1 The opposite is head. أسفل أو ذيل (السرير)

find your feet → FIND1 get/have cold feet → COLD1 put your foot down (informal) to say firmly that sth must (not) happen: Susan put her foot down and said that the children could only watch an hour of television each evening.

put your foot in it (informal) to say or do sth that upsets or embarrasses sb (هفوة) توقع في مأزق set foot in/on sth → SET2 stand on your own (two) feet to take care of yourself without help; to be independent foot<sup>2</sup> /fut/ verb

foot the bill (for sth) to pay (for sth)

footage /'fotid3/ noun [U] part of a film showing a particular event: The documentary included footage of the assassination of Kennedy. مقطع من فيلم

Ifootball /'futbo:l/ noun 1 (also soccer) [U] a game that is played by two teams of eleven players who try to kick a round ball into a goal: a foot-(لعبة) كرة القدم ball pitch o a football match

In the US soccer is the usual word for this game since Americans use the word football to refer to American Football.

football pools → forbid

307

 ${f 2}$  [C] the large round ball that is used in this game

Footballer noun [C] a person who plays football, especially as a professional 'football pools (also the pools) noun [plural] a game in which people bet money on the results of football matches and can win large amounts بانصيب كرة القدم foothold /fothoold/ noun [C] a place where you can safely put your foot when you are climbing: (figurative) We need to get a foothold in the European market.

footing /ˈfotɪn/ noun [sing.] 1 being able to stand firmly on a surface: He lost his footing on the wet floor and fell. • (figurative) The company is now on a firm footing and should soon show a profit.
روح القلمين: أسلس وطيد

2 the level or position of sb/sth (in relation to sb/sth else): to be on an equal footing with sb مستوى أو مكانة احتماعية

footnote /ˈfotnəʊt/ noun [C] an extra piece of information that is added at the bottom of a page in a book تنييل أو حاشية footpath /ˈfotpɑːθ; US -pæθ/ noun [C] a path for people to walk on, especially in the country: α public footpath footprint / 'fotprint / noun [C] a mark that is left by a foot or a shoe footstep /'fotstep/ noun [C] the sound of sb walking; the mark that a person leaves when walking: I heard his footsteps in the hall.

خطوة أو وَقْع قدم

footwear / fotwea(r) / noun [U] boots or shoes

- Pfor 1/fo(r); strong form fo:(r)/prep 1 (showing the person who will receive sth): Here is a letter for you. Save a piece of cake for Mary. He made lunch for them. She bought some sweets for the children.
  - 2 (showing purpose or use): What's this gadget for? o Let's go for a walk. o Please get me a shampoo for dry hair. o Shall we have eggs for breakfast? o What did you do that for? (= Why did you do that?)
  - 3 (showing where sb/sth is going to): Is this the train for Glasgow? They set off for the shops. نحو. إلى
  - 4 intended to be used by a particular group or in a particular way: It's a book for children. o That chair is for visitors. o Is the flat for sale?
  - 5 in order to help sb/sth: What can I do for you?
    You should take some medicine for your cold.
    Doctors are fighting for his life. Take care of her for my sake.
  - 6 (showing the price of sth): I bought this car for £2 000. She gave me their old TV for nothing.
  - 7 (showing a reason): He was sent to prison for robbery. O I couldn't speak for laughing.

8 on the occasion of: What did they give you for your birthday?

9 in support of (sb/sth): Three cheers for the winner! ○ Are you for or against shops opening on Sundays?

10 as a representative of (sb/sth): Who's the MP for Bradford? • She plays hockey for England.

11 meaning or representing (sb/sth): What's the 'C' for in 'BBC'? • What's the Russian for 'window'?

12 (after a verb) in order to have or get sth: She asked me for help.

13 (after an adjective) when you consider what you could expect: She's tall for her age.  $\circ$  It's quite warm for January.

14 (after a comparative adjective) after sth:
We'll all feel better for a good night's sleep.

15 (used when you give one thing and get sth else back): I want to exchange this sweater for a larger one.

16 (showing a length of time): I'm going away for a few days. • They have left the town for good (= they will not return). • He was in prison for 20 years (= he is not in prison now). • He has been in prison for 20 years (= he is still in prison).

Since is used with a point in time for showing when something began: He has been in prison since 1970. Ago is also used for showing when something began: He went to prison 20 years ago.

17 (showing that sth has been arranged to happen at a particular time): The appointment is for 10.30. • We've booked our holiday for the second week in July.

18 (showing when sth happens): I'm warning you for the last time.  $\circ$  I met him for the second time yesterday.

19 (showing a distance): He walked for ten miles.

be (in) for it (Brit informal) to be going to get into trouble or be punished. If you arrive late again you'll be in for it.

for all in spite of: For all his money, he's a very lonely man.

for ever → FOREVER (1)

for<sup>2</sup> /fa(r); strong form fɔ:(r)/ conj (formal) because: The children soon lost their way, for they had never been in the forest alone before.

أن أو بسبب

forbid /fəˈbɪd/ verb [T] (pres part forbidding; pt forbade /fəˈbæd; US fəˈbeɪd/ or forbad /fəˈbæd/; pp forbidden /fəˈbɪdn/) 1 forbid sb to do sth to order sb not to do sth: My parents forbade me to see Tim again.

2 to not allow sth: Smoking is forbidden inside the building.

▶ forbidding adj looking unfriendly or un-

force → the Foreign and Commonwealth Office

attractive: The coast near the village is rather grey and forbidding.

- Fforce<sup>1</sup> /fo:s/ noun 1 [U] physical strength or power: The force of the explosion knocked them to the ground. The police used force to break up the demonstration.
  - 2 [U] power and influence: His arguments lost some of their force when they were translated into French.
  - 3 [C] a person or thing that has power or influence: Britain is no longer a major force in international affairs. دولة كبري، مركز قوة
  - 4 [C,U] (technical) a power that can cause change or movement: the force of gravity
  - 5 [C, usually sing.] a measure of wind strength: a force 9 gale
  - 6 [C] a group of people who are trained for a particular purpose: a highly trained workforce a UN peace-keeping force the police force

قوة منظمة أو هيئة . DM bring sth/come into force to start using a new law, etc.; to start being used: The government want to bring new anti-pollution legislation into force next year. تطبيق أو سريان قانون in force 1 (used about people) in large numbers: The police were present in force at the football match.

- 2 (used about a law, rule, etc.) being used: The new laws about rear seat belts in cars are now in force.
- ? force /fɔːs/ verb [T] 1 to make sb do sth that he/ she does not want to do: The bank robber forced the staff and customers to lie on the floor. • She forced herself to speak to him.
  - 2 to use physical strength to do sth or to move sth: The window had been forced open. • We had to force our way through the crowd.

forceful /'fɔ:sfl/ adj strong; powerful: He has a very forceful personality. o a forceful speech

قوي الشخصية؛ (حَطابٌ) يؤثّر َّفي الجمهّور

(يفعل شيئا) عُنُوةُ أو بالقوة

forceps /fo.seps/ noun [plural] a special instrument that looks like a pair of scissors but is not sharp. Forceps are used by doctors for holding things firmly: a pair of forceps forcible /ˈfɔːsəbl/ adj (only before a noun) 1 done using (physical) force: The police made a forcible entry into the building.

- 2 (used about ideas, an argument, etc.) strong; convincing: a forcible reminder
- ▶ forcibly /-əbli/ adv using force: The children were forcibly removed from their parents.

ford /fɔːd/ noun [C] a place in a river where the water is shallow and it is easy to walk or drive across مخاصة (في النهر)

fore /fo:(r)/ noun

DM be/come to the fore to be in or get into an important position so that you are noticed by people forearm /'fo:rq:m/ noun [C] the lower part of your arm between your elbow and your wrist

foreboding /fɔ:'bəʊdɪŋ/ noun [U, sing.] a strong feeling that danger or trouble is coming Rforecast /ˈfoːkuːst; US -kæst/ verb [T] (pt, pp forecast or forecasted) to say (with the help of information) what will probably happen in the future: The Chancellor did not forecast the sudden rise in inflation. o Rain has been forecast for to-morrow.

► forecast noun [C]: The weather forecast said it would be fine tomorrow.

forecourt /ˈfɔːkɔːt/ noun [C] a large open area in front of a building such as a petrol station باحة أمام المبنى forefinger /ˈfɔːfɪŋgə(r)/ noun [C] the finger next to the thumb t We also say index finger.

forefront /ˈfɔːfrʌnt/ noun [sing.] the leading position; the position at the front: Our department is right at the forefront of scientific research.

forego = FORGO

foregone /ˈfɔːgɒn; US -ˈgɔːn/ adj

That is or was certain to happen a result that is or was certain to happen foreground /ˈfɔ:graund/ noun [sing.] the foreground 1 the part of a view, picture, etc. that appears closest to the person looking at it: Notice the artist's use of colour in the foreground of the picture.

2 a position where you will be noticed most: He likes to be in the foreground at every meeting.

. مقلمة

Look at background.

forehand /'fo:hænd/ noun [C] a stroke in tennis, etc. that is made with the inside of your hand facing forward ⊃ Look at backhand.

(في التنس) ضربة أمامية forehead /ˈfɔːhed; US ˈfɔːrɪd/ (also brow) noun [C] the flat part of a person's face above the eyes and below the hair

- reforeign /ˈforən; US fɔ:r-/ adj 1 belonging to or connected with a country that is not your own: a foreign country o to learn a foreign language o a foreign coin
  - 2 dealing with or involving other countries: foreign policy (= government decisions concerning other countries) o the French Foreign Minister
  - 3 (used about an object or a substance) not belonging where it is: The X-ray showed up a foreign body (= object) in her stomach.
  - ► foreigner noun [C] a person who belongs to a country that is not your own: London is full of foreigners in the summer.

the Foreign and 'Commonwealth Office (abbr FCO) [sing., with sing. or pl. verb] the British government department that deals with relations with other countries. • Many people

foreign exchange → forget

still refer to this department by its old name, the Foreign Office. وزارة الخارجية والكومنولث foreign ex'change noun [C,U] the system of buying and selling money from a different country; the place where it is bought and sold: The pound dropped against the dollar on the foreign exchanges yesterday.

Foreign 'Secretary noun [C] (pl. Foreign Secretaries) the British government minister who is responsible for dealing with foreign countries 2 Look at Home Secretary.

foremost /ˈfɔːməust/ adj most famous or important; best: Laurence Olivier was among the foremost actors of the century. الْهُمُ: في المكان الأول mifirst and foremost > First² forename /'fo:nem/ noun [C] (formal) your first name, that is given to you when you are born Dook at the note at name!

forensic /fəˈrensɪk; US-zɪk/ adj connected with the law and finding out about a crime: The police are carrying out forensic tests to try and find out the cause of death. • forensic medicine

(طبّ) شَرْعيّ

forerunner /ˈfɔːrʌnə(r)/ noun [C] a person or thing that is an early example or a sign of sth that appears or develops later foresee /fo:'si:/ verb [T] (pt foresaw /fo:'so:/; pp foreseen /fo:'si:n/) to know or guess that sth is going to happen in the future: Nobody could have foreseen the result of the election. 2 Look at unforeseen.

► foreseeable /-obl/ adj that can be expected: These problems were foreseeable. ○ The weather won't change in the foreseeable future (= as far ahead as we can see).

foresight /ˈfɔːsaɪt/ noun [U] the ability to see what will probably happen in the future (and to make wise plans). My neighbour had the foresight to move house before the new motorway was built.

D Look at hindsight.

foreskin /forskin/ noun [C] the loose piece of skin that covers the end of the penis skin that covers the en

Reforest /'forist; US foir-/ noun [C,U] a large area of land that is covered with trees: tropical rain forests o A large part of Canada is covered in forest.
o a forest fire A forest is larger than a wood. A jungle is a forest in a tropical part of the world.

► forestry noun [U] the science of planting and taking care of trees in forests forestall /fɔ:'stɔ:l/ verb [T] to act before sb else in order to prevent him/her from doing sth; to prevent an action from taking place by doing sth that will stop it foretell /fo:'tel/ verb [T] (pt, pp foretold /fo:'teold/) (formal) to say what will happen in the future

forethought /'fo:0o:t/ noun [U] careful thought about, or preparation for, the future

تدبّر؛ نظر في العواقب

foretold pt, pp of foretell

Tforever /fər'evə(r)/ adv 1 (also for ever) for all time; permanently: I wish the holidays would last forever! o I realized that our relationship had finished forever. o My sister always takes forever (= a very long time) in the bathroom. دائمة: إلى الأبد 2 (with verbs in the continuous forms) very

2 (with verbs in the continuous forms) very often: Our neighbours are forever having noisy parties.

foreword /ˈfoːwɜːd/ noun [C] a piece of writing at the beginning of a book that introduces the book and/or its author (حتاب) forfeit /ˈfɔːfɪt/ verb [T] to lose sth or no longer have sth because you have done sth wrong or because you want to achieve an aim: Because of his violent behaviour he forfeited the right to visit his children.

forgave pt of FORGIVE

forge¹/fɔ:dʒ/ noun [C] a workshop where metals are heated and shaped, especially one where a blacksmith works making and fitting shoes for horses forge<sup>2</sup>/fo:d3/verb [T] 1 to make a copy of sth in order to deceive people: to forge a signature

2 to create a relationship with sb/sth: Our school has forged links with a school in Romania. كون (علاقة)

Forgery /ˈfoːdʒəri/ noun (pl. forgeries) 1 [U] the crime of copying a document, signature, painting, etc. in order to deceive people

2 [C] a document, signature, picture, etc. that has been forged: The painting that had been sold as a Rembrandt was discovered to be a forgery.

forge<sup>3</sup> /fo:d3/ verb

They forge ahead to go forward very quickly; to move into the leading position: It is now time to forge ahead with our plans to open a new shop.

عبض قلماً يستون بشق طريقه

**Forget | fa'get | verb (pt forgot | fa'gnt |; pp forgotten | fa'gntn |) 1 [I.T] forget about sth to fail to remember sth; to lose the memory of sth: Why didn't you come to the party?' Oh dear! I completely forgot about it!' \( \circ \) You never forget how to ride a bicycle. \( \circ \) I've forgotten what I was going to say. \( \circ \) I've forgotten the telephone number. \( \circ \) He forgot that he had invited her to the party. \( \circ \) I'll never forget meeting my husband for the first time.

2 [I,T] to fail to remember to do sth: Try not to forget about feeding the cat!

Don't forget to do your homework!

3 [T] to fail to bring sth with you: When my father got to the airport he realized he'd forgotten his passport.

When we are talking about where we have forgotten something we have to use the word leave. We CANNOT say: 'My father forgot his passport at home'. We have to say: 'He left his passport at home'.

forget-me-not → formal

- 4 [T] to stop thinking about sth: Forget about your work and enjoy yourself! o Tm sorry I shouted at you.' Forget it.' (= don't worry about it)
- 5 [T] forget yourself to behave without proper control; to behave in a way that is not like the way you usually behave: When he heard the news he completely forgot himself and kissed everybody in the room!
- ▶ forgetful /-fl/ adj often forgetting things: My mother's nearly 80 and she's starting to get a bit forgetful.
- forget-me-not /fəˈget mi not/ noun [C,U] a small plant with tiny blue flowers, or a number of these
- Rforgive /fəˈgɪv/ verb [T] (pt forgave /fəˈgɪv/; pp forgiven /fəˈgɪvn/) 1 forgive sb (sth/for sth/for doing sth) to stop being angry towards sb or about sth: I can't forgive his behaviour last night. I can't forgive him his behaviour last night. I can't forgive him for his behaviour last night. I can't forgive him for behaving like that last night.
  - 2 (used for apologizing politely): Forgive me for asking, but where did you get that dress? ▶ forgivable /-abl/ adj that can be forgiven
  - مَعْدُورُ مَفْوُرِ ⊕ The opposite is unforgivable. معْدُورُ مَفْوُر forgiveness noun [U] the act of forgiving عفو! غفران forgiving adj ready and willing to forgive forgo (also forego) /fɔ:'gəʊ/ verb [T] (pt forwent /fɔ:'went/; pp forgone /fɔ:'gən; US -ˈgɔːn/) to be willing not to have sth nice or sth that you have a right to: We'll have to forgo a holiday this year if we want to buy a car.

forgot pt of forget

forgotten pp of FORGET

- ? fork /fo:k/ noun [C] 1 a small implement with a handle and two or more points (prongs). You use a fork for lifting food to your mouth when eating: knives, forks and spoons
  - 2 a large tool with a handle and three or more points (prongs) that you use for digging the ground شوكة. منكش
  - 3 a place where a road, river, etc. divides into two parts; one of these parts: After about two miles you'll come to a fork in the road. Take the right fork and keep going for another two miles.
  - ► fork verb [I] 1 (used about a road, river, etc.) to divide into two parts
  - 2 to go along the left or right fork of a road: Fork right up the hill.
  - PHRV fork out sth (informal) to pay: I forked out over £20 for that book.
- forlorn /fəˈlɔːn/ adj lonely and unhappy; not cared for
- ? form¹ /fo:m/ noun 1 [C] a particular type of sth or way of doing sth: Swimming is an excellent form of exercise. ○ We never eat meat in any form.

- o What form will the meeting take? (= How will it be organized?)
- 2 [C,U] the shape of sb/sth: The articles will be published in book form.
- 3 [C] a piece of paper with questions on it and spaces where you give answers and personal information: a booking form o an entry form for a competition o to fill in an application form € In American English we fill out a form.
- 4 [C] a class in a school: the sixth form

قصا ، صد

In Britain, the years at secondary school used to be called first/second/third, etc. form but now they are called Year 7 to Year 11. However the last two years of school (for pupils aged between 16 and 18 are still referred to as the sixth form

- 5 [C] (grammar) a way of spelling or changing a word in a sentence: the irregular forms of the verbs o The plural form is 'mice'.
- 6 [U] the strength or fitness of a sports player, team, etc: to be in/out of form o to be on/off form
- 7 [U] the record of how well sb/sth has done sth recently: On present form the Italian team should win easily.

  —بحلُ التفرق

IDM true to form → TRUE

- They formal verb 1 [T] to make or organize sth:

  They formed a group called 'Citizens for Nature'.

  to form a government o In English we usually form the past tense by adding '-ed'.
  - 2 [T] to take the shape of sth: A sofa bed is a sofa that you can pull out to form a bed.
  - 3 [I,T] to move into the shape or order mentioned: The police formed a circle around the house.
  - 4 [T] to be the thing mentioned: Seminars form the main part of the course (= The main part of the course consists of seminars).
  - 5 [I,T] to begin to exist or to make sth exist; to begin to have sth: Buds form on trees in the early spring. o The rain had formed a huge puddle on the road. o We formed a very good impression of the school on our first visit.
- rformal /ˈfɔːml/adj 1 (used about language or behaviour) used when you want to appear serious or official and when you are in a situation in which you do not know the other people very well: 'Yours faithfully' is a formal way of ending a letter. o She has a very formal manner she doesn't seem to be able to relax. o a formal occasion (= one where you must behave politely and wear the clothes that people think are suitable)

In this dictionary some words and) phrases are marked (formal) or (informal). This will help you to choose the right word for a particular situation. Often there is an informal or neutral word with a similar meaning to a more formal one.

- 2 public and official: I shall make a formal complaint to the hospital about the way I was treated.
- 3 (only before a noun) obtained in a school or college: You do not need any formal qualifications for this job but we would like you to have some experience.
- ▶ formally /-li/ adv
- formality /fɔ:ˈmæləti/ noun (pl. formalities) 1 [C] an action that is necessary according to custom or law: There are certain formalities to attend to before we can give you a visa. مراسم، اجراء شکلی
- If an action is just a formality, we mean that people think that it is necessary according to custom or law but that it has no real importance or effect otherwise.
- 2 [U] careful attention to rules of language and behaviour
- format /ˈfɔːmæt/ noun [C] the shape of sth or the way it is arranged or produced: It's the same book but in a different format.
- Format verb [T] (formatting; formatted) to arrange sth in a particular format, usually for a computer: to format a disk
- formation /fɔ:'meɪʃn/ noun 1 [U] the making or developing of sth: the formation of a new government تشكيل: تشكُل تشكُل
- 2 [C.U] an arrangement or pattern (especially of soldiers, aeroplanes, ships, etc.): A number of planes flew over in formation.
  - تشكيلة (من جنود أو طائرات ألخ...)
- 3 [C] a thing that is formed; the particular way in which it is formed: rock formations o cloud formations
- formative /ˈfɔːmətɪv/ adj having an important and lasting influence (on sb's character and opinions): A child's early years are thought to be the most formative ones.
- Pformer¹ /'fɔ:mə(r)/ adj (only before a noun) of an earlier time; previous: Jimmy Carter, the former American President o Their new neighbour is a former teacher. o In former times people often had larger families.
- Pformer<sup>2</sup> /'fɔ:mə(r)/ adj, noun the first (of two people or things just mentioned): Of the two hospitals in the town—the General and the Royal—the former (= the General) has the better reputation.

  The opposite is the latter.
- Pformerly | fo:meli| adv in the past; previously:

  the country of Myanmar (formerly Burma) o The hotel was formerly a castle. Used to is a more common way of expressing the same meaning:
  The hotel used to be a castle.
- formidable /ˈfɔːmɪdəbl/ adj 1 causing you to be rather frightened: His mother is a rather formidable lady.
- 2 difficult to deal with; needing a lot of effort: Reforming the education system will be a formidable task.
- ? formula /'fɔ:mjələ/ noun [C] (pl. formulas or for-

- mulae /-mjəli:/) 1 a group of signs, letters or numbers used in science or mathematics to express a general law or fact: The formula for carbon monoxide is CO. o What is the formula for converting miles to kilometres?
- 2 a list of substances used for making sth; the instructions necessary for making sth: The formula for the new vaccine has not yet been made public.
- 3 a plan of how to get sth or how to do sth: What is her formula for success?
- formulate /ˈfɔːmjuleɪt/ verb [T] 1 to prepare and organize a plan or ideas for doing sth: The Labour Party still has not formulated its policy on Northern Ireland.
- ر: يصيغ (clearly and exactly) ور: يصيغ
- forsake /fə'seik/ verb [T] (pt forsook /fə'sök/; pp forsaken /fə'seikən/) (formal) to leave a person or a place for ever (especially when you should stay)
- fort /fo:t/ noun [C] a strong building that is used for military defence
- forth /fo:θ/ adv
  - and so forth and other things like those just mentioned: The sort of job that you'll be doing is taking messages, making tea and so forth.
  - back and forth → BACK3
- forthcoming /ˌfɔ:θˈkʌmɪŋ/ adj 1 going to happen or appear in the near future: Look in the local paper for a list of forthcoming events.
- 2 (not before a noun) offered or given: If no money is forthcoming we shall not be able to continue the project.
- 3 (not before a noun) willing to be helpful, give information, etc: She's never very forthcoming about her future plans.
  - مستعد للمساعدة أو تقديم المعلومات
- forthright /ˈfoːθraɪt/ adj saying clearly and honestly what you think
- forthwith /ˌfɔ:θ'wɪθ; US -ˈwɪð/ adv (formal) immediately

fortieth → FORTY

- fortify /ˈfoːtɪfaɪ/ verb [T] (pres part fortifying; 3rd pers sing pres fortifies; pt, pp fortified) to make a place stronger and ready for an attack: to fortify a city
- ► fortification /ˌfɔːtɪfɪˈkeɪʃn/ noun [C,usually pl.] walls, ditches, etc. that are built to protect a place against attack
- fortnight /ˈfɔ:tnaɪt/ noun [C, usually sing.] (Brit) two weeks: We're going on holiday for a fortnight.
  o a fortnight's holiday o School finishes in a fortnight/in a fortnight's time (= two weeks from now).
- fortnightly adj, adv (happening or appearing) once a fortnight: This magazine is published fortnightly.

fortress /'fo:tres/ noun [C] a castle or other large building that has been made strong so that it is not easy to attack fortunate /ˈfɔːtʃənət/ adj lucky: You were fortunate to have such lovely weather for your holiday.

o It was fortunate that he was at home when you phoned. The opposite is unfortunate.

> fortunately adv by good luck; luckily: Fortunately the traffic wasn't too bad so I managed to get to the meeting on time. Jane arrived late but, fortunately for her, everybody was too busy to notice.

- ? fortune /ˈfɔːtʃuːn/ noun 1 [U] the power that affects what happens in a person's life; luck: Fortune was not on our side that day (= we were unlucky).
  - 2 [C, usually pi.] the things (both good and bad) that happen to a person, family, country, etc: The country's fortunes depend on its industry being successful.
  - 3 [C] what is going to happen to a person in the future: Show me your hand and I'll try to tell your fortune.
  - 4 [C] a very large amount of money: I always spend a fortune on presents at Christmas. خردة
- 'fortune teller noun [C] a person who tells people's fortunes (3)
- ? forty /ˈfɔːti/ number 40, one more than thirty-nine ⊕ For examples of how to use numbers in sentences, look at sixty.
  - ► fortieth /ˈfortiəθ/ pron, det, adv 40th, next after thirty-ninth 🗢 Look at the examples at sixth.

forum /ˈfɔːrəm/ noun [C] a place or meeting where people can exchange and discuss ideas منتدی عام المناظرة

- R forward¹ /ˈfoːwəd/ adv 1 (also forwards) in the direction that is in front of you; towards the front, end or future: Keep going forward and try not to look back. o We seem to be going backwards, not forwards.
  - 2 in the direction of progress, ahead: The new form of treatment is a big step forward in the fight against AIDS.
  - 6 Forward is used after many verbs, e.g. bring, come, look, put. For the meaning of the expressions look at the verb entries.
  - DM backward(s) and forward(s) → BACKWARD put the clock/clocks forward/back → CLOCK¹
- ? forward<sup>2</sup> /ˈfoːwəd/ adj 1 (only before a noun) towards the front or future: forward planning (تخطيط) للمستقبل: أمامي
  - 2 behaving towards sb in a way that is too confident or too informal: I hope you don't think I'm being too forward, asking you so many questions
  - forward³ /ˈfɔːwəd/ verb [T] to send a letter, etc. to a new address: The post office is forwarding all our mail. (الى عنول جالة (الى عنول جايد)

forward4 /'fo:wəd/ noun [C] an attacking player in a sport such as football لاعب هجوم 'forwarding address noun [C] a new address to which post should be sent عنوان جديد (بحول له البريد)

'forward-looking adj thinking about or planning for the future; having modern ideas

forwent pt of Forgo

fossil /ˈfɒsl/ noun [C] the remains, or a mark, of a prehistoric animal or plant that has been buried in rock for a very long time and that has become hard مستحائات، أحافير، متحجرات

foster /ˈfostə(r); US ˈfoː-/ verb [T] 1 to take a child who needs a home into your family and to care for him/her without becoming the legal parents: to foster a homeless child

The people who do this are foster parents. The child is a foster child. Look at adopt.

2 to help or encourage the development of sth (especially feelings or ideas)

fought pt, pp of FIGHT

- foul 1/faul/adj 1 disgusting and dirty (often with a bad smell or taste): The air in the room was foul and she opened the windows wide.
  - 2 very bad or unpleasant: It's been a foul weekend. Careful what you say he's got a foul temper (= he becomes angry very easily). What's in this drink? It tastes foul.
- 3 (used about weather) very bad; stormy: The foul weather prevented our plane from taking off.
- 4 (used about language) very rude; full of swearing بذيء
- foul<sup>2</sup> /faul/ verb [T] to make sth dirty (with rubbish, waste, etc.): Dogs must not foul the pavement.

Eliky foul sth up to spoil sth: The weather really fouled up our holiday.

- foul<sup>3</sup> /faul/ noun [C] (sport) an action that is against the rules: to commit a foul o He was sent off for a foul on the Juventus goalkeeper.
  فاول (في الرياضة)
  - ► foul verb [1,T] (sport) to be guilty of a foul (against another player): Owen was fouled inside the area and the referee awarded a penalty.

    "يرنكب"فاول" يرنكب"غاول
- ر foul 'play noun [U] 1 action that is against the rules of a sport (في الرياضة) مخالفة لقوانين اللعب
  - 2 violent crime that leads to murder

found<sup>1</sup> pt, pp of FIND

- ? found<sup>2</sup> /faond/ verb [T] 1 to start an organization, institution, etc. especially by providing money: Oxford has Britain's oldest public museum (founded 1683).
  - 2 to begin to build a town or establish a country: Liberia was founded by freed American slaves.
  - 3 (usually passive) to base sth on sth: Their marriage was founded on mutual respect. The book was founded on real life.

يستند إلى، يقوم أو يبني علم

- ? foundation /faon'der[n/ noun 1 [U] the act of founding sth (a building, town, organization, etc.)
  - 2 [C] an organization that provides money for a special purpose, e.g. for research or to help people who have a particular problem: The British Heart Foundation (= researching the causes of heart disease)
  - 3 [plural] foundations the parts of a building beneath the ground that form its base: The builders have only just started to lay the foundations of the new school.
  - 4 [C,U] the idea, principle, or fact on which sth is based: That rumour is completely without foundation (= it is not true).
- founder /ˈfaʊndə(r)/ noun [C] a person who founds or establishes sth
- founder 'member noun [C] one of the first members of a club, organization, etc.
- foundry /ˈfaʊndri/ noun [C] (pl. foundries) a place where metal or glass is melted and shaped into objects
- fountain /ˈfaontən; US -tn/ noun [C] an ornament (in a garden or in a square in a town) that shoots a stream of water into the air. The water that comes out is also called a fountain.
- 'fountain pen noun [C] a type of pen that you fill with ink
- four /fɔ:(r)/ number 4, one more than three ⊕ For examples of how to use numbers in sentences, look at six.
- look at six.

  Do on all fours with your hands and knees on the ground; crawling: The children went through
- the tunnel on all fours. وَحَفّاً، عَلَى الأَرْبِع ▶ four- (in compounds) having four of the thing mentioned: four-legged animals
- fourth /fo:0/ pron, det, adv 4th, next after third for 1/4 we use the word quarter: a quarter of an hour (= fifteen minutes). Look at the examples at sixth.
- fourthly adv (used to introduce the fourth point in a list): Fourthly (and this point is even more important than the other three), you must speak clearly
- ,four-letter 'word noun [C] one of a type of word (often with four letters) that people think is very rude
- ¶ fourteen /,fo:'ti:n/ number 14, one more than thirteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences, look at six.

  ¶ fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences, look at six.

  ¶ fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences, look at six.

  ¶ fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences.

  ¶ fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences.

  ¶ fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences.

  ¶ fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences.

  ¶ fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences.

  ¶ fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences.

  ¶ fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences.

  ¶ fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences.

  ¶ fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences.

  ¶ fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences.

  ¶ fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences.

  ¶ fourteen fourteen for examples of how to use numbers in sentences.

  ¶ fourteen fou
  - ► fourteenth /ˌfɔ:'ti:nθ/ pron, det, adv 14th, next after thirteenth Look at the examples at sixth.
- four-wheel 'drive noun [U] having an engine that turns all four wheels
- fowl /faul/ noun [C] (pl. fowl or fowls) a bird, especially a hen that is kept on a farm طَيْر، دجاجة

- fox /fɒks/ noun [C] a wild animal with reddish fur that looks like a dog
- A fox is often described as sty or cunning. A female fox is a vixen, a young fox is a cub.
- 'fox-hunting noun [U] a sport in which a fox is hunted by people on horses with dogs (foxhounds)
- foyer /ˈfɔiei; US ˈfɔiər/ noun [C] an entrance hall in a cinema, theatre, hotel, etc. where people can meet or wait
- fraction /ˈfrækʃn/ noun [C] 1 a small part or amount: For a fraction of a second I thought the car was going to crash.
- 2 an exact part of a number: ½ and ¼ are fractions.
- ► fractionally /-fənəli/ adv to a very small degree; slightly: Alonso was fractionally faster than his nearest rival.
- fracture /ˈfræktʃə(r)/ noun [C] a break in sth hard, especially in a bone: a fracture of the arm كُسُر (في عظم)
- ► fracture verb [T] to break sth (especially a bone): She fell and fractured her ankle. a fractured ankle
- fragile /ˈfrædʒaɪl; US -dʒl/ adj easily damaged or broken: This bowl is very fragile. Please handle it carefully. هشُّ: سريم الانكسار
- fragment /'frægment/ noun [C] a small piece (that has broken off sth bigger): The builders found fragments of Roman pottery on the site. of (figurative) I heard only a fragment of their conversation.
- fragment /fræg'ment/ verb [I,T] (formal) to be broken into small pieces; to break sth into small pieces: The country is becoming increasingly fragmented by civil war.
- fragrance /freigrans/ noun [C,U] a pleasant smell
- ► fragrant adj having a pleasant smell
- frail /freil/ adj not strong or healthy: My aunt is still very frail after her accident.
- ► frailty /ˈfreɪlti/ noun [C,U] (pl. frailties) moral or physical weakness
- liframe 1 / frem/ noun [C] 1 a border of wood or metal that goes around the outside of a door, picture, window, etc: a window frame
  - 2 [usually pl.] a structure made of plastic or metal that holds the lenses of a pair of glasses
  - 3 the basic structure of a piece of furniture, building, vehicle, etc. onto which other pieces are added: the frame of a bicycle
  - 4 [usually sing.] the shape of a human or animal body: He has a large frame but he is not fat. هیکل (جسدی)، بنیة
  - EM frame of mind a particular state or condition of your feelings; mood: I'm not in the right frame of mind for a party. I'd prefer to be on my own.

?frame<sup>2</sup> /freim/ verb [T] 1 to put a border around sth (especially a picture or photograph): Let's have this photograph framed.

- 2 (formal) to express sth in words, in a particular way: The question was very carefully framed.
- 3 (usually passive) to give false evidence against sb in order to make him/her seem guilty of a crime: The man claimed that he had been framed by the police.
- framework /ˈfreɪmwɜːk/ noun [C] 1 the basic structure of sth that gives it shape and strength: A greenhouse is made of glass panels fixed in a metal framework.
  - 2 a system of rules or ideas which help you decide what to do: The plan may be changed but it will provide a framework on which we can huild.
- franc /frænk/ noun [C] the unit of money that is used in Switzerland and several other countries, formerly also in France, Belgium and Luxembourg
- franchise /ˈfræntʃaɪz/ noun 1 [C] official permission to sell a company's goods or services in a particular area: a franchise for a fast-food restaurant
- 2 [U] (formal) the right to vote in elections من الانتخاب
- frank /fræŋk/ adj showing your thoughts and feelings openly; saying what you mean; honest:

  To be perfectly frank with you, I don't think you'll pass your driving test.
- ▶ frankly adv 1 in a frank manner: Please tell me frankly what you think about my idea.
- 2 speaking openly and honestly: Quite frankly, I'm not surprised at what has happened. بصدن frankness noun [U]: She spoke with great frankness about her past life.
- frankfurter /ˈfræŋkfɜːtə(r)/ (US wiener) noun [C] a type of small smoked sausage سبق ألماني
- frantic /ˈfræntɪk/adj 1 in a very emotional state because you are extremely worried or frightened: frantic with worry o frantic cries for help
- 2 very busy or rushed; without organization: a frantic search for the keys
- ► frantically |-kli| adv: They have been working frantically all week trying to get things ready in time.
- ${f fraternal}$  /frə'ts:nl/  ${\it adj}$  ( ${\it formal}$ ) of or like brothers; friendly
- fraternity /fre'ts:neti/ noun (pl. fraternities)
  1 [U] the feeling of friendship between people (like that between brothers)
- 2 [C] a group of people who share the same work or interests: the medical fraternity
- fraud /fro:d/ noun 1 [C,U] (an act of) deceiving or tricking sb in order to get money, etc. in a way that is against the law: The accountant was sent

- to prison for fraud. O Millions of pounds are lost every year in credit card frauds. غش، احتيال
- 2 [C] a person who deceives or tricks sb by pretending to be sb else
- h fraudulent /ˈfrɔːdjələnt; US -dʒʊ-/ adj (for-mal) done in order to deceive sb; dishonest: the fraudulent use of stolen cheques
- fraught /fro:t/ adj 1 (not before a noun) filled with sth (unpleasant): The situation was fraught with danger.
- 2 (informal) (used about people) worried and nervous; (used about a situation) very busy so that people become nervous: You look fraught what's the matter? o Things are usually fraught at work on Monday mornings.
- fray /freɪ/ verb [I,T] (used about cloth, etc.) to become worn so that some threads are loose; to cause cloth to do this: This shirt is beginning to fray at the cuffs. o a frayed cuff o (figurative) Nerves began to fray towards the end of the match (= the players started to get nervous).
- freak¹ /fri:k/ noun [C] 1 a very strange or unusual event: By some strange freak of nature we had snow in May. o a freak accident, storm, etc.
- 2 (informal) a person who has a very strong interest in sth: a health freak
- 3 a person or animal that is physically abnormal in some way; a person who behaves in a strange way: The other kids think Ally's a freak because she doesn't watch TV.
- freak²/fri:k/verb [I, T] (informal) freak (sb) out to react very strongly to sth that makes you feel shocked, frightened, upset, etc. or to make sb react in this way: She freaked out when she heard the news. o The film 'Psycho' really freaked me out.
- freckle /'frekl/ noun [C, usually pl.] a small brown spot on a person's skin: A lot of people with red hair have freckles.
  - ▶ freckled adj: a freckled face
- ?free 1 / fri:/ adj 1 not in prison or in a cage, etc: After twenty years in prison he was finally set free in 1989.
  - 2 free (to do sth) not controlled by the government, rules, etc: There is free movement of people across the border.  $\circ$  a free press  $\circ$  You're free this afternoon to do exactly what you want.
  - 3 free from/of sth not having sth dangerous, unpleasant, etc: How wonderful to go away for a month, free from all worries and responsibilities.

    free from pain
  - 4 costing nothing: Admission to the museum is free/free of charge. o a free sample
  - 5 not being used: Do you have a single room free for Saturday night?
  - 6 without appointments; not busy: I'm afraid Mr Spencer is not free this afternoon. I don't get much free time.
  - free and easy informal or relaxed: The atmosphere in our office is very free and easy. ریح. بدون رسمیات

- get, have, etc. a free hand to get, have, etc. permission to make your own decisions about sth
- of your own free will because you want to, not because sb forces you dوَعَا دون إجبار
- ► free adv 1 in a free manner: There is nowhere around here where dogs can run free.
- 2 without cost or payment: Children under five usually travel free on trains.
- Tfree<sup>2</sup> /fri:/ verb [T] 1 free sb/sth (from sth) to let sb/sth go; to set sb/sth free: to free a prisoner o The protesters freed the animals from their cages.
  - 2 free sb/sth of/from sth to take away from sb sth that is unpleasant: The medicine freed her from pain for a few hours.
  - 3 free sb/sth (from sth) to move sb/sth that is stuck or caught: The emergency services took three hours to free the man from the wreckage of his car.
  - 4 free sb/sth for sth to make sth available so that it can be used; to put sb in a position in which he/she can do sth: Cuts in defence spending would free money to spend on education.
- ,free 'agent noun [C] a person who can do what he/she likes because he/she is not responsible to another person
- ? freedom /ˈfriːdəm/ noun 1 [U] the state of being free, that is, of not being in prison or under the control of sb else: The opposition leader was given his freedom after 25 years.
  - 2 [C,U] the right to do or say what you want: You have the freedom to come and go as you please.

    of freedom of speech of the rights and freedoms of the individual $\mathbf{D}$ Look at liberty.
  - 3 freedom from sth the state of not having sth unpleasant: freedom from fear, hunger, pain, etc.
- 'freedom fighter noun [C] a person who belongs to a group that uses violence to try to remove a government from power
- free 'enterprise noun [U] the operation of trade and business without government control
- freehand /ˈfri:hænd/ adj, adv (done) by hand, without the help of an instrument, e.g. a ruler: a freehand sketch (بلالّة) باليّد، يدوي
- free 'kick noun [C] (in football) a kick by a player of one team after a member of the other team has broken a rule
- freelance /'fri:ld:ns; US -læns/ (also freelancer) noun [C] a person who works for several different employers and who is paid separately for each piece of work that he/she does
- عامل مستقل ► freelance adj, adv: a freelance journalist ○ She works freelance.
- I freely /'fri:li/ adv 1 in a way that is not controlled or limited: He is the country's first freely elected president for 40 years. • There are no roadworks on the motorway and traffic is flowing freely.

Note that if you travel free it means that you do not have to pay anything. If you can travel freely it means that you can go wherever you

- 2 willingly, without hesitating: I freely admit that I made a mistake.
- Freemason / fri:meisn / (also mason) noun [C] a man who belongs to an international secret society whose members help each other and who recognize each other by secret signs
- Freepost /ˈfriːpəʊst/ noun [U] (Brit) the system by which the person who sends a letter, etc. does not pay for the cost of postage
- free-'range adj produced by hens that are allowed to move around freely: free-range eggs (بیض دجاج) طلیق
- freesia /'fri:39; 'fri:ziə/ noun [C] a plant with sweet-smelling yellow, pink or white flowers
- free 'speech noun [U] the right to express any opinion in public
- freeway /'fri:wei/ noun [C] (US) = MOTORWAY
- Rfreeze /fri:z/ verb (pt froze /frəʊz/; pp frozen /ˈfrəʊzn/) 1 [I,T] to become hard (and often change into ice) because of extreme cold; to make sth do this: Water freezes at O Celsius. Leave the heating on when you're away or the pipes will freeze. The ground was frozen solid for most of the winter. I've picked ten pounds of raspberries and I'm going to freeze them. Raspberries freeze well. frozen peas
  - 2 [1] (used with 'it' to describe extremely cold weather, when water turns into ice): I think it's going to freeze tonight.
  - 3 [I,T] (to cause a person) to be very cold or to die from cold: The two men froze to death on the mountain. Turn the heater up a bit I'm frozen.
  - 4 [I] to stop suddenly or become still because you are frightened or shocked: The terrible scream made her freeze with terror: يتَصلَب يتسمَر في مكانه
  - 5 [T] to keep wages, prices, fares, etc. at a fixed level for a certain period of time: Spending on defence has been frozen for one year.
  - یمنم الازدیاد: بجملد ► freeze noun [C] 1 a period of weather when the temperature stays below 0°C (freezing point) فترة برد شدید. فترة جلید
  - 2 the fixing of wages, prices, fares, etc. at a certain level for a certain period of time تحميد (الأسعار مثلاً)
  - freezing adj (informal) very cold (not necessarily below 0° Celsius): Can we turn the central heating on? I'm freezing. o It's absolutely freezing outside.

freezer → friend

freezer /'fri:zə(r)/ (also deep 'freeze) noun [C] a large box or cupboard in which you can store food for a long time at a temperature below 0°C (freezing point) so that it stays frozen 2 Look at fridge. جهاز لتجميد الطعام، "فريزر"

'freezing point (also freezing) noun [C,U] the temperature at which water, etc. freezes: Last night the temperature fell to six degrees below freezing. درجة حرارة التجمد freight /freit/ noun [U] 1 the method of carrying goods from one place to another: Your order will be sent by air freight.

2 = GOODS(2): a freight train

▶ freighter noun [C] a ship or plane that carries only freight شاحنة (سفينة أو طائرة للشحن فقط)

'freight car (US) = WAGON

French fry /frent frai noun [C] (pl. French fries) (especially US) =  $CHIP^1(3)$

French window /,frents 'windou/ French 'door) noun [C] one of a pair of glass doors that open onto a garden or balcony باب زجاجي يفتح على الحديقة frenzy /'frenzi/ noun [sing., U] a state of great excitement; a period when a person cannot control his/her actions: The speaker worked the crowd up هياج

▶ frenzied /'frenzid/ adj wild and excited: a frenzied attack هائج؛ مسعور

frequency /'fri:kwənsi/ noun (pl. frequencies) 1 [U] the rate at which sth happens (= the number of times sth happens in a particular period): Fatal accidents have decreased in frequency in recent years (= there are fewer of them). تواتر

2 [U] the fact that sth happens often: The frequency of child deaths from cancer near the nuclear power station is being investigated.

تكرُر 3 [C,U] the rate at which a sound wave or radio wave vibrates: high-frequency/low-frequency sounds o Which frequency does the radio station broadcast on?

Expression frickwent/ adj happening often: There is a frequent bus service from the city centre to the airport. • The opposite is infrequent.

متكرر، متواتر؛ كثير الحدوث ▶ frequently adv: Buses run frequently from the city centre to the airport. بتواتر؛ كثيراً، تكراراً frequent2 /fri'kwent/ verb [T] (formal) to go to a place often: He spent most of his evenings in Paris frequenting expensive restaurants.

I fresh /fres/ adj 1 new or different: They have decided to make a fresh start in a different town. o I'm sure he'll have some fresh ideas on the subject. o I'd like to put on some fresh clothes before we go out.

2 not old (so there has been no time for any change): There was fresh blood all over the walls. o Write a few notes while the lecture is still fresh طازج؛ حديث، قريب العَهْد

3 (used about food, flowers, etc.) made or picked not long ago: fresh bread 1 The opposite for food طازج: (زهور) نُصْرة

4 (used about food) not frozen or from a tin: طازج (غیر معلّب) fresh fruit and vegetables

5 (used about water) not salt; not sea water 6 A fish that lives in such water is a freshwater fish. (ماء) عَنْب

6 (used about the air) clean and cool: Open the window and let some fresh air in. (هواء) نقى؛ منعش

7 (used about the weather) quite cold and windy (طقس) بارد

8 (used about colours, or a person's skin) bright نَصِرٍ، زاهِ or clear

9 not tired: I'll think about the problem again in the morning when I'm fresh.

10 fresh from/out of sth having just finished sth: Life isn't easy for a young teacher fresh from freshen /'frefn/ verb 1 [T] freshen sth (up) to make sth cleaner or brighter: Some new curtains and wallpaper would freshen up this room.

IDM break fresh/new ground → GROUND1 ▶ freshly adv newly; recently: freshly baked حدىثأ freshness noun [U]

نقاء، نظافة؛ حدة، حداثة؛ نشاط؛ نضارة

ينظف؛ يحدد، ينعش

2 [I] (used about the wind) to become stronger (ریح) تَشتدُ

FERV freshen (yourself) up to wash and make يغسل (وجهه) ويصلح هندامه yourself clean and tidy fresher /'frefə(r)/ noun [C] (Brit informal) a student who is in his/her first year at university, طالب سنة أولي college, etc.

freshman /'fresman/ noun [C] (pl. freshmen /-mən/) (US) a student who is in his/her first year at college, high school, university, etc. طالب سنة أولى fret /fret/ verb [I] (fretting; fretted) fret (about/ at/over sth) to be unhappy or worried about sth: Don't fret. Everything will be all right.

friction /'friksn/ noun [U] 1 the rubbing of one surface or thing against another احتكاك

2 disagreement between people or groups: There is a lot of friction between the older and the younger members of staff.

? Friday /'fraidei/ noun [C,U] (abbr Fri.) the day of the week after Thursday and before Saturday 6 For examples of the use of the days of the week in sentences, look at Monday.

fridge /fridg/ (also formal refrigerator) noun [C] a metal container in which food, etc. is kept cold (but not frozen) so that it stays fresh 2 Look at

?friend /frend / noun [C] 1 a person that you know and like (not a member of your family): Trevor and I are old friends. We were at school together. o We're only inviting close friends and relatives to the funeral. o Do you know Helen Wilson? She's my best friend. o A friend of mine told me about this restaurant. One of my friends told me about this restaurant. S Look at boyfriend, girlfriend صديق and penfriend.

2 a friend of/to sth a helper or supporter of sth: the Friends of the Churchill Hospital DM be/make friends (with sb) to be/become a friend (of sb): Tony is rather shy and finds it hard to make friends. يصادق بلا صديق

▶ friendless adi without friends

o a small friendly hotel near the beach

? friendly /'frendli/ adj (friendlier; friendliest) 1 behaving in a kind and pleasant way; showing kindness and pleasantness: Everyone here has been very friendly towards us. $\circ$ a friendly smile

لطيف؛ وُدود 2 friendly with sb being the friend of sb: Nick's become quite friendly with the boy next door.

▶ friendliness noun [U] لطف؛ حُسن المعاملة friendly noun [C] a sports match that is not part of a serious competition مباراة ودية

-friendly (in compounds) supporting or helping sb/sth: This software is extremely user-friendly. معين؛ سَهْل

? friendship /'frendsip/ noun 1 [U] the state of being friends: Our relationship is based on friend-

2 [C] a relationship between people who are friends: The friendships that you make at school often last for life.

fright /frait/ noun [C,U] a sudden feeling of fear: That loud bang gave me quite a fright. O The child cried out in fright.

?frighten /'fraitn/ verb [T] to fill sb with fear: Sorry, I didn't mean to frighten you.

PHRV frighten sb/sth away/off to cause a person or animal to go away by frightening him/her/it: Walk quietly so that you don't frighten the birds away. رعب: يهرب، يحفل

▶ frightened adj 1 full of fear or worry: Frightened children were calling for their mothers. o He was frightened at the thought of being alone. o I was frightened that they would think that I مَرّعوب، فزع was rude.

2 frightened of sb/sth fearing a particular person, thing or situation: When I was young I was frightened of cats. 2 Look at the note at خائف، مذعور afraid.

frightening /'fraitnin/ adj causing fear: It was a very frightening situation to be in. o It's frightening how quickly time passes. o It's frightening that time passes so quickly. مرعب، مختف

frightful /'frartfl/ adj (old-fashioned) (especially Brit) 1 very bad or unpleasant: The weather this summer has been frightful. سيء جداً، فظيع

2 (informal) (used for emphasizing sth) very bad هائل or great: We're in a frightful rush.

▶ frightfully /-fəli/ adv (old-fashioned) very: I'm frightfully sorry.

frigid /'frid3id/ adj (usually used about a woman) disliking sexual activity frill /fril/ noun [C] 1 a special edge for a dress, shirt, etc. which is made by forming many folds كَشْكش، مُكَشْكُش in a narrow piece of cloth

2 [usually pl.] (figurative) something that is not necessary but is decorative or pleasant: We just want a plain simple meal - no frills

زخوفي؛ شيء غير أساسي ولكنه مستَحَبُ ▶ frilly /'frɪli/ (frillier; frilliest) adj having many frills: a frilly dress fringe /frmd3/ noun [C] 1 (US bangs [plural]) the part of your hair that hangs, usually in a straight line, over your forehead: Your hair looks better with a fringe.

2 a decorative edge on a rug, etc. or on clothes, that is made of loose or hanging threads

هُدُب؛ حاشية تزيينيّة

3 a place, part or position that is a long way from the centre or from what is usual: the outer fringes of London o Some people on the fringes of the party are opposed to the policy on Europe. حاشية؛ أطراف خارجية

▶ fringe verb

IDM be fringed by/with sth to have sth as a border: The lake was fringed with pine trees.

'fringe benefit noun [C] an extra benefit that is given to an employee in addition to his/her salary: The fringe benefits of this job include a car تعويض (فوق الأجر) and free health insurance.

frisk /frisk/ verb 1 [T] to pass your hands over sb's body in order to search for hidden weapons, بفتش (شخصاً) drugs, etc.

2 [I] (used about an animal or child) to play and jump about in a lively and happy way frisky adj (friskier; friskiest) lively and playfritter /'frita(r)/ verb

PHRV fritter sth away (on sth) to waste time or money on things that are not important frivolity /frr'volati/ noun [U] silly behaviour; not acting seriously رعونة؛ عيث frivolous /'frivələs/ adj not serious; silly: This is a serious issue. Please don't make frivolous re-أرعن: عابث frizzy / frizi/ adj (frizzier, frizziest) (used about (شعر) أجعد hair) with a lot of very small curls fro /frau/ adv

IDM to and fro → TO<sup>3</sup> frock /frok/ noun [C] (old-fashioned) a dress frog /frog; US fro:g/ noun [C] a small animal with smooth skin and long legs that are used for jumping. Frogs live in or near water: the croaking of frogman /frogman; US fro:g-/ noun [C] (pl. frogmen /-mən/) a swimmer who works underwater wearing special rubber clothes and using breathing equipment: Police frogmen searched the

? from /fram; strong form from/ prep 1 (showing

front → front page

the place where sb/sth starts or started): Has the bus from London arrived?  $\circ$  She comes home from work at 7 o'clock.  $\circ$  Water was dripping from the tap.  $\circ$  A child fell from the seventh floor of a block of flats.

2 (showing the time when sth starts or started): Peter's on holiday from next Friday. • The supermarket is open from 8 a.m. till 8 p.m. every day. • We lived in Wales from 1979 to 1986.

(زمان البدء) من

(يتقي) مِنَ

- 3 (showing the person who sent, gave, said, etc. sth): Have you had a Christmas card from Roy?

   I borrowed this jacket from my sister. a phone call from my father
- 4 (showing the origin of sb/sth): 'Where do you come from?' 'I'm from Australia.' o quotations from Shakespeare o There's a man from the bank to see you.
- 5 (showing the material with which sth is made): Paper is made from wood.
- 6 (showing the distance between two places): The house is five miles from Oxford.
- 7 (showing the lower limit in a range of prices, figures, etc.): Our prices start from £2.50 a bottle.

  o Tickets cost from £5 to £15.
- 8 (showing the state of sb/sth before a change): The bus fare has gone up from 85p to 95p. o The article was translated from Russian into English. o Things have gone from bad to worse.
- (يتحول: يزداد) من 9 (showing that sb/sth is taken away): Children don't like being separated from their parents for a - long period. O She borrowed the book from the library. O 8 from 12 leaves 4.

  10 (showing sth that you want to avoid): There was no shelter from the wind. O This game will stop you from getting bored.

- 11 (showing the reason for sth): People in the camps are suffering from hunger and cold.
- 12 (showing the difference between two people, places or things): Can you tell margarine from butter? Is Portuguese very different from Spanish?
- 13 (showing your position or point of view): There is a wonderful view from the top of the tower. From your point of view it would be better to fly to Birmingham rather than to London. He always looks at things from his own point of view.

EM from... on starting at a particular time and continuing for ever: She never spoke to him again from that day on. o From now on you must earn your own living.

- Pfront /frant/ noun 1 [C, usually sing.] the side or surface of sth that is most usually seen or that is most important: a dress with buttons down the front o the front of a building (= the front wall) o a card with flowers on the front
  - 2 [C, usually sing.] the most forward part of sth or the area that is just outside of or before sb/sth. Young children should not travel in the front of the car. O There is a small garden at the front of the house. قدّاًم، الجزء الإمامي

On the front of means 'on the front surface of sth': The number is shown on the front of the bus. In front of means 'further forward than another person or thing': A car has stopped in front of the bus. Atlin the front of means 'in the most forward part inside sth': The driver sits at the front of the bus. Look at these sentences too. The teacher usually stands in front of the class.

The noisy children were asked to sit at the front of the class [e. In the front seats].

- 3 the front [sing.] the line or area where fighting takes place in a war: to be sent to the front حبة (حرب)
- 4 [sing.] a way of behaving that hides your true feelings: His brave words were just a front. He was really feeling very nervous.
- 5 [C] (technical) (used when talking about the weather) a line or area where warm air and cold air meet: A cold front is moving in from the north.
- 6 [C] a particular area of activity: Things are difficult on the domestic front at the moment.

IDM back to front → BACK<sup>1</sup>

in front ahead of or further forward than sb/sth: Some of the children ran on in front. • After three laps the Kenyan runner was in front.

in front of 1 in a position further forward than but close to sb/sth: The bus stops right in front of our house. • Don't stand in front of the television. • The book was open in front of her on the desk.

- In front of does not mean the same as opposite.
- 2 in the presence of: I couldn't talk about that in front of my parents.
- up front (informal) as payment before sth is done: I want half the money up front and half when the job is finished.
- Front adj (only before a noun) of or at the front (1,2): the front door, garden, room, etc. o front teeth

frontal /ˈfrʌntl/ adj (only before a noun) from the front: a frontal attack

- frontier /ˈfrʌntiə(r); US frʌnˈtiər/ noun 1 [C] frontier (between A and B); frontier (with A) the line where one country joins another; border: We crossed the frontier between France and Italy.

  o France's frontier with Italy D Look at the note at border.
- 2 the frontiers [plural] the border between what we know and what we do not know: Scientific research is constantly pushing back the frontiers of our knowledge about the world.

front 'page noun [C] the first page of a newspaper, where the most important news is printed الصفحة الأولى ightharpoonup 'front-page adj interesting or important enough to appear on the front page of a newspaper: front-page news

ستحقُّ للصفحة الأولى (في صحيفة)، هامُّ

frost /frost; US fro:st/ noun 1 [C.U] the weather conditions when the temperature falls below freezing point: There was a hard frost last night. o ten degrees of frost (= minus ten degrees Celsius)

2 [U] a very thin layer of little pieces of ice that is formed on surfaces when the temperature is below freezing point: The branches of the trees were white with frost.

▶ frost verb [T] (especially US) = ICE³

PHRV frost over/up to become covered with frost (2): The window has frosted over/up.

frosted adj (used about glass or a window) with a special surface so you cannot see through it (زجاج) مَفَيْش (زجاج) مَفَيْش frostbite /ˈfrɒstbaɪt; US ˈfrɒst-/ noun [U] injury to the fingers, toes, etc. that is caused by very low temperatures

frosting /'frostin; US 'fro:stin/ noun [U] (especially US) = ICING frosty /ˈfrɒsti; US ˈfrɔsti/ adj (frostier; frostiest) و est) الله very cold, with frost: a cold and frosty morning مكسو بالصقيع: بارد جداً

(لقاء) حافً

2 cold and unfriendly: a frosty welcome

froth /froθ; US fro:θ/ noun [U] a mass of small white bubbles on the top of a liquid, etc.

زيد، رغوة Froth verb [I] to have or produce froth: The mad dog was frothing at the mouth. frothy adj (frothier; frothiest) frown /fraun/ verb [I] to bring your eyebrows together so that you make lines appear on your forehead. You frown when you are angry or worried: 'You're late', he said, frowning.

PHRV frown on/upon sth to think that sth is not good; to disapprove: Smoking is very much frowned upon these days.

▶ frown noun [C] an act of frowning: She read the letter quickly, a worried frown on her face.

froze pt of freeze

- % frozen / 'frouzn/ pp of freeze: The pond is frozen.
  Let's go skating. frozen vegetables I'm frozen (= very cold).
- Rfruit /fru:t/ noun 1 [C,U] the part of a plant or tree that contains seeds and that is used as food: Try and eat more fresh fruit and vegetables. Marmalade is made with citrus fruit (= oranges, lemons, grapefruit, etc.). Is a tomato a fruit or a vegetable? fruit inice

When we say 'a fruit' we mean 'a type of fruit': Most big supermarkets sell all sorts of tropical fruits. When we are talking about one individual piece, e.g. a single apple, pear, banapa, etc. we must say 'a piece of fruit': What would you like now? Cheese, or a piece of fruit? It is more usual to use the uncountable form:

Would you like some fruit?

2 [C] the part of any plant in which the seed is formed

3 the fruits [plural] a good result or a reward for what you have done fruitful /ˈfruːtfl/ adj producing good results; useful: fruitful discussions fruition /fru'ı]n/ noun [U] the time when a plan, etc. starts to be successful: After months of hard work, our efforts were coming to fruition.

fruitless /ˈfruːtləs/ adj producing poor or no results; unsuccessful: a fruitless search بلا ثمرة، عقب frustrate /frn'streit; US 'frastreit/ verb [T] 1 to cause a person to feel angry or dissatisfied because things are not happening as he/she wants: It's the lack of money that really frustrates him.

2 (formal) to prevent sb from doing sth or sth from happening. The rescue work has been frus; trated by bad weather conditions.

because you cannot have or do what you want:
In the film she plays a bored, frustrated, middleaged housewife. • He felt very frustrated at his lack of progress in learning Chinese.

frustrating adj making you angry or dissatis fied: I spent a frustrating morning at the Passport Office.

frustration /fra'strei\[n\]/ noun [C.U] a feeling of anger or dissatisfaction, or sth that causes it: He felt anger and frustration at not being able to help the starving children. • Every job has its frustrations fry /frai/ verb [I,T] (pres part frying; 3rd pers sing pres fries; pt, pp fried /fraid/) to be cooked in hot fat or oil; to cook sth in this way: to fry an egg o a fried egg o There was a smell of frying onions in the kitchen.

'frying pan (US frypan /ˈfraɪpæn/) noun [C] a flat shallow pan with a long handle that is used for frying food

ft (also ft.) abbrev = foot, feet(3): a room 10 ft by 6 ft

fudge¹ /fʌdʒ/ noun [U] a soft sweet made from sugar, butter and milk, often with other things added to give flavour: chocolate/walnut fudge fudge<sup>2</sup> /fʌdʒ/ verb [I,T] (informal) to say or do sth in a way that is unclear or unsatisfactory, usually because you intend to mislead sb or because you want to avoid making a definite choice: Politicians are quite adept at fudging (the issue).

Ifuel /ˈfjuːəl/noun 1 [U] material that is burned to produce heat or power: unleaded fuel (= petrol without lead in it) o What's the car's fuel consumption? o Our fuel bills are very high.

2 [C] a type of fuel: I think gas is the best fuel for central heating.

fugitive → fully ▶ fuel verb [T] (fuelling; fuelled) ( (US) fueling; fueled) to provide fuel for sth: (figurative) Her interest in the Spanish language was fuelled by a visit to Spain. يزود بالوقود؛ يحثّ؛ يلهب حماسه

fugitive /'fju:d3əttv/ noun [C] a person who is running away or escaping (e.g. from the police) Look at refugee. ها، ب؛ طأيد العدالة fulfil (US fulfill) /fol'fil/ verb [T] (fulfilling; fulfilled) 1 to perform or carry out a duty, task, etc: Germany now fulfils a most important role within the European Union. ينجز؛ يقوم ب

- 2 to make sth that you wish for, or have promised, happen: He finally fulfilled his childhood dream of becoming a farmer. o to fulfil an ambition o The Government has not yet fulfilled its promises on education. يحقق
- 3 to satisfy a need: The local town can fulfil most of your shopping needs.
- 4 to do or have what is necessary according to a contract, a rule, etc: The conditions of entry to university in this country are quite difficult to يحقق، يفي fulfil.
- 5 fulfil yourself to develop your character and abilities fully: She knew that she couldn't fulfil herself without first leaving home.
- ينَمَى ذاته؛ يحقّق شخصيته fulfilled adj completely satisfied and happy fulfilling adj making you feel happy and satisfied: I found working abroad a very fulfilling experience.

fulfilment (US fulfillment) noun [U] 1 the act of fulfilling or state of being fulfilled: Moving into our own home was the fulfilment of a dream. إرضاء؛ رضى

2 the feeling of satisfaction that you have when you have done sth: Some women find fulfilment in the home and in bringing up their children.

- I full /fol/ adj 1 full (of sb/sth) holding or containing as much or as many as possible: The bin needs emptying. It's full up. o a full bottle o I can't get anything else in my suitcase - it's full. O The bus was full so we had to wait for the next one. o 'Is there any coffee left?' 'Yes, this jar's still half full, 'o (figurative) The children are full of energy. o (figurative) We need a good night's sleep because we've got a full (= busy) day tomorrow.
  - 2 with a lot of people or things in it: The room was full of people. O His work was full of mistakes. o The streets were full of litter.
  - 3 full (up) having had enough to eat and drink: شبعان No more, thank you. I'm full (up).
  - 4 (only before a noun) complete; not leaving anything out: I should like a full report on the accident, please. o Full details of today's TV programmes are on page 20. o For the full story, please turn to page 14. o He took full responsibil- $\textit{ity for what had happened.} \circ \textit{Please give your full} ~ \textbf{`fully} ~ \text{'foli/} ~ \textit{adv} ~ \text{completely; to the highest possible possib$
  - 5 (only before a noun) the highest or greatest possible: She got full marks in her French exam.

- o The train was travelling at full speed when it تامُ؛ أقصى (سرعة) hit the cow on the tracks.
- 6 full of sb/sth/yourself thinking or talking a lot about a subject or about yourself: When she got back from holiday she was full of everything they had seen. o He's very full of himself (= thinks that he is very important) since he got that new مهتمُ كُليّاً بِ؛ مغترَ بنفسه
- 7 round in shape: a full figure o He's quite full in the face. (جسم) ممتلئ
- 8 (used about clothes) made with plenty of material: a full skirt

IDM have your hands full → HAND<sup>1</sup>

in full with nothing missing; completely: Your money will be refunded in full (= you will get all your money back). o Please write your name in in full swing at the stage when there is a lot of activity: When we arrived the party was already في ذروة النشاط in full swing.

in full view (of sb/sth) in a place where you can easily be seen: In full view of the guards, he tried to escape over the prison wall. o in full view ظاهر، باد للعيّان of the house to the full as much as possible: to enjoy life to the قدر الإمكان full ▶ full adv directly; straight: John hit him full in the face.

full-'blown adj fully developed: to have fullblown AIDS كامل النمو، متطّور full 'board noun [U] (in a hotel, etc.) with all your meals 2 Look at half board and bed and (في فندق) إقامة مع كل الوجبات breakfast.

- .full-'length adj 1 (used about a picture, mirror, etc.) showing a person from head to foot (صورة) لكامل القامة
  - 2 (used about a dress, skirt, etc.) reaching the ankles: a full-length ball gown (ثوب) طويل
  - 3 not shorter than normal: a full-length film, (کتاب) ذو طول عادی book, etc.
- full 'moon noun [sing.] the moon when it appears as a circle 6 The opposite is a new moon.
- full-'scale adj 1 (used about a plan, drawing, etc.) of the same size as the original object (مُخَطِّط) بالمقيّاس الطبيعي
  - 2 using every means that is available: The police have started a full-scale murder investigation.
- full 'stop (also full 'point; especially US period) noun [C] a mark (.) that is used when you are writing to show the end of a sentence and in some نقطة، علامة وقوف abbreviations
- full-'time adi, adv for a whole of the normal period of work: He has a full-time job. o He works full-time, o We employ 800 full-time and 500 part-(عمل) دوام كامل time staff. Dook at part-time.
- sible degree: John's never been fully accepted by the other members of staff. o I'm fully aware of the problem. O All our engineers are fully trained.

o a fully automatic camera

fully-'fledged adj (US also full-fledged) completely trained or completely developed: Computer science is now a fully-fledged academic subject.

fumble /ˈfambl/ verb [I] to use your hands in an awkward way, especially when you are looking for sth: 'It must be here somewhere', she said, fumbling in her pocket for her key.

پنامس بتعفر: پتخبط

fume /fju:m/ verb [i] to feel or show anger: They were nearly two hours late. By the time they arrived I was absolutely fuming.

fumes /fju:mz/ noun [plural] smoke or gases that smell unpleasant and that can be harmful if you breathe them in: Six people died in the fire when they were overcome by smoke and fumes.

دُخان؛ غازات (خانقة)

R fun /fan / noun [U] pleasure and enjoyment; an activity or a person that gives you pleasure and enjoyment: There isn't much fun in staying at home on your own. ○ Staying at home on your own isn't much fun. ○ We had a lot of fun at the party last night. ○ The party was great fun. ○ Have fun! (= enjoy yourself!) ○ Salling can be quite good fun if you don't mind getting wet. ○ He was extremely clever but he was also great fun.

Be careful. Funny describes something that makes you laugh or that is strange. It is not the same as fun: The party was fun (= it was enjoyable). • The film was funny (= it made us laugh).

[just] for fun/for the fun of it (just) for amusement or pleasure; not seriously: I don't need English for my work. I am just learning it for fun.

(just) in fun as a joke: It was said in fun. They didn't mean to upset you.

make fun of sb/sth to laugh at sb/sth in an unkind way; to make other people do this: The older children are always making fun of him because of his accent.

poke fun at sb/sth → POKE

- Function /ˈfʌnkʃn/ noun [C] 1 the purpose or special duty of a person or thing: One function of the school governors is to appoint new teachers.

  The function of the heart is to pump blood through the body.
  - 2 an important social event, ceremony, etc: The princess attends hundreds of official functions every year.
  - ► function verb [I] to work; to be in action: The doctor's new appointments system doesn't seem to be functioning very well. Only one engine was still functioning.

functional /-ʃənl/ adj 1 practical and useful rather than attractive: cheap functional furniture

2 working; being used: The system is now fully functional.

'function key noun [C] a key (3) on a computer which is used to carry out a particular operation (في الكمبيوتر) مفتاح وظيفة

- f fund /fAnd/ noun 1 [C] a sum of money that is collected for a particular purpose: They contributed £30 to the disaster relief fund. (صندوق (تعويل)
  - 2 funds [plural] money that is available and can be spent: The government is making funds available to help pay for the storm damage.
  - ► fund verb [T] to provide a project, etc. with money: The Channel Tunnel was not funded by government money.
- [fundamental /fandə'mentl/ adj important or basic; from which everything else develops: There will be fundamental changes in the way the school is run. o There is a fundamental difference between your opinion and mine.
- ► fundamentally /-təli/ adv: The government's policy has changed fundamentally.
  fundamentals noun [plural] basic facts or principles
- 'fund-raiser noun [C] a person whose job is to find ways of collecting money for a charity or an organization جامع معونات ماليّة
  - ¬fund-raising noun [U]: fund-raising events (محاولة) جمع معونات مالية
- funeral /ˈfju:nərəl/noun [C] a ceremony (usually in a church) for burying or burning a dead person: The funeral will be held next week. The mourners at the funeral were all in black.

The body of the dead person is carried in a coffin, on which there are often wreaths of flowers. The coffin is buried in a grave or is burned (Cremated).

'funeral director noun [C] = UNDERTAKER

funfair /'fanfe $\theta$ (r)/ noun [C] = FAIR<sup>3</sup>(1)

fungus /ˈfʌngəs/ noun [C,U] (pl. fungi /-gi; -gaɪ/ or funguses) a plant that is not green and that does not have leaves or flowers. One type has a thick stem and a big flat top, another type is like a powder. Fungi grow on other plants, decaying wood or food, etc: There are many kinds of edible fungi. In Britain we usually only eat the mushroom. o The roses are covered in fungus. ② Look at mould and toadstool.

funnel /fʌnl/ noun [C] 1 an object that is wide at the top and narrow at the bottom, used for pouring liquid, powder, etc. into a small opening 2 the metal chimney of an engine, a ship, etc.

- funny /ˈfʌni/ adj (funnier; funniest) 1 that makes you smile or laugh: a funny story o He's an extremely funny person (= he can make people laugh). o I didn't think it was very funny when somebody tipped a cup of coffee over me.
- 2 strange or unusual: Oh dear, the engine is making a funny noise. o It's funny how English people never talk on trains. o What a funny little cottage! o It's funny that they didn't phone to let us know they couldn't come. o That's funny he was here a moment ago and now he's gone.  $\circ$  Can I sit down for a minute? I feel a bit funny (= a bit ill).

- ▶ funnily /-Ili/ adv 1 (used for expressing surprise at sth strange that has happened): Funnily enough, my parents weren't at all cross about من العجانب، من الغريب it.
- 2 in a funny way: She's breathing very fun-بشكل غريب nily
- fur /fa:(r)/ noun 1 [U] the soft thick hair that covers the bodies of some animals فَرُو، فراء
  - 2 [C,U] the skin and hair of an animal that is used for making clothes, etc.; a piece of clothing that is made from this: These boots are lined with fur. o a fur coat o Most of the women were dressed فرو، فد اء in furs.
  - ▶ furry /ˈfɜːri/ adj (furrier; furriest): a small ذو فرو furry animal
  - furious /'fiveries/ adj 1 furious (with sb)/(at sth) very angry: He was furious with her for losing the keys. o She was furious at having to catch هائج، غاضب the train home. • The noun is fury.
  - 2 very strong; violent: A furious row has broken عنىف out over the closing of the school. بعنف؛ باحتداد
  - ▶ furiously adv
- furnace /'fa:nis/ noun [C] a large enclosed fire that is used for heating water, melting metal, burning rubbish, etc. فرن (عال)
- furnish /'f3:nif/ verb [T] to put furniture in a room, house, etc: The room was furnished with antiques.
- ▶ furnished adj having furniture: She's renting a furnished room in Birmingham. 6 The opposite is unfurnished. مؤثث
- furnishings noun [plural] the furniture, carpets, curtains, etc. in a room, house, etc.
- ? furniture /'fa:nrtfə(r)/ noun [U] the movable articles, e.g. tables, chairs, beds, etc. in a room, house or office: modern/antique/second-hand fur-

Be careful. 'Furniture' is an uncountable noun: They only got married recently and they haven't got much furniture. If we are talking about an individual item we must say 'a piece of furniture': The only nice piece of furniture in the room was an antique desk.

- furrow /'farəv/ noun [C] 1 a line in a field that is made by a plough
- 2 a line in a person's face, especially on the forehead

furry → FUR

- ? further /'fa:ðə(r)/ adj 1 more distant or far; farther: Which is further - Glasgow or Edinburgh?
  - 2 more; additional: Are there any further questions? o Please let us know if you require any further information.  $\circ$  I have nothing further to say on the subject. o The museum is closed until further notice (= until another announcement is made).

- ▶ further adv 1 at or to a greater distance in time or space; farther: It's not safe to go any further. o The hospital is further down the road on the left. o I can't remember any further back أبعد (في الزمان أو المكان) than 1950.
- 2 more; to a greater degree: Can I have time to consider the matter further?

Further and farther can both be used when you are talking about distance: Bristol is further farther from London than Oxford is. o I jumped further/farther than you did. In other senses only further can be used: We need a further week to finish the job.

IDM further afield → FAR AFIELD further verb [T] (formal) to help sth to be successful: to further the cause of peace further edu'cation noun [U] education for people who have left school (but not at a university) S Look at higher education. تعليم إضافي (لمن غادروا المدرسة ولم يدخلوا الجامعة)

furthermore / f3:ðə'mɔ:(r)/ adv in addition; also: We are donating £6 million to the disaster fund. Furthermore, we shall send medical supplies فضلاً عن ذلك immediately

? furthest /f3:ðist/ adj, adv = FARTHEST

- furtive /'fa:tiv/ adj secret, acting as though you are trying to hide sth because you feel guilty: a furtive glance at the letter بَتُر: مختَلس
- ▶ furtively adv: He crept furtively down the stairs and out of the front door.
- fury /'fjvəri/ noun [U] very great anger: She was speechless with fury. 1 The adjective is furious.
- fuse<sup>1</sup> /fju:z/ noun [C] 1 a (long) piece of rope, string, etc. that is used for lighting a bomb, فتيل (القنبلة)
- 2 a device that makes a bomb, etc. explode at a صمام تفجير (زمني) particular time
- fuse2 /fju:z/ verb [I,T] to join together: Sadness and joy are fused in her poems.
- fuse3 /fju:z/ noun [C] a small piece of wire in an electrical system, machine, etc. that melts and breaks if there is too much power. This stops the flow of electricity and prevents fire or damage: That plug needs a 15-amp fuse.  $\circ$  Do you know how to change a fuse? مصُهّر (لحماية دارة كهربائية)
- ▶ fuse verb [I,T] to stop working because a fuse<sup>3</sup> has melted; to make a piece of electrical equipment do this: The lights have fused. o I've fused يصهر (مصهر دارة كهريائية)؛ ينصهر the lights.

fuselage /'fju:zəla:3; US 'fju:səla:3/ noun [C] the main part of an aeroplane (not the engines, wings fusion /'fju:3n/ noun [C,U] the joining together of different things: the fusion of two political systems o nuclear fusion (= a method of releasing nuclear اندماج؛ دُمّج؛ انصهار fuss /fas/ noun 1 [sing., U] unnecessary nervous excitement or activity: Now get on with your work without making a fuss. o What's all the fuss اهتياج لاداعي له

2 [sing.] a time when people are angry: There ? future /'fju:t $\int \theta(\mathbf{r}) / noun$  1 [sing.] the time that will be a dreadful fuss if my parents find out that I borrowed the car.

make, kick up, etc. a fuss (about/over sth) to complain strongly make a fuss of/over sb/sth to pay a lot of attention to sh/sth

- ▶ fuss verb [I] 1 fuss (about) to be worried or excited about small things: Stop fussing. We're not going to be late. ىقلق
- 2 fuss over sb/sth to pay too much attention to sb/sth: Stop fussing over all the details

يفرط في العناية IDM not be fussed (about sb/sth) (informal) not to care very much: 'Where do you want to go for lunch?' 'I'm not fussed.'

fussy /'fasi/ adj (fussier; fussiest) 1 (used about people) giving too much attention to small details and therefore difficult to please: He is very fussy about his food (= there are many things which he does not eat). صعب الإرضاء

2 having too much detail or decoration: I don't like that pattern. It's too fussy.

مفرط في الزينة أو الزخرفة futile /'fju:tail; US -tl/adj (used about an action) having no effect or result; useless: They made a last futile attempt to make him change his مبث؛ بلا جدوي mind.

▶ futility /'fju:tɪləti/ noun [U]: the futility of will come after the present: Who knows what will happen in the future? o in the near/distant future (= soon/not soon) o in the immediate future (= very soon) المستقبل

2 [C] what will happen to sb/sth in the time after the present: Our children's futures depend on a good education. O The company's future does not look very hopeful. o The future of the local school is still undecided.

3 [U] the possibility of being successful: I could see no future in this country so I left to work

4 [sing.] (also future tense) (grammar) the tense of a verb that expresses what will happen المستقبل (في علم القواعد) after the present

IDM in future from now on: Please try to be more careful in future.

▶ future adj (only before a noun) of or happening in the time after the present: She met her future husband when she was still at school. o You can keep that book for future reference (= to look at again later). O What are your future مُقْبِل؛ مستقبلي fuzzy /'fʌzi/ adj (fuzzier; fuzziest) not clear: The photo was rather fuzzy but I could just make out my mother on it.

G, g /d3i:/noun [C] (pl. Gs; G's; g's) the seventh letter of the English alphabet: 'Girl' begins with (a) 'G'

 $\mathbf{g} \ abbrev = \operatorname{GRAM}(s)$ gable /'gerbl/ noun [C] the pointed part at the top of an outside wall between two parts of a roof الحائط المثلث للجملون

gad /gæd/ verb (gadding; gadded)

PHRV gad about/around (informal) to go around from one place to another in order to enjoy yourself gadget /'gæd31t/ noun [C] (informal) a small tool or machine أدأة

Gaelic /'gerlik/ adj, noun [U] 1 (of) the Celtic لغة أيرلندا وثقافتها language and culture of Ireland

2 /also 'gælik/ (of) the Celtic language and culture of Scotland لغة اسكو تلندا وثقافتها gag /gæg/ noun [C] 1 a piece of cloth, etc. that is put in or over sb's mouth in order to stop him/ her from talking

2 a joke or funny story

▶ gag verb [T] (gagging; gagged) to put a gag in or over sb's mouth: (figurative) The new laws are يكمم: يخرِس an attempt to gag the press.

gage(US) = GAUGE

gaiety /'gerəti/ noun [U] a feeling of happiness and fun

gaily → GAY

? gain / gein/ noun 1 [C,U] an increase in money; (a) profit or advantage: Shares in the electricity companies have made big gains on the London stock market. O We didn't make any gain when we sold our house. O Everything he did was for personal gain.

2 [C] an increase in size, amount or power: a gain in weight of one kilo o The Liberal Democrat Party is expected to make gains at the next election.

Rgain<sup>2</sup>/gein/verb 1 [T] to get or win sth (especially sth that is wanted or needed): They managed to gain access to secret information. O He has gained an international reputation as an artist. o You need to gain more experience before you take your يكسب؛ يفوز بر، ينال driving test.

2 [T] to get more of sth: The train was gaining speed. o I've gained a lot of weight recently.

3 [I] gain by/from (doing) sth to get an advantage from sth/from doing sth: Many people will gain from the changes in the law.  $\circ$  I've got nothing to gain by staying in this job.

4 [I,T] (used about a clock or watch) to go too fast and show the incorrect time: My watch gains five minutes a day. • When a clock gains we say it is fast.

dren's party on Saturday.

* gamble / gambl/ verb [I,T] to risk money on the result of a card game, horse race, etc.

1 The opposite for 2, 3 and 4 is lose.

gain ground to make progress; to become stronger or more popular: The Green Party gained ground in the recent elections.

PHRV gain in sth to get more of sth: He's gained in confidence in the past year.

gain on sb/sth to get closer to sb/sth that you are trying to catch gait /gert/ noun [sing.] the way that sb walks

gal. abbrev = GALLON(S)

gala /ˈɡɑːlə; US ˈɡeɪlə/ noun [C] a special social or sporting occasion: a gala performance at the National Theatre o a swimming gala احتفال : مهرجان galaxy /ˈɡæləksi/ noun [C] (pl. galaxies) a large group of stars and planets in outer space gale /geɪl/ noun [C] a very strong wind: Several trees blew down in the gale. ⊃ Look at the note at storm.

gallant /ˈgælənt/ adj (formal) 1 brave: a gallant soldier شجاع ، جسور

2 (used about men) polite to and showing special respect for women

▶ gallantry /ˈgæləntri/ noun [U] 1 bravery, es-

شجاعة ، جَسارة pecially in a dangerous situation

2 polite behaviour towards women (by men) الطف مع النساء

gall bladder /ˈgɔːl blædə(r)/ noun [C] an organ that is attached to the liver that stores and releases bile.

gallery /ˈɡæləri/ noun [C] (pl. galleries) 1 a building or room where works of art are shown to the public: an art gallery

2 the highest level of seating in a theatre, etc. شرفة عليا في مسرح

3 a raised area around the sides or at the back of a large hall. People can sit in the gallery and watch what is happening in the hall: the public gallery

? gailon //gælən/ noun [C] (abbr gal.) a measure of liquid; 4.5 litres. There are 8 pints in a gallon.

• An American gallon is the same as 3.8 litres.

_

gallop /'gæləp/ verb [I] (used about a horse or a rider) to go at the fastest speed, when the horse's four feet all leave the ground together

(الحصان) يعدو (الحصان) يعدو (الحصان) يعدو gallop noun [sing.,C] the fastest speed of a horse, etc.; a time when you ride at this speed: [C]: They went for a gallop over the fields.

عَدُّو (الحصان)

gallows /ˈgæləʊz/ noun [C] (pl. gallows) a wooden framework on which criminals used to be hanged galore /gəˈlɔː(r)/ adj (only after a noun) in large numbers: There will be prizes galore at our children's party on Saturday.

يقامر result of a card game, horse race, etc. يقامر EHEV gamble on sth/on doing sth to act in the hope that sth will happen although it is possible that it will not: I wouldn't gamble on the weather staving fine.

► gamble noun [C] something you do that is a risk (i.e. you might win sth but you might also lose): Setting up this business was a bit of a gamble.

take a gamble (on sth) to take a chance (on sth or on sth happening) يراهن gambler /'gæmblə(r)/ noun [C] gambling /'gæmblɪŋ/ noun [U]

**Egame* | /geim/ noun 1 [C] a form of play or sport with rules; a time when you play it: Let's have a game of chess. o a game of football, rugby, tennis, etc. o 'Monopoly' is still a very popular game. o Our next game is against the Oxford Tigers. o Tonight's game is between Holland and Italy. o What an exciting game! o The game ended in a

2 [C] a section of a match of tennis, etc: Roddick won the first game of the second set.

3 games [plural] an (international) athletics or sports competition فالعاب: مباريات

4 [C] the set of equipment that you need in order to play a particular (indoor) game: We usually buy a new board game at Christmas.

5 [C, usually sing.] (informal) a way of behaving according to a secret plan: I wasn't sure what their game was but I didn't trust them.

Description:

The secret plan: I wasn't sure what their game was but I didn't trust them.

The secret plan is game away to tell a person sthem that you are trying to keep secret: It was the expression on her face that gave the game amestic.

game<sup>2</sup> /gem/ adj (used about a person) ready and willing to do sth new, unusual, difficult, etc: I have never been sailing but I'm game to try.

game³ /geim/ noun [U] wild animals or birds that are hunted for sport or food: Shooting game is popular in Scotland. ○ big game (= lions, tigers, etc. that are hunted)

'gamekeeper /'geɪmki:pə(r)/ noun [C] a person who looks after game³ on priyate land

حارس الطرائد في أملاك ريفية

'game show noun [C] a television programme in which people play games or answer questions to win prizes

gander /'gændə(r)/ noun [C] a male goose gang /gæŋ/ noun [C, with sing. or pl. verb] 1 an organized group of criminals: The police are looking for the gang that committed the robbery.

ذكر الإوز

عصابة

2 a group of young people, especially young men, who sometimes cause trouble: The phone

box was vandalized by a gang of youths. جماعة شبان عابثين

- 3 a group of prisoners, building workers, etc. who work together as a team
- 4 (informal) a group of (young) friends: The whole gang is here tonight. مجموعة اصحاب: شلّة pang verb (informal)
- THEV gang up on sb to join together with other people in order to act against sb: She's upset because she says the other kids are ganging up on her.
- gangrene /ˈgængriːn/ noun [U] the decay of a part of the body because the blood supply to it has been stopped
- gangster /ˈɡæŋstə(r)/ noun [C] a member of a gang of criminals
- gangway /ˈgæŋweɪ/ noun [C] 1 a movable bridge that people use for getting on or off a ship (مغبر (جسر بين السفينة والساحل)
- 2 (Brit) a passage that you can walk along between two rows of seats ممر (بين صفي مقاعد)

gaol, gaoler (Brit) = JAIL, JAILER

- § gap /gæp/ noun [C] a gap (in/between sth) 1 an empty space in sth or between two things:

  The sheep got out through a gap in the fence.
  - 2 an absence of sth; a space where sth should be: There were several gaps in his story. o I think our new product should fill a gap in the market. o Her husband's death left a big gap in her life.
  - 3 a period of time that is not filled or when you are not doing what you normally do: I returned to teaching after a gap of about five years. a gap in the conversation
  - 4 a difference between people or their ideas: The gap between the rich and the poor is getting wider.

    o the generation gap (= the difference in opinions between parents and their children)

    bridge a/the gap → BRIDGE¹
  - gape /geɪp/ verb [I] 1 to stare at sb/sth with your mouth open
  - 2 to be or become wide open: There was a gaping hole in the wall after the explosion.
- gap year noun [C] a year that a young person spends working and/or travelling, often between leaving school and starting university: I'm planning to take a gap year and go backpacking in India.
- Lgarage /ˈgærɑːʒ; ˈɡærɪdʒ; US gəˈrɑːʒ/ noun [C] 1 a building where cars, etc. are kept: The house has a double garage (= with space for two cars).
  - 2 a place where you can have your car serviced or repaired. It may also sell petrol, etc: a garage mechanic 2 Look at petrol station.
    - مَشْفَل (للسيارات) ، ورشة تصليح
- fgarbage /'ga:bid3/ noun [U] (especially US) =
- 'garbage can noun [C] (US) = DUSTBIN

garbled /'gɑ:bld/ adj (used about a message, story, etc.) difficult to understand; not clear

مُشَوَّش

مزين

- R garden /ˈgɑːdn/ noun [C] 1 (US yard) a piece of land (usually near a house) where flowers and vegetables are grown, usually with a piece of grass (lawn): Let's have lunch in the garden. o the back/front garden o garden flowers o garden chairs (= for using in the garden) 2 Look at the note at yard.
  - 2 gardens [plural] a public park: the Botanical حديقة عامة
  - > garden verb [I] to work in a garden: She's been gardening all afternoon.

    gardener /ˈguːdnə(r)/ noun [C] a person who works in a garden as a job or for pleasure: They're keen gardeners.
  - gardening /ˈgɑːdnɪn/ noun [U] looking after a garden: I'm going to do some gardening this afternoon. gardening gloves (= used when you are working in a garden)
- 'garden centre noun [C] a place where plants, seeds, gardening equipment, etc. are sold محل لبيم لوازم البستنة
- 'garden party noun [C] (pl. garden parties) a formal social event that takes place outside (usually in a large garden) on a summer afternoon
- gargle /ˈɡɑːɡl/ verb [I] to wash your throat with a liquid (which you do not swallow) يتفرغر
- garish /ˈɡeərɪʃ/ adj too bright or highly decorated (اون) صارخ
- garlic /ˈɡɑːlɪk/ noun [U] a plant with a strong taste and smell that looks like a small onion and is used in cooking: a clove of garlic
- garment /'ga:mənt/ noun [C] (formal) one piece of clothing: This garment must be dry-cleaned.
- garnish /ˈgɑːnɪʃ/ verb [T] to decorate a dish of food with a small amount of another food: Garnish the soup with a little parsley before serving
- ▶ garnish noun [U,C]

garrison /ˈɡærɪsn/ noun [C] a group of soldiers who are living in and guarding a town or building

- ning to take a gap year and go backpacking in India. * $\mathbb{Qgas} / noun (pl. gases; US also gasses) 1 [C,U] a substance that is like air (i.e. not solid or liquid): Hydrogen and oxygen are gases.
  - 2 [U] a gas (1) or mixture of gases that is used for heating, cooking, etc: Does your central heating run on gas or electricity?  $\circ$  a gas cooker  $\circ$  Turn the gas on the cooker up a bit!
  - 3 [U] a poisonous gas(1) that is used in war
  - 4 [U] (US) = PETROL
  - ► gas verb [T] (gassing; gassed) to poison or kill sb with gas

'gas chamber noun [C] a room that can be filled

يجمع

gas-fired → GB

with poisonous gas in order to kill animals or people غرفة إعدام بالغاز

.gas-'fired adj (Brit) using gas as fuel: gas-fired central heating

gash /gæʃ/ noun [C] a long deep cut or wound: He had a nasty gash in his arm.

> gash verb [T] to make a long deep cut or wound

'gas mask noun [C] an apparatus that you wear over your face to protect you against poisonous gas قناع الغاز

'gas meter noun [C] an instrument that measures the amount of gas that you use

fgasoline (also gasolene) /'gæsəli:n/ noun [U]
(US) = PETROL

gasp /ga:sp/ verb 1 [I] to breathe quickly and noisily (e.g. when you have been running fast):
At the end of the race some of the runners were gasping for breath.

2 [I] gasp (at sth) to breathe in suddenly and noisily because you are surprised or in pain: She gasped in surprise as she read the letter.

3 [T] gasp sth (out) to say sth while you are finding it difficult to breathe: 'I can't go on,' he gasped, Tve got to sit down.'

▶ gasp noun [C] a quick breath (when you are surprised, in pain, etc.): Suddenly she gave a gasp of surprise.

'gas station noun [C] (US) = PETROL STATION gastronomic /ˌgæstrəˈnɒmɪk/ adj connected with (good) food متذوق الطعام الفاخر: متعلّق بفاخر الطعام

? gate /geit/ noun [C] 1 a movable structure (like a door) that closes an opening in a wall, fence, hedge, etc: Please keep the garden gate closed.

2 (also 'gateway) an opening in a wall, fence, hedge, etc. that is closed by a gate(1): Drive through the gates and you'll find the car park on the right.

3 an entrance or exit at an airport: Lufthansa Flight 139 to Berlin is now boarding at gate 16. بوآبة (في مطار)

gateau /ˈɡætəʊ; US gæˈtəʊ/ noun [C] (pl. gateaux or gateaus) a large cake that is usually decorated with cream, fruit, etc. كاتر/جاتو (قطعة حلوى مزينة)

'gatecrash /'gentkræ[/ verb [I.T] to go to a private party without being invited

حضرٍ حفلاً بدون دعوة لفيلي ، ضيف غير مدعو [C] gatecrasher noun |

'gateway /'geɪtweɪ/ noun [C] 1 = GATE (2)

2 [sing.] gateway to sth the place through which you must pass in order to get to somewhere else: The port of Dover is England's gateway to Europe. o (figurative) A good education can be the gateway to success.

lgather /ˈgæðə(r)/ verb 1 [I,T] gather round (sb/sth); gather sb/sth round (sb/sth) (used about people) to come together in a group; to make people come together: A crowd soon gathered at the scene of the accident. • The children were gathered in a group around the teacher's desk.

2 [T] gather sth (together/up) to bring many things together; to collect: They gathered up all their picnic things and set off home. • They have gathered together a lot of information on the subject. • I need some time to gather my thoughts before I can give you an answer.

3 [T] to collect plants, fruits, etc.

4 [T] to understand or find out sth (from sb/sth): I gather from your letter that you have several years' experience of this kind of work. o 'She's been very ill recently.' 'So I gather.'

5 [T] to pull material together into small folds and sew it: a gathered skirt

6 [I,T] to become greater or to make greater; to increase: The train is gathering speed. o In the gathering darkness it was hard to see the ball.

אַ בּוּב: יִּבָּיַבּ

• gathering noun [C] a time when people come together; a meeting: a family gathering

gaudy /ˈɡɔːdi/ adj (gaudier; gaudiest).too bright or highly decorated (لون) صارخ : مفرط في البهرجة gauge (US also gage) /geid3/ noun [C] 1 an instrument for measuring the amount of sth: a fuel gauge on a car (= to show how much petrol is left)

2 the distance between the rails on a railway: a narrow-gauge railway عرض السكة الحديدية

3 a fact that you can use to judge a situation, sb's feelings, etc.

▶ gauge verb [T] 1 to measure sth

2 to judge a situation, sb's feelings, etc: It was difficult to gauge the mood of the audience. يقدُر gaunt /go:nt/ adj (used about a person) very thin because of hunger, illness, etc.

gauze /gɔːz/ noun [U] thin net-like material (often used for covering wounds) gave pt of give

gawp/gɔːp/verb [I] (informal) to look or stare (at sb/sth) in a stupid way (with your mouth open) gay /gei/ adj 1 sexually attracted to people of the same sex; homosexual 6 The noun is gayness.

2 (old-fashioned) happy and full of fun 🐧 The noun is gaiety.

ightharpoonup gaily /'geɪli/ adv in a gay (2) manner

بِجَنْل ؛ بِمَرَح gay noun [C] a person, especially a man, who is sexually attracted to people of the same sex; a homosexual gaze /geiz/ verb [1] to look steadily for a long time: She sat at the window gazing silently into space.

▶ gaze noun [sing.] a long steady look: She kept her gaze fixed on the man in the front row.

تحديق

GB /,d3i: 'bi:/ abbrev = Great Britain

GCSE / dʒi: si: es 'i: / abbrev (Brit) General Certificate of Secondary Education; an examination that schoolchildren in England, Wales and Northern Ireland take when they are about sixteen. They often take GCSEs in five or more subjects. For Scottish examinations, look at SCE.

? gear /giə(r)/ noun 1 [C] a set of wheels that fit into another set in order to pass power from one part of a machine to another, e.g. from a car's engine to its wheels: A car has four (or five) forward gears and a reverse.

 ${f 2}$  [U] a particular position of the gears (in a car, etc.) (قي سيارة)

A car can be in or out of gear. You use a low gear (first gear) when you first start moving and then change gear as you go faster. For the fastest speeds you use top gear.

- 3 [U] equipment or clothing that you need for a particular activity, etc: camping gear
- 4 [sing.] (in compounds) an instrument or part of a machine that is used for a particular purpose: the landing gear of an aeroplane

جهاز او جزء آلة

▶ gear verb

There is a special course geared towards the older learner.

There is a special course geared towards the older learner.

gear up (for sb/sth): gear sb/sth up (for sb/sth) to get ready or to make sb/sth ready. I was all geared up for the party but it was cancelled at the last minute.

gearbox /ˈgɪəbɒks/ noun [C] the metal case that contains the gears (1) of a car, etc.

'gear lever (US 'gear shift) noun [C] a stick that is used for changing gear (2) (in a car, etc.) مبلّل السرعة (في سيارة) ؛ "الفيتيس" gee /dʒi:/ interj (US) (used for expressing surprise, pleasure, etc.): Gee, I'm sorry. I didn't know you'd been ill.

geese pl. of GOOSE

Geiger counter /ˈgaɪgə kaontə(r)/ noun [C] a device for detecting and measuring radioactive substances

gel /dʒel/ noun [C,U] (often in compounds) a thick substance like jelly that is between a liquid and a solid: hair/shower gel

gelignite /ˈdʒelɪgnaɪt/ noun [U] a substance that is used for making explosions gem /dʒem/ noun [C] 1 a jewel or precious stone

2 a person or thing that has great value جَوْهرة (إنسان أو شيء)

Gemini /ˈdʒemɪnaɪ/ noun [C,U] the third sign of the zodiac, the Twins; a person who was born under this sign برج التوأمين، الجوزاء

Gen. abbrev = GENERAL gender /'d3endə(r)/ noun [C,U] 1 (formal) the classification of people into two sexes: male and female

2 (grammar) (in some languages) the division of nouns, pronouns, etc. into different classes, (e.g. masculine, feminine, neuter); one of these divisions: There are three genders in German.

o In French the adjective must agree with the noun in number and gender.

gene /dʒi:n/ noun [C] one of the parts of a cell of a living thing which decide its development. Genes are passed from parents to children.

مورثة (في علم الوراثة)، حينة حاملة الصفة الوراثية

Rgeneral / 'dʒenrəl/ adj 1 affecting all or most people, places, things, etc: Fridges were once a luxury, but now they are in general use. • That is a matter of general interest. • The general feeling is that the situation is improving (= most people think so). • the general public (= most ordinary people)

2 (only before a noun) not limited to, or describing, one particular part; not detailed: Your general health is very good. The introduction gives you a general idea of what the book is about.

Let's talk in general terms at first and then get down to details.

3 not limited to one subject or area of study; not specialized: Children need a good general education. • The quiz tests your general knowledge. • a general hospital

4 (often in compounds) with responsibility for the whole of an organization: The Secretary General of the United Nations o a general manager in general in most cases; usually: In general, standards of hygiene are good.

general² /ˈdʒenrəl/ noun [C] (abbr Gen.) an army officer of very high rank: General Roberts (فريق (ضابط عالِ في الجيش) general anaes'thetic noun [C,U] a substance that is given to a patient in hospital before an operation so that he/she becomes unconscious and does not feel any pain 2 Look at local anaesthetic.

General Cer,tificate of Secondary

Edu'cation = GCSE

general e'lection noun [C] an election in which all the voters in a country choose their national parliament generalize (also generalise) /ˈdʒenrəlaɪz/ verb [I] 1 generalize (about sth) (from sth) to form an opinion using only a small amount of information: You can't generalize about English, food from only two meals.

2 generalize (about sth) to make a general statement about sth and not look at the details: You're generalizing, but every case is different.

> generalization (also generalisation) |dʒenrəlaˈzeɪʃn; US -hˈz-/ noun 1 [U] the act of generalizing

2 [C] a general statement about sth that does not consider details

generally → gentleman

- Renerally /ˈdʒenrəli/ adv 1 usually: She generally cycles to work.
  - 2 by most people: He is generally considered to be a good doctor: لدى أكثر الناس
  - 3 in a general sense, without looking at the details: Generally speaking, houses in America are bigger than houses in this country.

general prac'titioner noun [C] = GP

- Rgenerate /ˈdʒenəreɪt/ verb [T] 1 to produce power, heat, electricity, etc.
  - 2 to cause sth to exist: I think this new product will generate a lot of income for the company.
- ຊື generation /ˌdʒenəˈreɪʃn/ noun 1 [U] the act of generating: the generation of electricity by water nower
  - 2 [C] a single stage in a family history: This photograph shows three generations of my family (= children, parents and grandparents).
    جيل (في اسرة)
  - 3 [C] all the people in a group or country who were born at about the same time: My grandmother's generation grew up without electricity or running water. o future generations
  - Generation is used in the singular with either a singular or plural verb: The younger generation only seem/seems to be interested in money.
  - 4 [C] a period of about 25 or 30 years (i.e. the time that a person takes to become an adult): A generation ago foreign travel was still only possible for a few people.
  - the gene'ration gap noun [sing.] the difference in behaviour, and lack of understanding, between young people and older people فرق بين الأجبال
  - generator /ˈdʒenəreɪtə(r)/ noun [C] a machine that produces electricity مولّد (کهرباء)
  - generosity /,d3enə'rpsəti/ noun [U] the quality of being generous
- Rgenerous /ˈdʒenərəs/ adj 1 willing to give more money, help, etc. than is usual or necessary: It was very generous of your parents to lend us all that money.
  - 2 larger than usual: You get very generous portions in that restaurant.
  - ▶ generously adv: Please give generously.
- genetic /dʒə'netık/ adj connected with genes or genetics: The disease is caused by a genetic defect.
- ▶ genetically /-kli/ adv
- ge,netically 'modified adj (abbr GM) (used about food, plants, etc.) that has been grown from cells whose genes have been changed in an artificial way
- ge,netic engi'neering noun [U] changes

- made by scientists in the genetic structure of plants and animals
- genetics /dʒə'netiks/ noun [U] the scientific study of the way that the development of living things is controlled by features that have been passed on from parents to children لما يالودانة علم الردانة الدائلة
- genial /ˈdʒi:niəl/ adj (used about a person) pleasant and friendly
- genitals /ˈdʒenɪtlz/ noun [plural] (formal) the external sex organs الاعضاء التناسلية الظاهرة
- ► genital /'dʒenɪtl/ adj
- genius /ˈdʒiːniəs/ noun (pl. geniuses) 1 [U] very great and unusual ability: Shakespeare's tragedies show true genius.
- 2 [C] a person who has very great and unusual ability, especially in a particular subject: Einstein was a mathematical genius.
- 3 [sing.] a genius for (doing) sth great natural ability for (doing) sth: Our teacher had a genius for explaining difficult things in a simple way.
- genocide /ˈdʒenəsaɪd/ noun [U] the murder of a nation or race
- genome /ˈdʒi:nəom/ noun [C] the complete set of genes in a cell or living thing: the decoding of the human genome
- genre /ˈʒɒnrə/ noun [C] a particular style or type, especially of works of art or literature: What are the features of the novel as a genre? نوع ادبي او فني
- gent /d3ent/ noun 1 [C] (informal) gentleman
- 2 a/the Gents [sing.] (Brit informal) a public toilet for men ♦ Look at the note at toilet.

  مراحيض عامة للرجال
- genteel /dʒen'ti:l/ adj paying great (perhaps too much) attention to polite manners
  - مُهَلَب (أَحِياناً بِافراط) تهنيب: نُبُل gentility /dʒen'tɪləti/ noun [U]
- Rentle /'dʒentl/ adj 1 (used about people) kind; calm; touching or treating people or things in a careful way so that they are not hurt: He was a gentle, patient man who loved playing with his grandchildren. 'I'll try and be as gentle as I can', said the dentist.
  - 2 not rough or violent: You should be able to take some gentle exercise next week. O It's just a gentle (= not steep) climb to the top of the hill.
  - لَّفُ. رَفُّ وَهِ gentleness noun [U] gently ('dʒentli/ adv: He touched her gently on the shoulder: The beach slopes gently down to the sea. بيلاً خفية
- rgentleman /ˈdʒentlmən/ noun [C] (pl. gentlemen /-mən/) 1 a man who is polite and who behaves well towards other people: He is a real gentleman.
  - 2 (formal) (used when speaking to or about a man or men in a polite way): Ladies and gentlemen! (e.g. at the beginning of a speech) o Mrs

بالوراثة

Flinn, there is a gentleman here to see you. السيد (كلمة مؤدبة عند الحديث مع رجل او عنه)

- 3 (old-fashioned) a rich man with a high social position: He likes to think of himself as a country gentleman.
- 6 We use lady when we are talking about a woman
- R genuine /'dʒenjum/ adj 1 a person or thing that is genuine is exactly what he/she/it seems to be; real: He thought that he had bought a genuine Rolex watch but it was a cheap fake. There are only three genuine Scotsmen in the team.
  - 2 (used about a person or his/her feelings or behaviour) honest; real: She seems genuine enough but can I trust her?
  - ► genuinely adv: I'm genuinely interested in a career in teaching.
- F geography /dʒi'ɒgrəfi/ noun [U] 1 the study of the countries of the world, of their natural and physical features and of the cities, industries, etc. that have been made by man
  - 2 the way in which the features of a particular country or place are arranged: We're studying the geography of Asia.
  - » geographer /dʒi'ɒgrəfə(r)/ noun [C] a student of or expert in geography جغرائي geographic /ˌdʒi:ə'græfik/ (also geographical -ikl/) adj وعرائي geographically /-kli/ adv
  - geology /dʒi'ɒlədʒi/ noun [U] the study of rocks and soil, and of their development ► geological /,dʒi:ə'lɒdʒikl/ adj
  - geologist /d3i'blad3ist/ noun [C] a student of or expert in geology
- geometry /dʒi'omətri/ noun [U] the study in mathematics of lines, shapes, curves, etc.

  ▶ geometric /ˌdʒi:o'metrɪk/ (also geometrical /-ıkl/) adj 1 of geometry
- ${f 2}$  consisting of regular shapes and lines:  ${f a}$  geometric design/pattern geometrically /-kli/ adv
- geranium /dʒəˈremiəm/ noun [C] a garden plant with red, pink or white flowers غرنوقي، إيرة الراعي
- geriatrics /ˌdʒeriˈætrɪks/ noun [U] the medical treatment of very old people
- ▶ geriatric adj: a geriatric hospital

خاص بالمسنين

جرثوم

- germ /d<sub>33</sub>:m/ noun 1 [C] a very small living thing that causes disease. Germs can only be seen with a microscope: This disinfectant kills most germs. 2 Look at bacteria and virus.
- 2 [sing.] the germ of sth the beginning of sth that may develop: the germ of an idea
- German measles /ˌdʒɜːmən ˈmiːzlz/ (also ru-bella) noun [U] a mild disease that causes red spots all over the body. It may damage an unborn baby if the mother catches it.
- germinate /ˈdʒɜːmɪneɪt/ ver b [1,T] (used about a seed of a plant) to start growing; to cause a seed to do this

- نبات | germination / dʒɜːmɪˈneɪ∫n/ noun [U
- gerund /ˈdʒerənd/ noun [C] (grammar) a noun, ending in -ing, that has been made from a verb: In the sentence 'His hobby is collecting stamps', 'collecting' is a gerund.
- gesticulate /dʒeˈstɪkjuleɪt/ verb [I] to make movements with your hands and arms in order to express sth
- gesture /'dʒestʃə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a movement of the hand, head, etc. that expresses sth: The driver of the car in front made a rude gesture and drove off.
- 2 something that you do that shows other people what you think or feel: It would be a nice gesture to invite the neighbours in for a meal.
- ► gesture verb [I,T] to point at sth, to make a sign to sb: She asked them if they were going and gestured towards the door.
- Liget /get/ verb (pres part getting; pt got /gnt/; pp got; US gotten /'gntn/) 1 [T] have/has got to have sth: Have you got a bike?
  - 2 [1] to become: It's getting dark. o She got angry.
  - 3 [T] to receive or obtain sth: I got a letter from my sister. O What did you get for your birthday? O He went shopping and got a suit. O I got a shock when I saw the price. O She got a job in a travel agency. O You get a wonderful view from that window. O I'll do it if I get the time.
  - 4 [T] to fetch or collect sth: Go and get me a pen, please. I'll get the children from school today. The police have got (= caught) the gang who carried out the robbery.
  - 5 [T] to hear or understand sth: I'm sorry, I didn't get that. Could you repeat it?
  - 6 [T] to catch a disease: She got malaria in Africa.
  - 7 [T] to use a form of transport:  $I \ didn't \ walk I$  got the bus. (پر کب (في وسيلة نقل پر کب (في وسيلة نقل پر کب ال
  - 8 [I] to move somewhere; to reach a place: We got to Dover at about 10. 2 Look at get in, on, etc.
  - ${f 9}$  [T] to cause sth to be in a particular place: We couldn't get the piano upstairs.
  - 10 [T] to prepare sth; to make sb/sth ready: He got the breakfast.
  - 11 [I] (used with a past participle) to do sth that you are responsible for: I'm just getting dressed.

    They've got divorced.
  - 12 [I] to be in a certain situation: He's got into trouble with the police. (ابع حالة ما)
  - 13 [I] (used in a similar way to the passive) to have sth happen to you: She got bitten by a dog.
  - 14 [T] to cause sb/sth to do sth or to happen: I got him to agree to the plan.  $\circ$  I can't get the television to work.  $\circ$  She finally got the book finished. ① Note that we also use get when we arrange for somebody else to do something: You must get the car serviced every 10 000 miles (= at a garage).

get 15 [I] to have the opportunity to do sth: Did you get to see the Rembrandt exhibition? يتاح له be getting on for ... to be approaching a certain time or age: I'm not sure how old he is but he must be getting on for 50. يقترب من get somewhere/nowhere (with sb/sth) to make some progress/no progress: I'm getting nowhere with my research. A For other idioms containing get, look at the noun and adjective entries, e.g. for get rid of look at rid. PHRV get about/around to move or travel to and from many places: Australia this week, Japan next week - you certainly get around! get about/around/round (used about news, a story, etc.) to spread; to become known by many get sth across (to sb) to succeed in making people understand sth: The party failed to get its policies across to the voters. get ahead to progress and be successful in sth, ينجح، يتقدم especially a career get along → GET ON get around 1 → GET ABOUT/AROUND 2 → GET ABOUT/AROUND/ROUND get around sb → GET ROUND/AROUND SB get around sth → GET ROUND/AROUND STH get around to sth/doing sth → GET ROUND/ AROUND TO STH/DOING STH get at sb to say unkind or critical things to get at sb/sth to succeed in reaching sb/sth: The pen fell down between my desk and the wall and I couldn't get at it. get at sth (used only in the continuous tenses) to suggest sth indirectly; to mean sth but not to state it directly: I'm not quite sure what you're getting at - am I doing something wrong? get away (from...) to succeed in leaving or escaping from sb or a place: He kept talking to me and I couldn't get away from him. o The thieves, يفلت من؛ يهرب got away in a stolen car. get away with sth/with doing sth to do sth bad and not be punished for it: He lied but he got away with it. o I don't know how they get away with charging such high prices. يفَلت من العقاب get back to return to the place where you live or work: When did you get back from Italy? يعود get sth back to be given sth that you had lost or lent: Can I borrow this book? You'll get it back get back to sb to speak to, write to or phone sb later, especially in order to give an answer or deal with sth: I'll get back to you when I've got get back to sth to return to doing sth or talking about sth: I woke up early and couldn't get back to sleep. o Let's get back to the point you raised get behind (with sth) to fail to do or produce get by (on sth) to manage, often with difficulty, to live, using a certain income: It's very hard to sth on time: We got behind with our rent.

next week, I promise.

some more information.

get by on such a low income.

earlier.

get sth down to make a note of sth; to write sth down: Did you get the address for the competition يسحل down? get down to sth/doing sth to start doing or concentrating on sth: I must get down to answer-يتفرغ ا ing these letters. get in to reach a place: What time does your train get in? get in; get into sth 1 to climb into a car: We all got in and Tim drove off. 2 to be elected to a political position: Who do you think will get in at the next election? get sth in to manage to find an opportunity to say or do sth: He talked all the time and I couldn't يتمكن من (الكلام) get a word in. get into sb (informal) (used about a feeling or attitude) to start affecting sb strongly, causing the person to behave in an unusual way: I wonder what's got into him – he isn't usually, unfriendly. get into sth to start a particular activity; to become involved in sth: How did you first get into the music business? O She has got into the habit of turning up late. O We got into an argument about يبدأ أو يدخل في politics. get off (sth) 1 to leave a bus, train, bicycle, etc.; to climb down from a horse 2 to leave work with permission at a particular time: I might be able to get off early today. get sth off (sth) to remove sth from sth: My foot was swollen and I couldn't get my shoe off. ينزع (شيئا من آخر) get off (with sth) to receive minor or no injuries when serious injury was possible: She was lucky to get off with only a broken arm in such a bad accident. يتضرر ضررا خفيفا get (sb) off (with sth) to receive little or no punishment; to help sb to receive little or no punishment: If you're lucky, you'll get off with a small fine. o Her lawyer told her that he was confident he would get her off. get on 1 to progress or become successful in life, in a career, etc: After leaving university she was determined to get on. 2 to be getting old: He's getting on - he's over 60, يشيخ I'm sure. 3 to be getting late: Time's getting on - we don't want to be late. 1 Senses 2 and 3 are only used in the continuous tenses. get on/along 1 to make progress: How are you getting on in your course? 2 to perform in a particular way or to have a good or bad experience in a particular situation: How did you get on at your interview? يسلك؛ يصيب نجاحاً أو إخفاقاً get on/onto sth to climb onto a bus, train, bicycle, horse, etc: I got on just as the train was about to leave. o I couldn't get onto the bus يركب because it was full. get sth on to put on a piece of clothing: Get your shoes on, we're going out now.

get sb down to make sb miserable: These cold winter days get me down.

بسترجع

يستجيب، يردّ على

get on/along with sth to make progress with sth that you are doing: How are you getting on with that essay?

get on with sth to continue doing sth, especially after an interruption: Stop talking and get on with your work!

get out (used about a piece of information) to become known, having previously been secret پنفشی (الس) get sth out (of sth) to take sth from its container: I got my keys out of my bag. يخرج get out (of sth) to leave or escape from a place: My grandmother's very old and she doesn't get out of the house much.

get out of sth/doing sth to avoid a duty or doing sth that you have said you will do: I said I'd go to their party and I can't get out of it now.

get sth out of sb to obtain sth from sb by force or persuasion: His parents finally got the truth out of him.

get sth out of sb/sth to gain sth from sb/sth: I get a lot of pleasure out of music. يحصل على get over sth 1 to overcome a problem: We'll have to get over the problem of finding somewhere to live first.

2 to recover from sth unpleasant, or from an illness: He still hasn't got over his wife's death.

It took her a long time to get over her operation.

I can't get over how rude he was! (= I still find it surprising) ي معنى بعبير (get sth over with (informal) to do and complete sth unpleasant that has to be done: I'll be glad to get my visit to the dentist's over with.

م واجبا مفينا qet round → GET ABOUT/AROUND/ROUND get round/around sb (informal) to persuade sb to do or agree with sth: My father says I can't borrow his car but I think I can get round him.

get round/around sth to find a way of avoiding or overcoming a problem يتحاشى: يجد حلاً get round/around to sth/doing sth to find the time to do sth, after a delay: I've been meaning to reply to that letter for ages but I haven't got round to it vet.

get through sth to use or to complete a certain amount or number of sth: I got through a lot of money at the weekend. I got through an enormous amount of work today.

get (sb) through (sth) to be successful in sth (often sth unpleasant); to help sb to be successful: She got through her final exams easily. • It was a terrible time financially but I got through it and then things improved. • Her kindness got me through those awful days.

get through (to sb) 1 to succeed in making a telephone connection with sb: I couldn't get through to them because their phone was engaged all day. ينجح في الاتصال هاتفياً

2 to succeed in making sb understand what you are saying: They couldn't get through to him that he was completely wrong.

get to sb (informal) to affect sb in a bad way: Public criticism is beginning to get to the team manager.

get together (with sb) to meet socially or in order to discuss or do sth: We should get together one evening. O Let's get together and talk about it.

get up to rise to a standing position; to stand up: He got up to let an elderly woman sit down.

get (sb) up to get out of bed or make sb get out of bed: What time do you have to get up in the morning? • Could you get me up at 6 tomorrow?

get up to sth 1 to reach a particular point or stage in sth: We've got up to the last section of our grammar book.

2 to do sth, especially sth bad: I wonder what the children are getting up to? لِنُعْلُ (شَيْئًا مُؤنْيًا)

getaway /'getəwer/ noun [C] an escape (after a crime):  $to\ make\ a\ getaway \circ a\ getaway\ car$  برجه get-together /'get təgeöə(r)/ noun [C] (informal) an informal social meeting or party: We're having a little get-together on Saturday evening.

ghastly /ˈɡɑːstli; US ˈɡæstli/ adj (ghastlier; ghastliest) 1 causing fear or shock: a ghastly accident

2 (informal) very bad, ugly or unpleasant: a ghastly mistake o I think these two colours look ghastly together.

3 (used about a person) looking pale and ill: You look ghastly. Do you want to lie down?

gherkin /ˈgɜːkɪn/ noun [C] a small green cucumber that is preserved in vinegar before being eaten خبار صغير يؤكل مخلاً ghetto /ˈɡetəʊ/ noun [C] (pl. ghettoes) a part of a town where many people of the same race, religion, etc. live, often in poor conditions حى فقير تسكنه أقلية معينة ghost /gəʊst/ (also spectre; US specter) noun [C] the spirit of a dead person that is seen or heard by sb who is still living: I don't believe in ghosts. o The tower is haunted by the ghost of Lady Anne. o a ghost story

► ghostly /ˈɡəʊstli/ adj (ghostlier; ghostliest) of or like a ghost: ghostly noises

'ghost town noun [C] a town whose inhabitants have all left

ghostwriter / 'gəʊstraɪtə(r)/ noun [C] a person who writes a book, etc. for a famous person (whose name appears as the author)

كاتب مُسْتَعار (يُنْسَبُ ما كتبه لسواه)

? giant /ˈdʒarənt/ noun [C] 1 (in children's stories) a person of human shape but enormous size and strength

giddy → give

- 2 something that is very large: the multinational عملاق oil giants (= very large companies)
- giant adj extremely large; enormous: a giant new shopping centre كبير جدأ
- giddy /'gidi/ adj (giddier; giddiest) having the feeling that everything is going round and that you are going to fall: I feel giddy. I must sit دائخ، مصاب بدوار down
- ▶ giddily /ˈgɪdɪli/ adv دائخاً؛ مند نحاً giddiness /'gidinəs/ noun [U]
- ? gift /gift/ noun [C] 1 something that you give to a person; a present: wedding gifts o He made a gift of £500 to charity. o Their teacher was presented with a gift of flowers and chocolates. O This week's magazine contains a free gift of some make-up. Look at the note at present.
  - 2 a gift (for sth/doing sth) natural ability: She has a gift for saying the right thing at the right
  - ▶ gifted /'giftid/ adj having natural ability or great intelligence: an extremely gifted musi-يو هو پ
  - gig /gig/ noun [C] a performance by pop or jazz حفلة مو سبقية musicians
  - gigabyte /'gigəbait/ noun [C] (abbr Gb) (computing) a unit of computer memory, equal to 230; (or about a billion bytes)
  - gigantic /dʒar'gæntɪk/ adj extremely large
- giggle /'gigl/ verb [I] to laugh in a silly way because you are amused or nervous يقهقه
- ▶ giggle noun [C] a laugh of this kind: I've got the giggles (= I can't stop laughing).
- gilt /gilt/ noun [U] a thin covering of gold or sth that looks like gold ماء الذهب؛ شيء مذَّهُب
- gimmick /'gimik/ noun [C] something unusual or amusing that is used to attract people's attention (usually so that they buy sth): They're looking for a new gimmick to advertise the حبلة للفت الأنظاء restaurant.
- gin /d3m/ noun [C,U] a colourless alcoholic drink that is made from grain and a particular type of جِنْ (مشروب كحولي)
- ginger /'d3ind3ə(r)/ noun [U] 1 the hot-tasting root of a plant (used in cooking): ground ginger
- 2 a reddish-orange colour
- ▶ ginger adj 1 flavoured with ginger: ginger biscuits
- 2 of a ginger colour: ginger hair
- ginger 'ale noun [U] a non-alcoholic drink that is flavoured with ginger شراب الزنجبيل
- gingerbread /'d3ind3əbred/ noun [U] a sweet cake or biscuit flavoured with ginger كعكة أو بسكوت الزنجبيل
- gingerly /'d3Ind3əli/ adv very slowly and carefully so as not to cause harm, make a noise, etc.

gipsy - gypsy

- giraffe /d3ə'ra:f; US d3ə'ræf/ noun [C] (pl. giraffe or giraffes) an African animal with a very long neck and legs and dark spots on its skin
- girder /'ga:də(r)/ noun [C] a long iron or steel bar that is used in the construction of bridges, large عارضة معدنية (في البناء) buildings, etc.
- ? girl /gs:1/ noun [C] 1 a female child: the little girl who lives next door o There are more boys than girls in the class.
  - 2 a daughter: They have two boys and a girl.
  - 3 a young woman: He was eighteen before he became interested in girls. o The girl at the cash desk was very helpful.
  - 4 the girls [plural] female friends of any age: a فتبات، صديقات night out with the girls
  - ▶ girlhood /'gɜ:lhʊd/ noun [U] the time when sb سن الصبا أو "البنوتة" is a girl بنتيّ، "بنّاتيّ"
  - girlish adj of or like a girl
- ?girlfriend /'gs:lfrend/ noun [C] 1 a girl or woman with whom sb has a romantic and/or sexual relationship
  - 2 (especially US) a girl or woman's female صديقة friend
- .Girl 'Guide (old-fashioned) = Guide
- giro /'dʒaɪrəʊ/ noun (pl. giros) (Brit) [U] the system for transferring money from one bank, etc. to الحيرو (نظام نقل المال من بنك الآخر)
- gist /d31st/ noun the gist [sing.] the general meaning of sth rather than all the details: I know a little Spanish so I was able to get the gist of what he said.
- \give give | /giv | verb (pt gave | /geiv |; pp given | /givn |) 1 [T] give sb sth; give sth to sb to hand sth to sh as a present; to allow sb to have sth as a present: My parents gave me a watch for my birthday. o We don't usually give presents to all our nephews and nieces. O She gave most of her money to cancer research.
  - 2 [T] give sb sth; give sth to sb to hand sth to sb so that he/she can look at it, use it or keep it for a time: Could you give me that book over there, please? O I gave my ticket to the lady at the check-بعطى، يناول in desk.
  - 3 [T] give sb sth; give sth to sb to provide sb with sth he/she wants, asks for or pays for: He was thirsty so I gave him a drink. o I hope the doctor will give me some new tablets. O She gives Italian lessons to the people at work, o He didn't give me the chance to reply. O Could you give me some help with this essay?
  - 4 [T] give sth to sb/sth to spend time, etc. on sb/sth: I can only give you ten minutes. o We'll have to give some more thought to the matter (= think about it more).
  - 5 [T] give (sb) sth for sth to pay: How much would you give me for my old car?
  - 6 [T] give sb sth to cause sb/sth to have or feel sth: The news about his father gave him a terrible shock. o Hard work gives you an appetite. o That noise is giving me a headache. O She gave me the impression that she was thinking of leaving her job.

7 [T] give sth; give sb sth; give sth to sb/sth to perform an action: When the child saw the snow, he gave a shout of delight. ○ to give a sigh ○ to give a cry of pain ○ She gave my hand a squeeze (= she squeezed it). ○ They gave us a warm welcome. ○ I asked a short question and he gave me a very long answer. ○ She gave him a kiss.

8 [T] to perform sth in public: He gave a very interesting lecture on India. o They're giving (= having) a party for their son's eighteenth birth-day.

9 [I] to bend or stretch under pressure: The branch began to give under his weight. پنٹنی؛ پرتخی؛ پنهار

DM not care/give a damn (about sb/sth) → DAMN<sup>2</sup>

give or take more or less the number mentioned: It took us two hours to get here, give or take five minutes.

give sb to believe/understand (that)... (often passive) to give sb the impression that sth is true: He gave me to understand that I had got the job.

(b) For other idioms containing give, look at the entries for the nouns, adjectives, etc., e.g. give way is at way.

THEV give sb away (at a wedding in a church) to go with the bride into the church and officially give her to the bridegroom during the marriage ceremony: Her father gave her away.

give sth away to give sth, often sth that you no longer want, to sb without asking for receiving money in return: When she got older she gave all her toys away. O We are giving a shirt away with every suit purchased.

give sth/sb away to show or tell the truth about sth/sb which was secret: He smiled politely and didn't give away his real feelings.

give sb back sth; give sth back (to sb) to return sth to the person from whom you took or borrowed it: I lent him some books months ago and he still hasn't given them back to me.

give sth in to hand sth to the authority collecting it: I've got to give this essay in to my teacher.

by Friday.

give in (to sb/sth) to stop fighting against sb/sth; to accept that you have been defeated

يستسلم give sth off to send sth (e.g. a smell, heat, etc.) out into the air give out (used about a machine) to stop working give sth out to hand or pass sth to people: Could you give out these books to the class, please?

give up to stop trying to do sth; to accept that you cannot do sth: They gave up once the other team had scored their third goal. o Don't give up now, you're improving all the time. o I give up. What's the answer?

give sb up; give up on sb to stop expecting sb to arrive, succeed, improve or recover: When he was four hours late, I gave up on him. o The doctors had given her up when she suddenly started to get better:

give sth up: give up doing sth to stop doing or having sth that you had done or had regularly before: I've tried many times to give up smoking.

On't give up hope. Things are bound to improve.

give yourself/sb up (to sb) to go to the police when they are trying to catch you; to tell the police where sb is: The suspected murderer gave himself up to the police.

give sth up (to sb) to give sth to sb who needs or asks for it: He gave up his seat on the bus to an elderly woman.

give<sup>2</sup> /gɪv/ noun [U] the quality of being able to bend or stretch a little: The leather has plenty of give in it.

IDM give and take the willingness, within a relationship, to move towards another person's point of view because he/she is willing to move towards your point of view: This dispute can only be settled if there is give and take on both sides.

أخذ وعطاء

given | 'gıvn | adj (only before a noun) already stated or fixed: At a given time they all waved their flags and cheered.

► given prep taking sth into consideration: Given that you had very little help, I think you did very well.

'given name noun [C] (especially US) = first NAME

glacial /ˈɡleɪʃi]; ˈɡleɪsiəl/ adj 1 caused by ice or a glacier: a glacial valley

2 very cold; like ice: glacial winds glacier /ˈɡlæsiə(r); US ˈɡleɪʃər/ noun [C] a mass of ice that moves slowly down a valley

I glad /glæd/ adj 1 (not before a noun) glad (about sth); glad (to do sth/that...) happy; pleased: Are you glad about your new job? o I'm glad to hear he's feeling better. o I'm glad (that) he's feeling better. o We'd be glad to see you if you're in the area.

You are usually glad or pleased about a particular event or situation. Happy is used for describing a state, condition of mind, etc. and it can be used before the noun it describes: This kind of music always makes me feel happy.

o She's such a happy child – she's always laughing.

2 glad (of sth) grateful for sth: If you are free, I'd be glad of some help.

3 (only before a noun) bringing happiness: I want to be the first to tell her the glad news.

► gladden /ˈglædn/ verb [T] to make sb glad or happy gladly adv (usually used for politely agreeing to a request or accepting an invitation) happily; gratefully: We will gladly help you if we can. She gladly accepted the invitation to stay the night.

glade → glee

gladness noun [U]

. . . .

glade /gleid/ noun [C] (formal) an open space in a forest or wood where there are no trees & Clear-ing is similar in meaning.

gladiator /'glædiertə(r)/ noun [C] (in ancient Rome) a man who fought against another man or a wild animal in a public show

صارع (في روما القديمة)

glamour (US also glamor) /ˈglæmə(r)/ noun [U] the quality of seeming to be exciting or attractive: Young people are often attracted by the glamour of city life.

► glamorize (also glamorise) /ˈglæməraɪz/ verb [T] to make sth appear more attractive or exciting that it really is: Television tends to glamorize violence.

glamorous /ˈglæmərəs/ adj attractive or full of glamour: She didn't look very glamorous without her make-up. o a glamorous job فاتن glamorously adv glance /gla:ns; US glæns/ verb [I] to take a quick look: She glanced round the room to see if they were there. • He glanced at her and smiled. • The receptionist glanced down the list of names.

HNY glance off (sth) to hit sth at an angle and move off again in another direction: The ball glanced off the goalpost and into the net.

▶ glance noun [C] a quick look: I only had time for a glance at the newspaper. ○ They exchanged glances when no one was looking. ○ She stole a glance at her watch.

IDM at a (single) glance with one look: I could tell at a glance that something was wrong.

at first glance/sight → FIRST1

gland /glænd/noun [C] a small organ in the body that separates those substances from the blood that will be used by the body or removed from it:

sweat glands o the poison glands of a snake swollen glands (e.g. in your throat)

glare /gleə(r)/ noun 1 [U] strong light that hurts your eyes: the glare of the sun on snow o the glare of a car's headlights

2 [C] a (long) angry look

نظرة غضب، حملقة

► glare /gleə(r)/ verb [I] 1 to shine with strong light that hurts your eyes

2 glare (at sb/sth) to stare at sb angrily: They stood glaring at each other.

glaring /ˈɡleərɪŋ/ adj 1 (used about a light, etc.) too strong and bright

2 angry: glaring eyes

عاصب

3 great or very noticeable: a glaring mistake

Leglass /glass /glass / glæs / noun 1 [U] a hard, usually transparent, substance that windows, bottles, etc. are made of: He cut himself on broken glass. ○ a sheet/pane of glass ○ In case of emergency, break the glass and press the button. ○ a glass jar,

2 [C] a drinking container made of glass; the amount of liquid it contains: a small glass o Could I have a glass of water, please?

3 (also glassware /ˈɡlɑːsweə(r); US ˈɡlæs-/) [U] a collection of objects made of glass أشياء زجاجية ▶ glassful /-ful/ noun [C] the amount of liquid that one glass(2) holds

R glasses /ˈglɑ:sɪz; US ˈglæsɪz/ (also formal spectacles, especially Brit informal specs; US also eyeglasses) noun [plural] a pair of lenses in a frame that a person wears in front of his/her eyes (in order to be able to see better): My sister has to wear glasses. o I've lost my glasses. o reading glasses o dark glasses/sunglasses o Where's my glasses case?

Glasses is more commonly used than spectacles. Specs is informal. Glasses is always plural so we cannot use it with the article a. We cannot say. I need a new glasses. We can say: I need a new patr of glasses.

glass 'fibre = FIBREGLASS

glasshouse /gla:shaus; US 'glæs / noun [C] a building with glass sides and roof for growing plants  $\Theta$  It is also called a greenhouse.

بيت زجاجي

glassy /gla:si; US 'glæsi/ adj (glassier; glassiest) 1 looking like glass: a glassy sea كالزجاج

2 (used about the eyes) showing no interest or expression: a glassy stare glaze /glerz/ verb [T] 1 to fit a sheet of glass into a window, etc. 2 Look at double glazing.

يُركُب زِجاج نافذة 2 glaze sth (with sth) to cover a pot, brick, pie,

2 glaze sth (with sth) to cover a pot, prick, pie, etc. with a shiny transparent substance (before it is put into an oven): Glaze the pie with beaten egg.

PHRV glaze over (used about the eyes) to show no interest or expression ► glaze noun [C,U] (a substance that gives) a shiny transparent surface on a pot, brick, pie, etc.

glazed adj (used about the eyes, etc.) showing no interest or expression glazier /ˈɡleɪziə(r); US -ʒər/ noun [C] a person whose job is to fit glass into windows, etc. نَجْلَع gleam /gli:m/ noun 1 [C,sing.] a soft light (that shines for a short time): the first gleams of the morning sun o the gleam of moonlight on the mater

2 [sing.] a brief or sudden show of a quality or emotion: a gleam of hope, interest, etc. بارقه (أبل) • gleam verb [] 1 to shine softly: The water of the lake gleamed in the moonlight.

2 gleam with sth (used about the face or eyes) to show a particular (happy) emotion: Their eyes gleamed with enthusiasm.

 $\textbf{gleaming} \ adj \ \text{shining:} \ gleaming \ white \ teeth$

لامع

glee /gli:/ noun [U] a feeling of joy or happiness (at sth good that has happened to you or at sth bad that has happened to sb else): The children

زجاج

laughed with glee at the clown's tricks. • She couldn't hide her glee when her rival came last in the race

► gleeful /-fl/ adj gleefully /-fəli/ adv

glen /glen/ noun [C] a narrow mountain valley (in Scotland or Ireland) glib /glib/ adj 1 (used about a person) speaking quickly and cleverly, in a way that will persuade people but that is not always truthful: a glib salesman, politician, etc.

2 spoken quickly and without hesitation, but not always truthful: a glib answer, excuse, etc. (کلام) معسول: ارتبحالي

Ousing the word glib shows that you have a low opinion of the person or thing you are describing.

▶ glibly adv glibness noun [U] بكلام معسول؛ دون ترو كلام معسول؛ عدم تروً glide /glaɪd/ verb [I] 1 to move smoothly without noise or effort: The dancers glided across the floor. o The yachts went gliding past.

علير في طائرة شراعية ▶ glider /ˈɡlaɪdə(r)/ noun [C] a light aircraft

b glider /'glardə(r)/ noun [C] a light aircraft without an engine that flies using air currents طائرة شراعية gliding noun [U] the sport of flying in gliders عطيران شراعي Look at hang-gliding.

glimmer /ˈglɪmə(r)/ verb [I] to give out a weak unsteady light

▶ glimmer noun [C] 1 a weak unsteady light

2 a weak sign of sth: a glimmer of hope glimpse /glmps/ noun [C] a glimpse (at/of sth) a quick incomplete view of sb/sth th It is most often used in the phrase catch a glimpse of: I caught a glimpse of myself in the mirror as I walked past.

• glimpse verb [T] to get a quick look at sb/sth (often by chance): I glimpsed Cathy in the crowd, but I don't think she saw me.

glint /glmt/ verb [I] to give out small bright flashes of light: She thought the diamond was lost until she saw something glinting on the carpet. o (figurative) His eyes glinted at the thought of all that money.

► glint noun [C]: the glint of metal in the grass o (figurative) a glint of anger in his eyes glisten /ˈglɪsn/ verb [I] (used about wet surfaces) to shine: Her eyes glistened with tears. • Tears glistened in her eyes.

glitter /ˈɡlɪtə(r)/ verb [۱] to give out many little flashes of light: The stars glittered in the frosty sky.

▶ glitter noun [U]: the glitter of jewellery o (figurative) the glitter of a career in show business توکن تاتی

glittering /ˈɡlɪtərɪn/ adj 1 shining brightly with many little flashes of light: a glittering Christmas tree

ег рау

3: fur

ə ago

əʊ go

2 splendid or successful: a glittering career, performance, etc.

gloat /gleot/ verb [I] gloat (about/over sth) to feel or express pleasure at sth good that has happened to you or at sth bad that has happened to sb else: Don't gloat – you might be in the same position yourself some time.

▶ gloatingly adv

Lead of the State of School (1998) Leading 1 affecting the whole world: the global effects of pollution o global warming

2 affecting the whole of a group of facts, possibilities, etc: We must take a global view of the problem.

▶ globally /-bəli/ adv

globe /gləʊb/ noun 1 [C] a model of the earth, in the shape of a ball, with the continents, etc. shown on it

2 the globe [sing.] the earth: to travel (all) over the globe o With the help of television, we can see things that are happening on the other side of the globe.

globe 'artichoke noun [C] = ARTICHOKE

globetrotter /'glaubtrota(r)/ noun [C] (informal) a person who travels to many countries globule /ˈglɒbjuːl/ noun [C] a small drop or ball of a liquid or melted solid: There were globules of fat in the soup.

gloom /glu:m/ noun [U] 1 a feeling of sadness or hopelessness: The news brought deep gloom to the nillage.

2 (near) darkness: It was hard to see anything in the gloom.

gloomy /ˈgluːmi/ adj (gloomier; gloomiest)
 dark (and depressing): What a gloomy day!
 This dark paint makes the room very gloomy.

2 (making sb feel) sad or depressed: For many young people leaving school, the prospects of finding work are gloomy. o Don't be so gloomy - cheer up!

gloomily /'glu:mɪli/ adv gloominess /'glu:minəs/ noun [U] glorify /ˈɡlɔːrɪfaɪ/ verb (pres part glorifying; 3rd pers sing pres glorifies; pt, pp glorified) [T] 1 (formal) to praise sb/sth highly

2 to make sb/sth appear better or more important than he/she/it really is: His biography does not attempt to glorify his early career.

b glorified /ˈɡlɔːrɪfaɪd/ adj (only before a noun) described in a way that makes sb/sth seem better, bigger, more important, etc. than he/she/it really is: The 'holiday cottage' turned out to be a glorified barn.

glorious /ˈɡlɔːriəs/ adj 1 having or deserving fame or glory: a glorious victory

2 wonderful or splendid: What glorious weather!

o a glorious day, view, etc.

▶ gloriously adv

ai five au now oi join ie near ee hair ue pure كآبة

glory /ˈɡlɔːri/ noun [U] 1 fame or honour that is won by great achievements: The winning team was welcomed home in a blaze of glory.

2 great beauty: Autumn is the best time to see the forest in all its glory.

▶ glory verb (pres part glorying; 3rd pers sing pres glories; pt, pp gloried)

PHRV glory in sth to take (too much) pleasure or pride in sth: He gloried in his sporting successes gloss /glos/ noun [U, sing.] (a substance that gives) brightness or shine on a surface: the gloss on wood, hair, silk, etc. ○ gloss paint ○ gloss photographs • Look at matt.

▶ gloss verb

PHRY gloss over sth to avoid talking about a problem, mistake, etc. in detail

يتفاضى عن التفاصيل glossy adj (glossier; glossiest) 1 smooth and shiny: glossy hair

2 (used about a magazine, etc.) printed on good quality paper and having many colour photographs لامع، صقيل

glossary /ˈglɒsəri/ noun [C] (pl. glossaries) a list of special or unusual words and their meanings (at the end of a book)

قائمة مفردات (في آخر الكتاب)

- Figlove /glav/ noun [C] a piece of clothing that covers your hand (and has separate parts for the thumb and each finger): I need a new pair of gloves for the winter. Ocummon types of gloves are boxing gloves, driving gloves, rubber gloves, leather gloves and woollen gloves. Chook at mitten.
- glow /gləʊ/ verb [I] 1 to give out light and/or heat without smoke or flames: A cigarette glowed in the dark
- 2 glow (with sth) to be warm or red because of excitement, exercise, etc: to glow with health, enthusiasm, pride, etc.
- ► glow noun [sing.] 1 a warm light: the glow of the sky at sunset
- 2 a feeling or look of warmth or satisfaction: a rosy glow on the children's cheeks تالق glowing adj giving high praise; favourable: His teacher wrote a glowing report about his work. مفع بالمديح glowingly adv

glower /ˈglavə(r)/ verb [I] to look angrily (at sb/sth)

glucose /ˈɡluːkəʊs/ noun [U] a type of sugar that is found in fruit

- **Iglue /glu:/ noun [U] a thick sticky liquid that is used for joining things together: You can make glue from flour and water. O Stick the photo in with glue.
  - ▶ glue verb [T] (pres part gluing) glue A (to/onto B); glue A and B (together) to join a thing or things together with glue: Do you think you can glue the handle back onto the teapot?

يلُصِقِ بِالغِرَاء DM glued to sth (informal) giving all your attention to sth and unwilling to leave it: He just sits there every evening glued to the television. متسمُّر، لا يفارق

'glue-sniffing noun [U] breathing in the chemicals that are given off by glue to get the same effect as that produced by alcohol or drugs استنشاق الغراء (اللّذة)

glum /glam/ adj (glummer; glummest) (informal) sad or disappointed: What are you looking so glum about?

كثيب متجهم

> glumly adv

glut /glat/ noun [C, usually sing.] more of sth than is needed: The glut of coffee has forced down the price.

glutton /'glatn/ noun [C] 1 a person who eats too much

2 a glutton for sth a person who is willing to have or do more of sth difficult, unpleasant, etc: She's a glutton for hard work – she never stops.

هادِ (الشيء صعب أو كريه)

> gluttony /-təni/ noun [U] the habit of eating too much

GMT/,d3i: em 'ti:/ abbrev Greenwich Mean Time; the time system that is used in Britain during the winter and for calculating the time in other parts of the world

gnarled /na:ld/ adj rough and twisted, because of old age or hard work: The old man had gnarled fingers. o a gnarled oak tree

gnash /næʃ/ verb

glumness noun [U]

الكالم gnash your teeth to feel very angry and upset about sth

gnat /næt/ noun [C] a small insect like a mosquito, that stings gnaw /no:/ verb [I,T] gnaw (at) sth to bite a bone, etc. many times: The dog lay on the carpet gnawing its bone. o (figurative) Fear of the future gnawed away at her all the time.

gnome /noum/ noun [C] (in children's stories, etc.) a little old man with a beard and a pointed hat who lives under the ground: a garden gnome (= a model of a gnome that is used to decorate a garden)

rily (at sh/ sing r that e si

Been is used as the past participle of go when somebody has travelled to a place and has returned. Gone means that somebody has travelled to a place but has not yet returned: I've just been to Berlin. I got back this morning.

John's gone to Peru. He'll be back in two weeks.

2 to travel to a place to take part in an activity or do sth: Are you going to Dave's party? • Shall we go swimming this afternoon? o Let's go for a drive. o My aunt has gone on a cruise. o They've gone on holiday. o We went to watch the match. o I'll go and make the tea.

- 3 to visit or attend a place regularly: Does Simon go to school yet?
- 4 to leave a place: I have to go now. It's nearly 4 o'clock.
- 5 to lead to or reach a place or time: Where does this road go to? This cut on my hand goes quite deep.

  2 يؤدّي/يصل!الى
- 6 to have as its usual place: Where does this vase go?
- 7 to fit into a space: My clothes won't all go in one suitcase.
- 8 to happen in a particular way; to develop: How's the new job going? o My work's going well.
- 9 to work correctly: This clock doesn't go. يعمل، يشتغل
- 10 to become; to reach a particular state: Her hair is going grey. He went blind when he was 20. Everybody thought that we had gone mad. The baby has gone to sleep.
- 11 to remain in the state mentioned: Many mistakes go unnoticed.
- 12 to disappear: Has your headache gone yet? يختفي، يزول
- 13 to become worse or stop working correctly: The brakes on the car have gone.
- 14 to look or taste good with sth else: Does this sweater go with my skirt?
- 15 to have certain words or a certain tune: How does that song go?
- 16 to make a sound: The bell went early today.

  o Cats go 'miaow'.
- 17 (used about time) to pass: The last hour went very slowly. There's only one minute left to ونقفى
- 18 (used in the present tense for saying what a person said): I said, 'How are you, Jim?' and he goes, 'It's none of your business!'
- 19 (only used in the continuous tenses) to be available: Are there any jobs going in your department?
- 20 (used for saying that you do not want sb to do sth bad or stupid): You can borrow my bike again, but don't go breaking it this time! I hope John doesn't go and tell everyone about our plan.
- as people, things, etc. go compared to the average person or thing: As Chinese restaurants go, it wasn't bad.
- be going to do sth 1 (used for showing what you plan to do in the future): We're going to sell our car.
- 2 (used for saying that you are sure sth will happen): It's going to rain soon. Oh no! He's going to fall!
- go all out for sth; go all out to do sth to make a great effort to do sth have a lot going for you to have many advantages

Here goes! (said just before you start to do sth difficult or exciting) to go that is/are left before sth ends: How long (is there) to go before the end of the lesson?

the Property of Street Street For other idioms containing go, look at the entries for nouns, adjectives, etc., e.g. go astray is at astray.

PHRV go about → GO ROUND/AROUND/ABOUT go about sth to continue to do what you usually do: We went about our normal routine.

ير كي go about sth/doing sth to start trying to do sth difficult: I wouldn't have any idea how to go about building a house.

go about with  $sb \rightarrow go \text{ round/around/about}$  with sb go against sb to be unfavourable to sb: The referee's decision went against him.

يهارض؛ يحكم ضنه go against sb/sth to do sth that is opposed to sb/sth: She went against her parents' wishes and married him.

go against sth to be opposed or opposite to sth; not to be in agreement with sth: It goes against my principles to use violence.

go ahead to take place after being planned: Although several members were missing, the meeting went ahead without them. go ahead (with sth) to begin to do sth that you have planned يباشر، يبدأ العمل go along to continue: The course gets more difficult as you go along. يتقدم go along with sb/sth to agree with sb/sth: Pm

go along with spisth to agree with sbisti. 1 m happy to go along with whatever you suggest. يوافق go around → GO ROUND/AROUND/ABOUT go around with sb → go ROUND/AROUND/ABOUT WITH SB

- go away 1 to leave the place where you live (e.g. for a holiday) for a period of time of at least one night: We're going away this weekend and we'll be back on Sunday evening.
- 2 to disappear: I've tried to remove the stain in the carpet but it won't go away.
- go back (to...) to return (to a place): It's a wonderful city and I'd like to go back there one day.
- go back (to sth) 1 to return to a previous matter or situation: Let's go back to the subject we were discussing a few minutes ago.
- 2 to have its origins in a previous period of time: A lot of the buildings in the village go back to the fifteenth century.
- go back on sth to break a promise, an agreement, etc: I promised to help them and I can't go back on it now.
- go back to sth/to doing sth to start doing again sth that you had stopped doing: When the children got a bit older she went back to full-time work.
- go by 1 (used about time) to pass: As time went by, her confidence grew. بمرور الوقت! ينقضي، يمضي 2 to pass a place: She stood at the window
- watching people go by.

غُرُق

go by sth 1 to obey, follow or be guided by sth: You can't go by the railway timetables, the trains يتّبع؛ يهتدي، أو يسترشد ب are very unreliable.

2 to form an opinion according to a particular thing: If experience is anything to go by, they'll be يهندي ب go down 1 (used about a ship, etc.) to sink

2 (used about the sun) to disappear from the sky

3 to become lower in price, level, etc.; to fall: The price of these computers has gone down in the last two years. o The number of people out of work went down last month. يهبط، ينخفض go down (with sb) (used with adverbs, especially 'well' or 'badly' or in questions beginning with 'how') (used about sth that is said, a performance, etc.) to be received by sb: The film went down well with the critics. يقدر؛ يقابل ب go down with sth to catch an illness; to become ill with sth: Ten of our staff have gone down with يمْرَض؛ يصاب ب flu. يهاجم go for sb to attack sb go for sb/sth to be true for a particular person or thing: We've got financial problems but I suppose the same goes for a great many people.

go in (used about the sun) to disappear behind a تُحْجَب بالسحاب (الشمس) go in for sth 1 to enter or take part in an examination or competition

يشترك (في امتحان أو مسابقة)

2 to start a career in sth: He has decided to go in for journalism.

go in for sth/doing sth to do or have sth as a hobby or interest: He doesn't go in for sport go into sth 1 to start working in a certain type of job: When she left school she went into nurs-يمتهن

2 to look at or describe sth in detail: I haven't got time to go into all the details now.

يدخل في التفام

go off 1 to explode: A bomb has gone off in the city centre.

2 to make a sudden loud noise: I woke up when my alarm clock went off. يَقُرُع؛ ينطلق

3 (used about lights, heating, etc.) to stop working: There was a power cut and all the lights went off.

4 (used about food and drink) to become too old to be eaten or drunk; to go bad يَفْسد (طعام أو شراب)

5 (used about an event) to take place or happen in a certain way: I think their wedding went off يحُدث؛ يسير

6 to become worse in quality: I used to like that band but they've gone off recently.

يفقد نكهته أو طعمه go off sb/sth to stop liking or being interested in sb/sth يعزف عن go off with sth to take sth that belongs to sb else: Who's gone off with my cup?

بأخذ (ما يملكه سواه) go on 1 (used about lights, heating, etc.) to start working: I saw the lights go on in the house يشتعل

2 (used about time) to pass: As time went on, she became more and more successful.

ينقضي، يمضي، يمر

3 (used especially in the continuous tenses) to happen or take place: Can anybody tell me what's going on here?

4 (used about a situation) to continue without changing: This is a difficult period but it won't go on forever.

5 to continue speaking after stopping briefly: Go يواصل كلامه on. What happened next?

6 (used as an order for encouraging sb to do sth): Oh go on, let me borrow your car. I'll bring it (تقال للإقناع والتشجيع) back in an hour.

go on sth to use sth as information so that you can understand a situation: There were no witnesses to the crime, so the police had very little to go on.

go on (about sb/sth) to talk about sb/sth for a long time in a boring or annoying way: She went on and on about the people she works with. o I know I've made a mistake, there's no need to يطيل في الكلام go on about it.

go on (at sb) (about sth) to keep complaining about sth: His parents are always going on at him يشكو باستمرار to dress more smartly.

go on (with sth) to continue doing sth, perhaps after a pause or break: She ignored me and went on with her meal.

go on doing sth to continue doing sth without stopping or changing: We don't want to go on living here for the rest of our lives.

go out 1 to leave the place where you live or work for a short time, returning on the same day: Let's go out for a meal tonight (= to a restaurant). o I'm just going out for a walk, I يخرج (من بيته) won't be long.

2 (used about the tide) to move away from the land: The sea was a long way away because the يبتعد (الجَزْر)، ينحسر tide had gone out.

3 to stop being fashionable or in use: That kind of music went out in the seventies. O Teaching methods like that went out years ago.

4 to stop shining or burning: Suddenly all the ينطفئ lights went out.

go out with sb; go out (together) to spend time regularly with sb, having a romantic and/ or sexual relationship: He's going out with Jill Brown now. O They went out together for five يصاحب، يعاشر years before they got married.

go over sth to look at, think about or discuss sth carefully from beginning to end: Go over your work before you hand it in. يمحص، يراجع بدقة go round (used especially after 'enough') to be shared among all the people: In this area, there يكفي الجميع aren't enough jobs to go round.

go round/around/about 1 (used about a story, a belief, etc.) to pass from person to person: There's a rumour going round that he's going to

2 (used about an illness) to pass from person to person in a group or area: There's a virus going round at work. پنتقل (بالعدوى) go round (to...) to visit sb's home, usually a short distance away: I'm going round to Jo's for dinner tonight.

go round/around/about with sb to spend time and go to places regularly with sb: Her parents don't like the people she has started going round mith.

go through to be completed successfully: The deal went through as agreed.

go through sth 1 to look in or at sth carefully, especially in order to find sth: I went through all my pockets but I couldn't find my wallet.

2 to look at, think about or discuss sth carefully from beginning to end: Let's go through the arrangements for the trip again. • We'll start the lesson by going through your homework.

3 to suffer an unpleasant experience: I'd hate to go through such a terrible ordeal again. يقاسي go through with sth to do sth unpleasant or difficult that you have decided, agreed or threatened to do: Do you think she'll go through with her threat to leave him?

go together (used about two or more things)
1 to belong to the same set or group

رافق؛ ينتمي إلى نَفْس (المجموعة)

2 to look good together

go towards sth to be used as part of the payment for sth: *The money I was given for my birthday went towards my new bike.*ينْفى على under 1 to sink below the surface of water

2 (informal) (used about a company) to go out of business: A lot of firms are going under in the recession.

go up 1 to start burning suddenly and strongly.

The car crashed into a wall and went up in flames.

2 to become higher in price, level, amount, etc.; to rise: Petrol has gone up again. • The birth rate has gone up by 10%.

go with sth 1 to be included with sth; to happen as a result of sth: Pressure goes with the job.

2 to match or be suitable with sth: What colour carpet would go with the walls? go without (sth) to manage without having sth. They went without sleep many nights when the baby was ill.

go<sup>2</sup> /gəo/ noun (pl. goes /gəoz/) 1 [C] a turn to play in a game, etc: Whose go is it? o Hurry up – it's your go. 6 Turn has the same meaning.

يُورَ (في اللعب) 2 [C] (informal) an occasion when you try to do sth: Andrew passed his driving test first go.

3 [U] (informal) energy: He's full of go. نشاط be on the go (informal) to be very active or busy: I'm exhausted. I've been on the go all day.

to have a go (at sth/doing sth) (informal) to try to do sth: I'm not sure if I can fix it, but I'll have a go.

goad /gəʊd/ verb [T] goad sb (into sth/doing sth) to cause sb to do sth by making him/her angry يُحرُض؛يستفزُ

'go-ahead noun [sing.] permission to do sth: We've been given the go-ahead for the new building. إِذْنِ، ترخيص

▶ 'go-ahead adj willing to try new ways of doing things

``Egoal /gool/ noun [C] 1 (in football, rugby, hockey, etc.) the area between two posts into which the ball must be kicked, hit, etc. for a point to be scored: Who's in goal for Real Madrid?

2 a point that is scored when the ball goes into the goal: Everton won by three goals to two.  $\circ$  to score a goal  $\circ$  an own goal (= when a player kicks, hits, etc. the ball into his/her own goal)

3 your purpose or aim: I've finally achieved my goal of visiting all the capital cities of Europe.

▶ goalless /ˈɡəʊlləs/ adj with no goal scored: a goalless draw (مباراة) بلا أهداف

goalkeeper /'gəʊlki:pə(r)/ (also informal goalie /'gəʊli/ or keeper) noun [C] the player who stands in front of the goal(1) and tries to stop the other team from scoring a goal(2): The goal-keeper made a magnificent save.

goalpost /'goulpoust/ noun [C] one of the two posts that form the sides of a goal. They are joined together by a bar (the crossbar).

عمود المرمى

goat /gout/ noun [C] a small animal with horns which lives in mountainous areas or is kept on farms for its milk and meat gobble /'gobl/ verb [I,T] (informal) gobble sth (up/down) to eat quickly and noisily: He'd gobbled down all his food before I'd started mine.

يلتهم؛ يبتلع

gobbledegook (also gobbledygook)
/'gobldigu:k/ noun [U] (informal) official language that is hard to understand

لغة (وثائق) رسمية غير مفهومة

'go-between noun [C] a person who takes messages between two people or groups who do not or cannot meet: In some countries, marriages are arranged by go-betweens.

goblin /'gɒblɪn/ noun [C] (in stories) a small ugly creature who plays tricks on people جنّي قبيح

gobsmacked /'gpbsmækt:/ adj (informal) so surprised that you are unable to speak

معقود اللسان دهشة

ا god /god/ noun 1 (feminine goddess) [C] a being or force who is worshipped by a group of people and who is believed to have the power to control nature and human affairs: Mars was the Roman god of war and Venus was the goddess of love.

2 God [sing.] (in Christianity, Islam and Judaism) the creator and ruler of all things: Do you

godchild → gone

believe in God? o Muslims worship God in a mosque.

'God' is used in a number of expressions. (Some people think that it is wrong to use God's name in this way.) Oh my God! expresses surprise or shock: Oh my God! Five won £1000! We use thank God when we are happy and relieved about something: Thank God you've arrived—I was beginning to think you'd had an accident. The expression God forbid! is used when we say that we don't want something to happen: Tm going to invite 50 people to the party. 'God forbid!' We use 'for God's sake' when we are asking somebody to do something and want to sound more urgent or when we are angry with somebody: For God's sake, shut up!

godchild/godtʃaɪld/'god-daughter, 'godson noun [C] a person for whom a godparent takes responsibility at a Christian baptism (or christening)

فَلْيُون، فليونة (ابن أو بنت في العماد عند المسيحيين)

goddess /'godes/ noun [C] a female god

'godfather /'gɒdfɑːðə(r)/ 'godmother, 'godparent noun [C] a person who promises to take responsibility for a child (at his/her baptism or christening) and to make sure that he/she is educated as a Christian

عَرَّاب، عَرَّابة (أب أو أم في العماد عند المسيحيين)

godforsaken /ˈgɒdfəseɪkən/ adj (used about a place) depressing or having nothing of interest godsend /ˈgodsend/ noun [C] something unexpected that is a great help to you because it comes just when it is needed: The extra money was a real godsend just before Christmas.

goggle /ˈɡɒgl/ verb [I] to look at sb/sth with wide round eyes (in surprise) goggles /ˈgɒglz/ noun [plural] special glasses that you wear to protect your eyes from water, wind, dust, etc. ⊋ Look at mask.

going¹ /'gəon/ noun 1 [sing.] (formal) the act of leaving a place; departure: We were all saddened by his going.

2 [U] the rate or speed of travel, progress, etc: Oxford to London in an hour? That's very good going! o Three children in four years? That's not bad going!

3 [U] the condition of a path, the ground, etc: The mud made the path very hard going. o (figurative) It'll be hard going if we need to finish this by Friday! o (figurative) I'm finding this novel very heavy going (= difficult and not very interesting).

DM get out, go, leave, etc. while the going is good to leave a place or stop doing sth while it is still easy to do so

يغادر (مكانا) أو يتوقف (عن عمل شيء) والظروف ملائمة going<sup>2</sup> /ˈgəʊɪŋ/ adj

a going concern a successful business (تجارة) ناحجة

the going rate (for sth) the usual cost (of sth):

The going rate for a cleaner is about £6 an hour. السعر المعتاد goings-'on noun [plural] (informal) unusual things that are happening: The old lady was shocked by the goings-on in the house next door.

go-kart /ˈɡəʊ kɑːt/ (also kart) noun [C] a vehicle like a very small car with no roof or doors, used for racing سيارة سباق بلا سقف أو أبواب

Rgold /gəʊld/ noun 1 [U] a precious yellow metal that is used for making coins, jewellery, etc: Is your bracelet made of gold? o solid, pure, 22-carat, etc. gold o What's the price of gold today? a gold chain, ring, watch, etc.

2 [C] = GOLD MEDAL

(as) good as gold very well-behaved: The children were as good as gold while you were out.

'gold dust noun [U] gold in the form of powder: (figurative) Good English teachers are like gold dust (= very hard to find).

golden /ˈɡəʊldən/ adj made of gold or like gold: a golden crown o golden hair o (figurative) a golden (= excellent) opportunity golden 'jubilee noun [C] a 50th anniversary لوبيل ذهبي (عيد خسيني) Look at silver jubilee.

golden 'wedding noun [C] the 50th anniversary of a wedding ⊅ Look at diamond wedding and silver wedding.

goldfish /ˈgəʊldfisʃ/ noun [C] (pl. goldfish) a small orange fish that is kept as a pet in a bowl or pond

,gold 'medal (also gold) noun [C] the prize for first place in a sports competition: How many gold medals did we win in the 2004 Olympics?
 Look at silver medal and bronze medal.

ميدالية ذهبية ▶ ,gold 'medallist (US gold medalist) noun [C] the winner of a gold medal

حائز على ميدالية ذهبية

'gold mine noun [C] a place where gold is mined

golf /golf/ noun [U] a game that is played outdoors on a large area of grass called a golf course and in which you use a stick (a golf club) to hit a small hard ball (a golf ball) into a series of holes (usually 18): to play a round of golf o a golf club (= a club for golfers; the place where they meet and play golf)

▶ golfer noun [C] a person who plays golf

golly /ˈɡɒli/ interj (informal) (used for expressing surprise)

gone<sup>1</sup> pp of Go

gone<sup>2</sup> /gpn; US gp:n/ adj (not before a noun) not present any longer; completely used up: He stood at the door for a moment, and then he was gone.

o Can I have some more ice cream please or is it all gone? غير موجود، نافد

Gone ineaning 'disappeared' or 'finished' is used with the verb be, as in the examples above. When we are thinking about where something has disappeared to, we use have: Nobody knows where John has gone.

gone<sup>3</sup> /gon/ prep later than: Hurry up! It's gone six already! (= later than six o'clock)

gonna /ˈgənə/

Gonna is a way of writing 'going to' to show that sb is speaking in an informal way or with a special accent. Do not write 'gonna' yourself (unless you are copying somebody's accent) because it might be marked as a mistake.

Wanna (= wani to) and gotta (= got to) are similar.

- goo /gu:/ noun [U] (informal) a sticky wet substance
- > gooey /ˈguːi/ (gooier; gooiest) adj (informal) sticky: gooey cakes
- ¶ good¹ /gud/ adj (better /'betə(r)/, best /best/)

  ¹ of a high quality or standard: a good book, film, concert, etc. o The hotel was really good. o Why don't you apply for the job?' I'don't think my English is good enough.' o The car was in very good condition.
  - 2 good at sth; good with sb/sth able to do sth or deal with sb/sth well; successful: Jane's good at chemistry. He's very good with children.
  - 3 pleasant or enjoyable: It's good to be home again. o good news, weather, etc. o Have a good time!
  - 4 morally right or well behaved: She was a very good person she spent her whole life trying to help other people. O Were the children good while we were out?
  - 5 good (to sb) kind; helpful: They were good to me when I was ill. O It was good of you to come.
  - 6 good (for sb/sth) having a positive effect on your health: Green vegetables are very good for you.
  - 7 suitable or favourable: This beach is very good for surfing. I think Paul would be a good person for the job. 'When shall we meet?' 'Thursday would be a good day for me.'
  - 8 (only used before an adjective or noun) great in number, size, length, etc: Take a good (= long and careful) look at this photograph.

    کثیر (فی العدد أو السعة أو الطول أو ما يشابه ذلك)
  - 9 (only before a noun) at least: We waited for a good ten minutes. O It's a good three miles to the station.
  - 10 (used when you are pleased about sth): 'Tom's invited us to dinner next week.' 'Oh, good!'

DM a good/great many  $\rightarrow$  MANY as good as almost: She as good as said I was lying! o The project is as good as finished. یکاد: تقریباً

in good faith → FAITH

good for you, him, her, etc. (informal) (used to show that you are pleased that sb has done sth clever): Well done! Good for you!

هنيئاً لك أهنئك: مرحى good gracious, good grief, good heavens, etc. (used for expressing surprise) الدهنة Look at the entries for gracious, etc.

good morning/afternoon/evening/night (used for greeting sb) • Look at the entries for morning, etc. (صباح أو مساء) الخير

- Rgood²/god/noun[U] 1 the quality of being morally right: the difference between good and evil

  I'm sure there's some good in everybody.
  - 2 something that will help sb/sth; advantage: She did it for the good of her country. I know you don't want to go into hospital, but it's for your own good. What's the good of learning French if you have no chance of using it?

be no good (doing sth) to be of no use or value: It's no good standing here in the cold. Let's go home. • This sweater isn't any good. It's too small.

do you good to help or be useful to you: It'll do you good to meet some new people.

for good for ever: I hope they've gone for good for good for ever: I hope they've gone for good this time! إلى الأبد

- **I goodbye | god'bai | interj (said when sb goes or you yourself go): Goodbye! See you tomorrow!

  Our said goodbye to Steven at the airport.
  - Cheerio, cheers and bye are other less formal words with the same meaning. Goodbye can also be used as a noun: We said our goodbyes and left.
- Good Friday /,god 'fraɪdeı; -di/noun [C] the Friday before Easter when Christians remember the death of Christ
- good-'humoured (US good-'humored) adj pleasant and cheerful: Although there were a lot of complaints, the manager remained polite and good-humoured.
- goodies /ˈgodiz/ noun [plural] (informal) 1 good things to eat (المأكل)
- 2 anything that is attractive and that people want to have: We're giving away lots of free goodies T-shirts, hats and videos!
- good-'looking adj (usually used about a person)attractive 2 Look at the note at beautiful.

good 'looks noun [plural] an attractive appearance (of a person)

good-'natured adj friendly or cheerful

- goodness /ˈgʊdnəs/ noun [U] 1 the quality of being good
- 2 the quality that helps sb/sth to grow: Wholemeal bread has more goodness in it than white.

goods → gotta

Goodness is used in a number of expressions. We say Goodness (me)! to show that we are surprised. Thank goodness expresses happiness and relief. Thank goodness it's stopped raining! We say For goodness' sake when we are asking somebody to do something and want to sound more urgent or when we are angry with somebody. For goodness' sake, hurry up!

1 goods /godz/ noun [plural] 1 things that are for sale: a wide range of consumer goods o electrical goods o stolen goods

2 (also freight) things that are carried by train or lorry: a goods train o a heavy goods vehicle (= HGV) ⊕ Freight (not goods) is always used in American English.

mal) to do what you have promised to do يفي (بوعده)

,good 'sense noun [U] good judgement or intelligence: He had the good sense to refuse the offer. حکمة، بصيرة good-'tempered adj not easily made angry

goodwill /,god'wil/ noun [U] friendly, helpful feelings towards other people: There is a new atmosphere of goodwill in international politics.

حسن النية

goody-goody /'godi godi/ noun [C] (pl. goody-goodies) a person who always behaves well so that other people have a good opinion of him/her ❸ If you call somebody a goody-goody it usually means that you do not like him/her.

انسان طيب (بصورة متكلّفة)

gooey → GOO

goof /guːf/ verb [I] (informal) (especially US) to make a silly mistake goose /gu:s/ noun (pl. geese /gi:s/) [C] a large white bird that is like a duck, but bigger. Geese are kept on farms for their meat and eggs. ① A male goose is called a gander and a young goose is a gosling.

gooseberry /ˈguzbəri; US ˈguːsberi/ noun [C] (pl. gooseberries) a small green fruit that is covered in small hairs and has a sour taste: a gooseberry bush play gooseberry to be present when two lovers want to be alone goose pimples noun (also 'goose bumps; gooseflesh /'gu:s flef/ [U], noun [plural]) small points or lumps which appear on your skin because you are cold or frightened

gore<sup>1</sup>/go:(r)/noun [U] the blood that comes from a cut or wound 6 The adjective is gory.

دم متجلط (على جرح)

gore² /gɔ:(r)/ verb [T] to wound sb with a horn, etc: She was gored by a bull. يطعن أو يجرح بالنطح مثلاً gorge¹ /go:dʒ/ noun [C] a narrow valley with steep sides and a stream or river running through it gorge² /gɔːdʒ/ verb [I,T] gorge (yourself) (on/ with sth) to eat a lot of food gorgeous /ˈgɔːdʒəs/ adj (informal) very good; wonderful: What gorgeous weather! والع gorgeous in that dress!

▶ gorgeously adv

gorilla /gəˈrɪlə/ noun [C] a very large black African ane gorse /goːs/ noun [U] a bush with yellow flowers and thin thorny leaves that do not fall off in winter. Gorse often grows on land that is not used or cared for.

gory /ˈgoːri/ adj (gorier; goriest) full of violence and blood: a gory film o (figurative) He told me all the gory details about the divorce.

gosh /goʃ/ interj (informal) (used for expressing surprise, shock, etc.)

gosling /'gpzlin/ noun [C] a young goose

هزأة صغيرة

gospel /ˈgɒspl/ noun 1 Gospel [sing.] one of the four books in the Bible that describe the life and teachings of Jesus Christ: St Matthew's/Mark's/Luke's/John's Gospel

2 [U] the truth: You can't take what he says as gospel.

3 [U] a style of religious music that is especially popular among black American Christians موسيقى دينية بحبها الأمريكان السود gossip /ˈgɒsɪp/ noun 1 [U] informal talk about other people and their private lives: Don't believe all the gossip you hear. o He loves spreading gossip about his neighbours.

2 [C] a conversation (including gossip): The two neighbours were having a gossip over the fence.

> gossip verb [I]: I can't stand here gossiping all

'gossip column noun [C] a part of a newspaper or magazine where you can read about the private lives of famous people صفحة الثرثرة (في جريدة)

got pt, pp of GET

Gothic /'gpθik/ adj (used about architecture) connected with a style that was common in Europe from the 12th to the 16th centuries. Typical features of Gothic architecture are pointed arches, tall thin pillars, elaborate decoration. etc.

gotta /ˈgɒtə/

Gotta is a way of writing 'got to' or 'got a' to show that so is speaking in an informal way or with a special accent. Do not write 'gotta' yourself (unless you are copying somebody's accent) because it might be marked as a mistake. Gonna and wanna are similar, I gotta go (= I have got to go),  $\circ$  Gotta minute? (= Have you got a minute?).

gotten (US) pp of GET gouge /gaod3/ verb

PHRV gouge sth out to take sth out with force (usually with a tool or with your fingers) gourmet /ˈgoəmeɪ/ noun [C] a person who enjoys good food and knows a lot about it: a gourmet restaurant (وَلَقَةُ الطُّعَامُ

- Lead of Section 1 [I,T] to rule or control the public affairs of a country, city, etc: Britain is governed by the Prime Minister and the Cabinet.
  - 2 [T] (often passive) to influence or control sb/sth: Our decision will be governed by the amount of money we have to spend.
- **Egovernment /'gavənmənt/ noun 1 often the Government [C] the group of people who govern a country: He has resigned from the Government.

   After the Prime Minister's resignation a new government was formed. The Government has been overthrown. The foreign governments involved are meeting in Geneva. government policy, money, ministers, etc.
- In the singular government may be followed by a singular or plural verb. We use a singular verb when we are thinking of the government as one single unit: The Government welcomes the proposal. We use a plural verb when we are thinking about all the individual members of the government: The Government are still discussing the problem.
- O Different types of government are: communist, conservative, democratic, liberal, reactionary, socialist, etc. A country or state may also have a military, provisional, central or federal, coalition, etc. government. Look at local government and opposition.
- 2 [U] the act or method of governing: Six years of weak government had left the economy in ruins.

الله in government being the government: Which party is in government? حاكم، في الحكم

→ governmental /ˌgʌvn'mentl/ adj: a governmental department o different governmental systems

$governor /'gavənə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a person who governs a province or state (especially in the USA): the Governor of New York State

حاكم، محافظ

2 the leader or member of a group of people who govern an organization: the governor of the Bank of England o school governors مدير: عضو ادارة

gown /gaun/ noun [C] 1 a long woman's dress for a special occasion: a ball gown

ثوب نسائي طويل رسمي

2 a loose piece of clothing that is worn by judges, lawyers, surgeons, etc.

صبة (القاضي أو المحامي مثلاً)

GP /,d3i: 'pi:/ abbrev general practitioner; a doctor who treats all types of illnesses and works in a practice in a town or village, not in a hospital.

Rgrab /græb/ verb (grabbing; grabbed) 1 [I,T] to take sth suddenly or roughly: Lily grabbed the toy car from her little brother. ○ Don't grab — there's plenty for everybody. ○ (figurative) He grabbed the opportunity of a free trip to America. ○ (figurative) I grabbed an hour's sleep on the train so I'm not too tired now. ② Look at snatch. It is similar in meaning.

2 [I] grab at/for sth to try to get hold of sb/sth: She grabbed at the branch, missed and fell.

▶ grab /græb/ noun [C]: She made a grab for the boy but she couldn't stop him falling.

محاولة إمساك

- grace /greis/ noun [U] 1 the ability to move in a smooth and attractive way: to walk, dance, move, etc. with grace
- 2 extra time that is allowed for sth: Payment is due today, but we have been given a week's grace (= an extra week to pay).
- 3 a short prayer of thanks to God before or after a meal: Father always says grace. دعاء قبل الطعام
- 4 His/Her/Your Grace (used when speaking about, or to, a duke, duchess or archbishop)

صاحب العطوفة (لقب الدوق والدوقة ورئيس الأساقفة)

Maye the grace to do sth to be polite enough to do sth: At least she had the grace to apologize for what she did. (العند شيء الما with good grace willingly and cheerfully, not showing that you are disappointed: He accepted the decision with good grace although it wasn't the one that he had been hoping for.

graceful /ˈɡreɪsfl/ adj having grace and beauty: a graceful dancer ⊃ Look at gracious. Its meaning is different.

> gracefully /-fəli/ adv: She accepted the decision gracefully (= without showing her disappointment).

gracefulness noun [U]

graceless /ˈgreɪsləs/ adj 1 without grace(1) or beauty

asızı الرشافة 2 rude

دون رشاقة أو لباقة و gracelessly adv

gracious /ˈgreɪʃəs/ adj 1 (used about a person or his/her behaviour) pleasant, kind or polite (to sb of a lower social position): a gracious smile

2 (only before a noun) (formal) (used when speaking about royal people): by gracious permission of Her Majesty

3 (only before a noun) owned or enjoyed by rich people: gracious living

Dook at graceful. Its meaning is different.

Do good gracious! (used for expressing surprise: Good gracious! Is that the time?

لطف graciously adv بلطف graciousness noun [U]

% grade 1 / gread / noun [C] 1 the quality or place in a series that sb/sth has: Which grade of petrol do you need? o She has passed her violin exams at Grade 6. o We need to use high-grade materials for this job.

2 a mark that is given for school work, etc. or in an examination: He got good/poor grades this term. o Very few students pass the exam with a grade A.

3 (US) a class or classes in a school in which all the children are the same age: My daughter is in the third grade.

make the grade (informal) to reach the expected standard; to succeed rgrade<sup>2</sup> /greid/ verb [T] (often passive) to divide things or people into groups, according to their quality or size: I've graded their work from 1 to 10. Students with 90% correct are graded A. Eggs are graded by size.

'grade crossing noun [C] (US) = LEVEL CROSSING gradient /ˈgreɪdiənt/ noun [C] the steepness of a slope: The hill has a gradient of 1 in 4(= 25%). o a steep gradient

Fgradual /'grædʒuəl/ adj happening slowly or over a long period of time; not sudden: There has been a gradual increase in the number of people without jobs.

▶ gradually /-dʒuəli/ adv: After the storm things gradually got back to normal.

graduate¹ /ˈɡrædʒuət/ noun [C] 1 a graduate (in sth) a person who holds a (first) degree from a university, etc: a law graduate/a graduate in law o a graduate student (= a student who has already got a first degree and who is studying for a further (postgraduate) degree) ك Look at postgraduate, undergraduate and bachelor and the note at student.

2 (US) a person who has completed a course at a school, college, etc: a high-school graduate خريج مدرسة أو كلية (في أمريكا)

graduate² /ˈgrædʒueɪt/ verb [I] 1 graduate (in sth) (from sth) to get a (first) degree from a university, etc. (من جامعة)

2 (US) graduate (in sth) (from sth) to complete a course at a school, college, etc.

يتخرج (من مدرسة أو كلية)

3 graduate (from sth) to sth to change (from sth) to sth more difficult, important, expensive, etc: Language learners graduate from using single words to short phrases and sentences.

يَرْتَقِي بِعَدرَج • graduation /ˌgrædʒu'eɪˌʃn/ noun 1 [U] graḍuating from a university, etc. (من جامعة

2 [sing.] a ceremony in which degree certificates are given to people who have graduated from a university, etc.

graffiti /graˈfiːti/ noun [U, plural] pictures or writing on a wall, etc. in a public place that are rude, funny or political: The wall was covered with graffiti.

graft /gra:ft; US græft/ noun [C] 1 a piece of a living plant that is fixed inside another plant so that it will grow (في نبات daha)

2 a piece of living skin, bone, etc. that is fixed onto a damaged part of a body in a medical operation: a skin graft (قعة (في الجراحة)

> graft verb [T] graft sth onto sth to fix sth as a graft onto a plant, body, etc. ♦ Look at transplant.

† grain¹ /grein/ noun 1 [U] the seeds of wheat, rice, etc. as a product: The USA is a major producer of grain. ○ grain exports

حَبّ (الحنطة أو الرز أو ما يشبه ذلك)

2 [C] a single seed of wheat, rice, etc.

3 [C] a very small piece of sth: a grain of sand, salt, sugar, etc. o (figurative) There isn't a grain of truth in what you say.

grain² /grem/ noun [C] the natural pattern of lines that can be seen or felt in wood, rock, stone, etc: to cut a piece of wood along/across the grain

ا المنابع المن

غير طبيعي؛ يتعارض مع رغبة المرء

F gram (also gramme) /græm/ noun [C] (abbr g) a measure of weight. There are 1000 grams in a kilogram.

Çgrammar /ˈgræmə(r)/ noun 1 [U] the rules of language, e.g. for forming words or joining words together in sentences: Russian grammar can be difficult for foreign learners.

2 [U] the way in which sb uses the rules of language: You have a good vocabulary, but your grammar needs improvement.

مدى علم شخص بقواعد اللغة

3 [C] a book that describes and explains the rules of grammar: a French grammar

'grammar school noun [C] (Brit) (especially in the past) a type of secondary school for children from 11 to 18 who are good at academic subjects مدرسة أعدادية في بريطانيا

grammatical /grə'mætikl/ adj 1 connected with grammar: the grammatical rules for forming plurals

2 following the rules of grammar: The sentence is not grammatical. ♦ The opposite is ungrammatical. نحوي، متفق مع قواعد اللغة

▶ grammatically /-kli/ adv

بشكل متفق مع قواعد اللغة

gramme /græin/ noun [C] = GRAM

gramophone /'græməfəun/ noun [C] (Brit old-fashioned) = RECORD PLAYER: a gramophone record gran /græn/ noun [C] (Brit informal) = GRAND-MOTHER

grand- /grænd/ (used before a noun to show a family relationship) مفة تحدد درجة القرابة

If you need to distinguish between a grandparent on your mother's and your father's side you can say. My maternal/paternal grandfather or my mother's/fother's father.

- R grand¹/grænd/adj 1 looking splendid in size or appearance (also used in names): Our house isn't very grand, but it has a big garden. the Grand Canyon the Grand Hotel ⊕ The noun is grandeur.
  - 2 seeming to be important or thinking that you are important: She thinks she's very grand because she drives a Porsche.
  - 3 (informal) very good or pleasant: You've done a grand job!
  - ► grandly adv grandness noun [U]
  - grand<sup>2</sup>/grænd/ noun [C] (pl. grand) (slang) 1 000 pounds or dollars: It'll cost you 50 grand!!

أَلْف (جنيه أو دولار: عبارة عامية) grandad /'grændæd/ noun [C] (Brit informal)

- GRANDFATHER
- و 'grandchild /'grændtʃaıld/ 'granddaughter, 'grandson nouns [C] the daughter or son of your child
- grandeur /ˈɡrændʒə(r)/ noun [U] (formal) 1 the quality of being large and impressive: the grandeur of the Swiss alps
- 2 the feeling of being important شعور بالعظمة
- P 'grandfather /'grændfɑːðə(r)/, 'grandmother /'grændmʌðə(r)/, 'grandparent /'grændpeərənt/ nouns [C] the father or mother of one of your parents
- 'grandfather clock noun [C] a clock that stands on the floor in a tall wooden case ساعة دقَاقة في صندوق خشبي كبير
- grandiose /ˈgrændiəʊs/ adj bigger or more complicated than necessary: Their grandiose scheme was completely impractical. ♦ Using this word about something shows that you do not have a good opinion of it.
- grandma /'grænma:/ noun [C] (informal) = GRANDMOTHER
- grandpa /'grænpa:/ noun [C] (informal) = GRAND-FATHER
- إgrand pi'ano noun [C] a large flat piaṇo (with horizontal strings)
- grand 'slam noun [C] winning all the important matches or competitions in a particular sport, e. g. rugby or tennis
- grandstand /'grændstænd/ noun [C] rows of seats (covered by a roof) from which you get a good view of a sports competition, etc.
  - مدُرَج رئيسي (في ملعب رياضي)
- ,grand 'total noun [C] the amount that you get when you add several totals together
  - المحمد ع الكلّ
- $\textbf{granite} \ / \text{grænit} / \ \textit{noun} \ [\textbf{U}] \ \textbf{a} \ \textbf{hard grey rock}$

granny (also grannie) /'græni/ noun [C] (pl. grannies) (informal) = GRANDMOTHER

- Rgrant /gra:nt; US grænt/ verb [T] 1 (formal) to give sb what he/she has asked for: A visa has been granted to one of our journalists. He was granted permission to leave early.
  - 2 to agree (that sth is true): I grant you that New York is an interesting place but I still wouldn't want to live there.
  - take sb/sth for granted to show too little attention to sb/sth; to not be grateful enough to a person or thing: In developed countries we take running water for granted. o She never says thank you she just takes me for granted.
  - take sth for granted to accept sth as being true: We can take it for granted that the new students will have at least an elementary know-ledge of English.
  - ▶ grant noun [C] money that is given (by the government, etc.) for a particular purpose: a student grant (= to help pay for university education) granted adv (used for saying that sth is true, before you make a comment about it): 'We've never had any problems before.' 'Granted, but this year there are 200 more people coming.'

هذا صحيح ... ولكن

مخَطّط، رسم بياني

granule /ˈɡrænjuːl/ noun [C] a small hard piece or grain of sth: coffee granules

- grape /greip/ noun [C] a green or purple berry that grows in bunches on a climbing plant (a vine): a bunch of grapes
- Green grapes are usually called 'white' and purple grapes are usually called 'black'. Grapes that have been dried are called raisins, currants or sultanas.
- grapefruit /'greipfru:t/ noun [C] (pl. grapefruit or grapefruits) a large round yellow fruit with a thick skin that is like a big orange but with a sour taste غريمفروت. غريفون ليمون هندي
- the grapevine /ˈgreɪpvaɪn/ noun [sing.] the way that news is passed from one person to another: I heard on/through the grapevine that you are moving.
- graph /gra:f; US græf/ noun [C] a mathematical diagram in which a line or a curve shows the relationship between two quantities, measurements, etc: a graph showing/to show the number of cars sold each month o graph paper
- graphic /ˈɡræfik/ adj 1 (only before a noun) connected with drawings, letters, diagrams, etc: graphic design
- 2 (used about descriptions) clear and giving a lot of detail: She described the accident in graphic detail. وانت ومفسل (وصف) حي
- بشكل واضع ومفصل "graphics noun [plural] the production of drawings, letters, diagrams, etc: computer graphics

مرض، م

grapple → grease

grapple /ˈgræpl/ verb [I] grapple (with sb) to get hold of sb and struggle or fight with him/ her: She grappled with the thief, but he got away. o (figurative) We have been grappling with this problem all day.

grasp /gra:sp; US græsp/ verb [T] 1 to take hold of sb/sth suddenly and firmly: Lisa grasped the child firmly by the hand before crossing the road. o (figurative) to grasp an opportunity

2 to understand sth: I don't think you've grasped how serious the situation is.

و grasp at sth to try to seize or grasp sth:

He grasped at the swinging rope, but missed.

پحاول أن بمُسك

- sqrasp noun [usually sing.] 1 a firm hold or control over sb/sth: a strong grasp the ability to get or achieve sth. Finally their

- 2 the ability to get or achieve sth: Finally their dream was within their grasp.

3 understanding: He has a good grasp of English grammar.

grasping /ˈɡrɑ:spɪŋ; US ˈɡræspɪŋ/ adj greedy for money, power, etc.

- R grass /grass; US græs/ noun 1 [U] the common green plant with thin leaves which covers fields and parts of gardens. Cows, sheep, horses, etc. eat grass: She lay on the grass and listened to the birds singing. Don't walk on the grass. I must cut the grass at the weekend. a blade (= one leaf) of grass An area of grass in a garden is called a lawn.
  - 2 [C] one type of grass: an arrangement of dried flowers and grasses
  - ▶ grassy adj covered with grass grasshopper /ˈɡrɑːshopə(r); US ˈɡræs-/ noun [C] an insect that lives in long grass and that can jump high in the air جُرادة grass 'roots noun [plural] the ordinary people in an organization and not those who make decisions: dissatisfaction with party policy at the grass roots grate<sup>1</sup>/greit/noun [C] the metal frame that holds the wood, coal, etc. in a fireplace; the area surrounding it grate<sup>2</sup> /grent/ verb 1 [T] to rub food into small pieces using a metal tool (a grater): Grate the cheese and sprinkle it over the top of the dish.

2 [I] to make a sharp unpleasant sound (when two surfaces rub against each other): The hinges grated as the gate swung back.

روبولد صوتاً حاداً ومزعجاً

3 [I] grate (on sb) to annoy or irritate: It's her voice that grates on me.

▶ grater noun [C] a kitchen utensil with a rough surface that is used for grating food

**Grateful /'gretfl/ adj grateful (to sb) (for sth); grateful (that...) feeling or showing thanks (to sb): We are very grateful to you for all the help you have given us. o He was very grateful that you did as he asked. o I would be very grateful if you could send me a copy of your brochure. The opposite is ungrateful. The noun is gratitude.

▶ gratefully /-fəli/ adv

gratify /'grætifai/ verb [T] (pres part gratifying; 3rd pers sing pres gratifies; pt, pp gratified) (formal) (often passive) to give sb pleasure grating /ˈɡreɪtɪŋ/ noun [C] a framework of metal bars that is fixed over a window or over a hole in the road, etc.

▶ gratifying adj

gratitude /ˈɡrætɪtjuːd; US -tuːd/ noun [U] gratitude (to sb) (for sth) the feeling of being grateful or thankful: We should like to express our gratitude to David Stewart for all his help and advice. 6 The opposite is ingratitude.

? grave greiv/ noun [C] the place where a dead body is buried: The coffin was lowered into the grave. o I put some flowers on the grave.

१grave 'greiv' adj (formal) 1 bad or serious:

These events could have grave consequences for us all.

2 (used about people) sad or serious: He was looking extremely grave.

♠ The noun is gravity. ♠ Serious is much more common for both senses.

gravel /ˈgrævl/ noun [U] very small stones that are used for making roads, paths, etc.

gravestone /ˈgreɪvstəon/ noun [C] a stone over a grave that shows the name, etc. of the person who is buried there graveyard /ˈgreɪvjoːd/ noun [C] an area of land (near a church) where dead people are buried کلیوه کل gravity¹ /ˈɡrævəti/ noun [U] the natural force that makes things fall to the ground when you drop them: the force of gravity gravity² /ˈgrævəti/ noun [U] (formal) importance or seriousness: Politicians are only now realizing the gravity of the situation. ♠ Seriousness is more common. ♠ The adjective is grave.

gravy /ˈgreɪvi/ noun [U] a thin sauce that is made from the juices that come out of meat while it is cooking. Gravy is served with meat, vegetables, etc. ◆ Look at sauce.

gray / grei / adj, noun [C,U] (especially US) = grey graze¹ /greɪz/ verb [I] (used about cows, sheep. etc.) to eat grass (that is growing in a field) يرعى graze<sup>2</sup> /greiz/ verb [T] 1 to injure your skin because you have scraped it against sth rough: The child fell and grazed her knee.

2 to pass sth and touch it lightly: The car's tyre grazed the pavement.

▶ graze noun [C] the small wound where the skin has been grazed grease /gris/ noun [U] 1 a thick oily substance greasy → greenhouse effect

347

used, for example, to make engines run smoothly: engine grease o grease marks

- 2 animal fat that has been softened by cooking: You'll need very hot water to get all the grease off those pans.
- ▶ grease verb [T] to put grease on or in sth: Grease the tin thoroughly to stop the cake from يشَحْم؛ يدهن (بالسمن مثلاً) sticking.
- greasy /'gri:si/ adj (greasier; greasiest) covered with or containing a lot of grease: greasy fingers o greasy skin o greasy food بذهن
- ? great /greit/ adj 1 large in amount, degree, size, etc.; a lot of: We had great difficulty in solving the problem. o The party was a great success. o It gives me great pleasure to introduce tonight's guest. o (formal) The town was dominated by the great cathedral. 3 Look at the note at big.

- 2 particularly important; of unusually high quality: Einstein was perhaps the greatest scientist of the century. o Alexander the Great o a great moment in history
- 3 (informal) good; wonderful: We had a great time in Paris. o It's great to see you again. 6 We sometimes use great in a sarcastic way, that is, when something is not good at all: Oh great! I've رأتع spilled coffee all over my homework!
- 4 (informal) (used to emphasize sth) very; very good: There was a great big dog in the garden. جداً؛ ممتاز o They were great friends.

IDM go to great lengths → LENGTH

- a good/great deal → DEAL1
- a good/great many → MANY
- ▶ great noun [C, usually pl.] (informal) a person or thing of special ability or importance: That film is one of the all-time greats. شخص أو شيئ عظيم greatly adv very much: She will be greatly missed by friends and family. كثيرأ greatness noun [U]
- great-/greit/ (used before a noun to show a fam-للدلالة على درجة القرابة ily relationship)
- Great- can be added to other words for family members to show another generation: your great-aunt (= the aunt of your mother or father) o your great nephew (= the son of your nephew or niece) o your great-great-grandfather (= the grandfather of one of your grandparents).
- Great 'Britain (also Britain) (abbr GB) England, Wales and Scotland 2 Look at the note at بريطانيا العظمي United Kingdom.
- great-'grandchild, great-'granddaughter, great-'grandson noun [C] the daughter ابن أو ابنة الحفيد أو الحفيدة or son of your grandchild
- ,great-'grandfather. great-grandmother, great-'grandparent noun [C] the father or mother of one of your grandpar-أب أو أم الجدُ أو الجدّة
- greed /gri:d/ noun [U] greed (for sth) a strong desire for more food, money, power, etc. than you really need
- ▶ greedy adj (greedier; greediest) greedy (for

- sth) wanting more food, money, power, etc. than you really need: Don't be so greedy - you've had طُمّاع، جَشِع three pieces of cake already. greedily adv greediness noun [U]
- ?green /gri:n/ adj 1 of the colour of grass or leaves: dark/light/pale green o olive green o I love the spring when everything's green. o These bananas aren't ripe yet - they're still
  - 2 (informal) (used about a person) with little experience: I'm not so green as to believe that!
  - 3 pale in the face (because you have had a shock or feel ill): At the sight of all the blood he turned green and fainted.
  - 4 envious (wanting to have what sb else has got): He was green with envy when he saw his neighbour's new car.
  - 5 connected with protecting the environment or the natural world: the Green party o green products (= that do not damage the environment)

متعلق بحماية الطبيعة IDM give sb/get the green light (informal) to give sb/get permission to do sth يأذن

- ▶ greenish /ˈgriːnɪʃ/ adj rather green
- ?green<sup>2</sup> /grim/ noun 1 [C,U] the colour of grass and leaves: They were dressed in green. o The room was decorated in greens and blues.

خُضار، اللون الأخضر

- 2 greens [plural] green vegetables, e.g. cabbage, that are usually eaten cooked
- 3 [C] (Brit) an area of grass in the centre of a village: the village green
  - ساحة معشبة في مركز قرية إنكليزية
- 4 [C] a flat area of very short grass used in games such as golf: the green at the 18th hole سرج أو مَلْعَب معشب (للعبة الجولف مثلا)
- 5 Green [C] a member of a green¹(5) political party
- green 'belt noun [C, U] an area of land around a city where building is not allowed حزام أخضر (منطقة مشجّرة محيطة بمدينة) ۖ

- green 'card noun [C] a document that allows sb from another country to live and work in the البطاقة الخضراء
- green 'fingers noun [plural] (informal) the ability to make plants grow well حاذق في الاستنبات: "يده خضراء'
- greengage /ˈgriːngeɪdʒ/ noun [C] a small yellowish-green plum
- qreengrocer /'gri:ngrəusə(r)/ noun [C] (Brit) a person who sells fruit and vegetables in a small shop (a greengrocer's): I bought these strawberries at the greengrocer's.
- greenhouse /'gri:nhaus/ noun [C] a building made of glass in which plants are grown بيت زجاجي (للنباتات)
- 'greenhouse effect noun [sing.] the warming

green pepper → grind of the earth's atmosphere as a result of pollu-مفعول البيوت الزجاجية

green 'pepper noun [C] → PEPPER (2)

- greet /gri:t/ verb [T] 1 to welcome sb when you meet him/her; to say hello to sb: He greeted me with a friendly smile. o (figurative) As we entered the house we were greeted by the smell of cook; يحيى
- 2 greet sth with sth (usually passive) to receive sth in a particular way: The news was greeted with a loud cheer.
- ▶ greeting noun [C] 1 the first words you say when you meet sb: 'Hello' and 'Hi' are informal greetings.
- 2 [usually pl.] a good wish: a greetings card
- gregarious /gri'geəriəs/ adj liking to be with other people محبّ للناس، اجتماعي
- grenade /grə'neɪd/ noun [C] a small bomb that is thrown by hand or fired from a gun: a hand gren-قنبلة يدوية ade

grew pt of grow

- Ligrey (especially US gray) /grei/ adj 1 of the colour between black and white: dark/light/pale grey o He was wearing a grey suit. o She looked grey with tiredness. رمادي ً
  - شائب 2 with grey hair: He's going grey. ▶ grey (especially US gray) noun [C,U] the الرمادي colour between black and white greyish (especially US grayish) adj rather
  - greyhound /'greihaund/ noun [C] a large thin dog that can run very fast and that is used for ra-كلب سلوقي cing: greyhound racing
- grid /grid/ noun [C] 1 a pattern of lines that cross شكة each other to form squares
  - 2 a system of squares that are drawn on a map so that the position of any place can be described or found: a grid reference خطوط متعامدة على خريطة
  - 3 the system of electricity cables, etc. taking power to all parts of a country: the National شكة كهر بائية Grid
- gridlock /'gridlok/ noun [U] 1 a situation in which there are so many cars in the streets of a town that the traffic cannot move at all
  - تشابك حركة السير، إستعصاء السير
- 2 (especially in politics) a situation in which people with different opinions are not able to agree with each other and so no action can be taken
- ▶ gridlocked adj (حركة سير) متشابكة أو متوقفة
- grief /gri:f/ noun [U] 1 great sadness (especially because of the death of sb you love) أسى، لوعة
- 2 (informal) problems and worry DM good grief (informal) (used for expressing surprise or shock): Good grief! Whatever hap-يا لُلدهشة، يا للعجب pened to you?
- grievance /'gri:vns/ noun [C] a grievance (against sb) something that you think is unfair

- and that you want to complain or protest about: The workers aired (= expressed) their grievances at the meeting. تَظَلُّم، شكوى
- grieve /gri:v/ verb 1 [I] grieve (for sb) to feel great sadness (especially about the death of sb you love): He is still grieving for his wife.
  - يَتَأْلُم، يشعر بالفحيعة
- 2 [T] to cause unhappiness: It grieves me to have to refuse. يحزن، يؤلم
- grill /gril/ noun [C] 1 a part of a cooker where the food is cooked by heat from above: Sprinkle with cheese and put under the grill to brown.
  - 2 a framework of metal bars that you put food on to cook over a fire or on a barbecue ▶ grill verb 1 (especially US broil) [1,T] to cook under a grill: grilled steak 2 Look at the note at يشوى cook.
  - 2 [T] (informal) to question sb for a long time: When she got home her parents grilled her about where she had been. يستحوب طويلأ
- grille /gril/ noun [C] a framework of metal bars that is placed over a window, etc.
  - قضبان حديدية على نافذة
- grim /grim/ adj (grimmer; grimmest) 1 (used about a person) very serious; not smiling: The fireman's face was grim when he came out of the burning house.
- 2 (used about a situation, news, etc.) unpleasant or worrying: We face the grim prospect of even higher inflation. o The news is grim, I'm مزعج، مقيت؛ مقلق
- 3 (used about a place) unpleasant to look at; not attractive: They lived in a grim block of flats in South London. بشع
- 4 (informal) ill: I was feeling grim yesterday but I managed to get to work.
- ▶ grimly adv
- grimace /gri'meis; 'griməs/ noun [C] an expression on your face that shows that you are angry or that sth is hurting you:  $a\ grimace\ of\ pain$ ب، تكشير
- ▶ grimace verb [I] to make a grimace: She grimaced with pain. يقَطِّب، يكشُر
- grime /graim/ noun [U] a thick layer of dirt طبقة من الأوساخ
- ▶ grimy adj (grimier; grimiest) very dirty
- grin /grm/ verb [I] (grinning; grinned) to smile broadly (so that you show your teeth): She grinned at me as she came into the room. امة عريضة
- ▶ grin noun [C]: He came in with a big grin on his face and told us the good news.
- grind /gramd/ verb [T] (pt, pp ground /graund/) 1 to crush sth into very small pieces or into a powder between two hard surfaces: Wheat is ground into flour. o ground pepper
  - 2 to make sth sharp or smooth by rubbing it on a rough hard surface: to grind a knife on a
- 3 to press sth together or into sth firmly: Some people grind their teeth while they're asleep. يحكّ: يَصِرُ (أسنانه مثلاً) pm grind to a halt/standstill to stop slowly: (figurative) The talks ground to a halt yesterday.

grinder /ˈgraɪndə(r)/ noun [C] a machine for grinding: a coffee grinder

- grip /grip/verb [T] (gripping; gripped) to take and keep hold of sb/sth firmly: She gripped my arm in fear. o (figurative) The story really gripped my imagination.
- Figrip noun 1 [sing.] a grip (on sb/sth) a firm hold (on sb/sth): I relaxed my grip and he ran away. You need tyres that give a good grip. (figurative) The teacher kept a firm grip on the class.
- 2 [C] (US) a bag that you use when you are travelling or for sports equipment حقية صفيرة come/get to grips with sth to start dealing with a problem in an effective way:

  The government is still trying to get to grips with inflation.
- get/keep/take a grip/hold on yourself (informal) to try to behave in a calmer or more sensible way محنفظ بهدوء أعسابه gripping adj exciting; holding your attention: a gripping film
- grisly /ˈgrɪzli/ adj (grislier; grisliest) (used for describing sth that is concerned with death) horrible; terrible: The detective stared at the grisly remains of the bodies. Dook at gruesome. It is similar in meaning.
- grit /grit/ noun [U] 1 small pieces of stone: I've got some grit/a piece of grit in my shoe.

۷ عادد. نشخامندا...

2 (informal) courage; determination
▶ grit verb [T] (gritting; gritted) to cover sth with grit: The roads are gritted in icy weather.

يفطّى بالرمل الخشن

mination in a difficult situation: If things get difficult, you'll have to grit your teeth and keep going.

- groan /grəʊn/ verb [1] to make a deep sad sound because you are in pain, or to show that you are unhappy or do not approve of sth: He groaned with pain. The children groaned when I told them we were going on a long walk. The audience groaned at his terrible jokes.
- ► groan noun [C] the sound that you make when you groan
- grocer /ˈɡrəʊsə(r)/ noun [C] a person who sells food and other things for the home in a small shop the Note that the grocer is the person who runs the shop and the grocer's is the shop.

  2 Look at greengrocer.
- L groceries /ˈɡrəʊsəriz/ noun [plural] food such as flour, sugar, tea, coffee, etc. that is sold by a grocer بضاعة البقال
  - groggy /'grogi/ adj (groggier; groggiest) (informal) weak and unable to walk steadily because you feel ill, have not had enough sleep, etc. مُتَوعُك: مَترثُح groin /grɔɪn/ noun [C] the place where the tops of the legs join the body أُرْبية (ما بين الفخذ والبطن)

groom /gru:m/ noun [C] 1 a person who looks after horses

- 2 = BRIDEGROOM
- ▶ groom verb [T] 1 to clean or look after an animal by brushing, etc.

يتعهد حيواناً بالعناية يفرجن (يُعنى بالخيلُ)

2 (usually passive) to choose and prepare sb for a particular career or job: He is clearly being groomed for the top job.

groove /gru:v/ noun [C] a long deep line that is cut in the surface of sth: the grooves on a record grope /graup/ verb [I] grope (about) (for/after sth) to search for sth using your hands, as you do in the dark: He groped for the light switch.

etc. (sth) to move across, along, past, etc. sth by feeling the way with your hands: Vic groped his way along the darkened landing and into his bedroom.

- gross /grəʊs/ adj 1 very impolite and unpleasant: His behaviour was really gross.
- 2 (formal) obvious or serious: There is gross inequality between the rich and the poor.

صارخ؛ واضح

- 3 total: gross income (= before tax, etc. is taken away) ⊕ The opposite is net.
- 4 very fat and ugly
- ▶ grossly adv very: That is grossly unfair.

grotesque /grəo'tesk/ adj strange or unnatural in a way that is funny or frightening

ومنتقل مضحك أو مخيف شاذٌ بشكل مضحك أو مخيف

- grotty /ˈgrɒti/ adj (grottier; grottiest) (Brit informal) unpleasant; not nice: She lives in a grotty flat in London.
- Rground¹/graund/noun 1 the ground [sing.] the solid surface of the earth: We sat on the ground to eat our picnic. He slipped off the ladder and fell to the ground. waste ground (= that is not being used) ground level
  - 2 [U] an area or type of soil: stony ground تَرْيَة، أَرْض

The Earth is the name of the planet where we live Land is the opposite of sea: The sailors sighted land./The astronauts returned to Earth. Land is also something that you can buy or sell: The price of land in Tokyo is extremely high. When you are outside, the surface under your feet is called the ground. When you are inside it is called the floor: Don't sit on the ground. You'll get wet. o Don't sit on the floor. I'll get another chair. Plants grow in earth or soil.

3 [C] a piece of land that is used for a particular purpose: a sports ground o a playground

ground → grow

- 4 grounds [plural] land or gardens surrounding a large building: the grounds of Buckingham Palace
- 5 [U] an area of interest, study, discussion, etc: The lecture went over the same old ground/ covered a lot of new ground.
- 6 [C, usually pl.] a reason for sth: She retired on medical grounds.  $\circ$  grounds for divorce

7 [C. usually sing.] (US) = EARTH<sup>2</sup> above/below ground above/below the surface of the earth موق سطح الأرض أو تحته break fresh/new ground to make a discovery or introduce a new method or activity: Scientists are breaking new ground in the field of genetic engineering.

gain ground → GAIN2

get off the ground (used about a business, scheme, etc.) to make a successful start

ينطلق بنجاح

ground²/graund/verb [T] 1 to force an aircraft, etc. to stay on the ground: to be grounded by fog يمنع (طائرة) من الطيران

 $2 = EARTH^2$

3 (usually passive) to punish a child by not allowing him/her to go out with friends for a period of time

▶ grounding noun [sing.] knowledge of the basic facts or principles of a subject: This book provides a good grounding in English grammar.

ground<sup>3</sup> pt, pp of GRIND: ground rice ground 'beef noun [U] (US) = MINCE ground 'floor noun [C] the floor of a building that is at ground level: a ground-floor flat ⊅ Look at the note at floor.

groundless /ˈgraondles/ adj without reason:

Our fears were groundless.

▶ groundlessly adv

groundwork /ˈgraʊndwɜːk/ noun [U] work that is done in preparation for further work or study **Group /gru:p/ noun [C] 1 [with sing. or pl. verb] a number of people or things that are together or that are connected: Our discussion group is/are meeting this week. • A group of us are planning to meet for lunch. • Groups of people were standing around in the streets. • He is in the 40-50 age group. • Many young people start smoking because of pressure from their peer group (= people of the same age). • people of many different social groups • a pressure group (= a political group that tries to influence the government) • Which blood group (e.g. A, O, etc.) do you belong to? • Divide the class into groups. • group work

زمرة، مجموعة

2 a number of people who play pop music together: a pop group 3 Look at band.

سيقى حديثة

Group can be used in the singular with either a singular or plural verb. If you are thinking of the members of the group individually, a plural verb is more common.

- ► group verb [I,T] to form or put into one or more groups: [T]: Group these words according to their meaning.
- grouse /graws/ noun [C] (pl. grouse) a fat brown bird that lives in hilly areas and that is shot for sport. Grouse can be eaten.
- grovel /ˈgrɒvl/ verb [I] (grovelling; grovelled; US groveling; groveled) to act in a very humble way towards sb who is more important than you or who can give you sth that you want: to grovel for forgiveness

والمالي grovel about/around to move around on your hands and knees (usually when you are looking for sth)

- Rgrow /grow/ verb (pt grew /gru:/; pp grown /grown) 1 [I] to increase in size or number; to develop into an adult form: Goodness, haven't you grown! o a growing child o You must invest if you want your business to grow. O The population is growing too fast. O Plants grow from seeds. O Kittens soon grow into cats.
  - 2 [I] (used about plants) to be alive in a particular place: Palm trees don't normally grow in Britain.
  - 3 [T] to cause or allow something to grow: Mary wants to grow her hair long. to grow a beard/moustache My grandfather grows a lot of vegetables in his garden.

    yey² برايي بطاق (شعره)؛ يزدع
  - 4 [I] to become (gradually): It began to grow dark.  $\circ$  to grow older, wiser, etc. 6 Get is also possible and is less formal.

PHRV grow into sth 1 to become (gradually): She has grown into a very attractive child.

يصير (تدريحياً)

2 to become big enough to fit clothes, etc: The coat is too big for him, but he will soon grow into it.

grow on sb to become more pleasing: I didn't like it at first, but it's a taste that grows on you.
یصبح مقبولاً أو محبوباً

grow out of sth to become too big or too old for sth: She's grown out of that dress.

- grow up 1 to become mature or adult: What do you want to be when you grow up? (= what job do you want to do later?) o Oh, grow up! (= don't be silly!)
- 2 (used about a feeling, etc.) to develop or become strong: A close friendship has grown up between them.
- > growing adj increasing: a growing problem grown /grəʊn/ adj physically adult or mature: a fully grown elephant growth /grəʊθ/ noun 1 [U] growing or develop ment: A good diet is very important for children's growth. o a growth industry (= one that is growing)

2 [U, sing.] an increase (in sth): population growth  $\circ$  There has been a sudden growth in the government's popularity.

ض؛ يخرج صوتاً من الحنجرة

3 [C] an abnormal lump that grows in a person's or an animal's body

351

growl /gravl/ verb [I] (used about dogs and other animals) to make a low noise in the throat to show anger or to give a warning زمجرة؛ هرير ▶ growl noun [C]

.grown-'up adj physically or mentally adult or mature: What do you want to be when you're grown-up? o She's very grown-up for her age. o He must be at least 45 - he's got a grown-up daughter.

▶ 'grown-up noun [C] an adult person: Don't use the cooker unless a grown-up is there to help grub /grab/ noun 1 [C] the first form that an insect takes (when it has just come out of the egg). يرقّة (دودة صغيرة) Grubs look like short fat worms. 2 [U] (informal) food grubby /'grAbi/ adj (grubbier; grubbiest) (informal) dirty grudge /grAd3/ verb [T] grudge sb sth to be unsuccess - he deserves it. 2 Look at begrudge.

▶ grudge noun [C] a grudge (against sb) unfriendly feelings towards sb, because you are angry about what has happened in the past: She still bears a grudge against me for what happened in Italy.

grudging adj given or done unwillingly: grudging thanks grudgingly adv gruelling (US grueling) /'gru:əlɪŋ/ adj difficult and tiring: a gruelling nine-hour march cerned with death or injury) very unpleasant or shocking: A gruesome sight awaited the police when they arrived at the accident. 3 Look at grisly. It is similar in meaning.

gruff /grnf/ adj (used about a person or a voice) فُظًا، خشن rough and unfriendly

ىفظاظة ▶ gruffly adv فظاظة، خشونة gruffness noun [U]

grumble /'grambl/ verb [I] to complain or protest in a bad-tempered way; to keep saying that you do not like sth: The students were always grumbling about the standard of the food.

People usually grumble (or moan) when something is not as good as they expect. If they want to take positive action they complain to somebody in authority.

▶ grumble noun [C] a complaint: I'm tired of تُذَمَّر، شكوي listening to your grumbles. grumpy /'grampi/ adj (grumpier; grumpiest)

سيّى الطبع؛ شكّاء، نكد (informal) bad-tempered ▶ grumpily /-Ili/ adv بتذمّر؛ بِنَكَد تذمر؛ نكد grumpiness noun [U]

grunt /grant/ verb [I,T] to make a noise (a short low sound in the throat) like a pig. People grunt when they do not like sth or are not interested and do not want to talk: I tried to find out her opinion but she just grunted when I asked her.

▶ arunt noun [C]

Gt (also Gt.) abbrev = Great

Lguarantee /,gærən'ti:/ noun [C,U] 1 a written promise by a company that it will repair or replace a product if it goes wrong in a certain period of time: The watch comes with a year's guarantee. o It is still under guarantee. o The ضمان، كفالة guarantee has expired.

2 a promise that sth will be done or that sth will happen: The refugees are demanding guarantees about their safety before they return home.

▶ guarantee / gæren'ti:/ verb [T] 1 to give a guarantee on a product: This washing machine is يضمن، يكفل guaranteed for three years.

2 to promise that sth will be done or that sth is true: They have guaranteed delivery within one week. o The food is guaranteed to be free of additives. o I can guarantee that you will have a good time.

willing to give sth to sb: I don't grudge him his quard /qa:d/verb [T] 1 to keep sb/sth safe from other people: protect: The building was guarded by men with dogs. o soldiers guarding the Presi-يحو س

> 2 to watch over sb and prevent him/her from escaping: The prisoner was closely guarded on the way to court.

PHRV guard against sth to try to prevent sth or stop sth happening: A good diet helps to guard against disease.

 guarded adj (used about an answer, statement, etc.) not saying very much; careful guardedly adv gruesome /'gru:səm/ adj (used about sth con- "guard" /go:d/ noun 1 [C] a person who guards sh/sth: a border guard o a security guard 2 Look at warder and bodyguard.

> 2 [U] the state of being ready to prevent attack or danger: Soldiers are keeping guard at the gate. o Who is on guard? o The prisoner arrived under armed guard. o a guard dog

> 3 [sing., with sing. or pl. verb] a group of soldiers, policemen, etc. who guard sb/sth: the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace o a guard of honour (= for an important person) حرس

> 4 (US conductor) [C] a person who is in charge حارس القطار of a train

> 5 [C] (often in compounds) something that covers sth dangerous or protects sth: a fireguard o a mudguard (= over the wheel of a bicycle)

> IDM off/on your guard unprepared/prepared for an attack, surprise, mistake, etc: The question caught me off my guard and I didn't know what to say. وين احتراس أو على حين غرة guardian /'go:dian/ noun [C] 1 a person or institution that guards or protects sth: The police are the guardians of law and order.

2 a person who is responsible for a child whose parents are dead guerrilla (also guerilla) /gə'rɪlə/ noun [C] a يخزر

نزيل فندق

guess → guitar

member of a small group of fighters (not an army) who make surprise attacks on the enemy: guerrilla warfare جندي في حرب العصابات

- I guess /ges/ verb 1 [I,T] to give an answer or opinion about sth without being sure of all the facts: Can you guess how much this cost? to guess at sb's age I'd guess that he's about 45.
  - 2 [I,T] to give the correct answer when you are not sure about it; to guess correctly: He guessed the weight of the cake exactly. O Did I guess right?

    You'll never guess what Adam just told me!
  - 3 [T] (informal) (especially US) (used when you think that sth is probably true) to suppose: I guess you're tired after your long journey. We ought to leave soon, I guess.
  - 4 guess...! used to show that you are going to say sth surprising or exciting: Guess what! He's coming to see us! Guess who I've just seen!
  - P guess noun [C] an attempt to give the right answer when you are not sure what it is: If you don't know the answer, then have a guess! O My guess is that they've been delayed by the traffic. O Your guess is as good as mine (= I don't know).
  - mat a guess making a guess: I don't know how far it is, but at a guess I'd say about 50 miles.
  - guesswork /'gesw3:k/ noun [U] an act of guessing: I arrived at the answer by pure guesswork.
- I guest /gest/ noun [C] 1 a person that you invite to your home or to a party, etc: We are having guests for the weekend. wedding guests an unexpected guest an uninvited guest
  - 2 a person that you invite out and pay for at a restaurant, theatre, etc.
  - 3 a person who is staying at a hotel, etc: This hotel has accommodation for 500 guests.
  - 4 a person who is invited to appear on a radio or television show, or to speak at a meeting: tonight's mystery guest o a guest speaker (ونامج (إذاعي)
- 'guest house noun [C] a small hotel (sometimes in a private house)
- guidance /ˈgaɪdns/ noun [U] help or advice: We need expert guidance on this problem.
- l guide 1/gard/ noun [C] 1 a person whose job is to show cities, towns, museums, etc. to tourists: a tour guide
  - 2 a person who shows the way to others where it is difficult or dangerous: We found a guide who knew the mountains well.
  - 3 something that helps you plan what you are going to do: As a rough guide, add three eggs per pound of flour.
  - 4 (also guidebook /'gardbuk/) a book for tour-

- ists, etc. that gives information about interesting places, etc. دليل سياحي
- 5 a book that gives information about a subject: a guide to English grammar كتاب دليل
- 6 Guide (also old-fashioned Girl Guide; US Girl Scout) a member of an organization for girls that encourages helpfulness and teaches practical skills المحافة عالمتافقة عالمتاف
- Rguide<sup>2</sup> /gard/ verb [T] 1 to help a person or a group of people to find the right way or direction to go: He guided us through the busy streets to our hotel. o In earlier times sailors were guided by the stars.
  - 2 to have an influence on sb/sth: I was guided by your advice. 2 Look at the note at lead<sup>3</sup>(1).
  - يقود: يوجه guided adj led by a guide: a guided tour مستعين بدليل
  - 'guide dog noun [C] a dog trained to guide a کلب مرشد کلب مرشد
  - guideline /ˈgaɪdlam/ noun [C] 1 [usually pl.] advice on what to do about sth (that is given by sb in authority): The government has issued new guidelines on food safety.
  - 2 something that can be used to help you make a decision or form an opinion: These figures are a useful guideline when huying a house. إرشادات توجيهات
  - guillotine /ˈgɪləti:n/ noun [C] a machine with a heavy sharp blade that is dropped from a great height. The guillotine was used (especially in France) for executing criminals by cutting their heads off.
  - يعّدم بالمقصلة guillotine verb [T]
  - guilt /gɪlt/ noun [U] 1 the feeling that you have when you know that you have done sth wrong:

    Now he was dead, she felt terrible guilt at the way she had behaved.
  - 2 the fact of having broken a law: His guilt was not proved and so he went free. 6 The opposite is innocence.
  - 3 blame or responsibility for doing sth wrong. It's difficult to say whether the guilt lies with the parents or the children.
  - sth) having broken a law: being responsible for doing sth wrong: She pleaded guilty/not guilty to the crime. o to be guilty of murder the opposite is innocent.
  - 2 showing or feeling guilt (1): I feel really guilty about not having written to you for so long.  $\circ$  a guilty conscience guiltily |-11|/adv
  - guinea pig /ˈgɪni pɪɡ/ noun [C] 1 a small furry animal with no tail that is often kept as a pet خنریر هندی
  - 2 a person who is used in an experiment إنسان تجرى عليه تجرية علمية
  - guitar /gr'ta:(r)/ noun [C] a type of musical instrument with strings that you play with the fingers or with a piece of plastic (a plectrum): an acoustic guitar (= wooden, with a hollow body) o an electric guitar (= using electricity, with a solid plastic body) 6 Note that we say 'play the guitar'.

> guitarist /gɪ'tɑ:rɪst/ noun [C] a person who plays the guitar

gulf /galf/ noun [C] 1 a part of the sea that is almost surrounded by land: the Gulf of Mexico

2 an important or serious difference between people or their opinions: a wide gulf between people of different generations

 $egin{all} \mbox{ gull } / \mbox{galso seagull) } noun \mbox{ [C] a white or grey seabird with a loud cry} \end{array}$ gullible /'gʌləbl/ adj (used about a person) easily tricked or deceived مهل الانخداع

gulp /gʌlp/ verb 1 [T] gulp sth (down) to eat or drink sth quickly

2 [I] to make a swallowing movement because you are afraid, surprised, etc. لبتلاع الريق

ازدراد. تجرع gulp noun [C] 1 the act of gulping ازدراد. تجرع

2 the amount that you can swallow when you gulp: He took a gulp of coffee and rushed out. مُلْفَدُ مِعَةُ gum¹ /gʌm/ noun [C, usually pl.] the hard pink part of the mouth that holds the teeth

gum²/gam/ noun [U] 1 a substance that you use to stick things together (especially pieces of paper)

2 = CHEWING GUM 2 Look at bubblegum.

► gum verb (gumming; gummed) [T] gum A to/onto B; gum A and B together to stick sth with gum(1): The labels were gummed onto the boxes.

Lgun /gʌn/ noun [C] a weapon that is used for shooting. A gun fires bullets from a metal tube (a barrel): The robber held a gun to the bank manager's head.

Verbs often used with 'gun' are load, unload, point, aim, fire. Different types of gun include a machine gun, pistol, revolver, rifle, shotgun.

▶ gun verb [T] (gunning; gunned)

EMEV gun sb down (informal) to shoot sb and kill or seriously injure him/her

يطلق عليه الرصاص؛ يُرديه قتيلاً gunboat /'gʌnbəot/ noun [C] a small warship that carries heavy guns

سفينة حربية صغيرة مزودة بمدافع

ليران المدافع أو الأسلحة النَّارية gunfire /'gAnfaio(r)/ noun [U] the act of firing a gun or several guns; the sound that it makes: We were awakened by the sound of gunfire.

gunge /gʌndʒ/ (also gunk) /gʌŋk/ noun [U] (informal) any unpleasant, sticky or dirty substance gunman /ganmən/ noun [C] (pl. gunmen /-mən/) a man who uses a gun to rob or kill people gunpoint / ganpoint / noun

DM at gunpoint threatening to shoot: He held the hostages at gunpoint (= he said that he would shoot them if they did not obey him).

تهديد بإطلاق النار

gunpowder /'gʌnpaʊdə(r)/ noun [U] an explosive powder that is used in guns and fireworks

بارود

gunshot /ˈɡʌnʃɒt/ noun [C] the firing of a gun or guns or the sound that it makes: gunshot mounds

gurgle /ˈgɜːgl/ noun [C] a sound like water draining out of a bath ▶ gurgle verb [I] to make a gurgle or gurgles;

The baby gurgled with pleasure.
يقرفون يغرغو

guru /'goru:; US gə'ru:/ noun [C] 1 a spiritual leader or teacher in the Hindu religion

مُرْشِد روحيّ عند الهندوس

2 somebody whose opinions you admire and respect, and whose ideas you follow

مر شد فكرى؛ مثال أعلى

gush /gAS/ verb [I] 1 gush (out) (from sth) (used about a liquid) to flow out suddenly and in great quantities: Blood gushed from the wound.

يَعْنَقَ 2 gush over sb/sth to express pleasure or admiration in an exaggerated way

يُعَبِّر عن السرور أو الإُعجاب بإفراط

> gush noun [C, usually sing.]: a sudden gush of water

aushing adi: a gushing stream o gushing praise gushing adj: a gushing stream o gushing praise (= given in an exaggerated way) مُتَدَفِّق: مفرط gust /gast/ noun [C] a sudden rush of wind: There will be gusts of wind of up to 80 miles per hour. هبّه ربح فجانية > gust verb [I] (used about the wind) to blow in gusts

gusto /ˈgʌstəʊ/ noun

iom with gusto with great enthusiasm: We all joined in the singing with gusto.

gut /gat/ noun 1 guts [plural] (informal) the organs inside your body (especially those in the lower part of the abdomen): a pain in the guts

مشاء

2 guts [plural] (informal) courage and determination: It takes guts to admit that you are wrong.

3 [C] the tube in the lower part of the body which food passes through 3 Look at intestine, which is a more technical word.

يُخْرِج الأحشاء (من حيوان)

▶ gut verb (gutting; gutted) [T] 1 to remove the guts (1) from an animal, fish, etc.

2 to destroy the inside of a building (in a fire): The warehouse was gutted by fire.

يدمُر داخل المبنى (بالنار مثلاً) gut adj (only before a noun) based on emotion or feeling rather than on reason: a gut feeling/reaction

مستند إلى العاطفة: غريزي

gutted adj (Brit informal) extremely sad or disappointed gutter /'gʌtə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a long metal or plas-

guy → haemophilia

tic pipe that is fixed under the edge of a roof to مزراب، ميزاب؛ مسيل ماء carry away rainwater

2 a channel between the road and the pavement that carries away rainwater

مَسْرَب على حافّة الطريق؛ بالوعة

Lguy /gai/ noun [C] 1 (informal) a man or a boy: He's a nice guy, 1 In American English you guys is used when speaking to both men and women: What do you guys want to eat? رجل أو فتى

2 (Brit) a figure of a man, made of straw and dressed in old clothes, that is burned on 5 November in memory of Guy Fawkes 2 Look at Bonfire Night.

رجل مصنوع من القش يحرق في الخامس من نوفمبر guzzle /'gxzl/verb [I,T] (informal) to eat or drink يلتهم (طعاما أو شراباً) greedily gym /dzim/ noun (informal) 1 (also formal gymnasium) [C] a large room that contains equipment, e.g. bars, ropes, etc. for doing physical قاعة الألعاب الرياضية (الحمباز) exercises

2 [U] = GYMNASTICS: gym shoes o a gym class

3 a private club where people go to do physical exercise in order to stay or become healthy and رياضة بدنية بغرض الرشاقة gymnasium /dʒɪm'neɪziəm/ noun [C] (pl. gymnasiums or gymnasia /-ziə/) = GYM(1) gymnastics /d31m'næstiks/ (also gym) noun [U] physical exercises that are done indoors, often using special equipment such as bars and تمرينات رياضية (جمباز) ropes

▶ gymnast /'dʒɪmnæst/ noun [C] a person who is an expert at gymnastics

gynaecology (US gynecology) /,gamə-'kplad3i/ noun [U] the study and treatment of diseases and medical problems that only women علم الأمراض النسائية

▶ gynaecologist (US gynecologist) noun [C] a doctor who has special training in gynaecol-طبيب الأمراض النسائية

gypsy (also gipsy) /'d3ipsi/ noun [C] (pl. gypsies) (also traveller) a member of a race of people who spend their lives travelling around from place to place, living in caravans 6 Many people now find this word offensive.

H, h /ertʃ/ noun [C] (pl. Hs; H's; h's) the eighth letter of the English alphabet: 'Hat' begins with الحرف الثامن من الأبحدية الإنكليزية (an) 'H'.

ha<sup>1</sup> /ha:/ interj 1 (used for showing that you are أوه! (تعبير عن الدهشة أو السرور) surprised or pleased) 2 (also ha! ha!) (used in written language to هاها! (تعبير عن الضحك) show that sb is laughing)

ha<sup>2</sup> abbrev = HECTARE

? habit /'hæbit/ noun 1 [C] something that sb does very often (sometimes almost without thinking about it): Biting your nails is a horrible habit. He's got an annoying habit of coming round just as we're going out.

A habit is usually something that is done by one person. A custom is something that is done by a group, community or nation: the custom of giving presents at Christmas.

2 [U] doing sth regularly: I think I only smoke out of habit now - I don't really enjoy it. DM be in/get into the habit of doing sth; make a habit of sth to do sth regularly: I've got into the habit of going for a jog every morning. o I don't make a habit of listening to gossip.

habitable /'hæhrtəhl/ adi (used about huildings) suitable to be lived in 6 The opposite is un-صالح للسكن inhabitable habitat /'hæbitæt/ noun [C] the natural home of موطِن ؛ بيئة طبيعيّة a plant or an animal habitation /,hæbr'teifn/ noun [U] (formal) living in a place: These houses are not fit for human habitation. سكنى habitual /hə'bɪtʃuəl/ adj 1 doing sth very often: a habitual liar معتاد (علي)

2 which you always have or do; usual: He had معتاد ؛ مَعَهود his habitual cigarette after lunch. habitually /-t∫uəli/ adv

hack1 /hæk/ verb [1,T] to cut sth using rough strokes with a tool such as a large knife or an axe: He hacked (away) at the branch of the tree until it fell. o The explorers hacked their way يقطع بآلة حادة (كالفأس مثلاً) through the jungle.

hack<sup>2</sup> /hæk/ verb [I,T] hack (into) (sth) (informal) to use a computer to look at (and change) information that is stored on another computer without permission

يخترق نظام كمبيوتر لسرقة المعلومات، مخترق (كمبيوتر) ▶ hacker noun [C] (informal) a person who uses a computer to look at (and change) information on another computer without permission من يتسلل ويختلس المعلومات على الكمبيوتر had pt, pp of HAVE 1,2

had2 /hæd/ adj (informal) tricked or deceived: I've been had. This watch I bought doesn't go.

haemophilia (US hemophilia) /,hi:mə'filiə/ noun [U] a disease that causes a person to bleed very heavily even from very small injuries because the blood does not thicken (clot) proper-مرضَّ النريفُ الدمويُّ ، الناعور ▶ haemophiliac (US hemophiliac) /hi:mə-

ىتعود

يهطل البرد haemorrhage → half-time

355

'frliæk/ noun [C] a person who suffers from مصاب بالناعور haemophilia haemorrhage (US hemorrhage) /'heməridʒ/ noun [C,U] very heavy bleeding haemorrhoids (especially US hemorrhoids) /'hemərəidz/ (also piles) noun [plural] painful swellings in the veins near the anus

haggard /'hægəd/ adj (used about a person) (وجه) منهَك وشاحب looking tired or worried haggle /'hægl/ verb [I] haggle (with sb) (over/ about sth) to argue about the price of sth يساوم hail / heil / noun [U] frozen rain that falls in small hard balls (hailstones) 2 Look at the note at weather.

▶ hail verb [I]: It is hailing.

hail<sup>2</sup> /herl/ verb [T] 1 to call or wave to sb/sth: She raised her umbrella to hail the taxi. بستوقف (تاكسي مثلا)

2 hail sb/sth as sth to say in public that sth is very good: The book was hailed as a master; piece. يحُيِّي ؛ يملح

? hair /hea(r)/ noun 1 [C] one of the long thin things that grow on the skin of people and animals: There's a hair in my soup. شعرة

2 [U] the mass of hairs on a person's head: He شُعر has got short black hair.

Some special words for the colour of hair are: auburn, blond, fair, ginger and red. In order to look after or style your hair you may brush. comb, wash (or shampoo) it and then blowdry it. You may part it (or have a parting) in the middle or on one side. When you go to the hairdresser's you have your hair cut, blowdried or permed.

let your hair down (informal) to relax and enjoy yourself (after being formal): After the wedding ceremony you can let your hair down at the recention. يتحرّر من الرسميات ، يطلق لنفسه العنان split hairs → SPLIT

نو شعر (طویل) stated type: a long-haired rabbit بلأشعر hairless adj without hair hairy adj (hairier; hairiest) 1 having a lot of أشعر ، كثير الشعر hair: a hairy chest 2 (slang) dangerous or worrying: We had a hairy journey down the motorway in freezing fog.

hairbrush /'heəbraʃ/ noun [C] a brush that you use on your hair haircut /'heəkat/ noun [C] 1 the cutting of your hair by a hairdresser, etc: You need to have a hair-قَصَة شعر ، حلاقة

2 the style in which your hair has been cut: قَصَة شعر That haircut really suits you.

hairdo /'heədu:/ (informal) (pl. hairdos) = HAIR-

Thairdresser / headresa(r)/ noun [C] a person whose job is to cut and style people's hair: I've made an appointment at the hairdresser's for 10 o'clock. 6 A barber is a hairdresser who only cuts men's hair. حلاق، مزين

hairdryer (also 'hairdrier) /'heədraɪə(r)/ noun [C] a machine that dries hair by blowing hot air آلة تحفيف الشعر hairpin /'heəpin/ noun [C] a U-shaped pin that is used for holding the hair in place hairpin 'bend (US hairpin 'curve; hairpin 'turn) noun [C] a very sharp bend in a road on a

'hair-raising adj that makes you very fright-مرّعب ، يقف له شعر الرأس ened hairstyle /'heəstail/ (also informal hairdo) noun [C] the style in which your hair has been cut or arranged قَصّة أو تصفيفة الشعر

haj (also hajj) /hæd3/ noun [sing.] the pilgrimage to Mecca

halal /'hælæl/ adj (only before a noun) (used about meat) from an animal that has been killed according to Muslim law: halal meat/food/meals a halal butcher (= one who sells halal meat)

Thaif /ha:f; US hæf/ noun [C] (pl. halves /ha:vz; US hævz/) one of two equal parts of sth: Two halves make a whole. o The second half of the book is more exciting. o No goals were scored in the first half (= of a match). 1 The verb is break, cut, etc. sth in half to break, etc. sth into two parts go half and half with sb; go halves with sb to share the cost of sth with sb

? half<sup>2</sup> /ha:f; US hæf/ det, pron forming one of two equal parts: Half of this money is yours. O He got half his aunt's money when she died. o half a pint/a half-pint o half an hour o Half the people in the office leave at 5.

IDM half past... thirty minutes past an hour on the clock: half past 6 (= 6.30)

▶ -haired (in compounds) having hair of the ? half³ /ha:f; US hæf/ adv to the extent of half; not completely: halffull o The hotel was only halffinished. o I half thought he might come, but he didn't. o He's half German.

> half 'board noun [U] (in a hotel, etc.) breakfast and an evening meal 2 Look at full board and (في فندق) مع فطور وعشاء bed and breakfast.

> 'half-brother, 'half-sister noun [C] a brother or sister with whom you share one parent غير شقيق (أخ أو أخت) > half-'hearted adj without interest or enthusi-فاتر، غير متح بدون حماس

▶ half-'heartedly adv

half-'price adv at half the usual price half-'term noun [C] a short holiday in the mid-العطلة الانتصافية (فَي المدرسة) dle of a school term half-'time noun [sing.] (in sport) the period of time between the two halves of a match فترة الاستراحة (في المباريات)

halfway → hand

,half'way adj, adv at an equal distance between two places; in the middle of a period of time: We live halfway between Oxford and Reading. O They have a break halfway through the morning. صف (بین نقطتین) thall /ho:1/ noun [C] 1 (also hallway) a room or passage that is just inside the front entrance of a house or public building: Leave your coat in the hall. o There is a public telephone in the entrance hall of this building.

2 a building or large room in which meetings, concerts, dances, etc. can be held: The end-ofyear party will be held in the school hall. o a concert hall 3 Look at town hall.

hallo = HELLO

hall of 'residence noun [C] (in colleges, universities, etc.) a building where students live

Halloween (also Hallowe'en) /hæləv'i:n/ noun [sing.] the night before All Saints' Day, 31 احتفال "هالوين" ؛ الليلة قبل عيد كل القديسين October

By tradition Halloween is the time when witches and ghosts are said to appear. Children now dress up as witches, etc. and play tricks on hallucination /hə,lu:sr'ner[n/ noun [C,U] seeing sth that is not really there (because you are ill or have taken a drug) hallway /'hɔ:lweɪ/ noun [C,U] → HALL(1)

halo /'heiləv/ noun [C] (pl. haloes or halos) the circle of light that is drawn around the head of a holy person in a painting halogen /'hælədʒən/ noun [C] any of a set of five chemical substances that are not metals and that combine with hydrogen to form strong acid compounds from which simple salts can be made الهالوجين halt /ho:lt/ noun [sing.] a stop (that does not last very long): Work came to a halt when the machine broke down. o to bring sth to a halt IDM grind to a halt/standstill → GRIND

sth stop يتوقف أو يوقف لفترة قصيرة

halve /ha:v; US hæv/ verb [T] 1 to make sth half as big as it was before: We aim to halve the number of people on our waiting list in the next six يخفُض إلى النصف

2 to divide sth into two equal parts: First halve ينصف، يَشطر the peach and then remove the stone.

ham /hæm/ noun [U] meat from a pig that has been smoked, etc. to keep it fresh جمبون ، لحم فخذ الخنزير hamburger /hæmba:ga(r)/ noun 1 (also burger) [C] minced meat that has been formed into a flat round shape. Hamburgers are often eaten همبرغر ، كفتة، أقراص لحمة مفرومة in a bread roll.

2 [U] (US) = MINCE

hamlet /'hæmlət/ noun [C] a very small vil-

? hammer 1 / hæmə(r) / noun 1 [C] a tool with a heavy metal head that is used for hitting nails, مط, قة

2 the hammer [sing.] a sports event in which a metal ball attached to a wire is thrown hammer<sup>2</sup> /'hæmə(r)/ verb 1 [I,T] to hit sth with a hammer: She hammered the nail into the يطرق ، يضرب بمطرقة

2 [I] to hit sth, making a loud noise: He hammered on the door until somebody opened it.

hammer sth into sb to force sb to remember sth by repeating it many times

يكرّر الكلام حتى يدخله في ذاكرة شخص hammer sth out 1 to hammer sth back into the shape that it should be

يطرق شيئا إلى شكله الأصلي ، يسوي بالمطرقة 2 (figurative) to succeed in making a plan or agreement after a lot of difficulty: Eventually a

يتوصل إلى اتفاق solution was hammered out. ▶ hammering /'hæmərɪŋ/ noun 1 [U] the noise that is made by sb using a hammer or by sb صوت الطرق knocking sth many times

هزيمة نكراء 2 [C] (informal) a very bad defeat hammock /'hæmək/ noun [C] a bed, made of canvas or strong net, which is hung up at both ends. Hammocks are used on board ships or in أرجوحة من الشبك للنوم the garden.

hamper<sup>1</sup> /'hæmpə(r)/ noun [C] a large basket with a lid that is used for carrying food سبت ، سلَّة ذات غطاء لنقل الأطعمة hamper<sup>2</sup> /'hæmpə(r)/ verb [T] to make sth difficult: The building work was hampered by bad weather.

hamster /'hæmstə(r)/ noun [C] a small animal that is kept as a pet. Hamsters are like small rats but are fatter and do not have a tail. They store food in the sides of their mouths. مربب: حيوان من فصيلة القوارض

▶ halt verb [I,T] to stop for a short time; to make % hand¹ /hænd/ noun 1 [C] the part of a person's arm below the wrist: He took the child by the hand. O She lifted the hot pan out of the oven with her bare hands. o He held the bird gently in the palm of his hand.

> 2 a hand [sing.] some help: I'll give you a hand with the washing-up. يد المساعدة

3 [C] the pointer on a clock or watch: the hour/ minute/second hand عقرب (الساعة)

4 [C] a person who works with his/her hands: farmhands

5 [C] the set of playing cards that sb has been given in a game of cards

محموعة أوراق اللعب الموزعة على كل لاعب [DM] (at) first, second, etc. hand (used about information that you have received) from sb who was directly/not directly involved: Did you get this information first hand? 2 Look at (من) مصدر (أولى أو ثانوي أو غير ذلك) second-hand.

(close/near) at hand (formal) near in space or time: Help is close at hand. متناول البد: وشيك be an old hand (at sth) → OLD

by hand 1 done by a person and not by machine: I had to do all the sewing by hand.

(مصنوع) باليد

2 not by post: The letter was delivered by hand.  $(y_m)^{\frac{1}{2}}$ change hands → CHANGE1 get, have, etc. a free hand → FREE1 get, etc. the upper hand → UPPER give sb/get a big hand → BIG hand in hand 1 holding each other's hands

The Lucianis each other phanes

2 (figurative) usually happening together; closely connected متلازمان ؛ سویاً hands off (sb/sth) (informal) (used for ordering sb not to touch sth or to leave sth alone) الرجاء عدم اللمس: ارفع يدك عنه

hands up 1 (used in a classroom, etc. for asking people to raise one hand and give an answer): Hands up, who'd like to go on the trip this afternoon? (التلاميذ) ارفعوا أبديكم (قبل الإجابة)

2 (used by a person with a gun to tell other people to put their hands in the air)

have a hand in sth to take part in or share sth: Even members of staff had a hand in painting and decorating the new office. يشارك له يد في have your hands full to be very busy so that you cannot do anything else

مُغْرَق بالشغل، مشغول حداً

a helping hand → HELP¹ hold sb's hand to give help or comfort to sb in a difficult situation hold hands (with sb) (used about two people) to hold each other's hands (because you like each other) in hand 1 (used about money, etc.) not yet used: We still have about £50 in hand. في البد، في الجبُّب

2 being dealt with at the moment; under control: Let's finish the job in hand first before we start something new. ○ The situation is in hand.

D Look at out of hand.

in the hands of sb; in sb's hands in your/sb's possession, control or care: The document is no longer in my hands. o The matter is in the hands of a solicitor. o She is in capable hands.
(الأم) في بد...

off your hands not your responsibility any more: Once the children are off our hands we want to go on a world cruise. مخارج نطاق المسؤولية... on hand available to help or to be used: There is a teacher on hand to help during your private study periods. موجود، تحت التصرف on your hands being your responsibility: We seem to have a problem on our hands.

on the one hand... on the other (hand) (used for showing opposite points of view): On the one hand, of course, cars are very useful. But on the other, they cause a huge amount of pollution.

من ناحية أخرى out of hand not under control: Violence at football matches is getting out of hand. € Look at in hand.

out of your/sb's hands not in your/sb's control: Ican't help you, I'm afraid. The matter is out of my hands.

shake sb's hand/shake hands (with sb)/ shake sb by the hand  $\rightarrow$  SHAKE<sup>1</sup> to hand near; within reach: I'm afraid I haven't got my diary to hand.

في متناول البد، قريب wash your hands of sb/sth → WASH¹

▶ -handed (in compounds) having, using or made for the stated type of hand(s): heavyhanded ∘ right-handed ∘ left-handed scissors

(في التعابير المركبة) ذو يد...؛ يستعمل باليد (اليسريّ) handful /ˈhændful/ noun 1 [C] a handful (of sth) as much or as many of sth as you can hold in one hand: a handful of sand

خفنة

2 [sing.] a small number (of sb/sth): Only a handful of people came to the meeting.

عدد قليل ؛ حفنة ُ

3 a handful [sing.] (informal) a person or an animal that is difficult to control: The little girl is quite a handful.

hand² /hænd/ verb [T] to give or pass sth to sb:

Please hand me the scissors. o Please hand the scissors to me. o Could you hand round the biscuits, please?

PHRV hand sth down (to sb) 1 to pass customs, traditions, etc. from older people to younger ones: These stories have been handed down from generation to generation.

2 to pass clothes, toys, etc. from older children to younger ones in the family

يمرر (ملابس الطفل الأكبر وغيرها) إلى الطفل الأصغر hand sth in (to sb) to give sth to sb in authority: I found a wallet and handed it in to the police. O She handed in her resignation.

hand sth on (to sb) to send or give sth to another person: When you have read the article, please hand it on to another student. يرسل يمطي hand sth out (to sb) to give sth to many people in a group: Food was handed out to the starving people.

hand sb over to sb (used at a meeting or on the television, radio, etc.) to let another person speak: I'm handing you over now to our foreign correspondent.

hand sb/sth over (to sb) to give sb/sth (to sb):

People were tricked into handing over large sums of money. • The terrorist was handed over to the British police.

handbag /ˈhændbæg/ (US purse) noun [C] a small bag in which you carry money, keys, etc. keys, handbook /ˈhændbʊk/ noun [C] a small book that gives useful information and advice about sth دليل، مرشد، كتيب

handbrake /ˈhændbreɪk/ noun [C] a brake in a car, etc. that is operated by hand and that is used when the car is not moving مكبع يدوي ، فرامل اليد handcuffs /'hændkafs/ noun [plural] a pair of metal rings that are joined together by a chain and put around the wrists of prisoners

قيود ، أصفاد

handicap → hang

handicap /'hændikæp/ noun [C] 1 something that makes doing sth more difficult; a disadvantage: Not speaking French is going to be a bit of a handicap in my new job.

2 something physical or mental that means you cannot lead a completely normal life; The local services for people with a mental handicap have improved greatly.

3 a disadvantage that is given to a strong competitor in a sports event, etc. so that the other competitors have more chance handicapped adi (old-fashioned) = DISABLED • Many people now find this word offensive.

تنازل اللاعب الأقوى عن بعض النقاط ▶ handicap verb (handicapping; handicapped) [T] (usually passive) to give or be a disadvantage to sb: They were handicapped by their lack of education.

معاق handicraft /'hændikra:ft; US -kræft/ noun 1 [C] an activity that needs skill with the hands as well as artistic ability, e.g. sewing

2 handicrafts [plural] the objects that are pro-صناعات يدوية duced by this activity

 $\textbf{handkerchief} \ / \texttt{hænkət} \texttt{Jif}; \ \texttt{-tfi:f} / \ \textit{noun} \ \textit{(pl.}$ handkerchiefs or handkerchieves /-tsi:vz/) a square piece of cloth or soft thin paper that you use for blowing your nose 6 The informal word is hanky. 6 A handkerchief that is made of soft thin paper is also called a paper handkerchief or a tissue.

handle /hændl/ noun [C] a part of sth that is used for holding or opening it: She turned the handle and opened the door. o the door handle o the handle of a frying pan مقبض، مسكة، يد

IDM fly off the handle → FLY1 ▶ handle verb [T] 1 to touch sth with, or hold sth in, your hand(s): Wash your hands before you handle food.  $\circ$  Handle with care!

2 to deal with or to control sb/sth: This port  $\frac{hang^1}{hang^1}$  hang/verb (pt, pp hung /han/)  $\frac{hang^1}{hang^1}$ handles 100 million tons of cargo each year. o I have a problem at work and I don't really know how to handle it. يتعامل مع ، يتصرّف؛ يعالج handlebar /'hændlba:(r)/ noun [C, usually pl.] the curved metal bar at the front of a bicycle that مقود الدرّاحة you hold when you are riding it

'hand luggage (especially US 'hand baggage) noun [U] a small bag, etc. that you carry with you حقيبة اليد (فيّ السفر بالطَّائرة) onto an aeroplane

,hand'made adj made by hand, not by mahandout /'hændaut/ noun [C] 1 food, money, etc. given to people who need it badly

2 a printed sheet or leaflet that is given to a lot of people, to advertise sth or to explain sth in a lesson or lecture

أوراق (محاضرة مثلا) توزّع على الطلاب: أوراق دعاية

,hand-'picked adj carefully chosen

منتقى باليد ، منتقى بعناية

handrail /'hændreil/ noun [C] a wooden or metal bar that you hold on to when going up or down stairs, or that stops you from falling from high درابزين للسلم وغيره

handset / hændset / noun [C] = RECEIVER (1)

'hands-free adj able to be used without needing to be held in the hand: hands-free mobile دون المسك باليد phones handshake /'hændseik/ noun [C] the act of shaking sb's right hand with your own as a greet-handsome /'hænsəm/ adj 1 (used about a man) good-looking; attractive 2 Look at the note وسيم ؛ جذّاب at beautiful.

2 large or generous: The company made a hand-كبير ؛ سخيّ ، (مبلغ) محترم some profit.

▶ handsomely adv: Her efforts were handsomely rewarded.

,hands-'on adj learnt by you doing sth yourself, not watching sb else do it; practical: She has hands-on computer experience.

عملي ؛ مكتسب بالخبرة اليدوية handwriting / hændraitin / noun [U] a person's style of writing by hand handwritten / hænd ritn/ adj written by hand, not typed or printed مكتوب باليد

handy /'hændi/ adj (handier; handiest) 1 useful; easy to use: a handy tip o a handy gadget مفيد ؛ سهل الاستعمال

2 nearby or within easy reach of sth: Always keep a first-aid kit handy. o The house is very في متناول اليد handy for the shops. DM come in handy to be useful at some time: Don't throw that box away. It may come in (سيكون) مفيداً في يوم من الأيام handy.

handyman /'hændimæn/ noun (pl. handymen /-men/) a person who is clever at making or رجل ماهر في صنع الأشياء أو في تصليحها mending things tense and past participle hanged is only used in sense 2.

1 [LT] to fasten sth or be fastened at the top so that the lower part is free or loose: Hang your coat on the hook. o I hung the washing on the line.  $\circ$  I left the washing hanging on the line all day. o (figurative) People were hanging out of windows to see the Queen go past.

يعلُق ؛ ينشر (الغسيل) ؛ يتدلَى

2 [T] to kill sb by putting a rope around their neck and allowing them to drop: She hanged herself in a fit of depression. O He was hanged for murder

3 [I] hang (above/over sb/sth) to stay in the air (above/over sb/sth): Smog hung in the air over the city. o (figurative) That essay I've got to يعلق بِالهواء، يخيِّم (على) write is hanging over me. PHRV hang about/around (informal) to stay in or near a place not doing very much: I really hate hanging around in airports يبقى في مكان (منتظراً) ؛ يتس hang on 1 to hold sth tightly: Keep hanging on. بُثّ، يتمسك ب We're very close to you now.

2 to wait for a short time: Hang on a minute. I'm nearly ready. o The line is engaged. Would you ستظر (قلبلا) like to hang on or call back later?

hang on to sth 1 to hold sth tightly

2 (informal) to keep sth: Let's hang on to the car, for another year.

hang sth out to put washing, etc. on a clothes ينشر (الغسيل) line so that it can dry hang up (on sb) (informal) to end a telephone conversation by putting down the receiver ◆ Look at the note at phone.

ينهى مخابرة تليفونية بإرجاع السماعة

▶ hanging noun [C,U] death by banging

hang<sup>2</sup> /hæŋ/ noun

IDM get the hang of sth (informal) to learn how to use or do sth: It took me a long time to get the hang of my new computer.

hangar /'hæŋə(r)/ noun [C] a big building where حظيرة الطآثرات aeroplanes are kept hanger /'hænə(r)/ (also 'coat hanger; 'clothes hanger) noun [C] a metal, plastic or wooden object with a hook that is used for hanging up clothes in a cupboard who tries to be friendly with sb who is rich or important

'hang-glider noun [C] a type of large kite from which a person can hang and fly through the طائرة شراعية يدوية

▶ 'hang-gliding noun [U] the sport of flying الطيران الشراعي اليدوي using a hang-glider hangman /hænmən/ noun (pl. hangmen /-mən/) a person who hangs criminals حلاّد ، عَشْماوي (م) hangover /'hæŋəuvə(r)/ noun [C] a headache and a feeling of sickness that you wake up with if you have drunk too much alcohol the night be-خمار السكر

'hang-up noun [C] (slang) something that worries you a lot: He has a real hang-up about his height.

hanker /'hæŋkə(r)/ verb [I] hanker after/for sth to want sth very much (often sth that you cannot easily have) يشتهي ؛ يتوق إلى

hanky (also hankie) /'hænki/ noun [C] (pl. han-مُحْرِمة ، منديل kies) (informal) a handkerchief haphazard /hæp'hæzəd/ adj without any order or organized plan: Her system of filing seems to be عشوائي ، اعتباطم completely haphazard. عشوائياً ، اعتماطماً ▶ haphazardly adv

Thappen /'hæpən/ verb [I] 1 (of an event or situation) to take place: Can you describe to the police what happened after you left the party? o How did the accident happen?

Happen and occur are usually used with events that are not planned. Occur is more formal than happen. Take place suggests that an event is planned: The wedding took place on Saturday June 13th.

2 happen to sb/sth to be what sb/sth experiences: What do you think has happened to Julie? She should have been here an hour ago. o What will happen to the business when your father retires? يحدث، يجري

3 happen to do sth to do sth by chance: I happened to meet him in London vesterday. She happened to be in London yesterday, too.

as it happens/happened (used when you are adding to what you have said) by chance; actually: As it happens, I did remember to bring في الواقع ، في الحقيقة the book you wanted.

it (just) so happens → so1

▶ happening /'hæpənɪŋ/ noun [C, usually pl.] a thing that happens; an event (that is usually strange or difficult to explain): Strange happenings have been reported in that old hotel.

A happening is usually something that happens by chance. An event is usually something that is planned and suggests something special or important.

hanger-'on noun (pl. hangers-on) a person happy /'hæpi/adj (happier; happiest) 1 feeling, showing or giving pleasure or satisfaction: a happy childhood o a happy family o a happy smile o The film is sad but it has a happy ending. o She doesn't feel happy about the salary she's been offered. O Are you happy in your work? o I'm not very happy with what you've done. o Congratulations! I'm very happy for you. 6 The opposite is unhappy. Look at the note at glad.

سعيد ؛ مسرور ؛ سار

2 (not before a noun) happy to do sth willing; pleased: I'll be happy to see you any day next مسرور ؛ مستعدّ

3 Happy (used in greetings to wish sb an enjoyable time): Happy Birthday!

4 (only before a noun) lucky; fortunate: He's in the happy position of being able to retire at 50! The opposite is unhappy. محظوظ IDM many happy returns (of the day) (used as a greeting to sb on his/her birthday)

▶ happily adv 1 in a happy way: They all lived happily ever after  $\circ$  I would happily give up my job if I didn't need the money. بسعادة ؛ بكل سرور

2 it is lucky that; fortunately: The police found my handbag and, happily, nothing had been لحسن الحظ happiness noun [U]: Money can't buy happi-happy-go-'lucky adj not worried about life لا يبالي بمشاكل الدنيا ، خلَّى البال and the future harass /'hærəs; hə'ræs/ verb [T] to annoy or put pressure on sb, especially continuously or on many different occasions: The court ordered him  $to \ stop \ harassing \ his \ ex-wife.$

يضايق ؛ يعرّض شخصا للضغط بشكل متكرر

▶ harassed adj tired and worried because you

harbour → hardly have too much to do: Five children came in, followed by a harassed-looking mother. م هُوَ harassment noun [U]: She accused her boss of sexual harassment.

harbour (US harbor) / ha:bə(r)/ noun [C] a place on the coast where ships can be tied up (moored) to shelter from the sea: a busy little fishing harbour o The weather was too rough for the fishing boats to leave harbour yesterday. میناء: مرسی

▶ harbour (US harbor) verb [T] 1 to keep sth secret in your mind for a long time: She began to harbour doubts about the decision.

يضمر، ينطوي على 2 to hide or give shelter to sb/sth bad: They were يؤوي (مجرماً) accused of harbouring terrorists.

hard /ha:d/ adj 1 not soft to touch; not easy to break or bend; very firm: The bed was so hard that I couldn't sleep. o Diamonds are the hardest known mineral.

2 hard (for sb) (to do sth) difficult to do or understand; not easy: The first question in the exam was very hard. o This book is hard to understand./It is a hard book to understand. o It's hard to know why he made that decision. o It's hard for young people to find good jobs nowadays.

3 needing or using a lot of effort: It's a hard climb to the top of the hill. o Hard work is said to be good for you. O We had some long, hard talks before we came to an agreement. o He's a hard مجهد، شاقٌ worker.

4 hard (on sb) (used about a person) not feeling or not showing kindness or pity; not gentle: You have to be hard to succeed in business. o She used some very hard words to tell him what she thought of him. o He's much too hard on his children.

5 (used about conditions) unpleasant or unhappy: He had a hard time when his parents صعب، قاس

6 (used about the weather) very cold: The forecast is for a hard winter. The opposite is 7 (used about water) containing particular minerals so that soap does not make many bubbles The opposite is soft.

be hard on sb/sth 1 to hurt sb/sth or to make things difficult: Managing with very little money can be hard on students.

2 to be unfair to sb: It's a bit hard on the people who haven't got a car.

hard facts information that is true, not just (حقائق) واقعية people's opinions hard luck → LUCK

a hard/rough time → TIME1

ملابة، صعوبة hardness noun [U] being hard hard<sup>2</sup> /ha:d/ adv 1 with great effort, energy or attention: He worked hard all his life. o You'll have to try a bit harder than that. O She looked hard at the man but she didn't recognize him.

2 with great force; heavily: It was snowing hard. o He hit her hard across the face.

DM be hard up to have very little money: We're too hard up to afford a holiday this year. قليل المال ، فقير die hard  $\rightarrow$  DIE hard done by not fairly treated: He felt very hard done by when he wasn't chosen for the مظلوم ؛ (عومل) بظلم hardback / ha:dbæk/ noun [C] a book that has a hard stiff cover 1 Note the phrase in hardback: I'm afraid this book is only available in hardback. کتاب دو غلاف مقوی، مجلد Look at paperback.

hard-'boiled adj (used about an egg) boiled (بيضة) مسلوقة قاسية until it is hard inside hard 'copy noun [U,C] information from a computer that has been printed on paper نسخة مطبوعة

'hard core noun [sing., with sing. or pl. verb] the members of a group who are the most active المجموعة المحركة (في منظمة)

, hard 'currency noun [U] money belonging to a particular country that is easy to exchange

.hard 'disk noun [C] a piece of hard plastic that is fixed inside a computer and is used for storing data and programs permanently

قرص صلب (في الكمبيوتر)

hard 'drug noun [C] a drug that is strong and dangerous because people may become dependent on (addicted to) it مخدر أو مادة تسبب الإدمان

harden /ha:dn/ verb 1 [I,T] to become or to make sth hard or less likely to change: Allow the icing to harden before decorating the cake. o The firm has hardened its attitude on this question. يتصلّب ؛ يصلّب

2 [T] (usually passive) harden sb (to sth) to make sb less sensitive: a hardened reporter o a hardened criminal

Harden is only used when hard means 'firm' or 'unkind': The concrete will harden in 24 hours. He hardened himself to the feelings of other people. Get harder is used when hard has another meaning such as 'difficult': Learning a foreign language gets harder as you get older.

hard-'headed adj not influenced by feelings: a hard-headed businessman

لا يتاثر بالعاطفة ، (تاحر) عملم hard-'hearted adj not being kind to or think ing about other people hard-'hitting adj that talks about or criticizes sb/sth in an honest and very direct way: a hardhitting campaign/speech/report

.hard 'line noun [sing.] a way of thinking or a plan which will not be changed or influenced by anything: The government has taken a very hard line on people who drink and drive.

موقف متزمّت أو متشدّد

بجدٌ ونشاط : (يحملق) طويلاً hardly /'hardli/ adv 1 only just; almost not; with difficulty: Speak up - I can hardly hear you. o She'd hardly gone to sleep than it was time to get up again. o I can hardly wait for the holidays to begin. o It hardly matters whether you are there or not. o Winning this money could hardly have come at a better time. بالكاد؛ قلَّما ؛ بصعوبة

Note that if 'hardly' is at the beginning of a sentence, the verb follows immediately: Hardly had she gone to sleep than it was time to get up

2 (used especially before 'any', 'ever', 'anybody'. etc.) almost none, never, nobody, etc: There's hardly any (= almost no) coffee left. o We hardly ever (= almost never) go to the theatre nowadays. o Hardly anybody I knew was at the party.

بالكاد ؛ تقريباً

3 (used when you are saying that sth is not probable or that it is unreasonable): He can hardly expect me to do all his washing for him! She hasn't written for two years – she's hardly likely to write now (= it's very improbable that she will write now). من غير المعقول ؛ من غير المحتمل hardship /'ha:dfip/ noun [C,U] difficulty or problems, e.g. because you do not have enough money; the situation in which these difficulties exist: This new tax is going to cause a lot of hardship. O Not having a car is going to be a real hard مشقّة؛ شدّة، ضيق ship for us.

.hard 'shoulder noun [C] a narrow strip of road at the side of a motorway where cars are allowed to stop in an emergency

كتف الأوتوستراد (للسيارات المتعطلة)

hardware /'hardweə(r)/ noun [U] 1 tools and equipment that are used in the house and garden: a hardware shop

أدوات معدنية وخاصة أدوات المنزل والحديقة

2 the machinery of a computer, not the programs written for it 2 Look at software.

اجزاء الكمبيوتر المعدنية 3 heavy machinery or weapons أسلحة ومعدات

.hard-'wearing adj (used about materials, clothes, etc.) strong and able to last for a long time (قماش) متين

,hard-'working adj working with effort and energy: a hard-working man يعمل بجدً ونشاط : دؤوب، "شغَيل" hardy /'ha:di/ adj (hardier; hardiest) (used about people, animals and plants) able to stand cold weather or difficult conditions

متين ، قوي البنية ، شديد التحمّل hare /heə(r)/ noun [C] an animal like a rabbit but bigger, faster and with longer ears and legs

أرنب بري

harem /'ha:ri:m; US 'hærəm/ noun [C] a number of women living with one man, especially in Muslim societies. The part of the building the women الحريم ؛ جناح الحريم live in is also called a harem.

harissa /'ærɪsə; US hə'ri:sə/ noun [U] a spicy North African sauce made with peppers and

? harm /ha:m/ noun [U] hurt or damage: Peter ate some of those berries but they didn't do him any harm. o The tax policy did the Labour party a lot of harm.

come to harm to be hurt or damaged (usually with a negative): Both the cars were badly damaged but none of the passengers came بصاب بأذي أو سوء out of harm's way in a safe place: Put the medicine out of harm's way where the children في مكان أمين can't reach it.

there is no harm in doing sth; it does no harm (for sb) to do sth there's nothing wrong in doing sth (and something good may result): I don't think I'll win the competition but there's no harm in trying, is there?

▶ harm verb [T] to cause injury or damage; hurt: Too much sunshine can harm your skin.

harmful /'ho:mfl/ adj causing harm: The new مضر ، مؤذ drug has no harmful side effects. harmless adj 1 not able to cause harm; safe: You needn't be frightened - these insects are غيرمؤد

2 not unpleasant or likely to upset people: The children can watch that film - it's quite harm-غير مسيء ؛ بريء completely harmless.

بدون ضرر: دون تسجيل هدف harmlessly adv

harmonica /ha:'mpnikə/ noun [C] = моитн harmonious /ha:'məuniəs/ adi 1 without disagreement; peaceful: Discussions between the two countries have been extremely harmonious.

منسجم ، متوافق ؛ هادئ

2 (used about musical notes) producing a pleasant sound when played together

متوافق ، متآلف الألحان ▶ harmoniously adv

harmonize (also harmonise) /'ha:mənaɪz/ verb [I,T] to fit in well with other things or to make sth fit in: That new house doesn't really harmonize with the older houses in the street.

▶ harmonization (also harmonisation) /,ha:mənat'zetfn; US -nt'z-/ noun [U] harmony /'ha:məni/ noun (pl. harmonies) 1 [U] a state of agreement (of feelings, interests, opinions, etc.): There is said to be a lack of harmony within the government.

2 [C,U] the pleasant combination of different musical notes played or sung together: They sang in harmony. o There are some beautiful harmonies in that music.

توافق (موسيقي) ، تناغم ، هارموني harness /'ha:nis/ noun [C] 1 a set of leather straps with which a horse is fastened to a cart, etc. and controlled

الأحزمة الجلدية التي تربط الحصان بالعربة

2 a set of straps that fasten sth to a person's body or that stop a small child moving around too much: a safety harness

أحزمة أمان لتوثيق الطفل مثلأ ▶ harness verb [T] 1 to put a harness on a horse or to attach a horse to a cart

يلجم الحصان؛ يربط الحصان بالعربة

2 to control sth so that you can use it to produce يخضع؛ يسخّر لتوليد الكهرياء electricity harp /ha:p/ noun [C] a large musical instrument which has many strings stretching from the top to the bottom of a frame. You play the harp with your fingers.

▶ harp verb

PHRV harp on (about) sth to keep on talking or to talk too much about sth: He's always harping on about his problems.

يفرط في الكلام؛ يضرب على وتر واحد harpist noun [C] a person who plays the harp عا: ف قىثا، ة harpoon /haː'pu:n/ noun [C] a long thin weapon with a sharp pointed end and a rope attached to it that is thrown or fired when hunting large sea حرية لصيد الحيتان وغيرها animals harrowing /hærəvin/ adj making people feel very sad or upset: The programme showed harrowing scenes of life in the refugee camps.

harsh /ha: f/ adj 1 not thinking of people's feelings; severe or cruel: a harsh punishment o The England team came in for some harsh criticism. o The judge had some harsh words for the journalist's behaviour.

2 not pleasant to be in: She grew up in the harsh environment of New York City.

3 (used about light or sound or the way sth feels) unpleasantly bright, loud or rough; a harsh شُديد ، مزعج؛ مُبْهِر بقسوة ؛ بلا تسامح light

▶ harshly adv harshness noun

harvest /'harvist/ noun 1 [C,U] the cutting and picking of crops when they are ripe; the time when this is done: Farmers always need extra help with the harvest. o In our country harvest time is usually June.

2 [C] the crops that have been gathered in; the amount or quality of them: This year's wheat محصول harvest was very poor.

▶ harvest verb [I,T] to cut, pick or gather a crop Look at combine harvester.

has → HAVE1,2 has-been /'hæz bi:n/ noun [C] (informal) a person or thing that is no longer as famous, successful or important as before (شخص) ولي عهده hash /hæf/ noun [U] a meal of meat cut into small pieces and fried with vegetables وجبة مقليّة من اللحم المفروم والخضار make a hash of sth (informal) to do sth badly: I made a complete hash of the exam.

hashish /'hæsi:s/ (also hash) noun [U] a drug that is made from a part of the hemp plant and usually smoked or chewed for pleasure hasn't short for has not hassle /'hæsl/ noun [C,U] (informal) 1 a thing or situation that is difficult or that causes problems: It's going to be a hassle having to change trains with all this luggage.

2 an argument; trouble: I've decided what to do please don't give me any hassle about it.

▶ hassle verb [T] to bother or annoy sb by telling him/her to do sth: I wish he'd stop hassling me about decorating the house.

haste /heist/ noun [U] doing things too quickly: In my haste to get to the airport on time I left my passport at home.

IDM in haste quickly; in a hurry: I am writing in haste to let you know that I will be arriving on Monday. على عَجَل hasten /'heisn/ verb (formal) 1 [T] to make sth happen or be done earlier or more quickly

2 [I] hasten to do sth to be quick to do or say sth: She hastened to apologize.

hasty /'heisti/ adj (hastier; hastiest) 1 hasty (in doing sth/to do sth) (used about a person) acting or deciding sth too quickly or without enough thought: Don't be too hasty. This is an important decision. متسرع:متهور

2 said or done too quickly: He said a hasty 'goodbye' and left. عجول

▶ hastily /-ıli/ adv hastiness noun [U]

That /hæt/ noun [C] a covering that you wear on your head, usually when you are outside: to wear a hat

IDM old hat → OLD

hatch1 /hæts/ noun [C] 1 an opening in the deck of a ship for loading and unloading cargo

باب أرضي (على ظهر السفينة)

2 an opening in a wall between two rooms, especially a kitchen and dining room, which is used for passing food through نافذة صغيرة بين المطبخ وغرفة الطعام

3 the door in a plane or spaceship

hatch2 /hætf/verb 1 [I] hatch (out) (used about a baby bird, insect, fish, etc.) to come out of an يخرج من البيضة

2 [T] to make a baby bird, etc. come out of an يفقس

3 [I] (used about an egg) to break open and allow the baby bird, etc. inside to get out

4 [T] hatch sth (out) to think of a plan (usually to do sth bad): He hatched out a plan to avoid يدبر (مؤامرة) : يحيك (دسيسة) paying any income tax.

hatchback /'hætsbæk/ noun [C] a car with a large door at the back that opens upwards سيارة ذات باب خلفي يفتح نحو الأعلى

hatchet /'hætʃɪt/ noun [C] a small axe

فأس صغيرة ، بَلُطة

Thate /heit/ verb [T] 1 to have a very strong feeling of dislike (for sb/sth): She hated her stepmother as soon as she saw her. o I hate grapefruit. O I hate to see the countryside spoilt.

363

o He hates driving at night. o I hate his/him having to work so hard. ◆ Look at detest and loathe. They express an even stronger feeling.

يكره. يبغض 2 (used as a polite way of apologizing for sth you are going to say) to be sorry: I hate to bother you, but did you pick up my keys by mistake?

► hate noun 1 [U] a very strong feeling of dislike 6 Another word for hate is hatred.

2 [C] a thing that you dislike very much 6 Often used with pet to mean something that you especially dislike: Plastic flowers are one of my pet hates.

hateful /'heitfl/ adj extremely unpleasant; horrible: It was a hateful thing to say.

Phatred /ˈheɪtrɪd/ noun [U] hatred (for/of sb/ sth) a very strong feeling of dislike ♠ Another word for hatred is hate.

'hat-trick noun [C] (especially in sport) three successes, wins, goals, etc. scored by the same person or team one after the other: to score a hat-trick (الاعب واحد يسجّل) ثلاثة أهداف haughty /ˈhɔːti/ adj (haughtier; haughtiest) proud, and thinking that you are better than other people: She gave me a haughty look and walked away.

► haughtily /-Ili/ adv haughtiness noun [U] متكبر، متعجرف بتكبر، بتعجرف تكبر، تعجرف haul /ho:l/ verb [T] to pull or drag sth with great effort: Try to haul yourself up using the rope. ○ A lorry hauled the car out of the mud.

س بعناء ، يسحب بجهد

▶ haul noun 1 [sing.] the act of hauling

2 [sing.] a distance to be travelled: It seemed a long haul from the beach back to the hotel.

3 [C, usually sing.] an amount gained, especially of fish in a net or stolen goods in a robbery كمية السمك في شبكة الصيد : كمية السمك في شبكة الصيد : كمية السمار وقات haulage /ˈhɔːlɪdʒ/ noun [U] the transport of goods by road, rail, etc.; the money charged for this haunt /hɔ:nt/ verb [T] 1 (often passive) (used about a ghost of a dead person) to appear in a place regularly: The ghost of a woman haunts the castle. • The house is said to be haunted.

(شبح) يلازم أو ينتاب مكاناً ما

2 (used about sth unpleasant or sad) to be always in your mind: His unhappy face has haunted me for years.

▶ haunt noun [C] a place that a person visits regularly: This cafe has always been a favourite haunt of mine.

مكان يتردند السرعايية مثلوي haunt of mine.
haunting adj having a quality that stays in your mind: a haunting song

Line 1 have 1 hav; strong form hæv | auxiliary verb (used for forming perfect tenses): I've seen this film before. ○ She's been in England for six months. ○ Ian hasn't written to me yet. ○ Have you been waiting long? o They had already told us the news.

(في الإنكليزية) فعل مساعد يستعمل لتشكيل صيغة الماضي

Rhave² /hæv/ verb (3rd pers sing pres has; pt, pp had) 1 have to (also have got to) (used for saying that sb must do sth or that sth must happen):
I usually have to work on Saturday mornings.
Do you have to have a visa to go to America?
She's got to go to the bank this afternoon. Oh good, I haven't got to get up early tomorrow! We had to do lots of boring exercises.

2 (Brit also have got) to own or possess: I've got a new camera. • They haven't got a car. • The flat has two bedrooms. • He's got short dark hair. • Have you any brothers and sisters? • We had a lovely house when I was a child.

3 (also have got) to be ill with sth: She's got a bad cold. ○ to have flu, a headache, etc. ○ to have Aids, cancer, etc.

4 (used with many nouns to talk about doing sth): What time do you have breakfast? have a drink, a cigarette, a cup of coffee, a sandwich, etc. o Where's Jane? 'She's having a shower.' have an argument, talk, chat, etc. o We're having a meeting next week.

5 (used with many nouns to talk about experiencing sth): Did you have a nice holiday? • have fun, a good time, etc. • have problems, difficulties, etc. • He's had a terrible shock. • have an accident, a heart attack, an operation, etc.

(تستعمل مع كثير من الأسماء للتعبير عن حدوث شيء للإنسان)

6 (also have got) (used with many abstract nouns): I've got no patience with small children.

o to have the time to do sth o have power, authority, etc.

7 have sth done to arrange for sth to be done, usually for payment: I have my hair cut every six weeks. • You should have your eyes tested.

(تستعمل عندما توكل شخصاً آخر بعمل)

8 have sth done (used when sth unpleasant happens to you): She had her bag stolen on the underground. • Charles I had his head cut off. أصاب، أناب (تستعمل عند حدوث مكروه)

9 to cause sb/sth to do sth: The music soon had everyone dancing.

IDM have had it (used about things that are completely broken, or dead): This television has had it. We'll have to buy a new one.

PHEV have (got) sth on 1 to be wearing sth: She's got a green jumper on. O What did the man have on?

2 (informal) to have an arrangement to do sth: I've got nothing on on Monday. Are you free then?

o I've got a lot on this week (= I'm very busy).

haven / heivn/ noun [C] a place where people or animals can be safe and rest 6 A tax haven is a country where income tax is low.

havoc /ˈhævək/ noun [U] a state of confusion or disorder: The rail strikes created havoc all over the country.

IDM play havoc with sth to damage or upset

hawk → head

sth: The bad weather played havoc with our plans. يتشوّش :يخرُب hawk /hɔːk/ noun [C] 1 a type of bird that catches and eats small animals and birds. Hawks have very good eyesight. 6 Hawks are a type of bird of prey.

2 (in politics) a person who supports strong action and the use of force rather than peaceful solutions (في السياسة) صقر ، سياسي غير مسالم hawthorn /ˈhɔ:θɔ:n/ noun [C, U] a bush or small tree with sharp thorns, white, red or pink flowers and small dark red berries hay /hei/ noun [U] grass that has been cut and dried for use as animal food: a bale of hay

بن ؛ قشُّ

'hay fever noun [U] an illness like a bad cold, making a person sneeze a lot • People get hay fever if they are allergic to the pollen of plants.

haywire /'herwarə(r)/adj

DM be/go haywire (informal) to be or become out of control; to be in a state of disorder

يجنّ جنونه ؛ (جهاز) ملخبط تماماً hazard /ˈhæzəd/ noun [C] a danger or risk: Smoking is a serious health hazard. مخاطرة، خطر : مجازفة hazard verb [T] to make a guess or to suggest sth that you know may be wrong: I don't know what he paid for the house but I could hazard a guess.

hazardous /ˈhæzədəs/ adj dangerous; risky haze /heiz/ noun [C,U] a thin mist caused by heat, dust or smoke ♪ Look at the note at fog. غشارة رقيقة من الغبار أو الدخان

hazel /ˈherzl/ noun [C] a small tree or bush that produces nuts

► hazel adj (used especially about eyes) light brown in colour hazelnut /herzlnʌt/ noun [C] a small nut that you can eat hazy /heɪzi/ adj (hazier; haziest) 1 not clear; misty: The fields were hazy in the early morning sun. ○ (figurative) I have only a hazy memory of the holiday we spent in France.

مغطىً بغشاوة من الضباب ؛ عامض ، غير واضح

2 (used about a person) uncertain, not expressing things clearly: She's a bit hazy about the details of the trip.

Let hi/ pron (the subject of a verb) the male person or animal mentioned earlier: I spoke to John before he left. • Look at that little boy – he's going to fall in!

▶ he noun [sing.] a male animal: Is your cat a he or a she?

If you want to refer to a person who could be either male or female, there are several ways to do this: He or she, him or her, and in writing he/she or s/he can be used: If you are not sure, ask your doctor. He she can give you further information. In informal language you can use they, them or their. Everybody knows what they want. • When somebody asks me a question I always try to give them a quick answer. Or the sentence can be made plural: A batly cries when s/he is tired becomes: Babies cry when they are tired.

Rhead¹ /hed/ noun [C] 1 the part of the body above the neck which has your eyes, nose, mouth and brain in it: She turned her head to look at him. • He's in hospital with serious head injuries after the crash.

In Britain when you nod your head it means 'yes' or shows agreement. When you shake your head it means 'no' or shows disagreement.

2 a person's mind, brain or mental ability: Use your head! (= think!) o A horrible thought entered my head... o He's got a good head for figures.

3 the top, front or most important part or end: to sit at the head of the table o Put your name at the head of the paper. o We were marching right at the head of the procession.

4 something that is like a head in shape or position: the head of a hammer رأس

5 the chief or most important person (in a family, company, country, etc.): the head of the family o The Queen is welcoming heads of state from all over the world. o the head waiter o I'm afraid I can't answer your question – I'll have to ask head office (= the most important office) in London.

6 = HEADTEACHER: Who is going to be the new head?

7 heads the side of a coin with the head of a person on it: Heads or tails? Heads I go first, tails you do.

8 a head [sing.] the height or length of one head:  $a \ head \ taller$

9 a head [sing.] (for) one person: The set menu is £12 a head. \Theta We also say per head.

الشخص الواحد go to sh's head 1 to make sb drunk: Wine always goes straight to my head. يدور الخبر برأسه 2 to make sb too proud: If you keep telling him how clever he is, it will go to his head!

يُصاب بالغرور head first 1 with your head before the rest of your body: Don't go down the slide head first. الرأس قبل الرجلين

2 too quickly or suddenly: Don't rush head first into a decision.

head over heels 1 turning the body over in a forward direction: She tripped and fell head over heels.

2 completely: Jane's head over heels in love with him. (غارق (في الحبُ him.

hit the nail on the head → HIT<sup>4</sup> keep your head to stay calm lose your head → LOSE

يحافظ على هدوء أعصابه laugh, scream, etc. your head off to laugh, scream, etc. loudly make head or tail of sth to understand sth: I can't make head or tail of this exercise. off the top of your head → rop1 shake your head → SHAKE1

- ?head2 /hed/ verb 1 [T] to be in charge of or to lead sth: Do you think that he has the experience necessary to head a government? براس، يترأس
  - 2 [T] to be at the front of a line, top of a list, etc: to head a procession o Two names headed the list of possible suspects.
    - يتقدم ، يتصدر ؛ يكون على رأس (القائمة)
  - 3 [T] (often passive) to give a title or some instructions at the top of a piece of writing: The report was headed 'Private'. يعنون
  - 4 [I] to move in the direction mentioned: The ship headed towards the harbour. يتوجه
  - 5 [T] to hit the ball with your head in football: He headed the ball into the net. يضرب برأسه PHRV head for to move towards a place: It's getting late - I think it's time to head for home. o (figurative) You're heading for trouble if you go يتجه؛ يذهب ؛ يقبل على (كارثة) on behaving like that.
- Theadache / hederk/ noun [C] 1 a pain in your head: I've got a splitting (= very bad) headache. Look at the note at ache.
  - 2 a person or thing that causes worry or difficulty: Paying the bills is a constant headache. مصدر متاعب ، وجع رأس
- heading /'hedin/ noun [C] the words written as a title at the top of a page or a piece of writing
- headland /'hedlənd; -lænd/ noun [C] a narrow piece of land that sticks out into the sea
- headlight /'hedlait/ (especially Brit 'headlamp) noun [C] one of the two large bright lights at the front of a vehicle: Switch your headlights on - it's getting dark. مصباح أمامي (في سيارة)
- headline /'hedlam/ noun 1 [C] the title of a newspaper article printed in large letters above the story عنوان رئيمي (في صحيفة)
- 2 the headlines [plural] the main items of news الأخبار الرئيسية read on television or radio
- 'headlong /'hedlon/ adv, adj 1 with your head before the rest of your body الرأس أولاً ، رأسياً: رأسيًا: رأسيًا والله عليه المسالة ال
  - 2 too quickly; without enough thought: He rushed headlong into buying the business.
    - متهور ؛ بتهور
- ,head 'office noun [C,U, with sing. or pl. verb] the main office of a company; the managers who work there: Their head office is in New York. o I don't know what head office will think about this proposal.
- official leader of a country who is sometimes also the leader of the government: The Queen was joined by the US President and other heads of state from around the world. رئيس الدولة
- head-'on adj, adv with the front of one car, etc. hitting the front of another: a head-on crash (اصطدام سيارتين) وجهاً لوجه

- 'headphones /'hedfəunz/ noun [plural] a pair of speakers that fit over each ear and are joined together with a hand over the top of your head. Headphones are used for listening to music, radio messages, etc. سمّاعتان على الأذنين
- headquarters / hed'kwo:təz/ noun [plural, with sing, or pl. verbl (abbr  $\mathbf{HQ}$ ) the central office, etc. of an organization: Where is/are the firm's headquarters? مقرً، مركز القيادة
- headscarf /'hedska:f/ noun [C] (pl. -scarves) a square piece of cloth tied around the head by women or girls, usually with a knot under the منديل للرأس، "ايشارب" chin
- headset /'hedset/ noun [C] a piece of equipment that you wear on your head that includes a device for listening (headphones) and/or a device for speaking into (a microphone): The pilot was talking into his headset. سماعة وميكرفون
- head 'start noun [sing.] an advantage that you have from the beginning of a race or competi-تسهيل يمنح للمتسابق الأضعف قبل السباق
- headstone /'hedstoun/ noun [C] a large stone used to mark the head of a grave, usually with the dead person's name, etc. on it
- headstrong /'hedstron; US -strony/ adj doing what you want, without listening to advice from other people عنيد ، راكب رأسه
- headteacher /hed'tixtfə(r)/ (also head; US principal) noun [C] the teacher in charge of a school: the headmaster or headmistress الناظر، المدرّس الرئيمي headway /'hedwei/ noun

- make headway to go forward or make progress in a difficult situation: It was impossible for the boat to make any headway against the wind. تقدّم
- heady /'hedi/adj (headier,headiest) 1 having a quick and exciting effect on the senses: a heady perfume o the heady days of her youth
  - (عطر) نفّاذ؛ مثير
  - 2 (used about alcoholic drinks) likely to make people drunk quickly; potent: a heady wine
  - 3 (used about a person) excited and acting without careful thought: to be heady with suc-مندفع، متهور
- Theal /hi:1/ verb [I,T] heal (over/up) to become healthy again; to make sth healthy again: The cut will heal up in a few days if you keep it clean and dry. o It takes time to heal a broken leg. o (figurative) Nothing he said could heal the damage done to their relationship. يلتئم، يشفى ؛ يشفى، يصلح
- head of 'state noun [C] (pl. heads of state) the 'khealth /helθ/ noun [U] 1 the condition of a person's body or mind: Fresh fruit and vegetables are good for your health. o in good/poor health Cigarettes carry a government health warning. health insurance
  - 2 the state of being well and free from illness: As long as you have your health, nothing else mat-عافية ، صحة جيدة

health centre → heart

'health centre noun [C] the central surgery and offices for a group of doctors, nurses, etc. who work together 6 Health Centres are not part of hospitals, they are where local doctors and مستوصف ، مركز صحّي nurses work.

'health food noun [C,U] natural food that many people think is especially good for your health because it has been made or grown without adding chemicals مواد الطعام الطبيعية المفيدة للصحة

'health service noun [C] the organization of the medical services of a country 2 Look at National Health Service. دائرة الخدمات الصحّبة

'health spa noun [C] a place where people can ? stay for short periods of time in order to try to improve their health by eating special food, doing physical exercise, etc.

Lealthy /'hel@i/adj (healthier; healthiest) 1 not often ill; strong and well: a healthy child, animal, موفور الصحّة ؛ قويّ البنية plant, etc.

2 showing good health (of body or mind): healthy skin and hair o There was plenty of healthy competition between the brothers.

معافى ، سليم ؛ (تنافس) مفيد

3 helping to produce good health: a healthy

6 The opposite for all senses is unhealthy. صحياً؛ بشكل سليم ، بشكل جيد

▶ healthily adv

heap /hi:p/ noun [C] 1 a large number or amount of sth which is piled up in an untidy way: All his clothes are in a heap on the floor! o a rubbish heap ■ Look at the note at pile¹

2 heaps [plural] (informal) a large number or amount; plenty: There's heaps of time before the train leaves. o There are heaps of places to go كثير (من) ؛ عدد كبير (من)

IBM heaps better, more, older, etc. (informal) much better, etc.

▶ heap verb [T] heap sth (up) to put things in a pile: I'm going to heap all the leaves up over there. o Add six heaped tablespoons of flour (= in a recipe). يكوم

Thear /hia(r)/ verb (pt, pp heard /ha:d/) 1 [I,T] (not used in the continuous forms) to receive sounds with your ears: Can you speak a little louder - I don't hear very well. O I'm sorry I'm late - I didn't hear my alarm clock this morning.

Compare hear and listen. To hear is to receive a sound by chance or in a passive way with your ears; to listen is to make a conscious or active effort to hear something: I always wake up when I hear the milkman come. o I love listening to music in the evening, o Listen! I've got something to tell you.

2 [T] (not used in the continuous forms) to be told or informed about sth: I hear that you've been offered a job in Canada. يسمع ؛ يخبر

3 [T] (used about a judge, a court, etc.) to listen to the evidence in a trial in order to make a decision about it: Your case will be heard this يستمع إلى ، ينظر في دعوى قضائية afternoon.

hear! hear! (used for showing that you agree with what sb has just said, especially in a meeting) عظيم! أحسنت!

won't/wouldn't hear of sth to refuse to allow sth: I wanted to go to art school but my parents يرفض رفضاً قاطعاً wouldn't hear of it.

PHRV hear from sb to receive a letter, telephone call, etc. from sb يتلقى أخباراً (عن طريق رسالة أو غير ذلك) hear of sb/sth (used especially in questions and negatives) to know or receive information about the existence of a person, place, thing, etc: Have you heard of the Bermuda Triangle?

hearing /'hɪərɪŋ/ noun 1 [U] the ability to hear: Her hearing isn't very good so you need to speak louder.

2 [U] the distance within which sb can hear: I'd rather not talk about it within his hearing (= when he's near enough to hear). (على) مُسْمع (من) 3 [C] a chance to give your opinion or explain your position: to get/give sb a fair hearing فرصة للكلام

4 [C] a trial in a court of law: Will the press be present at the hearing?

hearsay /'hiəsei/ noun [U] things you have heard another person or other people say, which تقو لات ؛ سماع عن الآخرين may or may not be true hearse /ha:s/ noun [C] a large car used for carrying a dead body in a coffin to the funeral

سيارة نقل الموتى

? heart /ha:t/ noun 1 [C] the organ inside the chest that sends blood round the body: When you exercise your heart beats faster. o heart disease

2 [C] the centre of a person's feelings: She has a kind heart (= she is kind and gentle). o In my heart I knew she was right.

3 [sing.] the most central part of sth; the middle: Rare plants can be found in the heart of the forest.  $\circ$  (figurative) Let's get straight to the heart (= to the most important part) of the matter.

4 [C] a symbol that is shaped like a heart, often red or pink and used to show love: He sent her a card with a big red heart on it. قلب (كرمز للحبُ)

5 hearts [plural] the set (suit) of playing cards with red shapes like hearts on them الكبَّة أو الكوية (في ورق اللعب)

6 [C] one of the cards from this suit

ورقة كبّة او كوبة

7 [U] complete interest or attention: He's not working well because his heart isn't in the job.

after your own heart (used about people) similar to yourself or of the type you like best

(شخص) مُطابق لميول المرء

at heart really; in fact: My father seems strict but he's a very kind man at heart.

break sb's heart to make sb very sad ب حزنا شديدا

يُحطم الفؤاد ، يــ by heart by remembering exactly; from memory: The teacher wanted us to learn the whole poem by heart. o Learning lists of words off by heart isn't a good way to increase your vocabulary.

a change of heart  $\rightarrow$  CHANGE<sup>2</sup>

cross my heart → cross2

your heart sinks you suddenly feel disappointed or depressed: When I saw the queues of people in front of me my heart sank.

| ايصاب بالكرب فجاة | العجاب الكرب فجاة | not have the heart (to do sth) to be unable to do sth unkind: I didn't have the heart to say no.

لا يطاوعه قلب take sth to heart to be greatly affected or upset by sth يتكدر أو يتأثر بالامر تأثراً كبيراً

young at heart → YOUNG

-hearted (in compounds) having the type of feelings or character mentioned: kind-hearted (في التعايير المركّبة): "طيب القلب" مثلاً

heartless adj unkind; cruel: heartless behaviour

heartlessly adv

heartlessness noun [U]

'heartache /'hɑ:teɪk/ noun [C,U] great sorrow or worry; emotional pain

'heart attack noun [C] a sudden serious illness when the heart stops working correctly, sometimes causing death: She's had a heart attack.

نوية قلبية

بلارحمة

heartbeat /ˈhɑ:tbiːt/ noun [C] the regular movement of the heart or the sound it makes heartbreak /ˈhɑːtbreɪk/ noun [U] very great unhappiness

" heartbreaking adj very sad مؤلم. فقط 'heartbroken (also broken-hearted) adj extremely sad: Mary was heartbroken at the news of her friend's death.

hearten /ˈhɑːtn/ verb [T] (usually passive) to encourage sb; to make sb feel more cheerful ♠ The opposite is dishearten.

• بشجع: يبعث على البهجة غلى البهجة heartfelt /ˈhɑ:tfelt/ adj deeply felt; sincere: a heartfelt apology hearth /hɑːθ/ noun [C] the floor of a fireplace or the area in front of it أرضية الموقد أو ما بمتد منها أمامه

heartland /ˈhɑːtlænd/ noun [C] the most central or important part of a country, area, etc: Germany's industrial heartland قلب، مرکز

'heart-rending adj causing a strong feeling of pity: The mother of the missing boy made a heartrending appeal on television. مؤثّر، يَقْلَعُ نِبَاطُ القلب heart-to-'heart noun [C] a conversation in which you say openly what you really feel or think: John's teacher had a heart-to-heart with him and found out what was worrying him.

محادثة صريحة : عنيت من القلب إلى القلب hearty /ˈhɑːti/ adj (heartier; heartiest) 1 showing warm and friendly feelings: They gave us a hearty welcome when we arrived.

2 large: a hearty breakfast o a hearty appetite وجبة) كبيرة

ei pav

3: fur

ə ago

▶ heartily /'hɑ:tɪli/ adv 1 in a loud cheerful əυ go

aı five

way: He joined in heartily with the singing.

بحماس وحبور

2 very much; completely: I heartily dislike that sort of comment. لَشِراً: كُلِياً heartiness noun [U]

? heat¹ /hi:t/ noun 1 [U] the feeling of sth hot: Too much heat from the sun is being trapped in the Earth's atmosphere. • This fire doesn't give out much heat.

 ${f 2}$  [sing.] (often with the) hot weather: I like the English climate because I can't stand the heat.

3 [sing.] a thing that produces heat: Remove the pan from the heat (= the cooker).

النار (عند الطبخ)، طبّاخ، جهاز طبخ

4 [U] a state or time of anger or excitement: In the heat of the argument he said a lot of things he didn't mean.

5 [C] one of the first parts of a race or competition. The winners of the heats compete against other winners until the final result is decided: He won his heat and went through to the final.

IDM be on heat (used about some female animals) to be ready to mate because it is the right time of the year

استحرام، فترة استعداد أنثى الحيوان للسفاد

**Pheat* /hi.t/ verb [I,T] heat (sth) (up) to become or to make sth hot or warm: Wait for the oven to heat up before you put the cake in. O Old houses are more difficult to heat than modern ones. O Is it a heated swimming pool? O The meal is already cooked but it will need heating up.

سخن: بسخن: يدفن • heated adj (used about a person or discussion) angry or excited فاضب، مهتاج: (مناقشة) حامية heatedly adv

heater noun [C] an apparatus used for heating water or the air in a room, car, etc: an electric heater ٥ a water heater heating noun [U] a system for heating rooms and buildings: Our heating goes off at 10 p.m. and comes on again in the morning. D Look at central heating.

heath /hi:اا /houn [C] an area of open land that is not used for farming and that is covered with rough plants and grass أرض بور مغطاة بالأعشاب heathen /ˈhiːŏn/ noun [C] (old-fashioned) a person who does not belong to one of the major world religions heather /ˈheðə(r)/ noun [U] a small tough plant that grows especially on hills and moors and has small purple, pink or white flowers heatwave /ˈhiːtweɪv/ noun [C] a period of time when the weather is much hotter than usual heave /hi:v/verb 1 [I,T] to lift or pull sth heavy, using a lot of effort: Take hold of this rope and heave! o We heaved the cupboard up the stairs. يرفم أو يجر شيئا قبلاً

2 [T] to throw sth heavy: He heaved a brick through the window.

heaven → heel

3 [I] to move up and down or in and out in a heavy but regular way: His chest was heaving with the effort of carrying the cooker.

4 [I] to experience the tight feeling you get in your stomach when you are just about to vomit: The sight of all that blood made her stomach heave.

DM heave a sigh to give a big sigh: He heaved a sigh of relief when he heard the good news.

- يتنفس الصعداء، يتنهّد تنهداً عميقاً ▶ heave noun [C,U] a strong pull, push, throw, رَفْعة : جَرَّة ؛ رَفْع ؛ جَرَّ ؛ قَلْمُ
- ? heaven /'hevn/ noun 1 [sing.] the place where it is believed that God and the angels live and good people go when they die: to go to/be in heaven

Heaven (often with a capital H) is used in a number of expressions to mean 'God'bid. For the meaning of for Heaven's sake. Heaven forbid, etc. look at the entry for God. Look also at hell.

2 the heavens [plural] the sky: The stars shone brightly in the heavens that night. IDM (good) heavens! (used to express surprise): Good heavens! I didn't expect to see بالله! يا للعجب!

heavenly /'hevnli/ adj 1 (only before a noun) connected with heaven or the sky: heavenly music ○ heavenly bodies (= the sun, moon, stars, سماوي ؛ إلهي

2 (informal) very pleasant; wonderful

رائع ؛ سارٌ للغاية

- heavy /hevi/ adj (heavier; heaviest) 1 weighing a lot, and difficult to lift or move. This box is too heavy for me to carry. ثقيل ، يصعب حمله
  - 2 (used when asking or stating how much sb/ sth weighs): How heavy is your suitcase?
  - 3 larger or stronger than usual: heavy rain o heavy traffic o He felt a heavy blow on the back of his head. o a heavy smoker (= a person who smokes a lot) o The sound of his heavy (= loud and deep) breathing told her that he was (مطر) غزير ؛ (ازدحام) شديد
  - 4 (used about a material or substance) solid or thick: a heavy soil o a heavy coat

صلب: سميك، ثقيل

5 (used about food) difficult to digest (= difficult for the body to absorb): He had a heavy meal and dropped off to sleep in the afternoon.

مُسر الهضم ، ثقيل

- 6 full of hard work; (too) busy: It's been a very heavy day. o The Queen had a heavy schedule of (يوم) متعب ملىء بالمشاغل visits.
- 7 serious, difficult or boring: This book makes very heavy reading. (كتاب) صعب ، ممل
- 8 heavy on sth (informal) using a lot of sth: Don't go so heavy on the garlic.

ىرف فى IDM make heavy weather of sth to make sth seem more difficult than it really is (يزيد من) صعوبة (الشيء) بغُزَارة ؛ بشكل ضخم ؛ بصّعوبا ▶ heavily adv heaviness noun [U]

,heavy 'industry noun [U] industry that produces materials such as steel or that makes large, heavy objects

, heavy 'metal noun [U] a style of very loud rock music that is played on electric instruments

موسيقى صاخبة تعزف على آلات كهربائية heavyweight /'heviweit/ noun [C] a boxer weighing over 79.3 kilograms ملاكم من الوزن الثقيل

heck /hek/ interj, noun [sing.] (informal) (used to express or emphasize annoyance or surprise or to emphasize the amount or size of sth): Oh heck! I've missed the train! o How the heck did you know where I was? o It's a heck of a long way to (تعبير عن الاستياء أو الاستغراب أو المبالغة) drive in one day.

heckle /'hekl/ verb [I,T] to interrupt a speaker at a public meeting with difficult questions or rude يقاطع خطيبأ بأسئلة وقحة remarks

▶ heckler /'heklə(r)/ noun [C]

شخص يقاطع خطيبا بأسئلة وتحمة heckling /'heklin/ noun [U]

مقاطعة الخطيب بالأسئلة والضوضاء

hectare /'hekteə(r)/ noun [C] (abbr ha) a measure of land; 10 000 square metres

hectic /'hektik/ adj very busy and full of a lot of things that you have to do quickly: We had a hec-حافل بالمشاغل ، محموم tic day at the office. بشكل جنوني

▶ hectically /-kli/ adv

he'd /hi:d/ short for HE HAD; HE WOULD hedge /hed3/ noun [C] a row of bushes planted close together at the edge of a garden or field hedge verb 1 [T] to put a hedge round a field, garden, etc.

2 [I] to avoid giving a direct answer to a question: Stop hedging and tell us who you're meeting tonight! يراوغ في الجواب

IDM hedge your bets to protect yourself against losing or making a mistake by supporting more than one person or opinion

يراهن على عدة أطراف تفادياً للخسارة hedgehog /'hed3hpg; US-ho:g/ noun [C] a small brown animal covered with stiff sharp needles (prickles)

hedgerow /'hedgrou/ noun [C] a row of bushes, etc. forming a hedge especially along a country road or round a field

سياج أو صفٌ من الشجيرات على طول طريق ريفي

heed /hi:d/ verb [T] (formal) to pay attention to يستمع إلى النصيحة advice, a warning, etc.

▶ heed noun (formal)

IDM take heed (of sth) to pay careful attention to what sb says: You should take heed of your doctor's advice. يصغي ؛ يراعي

. heel /hiːl/ noun [C] 1 the back part of the foot: يفرط في الاستعمال، مس These shoes rub against my heels.

- 2 the part of a sock or stocking that covers your heel
- 3 the raised part of a shoe under the heel of your foot: High heels (= shoes with high heels) are not practical for long walks.
- 4 -heeled having the type of heel mentioned: high-heeled/low-heeled shoes

  فو کعبِ عالِي

  by head over heels

  HEAD<sup>1</sup>
- ► heel verb [T] to repair the heel of a shoe یصلح أو بجدد كعب الحذاء
- hefty /ˈhefti/ adj (heftier; heftiest) (informal) strong, heavy or big: a hefty young man o He gave the door a hefty kick and it opened. o She's earning a hefty salary in London.
- Hegira (also Hejira, Hijra) /ˈhedʒirə/ noun [sing.] the Muslim era calculated from the date when Muhammad left Mecca for the Medina: the second century of the Hegira
- ? height /hatt/ noun 1 [C,U] the measurement from the bottom to the top of a person or thing: The nurse is going to check your height and weight. She's of medium height. We need a fence that's about two metres in height. 1 The adjective is high. 2 Look at the note at tall.

ارتفاع : طول

- 2 [U] being tall: He looks older than he is because of his height.
- 3 [C,U] the distance that sth is above the ground or sea-level: We are now flying at a height of 6 000 metres. A plane gains or loses height.

تفاع ، علو

- 4 [C, usually pl.] a high place or area: I can't go up there. I'm afraid of heights.
- 5 [U] the strongest or most important part of sth: the height of summer o The tourist season is at its height in July and August. خُروة. قَمَة

heighten / hartn/ verb [I.T] to become or to make sth greater or stronger: I'm using yellow paint to heighten the sunny effect of the room.

يُقوَى ؛ يزيد من شدّته؛ يقوى أو تزيد حدّته heir /eə(r)/ noun [C] the person with the legal right to receive (inherit) money, property or a title when the owner dies: He's the heir to a large fortune. ○ Who is the heir to the throne? (= Who will become king or queen?) ○ The queen had no sons so there wasn't an heir. ❸ A female heir is often called an heiress especially when we are talking about somebody who has inherited a very large amount of money.

heirloom /'eəlu:m/ noun [C] something valuable that has belonged to the same family for many years قطعة ثمينة تتوارثها العائلة جيلاً بعد جيل

held pt, pp of HOLD helicopter /ˈhelikɒptə(r)/ (also informal chopper) noun [C] a small aircraft that can go straight up into the air. Helicopters fly with the help of large spinning blades.

he'll /hi:l/ short for HE WILL

? hell /hel/ noun 1 [sing.] the place that some reli-

- gions say bad people will go to when they die: to go to/be in hell 🗅 Look at heaven.
- 2 [C,U] (informal) a situation or place that is very unpleasant, painful or miserable: He went through hell when his wife left him.
- 3 [U] (informal) (used as a swear word to show anger or surprise or to make another expression stronger): Oh hell, I've forgotten my money! Go to hell! (= go away!) Who the hell is that at the front door?

التستعمل للتعبير عن الغضب أو الدهشة أو للمبالغة)

Malone hell of a... (informal) (used to make an expression stronger or to mean 'very'): He got into a hell of a fight (= a terrible fight). • She's a hell of a nice girl. (التتعمل للبالغة وأحيانا بمعنى "جدا") give sb hell (informal) to speak to sb very angrily or to treat sb severely

يلَّنِيَة الجميم : (يكلِّم شخصاً) بغضب شديد like hell (informal) (used to make an expression stronger): I'm working like hell (= very hard) at the moment. (تستعمل للمبالغة)

R hello (Brit also hallo, hullo) /həˈləʊ/ interj (used for greeting sb, for attracting sb's attention or when you are using the telephone): Hello, how are you? o Hello, is anybody there? o Hello, this is Leeds 4960154.

Hello is the most common greeting in British English. Hi is used in US English. It is also used in British English but is quite informal.

- helm /helm/ noun [C] the part of a boat or ship that is used to guide it. The helm can be a handle or a wheel.
- helmet /ˈhelmɪt/ noun [C] a type of hard hat that you wear to protect your head: a crash helmet o a policeman's helmet
- Rhelp¹ /help/ verb 1 [I,T] to do sth for sb in order to be useful or to make a person's work easier:

  Can I help? Could you help me with the cooking?

  I helped her to organize the party. My son's helping in our shop at the moment. to help sb off the train, out of a car, across the road, etc. (= to help sb move in the direction mentioned)

  [I,T] to make sth better or easier: If you apologize to him it might help (= it might make the situation better). This medicine should
  - help your headache. 3 [T] help yourself/sb (to sth) to take or give sth (especially food and drink). Help yourself to a drink! Shall I help you to the vegetables? Can I borrow your pen? 'Yes, help yourself.'
  - 4 [T] help yourself to sth to take sth without asking permission: Don't just help yourself to my money!

يقدّم أو يتناول (طعاماً أو شراباً)

- 5 [I] (used to get sb's attention when you are in danger or difficulty): Help! I'm going to fall!
- EM can/can't/couldn't help sth be able/not be able to stop or avoid doing sth: It was so funny I couldn't help laughing. O I just couldn't help myself I had to laugh. O He can't help being so couldn't be helped (= it couldn't be avoided so لا يُسعه إلاّ أن... we must accept that). a helping hand some help: My neighbour is always ready to give me a helping hand.

بساعد، يمديد العَوْن PHRV help (sb) out to help sb in a difficult situation or to give money to help sb: My parents have promised to help us out with buying the يشارك في حُمَّل العبء : يساعد مالياً

▶ helper noun [C] a person who helps (especially with work): The teacher is always looking for extra helpers in the classroom.

helping noun [C] the amount of food that sb serves: A large helping of pudding, please! وصلة أو "سكية" من الطعام

? help<sup>2</sup> /help/ noun 1 [U] the act of helping: Do you need any help? o This map isn't much help. o I'll مساعدة ، عَوْن give you all the help I can.

2 [sing.] a help (to sb) a person or thing that helps: Your directions were a great help - we مساعد، معاون found the place easily.

▶ helpful /-fl/ adj giving help: helpful advice o Ask Mr Brown. He's always very helpful. 6 The مُعين ، محبّ للمساعدة ؛ مفيد للمساعدة ؛ بشكل مفيد opposite is unhelpful.

helpfully /-fəli/ adv المساعدة ؛ الخدمة helpfulness noun [U]

helpless adj needing help from other people: aمحتاج المساعدة : لا حول له ولا قوة بعجز كلي helpless baby helplessly adv

حاجة للمساعدة ؛ عجر helplessness noun [U] helpline / helplain / noun [C] a telephone service that provides advice and information about particular problems: to set up/run a helpline خط تليفوني لتقديم المساعدة hem /hem/ noun [C] the edge of a piece of cloth (especially on a skirt, dress or trousers) that has been turned under and sewn down كفّة (الثوب أو السروال مثلاً) ▶ hem verb [T] (hemming; hemmed) to sew a

بخيط كفة للثوب hem on sth PHRY hem sb in to surround sb and prevent him/her from moving away: We were hemmed in by the crowd and could not leave. يحاصر، يطوق

[C] 1 the hemisphere /'hemisfiə(r)/ noun shape of half a ball; half a sphere

2 one half of the earth: the northern/southern/ نصف الكرة الأرضية eastern/western hemisphere

hemophilia, hemophiliac (US) = HAEMO PHILIA, HAEMOPHILIAC

hemorrhage (US) = HAEMORRHAGE

hemorrhoids (especially US) = HAEMORRHOIDS

hemp /hemp/ noun [U] a plant that is used for making rope and rough cloth and for producing قَنُب؛ قِنّب هندي the illegal drug cannabis hen /hen/ noun [C] 1 a female bird that is often kept on farms for its eggs or its meat: Our hens haven't laid many eggs this week. 3 Look at the note at chicken. دحاحة

2 the female of any type of bird: a hen pheasant The male bird is a cock.

small (= it's not his fault). O The accident ? hence/hens/adv 1 (formal) from here or now: a week hence (= in a week's time)

من الآن ؛ من هنا ، من هذا المكان

2 for this reason: I've got some news to tell you -لذلك ، لهذا السبب hence the letter.

henceforth /,hens'fo:θ/ (also henceforward /hens'fo:wod/) adv (formal) from now on; in future: Henceforth all communication should be in من الآن فصاعداً ؛ فيما بعد writing.

henchman /'hentsman/ noun [C] (pl. henchmen /-mən/) a person who is employed by a political leader to protect him/her and who may do things that are illegal or violent: the dictator and أحد أنباع أو حاشية رجل سياسي his henchmen.

henna /'henə/ noun [U] a reddish-brown colour (dye) that is obtained from a type of plant. Henna is used to colour and decorate the hair, finger-henpecked /'henpekt/ adj (informal) used to describe a husband who always does what his (زوج) مطبع لأوامر زوجته wife tells him to do hepatitis /,hepə'taɪtɪs/ noun [U] a serious disease of the liver

Ther /ha:(r)/ pron (the object of a verb or preposition) a female person or animal that was mentioned earlier: He told Sue that he loved her. o I've got a letter for your mother. Could you give it to her, please? o That must be her now. 2 Look at she and the note at he.

الضمير المتّصل "..ها" في حالة المفعوليّة

? her<sup>2</sup> /hə(r)/ det belonging to a female person or animal that was mentioned earlier: That's her book. She left it there this morning. o Fiona has broken her leg. الضمير المتّصل "..ها" في حالة الملكيّة hers /hɜːz/ pron of or belonging to her:

I didn't have a swimsuit but Helen lent me hers.

herald /'herald/ noun [C] a person in former times who gave important messages from a ruler مناد؛ رسول من الحاكم to the people

▶ herald verb [T] to be a sign that sb/sth is coming: The minister's speech heralded a change يعُلن عن ؛ يبشّر د of policy.

heraldry /'herəldri/ noun [U] the study of the history of old and important families and their special family symbols (coats of arms) دراسة تاريخ وشعارات النبلاء herb /ha:b; US a:rb/ noun [C] a plant whose leaves, seeds, etc. are used in medicine or for giving food more flavour: Add some herbs, such as rosemary and thyme. 2 Look at spice.

عشبة طبية او عطرية ▶ herbal /'ha:bl; US 'a:rbl/ adj made of or using herbs: herbal tea o herbal medicine herd /ha:d/ noun [C] a large number of animals that live and feed together: a herd of cattle, deer, elephants, etc.

▶ herd verb [T] to move people or animals forward as if they were in a herd: The prisoners, were herded onto the train. يسير كالقطيع

There /htə(r)/adv 1 (after a verb or a preposition)

in, at or to the place where you are or which you are pointing to: I live here.  $\circ$  Come (over) here.  $\circ$  The school is a mile from here.  $\circ$  Please sign here.

2 (used for introducing or drawing attention to sb/sth): Here is the nine o'clock news. • Here comes the bus. • Here we are (= we've arrived). • 'Are the others coming?' 'Yes, here they are now.'

Note the word order in the last two examples. We say: Here are the children and: Here they are. Note also the expression: Here you are which is used when we are giving something to somebody: Here you are —this is that book I was talking about.

ها (قد وصل) ، ها هو/ها هي....ألخ

- 3 at this point: Here the speaker stopped and looked around the room.
- 4 (used for emphasizing a noun): My friend here saw it happen. o I think you'll find this book here very useful.

mm here and there in various places: We could see small groups of people here and there along the beach.

here goes (informal) (used before doing sth exciting, dangerous, etc.): I've never done a backward dive before, but here goes! بالف المائة here's to sb/sth (used for drinking to the health, success, etc. of sb/sth): Here's to your future happiness!

neither here nor there not important: My opinion is neither here nor there. If you like the dress then buy it.

► here interj (used for attracting sb's attention, when offering help or when giving sth to sb). Here! Get down off that wall immediately! ○ Here, te me help! ○ Here, take this and buy yourself a bar of chocolate.

hereabouts /ˌhɪərəˈbaʊts/ (US hereabout) adv (formal) around here بالقرب من هنا hereafter /ˌhɪərˈɑːftə(r); US -ˈæf-/ adv (formal) (used in legal documents, etc.) from now on; in the future من الآن فصاعداً : في المستقبل hereditary /həˈredɪtri; US -teri/ adj passed on from parent to child: a hereditary disease ∘ Do you think intelligence is hereditary? ∘ a hereditary title (e.g. that of a duke, that is passed from father to son) ⊃ Look at inherit.

heredity /həˈredəti/ noun [U] the passing on of physical or mental features from parent to child المائة كالمائة المائة الم heresy /'herəsi/ noun [C.U] (pl. heresies) a (religious) opinion or belief that is against what is generally accepted to be true in the group you belong to heretic /ˈherətik/ noun [C] a person who believes a heresy مرطوقي، من أهل البدعة heretical /həˈretikl/ adj herewith /,h10'w10'/ adv (formal) with this letter, etc: Please fill in the form enclosed herewith.

ضمن هذا ، طَيَّه

heritage /heritid3/ noun [C, usually sing.] the traditions, qualities and cultural achievements of a country that have existed for a long time and that have great importance for the country. The countryside is part of our national heritage o We must preserve our cultural heritage for future generations.

hermit /ˈhɔːmɪt/ noun [C] a person who prefers to live alone, without contact with other people. In former times people became hermits for religious reasons.

hernia /ˈhaːniə/ (also rupture) noun [C,U] the medical condition when an internal organ (e.g. the bowel) pushes through the wall of muscle which surrounds it

- hero /ˈhiərəʊ/ noun [C] (pl. heroes) 1 the most important male character in a book, play, film, etc. 2 Look at villain.
  - 2 a person who has done sth brave or good and who is admired and remembered for it: sporting heroes
  - heroism /'herəʊɪzəm/ noun [U] great courage or brayery heroic /həˈrəʊɪk/ adj (used about people or their actions) very brave: a heroic effort مطوليً heroically /-kli/ adv heroin /'heroun/ noun [U] a drug (produced from morphine) that is used by doctors to stop pain. Some people take heroin for pleasure and then become addicted to it (= they cannot stop using it) heroine /ˈherəoɪn/ noun [C] 1 the most important female character in a book, play, film, etc.

(القصة مثلاً)

2 a woman who has done sth brave or good and who is admired and remembered for it

heroism noun → HERO

heron /'herən/ noun [C] a large bird with a long neck and long legs that lives near water

مالك الحزين، بَلَشُون

herring /ˈherɪn/ noun [C] (pl. herring or herrings) a small silver fish that swims in large groups (shoals) in the sea and that is used for food 2 Look at kipper.

IDM a red herring → RED1

የhers → HER2

- Pherself /ha:'self/ pron 1 (used as the object of a verb or preposition when the female person or animal who does an action is also affected by it):

  She hurt herself quite badly when she fell downstairs. O Val bought herself a pie for lunch. O Irene looked at herself in the mirror.
  - 2 (used for emphasis): She told me the news herself. Has Rosemary done this herself? (= or did sb else do it for her?)
  - in her normal state; healthy: She's not feeling herself today (= she's feeling ill).

    (all) by herself 1 alone: She lives by herself. ۞ Look at the note at alone. وحدَها، لوَحدها

2 without help: I don't think she needs any help - she can change a tyre by herself.

وحدُها، لوحدها ، دون مسأعدة

(all) to herself without having to share: Julie has the bedroom to herself now her sister's left لنفسها، دون مشاركة home

he's short for HE IS, HE HAS hesitant /hezitənt/ adj hesitant to do/about doing sth slow to speak or act because you are not sure whether you should or not: I'm very hesitant about criticizing him too much. o a hesitant مترٍدد manner ثردَدٍ

▶ hesitancy /-ənsi/ noun [U] hesitantly adv

- Thesitate /'heziteit/ verb [I] 1 hesitate (about/ over sth) to pause before you do sth or before you take a decision, usually because you are unthe room. o She's still hesitating about whether to accept the job or not. o Alan replied without hesitating.
  - 2 hesitate (to do sth) to be unwilling to do sth because you are not sure that it is right: Don't hesitate to phone if you have any problems. ▶ hesitation / hezi'tei[n/ noun [C,U] a time when you wait because you are not sure: She agreed without a moment's hesitation. o He continued speaking after a slight hesitation.
- heterogeneous / hetərə dai:niəs/ adj (formal) made up of different kinds of people or things: the heterogeneous population of the USA 6 The opposite is homogeneous.

heterosexual / hetərə'sek ʃuəl/adj sexually attracted to a person of the other sex (= a man to a woman or a woman to a man) 2 Look at bisexual and homosexual. ميّال إلى أفراد الجنس الآخر

▶ heterosexual noun [C]

الميّال إلى أفراد الجنس الآخر

het up /het 'Ap/ adj (not before a noun) het up (about/over sth) (informal) worried or excited about sth: What are you getting so het up about?

hew /hju:/ verb [I,T] (pt hewed; pp hewed or hewn /hju:n/) (formal) to cut sth with an axe, sword, etc: roughly hewn stone

hexagon /'heksəgən; US -gon/ noun [C] a shape شكّل سداسي، م with six sides hexagonal /heks'ægənl/ adj

hey /hei/ interj (informal) what you shout when you want to attract sb's attention or to show that you are surprised or interested: Hey, what are you doing here? o Hey, I like your new bike!

heyday /'heidei/ noun [sing.] the period when sb/sth was most powerful, successful, rich أيام العز ، فترة ازدهار ؛ أوج

HGV / eit f d3i: 'vi:/ abbrev (Brit) heavy goods vehicle, such as a lorry: He has an HGV licence. شاحنة نقل ثقيل

? hi /hai/ interj (informal) (used as a greeting when you meet sb) hello

hibernate /'harbənert/ verb [I] (used about animals) to spend the winter in a state like deep يسبت ، ينام الحيوان نومه الشتوي . sleep ▶ hibernation / haɪbəˈneɪ∫n/ noun [U]

إسبات ، نوم شتوي

hiccup (also hiccough) /'hɪkʌp/ noun 1 [C] a sudden, usually repeated, sound that is made in the throat and that you cannot control

- 2 (the) hiccups [plural] a series of hiccups: Don't eat so fast or you'll get hiccups! o I had the فواق، حازوقة
- 3 [C] a small problem or difficulty: There's been a slight hiccup in our holiday arrangements but مشكلة أو عقبة صغيرة I've got it sorted out now.

▶ hiccup (also hiccough) verb [I]

يصاب بالفواق أو الحازوقة

certain or worried. He hesitated before going into "hide" /haid/ verb (pt hid /hid/; pp hidden /'hidn/) 1 [T] to put or keep sb/sth in a place where he/she/it cannot be seen: Where shall I hide the money? o You couldn't see Bill in the photo - he was hidden behind John. o The trees hid the house from view. يخبّئ ، يخفى

> 2 [I] to be or get in a place where you cannot be seen or found: Quick, run and hide! o The child was hiding under the bed. 2 Look also at hiding<sup>2</sup>

> 3 [T] hide sth (from sb) to keep sth secret so that other people do not know about it: She tried to hide her disappointment from them.

hide<sup>2</sup> /haid/ noun [C,U] the skin of an animal that will be used for making leather, etc. جلد الحيوان hide-and-seek /,haid n 'si:k/ noun [U] a children's game in which one person hides and the لعبة الاستغماية، طميمة others try to find him/her hideous /'hidiəs/ adj very ugly or unpleasant: a hideous sight o a hideous crime o (informal) That new dress she's got is hideous.

▶ hideously adv hideousness noun [U] hiding / hardin / noun [C] (informal) a beating that is given as a punishment: You deserve a good ضرب ، علقة، قتلة hiding for what you've done.

hiding<sup>2</sup> /'haɪdɪŋ/ noun [U]

DM be in/go into hiding to be in or go into a place where you cannot be found: She escaped from prison and went into hiding.

hierarchy / hararcki/ noun [C] (pl. hierarchies) a system or organization that has many grades or ranks from the lowest to the highest

▶ hierarchical /ˌhaɪəˈrɑːkɪkl/ adj

hieroglyphics /,harərə'glıfıks/ noun [plural] the system of writing that was used in ancient Egypt in which a type of picture represents a word or sound

hi-fi /'har far/ noun (informal) electrical equipment for playing recorded music that produces صوت عالي الجودة high-quality sound

hi-fi adj (only before a noun) (في الأجهزة الصوتية) صوت من نوعية ممتازة

higgledy-piggledy /ˌhɪgldi ˈpɪgldi/ adv, adj (informal) not in any order; mixed up together: The books were piled up higgledy-piggledy on her desk.

- R high 1 /haı/ adj 1 (used about things) measuring a great amount from the bottom to the top: high cliffs o What's the highest mountain in the world? o high heels (= on shoes) o The garden wall was so high that we couldn't see over it. Look at height, low and the note at tall.
  - 2 having a particular height: The hedge is one metre high. o knee-high boots (الله القاعة (كذا)
  - 3 at a level which is a long way from the ground, or from sea level: Keep medicines on a high shelf where children cannot reach them. The castle was built on high ground.
  - 4 above the usual or normal level or amount: high prices o at high speed o a high level of unemployment o high-quality goods o He's got a high temperature. o Oranges are high in vitamin C.
  - 5 good or favourable: Her work is of a very high standard. He has a high opinion of you. عال: حسن
  - 6 having an important position or rank: We shall have to refer the matter to a higher authority.
  - 7 morally good: high ideals مثل عليا
  - 8 (used about a sound or voice) not deep or low: She sang the high notes beautifully.

(صوت) حادً، عال

- 9 high (on sth) (informal) under the influence of drugs, etc.
- 10 (not before a noun) (used about some kinds of food) beginning to go bad: That cheese smells a bit high. (طعام) على وشك الفساد
- 11 (used about a gear in a car) that allows a faster speed (في السّيارة) نقل مغيّر السرعة إلى سرعة أعلى
- ? high<sup>2</sup> /hat/ adv 1 at or to a high position or level:

  The sun was high in the sky, I can't jump any higher. The plane flew high overhead. You should aim high.
  - 2 (used about a sound) at a high level: How high can you sing?
  - المسل high and low everywhere: We've searched high and low for the keys.
  - high³ /haɪ/ noun [C] 1 a high level or point: Profits reached an all-time high last year. ارتفاع:مستوی عال
  - ${f 2}$  an area of high atmospheric pressure: A high over the Atlantic will move towards Britain in the next few days.
  - 3 (informal) a feeling of great pleasure or happiness that sb gets from doing sth exciting or being successful: He was on a high after passing all his exams. She talked about the highs and lows of her career.
  - 4 (informal) a feeling of great pleasure or hap piness that may be caused by a drug, etc.

نشوة. ثمل، حبور (بناثير الخمر أو المخدّرات) on high (formal) (in) a high place, the sky or heaven: The order came from on high.

(من) فوق، من سلطة عليا: في السموات

- highbrow /ˈhaɪbraʊ/ adj interested in or concerned with matters that many people would find too serious to be interesting: highbrow books رفيم الثقافة ، فكرى
- 'high chair noun [C] a special chair with long legs and a little seat and table, for a small child to sit in when eating
- high-'class adj 1 of especially good quality: a high-class restaurant
  - 2 (used about a person) having a high (6) position in society دو منزلة عليا؛ من طبقة أرستقراطية
- High 'Court noun [C] the most important court of law
- higher edu'cation noun [U] education at a university or college
- ,high 'five noun [C] (especially US) an action to celebrate victory or to express happiness in which two people raise one arm each and hit their open hands together

ضَرْبِ الكفِّ بكفِّ صديق مثلاً ابتهاحاً

- 'high jump noun [sing.] the sport in which people try to jump over a bar in order to find out who can jump the highest ⊃ Look at long jump.
- highland /haılənd/ adj 1 in or connected with mountainous regions: highland streams ⊋ Look at lowland. حبليّ، نجدي
- 2 the Highlands [plural] the mountainous part of Scotland المناطق الجبلية في اسكتلندا
- ,high-'level adj involving important people: high-level talks
- ? highlight /hailait/ noun 1 [C] the best or most interesting part of sth: The highlights of the match will be shown on TV tonight.

أبرز أو أهم جزء (في مباراة أو مسرحية)

- 2 highlights [plural] areas of lighter colour that are put in a person's hair
- خُصيلات من الشعر نَحعل أفتح لونا من غيرها highlight verb [T] to give special attention to sth: The report highlighted the need for improved safety at football grounds.

  و كو الأضواء على
- highlighter /'haılartə(r)/ (also 'highlighter pen) noun [C] a special pen used for marking words in a text in a bright colour

قلم ملون لإبراز الكلمات

- R highly /'haɪli/ adv 1 to a high degree; very: The film was highly amusing. o The disease is highly contagious.
  - 2 (very) well or favourably: I think highly of your work (= I have a good opinion of it). ه ل highly paid job (ريقدر) غاية التقدير : (منصب) دو راتب عال
- highly 'strung adj (used about a person or animal) yerv nervous and excitable

عصبي المزاج ، انفعالي

Highness → Hindu

Highness /hames/ noun [C] a title used when speaking about or to a member of a royal fam-

.high-'powered adj 1 (used about things) having great power: a high-powered engine

ذو طاقة عالبة

2 (used about people) important and successful: high-powered executives

(مدير شركة) ناجح ودو مركز هام

high 'pressure noun [U] the condition of the atmosphere when the pressure of the air is above ارتفاع الضغط الجوي normal

'high-rise adj (only before a noun) (used about a building) very tall and having a lot of floors بناية عالية كثيرة الشقق

'high school noun [C,U] (especially US) a secondary school مدرسة ثانوية

'high street noun [C] (often used in names) the الشارع الرنيسي main street of a town

hi-tech) adj (informal) high-'tech (also 1 using a lot of modern equipment, especially أحدث تكنولوجيا (خاصة الكمبيوتر) computers

2 using designs or styles taken from industry, تكنولوجيا حديثة حدأ etc: verv modern high 'tide noun [C] the time when the sea comes المدّ (عكس الحَزْر) closest to the shore highway /'haiwei/ noun [C] (especially US) a main road (between towns) 2 Look at the note at road. طريق رئيسي hijab /hi'd3q:b/ noun [C] a head covering worn in public by some Muslim women hijack /haidzæk/ verb [T] to take control of a plane, etc. by force, usually for political reasons: The plane was hijacked on its flight to Sydney.

يختطف (طائرة مثلا) ▶ hijacker noun [C] a person who hijacks a مختطف (طائرة) hijacking noun [C,U] an occasion when a plane, etc. is hijacked: Measures are being taken to اختطاف (طائرة) prevent hijacking.

hike /haɪk/ noun [C] a long walk in the country

تجول في الريف

▶ hike verb [I] • Go hiking is used when you are talking about spending time hiking: They went hiking in Wales for their holiday.

يتجوك في الريف متجول في المناطق الريفية

hiker noun [C]

hiker noun إلى hilarious /hr'leəriəs/ adj very funny مُضِحك حِداً . يُمِيت من الفحك مِداً . يُمِيت من الفحك (مصحك) بقهقية مسموعة (مصحك) بقهقية مسموعة المصحك المحادة (مصحك المحادة عليه المحادة المح

hilarity /hɪˈlærəti/ noun [U] great amusement or جَلْل ، مَرَح صاخب ؛ قهقهة عالية loud laughter

% hill /hɪl/ noun [C] a high area of land that is not as high (or as rocky) as a mountain: There was a wonderful view from the top of the hill. o Tim enjoys walking in the hills. o I had to push my bike up the hill - it was too steep to ride. 1 Note the words uphill and downhill (adj, adv): an uphill climb o I like riding downhill on my ▶ hilly /'hɪli/ adj (hillier; hilliest) having many hills: The country's very hilly around here. كثير التلال hillside /'hilsaid/ noun [C] the sloping side of a hill: a house built on the hillside

حانب التَّلِّ ، انحدار التلَّ

قمة التل hilltop /'hiltop/ noun [C] the top of a hill hilt /hilt/ noun [C] the handle of a sword, etc.

مقبض السيف (مثلاً) IDM (up) to the hilt to a high degree or completely: I'll support you to the hilt.

حتى النهاية ، كلِّيةً

Thim /him/ pron (the object of a verb or preposition) a male person or animal that was mentioned earlier: Helen told Ian that she loved him. o I've got a letter for your father - can you give it to him, please? o (informal) That must be him now. • Look at the note at he.

الضمير المتَّصل "..ه" في حالة المفعوليَّة

? himself/him'self/pron 1 (used as the object of a verb or preposition when the male person or animal who does an action is also affected by it): He cut himself when he was shaving. o He's bought himself a new sweater. o John looked at himself in the mirror.

2 (used for emphasis): He told me the news himself. o The minister himself came to see the damage.  $\circ$  Did he write this himself? (= or did sb else do it for him?)

3 in his normal state; healthy: He's not feeling himself today (= he's feeling ill).

(all) by himself 1 alone: He lives by himself. Took at the note at alone. وحله ، لوحده

2 without help: He should be able to cook a meal وحده، لوحده ، دون مساعدة by himself.

(all) to himself without having to share: Charlie has the bedroom to himself now his brother's hind /hamd/ adj (used about an animal's legs, etc.) at the back @ We also say back legs. The legs at the front are front legs or forelegs. خلفيّ ، (قائمة حيوان) خلفيّة ۗ hinder /'hində(r)/ verb [T] to make it more difficult for sb/sth to do sth: A lot of scientific work is hindered by lack of money. يعيق ، يعرقل hindrance /'hindrans/ noun [C] a person or thing that makes it difficult for you to do sth: Mark wanted to help me but he was more of a hindrance than a help.

hindsight /'haindsait/ noun [U] knowing afterwards why sth bad happened and how you could have stopped it happening: With hindsight, I wouldn't have lent him the money.  $\ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ $  Look at foresight. تَفْهُم طبيعة الحوادث بعد وقوعها

Hindu /,hɪn'du:; US 'hɪndu:/ noun [C] a person الهندوسي whose religion is Hinduism هندوسي ▶ Hindu adj: Hindu beliefs

Hinduism /'hindu:izəm/ noun [U] the main religion of India. Hindus believe in many gods and that, after death, people will return to life in a different form.

hinge¹ /hındʒ/ noun [C] a piece of metal that joins two sides of a box, door, etc. together and allows it to be opened or closed مفصلة (الباب مثلاً)

hinge<sup>2</sup>/hind<sub>3</sub>/verb

PHRV hinge on sth to depend on sth: The future of the project hinges on the meeting today.

وقف على

- hint /hɪnt/ noun [C] 1 something that you suggest in an indirect way: She kept looking at her watch as a hint that it was time to go.
- 2 a small amount of sth: There was a hint of sadness in his voice. مقدار ضئيل، أثر: مسحة
- 3 a piece of advice or information: The magazine had some helpful hints about how to make your own clothes.
- ▶ hint verb [I,T] to suggest sth in an indirect way: They only hinted at their great disappointment. He hinted that he might be moving to Greece.
- Rhip¹ /hrp/ noun [C] the part of the side of your body above your legs and below your waist: He stood there angrily with his hands on his hips.

  What do you measure round the hips? She broke her hip (= the bone inside her hip) when she fell.

hip2/hip/interj

- mip, hip, hurrah/hurray (shouted three times when a group wants to show that it is pleased with sb or with sth that has happened):

  "Three cheers for David. He's done a great job.

  Hip, hip..." Hurray!
- hippie (also hippy) /'hɪpi/ noun [C] (pl. hippies) a person who rejects the usual values and way of life of western society. Especially in the 1960s, hippies showed that they were different by wearing brightly-coloured clothes, having long hair and taking drugs.

"الهبّي"، "الوجودي"، البوهيميّ الرافض لتقاليد المجتمع "

- hippopotamus /ˌhɪpə'putəməs/ noun [C] (pl. hippopotamuses /-məsiz/ or hippopotami /-mai/) (also informal hippo /'hɪpəʊ/ (pl. hippos)) a large African river animal with a large head and short legs and thick dark skin
- Thire /ˈhaɪə(r)/ verb [T] 1 (US rent) hire sth (from sb) to have the use of sth for a short time by paying for it

In British English, you hire something for a short time: We hired a car for the day, o I hired a suit for the wedding but rent something if the period of time is longer: rent a television, video, etc. o rent a house, flat, holiday cottage, etc. in American English rent is used in both situations.

2 to give sb a job for a short time: We'll have to hire somebody to mend the roof. In American English hire is also used for talking about permanent jobs: We just hired a new secretary.

يستخدم ، يكتري ؛ يوظّف

- 3 (US rent) hire sth (out) (to sb) to allow sb to use sth for a short fixed period in exchange for money: We hire (out) our vans by the day. 1 British English, rent or let is used if the period of time is longer: Mrs Higgs rents out rooms to students. We let out our house while we were in France for a year.
- hire noun [U] (the cost of) hiring: The hire of the hall is £10 an hour. ○ Car hire is expensive in this country. ○ Bicycles for hire! ○ a hire car استنجار: إيجار
- hire 'purchase noun [U] (Brit) (abbr h.p.; HP) a way of buying goods. You do not pay the full price at once but make regular small payments (instalments) until the full amount is paid: We're buying the video on hire purchase.
- his /hiz/ det belonging to a male person or animal that was mentioned earlier: That's his book. He left it there this morning. o Matthew has hurt his shoulder.
  - his /hiz/ pron of or belonging to him: This is my book so that one must be his. Father has a lot of ties so I borrowed one of his. ◆ Look at the note at he.
  - hiss /his/ verb 1 [1,T] to make a sound like a very long 's' to show that you are angry or do not like sth: The goose hissed at me. The speech was hissed and booed.
    - يهسهس ؛ يفخ ؛ بهسهس أو يصفر استنكاراً (اللخطيب مثلا)

      [T] to say sth in an angry hissing voice: 'Stay away from me!' she hissed.

      يتكلم بصوت غاضب أنح
    - hiss noun [C]
  - historian /hɪˈstɔ:riən/ noun [C] a person who studies history
  - historic /hr'storik; US -'stori-/ adj famous or important in history: The opening of the Berlin Wall was a historic occasion.
- ? historical /hi'storikl; US -'sto:r-/ adj 1 connected with history or the study of history: There is very little historical evidence about the life of Christ. This house has great historical interest.
  - 2 that really lived or happened: Was Robin Hood really a historical figure? o historical events
  - ► historically /-kli/ adv

من الناحية التاريخية : على مرّ التاريخ

- Rhistory /ˈhistri/ noun (pl. histories) 1 [U] the study of past events and social, political and economic developments: She has a degree in history.

  History was my favourite subject at school. o a history teacher
  - 2 [U] events of the past (when you are thinking of them as a whole): History often repeats itself.
    o an important moment in history 3 Look at natural history.
  - 3 [C] a written description of past events: a new history of Europe
  - 4 [C, usually sing.] the series of events or facts that is connected with a person, place or thing: There is a history of heart disease in our family.

    السلمة حوادث، تاريخ طويل

History is something true that really happened. A story is a description of a series of events that may or may not have happened.

TIM go down in/make history to be or do sth so important that it will be recorded in history: She made history by becoming the first woman President.

? hit¹ /hrt/ verb [T] (pres part hitting; pt, pp hit) 1 to touch sb/sth with a lot of force: 'Don't hit me', she begged. ○ The old man was hit by a car while he was crossing the road. ○ Someone hit her on the head and stole her handbag. ○ to hit a ball with a bat ○ (figurative) The smell of burning hit her as she entered the room. ○ (figurative) Things were going really well until we hit this problem.

يضرب : يصدم : يصيب

Strike is a more formal word than hit. Beat means to hit many times: He was badly beaten in the attack.

- 2 hit sth (on/against sth) to knock a part of your body, etc. against sth: Peter hit his head on the low beam.
- 3 to have a bad effect upon sb/sth: Inner city areas have been badly hit by unemployment.

  Her father's death has hit her very hard.
  - يُضر بِ، يؤثِّر تأثيراً سَيْناً
- 4 to find or reach sth: If you follow this road you should hit the motorway in about ten minutes.

   The price of oil hit a new high yesterday.

بلغ، يصل

5 [1, T] to suddenly come into sb's mind; to make sb realize or understand sth: I thought I recognized the man's face and then it hit me - he was my old maths teacher!

DM hit it off (with sb) (informal) to like sb when you first meet him/her: When I first met Tony's parents, we didn't really hit it off.

hit the nail on the head to say sth that is exactly right

EHRY hit back (at sb/sth) to attack (with words) sb who has attacked you: The Prime Minister hit back at his critics. (الكلات) hit on sth to suddenly find sth by chance: I finally hit on a solution to the problem.

بمثر فجأة على hit out (at sb/sth) to attack sb/sth: The man hit out at the policeman. • The newspapers hit out at the company for its poor safety record.

- hit² /hrt/ noun [C] 1 the act of hitting sth; a blow: The ship took a direct hit and sank. O What a brilliant hit! (e.g. in a game of cricket or baseball) Dook at miss.
  - 2 a person or thing that is very popular or successful: He was quite a hit in America. o The song was a smash hit.
  - 3 a result of a search on a computer, especially on the Internet

    متوفق في العقور على العقور على المتاون في العقور على المتاون المتاون في العقود على المتاون المتاون hit-and-'run adj 1 (used about a car driver) causing an accident and not stopping to see if anybody is hurt

(سائق) فارّ ، سائق لا يتوقف بعد التسبّب في حادث

2 (used about a road accident) caused by a hitand-run driver (حادثة طريق) فر مُسبّبها

- hitch¹ /hɪtʃ/ verb 1 [I.T] (informal) to get free rides in other people's cars as a way of travelling cheaply: They hitched a lift in a lorry to London.
- 2 [T] to fasten sth to sth else: The horses were hitched to the fence. o to hitch a trailer to the back of a car
- hitch² /hɪtʃ/ noun [C] a small problem or difficulty: The wedding went off without a hitch. o a technical hitch
- hitchhike /ˈhɪtʃhaɪk/ verb [I] to travel by getting free rides in other people's cars: He hitchhiked across Europe.

  → 'hitchhiker noun [C]

شخص يسافر مجانأ بإيقاف السيارات المأرة

hi-tech /,har 'tek/ = нібн-тесн hitherto /ˌhɪðəˈtuː/ adv (formal) until now ضي الآن

حتى الان

hit-or-'miss (also hit-and-'miss) adj (informal) not well organized; careless: She works in rather a hit-and-miss way, I'm afraid.

لاعلى التعيين، غير منظم ؛ غير مكترث

HIV /eit∫ 3i 'vi:/ abbrev human immunodeficiency virus; the virus that is believed to cause AIDS فيروس نقص المناعة hive /haiv/ noun [C] = BEEHIVE

hiya /ˈhaɪjə/ interj (informal) (used as a greeting when you meet sb) hello مرحبا! أهلاً!

HM (also H.M.) abbrev Her/His Majesty: HM the Queen ماحب الجلالة صاحبة الجلالة hm /hm/ interj (used when you are not sure or when you are thinking about sth)

"همُ": صوت الهمهمة (تعُبّر عن التردّد أو التفكّر)

HMS /ˌeɪtʃ em 'es/ abbrev (Brit) (for ships in the British Royal Navy) Her/His Majesty's Ship: HMS Apollo سفن اسطول صاحبة الجلالة

hoard /hɔːd/ noun [C] a store of money, food, etc: a hoard of treasure hoard verb [I,T] hoard (sth) (up) to collect and store large quantities of sth (often secretly) hoarding /ˈhɔːdɪn/ (US billboard) noun [C] a large board in the street where advertisements are put لوحة ضخمة في الشارع للإعلان hoarse /ho:s/ adj 1 (used about a voice) sounding rough and quiet, e.g. because you have a cold: a hoarse whisper

2 (used about people) with a hoarse voice: The spectators shouted themselves hoarse. ► hoarsely adv

hoax /həʊks/ noun [C] a trick to make people believe sth that is not true, especially sth unpleasant: The fire brigade answered the call, but found لعبة صبيانية أو خدعة للإيقاع بشخص that it was a hoax.

hob /hob/ noun [C] the flat surface on the top of a cooker that is used for boiling, frying, etc. (في جهاز الطبخ) ألقسم العلوي المستعمل للطبخ (ليس الفرن) hobble /'hnbl/ verb [I] to walk with difficulty because your feet or legs are hurt: He hobbled home on his twisted ankle.

? hobby /'hobi/ noun [C] (pl. hobbies) something that you do regularly for pleasure in your free time: The children's hobbies are swimming and stamp collecting.

hockey /'hoki/ noun [U] 1 a game that is played on a field (a pitch) by two teams of eleven players who try to hit a small hard ball into a goal with a curved wooden stick (a hockey stick) 1 In the US hockey is usually called field hockey to distinguish it from ice hockey.

2 (US) = ICE HOCKEY

hoe /hou/ noun [C] a garden tool with a long handle that is used for turning the soil and for removing weeds معزق ، منكاش

hog /hng; US ho:g/ noun [C] (US) a male pig خنزير أهلي ▶ hog verb [T] (hogging; hogged) (informal) to take or keep too much or all of sth in a selfish way: Don't hog the bathroom when everyone's getting ready to go out! o The red car was hogging the middle of the road so no one could يستأثر ب overtake.

Hogmanay /'hpgmənei/ noun [C] the Scottish name for New Year's Eve (31 December) and the celebrations that take place then (في اسكتلندا) ليلة رأس السنة hoist /hoist/ verb [T] to raise or lift sth by using ropes, etc: to hoist a flag, sail, etc. يرفع بالحبال

- ? hold /həvld/ verb (pt, pp held /held/) 1 [T] to take sb/sth and keep him/her/it in your hand, etc: He held a gun in his hand. O The woman was holding a baby in her arms. O He manages to write by holding the pen between his teeth. o Hold my hand. This is a busy road.
  - 2 [T] to keep sth in a certain position: Hold your head up straight. o Hold the camera still or you'll spoil the picture. O These two screws hold the shelf in place.
  - 3 [T] to keep a person in a position or place hy force: The terrorists are holding three men hostage. o A man is being held at the police sta-
  - 4 [I,T] to contain or have space for a particular amount: The car holds five people. O How much does this bottle hold? يتسع ل يستوعب
  - 5 [T] to have sth (usually in an official way): Does she hold a British passport? O She holds the world record in the 100 metres. يحمل؛ يشغل
  - 6 [T] to have an opinion, etc: They hold the view 6 [T] to nave an opinion, درنی that we shouldn't spend any more money.

7 [I] to remain the same: I hope this weather holds till the weekend. o What I said still holds, يبقى على حاله ، يدوم nothing has changed.

- 8 [T] to believe that sth is true about a person: I hold the parents responsible for the child's يعتقد؛ يعتبر
- 9 [T] to organize an event: They're holding a party for his fortieth birthday. O The elections will be held in the autumn. يقيم (حفلة) : يحري
- 10 [I,T] (when you are telephoning) to wait until the person you are calling is ready: I'm afraid his phone is engaged. Will you hold the line? ينتظر (على خطّ التليفون)

11 [T] to have a conversation: It's impossible to ىتحدث hold a conversation with all this noise. قف! لا تتحرك! Hold it! Wait! Don't move!

for other idioms containing hold, look at the entries for the nouns, adjectives, etc., e.g. hold your own is at own.

PHRV hold sb/sth back 1 to prevent sb/sth from making progress بؤخر؛ يعيق

2 to prevent sb/sth from moving forward: The police tried to hold the crowd back. يصد ، يرد ، يكبح hold sth back to not give information: The police are sure that she is holding something back. She knows much more than she is saying. بكتم معلو مات hold on 1 to wait: Hold on. I'll be with you in a 2 to manage in a difficult or dangerous situation: They managed to hold on until a rescue party arrived.

hold on to sb/sth to not let go of sb/sth: The child held on to his mother. He didn't want her to ىتشىت د hold on to sth to not give or sell sth: They've offered me a lot of money for this painting, but I'm يحتفظ ب going to hold on to it.

hold out to last (in a difficult situation): How long will our supply of water hold out?

hold sth out to offer sth by moving it towards sb: He held out a sweet and offered it to the girl. يقدم، يعرض على hold out for sth to continue to ask for sth يصرَ على مطلوبه ، ينتظر بصبر بغية تحقيق مطلوبه hold sb/sth up to make sb/sth late: We were held up by the traffic. hold up sth to rob sth, using a gun, etc: Masked men held up a bank in South London yesterday.

يهدد بالمسدس بغية السرقة ، يسطو مهدّداً بِسلاح

- ?hold<sup>2</sup> /həʊld/ noun 1 [C, sing.] the act or manner of holding sb/sth: to have a firm hold on the rope o judo holds 6 'Hold' is often used with the verbs catch, get, grab, seize, take, etc: Catch hold of the other side of this sheet and help me to fold it, please. o I can touch it, but I can't quite get hold of it. It's too far away. قبضة ، مسكة
  - 2 [sing.] a hold (on/over sb/sth) influence or control: The new government has strengthened its hold on the country.
  - 3 [C] a place where a climber can put his/her hand or foot when climbing 3 Look at foothold. ممسك أو موطئ (عند تسلّق جبل) get hold of sb/sth 1 to find sb/sth (that will be useful): I must try and get hold of a good يجد ، يقع على second-hand bicycle.

hold → home 378

2 to find sb or make contact with sb: I've been trying to get hold of the complaints department all يتصل با يحد hold3 /hould/ noun [C] the part of a ship or plane where goods are carried

عنبر (في سفينة) ، مخزن (في طائرة)

holdall /'həʊldɔ:l/ (US carry-all) noun [C] a large bag that is used for carrying clothes, etc. when you are travelling حقيبة يدكبيرة لحمل الأمتعة

holder /'havlda(r)/ noun [C] (often in compounds) 1 a person who has or holds sth: a ticket holder o the world record holder in the 100 metres o holders of British passports

حامل (شهادة مثلا) ؛ حائز على

2 something that contains or holds sth: a plant وعاء حاوِ لشيء آخر ، حامل pot holder

'hold-up noun [C] 1 a delay: What's the hold-تأخير up? سطو مس

2 a robbery by people with guns

? hole /həʊl/ noun 1 [C] an opening; a hollow or an empty space in sth solid: The pavement is full of holes, o There are holes in my socks, o I've got a hole in my tooth.  $\circ$  (figurative) The repair of the roof has made a big hole in their savings.

حفرة ؛ ثقب ؛ ثغرة

- 2 [C] the place where an animal lives in the ground or in a tree: a rabbit hole
- 3 [sing.] (informal) a small dark and unpleasant room, flat, etc: This place is a hole - you can't live مسكن صغير مظلم ، غرفة مثل "القبر" أو "الحب"
- 4 [C] (in golf) the hole in the ground that you must hit the ball into. Each section of a golf course is also called a hole: an eighteen-hole golf course o Barbara won the seventh hole.
- ? holiday /'holadei/ noun 1 [C] a day of rest when people do not go to work, school, etc: Next Thursday is a holiday in some parts of Germany. O New Year's Day is a bank/public holiday in Britain.

Holiday in this sense is used in both British and American English. A day when you do not go to work is often also called a day off: I'm having two days off next week when we move house.

2 (US vacation) [C,U] a period of rest from work or school (often when you go and stay away from home): We're going to Italy for our summer holidays this year. o Mr Philips isn't here this week. He's away on holiday. o I'm going to take a week's holiday in May and spend it at home. o the school, Christmas, Easter, summer, etc. holidays

In British English vacation means the period of time when universities and courts of law are not working: Maria wants to get a job in the long vacation. Leave is time when you do not go to work for a special reason: sick leave o maternity leave (= when you are having a baby) o unpaid

'holiday camp noun [C] (Brit) a place that provides accommodation and organized entertainment for people on holiday

مكان معدُّ للاصطياف ؛ مخيِّم سياحي holidaymaker /'hɒlədeɪmeɪkə(r)/ noun [C] (Brit) a person who is away from home on holi-holiness /'həʊlinəs/ noun [U] the state of being قدستة ، قداسة

? hollow /'hplau/ adj 1 with a hole or empty space inside: a hollow tree

2 (used about a sound) seeming to come from a hollow place: hollow footsteps in the empty (صوت) عميق أو مكتوم lacktriangledown hollow noun [C] an area that is lower than the surrounding land hollow verb

PHRV hollow sth out to take the inside part of sth out in order to make sth else: They hollowed out a tree trunk to make a canoe.

holly /'hpli/ noun [U] a plant that has shiny darkgreen leaves with prickles and red berries in the winter. It is often used as a Christmas decor-شجرة الدِّبق، شرابة الراعي، البهشية holocaust /'hplako:st/ noun [C] a situation where a great many things are destroyed and a great many people die: a nuclear holocaust

دمار شامل ، محرقة : مجزرة

hologram /'hologræm/ noun [C] an image or picture which appears to stand out from the flat surface it is on when light falls on it هولوغرام: صورة نافرة holster /'haulsta(r)/ noun [C] a leather case for a gun that is fixed to a belt or worn under the قراب أو بيت المسدس

tholy /hauli/ adj (holier; holiest) 1 connected with God or with religion and therefore very special or sacred: the Holy Bible o holy water o The Koran is the holy book of the Muslims.

2 (used about a person) serving God; pure (رجل) تقي مكرس حياته لخدمة الأله

Holy Com'munion noun [U] = communion (1)

the Holy 'Ghost (also the Holy 'Spirit) noun [sing.] Christians believe God consists of three parts: God the Father, God the Son (Jesus Christ) and God the Holy Ghost الروح القدس

home /həum/ noun 1 [C,U] the place where you live (with your family) or where you feel that you belong: She left home at the age of 21. o That old house would make an ideal family home. o Stephen went abroad and made his home in Canada. o Now we've got this computer, we'd better find a home for it (= somewhere to keep it). 2 Look at the note at house1. بيت ؛ عائلة ؛ مكان إقامة

Be careful. The preposition to is not used before 'home': It's time to go home. O She's usually tired when she gets home. If you want to talk about somehody else's home, you have to say: at Jane and Andy's or: at Jane and Andy's place/house.

- 2 [C] a place that provides care for a particular type of person or for animals: a children's home (= for children who have no parents to look after them) o an old people's home ملحاً، مأوى: دار
- 3 [sing.] the place where sth began: Greece is said to be the home of democracy. مَهُد (الحضارة) IDM at home 1 in your house, flat, etc: Is anybody at home? o Tomorrow we're staying at home all day. 1 In US English home is often used without the preposition at: Is anybody home?
- 2 as if you were in your own home; comfortable: Please make yourself at home. O They were warm and welcoming and I felt at home straight مرتاح وكأنه في بيته
- ▶ homeless adj having no home بلامأوی، مشرد the homeless noun [plural] people without a المشردون home است. التشرد homelessness noun [U]

homeward /'həumwəd/ adj going towards home: the homeward journey

عاند (إلى البيت أو إلى الوطن) homewards /-wədz/ adv towards home في طريق العودة إلى البيت أو الوطن

- home<sup>2</sup> /həom/ adj (only before a noun) 1 connected with home: home cooking o a happy home بيتي عائلي
- 2 connected with your own country, not with a foreign country: The Home Secretary is responsible for home affairs. o goods for the home market
- 3 (used in sport) connected with your own sports team or ground: The home team has a lot of support. o a home game 6 The opposite is
- home houm/ adv at, in or to your home or home country: We must be getting home soon. She'll be flying home for Christmas.

في البيت؛ إلى البيت bring sth home to sb to make sb understand sth fully: Looking at those pictures of hungry children really brought home to me how lucky we are. يفهم جيداً ، يوضح ؛ يقنع drive sth home (to sb)  $\rightarrow DRIVE^{1}$ rival home (especially of sb who has been away for a long time) العودة إلى الوطن

the Home 'Counties noun [plural] the area of Britain around London المقاطعات المحيطة بلندن

.home eco'nomics noun [U] cooking and other skills needed at home, taught as a subject in school

,home-'grown adj (used about fruit and vegetables) grown in your own garden من انتاج حديقة البيت

'homeland /'həʊmlænd/ noun [C] the country where you were born or that your parents came from, or to which you feel you belong homely /'həumli/ adj (homelier; homeliest)

1 (Brit) plain and simple but also comfortable or welcoming: a homely atmosphere o The farmer's wife was a large homely woman.

(مكان) بسيط لكنّه مريح: (جو) عائلي: (امرأة) بسيطة مضيافة 2 (US) (used about a person) not very attract-غير جذّاب home-made adj made at home; not bought in a shop: home-made cakes من صنع البيت

the 'Home Office noun [sing.] the department of the British Government that is responsible for affairs inside the country, the police, prisons, etc. The Home Office also decides who can come and وزارة الداخلية البريطانية live in Britain.

homeopathy (Brit also homoeopathy) / həvmi'ppəθi/ noun [U] the treatment of a disease by giving very small amounts of a drug that would cause the disease if given in large amounts المعالحة المثلية

▶ homeopath (Brit also homoeopath) /'həʊmiəpæθ/ noun [C] a person who treats sick معالج بالطريقة المثلية people by using homeopathy homeopathic (Brit also homoeopathic) / həvmiə'pæθık/ adj: homeopathic medicine

'home page noun (computing) the first of a number of pages of information on the Internet that belongs to a person or an organization. A home page contains connections to other pages صفحة الموقع على الشبكة الدولية of information.

homeroom /'heomru:m; -rom/ noun [C,U] (US) a room in a school where students go at the beginning of each school day, so that teachers can check who is in school; the time spent in this room: Homeroom lasts for ten minutes.

غرفة التفقّد (في مدرسة)

Home 'Secretary noun [C] (pl. Home Secretaries) the British Government minister who is وزير الداخلية البريطاني in charge of the Home Office

'homesick /'həʊmsik/ adj sad because you are away from home: She was very homesick for Can-مشتاق أو شاعر بالحنين إلى الوطن الحنين إلى الوطن ▶ 'homesickness noun [U]

hometown /'haomtaun/ noun [C] the place where you were born or lived as a child

 $\textbf{homecoming } \textit{/`haomkamin/} \textit{noun} \ [\texttt{C,U}] \ the \ ar- \ \ \textbf{\ref{homework } \'e homework \textit{/`haomws:k/}} \textit{noun} \ [\texttt{U}] \ the \ work \ that$ teachers give to pupils to do away from school: Have we got any homework? O We've got a translation to do for homework, o (figurative) The minister had not done his homework and there were several questions that he couldn't answer. 3 Look at the note at housework

واجب أو فرض مدرسي ، وظيفة

homicide /'hpmisaid/ noun [U] the illegal kil-اing of one person by another; murder جريمة قتل ▶ homicidal / hpmi'saidl/ adj ميَّال إلى القتل ؛ قتليّ

homoeopathy = HOMEOPATHY

homogeneous /,homə'dzi:niəs/ adj made up of parts that are all of the same type 1 The opposite is heterogeneous.

homonym → hook

homonym /'homanım/ noun [C] a word that is spelt and pronounced like another word but that has a different meaning

(كلمات) متطابقة لفظاً مختلفة معنى ّ homosexual /ˌhəʊməˈsekʃuəl/ adj sexually attracted to people of the same sex homosexual noun [C] a homosexual person homosexuality / houmosek [u'æ]ati/ noun السل للمثل: ثوانات

Hon (especially US Hon.) abbrev 1 = Honorary (2)

2 = Honourable(2)

- ? honest /'pnist/ adj 1 (used about a person) telling the truth; not deceiving people or stealing: Just be honest - do you like this skirt or not? o We need somebody who's completely honest for this job.
  - 2 showing honest qualities: an honest face  $\circ$   $\Gamma d$  like your honest opinion, please.

مخلص، مُعبّر عن الأمانة

- The opposite for both senses is dishonest.
- honestly adv 1 in an honest way: He tried to answer the lawyer's questions honestly.
- 2 (used for emphasizing sth): I honestly don't know where she has gone.
- 3 (used for expressing disapproval): Honestly! What a mess! پا إلهي! (تقال تعبيراً عن الاستنكار) honesty /'pnəsti/ noun [U] the quality of being honest ① The opposite is dishonesty.

صدق، آمانة ، استقامة honey /ˈhʌni/ noun [U] the sweet sticky substance that is made by bees and that people eat:

stance that is made by bees and that people eat: Would you like honey on your bread? ⑤ Honey is also another word for darling (used especially in the US).

honeycomb /'hʌnikəʊm/ noun [C,U] the wax structure with many six-sided holes that bees make for keeping their honey and eggs in honeymoon /ˈhʌnimuːn/ noun [C] a holiday that is taken by a man and a woman who have just got married: We went to Hawaii for our honeymoon.

رص النحل

honeysuckle /ˈhʌnisʌkl/ noun [U] a climbing plant with sweet-smelling yellow or pink flowers صريمة البعدي، سلطان الجبل

honk /hɒnk/ verb [I,T] to sound the horn of a car; to make this sound يزمُر/يُطُوط ببوق السّيارة

- honorary /ˈɒnərəri; US ˈɒnəreri/ adj 1 given as an honour (without the person needing the usual qualifications): to be awarded an honorary degree (لقب) فخري
- 2 often Honorary (abbr Hon) not getting any money for doing a job: He is the Honorary President.
- Chonour (US honor) /'pna(r)/ noun 1 [sing.] something that gives pride or pleasure: It was a great honour to be asked to speak at the conference. O He did me the honour of mentioning my name in the introduction. شرف، فخر

- 2 [U] the respect from other people that a person, country, etc. gets because of high standards of behaviour and moral character: a man of honour o to fight for the honour of your country.

  2 Look at dishonour.
- 3 [C] something that is given to a person officially, to show great respect: He has been given several honours for his work with handicapped children.
- 4 Honours [plural] (abbr Hons) a type of university degree that is higher than an ordinary degree شهادة جامعية بدرجة شرف in honour of sb/sth; in sb/sth's honour out of respect for sb/sth: A party was given in honour of the guests from Bonn.

- Phonour<sup>2</sup> (US honor) /ˈɒnə(r)/ verb [T] 1 honour sb/sth (with sth) to show great (public) respect for sb/sth or to give sb pride or pleasure:

  I am very honoured by the confidence you have shown in me.
  - 2 to keep a promise to do sth honourable (US honorable) /'pnerebl/ adj 1 acting in a way that makes people respect you; having or showing honour: The only honourable thing to do was to resign. ○ an honourable person ⊃ Look at dishonourable.

شريف، جدير بالاحترام

- 2 the Honourable (abbr Hon) a title that is given to some high officials, to the children of some noblemen and to Members of Parliament when they are speaking to each other

Hons abbrev = Honours

hood /hvd/ noun [C] 1 the part of a coat, etc. that you use to cover your head and neck in bad weather فلنسوة المعطف أو البرنس

- 2 (especially Brit) a soft cover for a car, or baby's pram that can be folded down in good weather فطاء أو "كبرت" السيارة أو عربة الطفل
- 3 (US) = BONNET (1)

hoof /hu:f/ noun [C] (pl. hoofs or hooves /hu:vz/) the hard part of the foot of horses and some other animals

? hook¹ /hook/ noun [C] 1 a curved piece of metal, plastic, etc. that is used for catching sth or hanging sth on: a fish hook ○ It fastens with a hook and eye. ○ Put your coat on the hook over there.

صنارة صيد، شص ؛ كلاب ؛ كبشة

2 (used in boxing) a blow or punch that is given with the elbow bent: a right hook (= with the right arm) (في الملاكمة) ضربة خطاف receiver) not in position, so that telephone calls cannot be received

2 (informal) out of a difficult situation: My father paid the money I owed and got me off the hook.

(أخرجني من) الورطة

hook2 /huk/ verb 1 [I,T] to fasten sth or to be fastened with a hook or sth like a hook

يُثبُّت أو يثبّت شينا بكلاب أو ما شابهه

2 [T] to catch hold of sth with a hook or with sth hope /hoop/ noun 1 [C,U] hope (of/for sth); shaped like a hook hope (of doing sth/that...) the feeling of want-يلتقط أو يمسك شيئا بكلاب أو ما شابهه EM be/get hooked (on sth) (informal) 1 to like (doing) sth very much: Brian is hooked on computer games.

2 to be dependent on (addicted to) drugs

المدمن على hook (sth) up (to sth) to connect sh/sth to a piece of electronic equipment or to a power supply

يربط بين عده دارات طورباسيه hooked adj shaped like a hook: a hooked nose

(أنف) أقنى، معقوف

hooligan /'hu:ligen/ noun [C] a young person who behaves in a violent and aggressive way in public places: football hooligans 2 Look at lout and yob. They are similar in meaning.

أحد الغوغاء ، شقيّ ، بلطجي، أزعر ► hooliganism /-12əm/ noun [U]

وغائية ، شغب مع عنف

hoop /hu:p/ noun [C] a large metal or plastic ring حلوق كبير من المعدن أو البلاستيك ، طارة

hooray /hu'rei/ interj = HURRAY

hoot /hu:t/ noun 1 [C] the sound that is made by an owl, a ship's or car's horn, etc.

نعيق البوم ؛ زمور (سيارة مثلا)

2 [sing.] (informal) something that is very funny: That film is a real hoot! شرع مضحك جداً hoot verb [[.]] to sound the horn of a car or to make a loud noise: The driver hooted at the dog but it wouldn't move. They hooted with laughter at the suggestion.

Hoover™ /'hu:və(r)/ noun [C] a vacuum cleaner (used to clean carpets by sucking up the dirt) مکنسة کهرباتیة ، هوفر hoover verb [1,T] to clean a carpet, etc. with a vacuum cleaner: This carpet needs hoovering.

 We'd better hoover before our visitors arrive.

hooves /hu:vz/ pl. of hoor hop¹ /hop/ verb [I] (hopping; hopped) 1 (used about a person) to jump on one leg

ینط علی رجل واحدة

2 (used about an animal or bird) to jump with both or all feet together (طائر أو حيوان) يثب، يقفز

3 (informal) to go somewhere quickly or for a short time: Hop upstairs and get my glasses, would you? ينْجُلُفُ رِجِلُهُ"

[المَثْنَ الْبُعْدَ عَنِيَّ الْمُعْدَاعَيِّ الْمُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْبُعْدَ عَنِيًّ الْمُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْبُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْمُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْبُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْمُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْمُعْدَى الْمُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْمُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْمُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْمُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْعِيْنَ الْمُعْدَى الْمُعْلَى الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْمُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ اللَّهِ الْمُعْدَى الْمُعْدَى الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدَى الْمِعْدِيْنَ الْمُعْدَاعِيْنَ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْعِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْلِيْنِ الْمُعْلِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمُعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْعِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْعِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْعِيْمِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْعِيْمِ الْعِيْمِيْنِ الْعِيْمِيْنِ الْمِعْدِيْنِ الْعِيْنِ الْعِيْمِ الْعِيْمِ الْعِيْمِ الْعِيْمِيْنِ الْعِيْمِ الْعِيْمِ الْعِيْمِيْعِيْنِ الْعِيْمِيْنِ الْعِيْمِ الْعِيْمِ الْعِيْمِيْنِ الْعِيْمِ الْعِيْمِ الْعِيْمِ الْعِيْمِ الْعِيْمِ الْعِيْم

امش! أيضد عني! (slang) Go away! المشاد المسلم hop intinto sth; hop out/out of sth (informal) to get in or out of a car, etc. (quickly): Hop in! I'll give you a lift to town.

یرکب أو ينزل بسرعة من سيارة hop on/onto sth; hop off sth to get onto/off a bus, etc. (quickly) پيمعد أو ينزل بسرعة من أوتوييس hop noun [C] an act of hopping

hop² /hop/ noun 1 [C] a tall climbing plant with flowers

2 hops [plural] the flowers of this plant that are used in making beer أزهار الجنجل أو حشيشة الدينار khope /heop/ noun 1 [C,U] hope (of/for sth); hope (of doing sth/that...) the feeling of wanting sth to happen and thinking that it will: She never gave up hope that a cure for the disease would be found. O What hope is there for the future? O There is no hope of finding anybody else alive. O David has high hopes of becoming an accountant.

2 [C, usually sing.] a person or thing that gives you hope: Please can you help me? You're my last hope.

min the hope of sth/that... because you want sth to happen: I came here in the hope that we could talk privately.

> hope verb [I,T] hope (for sth); hope to do sth; hope (that) sth will happen to want sth to happen or be true: I hope that you feel better soon.
○ Hoping to hear from you soon (= at the end of a letter). ○ 'Is it raining?' 'I hope not. I haven't got a coat with me.' ○ 'Are you coming to London with us?' 'I'm not sure yet but I hope so.' ○ We're hoping for snow in January — we're going skiing.

hopeful /ˈhəʊpfl/ adj 1 thinking that sth that you want to happen will happen: He's very hopeful about the success of the business. o The ministers seem hopeful that an agreement will be reached.

2 making you think that sth good will happen: a hopeful sign مشجع ، يرجى منه خير

▶ hopefully /-fəli/ adv 1 in a hopeful way: She smiled hopefully at me, waiting for my answer.
برجاء بتطلم

2 (informal) I/We hope; if everything happens as planned: Hopefully, we'll be finished by six o'clock.

أمَلاً أَنْ ... ، (إِذَا سَارِ كُل شِيءَ على ما يرام)

hopeless /'hauplas/ adj 1 giving no hope that sth will be successful or get better: This is a hopeless situation. There is nothing we can do.

ميؤوس منه

2 hopeless (at sth) (informal) (used about a person) often doing things wrong; very bad at doing sth: You're hopeless. You always forget my birthday. o I'm absolutely hopeless at tennis.

لا أمل في إصلاحه ؛ لا فائدة منه ؛ أخرق hopelessly adv: They were hopelessly lost.

 فون أمل (بالنجاة مثلاً)

يأس، قنوط: انسداد السبل [U] مالسباد السبل horde /hɔːd/ noun [C] a very large number of people: There were hordes of people shopping in town on Saturday.

horizon /həˈraɪzn/ noun [C] the line where the earth and sky appear to meet: The ship appeared on/disappeared over the horizon.

rhorizontal /ˌhorɪˈzontl; US ˌhɔːr-/ adj going from side to side, not up and down; flat or level:

The gymnasts were exercising on the horizontal bars. 2 Look also at vertical.

► horizontally /-təli/ adv hormone /'ho:məʊn/ noun [C] a substance in the body that influences growth and development

- ? horn /ho:n/ noun [C] 1 one of the hard pointed things that cows, goats, etc. have on their
  - 2 the thing in a car, etc. that gives a loud warning sound: Don't sound your horn late at زمور أو بوق (السيارة مثلاً) night. o a foghorn
  - 3 one of the family of brass musical instruments that you play by blowing into them: a French صور (آلة نفخ موسيقية)، بوق

hornet /'ho:nit/ noun a large wasp that can give you a painful sting

IDM a hornet's nest angry argument, criticism, etc. involving a lot of people: His letter to the papers has stirred up/uncovered a real hor-عاصفة من السخط والاستياء net's nest.

horoscope /'horoskoop; US 'horr-/ noun [C] (also stars [plural]) a statement about what is going to happen to a person in the future, based on the position of the stars and planets when he/ she was born: What does my horoscope for next week say? D Look at astrology and zodiac.

معرفة البخت من مواقع النجوم والكواكب horrendous /hp'rendəs/ adi (informal) very bad or unpleasant: The queues were absolutely horrendous. فظيع ، مخيف

للغاية ، بشكل مريع ▶ horrendously adv

horrible /'horabl; US 'ho:r-/ adj 1 (informal) very bad or unpleasant: We had a horrible day in London. O This tastes horrible! O Don't be so hor- $\it rible! \circ \it I've~got~a~horrible~feeling~that~I've~forgot$ شنيع ؛ كريه ؛ مزعج ten something.

2 causing fear or shock: a horrible murder رهيب، فظيع

▶ horribly /-abli/ adv بشكل مريع ؛ بشكل فظيع horrid /'hprid; US 'ho:rid/ adj (informal) very unpleasant or unkind: We had horrid weather in Italy. 0 I'm sorry that I was so horrid last night. رديء للغاية ، فظيع ؛ مزعج جداً horrific /həˈrɪfɪk/ adj 1 causing fear or shock: a horrific road accident رهيب ، مروع

- 2 (informal) very bad or unpleasant: We had a horrific journey - we were stuck in a traffic jam مزعج للغايّة ، (رحلة) ملعونة for two hours.
- ▶ horrifically /-kli/ adv: horrifically expen بشكل فاحش ، إلى حدّ مخيف horrify /'horrfar; US 'horr-/ verb [T] (pres part horrifying; 3rd pers sing pres horrifies; pt, pp horrified) to shock sb greatly: I was horrified by the conditions they were living in.

يدهل، يصدم؛ يفزع مَذُهل؛ فظيع ، مفرع ▶ horrifying adj

- Thorror /'hora(r); US 'horr-/ noun 1 [U, sing.] a feeling of great fear or shock: They watched in horror as the building collapsed. O She has a hor ذهول ، رعب
  - 2 [C] something that makes you feel frightened or shocked: I'll never forget the horror of what I saw that day. o the horrors of war فظاعة ، هُول

'horror film noun [C] a film that entertains people by showing frightening or shocking things فبلج رغب

hors d'oeuvre /,ɔ: 'dɜːv/ noun [C,U] (pl. hors d'oeuvre or hors d'oeuvres /'da:v/) small portions of different types of food served as a course at the beginning of a meal

Thorse /ho:s/ noun [C] a large animal that is used for riding on or for pulling or carrying heavy loads 6 A male horse is a stallion, a female horse is a mare and a young horse is a foal.

on horseback sitting on a horse: Policemen on horseback were controlling the crowds. 6 Police on horseback are also called mounted police.

horse chestnut /,ho:s 'tfesnat/ noun [C] 1 a large tree that has leaves divided into seven sections and pink or white flowers

(شحرة) قسطل هندي، كستنة برية، شاهبلوط

2 (also informal conker) the nut from this ثمرة القسطلة أو الكستنة البرية

horsefly /'ho:sflat/ noun [C] (pl. -ies) a large fly that bites horses and cows نَعَ ةَ: ذَبَابَةِ الخِيلِ horseman /'ho:smən/ noun [C] (pl. horsemen /-mən/) a man who rides a horse (well): an experienced horseman horsepower /'ho:spauə(r)/ noun [C] (pl. horsepower) (abbr h.p.; HP) a measure of the power of an engine, etc: a ten-horsepower engine

قوة حصان ، حصان بخاري

'horse racing (also racing) noun [U] the sport in which a person (jockey) rides a horse in a race to win money 6 Horse racing takes place at a racecourse. People often bet on the results of horseradish /'ho:srædif/ noun [U] a plant with a hot-tasting root which is used for making a cold sauce: roast beef with horseradish sauce

فجل بري حار، خردل الألمان

'horseshoe /'ho:sfu:/ (also shoe) noun [C] a Ushaped piece of metal that is fixed to the bottom of a horse's hoof. People believe that horseshoes حدوة ، نعل الحصان bring good luck.

'horsewoman /'ho:swoman/ noun [C] (pl. horsewomen /-wimin/) a woman who rides a خيّالة ماهرة horse (well): a good horsewoman horticulture /'ho:tik Alt [ə(r)/ noun [U] the study of how to grow flowers, fruit and vegetables أعلما السننة

► horticultural /ˌhɔ:tr'kʌltʃərəl/ adj بستنيّ ، متعلق بالأزهار والنباتات hose /həuz/ (also 'hosepipe) noun [C,U] a long rubber or plastic tube that is used for getting water from one place to another, in the garden or when there is a fire خرطوم ماء ، نربیش، بربیش hospice /hpspis/ noun [C] a special hospital where people who are dying are cared for مستشفى خاص يعنى بالمرضى قبيل وفاتهم hospitable /hp'spitabl; 'hpspitabl/ adj (used about a person) friendly and welcoming to visitors ⊅ Look at inhospitable. مضياف، كريم

Rhospital /'hospitl/ noun [C] a place where ill or injured people are treated: He was rushed to hospital in an ambulance. o to be admitted to/discharged from hospital

Note the difference between: My brother works in the local hospital and: He's very ill in hospital. In hospital', 'to hospital' are special expressions that are used without 'a' or 'the'. All the people who were hurt in the accident have been taken to hospital. A person who is being treated in a hospital by doctors and nurses is a patient. If you have an accident you are taken first to the accident and emergency department (US emergency room).

hospitality /hospitaleti/ noun [U] looking after guests and being friendly and welcoming towards them: We're very grateful for your hospitality.

? host¹ /houst/ noun [C] 1 a person who receives and entertains visitors: He acted as our host and showed us the city. ○ It's polite to write a thankyou letter to your host. ○ the host country for the next Olympic Games → Look at hostess.

المُضيف ، صاحب الدعوة

2 a person who introduces a television or radio show and talks to visiting guests

المتحدث مع صيوف البرنامج (فّي التلفزيون أو الراديو)

► host verb [T] to act as a host or hostess منطقة

Thost² /hoost/ noun [C] a large number (of people or things): I've got a whole host of things I want to discuss with him.

hostage /ˈhɒstɪdʒ/ noun [C] a person who is caught and kept prisoner by a person or group. The hostage may be killed or injured if that person or group does not get what it is asking for:

The hijackers released the women and children but kept the men as hostages.

الم take/hold sb hostage to catch/keep sb as a hostage يأخذ رهينة hostel /'hostl/ noun [C] a place (like a cheap hotel) where people can stay when they are living away from home: a youth hostel o a hostel for the homeless o a student hostel

بيت (الشباب) ، دار الطلبة hostess /'heostes/ noun [C] 1 a woman who receives and entertains visitors

المضيفة ، صاحبة الدعوة

2 a woman who introduces a television or radio show and talks to visiting guests

المتحدثة مع ضيوف البرنامج (فّي ّالتلفزيون أو الراديو)

3 = AIR HOSTESS

hostile /'hɒstaɪl; US -tl/ adj very unfriendly towards sb/sth; not having a good opinion of sb/ sth: a hostile crowd o They are very hostile to any change.

hostility /hp'stɪləti/ noun 1 [U] being unfriendly towards sb/sth: She didn't say anything but I could sense her hostility.

2 [U] thinking that sth is bad: They didn't try to hide their hostility to the government.

مناواة ، معارضة ؛ خصومة

3 hostilities (plural) fighting in a war: Negotiations have led to an end to hostilities.

? hot /hot/ adj (hotter; hottest) 1 having (quite) a high degree of heat; not cold: Can I open the window? I'm really hot. • Be careful. The plates are hot. • It's hot today, isn't it? • Do you like this hot weather? • a hot meal

You can describe the temperature of sth as freezing (cold), cold, cool, tepid (used about water), warm, hot or boiling (hot).

2 (used about food) causing a burning feeling in your mouth: hot curry حارٌ، يلقى قبولاً حسناً عند العامة

3 exciting and popular: They are one of this year's hot new bands.

DM be hot at/on sth to know a lot about sth:

Don't ask me. I'm not very hot on British history.

متضلع ضب

▶ hot verb (hotting; hotted)

EHRV hot up (Brit informal) to become more exciting, with more things happening, etc: The election campaign has really hotted up in the past few days.

hotly adv 1 angrily or with force: They hotly denied the newspaper reports.

2 closely: The dog ran off, hotly pursued by its owner.

hot-'air balloon noun [C] = BALLOON (2)

, hot 'dog noun [C] a hot sausage that is eaten in a soft bread roll

Photel / hou'tel / noun [C] a place where you pay to stay (and perhaps have your meals) when you are on holiday or travelling: We stayed in a really nice hotel in Devon. o I've booked a double room at the Grand Hotel. o a two-star hotel

You book a double, single or twin-bedded room at a hotel. When you arrive you check in or register and when you leave you check out. Look at the note at inn.

▶ hotelier /həʊˈteliə(r); US ˌhəʊtelˈjeɪ/ noun [C] a person who owns or manages a hotel

صاحب أو مدير فندق

hothouse /ˈhɒthaus/ noun [C] a heated building, made of glass, where plants are grown ⊋ Look at greenhouse. يبت زجاجي (لتربية النباتات) hotline /'hɒtlaɪn/ noun [C] a special telephone line that people can use to get information or to talk about sth; a direct telephone line between the heads of government in different countries.

خط تليفوني مباشر hotly  $adv \rightarrow HOT$

,hot-'water bottle noun [C] a rubber container that is filled with hot water and put in a bed to warm it کیس ماه ساخن (لتدفئة الفراش مثلاً)

houmous = HUMMUS

hound → housewife

hound /haond/ noun [C] a type of dog that is used for hunting or racing: a foxhound

- hound verb [T] to follow and disturb sb: The Royal Family are always being hounded by the press.
- Rhour /'avə(r)/ noun 1 [C] a period of 60 minutes:

  He worked for three hours after supper. The programme lasts about half an hour. I've been waiting here for hours. I'm going shopping now. I'll be back in about an hour. They get paid by the hour. How much do you get paid an/per hour?

   a four-hour journey
  - 2 the hour [sing.] the time when a new hour starts (= 1 o'clock, 2 o'clock, etc.): Trains to Reading leave at two minutes past the hour.

ساعة الكاملة أيّ الواحدة أو الثانية أو الثالثة ألخ....

3 hours [plural] the period of time when sb is working or a shop, etc. is open: Office hours are usually from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. ○ Visiting hours in the hospital are from 2 to 3 p.m. ○ Employees are demanding shorter working hours.

ساعات العمل : أوقات الزيارة

4 [C] a period of time: I'm going shopping in my lunch hour. • The traffic is very bad in the rush hour at/till all hours at/till any time: She stays out till all hours (= very late). لوقت متأخر جداً the early hours → EARLY on the hour at exactly 1, 2, 3, etc. o'clock: The buses for London leave on the hour.

في تمام الساعة (كذا) أي دون دقائق تضاف إليها li/ adu every hour: Trains run

▶ hourly /'avəli/ adv every hour: Trains run hourly.

hourly adj 1 done or happening every hour: an hourly news bulletin

- 2 for an hour: What is your hourly rate of pay? (الأحرة) بالساعة
- house haus/ noun [C] (pl. houses /ˈhauzɪz/)

  1 a building that is made for one family to live in: Is yours a four-bedroomed or a threebedroomed house?

Look at bungalow, cottage and flat<sup>1</sup>. Your home is the place where you live, even if it is not a house: Let's go home to my flat. Your home is also the place where you feel that you belong. A house is just a building: We've only just moved into our new house and it doesn't feel like home yet.

You can build, do up, redecorate or extend a house. You may rent a house from somebody or let it out to somebody else. If you want to move house you go to an estate agent.

- 2 [usually sing.] all the people who live in one house: Don't shout. You'll wake the whole house up.
- 3 a building that is used for a particular purpose: a warehouse  $\circ$  a public house

: nouse مبنی یستخدم لغایات معیّنة

- 4 a large firm involved in a particular kind of business: a fashion/publishing house
- 5 House a group of people who meet to make a country's laws: the House of Commons o the Houses of Parliament 🗢 Look at the note at Parliament.

6 [usually sing.] the people at a theatre or cinema, or the area where they sit. There was a full house for the play this evening.

جمهور المتفرجين ؛ الصالة move house → MOVE<sup>2</sup>

on the house paid for by the pub, restaurant, etc. that you are visiting; free: Your first drink is on the house.

- house<sup>2</sup> /haoz/ verb [T] 1 to provide sb with a place to live: The Council must house homeless families.
- 2 to contain or keep sth: Her office is housed in a separate building.
- houseboat /ˈhaosbəʊt/ noun [C] a boat on a river, etc. where sb lives and which usually stays in one place بيت عائم، مرکب يستخدم کبيت
- housebound /'haosbaond/ adj unable to leave your house because you are old or ill
- Phousehold /'haushould/ noun [C] all the people who live in one house and the housework, money, organization, etc. that is needed to look after them: Almost all households have a television. household expenses
  - ► householder /-həʊldə(r)/ noun [C] a person who rents or owns a house
  - housekeeper /ˈhaoskiːpə(r)/ noun [C] a person who is paid to look after sb else's house and organize the work in it
  - housekeeping /ˈhaʊskiːpɪn/ noun [U] 1 managing and organizing the work in a house إدارة شؤون البيت
  - 2 the money that you need to manage a house ميزانية البيت
- the ¡House of 'Commons (also the Commons) noun [with sing. or pl. verb] the group of people (Members of Parliament) who are elected to make new laws in Britain
- the ,House of 'Lords (also the Lords) noun [with sing. or pl. verb] the group of people (who are not elected) who meet to discuss the laws that have been suggested by the House of Commons محلس اللوردات
- the "House of "Repre'sentatives noun [sing.] the group of people who are elected to make new laws in the USA Dook at Congress and Senate.

'house-proud adj paying great attention to the care, cleaning, etc. of your house

كثير العناية بنظافة البيت وترتيبه house-to-'house adj going to each house: The police are making house-to-house enquiries. (زيارة) لكلّ بيت

'house-warming noun [C] a party that you give when you have just moved into a new home حفلة ندشين المسكن الجديد housewife /'haoswaif/ noun [C] (pl. housewives) a woman who does not have a full-time job outside the home and who spends her time doing housework, cooking, looking after her family, etc. ① A man who does this is called a house husband.

housework /'hausws:k/ noun [U] the work that is needed to keep a house clean and tidy

شغل البيت ، شؤون المنزل

Be careful. The word for work that is given to pupils by teachers to be done out of school hours is homework.

? housing /'havzɪŋ/ noun [U] houses, flats, etc. for people to live in: We need more housing that is suitable for elderly people. ○ the Council's housing department

'housing estate noun [C] an area where a large number of houses are planned and built at the same time مجموعة كبيرة من البيوت تبنى في وقت واحد

hover /'hpvə(r); US 'hʌvər/ verb [I] 1 (used about a bird, etc.) to stay in the air in one place

2 (used about a person) to wait near sb/sth: He hovered outside until he could see that she was free.

hovercraft /ˈhɒvəkrɑːft; US-kræft/ noun [C] (pl. hovercraft) a type of boat that moves over land or water on a cushion of air

- l how /hav/ adv 1 (used in questions) in what way: How do you spell your name? Ocan you show me how to use this machine?
  - 2 (used when you are asking about sb's health): 'How is your mother?' 'She's much better, thank you.'

You use 'how' only when you are asking about a person's health. When you are asking about a person's character or appearance you say what ... like?' What is your mother like?' Well, she's much taller than me and she's got dark hair.'

- ${f 3}$  (used when you are asking about a thing or a situation): How was the weather?  $\circ$  How is your meal?
- 4 (used in questions before an adjective or adverb when you are asking about the degree, amount, age, etc. of sb/sth): How old are you? How much is that? How long did it take to get here?
- 5 (used for expressing surprise, shock, thanks, pleasure, etc.): How sweet of you to remember my birthday. How could he have lied to me?

  الأحمال أن كُنْهُ: الْمَالِيَّةُ الْمَالِيَّةُ الْمَالِيَّةُ اللَّهِ اللَّهُ الللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّالِي اللللْمُ اللللْمُلِمُ الل how/what about...? → ABOUT<sup>2</sup> how do you do? (formal) (used when meeting sb for the first time)

sb for the first time)

Be careful. How are you? and How do you do? are answered quite differently: How do you do?' is answered with the same words: 'How do you do?' The answer to: 'How are you?' depends on how you are feeling: 'T'm fine.' 'Very well.' Much better.' 'How do you do?' is becoming old-fashioned

- ► how conj the way in which: I can't remember how to get there.
- ? however¹ /hav'evə(r)/ adv (before an adjective or adverb) to whatever degree: He won't wear a hat however cold it is. o You can't catch her however fast you run.
  - ► however conj in whatever way: However I sat I couldn't get comfortable. ○ You can dress however you like.

however adv (used in questions for expressing surprise) in what way; how: However did you manage to find me here?  $\circ$  However could he afford a car like that?  $\bullet$  When you use only how in a question like this there is not so much feeling of surprise.

however<sup>2</sup> /hao'evo(r)/ adv (used for adding a comment on what you have just said) although sth is true: Sales are poor this month. There may, however, be an increase before Christmas.

لكن ، إلاّ أنّ

howl /haul/ noun [C] a long loud cry made by a dog or a wolf: (figurative) The Prime Minister's statement met with howls of protest.

نباح ، عُواء : صِياح

▶ howl verb [I] to make a howl or say sth with a howl: The wind howled around the house.

يعوي ؛ يصيح ؛ يولول

h.p. (also HP) / eit f 'pi:/ abbrev 1 = HORSEPOWER

2 = HIRE PURCHASE

 $\mathbf{HQ}$  / eit  $\int \mathbf{k} \mathbf{j} \mathbf{u} \cdot \mathbf{l} d\mathbf{r} d\mathbf{r}$

HR /eit  $\int dx(r)/abbrev = HUMAN RESOURCES$

hr (especially US hr.) (pl. hrs or hr) abbrev = HOUR hub /hʌb/ noun [C] 1 the round central part of a wheel

2 the central and most important part of a place or an activity: the commercial hub of the city قلب ناض

huddle /'hʌdl/ verb [I] 1 to get close to other people because you are cold or frightened: The campers huddled (together) around the fire.

يتجمع بعضهم إلى بعض ، يتحاضنون

- 2 huddle (up) to curl your body up and wrap your arms around yourself because you are cold or frightened: She huddled up in her sleeping bag and tried to get some sleep.
- یتکور ، یحضن نفسه (من البرد مثلاً)

  ▶ huddle noun [C] a small group of people or things that are close together: They all stood in a huddle, laughing and chatting.

تجمّع صغير (للتحدث سُرياً مثلاً) ' كومة، تراكم huddled adj: We found the children lying huddled together on the ground.

متكور ، متعانق مع ، متحمع

huff /hʌf/ noun [C, usually sing.] a state of bad temper. You go off in a huff when you want to show people how angry you are.

hug /hʌg/ verb [T] (hugging; hugged) 1 to put your arms around sb to show that you love him/ her: He hugged his mother and sister and got on the train.

huge → humour

- 2 to hold sth close to your body: She hugged the parcel to her chest as she ran
- 3 (used about a ship, car, etc.) to keep close to يلازم ، يسير ملاصقاً ا sth: to hug the coast
- ▶ hug noun [C] an act of hugging: She gave the child a hug and he stopped crying.
- Lhuge /hju:d3/ adj very large: There is a huge amount of work still to be done. o a huge build هائل ، ضخم
  - ▶ hugely adv: The play was hugely successful. بشكل هائل huh /hn/ interj (informal) (used for expressing anger, surprise, etc. or for asking a question): They've gone away, huh? They didn't tell me. أليس كذلك!! (تقال بلهجة الغضب أو الدهشة)

hull /hʌl/ noun [C] the body of a ship hullabaloo /,hʌləbə'lu:/ noun [C, usually sing.] a lot of loud noise, e.g. people shouting

hullo = HELLO

- hum /ham/ verb (humming; hummed) 1 [I] to make a continuous low noise like the noise bees make: (figurative) The classroom was humming يدن كالنحل: يعج (بالنشاط) with activity.
- 2 [I,T] to sing with your lips closed: You can hum the tune if you don't know the words. يهمهم، يدندن
- ▶ hum noun [C, usually sing.] a humming sound: دنين ؛ همهمة the hum of distant traffic
- ? human /'hju:mən/ adj connected with people, not with animals or machines; typical of people: the human body o The famine caused a terrible loss of human life. o A human skeleton was found by the building workers.  $\circ$  The disaster was caused by human error. o It's only human to be
  - ساني، بَشْري human (also human 'being) noun [c] a person: a man woman an allow noun [c] a person; a man, woman or child humanly adv: They did all that was humanly possible to rescue him (= everything that a human being could possibly do).

بشرياً ، ضمن نطاق القدرة البشرية humane /hju:'mein/ adj having or showing kindness or understanding, especially to a person or animal that is suffering: Zoo animals must be kept in humane conditions. 6 The opposite is إنساني، شَفوق inhumane. بشفقة وحنان ، بشكل إنسانيً

cerned with trying to make people's lives better

▶ humanely adv

بُ للإنسانية ؛ إنساني and reduce suffering humanity /hju:'mænəti/ noun [U] 1 all the people in the world, thought of as a group; the human race: crimes against humanity البشرية 2 the quality of being kind and understanding: The prisoners were treated with humanity. 1 The opposite is inhumanity.

human 'nature noun [U] feelings, behaviour, etc. that are common to all people: It's only human nature to want the best for yourself and your family. الطبيعة البشرية

- the human 'race noun [sing.] all the people in the world (when you are thinking of them as a الجنس البشري
- human re'sources noun [plural] 1 people's skills and abilities, seen as sth a company, an organization, etc. can make use of موارد بشرية
- 2 (abbr HR) [with sing. or pl. verb] the department in a company that deals with employing دائرة شؤون الموظفين and training people
- human 'rights noun [plural] the basic freedoms that all people should have, e.g. the right to say حقوق الإنسان what you think, travel freely, etc.
- humble /'hambl/ adj 1 not thinking that you are better or more important than other people; not proud: He became very rich and famous but he always remained a very humble man. 6 The noun is humility.
- 2 low in social status; unimportant: She comes متواضع ؛ عادي from a humble background.
- ▶ humble verb [T] to make sb/yourself humble: a humbling experience (حادثة) تُبرز نقاط ضعف المرء، تجعله متواضعاً humbly /'hambli/ adv: He apologized very hum-بتواضع ؛ بذلَّة bly for his behaviour.

- humid /'hju:mid/ adj (used about the air or climate) containing a lot of water; damp: Hong Kong is hot and humid in summer.
- ▶ humidity /hju:'mɪdəti/ noun [U]
- humiliate /hju;'mılieit/ verb [T] to make sb feel ashamed: Did you have to humiliate me in front of all those people?
- ▶ humiliating adj: a humiliating defeat humiliation /hju:,mıli'eɪʃn/ noun [C,U] humility /hju:'mrləti/ noun [U] the quality of being modest or humble, not thinking that you are better than other people hummingbird /haminbs:d/ noun [C] a small brightly coloured bird that lives in warm countries and that can stay in one place in the air by beating its wings very fast, making a continuous الطائر الطنان low sound hummus (also houmous) /'homəs; 'hu:məs/ noun [U] a type of food, originally from the Middle East, that is a soft mixture of chickpeas, oil and garlic

- humanitarian /hju:,mænr'teəriən/ adj con- humorous /'hju:mərəs/ adj amusing or funny: It's a very humorous book. ○ a humorous speak-مضحك ؛ فكه
  - ▶ humorously adv

بشكل هزليٌّ ؛ على سبيل الدعابة ؛ بسخرية

- ? humour (US humor) /'hju:mə(r)/ noun [U] 1 the funny or amusing quality or qualities of sh/sth: It's an awful situation but at least you can see the humour of it. o It is sometimes hard to understand the humour (= the jokes) of another country. فكاهة ، هزل
  - 2 being able to see when sth is funny and to laugh at things: Rose has a good sense of روح الدعابة humour.

► humour (US humor) verb [T] to keep sb happy by doing what he/she wants: When she's in a mood like this it's best to humour her. يدلري
-humoured (US -humored) (in compounds) having or showing a particular mood: goodhumoured humourless (US humorless) adj not able to see when things are funny hump /hʌmp/ noun [C] a round lump, e.g. on the back of a camel hunch¹/hantʃ/noun [C] (informal) a thought or an idea that is based on a feeling rather than on facts or information: I'm not sure, but I've got a hunch that she's got a new job.

hunch² /hʌntʃ/ verb [I,T] to bend your back and shoulders forward in a round shape: They sat there hunched up with the cold.

hunchback/hantsbæk/noun[C] a person with a back that has a round lump (hump) on it hundred /'hʌndrəd/ number 100; one more than ninety-nine: two hundred o There were a/one hundred people in the room. o She's a hundred today.

Note that when we are saying a number, e.g. 420, we put 'and' after the word hundred: four hundred and twenty. The plural hundreds is used when we mean 'many' or 'a lot': The boat cost hundreds of pounds. O Hundreds of people were left without electricity after the storm.

► hundredth /'hʌndrədθ/ pron, det, adv 100th; next after ninety-ninth (العَرَة) المنة hundredth noun [C] the fraction //∞; one of a hundred equal parts of sth hundredweight / handredweit/ noun [C] (pl. hundredweight) (abbr cwt.) a measure of weight; 50.8 kilograms. There are 112 pounds in a hundredweight. ♠ An American hundredweight is 100 pounds (45.4 kilograms).

مقياس وزن hung pt, pp of hang hunger /hangə(r)/ noun [U] 1 the wish or need for food: Hunger is one reason why babies cry.

يحو ع

2 a lack of food: to die of hunger ڪ Look at thirst.

Be careful. You cannot say I have hunger in English. You must say: I am hungry.

► hunger verb (formal)

PHRV hunger for/after sb/sth to have a strong desire for sth

'hunger strike noun [C,U] a time when people (especially prisoners) refuse to eat because they are protesting about sth

Rhungry /ˈhʌngri/ adj (hungrier; hungriest) wanting to eat: I'm hungry. Let's eat soon. o There were hungry children begging for food in the streets. O Look at thirsty.

| DM go hungry to not have any food: I'd rather go hungry than eat that!

▶ hungrily /'hʌŋgrəli/ adv

بشراهة

hunk /hʌŋk/ noun [C] a large piece of sth: a hunk of bread

thunt¹/hʌnt/ verb [I,T] 1 to chase wild animals, etc. in order to catch or kill them either for sport or for food: Owls hunt at night. • Are tigers still hunted in India? • We often use the expending of hunting when we are talking about spending time hunting.

2 hunt (for) (sb/sth) to look or search for sb/ sth: I've hunted everywhere for my gloves but I can't find them. o The police are still hunting the murderer: يبحث أو يفتش (عن)

► hunter noun [C] a person or animal that hunts: (figurative) a bargain hunter ميلاد hunting noun [U] the chasing and killing of wild animals $\times$ Look at shoot¹.

hunt² /hʌnt/ noun [C] 1 the act of hunting wild animals, etc: a fox hunt مثلاً الثمالي مثلاً)

2 [usually sing.] the act of searching or looking for sb/sth: The police have launched a hunt for the missing child.

hurdle /ˈhɜːdl/ noun 1 [C] a type of light fence that you jump over in a race

2 hurdles [plural] a race over hurdles: the 200 metres hurdles سباق الحواجز

3 [C] a problem or difficulty that you must overcome

► hurdle verb [I] to jump over a hurdle يقفز فوق حاجز

. . . . . .

hurl /hɜːl/ verb [T] to throw sth with force يقذف بقوَّة hurray (also hooray) /həˈreɪ/ (also hurrah /həˈrɑː/) interj (used for expressing great pleasure, approval, etc.): Hurray! We've won! و Hip, hip, hurray!

hurricane /'harikən; US-kem/ noun [C] a storm with very strong winds 2 Look at the note at storm.

hurry /ˈhʌri/ noun [U] a need or wish to do sth quickly: Take your time. There's no hurry.

o What's the hurry?

in a hurry 1 quickly: She got up late and left in a hurry.

2 wanting to do sth soon: They are in a hurry to get the job done before the winter. متعبل in no hurry; not in any hurry 1 not needing or wishing to do sth quickly: We weren't in any hurry so we stopped to admire the view.

2 (informal) unwilling: I am in no hurry to repeat that experience. لا أرغب في hurry verb (pres part hurrying; 3rd pers sing pres hurries; pt, pp hurried) 1 [I] to move or do sth quickly: Don't hurry. There's plenty of time.

They hurried back home after school. Several people hurried to help.

2 [T] to cause sb/sth to do sth or to happen more quickly: Don't hurry me. I'm going as fast as I can.  $\circ$  He was hurried into a decision.

hurt → hyphen

more quickly: Hurry up or we'll miss the train.

hurried adj done (too) quickly: a hurried meal 1 The opposite is unhurried.

سريع ، خاطف ، على عَجَل بسرعة ، على عَجَل hurriedly adv

hurt /ha:t/ verb (pt, pp hurt) 1 [T] to cause pain or injury: Did he hurt himself? o I fell and hurt my arm. o (figurative) The new tax will hurt families on low incomes.

Compare hurt, injure and wound. A person may be wounded by a knife, sword, gun, etc., usually as a result of fighting: a wounded soldier. People are usually injured in an accident: Five people were killed in the crash and twelve others were injured. Hurt and injured are similar in meaning but hurt is more often used when the damage is not very great: I hurt my leg when I fell off my bike.

- 2 [1] to produce a feeling of pain: My leg hurts.

  o It hurts when I lift my leg. o These shoes hurt; they're too tight.
- 3 [T] to make sb unhappy; to upset sb: His unkind remarks hurt her deeply.

يجرح الشعور: يزعل EM it won't/wouldn't hurt (sb/sth) (to do sth) (informal) it would be a good thing for sb/sth (to do): It wouldn't hurt you to leave the car at home and walk.

► hurt noun [U] (formal) mental pain or suffering مماناة، عذاب hurt adi 1 injured physically. No one mas ser-hurt adj 1 injured physically: No one was seriously hurt in the accident.

2 unhappy because sb has been unkind to you مجروح الشعور، مكسور الخاطر hurtful /-fl/ adj unkind; upsetting: Don't say such hurtful things to your father!

hurtle /ˈhɜːtl/ verb [I] to move with great speed, perhaps causing danger: Rocks hurtled down the mountainside.

Phusband /'hazbənd/ noun [C] a man that a woman is married to: a good husband and father o Her ex-husband sees the children once a month.

hush /haʃ/ verb

about sth; to keep sth secret: The police managed to hush up the whole affair: يطمن : يكتم hush noun [sing.] silence: As he rose to speak a hush fell over the audience.

hush-'hush adj (informal) very secret: Her work, is very hush-hush.

husky¹ /ˈhʌski/ adj (huskier; huskiest) (used about a voice) sounding rough and quiet as if your throat were dry husky² /ˈhʌski/ noun [C] (pl. huskies) a strong dog with thick fur that is used in teams for pulling heavy loads over snow hustle /ˈhʌsl/ verb [T] to push or move sb roughly: The demonstrators were hustled into police vans.

يدفع (شخصاً) بخشونة : يشق طريقه hut /hʌt/ noun [C] a small building with one room, usually made of wood or metal ورخ و المراكبة المرا hyaena = HYENA

hybrid /ˈhaɪbrɪd/ noun [C] an animal or a plant that has parents of two different types: A mule is a hybrid of a male donkey and a female horse. o a hybrid flower hydrant /'haidrent/ noun [C] a pipe in a street from which water can be taken for putting out fires, street-cleaning, etc.

مأخذ ماء في شارع (للإطفاء خاصة) hydraulic /harˈdrɔːlɪk/ adj worked by water or another liquid moving through pipes, etc: hydraulic brakes هيدروليكي: محرك بواسطة الماء

hydroelectric /ˌhaɪdrəuɪˈlektrık/ adj 1 using the power of water to produce electricity: a hydroelectric dam ماني کهربائي أو هيدروکهربائي

2 (used about electricity) produced by the power of water: hydroelectric power (کهرباء) مولّدة بقوة الماء

hydrofoil /ˈhaɪdrəfɔil/ noun [C] a boat which rises above the surface of the water when it is travelling fast hydrogen /ˈhaɪdrədʒən/ noun [U] (symbol H) a light colourless gas. Hydrogen and oxygen form water (H<sub>2</sub>O).

hyena (also hyaena) /har'i:nə/ noun [C] a wild animal like a dog that lives in Africa and Asia. Hyenas eat the meat of animals that are already dead and can make a sound like a human laugh.

hygiene /ˈhaɪdʒiːn/ noun [U] (the rules of) keeping yourself and things around you clean, in order to prevent illness: High standards of hygiene are essential when you are preparing food. o personal hygiene hygienic /harˈdaiːnik; US ˌhaɪdat'enik; har-ˈdaenik/ adj clean, without the germs that cause disease: hygienic conditions the The opposite is unhygienic.

hygienically /-kli/ adv

hymn /hım/ noun [C] a song of praise to God that Christians sing together in church, etc. ترتيلة hype /him/ noun [U] advertisements that tell you how good and important a new product, film, etc. is ► hype verb [T] to exaggerate how good or important sth is: His much-hyped new movie is released next week.

hypermarket /ˈhaɪpəmɑːkɪt/ noun [C] (Brit) a very large supermarket that is usually outside a town

hyphen /'haifn/ noun [C] the punctuation mark (-) used for joining two words together (e.g. left-handed, red-hot) or to show that a word has been divided and continues on the next line

الشُرَطة بين جزئي كلمة مركبة ► hyphenate /'harfənert/ verb [T] to write sth with a hyphen: Do you hyphenate 'girlfriend'? یضع شرطهٔ بین جزئی کلمهٔ مرکبهٔ

÷5. — §5. 6... 5 2 .

hypnosis → ice hockey

389

hyphenation /,harfə'ner∫n/ noun [U] وصل الكلمات المركبة بشرطة

hypnosis /hip'nəosis/ noun [U] (the producing of) a state that is like deep sleep where sb's mind and actions can be controlled by another person: She was questioned under hypnosis.

التنويم المغناطيسي

▶ hypnotic /hɪp'nɒtɪk/ adj: The rhythmic dance had a hypnotic effect on the audience.

hypnotism /ˈhɪpnətɪzəm/ noun [U] using hypnosis hypnotist /ˈhɪpnətɪst/ noun [C] a person who uses hypnosis on other people uses hypnosis on other people hypnotize (also hypnotise) / hipnataiz/ verb [T] to use hypnosis on sb

hypochondriac /harpə'kondriæk/ noun [C] a person who is always worried about his/her health even when there is nothing wrong

مريض الوهم ، موسوس على صحته hypocrisy /hı'pɒkrəsi/ noun [U] pretending to feel, believe, etc. sth that is different from what you really feel, etc.; saying one thing and doing another hypocrite /'hipəkrit/ noun [C] a person who pretends to have feelings and opinions which he/she does not, in fact, have. Hypocrites say one thing and do another: What a hypocrite!

hypocritical /ˌhɪpəˈkrɪtɪkl/ adj hypocritically /-kli/ adv hypodermic /ˌhaɪpəˈdɜːmɪk/ adj used for injecting drugs beneath the skin: a hypodermic needle/ syringe nypothesis /harˈpɒθəsɪs/ noun [C] (pl. hypotheses /-siːz/) an idea that is suggested as the possible explanation for sth: The hypothesis has been put forward that some chemicals used in food can affect children's behaviour.

► hypothetical /ˌhaɪpəθetɪkl/ adj based on situations that have not yet happened, not on facts: That's a hypothetical question because we don't know what the situation will be next year. افتراضي، فرضي

hypothetically /-kli/ adv

hysteria /hr'stioriə/ noun [U] a state of excitement in which a person or a group of people cannot control their emotions, e.g. cannot stop laughing, crying, shouting, etc: mass hysteria هستيريا: اهتياج عصبي

▶ hysterical /hı'sterik]/ adj 1 caused by or suffering from hysteria: hysterical laughter
○ She was hysterical with grief.

هستيريُّ ؛ مُصاب بنوبات عصبية (من الحزن مثلاً)

2 (informal) very funny hysterically /-kli/ adv hysterics /histeriks/ noun [plural] 1 a state of hysteria: She went into hysterics when they told her the news. o (informal) My father would have hysterics if he knew the truth.

2 (informal) uncontrolled laughter: The audience was in hysterics.

l, i /aı/ noun [C] (pl. ls; l's; i's) the ninth letter of the English alphabet: 'Island' begins with (an) T. الحرف التاسع من الأبجلية الإنكليزية

I /ai/ pron (the subject of a verb) the person who is speaking or writing: I phoned and said that I was busy. • I'm not going to fall, am I? • I'm taller than you, aren't I? • She and I are planning to go out later.

Rice<sup>1</sup> /ais/ noun 1 [U] water that has frozen solid: Do you want ice in your orange juice? o I slipped on a patch of ice. o The ice on the lake isn't thick enough for skating. o The ice quickly melted in the sunshine. o black ice (= ice on roads, that cannot be seen easily)

2 [C] an ice cream بوظة. جيلاتي. آيس كريم ▶ iced /aɪst/ adj (used about drinks) very cold icy /ˈaɪsi/ adj (icier; iciest) 1 very cold: an icy wind (برد) قارس

2 covered with ice: icy roads مغطّى بالجليد

ice2 /ais/ verb

PHRV ice (sth) over/up to cover or become covered with ice: The windscreen of the car had iced over in the night.

يتغطّى أو يغطي بالجليد؛ يتجمّد أو يجمّد ice<sup>3</sup> /ars/ (especially US frost) verb [T] to cover a cake with icing يغطي الكعكة بمزيج من السكر والبيض ألخ ice-'cold adj very cold: ice-cold drinks o Your hands are ice-cold.

,ice 'cream noun 1 [U] a frozen sweet food that is made from cream (or other types of fat)

بوظة، جيلاتي، آيس كريم ُ

2 [C] a portion of ice cream, usually in paper or a special container (a cone): Four strawberry ice creams, please.

قطعة أيس كريم

'ice cube noun [C] a small block of ice that you put in a drink to make it cold

قطعة ثلج (توضع في المشروب)

'ice hockey (US hockey) noun [U] a game that is played on ice by two teams who try to hit a small flat rubber object (a puck) into a goal with long wooden sticks

ice lolly → identify

ice 'lolly noun [C] (pl. ice lollies) (US Popsicle<sup>TM</sup>) a piece of flavoured ice on a stick

ير فاكهة متجمّد (على عود)، مصّاصة، اسكيمو/ألاسكا

'ice rink noun [C] = SKATING RINK

'ice skate noun [C] = SKATE

'ice-skate verb [1] = SKATE

'ice skating noun [U] = skating (1)

icicle /'aisikl/ noun [C] a pointed piece of ice that is formed by water freezing as it falls or runs down from sth icing /'aɪsɪŋ/ (especially US frosting) noun [U] a mixture of powdery sugar and egg white or butter, flavouring, etc. that is used for decorating cakes: chocolate icing

مزيج من السكر والبيض وغيره لتفطية المعجنات icon /'aɪkɒn/ noun 1 a person or thing that is considered to be a symbol of sth: Madonna and معبود الجماهير other pop icons of the 1980s

- 3 (also ikon) (computing) a small symbol on a computer screen representing a program, etc. that a user may choose
- 3 (in the Orthodox Church) a painting, carving, etc., usually on wood, of a holy person أيقونة
- ICT /ar si: 'ti:/ noun [U] the study of the use of computers, the Internet, video, and other technology as a subject at school (the abbreviation for 'information and communications technol-المعلوماتية والاتصالات ogy')

icy  $adj \rightarrow ICE^1$

I'd /aid/ short for I had, I would

- ID /,ai 'di:/ abbrev (informal) = iDENTIFICATION; iDEN-
- ?idea /ar'dɪə/ noun 1 [C] a plan or suggestion: That's a good idea! o He's got an idea for a new play. o I had the bright idea of getting Jane to help me with my homework. O Has anyone got any ideas of how to tackle this problem? o It was your idea to invite so many people to the party.

- 2 [U, sing.] a picture or thought in your mind: Have you any idea how much this cost? o You have no idea (= you can't imagine) how difficult it was to find a time that suited everybody. o The programme gave a good idea of what life was like before the war.
- 3 [C] an opinion or belief: She has her own ideas about how to bring up children. O Hiding my handbag? If that's your idea of a joke, I don't think it's funny! راي
- 4 the idea [sing.] the aim or purpose of sth: The idea of the course is to teach the basics of car غانة maintenance.

DM get the idea to understand: Right! I think I've got the idea now.

get the idea that... to get the feeling or impression that ...: Where did you get the idea that I was paying for this meal? يظنّ، يخيّل إليه have an idea that... to have a feeling or think that ...: I'm not sure but I have an idea that they've (لديه) شعور gone on holiday. not have the faintest/foggiest (idea) → FAINT

? ideal /ar'di:al/ adj the best possible; perfect: In an

- ideal world there would be no poverty. ▶ ideal noun [C] 1 an idea or principle that seems perfect to you and that you want to achieve: She finds it hard to live up to her مثل أعلى parents' high ideals. o socialist ideals
- 2 [usually sing.] a perfect example of a person or thing: My ideal would be to live in the country حلم ، مبتغی and have a flat in London.

ideally adv 1 perfectly: They are ideally suited to each other. تمامأ

2 in an ideal situation: Ideally, no class should be larger than 25. في عالم مثالي idealism /ar'di:əlizəm/ noun [U] the belief that people should have high ideals and live according to them, or that the world can be made perfect: Young people are usually full of idealism. المثالية ، المذهب المثالي Look at realism.

▶ idealist /aı'di:əlɪst/ noun [C] a person who has high ideals (but who is sometimes not very practical) المومن بالمثالية، مثالي مثالي، غير عملي idealistic / aidiə līstīk/ adj

idealize (also idealise) /ar'di:əlaɪz/ verb [T] to imagine or show sth as being better than it really is: Old people often idealize the past.

يضفي عليه صفات مثاليّة ، ينزلها من السماء identical /ar'dentikl/ adj 1 the identical the same: This is the identical room we stayed in last

- 2 identical (to/with sb/sth) exactly the same as: I can't see any difference between these two pens - they look identical to me.
- مطابق أو مماثل تماماً ؛ متماثلان بشكل متطابق ▶ identically /-kli/ adv
- i,dentical 'twin noun [C, usually pl.] one of two children born at the same time from the same mother, and who are of the same sex and look very similar توأمان متطابقان
- والتراع 'identify /ai'dentifai/ verb [T] (pres part identifying; 3rd pers sing pres identifies; pt, pp identified) 1 identify sb/sth as sb/sth to recognize or say who or what sb/sth is: The police need someone to identify the body. O We must identify the cause of the problem before we look for solu-يتعرّف على ؛ يتحقّق من هويّته tions.
  - 2 identify sth with sth to think or say that sth is the same as sth else: You can't identify nationalism with fascism. يطابق أو يساوي بين

PHRV identify with sb to feel that you understand and share what sb else is feeling: I found it hard to identify with the woman in the film. يشارك في الشعور identify (yourself) with sb/sth to be connected with sb/sth: She became identified with the new يصبح اسمه مرتبطاً ب political party.

▶ identification /ar dentifi'ker noun [U] 1 the act of identifying or being identified: The identification of the people killed in the explosion was very difficult. o children's identification with التعرّف على هويّته؛ المشاركة بالشعور والشخصية TV heroes identity → I'll who you are: Do you have any identification?

391

شقة أو بطاقة الهوية

(abbr ID) who or what a person or a thing is: There are few clues to the identity of the killer. o The region has its own cultural identity and is demanding more independence. O The arrest was a case of mistaken identity (= the wrong person was arrested by the police). o Children of immigrants often suffer from a loss of identity (= they are not sure which culture they belong to).

هوية ، شخصية

i'dentity card noun [C] a card that proves who بطاقة الهوية vou are ideology /,aidi'pləd3i/ noun [C,U] (pl. ideologies) a set of ideas which form the basis for a political or economic system: Marxist ideology

▶ ideological /ˌaɪdiəˈlɒdʒɪkl/ adj أيديولوجي ، عقائدي

idiom /'Idiəm/ noun [C] a expression with a meaning that you cannot guess from the meanings of the separate words: The idiom 'bring sth home to sb' means 'make sb understand sth'. عبارة اصطلاحية ▶ idiomatic /ˌɪdiəˈmætɪk/ adj 1 containing an idiom or idioms: an idiomatic expression 2 using language in a way that sounds natural:

بصطلح عليه ، طبيعي

idiot /'idiət/ noun [C] (informal) a stupid or foolish person: I was an idiot to forget my passport.

He speaks good idiomatic English.

▶ idiotic / idi btik/ adj idiotically /-kli/ adv idle /'aidl/ adj 1 not doing anything; not being used: She is always busy. She can't bear to be idle. o The factory stood idle while the machines were being repaired.

2 not wanting to work hard; lazy: He has the ability to succeed but he is just bone (= very) كسول idle.

3 (only before a noun) not to be taken seriously because it will not have any result: an idle promise فارغ ؛ عقيم

عطالة : كسل ▶ idleness noun [U] idly /'aɪdli/ adv

idol /'aidl/ noun [C] 1 a statue that people worship as a god صنم يعبد ؛ وَثَن

2 a person (such as a film star or pop musician) معبود (الجماهير) Preslev was my idol.

idolize (also idolise) /'aɪdəlaɪz/ verb [T] to love or admire sb very much or too much: He is an only child and his parents idolize him.

بحبّ بإفراط ، يعبد

idyllic /ı'dılık; US aı'd-/ adj very pleasant and peaceful: We had an idyllic holiday in the West of هادئ وجميل Ireland.

2 (abbr ID) an official paper, etc. that proves \( \frac{1}{2} \). \( \begin{align*} \left( abbrev \) that is; in other words: \( \delta \) deciduous trees, i.e. those which lose their leaves in autumn

? identity /ar'dentəti/ noun [C,U] (pl. identities) ? if /rf/conj 1 (used in sentences in which one thing happens or is true, depending on whether another thing happens or is true): If you see him, give him this letter. O We won't go to the beach if it rains. o If I had more time, I would learn another language. o If I had known about the accident, I would have gone to see her in hospital. o I might see her tomorrow. If not, I'll see her at the week-

> 2 (used after verbs such as 'ask', 'know', 'remember'): They asked if we would like to go too. o I can't remember if I posted the letter or not. ○ Look at the note at whether. إنّ، إذا ؛ فيما إذا

3 (used when you are asking sb to do sth or suggesting sth politely): If you could just come this way, sir. o If I might suggest something..

DM as if → AS even if → EVEN2

if I were you (used when you are giving sb advice): If I were you, I'd leave now. لو كنت مكانك if only (used for expressing a strong wish): If only I could drive. o If only he'd write.

igloo /'ɪglu:/ noun [C] (pl. igloos) a small house that is built from blocks of hard snow by people بيت من الثلج in the Arctic regions ignite /1g'na1t/ verb [I,T] (formal) to start burning or to make sth start burning. A spark from the engine ignited the petrol. يشتعل ، يلتهب ؛ يشعل ، يلهب ▶ ignition /ig'ni∫n/ noun 1 [U] the process of إشعال ؛ اشتعال igniting

2 [C] the electrical system that starts the engine of a car: to turn the ignition on/off شرارة الإشعال في الس ignominious / ignəˈminiəs/ adj (formal) making you feel ashamed: The team suffered an igno-لُشين ؛ مُخْجُل ؛ شنيع minious defeat.

ightharpoonup ignominiously adv

ignorance /'ignərəns/ noun [U] lack of information or knowledge (about sth): The workers were in complete ignorance of the management's plans. The mistake was due to ignorance.

ignorant /'ignərənt/ adj 1 not knowing about sth: Many people are ignorant of their rights. I'm very ignorant about modern technology, I'm

2 (informal) rude or impolite (because you don't know how to behave): That was a very ignorant remark! غير لائق ، دال على الجهل والسذاجة who is admired or loved: When  $\overline{I}$  was 14, Elvis Lignore /1g'no:(r)/ verb [T] to pay no attention to sb/sth: I said hello to Debby but she totally ignored me (= acted as though she hadn't seen me). O George ignored his doctor's advice about smoking less. Be careful. Ignore and be ignorant are quite different in meaning.

يتجاهل: لا يكترث ب

بشكل محجل

ikon = icon(3)

I'll /ail/ short for I will, I shall

- Rill /nl/ adj 1 (US sick) (not usually before a noun) not in good health; not well: I went to bed early because I felt ill but I felt even worse when I woke up. I have been ill with flu. My mother was taken ill suddenly last week. My grandfather is seriously ill in hospital. Look at the note at sick.
  - 2 (only before a noun) bad or harmful: There should be no ill will (= bad feelings) between friends. I'm glad to say I suffered no ill effects from all that rich food.
- ill² /il/ adv 1 (often in compounds) badly or wrongly: You would be ill-advised to drive until you have fully recovered.
- 2 only with difficulty; not easily: They could ill afford the extra money for better heating.

  DM augur well/ill for sb/sth → Augur bode well/ill (for sb/sth) → BODE
- Çillegal /ı¹li:gl/ adj not allowed by the law; not legal: It is illegal to own a gun without a special licence.
  مخالف للقانون ، غير قانوني إشكل مخالف للقانون illegally /-gəli/ adv
  - illegible /rˈledʒəbl/ adj difficult or impossible to read; not legible: The doctor's handwriting is quite illegible. (خط) تتعذر أو تستحيل قراءته
  - رصعه) تعمد او تصفیل قرامه بأسلوب تصعب قراءته illegibly /-abli/ adv
  - illegitimate /ˌɪləˈdʒɪtəmət/ adj 1 (used about a child) born to parents who are not married to each other (ولد) غير شرعي
  - 2 not allowed by law; against the rules غير مشروع : مخالف للقوانين
  - ▶ illegitimacy /ˌıləˈdʒıtəməsi/ noun [U] لا شرعية : كون الطفل غير شرعي
- سيّى الحظ ، مشؤوم ill-'fated adj unlucky
- illicit /rlistt/ adj (used about an activity or substance) not allowed by law or by the rules of society: the illicit trade in ivory o They were having an illicit affair. The usual opposite of illicit is legal.
- illiterate /rˈlɪtərət/ adj 1 not able to read or write; not literate
- 2 (used about a piece of writing) very badly written
- 3 not knowing much about a particular subject: computer illiterate o musically illiterate
- غير ملمّ بمباديء علم ما في مام بمباديء علم مام الالتحاديء علم التحاديء التحاديء التحادي التح
- Fillness /'nlnəs/ noun 1 [U] the state of being physically or mentally ill: In case of illness you can cancel the holiday. There is a history of mental illness in the family.
  - 2 [C] a type or period of physical or mental ill health: Although it is serious, cancer is not always a fatal illness. Father is just getting over his illness. ② Look at the note at disease.
- illogical /rlodʒikl/ adj not sensible or reasonable; not logical: It seems illogical to me to pay somebody for doing work that you could do yourself.

- ill-'treat verb [T] to treat sb/sth badly or unkind; ly: This cat has been ill-treated.

  » jill-'treatment noun [U]
- illuminate /r'lu:mmert/ verb [T] (formal) 1 to give light to sth or to decorate sth with lights: The palace was illuminated by spotlights.
- ینیر: بزین بالانسواء 2 to explain sth or make sth clear یوضح بنور ▶ illuminating adj helping to explain sth or make sth clear: an illuminating discussion منیر illumination / بالستان المنافق الستانامة الستادة الستادة المنافق المنافق
- 2 illuminations [plural] (Brit) bright colourful lights that are used for decorating a street, town, etc.
- illusion /r'lu:ʒn/ noun 1 [C,U] a false idea, belief or impression: I have no illusions about the situation – I know it's serious. فكرة خاطئة . وهُم
- 2 [C] something that your eyes tell you is there or is true but in fact is not. That line looks longer, but in fact they're the same length. It's an optical illusion.
- שוש be under an/the illusion (that) to believe wrongly: I think Peter's under the illusion that he will be the new director.
- Rillustrate /ˈɪlostreɪt/ verb [T] 1 to explain or make sth clear by using examples, pictures or diagrams: These statistics illustrate the point that I was making very well.
  - 2 to add pictures, diagrams, etc. to a book or magazine: Most cookery books are illustrated. يزود (كتاباً) بصور أورسوم
  - ▶ illustration /ˌɪləˈstreɪʃn/ noun 1 [C] a drawing, diagram or picture in a book or magazine: colour illustrations
  - 2 [U] the activity or art of illustrating تزويد كتاب بالصور : رسم صور إيضاحية
  - 3 [C] an example that makes a point or an idea clear: Can you give me an illustration of what you mean?
- i'm /aim/ short for I AM
- Fimage /ˈɪmɪdʒ/ noun [C] 1 a mental picture or idea of sb/sth: I have an image of my childhood as always sunny and happy.

  ومورة ذهنية
  - 2 the general impression that a person or organization gives to the public: Advertising has to create an attractive image for the product it is selling.
  - 3 a picture or description that appears in a book, film or painting: horrific images of war
  - 4 a copy or reflection: A perfect image of the building was reflected in the lake. O He's the image of his father (= he looks exactly like him).
  - ▶ imagery /'ımıdʒəri/ noun [U] the use of descriptions and comparisons in language in order to have a strong effect on people's imagin-ation and emotions (قي اللغة اللغة) استعارات وتشابيه (في اللغة imaginable /1'mæd3məbl/ adj (often after a noun) that you can think of: His house was equipped with every luxury imaginable.

يمكن تصوره

- Limaginary / I'mædʒɪnəri; US-əneri/ adj existing only in the mind; not real: Many children have imaginary friends.
- Limagination /I,mæd3I'neIIn/ noun 1 [C,U] the ability to create mental pictures or new ideas: He has a lively imagination. O You need a lot of imagination to see what the building will be like when it's finished. o She's very clever but she hasn't got much imagination. خيال: تخيّل

Imagination is a creative quality that a person has. Fantasy consists of daydreams about stories and situations that are not related to reality.

- 2 [C] the part of the mind that uses this ability: If we really use our imaginations we should find a مخيِّلة ؛ ملكة الإبداع ، خيال solution to this problem!
- ▶ imaginative /r'mædʒɪnətɪv; US -əneɪtɪv/ adj having or showing imagination: She's always full of imaginative ideas. o His writing is highly imaginative. The opposite is unimagina-واسع الخيال ؛ مبدع بسعة خيال ، بإبداع tive.

imaginatively adv

- Limagine /1'mæd31n/ verb [T] 1 to form a picture or idea of sth in the mind: Imagine the seaside in summer, o Imagine that you're lying on a beach. o It's not easy to imagine your brother as a doctor.
  - o I can't imagine myself cycling 20 miles a day. I can imagine what you felt like. يتصور: يتخيل
  - 2 to see, hear or think sth that is not true or does not exist: She's always imagining that she's ill but she's fine really. يتوهم
  - 3 to think of sth as probable; to suppose: I imagine he'll be coming by car. بظن ؛ يفترض imam (also Imam) /I'mq:m/ noun [C] (the title of) a religious man who leads the prayers in a mosque imbalance /ım'bæləns/ noun [C] a difference or lack of equality: an imbalance between our import and export trade عدم توازن

imbecile /'imbəsi:l; US-sl/ noun [C] a stupid per-أبله : غبيّ: أحمق son: a fool

IMF /ai em 'ef/ abbrev International Monetary صندوق النقد الدولي Fund imitate /'mitert/ verb [T] 1 to copy the behaviour of sb/sth: Small children learn by imitating يقلُّد ؛ يحاكي their parents.

- 2 to copy the speech or actions of sb/sth, often in order to be amusing: She could imitate her mother perfectly.
- ▶ imitation / mr'tei∫n/ noun 1 [C] a copy (of a real thing): Some artificial flowers are good imitations of real ones. o This suitcase is made of imitation leather (= of material that is made to look like leather). 2 Look at genuine.

- 2 [C] a copy (of a person's speech or behaviour): That comedian does very good imitations of
- 3 [U] the act of copying sth: Good pronunciation of a language is best learned by imitation.

immaculate /r'mækjələt/ adj 1 perfectly clean في غاية النظافة ؛ ناصع

2 without any mistakes; perfect: an immaculate بلا عيب : كامل الأوصاف performance

▶ immaculately adv

غاية في حسن الهندام أو النظافة وغير ذلك immaterial / iməˈtiəriəl/ adi immaterial (to sb) not important: It's immaterial to me whether we go today or tomorrow. غيرمهم

immature / iməˈtjʊə(r); US -tʊər/ adj 1 not fully grown or developed; not mature; an imma-غير مكتمل النمو ture body

- 2 (used about a person) not behaving as sensibly as you would expect for a person of that age: Some students are very immature when they go to university.
- immediate /ɪˈmiːdiət/ adj 1 happening or done at once or without delay: I'd like an immediate answer to my proposal. O The government responded with immediate action.
  - 2 (only before a noun) existing now and needing attention: Tell me what your immediate needs
  - 3 (only before a noun) nearest in time, position or relationship: They won't make any changes in the immediate future. O You can see the cathedral to your immediate right. O He has left most of his money to his immediate family (= parents, chil-قريب؛ مباشر dren, brothers and sisters).
  - ▶ immediacy /-əsi/ noun [U] the close presence of sth that makes you notice it and become involved in it immediately adv 1 at once; without delay: Can you come home immediately after work? o I couldn't immediately see what he meant. رأساً ، فوراً

- 2 directly; very closely: He wasn't immediately مااثب ةُ involved in the crime.
- 3 nearest in time or position: Who's the girl immediately in front of Simon? O What did you do مباشرة immediately after the war?

immediately conj (Brit) as soon as: I opened the letter immediately I got home. حال او فور (وصولی) immense /r'mens/ adj very large or great: immense difficulties o She gets immense pleasure هائل ؛ ضخم ، حسيم from her garden.

▶ immensely adv extremely; very much: immensely enjoyable o 'Did you enjoy the party?' 'Yes, immensely.' للغابة ؛ حداً immensity /i'mensəti/ noun [U] very large size or extent: the immensity of the universe

حسامة ، ضخامة ؛ لا نهائية

immerse /ɪˈmɜːs/ verb [T] 1 immerse yourself (in sth) to involve yourself deeply in sth so that you give it all your attention: Rachel's usually im-يغرق في (كتاب مثلاً) mersed in a book.

immigrant → impart

2 immerse sth (in sth) to put sth into a liquid so that it is covered immigrant /'imigrent/ noun [C] a person who has come into a foreign country to live there permanently: Many immigrants to Britain have come from Asia. • The government plans to tighten controls to prevent illegal immigrants (= people coming to live in the country without permission). • London has a high immigrant population.

مهاجر ، مغترب

Great Britain has many immigrant communities which make it a multicultural society. Groups of immigrants or children of immigrants who share a common cultural tradition form an ethnic minority.

immigration /ˌɪmɪˈɡreɪʃn/ noun [U] 1 entering a country in order to live there permanently:

There are greater controls on immigration than there used to be.

2 (also immi'gration control) the point at an airport, port, etc. where the passports and documents of people who want to come into a country are checked: When you leave the plane you have to go through customs and immigration.

قسم الهجرة والجوازات في مطار مثلاً

There is a verb 'immigrate' but it is very rarely used. We normally use the expression 'be an immigrant' or the verb 'emigrate' which is used in connection with the place that somebody has come from: 'Were you born here in Britain?' Yes I was, but my parents emigrated to Britain from Barbados.' Look at emigrate, emigrant and emigration.

immobile /r'məobarl; US-bl/ adj not moving or not able to move: The hunter stood immobile until the lion had passed. بلا حراك : عاجز عن الحركة

b immobility /,mə'bıləti/ noun [U] the state of being immobile عجز عن الحركة . جمود immobilize (also immobilise) /l'məobəlatz/ verb [T] to prevent sb/sth from moving or working normally: The railways have been completely immobilized by the strike.

immobilizer (also -iser) /ı'məubəlaızə(r)/ noun [C] a device in a vehicle that prevents thieves from starting the engine when the vehicle is parked immoral /r'moral; US r'mo:ral/ adj wrong or wicked according to the accepted rules of behaviour; not moral: I think experiments on animals are immoral.

الأخلاقي: شاف الآداء اللاء المالة ال

فساد الأخلاق، خلاعة

immorally /ɪˈmɒrəli/ adv دون أخلاق immortal /ɪˈmɔːtl/ adj living or lasting for ever: Nobody is immortal – we all have to die some time. o (figurative) Shakespeare's immortal plays

خالد | immortality /ˌɪmɔːˈtæləti/ noun [U] الخارد (also immortalise) /ɪˈmɔːtəlaɪz/ verb [T] to give lasting fame to sb/sth (especially in a book, film or painting): He immortalized their relationship in a poem.

immune /rmju:n/ adj 1 immune (to sth) protected against a certain disease or illness because you have a resistance to it: You should be immune to measles if you've had it already.

2 immune (to sth) not affected by sth: You can say what you like - I'm immune to criticism! لايتأثر به حصين

3 immune (from sth) protected from a danger or punishment: Young children are immune from prosecution.

immunity /r'mju:nati/ noun [U] the ability to avoid or be unaffected by disease, criticism, prosecution, etc: In many countries people have no immunity to diseases like measles. • Ambasadors to other countries receive diplomatic immunity (= protection from prosecution, etc.).

immunize (also immunise) /ˈmmjunaɪz/ verb [T] to make sb immune to a disease, usually by giving an injection of a substance (vaccine):
Before visiting certain countries you will need to be immunized against cholera. كلمب مناعة نيلغ (نسر من) late and vaccinate. المناعة نيلغ (نسر من) immunization (also immunisation) /ˌmmjunarˈzerʃn; US-nəˈz-/ noun [C.U]

تلقيح ، تطعيم ؛ إكساب مناعة

imp /mp/ noun [C] (in stories) a small creature like a little devil

Rimpact /ˈmpækt/ noun 1 [C, usually sing.] an impact (on/upon sb/sth) an effect or impression: Her speech made a great impact on the audience.

2 [U] the action or force of one object hitting another: The impact of the crash threw the passengers out of their seats. • The bomb exploded on impact (= when it hit something).

ارتطام: اورقام: اورقام المرتطام: الورقام المرتطام المرتطاع المرتط ال

▶ impact /im'pækt:/ verb 1 [1] impact (onl upon sth) to have an effect on sth: Her father's death impacted greatly on her childhood years.

2 [I,T] impact (on/upon/with) sth to hit sth with great force impair /m'peə(r)/ verb [T] to damage or weaken sth: Ear infections can result in impaired hearing.

impale /m'peɪl/ verb [T] impale sb/sth (on sth) to stick a sharp pointed object through sb/sth: The boy fell out of the tree and was impaled on the railings.

impart /imˈpɑːt/ verb [T] (formal) 1 impart sth (to sb) to tell: He rushed home eager to impart the good news.

2 impart sth (to sth) to give a certain quality to sth: The low lighting imparted a romantic atmosphere to the room.

impartial → impertinent

395

impartial /m'pa:ʃl/ adj fair or neutral; not preferring one to another: The referee must be impartial.

ر متعيز ، حيادي ► impartiality /ˌɪmˌpɑːʃiˈæləti/ noun [U]

عدم تحيّز ، حياد بدون تحيز ؛ بإنصاف impartially /-ʃəli/ adv

impassable /m'pa:səbl; US 'pæs-/ adj (used about a road, etc.) impossible to travel on because it is blocked: Flooding and fallen trees have made many roads impassable. مسلود، لا يمكن عبود impassive /m'pæsrv/ adj (used about a person) showing no emotion or reaction (شخص) بارد. لا يبدو عليه الانفهال

▶ impassively adv

رسطن الداء أية مشاعر، بجمود

Rimpatient /m'pet[nt/ adj 1 impatient (at sth/ with sb) not able to wait for sb/sth calmly; easily annoyed by sb/sth that seems slow; not patient: Don't be so impatient – it's your turn next. o The passengers are getting impatient at the delay. o It's no good being impatient with small children.

2 impatient (to do sth); impatient (for sth) (not before a noun) wanting sth to happen soon: By the time they are sixteen many young people are impatient to leave school. At the end of winter we are often impatient for spring to arrive.

impatience /m'peɪʃns/ noun [Ū]: He began to explain for the third time with growing impatience.

impatiently adv

impeccable /m'pekebl/ adj perfect; without any mistakes: impeccable behaviour o His accent is impeccable.

Y تشویه شائبة. خالِ من کل عیب

▶ impeccably /-bli/ adv

بكل دقة وإتقان : غاية في الأناقة impede /m'pi:d/ verb [T] (formal) to make it difficult for sb/sth to move or make progress: The completion of the new motorway has been impeded by bad weather conditions.

impediment / im'pediment / noun [C] (formal) something that makes it difficult for a person or thing to move or progress: The high rate of tax will be a major impediment to new businesses.

عائق ، مانع

2 something that makes speaking difficult: a speech impediment impending / im'pendin/ adj (only before a noun) (usually used about sth bad) that will happen soon: There was a feeling of impending disaster in the air: (کارفتا و شیکة impenetrable /m'penstrabl/ adj 1 impossible to enter or get through: The jungle was impenetrable.

**Y يمكن اختراقه**

2 impossible to understand: an impenetrable mystery

imperative /m'perətiv/ adj very important or urgent: It's imperative that you see a doctor immediately.

imperative noun [C] (grammar) the form of the verb that is used for giving orders: In 'Shut the door!' the verb is in the imperative.

صيغة الأمر (في القواعد)

imperceptible /,mpə'septəbl/ adj too small to be seen or noticed; very slight: The difference between the original painting and the copy was almost imperceptible. 1 The verb is perceive.

لايدرك؛ غير ملحوظ؛ طفيف حداً > imperceptibly /-abli/ adv: Almost imperceptibly winter was turning into spring.

بشكل خفي؛ بشكل غير ملحوظ

imperfect /mips:fikt/ adj 1 with mistakes or faults; not perfect: This is a very imperfect system.

2 (only before a noun) (grammar) used for expressing action in the past that is not completed: In 'While I was having a bath', the verb is in the imperfect tense.

صيغة الماضي المستمرّ (في قواعد اللفة الإنكليزية)

We can also use imperfect as a noun and say: The verb is in the imperfect. It is more usual to call this tense the past continuous or past progressive.

بشكل ناقص؛ بشكل غير كاف بشكل غات imperfectly adv

imperial /ɪmˈpɪəriəl/ adj 1 connected with an empire or its ruler: the imperial palace o imperial power

2 belonging to a system of weighing and measuring that was previously used for all goods in the United Kingdom and is still used for some

D Look at metric and at inch, foot, yard, ounce, pound, pint and gallon. The entries will tell you what these weights and measures are in metres, kilos and litres.

imperialism /m'prerielizem/ noun [U] a political system in which a rich and powerful country controls other countries (colonies) which are not so rich and powerful as itself

▶ imperialist /im'pierialist/ noun [C] a person who supports or believes in imperialism

استعماري

impersonal /im'ps:sənl/ adj 1 not showing friendly human feelings; cold in feeling or atmosphere: A large organization can be very impersonal to work for o The hotel room was very impersonal.

(جوً) غير ودِّي ؛ (غرفة) جرداء لا تبعث على الدفء

2 not referring to any particular person: Can we try to keep the discussion as impersonal as possible, please?

impersonate /Im'pa:səneɪt/ verb [T] to copy the actions and way of speaking of a person or to pretend to be a different person: an actress who often impersonates the Queen • He was arrested for impersonating a policeman.

ينتحل شخصية غيره؛ يقلّد شخصية شهيرة impersonation /Im,p3:so'ner∫n/ noun [C,U] انتحال شخصية الغير؛ تقليد الشخصيات الشهيرة

impersonator noun [C] ممثُل يتقن تقليد الشخصيات impertinent /m'ps:tment/ adj rude; not showing respect: I do apologize. It was impertinent of my daughter to speak to you like that. • The op

imperturbable → important

posite is NOT pertinent. It is polite or respect-وقح : قليل الأدب ful.

وقاحة ؛ قلة أدب ▶ impertinence /-əns/ noun [U] به قاحة impertinently adv imperturbable /,impə'tə:bəbl/ adj (formal) not easily worried; calm 1 The verb is perturb.

هادئ الأعصاب: لا تهزه الأحداث impervious /m'ps:vies/ adj 1 not allowing water, etc. to pass through (قماش) كتيم، غير منفذ 2 not affected or influenced by sth: impervious to criticism صامد (أمام) ؛ لآيتأثر ب impetuous /im'petsues/ adj acting or done quickly and without thinking: Her impetuous behaviour often got her into trouble. 1 A more common word is impulsive. متهوِّر ، مندفع ؛ غير مثروً بتهور، بلاروية ▶ impetuously adv

impetus /'impites/ noun [U, sing.] something that encourages sth else to happen: I need fresh impetus to start working on this essay again impinge /im'pind3/ verb [I] impinge on/upon sth (formal) to have an effect on sth; to interfere with sth: I'm not going to let my job impinge on my home life. يۇثر على، يتدخل في implant /'implaint; US -plænt/ noun [C] something that is put into a part of the body in a medical operation, often in order to make it bigger or حشوة، زرعة a different shape implausible /m'plo:zəbl/ adj not easy to believe: an implausible excuse implement<sup>1</sup> /'impliment/ noun [C] a tool or instrument (especially for work outdoors): farm implements Dook at the note at tool.

آلة، أداة (زراعية مثلاً)

implement<sup>2</sup> /'impliment/ verb [T] to start using a plan, system, etc: Some teachers are finding it difficult to implement the government's education-يطبُق ، يضع موضع التنفيذ al reforms.

▶ implementation / implimenter in/ noun تنفيذ، تطبيق implicate /'implikert/verb [T] implicate sb (in sth) (formal) to show that sb is involved in sth unpleasant, especially a crime: A well-known politician was implicated in the scandal.

يتهمه أو يورطه في جريمة rimplication / implifier fn/ noun 1 [C,U] some thing that is suggested but that is not said openly: The implication of what she said was that we had made a bad mistake. The verb is imply.

مون (الكلام)

2 [C] the effect that sth will have on sth else in the future: The new law will have serious implications for our work.

3 implication (in sth) the fact of being involved, or of involving sb, in sth unpleasant, especially a crime implicit /m'plisit/ adj 1 not expressed directly but understood by the people involved: We had an implicit agreement that we would support each ضمني، متعارف عليه ضمناً other. 2 Look at explicit.

2 complete and asking no questions: I have implicit faith in your ability to do the job.

مطلق ، (إيمان) أعمى ▶ implicitly adv completely: I trust you impli-كلياً ؛ مطلقاً implore /m'plo:(r)/ verb [T] (formal) to ask sb for sth or to do sth. You implore sb when the situation is very serious and you feel desperate: She implored him not to leave her alone. o 'Don't leave me alone', she implored. 3 Look at beg. It is simi-يتوسل (إلى) ، يستعطف lar in meaning.

imply /ɪmˈplaɪ/ verb [T] (pres part implying; 3rd pers sing pres implies; pt, pp implied) to suggest sth in an indirect way or without actually saying it: He didn't say so - but he implied that I was lying. • The noun is implication. يلمُح ؛ يعنى ضمناً impolite /,impo'last/ adj rude; not polite: I think it was impolite of him to ask you to leave.

وقح، قليل الأدب ىقلُةً أدب ، بلا تهذيب

▶ impolitely adv

?import1 /m'po:t/ verb [T] import sth (from...); import sth (into...) to buy goods, etc. from a foreign country and bring them into your own country: This country has to import most of its raw materials. o imported goods o Britain imports fruit and vegetables from France, Italy, Spain, etc. o (figurative) We need to import some extra help from somewhere. The opposite is export.

importer noun [C]: Is Britain the world's largest importer of tea? 1 The opposite is ex-

?import<sup>2</sup> /'rmport/ noun 1 [C, usually pl.] goods bought from a foreign country for sale or use in your own country: What are your country's major imports? 1 The opposite is export. بضائع مستوردة ، واردات

2 [U] (also importation) the action of importing goods: The government is introducing new controls on the import of certain goods from abroad.

? important /m'portnt/ adj 1 having great value or influence; very necessary: an important meeting, decision, etc. o Tomorrow will be the most important day of my life! o Is money important for happiness? o It's important not to be late. o It's important that people should learn at least one foreign language. o It's important for people to see the results of what they do. o It was important to هامٌ ؛ ضروريَ، لازم me that you were there.

2 (used about a person) having great influence or authority: He was one of the most important writers of his time. o I soon got to know who was important in the company and who wasn't.

مهم ، ذو شأن، له نفود

1 The opposite is unimportant.

▶ importance /-tns/ noun [U] the state of being important; value: The decision was of great importance to the future of the business

أهمــَة ؛ قد في نواح هامّة

importantly adv

- Rimpose /m'pouz/ verb 1 [T] to make sth be accepted because you are the person with power: A new tax will be imposed on cigarettes. o The government should impose restrictions on the use of harmful chemicals. o Parents should try not to impose their own ideas on their children.
  - 2 [I] impose (on/upon sb/sth) to ask or expect sb to do sth that may cause extra work or trouble: I hope I'm not imposing but could you look after our cats while we're away? o I hate to impose on you but can you lend me some money?
  - ▶ imposition /,Impo'zr∫n/ noun 1 [U] the action of imposing: the imposition of military rule
  - 2 [C] an unfair or unpleasant thing that sb has to accept; sth that causes extra work or trouble (ققال (على)
- imposing /m'pəʊzɪŋ/ adj making an impression on people because it is big or important:

  They lived in a large, imposing house near the park.
- Rimpossible /m'posəbl/ adj 1 not able to be done or to happen; not possible: It's impossible for me to be there before 12. o I find it almost impossible to get up in the morning! o That horse is impossible to control. o That's impossible! (= I don't believe it!)
  - 2 very difficult to deal with or to make better: This is an impossible situation! He's always been an impossible child.
  - impossibility /m.posə'biləti/ noun [C.U] (pl. impossibilities): the impossibility of reaching an agreement o What you are suggesting is a complete impossibility!

the impossible noun [sing.] something that cannot be done: Don't attempt the impossible!

impossibly /-abli/ adv extremely: impossibly complicated impostor /mˈpɒstə(r)/ noun [C] a person who pretends to be sb else in order to deceive other people منتجل شخصیة کاذبة: دعيُ impotent /'mpətənt/ adj 1 without enough power or influence & The opposite is powerful.

- 2 (used about men) not capable of having sexual intercourse عِنْين، عاجز جنسياً
- ▶ impotence /-ons/ noun [U]

عجز جنسي ؛ عَجْز، قصور يد impoverish /m'pɒvərɪʃ/ verb [T] (formal) to make sb/sth poor or poor in quality ♣ Look at enrich.

impracticable /m'præktikəbl/ adj impossible to use or do in practice: Your plan is completely impracticable.

impractical /m'præktikl/ adj 1 not sensible or reasonable; not practical: an impractical suggestion o It would be impractical to take our bikes on the train.

2 (used about a person) not good at doing ordinary everyday jobs: He's clever but completely impractical.

imprecise / imprecise / adj not clear or exact;
not precise: imprecise instructions

غير واضح ؛ غير دقيق

- Rimpress /m'pres/ verb [T] 1 impress sb (with sth) to make sb feel admiration and respect: She's always trying to impress people with her new clothes. It impressed me that he understood immediately what I meant.
  - 2 (formal) impress sth on/upon sb to make sth very clear to sb: I wish you could impress on John that he must pass these exams.
  - يوضع ل يطبّع في ذهنه ▶ impressed adj feeling admiration for sb/sth because you think they are particularly good, interesting, etc.
- Timpression /m'pre[n/ noun [C] 1 the effect that a person or thing produces on sb else: She gives the impression of being older than she really is. o I want to create an impression of light and space in the house. o Do you think I made a good impression on your parents?
  - 2 an opinion about sb/sth (that is sometimes unclear or wrong): What's your impression of the new director?  $\circ$  I'm not sure but I have the impression that Jane's rather unhappy.  $\circ$  I was under the impression that you were married.
  - 3 an amusing imitation of the behaviour or speech of a well-known person: My brother can do a good impression of the Prime Minister.

تقليد

a mark made by pressing an object hard into a surface طبعة (أثر يتركه الضغط على سطح ليّن)

impressionable /m'prefonabl/ adj easy to influence: Sixteen is a very impressionable age. سريم التأثّر: يُسهل التأثير عليه

- rimpressive /tm'presiv/ adj causing a feeling of admiration and respect because of importance, size, excellent quality, etc: an impressive building, speech, etc. The way he handled the situation was most impressive. The opposite is unimpressive.
  - imprint / imprint / noun [C] the mark made by pressing an object on a surface: the imprint of a foot in the sand (أثر بلعة (الريتركه الضفط على سطح لين)
  - imprison /m'prızn/ verb [T] (often passive) to put or keep in prison: He was imprisoned for robbery with violence.
  - ▶ imprisonment noun [U] the state of being imprisoned: She was sentenced to five years' imprisonment. life imprisonment improbable /m¹probəbl/ adj not likely to be true or to happen; not probable: an improbable explanation ○ an improbable result ○ It is highly improbable that she will arrive tonight. ♦ Look at unlikely.

improbability /Im,prube'bileti/ noun [U] عدم احتمال (حدوث أمر ما) ؛ صعوبة تصديق

impromptu → in

improbably /-abli/ adv

impromptu /ımˈprɒmptju:; US -tu:/ adj, adv (done) without being prepared or organized: an impromptu party improper /im'propa(r)/ adj 1 rude or not suitable for the situation: That was a very improper غير لائق؛ في غير محله

2 illegal or not honest: It seems that she had been involved in improper business deals.

3 rude (in a sexual way): He lost his job for making improper suggestions to several of the impropriety / umprə praiəti/ noun [C,U] (pl. improprieties) (formal) the state of being improper; an improper act: She was unaware of the impropriety of her remark. O We are certain there were no improprieties in the handling of the deal.

بشكُّل غير لائق ؛ على نحو غير قانوني ► improperly adv

عدم لياقة ؛ بذاءة ؛ معاملات مشبوهة

تحلّن: تحسين

غير قانوني ؛ غير سليم

Limprove /Im'pru:v/ verb [I,T] to become or to make sth better: Your work has greatly improved. o I hope the weather will improve later on. o Your vocabulary is excellent but you could improve your pronunciation.

يتحسن؛ يحسن pronunciation.

PHRV improve on/upon sth to produce sth that is better than sth else: I think the film improved on the book (= the film was better than the book). o Nobody will be able to improve on that score (= nobody will be able to make a higher score). يدخل تحسيناً على ، ينتج شيئاً أفضل

▶ improvement noun [C,U] improvement (on/ in sth) (a) change which makes the quality or condition of sb/sth better: Housing and public \int in^1/m/adv \int For special uses with many verbs, e. transport are areas which need improvement.

We use improvement in to talk about something that has got better than it was before. There's been a considerable improvement in your mother's condition. Improvement on is used when we are comparing two things and one is better than the other: These marks are an improvement on your previous ones.

improvise /'imprəvaiz/ verb [I,T] 1 to make, do, or manage sth quickly or without preparation, using what you have: If\you're short of teachers today you'll just have to improvise (= manage somehow with the people that you've got). يتحايل على مشكلة ، يرتجل

2 to play music, speak or act using your imagination instead of written or remembered material: It was obvious that the actor had forgotten his lines and was trying to improvise. o a brilliant improvised speech يرتجل

▶ improvisation /ˌımprəvaɪˈzeɪʃn; US ɪm-.prpvə'zet[n/noun[C,U] the act of improvising impudent /'impjədənt/ adj (formal) very rude; not respectful or polite ( A more informal word is cheeky. وقح ▶ impudence /-əns/ noun [U] impudent behav-وقاحة iour or speech بوقاحة impudently adv impulse /'impals/ noun [C] 1 a sudden desire to do sth without thinking about the results: She felt a terrible impulse to rush out of the house and رغبة مفاجئة ، نزوة never come back.

2 a single push or signal in a nerve, wire, etc. that causes a reaction: electrical impulses on (an) impulse without thinking or planning: Sometimes it's fun to go away on impulse when the weather's nice.

لتوه، دون سابق تفكير أو تحضير impulsive /ım'pʌlsɪv/ adj likely to act suddenly and without thinking; done without careful thought: an impulsive character o an impulsive مندفع ، متهور: دون تفكير

▶ impulsively adv impulsiveness noun [U] بتهور ، دون تفکیر اندفاع ، تهوُّر impure /m'pjvə(r)/ adj 1 consisting of more than one substance (and therefore not of good quality); not pure: impure metals

غير صاف، مشوب: مغشوش

2 (old-fashioned) (used about thoughts and actions connected with sex) not moral; bad

غير طاهر ، دُنس ▶ impurity /ɪmˈpjʊərəti/ noun (pl. impurities)

1 [C, usually pl.] a substance that is present in another substance, making it of poor quality: People are being advised to boil their water because certain impurities have been found in

2 [U] the state of being impure

تلوَّثُ ؛ عدم طهارة : دَنَس

- g. give in, look at the verb entries.
  - 1 to a position within a particular area: She opened the door and went in. o My suitcase is full. I can't get any more in. o When does the train get إلى داخل أو داخل (البيت مثلاً) in? (= to the station)
  - 2 at home or at work: She won't be in till late في البيت أو في المكتب
  - 3 (used about the tides of the sea) at the highest point, when the water is closest to the land: The نحو الشاطئ ، (البحر) في حالة مدُّ tide's coming in.
  - 4 received by sb official: Entries should be in by (يُستَلَم من قبل موظف رسمي) 20 March.

DM be in for sth to be going to experience sth unpleasant: He'll be in for a shock when he gets (تنتظره أخبار غير سارة) be/get in on sth to have a share in sth; to know about sth that is happening: I'd like to be in on the new project. have (got) it in for sb (informal) to be unpleasant to sb because he/she has done sth to upset يعامل بجفاء، يعادي

- Lin² /m/ prep → For special uses with many nouns, e.g. in time, look at the noun entries.
  - 1 (showing place) within the area of sth; enclosed by sth: a country in Africa o a town in France o an island in the Pacific o in a box o I read about it in the newspaper. o in bed o She put the keys in her pocket. O They were working in the garden. o His wife's in hospital.

- 2 (showing time) during a period of time: My birthday is in August. o He was born in 1980. o You could walk there in about an hour (= it would take that long to walk there).
- 3 (showing time) after a period of time: I'll be finished in ten minutes.
- 4 contained in; forming the whole or part of sth: There are 366 days in a leap year.
- 5 (used for giving the rate of sth): a new rate of  $tax of 50p in the pound \circ One family in ten owns a$ ب؛ من (ضمن) dishwasher.
- 6 wearing sth: They were all dressed in black for the funeral. o I've never seen you in a suit before.
- 7 (used for saying how things are arranged): We (بشكل) sat in a circle.
- 8 (used for saying how sth is written or expressed): Please write in pen. o They were talking in Italian.
- 9 (used with feelings): I watched in horror as the plane crashed to the ground.
- 10 (showing the condition or state of sb/sth): My parents are in poor health. o This room is in a mess! o Richard's in love. في، ب
- 11 (showing sb's job or the activity sb is involved in): He's got a good job in advertising. o All her family are in politics. o He's in the army.

in3/m/noun

IDM the ins and outs (of sth) the details and difficulties (involved in sth): Will somebody explain the ins and outs of the situation to me? باطن الأمور وظواهرها، تفاصيل الأمور وخفاياها

in<sup>4</sup> /m/ adj fashionable at the moment: the in place to go o Purple is very in this season

آخر صيحة في عالم الموضة

in. (pl. in. or ins.) abbrev = INCH: He is 6 ft 2 in. tall.

Linability / məˈbɪləti/ noun [U] inability (to do sth) lack of ability, power or skill: He has a complete inability to listen to other people's opinions. The adjective is unable. عحز ، عدم مقدرة inaccessible / mæk'sesəbl/ adj very difficult or impossible to reach or contact: That beach is inaccessible by car. o (figurative) His books are inaccessible to (= cannot be understood by) the aver-صعب المنال ؛ لا يمكن الوصول إليه ؛ يصعب فهمه age reader. ▶ inaccessibility /ˌɪnækˌsesəˈbɪləti/ noun صعوبة الوصول إلى ، مناعة ؛ صعوبة فهم inaccurate /m'ækjərət/ adj not correct; not accurate: an inaccurate report, description, etc. خاطئ ، غير صحيح ، مغلوط

- ▶ inaccuracy /ɪn'ækjərəsi/ noun (pl. inaccuracies) 1 [U] being inaccurate: The inaccuracy of the statistics was immediately obvious.
- 2 [C] an inaccurate statement; a written or spoken mistake: There are always some inaccur-عدم صحة ؛ تقرير مغلوطً acies in newspaper reports.

inaction /in'æk[n/ noun [U] doing nothing; lack of action: The crisis was blamed on the govern-قعود عن العمل، تراخ، كسل ment's earlier inaction.

inactive /m'æktɪv/ adj doing nothing; not active: The virus remains inactive in the body.

عديم الحركة ؛ غير فعّال: ساكن، خامد

▶ inactivity /,ınæk'tıvəti/ noun [U]

عدم الحركة ، خُمول

inadequate /m'ædikwət/ adj 1 not sufficient; not good enough: the problem of inadequate hous-غير كاف، ناقص؛ غير ملائم

- 2 (used about a person) not able to deal with a problem or situation, etc.; not confident: There was so much to learn in the new job that for a while I felt totally inadequate.
- غير كفء : قاصر عن حل مشاكله : غير واثق من نفسه ▶ inadequacy /m'ædikwəsi/ noun [C,U] (pl. inadequacies): his inadequacy as a parent o The inadequacies of the health service are often عدم كفاية ؛ قصور ، نقص blamed on the government. inadequately /ınˈædɪkwətli/ advبشكل ناقص، بشكل لا يفي بالغرض inadvertent /,med'va:tent/ adj (used about actions) done without thinking, not on purpose; ساه ؛ غير متعمد، غير مقصود not intentional

▶ inadvertently adv: She had inadvertently left the letter where he could find it. سهواً ؛ عن غير قصد inadvisable / med'varzebl/ adj not sensible or wise: It is inadvisable to go swimming when you -تحسن ؛ ليس من الحكمة have a cold.

inane /1'neɪn/ adj without any meaning; silly: an سُخيفٌ ، تافه؛ لا معنى له inane remark بسخف؛ ببلامة

▶ inanely adv

inappropriate / məˈprəupriət/ adj not suitable: Isn't that dress rather inappropriate for the غير لائق ، غير مناسب inarticulate /,ma:'tɪkjələt/ adj 1 (used about a person) not able to express ideas and feelings عاجز عن الإفصاح عن آرائه ومشاعره ً clearly

2 (used about speech) not clear or well ex-غير واضح pressed

بغموض : بشكل غير مفهوم ► inarticulately adv

inasmuch as /,məz'mʌtʃ əz/ conj (formal) because of the fact that; to the extent that: We felt sorry for the boys inasmuch as they had not realized that what they were doing was wrong.

نظراً لأنَّ؛ بقدر ما

inattention /,mə'tenfn/ noun [U] lack of atten-غفلة ، سهو ، عدم انتبأه tion: a moment of inattention ▶ inattentive / inattentiv/ adj not paying attention; not attentive: One inattentive student can غير منتبه ؛ غافل ، ساه disturb the whole class.

inaudible /m'ɔːdəbl/ adj not loud enough to be heard غير مسموع

▶ inaudibly /m'ɔ:dəbli/ adv

inaugural /ɪ'nɔ:gjərəl/ adj (only before a noun) (used about a speech or meeting that marks the beginning of a new organization, leadership, etc.) first: the President's inaugural speech

تدشيني ، افتتاح inaugurate /r'no:gjəreit/ verb [T] 1 to intro-

inbox → incline

duce a new official, leader, etc. at a special ceremony: He will be inaugurated as President next يولي ، يقلُّد مراسم السلطة

2 to start, introduce or open sth new (often at a

ینشن بفتتع inauguration /1,nɔ:gjə'reɪ∫n/ noun [C.U] inbox /'mbpks/ noun [C] the place on a computer where new email messages are shown: I have a stack of emails in my inbox. البريد الوارد (كمبيوتر)

Inc. (also inc) abbrev (US) = Incorporated

inc. (also incl.) abbrev =including; inclusive incalculable /mˈkælkjələbl/ adj very great; too great to calculate: an incalculable risk o incalcul-جسيم، بالغ؛ لا يعد ولا يحصى incapable /m'keipəbl/ adj 1 incapable of sth/doing sth not able to do sth; not capable of sth/doing sth: She is incapable of hard work/ working hard. o He's quite incapable of unkind-غير قادر ، عاجز (عن) ness (= too nice to be unkind).

2 not able to do, manage or organize anything well: As a doctor, she's totally incapable.

incapacitate / inkə pæsiteit/ verb [T] to make sb unable (to work, live normally, etc.): They were completely incapacitated by the heat in Spain. يقعد عن العمل؛ يَشلُ حركته incarnation / mkg:'nei[n/ noun [C] 1 (a person that is) a perfect example of a particular qual-مثال ، رمز ، تجسيد ity

2 a life on earth in a particular form incendiary /m'sendiəri; US -dieri/ adj thaț causes a fire: an incendiary bomb incense /'insens/ noun [U] a substance that produces a sweet smell when burnt, used especially in religious ceremonies بخور incentive /in'sentiv/ noun [C.U] incentive (to do sth) something that encourages you (to do sth): The company is offering cash incentives to staff to move to another area. o There's no incentive for young people to do well at school because there aren't any jobs when they leave.

حافز ، دافع : جائزة تشجيعيةً incessant /m'sesnt/ adj never stopping: incessant rain, noise, etc. 2 Look at continual.

متواصل، لا ينقطع بدون انقطاع ؛ باستمرار ▶ incessantly adv incest /'msest/ noun [U] sexual intercourse between close members of a family, e.g. brother and sister مناطي الجنس مع المحارم

▶ incestuous /m'sestjuəs; US -t∫uəs/ adj 1 involving incest: an incestuous relationship (علاقة) جنسية مع المحارم

2 (used about a group of people and their relationships with each other) too close; not open to anyone outside the group: Life in a small community can be very incestuous.

مغلق ، مفرط في الانعزال عن الآخرين

Finch /mtf/ noun [C] (abbr in.) a measure of length; 2.54 centimetres. There are 12 inches in a foot: He's 5 foot 10 inches tall. O Three inches of بوصة ، إنش rain fell last night.

PHRY inch forward, past, through, etc. to move slowly and carefully in the direction mentioned: He inched forward along the cliff يحرك أو يتحرك ببطء شديد edge.

incidence /'insidens/ noun (formal) [sing.] the number of times sth (usually sth unpleasant) happens; the rate of sth: a high incidence of crime, disease, unemployment, etc.

حدوث ، وقوع ؛ معدل أو نسبة الحدوث

lincident /'msident/ noun [C] (formal) 1 an event (especially one that involves violence, danger, something strange, etc.): There were a number of unpleasant incidents after the football match. o Various strange incidents had made people suspicious. O The publishing of the book resulted in a diplomatic incident (= a dangerous or unpleasant situation between countries).

حادث ، حادثة

2 something that happens that is not very important: There was an amusing incident at work today.

incidental /ˌɪnsɪˈdentl/ adj happening as part of sth more important; minor: The incidental expenses of a holiday are often more than expected. o The book contains various themes that are inci-عرضي ، ثانوي ؛ طارئ dental to the main plot.

incidentally / insi'dentli/ adv (used to introduce extra news, information, etc. that the speaker has just thought of): Incidentally, that new restaurant you told me about is excellent. 6 Another way of saying 'incidentally' is by the بالمناسبة ، على فكرة incinerate /m'smarent/ verb [T] (formal) to destroy sth completely by burning

برمد، يحرق حتى يصبح رماداً

▶ incinerator /in'sinareita(r)/ noun [C] a container or machine for burning rubbish, etc.

محرقة القُمامة

incision /in'si3n/ noun [C,U] (formal) a cut carefully made into sth (especially into a person's body as part of a medical operation) شَرَّط (جراحيُّ) ، حَزُّ ، شقَّ

incite /ɪnˈsaɪt/ verb [T] incite sb (to sth) to encourage sb to do sth by making him/her very angry or excited: He was accused of inciting the crowd to violence. بحرض ▶ incitement noun [C,U]: He was guilty of تحريض incitement to violence.

incl. abbrev = including; inclusive inclination /,ınklı'neı∫n/ noun [C,U] a feeling that makes sb want to behave in a particular way: My inclination is to say 'no', but what do ميل؛ رغبة؛ نزعة incline /m'klam/ verb 1 [I,T] to tend to think or behave in a particular way; to make sb do this: I incline to the view that we should take no action at this stage. o Lack of money inclines many يميل young people towards crime.

2 [T] (formal) to bend (your head) forward: They sat round the table, heads inclined, deep in discussion. (وأسه)

3 [I] incline towards sth to lean or slope in the direction of sth: The land inclines towards the shore.

inclined /m'klamd/ adj 1 inclined to do sth likely to do sth: She's inclined to change her mind very easily.

- 2 inclined (to do sth) wanting to behave in a particular way: I know Andrew well so I'm inclined to believe what he says.
- 3 inclined to do sth (used to make what is said sound less sure) holding a particular opinion: I'm inclined to say 'yes', but I'll have to ask James first.

  مبال (الى) ، في (رأيي)
- 4 having a natural ability in the subject mentioned: to be musically inclined
- Pinclude /m'klu:d/ verb [T] 1 to have as one part; to contain (among other things): The price of the holiday includes the flight, the hotel and taxes.

  The crew included one woman. $\times$ Look at exclude and at the note at contain.
  - 2 to make sb/sth part (of another group, etc.): The children immediately included the new girl in their games. • Everyone was disappointed, myself included.
  - ▶ including /m'klu:din/ prep having as a part: It costs £17.99, including postage and packing.

inclusion /m'klu:ʒn/ noun [U]: The inclusion of all that violence in the film was unnecessary. إدراج، تضمين: احتواء inclusive /nn'klu:sɪv/ adj 1 inclusive (of sth) (used about a price, charge, fee, etc.) including or containing everything; including the thing mentioned: Is that an inclusive price or are there some extras? o The rent is inclusive of electricity.

2 (only after a noun) including the dates, numbers, etc. mentioned: You are booked at the hotel from Monday to Friday inclusive (= including Monday and Friday). ① When talking about time through is often used in American English instead of inclusive: We'll be away from Friday through Sunday.

متضمّن ، كامل ، (بما فيه التاريخين المذكورين)

incognito /inkng'ni:təo; US ng'kngnətəo/ adj, adv hiding your real name and identity (especially if you are famous and do not want to be recognized): to travel incognito

متنكّر، متخفُّ؛ متنكّراً؛ بإسم مستعار incoherent /ˌinkəʊˈhiərənt/ adj not clear or easy to understand; not expressing yourself clearly incoherence /-ons/ noun [U] تفكّف . عدم تماسك : صعوبة فهم incoherently adv (يتكلم) كلاما غير مترابط أو غير مفهوم

Pincome /ˈɪnkʌm/ noun [C,U] the money you receive regularly as payment for your work or as interest on investments: It's sometimes difficult for a family to live on one income.

We talk about a monthly or an annual income. An income may be high or low. Your gross income is the amount you earn before paying tax. Your net income is your income after tax. Look at the note at pay.

'income tax noun [U] the tax you pay on the money you earn فريبة الدخل

incoming /ˈɪnkʌmɪŋ/ adj (only before a noun)
1 coming in or arriving: incoming flights, passengers, etc. o incoming telephone calls آت، وارد، قادم

2 new; recently elected: the incoming govern- ment

incomparable /in'komprebl/ adj so good or great that it does not have an equal: incomparable beauty 1 The verb is compare.

لا يُضاهى ، لا نظير له incompatible /,inkem'pætebl/ adj incompatible (with sb/sth) not able to live or work happily with sb; not able to exist in harmony with sb/sth else: The working hours of the job are incompatible with family life.

غير منسجم مع غيره ، متنافر ، متضارب

► incompatibility /,ınkəm,pætəˈbɪləti/ noun [C,U] (pl. incompatibilities)

عدم انسجام ، تنافر، تضارب

incompetent / In'kompitent/ adj lacking the necessary skill to do sth well: He is completely incompetent at his job.

▶ incompetence /-əns/ noun [U] عدم كفاءة ، قلة خبرة

دونْ خبرة ، دون الكفَّاءة المطلوبة دون الكفَّاءة المطلوبة

incomplete /ˌɪnkəmˈpliːt/ adj having a part or parts missing; not total or complete: The witness could only give an incomplete account of what had happened. O His happiness was incomplete without her. O Unfortunately the jigsaw puzzle was incomplete.

▶ incompletely adv

بشكل غير تام ، بشكل ناقص ، جزئياً

incomprehensible /ɪnˌkɒmprɪˈhensəbl/ adj impossible to understand: an incomprehensible explanation o Her attitude is incomprehensible to the rest of the committee.

inconceivable /,mkən'si:vəbl/ adj impossible or very difficult to believe or imagine

لايصدّق، لا يتصوره العقل inconclusive /ˌmkənˈkluːsɪv/ adj not leading to a definite decision or result: an inconclusive discussion ∘ inconclusive evidence (= that doesn't prove anything) (برهان) غير قاطع : غير حاسم

▶ inconclusively adv

دون نتيجة حاسمة ؛ دون التوصّل إلى حل incongruous /in'knngruəs/ adj strange; not in harmony; out of place: He looked very incongruous in his T-shirt and jeans at the ball.

غريب الشكل: غير منسجم، متنافر

▶ incongruity /ˌinkɒnˈgruːəti/ noun [U] غرابة : عدم انسجام ، تنافر incongruously adv بشكل لا يتلاءم مع

inconsiderate → incurable

inconsiderate /,inkən'sidərət/ adj (used about a person) not thinking or caring about the feelings, or needs of other people: It was inconsiderate of you not to offer her a lift. ① Another word for inconsiderate is thoughtless.

لا يأبه لمشاعر الآخرين أو مصالحهم، قليل الإحساس

➤ inconsiderately adv

دون مراعاة مشاعر الآخرين أو مصالحهم inconsiderateness noun [U]

ا rateriess moun الأخرين أو مصالحهم بدم مراعاة مشاعر الآخرين أو مصالحهم inconsistent /,mkənˈsɪstənt/ adj 1 (used about a person) likely to change (in attitude, behaviour, etc.); not reliable: She's so inconsistent - sometimes her work is good and sometimes it's really awful.

2 inconsistent (with sth) not in agreement with sth: These new facts are inconsistent with the earlier information.

inconsistency /-ansi/ noun [C, U] (pl. inconsistencies) المستقدم المست inconspicuous /ˌinkənˈspikjuəs/ adj not easily noticed: inconspicuous colours such as greyand dark blue o I tried to make myself as inconspicuous as possible so that no one would ask me a question.

▶ inconspicuously adv

بشكل لا يلفت الأنظار ؛ بعيداً عن العيون incontinent /m'kɒntmənt/ adj unable to control the passing of waste (urine and faeces) from the body

▶ incontinence /-ons/ noun [U]

سلس البول والغائط

inconvenience /ˌmkənˈviːniəns/ noun [C,U] (something that causes) difficulty or discomfort: We apologize for any inconvenience caused by the delays.

➤ inconvenience verb [T]

يزعج، يضايق؛ يسبّب صعوباتُ inconvenient / "mkən'vi:miənt/ ad/ causing difficulty or discomfort; not convenient: It's a bit inconvenient at the moment - could you phone again later?

▶ inconveniently adv

بشكل غير ملائم: بشكل يسبّب الإزعاج incorporate /m'kɔːpərett/ verb [T] incorporate sth (in/into sth) to make sth part of sth else or to have sth as a part; to include: I'd like you to incorporate this information into your report.

The new car incorporates all the most modern safety features.

inc (following the name of a company) formed into a business company with legal status (corporation) incorrect /ˌnnkəˈrekt/ adj not right or true; not correct: Incorrect answers should be marked with a cross.

▶ incorrectly adv wrongly: The envelope was incorrectly addressed.

incorrigible /in'koridʒəbl; US -'kɔ:r-/ adj (used about a person or behaviour) very bad; too bad to be corrected or improved: an incorrigible liar لا يمكن إصلاحه : راسخ، لا يمكن تغييره

- Rincrease¹/m'kri:s/verb [I,T] to become or to make sth larger in number or amount: The number of people working from home will increase steadily during the next decade. The rate of inflation has increased by 1% to 7%. My employer would like me to increase my hours of work from 25 to 30. She increased her speed to overtake the lorry. ❸ The opposite is decrease or reduce.
  - يزداد؛ يزيد increasingly /mˈkriːsɪŋli/ adv more and more: increasingly difficult, important, unhappy, etc.
- Fincrease<sup>2</sup> / mkrits/ noun [C,U] increase (in sth) a rise in the number, amount or level of sth: a steady increase in the number of people taking holidays abroad o There has been a sharp increase of nearly 50% on last year's figures. o Doctors expect some further increase in the spread of the disease. o They are demanding a large wage increase in line with inflation. The opposite is decrease or reduction.

on the increase becoming larger or more frequent; increasing: Attacks by dogs on children are on the increase.

incredible /in'kredəbl/ adj 1 amazing or fantastic; very great: He earns an incredible salary. خيالي هائل ١٤ يصلق

2 impossible or very difficult to believe: I found his account of the event incredible.

لا يصدّق ؛ يصعب تصديقه

▶ incredibly /m'kredəbli/ adv extremely: We have had some incredibly strong winds recently.
الفاية: بشكل لا يصدنى

incriminate /m'krimineit/ verb [T] to provide evidence that sb is guilty of a crime: The police searched the house but found nothing to incriminate the man.

incubate /ˈrnkjubert/ verb [I,T] 1 (used about eggs) to keep or be kept warm until the young birds come out (hatch)

2 (used about an infectious disease, etc.) to develop: Some viruses take weeks to incubate. يحضن (جرثومة): ينمو

▶ incubation /ˌɪŋkjuˈbeɪʃn/ noun 1 [U] the process of incubating eggs

2 [C] (also incubation period) the period between catching a disease and the time when signs of it (symptoms) appear incubator /ˈm̞kjubeɪtə(r)/ noun [C] 1 a heated apparatus used in hospitals for keeping small or weak babies alive

2 a similar apparatus for keeping eggs warm until they break open (hatch) حاضنة incur /m'ks:(r)/ ver b [T] (incurred; incurring) (for mal) to cause or suffer sth unpleasant as a result of your own actions: to incur debts/sb's anger.

etc.

incurable /ɪnˈkjʊərəbl/ adj not able to be cured or changed: an incurable disease

▶ incurably /-əbli/ adv: incurably ill (مريض) مرضاً عُضالاً ؛ بشكل لا شفاء منه indebted /in'detid/ adi 1 indebted to sb (for sth) (formal) very grateful to sb: I am deeply indebted to my family and friends for all their help and support.

2 (used about countries, governments, etc.) owing money to other countries or organizations: a list of the 15 most heavily indebted indecent /m'di:snt/ adj offending against accepted sexual, moral or social standards of be-غير محتشم ؛ مخلّ بالآداب ؛ بذيء haviour; not decent ▶ indecency /-nsi/ noun [C,U] (pl. indecen-قلة احتشام ؛ بذاءة ؛ تحرَّش جا cies) بشكل غير لائق ؛ دون احتشام indecently adv indecision / mdr'sr3n/ noun [U] being unable to decide: This indecision about the future is really worrying me.

indecisive / indr'saisiv/ adj (used about a person) not able to make decisions مترند بتردّد

▶ indecisively adv

- Lindeed /in'di:d/ adv 1 (used for agreeing with sth that has just been said or for emphasis) really; certainly: 'Have you had a good holiday?' 'We have indeed. نعم، حقاً ؛ بالتأكيد
  - 2 (used for emphasizing a point that has just been made) in fact: It's important that you come في الواقع ، وبالأحرى at once. Indeed, it's essential.
  - 3 (used for emphasis after 'very' plus an adjective or adverb): Thank you very much indeed. o She's very happy indeed.

(تستعمل التأكيد بمعنى "جداً" أو "الغاية")

4 (used for showing interest, surprise, anger, etc.): 'They were talking about you last night.' 'Were they indeed!' o 'Why did he go without us? 'Why indeed?'

(تستعمل للتعبير عن الاهتمام أو الدهشة وغير ذلك) تُرى لماذا؟ indefensible / mdrfensəbl/ adj (used about behaviour, etc.) completely wrong; that cannot be defended or excused شائن ؛ (تصرّف) لا يمكن تبريره

indefinable / mdrfaməbl/ adj difficult or impossible to describe: There was an indefinable atmosphere of hostility. غامض؛ يصعب وصفه

▶ indefinably /-abli/ adv بصورة غامضة ، دون سبب واضح

indefinite /m'definət/ adj not fixed or clear; not definite: Our plans are still rather indefinite.

محدّد؛ غير وأضح؛ غير نهائي ▶ indefinitely adv for an indefinite period of time (= you do not know how long it will last): The meeting was postponed indefinitely.

لأجل غير مسمى in definite 'article noun [C] (grammar) the name used for the words a and  $an \supset Look$  at def-(في القواعد) أداة التنكير inite article.

indelible /m'delabl/ adj that cannot be removed or washed out: indelible ink o (figurative) an in-لايُمحى ، لايزول delible impression

▶ indelibly /-abli/ adv بشكل لايمحى indent /m'dent/ verb [I,T] to start a line of writing further from the left-hand side of the page يترك قراغاً في بداية السطر than the other lines

- Lindependence / indipendens/ noun [U] independence (from sb/sth) (used about a person, country, etc.) the state of being free or not controlled by another person, country, etc: In 1947 India achieved independence from Britain. o The old lady refused to go into a nursing home because she didn't want to lose her independence. o financial independence 1 On Independence Day (4 July) Americans celebrate the day in 1776 when America declared itself independent from Brit-استقلال
- independent /.indr'pendent/ adj 1 independent (of sb/sth) not dependent on or controlled by another person, country, etc: Many former colonies are now independent nations. o to be independent of your parents o independent schools, television, etc. (= not dependent on the government for money)
  - 2 not needing or wanting help: My son likes travelling on his own - he's very independent for معتمد على نفسه his age.
  - 3 not influenced by or connected with sb/sth: Complaints against the police should be investigated by an independent body. o Two independent opinion polls have obtained similar results.
  - حيادي ، لا حزبي ▶ independently adv: Scientists working independently of each other have had very similar results in their experiments.

بشكل مستقل (عن بعضهم) : على انفراد

.in-'depth adj (usually before noun) very thorough and detailed: an in-depth discussion/study o We will be providing in-depth coverage of the election as the results come in. o Tonight's programme is an in-depth look at the long-term effects of unemployment. عميق؛ دقيق، مفصّل indescribable / mdr/skraibəbl/ adj too good or bad to be described: indescribable poverty, luxury, يعجز الوصف عنه

▶ indescribably /-əbli/ adv

إلى حدٍّ كبير، إلى حدٌّ لا يوصف indestructible /,indi'straktəbl/ adj that cannot be easily damaged or destroyed

لا يمكن تدميره ، لا يفني ، صامد أمام الأحداث

- lindex /'mdeks/ noun [C] 1 (pl. indexes) an alphabetical list of names or subjects at the end of
  - 2 (pl. indexes) (also 'card index) an alphabetical list of names, books, subjects, etc. written on a series of cards (index cards)

بطاقات مفهرسة ، بطاقات مرتّبة أبجدياً

- 3 (pl. indexes or indices) a way of showing how the price, value, rate, etc. of sth has changed: the cost-of-living index
- ▶ index verb [T] to make an index or include sth يفهرس: يدرج كلمة في فهرس in an index

'index finger noun [C] the finger next to your thumb that is used for pointing ( We also say forefinger. السبابة

بحنق ؛ بغضب

Indian → indistinguishable

Indian /'indian/ noun [C], adj 1 (a person) from the Republic of India: Indian food is hot and هندي

2 = Native American: The Sioux were a famous Indian tribe. 2 Look also at West Indian.

?indicate /'mdrkert/ verb 1 [T] to show or point to sth: The receptionist indicated where I should sign. o The report indicates that children are getting too little exercise. يدل أو يشير إلى

2 [T] to be or give a sign about sth: If a horse has its ears forward, that indicates that it is happy.

يدل على ، ينم عن

